

LAST SAFETY QUESTIONS ARE LISTED TODAY

The last series of questions submitted on the Safety Week contests for school children appear in the advertising columns of today's Herald.

Bank Slaying Still Cloaked In Mystery

LORENZO, April 30 (AP)—Lorenzo's will-o'-the-wisp bandit-killer still was at large today, with $6,000 in rewards hanging over his head.

Immediately after the slaying there were leads to follow, but so far they have led to "dead-ends."

At 10 minutes to 1 o'clock the cashier was seen on the street. Seven minutes later he was found with his throat cut and gashes on his head, right wrist and right hand in the bank vault.

Persons sat across the street, but saw no suspicious activity, no one leaving the bank and no car driving away and no sounds of movement from the bank.

A $5,000 reward of the Texas Bankers' Association is given to any person killing a bank robber. That reward, however, bankers said, would ordinarily be won by someone surprising robbers in the act.

A. W. Miller, of Amarillo, FBI investigator, directing the federal phase of the case. Capt. W. W. Legge of the State Highway Patrol and several of his men, rangers, members of the Lubbock police and sheriff departments, and law enforcement officers of other towns of the area have come here to aid in the investigation.

Berlin Stores To Sell Spinach Only

BERLIN, April 30 (AP)—For the first time in Berlin's history grocery stores will open on Ascension Day, Thursday, to sell spinach and only spinach.

An official notice published today said several carloads of spinach are due from abroad.

Grocers were ordered to go to the central municipal market at 6 a. m. on Thursday, a legal holiday, and then to sell their allotments to the retail trade. The stores may keep open for no other purpose.

POSEY REMOVED TO BIG SPRING HOSPITAL

L. H. Posey, 613 W. 17th, is at Big Spring hospital where he was brought from a Midland hospital for treatment of a broken arm and cuts about the face. He received the injuries Sunday in a car accident near Midland. He is manager of Lincoln Tank company. His wife and children who were riding with him were bruised but not seriously hurt.

FDR - Garner Factions In Texas Agree On Plan Of Convention 'Harmony'

AUSTIN, April 30 (AP)—A peace program was agreed upon today by leaders in the Roosevelt and Garner factions who had been secondarily control of the Texas delegation to the national democratic convention.

It was agreed that the delegation would be instructed for Garner, that the Roosevelt-Garner administration would be endorsed and that the delegation would not participate in any stop-Roosevelt movement.

The agreement was reached at a conference of political leaders meeting in Austin.

Majority Democratic Leader Sam Rayburn and Rep. Lyndon B. Johnson, both of Texas, were informed of the action in telegrams by Myron G. Blalock, state chairman of the Garner-for-president forces, and A. J. Wirtz, undersecretary of the interior and a leader of a group which has been urging renomination of Mr. Roosevelt.

The "peace" plan had been suggested by Rayburn and Johnson who previously had called on the president.

The first real test of strength between the factions would have been next Saturday when precinct conventions would have started the process of selecting the delegation.

"I have your telegram and agree with you," Blalock's telegram said. "Our organization advocates a three-point program as follows: "One: a strong endorsement of the Roosevelt-Garner administration."

"Two: An instruction to the Texas delegation to work and vote as a unit at Chicago for the nomination of our great fellow Texan—John Nance Garner for president."

"Three: The selection of a Texas delegation composed of a strong and representative group of Texas democrats, both men and women, to carry out this program, and not to serve as a stop-Roosevelt movement."

"Have conferred with Mr. Wirtz and we are in accord on this program."

The state democratic executive committee overwhelmingly endorsed Mr. Garner for president at its meeting March. The Garner forces had had a Texas organization for several months prior to that date.

Shortly after the state committee meeting, the Roosevelt for third term advocates got busy. A skeleton organization was formed here with Mayor Tom Miller of Austin as chairman. The group soon branched out and named Lieutenants in Dallas, Houston, Waco and other cities.

Garner leaders took the position that Mr. Roosevelt was not a candidate and the Texas delegation therefore should be instructed for Mr. Garner as it was in 1932. The vice president, they contended, was an important part of the Roosevelt administration and had contributed substantially to its accomplishments.

"Draft Roosevelt" chiefs argued that a Texas convention instruction for Mr. Garner would be interpreted as a slap at the president. They said the Garner campaign in other states took the form of a "Stop Roosevelt" movement.

Bowlers Off To Detroit

Adding color to the quintet, already clad in club shirts and 10-gallon hats, was a supply of West Texas horned toads, to be given as souvenirs by the group upon arrival at the national tournament.

The toads were gathered for the bowlers by Boy Scouts of troop 7 and will be used to further publicize the appearance of local bowlers at Detroit.

In the party were Earl Blakey, Gus Hepper, Jake Douglas, Jimmie Eason and Harry Hoekendorf, the team which little more than a week ago routed opposition in the Permian Basin tournament at Midland.

Jake Douglas, in charge of the team, said that the trip would require about 10 days. They plan to in Detroit only two days.

FREE VACCINATIONS STILL AVAILABLE

A renewed appeal from city officials for everyone to be vaccinated against smallpox came Tuesday, as arrangements were made to continue vaccination services at the city's free clinic for those who cannot afford to pay.

The clinic will be open for service from 9 a. m. to 5 p. m. each day this week. City authorities said the service is there, but must be used if there is to be concerted action toward stamping out smallpox.

TROOP REORGANIZED

Scout troop 11 at Merrick school in Martin county has been reorganized under the direction of J. R. Flaunigan, formerly of Big Spring. First meeting will be held Wednesday evening. In Big Spring a new cub pack is being set up under J. R. Houth, West Ward head teacher.

More Speakers And Bands For WTCC Meet

Local Registration Drive To Be Staged On Thursday

My Home Town speaking contest entrants led the preparations parade for the West Texas Chamber of Commerce convention here Tuesday.

Other Entries Judge C. M. Caldwell, Abilene, perennial chairman of the activity, gave convention headquarters the impression in a letter Tuesday that he had entries from Idalou, Brownwood, Mineral Wells, Munday, and Breckenridge. If this is borne out in reports to follow, the entry list now stands at 52, only 20 under the record total set at Abilene last year.

Seminole, already listed, announced that Bobby Gene Estep would be its Home Town speaker.

Forsan became the 17th band to enter the convention picture by sending in its entry blank Tuesday to Max Bentley, convention manager. Already more than 500 young musicians are to be on hand.

Jake Douglas, parade and decorations chairman, said as he left town for Detroit Tuesday that Burke Summers had been named vice-chairman and would supervise the work of the committee in making plans to cooperate with the official decorator for the convention.

"Big push" of the local registration campaign was set for Thursday at 9 a. m. under the direction of R. E. McEwen, registration chairman. Joe Pond, who is directing out-of-town registrations, was getting out letters to all WTCC members in the area urging them to make early reservations.

Local chamber officials, sensing a large attendance at the convention, renewed its appeal to local home owners who will have rooms available for rent during the convention to list them with the chamber office.

