The following poem was handed to me by my good friend and hairdresser, Rosa Van Cox:

I'M JUST FINE
 There is nothing whatever the matter with me. I am just as healthy as can be. I have arthritis in both my knees and when I talk, I talk with a wheeze, My pulse is weak, And my blood is thin, But I'm awfully well for the shape I'm in. My teeth eventually must come out. And my diet-- I have to think about. I'm overweight and can't get thin, But I'm awfully well for the shape I'm in. I think my liver is out of whack And a terrible pain is in my back. My hearing is poor, My sight is dim, Most everything seems to be out of trim. But I'm awfully well for the shape I'm in. I have arch supports For both my feet. Or I wouldn't be able To go on the street. Sleeplessness I have, Night after night, And in the morning I'm just a sight. My memory is failing, My head's in a spin, I'm practically living on aspirin. But I'm awfully well For the shape I'm in. The moral is-as this tale unfolds, That for you and me Who are growing old It's better to say, "I'm fine!" With a grin, Than to let them know The shape that we're in.

This is a long neglected thank you to some "behind the scenes" people who contribute to the weekly news in the Rising Star paper, they are our community correspondents, Mrs. G.C. (Eva) Stroebel, Mrs. Marshall Campbell, and Mrs. Jack Milwee, these three faithfully report the news from Nimrod, May and Sipe Springs, each week. This is a time consuming and often thankless task and we hope these three will accept this little "verbal bouquet", as a small token of this editor's appreciation.

The George Steels have just received the happy news of the birth of a little granddaughter, born May 27, in Blountville, Tenn. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Steel of Blountville are the proud parents of this little girl, who has been named Laura.

Workshop registration will begin Monday, July 22 at 2 p.m. in the foyer at the main entrance of the College Church of Christ and ACC dormitory entrances. Registration fee is $6 per person or $100 for all teachers from one congregation.

Warden Issues Final Statement

Eastland County. I assure you I know the needs of our schools and especially, the needs of our children. In order to meet these needs we must have more vocational, occupational and technical training programs in our schools.

With your help and support we can have a much greater educational system for the youth in our area. If elected I will take advantage of every State and Federal agency to secure this training for our students that have individual differences and abilities without any additional cost to the taxpayer. All our students are not going to get a college degree, therefore they need to learn some skill or trade to prepare them for citizens in the future.

Keep the Man Who Knows The Educational Needs of The Boys and Girls of Eastland County, Vote and advance O.C. (Stubby) Warden from County School Supervisor to County School Superintendent.

I am running in this election on my own merits but for outside information or questions I refer you to O.L. Stamey, retiring school superintendent; Carlos Turner or Alton Roan, two of my opponents in the First Democratic Primary.

Miss Teenage Pageant Slated For Sept. 21

Plans for the 1975 Miss Teenage Abilene competition, sponsored by the Dr. Pepper Bottling Co. of Abilene, were announced today by Cleber Massey, President of Dr. Pepper in Abilene, and Kay Denkhoff, Pageant Coordinator.

Entry forms for 1975 Miss Teenage Abilene will be available in the near future through all locations where Dr. Pepper is sold and the Dr. Pepper offices in Abilene. Entry deadline for this year's competition will be July 31st. Preliminary written testing will begin in July with preliminary poise, personality and talent evaluations scheduled in August. The local Miss Teenage Abilene Pageant will be held Saturday, September, 21, in the Abilene Civic Center.

Entry in Miss Teenage Abilene is open to girls of all races between the ages of 13 and 17 who are in good scholastic standing. The entry area for Miss Teenage Abilene includes 25 counties: King, Kent, Stonewall, Scurry, Fisher, Jones, Shackelford, Stephens, Eastland, Palo Pinto, Erath, Callahan, Nolan, Mitchell, Sterline, Coke, Runnels, Tom Green, Concho, Irion, Crockett, Sutton, Schleicher, Taylor and Coleman.

