Attend the Fourth of July Celebration at Hereford---A Hot Time

VOL. I. NO. 1

HEREFORD, DEAF SMITH COUNTY, TEXAS, JUNE 14, 1901

$1.50 PER YEAR

THE GLORIOUS FOURTH TO BE CELEBRATED

Amusements of all Sorts, Base Ball Games and Barbacue.

EVERYBODY INVITED TO COME AND ENJOY THEMSELVES

And Don't Forget the Children and Babies.

On last Friday afternoon pursuant to a general call a large number of Hereford's most prominent business men and citizens assembled at the court house to discuss ways and means of celebrating the Fourth of July in Hereford in a fitting manner. Hon. A. J. Lipscomb was elected chairman and F. L. Vanderburgh secretary. The object of the meeting being stated it was unanimously voted that Hereford could have a celebration and a big one at that. Various suggestions were offered and discussed and it was decided to appoint a committee for each department of the celebration and leave all arrangements to them.

The following committees were appointed by the chair:

GROUNDS AND ARRANGEMENTS—J. M. McGlathlin, J. M. Garner, Judge Boyd, R. A. Hough, B. C. D. Bynum.

FINANCE—Judge Gough, W. H. Patton, F. B. Fuller, Jno. E. Ferguson, A. J. Lipscomb.

PROGRAM—C. L. Bounds, C. R. Moreman, Mrs. L. F. Alby, Miss Maggie Syms, Mrs. Geo. W. Dale, Mrs. Jno. E. Ferguson, Miss Madeline Patton, Miss Mary Tygret, Mrs. F. T. Denson, Dr. R. M. Johnson, Dr. E. W. Tinsley, Geo. Irwin.

INVITATION AND RECEPTION—Dr. R. W. Bounds, Joe Killough, F. L. Vanderburgh, Dr. R. H. Gough, Judge Witherspoon.

TRANSPORTATION—Judge L. Gough, T. J. Davis, F. T. Denson, W. G. Mullins, S. S. Evants, L. F. Alby.

As will be seen—each committee is composed of ladies and gentlemen who have the welfare of Hereford at heart and who will spare neither effort or time to make the Fourth one of unusual success and pleasure.

At this writing no definite program has been arranged but there will be all kinds of games and amusements, and a grand picnic and barbaque at the Court House.

Next week THE REPORTER hopes to be able to publish the program in full and give such other information as will be useful. Every committee is now hard at work and a general good time is assured.

Make arrangements to spend the day with us. You are especially invited to attend and help us celebrate.

A "TACKY" PARTY.

Miss Rena Whitney and Bill Harris Were "Tackiest."

Last Tuesday a number of young people gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Whitney for the purpose of deciding who could dress the tackiest as well as to have a good social time.

The costumes were very quaint and unique and excited no little admiration and comment.

Social chat, games, music and dancing were indulged in during which choice refreshments consisting of ice cream and cake were served.

After due consideration the judges decided that the prize for the "tackiest" dressed lady—a jar of snuff—belonged to Miss Rena Whitney, her costume being very original as well as "tacky" in the extreme. To the "tackiest" boy was

G. R. JOWELL.

The papers are printing the story of a negro who was stealing a ride on the trucks of a passenger train when the train ran into a mule. The train stopped and the crew looked round to see what damage was done and spied the negro. They fished him out and said: "What were you doing there?" "Why, I wuz ridin dat mule," said the negro, and they took him in a passenger coach and carried him on his way with apologies.

A BEAUTIFUL PLACE.

Is The Residence Property of Judge L. Gough.

One day recently we were invited to pay a visit to the residence of Judge L. Gough. In company with that gentleman, who was mounted on his fleet pony while the writer was mounted on his bicycle, we raced to the judge's residence, which is situated about three-quarters of a mile north of town. We believe honors to be even as far as the race was concerned, except that our wind was more played than the judge's.

Arriving there the writer was amazed at the growth of trees, flowers and shrubbery which abounds the twenty acres acres of land which comprises the residence property.
We were more surprised, however, when we were informed that the trees had been planted but two years.

In the rear of the residence is a long artificial pond which is kept filled by a windmill. This the judge has stocked with black bass which in a few years will multiply to such an extent that he will have only to go a hundred feet for a fresh bass for his morning repast. The orchard is also beginning to bear fruit. The writer cannot conceive, in the face of such conclusive evidence that such beautiful places can be produced in this so called arid country with a little effort on the part of the owner, why more of our residence properties do not look equally nice.

We wish to state, however, that already a number of our residents are planting trees, flowers and shrubbery about their property, which will make Hereford loom up as an oasis in a desert in a few short years.

