Benefiel and Langdon Plead Guilty in Lubbock

Steven Patrick Benefiel, 39, of Ranger and Dwight Anthony Langdon, 37, of Odessa, entered guilty pleas Friday, Feb. 22 in U.S. Federal Court in Lubbock.

Benefiel admitted to conspiracy of manufacturing and possessing with intent to distribute one kilogram or more of methamphetamine. He also pleaded guilty to money laundering.

Sentencing is expected after a pre-sentence report in four to six weeks. On the drug conspiracy admission, Benefiel could get 10 years to life in prison and a fine of up to $4 million.

On the laundering conviction he faces up to 20 years in prison and a fine of $500,000—twice the money laundered.

Benefiel also agreed not to contest the forfeiture of his property seized by Federal authorities after the Jan. 4 raid at his wrecker service. This includes the wrecker business, a number of vehicles, a Cessna aircraft and $50,000 in cash.

Dwight Langdon pleaded guilty to unlawfully using a telephone and carrying a firearm during a drug trafficking crime.

Langdon faces a $250,000 fine and up to 4 years in prison for the telephone conviction. On the firearms charge he faces a mandatory 5-year prison sentence and a fine of up to $250,000.

He also agreed not to contest seizure of more than $11,000 in cash from him by drug agents.

Benefiel and Langdon were arrested on drug-related charges Jan. 4, along with ten other people from Eastland County and the area. On Jan. 11 Eastland County Sheriff Dec Hogan was arrested on charges stemming from these activities. On Jan. 30 Acey Van Steel, Trooper for the Weights and Measures Dept., was indicated on charges of aiding Benefiel.

On Feb. 12 Hogan and Steel both entered guilty pleas, with Hogan pleading to obstruction of justice and Steel on running a license check for Benefiel and informing him where narcotics agents were in Eastland County.

Four others also pleaded guilty Feb. 12 to involvement with the alleged drug ring. Benefiel has been named as the head of this operation, which is said to have manufactured drugs at two locations in Eastland County and transporting the drugs as far away as Florida.

There is an update on the latest guilty pleas. On Monday, Feb. 25 another alleged "drug ring" member of the

Texas Public School Week

Open House at Schools Will Be Held Tuesday

Plans are being made to celebrate Texas Public School Week, March 4-8, in style at Rising Star Elementary. The annual event is held throughout the state of Texas and gives the general public an opportunity to visit the schools that they support with their tax dollars. The major event for the week will be Open House on Tuesday, March 5, running from 7:00 to 8:30 P.M. The entire community is invited to this exciting event. The theme of this year's Open House is "Being An American."

In conjunction with Open House an Art and Essay contest is being held. The theme of the contest is "What It Means To Be An American" with each student giving his/her interpretation of what being an American really means. The process of selecting the winner for this contest is a little bit different. Votes will be taken with the highest vote getter being the winner. Trophies will be awarded for K-1st, 2nd-3rd, and 4th-6th divisions. A class trophy will be awarded to the class receiving the largest number of votes. Each vote will cost $0.25 with all proceeds to be used for school fieldtrips.

Essays for this contest can be found in this paper. Art work will be on display beginning Friday, March 1st for public inspection in the Old Junior High Building on the Elementary campus. You may vote at anytime and up until the announcement of the winner during Open House.

The public is also invited to join the boys and girls at lunch for some special treats. The menu for week includes some special meals including roast beef, turkey potpie, and catfish. See the school menu in another part of the paper to determine what day you will join the boys and girls for lunch. Lunch is served to elementary students from 10:45 until 11:45 A.M. Secondary students enjoy lunch from 11:45 until 12:30 P.M.

Make plans now to visit your schools during Open House, Tuesday night, March 5, and Texas Public School Week, March 4-8.

Turner, Sudderth In Run-Off Saturday

Robert R. (Bob) Turner of Coleman County and Ben Doyle Sudderth of Comanche County, both Democrats, are on the ballot for the 65th District Representative Run-off Election Saturday, March 2.

Polls will be open from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m. at all nine Eastland County voting Precincts. Absentee voting has been reported as "moderate." Early voting in person closed Tuesday, Feb. 26, with a few completed mail-in ballots expected to be returned before Saturday.

Turner, first and Sudderth led eleven candidates in the 65th District Special Election on Feb. 9. This Election was called to name a successor to State Rep. Jim Parker of Comanche, who accepted an appointment from Gov. Ann Richards not long after his reelection.

Eastland County did not give either Turner or Sudderth a majority in the Feb. 9 election, but favored Richard Watson. Only 1764 out of more than 10,000 registered county voters came out to the polls.

Bob Turner, 56, lives at Voss, Texas and is a graduate of Mozelle High School. He is a rancher, retail merchant and a retired U.S. Army Lieutenant. He is President of the Panther Creek School District Board, and is currently serving his sixth year as a Director of the Texas Farm Bureau. He has visited Eastland County on Farm Bureau work, including the discussion of solid waste disposal issues.

Ben Doyle Sudderth, 58, has maintained a law office in Comanche for the last 35 years. He lives at Blanket, where he has a ranch. Sudderth graduated from Early High School and earned a jurisprudence degree from the University of Texas School of Law in 1956. He has served as an Attorney in a number of cases in Eastland County and this area.

Bob Turner

A veteran of the Texas Legislature, Sudderth represented the District from 1957 to 1960. He did not seek reelection at that time.

