That feller on Tierra Blanca Creek says you are making progress if each mistake you make is a new one.

A little girl was watching her mother spread cold cream on her face. "What's it for, Mommy?" she asked. "That's to make me look beautiful, darling," replied her mother.

She watched her mother remove the cream, and then in a tone of sadness, whispered, "It didn't work, did it?"

Work has started on the new nursing home on North Kingwood. The $1 million facility is scheduled for completion in six months, according to the Abilene contractors. The 120-bed facility will employ about 65 people. Operators of the home have not been named.

The Whiteface gridders trampled Monterey last Friday to get on the winning trail, and the Frenship Tigers will be victim No. 2 tonight. Our guess: Hereford 27, Frenship 13.

Hereford still has one more non-district game and that will be at Levelland next week. The Herd catches Randall and Caprock in home district contests, while the road games are at Borger, Pampa and Dumas.

Last Friday, I wrote about a few experiences from my sports writing days. The above mention of road games provides a starting point for this week's trip down memory lane.

While working as editor of the Littlefield paper in the 60s, I rode the team bus to Perryton for a rare Saturday afternoon game. I explained to the coach that I would call in a report of the game from the press box as soon as the game ended, so the story could be in the Sunday paper.

Favored Littlefield lost the game, and the frustrated coach, in a hurry to start home, forgot one of his passengers--me. When I made my way to the dressing room, everyone was gone except a janitor, who soon informed me there was no commercial bus out of Perryton until Monday.

So, he volunteered to take me out to the highway so I could try to hitch a ride. After a long wait, a guy in an old pickup stopped. I soon learned he gave me a ride so I could hold the shift stick in high gear. His standard transmission would jump out of gear without a steady hand on the shift stick. He took me all the way to Spearman, about 25 miles, and let me out at a service station.

Luckily, a man was getting gas and said he'd be glad to take me to Borger. I knew where the team was eating dinner at Borger, so I asked him if I could make a quick phone call. It took a few minutes for someone to get the coach to the phone.

"Is this Speedy? Where in the world are you," asked the coach.

"You bankety-blank, I'm in Spearman, Texas!" I replied.

"What are you doing in Spearman?" asked the astonished coach. "You left without me and I'm hitchhiking," I explained. His alibi was that he thought I was riding back with the superintendent, which was strange as the idea had never been mentioned.

Two coaches, who had scouted a game on Friday night and drove a car to Perryton, were eating with the team. He quickly said he'd send them back for me, but I told him to have the coaches wait at the restaurant, since I had a ride to Borger.

It was a very funny story around Littlefield on Monday morning, but it wasn't too humorous to me on Saturday night. The coach was very apologetic, especially when I threatened to predict that Littlefield should probably win the state title the next year!

This same coach was the one who got miffed at the band director for holding marching practice on the playing field and trampling down the grass. He changed the locks on the gates and the band director couldn't gain access to the field. The superintendent had to intervene in that controversy and solve the problem.

Youngster wins at fair

Stephen Alexander, son of Eric and Chris Alexander, won a first-place ribbon for his giant pumpkin this week at the Tri-State Fair in Amarillo. Stephen's pumpkin was over six feet in diameter. Other local fair winners are featured in today's Hereford Brand.

Chamber hears several reports

Deaf Smith County Chamber of Commerce directors, in a monthly meeting Thursday, heard Mike Carr, executive vice president, present a plan designed to evaluate the programs, activities, goals, and organizational structure of the chamber prior to the start of the new year.

Directors also heard a report from the nominating committee on the election of new directors. Candidates will be announced after nominees are contacted.

No action was taken at the meeting since a quorum was not present. Lewis McDaniel, vice president, presided in the absence of Charles Greenawalt. Carr gave an update on industrial development activities.

Present for the meeting were McDaniel, Ken McLain, Wes Fisher, John Sherrod and Yolanda Valdez. Absent were Greenawalt, Pat Robbins, Mauri Montgomery, Elaine McNutt, Diane Hoelscher, Donna West, Waldo Baxter, Rita Bell and Bill Lyles.

PEROT

Perot may get back into race

DALLAS (AP) - Ross Perot, whose supporters have been urged to hear from the Bush and Clinton campaigns before prodding the Texas billionaire to re-enter the presidential race, already has decided to rejoin the campaign, a newspaper reported today.