Miss Teenage Abilene is not a "beauty contest"--there is no bathing suit competition. Emphasis in the Miss Teenage America program is on scholastics with each candidate being required to take a general knowledge examination prepared by Field Enterprises. Each girl is then required to give a two-minute talent presentation and meet with a panel of judges to evaluate poise and personality.

Miss Teenage Abilene '75 will go directly to the national Miss Teenage America finals in Little Rock, Arkansas in November.

Included in the prizes for Miss Teenage Abilene will be a partial scholarship to the college of her choice, an all-expense paid trip to Little Rock and the national competition wardrobe.

Paula Diane Harper of Abilene is the current Miss Teenage Abilene.

The Rising Star Roping Club heads the parade for the initial performance of this rodeo season.

Rising Star Rodeo Has "Successful Start"

Despite several threats of rain, the 22nd annual season of summer rodeos in Rising Star opened with a bang last Saturday, with what was termed a "most successful beginning" of the summer long series.

The parade held Saturday afternoon was observed by a good crowd, however participation both on the local and area-wide levels was down. First place honors went to the Cisco Riding Club, second place to the Rising Star 4-H Club and the third place award to the rising star roping club, led by club sweethearts Kasey Maynard and Kaycee Rutherford.

The parade was organized and directed by the Rising Star React Club. Bob Shults was the parade commentator. Judges for the event were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Winchester, Mrs. Emma Jean Steel, Wayne Merritt, and C.A. Claborn.

In the opening rodeo performance participation was much improved, according to local roping club officials. A lot of contestants were reported in nearly every category of competition, with a total of 52 calves registered, with 14 signing for professional barrels. Other events also showed good listings of rodeo enthusiasts.

This year's gate receipts proved to be on about the same level as the preceding years, according to club officers. John Nunnally is in charge of gate admissions again this year, a post he has faithfully maintained for several years. John Pruitt of Cross Plains was the announcer for the initial performance.

It was pointed out that from here on, all rodeos will be on Friday nights, beginning at 8:30 p.m. Play nights are on Tuesday nights, with all interested persons invited to come and participate in working of the rodeo arena, and for youngsters to practice riding and barrel racing.

The results of Saturday's rodeo:

Final Statement

My primary purpose in wanting to be your next County School Superintendent is my concern for the youth of Eastland County, and not the school's bookkeeping system. I have been working in the Eastland County Schools for 33 years and for the past 13 years as Supervisor of the schools in

THE FAMILY LAWYER

Foreign Matter

Foreign matter in your food, like a pebble in a pie or a tack in a taco, is clearly good grounds for complaint. If you suffer injury, you are entitled to collect damages from whoever is to blame.
But the court may have a hard time deciding, in a particular situation, what matter is foreign and what is "natural." Take three actual cases:

A man bit on a turkey bone in a dish of roast turkey that he had ordered in a restaurant.

Another man encountered a hard grain of corn in a bowl of corn flakes.

A woman was injured by a chicken bone in chicken fricassee.

In each case a damage claim was filed by the victim. But each time, the claim was turned down because the item in question was not considered foreign. As the court in the turkey case put it: "Bones which are natural to the type of meat served cannot legitimately be called a foreign substance, and a customer who eats meat dishes ought to be on his guard against the presence of such bones."

In recent years, however, courts have been putting less emphasis on what is natural and more emphasis on what a consumer might logically expect to find in his food.

Not long ago a man damaged a tooth by biting on the olive in his martini. The olive had not been pitted, although the usual hole in the end led him to think it had.

Of course, the pit was "natural" to the olive. Nevertheless a court ruled that the jury could reasonably reach a verdict in the man's favor.

"Because a substance is natural to a product in one stage of preparation," said the court, "does not mean necessarily that it will be reasonably anticipated by the consumer in the final product."