D. M. Wiggins, president of the Texas School of Mines at El Paso, notified headquarters that he was planning to be in Big Spring for at least a portion of the WTCC program. From Pecos came an announcement by Capt. M. L. Swinehart, manager of the chamber of commerce in that city, that at least 20 Boy Scouts would be furnished for the All-Youth parade.

Boys To Vie In Marble Games

Schoolboys all over Big Spring were limbering their knuckles Tuesday in preparation for the first city-wide marble tournament ever staged here.

Officials of the Kiwanis club, sponsor of the unique tournament, announced arrival of trophies, medals and sweater shields along with other tournament prizes including several hundred marbles. The awards are on display in the Woolworth window.

Walter Wilson, chairman of the club's boys and girls committee, said that he expected record eliminations to get underway the latter part of this week and that perhaps these would be decided in time for a inter-school tournament to pick school champions.

Following that move, dates will be set for the city-wide tournament with the various school champions participating.

To the winner will go a gold statuette of a boy kneeling, knuckles to the ground, ready for a shot at the ring. Runner-up will get a gold medal and the third place boy will draw a silver medal. Others get bronze medals and sweater shields, which like Olympic emblems, will go to school champions.

Physical education department of the Big Spring schools is cooperating in the program, making the tournament one of the spring projects in P. E. Every boy who can shoot marbles will have a chance at the title, and all play will be under a "prov" national tournament rules and with taut and ring marbles of prescribed size.

NEW POSTING HOURS ON LOCAL AIRMAIL

Change in schedules of American Airlines planes stopping here results in new posting hours for airmail, it was announced Tuesday by Postmaster Nat Shick.

The postoffice will handle airmail posted up to 6:04 p. m. and westbound mail for the plane may be posted up to 6:53 p. m.

FORD ORDERED TO REINSTATE WORKERS

WASHINGTON, April 30 (AP)—The labor board ruled today that the Ford Motor company had violated the Wagner act at its St. Louis plant and ordered the company to reinstate with back pay 94 employees who participated in a strike in 1937.

The board also ordered the company to bargain upon request with CIO's United Auto Workers union as the exclusive representative of the St. Louis plant employees.

In addition, the company was ordered to disestablish the St. Louis division of the Liberty Legion of America, Inc. The company, the board declared, had "dominated and interfered" with the formation and administration of the Liberty Legion.

CCC ENROLLEE DIES IN FOREST FIRE

ALAMOGORDO, N. M., April 30 (AP)—Patrol crews today mopped up and guarded fire lines around a 300-acre blaze in Lincoln National Forest in which Jay Vaughn Paris, 18, a CCC enrollee from Coalgate, Tex., was burned to death.

Paris' body was found in a burned-over area yesterday. He had been missing since Sunday night.

CONTROL OF SOUTHERN NORWAY TO NAZIS—Report of the capture of Dombas, strategic railway center, by Nazi invaders, gave rise to the observation that Hitler's forces now control southern Norway. The drive on Dombas was made by way of the Hjerkins railway station (1), and Storen (2) also fell into German hands. Thus the Allied forces were menaced by a pincers action. Another German force had reached Toros (3) and was digging in for battle. To reach Hjerkins the German force pushed over a narrow mountain road from Alvdal (4). The German advance was reported to have stalled at Kvam (5). Arrows show comparative length of foes' thrusts.

Wage & Hour Change Voted

WASHINGTON, April 30 (AP)—Tentative acceptance of an amendment loosening maximum hours provisions for salaried workers is expected today in the wage-hour law.

The proposal, by Rep. Hoffman (R-Mich.), was approved 74 to 38 late yesterday without concerted opposition. Foes may have chances to demand reconsideration later this week.

The amendment would remove the requirement that time-and-a-half must be paid for work in excess of 42 hours a week, but would provide that in a 26 week period the average work week could not exceed that maximum unless overtime was paid.

It would apply only to persons who have worked in an office or plant for at least six months on a regular salary.

SHOT TO DEATH IDALOU, April 30 (AP)—John L. Yarbrough, about 55, was found shot to death this morning at his farm home three miles west of Idalou.

Houses Razed By Tornado

ALEXANDRIA, La., April 30 (AP)—A hundred houses were destroyed and one negro killed by tornado winds which last night whipped down over 200 inhabitants 50 miles southeast of Alexandria.

The town was struck shortly before midnight. Gurvey Jeannonne, a store clerk at Moreauville, nine miles from Bordelonville, said only a few houses were left standing.

Except for the negro, he said, the residents escaped with only minor hurts and scratches.

Some of the buildings, ripped from their foundations, were hurled into the bayou.

At the same time high winds and heavy rains swept half the state, flooding city streets and streams.

Reports here said another terrific wind descended upon Angola, La., site of the state penitentiary but no estimate was obtained on the damage believed inflicted there.

Illinois Row Is Before Solons

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., April 30 (AP)—Members of the legislature gathered today for a special session which may determine whether Governor Henry Horner or Lieut. Gov. John Steele is the chief executive of Illinois.

The unprecedented situation arose when Steele proclaimed himself acting governor on the eve of the recent primary election in which he was defeated for the democratic nomination for governor.

He contended Governor Horner was incapable of handling his job because of illness and that a "bedside cabinet" of advisers had "usurped" the governorship.

Governor Horner has been conceding since the fall of 1938 when he suffered extreme fatigue. He has visited his capitol office three times in 18 months.

Steele based his proclamation on the state constitution which empowers the lieutenant governor to assume the duties of chief executive if the governor is disabled.

State department heads have not recognized Steele's claim and Governor Horner, denying he was incapable of performing his duties, has vowed he would finish his second term this year before retiring. The governor attributed Steele's action to political intrigue.

NEWS GATHERERS ARE HONORED IN PLACQUE

NEW YORK, April 30 (AP)—Dedicated by Nelson A. Rockefeller, president of Rockefeller Center, as symbolizing "the greatest press association on the face of this troubled earth," the 10-ton stainless steel plaque over the main entrance of the Associated Press building was unveiled yesterday by Kent Cooper, general manager of the AP.

In modernistic form, the giant plaque depicts the collection and distribution of world-wide news—the teletype operator who transmits stories to newspapers everywhere, the editor, reporter, photographer, and the wirephoto operator who transmits photos by wire simultaneously with news transmission.

Forces Close Gap, Capture Important Rail Junctions; Allies May Be Cut Off

By The Associated Press. The southern half of Norway apparently was falling today like a ripe plum into the hands of the German invaders.

Official announcements in Berlin reported two important successes. They said: 1. The Nazi expeditionary force has bridged the last gap between its columns moving north and northwest from Oslo and south from Trondheim.

2. Dombas, vital railroad junction 160 miles south of Nazi-held Trondheim, has been captured by the Germans.

There were no details in Berlin on the reported seizure of Dombas, where allied forces had tried to stop the German steamroller in several days of heavy fighting.

