Eleven year old Becky Flores, daughter of Tammy Flores of Muleshoe, was struck by a vehicle on West Highway 84, across from Ben Franklin's, as she and two other youths attempted to cross the Highway on their way to skating at the Bailey County Coliseum.

She was taken by helicopter to Methodist Hospital in Lubbock. At press time she was in Surgical ICU. According to her grandmother, Mrs. Laverne Adrian, she sustained several broken ribs.

The Muleshoe Art Association will meet at 2 p.m. Tuesday in the Muleshoe State Bank. Betty Bleivins of Lubbock will give a water color demonstration.

Martin Flan with Community Action told the Journal Friday afternoon that commodities will be given Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of next week from 8:30 to 4:30 p.m.

Commodities are given each month beginning on the second Wednesday.

Anyone who has questions may call 272-5130.

Flan also stated that any one wishing to volunteer their time is welcome to do so.

The Three Way School Board will meet in regular session Thursday, February 13 at 7:30 p.m. in the Administrative Office of the Three Way School.

Combest Speaks Out Farm Loans, Credit

"I want to prevent agricultural loans from drying up in a drought caused by the federal courts," said U.S. Representative Larry Combest (R-Texas). Combest, a member of the House Agriculture Committee's credit subcommittee, is an original cosponsor of the "The Secured Credit Availability Amendments of 1992" with Agriculture Committee Chairman Kika de la Garza, and Representatives Charles Stenholm and Bill Sarpalis.

"Without loans and credit, farm and ranch land can dry up just as surely as a prolonged drought," said Combest. "I share the urgent concern of agricultural lenders that a recent U.S. Supreme Court ruling may have a disastrous effect on operating loans for our producers, unless Congress upholds the traditional arrangement in Texas," said Combest.

Many farmers and ranchers depend on being able to use the

Local Youth To Compete

In Rodeo Calf Scramble

John Bryan Cowart, 12 year old son of Barry and Jo Ellen Cowart of Muleshoe, will compete for one of 252 calves to be awarded at the 1992, Houston Livestock Show on Feb. 21 in the Astrodome. John Bryan is a 4-H Club member.

The calf scramble is an exciting part of Houston rodeo action, featuring Clint Black as part of that evening performance.

Muleshoe Schools Offer Beginning Computer Class

A Computer Course will be offered starting February 24 and ending March 17. Classes will be held on Monday and Tuesday nights each week for four weeks. Classes will be from 6 to 8 p.m. with a lab time from 8 to 9 p.m. Instruction will be given on the IBM compatible. The course will cover introduction and instruction to word processing, data base and spreadsheet.

The class will be held in the high school computer lab with Chris Mardis as the instructor and the cost will be $40.00. Enrollment in the class is limited to 15 participants

If you are interested in taking this course you may call 272-3325 or come by Eliabeth Watson's office in the Administration Building.

Additionally, as many as two youngsters from each of the 18 rodeo performances will be awarded "hard luck" certificates for their hearty efforts in attempting to catch a calf, resulting in 36 more certificates actually given.

An entertaining event whose net proceeds provide educational contributions to Texas students, the Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo ranks as the nation's largest donor of agricultural scholarships. Currently, more than 1,000 students are on Show-sponsored scholarships. The Show's educational commitment for the 1991-92 school year exceeds $2 million.

Equally important is the Show's commitment to youngsters competing at the event itself. The calf scramble is one of the Show's major programs benefiting youth, requiring a yearlong commitment from the winner to the animal project.

Beginning with athletic competition in the Astrodome, the program ends 12 months later with top-notch competition in the Astrohall showing.

The actual calf scramble event involves 28 energetic youngsters pitted against 14 vigorous calves. Each youngster is committed to capturing a calf, haltering and bringing it to the finish line--but only the successful ones receive $1,000 calf purchase certificates.

The certificate, donated by a generous firm or individual, is used to purchase a purebred registered beef or dairy heifer. This year, several companies have strengthened their commitment to the calf scramble program by donating a calf for each of the 18 rodeo performances.

The calf is raised by the winner for special showing competition in the Astrohall at the following year's Show. The yearlong project is closely supervised by the appropriate county extension agent or agricultural science teacher.

Sign-Up Dates Released By Local ASCS Office

Danny Noble from the ASCS office released the following dates Wednesday afternoon.

DISASTER PROVISIONS

1. Signup began Feb. 3, 1992, and will continue through March 13, 1992.

2. Replacement acres (Ghost) will not effect disaster benefits nor be eligible for disaster benefits.

3. You are not required to purchase FCIC Insurance for 1992.

4. Eligibility-You must have suffered a loss (Natural Disaster) on crops with insurance, greater than 35 percent, and crops without insurance, greater than 40 percent.

5. All crops are eligible, participating and nonparticipating, program crops and non-program crops on ACR and CU for Payment.

6. Producers must furnish insurance papers (FCIC only), including policy number, total indemnity paid, total premium paid, and net indemnity by farm number on eligible farms.

8. Producers who had small grains planted but used it as CU for Pay instead of harvesting it, may elect to re-certify the small grain for harvest and it may qualify for disaster eligibility.

9. When a farm had two different operators in 1990 and 1991 and are both eligible for disaster benefits, the two operators must agree (in writing) between themselves which year a disaster application will be filed since the farm can apply for only one of the two years. If both producers insist on filing, both applications will be ineligible for payment. The two producers Must agree by close of business March 13, 1992, and furnish this office with their agreement.

10 Reconstituted Farms-When a farm was divided or combined between 1990 and 1991, the farm or farms were assigned new farm numbers, and both years will be eligible for disaster benefits if all other factors are applicable.

