VOL. I. NO. 35 HEREFORD, DEAF SMITH COUNTY, TEXAS, OCTOBER 18, 1901 $1.50 PER YEAR

The New Baptist Church

The new Baptist church now under construction promises to be one of the most prominent edifices in town. The building is 38x60, with 16 foot walls, a bellfry 10 ft. square at the base and 50 foot spire, adorns the northeast corner. The entrances to the building will be two, leading into the vestibule, thence into the auditorium by large double doors. Fifteen large windows will furnish the light. The pulpit is to be octagon in shape and will be on the south side. C. R. Moreman has the work of construction in charge which insures the completeness and thoroughness of the work.

C. L. Bounds, W. C. McKenzie and Webb Blair left for Chicago last Friday evening. They expect to be gone about ten days.

K of P's Attention

G. C. H. H. Swink of Temple, will make Tierra Blanco lodge, No. 279, on Friday night, Oct. 25. A special meeting has been called by the C. C. and all Knights are urgently requested to be present.

OYSTERS, OYSTERS

They will be served in all styles at the Richey House, Tuesday evening, Oct. 22nd. by the ladies of the Christian church. The proceeds to go towards finishing seating the church. You are cordially invited to be there.

OYSTERS

MILLINERY

MISS PATTY COYLE has returned to Hereford and has purchased the Millinery Stock of Whitney & Files.

This stock is new, complete and full of the latest styles. Miss Coyle requests that you call and inspect her stock before purchasing elsewhere. Just south of Witherington & Gough.

HIGH SCHOOL DOTS.

Our literary society on each Friday evening is very interesting. We would welcome any one who would come.

The flues of the school house need fixing very much.

The ball games of the school on Tuesdays are very dull. We should have a good ball and take more exercise than we do. We need physical exercise as well as moral.

Professor seems to think the geometry class is very dull.

The pupils should take more interest in their books.

Rena Whstney entered school last Monday after an absence of several days.

Our literary society last Friday evening was very interesting; in the debate, the subject was: Resolved, that whiskey causes more sorrow than war. The Judges decided in the negative.

Charley Robison, from Newport entered school on Monday: we were all glad to welcome him into our school.

We are greatly in need of an addition to the school house which we will soon have if nothing happens.

Kate Rambo was absent last Friday.

We are sorry to say that Rose Bratton has been absent for a week; she returned Tuesday.

Jessie Head of Dimmitt was a pleasant visitor of our school last Tuesday.

Education.

An education is more to be valued than gold. Most people are, to some extent, dependent on labor for a livelihood. An education opens the way to many a vocation in life from which an uneducated person is debarred. In the public school is the time to begin an education.

Shall we spend our school days in indolence and ease and then, when our opportunities are past, look back on our wasted lives and say, "It might have been," or shall we by studiousness and persistence reach the top of the ladder? and when we

We are all inclined to think too lightly of the importance of an education and let many a golden opportunity pass unheeded, and we when are older we will realize what we have lost.

The Mendenhall Case.

Last Tuesday was the day set for the trial of the case of the State of Texas vs. Fred Mendenhall, charged with illegal voting, transferred from Deaf Smith county. Many of Hereford's citizens attended the trial. All day long Tuesday and until 10 o'clock in the night the trial continued and when the evidence was in, Judge Wallace instructed the jury to bring in a verdict of not guilty, there not being sufficient evidence to warrant a conviction. This ends a long and expensive prosecution for the illegal voting of Fred Mendenhall and his gang in last November election. Such a continued expense and trouble should be a reminder to judges of elections of the necessity of great care in managing elections and also to others where such vote might result in a heavy expense to the county. The ballot box should be guarded with more than ordinary vigilance since upon the sacredness of this privilege hinges the destiny of a democratic government.

In Memoriam.

"Uncle Bob Harlan is dead." This is the mournful news that came to the ears of his many friends on last Sunday morning, Sept. 22nd. And while the day was bright and cheerful and all nature was smiling in the sun-shine and the bells were calling the worshippers to sanctuary he lay so well, our hearts were filled with sadness to think that he will meet us here on earth no more.

Robert Harlan was born in Boyle county Ky., Sept. 21 1810 and died Sept. 22, 1901, aged 82 years.

He was married twice; first to Delith Roberson on June 4th 1840. To them were born two children, both died. His wife died after a brief married life of five years, when he left Kentucky and moved to Missouri, settling in Cooper county in '46. Here he married Columbia Louise Bidstrup, Mar. 10 1847. To them were born 12 children, 9 of whom are now living 5 in Texas, 2 in Iowa and 1 in Missouri, Mrs. Granville Perry, at whose home he died.

He moved from Cooper to DeKalb county in 1861, where he lived until 1865 when he moved to Buchanan county. He lived there several years and finally in 1873 came to this country where he has since resided.

Uncle Robert Harlan was a man of strong convictions and believed with his whole heart whatever doctrine he happened to embrace. He was a man of rugged honesty and sterling manhood and no one ever breathed aught of scandal against his name.

He belonged to a family noted for intelligence and depth of conviction and for their standing in the community. Many of them were leaders in their several communities and stations in life. The most prominent were the late Senator Harlan of Iowa, the friend of Lincoln, and Justice Harlan of Ky., of the U. S. Supreme Court. Many others are scattered around over the United States, some of them living in or near Savannah in Andrew county.

Uncle Bob died full of years and honors and conscious to the last. His last words were of love and cheer and his belief and dependence on the merits of the Crucified One. He said: "I am ready and willing to go."

Funeral sermon at the Christian church, Elmo, Mo., Monday at 11 a. m. by Rev. C. L. Beal and burial at High Prairie cemetery.

Thus sank to rest one that we all loved. Enemies he had, as indeed who has not? but his friends were as the leaves of the forest. May we cherish his memory and follow his example and may our last end be as peaceful and as happy as his.

Our Revival.

Sometime ago, there came this way, a couple of men who were wont to stay and show the sinners the better way. They called together a saintly few and told them what they ought to do, they wished to pull the sinner through.

So then, big, little, old and young regardless of their native tongue stood up in church and a hymn they sung. Then next, the preacher with solemn face closed his eyes and asked for grace, to preach the truth to the human race.

The grace asked for, I think he got for he rose raised sand with a great big lot of folks who knew their Savior not. They continued to meet from day to day, both night and morning to preach and pray.

All the devil got scarce around their way. Should the saints feel jaded from over-work and try to sit still and try to shirk, that preacher would yank 'em with a jerk. "Get up" he would say, "and move about and try your level best to shout, will do you good beyond a doubt."

Round up those mavericks, one by one, throw them in the chute and we'll have fun. This branding is only just begun." There was over a hundred 'came through' and said,

That they to sin were surely dead, likewise to Christ forever wed.

Who knows the good this work has done, till we finish up in the last home run. And the brands are inspected one by one? Now, if they will every one be true, stay in the harness and pull on through, think it a grand success, don't you?

Let us hope for the good of the cause they will and not get tired in climbing the hill. But remember a christian must not be still.

French inventors have made astonishing success with their air ships and it is conceded by the most conservative that air navigation is practical and that not in the very remote future this mode of travel will be offered us as one of the means of rapid transmigration. Then we will likely be calling for a ticket to New York via the moon with stop-over privilege. What will be next?
