Sales tax rebate up

Hereford's retail economy may be showing signs of coming out of the doldrums, according to a higher sales tax rebate for the city this month.

The figures, released Monday, showed Hereford's one percent rebate at $46,450. That up from the $39,678 reported in April 1990 and pushes the rebates for the year to $208,784, four percent higher than through the first four months of 1990.

The sales tax rebates are for February for monthly filers.

Figures for the entire county also showed an increase. Deaf Smith County will receive $25,139, up from $19,567 in April 1990. For the year, the county has received $109,593, a five percent increase over the first four months of 1990. The county levies a one-half percent sales tax that goes to reduce property taxes.

Many other area cities also showed increases for this month compared to last April, including Dimmitt, up 8.2 percent; Plainview, up 16.1 percent; Lubbock, up 13.2 percent; Friona, up 35 percent; Vega, up 63 percent; and Amarillo, up 129 percent (thanks largely to an increase to 2 percent, twice that of Hereford, beginning last October to benefit economic development).

Police say kidnap story is unfounded

Hereford police said Monday that a report of an attempted child abduction in Hereford are false and may have risen from a misunderstanding.

Capt. Pat Michael of the Hereford Police Department, in a prepared statement, said a report circulating through Hereford referred to a blue, four-door car which picked up a child near Tierra Blanca Elementary School last Wednesday.

"Officers investigated the report and spoke to the child, the parents and the alleged suspect," said Michael. "We have determined it was a misunderstanding. There has been no abduction or attempted abduction of a child in Hereford."

City changes garbage laws

By DANEE WILSON
Staff Writer

The Hereford City Commission passed an ordinance Monday changing the pre-collection practices for disposal of garbage and other refuse.

The new ordinance with seven new provisions and one deletion from the original ordinance, will be in effect May 1.

Commissioners deleted a provision allowing approved burning of garbage and added several new provisions including that no tires, building materials or the like, furniture, mattresses, box springs or appliances, automotive engines, parts, wheels, axles or like shall be placed in the alley or city-owned trash receptacles.

The new ordinance states that all grass clippings must be bagged before placed in the alley. All tree limbs, grass clippings, shrubbery and other items that are not deposited in the city trash dumpsters must be placed either in the alley or directly behind the lot owned by the person disposing of the wastes.

Commissioners also considered adding ordinances to satisfy the Deaf Smith County Chamber of Commerce's Beautification Committee's requests.

Two ordinances will be drawn up for approval at the May 7 meeting. The city will require street numbers on all houses and skirting on mobile homes.

"I think the skirting on the mobile homes needs to be grandfathered (not apply to existing mobile homes)" said Commissioner Tom LeGate. "It's a good idea to have skirting, it looks good and it is a safety feature."

After discussing a few of the items on the list, beautification committee member Davis Ford interjected, "I want the commission to know this is not Davis Ford's wish list. I know you are thinking he's an activist guy, but these were all unanimously passed by the chamber. I feel they deserve your full consideration."

"We understand Davis," said Mayor Wes Fisher. "That's why we are going over each one individually." The city attorney will look into other ordinances pertaining to parking vehicles in yards and the maintenance of driveways.

City Manager Darwin McGill said the city already had an abandoned vehicle law that was enforced.

"I've been told by some police officers that they were told to 'just cool it' when it came to enforcing the abandoned vehicle law," said Ford.

"I don't know who told you that, but we enforce the law," said McGill. Commissioners decided to drop the move-in inspection of housing for minimum standards proposal.

"The intent is good, but there is no practicality," said Fisher.

The proposal would require a home to be inspected upon move in. The home would have to meet certain criteria before the tenants would be allowed to move in.

"I think the chamber needs to get back to their business," said Paul Hamilton, who was in the audience. "I don't think it's any of the chamber's business what someone's home looks like."

"I think we need to completely ignore it," said Commissioner Emory Brownlow.

"If we had the city inspector do the job, the liability would kill us," Fisher said.

"Everyone wants the city to be immaculate," said LeGate. "I appreciate the ideas, but they are just impractical."

Extension Agent Dennis Newton spoke to the commission on the "Don't Bag It" program County Extension Office is sponsoring.

"This program encourages residents not to bag their clippings after mowing," said Newton. "We hope this will help alleviate some of the problems with the landfill."

Newton said that 20 percent of the refuse at the landfill is lawn clippings.

The commissioners signed a proclamation in support of the program which will kick off April 22. They also agreed to donate $300 for inserts to be placed in the Hereford Brand.

Authorization was given to the administration to prepare bid proposals for a fire truck.

The commission met in closed session to discuss and review city manager applications as McGill will be retiring in August. No action was taken during the session or when the commissioner reconvened into regular session.

Lynn Dawson, a resident attending the meeting, asked the commission to look into updating the animal shelter.

"We need something else out there," Dawson said. "The pound is too small for all the animals out there and there is no place for cats."

She also requested cats be required to get a rabies shot.

Fisher said the commission appreciated her concern and the city manager would look into her requests.

All the commissioners were present for the Monday meeting.

Four soldiers honored

Four Hereford soldiers who served in Operation Desert Storm were welcomed home Saturday at a special ceremony at Sugarland Mall in Hereford.

Spc. Joseph Perez, E4 Jesus Morales and 2E Johnny Garza, all in the U.S. Army, and Marine Cpl. Colin Ford were honored by about 200 persons at the event which featured songs, a rousing speech that praised the soldiers and Hereford, and special gifts for the four soldiers.

