Mrs. Jim Loflin Saturday night experienced one of those rare thrills possible only for a mother who has been separated from a son or daughter for a year and a half.

She talked by trans-Pacific telephone with Spc/4 James Loflin, her son who is stationed in Japan, and with his wife and each of their four children.

The call, put through by the Kizer Telephone Co., lasted for seven or eight minutes. You do not have to wonder what they talked about. It was a most happy event.

It required about two hours to complete the connection. It was about 10 p.m. in Rising Star and noon in Japan when they talked.

I hope you read Cong. Omar Burleson's column "As it Looks From Here," on Page 2 of the Record this week. It is one of the most succinct and sensible statements of a practical governmental problem that I have read. How anyone can attribute to the government the power to repeal an economic law is hard to understand. The government simply does not possess any powers which do not exist with an individual. The way in which Washington continues to squander the substance of the people is alarming, but what these leaders of ours are admittedly planning to do in violation of every established principle of thrift and good management, is almost criminal. No business ever made itself prosperous by spending itself into exorbitant indebtedness. There have been some to try it, but without exception, they have ultimately fallen into bankruptcy. A fellow by the name of Charles Ponzi tried it in the early days of the century, and there have been some recent and even more spectacular examples I do not have to name. Each made a spectacular with money he did not have, and for which a lot of innocent people paid dearly.

What the Federal "deficit planners" are offering to do is essentially the same old hocus-pocus under a different and "respectable" name.

Post Office Will Survey Livestock

Postmaster Cliffogene Witt has asked patrons of the Rising Star post office to be on the lookout for June livestock survey cards to be left next week by mail carriers in a sample of boxes along their routes.

"USDA bases livestock and poultry estimates on replies to this survey," Mrs. Witt explained. "It is important for everyone who gets a card to fill it out and return it to the carrier. This way, USDA gets a representative sample of the area's livestock and poultry holdings."

Carriers assisting in the survey are: H. B. Sone, Route 1, and R. E. Darnell, Rt. 2.

Survey cards will be forwarded to Cary D. Palmer, state agricultural statistician in Austin. After adding and analyzing these cards, USDA statisticians are able to estimate the State's milk production, calf and pig crops, lamb and wool crops, and the number of hens and pullets.

"Information from this survey will guide livestock and poultry raisers in making important business decisions," Mrs. Witt said.

Dates for Vacation Bible School Are Set

The Church of Christ has announced June 24-28 as the dates for its annual Vacation Bible School. Details of the school plans will be announced later, the minister, H. McDonald, said.

1963 Rodeos To Open Sat. June 1

The opening performance of the Rising Star summer rodeo series for 1963 will take place on Saturday evening, June 1, at 8 o'clock at the Rising Star Roping Club's arena east of town on Highway 36.

The performance will be preceded by a parade of local and the business district at 5 p.m. in the afternoon.

Although the initial performance will take place on Saturday—in order that more riding clubs may take part in the parade—subsequent performances will be held on Friday nights.

Plans call for a series of 12 weekly rodeos.

The Rising Star program, well established after 10 years of operation, is one of the most successful and popular western entertainment features in this area.

It draws some of the top talent among rodeo contestants, and it consistently attracts large crowds of spectators.

The rodeo series is sponsored by the Rising Star Roping Club

Rising Star Tots Enjoy Field Trip To Eastland Plant

Children of the First and Second grades in Rising Star Elementary school enjoyed a field trip Wednesday of last week. Mothers of the children used their cars to take them to Eastland where they made a tour of the pottery plant. ## BROTHER BURIED

Ferrell Coats Arvin, 58, of Odessa, a brother of M. A. Arvin of Rising Star, was buried in Cottonwood Sunday after services at 2:30 p.m. at the Cross Plains Church of Christ. He was found dead at Odessa where he had lived for 18 years Friday morning. He was an oil field worker and a veteran of World War II.

PERSONALS

Mrs. Jesse Camp of Rawls, Tex., visited her mother, Mrs. House, and other relatives here on Mother's day. Mrs. House has been ill for some time.

