Bonnie Buchanan Named ALL AMERICAN

By Bruce Unrue, Sports Writer, Abilene Reporter News

Bonnie Buchanan put on her Sunday best Tuesday morning thinking she was going to get a free meal at ACU's Wildcat Club meeting. But before the day was over, Buchanan was driving home with an AIAW Division II All-America award to hang on the wall.

Buchanan, along with nine other women basketball players from around the country, was named to to the prestigious team late Monday night. She received the award from ACU Coach Burl McCoy at a Tuesday morning press conference.

"I really hadn't expected this at all," said a surprised Buchanan, who did not even know about the press conference until McCoy called her at home Tuesday morning. "I hadn't even thought about this."

McCoy apparently had. "Bonnie is our first All-American in basketball; and, in my opinion, I think our most deserving. I just wish she was a freshman again."

Buchanan, whose career has been filled with honors since she began playing basketball at May High School in the mid-1970's, ranked this honor among the top. "I thought it was a pretty big deal when I was named All-American in (Tyler) Junior College. But this is better."

The award capped off a record-breaking year for Buchanan and the Wildcats. Bonnie led the team and set a new team record with 842 points in 38 gamesan average of 22.8 ppg. In addition, she pulled down 399 rebounds as the Wildcats compiled a 31-7 record and fell one game short of advancing to the national "Final Four" tourna-

Buchanan scored 1,220 points in her oneand-a-half seasons at ACU. That number was only surpassed by the 4,700 points she scored during her high school days as May went to two state tournaments.

Following her senior season, Buchanan was selected as a member of the United States team for the 1977 Pan American Games in Mexico City.

She played two years at Tyler Junior College where she was selected all-conference, allregion and all-America and led her team to the national tournament.

Buchanan played one semester at National Division I power Stephen F. Austin before transferring to ACU.

She was named to the all-tournament team at the TAIAW Division II tournament this year in Belton and was later named the state's Division II Most Valuable Player.

Buchanan was one of 10 players selected to the All-America team. Others included: Andrea Blanchard, High Point College; Laura Buehnig, Cal Poly at San Luis Obispo; Young Ran Cho, Biola College; Brenda Rising Star Junior Hairston, Lenoir- High Drill Team Direc-Rhyne College; Becky King, William Penn College; Carol Lammers. University of Sherry Dayton; Raney, Arkansas Tech University; Patrice Walker, C.W.Post College; June Walton, Morgan State University.

She was ACU's third All-America selection in 1980-81 and the second woman. The others were women's cross country runner Hope Fullwood, from freshman Highland; and Kenny Davidson, senior toured by a team of defensive lineman in judges from out of the football from College district on Tuesday, Stadium A & M Con- April 28, in the Texas solidated.

Comanche Band Entertains

The Club house was filled with music Thursday, April 19th. Our friends of the Senior Citizens Club of Comanche, seventeen band members and the bus driver were our guests for the day. They brought a program of music and song. Their band has improved, but we missed the lady that played the French Harp and the other members of the band who were absent.

By the time the Starpractice, the day was about spent. Thanks to everyone who brought food. It was plentiful and delicious as always.

SSI Eligibility Reviews Underway

Eligibility for Supplemental Security Income (SSI) payments is reviewed regularly. Glyn Hammons of the Abilene Social Security Office said today that the 1981 SSI annual eligibility reviews are underway in this area, and will continue throughout the year.

Individuals and couples who recive SSI checks are required to report changes in income, resources, and living arrangements as they occur. The annual review insures that changes which could affect payments are not overlooked. "The intent of the annual review," Ham-mons says, "is to assure that each eligible person gets the amount of money he, or she, is entitled tonot more, and not less."

In the 11 counties served by the Abilene office, 4700 people receive monthly SSI paid to disabled individuals, including children, and to people age 65 and over who are living on very low incomes. The SSI program is a federal assistance program, and the funds come general from revenues. SSI payments are sometimes confused with Social Security benefit payments, Hammons mented. Social Security benefit payments are an earned right, based on work under the Social Security program. However, both programs are handled by the Social Security payments, which are based on need and are

As a part of the eligibility review, many SSI recipients will receive a short questionnaire in the mail. The questionnaire should be completed and mailed back to Social Security within five days. Some people will be asked to telephone an office. Others will be asked to appear at a Social Security office for a more detailed review.

