Finish Fight With CIO Is AFOL Plan

Federation Chiefs Says Time Here For Issues To Be Met

DENVER, Oct. 4 (AP)—The American Federation of Labor's high command asked the federation's 57th annual convention today to drop the last bar to knock-down, drag-out fight with John L. Lewis.

Must Meet Issue

Give us the power to expel the rebel C.I.O. unions and to set up rival organizations in their territory, the federation's executive council asked in its report to the convention.

"The time has arrived when the American Federation of Labor must meet the issue created by the C.I.O. in a clear-cut and positive way," the council said.

"The leader of the C.I.O. movement was driven forward in the execution of his plans to establish a dual and rival movement by the force of a consuming ambition to gain control of the organized labor movement and to establish his own independent political party.

"For two years we have pursued a policy of toleration. We have patiently and sincerely endeavored to promote a settlement through and negotiation. All of this has failed."

President William Green's opening speech was expected to start off two weeks of anti-Lewis oratory. Observers looked for this speech-making to reach its highest pitch next week, however, when Lewis' C.I.O. sends out counter-blasts from its Atlantic City meeting.

Delegates jamming the lobby of the convention hotel talked of little other than C.I.O. The general tone of their remarks indicated the executive council would receive the expulsion authority by an overwhelming majority.

Effort Toward Legalizing Sale By The Drink Given Setback

STORY PROBED

Officers questioned this man, who gave his name as Layton Mosley, 28, of Fort Worth, Texas, in an effort to unravel a tangled story of a New Mexico slaying. New Mexico officers had been unable to find a body where Mosley said it was buried.

Bill Is Sent Back To A Committee

Proposal For Probe Of Pension Administration Debated

AUSTIN, Oct. 4 (AP)—Foes of legal sale of mixed hard liquor drinks scored a major victory today in the house of representatives.

The house returned to committee a bill to permit such sales in counties desiring them. An effort to kill the motion to recommit failed, 60 to 64.

Dallas Blankenship of Dallas, who made the recommendation, said it was unfair for the house to consider such an important measure without giving the public a hearing. He asked delay of the hearing until Friday but the house changed the date to Wednesday.

Whiskey and other hard liquors now can be sold only by the bottle. Opponents of local option on mixed drink sales mustered slender majorities in both houses six months ago.

Opening of the second week of the legislature's revenue-raising session found many persons on hand to oppose the various proposed tax measures. Hearings on an omnibus tax bill boosting rates on natural resources and utilities 45 per cent were scheduled to start this afternoon.

Start Probe Of Attempted Pen Break

Two Convicts Slain, Two Wounded As Guards Open Fire

HUNTSVILLE, Oct. 4 (AP)—The Texas prison's incorrigibles returned to their toil in the field today as authorities dug into the facts of yesterday's escape attempt in which two desperadoes were killed and two wounded.

Prison Manager O. J. S. Ellington of Eastham prison farm, near here, sought to learn who made a metal key used by the 27 most desperate men in the prison to free themselves from their big cell, overpower two guards and shoot it out with the last man between them and the prison arsenal.

Meanwhile the bodies of Roy Thornton, 28, husband of notorious Bonnie Parker, and Austin Avers, 32, pal and liberator of Raymond Hamilton, lay in the prison morgue here. Later in the day, unless relatives claim them, the two will be buried in the prison cemetery.

Gibson May Die

At Huntsville, 40 miles from Eastham farm, Forrest Gibson, long term, and Clyde Thompson, youthful Eastland county jail killer, were in the hospital with bullet wounds. Gibson, participant in a prison farm break in which a guard was killed, may die, physicians said.

A sharpshooting, mild-mannered little guard thwarted the attempted break yesterday. Standing only 10 feet from the long-termers, Guard J. M. Thomas blazed away as two of the convicts shot at him with pistols.

The convicts' bullets plowed into a bed in front of Thomas. As Thomas stemmed the rush for the prison arsenal, where guns enough to arm each of the 27 convicts were stored, another guard shot Clyde Thompson in the arm as he started out the door.

Ellington today said a key found in the pocket of Gibson had been used to open the door to the convicts' cell. He said the key was made of lead and was an exact duplicate of the regular key.

Guard Overpowered

In the south wing of the prison, where they were segregated as the worst of Texas' 6,000 prison inmates, the group plotted, fashioning the key.

Thornton and the one-eyed Gibson crept up the corridor and overpowered Guard Theo Williams, took his pistol, and walked 25 feet to jam it into the ribs of Guard W. A. Walker. They then released their comrades and ran outside.

Thomas, atop the inmates' quarters saw Thornton first, and killed him instantly. He then shot Avers, and wounded Gibson three times.

Others in the group, frightened at the fire, raced back in the building and surrendered meekly.

NEW JUSTICE SITS WITH COLLEAGUES AS TERM OPENS

Does Not Take Oath Again; Proceeds With Briefs As Papers Are Filed Questioning His Appointment

WASHINGTON, Oct. 4 (AP)—The supreme court deferred action today on a motion by Albert Levitt designed to compel Associate Justice Hugo L. Black to show cause why he should be permitted to sit on the high tribunal.

Whether the court will grant or deny the motion probably will be announced next Monday.

Action could be taken at any time, however. Proceedings were brief. Levitt merely arose and said he had submitted the motion asking permission to file a petition challenging the Black appointment. He did not read the motion.

"You may submit the papers," Chief Justice Hughes told him.

Levitt acted a few minutes after Black had taken his seat on the high bench.

The justice, whose appointment by President Roosevelt aroused a storm of controversy over whether he had been, or was still, connected

Death Closes Famed Career Of Ed Howe

'Sage Of Potato Hill' Dies In Sleep At Age Of 84

ATCHISON, Kan., Oct. 3 (AP)—Edgar Watson (Ed) Howe, "the Sage of Potato Hill," has achieved his "absolute triumph."