Thoughts

From The Living Bible

"It's like this: when I was a child I spoke and thought and reasoned as a child does. But when I became a man my thoughts grew far beyond those of my childhood, and now I have put away the childish things. In the same way, we can see and understand only a little about God now, as if we were peering at his reflection in a poor mirror; but someday we are going to see him in his completeness, face to face.

I Corinthians 13:11 & 12

FROM OUR CHURCHES

First Baptist Church
Rising Star

We remember this week those who gave their lives "for their country". War is a terrible way to settle differences. We wish that our country will never again be involved in war. In our international affairs perhaps you as an individual will have little influence. We can have influence where we live.

The very familiar prayer of St. Francis could well be our prayer.

Lord, make me an instrument of thy peace.

Where there is hatred, let me sow love;

Where there is injury, pardon; Where there is discord, faith; Where there is doubt, faith; Where there is despair, hope; Where there is darkness, light;

Where there is sadness, joy; For thy mercy and thy truth's sake. Amen.

Christians are scattered over this nation. If we could by God's help do as this prayer asks, maybe our own United States could have internal peace.

The message Sunday morning: "Keeping Our Thinking Straight". Sunday evening is Parents Night. This week we have had our Vacation Bible School. All the parents and friends of the church are invited to this program presented by the students in our Bible School. The time is 7:00 p.m.

Wednesday the pastor will continue the study of the Book of Genesis.

A reminder to all the members of the church: Wednesday is church conference night. Plan to attend.

Visiting with us Sunday morning were: Mr. and Mrs. Pat Enfield of Big Spring, Mr. and Mrs. Teddy Merrick of Big Spring, and Mr. Johnny Hubbard of Rising Star.

There was much joy in the complete congregation Sunday morning as Calvin Easterling made public his response to the call to preach the Gospel. As most of us know Calvin has been preparing for special work for the Lord a long time. He has his Bachelor Degree from McMurry College and his Masters Degree from Stephen F. Austin. With this foundation he is well prepared to begin this work, and will be in Perkins School of Theology. On meeting qualification of the Board of Ministry, Cisco District for license to preach, he has been appointed as pastor of Lorena United Methodist Church in the Waco district, to be finalized with the reading of appointments, June 5 in Waco at the close of annual conference.

We expect great things of Calvin in the ministry, and we offer him our prayer and cooperation.

Mrs. Ira Swift is visiting Ira in nursing home at Andrews.

Arte Boase remains ill in West Texas Medical Center.

Pastor and wife will be attending annual conference in Waco Sunday afternoon until Wednesday evening.

Everytime I slip and do a wrong, I lose a little grace.

No matter where I hide I see my Master's face. When I think I've hid from the world

And set a faster pace. Behind locked doors I meet My Master face to face.

Selected See you Sunday. Mrs. Lloyd Coker

Thoughts

From The Living Bible
When Moses saw that the bush was on fire and that it didn't burn up, he went over to investigate. Then God called out to him, "Moses! Moses!" "Who is it?" Moses asked. "Don't come any closer," God told him. "Take off your shoes, for you are standing on holy ground. I am the God of your fathers — the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob." (Moses covered his face with his hands, for he was afraid to look at God.)

Exodus 3:2-5

Church of Christ
Rising Star

Christian unity has been the theme of four preceding articles. Its importance is seen in the fact that God and Christ emphatically command it and that the lack of it severely injures both the believers themselves and the presentation of the Christian faith to non-believers. Some of the qualities of Biblical, Christian unity were reviewed last week.

For unity among believers in Christ to be real and of the sort that God demands, it is absolutely essential that there be basic agreement on vital doctrinal points. These foundational points are stated in Ephesians 4:4-6: "There is one body, and one Spirit, even as we were called in one hope of your calling; one Lord, one faith, one baptism, one God and Father of all, who is over all, and through all, and in all." Let us examine these individually, but briefly.

