The officials of the company are camping on the job so that the well can be properly brought in when the pay sand is encountered.

The Sparkman No. 1 also being drilled by the Cushing Ranch Drilling Association has not shown much progress this week due to cavings. It was thought this trouble had been eliminated when casing was set but continued cavings happings shared the lowering of the casing. This test is at practically the same depth as last report, 850 feet. As soon as the present trouble is eliminated they expect to make rapid progress.

At McDowell Well No. 4

All casing has been removed from McDowell well No. 4 of the General Petroleum Company and it is thought the lost tools will be recovered in short order. A socket was secured at Intan Thursday, the one that had been used being unable to hold the tools after they had been caught. The McDowell No. 4 is now being watched with interest and many are of the opinion that it is going to be brought in a real producer.

Preparing to Bring Many to W. Texas More than two hundred and sixty. five names of prospective home builders for West Texas are now listed in the real estate department of the Chase Oil Association, Inc. The names in. clude folks from all parts of the United States and Cauada. Most of them have outlined their wants and if they can secure just what they are seeking they will become home makers in the Big Spring country.

The Chase Oil Association is now seeking farms and ranch lands which may meet the requirements of these prospective citizens and as rapidly as they secure good agricultural land offered at reasonable terms they notify their clients and insist on their mak. ing a trip of inspection to this territory They expect to be kept basy trans. porting home seekers on inspection trips through this and adjoining coun. ties within the next two months.

DEMOCRATS MAKE HUGE GAINS

Republicans Are Slipping Everywhere

The magnitude of the Democratic national sweep in Tuesday's elections became fully apparent Wednesday as fairly complete returns showed the staggering reverse suffered by Repub. lican administration candidates,

It drove some of President Harding's closest friends from public life, en. dangered Republican control of the next house, seriously reduced the Republican margin in the senate, put New York state overwhelmingly in Democratic control, and generally changed the country's political complexion.

The gathering of returns revealed: That Democrats have gained at least 66 seats in the next house, making it necessary for them to win but 21 more to control the body. That Republican control of the senate has been reduced from 24 to less than 15. Contests in doubt make it impossible to fix the exact margain definitely.

That Ohio, President Harding's state, on which the administration pinned its hopes for approval of the Harding program, elected a Democratic governor and showed Democratic congressional gains, thus frustrating the hopes of Republican chieftains. That New York state was swept into the Democratic column so overwhelmingly that not only Al Smith, Democrat for governor, and Royal S. Copeland, for senator, were elected, but the entire Democratic state ticket. and a majority of the house delegation

That such strong Republican strong holds as Rhode Island and New Hamp. shire fell into the Democratic procession.

That Senator Lodge, leader and chief sachem of the Republican party, was in danger by d'feat of Colonel William A. Gaston, in Massachusetts, in the closest election in years. So close were they running it is indicated the final votes counted might determine the issue.

That expected Republican victories in Kansas, Indiana, New Jersey and possibly in Michigan failed to materialize.

That on the wet and dry issue there seemed to be an even break as to state wide results, but considerable wet in opposition to the Ku Klux Klan and the part it was playing in politics. For two hours he discussed this propo. sition and while the crowd was prob. ably in the majority for Earle B. Mayfield they gave Peddy a respectful hearing, nor was there lacking applause when the speaker warmed up to his subject.

Peddy is an able and pleasing speaker : and while there were those present who could not for a minute view the situation as Peddy saw it, they never. theless gave him credit for being an able speaker and never at a loss to score his points.

He made his usual request that all members of the Klan raise their right hand so he might know he was talking to them face to face, but this request brought no response.

His talk evidently was not instru. mental in causing many of his hearers to change their minds according to the election returns.

AT WORK ON HIGHWAY.

Good Progress Being Made on Con. struction of Bankhead National Highway Thru 4 Counties

The damp weather this section has enjoyed recently was just the kind needed for road building according to R. N. Baker, engineer in charge of construction of the Bankhead National Highway, through Howard, Martin, Midland and Ector countles. The wet weather set up the gravel surface of the highway in great shape and a few more such spells will put the highway In ideal condition. About thirty miles of the ninety nine mile stretch of Highway has been completed.

About twelve miles of the highway have been completed in Howard County. A six mile stretch west of Big Spring, a two mile stretch east; a 3 mile stretch east of Coahoma and a one mile stretch south of Coahoma.