After a long lifetime of observing and writing about the foibles of plain people, the 84-year-old author, editor, philosopher, died yesterday in his sleep of the infirmities of age complicated by paralysis.

His death fulfilled his once expressed desire "my hope is to go to bed one night after a hard day's work and never awaken. That would be the absolute triumph."

The funeral services will be held tomorrow afternoon at his home here—"Potato Hill"—with the ritual of the Episcopal church.

Mr. Howe was perhaps best known for his novel, "The Story of a Country Town," which he published in his own country newspaper office after other publishers had rejected it.

From Newspaper to Magazine

He founded the Atchison Globe in 1877 and retired from it 37 years later. His active mind, however, could not be at rest and he began publication of "E. W. Howe's Monthly," devoted to information and indignation. In this magazine which Mr. Howe discontinued in 1933, appeared such pungent paragraphs from his pen as:

"All my life I have heard men clamoring for more rights. It has always seemed to me I exercise more rights than are good for me. I am at liberty to do a hundred things I shouldn't do. I have always been too much a freeman."

Mr. Howe was known as a keen student of human nature. His attitude toward his fellow men may well be summed up in his own words, "a little improvement persisted in, is enough. Knowing myself and others, I do not expect too much, and cheer a reasonable average."

Mr. Howe's survivors include two sons, Eugene A. Howe, Amarillo, Tex., editor, and James P. Howe, Walnut Creek, Calif., and a daughter, Mrs. Mabel Howe Fordham, New York.

U. S. Refugees Imperilled

Japs Threaten To Destroy Breakwater Of Harbor

SHANGHAI, Oct. 4 (AP)—The safety of American refugees at the port of Chefoo, in Shantung province 400 miles north of Shanghai, was imperilled today by a Chinese threat to destroy the breakwater protecting the harbor.

Military authorities this morning warned the United States destroyer squadron No. 23 to evacuate the harbor within 48 hours as they might find it necessary to blow up the whole wharf, making the harbor unsafe for shipping.

Admiral Harry Yarnell, commander of the United States Asiatic fleet, expressed the fear that destruction of the breakwater within the time limit would seriously handicap evacuation of American civilians as it would make landing rescue boats almost impossible.

Approximately 80 American civilians are now at Chefoo.

The squadron was thought by Admiral Yarnell not to be in any danger as it is already anchored outside the breakwater.

American naval authorities saw in the threat indications the Chinese are preparing for a Japanese invasion of Shantung province from the sea to bolster land forces which yesterday claimed the capture of Tachow, an important walled city in the northern section of the province.

FDR Hints At Extra Session Of Congress

Says Crop Control Legislation Needed At Once

GRAND FORKS, N. D., Oct. 4 (AP)—In an address strongly hinting at a special session of congress, President Roosevelt asserted today surplus crop control legislation "ought to be passed at the earliest possible moment."

Mentioning the supreme court-convening today for its fall term for the first time on his western trip, he disagreed with his majority ruling invalidating the AAA form of production control. He also quoted excerpts from a letter from a retired member of that court—John H. Clark—saying he saw "eye to eye" with the president as to his social-economic and peace program.

The president spoke in dedicating a federally-sponsored grandstand at the fair grounds, coming here from Fort Peck Dam, Mont., where he rebuked "doubting Thomases" who have been critics of his objectives.

Declaring better land use in the arid regions and control of surpluses were the "two objectives" of his farm program, he told his Grand Forks audience.

"Earliest Possible Moment"

"I feel certain that a majority in both houses of the congress will need the wish of most of the farmers of the nation in enacting crop surplus control legislation. And it is my thought that legislation to ward that end ought to be passed at the earliest possible moment.

Then, evidencing he might be thinking of a special session, he continued:

"Because this legislation was not passed at the last session, it is too late for it to have any bearing on the winter wheat which is now in the ground.

"Even after a bill is passed and becomes law on the signature of the president, it takes a month or two before it is humanly possible to set up the machinery in all parts of the country to carry out the provisions of the new law. If, therefore, new legislation is to affect the 1938 crops, haste seems to be important from every angle," he said.

Stirs Up Debate

Stirs Up Debate

AUSTIN, Oct. 4 (AP)—A proposal to investigate the state old age assistance administration failed by a large majority today after sharp debate in the house of representatives.

The resolution, 79 to 48, a resolution by Rep. Jasper N. Reed of Texarkana which would have had a committee of five inquire into policies of the old age assistance commission, especially with reference to re-investigation of applicants for pensions.

Reed charged that while the legislature was in its general session last spring the rolls were increased from 83,000 to 132,000 and that affluence had been reduced by 15,000.

The re-investigations were instituted after the pension law was "deliberated" and under pressure from the federal government.

Opposing the resolution, Rep. J. Bryan Bradbury of Abilene declared the legislature ought to "quit playing politics with the old people of Texas" and provide revenue to carry out the social security program.

"The old folks ought not to be dangled at the end of a political string," he told the house amid a ripple of "ayes."

"If you want to do anything for the old people, you won't waste your time and money in a useless investigation, but will get busy and try to remedy the situation."

Two Dead In Hotel Fire

Three Others Injured In $25,000 Blaze At Sunray

BORGER, Oct. 4 (AP)—Fire which caused an estimated $25,000 damage, razing seven business houses at Sunray, today had left two persons dead and three injured.

The dead: Kenneth Dodge, 25, of Borger; Kenneth (Red) Hoover, about 35, believed to be from Kansas.

J. E. Tate and Lloyd Price, reported to be from Sayre, Okla., and J. H. Regan of Borger, a bus driver, were injured when they jumped from the burning Bruce hotel, where the death victims were trapped.