Mrs. Love Shults was visited by her son and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Shults and their two on Mother's day. Her daughter, Mrs. Phil McCaillies, telephoned greetings from Los Angeles, Calif.

Mr. and Mrs. Jay Koonce spent Sunday with their daughter, Linda, at Fort Worth where she is a student in T. C. U.

Mr. and Mrs. Ocus Mayfield of near Coleman visited his mother, Mrs. L. W. Mayfield, on Mother's day.

as a community service, and the club members derive no profit from its operation.

A. D. Jenkins is president of the club, elected to that position for the second year.

Armed Forces Day Gives Opportunity To Review Defense

Citizens of Rising Star were urged this week in a statement by Mayor Walter Smith to observe Saturday, May 18, as Armed Forces day in the nation.

"We are observing Armed Forces day this week as a means of giving our military services an opportunity to hold open houses and permit the nation to review their defense capabilities and military readiness," Mr. Smith said. "Armed Forces day symbolizes the purpose of unification of the military forces in maintaining this country's unity and strength in support of the principles of order and justice in our world."

Prior to 1950, each branch of service celebrated its own day. The Department of Defense established one Armed Forces day—the third Saturday in May—in 1949 as a single annual observance. A proclamation for the event was issued by the President.

Slogan for Armed Forces day for the past ten years has been "Power for Peace."

Virtually every military establishment in the nation will hold open house on Armed Forces day, throwing open their doors to the public. In 1962, more than 20 million people attended the various events.

"It is very fitting for our people to set aside a day to honor those who serve in our military services," Mayor Smith said. "As the President has said in his proclamation, our service men and women are serving throughout the world as guardians of the peace. They are visible evidence of our determination to meet any threat to the peace with measured strength and high resolve that survival of freedom requires great cost and commitment and great personal sacrifice."

DIES AT LAWTON

Ransom R. Knoff, 70, husband of the former Syble Henderson of Rising Star, died Saturday in Lawton, Okla. Services and burial were there. Mrs. Knoff is the daughter of the late Will and Pearl Henderson of Rising Star.

Eighth Grade Honor Students Are Named

Karen Harris, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Harris, and Danny White, son of Mr. and Mrs. Derrill White, are the honor graduates of a class of about 30 which will be graduated from Eighth Grade in Junior High in exercises at the High School gym Thursday evening, May 23, it was announced by Pri. Edward Watkins.

Members of the class and the program will be announced next week, Mr. Watkins said.

Burleson Bill "Cracks Down" On Congress Junkets

WASHINGTON, D. C.—The House of Representatives has passed a bill sponsored by Congressman Omar Burleson that cracks down on travel by members of the Congress, including a ban on foreign travel by those who will not be back for the succeeding session. It would affect travel practices of both Representatives and Senators.

The bill imposes the same traveling expense limitations upon legislators that now apply to members of other branches of the government who travel abroad on official business. It would also require the filing of complete expense statements for public inspection, including their use of foreign funds.

County Screwworm Finds Spark Swift Control Action

An outbreak of screwworm infestation in the Gorman area and suspected outbreaks at points in the Rising Star territory have sent control forces of the Southeast Animal Health Laboratories at Mission, Texas, into swift field and aerial action to stamp out the menace to livestock.

Cooperation of livestock men has made it possible to identify and take remedial action, and locate the outbreaks swift-Oscar Schaefer, county chairman of the screwworm control program, told the Record.

A sample of infestation sent to the laboratories by J. Davis a farmer living between Okra and Gorman, was positively identified as screwworm larvae. Samples from the Ira Swift and Oscar White farms near Rising Star were identified by a Cisco veterinarian as screwworm, but no reports had been received from the Mission lab on these samples, Mr. Schaefer said.

The control forces went into action promptly. Sterile fly were dropped from the air Saturday and a ground crew in charge of Don Boaz, which also does testing for brucellosis, was ready to start spraying in the Gorman area this week.

Schaefer praised the cooperation of the farmers who sent in samples of worms. "Such cooperation will help to eradicate the pest," he said. "It isn't our job to control the flies," he said. "That is the work of the laboratory and the field crews. It is our job to get people to send in samples of infestation wherever they find it."