Amarillo Sunday, registering at the Humphrey.

J. S. Ferriss & Carl P. Sites were here from Dallas on business this week. They wrote their names on the Humphrey House register.

Come to Hereford on the Fourth.
You'll have a good time.

Geo. Bennett, the efficient saddlery man at Thompson & Pierbrand's, spent Sunday in Amarillo, returning Tuesday morning.

Emmett Powers and wife and Miss Blanche Byaro spent the first of the week in the city from the ranch, registering at the Humphrey House.

Judge L. Gough and F. L. Vanderburgh paid the beautiful farms of the Pearl of the Pecos a visit on Sunday last. This was the Judge's first visit and both felt amply repaid for our trouble as a prettier place never existed than the famous alfalfa farms and broad orchards with trees loaded down with all kinds of fruit. As many of the orchards are not irrigated they serve as an excellent example of what could be and is done here in Hereford by all who have land upon which to plant trees, and have the inclination to plant them.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

Comments on Current Events in the Busy Outside World.

Mr. McKinley now has doubts of the power of Senator McLaurin as a converter.

You cannot define Senator McLaurin's democracy because it does not exist.

Perry Heath says he expects Hanna to throw bricks at him for nominating him for president. Don't worry, Perry, all the bricks that Hanna throws at you will be pneumatic.

Russell Sage has a high opinion of the wisdom of the supreme court of Minnesota, which added several millions to his fortune by a land decision. Needless to say the dispossessed settlers do not share that opinion.

Sneers at the success of Mr. Bryan's weekly would carry more weight if accompanied by the name of a man in politics, in any party, who would not start a paper if assured of the support that has been given to the Commoner.

Dowie, the ranter, who is making himself a nuisance in Chicago, does not claim much; only that he is Elijah the prophet, and John the Baptist, now doing his third stunt on earth. He also claims tithes from everybody who would escape damnation.

Mr. McKinley was afraid to attempt to steer through those insular decisions until Attorney General Knox prepared a chart, showing the reefs and shoals, and now that he has got it he is still afraid and may call congress in extra session to help him share the responsibility.

One editor has been found who says there is no difficulty in understanding what Justice Brown meant in his opinion accompanying the supreme court insular decisions. Humanity prevents our giving his name and address, lest he be mobbed by museum managers anxious to exhibit him.

King Eddie can shake hands with himself. He has met J. Pierpont Morgan and still retains his crown.

Mr. McKinley's reciprocity halo may in time hide the marks of the high protection headgear he wore for so many years, but it has not yet done so.

If the know-it-alls outside of the south, who persist in airing their ignorance on the negro problem, could be muzzled, there would soon be no negro problem

Millions of people work all summer in a warmer place than the United States capitol, but the average congressman throws a fit at the bare mention of a summer's extra session.

Count Walderssee leaves China after having smirched his reputation as a soldier and without having accomplished anything creditable to himself, his country or the allied troops which obeyed his orders.

The appointment of American teachers for the public schools in the Philippines—there are to be about a thousand of them—seems to be regarded by the war department as republican pap.

Senators Hanna, Fairbanks and Foraker might draw straws to decide whose boom is the dearest and which two should be withdrawn. Secretary Root and Governor Odell, whose infant booms are still crawling, would doubtless be willing to act as judges.

It is necessary to concede the possibility of the existence of a McKinley democrat, which we do not, to understand the attitude of some men.

Mr. McKinley's squelching of the attempt of the Cubans to dictate to this government in connection with the acceptance of the Platt amendment deserves all the commendation it is getting. The Platt amendment gives the Cubans all, and many think more, then they are entitled to.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

No Extra Session of Congress.

INDIANS SERIOUSLY OBJECT

To the Opening of the Kiowa Reservation—General Pearson of the Boer Army Says the Boers Have Plenty of Men in the Field.

(From our regular correspondent.)

WASHINGTON, June 12, 1901.

The republican scheme for reducing the congressional representation of the southern states which restrict negro suffrage has been revived and it is said to have more influential backing than the movement that was started last winter. At that time it was understood that Mr. McKinley had just begun to believe in the possibility of a white republican party in the south, opposed the idea and was instrumental in having it laid aside. It is doubtful if he has changed his mind on the subject, but some of the men who are quietly pushing the revived scheme express the opinion that by next winter the failure of making white republican recruits in the south under the name of McLaurinism or any other, will be so plain to Mr. McKinley that he can be counted upon to keep his hands off if not to help along the scheme. The increased power given to congress by the insular decisions of the supreme court is used by the men who are working the scheme as an argument for the political necessity of cutting down southern representation so as to make it certain that the republicans will retain their majority in the house, the loss of which might play havoc with the party's insular policy. There are not a sufficient number of senators and representatives in Washington to form any idea of the strength of the revived scheme, but it is being manipulated by shrewd men who have no scruples about securing political advantage in any way, and it will be wise for democratic senators and representatives to be vigilant.

