Lots of greeters and well wishers were outside the new high school with a big banner welcoming Pee Wee O'Conner home.

A Big Welcome For Pee Wee O'Conner

The day Pee Wee O'Conner returned to Rising Star was designated by Mayor Jarrell Bible as Steven (Pee Wee) O'Conner Day.

Pee Wee was met and escorted to the high school from the outskirts of Rising Star about 12:45 last Wednesday afternoon by Chief of Police Lewey Wyatt. A large banner (made by Donnie Horton) outside the building welcomed Pee Wee back home. Four members (Commander Milton Teague, Garry Duggan, Alan Morris and Herb Collins) of the American Legion, of which Pee Wee's father, Timothy "Bones" O'Conner is a member, escorted him to the auditorium stage where High School Principal Robby Stuteville had arranged seating, decorations and the dismissal of classes, in order for Pee Wee's classmates greet him upon his return. The cheerleaders had made a very large and colorful "Welcome Home" banner with signatures of well wishers that stretched across one wall of the auditorium.

City Administrator Shirley Leonard read and presented Pee Wee with the proclamation the mayor had written, stating how proud the city was of his bravery and being the first to pave the way for future transplants of this type. Gene Moore, acting president of the Rising Star Chamber of Commerce and Agriculture, was also present to welcome the teenager and express the proud feelings and the hopes of his full recovery and permanent return home and back to school.

Pee Wee explained to the audience how he was still undergoing about five hours of intensive therapy each day and 'Bones' helped to give a short demonstration of a couple of the exercises. Pee Wee is able to raise his arm and move his fingers to some degree. He is also, with special equipment, able to feed himself. This therapy is essential and has to be done every day so as not to lose the progress made thus far. For this reason, the boy could not be away from the hospital for any length of time. He, his family and friends were hoping he would be able to stay for the football game on Friday night, but his doctors insisted he be taken back early Friday morning.

To add to the excitement, KTAB television was there for an interview and an update on the innovative transplant. KTAB had provided news coverage of the transplant from the time of the surgery.

This was Pee Wee's first glimpse of the new high school. Continued inside...

Grant for EMS Communications Was Confirmed

The Rising Star EMS (Emergency Medical Service) received confirmation last week that they will be receiving the communications grant they recently applied for. The grant, in the amount of just under $2,000, is to help purchase radio equipment needed for the ambulance service. This amount covers half the cost of the radios and the EMS will be required to furnish the other $2,000. Presently, $531.00 of that amount has been donated toward the purchase of the equipment.

The ambulance service's volunteer crews first started raising money with the booth at the fourth of July Freedom Festival. They sold refreshments and raised $176.00. The Rising Star EMS Communication Account number at the Peoples State Bank is 55-484-7.

Denise Hubbard and John Kerr recently completed their EMT training course successfully and, hopefully, three more will be certified this month, according to Garry Duggan, coordinator of the service.

The Rising Star volunteer ambulance service covers Rising Star, May and surrounding areas. The volunteers are looking forward to the aid of the radio equipment in and they plan to continue this service to area residents.

EMS Meeting Is Wednesday

The Rising Star EMS (Emergency Medical Service) has a meeting scheduled for Wednesday, September 9 at 7:00 p.m.

This is an open meeting and anyone wishing to attend is welcome. All EMTs and drivers are urged to attend.

Ex-Students Will Announce Gift at Homecoming

The officers and board of directors of the Rising Star Ex-Student Association met recently to finalize the plans for the upcoming 36th annual homecoming. Big plans are being made to have the greatest homecoming ever.

A gift from the Ex-Student Association will be in place by that date. We hope everyone will be as excited about it as we are.

With the cooperation of Superintendent Wayne Calhoun and High School Principal Robby Stuteville, our activities will be held in the new high school. The ex-students will be very proud of the new facility, as all of us are.

The Class of 1942 will be honored as the 50th Golden Anniversary Class. The speakers for the business meeting will be members of that class. We will also recognize other classes ending in 2 and 7 during the roll call of all classes.

Be sure to make your plans to attend both days of activities if possible. We will focus on "Past Memories — New Beginnings." Come along and join us!

Twirlers at May

Cemetery Expanded on North, Waterway Fixed

Approximately five acres of land, donated to Rising Star Cemetery by Edith and Kenneth Bibb, has been cleared of growth and leveled and a waterway to carry rainfall away from the cemetery has been created. The rainfall Monday night and Tuesday morning, measuring near 4 inches, revealed the need for minor adjustments in the waterway.

The addition extends about 157 feet along the entire length (east to west) of the cemetery on the north side. Fencing will begin next week. Working on the project have been County Commissioner L.T. Owen, Larry Bond, Junior Witt, W.E. Caudle and Kenneth Bibb.

The photos were made at the northwest corner of the new area.

Star Pride Volunteers Accomplish Lot in Clean-Up Despite Rain

Star Pride workers met in front of the Higginbotham building Monday to work on cleaning up our downtown area for homecoming next month. Scheduled work hours were from 6 to 8 p.m. but we were forced to abandon work by rain about 7:20.

Star Pride would like to tell the workers thank you for their work and support. Workers were Dicie Adams, Barbara Kanady, Ruby Murdoch, Tonya Killion, Fredda Criswell, Martha Joyce, Anna and Charles Barnes, Janell Caudle, Debbie Winfrey and Jean Ramsay.

The group of workers then met at the home of Floyd Joyce for our planned hot dog supper and we would like to thank businesses and individuals who furnished food for the group. These are Charlene Rider, Max's Quickway, Quik Stop, Barbara Kanaday, Fredda Criswell, Ruby Murdoch, Jerry and Debbie Winfrey, Martha Joyce, Tonya Killion, Anna Barnes and Jean Ramsay. A special note of appreciation is extended to Floyd Joyce for allowing us to meet at his home and to our chef John J. Joyce. The hot dogs were great!