Willie Niner, a Marine recruiter from Amarillo, praised the four soldiers while also saluting Hereford. "When I look at Hereford and Deaf Smith County, this a community that produces a large number of people that serve in the Armed Forces," said Niner. "The American military forces that liberated Kuwait did a fine job, and that speaks a lot for you with your support for the Armed Forces."

"These men and others made a lot of sacrifices from August to today. They were anxious and excited, but a small amount of fear is their protector. Their training, courage and poise overcame their fear. When times were hard for them they would hear from home, and that was the push that was needed."

"You set the standards for us to follow. They fought for tradition. If you believe in it, it's worth fighting for."

The four soldiers and the crowd were entertained by Lorenzo Flores, who sang "When Answers Aren't Enough," and by the Hereford Girl Scouts, who sang "Fifty Nifty," about the United States, and led the crowd in the Pledge of Allegiance and "God Bless The USA."

Esther and Juan De La Cruz, whose son, Angel, recently returned home from his tour of duty in Operation Desert Storm, presented the soldiers with gift certificates to Sirloin Stockade on behalf of Operation Heartshield, a support group for families and friends of soldiers stationed in Saudi Arabia, Kuwait and Iraq or otherwise serving in the operation.

Father Domingo of St. Anthony's Catholic church led a prayer of Thanksgiving, and the Sugarland Mall Association presented the soldiers with a gold medal and a custom t-shirt.

Poor schools may sue

AUSTIN (AP) - Poor school districts deciding whether to challenge a new school finance reform law will watch to see whether lawmakers come up with promised state aid, a superintendent said.

"No bill is worth a hill of beans if it doesn't have money put into it," said Jimmy Vasquez, superintendent of San Antonio's Edgewood school district. Edgewood is the lead plaintiff in the lawsuit that successfully challenged the school finance system.

State District Judge F. Scott McCown said at a Monday hearing that he would presume the new law is constitutional, allowing state education payments to go out as scheduled later this month.

However, he emphasized that the court keeps its jurisdiction over the issue. He said any challenges to the school finance law would be considered, even if they are not filed for several years.

"Should the Legislature somehow depart from Senate Bill 351 (the reform measure), or should it not be funded, or should experience show two or three years from now that it hasn't worked, the court continues to retain jurisdiction to make its judgment effective," McCown said.

The law was passed by legislators to answer a Texas Supreme Court order to even out funding to school districts.

The measure would set a minimum local property tax rate and shift hundreds of millions of dollars in local tax revenue from wealthier to poorer school districts.

Besides causing an estimated $400 million increase in local property taxes, it is projected to cost the state $1.3 billion over the next two years.

State officials have not specified how they will come up with their share of the money.

But Rep. Ernestine Glossbrenner, an Alice Democrat who heads the House Public Education Committee, said lawmakers must do so.

Woman slightly injured in accident

Angie Villanueva of Hereford was slightly injured Monday when her car overturned in a one-vehicle accident six miles east of Hereford. Villanueva was going east on U.S. Highway 60 when her car apparently ran off the shoulder on the road. She over-corrected and the car went into the median and overturned. She was treated at Deaf Smith General Hospital.

Barb: no fear of tell-all book

WASHINGTON (AP) - Barbara Bush is laughing off the possibility that anyone will write any tell-all books about her years in the White House.

"In our case, in all honesty, there's just not a whole bunch to tell," the first lady told reporters Monday.

Mrs. Bush, who last week dismissed Kitty Kelley's titillating new biography of Nancy Reagan as "trash and fiction," said the former first lady called to thank her.

She scoffed at the suggestion that a first lady could arrange secret liaisons in the White House, as the Kelley book suggests Mrs. Reagan did with entertainer Frank Sinatra.

"The truth is a thousand people walk through this house ... the ushers, the household help," she said. "Nobody can come up and not be seen. ... And where's the back door?"

The first lady also said her son Neil was being "persecuted" by federal thrift officials for his role in a bankrupt Denver savings and loan. She said the entire Bush family has rallied behind him.

But she took sharp issue when a reporter suggested a parallel with the Kennedy clan, which has closed ranks behind a nephew of Sen. Edward M. Kennedy, D-Mass., whom a woman claims raped her at the family's Palm Beach, Fla., compound.

"If you don't mind my saying so, I'd rather you didn't mention their latest flap in the same breath with my innocent son," Mrs. Bush said.

The first lady said she hopes Iraqi President Saddam Hussein is tried and executed for war crimes against Kuwait and his own people.

"He certainly is right up there with the people they tried during World War II," she said.

Ask Dr. Lamb

DEAR DR. LAMB: My problem is Meniere's syndrome. The dizziness is so unpredictable that I cannot plan to go anywhere without a companion. Would you have any information about what triggers these dizzy spells?

DEAR DR. LAMB: I am a senior citizen and was diagnosed as having Meniere's syndrome. I have suffered hearing loss, my head feels full and stuffed, and I have noise in the head and a dizzy, unbalanced feeling.

My doctor prescribed limiting sodium to 1,500 mg a day, a mild diuretic, a tablet for vertigo and a nerve pill at night.

I have been feeling somewhat better, but it has been several months and I wonder if you ever recover. Do you have any information about this problem? I can't find any.

DEAR READERS: Meniere's disease is caused by an accumulation of excess fluid in the balance canals of your ears. That is why you notice the dizziness or vertigo. The excess fluid may also involve the cochlea, the snail-shaped part of your inner ear for hearing that is connected to the balance canals. That is why it can cause ear noises and affect your hearing. The classic triad of Meniere's disease is vertigo, ear noises and hearing loss. There is some evidence that you can have one or two of these findings only at first and the condition progresses to the complete triad. The diagnosis of Meniere's disease is not usually made until all three findings are present.