Schaefer also called attention to a statement by County Agent J. M. Cooper, urging livestockmen sending larvae specimens to the screwworm eradication headquarters at Mission to be sure that the information sheet accompanying the sample in filled out and accurately.

Eradication officials have reported that numerous samples are received with no information included. Some have been identified as screwworms.

Cooper stated that prompt action is taken whenever an infestation is confirmed. In most instances, ranch and livestock near the infested premises are

21 Seniors Will Graduate In Term Closing Exercises Here

Twenty-one members of the Senior Class of Rising Star High School are due to receive their diplomas in graduation exercises at the First Baptist Church Friday evening, May 24, in the concluding event of the 1962-63 school year.

The formality of presenting the certificates of graduation will be preceded by a baccalaureate service for the class Sunday afternoon at 8 p.m. at the First Baptist Church, with H. McDonald, minister of the Church of Christ preaching the sermon.

Rev. H. K. Neely, pastor of the Baptist church, and Rev. Milton Slayden of the Methodist church, will assist. The Junior girls chorus will sing.

Dean Walter Adams of Abilene Christian College will be the speaker for the graduation program Friday night. The program will begin at 8 o'clock. Supt. Sam Jones will introduce the speaker.

Don Donham, son of Mrs. Helen Donham, will deliver the salutatory address, and Kay Lewis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Lewis, the valedictorian. The two honor students made among the highest two-year average grades in the history of the school and their final standings were separated by only .07 of a point.

Diplomas will be presented by Principal Ray Nunnally.

Processional and recessional music for both the baccalaureate services Sunday evening and the graduation exercises, will be played by Becky Nowlin.

Boys of the Junior class will serve as ushers.

Members of the graduating class are:

Girls—Mary Alford, Vondell Atwood, Cynthia Brown, Carol Burns, Sandra Clark, Deana Jones, Kay Lewis, Sandra White;

Boys—Tommy Alford, Ronald Bond, Darwin Cain, Ted Cawley, Richard Creech, Don Donham, Mike Fisher, Mack Harris, Donald Inglet, Kenneth Nunnally, Kenneth Pittman, Charles Wade, and Covie Weaver.

Mrs. Billie Nowlin is class sponsor.

As It Looks From Here

By Omar Burleson, M. C. 17th Texas District

WASHINGTON, D. C. — As individuals we have to distinguish between our needs and our wants. So should our gov-

Doubtless we need a lot of things in this country and a lot of things FOR the country. In some places we need houses; we need arterial waterways across the country; we need better educational facilities; we need more hospitals; and it is desirable we be first on the moon.

A need is a necessity — a want is a desire, and in the meantime we are drowned in our "druthers". We need a tax cut, too, but we do not need a deficit. Particularly, we do not need a "planned deficit" since such a theory would change a concept of fiscal responsibility which most of us have always thought more desirable than most anything else.

From what seemingly is the opinion of people all across the country. This administration, the one before it and the one before that, could have, with wide approval, insisted on reductions for expenditures and a tax cut at the same time. To INCREASE expenditures, REDUCE taxes and PLAN a deficit, is contrary to the policy of all Administrations in the past. The new policy seems to say that the Federal debt really does not mean much and that red ink at the bottom of the balance sheet is all right. It has been said that politics is the art of the possible. To put it another way, it is to force the possible to wait on the perfect.

There is a need to restore a trust and a confidence at all levels. This includes the legislative branch. To accomplish this, people should be able to feel the highest type of responsibility is being exercised. We will not agree on methods used, nor is judgment infallible, but fundamental aims and objectives of our nation should remain constant and unchangeable. Daniel Webster said that "in this business of government, and particularly the legislative end, what is said and done is meant to be as perceptible as possible, but never prove to be so." No one can be certain of the future with all possible resources available for the most intelligent prognostication. Conditions have ways of changing rapidly as we move in this age. A thing may appear right today and wrong tomorrow, but the fundamentals on which our nation was established should remain inalterable.