A force of fifty five men are now engaged in working on the highway in this county and two new outfits are to be put to work near Iatan at once. It is certainly a pleasure to ride over the completed portions of the highway and we are going to have as fine a gravel road as is to be found in Texas. It is all that can be desired as to grade, curvature and construction and if properly maintained will be a first class highway for many

The eight inch crown of gravel on the highway is of especially good Chamber of Commerce last spring material and should withstand much should make arrangements to have travel which this highway is due to their best chickens here Saturday receive.

Pioneer Citizen Claimed by Death

P. D. Burns, one of the ploneer citi. zens of the Big Spring section and one of the well known and highly esteemed property owners was claimed by death at his home in Bentonville, Ark., Wed. nesday morning November Sth, and was buried at Bentonville, Ark. at 10 o'clock Thursday morning.

He had been seriously ill for the past three weeks and for several days previous to the announcement of his death there was no hopes for his re. covery. While in the neighborhood of 75 years of age he was active up until his last illness and visited relatives here about six weeks ago.

Mr. Burns came to West Texas in 1891 and settled on the Burns ranch, eighteen miles southeast of Big Spring,

Red Cross Meeting Next Tuesday

On account of the ravages of the war-mad Turks, it became necessary for the Red Cross to once more give aid to the christian people in the Near East who bore the brunt of the Turkich blood lust.

The Red Cross Chapter of Howard County as well as every other Red Cross Chapter must come to the rescue of these christian people, especially the women and the children.

In order that the Howard County Chapter may be in a position to do her part it has been decided to push. the Red Cross Roll Call Campaign thruout our county, not only to secure funds for the striken people in the Near East but for the needy in our own country. All those interested in the Red Cross and willing to aid in the Roll Call campaign are urged to meet at the Chamber of Commerce at 4 o'clock, Tuesday afternoon, Novem. ber 14th.

Don't forget the date, remember the need of urgent action, and plan to be present and volunteer to work for this deserving cause.

All ministers of our city have been requested to emphasize the need of Red Cross relief work in their ser. mons next Sunday so be sure you will be given plenty of reasons why you should be interested.

Poultry Awards November 18th

The boys and girls who have chickens hatched from eggs from Mr. Woodford's pure bred Anconas, which eggs were distributed through the November 18th.

Mr. Woodford is going to give cash prizes for the best chicks on that date. Judging and awards to be made at 3 o'clock Saturday afternoon, Nov. 18th. $5.00 cash will be awarded for the best cockerell, $3.00 for the best exhibition pullet, and $2.00 for the best utility pullet.

Mr. Woodford plans to distribute 50 dozen or more settings of pure bred Ancona eggs among the bys and girls of Howard County next spring on the same plan as he did this year so arrange to be present Saturday Nov 18 and apply for some of these eggs.

West Texans Buying Land

It appears as if West Texas is going to be sold to West Texans before the folks back East wake to the fact that the finest farming lands, fo utilized for ranching purposes only, is now being placed on the market at a reasonable price and sold on easy terms Tenant farmers who have made good in West Texas are taking a lead in buying these farms; while farmers who had previously purchased farms are adding to their holdings. Never in the history of the country were so many home people seeking investments in land in our own county. Another fact to be noted is that the majority of the prospective homeseekers are from adjoining or nearby counties_fhese are practical farmers, thoroughly familiar with conditions that are to be met, not afraid to work and aware of the great future of West Texas.

R. L. Billingsley Accidently Shot R. L. Billingsley was seriously injur. ed near his home in Dawson County Wednesday morning by the accidental discharge of a twenty two calibre rifle.

According to report Mr. Billingsley and fifteen year old son were enroute to the field to bring in a wagon load of feed when the rifle which was being taken along to kill rabbits was accidently discharged.

The bullet entered Mr. Billingsley's back, passing thru the bladder and severing an intestine.

He was brought to Mercy Hospital in this city to be given medical attention and is said to be getting along as well as could be expected.

Football Game Here Saturday

The fast, undefeated football team of Roscoe will be here Saturday to meet the team of the Big Spring High School. This game will be played at the ball park at 3 o'clock and our folks should turn out in force.

The Roscoe team is said to be one of the best in the West and our own team is "some pumpkins" so we can reasonably expect one of the warmest contests of the season as both teams want a victory. Saturday is a holiday so there is no reason why you cannot attend this game, Make it a point to come and bring a friend or two.

Miss Alice Robertson, representative from Oklahoma, was beaten, and Mrs. Anna Dickie Oleson, senatorial candi. date in Minnesota, was a poor third.