11. No farms will be eligible disaster benefits if an entity no longer exists.

12. All signatures for operators and owners Must be on file in the ASCS Office by close of business on Friday, March 13, 1992 (No Exceptions). All production must be on file by close of business on Friday, March 27, 1992 (No Exceptions, ceptions).

13. Listed below are the target prices and loan rates needed for you to complete item eight of the worksheet enclosed in the packet mailed to you on January 17, 1992, to determined which crop year you wish to apply for:

1990	Target Price	Loan Rate

Barley	.22	.62
Oats	.33	.35
Corn	.53	Est .58
Gr Sorg	.58	Est .56
Cotton	.073	.101

If you planted a crop in 1990 or 1991 that was disaster affected and did not receive a disaster packet, please contact this office.

REMEMBER!!! We will not have time to help you decide which year you wish to apply for due to the short signup period, so please have all your information into this office to apply. For further information, please contact this office.

1992 FARM PROGRAM PROVISIONS

1. Signup will begin Feb. 10, 1992, and will continue through April 17, 1992. Producers wishing to participate must signup their intentions during this time frame. Signup will be by Appointments. Please call 806 272-4538 as soon as possible (Talk to Laverne).

2. The acreage reduction program requirements (ARP) are: Wheat, Barley, Corn, and Grain Sorghum, five percent; Oats, zero (0) percent; and Cotton, 10 percent. The required ACR will not fluctuate, it is calculated as a fixed percentage of the crop acre base (CAB).

3. Maximum payment acres (MPA) is the result of the base times 80 percent for Wheat, Barley, Corn, and Grain Sorghum; 85 percent for Oats; and 75 percent for Cotton.

4. No paid land diversion is offered for any crop.

5. Yields-Program payment yield is the Historical Weighted Yield (HWY).

6. Target prices are established at: Wheat, $4.00/bu., Corn, $2.75/bu., Gr. Sorg., $2.61/bu., and Cotton, $0.729/lb.

Conservation Equipment Taking Loan Applications

The High Plains Underground Water Conservation District No. 1 is now accepting applications from producers wishing to obtain agricultural water conservation equipment loan funds to upgrade their current irrigation systems to more-efficient Low Energy Precision Application (TWDB) approved the Water District's application for a $1 million loan to fund the program on January 15.

The funds available for use in the District's Agricultural Water Conservation Equipment Loan Program are from repayments to the state on previous loans made during the pilot ag loan program.

Because funds are limited, priority will be given to producers who have not yet obtained an agricultural water conservation equipment loan from the District. Also, new loans are limited to 75 percent of the purchase price of the above-ground equipment of LEPA center pivot sprinkler systems. LEPA systems are the only equipment that will be funded under this new ag loan program.

To apply for a loan, producers must complete an application, a financial statement, have an irrigation dealer contract, and pay a non-refundable $250 application fee. Applications are available from the Water District's County Secretary in your area or by contacting the District headquarters in Lubbock.

Loans will be secured by a Cont. Page 6, Col. 3

Junior Class Will Host Hamburger Cookout

The Junior Class of Muleshoe High School is hosting a Valentine Victory hamburger Cookout prior to the Muleshoe VS Floydada basketball games on Friday, February 14 between 5 and 7 p.m. in the high school cafeteria.

Tickets will be $5.00 for adults and $3.00 for children. Carry-outs will be available by calling 272 4989 or 272-4360. On the day of the game the tickets may be purchased after 4 p.m. at the door or from any junior class member.

The funds raised are needed to pay for the graduation programs and flowers, the reception following graduation, allowing seniors to have colored pictures in the annual and the junior - senior banquet.

Please join in the fun and excitement by supporting Mighty Mule basketball teams and also the junior class.

An incident on the first morning the new junior high science lab opened helps remind us how helpful young people can be in an emergency.

Now called the "Great Flood" by students who witnessed it, the story starts when Coach Steve Hatfield drops by the new lab/classroom. Hatfield looked at the shower apparatus that was built into the new facilities as an emergency device to douse anything that may catch on fire in the lab operations.

Hatfield then said, "I can pull it..." and he tried it out. Water begins to pour out, flooding the whole area. "The kids jumped up, grabbed five

Brittni LaShell Engelking, Monty Bryan Black Wed

The Lazbuddie Methodist Church provided the romantic setting for the wedding uniting Brittni LaShell Engelking, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Engelking, and Monty Bryan Black, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gaylon Black. The groom's uncle, Dr. Charles Murray, pastor of Bacon Heights Baptist Church, Lubbock, performed the double ring ceremony on December 21 at 7 p.m. before a flickering candlelit background.

The many friends and family entered the sanctuary to be greeted by Dawn Weir, cousin of the bride, and Shana Foster, friend of the bride. The girls were seated at a small round table covered with a white cloth and a black moire taffeta overskirt. The table featured the couples' Precious Moments wedding book complimented by a Precious Moments music box playing "We've Only Just Begun." A small crescent shaped bouquet of black French dahlia and black miniature calla lilies, with highlights of white crystal spray and iridescent tulle accentuated the table. Sandy Clayton, cousin of the groom, and Shawn Branscum, friend of the groom, attired in black classic single breasted tuxedos with white tuxedo shirts, black bow ties, and cummerbunds, ushered the guests down the elaborately decorated candlelit aisle. The candle light pew markers were embellished with white calla lilies, white slipper orchids and black lily and morning glory leaves forming a crescent shape. White crystal spray, black and red silk wisps, and puffs of iridescent tulle gave a soft illusion to the design.