It took the Fabian socialists forty years to weaken the trust and confidence of the British in their parliament. Supposedly it was a labor government which assumed power, but actually it was the Fabians who nationalized a great part of their industry.

It took Hitler only four years to plunge Germany into a dictatorship by finally exciting the people into a frenzy.

These several forces have no place in our system. The good sense of the American people has always prevailed when these extremes manifest themselves in our society.

These several forces, diametrically opposed, show up in some places in our country today. Whether by design or inadvertence, they attract followers out of a sense of duty or frustration of some type or another.

It is just possible that, seeing new theories tried out to solve problems real or imagined, has created considerable distrust. People have always understood the difference between need and want. It is truly American for us to WANT to have the most and the best and to have our problems solved yesterday and not tomorrow. We are not a patient people by nature, but that impatience has conquered a continent under a free enterprise system.

Frustrations and impatience have shown up in some of our colleges and universities. Recently a minister related an experience with a young student who found Christianity inadequate and decided to found a new and better religion. He asked a wise old theologian for his advice on how to get started. The old scholar, with a twinkle in his eye, said, "I suggest that you arrange to get yourself crucified and then rise from the dead on the third day."

VISIT DAUGHTER

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Cox visited their daughter, Mrs. Florine Forbes, and three children in Abernathy during the week-end. Their granddaughter, Caroline Forbes, is Salutatorian of the Senior Class there, and their grandson, Billie Forbes, will be drum major in the High School band next year. They saw the Senior play in which their granddaughter had a prominent part.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Henry and son, Bobby, of Monahans visited Mr. Henry's mother, Mrs. Lee Henry, and Mr. and Mrs. Glen Henry, over the week-end. Glen and Lawrence are brothers.

MRS. G. A. DUNN, JR.

Dorothy Lockhart and G. A. Dunn Are Wed in Ceremony at Dunn Dell May 6

Miss Dorothy Jane Lockhart, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Lockhart of Rising Star, became the bride of Dr. Gustus Albert Dunn Jr. Monday, May 6, at 7 p. m. in Dunn Dell near Rising Star with G. A. Dunn Sr., 87-year-old father of the bridegroom, officiating for the ceremony.

Mrs. James Ibell of Brady was her sister's attendant and Don Davenport of Las Cruces, N. M., was best man. Miss Ann Litton of Amarillo sang "Whither Thou Goest" and "Sweet Mystery of Life". She was accompanied by Gary Dennis of Tipton, Okla.

The bride's gown was fashioned of white Chantilly lace over antique satin with fitted bodice and bouffant skirt. Her fingertip veil and coil of flowers and seed pearls were gifts from Germany. The bride carried a cascade of golden throated white irises and lilies-of-the-valley.

The bridegroom is a clergyman and former teacher at the University of Texas. For her wedding trip to Mexico City and Acapulco, the bride chose a silvery green suit with brocade and pink accessories. The couple will reside at Dunn Dell.

WMU Circles Meet In Member Homes Monday, May 13th

The W.M.U. of the First Baptist Church met Monday, May 13, in the homes of members.

The Frank B. Owen Circle met with Mrs. Oral Davis with eight members present. The circle theme for the year is, "Unto the Stature of Christ," Eph. 4:13.

Educating youth in missions was stressed, the purpose, to show how WMU youth organizations cultivate missionary conviction in young hearts.

Members of the Owens Circle who attended were Mmes. C. M. Cox, J. C. Hamer, Earl Marsh, Olice Jones, Raymond Turner, H. H. Frye and A. T. Shults. The hostess served delicious refreshments.

Mrs. Walter Smith was hostess to the Minnie Alexander Circle with six members in attendance. They were, besides the hostess, Mmes. B. B. Morris, Lee Clark, L. W. Mayfield, Jesse Martin and Fred Roberts.

Mrs. W. G. Reed was hostess to the Estella Freeland Circle with six members present — Mmes. Charlie Carroll, Ethel Barnes, T. C. Crisp, C. E. Baker and Charles Watson. Each hostess served refreshments.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Carleton of Weimar, Tex., were here last week looking after farm interests in the Rising Star area. They own the former John Perry place, three miles northeast of Rising Star. Mr. Carleton is with the Southern Pacific Railroad at Weimar.