The meeting of the two Nazi columns was southwest of Storen, another vital railroad junction about 80 miles north of Dombas.

Adolf Hitler prepared a special order of the day to praise the German soldiers who established the connection, driving back allied forces which apparently were unable to cope with the Nazi power despite the arrival of reinforcements.

Although the German line evidently is long as thin, it means that Nazi forces have laid down a front to defend their hold on southern Norway—the important part of the invaded kingdom.

It means that the Germans are in position to isolate allied forces which advanced inland from the coast to try to stem the lightning Nazi drive toward Trondheim.

It means that the Germans have attained a strategic hold on communications and have turned the tables on the allies' effort to cut off Trondheim from the Norwegian interior with forces moving north along the seaboard from Andalsnes and south from Namsos.

Prime Minister Chamberlain told the house of commons he considered it contrary to the public interest to make any statement on the British campaign in Norway.

The admiralty, however, disclosed that two submarines—the 1,000-ton Turgen and 675-ton Sterling—were overdue and must be regarded lost. Their combined crews normally would have totalled 93, thus raising Britain's loss of life in submarines to 188 since the war began.

They were the sixth and seventh lost of the 57 undersea craft Britain had at the beginning of the war.

The admiralty also announced that two trawlers had been sunk but said there was no loss of life aboard either one.

British warplanes, patrolling the Norwegian west coast and engaging German bombers in numerous air battles, were reported authoritatively to have shot down two Nazi planes.

Although the report that Storen had been captured was not confirmed officially in London, informants conceded that the allies were under heavy pressure in that sector.

A brief German communique said the land contact had been made southwest of Storen between Nazi troops "advancing north from Oslo by way of Tyndset and south from Trondheim."

The German high command communique earlier had reported advances all along the line toward Dombas.

The prime importance of Storen is acknowledged in London. The railroad lines through the Gudbrands and Oster valleys—along which the Germans are driving north of Oslo—merge there and run as one to Nazi-held Trondheim.

On other Norwegian fronts, the German communique reported: Rapid progress toward Bergen, on the southwest coast; Heavy air attacks on allied positions in the Namsos and Andalsnes regions, flanking Trondheim on the north and south, with six ships sunk or severely damaged and bases set afire.

Two or three "enemy submarines" victims of the German U-boat hunt in the Skagerrak and Paltgat.

Reports of extensive air battles in Norway, which one source described as the greatest in history, held the French war ministry's attention as developments on the western front remained at a virtual standstill.

An authoritative British source said that two German planes were damaged in battles with British aircraft off the Norwegian coast.

US STEEL REPORTS HIGHER INCOME

NEW YORK, April 30 (AP)—United States Steel Corp. reported today earnings for the first three months of this year were $17,113,496, compared with $660,561 in the like 1939 quarter.

These earnings are equal to $124 a common share compared with 19 cents a preferred share in the first quarter of 1939.

THREE ESCAPE JAIL

SAN SABA, April 30 (AP)—Three prisoners—principal defendants in the current district court docket here—sawed rivets from the door of their cell and cut two iron bars in a window to escape jail last night.

Nazis Carry Exceptional Equipment

By GUNNAR KNUTSSON ON THE STEINKJER FRONT, Norway, April 30 (AP)—German troops have tried all manner of ruses to get through the Norwegian lines, sometimes dressing themselves in Norwegian peasant costumes in attempts to slip past allied guards.

A few, but not many, have been captured, according to allied officers here. On the way to the front I passed one of these unusual fighting fronts, and the first impression is that the German soldiers must be regarded as individual assassins, as well as army troops.

At the moment only sharp patrolling activity occurs here, but the rough, forested area of the so-called Steinkjer front is being gradually developed into a battle area.

Valuable silver foxes occasionally can be seen fleeing the sound of their "hunters" on this unusual fighting front, and the first impression is that the German soldiers must be regarded as individual assassins, as well as army troops.

Part of the grim humor of the war is the plan of many soldiers to trap the foxes so that they may take the pelts home to their wives and sweethearts.

This planning is always with the confidence that they will get home.

Carey Sees A 'Great Crisis'

WASHINGTON, April 30 (AP)—W. Gibson Carey, Jr., president of the United States Chamber of Commerce, called on business men and others today to meet "a great crisis" by campaigning for an end to federal policies which he said were undermining American institutions.

In an address prepared for the annual meeting of the chamber, the New York manufacturer sounded the alarm, "Build America!"

He said that the nation's great need was sound leadership in government, and added that in the past business men had failed in the field of citizenship.

"For the future, however, through our activity and that of others, we as a people must see that we effect corrections," Carey continued. "Here are those which seem most fundamental:

"Carefully but surely, we must reduce federal expenditures and balance our national budget, including our vast federal corporations.

"Then we must begin paying our debt.

"In due course, we should further encourage productivity and the full use of our resources by reducing taxes, which are a first charge on the standard of living of every citizen, because they inevitably are reflected in prices.

"As we release the present restrictions on business, substitute clear laws, applying alike to all men, for the dictates of unrestrained administrative agencies and reinstate good will and cooperation, we shall develop new industry, improve our present products and give to our people, through lower prices, more real purchasing power.

Then we may once again have good jobs for all those who want to work."

DRIVING CHARGES

Two persons, a man and a woman, were held in the city jail Tuesday on driving charges. They were taken into custody at a road rate times Monday evening.

JAMESON AND CHANDLER ARE CO-MEDALISTS AT DALLAS

FAVORITES MAY MEET IN THE LAST ROUND

DALLAS, April 30 (AP)—Tailored by the draw to fit a final match critics predicted from the outset — National Champion Betty Jameson vs. Mrs. Dan Chandler — match play started in the Women's Texas Golf association today with little first round excitement.

Heart-hearted Betty, whose coolness matches her great shots, and Mrs. Chandler, the Dallas matron who gave her state laurels over to Betty four years ago, started teeing-off in the qualifying round yesterday.

Over rain-soaked Brook Follow the two favorites shot two under women's par, only six over men's par, to rack up 79 and tie for the medal. Luck of the draw threw Miss Jameson at the helm of the top bracket; Mrs. Chandler on top of the lower bracket.

Six strokes behind at 82 came Mrs. E. H. Hury of San Antonio in third place. The powerful blonde melted her chances for medalist on the 375-yard fifth hole when her third shot hit the middle of the green and skittered into a deep trap. Four times she burrowed in the sand before finally getting out, winding up with a nine.

Mrs. Franklin Goldthwaite of Fort Worth, the former U. S. Curtis Cup player, who stroked a 73 in a practice round, started badly and ended with an 83, two shots ahead of Kay Pearson of Houston.

Not the stars already established, but two contenders on the way up — Miss Jo Henson, of Paris, and Mrs. C. B. Kindred of Dallas — were down for the first round feature match. Miss Henson was ragged with an 85 in qualifying while Mrs. Kindred played her shots over her normal game at 94. Both, however, are match players and their collision in the first round was easily the top match.