Victor Berger, Socialist, ousted from the last congress, again was returned. Andrew Volstead, father of the dry law, was beaten by Rev. O. J. Kvale, a drier rival. Representative Mondell, Republican leader in the last house, failed in his effort to get into the senate.

Senators Hithcock, Nebraska: France, Maryland; Frelinhuysen, New Jersey, and Townsend, Michigan, are among the senate veterans who will be seen no more after March 4 as a result of the voting.

Howard County Election Results

Howard County, as usual, went very Democratic, from U. S. Senator five to one in the race between Earle Mayfield and George Peddy, candidates for the U. S. Senate and from there on down the line the ratio increased. Of course it was practically solid democratic as far as district and county officers were concerned as there was no opposition.

The district officers elected without opposition were: Truman H.. Conner for Chief Justice Court of Civil Ap. peals, 2nd Supreme Judicial District. W. H. Bledsoe for state senator of the 30th district. W. J. Carson for representative of the 91st district. E. I. Hill district attorney of the 32nd judicial district.

The following county officers were elected and will, begin upon their terms January 1, 1923: County Judge, James T. Brooks, reelected; County attorney, W. Carroll Barnett Jr. ; county and district clerk, J. I. Prichard, J. Smith; hide and animal inspector, tice of the peace, precinct 2, R. V. farm of C. B. Shipman.

The Southwestern has the material on the ground to construct a copper circuit between Big Spring and Pecos and it is thought the construction work will be underway shortly.

These new communication facilities meet with the hearty approval of all West Texas and is an improvement that should have been installed years ago.

When completed we will have direct connections with Pecos, El Paso and other points west and calls to San An. tonio and other points can be placed by way of El Paso and avoid delay usually met in trying to place long calls thru offices in the eastern part of the state.

Seeking Special Low Rate on Feed

Through the efforts of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, joined by the Texas and Southern Cattle Raisers Associations, it is believed that the Interstate Commerce Commission will grant emergency rate for cattle feed destined for points in West Texas. A hearing was held at Fort Worth November 6th at which time an examner for the I. C. C. was present and it is thought he will recommend putting the Emergency Rates in effect. Homer D. Wade, assisant manager of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce represented that organization at the hearing.

The Georgia Jazz Hounds have been furnishing music at the Lyric theatre this week both during the matinee and at night and many are the complin .nts they are being handed for the excellen. music rendered.

These men have played with the best orchestras in the country and the music is always in keeping with the picture.

If you like real music be sure to hear them during the next day or so. Don't delay too long for there is no telling just how long the management of the Lyric will be able to retain their services. They are enroute for California and merely stopped in Big Spring to break the long trip.

The attendance at the Lyric has shown a marked increase since the Jazz Hounds have been playing so it must be that their music is appreciated

Driving Investors Away

Some folks make an investment in property and then hang onto same for dear life. They refuse to sell same until the price compares with a price that might be secured in a rapidly growing city. We have too many of this class of folks in Big Spring and as a result the growth of our city has been retarded and the citizens have not made a cent on their investments. It is best to set a reasonable price on your holdings and sell when times are good. Better to take a reasonable profit than to hold on until buyers seek investments elsewhere.

John W. Steele, the original "Coal Oil Johnny" died a few months ago. He was station agent at a small town in Nebraska. He and his family lived in the station. He had worked for ng a bare living, for forty years. An orphan at seven, adopted by Culbertson McClintock, heir to Me. Clintock's farm upon which oil was discovered. Money was rolling in so fast that he couldn't stand it, so he sold the farm for $500,000 cash money paid in hand. In less than a year he was broke-flat broke. In New York he threw great dippers full of money into the crowds to see them scramble for it. He gave actors $1,000 bills to repeat songs; he bought fine horses only to grow tired of them and present them as a gift to original owners. Once he bought a hotel in Philadelphia, ran it for a few days and then gave it to a friend.

The Danviger company has contract. ed to drill on the O. P. Jones ranch. They were scheduled to start some time ago, but were held up for unknown reasons. Paul Slator, whose ranch adjoins the Jones ranch and who was a contributor in the Jones contract, refused to renew his lease to the company unless work was started. Forty years ago Hamsun was fired from the job of conductor which he held on the Chicago street car system. They had horse cars in those days and the city wasn't very large, but Hamsun couldn't remember the names of the streets, and he was fired. While in America he worked as a dish washer, house painter, street car con. ductor and lumberjack.

Now he has become one of the world's greatest minds. He has prospered as a writer, and now he wins a $50,000 prize.