Although the cause of the fire had not been officially determined, witnesses said they believed it started from a lighted cigar smoked by a guest in the hotel. When the blaze broke out at about 5 a. m. yesterday, razing the hotel, guests were forced to jump from the building in their night clothes. An auto parts firm, an insurance firm, a variety store, the hotel, cafe, and a pool hall, also were destroyed.

Sunray is a carbon black and oil production center in northeast Moore county.

Trust Trial Under Way

Oil Companies Among Defendants In Important Case

MADISON, Oct. 4 (AP)—Barring of spectators caused the expected jam in federal court today at the opening of the trial of 24 major oil companies, 47 executives and three trade publications on price fixing conspiracy charges under the Sherman anti-trust act.

Marshall John Coneford, faced with a task of finding spaces for the large number of defendants and attorneys' issue admittance cards to the oil executives, their counsel and newspapermen, thus keeping the attendance well below the 225 capacity of Judge Patrick T. Stone's courtroom.

One hundred members of the panel called for prospective jury service, together with the witnesses, remained outside the room until they were to be called.

Before the trial opened, Colonel William J. Donovan of New York, chief defense counsel, called it "the most important anti-trust proceedings in history."

The trial will be conducted before Judge Patrick T. Stone.

The defendants, representing leaders of the nation's oil industry, set up business headquarters in a former bank building not far from the courthouse. The trial will not interfere with the business affairs of the companies.

DUCE APPARENTLY NOT TO CALL HIS MEN FROM SPAIN

LONDON, Oct. 4 (AP)—A message from Premier Mussolini expressing "most fervent wishes" for an insurgent victory was considered today to have dashed the strong Anglo-French move to force withdrawal of Italian volunteers from the Spanish civil war.

The informed Italian press indicated Duce would turn down the French and British invitation to a three-power conference on ending aid to both Spanish factions despite a hint his refusal would bring a retaliatory opening of the French border to supplies of war for the Madrid-Valencia government.

DISTRUST CAUSE OF WORLD'S ILLS, SAYS MRS. ROOSEVELT

NEW YORK, Oct. 4 (AP)—Distrust between individuals and between nations is one of the great causes of unrest in the world, Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt asserted today before a forum on current problems, sponsored by the New York Herald Tribune.

"One of the great causes of trouble in the world is the distrust we have for each other, which brings about fear, and fear is the basis for all our other evils," she said.

"The reason for this distrust is that there is a lack of honesty and integrity in all our dealings as individuals or groups or even as a nation. x x x."

WATER DEVELOPMENT PROGRAM OUTLINED

OKLAHOMA CITY, Oct. 4 (AP)—A plan for a vast southwestern water development program similar to the Tennessee Valley Authority was sketched by Governor Marland today in welcoming 30 conservationists from five states to a regional meeting called to discuss development of the water resources of the upper Arkansas and Cimarron drainage basins.

Marland said during his term in congress he suggested an Arkansas Valley Watershed Authority to President Roosevelt.

Today's meeting was called in an attempt to iron out differences between the states in the development of projects on streams which serve two or more states.

Local Payroll Boosted By Rail Wage Hike

T&P's Total Wage $76,645 Monthly

Wage increases granted operating employees of the nation's major railroads mean a boost of approximately $2,580 monthly in pay checks to T&P workers in Big Spring, according to available payroll figures.

It was indicated that the boost would represent about a five per cent increase locally. Operating employees here have received an aggregate monthly pay of about $51,586, and the new increase hikes this sum to $54,165.

Total Texas & Pacific payroll in Big Spring, according to a survey recently completed by the local chamber of commerce, would be with the increase announced today around $76,645 per month.

Mechanical and maintenance-of-way employees here shared in wage increases averaging about 5 per cent some time ago. That boost raised the total monthly payroll here for those groups from about $21,410 to $22,480, or $1,070.

Agreement Reached At Chicago Parley

CHICAGO, Oct. 4 (AP)—Operating employees of the nation's major railroads went to work today under a new wage agreement which will pay $35,000,000 a year more in their pay envelopes.

The agreement, calling for a 44 cent a day raise for 250,000 engine, train and yard service employees, was signed last night by heads of the big five railroad brotherhoods and representatives of 86 carriers. It ended protracted negotiations for a 20 per cent pay increase demanded by the brotherhoods.

Dr. William M. Lelancer, member of the national mediation board who had been conferring daily for six weeks with the brotherhoods and carrier representatives, announced the agreement.

Railroad representatives estimated the increase would add an average 65 per cent to the workers' annual earnings.

Last August 25 the railroads granted a 49 cent a day wage increase for an estimated 750,000 members of the 15 non-operating brotherhoods.

THE SPORTS PARADE

Big Show Begins Wednesday In Yankees' Stand

Johnny Allen Is Best In Record Try

Cards Lose To Cubs But Maintain Third Place In Loop

By SID FEDER Associated Press Sports Writer The 1937 major league season is a matter of history, with only the world series chapter still to be written, but up and down the big time a lot of the things that happened in the last 5 1/2 months won't be forgotten in a hurry.

Aside from little old New York's second straight championship monopoly, the developments that seem standouts as you look back over the season are the crop of injuries

The setup a year ago will make for a better series this season. The Yankees bombarded their way to victory in six games but the Jints have bounced back this year for more and have returned with more power and improved pitching.

The experts who have watched the two clubs through the season have broadcasted so long and so loud of an upset that it's the talk town Broadway, along cauliflower row, from seaboard to the west coast and from Fargo to Brownsville but this writer chanced to see the Yankees in action in league competition this season, and witnessed the kind of competition that the Giants faced all year and is carrying the Yankees' banner in the playoff.