No one knows why the excess fluid accumulates. But that is the reason part of medical treatment has been to limit salt. Sodium causes the body to retain fluid and that seems to make matters worse. Diuretics may be prescribed to help wash out sodium to also try to decrease the accumulation of fluid in canals.

Usually only one ear is involved, but after three to five years, 25 percent to 40 percent of patients will have involvement of both ears.

Typically a person will have attacks as indicated in the first letter. The attacks are unpredictable and we don't know what triggers them. Perhaps it is because of changes in the amount of fluid in the canals and the cochlea. The body's degree of hydration does change, depending on fluid intake, sodium intake and many other factors. Characteristically the attacks may occur only once a year or every six months. Then the attacks become more frequent -- once every week and in severe cases every day.

The vertigo is usually worse at the onset of the attack and may persist for 20 minutes to more than an hour. Nausea and vomiting can occur with the attack.

Ann Landers

DEAR ANN LANDERS: A few days ago I received a letter from my 12-year-old goddaughter, "Susie." She wrote: "Why haven't you sent me my check? I am pretty mad because I haven't gotten it. It has been almost a whole month since my birthday and I've been checking the mail every single day. The next time you write I want you to put that $20 check in there. Do you understand?"

I was shocked and hurt. Actually, I mailed the check shortly after Susie's birthday. Her letter was postmarked five days after the mailing. I contacted the bank and found that the check had been cashed one week after I mailed it.

I have yet to receive a thank-you note from the young lady or from her brother, though I have sent birthday checks to both of them every year since they were born. My real concern is for the values these children are growing up with. I'd like your views. -- M.E.F., Blue Island, Ill.

DEAR BLUE ISLAND: I feel sorry for Susie. It is apparent that she is self-centered, ill-mannered and mouthy. These characteristics will not serve her well as she grows into adulthood. If you send either of those spoiled brats another check or gift, you ought to have your head examined.

DEAR ANN LANDERS: I'm 30 years old. My husband and I have been married three years. We live in a beautiful home in an exclusive area in Dallas. Seven months ago I gave birth to twins. Sounds like a perfect life? Wrong.

Two years ago my husband's son from a previous marriage moved in with us. "Phillip" is now 16. He has no friends, is extremely disrespectful to me, refuses to pick up after himself, and never does anything until the yelling starts. When I ask his father to discipline him, nothing happens. This drives me crazy and has made a lot of trouble in our marriage.

The ex-wife moved to Dallas to be closer to her son. She has asked to spend the night when she visits Phillip. I said OK. But her visits have become more frequent and sometimes she stays the entire weekend.

Recently the ex and I had words over Phillip's behavior. I have my hands full with twin babies and can't deal with this boy and his mother any longer. Meanwhile, because my husband left his son and ex-wife, he suffers from such tremendous guilt that he can't open his mouth.

I feel myself turning into a mean wife and a wicked stepmother. I love my husband and want this marriage to work but I can't take this pressure much longer. How can we make this woman realize that she needs to take some responsibility for her son and bring him into HER life instead of visiting him in ours? -- Frantic in the Big D.

DEAR BIG D.: Your life is going to become increasingly complicated and unmanageable unless some changes are made. You must insist on joint counseling for everyone, including Prince Phillip and his mother.

The weak spoke in the wheel is your husband. The day his son moved into the house he should have set up guidelines and insisted that Phillip follow them. This was his job, not yours.

The counselor will most certainly make it clear that the ex-wife does not belong in your home overnight and that she should take her son away from your family setting when she comes to visit him. Good luck to all of you.

Is that Ann Landers column you clipped years ago yellow with age? For a copy of her most frequently requested poems and essays, send a self-addressed, long, business-size envelope and a check or money order for $4.85 (this includes postage and handling) to: Gems, c/o Ann Landers, P.O. Box 11562, Chicago, Ill. 60611-0562. (In Canada, send $5.87.)

Mushroom magic

Since ancient times, mushrooms have been prized as more than ordinary food. Ancient wise men, East Indian gurus and the American Indian shamans used this aristocrat of fungi to conjure visions and dream dreams, heal body and spirit.

Today, many varieties of mushrooms are valued for their earthy, nutty flavor. The add an instant touch of elegance and chewy texture to lots of different dishes.

Castillo, Brown lead region meet qualifiers

Teresa Castillo and Leo Brown head a list of six girls and three boys who earned the right to represent Hereford High School at the 4A Region I track meet April 26 and 27 in San Angelo.

The girls' team barely missed advancing as a team. Their 112 points were only 10 behind second-place Borger's 122. Pampa, which hosted the boys' and girls' district meet Friday and Saturday, won handily with 175 points.

The boys' team results had Hereford finishing fourth. The Herd accumulated 87 1/2 points. Dumas was third with 97 1/2 and Caprock was second with 111 1/2. Borger took the title with 147 1/2 points.

Both of Hereford's teams got good performances from several individuals over the weekend.

Castillo won the girls' 1,600- and 3,200-meter run and ran on the second-place 1,600 relay team.

Her time in the 1,600 of 5:30.1 was a personal best. Coach Martha Emerson said. She ran the 3,200 in 12:09.25, and joined with Jayme Moore, Jeannie Barrientez and Minerva Salazar to post a 4:07.62 in the 1,600 relay--their best time of the year, Emerson said.