Thanks, too, to Penny, Kailani, Zachary and Brett—StarPride's cheering section Monday evening.

Star Pride welcomes Julia Devers and Jean and James New to the membership. The organization meets the first Tuesday of every month at 5 p.m. at Peoples State Bank.

A Walk Across the U.S.

Rising Star has been visited by the second cross country walker in 18 days.

Fred Turner, a 53-year-old hiker from Nevada, began traveling May 5 from South Carolina toward San Juan Capistrano, Calif. and made a stop here August 8.

Wayne Larsen, 42 years old and from Anchorage, Alas., began his stroll in Georgia April 16 and is headed for Cloverdale, Calif. He took a long lunch break in Rising Star August 26, chatting with the folks at White's Cafe for a few hours.

Larsen told them he decided to go for a walk after a good friend died from diabetes last February. He's still walking, now about halfway across the United States.

The long distance walker chose the southern section of the country to cross because of the climate, and he plans to swing to the north to avoid the desert, but wasn't sure just what his route would be. He left Rising Star last Wednesday afternoon headed for Cross Plains and had plans to be in Abilene Friday.

Larsen spent several weeks at his parents' house in central Iowa, training for the journey. Continued Inside ...

THANK YOU

My sisters and I recently hosted a 50th wedding anniversary party for Herman and Jean Ogden. We appreciate the hospitality extended to us by the owner and manager of Cook's Fish Barn while we decorated for the party, and we thank them for the wonderful service we had during the dinner. Coming from Las Vegas, Nev., we have had many opportunities to work with large and small restaurants during different parties. Several of them could certainly take a lesson from Cook's Fish Barn's attitude in extending a warm and caring service for their guests.

Catherine Thomas Attends Southern Region 4-H Textile And Furniture Symposium In North Carolina

Catherine Thomas receives a certificate after completing the 4-H Textile and Furniture Symposium from J. Douglas Gaylon, director of public affairs for Guilford Mills Inc., Greensboro, N.C.

Catherine Thomas of Eastland, attended the Southern Region 4-H Textile and Furniture Symposium in North Carolina.

The symposium was held Aug. 1-7 at North Carolina State University at Raleigh, the University of North Carolina at Greensboro, and High Point College in High Point.

Activities were conducted by faculty in the Colleges of Textiles, Engineering, and Forest Resources at NCSU, the Department of Interior Design in the School of Human Environmental Sciences at UNC-G, and the Home Furnishings Marketing Program at High Point College.

Fifty-four delegates and three returnees from 12 states participated and received certificates or silver trays upon completion.

First-year delegates opted to focus on either the textile or furniture industries during the week. Thomas, 17, daughter of Tommy and Janet Thomas, chose the textile option. She studied fiber identification, yarn testing, design techniques, physical testing, color design and computer applications.

Seminars for the textile and furniture tracks covered each industry's history, economic significance, future and career options. Delegates toured textile and furniture companies for a firsthand look at how industries use the concepts and techniques they studied.

To obtain information on career opportunities, they attended career rap sessions led by textile or furniture professionals working as chemists, computer programmers, salespersons, designers, engineers and managers.

The symposium, conducted by the North Carolina Cooperative Extension Service, was initiated in 1989 through a grant from Guilford Mills Inc. in Greensboro. The symposium is now sponsored by industry members of the North Carolina Textile Manufacturers Association and by Classic Gallery Inc., a furniture company in High Point.

Pee Wee Has His Day

school building and he seemed very impressed. He was walking all around the campus in no time and, as his father put it, you needed rollerskates to keep up with him.

Due to a very destructive and dangerous hurricane in the Gulf, the Shriners Burn Center in Galveston was moving patients into Houston for safety. This could have meant a little overcrowding at the Houston hospital. However, it was not determined for certain if Pee Wee would be one of those released, for this short period of time, until about 3:00 pm Tuesday.

Wednesday was Pee Wee's first visit home since he was critically injured in a one-car accident last May which claimed the life of his mother, Kay, and left his brother, Bill, seriously injured. Bill seems to have recovered nicely and is doing well at the present time.

Pee Wee had been airlifted from the scene of the tragic accident to Hermann Hospital in Houston, where he underwent several operations, some by the well known Dr. Red Duke. After several weeks, which included many hours on the operating table, it was concluded that Pee Wee would never be able to use his left arm and hand again. This would have left the teenager with no hands, since he lost his right hand when he was just a baby. He was told by doctors at the hospital that his only hope for having a usable hand would be to transplant his left hand onto his right arm. His father said the decision would be Pee Wee's. We are told the young man said "Let's get with it, I've gotta have a hand." Dr. Melissinos, the surgeon who performed the surgery, stated that the 16 year old was enthusiastic about the transplant and only his unique situation made the attempt possible. While it was feasible to transplant a hand from one person onto the arm of another, just as organs can be transplanted, the rejection problem would be phenomenal. O'Conner will not have to face such rejection because the tissue in the transplanted hand is his own.

This being the first hand transplant known, the news has caused worldwide attention. Pee Wee has received mail and phone calls from all over the world and has been written about in numerous newspapers and magazines in many countries. This attention was not only focused on the fact that the hand transplant had made medical history, but also included the brave attitude and outlook Pee Wee had displayed. The doctors at the medical center have explained that only someone with his unusual and fantastic attitude could have survived all the surgeries and the transplant. It was reported that he never stopped joking and laughing. And when he was first told he couldn't walk, he managed to make it out of his room and into the hallway before falling and bringing to the nurses' attention that he could and would walk sooner than they imagined. It is this kind of determination that has Pee Wee getting around as well as he is today.

Bonnie White Involved In Area Art Activities

Eastland County professional artist Bonnie White formally of Austin, (hill country area) will be speaking to the "Saturday Club, Texas Federation Women's Club" of Rising Star, September 16, 1992, on the subject of "Why Should You Be Involved in Art."