The Los Angeles Times, citing unidentified sources, says Perot has decided "reluctantly" to get back into the contest after concluding that President Bush and Democratic nominee Bill Clinton won't tackle the nation's economic troubles.

The Perot announcement will come Monday during a scheduled appearance on CNN's "Larry King Live," the newspaper said. Perot, who first suggested on King's program that he would mount an independent candidacy, dropped out of the race in July.

On Thursday, members of Perot's staff were encouraging supporters to meet with the Bush and Clinton campaigns before pressing Perot to re-enter the race.

Staff members also urged state coordinators of United We Stand, America, to cancel news conferences planned for today until after a Dallas meeting Monday with representatives of the two major-party campaigns. A Clinton source said someone from the Democratic camp would attend.

Perot, meanwhile, was scheduled to appear on NBC's "Today" on Monday and Tuesday and is negotiating to buy half an hour of network time next week, according to unidentified network sources quoted by the Los Angeles Times.

Former Perot media adviser James Squires said Perot would rejoin the race not to win the White House but to obtain paid commercial TV air time to deliver his economic message.

"He'll do what he has to do to get his ads on TV," Squires said. "If that means going on 'Larry King Live' and saying he's a candidate for president, then he'll do it."

One source told the Times that Perot has told White House Chief of Staff James A. Baker III that he would reconsider his decision to re-enter the race if the Bush campaign embraces his austere economic plan.

"Negotiations are still going on. That's what talks with Baker were about," the source said.

Ross Perot Jr. said his father's goal "is not to be president of the United States."

"His goal is to fix the country, fix some problems, to keep the two candidates really focused in on what the problems are," the younger Perot told KDFW-TV in Dallas.

Orson Swindle, national volunteer coordinator for Perot, had asked the state groups to gauge Perot's support.

Clinton warns of Bush's doubt

NEW YORK (AP) - Bill Clinton is opening a new campaign front focusing on health care, pitching himself as a "can-do" leader and brushing off Republican criticism as "foolish, negative doubt."

Clinton, campaigning in New York and New Jersey, pushed his plan to guarantee universal health care coverage and implement strict cost controls.

"My opponents are sowing doubt at every turn," Clinton told a crowd Thursday at Manhattan's Bryant Park. He said President Bush had written off America's chance of guaranteed health care and family leave for workers.

"I always thought that when people came to New York and saw the Statue of Liberty, they were coming here because this was a can-do country, not a can't-do country," Clinton said.

Later, Clinton hit the fund-raising circuit in New York, where aides said he collected $4.3 million for the Democratic National Committee.

Clinton turned his attention to education today, heading to the University of Connecticut for a midday address before stopping in Boston for a speech at Faneuil Hall. The two Northeastern states have 20 electoral votes at stake; New York has 33; New Jersey, 15.

Bush was going after votes in the industrial Midwest after taking a day off Thursday. He was heading today to Illinois to visit a Motorola plant before beginning a weekend whistlestop train tour in Ohio. Illinois has 22 electoral votes; Ohio, 21.

The Clinton campaign hurriedly added two states to an already full schedule Saturday, including New Hampshire and Maine to Clinton's Vermont and Washington, D.C., visits.

Clinton suggested to reporters Thursday that Bush was dodging presidential debates to avoid questions about his role in the Reagan administration's Iran-Contra scandal.

Clinton didn't mention Iran-Contra at the New York rally, but he jabbed at Bush over the debates, saying the president was afraid to go "mano a mano" with him.

Iran-Contra operative Richard Secord, meanwhile, disputed Bush's assertion that he didn't know about the Reagan White House's arms-for-hostages deals with Iran, telling The Associated Press that Bush had "not come clean."

Bush "was in on key decisions; there's simply no question about that; for him to suggest otherwise is simply not the case," Secord said.

"It's time for George Bush to come clean with the American people," said Clinton spokesman George Stephanopoulos. "What did Bush know and when did he know it? Why won't he tell the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth?"

Guerrero resigns RRC job, remains on November ballot

FALFURRIAS (AP) - In less than a day, former Texas Railroad Commissioner Lena Guerrero has gone from a tearful political retreat to a determined offensive.

Ms. Guerrero resigned under fire Thursday afternoon in Austin, only to re-initiate her campaign for the same post that night before a welcoming South Texas crowd.

