

Tornadoes:

Tips On What To Do And Where To Go During This Annual Season

BY JANIS LOCKHART
Brand Staff Writer

With the tornado season on its way in, there are several tips as to how to best protect oneself and family.

First, it helps to know the difference between the words, "Watch" and "Warning". A watch simply means that the weather bureau sees a need to place a certain area in a watch zone, so each can be aware that bad weather may appear. At that time, one has time to place personal belongings in a safe place then go on about as normal, but keeping up with any weather bulletins.

A Warning means that a tornado has been sighted and a person should take immediate action to get to a place of safety.

CHECKING with some of the schools in this area, Roger Huber, assistant principal at La Plata says, "We move the students out into the designated hall ways, which are the ones that are the farthest point from all windows and openings as soon as a warning is given, and we have tornado and evacuation drills and all students know what they are to do."

Charles Duvall, principal of Northwest Elementary, says, "We have all students assigned to designated areas to go to and stay while we are continually listening to the radio. If a tornado is coming in our direction, we then take further precautions such as crouching on floor and books over the head and anything else that might protect every child."

"If there are parents that are planning on picking up their child, they should always come to the office, never go to the child's room. One parent can not pick up another child from another family, unless we have this permission in writing before hand. If either of these are your plans, you need to make arrangements with the office soon."

THE PROCEDURE for Hereford High School is as follows:

Each floor of students are designated a certain place down on the first floor to report, also those that are up on the top floors are assigned which staircase to use to get to the first floor.

Students are to remain quiet at all times and be prepared for further instructions. Students are reminded to keep away from all windows and openings during bad weather such as hail, high winds, and tornadoes.

FROM THE Weather Bureau:
Tips for everyone that should be followed in case of a tornado are as follows:

If a tornado warning is issued for this area, move immediately to a cellar, basement, or civil defense shelter. If a person is in a home or other building with no basement, he should go to the lowest level in the center of the house or building. Take shelter in a small room or closet or under heavy furniture.

AT HOME, open a few windows to allow for sudden air pressure changes. Then find shelter.

Stay away from windows and buildings with wide, freestanding roofs.

In open country, escape by moving at a right angle to the tornado's path. If there is no time to escape, lie flat in a ditch or ravine but do not stay in a car.

Get far enough away from a trailer or mobile home to avoid injury if it is overturned.

WHEN a tornado is sighted it should be reported promptly to the nearest law officer of National Weather Service Office. Otherwise, officials advise not to make calls so that lines can be kept open for emergency information.

After a tornado, people should always wear shoes and gloves in cleanup operations and damage inspections. Watch for hazards like broken or downed electrical wires and broken gas pipes. When entering a storm-damaged building, watch for ceilings and walls that may be ready to fall.

Never light a match, smoke or carry open flames into a building until it is assured there are no gas leaks.

Do not sight see in disaster areas. Unauthorized persons only hamper rescue and cleanup operations.

Weather officials advise local residents to do everything that is possible to keep from causing panic, and try to remain in a calm attitude so it is possible to hear all further developments.

THAT FELLER on Tierra Blanca says the parent who expects to discover how to raise a child successfully by reading a book has a lot to learn.

A girl may wear a golf outfit when she can't play golf or a bathing suit when she can't swim, but when she tries on a wedding gown you'd better believe she means business.

RESULTS OF the school board election Saturday are not in this issue since, as most readers know, we print our paper on Saturday afternoon. A large voter turnout was anticipated since eight candidates were vying for the two trustee posts, and interest seemed to be running high.

The school trustee serves a vital role in the community, and performs a non-paying job that often offers little reward except the satisfaction of knowing he, or she, is providing an active voice in the education of our children.

A LADY called our office this week to complain about the traffic hazard at the drive-up mail boxes on 4th street. It's not a new complaint, and the situation has not gone unnoticed by this writer during some trips by the boxes.

People drop their mail in the boxes from all directions — driving up and sliding over in the front seat to reach out the car window, parking and walking around to the slots in the boxes, and parking across the street (either legally or illegally) and dashing across for the mail drop.

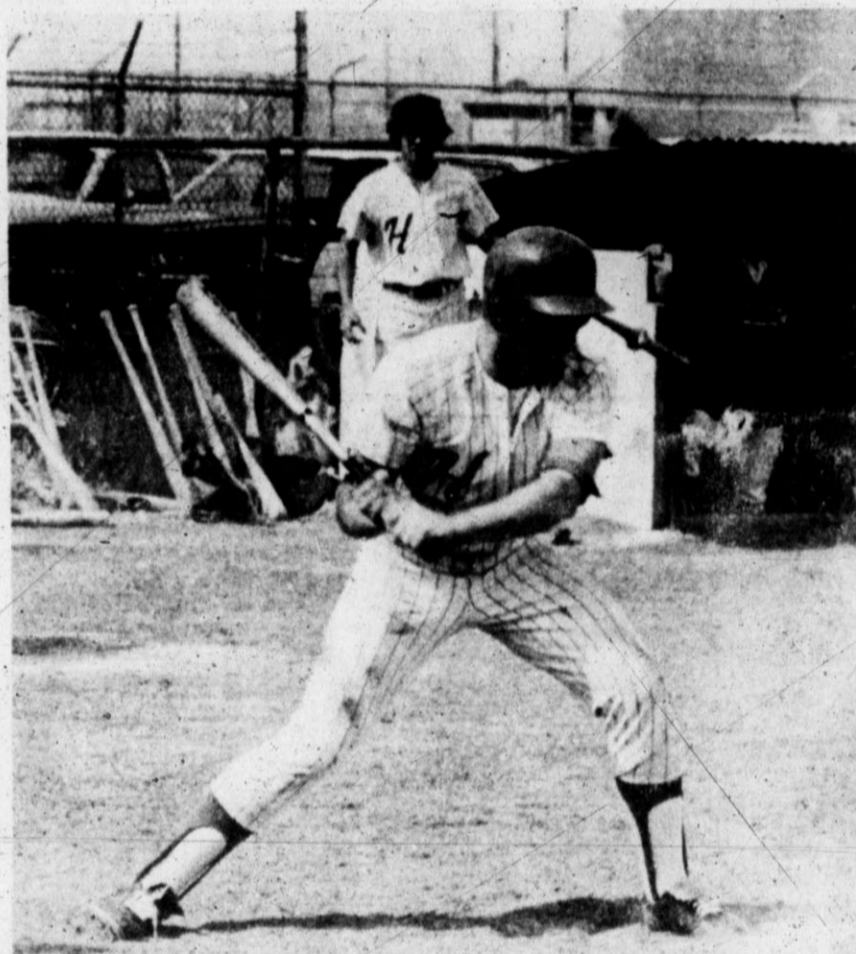

And, as the caller points out, it's sometimes dangerous to make a right-hand turn after depositing the mail. Motorists who have pulled around the mail-box line of traffic often take a right turn in the path of cars pulling out from the mail boxes.

A CHECK with Postmaster Nolan Grady revealed that he hears about the situation regularly and frequently, but cannot offer a solution. The postal department turned down a request for a drive-in facility and is also opposed to an "island" in the street.

At one time, Grady reports, the possibility of making the alley behind the post office a one-way thoroughfare was considered, with the drive-up boxes placed behind the building. However, the unloading zone for the grocery store on the north end of the block made this impractical as the alley would be blocked much of the time.

A solution that comes to mind is the possibility of making 4th a one-way street going east. Whether this is feasible for Hereford might be a question for some traffic experts, and there are more factors to consider. Would more than one block need to be considered in such a plan? Would firms along the street approve?

One way may not be the way, but we'd like to see the city commission study the problem. We need the boxes, but they need to be located for a safer, more efficient flow of traffic.

Hits Away

Candidates List Expenses, Name Campaign Managers

By DON RICHARDS
Brand News Editor

Opposed candidates for local political offices this week filed their list of expenditures and contributors for the first part of campaigning for election.

In addition, all candidates for school and county offices, listed their campaign managers along with the detailed list of expenditures.

Under the new campaign laws, this year all candidates who have opponents must file sworn statements listing all their campaign expenditures. Those statements are a matter of public record and are filed with County Clerk B.F. Cain.

THE THREE candidates for county judge have all spent reasonably about the same during early campaigning. All expenditures listed covered initial costs of printing and advertising materials such as cards. Very little media advertising was listed in the initial report.

All expenditures for the candidates in the commissioner races also mainly covered initial campaign material expenses.

Candidates for the school board also filed their initial expense reports with school tax assessor collector Orpha Click and their expenses almost totally covered newspaper and radio advertising.

ALL CANDIDATES must later file additional expense reports. School board candidates must file completed reports within 45 days after the election, which was held Saturday.

County candidates must file another expense report by April 29 before the May 4 primary. Additional reports must be filed before any June primary runoff and again at intervals before the General Election in November.

CANDIDATES, their campaign managers, and expenditures thus far are listed below:

COUNTY JUDGE
H.C. Williams — Ivan Block, campaign manager; $574.46.
J. Mike Ranspot — C.D. Burfield, campaign manager; $358.76.
Sam Morgan — Joe Kerr, campaign manager; $476.91.

COUNTY COMMISSIONER PCT. 2
W.H. (Bill) Griffin — Mrs. Steve (Gene) Clements, campaign manager; $233.67.

Grant Hanna — Clarence Morrison, campaign manager; $110.
Clinton Jackson — Mrs. O.G. Hill Sr., campaign manager; $278.22.
Austin Rose Jr. — Helen Rose, campaign manager; $199.01.
Joe Zinser — Eugene M. Zinser, campaign manager; $499.44.

COUNTY COMMISSIONER PCT. 4
M.W. (Webb) Blankenship — Webb Blankenship, campaign manager; $135.44.

Luther Lesly — Sharon Cramer, campaign manager; $146.24.
James Voyles — Wayne Richardson, campaign manager; $196.12.

SCHOOL TRUSTEES
Final expenditure report must be filed within 45 days. Almost all trustee candidates appointed themselves as campaign manager.

Lynton Allred, $55.60; Jim Clarke, $303.40; Jim Conkwright, $252.40; Mrs. Clint Forthby, $128; Lorenzo Granado, $139; Bill Johnson, $25.50; Charles Schlabs, $205.60; and Glenn Watts, $54.60.

Tornado Sirens To Be Tested

Hereford will again test its tornado siren system at 10 a.m. Tuesday, according to Jay Spain, fire marshal. Spain advised all local residents to be aware of the test so that they won't be falsely afraid, and also so that they will know the sound of a tornado alert.

Watson Out To Separate Crimes From Criminals

Larry Watson, Hereford's new Juvenile Probation Officer, with offices in the County Courthouse, came here from Amarillo after serving 2 years in the same capacity.

His training was as an undergraduate at Texas Tech in Social Sciences and is now working on his Masters at Sam Houston State in Criminology and Corrections. He attends the college each summer and will begin his third year this summer. He spends some time writing his thesis on "Run-Away youths."

As for Watson's duties here, he stresses the fact that he is a case worker, not law enforcement. An officer of the juvenile court is a simple way of describing his work and title.

After law enforcers hand a case over to him, he works on it, tries to solve the problem, and then he makes the final disposition of the case.

HIS JOB is broken down into three categories as follows: 1. Delinquent conduct; 2. Children in need of supervision; 3. and habitual violator of fineable misdemeanors.

Watson says, "I supervise caseload of official and administrative probation cases. A child on probation usually reports to me once a week, along with my making home visits, and having school conferences."

He pointed out that the average citizen-seeing what he believes to be a juvenile committing a crime would not report it to him but report it directly to the police. Law enforcement officers would be the ones to bring it to the juvenile probation officers' attention, if necessary.

"WE HAVE a new policy that I think will help," says Watson. "We will issue a warning ticket in cases for minor infractions. One copy will be given to the child, one copy to the parents, and the other will be in my file."

"There is a motto I would like to keep in mind and that is, 'Know a crank from a crime and a crime from a criminal.' Probation officers is a coming profession and looking for people to go into probation work, better known as The Field of Criminal Justice," says Watson.

THE MANUAL on criminology shows that in 1972 youths 17 and under accounted for 39.9 per cent of all index-crime arrests and about one-half of all burglary theft, auto-theft arrests.