Administration.

Hammons urges those who have questions about the SSI program, or the annual eligibility review, to telephone 695-1240. Representatives are available between 9:00 am and 4:30 pm to help with SSI matters. If you live outside Abilene, you can call toll free 1-800-392-1603.

First Baptist Church

At Christmas we celebrate the birth of Christ. At Easter we rejoice in the resurrection of Christ. Both events are foundational to our Christian faith.

At Christmas we think of giving. Easter season we turn our thoughts to new life. It is good to know that God so loved the world that the Son was born. It is exciting to know about the risen Christ.

Between the birth and the empty tomb is the cross. It is Christ's death on the cross which give both His birth and resurrection meaning and purpose.

Jesus said, "For the Son of man is come to seek and to save that which is lost." (Lk. 19:20).

It is Christ's death on the cross that the peanlty of our sin is removed, "blood of Jesus Christ, his Son, cleanseth us from all delivered for our offences, and was raised again for our justification." (1 Jn. 1:7; Rom. 4:25)

Through faith in this living Savior the sinner is born anew into the family of God. We are then assured of His ever abiding presence and the promise of a resurrection life as R.D. Williams, Pastor

In Titus 2:11 it is written, "For the grace of God that bringeth salvation hath appeared (has been revealed) to all men." All men have not accepted salvation, but the provision has been made. It has a message of justification, of sinlessness, that beams up toward God; but it has a message that beams downward, "Teaching us that, denying ungodliness and worldly lusts, we should live soberly, righteously, and godly, in this present world" (Titus 2:12). And since we are now justified, we have already been accepted by God so these other things which are done by our own efforts and our own spiritual achievement are not sin." "He was for the purpose of God's acceptance, but so that men might see his likeness in us. "These things are good and prophitable unto men" (Titus 3:8). They need to see Jesus in us. just like God does, then we actually become an extension of the beauty of Christ! There is a

There is good reason to believe that the most unjustly maligned of all natural phenomena is the West Texas Sandstorm. The most libelous stories, all of them venturing upon the ridiculous, are told of its manifestations, including the hyperbole that a ball and chain, once used as a weathervane, was scoured away in one visitation, and thereafter the residents never knew whether the wind was blowing or not.

Compared to a California earthquake, the sandstorm is a benevolent thing. Nor does it approach the violence of a Carribean hurricane, the malevolence of a St. Helena, or the concentrated destructivness of a Kansas tornado. These terrestrial abominations have their places and purposes in Nature's esoteric scheme of things. But whatever good they may do - and we must admit that in the wishes of God all things are ultimately good - their benefits are concealed behind curtains of tragedy only gradually withdrawn by then hand of

storm is neither so consummate nor so little qualified of a good effect. It manifests a certain gentility. Oh, it is sneaky enough. It lies in wait behind one of those clean, auspicious Spring mornings when the cautious mesquite buds harken to the voice of the turtle dove and the earth is warm and fanciful. It is a presentiment before it is an apparition. Your seasoned West Texan can smell it afar off, long before it becomes a dun mist upon the horizon, prognostic, as prophetic as the whiskers of an indignant

Thereupon the housewife pulls down the windows and draws the curtains in the belief that what is not seen is less a reality, and, with her husband, assumes that attitude of patient acceptance which is one of the most instructive benefits of the phenomenon.

Such is the essence of prayer, in that it recognizes the beneficent omniscience of the Almighty and seeks, not so much intervention as agreement. When one is truly resigned to acceptance it makes little difference in spirit what does happen. Far from leaving him a passive victim of the environment, it weaves him into its pattern to become an effective part of the fabric. He is thereby not so much a result as a cocreator. Witness to this is seen througout a land which Gen. Wm. T. Sherman, the conqueror of Atlanta, could neither withstand nor understand - a land where constantly rising towers upon glyceric horizons mark those accumulations of human energy and wealth that testify to an ability to suck as hard as a sandstorm

Nature responds in kind. Anyone looking up into the fluent vault of a typical sandstorm is seeing a lot of real estate in unrecorded transit. Rarely of historical note, since those vast estuaries of geologic seas drew a formative fertility upon the Mississippi Basin, has there been so constant a renewal of depleted topsoil as a Sandy accomplishes. One thinks, in parallel, of the periodic overflows of the rare showers that wash a literally rains mud!