Hubbers Lose Again, 19-16

Lubbock, April 30—The Lubbock Hubbers raised the offerings of two Pampa hitters for a total of 18 base hits, but were defeated, 19-16, their sixth reversal in seven WT-NM league starts, here Monday night.

Schlietz homered for the Hubs in the fourth inning.

Akey To Set Dates On City Golf Tournament Within Few Days

Harold Akey, the Mundy golf course's professional, will set the dates for his annual city tournament within the next four or five days, may also have something definite on the course's second invitational meeting, usually played in late summer.

The Big Spring Women's Golf association will make no definite plans until after the West Texas women's invitational in June. According to Mrs. Harry Stalcup, a prominent local delegation will be sent to the West Texas meeting.

Barring further unfavorable weather, Akey reports the municipal natatorium will definitely open Sunday.

If bought this week, a savings may be made on the season swim tickets. The tickets, good for the duration of the swim season, may be obtained for $30, adult, $4, children under 15 years of age, or $18, man and wife. Regular list price is $12.50, adult, $3, children, and $22.50, man and wife.

Similar reductions may be made on combination swimming and golfing tickets.

Akey may be contacted at the Mundy course's club house.

The Douglas hotel bowling team, which showed off this morning for the ABC tournament in Detroit, carried along a hundred earned runs, to be given away as souvenirs in the Motor city.

Engle, In Search Of New Punch, Tries Out 3rd Catcher In Week

Charles Engle, Lubbock's baseball skipper, is trying out his third catcher since the season got underway last week.

He opened with Cominsky, then switched to Reynolds, finally Hal Richards, who had seen service with Longview, was obtained.

The Hubbers, who have dropped six games in seven starts, are hitting well enough but their pitching is not up to par.

Hack Harrison, one of the league's better hitters in 1939, wasn't able to start the season with the Clovis Pioneers due to a long-illness but will return to action soon. His younger brother, C. Harrison, is filling in for him at second base.

Chasley Morgan, who was under contract here for a while in 1939 and who formerly lived here, is on a five-day tour in the Clovis camp but hasn't pitched yet.

Donald Fritz, who was signed in this circuit both in 1938 and '39, is calling 'em in the Pony league this year, according to his former running mate, Dave Smith, who is now teamed with Earl Cartwright.

Most feared band of slingers in league competition at the moment are the Berger Gamblers, who have made a total of 89 runs in their last three games.

AMERICAN LEAGUE STAGING NATIONAL'S KIND OF FIGHT

By JUDSON BAILEY
Associated Press Sports Writer

This is just a random thought on April 30 that might not bear inspection September 30—but wouldn't it be funny if this year the American league had one of those raging three-or-four way battles right through the season and the National league chase developed into a runaway?

Right now the American league lead is held jointly by the Cleveland Indians and Boston Red Sox with the Detroit Tigers scrambling just a game behind. In the senior circuit the Brooklyn Dodgers are far out in front with eight victories and no defeats.

The New York Yankees have been making a farce of the American league pennant maneuvering for years, and they are sure to be a potent force again, but every sign points to a real route battle this year. . . . No other team is capable of supplanting them without a dog-fight.

The Indians followed Bobby Feller off the trail at Detroit again yesterday, 4-3, and lost their exclusive hold on the league lead. Feller pitched six-hit ball and struck out six, but allowed six walks in a throw back to his old weakness. Two of these passes and a hit batsman filled the bases in the eighth and Feller walked another to force in the winning run.

The Boston Red Sox set off a 19-hit bombardment that rattled the Philadelphia Athletics 11-3 and emphasized their claims as the hitting leaders of the junior circuit.

The Yankees enfold their three-game losing streak and Washington's five game winning string with a 5-4 triumph over the Senators due to the pitching of Spud Chandler and the three hits of Catcher Buddy Roser, who singled home the winning run in the ninth.

The St. Louis Cardinals crowded past the Chicago Cubs 9-5 in 10 innings in a game that had 25 hits including two home runs for each side.

These were yesterday's only games. The eastern teams of the National League will open their western swing today and the American league scenery will be shifted to the east.

Dit, Royal Man And Pictor Ceded Chance

Bimelech Gains Additional Backing, However

By SID FEDER
LOUISVILLE, Ky., April 30 (AP)—A horse is holding the mortgage on derby town this week.

Yes, sir, it's an old fashioned molder-drummer of the bluegrass with Bimelech the dashing hero of the piece. If Bimelech doesn't come walking home Saturday in the Kentucky Derby it's not going to be funny to the hardboots. There'll be a lot of folks going to the cleaners in this case, for the hardboots have gone for the Lexington hulu with both barrels.

They've been digging into the sock and are betting him at a three-day price, because they expect he won't pay 40 cents on the dollar, tops, on derby day. And even that price, after a quick look at the field he'll have to face, is a right fair bargain.

For, there's nothing in the run for the roses, or, for that matter, in the $2,500 added derby trial mile today, which figures even to make the Bradley ace take his hair down.

Some 15 derby eligibles are in the stables along the backstretch of this picturesque racing plant. Only a dozen of these are even given an outside chance of getting to the post Saturday. It more likely will be eight or nine.

And of these, only four are even talked of for second money. This quartet is made up of the Maryland stud-ace, W. L. Brann's Pictor; the south's aloof-stepper, Royal Man, purchased over the winter by Harold Clark of Miami Beach; Arnold Hanger's Dit, a shoo-in winner in last Saturday's Wood Memorial, and the California glamour-boy, Meliand.

No where around the hotel lobbies does anyone give any of these a look-in for better than second money. That's how much this 66th running of the mile-and-a-quarter class is the "best Bimelech derby."

And only one of these four, Royal Man, is going to try to do it in today's one mile trial.

Bryant Goes To Hospital

CHICAGO, April 30 (AP)—Pitcher Clay Bryant's number is up if he can't get rid of that sore arm.

The lanky right-hander of the Chicago Cubs went to the hospital yesterday and had his tonsils yanked in his latest attempt to find a remedy for the weak flipper.

Bryant won 19 games for the pennant-winning Cubs in 1938 but has been just a name on the payroll since. A sore arm cut him down last spring and has had him down since. He pitched 31 innings last summer, winning two games and losing one. This spring he appeared in one exhibition game, then complained of a recurrence of the ailment.

Cub Owner Phil Wrigley said that if the tonsillectomy failed to help Bryant "we'll give him all the attention possible to find out what's the matter."

"Manager (Gabby) Hartnett and I agree," he added, "that when he has a ball player he can't use we'll either straighten out the difficulty or get rid of the player."

This is a mighty important, not only to the ball club but also to Clay, for his livelihood is involved. We'll give him all the medical attention and examination possible to find out what the trouble is."

Bufs Retain League Lead

By the Associated Press

The Texas League race bears every promise of being one of those knock-down, drag-out affairs where every team stays in the championship hunt right down to the wire.