Watson concluded with, "I am out to help all kids of this community and would like to work with these cases to keep kids from being sent to institutions for infractions that could be solved with supervision."

He is married and has one daughter, Rhonda. His wife Judy works at Deaf Smith General Hospital.

New Juvenile Officer

Larry Watson, new Deaf Smith County juvenile Officer has one main motto, "Know a crank from a crime and a crime from a criminal."

A fire gutted the home of the Robert Betzen's shortly after 10 a.m. Wednesday.
The house located eight miles northwest of town was ruled a total loss by Hereford Fire Marshal Jay Spain.
Spain said the exact cause of the blaze is now known, although he said the owners felt it started with a faulty bathroom heater.
Persons interested in aiding the Betzens may leave their contributions at Fulwood Electric.
In other action this week:

HHS Picks Trouble Shooters For Contest

Hereford High School has selected its Trouble Shooting team for the annual contest April 23 at Fenner Tubbs Co., Lubbock, according to Bill McDowell, of the school's automotive shop department.
The team members are Eugene Haschke, senior, Royce 1, Canyon; Brent Schmidt, senior, Box 422 Vega. The team will be sponsored by Jones Motor Company.
The contest is one of 100 regional meets being held throughout the country this spring. Regional winners will win all-expense trips to Plymouth's National Trouble Shooting Championship at Texas Stadium, home of the Dallas Cowboys, June 16, 17, 18, when they will compete for college scholarships and other prizes worth more than $90,000.

Trouble Shooters have to be outstanding in their auto shop classes to qualify for the regional contest. Auto shop instructors select two students on their classroom mechanical know-how to represent the school in the event.

These students form a Trouble Shooting Team and compete against top students in auto-mechanics from this area in the regional meet.
Each Trouble Shooting team is assigned to a new car in which a series of malfunctions have been deliberately placed. Malfunctions in all cars are identical, and all are related to the electrical, starting, ignition, fuel systems and body hardware of the cars. Teams race the clock and each other to find and fix the "bugs" and restore their cars to normal running order.
To win, however, a team must receive high marks in a written examination which is part of the contest and which contributes to the final score.
The program is sponsored by the schools and Plymouth dealers in the area as a means of encouraging students to complete their education.

Officers Make Arrests For Theft, Burglary

Hereford Police and Sheriff's officers this week arrested two persons in connection with two separate incidents of theft and burglary.
Monday Sheriff's officers arrested George Armstrong in connection with the theft of five irrigation motors from a farm just outside of Hereford. The man was charged with felony theft and was released under $2,000 bond.
Friday officers arrested a 17-year-old illegal Mexican alien in connection with the burglary of $135 in cash from Mrs. Abalos' Lil Charro Too Restaurant on U.S. 60.
About $100 was recovered in the case and the suspect remained in Deaf Smith County jail Friday pending action by local officials.

The Billy L. Miller family of Nacogdoches County has won the 1973 Texas Farmers Home Administration Farm Family of the Year Award, according to an announcement by J. Lynn Futch, State Director of the Farmers Home Administration in Temple.

The Miller family of Route 3, Garrison, Tex., was selected from 18 district winners nominated for the award. This is the fourth year that the Agency has selected a state winner. Those nominated are farm families who have made outstanding success through the use of Farmers Home Administration credit in developing a family farm, while at the same time, contributing to the betterment of agriculture and their community.

Futch stated that the State Selection Committee had a difficult job in determining the final winner due to the outstanding programs of all families nominated.

The Miller family own and operate a 51-acre broiler farm with an additional 760 acres leased for a beef cattle program and additional broiler houses. Their beef herd consists of 125 mother cows with 50 heifers for replacements and expansion.

Six broiler houses with a capacity of 80,000 broilers per run produced 1,554,660 pounds of meat for the American consumer in 1973. Mr. and Mrs. Miller provide all the labor and no hired labor is used in the day-to-day operations of the farm.

Starting out in 1969 with Farmers Home Administration financing, the Miller family, through improved management practices, hard work, and the wise use of credit, has been able to develop a most successful and profitable family farm, while at the same time exemplifying rural community leadership and citizenship at its best. The Millers have one son and one daughter and all are active in school, church, and community affairs.

As a State winner, the Miller family will compete for the National Farmers Home Administration Farm Family of the Year Award in Washington in April. The National winner will receive a trip to Washington where they will be honored.

Survey Researches Sod House History

Did you ever live in a sod house, a dugout, or an adobe building; or were you born in one?

Did you ever teach school, attend school or church services in such a building, or help build one?

Or are you a child or perhaps a grandchild of a former pioneer sod house dweller or builder?

If you can answer "yes" to any of these questions, the Sod

House Society of America, with head quarters at Colby, Kansas, would like to hear from you.

The unique society is making a survey and census of people who have had any kind of personal experience with sod structures, including descendants of such persons. Sod Houses, dugouts, part sod, and adobe buildings were once common in the United States, Canada, and Mexico.

All former sod dwellers and descendants of a family that can claim a part of the sod house heritage during the pioneer settlement era of North America, or in more recent times, will be listed by the society in a permanent historical record of sod; dugout and above dwellers and their families. Sod buildings in some form were used in well over half the North American Continent.

To make this survey a success, information is needed from people in all parts of North America. If you have any information concerning present or former sod dwellers, a report of this will be most welcome. Please tell where the buildings were located, and give family names, as well as your own. Reports should be sent to: Sod House Survey of Texas, Colby, Kansas 67701.

VOTE "BILL" GRIFFIN
DEMOCRAT
AN EXPERIENCED BUSINESSMAN FOR COUNTY COMMISSIONER PCT. 2

WHO IS W.H. "BILL" GRIFFIN?
This is a question I hope will be asked less and less as I get the chance to talk to each of the voters in Precinct 2. To answer briefly, however, I have lived in Hereford for a little more than two years now, although I have many old friends here and have owned a cattle-feeding operation here for six years. This city is now my permanent home. I was born in Saratoga, Texas, and during my career have worked as an employee in executive positions or consultant for a large number of major industrial, petroleum and petroleum equipment companies. This was fairly natural, since I began my career working at a Standard Oil service station in 1930. I now live with my wife, Randy, at 400 Sunset Drive. We have five children, none of whom lives with us at present. I attended college at the University of Texas, University of Houston and Rice University, taking courses in management, finance, and mechanical and petroleum engineering.

WHY AM I RUNNING FOR COUNTY COMMISSIONER?
At present, I am controlling my work hours, but still active with my own company, Griffin Industries, which includes oil well service, business consulting, and cattle feeding operations. Now that I have the time, I would like to focus my experience and qualifications on serving the community in which I live. One of the most impressive characteristics of this area is the constant effort by everyone to prevent needless waste. People around here seems to get the most possible use out of everything. I think the county government should operate on the same principles, which are consistent with my experiences in the industrial, and oil industry. I sincerely feel that my professional training can be put to good use in helping the Deaf Smith County government operate as efficiently as possible.

WHAT ARE MY QUALIFICATIONS?
Although I have never been active in a government capacity, I have always felt, like most people, that government at any level is basically a business operation. With this view in mind, I can offer as qualifications my knowledge of finance, cost analysis, projected statements of operation, economic analysis, personnel relations and management. In addition, my extensive experience in maintenance and operation of all kinds of mobile heavy equipment can be applied effectively to the county's road building and maintenance operations. In private enterprise, I have been able to use my knowledge and experience successfully, and feel certain that both will prove useful in providing sound, efficient government for the citizens of Deaf Smith County.

Piranhas Posted

Lately, the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department has been having a few problems with its program for potentially harmful tropical fish.

Some people who have permits to keep piranhas, for example, in the aquaria have failed to keep the department posted on what they have done with their unusual pets.

However, William Whitaker of Iowa Park has observed not only the letter of the law but also the spirit, leaning a little heavily on the spirit.

Whitaker, an erstwhile keeper of piranhas, responded to the department's yearly questionnaire on the condition of his fish.

Did he still have them, were they alive, if dead what did he do with them?

Alas, Whitaker's piranhas have been called to that great aquarium in the sky.

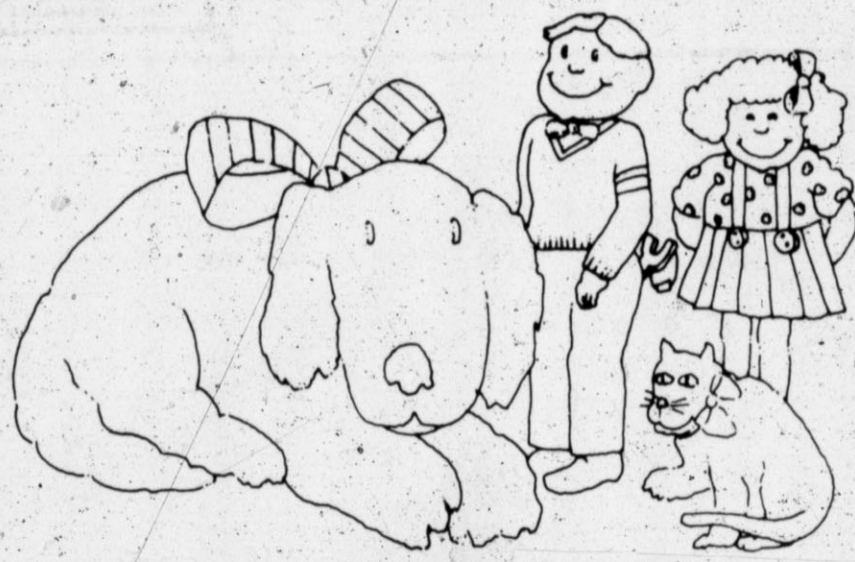

And what was done with the corpora piranha?

The dead and desiccated fish arrived in the department by mail neatly taped to the questionnaire.

A repulsed secretary was heard to comment: "It's a good thing we don't issue permits to keep tarpon."

The Hereford Whitefaces dropped to a 1-7 district record Friday when they dropped both ends of a double-header to Lubbock High 12-0 and 9-5 in baseball action here.

San Jose Celebra La Semana Santa

Esta semana el mundo Cristiano pausa para considerar de nuevo los eventos y actos de N.S. Jesu Cristo durante los ultimos dias de su vida.

Comenzamos con la entrada triunfante de Cristo el domingo de los ramos con todas las implicaciones del sufrimiento amenazante. Leemos la pasion segun los evangelistas para ponernos en el espiritu de esta semana.

Ciertamente Jesus sufrio, mario, y se sepulto para salvar todos los hombres y el mundo. Pero la semana santa no para en la cruz sangrienta ni en la tumba.

Ella nos conduce a la gloria de la resurreccion: "Les he enseñado que murio por nuestros pecados... que lo sepultaron y que resucito al tercer dia, como tambien dicen las escrituras." 1 Cor. 15:3-5. La Iglesia de San Jose, en union con todas las otras iglesias de la comunidad, conmemora aquellos ultimos actos amorosos de Cristo:

Domingo de Ramos El De Abril: Misas a las 9 a.m.; 11:30 a.m. y 5 p.m. antes de la misa a las 11:30 hay la bendicion solemne de los ramos y procesion Lunes, Martes, y Miercoles hay la santa misa a las 8:15 p.m. despues las confesiones.

Jueves santo el 11 de Abril: conmemoramos la institucion del sacerdocio y de la sagrada eucaristia. La misa comienza a las 8:30 p.m. Durante la misa habra la lava de pies imitando Cristo en su accion humilde de lavar los pies de los apóstoles: "Yo les he dado un ejemplo... ningun siervo es mas que su amo." Jn. 13:15-6.

Despues de la misa procesion al altar de reposo y adoracion del santisimo hasta la medianoche. No hay adoracion despues de la medianoche ni durante viernes santo: "El gozo de jueves santo cede a la tristeza del viernes santo."

Viernes santo el 12 de Abril: El culto liturgico a las 8:30 p.m. despues la viacrucis.

Sabado santo el 13 de Abril: el servicio religioso comienza a las 11 p.m. la bendicion del fuego, oracion y bendicion de la vela pascual, oracion solemne, bendicion del agua pascual, bautismos y a la medianoche la misa de gloria.