"I don't have to tell you that Guerrero in English means warrior. I'm here to tell you that I'm ready to fight," she said as she shifted the focus away from the controversy that drove her from office.

"I'm painfully aware that my credibility was made an issue in this race. But I believe my record in office should also be an issue," said Ms. Guerrero.

The crowd, which included busloads of people from her hometown of Mission, cheered her on loudly, chanting "Lena, Lena."

Earlier Thursday in Austin, Ms. Guerrero, flanked by her husband and 4-year-old son, had apologized for falsely claiming for 12 years to be a graduate of the University of Texas.

"I have been in a hurry all my life. In my haste, I was reckless. I made mistakes, deeply serious mistakes," she said in a speech punctuated by applause from supporters who filled the Texas House chamber.

"I allowed misperceptions, embellishments and errors of fact about my academic record to go uncorrected. I didn't admit to the truth of those facts when questioned about them," she said.

"I brought these difficulties upon myself. The deceptions continue to compound my problems. I know that I have no one else to blame."

She gave virtually the same resignation speech in Falfurrias, a small town about 60 miles north of McAllen.

But this time, when she declared she would remain the Democratic candidate for Railroad Commission chairman in the Nov. 3 election, she wasn't on the verge of tears. She seemed forceful and confident.

"I'm here to tell you I'm going to run this race on my merits and I'm going to win this race on my merits," Ms. Guerrero said.

Gov. Ann Richards, who appointed Ms. Guerrero to serve out an unexpired term on the Railroad Commission, called her "an outstanding public official" and predicted she would win the election.

Ms. Guerrero faces Dallas oilman Barry Williamson, the Republican nominee, in the race for a seat on the three-member panel that regulates the state's oil and gas industry.

"For 12 years, she misled the people of Texas. Then when confronted, she continued to lie," Williamson said. "It's sad to see a once-promising political career come apart like Lena's has."

A rising Democratic Party star, Ms. Guerrero had addressed the party's national convention in July.

She was elected to the Texas House from an Austin district in 1984. She was re-elected in 1986, 1988 and 1990.

On Dec. 3, 1990, Gov.-elect Richards announced that her first appointment would be naming Ms. Guerrero as the first woman and first Hispanic to serve on the commission.

Richards had called that appointment of her protege "historic" and one that would "send a message to the people of Texas" that state government was being opened to all.

Recently, however, Ms. Guerrero's academic background was called into question.

Her resignation followed disclosures that for 12 years she falsely described herself as a graduate of the University of Texas. Official campaign and House biographies also called her an honors graduate and member of the Phi Beta Kappa honors society.

But grade transcripts she made public last week showed she actually had been a C-plus student who was 19 class hours - more than a semester of work - short of receiving a diploma.

She initially said she thought she had graduated.

She clouded the issue before finally issuing a written clarification that said, "It was something I wanted to be true so badly I began to believe it myself and it wasn't until I was called by a reporter ... that I realized the misrepresentation was over."

Fred Meyer, state GOP chairman, said Ms. Guerrero's speech Thursday was apparently only done for political purposes rather than from "genuine remorse."

"I think she undermined her sincerity with her first answer to the question," he said.

GUERRERO

"I have been in a hurry all my life. In my haste, I was reckless. I made mistakes, deeply serious mistakes. I allowed misperceptions, embellishments and errors of fact about my academic record to go uncorrected. I didn't admit to the truth of those facts when questioned about them. I brought these difficulties upon myself. The deceptions continue to compound my problems.

I know that I have no one else to blame. I'm here to tell you I'm going to run this race on my merits and I'm going to win this race on my merits."--Lena Guerrero, during resignation speech.

"United Way is the one agency which contributes to every segment of society in Deaf Smith County," Rives said. "By working with United Way, I'm able to support many groups which all make life better for our community."

Rives and his wife, Donna, have three children: Michael, Makesha and Chayse. Rives is also active in the Hereford Lions Club, and urges everyone in Deaf Smith County to Take Time To Care.

Donna Brooks is executive director of United Way of Deaf Smith County, taking time to care to help the 1992 campaign be more successful so the 12 member agencies can improve life for everyone in Deaf Smith County.

