porting fine rains.

Wichita Falls had a small conflagration last week.

The O. & W. railroad will build a $16,500 stone depot at Quanah.

Beginning July 1st, there'll be two of 'em each day. Isn't that nice. If

Frank Ladd of Vernon was accidentally killed by John Roach while out hunting.

County Clerk C. E. Reid of Wichita county recently suffered a stroke of paralysis. His condition is critical.

W. B. Nay of Wichita Falls committed suicide last week by hanging himself. Ill health is supposed to have been the cause of his rash act.

As a result of a wholesale arrest of gamblers and illegal whiskey sellers in Clarendon, that city's funds have been enriched by some $200.

The instruments for the Clarendon band have arrived and cost $800.

Beginning July 1st, there'll be two

A Great Convention.

The 1902 convention of the Disciples of Christ will be held in Omaha, Neb., October 15-23. A rate of one fare for round trip has been made from all parts of the country, and it is confidentially expected that upwards of 30,000 visitors will attend. The citizens of Omaha are making extensive preparations for the entertainment of delegates and visitors. The session of the convention will be held in the Coliseum, which will seat with comfort 12,000 people.

The growth of the Disciples of Christ as a church organization is one of the marvels of the religious world. Its percentage of growth exceeds that of any protestant denomination, and the church now numbers upwards of 1,300,000 communicants in the United States.

The late president, James A.
Garfield, was a minister of the Disciples church. Before his election to the presidency Mr. Garfield was asked to state consisely the doctrinal position of the church to which he belonged. He complied with the request and formulated the following statement:

1. We call ourselves Christians or Disciples.
2. We believe in God the Father.
3. We believe that Jesus is the Christ, the son of the living God, and our Savior. We regard the divinity of Christ as the fundamental truth of the Christian system.
4. We believe in the Holy Spirit both as to His agency in conversion and as a dweller in the heart of the Christian.
5. We accept both the Old and New Testament as the inspired word of God.
6. We believe in the future punishment of the wicked and the reward of the righteous.
7. We believe that the Deity is a prayer hearing and a prayer answering God.
8. We observe the institution of the Lord's Supper on every Lord's Day. To this table we neither invite nor debar; we say it is the Lord's Supper for all the Lord's children.

9. We plead for the union of all God's people on the Bible and the Bible alone.

10. The Lord's Word is our "Book of Discipline."

11. We maintain that all the ordinances should be observed as they were in the days of the apostles.

A Hard Name, But—

A printing office is considered a tough place and the editor a bad man. However, of the thirty odd hundred convicts in the Texas penitentiary, including ministers, bankers, cooks, barbers, lawyers, music teachers, doctors and most all other professions, there is not a newspaper man or printer in the bunch.
The printer gets his bad name because he calls black, black, and white, white, and his business teaches him to reject shams and scorn hypocrites.—Joshua News.

XIT LANDS FOR SALE CHEAP

At $2.50 per acre and up

ON ACCOUNT OF THE CAPITOL SYNDICATE Company's (better known as the XIT's) intention to discontinue their cattle business their large ranch, consisting of over 3,000,000 acres and situated in the best part of the Texas Panhandle, will be sold in any size tract—to suit the purchaser.

This land is all fenced and has numerous wells and windmills, and other similar improvements which make it the best in the Panhandle. Improvements on land purchased will be sold to the purchaser at the actual cost to the Company.

Nearly 2,000,000 acres of this great ranch has been sold and it will be only a few months until the stock farmer of one or two sections will have the one million acres left in beautiful homes and farms.

It has been demonstrated that the small stock farmer can make more money compared to his investment, than can the large ranch owner, and the splitting up of this large ranch (until recently the largest ranch in the world) will be a great boon to this class of farmers.

The Pecos Valley railroad (a branch of the Santa Fe System), the Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific and the Fort Worth and Denver City Railroads are now intersecting this great ranch and the Choctaw road is now building from Amarillo to Tucumcari, N. M., and will traverse the entire Deaf Smith county portion of the ranch. It is also expected that the Santa Fe branch, running to Albuquerque, N. M., will be built from Bovina in the near future.

This land, being situated in the western part of the Panhandle, lies close to the mountains of New Mexico and therefore is more susceptible to good rains than is land farther east.