Six counties are included in the 65th District: Eastland, Comanche, Brown, Coleman, McCulloch, and Runnels. The election Saturday is considered an extremely important one, for the representative chosen will deal with critical legislative issues.

Brazos Electric Cooperative Has Golden Anniversary

Brazos Electric Cooperative on Wednesday celebrated the 50th anniversary of its incorporation with a reception for directors, employees and special guests at the utility's Waco headquarters. Brazos Electric was the first generation and transmission electric cooperative formed in Texas and today is the largest of nine that exist in the state.

Brazos Electric's articles of incorporation were approved by Texas Secretary of State William J. Lawson on February 27, 1941. The cooperative was the brainchild of leaders of eleven central Texas electric cooperatives which at the time were struggling to survive against poor service and high wholesale power costs. The cooperatives banded together to form their own power supplier, Brazos Electric, from which they could buy wholesale power and more importantly, gain strength through organization. They hoped eventually to build their own transmission lines and power plants to avoid relying on other power companies for their wholesale service.

"On our fiftieth anniversary, Brazos Electric is celebrating the realization of these goals," said Richard E. McCaskill, Brazos Electric's executive vice president and general manager. "Our mission has always been to provide reliable wholesale power to our members at the most reasonable cost possible. As we embark on our second 50 years, Brazos Electric and its employees remain true to our heritage of service and committed to improving the quality of life in the areas we serve."

Brazos Electric today employs about 280 people based in eight locations in Texas. The cooperative provides wholesale electric power to 20 member cooperatives, six municipal electric systems and Texas A&M University. It owns all or part of three power plants and operates more than 2,500 miles of transmission line. Power provided by Brazos Electric serves 245,000 consumers in a 66-county area of north and central Texas.

Brazos Electric has published a 168-page illustrated history book, Currents of the Brazos, that details the varied and colorful first 50 years of the cooperative. It will be available through the cooperative in March.

ECLA Is Alive, Well and Active

On Friday the Eastland County Law Enforcement Association met for a lunch at the Crossin' Restaurant in Eastland.

President J. V. Heyser officiated the meeting which included a good meal that was served to about 35 area law enforcement personnel, as well as a few guests. After the meal, Rev. John C. Jones of Cisco gave the invocation, and then the group was entertained for several minutes by retired teacher Gilbert Copeland, also of Cisco.

Then the meeting took a little more serious turn and new members were voted into the organization.

The remainder of the meeting centered around ways that the local law enforcement agency might get involved with the public, as well as help public relations.

In all, it was a very pleasant and entertaining time that gave the impression that they really care about the public, and want to show it.

MASONRY ON REVIEW Statewide Public Open House March 10

May Masonic Lodge No. 574 has joined 940 other Masonic Lodges across Texas in scheduling a simultaneous statewide Public Open House between 2 and 5 p.m. Sunday, March 10. The Lodge is located at May.

Robert Chambers, Master of the local lodge, said an open invitation is extended to anyone interested in learning more about Masonry and what Masons do.

He noted that Fred E. Allen of Mt. Pleasant, Grand Master of the 180,000 member Masonic Lodge of Texas, has defined the intent of the "showcase" open house event as being "to put Masonry on display so anyone interested can see for themselves what Masons do and have a better understanding of what Masonry is all about."

Printed cards will give brief explanations of more significant points of interest about the lodge room, including some of the more prominent symbols utilized in Masonry to teach Masonic philosophy. Best known of these symbols are the square and compasses, which identify members of the craft, together with other tools of the medieval stonemasons...builders of the great Gothic cathedrals.

Allen explained that to the three and one half million Masons in the U.S., these symbols are reminders of a Mason's duty to live by highest moral standards, to practice brotherly love, and to affirm loyalty to his country. He said Masons believe that the quality of a man's life should reflect his faith in God and his ethical ideals.

Other Masonic-related organizations are also being invited to participate in the open house program to provide insight into their particular organizations. Although not active in all communities, these affiliated Masonic groups include the York Rite, Scottish Rite, the Shrine, the Grotto, the Beauceant, Order of Eastern Star, Daughters of the Nile, Daughters of Mokanna, Order of DeMolay for Boys, Order of Rainbow for Girls and Job's Daughters, the newest entry into Texas.

Allen cited the showcase event as a first in Texas in which various Masonic and Masonic-related groups join in public display of their respective regalia and symbols in a blend of colorful pagantry open to all.

He declared an overall objective is to help dispel the misconception many people have that Masonry is a secret society. He pointed out Masonry does not conceal its existence, principles or aims. Members proudly wear insignia and Lodge buildings are well identified and often made available for appropriate community activities.

Masons collectively provide over $2 million a day and thousands of hours of service donated to worthy causes, including over $750 million every year for charitable activities.

It was further pointed out that while Masons do not solicit members, men of good character may ask to become members.

Members of May Masonic Lodge and other associated Masonic bodies will be on hand to answer questions during the public open house.

Kids Korner

by Betty Jones

The theme for Open House is Patriotism...

In Kindergarten the kids are getting ready for open house. The kids are making pop-up books and are finishing up the alphabet X Y and Z.

The first graders are just supporting the troops at war. They are being very patriotic.

In the second grade the kids are working on art and writing for open house.

The third graders are making poems of patriotism.

In the fourth grade the kids are learning about what the Pledge of Allegiance really means, they will present this at open house.

The fifth graders are writing auto-biographies, they are making insintive pockets with stickers and are making art projects about patriotic ideas.