Christie Burkhart won the discus with a toss of 113-9 1/2. Three other Lady Whitefaces finished second and will go to the regional meet: Roxann Torres, discus, 110-2 1/2; Barrientez, 100-meter hurdles, 16.97; and Moore, 300 hurdles, 48.47.

Moore's time in the hurdles and Torres' discus throw were personal bests, Emerson said.

Boys' coach Ron Young said Brown was a "man among boys" Saturday, as Brown did a little better than expected in three events--and qualified in each of them.

Brown triple jumped 42-1/4 to win that event, and placed second in the 110-meter high hurdles (15.04) and in the long jump (22-6--three-quarters of an inch out of first place).

Young said that going into the district tournament, Brown ranked about third or fourth in the triple jump, fourth in the 110 and fifth in the long jump.

A Whiteface who was expected to win did win. Stephen Banner ran the 400 in 50.84 seconds--slightly more than half a second better than second-place Jarred Morton of Dumas.

Finally, Mark Daniel qualified in the discus. His best toss of 133-8 was second only to Chris Cook of Randall at 140-6 3/4.

Two other boys finished third in their events and will be alternates for the regional meet. Sean Smith finished third in the high jump at 6-2, and Cody Page was third in the shot with a put of 47 1/2.

Two girls and a girls' relay team are alternates. Mandi Jones put the shot 32-7 3/4 for third place and a personal best. Barrientez was third in the 300 hurdles in 48.48.

The 800 relay team of Moore, Salazar, Laura Rangel and Lisa Zepeda finished in 1:57.92, which was good for third.

"I'm very proud of the effort of these young ladies," Emerson said, "and those advancing will do a fine job of representing Hereford High School."

The Hereford girls got additional points from April Roddy, who finished fourth in the shot with a put of 31-11, and the 400 relay team of Rangel, Angie Jowell, Brandy Dunn and Krista West, which was fourth at 53.66.

Dunn jumped a personal-best 15-5 to get fifth in the long jump. Burkhart also got a fifth place--in the shot at 31-7 3/4.

And West picked up a pair of sixth places in the sprints, posting a 13.5 in the 100 and a personal-best 27.7 in the 200.

Boys who earned points but weren't qualifiers or alternates include Ben Weatherly, who was fourth in the discus with a throw of 128-5 1/4.

Petey Colvin was fourth in the 100 with a time of 11.20 and fifth in the 200 in 22.99.

Sean Fogo was sixth in the 200 in 23.44. Fogo also teamed with Brown, Banner and Chris Stewart to finish fourth in the 1,600 relay in 3:33.10.

Eric Sims had the fifth-best triple jump at 39-6 1/4.

In the 800 run, Michael Ramirez and Armando Garza finished fifth and sixth. Their respective times were 2:11.94 and 2:12.45.

Brown also picked up fifth-place points in the 300 intermediate hurdles, running a 42-flat.

Daniel got fourth in the shot put at 45-9, followed by T.J. Samples at sixth with a 43-9.

Chris Tardy claimed a pair of sixth places by jumping 6-0 in the high jump and 20-10 1/4 in the long jump.

Power serve

Hereford's Teresa Baker uses full extension to generate a powerful serve in a girls' doubles match Friday in Pampa. Baker and nine other members of the Hereford High School tennis team earned berths in the regional tournament to be played April 22 and 23 in San Angelo.

Herd netters play each other

Hereford tennis twosomes won both doubles titles Saturday in Pampa, but both singles finalists lost.

The team had qualified all four doubles teams and singles players Jamie Kapka and Brenna Reinauer for the regional tournament when they all made the finals of the District 1-4A tournament Friday.

The finals were played Saturday. Both doubles finals matched one Hereford team against the other Hereford team.

In the boys' final, T.J. Head and Greg Coplen beat Torey Sellers and Randy Robbins 6-2, 6-1.

In the girls' final, Trisha Munoz and Robyn Sublett defeated Gina Alley and Teresa Baker 6-3, 6-7, 6-0.

Kapka lost the boys' singles title to Barry Thrutchley of Borger 6-2, 6-2.

Reinauer fell to Borger's Danett Jordan 6-1, 6-4 in the girls' singles final.

Bri Reinauer took third in girls' singles with a 7-5, 6-2 victory over Lindee McNeese of Borger. Bri will be an alternate to the regional tourney.

Brandon Flood finished fourth in boys' singles when he dropped a 7-5, 6-4 decision to Pampa's Edward Dunigan.

Hereford dominated the tournament, but it wasn't as easy as it looked.

"We had some good matches with some kids from Pampa," Coach Ed Coplen said.

"There are some good kids in the district. We just played really well," he said.

The regional tournament will be played April 22 and 23 in San Angelo.

Lewis ties for all-around honors at Floydada rodeo

Regina Lewis of the Hereford High School rodeo team finished in a tie for the all-around girl title at the Tri-State Rodeo Saturday in Floydada.

Lewis and Dawn Bleiker of Channing each accumulated 20 points to share the title.

Lewis won the poles event with a time of 21.329 seconds. She also finished second in the barrels in 18.490 and fourth in goat tying at 10.302.

Chasity Rickman of Hereford won the goat tying event with a time of 8.503. She was also third in the barrels at 18.659.

Lady golfers advance to regional tournament

The Hereford High School girls' golf team enjoyed a dose of home cooking Saturday, out-performing Borger at Pitman Municipal Golf Course in Saturday's last district round. The team came in second, allowing it to advance to the regional golf tournament April 22 and 23 in San Angelo.