This section of the Panhandle is noted for its mildness and even temperature—both in winter's cold and summer's heat—and has the right altitude for an invigorating and dry atmosphere. The nights are always cool, insuring sound and refreshing sleep.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES.

Items of Interest to the Patrons Thereof.

The Hereford public school opened Monday morning at 9 o'clock with an attendance of 264 students showing that we are going to have all the students our building will hold before the school has hardly begun.

Owing to the fact that our seating capacity is limited our trustees have decided best to only have nine grades. Also we were sorry to see so many turned away who were out of the school age. Why can't our citizens go down in their pockets and make more room for our young people who are continually asking for admittance into our public school?

Our school has done excellent for this, the first week.

All are now classified and are strictly at business.

We have noticed one thing peculiar with our school. All the grades have about the same number of pupils from the 1st to the 8th, each containing about 30 in number.

We are well pleased with the interest taken in the different rooms. Now parents give us your hearty co-operation, insist on your child's studying at home and see that no absent or tardy marks appear on his or her reports.

Owing to an unavoidable delay in the arrival of desks, the opening was postponed from the 1st to the 8th of the month.

Judge Connell made a brief visit to each room, noting enrollment, etc.

The division of grades is as follows:

Principal, W. A. Smith, 9th grade; first assistant, C. E. Edwards, 8th and part of 7th; Miss Nunley, part of 7th and 6th; Miss Stewart, 5th and part of 4th; Miss Dameron, part of 4th and 3d; Miss DeGraffenreid, 1st and 2d.

The members of the faculty will be glad to have the citizens and patrons visit the school at any time, and will appreciate the co-operation of parents and guardians in making this the most successful term of the Hereford Public School.

Notice.

Our millinery goods have been delayed in transit and it will be impossible for us to have our opening on the 15th, as we expected. We will notify you of the event as soon as possible.

Another School House.

It is with pleasure that we report that the citizens living in the H. H. Stanley neighborhood, six miles south of town in Castro county, are to have a school building. Heretofore the children of the neighborhood have been congregating at the residence of H. H. Stanley, where, under the tutorage of Miss Lenna Greer, they have been initiated into the mysteries of the "three R's", but with the rapid settlement of this country more commodious quarters are made necessary, there being enrolled in the school at the present time the goodly number of 17, with more to come as soon as the building is finished. Mrs. Stanley and Miss Greer were in town Tuesday soliciting aid for the building fund, and as the Hereford people are ever ready to help along an educational enterprise, we feel safe in stating that the building will be erected at once.

A DELIGHTFUL AFFAIR.

Mr. and Mrs. D. F. Johnson Entertain Last Friday Evening.

Last Friday evening was the occasion of one of the most delightful receptions held in Hereford this season, when Mr. and Mrs. D. F. Johnson entertained about forty-five of their young friends at their beautiful home at the corner of Lee and Illinois avenues.

The trees were prettily illuminated with lanterns, which gave the gardens a very romantic appearance. Tables were also spread on the lawn at which dainty refreshments, consisting of ice cream and cake, were served.

The evening was enjoyably spent by all present in social chat, and, there being many strangers present, advantage was taken of the opportunity in which to become acquainted, each with the other.

At a conventional hour the guests departed for their various homes, all vowing that Mr. and Mrs. Johnson are peerless as entertainers. They were assisted by the Misses Lura and Empriss Jowell, sisters of the hostess, in receiving the guests. Among those present were:

The Misses Clark, Moreman, Johnson, Hutchinson, Avis, Williams, Hough, Nora and May Gamble, Fuller, Dameron, Vanderburgh, Stewart, Alice and Luella Howard, Martin, Shields, Torbert, Bandy, Patton, Rogers, Lura and Empriss Jowell, and the Messrs. Wofford, Norton, Reid, Johnson, Ball, McClaine, DeVaney, W. H. and J. N. Russell, Lipscomb, Davidson, Emmett and James Cardwell, Evans, Head, Garrison, Dameron, Bell, Jowell, Howard and Vanderburgh.

INAUGURAL SERVICES

Of the Hereford College and Industrial School Held Wednesday.

The inaugural services of the Hereford College and Industrial School were held Wednesday morning at the Baptist church, a large crowd being present to witness the ceremonies.