She and her husband, Dan, have a son, Duston, 10, and a daughter, Danna, 8. She's been a parent volunteer in Aikman and Bluebonnet schools, and was named Aikman's parent of the year in 1990-91 and 1991-92.

"I substituted in the school system last year," she said. "It was a good learning experience."

Her name was submitted for the executive director's post by the 1991 campaign chairman, Don Cumpston.

"So far, so good," she said. "All the people I have met and worked with are so nice. I love working with United Way so much because I can see how all of the agencies are operating so smoothly. Of course, a lot of that is thanks to volunteers, but the paid staff persons devote so much time to their work. United Way is such an easy way for everyone to help so many in our community."

Estes says FDR gave him start in fertilizer business

LONGVIEW, Texas (AP) - Billie Sol Estes says President Franklin D. Roosevelt got him started "wheeling and dealing" while Estes was still in high school.

Estes, who went to prison in 1963 for a scheme involving non-existent fertilizer tanks that were used to back federal agriculture loans, said, "There is something in my personality that causes me lots of problems."

Estes Thursday told members of the Longview chapter of the American Business Clubs, "I can tell you what not to do."

Speaking of Roosevelt, Estes said the president presented him with a national 4H award and then told him about a grain program.

"You could put in an order for say 100 cars of wheat. If wheat went up, you could take the wheat. If it went down on the market, you could just cancel the order. It would just be like playing the market today and you didn't put up nothing," he said.

Estes said he met Lyndon Johnson at about the same time and immediately liked him because "in the early to late 1940s, I got heavy into integration."

Estes, whose name until now has been associated more with swindling investigations than civil rights, told the crowd, "I was one of the first to get (black leader) Martin Luther King involved."

His legal problems came to a head in the 1960s when Johnson was president and Estes was convicted in the tank scam.

Estes was convicted in 1963 and sentenced to 15 years in prison on federal mail fraud and conspiracy charges in the fertilizer tank scam.

He was paroled in 1971, but the parole was revoked in 1979 after he was sentenced to two five-terms for mail fraud and conspiracy to conceal assets to avoid paying back taxes.

"The way we financed those anhydrous tanks is what I wouldn't advise anyone to do," he said. But it really wasn't what it seemed, he said.

He explained he was financing the tanks with funds from grain storage and had enough money to cover the situation.

But "they got behind on building them. When they checked them, they couldn't find them all," he explained.

Estes also predicted that a movie being planned about his life will prove that Lee Harvey Oswald was not the sole assassin of President John F. Kennedy.

Estes said actor Tom Cruise has been discussed as the person who would portray Estes in the movie.

Estes said his current occupation involves arranging bank letters of credit for people wanting to ship to foreign markets such as Russia. One man questioned whether banks would issue letters of credit to someone with Estes' reputation.

Fumble!

Hereford's Gerardo Camacho (40) has his eye on a Borger fumble in the seventh grade Maroon A game. Hereford's Andy Ramirez (78) is in the background. Hereford lost 26-0.

Herd junior varsity, freshmen get wins

Hereford High School's sub-varsity football teams had a successful Thursday, winning three out of five, while the junior high gridgers weren't so lucky.

The varsity Herd will try to keep the high school's success going tonight against Frenship. The Whitefaces and Tigers clash at 7:30 at Whiteface Stadium.

Herd junior varsity 35, Frenship 18
Stacey Sanders and Chris Vallejo each scored two touchdowns, and two late interceptions helped turn a potentially tight game into a runaway in Wolforth.

Sanders started the scoring with a 44-yard run, then ran for two points on the conversion. Vallejo then ran four yards for a TD, and Ray Hastings' kick made it 15-0. However, Frenship got back into it with two long passes late in the half and trailed 15-12 at the break.

In the second half, Sanders ran one yard for a score and Hastings kicked. Cameron Betzen picked off a Frenship pass on the Tiger 20, and moments later, Johnny Zambrano ran 12 yards for the TD. Hastings kicked again, and Hereford led 29-12.

Frenship scored to make it 29-18, but a Vallejo interception stopped the rally. He ran six yards to finish the scoring.

"I was real pleased with the execution," offensive coach Craig Yenzler said. "Each week we get a better concept of the system we're trying to run. Our offensive line has steadily improved. Offensively, it's been a total unit effort."

Defensive coach Ron Young said the defense played well, especially the forcing unit--the front eight.

