Rain, rain beautiful rain. The Rising Star, area got welcome relief from the hot "dog Days" as anywhere from .4 to 1.8 inches of precipitation was recorded around the community. This, along with the inch previously recorded last Friday has brought smiles to many a farmer's face. This was even enough to stop local farmers from their daily ritual of irrigating. Maybe our dry spell is behind us now.

The Honey Bee, newest addition to downtown Rising Star is officially open. Pauline Winfrey extends a personal invitation to stop in and shop around.

Although the corner lot next to A.P. Smith's Barber Shop and Huddleston's Shoe Shop has been cleared and leveled, there is no indication of any building going up. Maybe in the near future.

Nothing to do this weekend? Come to the Rising Star Jaycee Women's Softball tournament. Three local teams will be entered so come cheer for your favorite.

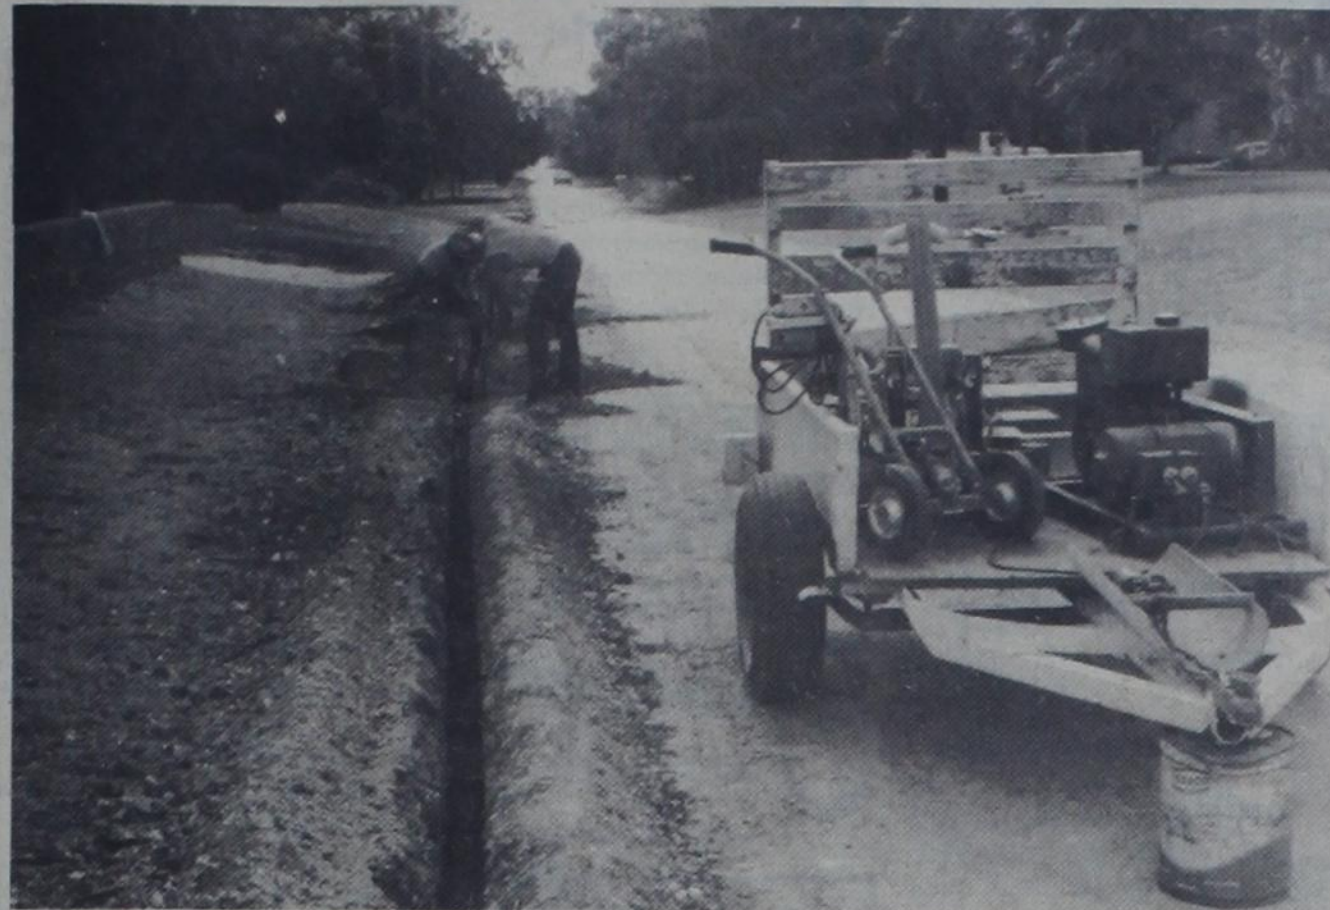

School is getting closer every day and has officially been set to begin Monday, August 29th according to Bob Fortune.