There's no mistake about the Yankees being a powerful club, winning when the chips are down, but all things point toward a Yankee sweep again and maybe in more convincing fashion than was the case in '36.

We realize the fact that Manager Bill Terry of the team of the Polo Grounds has added Cliff Melton who was once cast away by the Jints, and we also realize that the Yankees have brought in Lou Chiozza, Johnny McCarthy and Wally Berger but the Nationals were shoved into the driver's seat partly through tough breaks on the part of other clubs.

The Chicago Bruins were leading by seven games when Ripper Collins, ace first sacker, was put out of the game for a month because of a broken ankle. When the Ripper returned his club was hopelessly lost.

The Cards lost Dix Dean and none of the other pitchers performed up to form. The Pirates had hard luck all year. Arkie Vaughn was benched for some time and other members failed.

There's no doubt but what Ted Terry and his ball club in that they take the field Wednesday against a team, sound in physical and mental condition, who have been fooling around every since July waiting for this series.

Since May 10, when the Yankees look over the reins, there was never much doubt as to whether they would win, rather there was only concern by the rest of the clubs as to how much distance they would put between themselves and the rest. They showed their real power in series with Chicago, Detroit and Boston.

At one stage, the Chicago White Sox were in second place only seven games away. They rode into the stadium with fresh pitching and blasters that threatened to knock the very walls of the stadium down. They threw a home run barrage at the Yankees but the New Yorkers counter attacked with a battery assault of their own and in two days the Pale Hose limped out of Gotham nine games off the pace, having lost three out of the four games. They never recovered from that blow.

The Boston Sox were the same way. They entertained the New Yorkers after a nine game winning streak and looked unbeatable but the McCartymen silently stole their thunder with three victories in four games played. Neither the Chioxs or the Bean Towners ever came back from those defeats.

The Detroit Tigers were never really in the race. They played around the first division all year and finally beat the White Sox out for second place but they never threatened.

The Yankees never hit until they need a blow but then—watch out.

Herd Work Is Underway For Cisco Loboes

Improvement Of Air Game Noted In Lion Tussle After spending Saturday with the frosh and sophomores who are reporting to Coach Ben Daniel, Head Mentor Pat Murphy returns to his varsity squad today where he seeks an offense capable of beating the Cisco Loboes in Cisco Friday afternoon.

The Loboes, in three starts this season, have lost two conference games and a non-district affair to the powerful Lubbock Westerners in Lubbock.

Murphy's Steers were denied a victory over Brownwood Friday night when the Lions made a last minute drive into the Big Spring end zones to close out, 19-13, and the coach will seek a defense that will hold up throughout 60 minutes of play.

Marked improvement in the local forward wall was seen and Murphy and his assistant, Carmen Branden, are expected to spend plenty of time in helping the green material progress further.

Doug Rayborn got into the game for the first time against Brownwood and turned in such a good job that Murphy may move Howard Harl, who played 60 minutes in both the Wink and Eastland games, to guard. There is also a possibility that Rayborn may be moved to tackle.

The Longhorns will polish up on their aerial game which showed distinct improvement last week and are expected to scrimmage later in the week.

that hit every club in both loops, the big surprise that was pulled out of the hat by the Boston Bees and the high class wallop of Ducky Medwick and Joe DiMaggio.

Riding high on the strength of their batting might, the New York Yankees Murderers' Row had little trouble finishing 13 games in front in their pennant chase during the season, largely because the rest of the American league fell apart at their approach.

Their neighbors, the Giants, found the going tougher, but once they climbed into the saddle, there was no stopping them. The Giants wound up with a 4-1 win over their best-hated pals, the Brooklyn Dodgers, yesterday.

Still In Third The fine showing of Jimmy Dykes' Chicago White Sox in up setting the dope by winding up third in the American league, finishing with a 2-0, 7-2 doubleheader win over the last-place Browns yesterday, stood out in the American league.

But the major job of fooling the experts was turned in by the Boston Bees and Manager Bill McKechnie. Rated seventh in the standings, they finished just a game out of fourth place on the strength of 20 29-game pitching rookies, Lou Fette, who hit the 20 mark yesterday.

The National league cellar was "won" by the year's biggest bust, the Cincinnati Reds, who absorbed a 4-0, 4-0 twin defeat at the hands of the Pirates yesterday, winding up the nightmare their pre-season dream had become. The double win marked the 21st victory the Bees scored over the Reds during the year, equalling a major league record.

Cards In Third The Cardinals, minus Dizzy Dean who was of no use after having a hand in the National league's loss to the American leaguers in the all-star game, just made third place, dropping their finale to the Cubs.

Boston's Red Sox again were the "gold flops" for Tom Yawkey and finished fifth. Their finale was a 6-1 beating at the hands of the Yankees yesterday, featuring Joe DiMaggio's homer with the bases loaded.

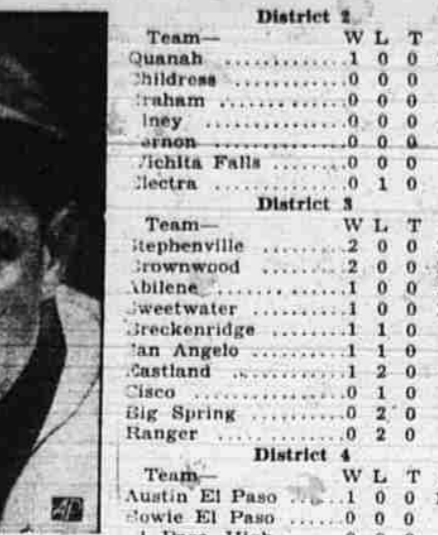

Cleveland's Indians again were a disappointment and rose in with fourth place, Johnny Allen, who had won 15 straight since recovering from illness, dropped the season's windup, 1-0, yesterday to the one-hit pitching of Jake Wade for the Tigers.

