Neglected History Why worry about the war in Europe, when we have so many other things about which to worry, if we just must do some worrying.

Dr. Will Durant, who knows what he talks and writes about, says "Viewed in the light of history, it makes little difference which of the belligerents in Europe win their wars.

Hollywood Sights And Sounds

HOLLYWOOD—Robert Young gave out with his final line of dialogue for the movie "Florian" and then surrendered himself into custody of Frank Borzage, who led him to the studio barber.

With Director Borzage standing by to see that the clippers and shears did exactly what he, Borzage, wanted them to do, Robert Young had a haircut. After lunch, a nearly shorn lamb, Robert Young was taken back to the Borzage sound stage and at once went to work—in Borzage's production of Phyllis Bottome's novel of modern Germany, "The Mortal Storm."

That is true of a number of other "in demand" people—in a town where the unemployed actors, if laid end to end, would reach the breadline. It is a sad and confusing situation in which one actor is overworked and a score of actors are over-ideal, but it is always the way of Hollywood and the world.

WASHINGTON—The Smith-Vinola committee investigating fumbblings of the National Labor Relations Board is hot on the trail of so-called "blackjacking" by the government.

CONGRESS WISE The major discovery of the committee was that the NLRB had agreed to hold up loans to employers whose labor relations were under examination by the labor board.

SOURCE OF OPPOSITION Whether or not it is a good idea for the government to go into these things is another question. There have been mutterings in congress that the thing has gone too far.

HOPE TO RAISE WAGES "Blackjacking" is probably a strong word to use in such business, but the idea is the same in all instances. The government may have an idea that a certain glove-maker is paying too low wages.

AN OLD IDEA As a matter of fact a somewhat modified system of governmental "blackjacking" of the states has been going on for a half century, all in the cause of better education. And the states love it.

NEW YORK—Ruth Gordon just happens to be an extraordinarily able actress, and when she steps off the stage she leaves the character she has portrayed behind her. But every time I see her or talk to her I think of a girl on the toboggan slide with Raymond Massey, and a huge rock at the foot of the slide, and a tragic, fumbling crash that did not kill but maimed them instead and left them embittered for life.

Man About Manhattan

I have seen Ruth Gordon in many plays, but for me she will always be the girl on the toboggan slide. I asked her just the other day what about that play for the movies. "No," she said, "not now. They haven't any right to film 'Ethan Frome.' It's too tragic, too morbid. No one has the right to picture or portray unhappiness in times like these.

Demaret Wins Blue Chips At St. Pete

Texan Earnings For Year Mount To $6,077

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla., Mar. 1 (AP)—A game which smiling Jimmy Demaret says he plays for fun has netted him $4,077 since January 1. That's the amount the Houston, Tex., golf professional has won on the winter circuit, and includes 700 top prize money for copying on 54-hole St. Petersburg open yesterday with a score of 211.

"When I start worrying over my net and getting mad at myself in going to give up tournament and go 'back to work,'" Demaret declared.

And the young pro demonstrated in the final round that he meant what he said about not taking the game too seriously.

Galleries stood with mouths agape as Jimmy invited anyone to step up and sink the four-foot putt that meant first money, his third consecutive links conquest and his fifth in nine tournaments this year.

Demaret and Byron Nelson, open champion, tied off the last hole, only one stroke separated them.

Nelson put his iron approach within eight feet of the cup, and Demaret, four feet from the hole.

After carefully lining up the putt Nelson sent it squarely into the hole for a birdie three, giving him 69, two under par, and a 54-hole total of 212.

"Would somebody like to sink one for me?" asked Demaret, a grin on his face at a jaunty gait. There was no response and he Texan lined it up, took his stance and stroked the ball into the cup for 71, even par, and 211.

But success doesn't impress Demaret, except that it's a lot of fun. And as long as he can keep from taking himself too seriously he will continue on a vacation from his combination job of head coach and greenskeeper at the Brae-run country club in Houston and lay tournament golf.

"I'm going down to Miami for the four-ball, then I'm heading one to go to work," he said.

ROOKIE PARADE

Usual Crop From 'Minor Minors' May Produce Few Who'll Stick

By DILLON GRAHAM Sports Editor, AP Feature Service

It's a pretty big jump from Class A, B, C or D to the major leagues and so most of the rookies going to spring training from these circuits are out for the ride—and experience.

At that, one of the biggest sensations of last year's spring drills was a kid from one of these lower leagues—Pete Reiser. They just couldn't get Pete out in the exhibition games when he was in the Brooklyn lineup. However, Reiser was sent back—as most of them will be—for further seasoning. He will be with Elmira. He's with the Dodgers again at Clearwater.