"They did what they had to do," Young said. "They came back in the second half and got their intensity level back up and stopped them."

Amarillo High 28, Herd sophomores 20

Hereford led 20-0 after one quarter in Amarillo, but then they let up, coach Oscar Rendon said.

"We played real good in the first quarter," Rendon said. "Then we just relaxed. We relaxed and they didn't. We started making little mistakes. We were just hurting ourselves."

Michael Brown ran 14 yards for a touchdown, then completed scoring passes to Raymond Alaniz and John Paul Villareal. Palo Duro scored twice in the second quarter to pull within 20-13, then returned the second half kickoff for a touchdown and ran for two points to take the lead. PD tacked on a touchdown late in the game.

Spikers start district with Dumas

By JAY PEDEN
Sports Editor

The teams are the same, but, boy, have the faces changed.

Hereford and Dumas renew their volleyball rivalry Saturday in Whiteface Gym. It's the district-opener for both.

Last year's meetings between the two were some of the hardest-fought battles anywhere. However, most of the girls from both sides of the net last year are gone--many playing volleyball in college. Only one starter on each side is back: middle blocker Erin Bullard for Hereford and setter Summer Giffin for Dumas.

The 1992 versions have seen each other once this season: the finals of the Lubbock Invitational, which the Demonettes won 13-15, 15-8, 15-12.

Since then, Hereford coach Brenda Reeh hasn't seen the Demonettes, who are now 15-4.

"They don't have the big power hitters like they've had in the past," Reeh said. "We know their stronghold is their defense and their setter, Summer Giffin."

"We watched the Lubbock film and tried to find weaknesses in their defense," Reeh said. "I don't know if they have those corrected or not but that's the only thing we have to go on. I think we can expect--as usual--lots of long rallies between the two of us. We have to prevent unforced errors. Sometimes we have a tendency--during a long rally--to lose patience and commit an error. We just have to play patient and smart."

Dumas and Hereford (10-7) may not dominate the rest of District 1-4A like they have the last few years. Borger even owns a win over Hereford: 15-8, 15-10 in the San Angelo Invitational. Borger (10-5) and Randall (9-5) will challenge for a playoff spot, and they'll start district against each other at Borger.

"The district is much more even than it has been the last several years," Reeh said. "Borger is much stronger in the middle and defensively than they have been. Randall, I think, is capable of beating anybody. They've got some good athletes at Randall."

The Lady Whitefaces' loss to Borger may help Hereford in district, Reeh said.

"I think that fact just makes us respect them maybe a little bit more than we would have if we wouldn't have played them," she said. "I think our kids have a healthy respect for everybody in our district."

Caprock got off to a hot start but is now 7-10. Pampa is struggling at 1-9. They meet in Amarillo.

These district matches, including the one in Hereford, start with a junior varsity match at 2 p.m. The main event starts 20 minutes after the completion on the JV match.

In the 1948 Olympics, the U.S. 400-meter relay team first won the gold medal, then lost on a disqualification, but finally regained it on an appeal.

HJH spikers sweep Pampa

All four of Hereford Junior High' volleyball teams won matches in Pampa Thursday.

Both seventh grade teams overcame slow starts to win. The Maroon team won 11-15, 15-9, 15-7, as Kendra Wright served for 16 points during the match. The White came from even further down--they lost the first game and trailed 8-0 in the second before coming back for a 5-15, 16-14, 15-2 victory. Tricia Spain served for 10 points.

Hereford's eighth grade teams didn't have much trouble. The Maroon team won 15-9, 15-12, getting nine service points from Cassie Abney. The White team won 15-1, 15-4 as Annie Hoffman served for eight points.

The HJH volleyball teams will play in a tournament in Borger Saturday, then they host Borger Monday.

Bucs clobber Expos, move closer to division title

By The Associated Press
Having KO'd their last serious challenger, the Pittsburgh Pirates are counting down to another championship.

By drubbing the Montreal Expos 9-3 on Thursday night, the Pirates reduced their magic number for clinching their third straight NL East title to three. They lead the Expos by seven games with nine to play after reaching the 90-victory mark for the third straight year.

It's not that they're ready to declare victory. But the numbers are on their side.