Domigo de las pascuas floridas el 14 de Abril hay misas a las 9 a.m.; 11:30 a.m.; y 5 p.m.

Letters To The Editor Says 'Thanks' For Festival

I would like to express my sincere appreciation to each individual and each group or organization who participated in the Fine Arts Festival this past week end.

The quality of all the work displayed during the festival we feel was exceptional. Exceptional also describes all of those who gave their time and energy to help promote this county wide educational and cultural activity.

Receives Elite Honor At A&M

Steven Olson, son of Mr. and Mrs. George L. Olson of Route 3, was presented a Senior Merit Award at the annual Texas A&M University Agricultural Convocation on April 2. He was one of 12 award recipients in a graduating class of 570 students. Olson was recognized for involvement in the following: Junior and Senior Meat Judging Team, Junior and Senior Livestock Judging Team, Ag Council, Dean's Idea Committee and Phi Eta Sigma and Alpha Zeta Honorary Fraternities. The TAMU senior has received the Texas and Southwestern Meat Packers' Scholarship, the Houston Industry Association Scholarship and a junior scholarship award from the Block and Bridle Club. He is presently serving as vice-president of the Saddle and Siroin Club at A&M. Following graduation on May 11, Olson will be engaged in farming and ranching in the Hereford area.

My special thanks goes to the Chairman of Art, Music, and Drama, Inez Albright, Ruby Carmichael and Amy Gilliland, along with each member of their committees, who jointly and generously donated much time and hard work.

To each of you who displayed items, set them up, removed them, sat with them, provided entertainment through music and drama, a very special thank you. Each of you are so very much appreciated.

Finally, and of equal importance the approximately 750 people who came out to view the displays and programs presented made the project more than worth while.

There is no doubt, Deaf Smith County possesses the most talented, cooperative, hard working, and wonderful people. Our news media, the Hereford Brand and KPAN, as they always are, have been so gracious in the publicity of the Fine Arts Festival.

I believe with all my heart, Deaf Smith County, gave the State of Texas, their reputation for being truly the Greatest and Best.

We are grateful to Lou Clark of El Paso, Texas, for providing additional highlights to our program through her art demonstrations both Saturday and Sunday.

Many, Many Thanks, Wanda Newman, Fine Arts Director, Womens Division of the Chamber of Commerce

Fashion apparel with looks from the 1930s and '40s will combine to form a look for the '70s in a spring fashion show to be presented by Amarillo College retailing and merchandising students. The showing will be held Tuesday in the Concert Hall Theater.

Theme of the 7:30 p.m. showing, "The Mating of Time, '30-'40 equal '70," will reveal an insight into today's latest fashions which originated in the '30 and '40 era.

Mrs. Vickie Doherty, sophomore student in the program, will commentate the show.

Merchants who employ the students will provide fashions, to be shown by class members. Included are Alexander's, Inc., Blackburn's, Colbert's of Amarillo, Fashion Corner II, The Hollywood, Hub Clothiers, Lerner Shops, Montgomery Wards, Sakowitz, and Sears Roebuck and Co.

Among those modeling garments will be Marilyn Fowler of Dimmitt.

Proceeds from the show will help finance a trip to send sophomore retailing and merchandising students to the Dallas Apparel Mart in January.

There's Trouble Ahead For Imported Cars

By BOB HILL
Lentz, Newton & Co
Amarillo

Have you noticed the gradual shift in the sales pitch for foreign cars lately? It's not a matter of price, it's the economy and the quality of construction.

The reason is that the foreign car is no longer competitive in price, and price has been the only really strong thing going for the imported car.

Detroit has pushed the big car for years because the profit margins are substantially higher. The difference in the manufacturing costs of a Cadillac over a Chevrolet are not that significant, but the markup is.

This left the small car market to the imports, especially Volkswagen, Datsun and Toyota. Those three companies sold a total of 1.1 million cars in the U.S. in 1973. That was 64 per cent of all foreign car sales and 10 per cent of all of the cars, foreign and domestic, sold in the U.S. last year.

BUT NOW the importers are getting ready for serious problems. Foreign car sales plunged 20 per cent in February. Total American made car sales were off even more, but sales of the small American made cars rose four per cent and that's what has frightened foreign car manufacturers.

The basic price of a Volkswagen Beetle has jumped 31 per cent from $1,999 to $2,655 in just one year. The Ford Pinto and the GM Vega both sell for about $200 less. The two-door Datsun B210 has a retail price of $2,629, just a few dollars less than the Beetle. The Toyota Corona retails for $3,500, up from $2,500 less than 24 months ago.

WHEN THE foreign car loses the price advantage it once enjoyed and still has to compete against an American made product which also offers economy, then foreign car sales are going to go just one way. Down.

The problem in Germany and Japan has been a high rate of inflation in both countries. The price of raw materials has skyrocketed while labor costs continue to rise. So the importer either cuts his price to compete and sees his profit margins disappear or he raises his prices to protect his profit margins and loses potential sales.

ONE ANSWER to the problem is for the foreign car manufacturer to make even smaller, more economical cars than the American made compacts. Both Fiat and Honda have cars much smaller than the Ford Pinto, with better than 30 mpg performance.

However, as the fuel shortage cases, the emphasis on fuel economy will not be as critical as it was several months ago.

Several foreign car manufacturers are considering production plants in the U.S. in order to offset the price advantage now enjoyed by American car manufacturers. Volkswagen has been looking for an assembly plant location for over a year while Toyota and Nissan, which makes the Datsun, are giving the idea serious consideration.

Federal Jobs Offered To Locale

The United States Civil Service Commission has begun a comprehensive project to improve recruiting and examining for Federal employment. The Dallas Area

Office of the Civil Service Commission will begin a new system of accepting applications for Federal employment effective April 1, 1974 under this new project.

IN ANNOUNCING the change, Vere B. Robinson, manager of the Commission's Dallas Area Office, described the change as a major step forward in providing better service to the people in the North Texas area. The improved system will work very simply from the public's standpoint, according to Mrs. Robinson.

The Dallas Area Office will no longer issue examination announcements for Federal jobs. Persons interested in non-postal Federal employment in the North Texas area need only visit, or call toll-free, the Federal Job Information Center in Dallas.

They will be given information on anticipated job vacancies and the employment outlook for the North Texas area. If there is a known need for the person's skills, an application for employment will

They will also be given information about qualification requirements and application procedures for those expected vacancies.

IF THE PERSON wishes to apply for a Federal position for which there is no immediate hiring need, the system provides for accepting a job interest card for notifying the person should a vacancy occur.

At that time, the person will be requested to complete an application and take any necessary examination for employment consideration. Under this new system, any citizen will be able to file either an application for employment or a job interest card at any time they are interested in Federal employment.

So that accurate job information will be available to the public, Federal agencies in the North Texas area will be required to notify the Civil Service Commission quarterly of their anticipated job vacancies.

THERE IS NO change in the basic merit system of open publicity for job opportunities, free competition, rating of candidates against job related requirements, and selection from the top three candidates available without regard to race, religion, sex, national origin, political affiliation or any other non-merit factors.

INFORMATION about this system, or Federal employment in general, can be obtained from the Federal Job Information Center, Room 1C42, 1100 Commerce Street, Dallas, Texas 75202. Anyone in the North Texas area (including the Panhandle area) may call toll-free by dialing 1-800-492-4400. Those persons living in the Dallas metropolitan area may call by dialing 749-3156.

Clayton Takes To Campaign Trail

State Representative Bill Clayton, returning home from a recess in the Texas Constitutional Convention in order to take his campaign for reelection throughout District 74 (Bailey, Castro, Cochran, Deaf Smith, Lamb, Oldham and Parmer Counties), has officially announced his candidacy.

Representative Clayton is the leader in the House on such West Texas matters as water and agricultural legislation, and a leading investigator concerning fertilizer, chemical, fuel and machinery shortages currently plaguing the state.

He has gained state-wide stature during his tenure in office and is now one of the leading candidates for Speaker of the House for the next session of the legislature.

H³ HUSTLE HUSTLE HUSTLE

By Bill Albright, Executive Vice President
Deaf Smith County Chamber Of Commerce

BEEF! BEEF! BEEF! It's really amazing how easy it is to take things for granted or to be almost completely unaware of what goes on right here in our immediate vicinity. The volume of beef production is unbelievable. Just ask someone, you feel should be in the know, how many head of cattle are fed in the feedlots in Deaf Smith County in one year. The answers you get may surprise you.

We did some checking and found that the one-time capacity for feedyards in the county is almost 4000,000. You can use a factor of 2 to 2.4 to determine the number fed yearly. Now that's just in the county can you imagine what kind of figure we'd have in a 50-mile radius of Hereford?

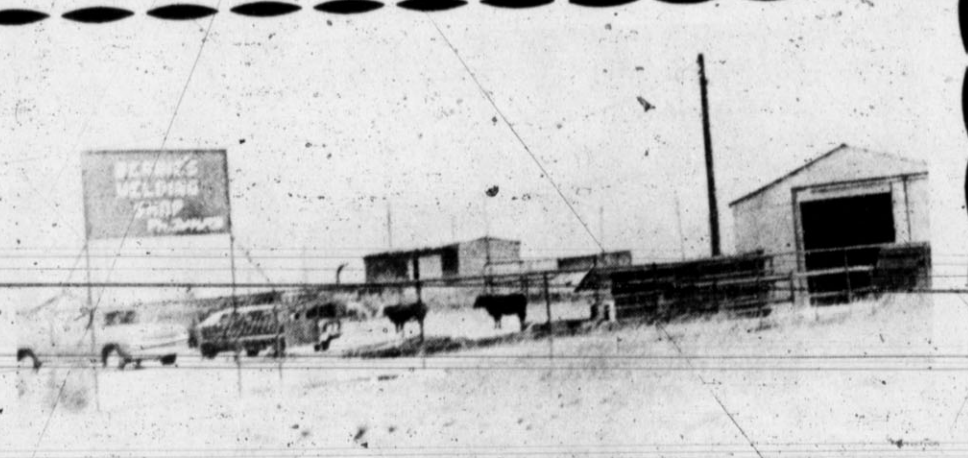

Okay, using Southwestern Public Service figures with a 9-per cent increase over 1973, the 'one time' feedlot capacity is 1,587,000—with a turnover factor of only 2, you can see that we are the very center of the cattle-feeding industry with an annual capacity of well over 3 million head. That's pretty hard to realize, but it sure is a lot of beef. But there's more to it.

Just visualize the total effort to support such a monstrous industry the feed required for each animal each day averages roughly 20 pounds. Now multiply that by 3 million. Takes a lot of acres to grow that kind of forage... and to haul it, and to move the cattle first to the pens, and then to the packing plants. And speaking of packing plants, within a 50-mile radius of Hereford there are eight packing plants and the ninth is under construction. (Most of the other eight have recently expanded, are in the process, or are planning expansion.)

The combined daily capacity of these plants, based on one eight-hour shift is more than 10,000 head—that's a whole lot of steaks, roasts, and hamburger.

Of course, to us, it's much more—it's a livelihood—a career—even a way of life. And our part in the beef industry impacts heavily on the entire beef market. So here in Hereford, Texas, we represent Beef Headquarters for the whole industry. Whew!! All the effort that goes into a production like that takes lots of Hustle, Hustle, Hustle.

Down, Down... Broilers Not Chicken Feed... Citrus Crop Report Shows Decline.

For the 17th consecutive month, milk production has shown a decline. In Texas, milk production during February dropped four per cent below a year ago, and seven per cent under a month ago. Milk production in Texas during February totaled 244,000,000 pounds.

Milk production per cow averaged 700 pounds during February. This is 10 pounds below last year and 50 pounds below the previous month.

Nationwide, milk production during February showed a three per cent decline. Production during the first two months of 1974 was three per cent below the corresponding period a year ago.

Milk production per cow on a nationwide basis stabilized during February. Production per cow was 776 pounds; this is the same as a year ago. But it is six per cent below January of this year.

Milk cows on farms during February totaled 11,227,000 head. This is down three per cent from the same month a year ago.

Meanwhile, dairy price supports to become effective April 1, will be at the lowest level permitted by law—80 per cent.