There were other than legal reasons for the decision of the administration not to call an extra summer session of congress to legislate for the Philippines. One was that it was thought that a few months' exercise of the autocratic authority conferred by the Spooner amendment would get things on the islands in a condition that would be less inviting to congressional interrogation than they are at this time, and another was the fear that a congressional debate on a Philippine tariff bill might precipitate a general discussion sion of the whole tariff question.

General Samuel Pearson of the Boer army passed through Washington this week on his way to New York, where he has been called to confer with the agent of the Boers on important business which he hopes relates to an honorable peace.

Speaking of the situation in his unfortunate country, he said: "We still have about 26,000 men in the field, we have all the ammunition we need, and we have sufficient horses and food stuffs, British reports to the contrary notwithstanding. My regular information from the seat of war tells me that only half of what is going on in South Africa is known and published in the newspapers here, and then it is not at all reliable. All news goes through English censors. There has been considerable more fighting down there lately than the American people have been informed of. Much activity is displayed throughout the Transvaal, the Orange Free State and Cape Colony. Kirtzinger's command has been very successfully recruiting Cape Dutch for operations against the British, and if Kitchener or Roberts can boast of having invaded the Transvaal, we can reply with the invasion of Cape Colony. Our soldiers are only fifteen miles from the sea coast which speaks for itself. The men who our at the head of our army are young, energetic, prudent and just. They know when to strike and how to do it to obtain the best results with the least difficulty and at the smallest loss of life. We are just as anxious for peace as you, but it must be an honorable peace, otherwise we will fight—fight until the last man falls."

Ex-Representative and ex-Judge Springer accompanied three Indian chiefs to the White House, where they went to present a petition asking the president to withhold his signature to the proclamation opening the Kiowa, Comanche and Apache Indian reservation to settlement until a delegation representing these tribes can reach Washington and be heard. They claim that the treaty under which the 2,000,000 acres involved are alleged to have been ceded was never approved by a majority of the Indians and that to allow it to be put into effect will be a rank injustice. Mr. Springer says that Mr. McKinley can, if so disposed, defer opening the land to settlement until congress has an opportunity to reconsider its action providing therefore. But inasmuch as Secretary Hitchcock has turned down all protests against the opening, it is not likely that he will be so disposed.

The alleged civil government that is to be established in the Philippines will be civil in name only until after congress legislates on the subject, as it is to be under military control. The islands are to be kept under military control because of the belief that the establishment of a real civil government would put them on the same footing that was given Porto Rico by the supreme court decision. There are tricks in all trades, and the republicans are specially apt in tricks relating to the government.

Representative Livingston of Georgia, who is in Washington to attend a meeting of the Industrial Commission, is strongly opposed to any constitutional amendment restricting the negro suffrage in his state. Speaking of the matter he said: "I think our people are against such amendment to our state constitution. We are getting along nicely with the negro in Georgia."

Concerning Cattle Shipments.

It is noticed that a great many shipments that legitimately belong to the Texas & Pacific railway are being diverted to the Pecos Valley again this season. Our Texas & Pacific friends should stir themselves and make an effort to hold their own. Complaint is being made that the railway is doing so much business that it feels to independent to make any concessions to shippers—West Texas Stockman.

The real cause is that the Pecos System affords shippers far better and prompter service than may be found elsewhere. The local road caters to the needs of the patrons on its lines, furnishing reasonable rates for rapid transit. The Pecos Valley officials study shipper's needs and try to meet them at every point. Cattlemen always wish to get their consignments to the sale pens with the greatest rapidity, convenience and least expense, for cattle that are kept in cars lose flesh rapidly. All cattlemen agree that the Pecos System affords the best accommodation and of course patronize the road liberally. None of these things are true of the Texas & Pacific. When a shipment comes over the Texas & Pacific its as slow in coming as the Chinese indemnity.—Roswell Stockman.

Attend the Fourth of July celebration in Hereford.

J. M. Holt shipped eighteen cars of steers, all twos, to northern points yesterday afternoon.

On Saturday last Ed Reed bought 1800 steers, all twos, and on Sunday shipped them to South Dakota.