"This thing hasn't been decided yet," Pirates manager Jim Leyland said. "I'll say one thing, though, there hasn't been a team that's made a run at us in a long time the way the Expos have this year. "There were lots of times when the Expos played a game before us and won, so that put the pressure on us to have to go out there and win. Our club deserves a lot of credit, but so do the Expos."

National League

Montreal kept things interesting by winning 5-1 on Wednesday night as Moises Alou hit a 14th-inning grand slam. This time, though, Doug Drabek (15-10) won his fifth straight game and Barry Bonds's 31st home run, a three-run shot, helped the Pirates make it look easy.

In other games, it was Cincinnati 8, Los Angeles 4; San Francisco 4, Atlanta 0; San Diego 7, Houston 1; St. Louis 4, New York 3 in 14 innings and Philadelphia 3, Chicago 2 in 10 innings.

Reds 8, Dodgers 4
Willie Greene and Bip Roberts each tripled in two runs during a six-run seventh inning at Dodger Stadium as Cincinnati overcame a 4-0 deficit.

Greene tied the game at 4 with his triple off Roger McDowell (6-10) and Barry Larkin singled in the go-ahead run before Roberts' tripled in two more and Paul O'Neill added an RBI single.

Tom Bolton (3-3) got the win by getting Jose Offerman to hit into an inning-ending double play in the sixth.

Giants 4, Braves 0
Jeff Brantley, Bill Swift and Rod Beck combined on a three-hitter and Matt Williams homered at San Francisco.

Williams' solo shot in the fifth inning came off Tom Glavine (20-7).

Brantley (6-7), a converted reliever making his third start, allowed two hits and struck out nine in 5 1-3 innings. Swift pitched 2 2-3 innings, giving up one hit, and Beck got the last three outs.

Padres 7, Astros 1
Gary Sheffield hit a three-run homer, his 33rd of the season, to ignite a five-run first inning as San Diego beat Houston to give new manager Jim Riggleman his first big-league victory.

Sheffield moved within one of the NL home run lead of teammate Fred McGriff and increased his RBI total to 99, six behind Philadelphia's Darren Daulton, with his first-inning homer off Willie Blair (5-7). Sheffield was 1 for 4 and maintained his lead in the batting race at .332.

Cardinals 4, Mets 3
Todd Zeile's bases-loaded single capped a wild 14th inning as St. Louis rallied to beat New York.

Winfield becomes oldest man to drive in 100 runs

By JOHN NICHOLSON
Associated Press Writer
Dave Winfield struck a blow for the over-40 crowd and moved the Toronto Blue Jays a step closer to their second straight AL East title. Winfield, who turns 41 on Oct. 3, became the oldest player with 100 RBIs, driving in four runs for a total of 103 with a homer and a double in Winfield gave Toronto a 2-0 lead in the first inning with his 26th homer and capped a five-run second with a double into the left-field corner to make it 7-0.

Toronto reduced its magic number to six and remained 3 1/2 games in front of second-place Milwaukee, which beat visiting California 4-0. In Thursday night's other games, Boston beat Cleveland 6-4, New York routed Detroit 10-1, Oakland beat Chicago 4-1 and Kansas City topped Seattle 2-0.

Winfield also moved past Reggie Jackson into 15th place on the all-time RBI list with 1,705 and played in his 2,700th game in the majors to tie Graig Nettles for 18th place.

Jimmy Key (12-13) allowed two runs and four hits in six innings for his fourth straight victory.

Royals 2, Mariners 0
At Kansas City, George Brett went 2 for 4 and is just seven hits away from becoming the 18th player to 3,000. He's got 10 games left.

American League

Toronto's 8-2 victory over the Baltimore Orioles on Thursday night. "I can't understand why no 40-year-old has done it before," Winfield said. "They were probably retired and playing with their grandchildren and all that stuff, I suppose."

Winfield has four more RBIs than Darrell Evans had in 1987 when he set the previous mark for players in their 40s.

FOOTBALL

Ninth grade White 36, PD Blue 6
In the only high school game played in Hereford, Marquise Brown ran for five touchdowns, including a 65-yarder to start the game, and Ralph Morales blocked a punt out of the end zone for a safety for the other two points.

Brown's other touchdown runs were of 2, 50, 7 and 67 yards. He ran for two points after one of the scores.

All of Hereford's scoring was in the first three quarters, including 20 in the first quarter. Palo Duro scored late in the fourth.