Continued high cost of production is the main reason for a continuing decline in milk production. For example, Texas dairymen paid an average of $137 per ton for mixed dairy feed (16 per cent protein) in January compared to $105 per ton in February of 1973.

Texas dairymen paid an average of $86 per ton in February for baled alfalfa hay compared to $71 per ton in February of 1973.

THE BROILER business in Texas is not chicken feed, according to a summary from the Texas Crop and Livestock Reporting Service.

Gross income from broilers in Texas during 1973 totaled $146,221,000. This is an increase of more than $50,000,000 over 1972.

Country Crops Committee Plans Year's Schedule

Twenty-three members and guests attended the Spring meeting of the Deaf Smith County Crops Committee in Hereford, Monday night.

Those in attendance were: Dr. Bill Clymer, Dr. Frank Petr, Bill Masch, Leon New, Extension Specialists and Justin T. McBride, County Extension Agent. Jerry Roberts, Chairman, Eldred Brown, Layton Sawyer, Carl Straffuss, Paul Scott, Waldo Baxter, Robert Viegell, Hugh Clearman, Raymond Schlabs, Pete Nash and Donald Douglas. Guests included: Charles Schiabs, President of Deaf Smith Water Association, Ed Blackwell and three of the committee members wives.

A Dutch dinner was held at K-Bob's and some of the members brought their wives in order to give them an insight into the activities of the crops committee meetings. It was decided that all wives would be invited to attend the next meeting.

The first order of business was the election of a chairman for 1974-75. Carl Straffuss and Eldred Brown were nominated with Brown being elected.

Jerry Roberts opened the floor for discussion on educational meetings and result demonstrations planned for this year. The county crops and conservation tour will be held September 24; a crops clinic on December 12; a sugar beet clinic in January, 1975; and an irrigation clinic in February of 1975.

Result demonstrations established or planned for the year are: wheat variety — 12 varieties on the Raymond Schlabs farm; grain sorghum variety and disease evaluation — 80 varieties on the Clark Andrews farm; feed lot manure and fertilizer test of grain sorghum on the Raymond Schlabs farm — 10 and 20 ton rates of manure will be compared against nitrogen and phosphorus chemical fertilizers; irrigation — time and interval — demonstrations of grain sorghum and sugar beets on the Charles Schlabs farm; demonstrations comparing sprinkler vs. furrow irrigation of corn and grain sorghum on the E.D. and Layton Sawyer farm; irrigation of grain sorghum on 30' vs. 60' rows on the Donald Douglas farm; and irrigation of corn on 32' vs. 64' rows on the Gerald McCathern farm.

Charles Schlabs, President of Deaf Smith Water Association, expressed the concern of the association regarding the wasting of water by some farmers in the county. The committee was asked to join with the association in conducting educational programs, research and all methods of encouraging farmers to make maximum efficient use of our water. The High Plains Underground Water Association will be asked to exercise control to prevent undue waste of water.

Dr. Bill Clymer, Extension Entomologist, explained the pesticide laws to be faced by farmers in the future and explained the results of last year's "area insect control program" used in the Plainview area. His opinion is that private companies will be offering this service in the near future.

Thanks were expressed to the outgoing chairman, Jerry Roberts, for his two years of excellent leadership and to Eldred Brown of the Walcott Community, the incoming chairman.

Reports Earnings

Ada Resources, Inc. commenced operations today as a newly formed public company which will be traded over-the-counter.

Unaudited pro forma earnings for the operation of the company for the 12-month period ended Dec. 31, 1973, were announced by the company today. Pro forma net earnings for the period totaled $2,772,000, (54 cents per share) on revenues of $60,141,000. The pro forma results covered all areas of the newly formed company's operations including its oil and gas exploration and production; transportation and marketing of petroleum products; and operation of two custom-cattle feedlots.

An estimated one-third of the Ada Resources Common Stock is presently owned by residents of Hereford, according to company officials.

In New England, burdock leaves were once used as a fever remedy. They weren't so hot!

DS County Livestock Committee Scheduled Educational Programs

The Deaf Smith County Livestock Committee held its semi-annual spring meeting with a Dutch treat dinner Wednesday at K-Bob's Steak House in Hereford. Elmo Hall, Chairman of the committee introduced the following guests for the District Extension Service in Amarillo: Dr. Gene Cope, Dr. Bill Clymer, Dr. Cal Parrot and Bill Masch. Members of the committee in attendance included Elmo Hall, chairman and stocker cattle operator; Thurman Atchley, registered Angus breeder; Austin Rose, Jr., stocker cattle and cattle feeder; Gerald McCathern, registered Charalais cattle and dry lot operation; Charles Hoover, Southwest Feed Yard; Jim Hysinger, registered Charalais and stocker cattle; Dr. Aaron Hutto, veterinarian; David Brumley, rancher and stocker operator; Jim Conkwright, registered Hereford Ranch; and Justin T. McBride, County Extension Agent.

Hall was reelected by acclamation to serve as committee chairman for another year.

The group then planned a number of educational programs to be conducted during the coming year. A Beef Cattle Short Course will be held for Deaf Smith, Castro and Parmer Counties at the Easter Community Center in September. Stocker health, Dry lot cow operation, Baby calf operations, cross breeding and supplemental feeding will be among the subjects to be taught.

Four cowboy clinics will be held at each community in the county during September. The clinics will be designed for small groups to see demonstrations and then participate in doing the things being taught. These clinics will be aimed at the man who works with the cattle on a day-to-day basis. All the basic principles in caring for the health and management of stocker cattle will be included.

Demonstrations planned for the year will include: Alfalfa grazing, dry loting cows, supplemental feeding setlers on corn and milo stubble, and insect control. The committee then discussed the requirements and possible problems cattlemen would be faced with as the state continues efforts to eliminate the scabies mite from the state and to become a Brucellosis Free state.

The committee is making every effort to provide educational programs to fill the needs of local cattlemen and would welcome any suggestions that anyone might want to make.

4-H Goal Is Reached With 62 Cents Over

By Argen Draper
Home Demonstration Agent

ARE YOU 4-H supporters ready for this? It's not the final report, but with bills paid we made our goal for the bean Supper with 62 cents left over!

There are a lot of happiness and appreciation in 4-H quarters. Many thanks for all you have done for the 4-H program and it will be forever appreciated by the leaders. The 4-H members will benefit all their lives from opportunities offered by you interested person.

The State 4-H Center will be used by all Texas youth. The plans are lovely and will be a permanent home that all Texans can appreciate. The center's first use will be for youth but other groups can use it.

AT TIMES I've tried to be two places at one time and it simply didn't work out. Now, Wednesday, I really had some problems with schedules and memory.

Ford Home Demonstration Club planned to meet at Arrowhead Mills for a tour of the plant and then lunch with Mrs. Abalos. Allowing just enough time to get to Ford at 9:30, I was breezing along north on 385 when Elizabeth Kendrick and Naomi Stokesbury waved frantically at me.

Elizabeth informed me that the club was meeting in town. My face was red as it made me look sillier than usual. You see I had helped make the plans.

The ladies were nice when I finally got to the right place at the right time. They acted like it was normal enough for me. Honestly, I'm not absent minded, I'm just in a rut.

FRIDAY morning I knew it was cold when I saw Mrs. Elmer Fryar scraping ice off the car windshield. That's why my winter coat was so comfortable. Our spring season is usually short as we take off coats and put on short sleeve dresses.

Don't we live in a good place? Some sand and wind, but so many perfect days. Irene Gonzales and I agree that Hereford is the best! She and Joe and Family have moved to Hereford from the Ford Community.

They are good citizens and it's nice to have them here. Some of Irene's relatives moved to another state and she told them not to burn any bridges as people who move away will eventually return to Hereford. Another Hereford booster we always enjoy visiting with is Marvin Swanson. He and Sybil retired in Hereford and say nice things about the town's friendliness. We think you two are friendly, too.

CONSIDER your figure when selecting a zipper for a garment. Many dress patterns call for a 22" zipper. However, home sewers might actually need other lengths.

For example, a short person may find an 18-or-20-inch zipper better proportioned—and more comfortable. A taller person, on the other hand, may need a longer zipper for convenience when dressing or undressing. Thus, a 24-inch zipper makes a better choice for her.

Other factors also influence correct zipper length. For one, consider hip width—especially for pants and skirts. This dictates how much room a person needs to get in and out of a garment.

Another factor to keep in mind is garment design. If a skirt zipper shows below the jacket hem, the outfit loses some of its appeal. To avoid this, use two shorter zippers—applied in two seams. Or utilize a hidden zipper that's completely inconspicuous.

PERSONALIZING Patterns, MP-1037, has suggestions for almost all pattern alterations. It's yours for the asking; call 364-3573.

Bake Sale, Car Wash To Aid Trip Fund

A car wash and bake sale are two money-making projects slated by the 4-H Citizenship Shortcourse group, to add to their fund for a trip to the National 4-H Citizenship Course and Heritage Tour this summer.

Seven senior 4-H members from Deaf Smith County were selected recently to participate in this shortcourse and tour to Washington, D.C. The group is raising money through several activities to pay for at least half their expenses.

The car wash will be at Swanson's West Park Phillips 66 service station, corner of Park Avenue and Highway 385, and the bake sale will be in Sugarland Mall next Saturday.

Kandy Newman is chairman for the bake sale and Ricky Coleman for the car wash. Others participating are Terry Barrier, Sam Finley, Britt Hicks, Tom McCabe and Sandra Stallings. Mrs. J.L. Ogle is an adult leader of the group.

Here's How BEEF Is Best

GYPSY GOULASH
Mrs. Bill Griffin

- 2 lbs. lean beef
 - 6 thinly sliced onions
 - 3 Tbs. oil
 - 1 tsp. salt
 - 1 Tbs. flour
 - 1 Tbs. paprika
 - 2 cups red wine
 - 1 three-fourths cups sour cream
- Have the butcher cut the beef in strips 1/4 inch thick and 1/4 inch wide. Brown the strips with sliced onions in oil.
- Blend in salt, flour and paprika. Add wine and 1 cup sour cream. Turn the mixture into a casserole and cover. Bake the goulash in a moderate oven at 375 degrees for 1 1/2 hours or until meat is tender.
- Just before serving add sour cream and reheat the mixture without letting it boil. Serve over rice or buttered noodles. Chestnuts may be sprinkled over the mixture.

Beef Cutting Demonstration Is Presented

Cuts of beef, 138 of them, were awarded as door prizes to persons present for the beef cutting demonstration sponsored by the Hereford CowBelles Thursday evening at Community Center.

Half a beef was cut according to a new standard cutting chart approved by the meat industry. The demonstration was given by local butchers, C.D. Adams, assisted by Eddie Gray and Bob Cota. A guest introduced by CowBelles president Mrs. N.E. Tyler was Hansford Owsley of Pampa, district market manager for Ideal Food Stores.

In addition to the cuts given at the program, a large prime rib roast was held back for presentation to homemaking classes at Hereford High School, to be used in a beef cooking lesson.

A completely accurate world map was not possible until aerial photographs were taken on a survey during World War II!

Show CARE On Mother's Day

Thinking of a "different" gift for Mother's Day this year? Chances are your mother would have little use for a heap of high-protein porridge, a carton of hospital surgical equipment, or even a couple of tons of vegetables.

But at CARE, these are some of the things that make the difference between hope and despair for millions of mothers and their children across the world. And you can help provide them by a contribution in your mother's name.

For example, $2 fills 600 bowls of nourishing porridge for hungry children; $5 equips a CARE-MEDICO team, with suturing materials for 20 simple operations; $10 gives a farm family enough seeds to grow 5,000 lbs. of vegetables to help feed themselves and sell for added income. In turn, your mother will receive an attractive Mother's Day gift card from CARE notifying her of your special tribute.

The card will be mailed to her or to you, as you prefer. The message is equally appropriate for grandmothers, mothers-in-law and mothers of friends.

Contributions may be sent to: Mother's Day Plan, the Southwest CARE Office, 109 North Akard, Dallas, Texas 75201.

Be sure to give your name and address, the name and address of each mother honored (minimum, $2 per name), and instructions for card handling.

If you wish them mailed directly, state how each card is to be signed. Make checks out to CARE, Inc. Orders should be sent early to assure card deliveries in time for Mother's Day, May 12.