Beginning September 21, 1992, the Michaels' Stores of Abilene, will also be sponsoring her in a series of classes, featuring oils and acrylics, in their newly opened store.

On Saturday, November 14, 1992, the "Frames and Things" Gallery of Brownwood will feature Bonnie in a "One Person Show," Exhibit, and Sale. There will be a reception honoring the artist and time allowed to view and discuss her works.

The show will have a Texas Artist theme.

The artist's work will be featured in the next upcoming publication of "Artists of Texas" to be available to galleries, art collectors, and retail outlets in January 1993.

Her next works will feature "Old Pioneer Professions."

For additional information may be obtained by calling Brownwood (817) 646-8811, Abilene (915) 695-3600, or Eastland (817) 629-2480.

State Leaders Decide Not to Appeal Federal Court Decision

State leaders decided Monday of last week not to appeal an August 21 Federal Court decision that the November Texas Senate elections be held under the same boundaries as in the March primaries.

A three-judge Federal panel in Austin set those lines.

This was the latest - and appeared to be the final - pre-election decision in Court battles which have seesawed back and forth for months.

A different plan was penned by the State Legislature and approved recently by a panel of Federal judges in Washington, D.C., then this plan was reversed in the Aug. 21 ruling.

Secretary of State John Hannah had planned to use the Legislature-drawn plans for the fall elections, but was challenged in Court by the Republican Party and some other Senators who did not like the redistricting.

Although the latest ruling will not be challenged before November, the redistricting will probably land back in Court after the election is over.

Attorney General Dan Morales, (Democrat) who favors the Legislature-drawn boundary lines, says the state will file an appeal for the Texas Senate elections in 1994.

Morales is reported as saying that the Court-drawn plan is inferior, but the state has no expectations of emergency relief before the 1992 General Elections.

The latest Court ruling has an impact on the Senatorial race in District 22, which includes Eastland County. Under the boundaries set up by the Federal Court - and used in the March primaries - incumbent Senator Bob Glasgow (Democrat) and Jane Nelson (Republican) are opponents in the race.

Both have commented on the redistricting and latest court ruling.

Senator Glasgow says: "The Federal Courts and Republican Party are forcing Texans to vote in distorted districts, but I am pleased that the uncertainty is finally over. This is my home, I was running in District 22 regardless of the outcome of the court case."

The Senator adds: "The voters will have a clear choice in the November election. I have fought hard for Texas families...."

"My opponent, unfortunately, has fallen into the same old negative campaigning...But like my good friend, Ann Richards, I will vigorously defend our record."

Jane Nelson says: "This (court ruling) is good news for the people of Texas and bad news for trial lawyer incumbent State Senators....It's good to be back in the District which I was elected in the Primary to represent."

"My race against Glasgow is still a referendum on the State Income Tax. Glasgow favors it and I oppose it."

Nelson says she plans to spend the next two months aggressively attacking Glasgow's voting record and spending practices."

then took a bus to Georgia in early April and began walking west. He expects the 3,000 mile trip to take about 18 months.

Larsen visited a friend he hadn't seen in 26 years in Montgomery, Ala. and enjoyed sightseeing at an observatory and an antique weapons collection display, both in Louisiana. He toured the state prison museum in Huntsville and made a stop at Bryan-College Station.

"I go pretty much where I feel like going, Larsen said, and added that most people have been friendly, offering meals, drinks and support. Before his visit ended at White's Cafe, the long distance walker promised that after he reached his friends in California he would send photographs he made while here as mementos of his visit.

Let it Rain

It has been raining here as if all the faucets in heaven had been opened full blast.

Before the steady downpour turned my vine-ripening tomatoes into soup, we had "frequent intermittent showers." Very frequent.

It is the sort of weather that tries a mother's soul, not to mention her patience and creativity.

After sacrificing June to summertime landscape and home-improvement chores, I had planned the rest of the summer around my favorite lounge chair at the pool. Instead, I have been searching for new answers to familiar questions.

"What can we do now?" "Do you think it will stop soon?" "Why can't we go to the pool?"

I went through every "rainy day" guidebook at the library, played more games of Monopoly than I can count and even reneged a little on our "no daytime TV" rule. And it's still raining.

This morning, in desperation, I discovered the solution. I sent the children outside to play.

"But Mom!" Julie cried. "My hair will get wet!"

"No wetter than at the pool," I noted, scooting my 12-year-old and her 5-year-old sister, Emily, out the door. Soon they were romping around the yard in their boots and slickers, having what the little one called "an adventure!"

I realized then that my children had rarely, if ever, been "caught" in the rain. Rainy mornings before school, Dad drove them to the bus stop. Rainy afternoons, I picked them up.

The only firsthand exposure our children had to a rainstorm was a quick run from the store to the car — barely long enough to get damp.

Clearly, it was a major failing in their upbringing.

Watching Julie and Emily frolic in the puddles, I recalled the time at Girl Scout camp when my troop got lost in a storm after our leader decided to take a shortcut through the woods. There was no path and no indication that our drenched little bodies ever again would see civilization. Exhilarated, I wiped the water from my eyes to see the tall trees bend in the wind. What an adventure!

I recalled many days trudging home from school in the rain. Or standing on the corner in a downpour with my safety patrol flag, guiding smaller children across the street. Much later in life, the rain caused me little concern as we hauled and piled sandbags in our efforts — sometimes successful, sometimes futile — to contain the river that regularly threatened the tiny Appalachian town where I went to college. I realized today that I had done my children no great favor by protecting them from the weather. Learning to deal with — and respect — the elements is an important part of growing up.

The next time we have a deluge, which I'm sure will be soon, I plan to don my rain gear and join them in the back yard. ■

Plans Underway For 11th Annual Roaring Ranger Day

Chamber Directors, members and several individuals interested in promoting the history of our small city are making plans for the 11th Annual Roaring Ranger Day festivities.

