Church Of Christ Has New Evangelist

On Sunday, December 2, 1979, Jon Bailey began work as the local evangelist with the Church of Christ in Rising Star. Before moving to Rising Star, brother Bailey worked with the Grandview Church of Christ in Des Moines, Iowa. The Bailey family, however, is originally from Texas. Jon was born in Edinburg, Texas, graduated from high school in Carrollton, Texas, and worked in Mt. Vernon, Texas, before beginning his preaching ministry. Jon's wife, DeAnn, grew up near Pittsburg, Texas. They have two children, Joel who is three years old and Jessica who is two years old. They look forward to becoming a part of the community here in Rising Star.

In his work with the church, brother Bailey stresses several fundamental principles. As a preacher of God's word, brother Bailey emphasizes the inspiration of the Bible, that it is absolutely perfect in revealing God's will to man and must be followed as the all-sufficient authority in religion. He emphasizes the need for trust in the true and living God, and faith in the Lord Jesus Christ. His preaching also stresses the responsibility of every Christian to live soberly, righteously and godly in this present world. Brother Bailey feels that one of the most important goals of his preaching is to instruct and encourage Christians in their growth as disciples of Jesus Christ. According to brother Bailey, living your life as a disciple requires a desire to learn and follow the teaching of Christ and a determination to become like Him, in devotion to Him.

Brother Bailey extends an invitation for everyone to attend Bible study and worship services with the Rising Star Church of Christ. He also offers a warm welcome to anyone interested in private counseling or personal Bible studies.

Any basic recipe for a pecan pie may be changed into a delicious cocoanut pie by substituting the amount of cocoanut for the pecans; or using mincemeat instead of pecans; and any of the following may be used: peanut butter, red beans (yes, cooked ones), well drained pineapple tidbits, raisins, chopped dates or prunes, dried & diced apricots, cooked rice. And many other variations. I have tried all of these and they are all very tasty.

Beth Harrell passes on this old fashioned buttermilk pie recipe. Cream 2 C. sugar with

Mrs. A.C. Halsell

by Mrs. A.C. Halsell
If a few deterrents to the solution of the energy crises were removed, the problem would have a workable solution. Scientific know-how has always met the challenge of economic and consumer needs. "Necessity is the mother of invention" in the case of many crises and is just as workable in the energy crises.

We wonder why the argument of environmental protection would supercede in importance, oil development in Alaska, that great oil basin, that has barely been tapped for production. Only a few wells are being drilled, with little hopes for more. Many wells have been drilled and capped.

The scientific path of research has been blazed. But for the hindrance of the "perplexing maze of bureaucratic controls and pressure groups," even the announcement of a fuel shortage may not have come so soon.

Sasol, the gasoline from coal concept, was formed in 1950. South Africa capitalized on research done in United States and Germany during World War II. Their leaders acquired rights to the U.S. Kellogg process and the German-Tropisch method and coal gasification became possible and feasible. A California-based Corporation holds the knowledge key to Sasol technology and licensing abroad. By 1971 Sasol was providing a significant share of South Africa's motorized fuel requirements and her gas needs. OPEC Embargo and surging oil prices assured Sasol's economic viability.

This is only one example of the many applications of scientific accomplishments that is filling a need.

Next year is an election year. Is it possible to diminish the power of Bureaucracy in our government with our vote? To answer this question may require some research into the history of United States to learn what started the problem. It is worth thinking about.

Visitors with Mrs. Ethel Brown were Mr. and Mrs. F.L. Dean of Rising Star, for supper on Tuesday night, Mr. and Mrs. Cole Tillotson on Tuesday night and Velma Brown during the week. Mrs. Dean and Mrs. Brown made a trip to Brownwood on Thursday.

The Christmas Party at the Club House on Monday and was well attended. After the business session, when officers for another year were elected, refreshments of pie, coffee, tea and punch were served. Gifts from the tree were passed out by little misses Flippin and McGowen. This is a special occasion for the club ladies and everyone enjoyed the fellowship. Mrs. Foster wishes to announce regular game night on Thursday, Dec. 13. It will be a chili supper.