Hereford's boys' team finished third, just missing out on the trip.

The girls' team went into Friday's third round 19 strokes behind second-place Borger. With the last two rounds in Borger and in Hereford, second place came down to who could do better on whose home course.

The Lady Whitefaces shot 375 Friday in Borger, but the Lady Bulldogs could only do 10 strokes better on their own turf.

At Pitman Saturday, Hereford shot 375 again, but Borger shot 417. The final totals for each team were Hereford 1,582-Borger 1,595. Pampa's girls won going away, shooting 359 Friday and 366 Saturday for a total of 1,522.

And just as the Hereford team finished second, Paula Britten finished second in medalist play. She shot a 90 Friday and 83 Saturday to move past Pampa's Brandy Chase into second. Britten's four-round total was 362, and Chase's was 368.

Chase's teammate, Diana Pulse, took girls' individual honors at 356. In the boys' competition, Borger was the class of the field with a six-round total of 1,867, easily besting Pampa's 1,987 and Hereford's 2,023.

The Whitefaces shot 328 Friday and 317 Saturday. Pampa had a 316 and a 331, so the Herd could make up only two of the 39 strokes they needed to pass Pampa and qualify for regionals.

Anthony Gale was the top individual Whiteface--tenth at 503.

Borger swept the boys' medals: Eric Teague won with a 458; Pete Zetterstrom was second at 464; and Dusty Green was third at 467.

The Hereford girls' junior varsity team had a 408 Friday and a 437 Saturday for a fourth-place total of 1,754. Caprock totalled 1,991 strokes for fifth place, and Pampa's JV was last at 2,104.

The Hereford boys' JV was fifth after a 345 Friday and 334 Saturday for a total of 2,121. Borger's JV finished fourth between Hereford's two teams with a six-round 2,055.

Behind the Hereford JV were: Pampa's JV at 2,131; Randall at 2,145; Dumas at 2,252; and Caprock at 2,367.

Following are the scores of golfers who played in all district rounds--six for boys and four for girls--with Friday's score, Saturday's score and district total. The golfer's medalist place is in parentheses.

Those golfers with an "X" in place of a score are JV players who played in either Friday's round, Saturday's round or both, but because they missed at least one round during the season, they do not have a total score:

Lopez pitches, hits Herd out of slide

The Hereford baseball team jumped on Amado Lopez' back and got the monkey off their back.

Lopez allowed one run in eight innings of four-hit pitching and scored the run which beat the Randall Raiders 2-1 Saturday at Whiteface Field.

Lopez tripled in the bottom of the eighth and came home on George Jowell's squeeze bunt, putting an end to the Herd's 10-game losing streak.

The streak spanned a fourth and included the Herd's first four district games. Hereford is now 1-4 in District 1-4A and 4-17 overall.

Herd Coach T.R. Sartor seemed thrilled with the win.

"I'm so stinkin' proud of 'em," Sartor said. "They played the best game of the year."

Randall falls to 2-3 in district and 14-5 overall.

Hereford drew first blood, scoring one in the second inning.

Max Mungia led off with a double, and one out later, Tab Hathaway followed with his own double. Mungia couldn't score, however, because it appeared that Hathaway's drive to right-center might be caught by the Raider centerfielder.

The ball fell just out of the fielder's reach, and he picked it up before it bounced to the fence. Mungia, who was preparing to tag up at second, could only go to third on the play. Hathaway was into second easily.

Mungia scored on Roy Cantu's grounder to shortstop, but Hathaway was stranded at third when Rene Cano struck out.

The 1-0 lead held up with the help of good defense. The Whitefaces committed only one error, and that was erased by one of the two double plays that second baseman Max Mungia turned.

The other double play came in the second inning, when Lopez walked the first two batters but escaped unscathed.

First, catcher Jowell threw out a would-be base-stealer. Then after the second walk, the next batter grounded to the mound. Lopez threw to Mungia for the first out, but Mungia's throw to first was late.

After a brief discussion between Sartor and the umpires, the runner who went into second was called for interference, and the double play was called.

Hereford lost the lead in the sixth.

Randall's Mark Elder led off with a triple to right field and scored on Jon Ostrovski's grounder to second. That tied the score at 1-1.

After the triple, Lopez bore down and retired the next seven men he faced. But Randall made some trouble for him in the top of the eighth.

The Raiders put men on first and second with two outs--the results of a walk and a hit batsman. Next, Lopez threw a pitch which hit the dirt in front of home plate and bounced off of catcher Jowell's chest protector.

Matt Ladd, the runner on second, saw this and started to go to third. Halfway there, he apparently noted that the ball had only rolled a few feet from Jowell, so he turned around and went back to second.

Ostrovski, the runner on first, apparently saw Ladd start to go, but didn't see him come back until both were about to slide into the base.

Ostrovski tried to go back to first, but Jowell made a strong throw to second and second baseman Max Mungia sent it on to first baseman Matt Bromlow, who applied the tag to end the inning.

Lopez, a right-handed batter, started the bottom of the eighth by sending a fly ball deep into the right field power alley.

Strangely, the center fielder never saw it and stood looking into the cloudless sky until the ball was nearly on the ground--far to his left and behind him.

However, it was far enough away that it appeared the right fielder had a better shot at catching it. He didn't, it rolled to the fence, and Lopez reached third easily.

Jowell, the next batter, had to lunge to bunt the ball on the suicide squeeze. Probably because the pitch was low and outside, Jowell's bunt was a slight pop-up, but Randall catcher Danny Barrett couldn't get to it before it bounced about eight feet from the plate.