ONE BODY--It is obvious that this does not refer to a physical body, but rather to a singular grouping of those who follow Christ, since this list is introduced by an emphasis upon unity. This figure occurs elsewhere as well, especially in Ephesians, but also in other of the Epistles. The definition of "the body" is given in Ephesians 1:22-23. Speaking of Christ, Paul states that God "...gave him to be head over all things to the church, which is his body, the fullness of him that filleth all in all." This body, or the church, is described in Ephesians chapter 2 as: "one" (2:14), "one new man" (2:25), "one body" (2:16), "a holy temple in the Lord" (2:21), and "a habitation of God in the Spirit" (2:22). This same figure is carried through in Ephesians 5:22-33, using the husband-wife relationship as an example. It is found again in the same context as the list of basic doctrinal points (Ephesians 4:15-16). See also Colossians 1:18; 1 Corinthians 12:12-31; Romans 12:4-5.

From the very beginning, except in reference to local congregations in various areas, this grouping of believers has been described by the singular, never by the plural. Jesus promised to build "my church" (Matthew 16:18); the apostles referred to only one (1 Corinthians 12:12; 2 Corinthians 1:2; 2 Thessalonians 1:1; etc.). However narrow and restricted this may seem to some, the evidence clearly points to the absolute necessity for the grouping of believer sin the "one body" of Christ, under his exclusive headship. A very loose "federation" of widely varying and often contradictory denominations obviously does not meet such demands of God.

ONE SPIRIT--This can be none other than the one referred to in the Scriptures as: "The Holy Spirit", "The Spirit of truth", "The Spirit of God", "The Spirit of God's Son", or simply "The Spirit". The Holy Spirit was present and active in the creation (Genesis 1:2), came upon various leaders and prophets among the Israelites, to reveal the will of Jehovah and to assist them in guiding the people. The Holy Spirit assumed a material form and came upon Jesus, to identify him as the Son of God (Matthew 3:16; John 1:29-34). This same Spirit was promised to the apostles to "guide them into all the truth", to "call to their remembrance all that Jesus had taught them, and to reveal to them things to come (John 14:26; 15:26; 16:13ff). Certain were said to have been "baptized" (or immersed) in the Spirit (Acts 1:2-5; 2:1-4, 17-21; 10:44-48; 11:15-17). Through the laying on of hands of the apostles (Acts 8:14-21), certain miraculous "gifts" (1 Corinthians 12:4-11) were given, in special instances, to reveal and confirm God's will in the initial years of Christianity (Hebrews 2:3-4; 1 Corinthians 13:8-12). Lastly, the Spirit is promised to every obedient believer (Acts 2:38; Galatians 4:6), as an "earnest" (Ephesians 1:13-14), a manifestation of the presence of God in each one and as seen, not through miraculous workings, but through "fruit" (Galatians 5:22-23). Christian unity must be built upon the acknowledgment of "one spirit".

This examination of Ephesians 4:4-6 will continue, God willing, next week.

We are always available for personal studies on this, or other Bible subjects. Or join us in the collective Bible classes on Sunday at 9:30 a.m., on Wednesday at 7 p.m., or in the Assemblies on Sunday at 10:30 a.m. and 6 p.m.

The sick among us seem to be greatly improved, for which we are grateful. Mrs. W. Aikin is still in Stamford Hospital, for treatment of a bleeding ulcer. Mrs. Eva Oney is back home and was able to be with us last Sunday morning, but is quite weak. Everett Harris is due to enter the hospital at Stephenville June 5 for gall bladder surgery. Ray Nunnally is to enter St. Luke's Hospital in Houston June 2 for an angiogram to see if heart surgery is necessary. Weldon Hill is gradually gaining some strength. Pat Nall is home but not feeling too well. Ray Agnew is circulating a lot more now. George Goss seems a lot better. Willie Hill's sister-in-law is worse. Several in the rest home have not been well at all lately: Mrs. Elliott, Montgomery, Nunnally, Roan and Mrs. Lamb. Mrs. Hellums has some good days now and then. Louis Mayfield was back at West Texas Medical the first part of the week, for treatment of an infection.