CRUSHES AND HERO WORSHIP

Crushes and hero worship are something each person encounters all through life. Unlike many things, this is something that both young and old meet personally; therefore, our relationship with it extends further than the "I've heard of it" stage.

Hero worship usually begins with a young child. He begins to admire someone for various reasons, and soon he is involved in his first case of hero worship. The hero takes many different forms; sometimes he is a parent or celebrity, or perhaps an older brother or sister.

As the child grows into a teenager, hero worship changes in form. Instead of greatly admiring an adult, the teenager begins to notice those his own age, especially the opposite sex. This results in a series of crushes, closely akin to the earlier hero worship. Crushes probably will not last as long as childhood hero worship, which sometimes continues for years. A crush, which is a sudden strong liking for a person, may last only a few months because teenagers are going through many changes and adjustments. Someone that was liked a few months ago may mean nothing to a person today because he has continued to develop his likes and dislikes. Nevertheless, a young person's crushes should be respected. They are, like many other things, a phase in his growing up.

Again after adolescence, hero worship slips in. It does not have the same quality of childhood hero worship, but it is the same devotion, the same admiration which leads one to improve himself so he will be liked by his hero. Even late in life the great admiration of one person for another will prove the incentive to success.

Though they are great causes for teasing, a person should not be ashamed of his crushes and hero worshipping. Both follow the inclinations of human nature and are valuable; the latter in fulfilling one's desires to be devoted to someone, and the former in developing emotions and in providing invaluable experience preceding mature adulthood and a wise marriage.

NOT FINISHED, JUST BEGUN

Hi there,
The Seniors are back from their Senior trip a little sleepy, sunburned, and a few wet girls, though.

We really did have a good time. The school year is drawing to a close and everyone is busy finishing his work. Book reports are past due, but some are still trying to get theirs in. Six weeks' tests are being given, and everyone is studying so that they may get an exemption from the finals.

The Seniors were certainly proud of their fellow Seniors who participated in the State meet at Austin. Don Donham placed second in the Science contest; and the mile relay, three of which are Seniors—Kenneth Nunnally, Tommy Alford, and Mack Harris—placed third in its event. Good work, Seniors!

The band students are looking forward to their band trip to San Antonio this week-end. They closed out the season with their Spring concert last week; everyone really enjoyed it.

Seniors are getting ready for their Baccalaureate Services this Sunday at the First Baptist Church and are practicing for the graduation exercises to be given the twenty-fourth. We are beginning to realize that our school days at RSHS are about over. That seems to be it for this week. Be sure to join us next week for our last Senior news.

Bye for now,

Katy
P. S. Be sure to read the last edition of our Senior lives this week!

WITH THE SENIORS

Charles Allen Wade was born at Temple, Texas, on March 7, 1945, to Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Wade. Charles has attended the Rising Star Public Schools for five years.

Charles has always been liked by his fellow students for his friendly personality. While in high school, he has received many honors. Charles was chosen as Class Favorite and served as vice-president of his class as Sophomore. He has been a member of the basketball and tennis teams; played in the Wildcat Band and Stage Band and served as second lieutenant of the band his Senior year.

As his favorite color, Charles picks blue, with Mexican food as his favorite repast. "Wide Country" and "Empire" serve as his favorite TV shows; while John Wayne and Sandra Dee are his favorite actor and actress. For his listening pleasure, Charles chooses "Rhythm of the Falling Rain"; and in his leisure time, hunting and fishing are his favorite pastimes.

Charles' plans for the future include attending college at either Tarleton State College or A. and M. Good luck, Charles, to you in your future endeavors!

WITH THE SENIORS

Sandra Jean White was born Feb. 16, 1945, at Gorman, Tex., to Mr. and Mrs. Jack White. Sandra's school days have all been spent in Rising Star, and she has received great enjoyment from them.

Sandra has been a member of both the basketball and volleyball teams. Sandra says one of her greatest achievements in high school was when she played the position of right end in the Powderpuff football game this year.