Mrs. Betty Beggs has started an art class in Rising Star on each Thursday. The class meets in the home of Mrs. B.P. Underwood. Their visitors were Mr. Sam and David Beggs on Saturday. Mrs. Beggs made a business trip to Coleman on Saturday. Mrs. Beggs attended her Sunday School Class party in Cross Plains Tuesday night.

Visitors in the Leonard Norris home were Ray Curry, Abilene, Hiram Foster and John Miller, Pioneer, Mrs. Charles Stevens and Annie Hill, Cross Plains. Mrs.

Norris's daughter, Elaine, had lunch with them one day during the week.

Nell Fleming, Lottie Sooter, Veda Flippin of Corpus Christi, Mrs. Don Sooter, Deborah and Thomas and their friend, Carrie, of Abilene were visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Sessums. Bill and Gladys made a visit and business trip to Hillsboro and Ft. Worth during the week.

Mrs. Matthews, Nell Fleming's mother has returned to Rising Star nursing home after receiving treatment in a hospital in Abilene. She is resting well. Mr. and Mrs. Fleming's visitors were Mr. and Mrs. James Cloud, Brownwood, Mrs. Mary Miller of San Antonio; Nell's sister, Mrs. Veda Flippin of Corpus Christi, Mrs. Dow Flippin and husband, who came later, Mrs. Betty Merion, Mrs. Winnie Flippin, and Mrs. Alvin Flippin and Denise and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Matthews of Hereford.

Mrs. T.E. Parson, who has resided in this community, had a light stroke and is in Community Hospital in Brownwood. She resides in a Rest Home in Brownwood.

Vanda King and children visited with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Darwin Anderson in Abilene during the weekend. Vanda, the children and her grandmother, Mrs. Loma Atwood attended the Christmas program in Cross Plains last week.

Associate yourself with men of good quality if you esteem your own reputation; for 'tis better to be alone than in bad company.

If evil be said of thee and if it be true, correct thyself; if it be a lie, laugh at it.

WHAT SAITH THE SCRIPTURES?

Jon N. Bailey
 "Thus saith Jehovah, Let not the wise man glory in his wisdom, neither let the might man glory in his might, let not the rich man glory in his riches; but let him that glorieth glory in this, that he hath understanding, and knoweth me, that I am Jehovah who exerciseth lovingkindness, justice, and righteousness, in the earth: for in these things I delight, saith Jehovah.

Jeremiah 9:23-24
 What is the most important thing in your life? What do you really take pride in or glory in? Is it wisdom, wealth, power, or something else? Whatever it is that you might glory in, the Lord God tells us that a man is not to glory in worldly things but rather in that "he hath understood, and knoweth me, that I am Jehovah who exerciseth lovingkindness, justice, and righteousness in the earth."

Why is it so important to know God? It is through the knowledge of God that we receive "all things that pertain unto life and godliness" (2 Peter 1:3). It is also important because knowing God is essential for anyone who would obtain eternal life. In the scriptures, it is written, "And this life eternal, that they should know thee the only true God, and him whom thou didst send, even Jesus Christ" (John 17:3 ASV).

This true knowledge of God is not possible through the wisdom of the world (1 Corinthians 1:21). True knowledge of God is possible only through His word in which He has revealed Himself and His will to us. In fact, knowing God requires more than simply learning what He is like and what His will is. If we really know Him, we must also obey Him. "And hereby we know that we know him, if we keep his commandments. He that saith, I know him, and keepeth not his commandments, is a liar, and the truth is not in him; but whoso keepeth his word, in him verily hath the love of God been perfected. Hereby we know that we are in him." I John 2:3-5.

A peaceful and happy life now, and a glorious eternity in heaven is promised to those who truly know God. The Rising Star Church of Christ welcomes you to come and be with us at any regular Bible study periods or worship services. Please contact us if we can be of service in any way.

