I AM A SICK AMERICAN. . .

There are those that claim ours is a "sick" society; that our country is sick; that we are sick. Well, maybe they're right. I submit that I'm sick. . . and maybe you are, too. I am sick of having policemen ridiculed and called "pigs" while cop killers are hailed as some kind of folk

I am sick of being told that religion is the opiate of the people. . .but marijuana should be legalized.

am sick of being told that pornography is the right of a free press, but freedom of the press does not include being able to read the Bible on school grounds.

I am sick of commentators and columnists canonizing anarr olutionaries and criminal rapists, but condemning law enforcement when such criminals are brought to justice.

I am sick of paying more and more taxes to build schools while I see some faculty members encouraging students either to tear them down or burn them.

I am sick of Supreme Court decisions which turn criminals loose on society - while other decisions try to take away my means of protecting my home and family.

 I am sick of being told that policemen are mad dogs who should not have guns - but that criminals who use guns to rob, maim and murder should be understood and helped back to society.

I am sick of being told it is wrong to use napalm to end a war overseas - but if it's a molotov cocktail or a bomb at home, I must understand the provocations.

I am sick of not being able to take my family to a movie unless I want to have them nudity, to homosexuality and glorification of narcotics.

I am sick of pot smoking entertainers deluging me with their condemnation of my moral standards on late night television.

I am sick of riots, marches, protests, demonstrations, confrontations, and the other mob temper tantrums of people intellectually incapable of working within the system.

I am sick of hearing the same phrases, the same slick slogans, the cries of people who must chant the same thing like zombies because they haven't the capacity for verbalizing thought.

I am sick of reading so - called modern literature with its kinship to what I used to read on the walls of public toilets.

I am sick of those who say I owe them this or that because of the sins of my forefathers - when I have looked down both ends of a gun barrel to defend their rights, their liberties and their families.

I am sick of cynical attitudes toward patriotism. I am sick of politicians with no backbone.

I am sick of permissiveness.

I am sick of the dirty, the foulmouthed, the unwashed.

I am sick of the decline of personal honesty, personal integrity and human sincerity.

Wildcats Tumble 36 - 8

By Johnny Sansom

The Meridian Yellow Jackets put an array of Rising Star mistakes together Friday night and came up with a 36 - 8 victory. The Young Cats seemed to be on defense the whole night. A blocked kick and an intercepted pass gave halftime.

The Cats suffered a tremendous blow when their fine fullback - linebacker Alvin Spencer was hurt in the second quarter. The last word I had was that Alvin will be out the rest of the year.

Praise the Lord, we have another day for the Lord Jesus to live in and through us. So often in our life we have days in which we say what is the use in living? I guess everyone has his answer to this question but the best answer is God has a purpose for my life. Each day that we enjoy life there is a purpose far beyond any physical or material reason we might give and this is especially true for the born again believer. The Word of God says "Sanctify the Lord God in your hearts, and be ready always to give an answer to every man that asketh you a reason of the hope that is in you..." I Peter 3:15. Our purpose in life is to lift up the Lord Jesus for he states, "If I be lifted up, I will draw all men unto me". again meaning we are to bear testimony of Him.

Sunday was a wonderful Lord's day. We had two of the most wonderful services Sunday that we have ever had. I pray that we continue to come to the throne of grace humbly that the Lord might continue to pour out His blessings upon us. I wish just to express my thanks to both the Adult and the Youth Choir for the job they did on our services Sunday. Continue to allow the Lord to sing through you. Also the combined choirs have begun work on the Christmas music. If you should be in the Adult or Youth Choir we would love to have you sing in our Christmas music.

Next week is the Nationwide Conference or Revival in San Antonio. Linda and I will be attending this throughout the week. We will be praying for you as we are gone. Jeff will be in charge of the Wednesday evening service. Pray for us that we might return to you having learned much from God's men and the Holy Spirit.

Let's make Sunday 'Praise the Lord Day', the message Sunday morning will be on giving God the praise. This is an area that is greatly misunderstood in our Christian realm today. Pray that the Lord might lead and teach us how to praise His holy name. Happy in Jesus, Bro. Monte Recently I read of a Christian farmer who was spending the day in a large city. Entering a restaurant for his noon meal, he found a table near a group of young men. Quietly he bowed his head and gave thanks to God. One young man, observing this, yelled out in a loud voice, "Hey, farmer, does everyone do that where you come from?" The old man looked at the youth and said, "No, son, the pigs don't."

We are thankful to the Lord that recently our attendance and contribution have been improving and the interest in the Lord's work seems to be increasing.

Our fourth After - game Fellowship for teenagers was last Friday night following our football game. The final one in this series will be November 17. We have had great attendance and interest in these informal get - togethers.