As time for the ceremony neared Jonessa Jennings, friend of the bride, and Jackey Wayne Burris, cousin of the groom, set the mood as they sang "To Me." Heather Engelking, cousin of the bride, continued with "Through the Eyes of Love." As Jonessa Jennings sang "Love Will Be Our Home," Sandy Clayton and Shawn Branscum entered and lit the fifteen branch, two spiral, and two heart shaped brass candelabras containing a total of seventy-nine candles. The 15 branch with a spiral connecting on each side formed a semi circle. They were dressed with collinia palm greenery through which flowed large white calla lilies, white slipper orchids, black freesia, white ginger, and black and red silk wisps, and completed with large white bows and streamers. The two heart shaped candelabras bore identical flowers and ribbon in a crescent form. A large array of palm trees completed the candelabra grouping.

The altar rails bore scallops of wedding garland, peaked with candlelit love doves and white bows finishing with large formal arrangements of white niga gladiolas, calla lilies and slipper orchids with blades of black and red silk wisps and collinia greenery. The two arrangements were displayed in brass pedestal containers. Completing the decorations were candlelit window arrangements of white miniature calla lilies, oriental poppy, and black clamalis, with accents of black and red wisps. Iridescent tulle puffs gave a light delicate effect.

The couples' special guests, their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J.W. Isham, Mrs. Florence Engleking, and Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Black were seated to "Wind Beneath My Wings." Entering the church from doors on either side, the couple's parents met at the unity candle as Wanda Kemp, aunt of the groom, sang "Goodnight Kiss." They lit candles symbolizing the two family units. The bride's mother wore a black velvet two piece suit. The groom's mother wore a black two piece dress of embossed crepe dechine. Crescent shaped corsages of white miniature calla lilies with black tubing shaped in hearts, black tulle and ribbon and highlights of white pearl loops and wisps complimented each mother's attire.

Jackey Wayne Burris offered his rendition of "Forever's as Far as I'll Go" as the groom entered attired in a white classic full dress tail coat with white satin lapels and matching pants. A white satin vest and bow tie completed his attire. The groom's boutonniere consisted of two white miniature calla lilies with black fern leaves, black tubing, black and red curled silk wisps accented with baby's breath. Monty was accompanied by his best man, Brent Black, brother of the groom, Lanse Ivy, Shane Burris, and Kacy Whatley, cousins of the groom. The groomsmen were attired in black classic full tail dress coats with satin lapels and matching pants, white shirts with black bow ties and cummerbunds. They wore boutonnières consisting of one white miniature calla lily, black boutonnières consisting of one white miniature calla lily, black leaves, black tubing and accents of black and red wisps and baby's breath. Brandon Burris, cousin of the groom, served as ring bearer. He was attired in black classic full dress tail coat with satin lapels and matching pants, with a black satin vest and bow tie. He carried a Precious Moments counted cross stitch pillow make for the occasion by the bride's sister, Chandra Sanchez. It featured a bride and groom, the couples' names, and the wedding date.

Entering the church to "Bridal Chorus" by Lohengrin were Chandra Sanchez, matron of honor, Stacie Burris, bride's matron, Angie White and Malessia Smyer, bridesmaids, friends of the bride. They wore tea length dresses featuring black velvet bodices over flowing skirts of black taffeta covered by a black tulle overskirt. The ensemble was completed by a large red taffeta bow attached at the center back below a diamond shaped cutout. The bride's attendants carried arm bouquets of large black calla lilies, white miniature calla lilies, French dahlia and black lily and morning glory leaves. White crystal spray and blades of red and black silk wisps emphasized the crescent form. A white bow and streamers completed the look.

Bethenie and Brianna Sanchez, nieces of the bride, wore dresses similar to the attendants. Bethenie, serving as flower girl, carried a small basket decorated with miniature white calla lilies, black ribbon, tulle, and a small Precious Moments ornament. She entered dropping red and black love knots in preparation for the bride's entrance.

As the music rose and the entry doors opened, Brittni, escorted by her father, entered. She wore a gown designed by Mary's Bridals. The traditionally styled gown was designed from white imported satin. The bodice of the gown featured a sheer yoke with a sweetheart cut neckline and a wedding band collar. Imported Schiffli lace accented the bodice of the gown and beadwork encrusted the lace motifs. Full length Juliette sleeves complimented the gown and added a very romantic look. The sleeves and bodice were decorated with cascading teardrop pearls. A fitted basque waistline allowed the full ballgown skirt to float gracefully to the floor and sweep into a monarch length train. Delicate lace motifs and rich beadwork of pearls and iridescent sequins graced the skirt and the train of the gown.

Brittni's veil was designed by herself and her mother from illusion tulle. It featured a band of white silk roses, leaves, pearl loops and sprays. The multiple puffs were accented by a small grouping of roses and pearls nestled in the center back. The veil cascaded to a monarch train length to compliment her gown. Completing her ensemble was a pair of white lace high top boots. Brittni carried an exquisite cascade of large white calla lilies with black lily and morning glory leaves. White crystal spray flowed throughout giving a light delicate effect. White moire lace ribbon complimented the bouquet. An array of white and iridescent pearl wisps and lily of the valley pearls added to its elegance, while a mist of silver glitter gave shimmering highlights.

Carrying out the many traditions of a bride, Brittni's gown was something new. Something old was an opal ring given to her by her parents on her eleventh birthday, something borrowed were pearl earrings from Chandra, and she carried an antique handkerchief embroidered in blue, which had belonged to her great grandmother. Brittni's father dropped pennies minted in the years of the couples' birth in her boots for luck.

As the bride and groom joined hands at the altar "The Lord's Prayer" was sung by Heather Engelking as a blessing on the ceremony. After repeating their vows Brittni and Monty lit the unity candle signifying the two lives becoming one, as Jonessa Jennings sang "We've Only Just Begun." The white sculptured candle was accented by white lace, red bows, and pearl sprays surrounding a picture of the couple from the wedding invitation. The candle was displayed on a brass pedestal stand draped with a large cascade of white calla lilies, slipper orchids, black freesia accents of black and red wisps and collinia palm greenery in keeping with the look of the candelabras.