Much of the truth of that statement may be credited to its sandstorms. They have given man an organ he did not before possess. Peanut research folks confirm the fact that there is no alternative crop suitable to this area that will support anywhere near as many people per acre as peanuts. Therefore, loss of the present program would result in a substantial movement of people from these areas. The economic and social impact would be disastrous to

Program costs have been reduced 69 percent since 1977 and export markets for U.S.peanuts have been greatly expanded. ### Round Off Figures

Taxpayers can round figures to the nearest whole dollar when preparing their federal income tax returns. In rounding figures, amounts under 50 cents are eliminated, while amounts from 50 to 99 cents are increased to the next dollar. Generally, this computation will have about the same effect on the amount of a tax bill or refund as if the figures were not round-

Taxpayers who choose to round off figures must do so through the entire return, including any accompanying schedules. The IRS advises taxpayers to double check their returns for mathematical accuracy before filing.

HOME OWNERSHIP IS A "POSSIBLE DREAM" IN A

NIGHTMARISH ECONOMY Despite inflation and climbing bank rate, the dream of home ownership is still alive and well in America.

The statement came today from William Malone, publisher of Manufactured Housing Dealer magazine, who pointed out that the manufactured housing industry enters 1981 as the strongest segment of the overall housing picture more prepared than any other to provide affordable housing to the public nationwide.

Malone's statements were echoed by Art Carr, of ART'S MANUFACTURED HOMES, INC., in Granbury, who said, "Manufactured housing is today the possible dream. That's particularly true for three major markets - senior citizens, young married, and singles. Manufactured housing matches the life cycles of these markets at prices still within their personal pocketbooks -more closely than does any other form of housing, whether it involves ownership or rentals."

Art added, "People everywhere today want homes that are easy to heat and cool, economical to maintain and affordable. Only the manufactured housing industry now builds such housing. For only with the manufactured house can efficient factory production cut the number of labor hours in half, while insuring completion of construction without costly weather delays. And only the manufactured house is built today to a federal construction code."

Malone explained also that financing of the manufactured home purchase has been easier today. He pointed to the fact that the Federal Housing Administration has committed itself to assist in financing of an increasing number of manufactured housing units during 1981 and to the fact that the Federal Home Loan Bank had recently given savings and loans of the country. the authority to create 20-year, 10%-down payment mortgages for the purchase of manufactured homes sited on individual lots allocating 20% of their deposits to this type of lending. And the Federal National Mortgage Association, FNMA, has recently agreed to purchase end loans from some banks for homes offered for sale in manufac-

District Clerk R. Lane Resigns

Dear Judge Wright

regret, but after many weeks of very serious thought, that I hand you at this time my Resignation to the Office of District Clerk of Eastland County for the 91st District Court, effective May 15th 1981.

Judge Wright, in connection with my resignation, I would appreciate having a complete Audit of my Receipts, Disbursements and Bank balances from January 1, 1979 through May 15, 1981 for the benefit of yourself, the people I have tried to serve and myself.

I want you to know, that I deeply appreciate having had the Privilege of working with you both as an Attorney and as Judge of this court.

Your understanding and courtesy, plus a word of encouragement and a thankyou Roy, so often, has inspired me to try a little harder, to render the kind of service that you as Judge, and the people who elected me, so rightly deserve.

I am sure that you are fully aware of the harrasment that I have had from the withholding of my checks, to my inability to show the Commissioners Court the need for some additional help and obtaining same, is the sole reason for my It is with the deepest of 'resigning, and I trust, that these same things will not happen to my successor.

Again may I say thank you, for the encouragement you have given me, and please be assured that it has been a pleasure to work with you.

Respectfully Submitted, Roy L. Lane, Clerk 91st District Court Eastland County, Texas

TO OUR MANY FRIENDS AND THE CITIZENS OF LEASTLAND COUNTY, TEXAS

It was with the deepest regret and after many weeks of serious thought, that on April 3, 1981, I handed Judge Jim Wright my resignation as your District Clerk, effective May 15, 1981, and I feel I should take this method of letting you know why I have decided to leave the office before my term is out.