In sixth grade the kids will have a basketball game this week. The kids are also writing a report on "How does it feel to be an American?"

Open House will be March 5 from 7:00-8:30. The assembly will be in the cafeteria. The public is welcome to visit.

by Tami Vandivere

There will be an Open House March 5 at 7:00 p.m. The elementary, jr. high and high school buildings will be open to the public.

At elementary there will be an art and essay contest. Votes will be taken during 7:30-8:00 and results will be announced at 8:30. In the television room, located in the jr. high building, a music video will be playing for viewing. Refreshments will be served in the cafeteria by the P.T.O. Mr. Mohundro would like to invite the public to come have lunch or visit a classroom during Texas Public School Week.

Mr. Stuteville would like to encourage the public to come and tour the high school campus and see what we have added to our school. The lights will be on at the football field for everyone to see the new track.

Jr. High Track

by Racheal Coleman

We're getting closer to track time. Jr. High's first track meet begins in two weeks. This track meet will be held at Baird. Coach Browning Has stated, "We'll be weaker in the field events and a little stronger in the sprints. We have a fair relay team. We have a small team overall, but hope we can be competitive and get better as the year goes on."

Coach Robby Stuteville states on his team, "The Jr. High girls are very anxious and willing to work hard and make this the best track team ever, and they have that capability." From what these coaches have told us, the Jr. High could go far in track if they practice real hard and have our support.

School Scoop

by Wendy Green

This is merely a case for super snoop Wendy Green. It could be that someone supposedly saw S.S. and B.J. being more than a little stinko Saturday night. Why were they hunting toothpaste before they went home? If J.C. and W.C. didn't party in R.S. Saturday night, then where did they go? Rumor has it that M.B., R.R., W.C. and S.B. went to Abilene for the weekend together! I wonder where! T.V. sent someone a Valentines Day flower, but I don't know who. Is it true that certain girls got MIP's this weekend? Are we having a rash of drunk drivers? Did you know that 9th grader, M.S., went to Ft. Worth with his girlfriend from May? I hope they had a chaperone! And I can't believe that D.E. doesn't have any guts. She had to get someone from May to find out who the guy in Pancho's was. Is it also a fact that some Jr. High and Soph. guys went to sleep in the back of the city dump truck while the fire alarm went off? Do we not have enough trash in this town that we have to start throwing away perfectly good humans? Did you know that Mr. Good caught a certain Soph. guy and 8th grade girl sucking face in the hall? Who drank the cooking sherry? Was it the same J.H. boys that stole and ate prego vitamin pills? I guess they're still a little happy from that. At least we know we'll have some super healthy kids around here! What's the deal around here? What kid substituted pink Exlax pills for red Skittles and then fed them to his brother? And then someone sent in that one of the Jr. High girls has really bad gas problems. Could there be a connection here? What 7th grade girl is losing her hair? I thought that sort of thing only happened to Coach Goodman! What two boys stay busy by hustling an 8th grade girl? Could she be the same one that had hickies down her back a long time ago? Mrs. Wood wants to know what Fish boys go home everyday and watch Karate movies? She also wants to know if that's why one of them never has his Math homework! What did he do Karate chop his book or something? What Fish boy was prowling through an 8th grade girls locker, and it just so happens he found a note talking about him? Guess that'll teach him to be a snoop! What Senior girl recieved a threat this weekend, lets see was it T.V. or W.G.? Can you believe that someone actually threw up in the parking lot at Wendy's? (Not Green's, at the fast food place) What Senior guy, D.A., said he was getting tired of someone? Can you believe that D.W. got a new ring. Well it may be old news, but hey its a new ring! Well it is true that a certain Junior boy was seen sucking face in the parking lot with an ex-lady cat! Gotcha B.G.! I'll bet you didn't know that all the teachers were watching out the window! Can you believe that a certain girl from

Dental Dialogue
by Cone C. Rice, D.D.S.
Professional Cleaning Best

Q. I brush my teeth three times a day, why do I need a professional cleaning?
A. A prophylaxis (cleaning) can remove stains and the hard, crusty deposit known as calculus that you can't remove with regular brushing. If calculus is left on the teeth, it causes the gums to become inflamed, and can eventually lead to gum disease. A prophylaxis creates a smooth, clean surface on the teeth, making your mouth feel fresher and you smile more attractive, and making it easier for you to floss and brush more effectively at home. It allows the dentist to make a thorough visual examination of your teeth, and alert you to any problem you may have. Since stains and calculus form at different rates in different people, ask your dentist how often your teeth need professional cleaning. CERS 104

School Essays

59. Being an American means that I am free. I can walk outside my door without getting killed. I am proud of that. I'm glad I am an American there is good food for everyone to eat. There is school for everyone to learn. That is what I think of America.

Kelly Griffin—4th

60. I'm proud to be an American. There is no slavery because after the Civil War the north freed the slaves. The land was free and you could live where you want. You can vote for who you want and when you want. They also had plenty of food and supplies. I'm proud to be an American because we're free.

Robert Schaffer—4th

61. What does being an American mean to me? It means that we have freedom to go any where we want. Also we're free to go to other countries. We're free to go and have meetings. We're free to go to find a job. We have plenty of food that some countries don't have. The best thing about America is that we have independence. Being an American is good.

P.J. Bush—4th

62. I am proud to be an American. Being an American is special to me because your free. I'm glad we won our independence from Great Britain. It's good to know you can be any religion you want to be. We have enough food to eat. That is very important. We are free to go where we want to go. That is good so we can see our relatives and friends. It's good to know you can vote for who you want. Being an American is good.