Doug Chapman, pastor of the Lazbuddie Methodist Church, read a passage as a blessing and prayer at the close of the ceremony. The wedding party exited to Jonessa Jennings playing "Wedding March" by Mendelssohn.

Following the ceremony the guests went immediately to the fellowship hall for hors d'oeuvres. The serving table was covered with a white cloth and a black moire taffeta overskirt. Finger sandwiches, vegetables and dip, cheeseballs and crackers were served. The bride's table, covered by a tulle full skirt and draped with a white moire taffeta overskirt, featured an elegant three tiered heart shaped cake, designed by Lora Wallace, cousin of the groom. The top tier was separated with Grecian pillars and topped by a Precious Moments bride and groom figurine in a tulle heart designed by the bride's mother. Nestled beneath the pillars was a delicate mini bouquet of tulle and pears. The cake was adorned with petunias, white pearl stamens, filigree hearts, garland, and shell borders. The three tiers rested atop an arch featuring the flowing fountain, decorated with a ring of tulle puffs and pearls. A filigree stairway uniquely connected the two tier side cake. The top tier was also separated with Grecian pillars and just beneath displayed a mini bouquet of tulle and pearls. The table was enhanced by a floral arrangement in a tall crescent design of white calla lilies and black French dahlias. Stems of black silk buds gave height along with black lily and morning glory leaves, while white crystal spray gave a lofty, delicate effect. The arrangement was displayed in a white ceramic vase designed by the bride. The table was completed with the Precious Moments bridal party figurines, red and white mints, and nuts. The cake was served by Jodi Morris and Leslie Monk, friends of the bride, with a silver server given to the bride's parents on their 25th anniversary by the bride's grandparents, the Ishams.

The couple toasted each other with mock champagne in black and crystal tulip glasses etched with their names and the wedding date. Julie Harris, friend of the bride, served the punch from a silver punch bowl, which sat on a round table, also covered with a tulle skirt and draped with a white moire taffeta overskirt which matched the bride's and groom's tables and was centered between the two.

The groom's table covered by a tulle skirt and draped with a white moire taffeta overskirt featured a western theme. A black boot nestled in front of a moss wreath bore a large arrangement of white calla lilies, black pussy willow, black leaves and white crystal spray on a crescent form. Black morning glory leaves and white rope loops accented the base of the boot. The cake, designed by Lora Wallace, was highly detailed in the shape of a pair of boots complete with spurs. The mints served in silver and crystal were black and white and following the table's theme were in the shape of boots. They were designed by Linda Burris, aunt of the groom. A German chocolate cake was also available. A Precious Moments figurine "With This Ring ..." and a tall silver coffee urn accented the table. Lisa Clayton and Crista Whatley, cousins of the groom served the coffee and cake. Jonnie Ivy, Glenna Yell, and Linda Huckaby coordinated the groom's table and assisted the house party for the reception.

The house party consisted of Mrs. Robert Gallman, Mrs. J. W. Herrington, Mr. and Mrs. James Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Lyndon Foster, and Mr. and Mrs. Robert White, all friends of the bride. Mrs. Ernest Ramm and Mrs. Billy Owen coordinated the reception and all the activities in the kitchen.

Mrs. Ronnie Puckett, Mrs. Bill Sterling and Mrs. Gary Morris were invaluable as coordinators and in assisting the bride as she prepared for the big event.

Passing out rice bags of black and red bell shapes made by the bride were Bethenie and Brianna Sanchez.

Brittni and Monty departed the church in a shower of bird seed, dressed in jade branch popper shirts, jeans, and boots. They enjoyed a honeymoon in Ruidoso, New Mexico. The couple is now making their home in the Lazbuddie community.

All the floral arrangements and church decorations for the wedding and reception were original designs done by the groom's mother, Libby Black.

A rehearsal dinner was hosted by the groom's parents Friday, December 20 in the fellowship hall of the Lazbuddie Methodist Church. The dinner was coordinated by aunts and uncles of the groom, Mr. and Mrs. Rex Black, Mr. and Mrs. Ricky Black, Mr. and Mrs. Ronnie Black with assistance from Wanda Kemp and Jackie Whatley.

A western theme provided the setting, beginning with a large centerpiece on the head table, featuring a cowboy with a large bale of hay surrounded with white slipper orchids and black leaves. Tall votive cups with white candles were atop the bale of hay and red and black bandanna ribbon accented the arrangement. Each table bore small candlelight bales of hay in replica of the centerpiece. Black table clothes, white plates, red cups and white napkins tied with red bandanna ribbon completed the western theme. All was designed by the groom's mother.

One thing that fiction often has on life is the happy ending.

her participation in a youth group at the Church of Christ here.

Her future plans involve attending WTSU to obtain a degree in Elementary Education and becoming an elementary school teacher.

Many a life of the party is a washout at home.

Travels Benefit Orchestra

Jim Setapen, music director and conductor of the Amarillo Symphony Orchestra, recently returned to Amarillo from a foray east of the Mississippi. Setapen attended the Conductors' Guild Conference at Columbia University in New York City and also was the guest conductor for a concert performed by the Mississippi Orchestra in Jackson, Mississippi.

He includes contemporary pieces in his search for compositions for the Amarillo Symphony's performances. "If we were unwilling to play the new pieces back in the 1800s, Beethoven's Ninth may never have been played," he said. "It's our duty to play the pieces and to find the ones that are of interest to the community."