Lopez crossed the plate about the same time the ball hit the ground, and the Whitefaces' losing streak was over.

In addition to the triple, Lopez had a double and a single in four trips to the plate. Max Mungia was 2-for-3, adding a single to his second-inning double, and Louis Mungia also was 2-for-3.

The Whitefaces were to start the second round of district play today in Dumas.

Lopez leads Herd

Hereford's Amado Lopez throws a pitch in Saturday's 2-1 win over Randall at Whiteface Field. Lopez was a central figure in the slump-ending game--pitching the complete game and scoring the winning run in the bottom of the eighth.

Maroon JV victimized by Bulldog comeback

Hereford's Maroon junior varsity baseball team fell 3-2 Monday to a Plainview JV team which came in with a 13-1 record.

The Maroon team is now 9-5-1, and the Plainview team now stands 14-1.

Maroon team coach Bill Bridge said this Plainview JV team--the Red team--is made up mostly of juniors and sophomores, and is considered the best of Plainview's two JV squads.

Their performance Monday at Whiteface Field bore that out, as they came back from a 2-0 deficit to win. The Bulldogs tied the score with two runs in the fifth and took the lead for good in the sixth.

Plainview got a two-run double from Scot Wilder in the fourth inning.

Hereford center fielder Chris Brummett made two impressive catches in the game, but he couldn't come up with Wilder's bloop, and the tying run scored.

In the top of the sixth, Herd pitcher Ralph Holguin walked the first batter, Chris Riley. Gyra Sansom, running for Riley, went to second when Herd catcher Michael Campos bounced a pickoff attempt past first base.

Then, when Sansom tried to steal third, Campos threw the ball into left field. Sansom scored easily.

Hereford got a man as far as third in the bottom of the seventh. With one out, Jason Tataravich bunted his way on, stole second and went to third when the throw from the catcher went into center field.

But Jason Cole grounded out and Brummett struck out, becoming strikeout victim No. 15 in the game for Bulldog pitcher Tony Enriquez. Holguin and Enriquez both pitched complete games.

Russ Watts scored both of the Herd's runs--both times as a courtesy runner for Campos.

In the second inning, Campos led off by reaching on the Plainview shortstop's error. Watts came on and scored on Jerry Rincon's double to right field.

In the fourth, Campos led off again, this time with a walk. Watts stole second, went to third on a wild pitch and scored on Enriquez' error.

The Maroon team's next action will be in the Amarillo junior varsity tournament Thursday and Friday.

Hereford's White JV team's next game is Thursday against Palo Duro JV, 4:30 p.m. in Amarillo. They also play Dumas' JV at 4:30 Friday at Whiteface Field.

BASEBALL

Astros 3, Braves 1

Jeff Bagwell's first major league homer, a two-run shot in the ninth inning, lifted visiting Houston over Atlanta.

Ken Caminiti, who had three hits, singled with two outs off reliever Kent Mercker (0-1) and Bagwell followed with a drive over the left-field fence.

Reliever Al Osuna (1-0) picked up the victory by pitching two-thirds of an inning and Curt Schilling got the last two outs for his second save.

Elsewhere in the National League, it was St. Louis 5, Montreal 4; Chicago 5, Philadelphia 4; New York 9, Pittsburgh 3; San Diego 3, Cincinnati 2; and Los Angeles 2, San Francisco 1.

ACS studies link nutrition, cancer

The American Cancer Society is gearing up for a major fight. The arsenal will consist of some of the finest weapons in the fight against cancer: foods rich in vitamins A and C, low in fat, and high in fiber, and cruciferous, or cabbage-family vegetables.

The Great American Food Fight Against Cancer, which takes place on Thursday, April 18, will be a fun filled event with a serious message about lowering cancer risk through making healthy choices in diet. Similar to the American Cancer Society's Great American Smokeout, the Food Fight is positive, not punishing. On Saturday, April 21, the American Cancer Society Crusade Drive will begin. Volunteers for the Deaf Smith County Unit will begin the community-wide crusade drive from 2-5 p.m. The purpose of the drive is to inform as many people as possible about cancer prevention, early detection, treatment, research and education programs.

Advance intelligence reports from the field indicate the need for dietary preparedness. According to Nicky Walsler, chairman of the 1991 American Cancer Society Crusade for the Deaf Smith County Unit of the American Cancer Society, there is evidence linking diet to certain cancers.

"We are just beginning to understand how a person's eating habits and the amounts of specific nutrients he or she consumes fit into the very complicated question of cancer risk," Walsler says. "No one would say we have all the answers yet, but we know enough to make basic recommendations."

The American Cancer Society's dietary guidelines are as follows:

1. Avoid obesity: Obesity has been linked to risk of uterine, gall bladder, kidney, stomach, breast, colon, and other cancers.
2. Cut down on total fat intake: A high-fat diet increases risk of developing breast, colon, and prostate cancers.
3. Include a variety of vegetables and fruit in the daily diet: Foods rich in vitamin A and C as well as cruciferous, or cabbage-family, vegetables are considered especially important in the fight against cancer.
4. Eat more high-fiber foods, such as whole grain cereals, vegetables, and fruits: A high-fiber diet might reduce the risk of developing colon cancer. High-fiber foods can be recommended as wholesome substitutes for fatty foods.
5. Limit consumption of alcoholic beverages, if you drink at all: Heavy drinkers of alcohol, especially those who are also cigarette smokers, are at unusually high risk for cancers of the oral cavity, larynx, and esophagus. The risk of liver cancer might be reduced by drinking in moderation.
6. Limit consumption of salt-cured, smoked and nitrite-cured foods: Cancers of the stomach and esophagus are more common among people who consume large quantities of these foods.