Personally Wet, Politically Dry

Self respecting Americans now have further opportunity to view the further activities of the office holding hypocrites that infest the Congress, and the line stretches from one end of the House corridor to the other end of the Senate offices, a line composed of that grand army of political cowards who are personally wet but politically dry.

We can feel respect for the politician whether he be for or against prohibition if he be honest in his conviction. even though we may have no respect whatever for his opinion or for the things he stands for, but the poltroon who puts the birthright of his manhood on the auction block and sells his common decency for a mess of political pottage should be booted out of public life.

America never has and never will gain anything from the service of the hypocrite and trimmer whether in the legislative, the judicial or the executive the type of men who stood at Valley Forge, has changed when we keep hypocrites in office and depend upon Alabama $5,000,000.

South Carolina is trying to get through an expenditure of $50,000,000 for road work.

Florida tackled the job by counties. Hillsboro county voted $3,000,000. Duval County voted $3,000.000, and now enterprising business men are asking $5,000,000 to build roads and link up the county system.

bond issue, and has spent $883,000 in the last few months.

Georgia increased its funds $780,000. Kentucky has contracts estimated at $900,000, Louisiana $932,000, and Mississippi $844,000.

Good roads spell prosperity in capital letters. The trivial amount of extra taxation involved is not worthy of consideration spread out as it always is over so many years.

It would be well if the town and village officials in every community were to get an inspiration from what the southern countles and states are doing, and begin work of local road improvement.

Certainly wisdom calls for local authorities to ask a half dozen of the most intelligent and interested citizens to act as a Planning Commission whose duty it shall be to study the local situation and to lay plans and make recommendations for road development Once the people see what improved streets will do for them and learn how they can be financed with slight bur-

Influences of the Cheerful Life

Wherefore comfort one another with these words __1 Thess, iv. 1TS. The pessimist is a moral, mental and spiritual leonoclast.

The pessimist is a cloud; the optimist a sun whose bright rays serve to dissipate the darkness of the cloud. The pessimist shackles and fetters; the optimist breaks the shackles and unfetters discouraged and downcast homanity.

The optimist is a builder; the pessimist is a destroyer. The optimist is mentally, morally and spiritually, yea, North Carolina has voted $75,000,000, even physically, a constructive force.

He who has a hymn of praise in his heart puts a song of joy into the heart of others, and he who comforts and cheers, who gladdens his fellows, glorifies his "Father which art in heaven."

Fault-finding is one of the most dis. couraging characteristics of the pessimist, and naturally, for if he finds discouragement in things about him he Tennessee is voting on a $75,000,000 just naturally finds it in individuals. The fault finder, by the very nature of his sin, can not be happy.

One who can not see good in others can find little cause for happiness in himself.

Harsh criticism, disposition to place a wrong construction on one's words and deeds, do much to prevent happiness, not only for the criticised, but also for the critic.

Henry Drummond says, "Christianity wants nothing so much in the world as sunny people, and the old are hungrier for love than for bread." This is the fact, and not only are the old hungrier for love than for bread, but, in fact, the young are also. Love is the sunshine of life and being. It prompts the doing of every good deed, the uttering of every good and encouraging word. If the pessimist would only recall and endeavor to adhere to the, admonition, "Judge not, that ye be not judged," he would not only be happler himself, but would allow others to be

TEXAS CHILDREN PLAY FOR HEALTH

Here is how the Red Cross in Fort Worth, Texas, helped to keep the children of that town well durnig the summer. The Red Cross public health nurse put on a campaign of games health stories and regu-lar physical examinations during the summer which has resulted splendidly for the children and has sent them back to school this fall in fine condition to keep up in their classes and resist the usual winter ailments of school children. The top left-hand picture shows the Clock Game. The top right-hand picture shows the nurse, Miss Edna L. Hammer, R. N., and one of her little health pupils. In the lower picture the health officen of Fort Worth is displaying the practically perfect set of teeth possessed by one of the children. Two hundred and fifty children attended the play grounds throughout the summer and much interest has been manifested by the entire town in the

During the fiscal year 1921-22, ending June 30th, the Southwestern Division, American Red Cross expended $780,986.79 in disaster relief. Part of this came from the National Red Cross funds secured from member-ships, part from chapters and parts from individual contributions. This money was expended in disasters in various parts of the division, especially in the flood areas along the west bank of the Mississippi, in Missouri and Arkansas, in Texas, around Fort Worth, and in the Rio Grande Valley, at Burlington, Kan., and at Pueblo, Colo.