Have a good week. Call us if we can serve you. --Owen Aikin

consumer alert

AUSTIN--Vacation bound? There's a chance you might also be heading for trouble if you haven't taken certain precautions before leaving home.

Law enforcement experts and our Consumer Protection Division attorneys say that what a vacation time for most folks is working time for many burglars, pickpockets, and con men.

They suggest that you plan in advance to burglar-proof your home and to guard against possible thefts or consumer frauds on your trip. While the number of such occurrences is small compared to the number of vacationers, it only takes one bad experience to ruin a trip.

Here's a list of things to check before you leave:

--Stop mail, newspaper, and other deliveries.

--Tell a neighbor or your apartment manager that you will be gone and ask them to keep an eye on the place.

--Leave a few lights on or buy an automatic timer to turn certain lights on and off each evening.

--Cut your lawn just before leaving and, if you will be gone a long time, have someone cut it while you're away.

--Check all windows and doors to make sure they are locked. A sliding glass patio door can be more securely fastened by wedging a stick at the top or bottom of the door.

--Check with your local police if you plan an extended vacation. Many forces offer a "close patrol" of homes where persons are away. If your police force does, you will need to tell them what cars or persons, if any, will be making authorized visits to your house.

--Have your telephone put "on vacation". Your callers will be told that the telephone has been temporarily disconnected at your request, and you can have them referred to another number if you wish.

--Avoid mentioning to casual acquaintances or strangers that you will be on vacation. Also, avoid telling your newspaper's society editor of your trip until you have returned.

--Before leaving, engrave all valuables in your home and those you will be taking with you in the car with your driver's license or social security number. Some police forces will loan you an engraver to mark your belongings and will register your number on their master list. This may discourage burglars from taking your goods and can make identification of recovered stolen goods much simpler.

After taking precautions to secure your home from burglars while you are gone, don't let down your guard when you get into the car and drive away. There are a few things to remember during your trip.

Make sure you have had your car serviced and thoroughly checked before leaving and always get out of the car to watch when having it serviced on the road. There are a few unscrupulous persons who sometimes take advantage of tourists with out-of-state license plates. If your car was given a clean bill of health before you left, you can better evaluate warnings about faulty fuel pumps, air filters, batteries, etc.

--Take traveler's checks or use credit cards, and keep a list of your credit card numbers in a safe spot.

--Men should avoid keeping billfolds in back pockets, or at least button the pocket if possible. To discourage pickpockets, use the inside coat pocket or a money belt.

Gordon Spot

If you haven't sprayed your pecan trees for the nut casebearer, better get started soon. Orchard inspections during the middle of last week indicated infestations are still light in most areas of the county. Pecan growers in the south part of the county sprayed May 21st - 24th. Growers in other areas of the county plan to spray the 28th or 29th. The timing depends on the development of the insects in an area.

We are still hearing reports of all the successful home gardens in the county. The high south winds have caused some damage, but in general the vegetables are in good condition.

With home gardens making good progress, now is the time to consider additional fertilizer applications. Most vegetable crops will respond to additional fertilizer. Soil type, type of fertilizer, row spacing and the particular crop will determine the amount of fertilizer used.

More fertilizer can be applied to heavy clay soils than to light sandy soils because heavy soils hold nutrients better. Crops grown on sandy soils will respond to light frequent applications of side-dressed fertilizer.

Additional fertilizer applied as a side-dress application should be of a form that is readily available to growing crops. The most common forms are ammonium sulfate (21-0-0) and ammonium nitrate (33-0-0). However, you will have trouble finding these two forms of fertilizer this year due to the fertilizer shortage. You may have to substitute a complete fertilizer, but vegetables show little benefit from applications of complete fertilizers containing nitrogen, phosphorus and potassium.

Apply fertilizer between the garden rows and work it into the soil if possible. Be careful to avoid root damage and do not place the fertilizer too close to the growing plants.