Shown here are Michael Clark and Benny Byrd, also employed by the City. This section of new 3" gas line is being laid down North Pioneer Street. The boys are having to dig out old water and gas lines to install the new. This has been one of the problems plaguing the operation.

Checking for leaks are Mayor John Lee, and City employees Jarrell Bishop and Kenneth Prorise. Work on the new gas distribution is progressing but no date has been set for completion.

House Passes Peanut Bill After Close Call

According to Ross Wilson, Manager, Southwestern Peanut Growers' Association, the Peanut Section of the Farm Act of 1977 was passed by the U.S. House of Representatives July 22, as reported on May 11, by the House Agriculture Committee. House action on the measure reportedly was brief and occurred without the introduction of damaging amendments as had been expected. Wilson said since then it was learned that Congressman Margaret Heckler (R-Mass) who had promised to introduce and fight for an amendment to lower the $420 per ton support level previously approved by the Senate and House Agriculture Committee was not in the House Chamber when the vote on the peanut section occurred July 22.

House Passes Peanut Bill After Close Call

According to Ross Wilson, Manager, Southwestern Peanut Growers' Association, the Peanut Section of the Farm Act of 1977 was passed by the U.S. House of Representatives July 22, as reported on May 11, by the House Agriculture Committee. House action on the measure reportedly was brief and occurred without the introduction of damaging amendments as had been expected. Wilson said since then it was learned that Congressman Margaret Heckler (R-Mass) who had promised to introduce and fight for an amendment to lower the $420 per ton support level previously approved by the Senate and House Agriculture Committee was not in the House Chamber when the vote on the peanut section occurred July 22.

Washington sources reported on Monday, July 25, that Mrs. Heckler was seeking a ruling from the House Parliamentarian that would permit her to introduce an amendment that would reduce the support level from a minimum of $420 per ton to levels ranging from $390 per ton in 1978 to $345 per ton in 1981 as originally proposed by USDA. Mrs. Heckler, Representative Paul Findley (R-Ill) and others made a strong push along this line on May 11, but failed when the Agriculture Committee in the House approved the $420 minimum level previously passed by the Senate. Wilson added that Representative Heckler and some seven or eight other House members sent a letter to all other House members on July 19, urging their support of such an amendment when the Peanut Bill reached the House floor.

The House Parliamentarian ruled that Congressman Heckler could introduce her amendment. On Tuesday, July 26, her amendment which Wilson said would have been disastrous to Southwest peanut producers narrowly failed by a vote of 207 For and 210 Against. The narrow victory for peanut producers is credited to a determined effort on the part of peanut area Congressmen who have strongly defended producers' interest since January of 1973.

Wilson explained that the $420 per ton minimum support level is set for the duration of the bill, but emphasized that the Secretary will be required by another provision of the bill to consider the index of prices paid by growers the preceding year as he establishes the annual support level beginning in 1978.

Wilson said the peanut section passed by the House on July 22, is almost identical to the Senate version passed on May 24. There is only one difference, he said. The Senate bill establishes the acreage allotment for New Mexico at the 1977 final level of 9,700 acres while the House bill is silent on this matter. The only other difference in the two bills is their tenure. The Senate farm bill would become effective in 1978 and extend through 1982. The House bill would be effective for one year less, extending through 1981.

Very briefly Wilson said the peanut bill calls for:

- (1) A minimum support level of $420 per ton from 1978 through 1981 or 1982 depending upon whether the House or Senate version is accepted.
- (2) A minimum National Poundage quota ranging from 1,680,000 tons in 1978 to 1,440,000 tons in 1981.
- (3) A farm poundage quota will be established for each farm based on the average yield per acre of the best three years from 1973-77. The farm poundage quota will be reduced in proportion to the annual reduction in the national poundage quota.
- (4) Retains the minimum national acreage allotment of 1,610,000.
- (5) Permits growers to plant up to the present farm allotment--but the total farm plantings, quota and nonquota, cannot exceed the total farm allotment.
- (6) The grower will be guaranteed through USDA--Association loans only the approximate equivalent of the world oil market price for nonquota peanuts, but the grower may receive a price approximating the domestic edible level if the grower association is able to move a substantial quantity of this production into the domestic edible market. Wilson said some observers believe Southwest growers will find an excellent opportunity to market Spanish peanuts through the Association area-type pool at prices far exceeding the existing world oil market price.