The campaign, now in its third week, generally has been marked by games in which one or two runs tell the story.

Last night, eight games were played and only 30 tallies were scored in all. The nearest thing to a runaway was Tulsa's 5-0 shutout of San Antonio in the nightcap of their doubleheader, a low that pushed the Mission close to runner-up Houston which swept a double bill with Dallas, 3-0 and 7-4.

San Antonio took the first from Tulsa 5-3 to stay a half game in front.

Oklahoma City, which has come from nowhere to a challenging position, split with Shreveport, taking the first 4-3 and dropping the second 1-0.

Beaumont beat Fort Worth 4-3 but lost the second, also by a 4-2.

Sportsmen Prepare For First Day Of Fishing Season

Several Parties To Leave For Holiday Wed.

Many local sportsmen were dedicating today to completing plans toward their first fishing trips of the season.

Open season of Texas bass and crappie begins at midnight. Wednesday will find Big Spring people at widely scattered points in search of the water beauties.

C. Williams and Joe Carter will shove off Wednesday for a three-day stay on the Concho river south of Angelo.

O. R. Hull and W. C. Everett intend to leave sometime this week for Angelo and the waters of the Concho.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Hayes and Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Hodnett intend to depart Wednesday for Devil's River lake and will be gone ten days or more.

To the Concho waters will go E. L. K. Rice and James Noble who will remain until they gain reward for the trip.

L. Y. Moore and son left today for Red Bluff dam, 38 miles north of Pecos.

John A. Magee and E. T. Stewart will head a party toward Red Bluff for a three day stay.

Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Rogers have shoved off for Devil's River lake. Roy Robinson is planning to trek all the way to Colorado to try his luck.

Others will invade Lake Sweetwater.

At Red Bluff, the water was reported low and clear and the outlook for bass especially promising.

At Lake Brownwood, nine miles north of Brownwood, fishing prospects were good if the wind drops. Bass, cat and crappie were reported plentiful.

At Kemp, 14 miles north of Seymour, water was at the lowest level in recent history and the outlook was good.

The Hill Country streams were generally reported bankful but clearing after recent rains.

More than 200,000 men, women and children are expected to manage for a holiday with the official opening.

Local business houses which specialize in fishing equipment reported a sharp upturn in business.

Sportsmen are urged to inquire as to county fishing laws since the season is closed in several until after June 1.

PIONEERS TO PLAY AGAIN TONIGHT

Taking full advantage of Baron errors in the late innings, the Clovis Pioneers decided the Big Spring club, 10-3, before a ladies night crowd of 1,200 fans here Monday evening.

Johany McPartland, lanky left-hander who won his first start last week, sailed through six innings in grand style and boasted the advantage over his mound foe, Roscoe Hunt, going into the seventh but the bottom fell out in that heat and the Pioneers assumed the lead.

Hunt had trouble in the first three innings but settled after that and kept the Big Springers within bounds. He gave up but six hits over the route.

The invaders collected a total of ten assorted blows off the offerings of McPartland and his successor, Buck Schulze, who took over in the midst of a five-run rebellion in the eighth. Dick Adkins was the big gun, collecting a triple, two doubles and a single and driving in a total of five runs.

Leo Jones gave Big Spring the lead in the initial round when he got credit for an infield single, went to second on Adkins' lead throw to first, stole third and romped home on Snooks Carroll's power-house drive into left field.

Two innings later the homelings had another tally when Jones singled through second and galloped the remainder of the route on Bill Scopetime's mighty triple.

After Hunt had counted on Adkins' drive in the sixth the Barons added another when Eldon Muratore's single brought in Charles Correll from the keystones.

Successive errors by Augie Benites and Jones in the seventh led to three Clovis runs.

In the eighth the Baron defense crumbled completely and the Pioneers chased in five runs to sew up the decision.

The two teams play here again tonight at 8:30, then close out the series Wednesday evening with a single game. The Barons open a nine day road trip Thursday.

BOTH LEADERS IN TEXAS LOOP LOSE

By the Associated Press

This Longview team in the East Texas league play "fighting" baseball.

Manager Tex Jones was tossed out of action recently for raising a ruckus with the umpire.

Last night second baseman Wyman Hunnicutt got himself in the dog house for allegedly grabbing Umpire Tom Estell and giving him a shaking when he called a close one.

As a result of the decision Palesini beat the Texans 12-11.

Estell said he would recommend suspension of Hunnicutt and also suggest he be fined.

Marshall beat Kilgore 4-2 but the Boomers retained undisputed first place because of Longview's defeat.

Tyler broke an eight-game losing streak with a 6-2 decision over Jacksonville and Henderson beat Texarkana 7-3.

Illness Fatal To Aged Man

Long illness ended in death, Monday evening, for G. D. Jones, 79-year-old pioneer resident of Texas, who succumbed in a local hospital at 5:30 p. m. Mr. Jones, who had been living here with his son, W. E. Jones, for a short time, had been in failing health for some months. He suffered almost total loss of eyesight several years ago.

The son is manager of the mattress factory at the Big Spring State hospital.

The body was to be taken overland Tuesday evening to the Redland church, near Dallas, where funeral services will be held at 2 o'clock Wednesday afternoon. Nalley Funeral home is in charge of arrangements.

Besides the son here, Mr. Jones is survived by his wife, Mrs. Emma E. Jones of Dallas, to whom he was married more than 55 years ago; and four other children, E. J. Jones of Dallas, Alva D. Jones of Lakeport, Miss. Mrs. Elsie Counts of Mineola, and Mrs. George Johnson of Sweetwater. There are also several grandchildren.

Mr. Jones native of Alabama, had resided in Texas 55 years.

IN MUSICAL ROMANCE—Announced as a blend of romance and comedy with colorful dance revues, Universal's film, "Mal' He's Making Eyes at Me," is the feature for today and Wednesday at the Ritz theatre. Tom Brown, as a live-wire young press agent with a million ideas, and Constance Moore as the pretty Broadway model who becomes the sensation of the hour, share romantic honors in the swiftly paced screenplay.

MARKETS Wall Street

NEW YORK, April 30 (AP)—Stock market leaders displayed slight recovery leanings during the greater part of today's session, but most backed away in the final hour.

Wall Street seemed to work up a little more gloom as the result of the latest reported allied reverses in Norway. Early quiet buying was attributed mainly to domestic business hopefulness inspired by numerous first quarter earnings statements.

Dealings were negligible from the start, but expanded a bit when last-minute selling came into the list. Transfers were around 600,000 shares.

Knitters Doing Quality Work

Quality work is being turned out by local women volunteering to knit for the Red Cross in its refugee relief project. Mrs. G. G. Sawtelle, instructor, reported Tuesday.

Many sweaters for children have been completed in a variety of yarn colors and the work is exceptionally good. In addition, women are turning out helmets, socks, caps, and sweaters for adults. The shipment will be made June 1 and garments will be used to aid war victims sufferers, possibly those in Finland.