First Baptist Church

Lack of commitment to a goal seems to be true of so many people today.

Victor Frank, the Viennese psychiatrist states that not having a goal is more to be feared than not reaching a goal. He says, "I would rather attempt to do something great and fail than attempt to do nothing and succeed."

Is it true of us who call ourselves christians? Do we not have a goal toward which we are moving?

If students went to school like some people go to church (when they feel like it), they would fail.

If an employee went to work like some people work in the church (indifferently), they would be fired.

If a person ate meals like some partake of the Lord's Supper (irregularly), they would starve to death.

If one paid bills like some support the church (occasionally), they would have no credit.

If one neglected his family like some do the family of God, they would be charged with desertion.

If one spoke to others as seldom as some pray to the Lord, they would be branded as antisocial.

Jesus stated clearly our goal as christians, "Seek ye first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness..." (Matt. 6:33).

Bible Baptist Church is having a special Christmas Service Sunday, December 16th. A puppet play will be presented at 10:00 a.m. featuring Herman and Ginger and their friends. The pastor will be bringing the Christmas message at the 11:00 a.m. worship service. At 3:00 p.m. a musical group from Coleman will give us a concert. The Christmas story in the Scene, a Felt with the Black light effect, will be given by the pastor at the conclusion of the concert. Our Christmas banquet will be held at 4:30 in the Senior Citizen Center. We hope every member of the Bible Baptist Church will make a special effort to attend on this very special day. We would like to take this opportunity to invite you to our special guest for the day.

7th Day Adventist Church

Behold the Lamb of God, which taketh away the sin of the world. John 1:29.

To Daniel was given a vision of fierce beasts, representing the powers of the earth. But the ensign of the Messiah's kingdom is a lamb. While earthly kingdoms rule by the ascendancy of physical power, Christ is to banish every carnal weapon, every instrument of coercion. His kingdom was to be established to uplift and ennoble fallen humanity.

To Adam, the offering of the first sacrifice was a most painful ceremony. His hand must be raised to take life, which only God could give... As he slew the innocent victim, he trembled at the thought that his sin must shed the blood of the spotless Lamb of God. This scene gave him a deeper and more vivid sense of the greatness of his transgression, which nothing but the death of God's dear Son could expiate. And he marveled at the infinite goodness that would give such a ransom to save the guilty.

The types and shadows of the sacrificial service, with the prophecies, gave the Israelites a veiled, indistinct view of the mercy and grace to be brought to the world by the revelation of Christ... Only through Christ can man keep the moral law. By transgression of this law man brought sin into the world, and with sin came death. Christ became the propitiation for man's sin. He proffered His Perfection of character in the place of man's sinfulness. He took upon Himself the curse of disobedience. The sacrifices and offerings pointed forward to the sacrifice He was to make. The slain lamb typified the Lamb that was to take away the sin of the world...

The law and the gospel are in perfect harmony. Each upholds the other. In all its majesty the law confronts the conscience, causing the sinner to feel his need of Christ as the propitiation for sin. The gospel recognizes the power and immutability of the law. "I had not known sin, but by the law" (Rom. 7:7), Paul declares. The sense of sin, urged home by the law, drives the sinner to the Saviour.

COMMENTARY

By Myrtle Owen

Zephaniah 3:1-8), Jerusalem's sin and redemption, and American too? Woe to that is filthy (or rebellious) and polluted, to the oppressing city! She obeyed not the voice; she received not correction; she trusted not in the Lord; she drew not near to her God. Her princes within her roaring lions; her judges are vining wolves; they gnaw not the bones till the morrow. Her prophets are lights and treacherous person; her priests have polluted the sanctuary, they have done violence to the law.