Washington's Senators and the Athletics, neither of which was ever in the race, split their last doubleheader, the A's taking the first game, 5-4, and losing the second, 4-3.

WORLD SERIES RIVAL MANAGERS

Equaling his record of a year ago when his team won 102 games during the regular season was Joe McCarthy (left), manager of the 1936 world champion New York Yankees. The powerful American league title holders will oppose their interborough rivals, the New York Giants, champions of the National league, managed by Bill Terry (right), in the best four out of seven games beginning in Yankee stadium Wednesday.

CATS BANK ON SMOLL FOR THIRD VICTORY

GREER PITCHES FT. WORTH INTO GAME LEAD

By FELIX R. MCKNIGHT FORT WORTH, Oct. 4 (AP)—Southpaw Clyde Smoll, treated rather roughly by the Little Rock Travelers in the opener four days ago, comes back to the mound tonight in an effort to give the Fort Worth Panthers a 3-1 lead in the Dixie series.

Baylor And TCU Big Surprises, Flag Chase Far From Settled

By FELIX R. MCKNIGHT DALLAS, Oct. 4 (AP)—No later than tonight Saturday should Southwest conference fans have a fair idea as to whether Arkansas Razorbacks will pooh-pooh superstition and retain their title.

Texas Aggies, last period victors over Manhattan, 14-7, at New York, bump right into one of the old South's powers in Mississippi State—the club that battled Texas Christian to a tie last fall.

Already tied by an alarming Texas Christian team, the Porkers, for the second week, play in the only league game against a Baylor Bruin that is showing considerable resentment against the annual situation it will be doing basement duty when the chips are still in.

Coach Fred Thomson is still having nightmares over the Baylor game of '36 when his charges pulled rabbits from the hat in the fading minutes to beat a team that had led them all the way.

Last Saturday the Razorbacks showed weaknesses—pass defense, lack of a running game and inability to make their own noted aerial game click consistently—in the 7-7 tie with TCU, that easily could have been a Christian victory.

Pirates Play St. Ed. Friday

GEORGETOWN, Oct. 4 (AP)—The Texas conference will be busy this week complying with a schedule which calls for eight of the nine members to meet in conference play.

The tenth team, Abilene Christian college, will invade Denton for a try at the North Texas Eagles.

Texas Wesleyan, by virtue of a surprising win over the West Texas Teachers, is scheduled to extend the defending Howard Payne Yellowjackets.

McMurry, if the field is dry, should be able to aerial to a victory over the down-trodden Trinity Tigers at Abilene. The Indians, with Bob Anthony on the injured list, are lacking in scoring punch.

Last week Austin college stopped their passing game and surged ahead in the final period to win the honors.

The Kangaroos, fresh from their win over McMurry and securing a Texas conference championship will shake up not for Gene Taylor's invading Daniel Baker Hillbillies. Austin college has won three in a row, while the Hillbillies have lost their last two starts.

There isn't much to choose between Abilene Christian and North Texas Teachers. Neither team has shown much offensive strength, but the Eagles were strong on defense against Southern Methodist. The slight edge goes to North Texas.

Southwestern and St. Edwards always bitter gridiron rivals, appear to be perfectly matched. Last week St. Edwards' loss by a point to the strong San Marcos Bobcats while Ray Couser, brilliant Pirate field marshal, passed and ran his team into a 7 to 6 win over the North Texans at Denton. It will be homecoming for the Southwest team and the conference opener for both clubs.

Plenty Of Ags Rated Honors

COLLEGE STATION, Oct. 4.—One All-America, two All-Southwest, one All-Junior College, seven All-State, four All-Region, 21 All-District and one All-City titles and honors are scattered promiscuously among members of the 1937 Texas Aggie grid squad.

Manager Homer Peel reached first on Griffiths' error at short stop to start the second inning and came home on Jim McLeod's rousing double into deep left-center.

Hugh Shelley started the third with a single, advanced on McDowell's sacrifice and scored on Peel's single to left.

A sharp single by McDowell started the sixth, Stebbins' attempted sacrifice bunt was nabbed by Taber, third baseman, after a fine dash towards the plate, but the youngster fazed a wild throw over first base and McDowell reached third. Peel lined a single to left that scored the final Cat tally.

Freddie Taubey, who hit meekly in his first three trips to the plate, lashed a single in the Traveler ninth and Graham followed with a liner to right that Moore juggled. Taubey rounded third but Moore's throw to Second Sacker McDowell was relayed to Catcher Bill Jackson, who tossed to Mallon running alongside Taubey. The putout was throw to Second Sacker McDowell.

The Horned Frog defense against Robbins' dangerous heaves was simple—they simply rushed Robbins off balance. They didn't stop him completely but he couldn't shake them out of his hair.

Baylor, meanwhile, has opened with impressive victories over Southwestern and Oklahoma City university and may be set for the Porkers in Waco.

Five non-conference foes are on the slate for the other teams. Down at Tyler's rose festival, the Top, naturally, is Joe Rountt, of Chapel Hill, with his All-America and All-Southwest selections at guard in 1936. Sharing the All-Southwest spotlight with him is Roy (Spanky) Young, Port Arthur, who picked up the title at tackle the past year. Rountt was all-district in 1931 and 1932 at Brenham high.

Eli Rushing, Stephenville, carried all-Junior College colors while playing with the John Tarleton Flowboys.

All-State honors are so numerous as to become fairly common, the list of these including Dick Todd, Crowell halfback and now an All-America prospect; Rankin Britt, Ranger; "Zed" Coston, Dallas; Owens Rogers, Mart; Bill Audish, Brenham; Bill Duncan, Henrietta; and Herbert Smith, San Angelo.