Jesse Goodman—4th

63. Freedom means to me that people need to be free. I think Americans are good friends. I'm glad I have school and I have food. I think being an American is good.

Randy McGinn—4th

64. Being an American is special to me. I'm free to do what I want to do. I'm free to go to school and speech. Independence Day is July 4, 1991. I'm proud to be an American.

April Koger—4th

65. An American means you can be free and the blacks are free to do what they want to do when they want to. And the blacks don't have to move to the back of the bus and they aren't slaves anymore.

Richard O'Connor—4th

66. I'm proud that I'm in America. When I'm in America I learn a lot of things about the first people in Texas. Such as Indians and the first explorers. There are nice people in America.

Casey Larance—4th

67. The United States flag stands for freedom to me. We have a U.S. flag that we put up in front of our school each day. We get to help raise it and some days we all go out and say the pledge to the flag. Some people call the flag Old Glory. Some call it the Stars and Stripes. The flag first had 13 stars and stripes. Now it has 50 stars, one for each state of the U.S. It has 6 red stripes and 7 white stripes. To be able to honor our flag and say the pledge to it means freedom to me.

Robert Etchison—4th

68. I feel good about being an American. I am glad because we get to do all most anything we want. I think our president is doing good about the war across the world. He is making good decisions about the war.

Well, at least we don't have to go to school all year around. We can choose what college we want to attend.

In America you can meet alot of people. You can also have a lot of friends too.

Kristie Collins—6th

69. What I like about being an American is you have free religion. You get to do anything you want to do with your life. You don't have to be a servant of a king. Most of all you have freedom. You can choose what school you want to be in. You can worship in any church you want to worship in. You can be a writer or computer programmer or you can be principal like our best principal Mr. Mohundro. You could do sports, like football, baseball, or basketball. I am thankful for men who died for country's freedom. I'm thankful for friends and teachers who put there effort to teach kids how to learn new and different words and get an education. You can get a good job. Nobody can beat you up and torture you because they will go to jail. You can't carry dangerous weapons anywhere. Laws protect you for your rights. I'm thankful for men and women that put their effort forward to keep our country's independence for the U.S. A.d Most of all that I'm free.

Johnny Salazar—6th

70. I like being an American because I know I'm free and I won't forget the men who died to make our country free. I feel good about the men and women over in Saudi Arabia fighting for other people's freedom. You can do anything you want to as long as it isn't against the law. Nobody can tell you what to do. That's why I like being an American.

Sam Stewart—6th

71. I like being an American because we are free and we can play sports. We can go anywhere we want. In America your freedoms are protected by laws. There are no more slaves in America. We can dress the way we want, and we can have our hair cut anyway we want.

Larry Burcham—6th

72. I'm glad to be an American rather than being from a different country where you are not free to do what you want. Some of our freedoms are freedoms of speech, freedom to go where we want when we want, freedom to vote, freedom to do what we want to do, and freedom to be who we want to be. Another freedom is we don't have any slavery. I like being an American because it's fun to do sports and we are free to do what we want when we want.

Eddie Schaffer—6th

73. I'm proud to live in America because you can go wherever you want and do anything. You can go camping and go visit other countries as much as you want. You can even live there. The things I don't like is that all the bad people don't ever get caught and you don't ever know if somebody is going to sneak up behind you and hurt you. The war that is going on right now in Kuwait. I wish it would stop! Saddam Hussein is an evil man. He probably wants to take over the country if he ever got his way.

I wish America didn't have so many pollutions in the air because it hurts the atmosphere and the air for the people. The oil spill they had was very bad because it always kills a lot of animals in the sea.

I'm just glad that I'm free and always protected from other countries.

I like it because the army doesn't come and get other people to go to war by bribing them.

London Ratliff—6th

74. I like being an American because no one tells you what to wear and where you can get your clothes. We can wear our clothes however we want to. We can go to whatever school we want to. The teachers cannot tell us what school or college to go to. We can play sports and whatever we want to. We can play if we want to and no one tells us to play. We can play if we want to. That is what I feel like being an American.

Lisa Bush—6th

75. I feel good about being an American with all my friends, parents, and grandparents. I like our president and the things he does and the punishment. I think the war is stupid because they should leave us alone and we should leave them alone. I really like school, college and to be free. That's what I like to be an American.

Melissa Johnson—6th

76. I think that being an American is nice, because we are free and also getting to have freedom of speech. What the armed forces are doing is what all Americans should do to help other countries have freedom too. We should also help them have the rights we have to. I don't think I could really live anywhere else without the freedom we have here in America. One is freedom is freedom of speech. In some countries the people don't have freedom of speech. I feel like other people should have the freedom we have and enjoy. When we break laws we have a fair system of justice. Being an American really means alot to me. So when other people come to America to be free we should welcome them and let them be free like us.

Shawn Harrelson—6th

77. I love being an American because we don't have to wear certain clothes. In America we can go to public schools and private schools also. We are free to play on the sidewalks. We are also free to travel anywhere we want in the United States. We have freedom to do what we like to do and say. We have the freedom to shop at malls. I don't think some of us could live without that. So all I'm saying is that I am so glad and happy that I am an American.

Courtney Ezzell—6th

78. I like being an American because you don't have to be told if your going to school to learn how to read and write or if your going to school for talent. I like being an American because they can't arrest you fro doing one little thing wrong. America is a free country. We have rights to speak, and to tell what we feel.