Another Elmira youngster, George W. Staller, attracted Skipper Leo Durocher's attention the other day. A left-hand hitting outfielder, Staller led the Eastern league with 336. In 1937 he batted .354 with Beatrice, Neb., and in 1938 hit .368 for Dayton. He's a likely prospect but Brooklyn has an over-abundance of flycatchers.

Many With Washington Washington has a flock of these junior leaguers. Owner Clark Griffith has kind words for Rene Montenegro, a southpaw pitcher, who won 12 for Springfield; Pitcher Walter Matherson from Charlotte, and infielders Ed Lep from Springfield and Morris Aderholt from Charlotte.

Kitts May Yet Land Job At Washington U.

Former Rice Mentor 'Sitting In Front Row,' Is Report

By FELIX B. MORNIGHT DALLAS, Mar. 1 (AP)—Silence cloaking Jimmy Kitts' movements may break out in a rash of announcements from St. Louis soon.

Washington University is without a coach. Kitts, popular deposed Rice Institute coach, is sitting on the front row, grapevines report.

Virgil (Country) Wilkerson, the picture of calmness who plays center for Southern Methodist, is a clinch to win high scoring honors in the conference race. He's 32 points in front of Bobby Moers of Texas and Frank Bryski of Rice and has one more game to go.

One of the Arkansas boys missed a recent Texas Aggie game because someone stole his basketball breeches en route from the Ozarks.

Columnist Weldon Hart's word-picture of Bobby Moers in the Austin Statesman: "I don't suppose there is another basketball player in American who can thrill a crowd like Texas' bounding Bobby Moers. Yes, I know—he loves that roar from the galleries; he likes for the spotlight to play over his sturdy, strong-legged body. You can tell that from the cocky turn of his head, his confident swagger, his sweet and innocent surprise when the referee catches him fouling. Sure, he's a cheat."

"What of it? If it takes that to play his brand of basketball, what we need around here are more busted vests!"

Jim Kerr To Report Here, He Reveals In Recent Letter

The Big Spring Barons' catcher the coming season will be Jimmy Kerr, at least that's the latest report.

When Jimmy was traded to Big Spring for Al Berndt during the winter, the general impression was that the ex-Midland skipper would not report to a Class D team again. But apparently Kerr is satisfied with the terms offered him by Tony Rego, the local maestro, has written here that he will be on hand for spring training.

Tony thinks well of Jimmy, in fact has often said he'd rather have him than any of the league's mittmen of last year. That includes Hal Summers of the Pampa club, Clovis' Dick Ratliff and Al Welland of the Amarillo Gold Sox.

The local park, with short right field fence and all, is made to order for Kerr, a long distance hitter. The husky receiver would hit many a home run over the fence that is only 269 feet from home plate.

Too, he handles his pitchers brilliantly. Tony, himself, a former catcher, is hard to please but he's sold on Jimmy, expects him to be the anchor man in the Barons' pennant drive.

Two Barons To Play In Class B Coast Loop Next Season

Kerr, who finished the season with Midland, hitting over .306, wanted to begin this season as a manager again and Tony had given him free rein in making a deal for himself but the backstop is working under a handicap. Most of the managerial jobs have already been lined up.

At any rate, he revealed in a recent letter that he felt if he played another season in Class D and had a good year, his chances for an advancement would improve. There's a crying need for catcher-managers in the game at the present time.

We hear that Claude Duffey, the Midland club's president, has cooled off to a degree on Summers, the heavyweight harness man of the Pampa outfit, but may yet make a deal for him. If Duffey passes up a chance to land Hal, then he will probably string along with Berndt.

Rego, incidentally, is letting Bobby Decker, his second sacker of last year, try and swing a deal for himself. If he succeeds in landing a job in higher company, the skipper will hand him his outright release.

At least two former Barons will open the season in the Class B Western International outfit.

Ed Bahr, the lanky pitcher who hurled a couple of one-hitters for the locals last season, will be with Wenatchee.

Lefty Janicek, who'll be but 20 years of age this season, was sold outright to Vancouver.

There's a possibility, too, that Tex Walton, the hard hitting gardener, will wind up in that circuit.

STERLING CITY, Mar. 1—Led by Leo "Bucket" Hare, who scored ten points, the Vaughn's Sweet Shop quintet of Big Spring defeated the Sterling City Independents in an exhibition basketball game here Thursday evening, 20-20.

Jake Morgan trailed Hare in scoring with three field tosses and a gratis pitch while Durwood McCright and Pat Patterson each had six points.

Foster and Sims were outstanding for Sterling.

Both teams are entered in the Sterling independent tournament, which opens in the Eagle gym Thursday, March 8.

Dallas Miler Points For A Record Try

To Run Against The Athlete That Beat Him Last Year

DALLAS, Mar. 1 (AP)—On an afternoon in May, a stocky, sandy-haired young man will break with the gun in a race he's set his heart on winning.