For those unaware of this strange event, each year Ranger's "main street" becomes a gauntlet of food, drinks, crafts, games and entertainment.

The Ranger Lions Club serves the traditional "Cowboy Breakfast" cook-out under the stars. Actual cooking begins before daybreak and by dawn there is always a line waiting for scrambled eggs, bacon, sausage, biscuit, pancakes, coffee and juice. You must see this group COOK!

The parade will begin promptly at 10:00. Those wishing to enter or need information you may call Kay Dobbs at 647-1552 or Phylecia Schooling at 647-3044 or Bob Galloway at the Chamber Office.

Food, crafts and game booths will open immediately after the parade. Food booths with electricity are $30.00. Craft and game booths are $20.00. For additional information call Kay Dobbs or the Chamber Office.

The Horseshoe and Washer Pitching Tournament will be sponsored by the Ranger Little League. You may call Paul or Paula Ausburn at 647-5239.

There will be a 6 person mixed Volleyball Tournament. Those interested may call Kay Dobbs at 647-1552.

Cheerleading and Drill Team competition will be held in the Old High School Gym beginning at 12:00. Ranger College will sponsor this event and you may contact Laura Flowers at 647-3234.

Antique Cars will be on display. Those interested may contact Floyd Caraway at 647-1280.

The RHS Cheerleaders and Band Boosters will sponsor the cake walk. Anyone wishing to donate a baked good may call Karen Clifton at 647-5139.

The Chamber will be selling Roaring Ranger T-Shirts, in bright new colors for children and adults, caps and Train Whistles. (It sounds like a real train.)

Plans are in the making for Lawn Mower Races, Bull Bingo, Ugly Pickup and Tractor Contest, and a "street and Hot Rod" show. The Industrial Foundation is sponsoring a hole in one tournament with a 1992 car for a winner.

Ranger Dairy Queen will be hosting a Ranch Rodeo and a brisket cookoff at the Jaycee Arena.

Ranger Jaycee will have their annual Roaring Ranger Day dance in the evening at the Jaycee Barn.

All in all this will be a fun filled day of activities and entertainment for all ages. Don't forget to mark your calendar for Saturday, September 26!

Chronic stress seems to increase the likelihood of getting a cold, says a report in "The New England Journal of Medicine."

Research with nursing mothers and their babies discovered that infants didn't like the smell of alcohol (in the milk if the mother had been drinking), so they took less. But babies did like garlic odor, researchers found at the Monell Chemical Senses Center in Philadelphia.

Indian restaurants serve spice mixtures after meals to freshen the breath. Now scientists at the University of California/Berkeley find that strong-flavored cardamom, one of the spices, is effective against bacteria that cause cavities.

A "cure" for bronchitis, according to the 17th century doctor William Harvey: put a clove of garlic inside your shoe.

Migraine headaches are on the increase and rose 60 percent in the 1980s, according to the National Center for Health Statistics. Why? Air pollution and stress get at least some of the blame.

Janet Thomas Honored At State Convention Of Texas Assoc. Extension Home Economists

Janet E. Thomas, Eastland County Extension Agent - Home Economics, was honored at the annual state convention of the Texas Association of Extension Home Economists in Lubbock recently.

The Distinguish Service Award was presented to Mrs. Thomas. This is the most prestigious award presented by the Association each year. The citation highlighted programs on parenting skills and youth-at-risk which have successfully strengthened families. Mrs. Thomas currently serves as District Associate Director for the District 8 Texas Extension Home Economist Association, and District 8 Director of the Epsilon Sigma Phi Extension fraternity. She is a certified home economist and member of the American Home Economics Association.

She is a graduate of Texas Tech University and began her career as Assistant County Home Demonstration Agent in McLennan (Waco) County. She transferred to Eastland County in 1966 to assume the duties of County Home Demonstration Agent (currently known as County Extension Agent Home Economics), and is responsible for both adult and youth home economics programming. She provides leadership in the development of the 4-H youth program and leadership development of youth.

She and her husband, Tommy, reside at Lake Leon; and are the parents of a daughter, Catherine, who is active in 4-H Club projects.

Janet E. Thomas, Eastland County Extension Agent-Home Economist, receives recognition as 1992 Distinguished Service Award recipient. Metra Harrison, Assistant Director for County Programs for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service presented the plaque at the annual State Convention of Extension Home Economists in Lubbock.

Texas Guaranteed Student Loan Corporation Mails Default Student Notices

The Texas Guaranteed Student Loan Corporation has mailed the first wage withholding notices to Texans who have defaulted on their federally guaranteed student loans. Recipients have 30 days to make repayment arrangements or file an appeal before their employer is notified to withhold up to 10 percent of the employees net pay.

Wage withholding is arguable the most powerful tool for the collection of defaulted guaranteed student loan balances. It was made possible in Texas by passage of the November 1991 Emergency Unemployment Benefit Compensation Act.

Defaulted borrowers who enter into voluntary repayment with TCSLC will not be subjected to wage withholding. Borrowers can call toll-free 1-800-222-6297 to set up a repayment agreement.

The first group of borrowers to receive withholding notices is fairly representative of the entire population, according to Cathy Flautt, TCSLC's Director of Public Affairs. The group includes trade school, two-year and four-year college and university graduates. Loan balances range from $1,100 to $26,860 for seven loans. Most have been in default for more than a year with no resolution on their accounts. Some have already had judgments filed against them but have still not responded.

The federal law requires that the withholding be done administratively — which means that no court action is needed. It allows up to 10 percent of a borrower's disposable income to be withheld and to be applied to their defaulted loan balance until it is paid in full.

Withholding will affect defaulted borrowers only. Defaulters are borrowers who made no payments for at least six months and the lender has already been reimbursed by claim.