I AM YOUR FLAG

I was born on June 14th, 1777. I am more than just cloth shaped into a design. I am the refuge of the World's oppressed people. I am the silent sentinel of Freedom. I am the emblem of the greatest sovereign nation on earth. I am the inspiration for which American Patriots gave their lives and fortunes.

I have led your sons into battle from Valley Forge to the steaming trenches of Vietnam. I walk in silence with each of your Honored Dead, to their final resting place beneath the silent White Crosses row upon row. I have flown through Peace and War, Strife and Prosperity, and amidst it all I have been respected.

My Red Stripes--symbolizing the blood spilled in defense of this glorious nation. My White Stripes--signify the burning tears shed by Americans who lost their sons. My Blue Field--is indicative of God's heaven under which I fly. My Stars--clustered together, unify 50 states as one, for God and Country. "Old Glory" is my nickname, and proudly I wave on high. Honor Me, Respect Me, defend me with your lives and you fortunes. Never let my enemies tear me down from my lofty position. I never return. Keep alight the fires of patriotism, strive earnestly for the spirit of democracy. Worship Eternal God and keep His commandments, and I shall remain the bulwark of Peace and Freedom for all mankind

Hospital Association Sues Over Medicaid Payments

AUSTIN — The Texas Hospital Association has filed suit against the National Heritage Insurance Company and the Department of Human Services. Filed in state court, the litigation addresses inadequate payments to hospitals and administrative problems associated with the state's Medicaid program.

Medicaid, a joint state and federal program to provide health care services to the poor, covers about 1.5 million Texans who are disabled, elderly, pregnant women and children.

Eastland Memorial is a member of T.H.A.

For the first 10 months of 1990, Texas hospitals lost an average of $840 for every Medicaid patient treated, according to THA information. "In addition, in 1989, Texas hospitals provided $2 billion in uncompensated care," THA President Terry Townsend said. "Hospitals have to make up these losses. They do this through higher costs to paying patients and through higher local taxes, if the hospital is tax supported," he noted.

"Paying patients, insurers and other third-party payers are no longer willing to accept such cost shifting. Most hospitals have exhausted their reserves, and local taxpayers are overburdened. Unless government reimburses hospitals adequately for the services delivered to Medicaid patients, many hospitals will have to cut services to survive, and some will close," Townsend noted.

"When other state agencies make cuts, services get delayed or canceled. Bridges, prisons or water reservoirs don't get built," Townsend said. He added: "But, when health care is cut, people still get sick or injured and need services, or it's time for a baby to be born. And we must be there to deliver those services, regardless of the person's ability to pay."

"During the last several years, THA has pursued every legislative and regulatory avenue to achieve adequate Medicaid funding," Townsend said in today's Capitol news conference. In 1989, the 71st Legislature passed House Bill 1345 which expanded Medicaid coverage and included direction to the Texas Department of Human Services to restore 7.5 percent of the 10 percent budget reduction enacted at the governor's request in 1986.

To date, only 4.5 percent has been restored in hospital payments. The 1992-93 TDHS budget request does not seek priority funds to correct payment inadequacies.

Texas hospitals also are plagued by lengthy delays in receiving reimbursement due to slow review of administrative challenges to claims denials, Townsend said. "Litigation is now the only option remaining."

Specially, the major components of the lawsuit:

- Seek full reversal of the 10 percent budget reduction and recoupment of more than $200 million in shortfalls since 1986 which resulted from the budget reduction;
- Challenge the overall adequacy of reimbursement rates for hospitals with special focus placed on payment rates for neonatal and other services that have been inadequately paid; and
- Seek resolution of utilization review problems, including lengthy delays in obtaining administrative relief on denials.

Support Levels, Export Edible Sales Policy For 1991 Crop Peanuts Announced

The U.S. Department of Agriculture announced the national average support level for 1991 crop quota peanuts will be $642.79 per short ton, compared with $631.32 for the 1990 crop.

The following provisions were announced:

—The national average support level for additional peanuts will be $149.75 per short ton, unchanged from 1990 crop.

—1991 crop additional peanuts owned or controlled by USDA's Commodity Credit Corporation will be sold for export edible use at no less than $400 per ton, unchanged from the 1990 crop.

—The marketing assessment under the Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act of 1990 will be 0.1606975 cents per pound for quota peanuts and 0.0374375 cents per pound for additional peanuts on both growers and buyers for a total of 0.3213950 cents per pound for 1991 crop quota peanuts and 0.0748750 cents per pound for 1991 crop additional peanuts.

Producers will be responsible for payment of both the producer and grower assessment where they market the peanuts to consumers through wholesale or retail outlets, or outside the continental United States.

The Agricultural Act of 1949, as amended, requires that the national average support level for the 1991 crop of quota peanuts reflect any increase in the national average cost of peanut production for the preceding year, excluding any change in the cost of land. This law also provides that the quota support rate for the crop may not exceed the support rate for the preceding crop by more than 5 percent.

The national average support level for 1991 crop quota peanuts was increased from the 1990 level of $631.47 per short ton since the cost of producing 1990 crop peanuts was greater than the cost of producing 1989 crop peanuts.

The price support level for additional peanuts must be set at a level which ensures no loss to CCC from sales or disposal of the peanuts. In determining this level, CCC considers the demand for peanut oil and peanut meal, the expected prices for other vegetable oils and protein meals and the demand for peanuts in foreign markets. The price support levels are subject to quality and other adjustments.