Walsler adds, "People should try to fight the battle by following these guidelines not just in the home, but when dining out as well. For example, instead of ordering cake for dessert, order fresh fruit. Choose meats, poultry, and fish that have been broiled, grilled, baked, steamed, or poached, instead of fried, or ask to have the entree prepared without added fat."

The Society's nutrition guidelines are available in a pamphlet Eating Smart, which can be obtained without charge from the Society's Deaf Smith County Unit. The pamphlet contains recipes for a variety of main courses and snacks.

"You shouldn't try to change your eating habits overnight," she says. "But these recipes give you new options and prove that foods that really are good for you can be delicious as well."

"The American Cancer Society has plenty of information on how to make wise choices when cooking, shopping, and eating out," says Walsler. "We're hoping the Great American Food Fight Against Cancer will let people know that we're the ones to call for advice."

Great American Food Fight activities in Hereford, according to Walsler, will be held at each grocery store on Saturday, April 20. Pamphlets will be given to each customer, providing information on the fight against cancer.

Packet full of goodies

Jan Reeve, at left, volunteer, and Patsy Sparkman, president of the Deaf Smith County Unit of the American Cancer Society, have a packet full of goodies to distribute during the ACS Crusade Drive set for Sunday, April 21, from 2-5 p.m. The purpose of the community-wide crusade drive is to inform as many people as possible about cancer prevention, early detection, treatment, research and education programs.

Rodeo contest open to area young women

Young women in the Panhandle area once again have the opportunity to compete for nearly $500 in prizes and a new $500 scholarship in the 1991 Miss Range Rider Rodeo Contest. The competition is conducted by the Will Rogers Range Riders to select a queen to represent the organization's annual July rodeo.

The Miss Range Rider Rodeo Contest and Coronation will be held Saturday, May 11, at the Will Rogers Range Rider Arena, located on Business Highway 40 (Amarillo Boulevard West), near the Bell Street overpass.

Contestants must be between the ages of 16 and 24 as of Jan. 1, 1991. They must be single, never have been married, nor ever had children. Deadline for entry is Friday, May 3, and a $25 entry fee will be required, refundable upon completion of the contest judging and coronation.

A panel of judges will evaluate contestants during modeling, personal interviews and horsemanship competition to determine the top contestant overall in four categories: appearance, personality, horsemanship and knowledge of rodeo. A first runner-up also will be selected.

The Will Rogers Range Riders and several Amarillo merchants are sponsoring awards for the contest, including a trophy buckle, hand-tooled breast collar, custom tiara and clothing gift certificates. Also, for the first time, a $500 scholarship will be available to the queen.

Miss Range Rider Rodeo 1991 will reign over the 50th Will Rogers Range Rider Rodeo, July 4-6, appearing in each grand entry and meeting spectators. In addition, Miss Range Rider Rodeo will help promote the rodeo through personal appearances and radio and television interviews.

The Will Rogers Range Rodeo is the third largest amateur rodeo in Texas. It traditionally draws cowboys and cowgirls from a five-state area and attracts spectators from across the United States.

Interested applicants should contact Contest Coordinators Leslie Baker, 376-5181 or 622-0800, or Diana Glover, 376-4811 or 359-5770.

New Arrivals

Bill and Tammy Turmel of Bryan are the parents of a son, Samuel David, born April 9, 1991, at St. Joseph Hospital in Bryan.

His grandfather is Clarence Behrends of the Easter Community.

Linda and Howard Perry of Modesto, Calif. are the parents of a son, Miles Andrew Perry, born April 14, 1991.

Grandparents are Miles and Ella Caudle of Hereford.

Parents to meet tonight

All parents of Hereford High School seniors are needed to work on prom decorations.

The parents are meeting from 7-10 p.m. today and Thursday in Sugarland Mall.

Several items are needed to make decorations. They include old sheets or material, "leftover" latex paint, costume jewelry and decorative beads. Anyone wishing to donate items may call Linda Daniel at 364-2701.

Conservation topic of recent DAR program

Rosemary Thomas presented a program concerning conservation when members of the Los Ciboleros Chapter, NSDAR, met Thursday in the home of Mrs. Arthur Clark with Mrs. David Blackburn and Mrs. Tom Draper serving as co-hostesses.

Thomas told the group how a person can contribute to the management and reduction of solid wastes in homes, place of businesses and the community. She provided handouts listing products that are packaged in recycled containers, instructions on recycling in the home and garden, and community environmental issues. Thomas said, "A typical home receives enough junk mail each year to equal one-and-a-half trees."

Chapter Regent Mrs. Austin Rose Jr. led the opening ritual assisted by Clark, Draper, Mrs. Burl Fish and Lois Gilliland. Rose also gave the President General's message stating the 100th Continental Congress opened at National Headquarters in Washington, D.C. Monday. She further noted NSDAR has given over 12,000,000 copies of the Manual For Citizenship to immigrants.

Mrs. LeRoy Williamson gave the centennial moment stating the organization first used Feb. 22 as the date for the Continental Congress but soon changed to April 19 to commemorate the date in 1775 when the Minutemen of the village of Lexington, Mass., were fired upon by British regulars. These were the "shots heard 'round the world."

The National Defense report by Mrs. Gid Brown examined the Strategic Defense Debate in light of the recent war in the Mideast.