During his stay in New York, Setapen discovered that only 5 percent of New York City students get any music education in their curriculum. "It certainly made me appreciate the kinds of programs that we have available in Amarillo and in many other cities in the Panhandle," he said. He also underscored the importance of the Amarillo Symphony Youth Orchestra as well as the symphony's KinderKonzerts, In-school performances and the 33 Symphony Family programs.

Librarian Teaches In Costume

YIKES! THE SWAMP IS HERE! The second graders at Dillman Elementary have been reading the Miss Nelson series of books during library periods. Miss Nelson is a sweet, kind and beautiful teacher who has the worst-behaved children in the school.

One day, a substitute teacher named Miss Viola Swamp comes into the class wearing an ugly black dress and a wig. After one day, the children wish Miss Nelson would return so they would not have Miss Swamp.

The three books in the series, Miss Nelson is Missing, Miss Nelson is Back, and Miss Nelson Has a Field Day, follow the adventures of the class as Miss Swamp, "the meanest substitute in the whole world," returns to straighten things out when there is a problem.

To finish the series, Virginia Bowers, Dillman librarian, has dressed in a Miss Swamp costume to enhance the interest in the last book when the children find out who Miss Swamp really is.

The surprise of seeing the librarian in the Swamp's sweat suit is compounded when the end of the third book is reached and the students find out they have guessed incorrectly as to the real identity of the terrible Miss Swamp. This has been just one event conducted in the school to encourage children to read for pleasure and to get a car on the "Reading Train" in the Hallway of Readers.

Programming Contest Held

The Texas Computer Education Association, Area I/ Region 17 sponsored a computer programming competition on Saturday, February 1, 1992. Representing the Muleshoe High School programming team in Lubbock on Saturday were Cory Collins, a senior, and Mason Conklin, a sophomore. Sponsor for the team is Chris Mardis, Muleshoe High School computer teacher.

The team placed second in Division II which is comprised of 3A, 2A, and 1A schools. This placing qualifies the Muleshoe High School team to participate in the state contest that will be held in Richardson, Texas on March 7.

The intent of the contest was to provide amateur student programmers a chance to demonstrate and test their computer programming skills in a competitive, team-oriented setting. Programming problems were of varying difficulty and value so as to both encourage beginning contestants, and challenge seasoned amateur programmer.

Teams are required to bring their own computer to the two hour contest. Any programming language could be used including, but not limited to Basic C., any versions of Pascal, or any combination of languages. The Muleshoe team placed second using the Basic programming language.

We would like to take this opportunity to congratulate Mason and Cory on their placing in Lubbock and wish them good luck at the state contest in Richardson.

Mock Trial Set February 22

The mock trial team which will represent this district in the regional competition to be held in Lubbock February 22 has been chosen from among Mrs. Allison's civics classes. Each of the four civic classes presented the mock trial case and the following were selected to make up the district team: Attorneys, Courtney Graves, Cory Collins, Jason Harmon, Galin Latham; Witnesses, Audree Anzaldua, Andy Crawford; Alternates, Tiffany Angeley, Charla Holt.

This team will be spending many hours preparing for regional competition as they will be facing much larger schools, such as Lubbock in the regional competition.

Barley	0.35/bu.	0.14/bu.
Oats	0.15/bu.	0.06/bu.
Corn	0.48/bu.	0.192/bu.
Gr Sorg	0.46/bu	0.184/bu
Cotton	0.15/lb.	0.06/lb

All advance payments will be made in cash.

8. Oilseeds are eligible for loan.

9. Marketing Loan programs are in effect for upland cotton, oilseeds, and honey.

10. Planting flexibility-Producers may plant crops other than the program crop on up to 25 percent of any participating program crop acreage base. This acreage will be known as "Flex" Acreage. Permitted crops on flex acres are: any program crop, any oil-seed, any designated industrial or experimental crop, and any other crop except fruits and vegetables. The first 15 percent of the flex acreage will be known as "Normal Flex Acreage" (NFA) and the other 10 percent will be known as "Optional Flex Acreage" (OFA).

Crops planted on flex acres are not eligible for deficiency payments and will be considered as P&CP credit for the applicable participating program crop.

11. 0/92 provisions will be in effect for wheat and feed grains, and 50/92 provisions will be in effect for upland cotton.

12. Wheat and feed grain bases were calculated by averaging the planted and considered planted (P&CP) of the preceding five years. Cotton bases were calculated by averaging the P&CP of the preceding three years.

13. Zero certification-Producers who certify that no acreage on the farm was planted to the program crop and that any fruits and vegetables planted on the farm was not in excess of normal plantings, will have the entire program crop acre base considered as planted for base retention purposes.

14. Cross compliance does not apply. However, non-participating crops, including oats, cannot increase their bases if there is a participating crop on the farm. Nonparticipating crop plantings may exceed CAB's, but P&CP will be limited to the crop acre base if any other crop is participating.

15. Payment Limitation will be limited to $50,000.

16. ACR and CU Eligibility-the acreage designated as ACR and CU for Pay, including the 8 percent, must be cropland that was either planted or considered planted to a crop in one of the past five years. All fields except one, designated as ACR and CU for Pay, must be at least 1.0 chains wide and contain 5.0 acres. Exception No. 1; Blank rows in a skip row pattern are eligible for ACR and CU for Pay if the skips are uniform across the field containing the larger of four normal rows or 150 inches from plant to plant. Must be at least four-30 inch rows. Exception No. 2: There is no minimum size between skips in an established Cotton skip row-pattern.

Note: Cotton Only, not Grain Sorghum.

18. Corn and grain sorghum bases are not combined for 1992.

However, corn and grain sorghum permitted acreages are combined. Planted and considered planted (P&CP) will be calculated using the crop acre base (CAB) ratio, and payment acres will be calculated using the maximum payment acres (MPA) ratio.

