Paul Barnett, Former Citizen, Dies March 2nd

Paul Barnett, auditor of Wichita county, and for many years an honored citizen of Hereford, died at Wichita Falls Thursday evening, March 2, after an extended illness occasioned by an accident received during the cold weather of early February. Funeral services were conducted by the Masonic Lodge of which order he was a member, Friday afternoon and burial made in Riverside Cemetery, Wichita Falls.

Mrs. Barnett, who with their two children, Paul, Jr., and James survive him, is a daughter of Mrs. J. M. Boone of Hereford. Ralph Barnett, owner of the Quality Drug Store here, is a brother of the deceased, and Mrs. J. Ray of Amarillo is a sister. Other brothers are Frank, of Kingsville; Breck, of Whitesboro; and Lee, of Orange, California. Another sister, Mrs. C. C. Shannon, lives at Whitesboro.

Mr. Barnett was severely injured during the early February cold weather when he received scalds on the neck and back from boiling water of an automobile radiator and from a bad scalp wound received when he slipped and fell in dodging back from the car. Influenza set in and recuperation was very slow, however he had returned to his office a week before his death, when a relapse set in that turned to pneumonia and from which he never recovered.

Mr. Barnett was born in Whitesboro, July 11, 1885, and a successful and honored business career had been his lot in each of the places he made his home. His religious, civic and community activities made him the friend of everyone. He was an active member of the several orders of Masonry, including the Shrine; closely associated with the Boy Scout work of his city, and was teacher of the senior boys and girls Sunday school class of the Highland Heights Christian church of Wichita Falls. He was an ardent hunter and sportsman, and was well known and liked by those to whom the Lake Kemp region is an annual pilgrimage.

Ralph Barnett left Wednesday evening of last week for Wichita Falls, his sister, Mrs. J. Ray, joining him in Amarillo. Mrs. Boone, mother of Mrs. Barnett, also went there that night.