For most fruiting crops such as beans, tomatoes, peppers, eggplant, okra and the vine crops, apply five teaspoons of ammonium sulfate or two to three teaspoons of ammonium nitrate for each 10 feet of garden row. Begin applications when the fruit of the tomato, pepper and eggplant are about one inch in diameter and repeat at two to three week intervals. For beans, okra and the vine crops, begin side - dressing after the first harvest.

Leafy crops such as lettuce, cabbage and greens can be fertilized at about twice the rate used for fruiting crops, since more foliage growth is needed. Begin side - dress applications after several sets of character leaves have formed and repeat at two - week intervals. If plants are making satisfactory growth, reduce the rate but continue bi - weekly applications.

Root crops such as onions, beets and turnips will often make satisfactory growth without additional fertilizer. If growth is poor, light applications of a nitrogen fertilizer should help.

Sweet corn responds to liberal amounts of nitrogen. Fertilizer with four tablespoons of ammonium nitrate or eight tablespoons of ammonium sulfate per 10 feet of row when the corn is 12 to 18 inches tall.

AVOID THESE GARDENING MISTAKES

You may be your garden's worst enemy - if you make these three common garden errors.

1. Poor feeding habits. The food that makes your grass grow greenest may produce anemic flowers. Generally fertilizers with a high percentage of nitrogen are best for leaf and root crops; flowers and many vegetables do better on a formula with more phosphorus. Too much fertilizer of any kind can kill plants by dehydrating their rootlets. Be leary of lime as well. Many gardeners assume their soil needs lime when it doesn't. A test can tell you for sure. Extra liming can only hurt growth and it's a needless expense.

2. Letting the pests get the best of you. One single aphid can lead to 1,560,000,000,000,000,000,000 more! So, spray early and often with an efficient insecticide such as nicotine sulphate. Unlike many of the more modern "miracle-poison" pesticides, which your mites might easily become immune to, this naturally occurring bug killer, popularly known as Black Leaf 40, has kept the pest population down for over 80 years! Because it's a biodegradable insecticide made from tobacco leaves and alcohol, Black Leaf 40 can remain on target without leaving dangerous residues. Non-caustic and harmless to plants, pets, people, birds or beneficial bugs, Black Leaf 40 can be sprayed alone or in combination with other pesticides, to "gas" bugs away two ways: with fumes and on contact!

3. Toiling with the wrong tools. Most gardeners need a shovel, spading fork, steel rake, wooden rake, hoe, cultivator, grass edger, several types of shears, pen-knife, trowel, wheelbarrow, spreader, sprayer, watering can and gardening gloves. Never leave these outdoors and always wash them after use. As for your lawn mower, don't let the blades get dull or they'll split the grass tops and turn them brown!

If you give your garden good care, you should be able to beat the bugs, win out over the weeds and reap great rewards!

Amity Homecoming To Be June 2

The Amity Homecoming and Cemetery Association meeting will be held at the Amity Church on Sunday, June 2. This has been an annual affair for more than eighty years.

A morning assembly will be held, with a devotional being delivered at 11:30 a.m. This will be followed by a basket lunch at the noon hour.

The afternoon will be a combination of old-time gospel singing, a financial report of the Amity Cemetery Association and visiting. All old-timers and new-comers are invited to come.

The church and grounds were made ready Wednesday morning, May 29.

Six Flags And Seven Seas Begin Summer Schedules

ARLINGTON--Texas' tourist season goes into full swing as its number one attraction, Six Flags, and the world's largest inland marine life park, Seven Seas, begin daily operation for 1974 on Saturday, May 25.

Six Flags will maintain the daily schedule through Labor Day, operating from 10:00 a.m. until 10:00 p.m. The theme park will return to a weekend schedule during the fall.

Bob Freeman, Six Flags' general manager, said attendance has been running well ahead of advance projections with more than 380,000 visitors during the spring months.