"We came out hot in the first half," coach James Salinas said, "(after that) we didn't play with a lot of intensity. When it's 36-0, it's hard to convince the kids. Early, we played really hard."

Palo Duro didn't bring enough players for a B game.

Ninth grade Maroon 35, Tascosa 6
In Amarillo, Armando Zambrano scored four touchdowns three different ways and kicked three extra points.

Zambrano scored on a three-yard run (set up by his 40-yarder) and on a 28-yard run. He scored on a 70-yard kickoff return, and on a 30-yard hook-and-ladder play when Wade McPherson passed to Joe Ricenbaw and Ricenbaw pitched to Zambrano.

Ricenbaw tallied a safety, and Anthony Cervantez returned an interception 32 yards for Hereford's other points.

In the B game, Hereford lost 6-0.

Hereford Junior High
HJH lost every game which has been reported.

In Hereford, the eighth grade White A team fell 2-0 as Valleyview scored a safety, then the B team lost 20-14 as Valleyview scored the winning touchdown with 10 seconds left in the game.

Also in Hereford, the seventh grade Maroon team fell to Borger 26-0 in the A game and 6-0 in the B game.

"The defense did a heck of a job," coach Charlie Garza said. "If the offense would have done it's job..."

In Borger, the eighth grade Maroon lost 24-0 in the A game, but the B team gave Borger a contest before bowing 20-18. Hereford got two touchdowns from Cody Phommyvong, a 67-yarder and a 52-yarder, and Wes Blackwell threw a 48-yard touchdown pass to Jody Hodges.

At Valleyview, the seventh grade White A team lost 12-8, and results of the B game were not reported.

Just returned from Shamrock, where I participated in the 21st Annual Championship Dove Hunt. Hosted by Gary and Ida Gandy, this hunt draws more than 100 good ol' boys and girls from across the southwest. If you enjoy dove hunting, good music, tall stories, good food and meeting some genuinely nice people, then make plans to attend the 1993 hunt.

The economics of this hunt are very interesting. The "by invitation" hunter pays $25 for two days of outstanding dove hunting and two fantastic evening cookouts. The town of Shamrock fills up their motel rooms and creates 100 goodwill ambassadors who can't wait to tell their friends about the wonderful hunting and terrific people in Wheeler County. Other towns could learn a hunting lesson from Shamrock.

Special note to J.D. and B.J. Clay. You could make a fortune by opening a fancy restaurant and serving those dove hors d'oeuvres. Thanks to Noel Walton for my invitation.

Sunglasses—While doing some research on the importance of sunglasses for the angler and the hunter, I interviewed Michael Edelstein of Rocky Mountain High Sport Glasses, who surprised me by emphasizing the importance of using high-quality glasses for kids.

Similar to skin damage from the sun, damage to the eyes from the sun might not show up until years later. Young eyes may be particularly vulnerable to the reflective rays of the sun that occur on the water or on the snow.

The Sunglasses Association of America has established something called the ANSI Z80-3, the recognized standard on the properties and performance of sunglasses.

I am currently using a pair of polarized "Babe Winklemen" signature fishing glasses with side shields. A bargain at $14.95, they provide 100 percent Ultraviolet protection, meet the FDA shatter-resistant standards, exceed the ANSI Z80-3 General Purpose UV requirements, and they are lightweight.

Finally if sunglasses do not protect your eyes against ultraviolet "A" and "B," don't buy them. For goodness sakes, don't buy an inferior pair for the kids. All sunglasses can be scratched, so don't store them in the kids' toy box.

Correction—The proposed 1993 Lake Meredith Crappieathon still sounds like a good idea, but due to losing some national sponsor money, this tagged crappie event has reduced the top prize money by $100,000. Unless Crappieathon makes additional changes, this tournament will last 60 days and will still have a respectable $25,000 top prize.

Hunters' education class set

A hunters' education course will be taught in Hereford by Gary Billingsley and Don Nall on Sept. 29 and 30. The course will be taught from 5-10 p.m.

The Texas Parks and Wildlife Department requires all hunters who were born from Sept. 2, 1971-Aug. 31, 1974, to complete a hunters' education course before hunting in Texas. In addition, anyone may take the course and is encouraged to do so by the TPWD. The course is open to hunters of all ages.

