Lakewood Pool Open

The membership of Lakewood Recreation Center has reached 135 and is still growing. The golf course is in. excellent shape and being further conditioned to accomodate two tournaments during the last days of June and the July holidays.

The pool is now open at 1 p.m. and the charge is $1.50 for children 10 years and older and $1.00 for the younger swimmers. Swimming lessons are planned for warmer mornings later in the season. Members, of course, swim free and have full access to the golf course. If you are interested becoming member, the charge is $20.00 a month and you should call Andy Griffin at 643-4082 or Juanita Harlow at 643-7792.

Mr. and Mrs. Harlow are the Center's operators.

There was a big turnout last week for a covered dish supper and Bingo. An icecream and cake supper is the suggested membership event for the last of June or early July. However, this may be replaced by a fish fry-it's all a matter of taste and hasn't been decided yet.

Unless you have a Bank Draft, please pay your dues at the Club's Pro Shop or mail them

Though demonstrative religion is not her style, her life and ministry are evidence of "the fruits of the Spirit" as given in Gal. 5:22 and 23. Windfall Profits Tax Being Discussed

Senator Lloyd Bentsen urged members of the Texas Independent Producers and Royalty Owners Association (TIPRO) at their annual meeting to continue their efforts to pass legislation which would exempt the first 1,000 barrels a day from the windfall profit tax.

Bentsen told the group at the Fort Worth meeting, "We must push for this exemption for it places an unnecessary and unfair burden upon the oil industry when they can least afford it and when this country needs the energy to further reduce its dependence on foreign oil." Bentsen further stated, "I think you have a good chance of winning in the House, and if so, I think we will have an excellent chance to pass it in the Senate this year."

Texas Congressman Kent Hance, sponsor of the legislative proposal in the U.S.House of Representatives, also encouraged TIPRO members to push for passage of the legislation. Hance stated, "We have obtained 205 cosponsors of the exemption. It is important that each of us do everything possible to obtain an additional 13 cosponsors to acquire the majority percent over last year.

necessary passage."

Senator Bentsen has introduced legislation in the Senate, S.B.85, and Congresman Hance in the House, H.R.2451, which would exempt royalty owners and independent producers from the first 1,000 barrels per day of oil production from the windfall profit tax.

Other congressional leaders addressing the nearly 800 convention attendees Senator John East and Texas Congressman Phil Gramm, Bill Archer, Tom Loeffler, and Charles Stenholm.

TIPRO, an Austin -based organization, has been actively involved in the effort to gain support of legislation introduced in Washington by Senator Bentsen and Congressman Hance which would reduce the burden of the windfall profit tax on the independent oil and gas producer and royalty owner.

Tuesday we had a fantastic Bingo game. It didn't take long for there were quite a few winners all at once. The winners were: Mary Hord (2 games), Martha Irby (3 games, Maggie Christian (2 games), Mary Crisp and Mary Hammett.

The cooks in the kitchen appreciate the ladies helping peel potatoes once in a while. Besides, it makes lunch taste so much better if you have a hand in fixing it.

Friday, Bible Study was cut short because we were to have a staff meeting. Instead of a lesson they had a singalong led by Mildred Parnell, the administrator. It was a very nice week, even though we were in the process of changing administrators.

We have two residents in the hospital. They are Maggie Christian at West Texas Medical Center and John Barr at Eastland Hospital. We hope they will return to us soon.

P.S. If you have any small trinkets such as jewelry, pins, etc.; that you no longer have a use for, we would like to have it for our Bingo games. They would be greatly appreciated.

THE OLD ROCKING CHAIR

I saw an old Mother with silvery hair. She seemed SO neglected by those who should care.

Rocking all alone in an old rocking chair. Her hands are all caloused and wrinkled and old, A life of hard work was the story they told.

And I thought of angels as I saw her there, Rocking alone in an old rocking chair.

Bless her heart do you think she complained, Tho life had been bitter, she'd live it again. And carry the cross that is more than her share, Rocking alone in an old rocking chair.

It wouldn't take much to gladden her heart, Just some small remembrance on somebody's part,

A letter would brighten her empty life there, Rocking alone in an old rocking chair.

I know of some children in an orphans home,

Who'd think they owned heaven if she was their own.

They'd never be willing to let her sit there, Rocking alone in an old rocking chair. I look at her and I think what a shame, The ones that forgot her she still loves the Thursday, June 11, 1981

Congressional Comment

Washington, D.C.-A four-year omibus Farm Bill has been formally voted out of the House Agriculture Committee that, if passed by this Congress, is in many ways unacceptable to U.S.farmers and ranchers.

I have personally fought many of the proposals in that bill throughout the drafting process and, having failed to revise some of the more unacceptable elements, will introduce an amendment calling for the expiration of the legislation at the end of the 1982 crop year.