HHS Choir Gives Club's Program

Music filled a special program for Garden Beautiful Club Friday afternoon, when a mixed choir from Hereford High School was the guest group in the home of Mrs. N.D. Bartlett, Mmes. T.J. Carter, A.L. Jordan and Charles Hood were hostesses with Mrs. Bartlett. Mrs. Bartlett introduced the choir and its director, Fred Ratliff. A varied program of songs entertained the members and several guests. Officers for the 1974-75 season were elected in the business session with Mrs. Joe Story presiding. She was re-elected president for a second year with Mmes. Deward Roberson, Charlie Noland and Roy Smith as vice presidents.

Mrs. Jordan was named secretary, Mrs. W.P. Axe correspondent, Mrs. L.H. Lookingbill Sr. treasurer, Mrs. Carter reporter. Mrs. Hood was chosen to represent the club in the County Women's Forum. Reports on club projects were given by Mrs. Roberson, who said seven new trees have been set lately on Deaf Smith General Hospital grounds to replace dying trees, and that three new roses are to be added to the 25 now growing in the Frances Solomon Memorial Rose Garden on the grounds of Kings Manor. Guests for the afternoon were Mmes. Herbert Bruns, Charles Wiseman and Don Robinson.

You might try going to church more often if you seem to be worrying more than usual.

KIDS WILL BE KIDS—A young visitor to the petting zoo at Six Flags Over Texas proves for himself that goats don't limit their diet to tin cans. The share-and-share-alike plan didn't work. After the photo was snapped, the baby goat made off with the whole ice cream bar, stick and all.

By Mrs. Art Manjeot

APRIL: A busy month for gardeners.

It brings no let up in garden work. Indeed, there is many tasks waiting to be done. As we tackle these chores it would be well to remember that eternal vigilance and constant application to the tasks at hand are the price of later success.

With this in mind and spade in hand I went into the garden to do some digging. As I worked I heard a gush of birdsong, felt the warmth of the sunshine, drank in the beauty of the blooming flowers and trees, smelled the lushness of the spaded soil, watched the green grass as it waved silently in the morning breeze. Yes it was good to be alive.

Today (Tuesday) as I set at the typewriter trying to think, I often look outside, and admit that I agree with the one who wrote, "Spring is not the best of seasons. Aching backs, runny nose, (from spring allergy); warm yesterday, cold and blustery today; wind in strong gusts causing the soil to blow, which makes visibility bad, bad. Whoever said Spring was romantic? Really today the word that best applies is frantic!"

Days like this are good days to read, plan, write and think. One exciting thing I have read is the brochure sent me by a friend in Hopewell, Va. relative to the tours and garden pilgrimages which are to be sponsored by the state garden clubs of Virginia, April 20 through 28.

One of interest to me is the James River plantation tour. These plantation homes were built between 1800 and 1845. They are to be complimented by magnificent antiques and beautiful flower arrangements. Tours will be conducted throughout the state and highways will be marked with green arrows, the trademark of Garden Club Historic Week in Virginia.

If I share in this historic event, many tasks must be completed before I can start packing.

Now is the time to fertilize established lawns, if you have not already done so. For this application use a fertilizer high in nitrogen. I recommend that this be done by spraying. Mine has responded in a most satisfactory way, color is good and growing above average.

When mowing lawns, use care in the adjustment of the mower, do not cut too short. If there are spring flowering bulbs planted in the lawn, do not cut them down until they have fully matured and turned brown.

Remove dead blossoms from the daffodils, crocus and early flowering tulips, if they are left to mature completely they will take from the bulbs nutrients which will be needed another flowering season.

If you plan to move bulbs to another location, mark them so that you will know color and variety, these can be moved after they have completed the flowering cycle.

Early-blooming shrubs such as forsythia, spirea, and jasmine can be pruned after their flowering. Cut out the oldest flowering shoots and the dead wood, by doing this provision is made for next year's bloom. As other shrubs bloom, they too should be pruned.

Asparagus can be thinned out and other beds started. Prepare the soil, making sure it is well mulched and is friable. Add salt by lightly sprinkling the top soil. Place plants, and water well. Asparagus is a delicious vegetable and can be used in many ways. It is very tasty used raw in tossed salad.

I was delighted last week when a friend of mine told me that she and her husband had built coldframes, and had radishes, lettuce, and other tender greens growing. Well do I remember when my grandmother always had fresh vegetables grown in the coldframes.

Also learned of a vegetable garden which had been planted by two of my junior friends. According to their parents the children were enthused and excited over the prospect of having edibles out of their garden.

Care should be used in planning and planting the vegetable garden (all of us should grow some vegetables). Plants are like people, they want to have good neighbors. Do not plant potatoes and cucumbers together. In fact any vining plants should be carefully planted as they take lots of space.

Study the growth pattern of all vegetables you plan to grow and make allowances for their spread, height and space they would take. Descriptions on the seed packets should be carefully read and followed. Small plants can be completely covered by spreading plants, and others cannot grow because a near neighbor is shading it too much. Many of we gardeners have learned the hard way.

Last summer I planted two pumpkin vines. They grew and grew, and almost took over the entire south end of the garden, covering flowers, onions, and made it hard for small trees to grow.

Tomatoes, chrysanthemums and strawberries do not like to be planted close to each other.

INTERESTING: I have often questioned the use of meat tenderizer, friends had told me to not use it, as it was harmful. The following gives information which I was glad to learn.

"Instant meat tenderizer is a natural food product made from papain, an enzyme from the green papaya melon (which is delicious). It breaks up the connective tissues of meat, and does not have any effect at all on living tissues. It is available either seasoned with blend of spices or unseasoned. Both varieties contain salt."

Soon Good Friday will be here, and that is the day on which we can plant gladioli and prune the rose bushes (weather permitting). Gladioli corms should be purchased now. Before planting, soak in a solution of 1 cup Clorox to 1 gallon of water.

Remove loose tissues and soak at least two hours before planting, longer if possible.

If there is more than one color, select a worn ladies hose, place one color in the foot, tie, then use same method until space is filled; place this in the solution for treatment. As corms are placed, list the order by which the colors were placed, and plant accordingly.

A trend which is receiving much attention is color harmony in landscaping, and in planting flowering plants in gardens. Color is a most interesting study, do some intensive study before planting.

REMINDER: Secure an almanac, study moon changes etc: Soon we will be having full moon.

APRIL CHILDREN: The birthstone for them is the diamond, the most romantic of all gems. It has been described as having a brilliance which never burns out. It comes in many colors, and the colored gems are the most expensive.

As the April birthstone, the diamond is a victory talisman, said to endow the wearer with superior strength, fortitude and courage. It is the symbol of marital happiness and good luck. The flower appropriate to the April born is the beautiful sweet pea.

Happy gardening to all.

Several from here attended the funeral for Howard Lowery in Amarillo Monday. He was a brother of Mrs. E.B. Berryman. Other relatives here include Mrs. Clark Andrews and Mrs. Bill Dickson. Mr. Lowery had been in poor health for several years but had been considered in critical condition only a short time.

The Andrews relatives have been going to Amarillo the past several days to visit the Charles Kings. Mr. King has been ill for several weeks and was taken to Northwest Texas Hospital on Monday evening. He is thought to be suffering from a series of light strokes.

Visiting the T.L. Sparkmans Sunday, were her relatives, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Lowther and Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Johnson, all of Hale Center. They also visited Mrs. Annie Springer and with Mrs. F.J. Springer at Westgate.

W.H. Andrews visited a few days in Fort Worth to be with a brother-in-law, Frank Calhoun, who underwent surgery there recently.

Lloyd Shultz is a patient at High Plains Baptist Hospital, having a cataract removed from an eye Friday morning. He is doing quite well. He is in room 536 and expects to be there about a week.

The Rev. and Mrs. Sam Ogan are visiting their children, the Marsh Pittmans, at Norman, Okla. this weekend.

The revival at Frio Baptist Church closed Sunday evening. The Rev. Darold Baldwin of Canyon was the visiting preacher and Ed Shubert of Amarillo was in charge of music. Dinner was served in the fellowship hall of the church Sunday. Visitors from Amarillo, Canyon, Summerfield and other points were here during the week. Mrs. Baldwin and children were here for the weekend.

Awards for programs and projects of Pioneer Study Club were brought from the Top of Texas District convention of Texas Federation of Women's Clubs by Mrs. Delmar Sigle, delegate, and Roberta Campbell, president, who represented the club at the meeting in Borger early this week.

First place was won on international undertakings, for the recent International Tea at which the club entertained foreign-born women of Hereford; on historic sites, for a program on the Deaf Smith county courthouse; and on promotion of state and national Federated Club magazines. Second place awards went to the club for publicity and public relations, also for its yearbook. The two members will make their formal convention reports to the club at its May meeting.

Pioneer women of this area will be special guests at the April meeting Tuesday in Hereford Country Club with Mrs. Sigle as hostess chairman. The program directed by Mrs. Ralph McCullough will be modeled on the old-fashioned literary society programs which entertained residents in early days of this county.

Small Talk

By SUE COLEMAN
Women's Editor

THEY were leaving Community Center after voting in the city election Tuesday, pushing out into the quite unpleasant sandstorm, when I overheard the Bert Browns telling Herman Ford that they like the Texas Panhandle better after a recent visit in California.

When you can get a testimonial like that, on a day like that, you can believe that our hometown really has some attractions to counterbalance the blowy days!

IT'S certainly gratifying to learn what surgery can accomplish these days, things that we need to contemplate while we're reading those dismal statistics about the soaring costs of hospital and medical care.

What got me to thinking about that lately was a visit from Mildred Guinn, who happily showed how well she can walk now on her new knee. It really is a new one, plastic and steel, gained in what the surgeons call a total knee replant.

Mildred says she had increasing difficulty in walking, even with the brace she had worn for a long time, and she is so pleased with the way her knee carries her along now.

THOSE words we meet often in writing society stories, especially weddings — candelabra and candelabrum — cause so many people so much trouble that it was a sort of a shock in a phone conversation with Mrs. Charles Schlabs the other day to hear her say distinctly that the centerpiece on the table, was a candelabrum.

That's absolutely correct, of course, but most people think that is the plural form, if they are familiar with the word at all. They usually talk about a candelabra, which is plural, or try to make it plural by saying "three candelabras."

No Latin student, I believe the word is Latin, with the "um" ending as singular and "a" as plural. We keep using that style because the correct Anglicized form is candelabrum for the plural, and that is just too awkward a word.

OUR smart Hereford students at Rice University have made the president's honor roll again, a news release from Houston says. They are Sharon Readhimer, daughter of Mrs. Viola Readhimer of 213 Aspen, and Stephen Dzuik, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Dzuik Jr., Route 4.

Also on a college honor roll is John Spencer Nelson of 239 Aspen, a student at Southern Methodist University in Dallas.

DUANE Warren, son of the John F. Warrens, Star Route, is a member of the aircraft mechanics graduating class at Texas State Technical Institute, Amarillo. Graduation ceremonies are scheduled at the TSH Campus Activity Center at 1 p.m. Thursday.

Graduates in the two-year program will take FAA examinations next week to secure federal licenses as airframe and powerplant mechanics.

CAR POOL SUCCESS

PHOENIX—Al Brittan, city property management supervisor, reports that an experimental car pool plan has apparently been successful. Workers in the downtown area using the car pool are allowed free parking.

Easter Program Given

Virginia Holmes delivered an Easter message to members of Calliopean Club Thursday evening as they gathered at Hereford Country Club. Mrs. Holmes completed her presentation of an original meditation by accompanying a guest, Mrs. Wesley Gulley, on the piano as she sang 'The End of the Sabbath,' composed by G. Schirmer.

Refreshments were served to those on program and Mmes.

HOUSE FOR HOBBIES—Mr. and Mrs. A.L. Jordan chose their home south of Hereford to house the antiques and pioneer home accessories they collect as a hobby, and also to show the fruits of Mrs. Jordan's other hobby, painting.

Setting For Antiques

Ranch Couple Retires To 68-Year-Old House

BY SANDY INMAN Brand Staff Writer

QUITE A transition from living in a ranch house that was once known as the showplace of the Texas Panhandle to a remodeled 68-year-old two-story home on the Dimmitt Highway.