Mrs. Sawtelle was gratified at the amount and quality of work being done, but there exists a definite need for more women to join in the knitting project. Those interested should visit the classroom on the Settles mezzanine on Tuesday or Friday mornings.

Book Review Given For Council Of Church Women Monday Afternoon

Sisterhood Is In Charge Of Program

The review of "Mr. Emanuel" by Louis Golding was given by Mrs. Bernard Fisher for the Council of Church Women at the Settles hotel Monday when the Temple Israel Sisterhood conducted the program. Mrs. T. E. Baker was program leader.

Mrs. Fisher told the story of the Jewish English Jew who risked his life in Germany at the hands of the Nazis to discover the whereabouts of the mother of a little German-Jew refugee in England. She brought out the great devotion of the man to his faith and God that kept him alive in the face of grave danger and from despair at his seeming failure when he located the boy's mother.

The devotional was given by Mrs. B. E. Saus and a reading, "Life's Token" by W. A. Eaton was given by Mrs. Leal Schurman. "Come Thou Almighty King" was sung with Mrs. C. C. Schurman leading the song and Mrs. Joye Fisher playing piano accompaniment.

Committee and officers reports were given and the treasurer's report showed $28.78 in the general fund and $25.88 in the nursery fund.

World Day of Prayer services were reported on and Mrs. Shelby Hall, speaking for the nursery school announced a meeting of WPA officials for 7 o'clock Tuesday evening at the Settles hotel when plans for Open House Week activities will be discussed. The group was invited to attend. The May Day luncheon to be held Wednesday at 1 o'clock at the First Methodist church combined with the "Welcome Stranger" tea was announced and the organization was urged to find new-comers to town and bring them to the luncheon. Members were asked to bring a covered-dish for themselves and guests.

Two projects for the council to investigate were discussed and included buying equipment for a playground for the children attending the negro school and a plan to provide charity hospitalization. Mrs. Shine Phillips, who presided at the council meeting, was named to appoint committees to investigate the projects. Approximately 65 persons attended and the next meeting is to be the fifth Monday in July.

Mr. and Mrs. John Kubecka and daughter, Colleen, and Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Duns visited friends in San Angelo Sunday.

Bill Reed of Sterling City has purchased 240 acres of land from Ed Douthett and 200 acres from Charlie Campbell. This land joins land already owned by Reed and is located in Glasscock county. The price was not quoted.

Mark Newberry was a business visitor in San Angelo Saturday.

Pre-School Group To Be Presented In Operetta

Children To Give "Sleeping Beauty" Tonight

"Sleeping Beauty" to be presented tonight at the Municipal Auditorium beginning at 7:45 is one of the few operettas given as public entertainment using children of pre-school age. Those appearing in the cast are from the Farrar Pre-School. There is no admission charge.

The fair lady's beauty of ancient day is revived again in puff sleeves, bustles and hoop skirts. Every fair lady there has a rose bud in her hair. Every lord has sword with a hilt of shining silver. Ladies and escorts to the christening of the little princess are: Lord and Lady McNeill, Lord Wilcox and Lady Jo Ann Smith, Sir Don Logan and Duchess McDonald, Sir Richard Bottomley and Lady Betty Hunsyett, Sonny, Duke of Hargrove, and Lady Lloyd, Lord Hayward and Lady Maddux, Lord Taylor and Lady Tucker, Lord Utley and Lady Trappell, Sir Jackie Little and Crown Princess Ann Johnson.

All goes very well at the christening of the baby princess, (Sandra Swartz) until the wicked fairy (Marilyn Guitler) casts an evil spell on the king (Edmund Fahrnkamp) and the queen (Jo Ann Queen) and the princess. The household is saved by a good fairy (Linda French) and at the end of a hundred years is awakened by the gallant Prince Charming (A. B. Conley) who in return receives the princess' hand in marriage.

Sub Debs Sponsor H-SU Band Concert Tonight At 7:45

Under auspices of the Sub Deb club, Hardin-Simmons University Cowgirl band will be presented in concert tonight at 7:45 o'clock at the high school.

Herbert M. Preston will direct the band and will feature Lucille Payers, marimba specialist, who plays seven instruments; and Virginia Sheridan, student harpist, who was presented here last month at the high school by the Junior Music Study club. The Cowgirl band is on its spring tour and will spend the night here. They will go to Midland Wednesday for a concert.

Let's Get . . . PERSONAL

Mrs. Carl Mercer returned Sunday from San Angelo where she has been for the past week visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Mercer.

Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Norman of Long Beach, Calif., are visiting their son, C. W. Norman, and Mrs. Norman here this week. They will accompany the C. W. Normans to Dallas and Fort Worth Wednesday and then go to Kaufman where they will have a family reunion.

Faustine Schubert was the recipient of $5 this week when she received word from Liberty magazine that she was one of the winners of the "Star Gazing Contest" that ran for 10 weeks in the magazine. The contest consisted of unscrambling misspelled words to make them spell the names of stars.

Mrs. Dan McCoy of El Paso is spending the week with Mrs. L. F. Rice.

Handkerchief Shower Given On Birthday Anniversary

A surprise handkerchief shower was given for Mrs. Sarah Katherine Warren on her birthday anniversary by Mrs. W. R. Morris in her home Monday afternoon. The rooms were decorated with roses and pink and white were the chosen colors. A birthday cake was cut and served with lemonade.

gubernatorial sweepstakes. Commissioner Jerry Sadler is a candidate for governor.

Washington Daybook

WASHINGTON—The attitude of the army, navy and marine folk toward death is not that of the average layman.

These men who walk and sail and fly with death have come to regard this one of the Four Horsemen pretty matter-of-factly and their only concern is that he not catch them wanting in courage or bearing the stigma of dishonor.

Military funerals are solemn affairs, certainly the most impressive and beautiful of all military rituals, but there is little of sadness or grief about them.

THE HOMES OF HEROES

Thus, beautiful Arlington cemetery, on the gentle hills and ravines above the Potomac, has a different atmosphere than any graveyard in the land. It is not a place of sadness and weeping, but rather a field of honor.

It is this feeling of special privilege, of almost private ownership, which causes the Arlington staff, headed by a colonel, occasional trouble.

For years, it has become the traditional right of the men who are to rest in Arlington to select the site of their interment.

THE GENERAL CHOOSES

Almost any warm, sunny day, you can see on the paths of Arlington old men or old couples strolling

Man About Manhattan

NEW YORK—They are dusting off the bustles of another of New York's grand dames of the nineties and building a movie around her career.

Our generation doesn't know very much about Lill and her playmates of 40 years ago, unless we are to believe what the earlier historians would have us believe—mainly, that her era was one of incredibly bad taste and exceptionally lusty appetites.

Those were the days when the Minnie Madden Flekes and the Julia Marlowes, together with Maude Adams, the inevitable Diamond Jim (I'm getting tired writing about him) and Weber & Fields dominated the Broadway scene.