To avoid conflict with graduation exercises at area colleges, it was announced that the closing luncheon would be held at the Caison House on the regular meeting day in May instead of the following Saturday. Mrs. Tom Upchurch, Texas state regent, will report on Continental Congress.

Present were Mmes. Jess Robinson, Charlie Bell, Nell Norvell, Brown, Rose, Fish, Williamson, Gilliland, Bob Sheffy, Draper, Blackburn, Clark and guest, Rosemary Thomas.

Proper leather care can "hide" the effects of time

Spring is a time when owners of leather garments can invest a small amount of time in cleaning and caring for their tanned goods. A little preventive maintenance can enhance leather's natural beauty and significantly extend its life.

Quality leather garments can age beautifully when cared for properly. Here are some helpful hints to follow for care of leather:

-Let leather breathe: The natural pores in leather must be allowed to "breathe" so keep your garment free of foreign materials such as wax, mineral oils and road grime. Use a commercial leather cleaning solution to keep leather clean. Never use soap or turpentine.

-Condition leather frequently: Leather will maintain its natural flexibility best when conditioned from time to time using mink oil, neatsfoot oil or other conditioner. However, be sure to avoid oil build-up on your garment-excess oil can attract dirt which clogs the pores in leather.

-Keep leather dry: Leather will necessarily become wet from time to time; however, dry leather carefully. Hang garments to dry slowly and naturally. Using heat to dry leather garments can deplete natural oils and cause the leather to rot.

-Protect leather from its "enemies": Leather has three natural enemies: wax, soap and water. Wax clogs the pores and causes leather to dry out or rot. Soap contains an alkali that can deplete the natural oils found in leather. Water, too, can dry out leather's natural oils.

Orientation session held

Cande Robbins of Hereford (standing third from left), daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dewayne Robbins, was among 240 high school seniors who participated in the four freshman orientation clinics at Southwestern Oklahoma State University in Weatherford, Okla.

Draper Club members view wildflower video recently

Johnnie Messer showed a video on wildflowers when members of Draper Extension Homemakers Club met recently in the home of Joanne Blackwell for a luncheon and business meeting.

During the video, Messer stated, "Some wildflower seed suppliers can provide seed mixtures consisting of a number of different species. As consumers, we need to be informed and avoid purchasing wild collected plants. With native plants diminishing in number, it is now ecologically and perhaps even morally wrong to dig up wild plants unless the area is going to be developed. It is best to either collect seeds from wild plants or purchase seeds from commercial nurseries."

Messer explained that the sea oats plant is very important to the beach environment because the root system holds the sand dunes together.

President Johnnie Messer called the meeting to order and the T.E.H.A. prayer was recited. Wilma Perkins and Pauline Mandina were welcomed as visitors.

The hostess gave a report on her bouquet of flowers and Tonic Vaughn, secretary, called the roll with "My favorite flowers. Also, reports were made by council delegate, Carmen Rickman, and council treasurer, Johnnie Messer.

It was announced that the state president of extension, Pat Bandleman, is speaking at the District I meeting today.

Wilma Perkins won the door prize. The next council meeting will be a covered dish luncheon April 22. The next regularly scheduled Draper meeting will be held May 14 with Brenda Pagett serving as hostess.

Members present included Messer, Vaughn, Rickman, Blackwell, Mary Beth Messer, Sherrie Blackwell and Pagett.

Election party set April 25

La Madre Mia Study Club met recently in the home of Costaline Lee. Plans were made for an election party at the Hereford State Bank at 7 p.m. on April 25.

Roll call was answered by "A Book I Wish I'd Read."

Mary Beth White read the minutes in the absence of Debbie Bentley. Mysedia Smith conducted the business meeting and asked for committee reports.

Lavon Nieman introduced Audine Dettman who gave a book review on "The Life of Ryan White." She told of his life of illnesses due to contacting AIDS through a blood transfusion. He was a hemophilic.

Ryan White's mother will be visiting Amarillo in conjunction with the national tour for her son's book, "Ryan White: My Own Story." The Panhandle AIDS Support Organization is joining forces with Amarillo to present Jeanne White April 26. Mrs. White will address the audience during PASO's first benefit dinner and style show, 7 p.m., at Amarillo's Paramount Terrace Christian Church, 4000 May Street. The evening is dedicated to gaining a better understanding of women, children and AIDS.

Gladys Merritt and Tricia Sims served as hostess to Francine Bromlow, Mary Herring, Betty Lady, Barbara Manning, Nieman, Bettye Owen, Nancy Paetzold, Lucy Rogers, Betty Taylor, Marlene Watson, Nicky Walser, White, Judy Williams, Carolyn McDonald, Janet Schroeder, Susan Robbins, Smith, White, and Dettman.

RADNOR, Pa. (AP) - Jimmy Smits has his eye on movie roles, but he'll still stop by "L.A. Law" when time allows.

The 32-year-old native New Yorker said he will leave the NBC Emmy-winning series when his five-year contract expires after this season, but he's not breaking away totally.

"I'll very possibly come back for a couple of shows next fall," Smits says in the latest issue of Radnor-based TV Guide.

The show's executive producer and co-creator, Steven Bochco, wants him back, Smits said.

"We tried to nail something down contractually," Smits said. "It was too hard to do - should it be six segments or two? I said, 'If you need me and I have the time, we'll try to work something out.'"

Smits says he's loaded with movie offers and is taking his time deciding which to accept. His recent big-screen venture, "Old Gringo" with Jane Fonda, didn't do well with the box office.