The greatest amount of time and effort in any of these disasters went into the rehabilitation of Pueblo and of the district 'covered by the Ric Grande Valley flood of last June, ac- class. One of the extraordinary feats cording to a report from the South-western Division, American Red Cross, in St. Louis. Fifteen hundred and ten families were affected by that flood.

The manner in which the Red Cross undertakes these disasters depends upon the conditions to be met. In some cases the local chapters and citizens' committees take charge and the division office goes in an advisory capacity. In others the situation is reversed, and in still others the work is handled jointly by the Red Cross and the citizens.

Relief work in the Rio Grande Valley flood, which was the last disaster of real importance in the division, has been practically closed and the auditing committee, as well as the advisory committee, with the Red Cross director, Henry M. Baker, are compiling their reports, to be submitted to the citizens and to the division. The wide area affected in this disaster has caused the work to be continued longer than would have been necessary, it is believed, but that it has been thoroughly done and has created friendship for the Red Cross among the citizens of the section is evidenced by the letters received at the division office.

The Young Men's and Young Women's Christian Association of Little Rock, Ark., both have thriving life saving classes which were started during the summer by the director of life saving of the Southwestern Division. American Red Cross.

The children are enthusiastic over home work and tell the secretary that If ever she needs more help to "just whistle" and they will be right there.

TWELVE-YEAR-OLD GIRL WINS RED CROSS LIFE SAVING CERTIFICATE

Ruth Elberfeld, 12 years old, daugh ter of "Kid" Elberfeld, manager of the Little Rock (Ark.) Baseball Club, has just received a certificate in the Red Cross Life Saving Course, which is usually issued only to adults. Ruth took the course in a class of girls, but her work was so far ahead of her age that she finally was put in the adult in the course was the bringing in of a 160-pound man through the water for a distance of 50 yards, towing him and handling him in four different ways, according to the requirements of the course.

Perpetual motion has been classified as among the things theoretically im. possible for centuries. Experiments by the hundreds of thousands have de. voted a good part of their trying to disprove this theory-most of them, no doubt, with visions of a golden rain. Most novel and ingenious schemes have been devised and models built, some of them involving the work of a lifetime, only to be brought up short against the law that a machine will not run with its own momentum alone. Many of the machines have seemed to come so near to the dream of the inventor that it has needed but the smallest unit of power to throw the balance in the direction of success. The individual, who thirty years ago, would have described radio as it functions today would have been promptly classed with the "nuts," and a dreamer, first cousin to the perpetual motion lunatic. It could not be done, so why talk about it? The idea of transmitting without wires, music and jectures and information vital to every day life, even across the street Absurd ! To hear a concert two thousand miles away. Lunacy!

die May Selve Perpetual Motion

And now, in view of the accomplish. ment by radio of the seeming impos. sible, someone has dared to suggest that it will supply the actual power necessary to make perpetual motion machines operative. And even the chronic doubter is becoming conservative in his doubting. Who can say that radio will not furnish the force required to throw the ingenious machines that have been devised in the past into the operative.

"Life Seems Long Rut"

San Mateo, Cal.-America's oldest man is no more contented than most of the rest of us.

He has had 113 years in which to search for contentment and he is honest enough to admit today that he hasn't found it.

One would expect a man, upon his 113th birthday, to be both happy and philosophic.

Jacinto Florio is philosophic and happy after a fashion.

But major sorrows weigh heavily against minor bappiness.

"Don't let the old folks home be your wife in your declining years," is his advice. "It's never too late to wed. For 70 years I've been without a wife, and I'd be far happler if I had one now. Then, again, I've always liked to feel that I would die on my native soll, which is Mexico, but I shall not. Very likely I shall die right here among strangers.

"Don't think that contentment comes necessarily with advanced years. Of course it's something to live 113 years, and I don't regret a year of it, but I've never found contentment.

"I've had money and I've been broke. I was employed 52 years by one man. I guess I was contented after a fashion but now it seems like a long rut.

"I don't want to be misunderstood. Life is very much worth while and it being known by most of the public being discontented doesn't spoil it. It helps keep you from going stale."

> > Advertising

A merchant in a neighboring town states his advertising thus far this year cost him 54 cents for every $100 worth of goods sold. He used half a page of his local paper each week for his business announcement, and says that as long as people read newspapers he will continue to advertise. There's a man possessed of a good head. Just as soon as merchants begin to look upon advertising as a branch of their business which requires as much care as any part of it, then will advertising pay. Honesty, force, originality and persistency in advertising makes it a paying investment .--- Merkey Mail.