The federal guaranteed student loan program utilizes money from participating lenders, and in Texas, the Texas Higher Education Coordinating Board, to make low-interest loans to students, and their parents, attending private and public colleges and trade and technical schools. The loans offer long term repayment periods, deferments, forbearance options and grace periods to assist borrowers in repaying their obligation. Borrowers who default on their loan obligation, however,

University Of Texas Austin's Center Opens Newspaper Exhibit

Newspapers representing a broad spectrum of political and cultural interests over the past 150 years are the subject of "Paper, Mister? Newspaper Resources in the Center for American History," a new exhibition at The University of Texas at Austin's Center for American History.

do not qualify for these benefits. The program is subsidized by the federal government. TCSLC is a non-profit public corporation which administers the federal program for the State of Texas.

The newspapers are a sample of the center's holdings of more than 4,800 titles drawn from its Texas Newspaper Collection, Natchez Trace Collection and George W. Littlefield Southern History Collection.

A rich source of information on the diverse communities they served, the newspapers in the exhibit include The Choctaw Intelligencer (1851) from the then-Indian Territory of Oklahoma; a 1925 issue of the Brownsville Cronista del Valle; Philadelphia's Lady's Newspaper from 1849; the Louisville, Ky., Heathen Helper (1886); and an 1837 issue of Boston abolitionist William Lloyd Garrison's The Liberator.

"By studying newspapers, we gain an insight into both the activities and the thoughts of members of the diverse and overlapping communities that compose American society," said Fred Burchsted, the exhibit's curator.

Many newspapers on exhibit wear their affiliations on their mastheads. Elgin's Pure Democracy (1922) proclaims, "Democracy versus popery — no neutral ground, no compromise, Rome must be destroyed, our fight is legal." Cincinnati's American Grange Bulletin (1888) declares, "Hew to the line, let the chips fall where they will." The Brazoria Texas Planter (1853) announces that it is "Devoted to literature, agriculture and general intelligence."

Also on view are rare newspapers printed in Texas, such as the first issue of the Telegraph and Texas Register, published Oct. 10, 1835, in San Felipe de Austin, and a July 1832 "extra" issued by the Texas Gazette and Brazoria Commercial Advertiser, which recounts the reception of Jose Antonio Mexia given by Brazoria citizens.

The exhibit highlights an 1895 issue of the satirical Rolling Stone, published in Austin by short-story writer W.S. Porter, also known as O. Henry, and a 1941 issue of Up and Down the Drag, a UT Austin student paper published by Zelma O'Riley, known to many as "Bicycle Annie."

Also featured are business and promotional newspapers, religious papers, papers for youths and immigrants, and newspaper "carrier's addresses," which combine a year's synopsis of the news in verse with a plea to tip the newsboy on New Year's Day.

The Center for American History, a unit of the UT General Libraries, gives special attention to its 2,500 historic Texas newspaper titles through its Texas Newspaper Project, a national Endowment for the Humanities-funded program to identify, preserve and provide public access to historically important newspapers in Texas.

In addition, the center's archival and manuscript collections document the careers of many Texas newspaper publishers and writers, including Asher G. Smoot, editor of the Austin Statesman and founder of the Austin American; Jesse Jones, U.S. secretary of commerce, Houston financier and publisher of the Houston Chronicle; and Adolph Douai, publisher of the Neu Braunfels Zeitung, San Antonio Zeitung and El Bejareno, who was forced out of Texas for his abolitionist views.

"Paper, Mister?" is on display at the Center for American History through Sept. 30. The center is in Sid Richardson Hall Unit 2, adjacent to the LBJ Library and Museum, and is open to the public from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Monday through Saturday.

For more information, contact the center's exhibits coordinator Lynn Bell at 495-4515.

"Honey, I Blew Up The Kid" Comes To Majestic In Eastland

It was inevitable that Walt Disney Pictures would announce a sequel to their summer 1989 hit "Honey, I Shrunk the Kids." Not only was the original film an international smash at the box office, but the public took a particular liking to inventor Wayne Szalinski and his family.

"People admire Szalinski's character," says Ed Fieldman, who co-produces the film with Dawn Steel. "He's a kind of off-the-wall scientist with a wonderful homey touch and a huge likability factor. Audiences have great compassion for him even while he's shrinking or enlarging matter or creating his Rube Goldberg machines."

"Honey I Blew Up the Kids" is set three years after Wayne Szalinski (Rick Moranis) shrunk his children. This time he has created a formidable enlargement ray that can expand molecules. Unfortunately the Szalinski's baby, Adam (played by twins Daniel and Joshua Shalikar) wanders in front of the beam during one of Daddy's research experiments. Soon Wayne and his teen-ageson Nick (Robert Oliveri) discover that Adam grows at an alarming rate whenever he's near electric power. And when he reaches 56 feet, he wanders off into the desert. There he encounters a high tension wire, and skyrockets to 112 feet.

Now Wayne and Company must locate Adam before he heads for the bright lights of Las Vegas, where the largest amount of energy in the world is concentrated.

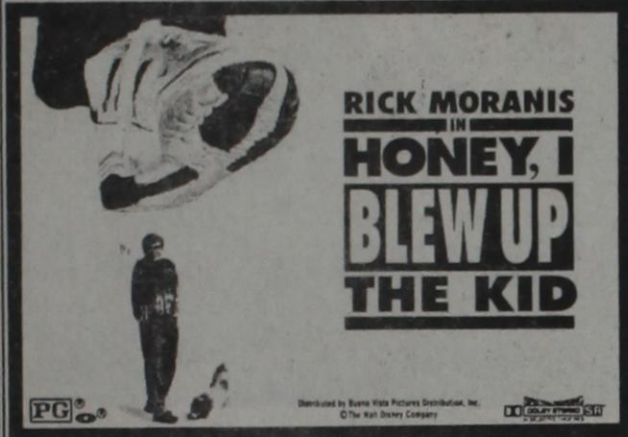

Follow this zany comedy in all its adventures at the Majestic Theatre in Eastland this weekend, Friday, September 4 nightly through Monday, September 7. Curtain time is 7:30 with tickets now at $3.50. The picture is rated PG. A cartoon will show with the main feature.