Peanut Growers Approve Poundage Quotas

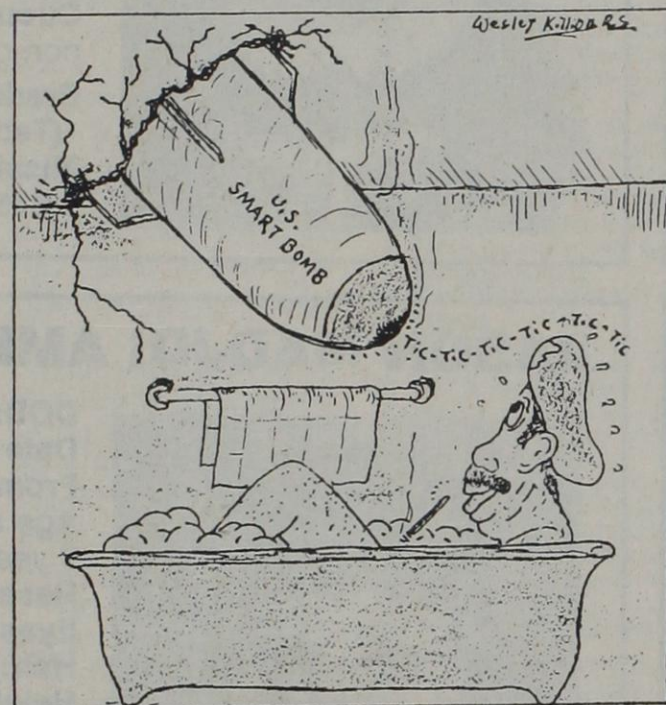

Peanut producers have approved poundage quotas for the 1991 through 1995 crops as a result of a mail referendum held Dec. 10-13, 1990, according to Keith Bjerke, administrator of the U.S. Department of Agriculture's Agriculture Stabilization and Conservation Service.

Of the 12,302 votes cast, 12,084 or 98.2 percent, favored peanut poundage quotas for the next 5 crop years, Bjerke said. Two-thirds of the farmers voting must favor continuing peanut poundage quotas for the quotas to remain in effect.

The Syrian Connection

by Wesley Killion

One of the least understood factors in the Middle East crisis is the role of Syria. Although declaring in public a great desire to expel Iraq from Kuwait, Syria's leader, Hafez al-Assad, seems to be limiting his deployed troops, consisting mainly of the Ninth Armored Division, to a largely political role.

It is no secret that Iraq and Syria are mortal enemies. Both Assad and Hussein have maneuvered for years to obtain political hegemony in the region. When Iraq invaded Kuwait and threatened Saudi Arabia, Assad realized instantly not only the potential gains Iraq could reap, mainly oil money for additional arms and access to the Persian Gulf, but he also saw a way to defeat his old enemy.

Assad is by far the wildest and most treacherous leader in the Middle East. He rules his country with an iron hand, taking advantage of every opportunity to increase his power, not only in his own country, but in the region and in the world. After Hussein invaded oil-rich Kuwait, Assad surmised correctly that the Western powers, including the United States, would react instantly to the aggression.

Throwing his lot in with the largely western coalition was a considerable step for Assad. Although not really an Arab Nationalist, something that is widely and erroneously believed in the west - Assad is an Assad nationalist - he realizes very well the importance of currying the favor of the fundamentalist regimes in the region and the Arab masses. Be that as it may, Assad did join the coalition but he did it for reasons of self interest. If the west would not have interjected its presence into the conflict, Assad would never, despite his valid reasons for doing so, have gone to war alone to remove Saddam from Kuwait. That would mean facing a threat that could not only destroy his considerable military force, but threaten as well his own regime. No, Assad will allow us to vanquish Iraq, without dirtying his own hands in the process. By involving himself in the coalition against Iraq, Assad is currying western favor, and by staying out of the actual fighting, he is maintaining his Arab support. As usual, Assad is showing his genius at mining the middle ground.

Another, possibly more important goal that Assad has, is to separate the PLO from the leadership of Yassir Arafat. It is well known that Assad would like to assume de facto leadership of the Palestinian cause, mainly to control their presence in Lebanon, a factor which could draw him into a war with Israel, a war he knows he would lose. Additionally, and along the same lines, he would like to free up the 30,000 troops he keeps in the Bekaa Valley in Lebanon, stationed in a peace keeping role, so he can redeploy them against the Golan Heights, through which lies the closest invasion route from Israel to Damascus. Control of the PLO would also give him considerable political clout in the region.

No matter how complex and circuitous Syria's tactics are in achieving its goal, the ultimate goal itself is very simple. Virtually all of the political factions in Syria, including Assad's Alawite controlled Ba'ath party, have visions of a greater Syria, an idealized state which harks back to the original area of the Levant. Geographically, this state would encompass not only Syria, but Lebanon, Jordan and Israel.

Assad knows well that Saddam Hussein, possessed with his own visions of regional hegemony, would not stand still and allow this sort of expansion by another state. Assad also knows that if the coalition can defeat Iraq militarily, and in the process engineer the downfall of Hussein, then he will be a predominant state in the area, possibly supported by the west, and well on his way to achieving his idea of a greater Syria.