The Farm Bill, as approved by the Committee, does not address the current problem facing agriculture and that is profitability in the marketplace. We must have programs that will enable the farmer to receive a reasonable profit on his investments. The question that I have continued to raise is why we should continue the same programs that have placed our farmers in such critical financial conditions. We need to look at alternatives that will address this problem in a more favorable and realistic

As a farmer, I know and realize that we cannot continue to operate as we have in the past if we are to survive. We cannot produce at an unprofitable level indefinitely. We must have agriculture prices on a paying basis if we are to continue to have a plentiful supply of food and fiber.

As a Congressman, I just don't believe that we have done our best for the farmers of this country through this legislation and in calling for the unusual one-year bill I hope that we can at least "cut our losses" to the greatest extent possible.

I strongly favor a permanent change from the traditional practice of drafting new agricultural legislation in the opening days of a new administration and a new Congress.

The first few weeks of a new Congress and a new administration are very chaotic under the best of conditions and this is certainly no time to be writing legislation of the importance of the 1982 Farm Bill. Congress and its committees need several weeks to organize and to become effective. At the same time, a new administration usually takes several weeks or months to get personnel on board and even longer to determine specific policy goals.

Due to the requirements of the Congressional Budget Act, we find ourselves in the position of writing four-year legislation before any one has a good idea of what direction they want to go.

I believe that by passing a one-year bill this session and a four-year bill next year, Congress can give the legislation the careful consideration it deserves.

Homes for Foreign Students Sought in Rising Star Area Thursday, June 11, 1981

Home for foreign high school students wanting to come to the United States and learn about middle income American family life are being sought by area representatives of the Youth Exchange Service (YES). Rev. and Mrs. Don Jeffreys of Trinity Baptist Church, Sweetwater, Texas the representatives of YES, based in San Clemente, California. "We want to place one or two students in the Rising Star area and are looking for homes to provide temporary lodgings, meals and

The students are carefully screened by the YES home office. "We want only the top class students from other countries in this program." The families are screened by the Jeffreys'. Single Adult homes may also be acceptable to host a student. The students are between 15 and 18 years of age and because of their economic backgrounds in their home countries, these students are potential national leaders in the future.

"We don't want them to be guests in your home," Jeffreys said, "but want them to become a part of your family during the stay here. We want them to learn about middle American family life so when they return home, and for those who do become national leaders, they will have had an experience Americans."

Most of the students come from South America and Europe. YES tries to match as nearly as possible the likes, dislikes, hobbies, interests, and personalities to the same characteristics of the host families.

Recent students from the YES have Roby, visited Amarillo, Graford, Oldham and Hawley. The Jeffreys' were among the first families in Texas to host a student under this program with their student coming from Brazil. Other students currently in Texas are from El Salvador, Mexico, Argentina and Germany.

This is one of the best educational methods available for children in the home—whether young or teenage. Participation in the program as a host or hostess also makes teenage children eligible to become exchange students in a foreign country if they are interested.

The exchange program arranges transportation, medical coverage, and arrival and departure dates for the students. For more information on the program, contact the Jeffreys' at 915-235-4822, or 915-235-2991. In order for students to arrive for the fall school term host families need to apply as soon as possible, preferrably by June 15. Applications need to be in by October 1, for a student to arrive in December or January.

Assistance for Elderly Available

Low income families containing members age 65 and older may receive needed assistance in July to help cooling their homes. Under the cooling phase of the federally-funded Home Energy Assistance Program (HEAP), the Texas Department of Human Resources (TDHR) proposes to make a one-time-only payment to qualifying Supplemental Security Income, food stamps, and Aid to Families Dependent with Children households.

program The established by Congress in 1980 provided assistance this past winter to approximately 475,000 needy families distributing $25 million in benefits. Because of the harsh effect of Texa summer heat on elderly perons, participation will be limited to low income households containing elderly persons.

Under TDHR's plan, those households with elderly persons not receiving an automatic payment, may apply between August 3 and August 31, 1981. Each county in Texas will have a designated location where members of such households can apply.

household's resources cannot exceed $1800 for one person or $3000 for more than one person. The value of a homestead, cars, personal and household belongings will not be considered as resources. All household income must be verified and gross monthly income cannot exceed the following limits:

Number of Persons Income Limit 3.....$613 4...... 5..... 6.....$1044

Those individuals or groups wishing to comment on this proposed plan should do so by June 9, 1981. Comments should be addressed to Ms. Susan Johnson, Handbook and Procedures Division 444-B, Texas Department of Human Resources, P.O. Box 2960, Austin, Texas

FIRST UNITED METHODIST CHURCH

We had a wonderful day last Sunday as we observed Pentecost. God blessed us all in very special ways. After the morning worship service, we drove out to the Amity Community to join the wonderful people in their Homecoming celebration. hearts were warmed by the friendship of old friends and new friends. Our bodies were nourished by the tables of delicious food. I am told that Amity means friendship, and friendship was present on every face and in every handshake. Our heart rejoiced at the large number of people who were present for our evening worship service. After the evening service, we were told that we would have homemade ice cream, cake and punch in the Fellowship Hall. Joyce and I were completely surprised to find the Church members and dear friends had gathered to give us an fashioned Methodist pounding. We thank each one of you from the bottom of our hearts for your generosity and love. The Apostle Paul writing about love had this to say, "If I speak in the tongues of men and of angels, but have not love, I am a noisy gong or a clanging cymbal. And if I have Prophetic powers, and understand mysteries and all knowledge, and if I have all faith, so as to remove mountains, but have not love, I am nothing. If I give away all I have, and if I deliver my body to be burned, but have not