Growing up in the Szalinski family takes no time at all for little Adam (Daniel and Joshua Shalikar), especially when daddy, Wayne (Rick Moranis) accidentally douses his youngest with a particle beam from his latest experiment: an electromagnetic ray that expands molecules to the nth degree. Now, Adam is growing at an alarming rate and gets bigger whenever he comes in contact with an electrical source in "Honey, I Blew Up the Kid" which will be showing at Majestic Theatre in Eastland Friday, Sept. 4 through Monday, Sept. 7.

CHIROPRACTIC FOR BETTER HEALTH

DR. STEPHEN G. BARRY

MEDICAL RESEARCH SUPPORTS CHIROPRACTIC

The British Medical Journal reports that Chiropractic treatment of low back pain, which affects 75 million Americans, is superior to the standard regimen administered by medical doctors.

The study, published in the summer of 1990, indicated that chiropractic manipulation can relieve severe back pain quicker and at lower cost than medical treatment. Chiropractic patients experienced less pain and disability and missed fewer days work.

we are committed to not only getting you free of back pain but treating those conditions which cause your pain. Don't delay treatment when help is readily available.

Harbor Of Rest
As we watch the waves of sin
Splashing high above the land
Are we safe in the Harbor of Love
Built by the Master's hand.
Or are we like little boats
Ever on a stormy sea
Always tossing to and fro
With no hope of finding

Thee.
There is a small voice calling
Echoing across the waves
Take up your cross and follow Me
And I will guide your days.
When we finally reach that Harbor
And our world on earth is through
Will the Lord say welcome home
I'm very proud of you.

Monday the Quilters were putting a Tumbling Blocks and a Jacobs Ladder into the frames to begin the fall 1992 season of work.

The 42 party crowd will resume their Thursday night bi-weekly gatherings on September 3.

Frankie and Oliver Smith and Jean Fore attended the Rising Star musical on Friday night and on Saturday went to Ranger and saw Frankies father. He was doing well.

Nell and Joe Fleming were visited last Monday morning by Bob Steel of Rising Star and by Mr. and Mrs. B.J. Anderson, also of Rising Star. Novilia Barton came to visit on Wednesday and Mrs. Janelle Purvis and her mother, Mrs. Ruth Joy, of Cross Plains, on Saturday morning. Bobby Nell Brown of the community visited on Sunday afternoon.

Novilia Barton accompanied Betty Beggs this week to Brownwood to see a doctor.

Laverne and Cowan Hutton attended the Hutton reunion Saturday in Shallowater. The past

Thursday, Lynn, Pam and Samantha had lunch with Laverne and Cowan. On Sunday, Bob and JoAnn Mills of DeRidder, Louisiana, visited.

Jean and Alexander and Dorothy Zedlitz went to Salado and had dinner at the Stagecoach Inn. They enjoyed touring the shops, including the Briar Patch.

Senior Citizens Center

by Marjorie West

Thursday, August 27, was a lovely, cool day at the center. August has been an unusual month and we have enjoyed the cooler days we have had.

Marion and Marjorie West went to Cisco Wednesday and enjoyed luncheon at the Senior Citizens Center. Ruth Cartee, manager of the center there is recuperating from surgery held at Humana Hospital in Abilene.

Curtis and Stella Hill visited their children in Lancaster, Kay and John Bradley and children and also Marty Hill, over the weekend.

Curtis and Stella Hill and Mary Carroll visited their sister, Alice and Dowell West, in Abilene Wednesday and did a little shopping.

A special luncheon was served today in honor of the following August birthdays: Carrie Gaines, B.B. Ivie, Norman Claborn, Loulene Claborn and Inez Elliott. Congratulations go to each of you.

We owe a big thanks to our hostesses, Irma Jones, Artie Jagers and Betty Raybon, for this month; they have done a good job and we appreciate each of them.

Evelyn and Joe Ward were really glad to hear that her family in Louisiana were OK. The hurricane did little damage to the property. Some tree damage and, presently have no electricity. The Wards went to Brownwood to visit her sister, who has recently moved there.

Thanks to the Rising Star Flower Shop for the beautiful bouquet for our birthday party. Monty Jones remembers our birthday party every month and we appreciate the flowers.

Martha Carouth spent Sunday with her daughter, Linda Bates, and family. They enjoyed eating chicken at a restaurant. She will go for an eye checkup next Thursday.

Myrtle Wilson was a visitor at our center Thursday. We are glad you came and hope you come again soon.

Our local retired nurses will start taking blood pressure at the Senior Citizens Center starting Thursday, September 3. Those that need this service, mark the date.

Pauline Parson was a visitor at our center Thursday.

We regret that Lucy Curtis is not feeling well; we hope she will feel better soon.

We wish to thank Irma Jones for making the beautiful birthday cake for our party.

Have a good week!

Sipe Springs News

Friends received the death message of Mae Nell New, wife of Monk New; services and burial were at Kermit. We extend our sympathy to her relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Larry Anderson of Snyder visited Mary Anderson and her mother, Jessie Duncan, and with Winnie Anderson of Rising Star. Visitors at the T.A. Weavers' home have been Dale Cagle of Comanche, Covie Weaver of Garland and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Cagle of Carbon.

Rosa Jones Holder of Abilene passed away Thursday; Rosa was a sister of Iola Barton. Iola and Ted Barton attended the funeral at Clyde Saturday afternoon. We extend our sympathy to her family.

Mrs. Conova Weaver and daughter, Marita Smith, have had a busy week putting up all kinds of goodies for the bad winter ahead. The peas, cucumbers, relishes, apples, pears and other goodies will have relatives and friends paying them visits at mealtime (ha).

Mr. and Mrs. Dee Brown of Marble Falls visited his sisters, Joyce McKeenan and Opal Whiteside, this past week.