It is probable that Saddam Hussein will not survive the threat that is allied against him. But if our goals for a new order include stability in the Middle Eastern region, then we must address the threat that Hafez al-Assad poses. How we do this depends largely on the outcome of the war, as well as how we project our power in the region after the hostilities cease. The first thing that must be accomplished is a considerable reduction in the amount and quality of arms shipped to the region, especially to expansionist states like Iraq, Iran and Syria. Secondly, no matter how much we dread it, a direct U.S. presence will have to be maintained in the region in order to remind those who would attempt to expand, what happened to Iraq. This presence will probably be a joint-forces base in either Saudi Arabia, or more likely, one of the Emirate states. Last, we must work to reduce our dependence on foreign oil, this is one of the main driving forces of conflict in the region, the economic gains that result from controlling those resources are a powerful temptation to men like Saddam Hussein and Hafez al-Assad, men who live to rule not only their own, but all those too weak to defend against their oil funded weaponry.

A lot of countries will have to be on board to achieve this goal, and some form of international laws, backed up by sanctions, will have to be implemented in order to stop the arms flow. And for us, a national energy policy, one which we may not like, may have to be imposed in order to stop the forces that might fuel future wars. Due to our military, economic and moral might, we are the ones who will have to initiate such changes. If we do not, then we threaten not only our national wealth, but the lives of our youth, who ultimately must correct any miscalculations in our foreign policy.

School Essays

34. In America I have a nice Teacher called Mrs. Cook. I am glad I live in America because some other countries do not even go to school. I have two nice parents. Some kids in other countries do not even have parents and they go everywhere by themselves. In America I can make friends. I'm glad to live in America because we have doctors and other countries don't. We also have stores for food and in America we have clothes stores for clothes to put on. We have shelter and homes. We have a President that takes care of our country. I feel free in my country. I am so glad I was born in America. I guess I just go lucky that time.
Weldon Thompson—2nd

35. One summer my family and me went to a little lake in the middle of a large forest. When we got there I noticed that there were little animals scurrying all over the place. I ran to the motorhome to get my family. It was the most beautiful thing I had ever seen. It made me think how wonderful it is to live in America with so much freedom. I'm glad to have the freedom that I have in America. I'm also happy that we have the freedom of speech and can say what we want to say. I'm also glad that we can go to school and learn what we need too. I'm glad that some of our soldiers would fight for us so we could be free. They fought for our country. I'm so glad to be so free. I'm proud to be an American.
Lindee Wolf—2nd

36. More than 1000 people died for old glory and so we could be free. A lot of other people do not have what we have. A long, long, time ago people called Pilgrims lived in Plymouth Rock. There was a wicked king that would not let the Pilgrims go to their won church. So they set sail for America so they could be free. The Vietnam Wall has all the mens names that died in Vietnam on that wall. They are still finding dead people from the war. The Statue of Liberty stands so people in America will know we are free. I'm glad to be an American. I'm proud of the U.S.A.

Maci Calborn—2nd

37. I like being in America. I am proud that I am in America because there is freedom here and you can do anything you want to do. Here you can ply and eat. If you were in Europe you wouldn't have that much food. On Firday if there isn't school you can sleep all day. The flag is special to me. I like the flag because it reminds me about eh war. The war has to stay up at night. It's fun to be in America.
Bubba Koger—2nd

38. I like America I am proud to be an American because there is plent of food to buy. We are free to do anything except things against the law. If you break the law it is bad because you will get a ticket. That is why it is bad to break the law. I like living in America.
Adam McKenzie—2nd

39. I'm glad to live in America because I'm free. And I have doctors and food and shelter. I get to do a lot of things. I'm glad to live here because I can go to my on church. I can go to school. And I can wear clean clothes. I don't have a king to tell me what to do. I only have my parent's here to tell me what do. But they tell me the right things to do In America I can have my friends that I want. In America you can buy stuff that you want and you can move when you want. I love America.
Andy Rutledge—2nd

40. It means a lot to me to be an American. If I did not have freedom I probably would not be here right now. If we did not have rights It would not be any fun. Like if a burgular robbed a store and took everything there would not be anything left and that would be bad. You would get thrown in jail. You also have freedom of speech. That is here you speak what you. Having so many freedoms means a lot to me as an American.

Jonathan Curtis—3rd

41. What does it mean to be an American? Being an American means very much to me because every American is free. I'm glad I live in a country that fights for one another and in a country that is full of properity. I'm glad we have justice for all, freedom of speech, and freedom to vote it's great to be an American. I have patriotism for the flag. I glad we freedom to worship. Freedom to travel anywhere. That's what it means to be an American to me.
Blair Bailey—3rd

42. What it means to be an American. I know most people know what it feels like to be an American, but some people don't even like the country their living in. But in America most people like living in America because America has freedom. A long time ago in Indian time they didn't have freedom they had to do what the king wanted them to do. When they heard about America they wanted to go there because there they could have freedom. So they finally decided to sail off to America on the Mayflower so they could have freedom in America. When they got there they were so suprised! No longer was anyone telling them how to worship. And now when I look at the flag I feel a certain bit of pride that I live in America because it is a country that gurantees many freedoms for everyone. And that why I feel great about being an American.
Amy Agnow—3rd

43. It means freedom and justice. It means I can worship the way I want to. It means I can make a speech when I want to. It means I have the freedom to vote. It means freedom to hold meetings. It almost ameks me cry when we seng patriotic songs because I think about all the men who have fought for our country.