District meets, invitation meets, regional meets—all will come as a matter of routine, but the big moment will be at Austin when Ralph Schrimpf, Highland Park's mile runner, toes the mark in his greatest claim to athletic glory.

For three years he's pushed himself through sunshine and rain and cold with the idea he would win the mile and set a record at the Texas interscholastic league meet.

Last season he almost won it. He was nipped in the closing spurt by Murrell McElhiney of Bartlett. The time was 4:37.4. But Schrimpf had beaten that mark before. He felt he could have beaten it that day if illness had not kept him away from the track half the week of the bet.

This is the last season with Highland Park and he's in better form than ever. Yesterday he whipped out a 4:22 mile in a triangular meet and when he finished he wasn't even breathing hard.

But McElhiney is back, too. And hat's what Schrimpf wants. "I can win—I mean, I think I can win the mile and set a new record," the Dallas youngster said grimly.

The state mark is some five seconds under what Schrimpf did at Austin last year but he says he can break it.

Highland Park has most of its hopes centered in Schrimpf. It may place with its relay team but doesn't expect to win the meet.

"Guess that'll be Brady again," Schrimpf said.

Brady is the town that sent a five-man team to Austin last season and carried off top honors.

Brady is back with another strong team, favored in most quarters to repeat.

But Schrimpf isn't worried about who wins the team title.

He's thinking of that afternoon in May when he dives into the tape then looks to see what's become of McElhiney of Bartlett.

He hopes he'll look backward instead of forward.

Coahoma Faces Phillips In First Game

Championship of the Major-City basketball league will be decided in two games at the high school gymnasium Monday evening.

In a meeting at the city hall Thursday evening, the managers of the three teams eligible for the playoff—Vaughn's, Phillips and Coahoma—drew for opponents.

First round game will pit Coahoma against Phillips while Vaughn's, which was dealt a bye, will meet the survivor.

The Coahoma-Phillips setto is booked to begin at 7:30 o'clock. An exhibition game between the high school faculty team and the R-Bar Wranglers will go on at 8:30 o'clock, affording the winners of the first round game an hour's rest before the 9:30 playoff with the Vaughn's crew.

The managers will press ticket sales for the title bouts this week and hope to realize enough money to purchase a championship trophy.

Bruins Clash With Mustangs

DALLAS, March 1 (AP)—The individual scoring honor is all that remains contestable in the South-west conference basketball campaign and even that seems to be pretty well sewed up by Virgil Wilkerson of Southern Methodist university.

Tonight Wilkerson, 32 points ahead of the field, heads the Mustangs against Baylor. It will close the season for both teams.

Frank Bryski of Baylor is one of the players having a remote chance of catching up with Wilkerson.

Bobby Moers of Texas is the other. His team closes the race to-morrow night against Texas A. and M. at College Station.

Wilkerson has a total of 153 points. Bob Kinney of Rice has 139 points but his team has ended the conference season with the championship.

Missouri Seeks Big Six Title

KANSAS CITY, Mar. 1 (AP)—Missouri's Kansas-bound basketball delegation totals 13 members, but the Tigers, far from being superstitious, are confident they'll defeat the Jayhawkers at Lawrence tonight.

If they do, they will clinch their second Big Six championship under general George Edwards, who piloted the Bengals to the title in 1930 and the co-championship with Oklahoma, last season.

If Kansas wins and then defeats third-place Oklahoma March 8 the Jayhawkers become champs. In that event, Missouri would finish second.

Letty Gomez returned the compliment, telling bystanders as Fox came near:

"I don't have to see him now; I'll see enough of him this summer."

voice. "You play a pretty dangerous game, but you have the Sergeant buffeted and no one else knows about it. I'd keep out of his apartment, though. He hasn't anything valuable up there." He got up again. "I must see Mr. Kimball now."

Mary Ann followed him out of the room, leaving me, as usual, without the remotest idea of what was going on. I was very glad to be alone for a while. I took a hot shower and dressed slowly, wondering all the while what would happen next. I had just finished dressing when a knock sounded at the door and Dirk rushed in again, still very much excited.

"In a few minutes everyone will come in here," he said.

I was annoyed. "Why doesn't the Sergeant rent a hall?"

"Steady there, Chris," he said. "This is important. You don't mind, really, do you? This room is the largest. I've asked all of the people in the house to meet here."

"I'm delighted," I snapped.

But he paid no attention to me and left again, turning up about five minutes later followed by the entire household, or what remained of it. They came in like sheep, herding together uneasily. These inquiries were getting tiresome. I didn't think I could stand up under another one. Dirk was the only one who seemed to have any energy left. He walked around, drawing up chairs, his eyes darting about the room.