The just Lord is in the midst thereof; he will not do iniquity every morning doth he bring his judgment to light, he faileth not, but the unjust knoweth no shame. I have cut off the nations: their towers (or battlements) are desolate; I made their streets waste, that none passeth by: their cities are destroyed, so that there is no man, that there is none inhabited. I said, Surely thou wilt fear me, thou wilt receive instruction; so their dwelling should not be cut off, howsoever I punished them: but they rose early, and corrupted all their doings. Therefore wait ye upon me, saith the Lord, until the day that I rise up to the prey: for my determination is to gather the nations, that I may assemble the kingdoms, to pour upon them mine indignation, even all my fierce anger: for all the earth shall be devoured with the fire of my jealousy (or the anger of my resentment).

Our Friday 14th trip to Rose Park Senior Citizens center was inspirational. They have one of the most complete centers anywhere. There were people taking part in some ten or more departments. They were almost as proud to show off their place as we are to show off our place.

Fifteen Starbrites and four boosters enjoyed their special kind of hospitality. The cheerful response to our music by so large an audience made us feel beautiful. We are invited back in the spring. I am sure all will be ready to go.

We will start some more improvement on the center after the holidays.

We wish to thank Norma Carpenter for emptying another room for us.

Some of our group stopped and cut a Christmas tree on the way home from Abilene. It is up and decorated. It not only looks pretty it smells pretty.

Rising Star Nursing Center

'Tis the season to be jolly! So come and visit with us. Many relatives can not be at the nursing home this year so come and take their place.

Our Christmas tree is up and decorated and we are all proud of our new tree—thank you Danny and Josie. Decorations are going up all around. Many are busy addressing cards for dear ones.

Now we are all just waiting for Santa and he will be here Dec. 19th at 2:00 p.m. for our Christmas party. Come and join in the festivities!! The Rising Star G.A.'s will be visiting. The May First Baptist Church Youth Group will be with us at 3:00 p.m. to sing and visit.

Believe it or not there are no resident birthdays this month. I do have a list of employees birthdays.

Jackie Munsey, Dorothy Horrell, Irene Starkey, Jamie Clark and your truly.

ATTENTION EMPLOYEE BIRTHDAY PARTY will be Dec. 19th also but at 6:30 p.m. Everyone bring your gift, covered dish and be prepared to eat!

We are sorry to say four of our residents are in the hospital. Lucy Willett is in the Brownwood Community. Minnie Mayfield, Tom Crisp and Carrie Bucy are all in the Abilene Hendricks Hospital. We're all wishing you a speedy recovery and hope you'll be back with us for X-mas.

Last but not least we want to welcome two new nurses-aides to our staff. Jetta Linney on the 7:00 a.m.-3:00 p.m. and Judy Evans on the 3:00-11 p.m.

The May F.H.A. girls will be visiting Mon., Dec. 17th and will serve refreshments to the residents.

Stenholm Urges American People To Mail Christmas Cards To Hostage

Congressman Charles W. Stenholm has urged the American people to "mail a Christmas card to hostage American citizens in Iran during the holiday season as an indication of our concern and support."

Stenholm is to introduce a concurrent resolution before Congress Monday asking that "the American people immediately send Christmas cards to the hostages as an indication of our concern for their welfare and our support for the government of the United States as it seeks to secure their release."

"The cost of a Christmas card and the approximate 62 cents for postage is a small price for us to pay to indicate to the Iranian government the unity and resolve of our people," Stenholm said.

"In a situation like this, particularly one which has lasted so long, it is frustrating because everyone wants to do 'something' to help, but as individuals, it seems that there is little we can do," he said, explaining the purpose of the resolution.

"While the State Department has given us little assurance that the cards would ever actually be delivered to the hostages, we can hope.

Of course, more than anything else, we hope that the hostages have been released before the cards are even mailed. But if they are not, delivery of the cards to the American Embassy in Iran will be a strong indication to the Iranian government of our support.

In his resolution, Stenholm said both the Iranian government and the students illegally holding the hostages "do not believe the government of the United States currently enjoys the support of the American people in its dealings..."

I can't think of a better Christmas present for the Ayatollah Khomeini than an avalanche of cards being sent to our embassy people," he concluded.

Cards should be sent to American Embassy, 260 Taleghani Avenue, Tehran, Iran.