These ratios will be used without regard to which crop is actually planted.

For further details on the 1992 farm program, please contact this office.

PERSON DETERMINATION/ ACTIVELY ENGAGED

All operations and owners must have a "Person Determination" and "Actively Engaged in Farming" determination on file each year to be eligible for program benefits. To be determined "Actively Engaged in Farming," a producer must contribute in two separate ways. On one hand, they must contribute capital, equipment, or land; on the other hand, they must contribute active personal labor and/or management.

Landowners are exempt from this provision. A spouse may be considered as a separate person for payment limitation purpose if all requirements for separate persons are met and neither the husband or wife has an interest in any other operation (10 percent or more) earning payments. Contact this office for further information.

REMEMBER!!! Payment limitations and AD-1026's (Sodbuster/Swampbuster) must be on file and approved by the county committee prior to receiving any payments. End of the year reviews will be made to insure producers followed through with their original plan of operation.

1991 COTTON DEFICIENCY PAYMENT

The 1991 Cotton Deficiency payment was estimated at 10 cents. The 1991 Cotton Deficiency payment finalized at 10.1 cents. We hope to have all 1991 final deficiency payments made by the end of this month.

WOOL AND MOHAIR

March 2, 1992, is the final date for filing your 1991 wool and mohair sales documents for the incentive program.

PRICE SUPPORT

The final date for obtaining price support loans on 1991 crops of wheat, barley, oats, and rye, is March 31, 1992.

INTEREST RATE

The loan interest rate for February is 4.125 percent.

RESTITUTIONS

We need to know now of any changes that would cause a farm or farms to be combined or divided for the 1992 program year.

FARM CHANGES

Any change in operators, owners, acreage, or mailing addresses, should be reported to this office so we may keep our records current.

OFFICE CLOSED

This office will be closed Monday, February 17, 1992, in observance of President's Day.

Loan...

first lien on the equipment. In addition, the landowner will either sign a Deed of Trust giving the District a lien on the land, arrange for a letter of credit, or assign assets as additional security for the loan.

During the pilot ag loan program that operated from 1986 to 1990, 11 of the 15 counties within the High Plains Water District had borrowers participating in the program. Approximately 165 borrowers received 284 loans totalling $5,409,664.21 for purchases totalling $7,696,848.18.

A total of 208 quarter-section center pivots and six full section pivots were purchased. Of the quarter-section pivots, 47 or 22.6 percent were true LEPA systems.

With an average purchase price of $36,000 per center pivot system, the 208 quarter-mile pivots added about $7.5 million to the area economy. Using a total of $500,000 for the rest of the equipment purchased, the total exonomic infusion into the area is about $8 million. With a multiplier of three, the pilot ag loan program eliminated tail-water waste and saved approximately 1,967 acre-feet of water per year. Water savings due to improvement in system efficiencies saved about 14,713 acre feet of water per year.

Cumulative water savings from the beginning of the pilot program through September 1990 amount to about 43,880 acre-feet-enough water to supply a city of 200,000 for one year!

Additional information regarding the Agricultural Water Conservation Equipment Loan Program is available by contacting Becca Williams, High Plains Underground Water Conservation District No. 1, 2930 Avenue Q, Lubbock, Texas 79405, (806) 762-0181.

Scramble...

Additionally, the winners are required to submit financial records, photographs and a scrapbook to the calf scramble office to detail the progress of the venture. The youngsters are encouraged to provide updated reports to their donors as well.

Proper livestock evaluation techniques, efficient cattle feeding and production methods, principles in economics and money management are all realistic learning experiences for the youngster who manages to get a firm hold on a calf.

To date, the Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo calf scramble has put 12,144 animals valued at more than $2.9 million into the hands of Texas youth.

Nitrogen Losses Result From Heavy Rains

It would be nice to have a simple formula for assessing the degree of fertilizer nutrient losses resulting from the heavy rains which drenched the state recently, says Curtis Preston, Bailey County Extension Agent.

There is no easy way to estimate these losses because of a number of factors involved. We do not know that nitrogen is by far the nutrient of major concern. If only a small amount of nitrogen was applied before the rains, along with phosphorus and other nutrients, total nutrient losses may be relatively small unless significant surface erosion occurred.

However, if all, or most of the annual nitrogen was already applied, losses could be significant enough to require additional nitrogen fertilization at planting, or at least sidedressed within 30 days following emergence of the crop according to Mr. Preston.

The amount of nitrogen lost is influenced by the soil texture, the degree of soil saturation and how long soils were subjected to flooding. Losses from leaching are generally minimal in heavy textured soils (clays, loamy clays, etc.), but can be significant on sandy and sandy loam soils. Losses resulting from denitrification can be a major avenue of nitrogen loss in heavy textured soils and will vary with duration and degree of saturation.

If all or most of the nitrogen was applied prior to the rains, Texas A&M specialists are suggesting that you submit a soil sample to their laboratories to assess the residual nitrate-nitrogen in the soil just prior to planting, or preferably 10 days to two weeks before the optimum time to sidedress. This test costs $2 and is for "nitrate-nitrogen only." Test results and crop condition will be very useful in determining the amount of sidedress nitrogen to apply. In most cases, additional sidedress nitrogen suggested will equal from 20 to 50% of the normal annual rate for a given crop yield goal. More may be needed on sandy soils. Only under extreme conditions will losses approach 100%, says Curtis Preston.

Soil test bags and sample information sheets can be obtained by calling the local county Extension office.

This information is provided by Willis B. Gass and Cloyce Coffman.

SMOKE STOPPERS
Smokers who made a New Year's Resolution to quit smoking can make good on their promise by enrolling in Smoke Stoppers, a smoking cessation program sponsored by Methodist Hospital. The first introductory session is free and without obligation. The classes, which are taught by ex-smokers, offer positive reinforcement and give confidence to achieve the personal goal.