The services opened with appropriate songs, followed by a prayer by Rev. H. M. Bandy, after which President Randolph Clark gave an address, incorporating in it the causes which led him to accept the responsibility of the presidency of the institution. He stated that he had received flattering offers from different educational institutions at a munificent salary from each, all of which he rejected, as, after over a quarter of a century's earnest labor in college work, he had decided to retire from that work and enter some business where there were less responsibilities, but having friends in Hereford whose children he had educated, he accepted an invitation from them to pay a visit to this section of the country—a country that he had always supposed was but a barren desert, notwithstanding the fact that he had always been a resident of the state of which this section forms a part.

On his journey westward from his Dallas county home he passed through sections that were parched from the want of moisture, and his introduction to the plains—or desert, as he supposed—the green grass, bountiful crops, cosy homes, and contented and cultured people living in them, were to him a revelation. Arriving at Hereford, and after studying its situation, conditions and prospects, with his mind trained to recognize at once an ideal location for an educational institution of the highest standard, he could not help but be impressed with the location of Hereford as the ideal place for a college of this character.

Upon the suggestion of G. R. Jowell, with whom he was visiting, that he accept the presidency of a college of high standard to be built by the people of Hereford and vicinity, he gave his assent, notwithstanding the fact that he had already refused many offers to engage in college work, and the fact that he had, as he supposed, fully made up his mind to not enter that branch of work at any place under any conditions. He made the statement Wednesday that there was at that time no place on the American continent that he was aware of in which he would have consented to accept the most minor position in educational work, but after having been made aware of the conditions of this particular section of the country and seeing its dire need of an educational institution of the sort that Hereford now has, in the Hereford College and Industrial School, his love of the work and his love of humanity got the better of his determination, though he added that if it were possible to obtain another head to the institution at any time who would take the interest in the work that he has and carry it to success, he would gladly step down and out and give way to some one with a longer life ahead of him than he has. But it is the opinion of the editor of THE BRAND and of nearly every citizen of Hereford that such a man could not be found—not that there are not as able men as he in the college profession—but that such could not be found who would be willing to sacrifice years of hard work with no prospect of immediate remuneration.

President Clark paid a glowing tribute to the high moral standard already attained by the residents of this section of the state and added that it was his aim to be instrumental in maintaining that standard of morality through the education of its rising generations, and that this aim alone was responsible for his changing from his purpose to leave the college work. That such an institution as President Clark proposes to conduct will have great weight in the future careers of our young people—both morally, physically and intellectually—there is no gainsaying.

He also called attention to the industrial department of the institution, saying that there was as much need for a young man or young woman to know how to do different kinds of home beautifying work—such as horticultural, botanical, dairying, etc.—as it was to be able to be familiar with the common and higher branches of book learning.

President Clark stated that the institution would be conducted with such thoroughness that any student, upon leaving the college at the end of its courses, would be able to enter as a junior in any of the large universities in this or other states without further preparation, and that the personnel of the faculty had been selected from a number of applicants, solely for their fitness and ability to instruct the young minds in the particular studies to which they have been assigned.

Mr. Clark laid special stress upon the fact that while the college would be thoroughly christian in its influence—in fact, he said that the Bible would be the foundation of the school's discipline—it would be strictly non-sectarian, non-denominational and non-partisan in its teachings, and requested that each of the pastors of the various churches consider themselves ex-officio members of the faculty and co-operate with the college faculty in the maintaining of the moral and religious standing of the students.

To allay the fears of some that the college would interfere with the work of the public schools Mr. Clark stated that such was far from the purpose of the school management. In fact, he hoped that the teachers of the public schools would be present at the weekly meetings of the college faculty and co-operate each with the other in the educating of the young. It is the purpose of the college, said Mr. Clark, to take the students from the public schools when they have finished their education in the public institutions and wish to climb higher on the educational ladder. That the fears of these people are groundless is evidenced by the fact that already the public school is so crowded that Trustee J. P. Connell was forced to limit the attendance of the pupils to those of the state scholastic age—between the ages of eight and seventeen.

On account of this enforced order the Hereford College and Industrial School has created a kindergarten department—complete in every detail with a competent teacher in charge—where children under the age of eight years may receive the initial instructions in school life.