W. T. Womble on last Friday sold 40 head of yearling heifers to J. D. Weller. Consideration $17.50

On last Tuesday Dave Ernest sold 496 three-year-olds and 251 yearlings to J. M. Sullivan at a good figure.

Mrs. Scott on Tuesday sold to W. N. Bradford 1683 fine two-year-old steers. They started for Montana on Wednesday.

P. B. Fuqua delivered to M. Sullivan 255 two-year-old steers on last Tuesday. They were sent north by the P. V. people.

Lamb & White sold to Clay, Robinson & Co. this week 400 steers—all twos that were shipped to Montana on Wednesday.

S. S. Evans on last Saturday bought of Hulter & Lynch of Midland, 325 steers, twos, they were delivered at Hereford. Price could not be learned.

Ed Reed bought on Monday 1350 two-year-old steers from Bert Halloway at a figure mutually satisfactory but it was private.

So far this season over 300 cars of cattle have been shipped to and through Denver to northern points from Hereford. This number is exclusive of the large number of shipments which have been sent by other routes.

Will Taylor and J. E. Massey made a record for themselves in loading cattle yesterday afternoon. They went to the stock pens, sanded and loaded eighteen cars with cattle and returned to town in less than an hour and half. This is claimed to be a record breaker.

Holt V. Halloway delivered to Ed Reed 2500 steers, twos, on Monday which were shipped to South Dakota. These large deliveries of cattle from the the southern country must necessarily demonstrate the superior advantages of Hereford as a shipping point.

A. Pr Murchison, representing the Strip people, sold and delivered to J. W. Flannagan 904 yearling steers the first of the week at a figure that could not be ascertained. They were shipped to Stewart, Nebraska, on Tuesday.

Capt. Tom A. Montgomery sold 2200 two-year-old steers, to Clay, Robinson & Co. on last Saturday. They were shipped on Monday to Billings, Montana. This was an exceptional bunch of steers in as much as their condition was very fine. Capt. Montgomery refused to divulge the figure received but did say that the steers were finer than the bunch sold last year and the price received was at least $2 per head less.

Joe Killough received a new consignment of fancy glassware for his ever popular refreshment parlor yesterday morning. It consists of fancy lemonade glasses, bell topped coca kola, Dr. Pepper's and Pepsin Punch glasses; also glasses for the celebrated new drink, The Flip. For the benefit of the ladies he has ordered and received a new lot of solid silver spoons.

COMING AND GOING.

Movements of People You Know and Other Items Picked Up Here and There.

Geo. W. Dale left on Wednesday for Montana with a train of cattle. He expects to be absent eight or ten days. In his absence Will Teel will conduct his tonsorial business.

For the Fourth of July celebration the committee on transportation has been successful in securing special low rates to Hereford from all points—you had better come.

Walter Phansteel took a thirty days lay off and left on Sunday night for South Dakota. He will look the country over and if conditions suit him he will remain there permanently.

Dr. R. M. Johnson returned Monday morning from Spencer's camp on the Rock Island extension, near Liberty, N. M., where he had been called on a serious case of illness.

Joe Killough, always alert for the comfort of his many patrons, has got in a new drink—the "flip" is the name of it—and it is undoubtedly one of the best five cent drinks in the Panhandle. Try it.

"Uncle" Charley M. Meyers was seen on our streets several days this week. After prospecting over a large portion of New Mexico for a new location Mr. Meyers returns to Deaf Smith county fully convinced that there are an abundance of places in the world far inferior to the Panhandle as a stock country.

A SERIOUS ACCIDENT.

J. W. Bradley Thrown From A Wagon And Has Both Legs Fractured.

Last Wednesday morning J. W. Bradley and Will Beard were out in the former's pasture rounding up some cattle; they were in a wagon and Mr. Beard was driving. In some way one of the horses got the bridle off and becoming frightened started to run. Mr. Beard upon realizing that the team was uncontrollable jumped and escaped injury. A few minutes later Mr. Bradley leaped and in landing was severely injured; the right leg was fractured in three places below the knee and both bones in the left leg were broken just above the ankle. Drs. Tinsley and Bounds were hurriedly called and reduced the fractures. At last reports Mr. Bradley was resting as easily as could be expected under the circumstances.

K. of P. Election.

The Knights of Pythias held their semi-annual elections of officers last Tuesday night. The newly elected officers are as follows:

- D. F. Johnson..... C. C.
  - Sam H. Morris..... V. C.
  - T. J. Davis..... Prelate.
  - W. O. Keen..... M of W
  - M. P. Finnicum..... M of A
  - G. B. Stambaugh..... I. G.
  - Joe Killough..... O. G.
- The other officers holding over for the ensuing term.