All collected a variety of all-district and all-region honors on the way up, and Coston threw in an all-city (Dallas) title for good measure.

Coach Fred Thomson is still having nightmares over the Baylor game of '36 when his charges pulled rabbits from the hat in the fading minutes to beat a team that had led them all the way.

Last Saturday the Razorbacks showed weaknesses—pass defense, lack of a running game and inability to make their own noted aerial game click consistently—in the 7-7 tie with TCU, that easily could have been a Christian victory.

Only a 75-yard piece of magic, a forward-lateral engineered by Jack Robbins to Jim Benton and Ray Hamilton, his ends, pulled Arkansas over the hump. Little Dave O'Brien, successor to Sam Baugh, and very good, and Johnny Hall, a ripping halfback, tore all over the place for Texas Christian. And the secondary and line intercepted six Arkansas aerials, as well as batting down a flock.

Ponies Play San Angelo In Feature

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF DALLAS, Oct. 4 (AP)—October, with its traditional battles where championships are won and lost, brought a tightening up all along the line in the Texas interscholastic league football campaign today.

It is the stage of the race when conference games outnumber the inter-district and inter-sectional contests, and well-defined favorites take shape.

Twenty-one games counting in the standing and involving ten districts, are on the week's card with the Oil Belt again taking the spotlight as its ten teams all see conference action. The feature will send Sweetwater, surprise 14-0 victor over the favored Breckenridge Bucs last week, against San Angelo, which hung up the season's high-scoring mark in smashing over Eastland 81-0.

Graham plays at Elceira and Chiles at Volcan in District 2 conference games; Yaloca goes to Fabens in District 4; North Side meets Magonic Home and Mineral Wells in District 4; North Side meets Magonic Home and Mineral Wells in District 4; North Side meets Magonic Home and Mineral Wells in District 4.

Wilson in the Dallas district; Gilmore joins to Tyler in District 5; Athens plays at Jacksonville, Naacogoches at Abilene and Henderson at Gaston in District 10's biggest week to date; three games—Waxahatchie at Waco, Bryan at Temple and Hillsboro at Corsicana—comprise the District 11 conference slate; Harlandale meets Austin in District 12, and the Rio Grande Valley district opens the grid with Pharr-SanJuan-Alamo at Donna.

SMU At It Amarillo's Golden Sables, who showed they were very much in the state race again by downing the powerful Classen high team of Oklahoma City last week, met another inter-sectional foe, tugging Norman, Okla., at Amarillo.

Only 28 undefeated and untied teams of the field of 107 that began the campaign in September remained today and eight of them will work to eliminate each other this week.

Temple and Bryan of District 11 are among this select group and their battle will headline the Central Texas schedule. Paris and Sulphur Springs and Robstown and San Benito are other teams with unblemished records tangling this week.

The remaining 21 undefeated, untied teams are: Amarillo, Highland Park, Pampa, Olney, Abilene, Brownwood, Stephenville, Sweetwater, Austin of El Paso, Bowie of El Paso, Yaloca, Longview, Marshall, Lufkin, Naacogoches, Palestine, Cleburne, Waco, Conroe, John Reagan of Houston, Corpus Christi, Lawrence. Lained in the select class last week by downing the highly-favored Port Arthur Yellow Jackets 12-6. It ranked next to Amarillo's victory in importance during the week. Waco's 13-6 win which crashed Adamson from the unbeaten list was another feature.

Standings in districts which have played conference games follow:

NEWARK FAVORITE

COLUMBUS, O., Oct. 4 (AP)—The Newark Bears, International league champions, were slight favorites over the Columbus Red Birds, American Association titlist today as the two teams prepared for the fifth game of the 1937 little world series tonight after a day of idleness because of rain. Columbus holds a three to one edge over Newark.

TERRY'S GREEN PASTURES

New York's Polo Grounds, a nickel subway ride from Broadway, will be the scenes of the third and fourth games of this year's world series. In a clash between the Yankees and the Giants, the power of the Ruppert rifles against the tough Terrysmen, the strategy of Joe McCarthy against Bill Terry, thousands of shouting fans will jam the stadium to capacity to witness baseball's big show.

TODAY'S ANNIVERSARY—Rutherford B. Hayes, 19th president of U.S., born October 4, 1830.

The Major Part

Recommendation of the American Bar association, that a number of Federal district and circuit judges be appointed, pleased the attorney general who considered it a complete capitulation to a major part of the president's court reorganization program.

The fight against the president's program was on his insistence that more judges be added to the supreme court unless some of the judges now sitting should retire.

The proposal to increase the supreme court may arise again in the next session of the congress. If it does it should be put to sleep, just as it was in the recent session.

Man About Manhattan

NEW YORK—Last night at supper our waitress said, "It will cost you an extra dime if you have a second cup of coffee. The order came through this afternoon."

This, I think, was a mistake. Coffee is such an intangible part of good fellowship that it should be held apart from the ordinary, rather matter-of-fact details of a routine meal.

Unhappily, the restaurants and cafes in New York don't seem to realize this important verity. The coffee here is generally vile, and most of the cafe owners labor under the belief that to make good coffee, all one has to do is pour hot water through the grounds.

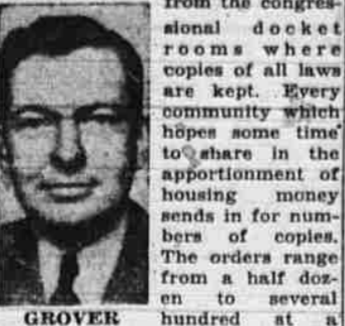

If I were commissioner of restaurants in New York I would insist on every restaurant owner establishing his right to the trade. If he made bad coffee I would most certainly deny him a permit.