Would that the editor of this paper was a stenographer that he might have been able to reproduce President Clark's address verbatim—as it was well worthy of reproduction—but as we are not gifted with that accomplishment we have endeavored to give the gist of his address in such a manner as will convey to our readers, who were not fortunate enough to be present, the noble aims of the Hereford College and Industrial School.

Upon Mr. Clark's expressing the wish that the beautiful stone structure—the college building itself—could be finished by Christmas, so that appropriate dedication services could be held at that time, Judge L. Gough arose and said that it rested with the people themselves whether or not this much desired aim was accomplished. He said that the people had started out to build a $10,000 structure, of which only about $7,500 had been subscribed, and that, as there were many who had not as yet made an investment in this great enterprise who were able to do so and who would be financially benefited thereby, it was up to them to make up the deficiency in the building fund. If this were done at once there would be no trouble in having the building completed at that time.

We believe that were an earnest effort made by the solicitors for the college fund enough money could be raised in a short time among the new comers into this section of the country since the college movement was made, and who were induced to come here solely on account of the college prospects. While there is absolutely no danger of the college building not being finished, in the course of time, it is to the interest of the recent investors of property in this vicinity to see that it is finished without any delay whatever. You new comers should bear in mind that the college enterprise has been possible only by the earnest work and self-sacrifice of the citizens of this vicinity who came here and bore the hardships necessary to the making of the country in its present prosperous condition that you might share the joys and prosperity thereof, without having to undergo the hardships and expenses thereof. Will you help us? We believe that it is to your financial interest to do so.

A Y. M. C. A.

Hereford to Have One in the Near Future—Much Interest Taken.

That Hereford is not going to be behind in anything calculated to build up the morals of her young people to even a higher standard than they have already attained was manifest in the meeting of young men held last Tuesday evening for the purpose of devising ways and means for the organization of a Young Men's Christian Association, thus providing a moral place of recreation and amusement for the young men who are constantly becoming residents of our city, either for work or to attend our public school or college.

Lee Clark, one of the members of the faculty of the Hereford College and Industrial School and an ex-secretary of the association at Austin, was elected to the chair and upon request gave an outline of the objects of such an organization, together with the work of the same. He said that the main objects were to provide a moral place of recreation and amusement for young men who were away from the christian influence of a home, and who would go to a place of this kind, were one provided, in preference to one where the moral tone is not above the standard.

After much discussion a motion was carried to have a committee appointed to make a canvass of the city in order to ascertain the number that could be depended upon to join and help sustain such an organization in this city. Chairman Clark then appointed J. A. Williams, J. H. Hickox, H. D. Howard, Conner Jowell, and F. L. Vanderburgh to act on this committee and to report the progress made at a meeting to be held tomorrow (Saturday) night in the Hay building (J. A. Williams' store), at which meeting a permanent organization will be effected, providing enough men signified their willingness to become members to make the organization self-sustaining.

So sure are we that there will be enough men interested in the maintaining of the high moral standard of our young men that we feel safe in stating that tomorrow night there will be organized in the city of Hereford a branch of the Young Men's Christian Association. In this connection it might be well to state that there is a demand for rooms for young men who are unable to get room and board at private houses. To supply this demand in a measure, the editor of THE BRAND will make the organization the following proposition:

We will deed the organization enough land from the northwest corner of our business block on which to erect a commodious two-story building, the lower floor to be fitted up with the necessary appurtenances for an up-to-date Y. M. C. A. reading and amusement hall, with bath rooms, etc., and the upper story to be cut up into airy rooms for the use of young men of good moral character for sleeping purposes. These rooms can be readily rented at a figure which would soon enable the organization to get out of debt for their building. In addition there is a good well near the southeast corner of the property which is at the disposal of the organization, should they decide to accept of THE BRAND'S offer.

We would also suggest that the young ladies be given a chance to help in this great work, and as an inducement for their interest it might be well to set apart some certain day or days, on which the rooms be given up to their exclusive use, including the baths and gymnasium department.