The A.L. Jordans moved to their present home three years ago from Rita Blanca Creek, nine miles west of Channing.

"We had been looking for a small ranch and stock farm for sometime when we decided to move on the ranch," recalls Mrs. Jordan.

"Although we hated having to move, it really wasn't possible for my husband and me to do all the work ourselves, so we moved to Hereford after retirement." Mrs. Jordan says the main reason for the move to Hereford was because their only child, Mrs. Ed Line, and her family live here.

"WHEN WE came here we looked for quite a while before we were able to find a house large enough to hold our antiques, including a massive bedroom suite," states Mrs. Jordan.

The suite the housewife-artist refers to is one the Jordans ran into, quite by accident.

"My husband and I were driving along one day when we noticed a truck driver unloading this really lovely bed into a barn. We inquired about it and to our surprise, he thought he was unloading a lot of junk," laughs Mrs. Jordan.

THE JORDANS' entire house, including six bedrooms, parlor, den, dining room, kitchen, and GOLDA TO REMAIN. JERUSALEM—Premier Golda Meir has announced she will serve another term in office and Moshe Dayan will continue as defense minister.

art gallery is furnished with antiques from antique stores and junk stores reflecting a cowboy era.

The couple hired a contractor when they first bought the house for a complete remodeling job. They laid carpet, paneled many of the rooms, re-papered and added a double ceiling. The ceilings were originally 12 feet 4 inches high, and we later lowered them only to 10 feet. We didn't want to spoil the period effect," says Mrs. Jordan.

As you first step on the front porch your eye catches colored glass windows on either side of the door. The entrance way has a cathedral ceiling and throughout the house are lovely light fixtures and beautiful furniture.

OUTSTANDING pieces of furniture include a solid oak washstand set up exactly as it was when Jordan's parents used it when they lived in a dugout.

Parlor furniture is centered around a large working fireplace that has the original grate on it.

"We took the grate out to try and get the soot off," recalls Mr. Jordan, "when we discovered it was solid brass. In fact, the grate itself is heavy as the ones used in old steam locomotives."

Walking through the dining room, the first thing seen is a beautiful china cabinet with curved side window panels. Other pieces in the room include the dining room table and a side board with marble top.

ORIGINAL dark woodwork in the rooms, is especially noticeable in the den where many of the Jordans' antique accessories are arranged around a Franklin stove.

An accomplished artist, well known in the Panhandle has her paintings hanging all through the home but her art gallery upstairs houses most of the pictures.

Among them are many paintings of ranch scenes, including paintings done on their ranch west of Channing.

She has studied art under Hayward Veal of England, Beriah Beard of Colorado, Lee Simpson of Taos, and Howard Scott of Amarillo.

She has exhibited her paintings in Perryton, displayed in the Richard Simms Gallery and exhibited with 60 artists of the tri-state area at the Arts and Crafts Festival in Amarillo several years ago.

Paintings have also hung in the Governor Bent House Museum and gallery at Taos.

In addition to painting, Mrs. Jordan is a collector of antiques. One of her most prized possessions is an old stereoscope with the picture story of the Crucifixion on the cards.

She was attracted to the stereoscope several years ago in a Colorado antique shop because it was identical to one her mother once owned.

The smiling grandmother of two depicts her love of life in everything she does. "My husband and I live only one day at a time and try not to worry about tomorrow."

THROUGH OUT their married life they have worked together and shared numerous hobbies. Mrs. Jordan has designed a cradle that her daughter used for the first baby and Mr. Jordan built it.

"We were in the museum at Canyon and I saw a cradle that I wanted my husband to build," says Mrs. Jordan. She got out her pencil and paper and sketched almost an exact replica of the cradle so her husband could copy it.

The cradle now is set in one corner of the front bedroom along side her other treasured antiques.

The Jordans bought their home from the W.T. Gunstons who lived in the house from 1942 to 1959.

Wyche Extension Members Plan For Convention Trip

Because several members of Wyche Extension Club plan to go to Borger April 18 for the spring convention of District I, Texas Home Demonstration Association, the group decided at its meeting Thursday to cancel the meeting scheduled on that date.

Election of officers, planned for that time, will be held May 2 in Mrs. W.P. Axe's home. Appointed to a nominating committee were Mmes. G.W. Durcan, Wayne Jones and Leo Hellman.

Mrs. J.H. Holden presided for business including plans for members to serve as hostesses in Deaf Smith County Museum this month.

Argen Draper, county extension agent, gave the program on Family Clothing. She discussed fitting problems of various kinds and how they may be solved in home sewing. Mrs. L.B. Worthan directed a contest game to open the program.

Other members present with a guest, Mrs. Charles Brown, were Mmes. C.F. Newsom, Charles Packard, Frank Durcan, Bob Thuett and Axe.

In Your Lifetime

Once again there is a hopeful theme for the American Cancer Society's April Crusade: "We want to wipe out cancer in your lifetime."

IS THERE substance to this hope? The trend over the last four decades shows that there is a real basis for cautious optimism.

In the late thirties less than one in five cancer patients was being saved. Twenty-five years ago it was one in four. And today one of three who get cancer is saved.

Medical experts believe that with present methods of treatment one out of two cancer patients could be saved, providing detection and treatment come in time.

ADVANCES in the treatment of cancer have come from research and improvement of surgical and radiation therapy. In a slow but steadily growing number of cancers, drugs have been effective.

But there can be little difference of opinion about what is needed for the final conquest of this ancient enemy of mankind. The scientific effort has to be broadened and stepped up. This means more money is needed for brain power and manpower, more equipment and research facilities.

WHEN AN ACS volunteer comes to your home in April, remember the goal: "We want to wipe out cancer in your lifetime."

Nixon Picks Four

President Nixon recently named four possible Republican candidates for the 1976 election—Nelson Rockefeller of New York, Governor Ronald Reagan of California, John Connally of Texas and Vice President Gerald Ford.

The President put their names forward at a breakfast meeting with a group of G.O.P. Congressmen, though he didn't endorse any one.

Mr. Nixon also told the approximately fifty legislators Watergate wouldn't be the issue in this fall's election, but peace and prosperity.

Of the four Nixon picks, Reagan is ahead in many polls. Ford has moved into contention since becoming Vice President. Rockefeller is considered the dark-horse and Connally the favorite of many business and conservative groups.

Of the four, Reagan and Rockefeller are completely disassociated with Watergate. Connally and Ford are also, though Connally served in the White House in 1973 and Ford has come to Mr. Nixon's defense on Watergate in 1973 and this year.

Much depends, in the nomination derby, on whether the nation is moving to the right or otherwise, as of 1976. Current indications are that the country is moving rightward in overall sentiment. That drift, of course, favors Reagan, and possibly Connally.

The Democratic Candidates

The tendency for more than a year has been to assume the Democratic presidential nominee in 1976 will have it made.

At the recent meeting of the Democratic National Committee in Washington, however, there were warnings that this might not prove true.

Democratic candidates for Congress this year are conceded fine odds, even by Republicans, but in 1976 not only will two more years have elapsed but the G.O.P. will have a new standard bearer.

And the Democrats, as yet, have no really strong candidate. Senator Ted Kennedy is himself touched by scandal. Senator George McGovern was so badly thrashed in 1972 he isn't a major contender. Senator Henry Jackson failed to catch on in 1972 and is a question mark. Senator Edmund Muskie flopped so badly in 1972 he's not a likely nominee two years hence. Etc. The Democrats too, then, are not well positioned, politically.

A strong, fresh Republican candidate will face odds—there are more Democrats than Republicans—but they won't be hopeless odds, and could be very misleading odds.

Subpoenaing Nixon

The business of subpoenaing the President is now in the farce stage. Even state court judges are now getting into the act. Of course, every judge who does so knows he is instantaneously national headlines.

So we have the spectacle of courts and committees, private organizations and various prosecutors falling over themselves to subpoena the President to testify in this or that Watergate-related controversy.

There is, of course, no possibility the President could carry out the duties and demands of his office effectively if he were compelled to obey every judge, prosecutor and committee probing Watergate. That is behind some (not all) of the harassment.

Democrats Looking For Landslide

MAIN STREET, U.S.A.
By Bert Mills

Congress has not accomplished much this year and it is beginning to look like some major issues will be sidetracked until next year on the theory that a Democratic landslide in November will make passage of controversial legislation easier in 1975.

Democratic leaders of Congress deny any such plan, although they do predict big gains in the election. However, one important arm of the Democratic party, the AFL-CIO, has announced its intention of following a "wait-until-'75" policy.

Liberals have been frustrated for the past five years by the successful tactics of President Nixon in refusing to spend appropriated funds which he considers unwise and in making his vetoes stick. Only once has Congress been able to override a Nixon veto.

Labor leaders have proclaimed plans to elect a "veto-proof Congress" next November. This implies not only retaining Democratic control of the House and Senate but increasing majorities so heavily that a two-thirds vote to override a White House veto will be achieved regularly.

This could happen, as even some Republicans concede. However, the elections are seven months ahead and it is a bit early to be making predictions, chiefly on the basis of a few special elections for House seats.

ONE DEMOCRATIC theory is that President Nixon has become more conservative in the recent past. This theory refers to the "33-plus-one" plot that the President is supposed to have devised to save his own job.

This line of thought assumes that the House will impeach the President and that there will be a trial of those charges in the Senate. A two-thirds vote will be necessary to convict the President. Thus if there are 34 votes of "not guilty," Nixon will remain as President. There are 42 Republicans in the current Senate but some are anti-Nixon, and a party line vote is not anticipated. Some of Nixon's best friends in the Senate are southern Democrats who could be expected to vote against his conviction.

One disgruntled Democrat, Rep. Morris K. Udall of Arizona, has said: "I think the President is changing his stand on legislation to placate the conservatives. The President finds himself with his back to the window and his first priority is not to offend his hard-core base."

There is evidence on the other side of this argument. For example, Nixon's $30.4 billion budget and estimated $9.4 billion deficit was hardly pleasing to conservatives, nor was his espousal of a $2.30-per-hour minimum wage, nor his endorsement of a new Consumer Protection Agency.

RECENTLY THE American Conservative Union sent to the White House statements from 35 conservative Senators and Representatives, all protesting the record spending proposed by the President. A.C.U. charged the Nixon Budget is an attempt "to assuage your liberal critics who have grown progressively more strident since Watergate."

The only Senator elected by the Conservative party, James L. Buckley of New York, recently called upon the President to resign. Several other conservatives have sounded a similar note. One theory is that they are concerned that Nixon's presence may cause a liberal landslide in the November election.

Under attack from the left and the right, the President may decide he is on the proper course. It is the middle-of-the-roaders who determine the nation's path, not those on either extreme.

Will we see the Republican party to kick around after the 1974 elections? A lot of people are speculating that we might not, and the preliminary evidence is hardly reassuring. Still, Americans have a habit of greatly exaggerating political obituaries.

After the McGovern debacle — which many commentators ascribed to a "takeover" of the Democratic Party by its extremist left wing — there were predictions aplenty that the Democrats were "committing suicide." Same prediction about the Republicans, following Goldwater's race against Johnson.

AND HOW'S this for a chronicle of political failure: Failed in business in '31... defeated for legislature in '32... again failed in business '33... elected to legislature '34... had nervous breakdown '36... defeated for speaker '38... defeated for elector '40... defeated for Congress '43... defeated for Congress '48... defeated for Senate '55... defeated for vice president '56... defeated for Senate '58.

What kind of political future would you give a man like that? Well, in 1860 Abraham Lincoln finally won one. The big one.

So I don't think there is much danger of the Republicans becoming extinct, even if they have a terrible year at the polls.

THERE IS another danger that concerns me more. Historically, when either party has been overwhelmingly dominant the result has been much bad legislation. Indeed, it is usually public reaction against the excesses of the dominant party that ultimately breathes life back into its moribund opposition.

Our tendency to react against political excess is one of the greatest bulwarks of our liberty. But rapid swings between political extremes exact a price we would be better off avoiding. The man with one foot on hot coals and the other on a block of ice may feel fine "on the average," but he's suffering burns at one extreme and frostbite at the other.