As many of you know, we have had a steady increase in the oil business in this area and when you have more oil business in any area you have more legal litigation in the court, this coupled to an increase in our crime rate has caused a large increase in the work load in this office, one that could not be kept up with the limited help that I have had. The type of work which we do in this office affects all of our citizens and cannot be done when it should be, and I feel that you the people are not getting the kind of service you so rightly deserve or the Judge or the Attorneys who handle your cases are not being helped the way they need to be. In this connection I believe the records in THIS office will show that not only has the work load increased but that the revenue from same has increased for more than enough to take care of some additional help; however, even with the increase in revenue I have been unable to convince the Commissioner's Court of the need or the importance of our being able to get the work out, this being the

Another reason for my resignation was brought about by on several occasions, while all other County Employees and Officials were being paid regularly, my check was held up by the County Auditor, simply because I did not and could not, due to other press court work, have my report in by the time she thought it should be in. This my friends has been going on for the past two years and she says that she gets her authority from the District Attorney, who has refused to get an Attorney General's Opinion in this matter, not only for me, but other officials in the Courthouse. I am thoroughly convinced that he knows that he is wrong or he would not be afraid to get an opinion. This harassment I believe is more than you expect me to be subjected to.

prime reason for my

May I say thanks once more to all of you who have placed your confidence in me and been so much help to my family and myself over the years that I have been privileged to know and serve you. Your friendship has helped us more than we can ever tell you.

I know Judge Wright will appoint someone to fill out my term that will serve you well and I have enjoyed working with Judge Wright very much.

> Respectfully, Roy L. Lane

Homemaking Hints By Janet Thomas

When families start planting their gardens, that of home gardening and food means home-canning season is almost at hand.

Now is a good time to take inventory of your canning supplies and equipment. Let me first of all stress how important it is that you do not take shortcuts or experiment in home canning. Use only tested, currently approved canning methods. If you need a new canning bulletin, call the Extension Service office for free copies of our food preservation bulletins.

Right now is also a good time to inspect your pressure canner. The gauge on your pressure canner should be checked each year to see if the gauge is registering correctly. The local Extension office has tester and can check your gauge. If the gauge is not registering correctly, food will be either underprocessed or overprocessed.

If your canner has a lid which is equipped with a rubber gasket, check to see if the gasket fits tightly. If the gasket leaks steam, you might try turning the gasket over, stretch it gently and replace. If the rubber has hardened, you will want to replace it with a new gasket.

To remove stains and odors from a pressure canner, use one of the following mixtures and process at 5 pounds pressure for 5 minutes: 1. Juice of 1 lemon and 2 quarts of water, 2. Two tablespoons of vinegar and 2 quarts of water, 3. Handful of Irish potato peelings and 2 quarts of water.

It is strongly recommended that you use only jars and lids made especially for home canning. Never use ordinary jars such as mayonnaise or coffee jars. Standard canning jars are made of tempered glass to withstand high heat without breakage. Check your jar tops for cracks, chips and dents, and discard those with defects that would prevent an airtight seal.

Canning jar rings should be discarded if they are rusty. A rusty ring will sometimes prevent the lid being held down tightly in place and thus it will not seal. Discard any rings that are bent for these will also prevent a jar from sealing.

Do not reuse sealing lids. The rubber rings on the lid deteriorates easily and prevents a tight seal.

To offseat spiraling food costs, many families are turning to home gardening. This is the best way to cut food costs. The local Exten-

We have had several calls and visits each day concerning problems with peach trees. The leaves on the trees are thicker and take on a grotesque, rubbery, almost artificial-looking ap-gardening simply growing means tomatoes. A few tomato plants in the backyard garden can be a fascinating and rewarding adventure or they can be a disaster. Sickly tomato plants which produce few, if any fruit, certainly do not help the gardening spirit. Some simple advice might help those growing tomatoes for the first time and perhaps even increase yields and satisfaction for you experienced gardeners.

First, you should not attempt to grow tomatoes unless they can be placed in an area that receives sunlight at least 6 hours a day. They will grow with less light, but simply will not produce much of a crop if placed between tall shrubs, beneath trees or between buildings.

Secondly, soil that has been well prepared and properly fertilized is essential for good growth and high yields. Poor soils can be improved with liberal amounts of organic matter and proper fertilization. A dark, heavy clay or even a fine sand can be