Like any other piker with a new hat, we dodged a about, eyeing this view or that with the object of selecting their plot. Once in a while, conflicting selections are made. To find a solution to these often calls for all the diplomacy that the staff can summon.

There was one old general, long retired, who spent months selecting his site. Almost every day when the weather was good, he and his wife would go to Arlington and tread the paths and search for their cemetery plot.

At last they found it, and the colonel, after considerable maneuvering, managed to assign it to them. The old couple were delighted and chief cause of their delight was a beautiful old elm that spread over a corner of the plot.

THEY LIKED THAT ELM

Throughout the spring and summer and fall, they would go to the cemetery and sit in the shade of their tree and enjoy their view of the Potomac and distant Washington.

They came to be well known to the Arlington staff. For the general and his wife, the staff came to have a genuine affection.

Imagine the colonel's horror, when he discovered during a casual early spring inspection, that the general's tree had disappeared. It had developed blight and the foresters had removed it.

The colonel went into action, routed out a detail of huskies and searched the Virginia hills until he found a big elm that matched the general's. Transplanting it was a whole of a job, the colonel recalls, but he got it done. The ground beneath was added before the general and his lady made their next visit.

The colonel and I are happy to report that the general's elm is now one of the finest in Arlington.

shower yesterday by jumping into a cab. As our hack paused at an intersection another driver cruised up and yelled, "Joe, Six Sixty!"

Joe nodded then said to us out of the side of his mouth, "That's nuttin. I got $8.50 on my meter. He'll go home and blab to his wife, but not me."

"Don't you tell the little woman everything?" "They's two things I don't do," snapped Joe. "I don't tell my wife my business and I don't allow her to talk to other cab drivers' wives. If I did she'd come home whining that somebody's husband made $10 yesterday and why didn't I make $10 yesterday."

"I'll give her $4 tonight and that's all. If I have enough left over to still give her $4. What she don't know don't hurt her."

New York, in the throes of a building program, is like a man who takes off his pants with one hand while putting on his shirt with the other. We tear down and build up without even waiting for the mortar to dry. There hasn't been a single hour in the last 90 years that the town hasn't reverberated to pneumatic drills and falling bricks.

We are the greatest and the most prolific builders of wrecking scaffolds on earth. Sometimes I wonder if the captains of our scuttling crews are the descendants of hangmen.

Hollywood Sights And Sounds

HOLLYWOOD—Bel-Air is an exclusive, wooded and flowered residential division that sprawls over some of the rolling hills, valleys and canyons between Hollywood and the sea.

Some years ago, it was a matter of local moment that Bel-Air had opened its invisible gates to a "movie person," one Colleen Moore, who proceeded to build a sumptuous little shack of umpteen rooms, swimming pool and other trappings. As one who always figured movie people are ju-t about like other people, at least in their beginnings and if Hollywood didn't "get" them, I never did see why Bel-Air was being generous, or why Colleen Moore had achieved any particular distinction in moving in, but then there are lots of matters I need to clear up.

Anyway, Bel-Air has plenty of "movie persons" now, and the ladies of the Bel-Air garden club had their annual flower show not long ago. It was quite a show, colonial as we say in the movies, although I failed to see any exhibits from movie personages.

What I'm getting around to saying is that Miss G. Garbo was among the customers. Miss G. came in, accompanied by a friend my spy identified as Mrs. Harrison Williams of sartorial fame, and sat down for tea in a secluded corner of the tea-room.

"Garbo's in there," one of the members said dis-

By Robbin Coons

interestedly to her colleagues. "Oh, is she?" said Bel-Air collectively a sniffy, and went about its flowery affairs. This indifference continued a few moments, until one of the ladies said airily, "Well, I think I'll just go by and see what she looks like." In a little while, a casual stream of ladies, wearing of well-as-long-as-she's here expressions, had inspected Miss G. Garbo, who tea-d on, unperturbed.

I am in receipt of a communication from the Guild Publicity Bureau, Inc. ("There's more to proper publicity than getting your name in print") which enjoins me henceforth to refer to cameramen as "Directors of Photography," which is the title bestowed upon members of the craft by agreement with the producers three years ago.

The word "cameramen" is no longer properly descriptive of the men who have charge of lighting and photography, since they never touch the cameras," says the bulletin.

This is a pretty thought, but as a peace-loving individual I dislike this passion for hair-splitting in titles. Thus guided, one no longer could blanket all hams under the charitable term "actor," nor label "director" all those who merely stand around a set and try to follow explicit instructions in the script. One would have to detail how much producing some producers really do, and embarrass certain "writers" whose best signed works are checks.

However, I'll compromise. I'll call them-Directors of Photography, if they'll call me something fancy like—let's see, how would Veteran of Verbosity do?

Death is sweet in Hollywood. Actors dote on dying. That's because it's a tough job to steal a scene from a corpse-elect. "I'm a heavy," as Akim Tamiroff observed gleefully today, "and I've got a wonderful death scene!"

There's a chap named Francis Walker who gets more lead than leads—has died in 74 movies and survived only 21, in seven of which he got "shot." He was ready today for his 76th demise in "Black K Rides Tonight."

"There's no better way to get the audience to look at you," he said, while they smeared him with "blood" for his big moment, "and it answers the exit problem—no question about what to do with your hands and feet when you're loaded with lead."

Of the 4,231 families in Helena, Mont., only 27 have five or more children, according to a report by the WPA housing survey. Approximately 96 per cent of 2,785 families, have no children; 741 families have one child; 471 families have two children and 197 families have three or four children.

Agreements between employers and workers in Sweden's paper, wood pulp, sawmill, textile and machine industries assured labor peace in 1940. The agreements covered small wage increases, as well as certain supplementary wages because of higher living cost.

FORMER CIRCUS HAND IS CALLED TO TRIAL

CAMDEN, N. J., April 26 (AP)—Peter Shewchuk, 21 year old former circus roustabout, was called to trial today on murder charges in the roadside slaying of pretty Wanda Dworecki for which he has testified he was paid 50 cents by the girl's father.

The father, the Rev. Walter A. Dworecki, was executed in the New Jersey state prison at Trenton March 24 for hiring the girl slain to collect $2,500 insurance.

WEEK'S OIL OUTPUT SHOWS DECREASE

TULSA, Okla., April 26 (AP)—With the decline mainly in Oklahoma, California and Kansas, daily crude oil production in the United States decreased 20,328 to 3,847,577 barrels for the week ended April 27, the Oil and Gas Journal said today.

California's flow was off 21,000 to 800,500; Oklahoma, 5,825 to 415,000; Kansas, 7,300 to 152,900, and Michigan, 535 to 61,878.

While East Texas production was down 149 to 396,545, all Texas increased 5,200 to 1,516,736. Louisiana increased 755 to 288,565; Illinois, 3,352 to 436,468; eastern fields, 2,300 to 105,300; and the Rocky Mountain area, 5,530 to 66,820.