Heath Lee—3rd

44. I love to be an American because everytime I hear a commerial about the U.S.A. it make's me feel good about the U.S.A. Everytime I read about the U.S.A. a long time ago when my great great grandma was alive in the U.S.A. I feel good about reading about the U.S.A. I also feel sorry for the people that died in Saudi Arabia if they were somebody's friends I am real sorry. My friend and I have been singing songs about the America and it is fun. When I sing these songs, read about the U.S. or see something on the news it makes me very happy to be an American.
Chrystal Canales—3rd

45. My priviledge to be an American is that I have other rights that other people don't have. I feel good to be an American because I can choose things for myself other people can't push me around like they do. To have freedom to do a lot of things. I can buy my own food. I can like any picture I want to, and I can pick my own Christmas card. I have lot of priveleges as an American I realize that I can do a lot of things as it is not against the law. And I hope Sadam Hussien prays for himself and knows he is doing wrong. I can worship anybod I want to. If I was not in America I would not be free. Like on a quarter it says in God we trust. I care about those in war. I also care if they get hurt but I but I am very produ of what they are doing for the U.S.A. I am very proud to be an American because of all the priviledges it gives me.

Tabitha Barnhart—3rd

46. To me being an American means caring about other people. I wish the people in Saudi Arabia could come home from the war. I wish the world was a better place so we wouldn't have to fight in a wqar. I wish the people could get along in the world. Sometimes I feel alone like no one is around me and the world is blank. I wish the poor people could be treated right and the homeless people could have a home. I know since Americans care about each the world can be a better place.
Lacy Knight—3rd

47. I pledge the alleignce to the flag of the United States of America. And to the republic for widges stands. One nation under God indivisible with liberty and justice for all. BEing an American means to be free having equality. America means to have free speeches and have laws for the criminals.
Jessica Holman—3rd

48. I'm gload to be an American. I have the right to worhips who I want to. I can go to any church I want to. I feel lad to be an American because I have as much rights as I want. I'm glad to live in America because we have different right than other countries. When I look at the flag i think of all the men that did for us and risk their lives for us. I also think of Betsy Ross beacuse she made the first flag of America. I sure am glad I live in America.

Jerrel Scott Harris—3rd

49. I am proud to be an American because I have the freedom of speech and the right to worship the way I want. When I hear a patriotic song I think of the people in Saudi Arabia.
Matt Chancellor—3rd

50. I like to be an American because at least I know I'm free. Americans help people if they are sick and hurt. To be an American is important. Americans care about people and animals. I am glad to be an American where people care for my family. In Saudia Arabia some Americans are in war today. I care about them in war and don't want them to get hurt beacuse American care about each other. Being an American means being free and caring about other people.
Lupe Aguilar—3rd

51. It means a lot to me. If I didn't live in America I probably wouldn't have freedom. As an American I have equal rights. when I say the pledge it makes me feel proud. It makes me feel like crying and it ames me proud of my country.
Melissa Hollis—3rd

52. It's great to be an American. Being an American lets me know I have equal rights. I get to say what thoughts I have in public. I get wo worship in my own manner or religion. We get to respect the only "Old Glory." We get to sing about our flags.

I get to vote for whoever I want to when I'm 18. I get to learn about history of the U.S. I get to read the Bible. I also get to see Statues of presidents. I get to have liberty and juste for all. I really like getting to see the Statue of Liberty and going inside her. I get to have justice and freedoms. Being an American allows me freedom other countries don't tallos. I'm glad to an American.
Kory Collins—3rd

53. Being an American to me is having equal rights as everyone else. I can make a speech when ever I want. And do anything I want as long it is not against the law. I feel sorry for the colored people the way they treated them a long time ago. I feel sorry for the children whose mothers and fathers are in the Middle East.
Dusty Watson—3rd

54. I'm gload to be an American because I have many rights. I have the right ot stand up and talk and I have the right to ride my bike anywhere I want to. when I think of America I think of the men in Saudi Arabia fight and I think of the flag because it is red, white, and blud. And I like these colors. The flag is important because it is the heart of God and I think of God because he serves the world. I'm glad I'm an American.
Melissa Fry—3rd

55. I am proud to be an American because we are free and we have plenty of food. The really great thing about it though is that there is no slavery. God Bless America and everyone who lives here.

Joey McKenzie—4th

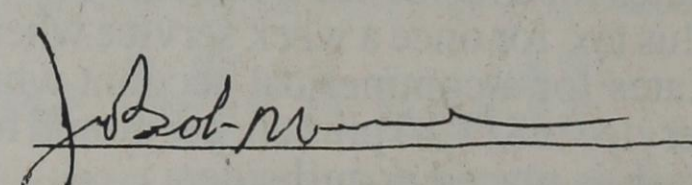

56. Being an American means being free. We have enough food and some countries don't. We also have independence. I am glad I'm free to go to school. I love the stars and stripes. I'm free to have religion. America is good.
Racheal Bush—4th

57. I am proud to be an American because at least i know I'm free. the land we live on has opportunity. We have stars and strips that stand for the fifty states and the thirteen colonies. the untied States of America has independence. The land of america has good food and enough water. the great thing about the United States is that is has no slavery. United States is a great place and it has alot of space. The United States has alot of peace too. There is no other country that rules our country. I love being an American because it means alot to me. I have good people that can take there time to teach me and my friends in school. it's great to be an American.
Bridget Claborn—4th

58. Being an American is fun. Freedom menas when your free and you get to do anything you want to do. The two flags in Texas are the U.S. flag and the Lone Star flag. Independence means that you can do things by yourself. On a ranch you raise livestock. Mountains are bigger than hills. When we go to the river we go fishing. Timothy Rimer—4th