When the ruling party is confronted with an opposition of healthy size, it is forced to proceed cautiously and to compromise reasonably. That's the way it should be.

Editor's note: The Bootleg Philosopher on his Deaf Smith grass farm on Bootleg corner discusses television this week, we believe.

Dear editor:

A committee, so I read in a newspaper last night because everything on television was a re-run, has spent four months studying morning television programs for children under 5 and has come up with some highly critical things to say.

In the first place, the committee said, there are too many commercials, 18 an hour, many of them making outlandish claims about how strong you'll get if you eat this or that breakfast food or that candy bar, and that's bad for the child's future.

IN THE FIRST PLACE, parents who'll let a 5-year-old dictate what cereal to buy or how much candy to eat because he saw it on television probably have no business raising kids, and in the second place kids, if they haven't learned it by 5 will by the time they're 6 that the TV strength-building claims are hoakum. It's only later in life that they forget that attitude and apparently, judging by the grown-up commercials, are taken in by the claim you'll be more popular if you use a different toothpaste.

As to the quality of the children's programs themselves, the committee was even further outraged, saying they're terrible, they're phony, they're too loud, too frantic, in fact they're downright awful, despite the fact the kids sit spellbound before the set for hours.

THE COMMITTEE doesn't understand the human situation. In the first place, a mother with a 4 or 5-year-old kid, not to mention two or three or more, will tolerate any kind of TV program so long as it keeps the kid out from under foot for a while so she can get some peace of mind.

And in the second place, imagine the frustration this nation would be engulfed in if children grew up accustomed to watching genuinely first-rate programs and then, when they become grown, had nothing to watch but the programs the networks throw at us adults every night. There are times when it's better to leave bad enough alone.

Yours faithfully,
J.A.

Talk Of Texas

TEXANS AT WORK — Joe Surovik is a county agricultural extension agent, but he rarely sees a farm. He spends most of his time at sea.

As the first marine county agent in Texas history, he travels the Gulf coast helping fishermen in their search for shrimp, oysters, crabs and other marketable seafood. Although he is officially attached to Calhoun County and headquarters at Port Lavaca, the entire Texas coast is his assignment.

TEEPEE FIREWATER — The Tigua Indians, who still live at Ysleta, an El Paso suburb, believe that good whiskey, like charity, begins at home.

They call their product "tesweeno" and it really is a kind of home brew made from corn. However, those who have sampled it say that it has the potency of 100 proof bourbon, and then some.

The manufacturing process begins in a shallow four-by-six foot trench that has had a thin layer of sand spread over the bottom. The sand is then covered by a layer of corn and topped with more sand. A piece of burlap is then spread over the whole thing and watered regularly until the corn sprouts.

When the corn sprouts are an inch high, they are removed, cleaned and dried. The seedlings next are finely ground and five pounds of the resulting meal is mixed with five gallons of water and cooked. After cooking, raw sugar and orange peel are added and the product is set aside to ferment.

The result? Wow!

FOOTNOTE TO HISTORY — Fringe benefits like sick leave, hospitalization insurance and coffee breaks were unheard of for workers in Texas a century ago.

Under an Act Regulating Contracts for Labor passed by the Legislature in 1866, an employe bound himself to work for the duration of any agreement he signed with an employer. He couldn't break the contract unless he could prove that he was treated harshly. The employer could cancel it at any time.

If a worker became ill, he forfeited all wages. If he refused to work for any reason (or if his employer accused him of laziness), he lost double his wages for a period of up to three days. If he still refused to work, or failed to produce to his employer's liking, he was in real trouble. The law empowered the courts to sentence him to work on "roads, streets or other public works, without pay, until the offender consents to return to his labor."

No employe could be absent from his job without permission. If he was, he was fined 25 cents an hour or $2 a day. And entertaining visitors on the job was strictly prohibited by law.

TRAVELING TEXAS — San Ygnacio, Zapata County, remains one of the best examples left of what a Spanish colonial town looked like.

Founded on the Rio Grande about 1790, it also is one of the oldest towns in Texas.

America Needs A Two Party System

I KNOW an executive — a Democrat — who likes to suggest to his fellow executives that more businessmen should join his party. His audience usually responds with the observation that the Republicans are supposed to be more "pro business." "If that's true," he answers, "then the Democrats need more members from the business community so they will have the benefit of their views, too."

Whether or not these simplistic assumptions about the orientation of the two parties is true, it is undeniably true that both encompass within themselves a wide diversity of political philosophy. That fact sometimes makes choices frustrating, but it also has a stabilizing influence that has served the country well.

Practically everybody seems to be in a "throw the rascals out" mood right now, and no wonder. But first, let's count to ten and then take a close look at the record of each particular rascal. Some of them may be worth preserving. And, remember, too, no matter what party you support, it's a good idea to have enough of the other party around looking over their shoulders to keep your boys on their toes.

Ex-Members Have Lunch With Club

One former member came from Ft. Lupton, Colo., for Farm and Ranch Club's homecoming luncheon Thursday but the other 12 live not so far away. They reminisced happily as they shared a covered dish lunch in the home of Mrs. W.W. Gilbreath, 500 Westhaven.

A social organization for women living on the widely scattered ranches and farms of far western Deaf Smith County, the club, originally confined its membership to those in the area, but has relaxed the rule in recent years to keep members who have moved to Hereford. "Do you remember?" was the keynote of conversation at the luncheon, and club scrapbooks were on display to refresh memories.

Tables were centered with old-fashioned kerosene lamps circled with flower wreaths.

Mrs. John E. Hill was the ex-member who came from her Colorado home especially for the meeting.

Others of the honor guests were Mmes: Charlie Burk, Elmer Combs, Phillip Miller, Dean Robb, Charles Hoover, Harold Bass, Glenn Hetzler, C.F. Douglas, N.E. Tyler, Hershel Burrus, Wayne Bass and N.D. Bartlett. Members present were this years president, Mrs. Paul Odom, J.V. Perrin, Jack Rudd, and Mmes. Willy Nunley, Weaver, Joe. Wagoner, P.B. Elton Sorrells, J.C. Price, J.B. Sowell, and G.V. Hall.

WORKING MILLIONAIRE. WINCHESTER, MASS. — Although he won a million dollars in the state lottery, Robert Taylor, 41, a father of three, continues to drive a milk truck for less than $10,000 a year. He says he's happier working.

Vocational Area Of School Viewed

Vocational education and adult education in the Hereford school system, aimed at making the schools more useful to all segments of the community, were discussed for Bay View Study Club Thursday by Richard Robinson, director of this phase of the school program.

The club met in First National Community Room with Robinson speaker. He said vocational education is becoming more important each year, since it is estimated that by 1980 only 20 per cent of the U.S. work force will need to be college educated to gain work skills.

Five areas of vocational education in Hereford public schools are homemaking, agriculture, industrial, office and the distributive education program, the speaker said. He added that special attention is given handicapped students who can learn vocational skills that will enable them to earn their way in later life.

Community education comprises numerous courses for adults, Robinson explained, and a class will be offered in any subject if as many as 12 persons enroll. Included in this program is the class for adults who left school without completing work for a high school diploma; it prepares them to take GED tests to secure a certificate of equivalency to a diploma.

Mrs. Howard Gault presided for a short business session concerned with securing guides for tours of Deaf Smith County Museum; this is one of the club's major community projects.

Also present were Meses. Austin Rose Jr., Jack Wilcox, Justin McBride, W.J. Gilliland, John Gilliland, Bruce Burney, Si G. Darling, D.N. Garner and Herman Ford.

CLEANUP PLANNING— Already well started; plans for the citywide spring cleanup week beginning April 20 were furthered in a committee meeting for lunch Wednesday in Hereford Country Club. Mrs. R.W. Eades, standing, discusses a point with Edward Allison, beautification chairman of Deaf Smith County Chamber of Commerce; Mrs. W.C. Russell, chairman in the chamber Women's Division, and Bill Albright, chamber manager.

Leon-Williams Wedding Has Setting In Home

A beautiful home wedding ceremony was conducted for Miss Teresa Leon and Gary Dale Williams Friday evening at the residence of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Max Leon, 524 Avenue J, with the Rev. Doug Manning, pastor of First Baptist Church, officiating.

Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Williams of Route 3. The couple will be at home at 308 West Fifth Street in Dimmitt after a honeymoon trip.

Fresh ivy and spring flowers outlined a large heart-shaped frame in which the bride and groom stood as they exchanged marriage vows. A flower arrangement on the mantel was set between buttercup yellow candles.

Her father gave the bride in marriage and she was attended by Miss Nancy Barrett as maid of honor. Jay West acted as best man.

Miss Leon's gown was a French import of wedding satin and Chantilly lace embroidered with seed pearls. It was designed with fitted bodice, long sleeves tapered to a point at the wrist, and skirt of carpet length.

Her veil was attached to a pearl-trimmed headpiece and she wore her great-grandmother's wedding band, a traditional part of bridal costumes in her family. Lemon yellow carnations with white florets made her prince's bouquet. The maid of honor wore a floral print dress, floor length, with matching sandals.

Her corsage was of white and yellow daisies.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Leon chose a floor-length teal blue gown with lace bodice and sleeves' topping an accordion-pleated skirt. Accessories were in matching color.

Mrs. Charlie Williams' two-piece dress was in apricot shade, long skirted. White trim was accented with white accessories. Both mothers had white gardenias in corsages.

The newlyweds and their parents greeted friends after the ceremony at a reception in the Flame Room of Pioneer Gas Company. Miss Shari Hughes was at the registry table, where pink carnations were arranged in a small bouquet.

Misses Susan Wartes and Sharon Dearing served lime punch and coffee while Misses Melissa Henry and Cindy Hairgrove served the wedding cake. They all wore corsages of daisies.

Covered with a pleated cloth of jonquil yellow knit, the table held the columnade cake, its first tier centered with a miniature fountain spraying lime green water, surrounded with sugar swans and white roses, its top tier ornamented with bride-and-groom figurines backed with a spray of roses and lilies-of-the-valley.

For travel Mrs. Williams

changed to a lime green pantsuit, and pinned on a corsage taken from her bridal bouquet.

She will graduate this spring from Hereford High School, where she is a cheer leader. Williams graduated with the 1972 class of HHS.

Guests here from other cities for the wedding included the Troy Coon family, Mr. and Mrs. David Brackett, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Williams and son of Lubbock; Miss Leslie Casterman of California; Mr. and Mrs. Kenny Jarrall of Morton; Mrs. Dan Yeyburn, Miss Ann Heyburn and Mrs. John Casterman of Pittsburg, Kansas; Clarence Farrah and Pat Leon of Washington.

BIRTHDAY HONOREES — Residents of Westgate unit at Kings Manor retirement home were entertained at the monthly birthday party Wednesday afternoon by members of Dawn Music Club. Honorees, those who have birthdays in April, were Hugh Smith, Ila Womack, Mildred Farmer and Lloyd Botsford.

Hereford Merry Mixers are making plans for their annual Spring Fling in Sugarland Mall. The dance has been scheduled for 8 p.m. April 27. Further details will be announced at a later date.

Diana York, James Moore Marry In Church Service

Miss Diana Yvonne York and James Lee Moore were married Friday evening in First United Methodist Church with Dr. Jordan Grooms, pastor, officiating for the ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack S. York of 210 Aspen and Moore is the son of Mr. and Mrs. S.L. Moore of Route 4.

Decorating the church were two pedestal bouquets and an altar bouquet of white gladiolas, yellow daisy poms and babybreath. A candelabra trimmed with greenery lighted the altar.

Mrs. Richard Nelson, of Berthoud, Colo., served her niece as matron of honor and Charles Moore, the bridegroom's brother, was best man.

The bridegroom's sister, Miss Shirley Moore, was bridesmaid and Richard Mills was groomsman. Serving as ushers and candlelighters were the bride's brother, David York, and Gary McCuistian.

The bride's cousin, Diane Fabrizio, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Fabrizio of Milliken, Colo., was flower girl.

