THE RE-UNION AT CANYON

In Which That Village Showed Her Utter Incapability to Properly Entertain a Crowd.

It was our intention to give the re-union at Canyon an extended write up in this issue and it was for that purpose that we spent two days at that place walking around in search of some kind of amusement—any old thing, just so it served as a time killer. But as nothing of interest transpired—except two ball games, which amusement was furnished through the energy of the Hereford nine—there is little to say except that on Wednesday Hereford was defeated by a nine composed of picked players from various parts of the Panhandle by a score of 15 to 23. On the following day the Hereford boys were again defeated by the Amarillo nine, the score being 14 to 3. The chief feature of this latter game was the superb support given the Amarillo team by a crowd of girls, who proved themselves par excellence at lady-like "rooting." Amarillo should be proud of them.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

Comments of Current Events in the Busy Outside World.

Piermont Morgan might save time by buying the republican nomination for President for himself.

A glance over the list of Mr. McKinley's callers indicates that he is mixing religion and politics, as usual.

There is one advantage in carrying historians on government payroll—history is written to suit the authorities.

Hard conundrums should not be asked in hot weather, and "what have we gained by the Chinese mix-up?" is a very hard one.

Secretary Wilson seems to think the owners of the heat-devastated cornfields can get relief through Christian Science methods.

If that Tennessee war between revenue men and moonshiners keep on as it began, the consumers of Tennessee "moonshiners" will have to pay higher prices.

Comrade Sickles may take a notion to ask comrade Hanna some embarrassing questions about the Commissionership of Pensions, at the coming G. A. R. encampment.

Boss Hanna winks the other eye every time he hears anybody say that Senator Fairbanks is the administration candidate for the republican Presidential nomination.

Perry Heath must not have squared Comptroller Dawes, who has ordered the "busted" Seventh National Bank, of New York city to pay depositors in full or take the consequences.

Wonders never cease! Two green goods operators were arrested the other day in Newark, N. J. while their intended victim—a Mississippian—was writing a check for them.

It is not surprising that some of the looters should be afraid of what may happen to them after the foreign troops leave China. If the looters are wise they will leave when the troops do.

"Historian" Maclay has written himself down a liar and bootlick and his abuse of Admiral Schley has merely served to raise that officer in the estimation of every man who believes in fair play and in giving credit where credit is due.

A great many plain persons, who have to pay for everything they get, would like to know where the authority for furnishing an expensive yacht for Gen. Leonard Wood's personal use was found.

EDITED BY MISS LULA HARDIN

Mr. Humphreys is putting up a new hardware store in town.

Mrs. Stinson of Roswell was visiting friends here the past week.

The dedication of the Presbyterian church took place. Rev. Lukens delivered three good sermons.

Several of the Portales people went to Canyon to take in the reunion. Among those who went were Mr. W. E. Stewarts family.

On the evening of the 17th. Rev. C. Lukens and family came to Portales and remained until the following Monday. While here he conducted services two evenings and attended a reception.

Thursday, July 18, the Presbyterian Ladies Aid gave a reception to the citizens and people of Portales which was enjoyed by all present. A very pleasing program was rendered which consisted of music, recitations and other interesting features. Ice cream and cake was served.

The idea of history being written to order for the contemptible naval clique that has hounded Admiral Schley since the beginning of the war with Spain finds few defenders and deserves fewer. Maclay, the Brooklyn Navy Yard clerk, who wrote the blackguard attack on Schley, is not the man to jump on; he was merely the dirty tool of dirty clique. Congress will fail in its duty if it does not go to the bottom of this mess.

A BAD ACCIDENT.

F. M. Avis' Little Son Thrown Into the Barbed wire and Badly Cut.

On last Saturday noon, Lawrence
the nine year old son of Vice-President F. M. Avis of the Hereford
National Bank, narrowly escaped

what might have proven a fatal accident. The boy was riding a burro
on his father's ranch a few miles from the city, when the saddle girths
gave way and the burro commenced pitching and the boy was thrown into a barbed wire fence—the wire
first striking him a couple of inches
beneath the right eye on the cheek
bone, thence tearing an ugly gash

across the face, beneath the ear and half way across the neck, narrowly missing the many prominent arteries.
Besides this injury the boy was cut
in several other places on his body,
arm and leg. Dr. Tinsley was hurriedly called and dressed the little sufferer's injuries, taking some ten or fifteen stitches in his wounds.
At last reports Lawrence was doing finely and doubtless will soon be about again.