The class involves all five of the senses in developing new associations about smoking. Instructors show how to use these non-smoking associations in the conscious and subconscious mind. The program also discusses ways to prevent weight gain and reduce irritability.

Smoke Stoppers is open to anyone who wants to quit smoking. A free introductory session is scheduled for Monday, February 10 at 7 p.m. For the location and more information, call (806) 793-4386.

GREAT EXPECTATIONS
The Women's Center of Methodist Hospital has designed a two-hour class for expectant parents in the early months of pregnancy.

The topics include nutrition, exercise, emotional and physical changes, and growth and development of your baby.

Each mother who attends "Great Expectations" will receive a journal and calendar designed especially to help chronicle the events related to her pregnancy.

The next class will be conducted on February 17 at 7 p.m. For more information and to make reservations, contact the Women's Center at (806) 793-4333.

Economics Force Hospital Closures

Economic struggles forced the closures of 12 Texas hospitals in 1991, according to the Texas Hospital Association. The 1991 figure marks the state's lowest year-end closure total since 1986.

Since 1980, 133 Texas hospitals have closed their doors. A majority of the closures, 80 percent, occurred since 1985 when annual closure totals jumped from single digits into the high teens.

In 1985, Texas recorded 10 hospital closings. 1986 brought 18 closures and marked the beginning of soaring annual figures: 17 in 1987, a high of 19 in 1988, 15 in 1989 and 16 closings in 1990.

Of the 12 closures in 1991, one facility reopened under new management after five months. The largest of the year's closings was Lutheran General Hospital in San Antonio, a 248-bed facility. West Texas Hospital in Lubbock was the second largest with 16 beds, and Mesquite Physicians Hospital was third with 156 beds. The remaining nine facilities had less than 100 beds, ranging in size from 88 to 19.

Of the 1991, closures, eight hospitals were in urban areas and four were in rural areas, defined as counties that are not part of a metropolitan statistical area, THD data shows. Of Texas's 254 counties, 57 did not have a hospital at the start of 1992.

"The number of hospitals in operation seems to be reaching a stable level," said Jim Houdek, TDA senior vice president of health care finance. "Now we need to be certain funding is adequate to support the remaining hospitals."

In 1991, the federal and state governments took many steps to help improve the financial outlook, Houdek said.

One major federal change resulted from a Medicare Geographic Classification Review Board (MGCRB) finding that 20 percent of the country's hospitals are underpaid. As a result, 983 of the nation's hospitals were reclassified, entitling them to higher Medicare payments. In Texas, 60 hospitals benefited from the change. The MGCRB is an independent panel named by the secretary of the Department of Health and Human Services to review specific hospital facts.

"Hospital advocates did not select this panel--it was picked by the secretary of HHS," Houdek said. "This is an independent confirmation that hospitals are underpaid."

Medicare geographic reclassification, however, continues to be studied, as the payment system resulting from the board's review has harmed more hospitals than those helped, he said.

Instead of allocating additional funds from the Medicare Trust Fund for the reclassified hospitals, the Health Care Financing Administration announced its adoption of a "budget-neutral" posture; additional funding for higher payments is obtained by reducing funding to urban hospitals, Houdek said.

Federal aid for rural hospitals also has increased through the annual payment update factor, which helps determine Medicare funding. In each of the past two years, there has been a greater payment factor increase for rural hospitals than for urban facilities.

The Texas Legislature in 1991, also took steps to help stabilize hospital finances, including establishing a Medicaid Disproportionate Share Program III for Texas. The program assesses 24 large Medicaid provider hospitals 1.25 percent of non-Medicaid gross inpatient revenues. When approved at the federal level, some $500 million additional federal dollars will be secured through the state's Medicaid program, Houdek said.

Other changes approved by the Texas Legislature include extending Medicaid benefits to children in families with incomes less than 100 percent of poverty; easing limits on the length of hospital stays for children; requiring Medicaid coverage of Medicare premiums, deductibles and coinsurance for certain Medicare beneficiaries; and allocating $99.8 million in state funds to restore 1986 cuts in hospital and physician Medicaid reimbursements. Approximately 60 percent of those go to hospitals.

Although Medicare and Medicaid reimbursements have improved, hospitals continue to be underfunded, Houdek said. In 1991, Texas hospitals lost approximately $926 on every Medicaid patient treated, according to DataPulse, THA's state-wide data base of more than 200 participating hospitals' performance indicators.

Once hospitals close, only a small number are converted into another type of health care facility, according to a study from Trinity University in San Antonio.

In Texas communities where a hospital closed, residents often expressed interest in converting the building to an alternate health care facility, the survey showed. But in almost one-half of the cases studied, no attempt to convert was made.

Of the 41 communities surveyed, 13 closed hospital buildings were converted into another type of health care facility. Two were used for non-medical purposes, and the remaining 26 were not being used, the university study showed.

THA, an Austin-based trade association represents the collective interests of its members regarding public policy, and services as the advocate for legislative and regulatory issues affecting the health care industry.

Mrs. Davenport was visited by her sister Pauline Chappell. She went to Clovis with her family over the weekend. She stated that she "had a wonderful time."

Report From Larry Combest

U.S. Representative Larry Combest (R. Texas) is encouraging applications from seniors in the 19th Congressional District interested in a one-week study of the legislative process in Washington, D.C., May 10-16. The behind-the-scenes seminars, briefings, workshops and on-site study visits on Capitol Hill afford senior citizens the opportunity to learn more about how national issues are addressed by Congress. Seniors chosen from the area will also discuss issues with Congressman Combest and see how a congressional office operates.