Sandra's favorite color is baby blue; Mexican food is her favorite eating pleasure. The "Dick Powell Show" is her favorite TV viewing with Tony Curtis and Sandra Dee as her favorite actor and actress. For listening pleasure, Sandra's favorite song is "Twenty Miles". In her leisure time Sandra enjoys skating, sewing, and writing stories and poems.

Sandra's plans for the future are indefinite at present, but we want to wish her the best of luck in whatever her plans turn out to be!

"UPWARD AND ONWARD"

The Seniors are back from their trip and it seems that it was very successful—just think, Juniors, in a year we'll probably be talking about the fun we had on our Senior trip.

It is almost time for school to close and, naturally, this is time for six weeks and final tests—we surely are studying and much to our sorrow.

We enjoyed our class trip, and we want to thank our room mothers for helping so much. They certainly have been good!

We had our FHA style show during the week and it was very nice. The Home Ec. girls modelled clothes they had made either at home or in class.

L. P. — Cokes for breakfast!
D. C. — Why don't you let me in on some of your secrets—are you afraid they will go in the paper or something?

H. S. — I'd advise you to use your Typing period more wisely and not type unnecessary documents.

"KNOWLEDGE COMES, BUT WISDOM LINGERS"

We Sophomores are still discussing the enjoyable time we had on our trip to Cisco last week. We want to thank our sponsor and our room mothers for making this such a delightful event to end the school year. We certainly appreciate all the things these mothers have done for us this year.

We are still struggling hard to complete these last two weeks of school. We have tackled several new things, as well as continuing other studies. The speech class has completed a unit on short stories; some very interesting stories were told during our work with this.

We want to congratulate several Sophomores for making great achievements in state competition. The dairy judging team; two of which are Sophomores—Terry Geye and John Gerhardt—placed sixth in their division. Larry Weise was a member of our mile relay team that took a high third place at the state track meet. Larry Duggan, our mile runner, and Garry Duggan, an alternate, also attended the meet.

The band students are anticipating our trip to San Antonio this week-end. The spring concert was given last week, with both the concert band and the stage band presenting musical selections.

We are all looking forward to our summer vacation; however, we still have those final exams to conquer. Of course, we are working hard for those exemptions!

We will be looking for you next week with the last news for you this year. Don't let us down!

"LIVE AND LEARN"

Hi! We have only one more week of school. It surely doesn't seem possible.

Now for my reminder of the week: Pay all dues! Each of us needs to pay class or lab dues, drivers' ed payments or lunch room charges.

Even if we are almost through this year of school, our teachers haven't given up yet. Mr. Gray is finishing the biology book and his students are reviewing. Mr. Hill is driving the second and last periods with his drivers' ed students. Mr. Henry's math and algebra classes are finishing their last chapters and reviewing our past work. Mrs. Claborn's class is on their last unit. Mr. Geye's 23, class is in the shop; while Mrs. Nowlin's home ec. class is still in its book.

Two of our fish need to brush up on fifth grade geography. Until next week,

Marcia

"TOWARD NEW HORIZONS"

The Home Ec. girls have all had tests over the first portion of their books.

The Junior girls are sewing again. Their newest project is making baby clothes for needy children and for future experience. The girls are working very hard on their projects and the dresses are very pretty.

The Sophomores and Freshmen are still giving reports from their books.

Let's all remember to get our "Home Experiences" in so they won't be counted late!

Everyone really enjoyed our Fashion show. Thanks to Mrs. Nowlin and the girls who helped make it possible.

Until next week,

Becky.

SPORTS NEWS

Well, it looks as if the end of the school year has finally come. This will be my last written sports news for the year. Now that football, basketball and track are over, everyone is looking forward to next year.

We want to congratulate our track team for their fine job at state. The events that took place at state were mile relay—Tommy Alford, Kenneth Nunnally, Mack Harris, Garry Duggan and Larry Weise; mile run—Larry Duggan. We thank these boys especially for the work they put forth on the track team; altogether, this has been the best season of the year for the Wildcats.