Sunday night the pre - teens will meet at 5:55 p.m. for a discussion period and devotional at their Young People's Meeting.

You are invited to our worship service Sunday. My morning sermon will be "The Awfulness of Apostasy" and Sunday evening's will be "What Shall I Do With Jesus?" Come and study God's word with us.

Jesus said that the first and greatest command is that we are to love God with everything we have (Mk. 12:29, 30). To love God, one must also love his fellow men (I Jn. 4:20, 21). Love is demonstrated by one's daily living. Christians will demonstrate their love for both God and man by the concern shown in their daily lives.

Consumers Report

Thursday, November 9, 1972 Page 4

"I'm a consumer with a complaint. Who will help me?"
Because there are so many things to complain about, and because there are so many state agencies to deal with, it's difficult for the consumer to know exactly who he should contact.

Many complaints come to my Consumer Protection Division which should go to another state agency. For example, my office receives complaints regarding insurance matters.
The Texas Deceptive Trade Practices Act, however, does not in any way apply to the insurance industry.

While such compalints are forwarded to the Texas Insurance Commission, the regulatory body in this area, an unnecessary time loss has resulted. By sending your complaint directly to the state agency having primary jurisdiction in the matter, you accomplish two things. You know that the proper agency is made aware of the problem, and, if necessary, can take precautions to prevent such practices in the future. Also, you are assured of having your complaint reviewed by a specialist in the appropriate agency who deals with similar problems every day.

The hymnal service was directed by John Wessler of Arenzville, Illinois. The message at the evening service concerned "The Good USamaritan". Brother Gross hails originally from Chandler, Arizona. He is scheduled to visit again Sunday week.

To help avoid delays in the solution of your problems, for the next few weeks we will discuss some of the more important State Agencies which are concerned with various consumer matters.

We will talk about the Insurance Commission,
Securities Commission,
Department of Agriculture,
Education Agency, Motor Vehicle Commission, Consumer Credit Commission and the Railroad Commission. We know you will find their activities on your behalf both interesting and informative.

"WITH THE BOOKWORMS"

We librarians have an easy system in which to find any book in the library. This system week and are going to have , is called a card catalog. The card catalog has in alphabetical order the author a person, a society or institution, a government or state department, title - the first word of the title (disregarding the articles a, an, and the), and subject - typed in red or black capital letters of the book. The classification or call number in the upper left corner of the catalog card indicates the location of the book on the shelf. All books are arranged in alphabetical order according to the last name of the author with the exception of biography, which is arranged in alphabetical order according to the last name of the person written. Any librarian will be happy to assist you in using the card catalog and in finding the book you want.

Till next week,

Thoughts are now turning to the approach of basketball since football season is nearing completion. The bonfire was held last Thursday night; it was well attended and the spirit was good.

This is six weeks' test week, so students are really hitting the books. With everything that goes on, we still have grades to keep up and learn new things each day.

The annual staff has canceled and bake at 400 degrees until the pancake supper this Saturday night. We are sorry about this, but it is all due to circumstances beyond our control.

"NOT FINISHED -

As you can read, we have not been too busy!! English has finished us off again with our second six weeks' test, and Bookkeeping has brought us our second unit test which covers about five chapters. Everyone did well (I think). In Typing Mr. Hill had to refuse an interested student since she was furry, had four legs, and couldn't understand English. In case you are wondering, this was a stray cat that got into the typing room while we were typing away at Unit 9. Civics still has current events and something new, well not new, but it has not been You must seek Him in the around for a while. That is to say a test! It is that time again; another six weeks is gone. It seems as if we just finished one six weeks' term and here comes another. The Juniors are really trying to make good grades this year. It would help for all to turn in their book reports and term themes on time. We are getting better in American History really working hard! We answer the questions out of the book and the review questions Mr. Nunnally gives us. We are still trying to understand our chemistry and Algebra II. Some days it seems easy, but others we are absolutely lost. We are really getting good at typing or at least we think so. "STEP BY STEP"

Feet, inches, centimeters, milliliters, and scientific notation. These are the things that are getting us in Physical Science, but come on Sophs., let's pick it up and show Mr. Gray that we can do it. In English we are beginning a new unit called "Essays and

In World History the tests are getting harder, but the chapters are getting more interesting. We have just begun the study of China and Japan. Remember when China had a wall around it and new Germany has one. This reminds me of the Joneses trying to keep up with the Smiths.

Now that Hallowe'en is over, we shall start thinking about Thanksgiving and be thankful for all the many wonderful things God has given us.

The bonfire was a little hot but it was fun. All the football boys were pinned by the girls; then we had a few yells to build the spirit of the game.

Did you ask if the Sophs had spirit? You had better believe we do; we are going to keep it and show the people and the boys at the game.

Let's back the Wildcats!!