"We have found that seniors who invest the time to come to Washington for this internship learn valuable insights to benefit their communities," said Combest. "I am always pleased to see how the energy and enthusiasm of these experienced citizens can contribute to shaping the discussion of important issues."

Because the program is funded

I need of a Pull...

Coleman Adv.

It is fun to get out and romp with our children, to share in their joy. Sometimes it is even work to pull them on a sled. Afterwards you may be tired and bones and muscles ache, but you think fondly of the laughter, and squeals of delight and the love that shines in a child's eyes. Then you think it's all worth the effort, for they won't be young forever, and someday you will only have memories.

They won't be young forever and now is the time that they need a pull in the direction toward God. Now is the time that you can lead and share in the joys of their worship. Take your children to Church

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

LOUISA'S LETTER

Dear Louisa,
 I am a single woman with several sisters. They are forever complaining of their children, who they accuse of doing all sorts of bad and illegal things, and, if this is so, I can't imagine why they should be surprised. These parents have spent their time partying around with a fast crowd and have come home drunk to children who have been left alone. Our parents were good, God fearing people and tried to teach us how to live. How can people forget what they learned?
 M.L.--Tenn.
 Answer:
 It makes us wonder. People who set a bad example for children should not expect them to become perfect adults. Whatever the reason for their change they can be assured that "what one sows that shall they also reap" and much so-called "fun" has to be paid for later on in life.
 -Louisa

Kiwanis News

By R.A. Bradley

Fourteen Kiwanians, three Honorary Kiwanians, one guest and Sweetheart Tiffany (Sleepy) Angeley met at the Dairy Queen for breakfast. Oh yes Randy Lewis was present today. Randy stated that Eddie Morris had bailed him out so he could come to Kiwanis. You can never tell what is going on at that side of the room. We have a smoking and non smoking side. I wonder why Bekki and Stacey set on that side. Maybe it is because their Dad's pay the bill. They were talking to Herb Langfitt about this magic acts of making someone disappear and heel and I thought they were talking about Stacey. Herb had said he could not make her disappear or heel, but come to find out he was talking about Pat. I wonder if Pat knows this. It was also reported that Randy Lewis had called the store and told them to have the carpet cleaner ready and have it at the back door and he would come by and pick it up. Randy arrived at the back door with a bandana on his head, with 'is apron on, ready to go home and clean his house. I wonder if he would come across the street and clean our house.

Sweetheart, Tiffany (Sleepy) Angeley came in sorta late and was to sleepy to eat. She said someone by the name of English theme was keeping her up to late. I wonder if Dusty knows who this guy is by the name of English Theme. Dusty you had better check and see what happens in the middle of the week.
 President Larry Parker called the meeting to order. Terry Hutton led the pledge to our flag. The invocation was given by R.A. Bradley. Keith Turner has been looking for a friend and said there were two Kiwanians who had jeeps and really needed a friend. Sine Jim Lutz's jeep is broken down, he needed a friend the worse. Lyndon Huckaby had the program this morning, but Huck was sick so he went home early. Larry introduced Doug Crawford who is president of Little Dribblers. It seems that Doug had to get on to Larry Parker, because they were supposed to meet and practice last night and Larry had the goals and post at his home and forgot. Doug stated that this year they had 36 teams in the Little Dribblers League. Three more teams than last year, 268 young boys and girls, 12 more than last year. Doug stated that the rules were the same as regular basketball with the exception of you cannot pay zone defense, must be man to man and each player must play at least one quarter of each game. Muleshoe hosted a tournament last year and is trying to host one this year. It cost $100.00 to sponsor a team. The boys practice will start Feb. 17 and the girls will start one week later. Sweetheart Tiffany Angeley presented Doug a check for $100.00 for the Kiwanis Club. Doug thanks for a good program and a special thank you for the hard work you and your board are doing.

CHAMBER COMMENTS
 By: Carolyn Johnson

Securing a small conference or convention is a great way to promote economic opportunity and prosperity. One doesn't often think of Muleshoe as a location for conventions and tourism. Granted, we have our limitations. We also have the Bailey County Coliseum, fine restaurants and motels, and the friendliest people in the state. With these positive attributes, we certainly can be competitive in securing small to moderate size meetings and conferences.

I was fortunate to attend a one-day seminar in Midland last week with representatives from the Heritage Foundation here in Muleshoe. The conference allowed us to look realistically at our town and see it as an "outsider". We also gained ideas on promoting travel in rural areas such as ours.

Clint and Evelyn Peat, owner of the Heritage House Inn here have already scheduled several tour groups through Universal Tours. All groups will be staying over night and activities will be planned for them by the Jennyslipppers and Chamber Office.

Bob Clark and Jerrel Otwell have worked in securing the District Convention of the American Legion to be held here in April, approximately three hundred people are expected in town for two days.

A religious retreat attended by several hundred ladies from West Texas and Eastern New Mexico will also be held in Muleshoe. We are presently working with the Region XVII Education Service Center in Lubbock to schedule some of the summer teacher workshops here, also. These workshops would bring in educators from surrounding towns.

If you belong to an organization that hosts district or regional meetings--we'd love to visit with you about bringing that meeting to Muleshoe! You might just be surprised at how many folks would be attracted to a meeting in our unique town!

We are pleased to announce that a picture of the Bailey County Veteran's Memorial was featured in February's edition of The Legion Time. This state publication for the American Legion pictured Bob Clark and others from Muleshoe Post 403 standing at the memorial with Department Commander Patsy Palmquist.

March 6th is approaching! If you haven't bought your tickets, you need to do so. They are selling fast. We don't want you to miss out on "The Biggest Little Banquet in Texas", which will truly be a big event for Muleshoe!