With a good strong organization of this kind (and we believe that it can be had with a little work on the part of those interested) the Hereford public school and the Hereford College and Industrial School would receive an impetus for growth, such as no other enterprise would give. Think it over, you who are church members and interested in the up-building of the moral characters of the young men who now reside

Do you want a Fine Home in the Panhandle?

I have for sale one of the best improved sections (640 acres) in the Panhandle of Texas, situated three miles east from Hereford, the county seat of Deaf Smith County. This section is in the valley of the Tierra Blanco river, which intersects it, and contains over 275 acres which will grow alfalfa profitably without irrigation, making it the best dividend paying section of land in the Panhandle. There are 55 acres in alfalfa at the present time, which will cut three crops each year. For the past nine years an average of 100 tons of valley hay has been cut from this land yearly, which readily sells at $10 per ton.

...Improvements...

Among the improvements on this place are: A modern $2500 8-room residence, modern $500 2-story barn—26x46 feet in dimensions with 16-foot walls—corrals and out-buildings. Has a 75-foot well, containing 35 feet of pure water, with a 10,000 gallon storage tank and a water-works system supplying house and barn with water. A 16-foot Eclipse windmill with 6-inch cylinder supplies ample water to irrigate a 20-acre garden patch. This property would be an ideal one for party wishing to engage in the fine stock business. My reason for selling is that other business demands my attention.

ANOTHER CHANGE.

W. R. Ward Sells His Drug Store to Messrs. Burns and Smith.

Since the publication of our last issue the drug store belonging to W. R. Ward has passed into other hands, Messrs. G. E. Burns and O. F. Smith becoming the purchasers.

This drug business is the oldest in the city, having been founded by Dr. L. S. Dysart at the time the town first started, but since that time has frequently changed hands. The stand has always enjoyed a good patronage, and it may be on that account that it is such saleable property.

The senior member of the firm, Mr. Burns, has long been identified with the business world of Hereford and has earned a deserved reputation of being a hustling and enterprising business man, while his partner, Mr. Smith, is well known to the drug buying public, having been the manager of Dr. R. H. Gough's drug store for years, resigning his position to enter another profession, but since has changed his mind and decided to enter in the business with which he is familiar, as well as proficient, he being a registered pharmacist. It is the intention of the new firm to re-stock the store and conduct a first-class drug store in every respect. THE BRAND wishes the new firm unbounded success in their new venture.

WHY, oh why, will a few of our citizens persist in maintaining their premises in an unsanitary condition? We hate to think that they wish to be forced to clean up, but such seems to be the case.

WOULD that Hereford had a P. T. Barnum, who would lavish his wealth in the up-building and beautifying of the town. But she hasn't such an individual and most of the citizens are doing their best to make of this place what Barnum did of Bridgeport, Conn.

PROSPECTORS are coming in thick and fast now-a-days. Many of them are dis-satisfied with Hereford as a place of residence on account of her not having necessary sanitary regulations conducive to health. Another reason why we should incorporate—and that right away.

THE Hereford high school opened Monday with an enrollment of 264. How is that for a town that less than four years ago was unheard of? Besides this number there were many added later in the week. But then, it is her excellent schools that has made Hereford's phenomenal growth as a city.

FROM the number of loads of lumber that are daily going out of town, it is evident that there is an unprecedented building of homes in our rural districts. The lumber dealers also inform us that most of the builders are erecting good and substantial homes—an evidence that the builders are here to stay.

How many trees are you going to plant this fall? THE BRAND wishes that it could enthruse the citizens of Hereford in this respect to such an extent that there would be a strife among them as to who would plant the most trees this coming fall. Such a move would not only enhance the market value of the property far more than the cost of the trees, but would make Hereford the most beautiful town in the Panhandle inside of five years.

WITH this issue THE BRAND enlarges its paper two pages, making it a 14-page paper, and if our advertising patronage continues to increase we will enlarge again, as it is not our intention to slight our readers in the matter of news in order to sell space for advertising. However, we are willing to enlarge on that basis. By the way how does THE BRAND strike you at $1 per year? Can you afford to be without it?

CONSISTENCY, thou art a jewel. A few days ago a merchant of our city requested us to "boost" his business through the columns of THE BRAND and to give him a share of the editor's business which we complied with. He then sent his job printing order to a "Cheap John" printing office. Such is life.