Mrs. Tommy Guthrie of Gorman, Mr. and Mrs. Mike Stokes of Brownwood, Gayle Leonard of Fort Worth and George and Ronnie Leonard of Rising Star were visitors of Mae Leonard this past week.

PERSONAL

Recent visitors of Helen Donham and Mike and Evelyn Donham were Ben Donham, 15-year-old son of Nancy and Don Donham from Palo Alto, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. Mike Spencer and children, Everett and Hannah; and Mr. Mel Spencer Sr. of Hawaii.

The Mike Spencers are in the process of moving to Seattle, Wash. where Mike will be a graduate student at the University of Washington

AARP's Tax Aide Program Seeks Volunteers

The American Association of Retired Persons (AARP) Tax Aide volunteers are trained in cooperation with the Internal Revenue Service. From February 1 through April 15 each year, more than 27,000 volunteers help over 1.3 million people file tax returns at 9,500 sites.

In preparation for the coming tax season, volunteers interested in helping the elderly with their income tax are being recruited by the American Association of Retired Persons. Adults of all ages can volunteer in this program. Membership in AARP is not a criteria, only an interest in helping older persons. Volunteers' minimum time requirement is only four hours weekly during February, March and April. Three volunteer positions where you can be a part of Tax Aide success: Counselor, to provide one-on-one help to older taxpayers; Instructor, to train

The Herman Ogdens Honored on Their 50th Anniversary

Jean and Herman Ogden

Herman and Myrle "Jean" Ogden were honored with a dinner and dance Saturday, August 1, at Cook's Fish Barn. The Ogdens were celebrating their 50th wedding anniversary.

Out of town guests included the following: Ronald Ogden of Brownwood, Pete Ogden of Charleston Ill. and Dick Ogden of Shelbyville, Ill.; Bernice Gallenbeck of Delta, Col., Mae and Anita Ogden of Bloomington, Ill., Sara and Drew Bavin, Rye and Jacob of Big Spring; Peggy, Vernon and Steve Keane, Jeraca Zebeth de Casarrinas Spano, Mary, Bill, Christopher and Patrick Mason of Las Vegas, Nev.; Dwain Keane of Desert, Nev.; David and Cindy Keane of Irvine, Cal.; Jenny Gallenbeck of Glendale, Ariz.; Patricia Braby of Price, Utah; Pat and Jim Schafer of Eastland; Larry and Kathy Duggan of Abilene; Larry, Linda and Barry Nichols of Arlington; Steve, Jane and Heather McWilliams of Carbon and May and Gale Manning of Houston.

Many local well wishers attended along with cards, letters and gifts arriving from all over the United States, including best wishes from President and Barbara Bush. Jean Ogden wore an original design of purple silk. Herman Ogden presented his lovely bride of 50 years with a corsage of white carnations trimmed with golden bows and leaves. The smiling couple, hand in hand, cut the exquisitely decorated three tier wedding cake, made by Jettie Butler and her lovely daughters. The toast of the evening was given by the brother of the bride, Ervin Agnew, to "one of the finest couples he had ever known." Their beloved sister-in-law, Frances Agnew, presided at the guest book with everybody's darling, Kandi Myers, assisting Herman and Jean in opening their treasured 50th wedding anniversary gifts.

Pleasant Hill Homecoming Set Sept. 13

Pleasant Hill Baptist Church is making plans for homecoming which will be held Sunday, Sept. 13, according to Joe Philpott, pastor.

Former pastors will be recognized as part of the program, and church members are trying to locate four former pastors, Loyd Gist, Art Hopkins, Robbin Guess and Glen Purvis. Anyone knowing information about these men has been asked to contact Mr. Philpott at 442-3629.

Photography Contest

You are invited to enter the Photography Contest to be held in conjunction with the Comanche County Pow-Wow. The contest is four weeks away, so you still have time to take photos to enter or to have enlargements made of some you already have! Now is the time to think about what you will enter on Thursday, September 24 from 2-6 PM!

The display will be open to the public from 10 am-6 pm Saturday and from noon until 5 pm on Sunday of the Pow-Wow Weekend. Full rules will be printed in next weeks paper. You may call Polly Reed at 915/356-2906 or the Chamber office at 915/356-3233 for information.

Remember that the photographs cannot be framed, but they must be matted. A limited assortment of mats in sizes of 3-1/2x5, 5x7 and 8x10 will be available for purchase. Divisions are for amateurs, youth and professionals in categories for people, places and things and picture stories. Get ready to participate!

Wid's Wide World of Wildcats

by Wild Keeling

Last week capped the end of a perfect preseason for the Wildcats. The Cats defense was all over Eden. The Bulldogs had only one score in the entire game and it was luck. The defense is very young, but they know how to get the job done.

The offense is right up there with them as well. It started out a little slow and rocky, but when the Blue Machine started, it ran. Junior, Aaron Long had three outstanding scoring bursts that exceeded 50 yards each. Junior Jarod Horton busted the Dogs defense for some awesome yardage also.

The Cats next game will be here against Rio Vista at 6:30.

Catnip

by Christy Hughes

This year the Junior High Cheerleaders are an exciting group. The squad consists of seventh graders Holly Butler, Courtney Ezzell, Carla Funderburk and Judy Ware and this year's lone eighth grader, Kristie Collins, who is head.

When I talked to Kristie earlier this week, she told me how busy these girls have been. "We've been painting, drawing and working on cheers. And we are all getting along pretty well," she added with a grin.

Courtney mentioned that the girls are ready for the guys' first game and being a true Wildcat, she stated, "I really hope we beat Cross Plains!"

The Jr. Cats will open their season on Thursday, September 10, at 6:30 p.m. when they travel to Santa Anna. Come on out and help the girls cheer our Jr. Cats to a victory!

Our Eccentric Elementary

by Inga Williams

Wow, what a great first two weeks of school! Everyone is up and ready for a fun new merry-go-round of school activities. Things are running smoothly. Classes seem to be wonderful and friendship is spreading rapidly.