I gain nothing. Love is patient and kind; love is not jealous and boastful; it is not arrogant or rude. Love does not insist on its own way; it is not irritable or resentful; it does not rejoice at wrong, but rejoices in the right. Love bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things. Love never ends; as for prophecies, they will pass away: as for tongues, they will cease; as for knowledge, it will pass away. When I was a child, I spoke as a child, I thought like a child; but when I became a man, I gave up childish ways. For now we see in a mirror dimly, but then face to face. Now I know in part; then I shall understand fully. So faith, hope, love abide, these three, but the greatest of these is love. 1st Corinthians Chapter 13. Thank you for being loving people. As we begin the new Conference year let us resolve that we will refuse to see, think of, or deal with our neighbor except in the light of what Christ has done for him or her, as a brother or a sister for whom Christ died. The Grace of the Lord Jesus Christ be with you all is my prayer. Bill Easley, Pastor

THE RELEVEL HERE HERE HERE COMMENTARY

By Myrtle Owen

Sammannannan Scriptural Bondage, Today there are many Christians that have been deceived by the evil one. Satan is called the deceiver. His ability is in his deception. Jesus stripped him of his authority and power. God's Word will always strip the armour from satan and bring to light his deception. Deception is his only armour. God's Word will penetrate that armour and expose him. Many are held in bondage by quoting scriptures? Now the enemy knows a few scriptures but he will quote them out of context you can make the Bible say anything you want it to say. For example, the Bible says that Judas went out and hanged himself. Then in another place Jesus said "go thou and do likewise." If you take these two scriptures out of context and put them together you could say that the Bible says it is all right to go hang yourself. Well, some folks have. They have hung themselves

people in bondage because they seem to say things which they do not say at all. If you learn to rightly divide the Word, it will produce liberty. It will also produce power and strength in your life. Just as food will produce physical strength for the body, so will the Word of God produce spiritual strength for the spirit man. We need to feast on the Word and be doers of it. It is written; on the mount of temptation (Luke 4) Jesus spoke three words that shook the foundation of Satan's kingdom beyond repair: "IT IS WRIT-TEN." Jesus stood on a sure foundation and refused to speak anything except what His Father said. Notice, when all else failed to move Jesus Off the Word, Satan himself began to quote scripture. The last and greatest of all decption is to take the Word out of context and distort it to make it say something different spiritually by doing so.

Certain scriptures hold

Grasshopper Control Underway

from the true meaning.

An airborne spray program is under way right now to save farmers, ranchers and consumers money. The Rangeland Grasshopper Control Program has initiated as part of an ongoing effort to combat this summer's heavy infestations of grasshoppers in cattle-producing areas.

According to Ron Johnson, staff officer with the U.S. Department of Agriculture's Animal and Plant Health Inspection Service, as many as 30 million acres of rangeland are infested with high levels of grasshoppers. The result is millions of dollar's worth of losses of valuable livestock forages.

Since 10 to 15 percent of infested acreage normally is treated, Johnson says five to seven million acres may have to be treated this summer. More than 5.3 million acres in 1980 and approximately 7.1 million in 1979 were treated as part of this program.

The spray program is organized on a local area basis and is reguired to meet certain criteria, including: An economic infestation of grasshoppers (usually eight per square yard) must be present; a proposed spray area must have at least 10,000 acres; everyone in the spray area must participate; and the landowner's money must be on deposit. The key to making the program work on a local level is spraying a large enough block to deter re-infestation of grasshoppers from untreated areas, according to Johnson. Two insecticides are in used government-sponsored program: SEVIN 4 OIL carbaryl and ULV Malathion. According to Northwest area APHIS director Dick Jackson, Seattle, these two insecticides were chosen for "their relatively low mammalian toxicity, lack of environmental persistence and excellent grasshopper control capabilities."

> FIRE DEPT. NEWS

The Rising Star Rural Volunteer Fire Dept. have been getting in quite a bit experience foghting oil tank fires lately. In April there was an oil tank fire on the Ray Rankin place northwest of May. Brownwood, May, Cross Plains and Rising Star fire departments all worked with that fire. About a week later a tank was on fire at the Joe Brown place south of the Pioneer cemetery. Cross Plains and Rising Star fought it. Over Memorial weekend there was a tank fire north of Rising Star close to the Ray Agnew farm. Cross Plains also helped Rising Star with that fire. On June 4 Cisco gave Rising tank fire on the Bob Shults place.

Star a hand with the

The Dept. appreciates the donations which have been made lately.