The course covers a variety of subjects: rifle, shotgun and bow handling and safety; outdoor responsibility and ethics; laws and regulations; conservation; hunting traditions; wildlife identification; field care of game; and wilderness first aid and survival.

Students 12 years or older will receive a hunters' education certificate from TPWD upon successful completion of the course. Students who are less than 12 years old will receive a certificate of attendance, but must take the course again for proper certification.

For more information, contact Billingsley at 364-3410, or call TPWD's Hunter Education section in Austin at 1-800-792-1112 or (512) 389-4999.

The Los Angeles Rams were the first NFL team to televise all their games, both home and away.

The last pro football team to use the single wing offense on a regular basis was Pittsburgh, which dropped it in 1952.

Choir performs at luncheon

The Young at Heart Choir entertained the members of the Hereford School Employees Association recently at their first meeting of the fall season.

Following the luncheon served at the Hereford Senior Citizens Center, Elizabeth DeKoster introduced the group who sang a variety of old-time favorites.

President Margaret Bell led the group in an opening prayer and a brief memorial service honoring recently deceased members Marian Davis, Madeline Bell and Minnie Bell Collier.

Leona Schilling gave an amusing account of some of the incidents that occurred in her teaching career during the "I Remember When It Happened..."

New yearbooks were distributed and it was announced that the club now has 78 active members and six associate members. Retired personnel may join at any time and may contact Audrey Powell or Billie McDowell for further information.

Members were reminded of the next meeting on Oct. 12 when Dr. Charles Greenawalt, superintendent of schools, will bring an update on the Hereford schools.

LOS ANGELES (AP) - The son of actor Andy Griffith was sentenced to 90 days in jail after pleading no contest to charges he beat his wife and allegedly caused her to have a miscarriage.

Sam Griffith, 34, also was given three years probation, fined $500 and ordered to complete an alcohol-abuse treatment program, his attorney, James Blatt, said Thursday.

Griffith already served the 90 days while awaiting trial, Blatt said.

Griffith, a real estate developer, said he was happy with the deal. Renee Denise Griffith, 28, told police she was struck and kicked by her husband during an argument in January, when she was two months pregnant.

OWENSBORO, Ky. (AP) - The Nashville Bluegrass Band won awards for entertainer of the year, best song and top vocal group at the International Bluegrass Music Awards. A member of the band, Stuart Duncan, was voted the top fiddler.

"Blue Train," from the band's album "Home of the Blues," won best song in balloting by a panel of professional bluegrass musicians.

The award for best album went to "Carrying the Tradition" by the Lonesome River Band. The band California won as the year's top instrumental group.

Facts About The BIBLE BY JOHN LEHTI

THE WOMEN TOOK CARE OF ALL THE MONEY

MONEY, IN BIBLICAL TIMES, WAS CARRIED IN VARIOUS WAYS. USUALLY PEOPLE CARRIED MONEY, OR OBJECTS OF GREAT VALUE WRAPPED IN THE FOLDS OF THE GIRDLER WHICH WAS WORN AROUND THE WAIST LIKE A SASH. AS A COMMON OCCURENCE MEN DID NOT BOTHER WITH THE PAYMENT OF DEBTS AND BILLS -- THIS WAS LEFT TO THE CARE OF THE WIFE OR MOTHER! A MAN ON A LONG TRIP INVARIABLY MADE SURE THAT THE WOMAN HAD COMPLETE CHARGE OF THE MONEY TO PAY FOR EVERY NEED. THIS WAS GOOD INSURANCE HIS MONEY WOULD NOT BE STOLEN DURING THE JOURNEY BECAUSE THIEVES AND BRIGANDS MIGHT SEARCH A MAN FOR MONEY BUT THE WOMAN WAS INVIOLEATE, POSSIBLY THIS WAS WHY THE WOMEN TOOK CARE OF ALL MONEY, BEFORE COINS CAME INTO USE, PIECES OF SILVER AND GOLD WERE TIED IN A BAG, OR IN A GIRDLER, OR STRUNG ON A CORD TO BE TAKEN OFF WHEN PAYMENT WAS REQUIRED FOR PURCHASES, AND WEIGHTS AND SCALES WERE CARRIED FOR WEIGHING OUT THE DESIRED QUANTITY.