Stella Fyatt was Empire Southern's high scorer with a 185-514.

AMERICAN MAY NOT HAVE TO SERVE IN ITALIAN ARMY, AFTER ALL

OMAHA, Neb., April 26 (AP)—It appears that Angelo Viscio, former Omaha high school student, won't have to be a soldier for Mussolini after all.

Angelo stowed away on a ship bound for his native Italy last November. Since arriving there he has bombarded officials and Omaha relatives with pleas for aid in obtaining a passport, so he could return home and escape being drafted into the army.

Rep. McLaughlin (D-Neb.) sent word that the American consul at Palermo, Italy, has been authorized to issue the passport.

LITTLE SPITFIRE

By Jean Randall

seem to me that you have minded it—exactly. Even for a Burnham you seem to have a finger in a good many pies on The Street. Sit down," he commanded, "and say what you came to say."

She sank obediently upon the couch. "You remember you asked me a while back if I'd written anyone about you? And I said I had—ones or two persons? Well, I had an answer this morning to one of those letters. It's from a friend of mine in New York. She knows your wife; she knows Linda."

"Go on," he bade her impatiently.

"She's clerking in a bargain basement, Hugh. She's living in a down-at-the-heels room in a non-too-distinguished house."

"A Bad Mistake?"

"Linda!" His eyes darkened and his face grew ashen. Then he laughed. "You've been misinformed, Brenda. I pay five hundred dollars into Linda's bank on the first of every month. She could live comfortably on that. Aside from that, you don't know Linda. Luxury is an absolute necessity to her. I honestly believe she'd die if she—did what you said she was doing. Clerking—Linda! Your correspondent has made a bad mistake."

She drew a letter from the pocket of her smock and put it into his hand.

"Read for yourself," she said simply.

Five minutes later he lifted his head and gazed at her haggardly.

"But what in heaven's name is she doing with the money I pay her?"

It was a tacit admission of conversation but his visitor refrained from flouting her triumph.

"I've thought it all out," she informed him. "I don't know why she left you—I imagine it was some silly sort of quarrel—but if she happened to be a proud person—"

"Linda is damnably proud!"

"Um. Yes. It all fits in. She isn't using your money, you see. She went out and got herself a job—any kind of a job."

He plunged his hands in his thick hair. "But that doesn't make sense! In the first place, Linda is entitled to what money I send her. We're not divorced, she's still my wife. It's my job to support her. In the second—"

"I wouldn't think I was entitled to money, if I'd left my husband," Brenda said bluntly.

"You wouldn't?" The idea appeared to be so odd to him that he stopped to ponder it. "But that's absurd, Brenda; it's ridiculous. Naturally a man supports his wife."

She said still more bluntly: "But, she isn't your wife now, Hugh. Surely you must see that. Surely you must realize she would look at it that way."

Angry color began to replace his pallor. "Of all the specious reasoning I ever heard... but that's a woman for you! Logic simply doesn't exist for your sex!"

"On the contrary, it seems to me that Linda's being far more logical than you are, Hugh! Think it over!"

He swallowed. "Listen, Brenda! I'll give you the barest outline of the—trouble between Linda and me—"

She shook her head, her eyes on her shoes.

"Better not, Hugh! You might regret it afterward. I've told you what I thought it was important for you to know. That closes the book."

Continued tomorrow.

Masonic Home Boasts Top Girl Netters

Obscured by the fame of Masonic Home's illustrious "mighty mites" of the gridiron is the outstanding tennis record of Texas intercollegiate league history.

Quietly the girls go about winning championships on the court while the boys roar to state acclaim in football.

But this week the girls have their brief inning as they battle in the state meet at Austin for the seventh time in eleven years.

Every season starting with 1930 the Masonic Home doubles team has won the district championship. The singles crown has been captured seven times.

Four times the girls have won the state title. In singles, the state championship has come to Masonic Home twice.

This year the girls doubles team of Violet Smith and Hattie Sue Carter goes to Austin. The singles entry, Arlene Roach, lost to Mary Jane Bullington of Paschal (Fort Worth) in the regional tournament. C. B. Tillery began coaching the girls in tennis in 1927. The boys at the home concentrate on football, baseball and track and do not play tennis seriously.

Tillery attributes the fine showing of the girls during the past decade to concentrated effort.

"Our girls do not have as much social life and other distractions as the average high school girl and consequently give more time and thought to tennis," he explained.

Good equipment, competitive play in the Fort Worth city tournaments, regular practice and tradition and spirit are other factors the coach cites.

Of the 21 islands in the Hawaiian Archipelago, eight are inhabited.

Find It Impossible To Hold Olympic Games This Year

BRUSSELS, April 30 (AP)—Count Henri Baillet-Latour, chairman of the Olympics committee, said today that the 1940 Olympic games were officially "annulled."

Cancellation of the games had been announced in Helsinki April 23 at a joint meeting of the organizing committee and the permanent Finnish Olympic committee. The two groups decided that the international situation made it impossible to hold the games this summer.

WASHINGTON, April 30 (AP)—The American Red Cross called $10,000 to the Swedish Red Cross today for relief of Norwegian refugees in Sweden.

FALSE HAND IS BIG HELP TO SPRINT STAR

BLOOMINGTON, Ill., April 30 (AP)—Coach Joe Cogdal should be credited with an assist on Captain Jim Hardgrove's rapid improvement as a dash star on the Illinois state normal track team.

Hardgrove, minus a hand and wrist lost in a hunting accident four years ago, had been unable to win the 100-yard dash in less than 10.1 because of lost rhythm.

Cogdal rigged up a leather sack filled with three-fourths of a pound of buckshot which he fastened to Hardgrove's shortened arm with leather thongs and tape. The device weighs about the same as Hardgrove's missing wrist and hand.

"Hardgrove runs the 100-yard dash without breaking his stride and has hammered his best time down to 9.9 seconds."

Improper Remarks Denied By Teacher

FORT WORTH, April 30 (AP)—V. E. Ramsey, social science teacher of Lake Worth school, denied today he made "embarrassing" remarks in his classroom regarding Adolf Hitler's plan for repopulating Germany.

Three pupils, Mary Lou Gresham, Ima Jean Shelton and Betty Walker, who declined to join a walk-out of students yesterday in protest against Ramsey's dismissal, said he had made "embarrassing" remarks about Hitler's program.

Seventy-two students staged the walk-out when Ramsey announced the school board had failed to reelect him.

Ramsey told his pupils the board's action was because of his alleged failure to co-operate with S. E. Watson, the school superintendent.

Regarding his classroom remarks, Ramsey said his mention of Hitler's program was made to emphasize the high moral standards existing in the United States.

IN THE DOG HOUSE

CHARLESTON, S. C., April 30 (AP)—The distracted parents of Wecky Wolfe, 5, hunted high and low for him without avail. After several hours, as they were considering calling police, he walked Wecky rubbing his eyes.

"I got tired and crawled into the dog house with Buddy," he explained.