Seven Seas, which is operating for the first season under the management of Six Flags, Inc., has drawn more than 26,000 visitors since its May 3 opening. This figure is more than double that for the same period last year.

The sea park will be open daily from 10:00 a.m. until 6:00 p.m. through August 25. With the exception of Labor Day, Seven Seas will be open on weekends only during the fall months.

The entertainment centers are located in Arlington, Texas, midway between Dallas and Fort Worth.

CALIFORNIA VISITORS- Mrs. Opal Davidson of Los Palos, Calif., and Mrs. Virginia Kelley of Taft, Calif., are visiting their father Mr. W.C. Thornhill and other relatives in Rising Star.

Where is this city?

CLUES: The capital of Bavaria and site of the 1972 Olympics, it's the home of the Alte Pinakothek, one of the most important museums in Europe containing paintings from the Middle Ages to the 18th century and the Deutsches Museum, which houses just about every mechanical gadget ever made by man.

In autumn occurs Oktoberfest, a beer drinker's holiday. All year there are two Holiday Inns with indoor pools, local or American food, and a nightclub decorated with live sharks!

It's near the Alps, but warmed by a southerly wind called The Föhn. Natives and tourists alike retreat from its

"As it looks from here"

OMAR BURLESON
Congressman
17th District

WASHINGTON, D.C. - A NEIGHBOR, ACROSS THE ROAD FROM US IN JONES COUNTY between Anson and Stamford, has a minor problem - a least at this point.

HIS WINDMILL IS NOT IN VERY "SHAPE AND SERVES FOR NO USEFUL PURPOSE. Since the water is so loaded with minerals it is good for nothing except to put out a fire and even here it would take a bucket brigade for any successful effort.

THE PROBLEM IS THAT THE NEIGHBOR'S WIFE LIKES THE SIGHT OF the windmill in her backyard. Anyone growing up in West Texas can readily understand and sympathize with her appreciation of beauty.

A FAVORITE SUBJECT OF beauty is the windmill. In many works it is the object of the painting itself and in many more there is that lonely sentile somewhere in the picture.

LONG AGO THE WINDMILL served purposes other than just supporting the action of the suction rod. In the flat country, the platform on top just below the fan and the wheel was a place to locate livestock, nesting turkeys or to just look towards the "big road" to see if anyone was coming.

WELL, TO MY NEIGHBOR, IT MAY BE LIKE THE SAYING IN THE DEEP SOUTH + + + "hold on to your Confederate money - the South will rise again".

THIS PAST WEEK HEARINGS WERE HELD BY A SUBCOMMITTEE ON SCIENCE AND Aeronautics on prospects for wind energy utilization as part of a study on solar energy technology.

MANKIND HAS BEEN UNSIG THE WIND TO SERVE HIS ENERGY NEEDS FOR thousands of years. Sailing vessels and windmills have been important parts of civilization throughout history and engineering of the 20th century has not completely passed it by. In 1940, a 1,250,000 watt generator was built atop Grandpa's Knob in Vermont. It worked successfully but could not survive competitiveness against easier power generated by steam. The same idea has been the case in Germany, England, Denmark, France, and Russia where experiments were conducted.

TODAY, BECAUSE OF THE ECONOMICS OF ENERGY PRODUCTION INTEREST IN wind power potentials has been revived. Wind is free and there are new developments from other technologists which can be applied to harness its power for efficient use. It is a non-depletable resource and as we know West Texas, we could do without a lot of it as it is. Air currents are generated by warming effects of sunlight, coupled with the earth's rotation as far as anyone knows this is not going to be changed soon, even if Congress might try it.

IN WEST TEXAS THE WIND SPEED IS SOMETHING LIKE 14 MILES PER HOUR on the average. Those who are supposed to know say this can produce a power content of 20 watts per square foot of interception. Most of us don't know all this technical stuff but it impressive when expert estimates indicate that within the next 20 years wind systems can produce 10 to 12 kilowatt-hours of electricity.