James Williams and family came in Sunday and are spending a week
among friends in town. Mr. Williams has a fine bunch of steers in his castro county ranch near Hart,
and will make Hereford his home in the fall to give his children the advantage of our excellent school. He also gave us a nice order for stationary which we promptly filled.

A PLEASANT TRIP.

An enjoyable Outing to the Palo Dura in Quest of the Finny Tribe.

On last Saturday Sam Dunn, W.
S. Evants, Wallace English, Jack Harwell, and the ye editor took a trip overland to the Palo Dura river in Randall county, a distance of about twenty-five miles. This pretty stream was stocked five years ago with 500 small bass by Mr. Dunn, and it was at his suggestion that
the party was made up.

We arrived there at a little after noon and after getting dinner, we baited our hooks and proceeded to land bass weighing from one to three pounds each. After having caught what we wanted to eat we made for camp, cleaned our fish and had a regular old fashioned fish supper.

As not one of the party was at all greedy—not wishing to catch more fish than he could use—we can not report a large catch in numbers,
but suffice to say that we had all we could eat and all enjoyed our outing
very much, returning to Hereford
Monday morning.

Mr. Dunn, as usual, proved to be the crack fishman, he catching the largest bass and also caught the most in numbers.

Our stock is complete in every particular. 1x6x16 rough fencing

HEREFORD WON.

The Canyon Nine Defeated Last Saturday by a Score of 19 to 6.

On Saturday last the Canyon base ball team and their fans came into our little city for the purpose of crossing bats with the Hereford nine.

At about 1 o'clock p. m. Umpire J. M. McGlothlin called the game and the players took their respective places, Hereford taking the field.

By the excellent work of Hereford's battery, Allan Bell and Will McInnis, and the splendid support given by the basemen and fielders, Canyon was given goose eggs up to the seventh inning, during which they managed to get three scores. In this inning, however, occurred the most brilliant feature of the game when Hereford's left fielder, Eugene Dyer, made a splendid catch and a wonderful throw to First Baseman, Martin McCracken, a distance of nearly 300 feet, making a double play.

During the next two innings the visitors succeeded in getting three more scores, the game ending in the first half of the ninth inning, Hereford winning by a score of 19 to 6. We regret that the score card was destroyed, thus preventing our publishing of the score in tabulated form.

It is hardly necessary to add that the visitors from Canyon were gentlemanly to a marked degree, and showed their appreciation of the treatment accorded them by the Hereford boys, and we can ~~and we can~~ ^{serve} say "Come again."

Some timely advice given to borrowers of newspapers is given by the Kansas City Journal in the shape of warning like this: A man who was too economical to take this paper sent his little boy to borrow the copy taken by his neighbor. In his haste the boy ran over a $4 stand of bees and in ten minutes looked like a warty summer squash. His cries reached his father, who ran to his assistance and failing to notice a barbed wire fence, ran into that, breaking it down cutting a handful of flesh from his anatomy and ruining a $4 pair of pants. The old cow took advantage of the gap in the fence and got into the cornfield and killed herself eating green corn.

Hearing the racket, the wife ran, upset four-gallon churn full of rich cream into a basket of kittens, drowning the flock. In the hurry she dropped a $7 set of false teeth. The baby, left alone, crawled thro' the spilled milk and into the parlor, ruining a brand-new $20 carpet.

During the excitement the oldest daughter ran away with the hired man, the dog broke up eleven setting hens, and the calves got out and chewed the tails of four fine shirts. Subscribe for this paper.—The News.

A good town is one where the farmer and the laborer spends his money with the merchant for everything he can obtain there; where citizens help to encourage everything that tends to the town. The home merchant is the man who helps pay for the streets whereon you walk, the schools wherein your children receive their education, the church in which you worship; his name usually leads all subscription papers. He is a man who cannot afford to swindle you; he sticks to you through thick and thin. These are only a few reasons why you should patronize the home merchants. By doing this, business becomes lively and the town prosperous and more pleasant to live in.—Ex.

For a business man to say to the advertising solicitor: "Oh! goodness, no; it's too dull to advertise now—wait until times pick up a little," is equivalent to a very sick person saying to a physician: "Oh! no, doctor, I can't take any of your medicine now; I'm sick. Wait until I get better and then I'll take it." When the patient gets well—if he ever does—he will not be in need of medicine. The time to advertise is when the need of stimulants is the greatest, and that is when business is dull.—Ex.

Rev. Charles Lotton, the Cumberland Presbyterian divine, preached two interesting sermons last Sunday. At the evening service there were several additions to the church.