Of course, someone will say that the newspapers are great advocates of advertising because it means money in their pockets. Well, certainly, the newspapers have got to provide the means for the issuance of the news. paper. The public does not realize on the other hand how much free advertising the newspaper gives and for the small price at which it sold per copy, the great expense incidental to the issuance of a weekly newspaper and the different departments which must be minintained all at great expense. And be it said also that the majority of the business men realize that adver. tising is as much a part of their business expense as salaries of cierks, etc. In fact, most of the large businesses have regular appropriations which improvements, $10.00 per ace; small they set aside for advertising .__ Abilene Reporter.

For Prevention of Accidents

Statistics published by the bealth service of the American Red Cross portionately much larger than among and they mean it. either young children or older perdren between ten and fourteen, 177 under five years of age and among adults are quite small.

No parents need to be told that the most-valuable possessions they have are their children. But it appears that there is great need for some power to instill into the minds of civil authority the conviction that the most valuable asset the state possesses is its children.

Accidents do not "happen." There is a cause for every accident. Particularly is this true of traffic acci. dents, which are assuming alarming proportions in the larger centers. Of what use is it to the municipality or the state to spend large sums in educating a child to grow up to be a good citizen if it permits him to be kfiled by an automobile before he be. comes an economic factor in the community life?

Cities and traffic bureaus search madly for remedies for traffic acci. dents: "safety weeks" are proposed, debates, held; new and more drastic traffic rules are formulated, and more or less enforced ; more severe penalties are inflicted by judges for driving recklessly, but the accidents continue. It would seem that the engineering brains which built a Panama Canal, took two million men to Europe in the face of submarines, and built and perfected the largest railroad and telephone systems in the world, might solve this problem, too. But while the remedy is left in the hands of policemen to formulate, no matter how interested or willing, or while the answer to the problem is given into the hands of aldermen, mayors, and lead. ing citizens, no matter how well meaning, we will still continue to kill our children.

Traffic accidents to the young is a subject of national concern, of such vention deserves the consideration of the very best minds in the country.

The True Gentleman

The true gentleman is the man whose conduct proceeds from goodwill and an acute sense of propriety, and whose self-control is equal to all emergencies ; who does not make the poor man conscious of his poverty, the obscure man of his obscurity, or any man of his inferiority or deformity; who is him. self humbled if necessity compels him to humble another; who does not flatter wealth, cringe before power, or boast of his own possessions or achievements; who speaks with frank. ness, but always with sincerity and sympathy, and whose deed follows his words; who thinks of the rights and feelings of others rather than of his own; who is at home when he seems to be abroad-a man with whom honor is sacred and virtue safe ..... #### Daugherty's Resignation

Business men generally seem to be waking up to the political situation. More than 1,500 leading business men of Chicago have formed an organiza. tion to aid the Democrats in this cam. paign. The trend of business sentiment throughout the country, whether open. ly manifested or not, is against the Republican party and the Fordney. McCumber tariff. Business men too have a special grievance against the proponent of the Republican tariff act and Attorney General Daugherty, in connection therewith. This prievance was volced by the Illinois Retail Merchants' Association in resolutions re. cently adopted as follows:

"We condemn the unfair tactics of Attorney General Daugherty in failing to make public the result of his investigation to support his charges, He charged the retailers with profittering and taking unconscionable profits and then falled to offer evidence in support of his charges or make public the results of his investigation of their prices. We ask his resignation or removal from the cabinet."

Better Farming in the Future

A leader in the boys' and girls' club work in Texas recently remarked : "If this work of training the boys and girls had been taken seriously twenty years ago, we would have had better farming in Texas today."

This worker among the boys and girls did not mean to cast any reflec. tion on the ability of the men and women who are today conducting our farms. In reality he paid them a com. pliment, for they were the boys and girls of twenty years ago and no doubt they, themselves, wish that they had had the opportunity now given to their own sons and daughters.

There are some 25,000 boys in Texas who are making a study of the agricultural, livestock, and poultry industries. Many of them will conduct the farms in Texas a few years from now. There are also several thousand girls interested in the best methods of poultry raising, and in domestic scies and who, many of them, no doubt, will take care of the farm homes of the boys. Such being the case, who doubts that coming generations of farmers will be an improvement over those we now have.

There must be progress or retrogres sion in agriculture and all its kindred lines. The members of the boys' and girls' clubs stand for better farming industry is safe in their hands .----Farm and Ranch.