Mary Ann and Adriane seated themselves on the couch with James who had followed them in. He was whimpering dismally. When Sarah came in, she held him on her lap.

"Who's going to look after him now?" she asked in a loud whisper.

Everyone shivered and no one answered her.

Mr. Kimball took the large chair by the window, but he jumped up immediately when Tim Lathrop came in. He was looking a little better, though his head was still bandaged. It seemed too bad to drag the poor man in on Mrs. Evans' death. He took the chair by the window reluctantly and Mr. Kimball sat down on the stool by the fireplace.

Continued Sunday.

Already widely discussed throughout the United States, this new March of Time includes colorful scenes of Finnish ski troops and other military units in action, and emphasizes the strategy of General Karl Mannerheim, commander-in-chief of the Finnish Army.

Only Banks Will Observe Texas Independence

While Saturday, March 2, is a holiday in Texas, by proclamation of Gov. W. Lee O'Daniel, there will be little observance of the day in Big Spring other than closing of banks. Both the city's financial institutions will suspend business.

The day is Texas Independence Day—the 104th anniversary of the republic's declaration of independence from Mexico. O'Daniel, in urging Texans to consecrate themselves to build the state as its "forefathers envisioned," said in his proclamation:

"The whole structure of democracy rests upon patriotism, and the essentials of patriotism, home, morality, religion and other noble fundamentals, and

"Our state of beautiful Texas" undoubtedly has a colorful history unexcelled any place else in this world, and

"One hundred and four years ago on March 2, 1836, a group of true patriots, sincere, honest and determined, assembled in an obscure spot close to nature, and closer to God, and there wrote a declaration of independence of an oppressed and downtrodden people, and

"That declaration of independence was protected, sustained, vindicated and immortalized by supreme sacrifices x x x

"Free Texans today enjoy the fruits of that declaration of independence signed March 2, 1836, at Washington-on-the-Brazos, and should forever and eternally express gratitude."

Mrs. Ellen Lawson Has 73rd Birthday Anniversary Today; Plans To Have Open House On Sunday For Family

Today is Mrs. Ellen Lawson's birthday anniversary, her 73rd one, but the chances are she won't be doing much in the way of celebration unless it is to start another quilt.

Mrs. Lawson has been ill and confined to her home for the past few days but the family is planning to hold a reunion and open house for her on Sunday when most of the children will be present.

Piecing quilts is her hobby and one that she has enjoyed for many years and although she insists she hasn't very many quilts, it takes several large boxes to hold them all.

With her eyesight keen, she designs her own patterns and color schemes. But rather than making them to sell or keep, she gives them away to her 28 grandchildren and 19 great-grandchildren or maybe some of her eight own children.

Mrs. Lawson has resided in Big Spring for about 11 years, coming here from Ladamee. She lives with her sons, Elbert and Clyde Lawson in the airport addition. She was born in Missouri in 1866 but came to Texas with her parents when an infant to where her grandparents lived in Fannin county.

On her birthday anniversary and thinking back Mrs. Lawson believes she owes her long life to living on a farm where she worked hard and was out-of-doors. In fact she declares that she wishes that she could live on one now "where neighbors stay long enough to get acquainted."

Her children are Osa Lawson, Mrs. Jim Reeves, Will Lawson of Seymour, Clyde and Elbert Lawson, Mrs. Bitte Cunningham, all of Big Spring, Mrs. J. M. Kindrick of Knott and Mrs. J. W. Tickle of Colorado City.

For a long and happy life, Mrs. Lawson recommends keeping busy and being up and doing things.

MISS LANCIOUS NOTES
By Mary Whaley

Ordinarily we are pretty healthy but this time of year an incurable disease that we contracted years ago revives itself and we really are in its clutches—it is called spring fever.

There is no cure that we know of and no way of knowing when it will occur; but we can usually look for it about now and to date have never been disappointed.

We have the type of fever that makes us see fishing poles and swimming pools in front of our eyes and no matter what we do to push them aside, the vision lingers.

Another form it takes is a fear of getting inside a building. The great outdoors is our one love and we have to talk pretty nasty to ourselves when we get to a door and don't want to go inside. It takes several insults to our intelligence and personality before the good part of us wins out and we dash into the typewriter.

Another form our fever takes is a growing interest in travel pamphlets and road maps. We spend hours tracing our route from here to most any place and mentally we've got our bags packed and ticket in hand.

"See America First" the pamphlets urge or "Travel in Old Mexico." The flesh and spirit both are willing but that cautious part in our makeup that keeps us from having any fun was a warning finger and we just sign forlornly.

The only way we can remedy our disease is to let it wear itself out with the advent of cold weather and it will be a long time until that comes again, we fear. But in the meantime we have to keep reminding people that we are really sick with a fever—spring fever.