GIRLS' SPORTS

The girls' sports have just about ended for the year of the 1963 season. The only thing that has been accomplished during this month is the '63-'64 cheerleaders. They are—Harriet Schmitt as head cheerleader, and, and Loretta Pittman, Sharon Donham, and Linda Duggan as assistants. They were told April 26 at the Junior-Senior banquet. We are very happy with the turn-outs and are looking forward to the season for them to lead the Wildcats.

The gym girls are working out in basketball every day with the coaching of Eddie Joe Henry. They are practicing for next year's basketball season.

Until next week,

Linda B

CLASS WILL

Mary Alford will per column "Do-Re-Mi" to Judy Lewis.
Tommy Alford will his ability to flirt with everyone to Bill Clarke.
Vondell Atwood will her sense of humor to Donna Chalk.

Ronald Bond will his place as Mrs. C's Pet Peeve to Jimmy Rutledge.

Cynthia Brown will her poise and lovely manners to Loretta Pittman.

Carol Burns will her out-of-town lovers to Cherry Maples.
Darvin Cain will his ability to get excused absences to Randy Lewis.

Ted Cawley will his love for all women to Willie Vandivere.
Sandra Clark will her secret love to Marriet, our Most Beautiful for '62.

Richard Creech will his nicotine fits to Larry McKimmerney.

Don Donham will his non-chalant airs and his outstanding intellect to Arthur.

Mike Fisher will his laziness of spirit to Roger Goodwin.

Bunky Gunnels will his lovely sports car "always in the shed" to Don West.

Mack Harris will his honor as "Most Handsome" to Jimmy, our President, though not one of the Kennedy boys.

Donald Inglet will his ability to remain quiet to Roger, as he thinks Roger could use such a trait.

Deana Jones gives her blond hair to Pat Burns, but keeps the dark head in her life.

Kay Lewis will her ability on the annual to Sharon Donham.

Kenneth Nunnally asks Don West to take in charge his personal questions with Mrs. C.

Kenneth Pittman will his manner of blushing to Bill Clarke—we say Bill could use it.

Charles Wade—a true Romeo thinks Willie would like to be searching for Juliet.

Covie Weaver and his excused absences—hopes Randy has the same LUCK.

Sandra White and her quiet, sweet ways—says our new pupil from Chicago, Illinois, already has these characteristics.

And now I—Lovey—will each and all a pleasant—good year in '63.

—Lovey Bishop

Tommy Alford—Governor of Texas. Is it true all politicians are crooks?

Vondell Atwood—Holds the Women's Wrestling Championship.

Ronald Bond—Most popular comedian in the U.S. and about the age of Jack Benny?

Cynthia Brown—A most sophisticated school teacher waiting yet to find the right man.

Carol Burns—Happily married to Jackie and a wonderful housewife.

Darvin Cain—Experience has something to do with his being the Champion of Sports Car Racing.

Ted Cawley—Works for Fish and Game Service. Enjoys his occupation and I do mean enjoys! His fish stories are bigger and bigger!

Sandra Clark—Has gone into the profession of interior decorating; her latest work has been in Higginbotham's now managed by our own Jimmy Rutledge.

Don Donham—President of U.S. Best since Kennedy.

Mike Fisher—First man to live on the moon. Says it's the greatest!

Bunky Gunnels—Now a producer of motion pictures in Hollywood. No males included. His line of work would you say?

Mack Harris—Olympic track star finds time to keep his hot rod in top running condition.

Donald Inglet—Now a military officer has learned to be as loud as the others.

Deana Jones—A nightclub singer in New York.

Kay Lewis—Vice-President of the U.S. She and Don are another John and Jackie team!

Kenneth Nunnally—After coaching the Houston Oilers for five years—he invested his savings in a home known as "Bachelor's Haven".

Kenneth Pittman—We see you as a peanut vender on 5th Avenue near Deana's night club!

Charles Wade—Now our Secretary of Treasury sneaks money for his own benefits and gets away with it!

Covey Weaver—Still a bachelor and leading a life worth living!

Sandra White—Quiet as a Nun but an excellent performer at The Sands in Las Vegas!

Richard Creech—As a History teacher, he now understands Mr. Nunnally's practices.