LET'S incorporate. An ice factory, electric light plant, waterworks system and other needed improvements will follow in short order. Right here we want to say that after incorporation the city should provide its own electric light plant, and water works system. If private individuals can make money from these enterprises, it is certain that the city can.

A small admission fee will be charged, the proceeds of which will go to defray the incidental expenses thereto, and what is left will be given to the Methodist church society for the generous use of their building.

NOTES AND COMMENTS.

Senator Quay's head is all right, so far, but his feet bother him. Last week he scalded his foot and in 1895 he broke his heel.

According to General Weston, Chief Commissary of the Army, our government is feeding over 250,000 Filipinos who are destitute.

There is applause all down the line of republican newspapers at the action of the Iowa convention on the subject of a revision of the tariff laws that affect the trusts, but the politicians will not permit any tinkering with the Dingley bill.

Senator Carmack and Chairman Griggs smile at Senator Stewart's statement that Nevada is in the republican column and say that Nevada is as surely democratic as Texas or Mississippi or any other state south of the Mason and Dixon line.

Ex-Secretary Bliss has withdrawn from the American protective tariff league and with him several other former high protectionists. The question of reciprocity was the straw that broke the camel's back. The league voted against reciprocity for the imperative reason that the constitution of the league requires its members to vote for the protection of American labor. It is time the league put up the shutters and went out of business.

Senator Mark Hanna is attempting to corral the labor vote for use in the coming election. He addressed 10,000 people early in the week on the all-important theme of "Labor and Capital," and said many things pleasing to knights of industry, but it will take more than talk to convince some of the laboring people that Senator Hanna thinks as much of a laboring man as he does of a capitalist.

MEAT MARKET SOLD.

Messrs. Coffey & Guinn Sell Their Market to Lee Gilliland of Claude.

On Monday morning the Hereford meat market changed management and ownership, Messrs. Coffey & Guinn disposing of their interests in the business to Lee Gilliland of Claude, who has been in the cattle business for many years and consequently knows a good animal when he sees it. Mr. Gilliland has secured the services of M. R. Clark of Amarillo, who has had a long and valuable experience as a meat cutter and market man. With Mr. Gilliland to buy the market's meat and Mr. Clark to do the carving, we believe that the Hereford people can be assured of receiving the best of service in this line and we bespeak for the new proprietor unbounded success in his venture.

Mr. Coffey has accepted his old position—that of clerk in the dry goods emporium of Galbreath, Fox & Co., while Mr. Guinn will attend to the duties on his ranch.

The business relations between this paper and the retiring firm have been very pleasant and it is with regret that they have been severed for the time being, and hope that it will not be long before they again decide to enter in the business arena of Hereford. However, we are consoled by meeting the new proprietor and assistant, whom we found to be very pleasant gentlemen, and believe that our relations with the new management will be fully as cordial as with the former one.

For Sale.

One of the best improved ranch places in New Mexico. Good one and one-half story stone building, good corrals, well watered, mowing machine, plows and tools together with 100 head of stock horses, about 50 of which are young stuff out of Standard Black Hawk horse. Also one black Spanish Jack eight years old and one Mammoth Jack six years old. Ten miles of fence. Will transfer lease to two school sections. Price for all, $4,000. Will give terms on part. Apply at the Hereford Dental Parlors, or at this office. 26tf

All parties owning colts who wish to compete for the prizes will please have them here at that time, when I will pay $10 in cash for the best and $5 for the second best colt shown.

Respectfully,

ANOTHER THRU TRAIN TO KOOL KOLORADO

BEGINNING JULY FIRST, WE SHALL HAVE TWO THRU TRAINS TO COLORADO EACH DAY.

One will leave Fort Worth at 9:45 a. m., the other, 11:10 p. m., after the arrival of all evening connections.

For guests who wish to retire early, a sleeping car will be ready each evening at 9 o'clock.

Both trains will be run thru to Denver. Each will carry thru coaches and sleeping-cars, and meals will be served, en route, in cafe dining-cars.

Tho this doubles the thru train service to Colorado from this territory, there is still "Only One Road" which has any at all. We have also the only direct Colorado line; make the best time, and haul very nearly everybody who goes. And, using our line, "You Don't Have to Apologize," you know.