Why is there so much bad coffee in New York? Why are there so many bad paintings and bad novels, and, you are perfectly right in adding, so many bad columnists? The deficiency is by no means local.

GROVER hundred at a time. The larger orders usually come from members of congress who are eager to distribute copies of one of the limited number of laws enacted last session.

Another popular number is the farm tenancy bill. As was expected, it is most in demand in the south and midwest. But officials of the document room were surprised by continued large orders for the act from Michigan.

Ready For Miners

The far west has a particular interest in the bill extending the time for prospectors to complete required development work on mining claims. Prospectors are required to do at least $100 worth of work a year on mining claims to hold title to them.

With Pictures

Another document in steady demand is the report of the LaFollette committee on its investigation into the Chicago Memorial Day incident in which 11 steel strikers were killed in a brush with police.

The document clerks did a neat piece of detective work in connection with one request for the LaFollette committee report. A postal card came to capitol hill addressed simply: "Senate Report, Part 2, 75 Congress, Number 46, Washington."

Evidently some organization has been urging that the report, which contained police photos of hand-picked strikers, be more widely read, for a Los Angeles public library asked for copies of the document in a manner almost identical with that of Petrovic of Detroit.

The document is one of the very few published by congress with illustrations. It reproduces several photographs of tangled piles of strikers to support its conclusion that the consequences of the Memorial Day encounter were clearly avoidable by the police.

Hollywood

Sights and Sounds By Robbin Coons

HOLLYWOOD—A lot of players would give their front teeth (so easily replaced) to get one, but the court records indicate that a Warner contract is something to escape, not seek.

Kay Francis is the latest to ask her freedom. Before her were Bette Davis, Ann Dvorak, and James Cagney, the latter—so far—alone successful. Other stars—William Powell, Ruth Chatterton, Edward G. Robinson, Dick Powell, Joan Blondell—have had quarrels with the studio that never reached the courts.

Most studios somehow keep their family squabbles inside the lots. They all have discontented stars—who will tell you confidentially that the guys up front haven't the slightest idea what they're doing—but the Warners have hogged the courtroom spotlight consistently of late years.

recent times resulted in a new production company that is now on top. When Barry Zanuck spotted Jack Warner during those troublous salary-cut times of 1933, he walked. He was a liberty only briefly before Joe Schenck telephoned. Came Twentieth Century—and shortly the merger with Fox.

Another one-between Connie Bennett and Gloria Swanson—indirectly cost RKO a major flop. Connie, having married Gloria's ex-marquis, acquired the story "Rockabye" which Gloria had set her heart on "Rockabye" didn't rock along very well. It ended by costing a million dollars to make and remake, and did nothing for Bennett.

A publicity feud—the Winchell-Bernie thing—helped bring both to pictures. Their second now under way testifies to the success of the first, which played up the "feud." The new one is "Love and Hisses."

COWHANDS PLAY FIVE GAMES ON OTHER FIELDS

ABILENE, Oct. 4—The Hardin-Sumner University Cowboys, victors in their first two intercollegiate grid clashes at home, will travel more than 7000 miles before they play again in their home corral, on November 19.

The Purple and Gold prepared today, under the direction of Coach Frank Kimbrough, to take their record of ten straight wins, and travel 2500 miles to Los Angeles and return to meet Coach Tom Lieb's Roaring Lions of Loyola University, in Gilmore Stadium, next Friday night. This contest precedes the Southern California-Oklahoma State tangle in Los Angeles, on next Saturday afternoon.

Games with the West Texas Teachers, at Canyon, on October 15, with the East Texas Teachers, at Commerce, on October 29, and with the Kansas State Teachers, of Emporia, at Wichita Falls, on November 8, complete the heaviest road schedule for the Cowboys in recent years.

Oklahoma City University is to be the next home foe of the Cowboys, on November 10. The season winds up with the homecoming battle, with Howard Payne College, of Brownwood, a traditional foe, on December 4.

NEW YORK, Oct. 4 (AP)—Seems the Giants and Yanks just can't wait... Right now they're embroiled in a bitter warfare as they'll stage starting Wednesday... All over hotel rooms, too... For two years several members of the Yanks, including Frank Crosetti and Joe DiMaggio have made their New York homes at a hotel, hard by Central Park (where Jimmy Braddock headquarters)... With the opening of schools last month, 14 Giants (Mel Ott among them) held in at the same inn... Somebody has got to move, for if there is anything against Judge Landis' rules it is for players on opposing world's series teams to stop at the same hotel... Both sides refuse to evacuate... So what, Judge? Brothers, it was quite a football play beginning tomorrow with two 18-hole rounds... The championship finals are set for Saturday over 36 holes.

day... Minnesota getting its bumps was the big news of course... (and what a way for good old Biff Jones to break in at Nebraska)... If Minneapolis and St. Paul papers hadn't had their own war correspondents at Lincoln they never would have believed what happened... First world series arrival is Casey Stengel... He wasn't in town an hour before he was carrying a banner in the line picketing a Brooklyn newspaper plant... Fort Worth got into the Texas League play-off with Oklahoma City with three pitchers aged 44, 42 and 38 respectively... After being tossed by his books at two universities, Orville Matthews, Oklahoma's million dollar backfield prospect, has found the colts game and teamed a home with Gloomly Gus Henderson's Los Angeles pro Bulldogs.

Cleaning the cuff: Heeding a request, here's the remainder of the Texas Tech football schedule: October 9, Detroit at Detroit; October 16, Arizona at Detroit; October 23, New Mexico at home; October 30, Oklahoma A. and M. at Stillwater; November 5, Loyola at Lubbock; November 11, Duquesne at Lubbock; November 20, Centenary at Shreveport; November 25, Creighton at Lubbock... Olle Cordeiro twice made nine yard gains in the game for Rice against Oklahoma but he didn't get any more chances... Samuel Flowers, the other Big Spring boy at the Houston school, played about half the game...