Problems are numerous, so they say, the principle one being storage of generated power but long strides have already been made from the old dry cell batteries in use years ago. Now there are electrochemical batteries and compressed air and other proved developments, all highly promising.

TO BE BUILT IN SANDUSKY IS A DEMONSTRATION 100 WATT WINDMILL intended to serve as a test bed for scaling up to 1,000 watt production of power.

NEIGHBOR, LISTEN TO MS. AND KEEP THAT OLD WINDMILL FOR ITS sentimental value - and maybe for generating power.

Watercolor Workshop Set For June 3-15 At H.P.C.

Loan To Comanche County Co-op Approved

WASHINGTON D. C. Congressman Omar Burleson announced today the approval of an $863,000 REA loan to the Comanche Electric Cooperative Association, serving Comanche, Callahan, Eastland, Shackelford, Stephens, and Brown Counties. The loan is for the purpose of financing service for 546 additional consumers, to finance 53 miles of distribution line and to finance system improvements.

Polled Hereford Day Set For June 6

Area cattlemen planning to attend the Polled Hereford Day--U.S.A. at Storm Ranch Dripping Springs, Texas, on June 6, should make their overnight reservations with Wood Creek Lodge, Wimberly, Texas 78676, according to the event's host Lynn Storm.

The lodge is located about 15 miles from Storm Ranch, and Polled Hereford Day attendees should probably get their reservations in right away, Storm said.

The event will be one of a series of unique, regional summer activities across the U.S. that are designed to keep cattlemen informed about the latest developments in the beef cattle industry. Registration at 8 a.m. will be followed by a session on estimating the breeding value of beef cattle, a concept emphasized at the 1973 American Cattlemen's Conference. Persons attending the event will be involved in demonstrations and contests using a combination of all they see and all they know from performance and progeny records on cattle to select animals that excel in economically-important traits.

Prominent program participants will include U.S. Congressman Jake Pickle, Austin, and George C. Palmer II, American Polled Hereford Association Chairman of the board, Charlottesville, Va.

Another feature of the day will be an open forum titled, "The Breeder Speaks". Moderated by Orville K. Sweet, APHA president, Kansas City, Mo., the panel will consist of Jim Gill, Coleman; James Grote, Llano; John Trenfield, Follett; Jack Walling, Tyler; and Harry Dulick, APHA district director, Morgan. Other activities include a ranch tour, lunch and awards program.

They are Mrs. Doris Green of Route 3, Cisco, and H.F. Rucker of Route 3, Killeen.

They will be recognized at a special luncheon as the top adult leaders in District 8 of the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, the parent organization of 4-H. Each will receive a special plaque provided by the Texas 4-H Youth Development Foundation.

Mrs. Green, a homemaker and part-time secretary, has been a leader in foods, clothing, gardening, public speaking and home management for the Cisco

4-H Club for 13 years. Her club has produced participants in state dress revues and 4-H Roundup. Several Cisco 4-H Club members have won scholarships. The club has also produced a Gold Star award winner and a delegate to the first Texas 4-H Congress.

Mrs. Green is active in the Eastland County 4-H Adult Leaders Association and helps conduct county 4-H camp and other county wide activities. She also works closely with junior leaders in the county. She has been cited for her outstanding service as an adult 4-H leader in Eastland County.

Rucker, who is a carpet and flooring contractor, has been a leader for beef and swine projects for th epast nine years for the Killeen 4-H Club. He also helped organize the Bell County Horse Club. A horse judging team from the club has competed in State 4-H Roundup.

The adult leader annually furnishes and installs sound equipment for the county horse shows and county junior fair and livestock shows. He helps 4-Hers prepare their steers and swine for shows by instructing and assisting them in trimming and grooming their animals and training them in showmanship.

In addition to helping 4-Hers, Rucker has also conducted training workshops for other 4-H adult leaders of beef and swine projects in Bell County.