Here at Rising Star Elementary School the pupils scurry around the busy playground talking, running, laughing, screaming, playing and sometimes even singing until the first morning bell rings at 8:00 a.m.

Then is the time where all the fun really begins...in the class room. ha!

Everyone scampers off to find their seat. Soon they start the hard days work. First getting the essentials (1+1=2; 1+2=? umm!!) Then as the work gets harder they start to learn subjects such as reading, writing and... "subtraction"?...agh...no, not that! Some of the third grade pupils exclaimed this to me.

Oh, now, we all know that class room activities are not all the kids are interested in. It is the funtime and recess that they love so much.

When I spoke with some of the students on the playground one morning a few of the young boys told me, "Hey, that is the best thing about school, getting to see all our best friends and playing football!" Yep, that is right. Now you know why your kids come back from school the first day with a brand new hole in a brand new pair of jeans.

While the boys are having their big football game, do not underestimate those girls. They don't just stand around and watch. They are ready and willing to get out there and cheer for their team.

Kandi Myers added, "Yeah, my favorite cheer is 2-bits!" Then she and her young cheerleader friends did the whole cheer for me. I might, they were super.

To sum it up, school down here is more fun than ever. Somehow it makes you want to go back and be part of all the madness.

Miscellaneous Musings

by Adela Chavez

This week I'm writing on behalf of Ms. Chambers, the new Home Education teacher. She told me about a problem that the community might be able to help with.

The Home Education room needs the community to give them an old fashioned "pounding." This means that they need used equipment that is clean and still useful. They will accept any used articles as long as they are still good.

These are some of the things that they need: cookie sheets, mixing bowls, rolling pins, measuring cups, spoon sets, wire whisks, cheese graters, electric frying pans, wooden spoons, rubber spatulas, glassware, cups, quantity sized coffee makers (30-cup capacity), double boilers, cake pans, muffin pans, wire cooling racks and dish drainers.

The Home Education room would greatly appreciate if the community could help with this.

Stuteville's Stats

by Emily Stuteville

Rising Star High School has been a busy place. With the first two scrimmages gone, the high school cheerleaders are now preparing for the first official pep rally of the year, which will be Friday afternoon at 3:00 in the gymnasium.

The girls basketball team is still working hard. Fast break drills and general conditioning occupy workout time and prepare the young ladies for the upcoming season.

Self assured junior, Athena Black, said "I think practices are going very well. They are physically stimulating, but tiring."

As you can see, activities are in full swing and everyone is all smiles when they think of what awaits them in the days to come.

LEGAL NOTICES

1992 Property Tax Rates in City of Rising Star

This notice concerns 1992 property tax rates for City of Rising Star. It presents information about three tax rates. Last year's tax rate is the actual rate the taxing unit used to determine property taxes last year. This year's effective tax rate would impose the same total taxes as last year if you compare properties taxed in both years. This year's rollback tax rate is the highest tax rate the taxing unit can set before taxpayers can start tax rollback procedures. In each case these rates are found by dividing the total amount of taxes by the tax base (the total value of taxable property) with adjustments as required by state law. The rates are given per $100 of property value.

LAST YEAR'S TAX RATE:

Last year's operating taxes-$51,855.32

Last year's debt taxes-$0-

Last year's total taxes-

$51,855.32

Last year's tax base-$8,035,598

Last year's total tax rate-.64532/$100

THIS YEAR'S EFFECTIVE TAX RATE:

Last year's adjusted taxes (after subtracting taxes on lost property)-$51,759.62

(Divide by) this year's adjusted tax base (after subtracting value of new property)-$8,140,496.

(Equals) this year's effective tax rate-.63582/$100

(Times) 1.03 equals maximum rate unless unit publishes notices and holds hearing-$.65489/$100

THIS YEAR'S ROLLBACK RATE:

Last year's adjusted operating taxes (after subtracting taxes on lost property)-$51,759.62

(Plus) this year's adjusted tax base-$8,140,496.

(Equals) this year's effective operating rate-.63582/$100.

(Times) 1.08 (or add $.08 for schools) equal this year's maximum operating rate-.68668/$100.

(Plus) this year's debt rate -0-/$100.

(Equal) this year's rollback rate before adjustment-.68668/$100.

Schedule A: Unencumbered Fund Balances

The following balances will probably be left in the unit's property tax accounts at the end of the fiscal year. These balances are not encumbered by a corresponding debt obligation.

Type of Property Tax Fund:

Maintenance & Operation.

Casey Edgar and Jennifer Linney

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Winfrey of Rising Star and Mr. Bobby Linney of Brownwood are happy to announce the engagement and forthcoming marriage of their daughter, Jennifer Gwen Linney, to Casey Lynn Edgar, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Edgar of Brownwood.

The bride, a 1988 graduate of Rising Star High School, and her fiancé have set their wedding date for Saturday September 26, 1992. The wedding will be at 7 p.m. at First Baptist Church in Rising Star with a reception following the ceremony.

All friends and family members are invited to attend.

Freddie Perales Is TSU Graduate

STEPHENVILLE - Officials at Tarleton State University awarded diplomas to the largest summer graduating class in the University's 93 year history on Saturday, August 15. State Senator Bob Glasgow, a TSU alumnus, delivered the commencement address.

TSU President, Dr. Dennis McCabe gave special recognition to four members of the class honoring them as Outstanding Graduates, representing each of the University's colleges.

Twelve Departmental Outstanding Graduates were also recognized.

Freddie Perales Jr. of Rising Star, was one of the summer graduates. He received his BBA (Bachelor of Business Administration) in Finance. He is the son of Dick and Mary Morrow of Rising Star and Freddie Perales Sr. of Brady.

Perales, a 1987 graduate of Rising Star High School, is furthering his education by pursuing a Master's Degree in Business Administration from TSU.