DiMaggio Consistent NEW YORK, Oct. 4 (AP)—Despite his last-month batting slump, Joe DiMaggio, the New York Yankee's deadpin dynamite, wound up the big league baseball season at the "star" of the campaign. He was mentioned on 20 occasions during the year in the Associated Press' daily list of "yesterday's stars." Second to him for the season was Hank Greenberg of the Detroit Tigers, with 17 nominations on the daily list during the season. Ducky Medwick of the Cardinals was third, with 16, and Lefty Gomez, DiMaggio's teammate, had 15.

Chapter Four "Stick Close To Her"

Tonight Nina did not notice her beautiful room, or drink it in appreciatively, as she usually did. She drew her things off over her head, cold-creamed her face, brushed her teeth and hair and opened the windows, in a sort of daze; and the minute she was in bed, she started to cry, softly.

Nina brushed her hair in a sort of daze.

like Annie, who mend your clothes and look after you, and never forget things... and then there are people like your mother, who make all the fun and gaiety in the world. Now you couldn't expect Annie to make you scream with laughter, and take up wonderful new kinds of games, and have all the kinds of crazy about her, could you?... No, Well then, you mustn't expect your mother, who brings you so much of another kind of happiness, to be like Annie, as well. That's sensible, isn't it?"

Nina had been able to see that it was. After that she had thought of Honey as having a very special sort of gift—as indeed she had—and had understood her much better.

Never Been In Love "Once or twice she had come upon her father unexpectedly, with an inexpressible and look in his brown eyes, and she had wondered if Honey's special gift brought him as much happiness as it did others; but she had been too young to think very much about it. It was not until she was 16, and daddy had another little private talk with her, that she understood better."

It had been in the library—Honey's room then—with rows of slightly musty books and dark worn leather chairs and sofa.

When he called her in for that second talk about Honey they had all known of his heart trouble—that he might go, suddenly, at any time.

He said: "I want to tell you some things, Nina dear, that I wouldn't be telling you if I were a well man. I'll plunge in." He sighed. "You may, or may not have noticed that your mother has never been—in love with me. That's very different, you know, child, from caring for someone. "Our mother cares for me a lot. As a young girl she was engaged to a man, and something went wrong... I practically browbeat her into marrying me."

Nina had interrupted. "Oh, daddy, darling, you couldn't browbeat anyone!"

"When I did, just the same, youngster; and I don't feel badly about it because we have you as a result, and we've been awfully happy together. Of course I should have let her go in a minute, if she had ever wanted to... ever met anyone else. But the point of all this is that your mother is still a child, almost. You're not old enough to know it yourself, but a normal passion, a love that is satisfied, matures a person—completes them. And Honey has never had that... All her sudden enthusiasms—her instability... her darling crazy fads, are simply because she has never been—crazy enough about me. Can you grasp all this, Nina dear?"

Well, now, a person like that needs a lot of looking after, and on the best of days I'm not going to be here much longer, to do it. "You've Got To Grow Up!"

"You had a grand childhood, haven't you? And I want you to forget all this, for now, and go on being just as young and silly as you like. But when I'm gone, Nina, he was very solemn, when I'm gone, you've got to grow up... and speedily. Will your promise me, child?"

"I do promise, daddy, I do." "And another thing, I don't want any loyalty to me, or your part to make you unhappy if your mother should marry again. I want her to... if he's the right man. She would turn into an entirely different person if she really fell in love, deeply... and if I'm anywhere up high enough to get a good view of her, I shall be entirely happy about it. But if he isn't the right man (and here's where you've got to be

Cell Treatment Used As A Cure For Speeders

Fifth In A Series By The AP Feature Service

SALT LAKE CITY—Utah's only feminine judge, who doesn't "allow a woman's sympathy to sway my judgment," is waging a successful fight against reckless and drunken drivers and speeders.

Her method: Minimum fines in minor speeding cases, $25; they range upwards to $100, depending on the driver's speed.

Reckless driving, fines of $10 to $150, based on the offense.

Drunk driving, fines range upward from $100.

Repeaters? To Jail

But in the six months she's presided over the Utah capital's only traffic court, only two repeaters have faced her.

Cuts Speeding Cases

One, charged with speeding a second time, went to jail eight days. The other, convicted of drunken driving a second time, got 30 days.

As evidence for her success, police records show only 12 persons were arrested as speeders last

FIRE PREVENTION WEEK

Suggestions On Precautions Against Fire Listed By State Official

A few suggestions on how to guard your home against fire is given in a statement from the fire prevention division of the state fire insurance department.

Eugene Sanders, head of that division, lists them briefly:

Keep your attic, cellar and closets free from easily flammable rubbish and waste material.

Be sure chimneys are in good condition, that smoke pipes are properly connected and supported, that heating and cooking appliances are properly installed.

Provide screens for stoves and fireplaces. Use metal containers for hot ashes. Avoid petroleum for starting or quickening fires.

Never use gas for cleaning purposes. Keep matches in a fireproof container beyond the reach of children.

Have electrical installations, repairs and alterations made by competent electricians. Be sure to disconnect electric pressing irons and other electrical appliances when through using them.

Never use coins or tin foil in place of electric fuses.

Guard against leaking gas by making sure that all cocks and connections are kept tight.

Never pass a lighted match along a gas pipe for the purpose of discovering a leak. Apply soap suds instead at suspected points.

Adequately insure your home and contents, but do not over-insure. If your home is damaged by fire, you will collect only the damage suffered to your home and contents and no more.