Wedding selections including Twelfth of Never and We've Only Just Begun were sung by Mrs. Randy Thompson, accompanied by Mrs. Tony Calkins, organist.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor-length dress of miramist and re-embroidered Chantilly lace over bridal taffeta, designed with a high neckline, empire waist, bishop sleeves and gently flared skirt. Lace circled neckline and was applied on bodice, sleeves and skirt.

Tiny buttons extended from neckline to hemline of the gown.

A Watteau train was attached with a Dior bow at center back.

Her veil of imported illusion fell from a lace flower. She carried a cascade of yellow sweetheart roses, white carnations and babybreath.

Bridal attendants wore dresses of pastel yellow and white lace over yellow taffeta. They were styled with empire waist, long sleeves and floor-length bell skirts with yellow velveteen sashes. Each carried a white basket with yellow and white daisy poms and white carnations, and wore a white picture hat.

The bridegroom's sister, Miss Debbie Moore, invited guests to the registry table at the reception in Ward Parlor of the church.

Miss Kay Moore, another sister, and Mrs. Paul Scott served the three-tier white cake with yellow trim topped with dove figurines.

Mrs. Kenneth McLain served punch with Mrs. Lynn Pittard and Mrs. Bill Walden assisting at the refreshment table which was decorated with candelabra holding pale yellow candles, and an arrangement of white and yellow daisy poms with babybreath.

Leaving for a wedding trip to New Mexico the bride wore a blue and white pantsuit with white accessories and a corsage from her bridal bouquet.

The couple will be at home after April 9 in Westway community. Both are graduates of Hereford High.

Out-of-town guests included the Fabrizio family, Richard Nelson and son Danny of Berthoud, Mr. and Mrs. E.V. Strickler of Breckenridge.

TO MARRY IN JUNE — Mr. and Mrs. Earl Poarch, 213 Fuller, announce the approaching marriage of their daughter, Denise, to Clifford Kelley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Kennedy Kelley, 909 Cherokee. The wedding is set for June 20 in the home of the bride's parents. Miss Poarch is a senior in Hereford High School and is employed at Furr's Supermarket. Kelley, an employee of Bradford Trucking Co., served three years in the U.S. Navy after graduation from HHS in 1969. (Bradly photo)

Students To Wed

Miss Johnnie Norris of Pampa and Richard Aven of Hereford have set May 18 as their wedding date, with the ceremony planned in Pampa. Both are students at West Texas State University, where Miss Norris is a candidate for graduation this spring. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Norris of Pampa. Parents of the bridegroom-elect are Mr. and Mrs. Hilrey Aven, 230 Ranger.

Postal Costs Rising To $401,000 Locally

To what extent will individuals and business firms in Hereford be affected by the increase in postal rates?
How much will it add to their annual costs?
It is estimated, on the basis of the latest figures on postal receipts in the local area, that they will have to shell out an additional $54,700 a year. That is approximately 15.8 per cent more than in the past fiscal year.
It results from a bid by the U.S. Postal Service, the quasi-public agency that took over the operation of the mails from the Post Office Department in 1971, for an overall increase in revenue of $1.54 billion a year. It had sought to put it into effect on January 5.

The Cost of Living Council, however, cut back the requested rise to $1.31 billion for the current year by preventing the new rates from going into operation until March 2.

AS FAR AS the average Hereford resident is concerned, the principal effect of the rate hike is that he will have to put 10 cents in stamps on a letter in the future instead of 8 cents, 13 cents instead of 11 cents on airmail letters and 8 cents on postcards, rather than 6 cents. Also hit by the higher rates will be local business firms that use other classes of mail service. Second class, which applies chiefly to mailings of newspapers and magazines, will get an even stiffer increase, close to 39 per cent, although it will be phased in over several years.

The rates for third class mail, which is mostly for advertising material, and for fourth class, which applies to books and records, will also be considerably higher.

In Hereford, following the previous increase in rates, in May 1971, the cost of stamps and other postal services reached approximately $346,300 a year.

Over the next months, under the new rates, it is expected that it will rise to about $401,000.

Postmaster General E.T. Klassen said that the added revenue was needed to cope with inflation, wage increases, and big expenses incurred for mechanical equipment.

More than a thousand high school students from Argentina, Brazil, Colombia, Paraguay and Uruguay will be arriving in the U.S. in January. These students are participating in the

Our advice to you this week is to take care of your heart, and live a while.

Youth for Understanding International Student Exchange Program, and will remain in the U.S. for six months. Youth for Understanding is inviting families interested in opening their homes to these young Latin American students to submit host family applications.

Being a host family means sharing the daily activities, plans, and thoughts of the family. These students are eager to share the experiences of an American family, and it becomes a mutual growth experience for the family and student as each becomes more aware of the other's culture. Along with the family living arrangements, these students enroll in the second semester program of local high schools, and take part in school and community activities.

Often one of the more significant reactions to the program is the emotional attachment developed between students and host families. One host mother expressed her family's feelings about her Colombian "daughter" when she remarked, "I don't know what we are going to do when Carmen leaves. She is so much a part of our lives now." A Brazilian boy said that after his host father had given him some "house rules" about the use of the telephone, "I realized that I was a part of the family, not just a guest, and that made me very happy."

The most important requirement for host families is a desire to learn about another culture, and an equal desire to share their own. In 23 years, Youth for Understanding, a U.S. State Department cooperating organization, has placed more than 42,000 young people from 50 countries. It believes that the experience of hosting an exchange student is a beneficial and exciting experience for both the student and the family.

Families interested in sharing their homes with a high school exchange student from Latin America should contact the Youth for Understanding International Headquarters, Ann Arbor, Michigan 48104. Telephone area 313 769-7800.

The Perry Como Sunshine Show

Danny and Marie Osmond, young solo recording stars and members of the top rock singing group The Osmonds, will join Perry Como and his special guest Debbie Reynolds on "The Perry Como Sunshine Show," hour special to be presented Wednesday, April 10 (8:00-9:00 p.m.) on the CBS Television Network.

Danny Osmond, 16, has been a lead vocalist with The Osmonds for their regular television appearances on "The Andy Williams Show" and for "The Seven Little Foys" television special. In the recording field, The Osmonds have scored 16 resounding successes—16 Gold records, selling over a million each.

Danny's own recordings have been hits without exception, as well, making him a solo star in his own right. Fourteen-year-old Marie Osmond, lone sister among eight Osmond brothers, has traveled and occasionally performed with The Osmonds for half of her own last year with a successful recording career, both titled "Paper Roses." Her album and single record, both titled "Paper Roses," her single of the country-music classic became a number-one hit on the easy-listening and rock-music charts, as well as with country-music fans.

Toma meets 'The Madam'
Type named Harry Fallon, who is linked to Erica Van Dever, head of a "high class" call girl enterprise, sets out in the guise of a wealthy foreign businessman visiting the U.S., to establish a relationship with Madam Van Dever and, thus, infiltrate the syndicate-operated drug and prostitution ring and reach his main target, Fallon. Tony Munsie stars as Dave Toma, Simon Oakland as Inspector Spooner and Susan Strassberg as Dave's wife, Patty.

The CBS Festival of Lively Arts

Rebecca Wright, a leading ballerina with the City Center Ballet, will replace Patricia McBride in the role of Columbine in the ballet "Harlequin" on "The CBS Festival of Lively Arts for Young People" series. The special, to be broadcast Wednesday, April 10 (7:30-9:30 p.m.) on the CBS Television Network, will be choreographed by Edward Villella, principal dancer with the New York City Ballet. Villella, acclaimed as one of the world's great dancers, will also dance the title role.

Miss Wright, who appears through the courtesy of the City Center Ballet, will make her major television appearance in "Harlequin," the first ballet to be commissioned by an American network for a youthful audience. Miss Wright started dancing at the age of six. Her first training was in Columbus, Ohio, to which her mother drove the 45-mile trip from their home in Springfield, Ohio, three times a week for six years so that young Rebecca could receive good training of dance.

While she was appearing with a dance festival in Ohio, Robert Joffrey's sharp eye singled out young Miss Wright, and he invited her to come to New York for training after completing high school. A Ford Foundation scholarship allowed her to come to New York to study at the School of American Ballet and later with Joffrey at the American Ballet Center, official school for the Joffrey company.

The next step was a natural one. She "grew" into the Joffrey company, gradually winning her way into important roles. Among them, she danced "The Pupil in 'The Lesson,'" "The Ballerina in 'Petrouchka,'" "The Milkmaid and the girl who dances the 'Polka' in 'Facade' and leading roles in "Cello Concerto," "Confetti," "Moves" and "Solarwind."

Edward Villella dances the title role in the ballet "Harlequin."

Brett McBain (Frank Wolff) lives on a ranch with his three motherless children on what appears to be a "wilderness" desert land. Actually, he is waiting for the ever expanding railroad to buy his land and make him a rich man. He is also waiting for his new wife, Jill (Claudia Cardinale), whom he married secretly on a trip to New Orleans.

While McBain dreams of becoming wealthy, two other men are planning to wrest his property from him by force. They are Morton (Gabriele Ferzetti), a crooked railroad executive, and Frank (Henry Fonda), a ruthless gunman. The train bringing Jill, who has come to announce her marriage to McBain at a party at the ranch, finally arrives. Also aboard is a stranger known only as The Man (Charles Bronson), searching for Frank.

Out in the desert, at the McBain ranch, Frank and his band of killers walk into the house and gun down the entire McBain family. The murderers ride off and plant evidence that the massacre was the work of Cheyenne (Jason Robards), a notorious half-breed.

Jill arrives at the ranch to find a burial service in progress instead of a celebration for her arrival. After the funeral, Jill believes that McBain had hidden wealth, but she finds nothing. When Frank returns, planning to take over the ranch, he is surprised to find that Jill is McBain's widow and against his legal heir. So he decides that she, too, must be killed.

However, on the night Frank rides toward the ranch to shoot Jill, he finds Cheyenne and The Man outside waiting for him.

Werner Hertzler, of San Diego Calif., will attempt to better his world record—playing 45 musical instruments simultaneously—as one of the unusual guests to appear on "David Frost Presents the Guinness Book of World Records," a "Wide World Special," to be seen on the ABC Television Network's "Wide World of Entertainment" Wednesday, April 10 (11:30 p.m.-12:00 Midnight).

Dr. Welby (Robert Young) gazes earnestly at a young patient who has just had an operation to save her eyesight. He is flanked by the girl's mother, guest star Carol Lawrence (left) and the consulting physician on the case, Xavier (Gordon Pinsent), in "The Light at the Threshold" on the ABC Television Network's "Marcus Welby, M.D." Tuesday, April 9 (9:00-10:00 p.m.).

Show Within A Show

An exciting and educational "show within a show" game segment for children, called "Hold That Pose," will be incorporated into NBC Television Network's "Dinah's Place," starring Dinah Shore, during the week preceding Easter, Monday-Friday, April 8-12 (9:00-9:30 a.m.).

"Hold That Pose" game show hosts will act as emcees of the "Hold That Pose" segments of the program. Peter Marshall ("The Hollywood Squares"); Alex Trebek ("Wizard of Odds"); Geoff Edwards ("Jackpot"); Art Fleming ("Jeopardy"); and Jim McKrell ("Celebrity Sweepstakes") which premiered April 11.

Specially created for those school youngsters who will be on vacation, "Hold That Pose" features a troupe of professional pantomimists, a one-man band, and two teams of children. Each game is comprised of three rounds of pantomimed clues which relate to a famous person or fictional character. Whenever a team member has an idea of the identity of that person, he or she will yell, "Hold that pose," and the pantomimists will "freeze" until the child's answer is affirmed or rejected by the "Mystery Mime Machine"—a mimic who will "compute" the answer in mechanical actions and either give a "thumbs up" or "thumbs down" gesture. After each game, "instant replay" recaps all the clues so that the children will learn how each pose related to the person in question.

"It's the Easter Beagle, Charlie Brown"

Although Linus' track record for producing legendary heroes is somewhat tarnished, since his famous Great Pumpkin has never appeared, he proceeds to introduce another "magical" character to his doubting "Peanuts" pals in "It's the Easter Beagle, Charlie Brown," newest of the animated specials based on the Charles M. Schulz cartoon characters, to be broadcast Tuesday, April 9 (7:00-7:30 p.m.) on the CBS Television Network.