Nyla Isbeli Will Wed John Watson At May June 2nd

Mr. and Mrs. James A. Isbell of May have announced the engagement of their daughter, Nyla Jolaine, to John Martin Watson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Troy Watson of Pioneer. The wedding is scheduled to take place June 2, at 2:30 p.m. in Calvary Baptist Church.

WSCO Officers Hear Cisco District Head

The WSCO of the First Methodist Church met at the church Monday afternoon for local officers training day with 17 members attending. Mrs. J. R. Bucy, president, presided and Mr. O. D. Carver led the opening prayer.

Miss Loretta Pearce gave the devotional.

Mrs. Carrell Smith, president of the Cisco District, was a guest and gave instructions to the local officers on their duties.

Mrs. L. R. Smith served refreshments of pink lemonade and cookies after the business session.

Jetta Butler and Gerald Darr Set May 15th to Be Wed at Rising Star Church

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Butler of Rising Star have announced the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Jetta, to Gerald Darr, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Darr of Cisco.

The wedding will take place at the First Baptist Church in Rising Star at 2 p. m., Saturday, May 15, with the Rev. Mart Agnew of Cisco, officiating.

The bride-elect is a Senior at Cisco Junior College and the groom-to-be is a graduate of that school now employed by the Texaco Oil Co. at Midland where the couple will make their home.

Barbara Bishop Is Honoree At Bridal Shower

Miss Barbara Bishop, bride-elect of R. L. Smedley, Jr., of Baird, was honored with a miscellaneous shower Saturday, May 11, at the home of Mrs. Carl Smith. Co-hostesses were Mmes. George Steel, Jimmy Fridge, Bill Demard, B. A. Butler, Dorothy Shook, J. C. Howard, C. M. Cox, W. G. Reed, Roy Holly, and Miss Essie Hearren.

The bride-elect received many lovely and useful gifts. She was assisted in opening and displaying the gifts by her mother, Mrs. J. W. Bishop, and by the mother of the groom-to-be, Mrs. R. L. Smedley, Sr., of Baird. The shower was held from 4 to 5:30 p.m.

The hostess served green frosted punch and white sand tarts, nuts and mints. White mock orange blossoms and irises were used to good effect in the decorations. The bride-elect was presented a lovely white carnation corsage.

Senior Class Goes To Prade Ranch For Class Outing

The High School Senior Class and their sponsors, H. L. Geye and Mrs. Billie Nowlin, returned late Saturday from a trip to Prade ranch on the Rio River. Also accompanying the group were Mr. and Mrs. Ray Nunnally, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Mrs. Creech.

Wade and Mrs. Bruce Harris and Mrs. Creech.

The class enjoyed home-cooked meals served family style, the game room, swimming, horseback riding, and picnicking in the river bed.

The time passed too quickly and they were very tired but happy to be home and back in school.

M. G. Joyce spent the weekend with relatives in West Texas. He first went to Pyote to visit a daughter, Mrs. Alyne Seikman. Mrs. Seikman accompanied him to Slayton to see a grandson, Bud Seikman, and to Goldsmith where they visited a granddaughter, Mrs. Burt Seikman to her home at Pyote en route to Rising Star.

... is the common conception that it makes no difference, so why worry? The fact that a loaf of bread is taxed about 70 times has little outward criticism from the masses as we resolve ourselves into the complacent attitude that we can do nothing about it. But we should! It isn't Communism, nor Cuba, nor unpredictable Russia that are our greatest threats to survival, but taxes. Planning to air condition for summer?
Here's WTU's newest special offer!

FREE WIRING

... for 220 volt refrigerated room air conditioners of one horsepower or larger.

Now, it is easier and less expensive than ever to have cool comfort all summer long with refrigerated room air conditioners. The WTU new wiring program makes it possible... and you can choose your room air conditioner from any local dealer as well as from our company. Only requirements are that it be a 220 volt room air conditioner of one horsepower or larger and that it be installed for a new user in any existing single unit residence being served by West Texas Utilities. Don't delay! Prepare now for summer's heat! Call your appliance dealer or WTU today!