"IN THE FISHBOWL"

Hi! All you people out there in fish country. All twenty - seven of us are still swimming.

In English I Madame Defarge is knitting away as we continue reading "A Tale of Two Cities". I don't think anyone can stand the suspense of not knowing what is ahead; I know I cannot!

In Biology we are starting the study of viruses. Imagine something as small causing so much "trouble". Can you think of singing Christmas carols in October; that is just what the P.E. girls are doing.

Math still seems as easy as ever, but we had better keep at it; those stated problems may get some of us yet.

Just a little quick reminder; watch your step. Remember what happened to S.W. and N.T. (it was really kind of funny.)

Back here next week,

Bonnie "TOWARD NEW HORIZONS"

Six Weeks again! I know everyone is wondering how grades will come out. Last week was a different line of work in homemaking classes. We saw some great films on child birth and dope. I think we will all agree, they were good and revealing.

The first year girls have not said how their pies resulted last week. Someone may be keeping secrets!!! What about it??

The Sophomores are sewing fun - fun - fun! That class really keeps things happening! Last week Debbie W. decided to sew her hem with two needles. She may have something there, but I doubt Third year girls are cooking; I am not sure what, but I hear they are still cooking. We all really like homemaking and your last chance for this classes. There is never a dull year to travel to see the "Cats" moment!? Be nice!

"BETTER DAYS THROUGH BETTER WAYS"

"Who threw that egg?" was a familiar cry that echoed through the streets of most small towns on October 31, as hen houses were locked and egg prices rose higher and higher.

The price of an ungraded egg rose as much as forty cents! Almost everyone was looking out for some kind of prank to leave them with either a house gift wrapped in toilet tissue or scrambled eggs delivered to their door. (If it is true that egg whites have a tendency to turn hair lighter, then I know several people who should have white hair by now. (Right, Craig?) I guess I could ask

I recently read of an experiment conducted by a group of noted scientists. calculated that by the year 2025 (November 13, to be exact!) all the world will be without food. This is backed up by several months study and a series of computer checks.

Further estimations revealed the fact that the world is also running out of natural resources. (Petroleum, metals, water, trees, etc.)

If people try to hoard these resources, it will cause an even greater shortage! It may not seem possible now, but in future years it will become more and more realistic.

This week when papers come out, Ag. I and II hope to have the honor of being number one in district and area chapter conducting. (I'll let you know about that later!)

Anyone wishing to purchase a box of grapefruit or oranges at $5.50 a box can call me at 643 -2502, Mr. Geye, or any Ag student. This is a money raising project for the Rising Star F.F.A. Chapter; your help will be appreciated.

> Wish us luck, Jay Benson

RAH! RAH! RAH! Only two more weeks to go!

This week we will be playing the Gorman Panthers. Gorman is not too far; thus we expect to see all you fans there! This will be our last out of town game in action.

Our bonfire went great last week - - only a few minor burns! We would like to thank everyone who helped us with it, especially Wesley K. and David T. (a three - seater huh!)

You can tell that the cheerleaders have been working hard - - so hard we sometimes doze in Civics. How bout that B.C.? Do you like whistles? Keep up the Spirit!

Statistics may be misleading in some instances, but there's nothing deceptive with figures showing that a half - million persons are examined annually in the State Health Department's Child - Centered Tuberculosis Program.

State law requires an annual tuberculosis examination of all school personnel - - teachers, custodians, food handlers, etc. It also recommends the examination of all first and seventh grade students and transfer students. Student TB tests are required in some of the 705 school districts which took part in the 1971 - 72

The Child - Centered Tuberculosis Program has completed its sixth year, and another half examinations are expected during the 1972 - 73 school

During the past school year more than 108,000 first graders and 112,200 seventh graders were tested in the program. In addition, 100,000 other students were tested in public and parochial schools. Add more than 200,000 school employees and you exceed a half million examinations.

Tuberculin skin tests are given by private physicians, at school and in Health Department clinics. Approximately 48 hours after being given, the tests are "read" to identify

Since a reactor means the individual has had contact with someone who has the disease, it is important that an examination be made of household members in attempting to establish the source of exposure. Usually it is a family member, a relative or a close associate - - such as a playmate or housekeeper.

First and seventh graders were chosen for the child centered approach for a reason. First graders have spent most of their lives at home, or in close proximity to their families, and therefore have limited contacts. These contacts can be easily traced, and the probability is good that an infection was obtained in the

But the court found no basis for liability. The judge said no reasonable patient would read into the doctor's comment a positive assurance that he would indeed become a new man. A special problem has arisen in connection with sterilization procedures that fail to prevent the later conception and birth of a child. Even assuming that the doctor has given a firm guarantee, has the patient actually suffered any harm by having a baby? Some courts have simply re-