Wilson said the peanut section is only one part of the Farm Act of 1977. He said a conference committee of Senate and House appointees will meet to iron out differences in the overall farm bill. Conference Committee action is expected to begin Friday, July 29, so that work on the bill may be completed prior to the August recess scheduled to begin on August 6. The Farm Act as accepted by the Conference Committee and ratified by the House and Senate will be submitted to President Carter for signing into law. Although the bill is subject to presidential veto, the odds appear to be in favor of concurrence by the President.

8th Annual Chilympiad Slated For September

At last, clandestine chili cookers around Texas can walk proudly into the light of day.

Chili is no longer a dish cooked by a few firebreathing, fun-loving weirdos. It has been placed in its well-deserved place of honor by the recent State Legislature which proclaimed it the official State dish.

The first "legal" test of chili's new legitimacy will take place at the 8th Annual Republic of Texas Chilympiad September 15-18. On hand at this year's cook-off will be perennial crowd-pleasers Yellow Dog and John Raven, plus a foreigner from Newport, Kentucky, named Robert J. Bischoff, and many others.

Also providing entertainment at this year's Chilympiad will be the Original Bob Will's Texas Playboys, Mickey Gilley, "Fiddlin'" Frenchie Burke and the Latin Breed.

Services for Luke Culwell, 82, of Athens and formerly of Eastland County, were at 3 p.m. Friday at Foster-Brown Funeral Home with burial at Chingpin Cemetery near Athens.

Mr. Culwell died at 8 a.m. Wednesday at an Athens hospital after a lengthy illness. He was born April 15, 1895 in Okra and lived most of his life in the Okra-Rising Star area. He was a retired rock mason and a grocery clerk.

Survivors include the three sons, John Culwell of Athens, Jack Culwell of Odessa and Vernon Culwell of Junction; a stepdaughter, Mrs. Cecil Carter of Romney; three brothers, Tommy Culwell of Cross Plains, Shug Culwell of Rising Star and Willard Culwell of Arizona; six grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

SAVE HOME ENERGY WITH PLANTS-

Summer air conditioning as well as winter heating costs can be significantly reduced with landscape plants, says a landscape horticulturist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service. Shade trees or trellised vines on the south and west sides of the home will help with cooling. Deciduous trees and vines will provide shade in the summer and will then shed their leaves to allow the sun to provide warmth in the winter. Plant evergreen trees along the northern and western sides of the home as a windbreak during the winter.

Church Of Christ

One thing that makes the Gospel distinctively different from every other philosophy of life is its insistence upon the value of its substance. Close on the heels of the command to "love God with all of your heart, soul and mind" is the instruction to "love your neighbor as yourself" (Matthew 22:34-40). One can not love God and hate (despise-treat with contempt) a brother (1 John 4:20-21). To characterize another as worthless or damnable is to invite the wrath of God; in fact, just to be angry with a brother is tantamount to murder (Matthew 5:21-22). Time and again, we are reminded that "no one lives to himself and no one dies to himself..." (Romans 14:7).

This required concern for others stems from the fact that we all flow from a common spring: God. He formed us and gave us life (Genesis 1:26-31). He sustains us all and provides for us through His power and tender mercy (Acts 17:25; Matthew 7:7-11). With God, there is no endless series of individuals, races and nations with each occupying his own little corner and isolated from the rest. He has made of one every nation of men to dwell on the face of the earth..." (Acts 17:26). Humanity as God presents it, is both individualistic (each responsible to God and the object of God's concern) and collective (mutually dependant upon each other a unit. Romans 12:3-8 and 1 Corinthians 12:12-30 illustrate this by the church).

From this proceeds the care of the helpless: both physically and emotionally (James 1:27; 1 Timothy 5:3-16), the feeding of the hungry, the clothing of the tattered and the lifting up of the fallen (Matthew 25:31-45), the constant concern for the edification of others (1 Corinthians 14:26) and a thousand other things bound up in the so-called Golden Rule (Matthew 7:12).
And the one word that gathers all these loose threads into one beautiful whole is: LOVE (1 Corinthians 13).

You are invited and urged to attend our Bible classes (Sunday at 9:30 a.m. and Wednesday at 7:30 p.m.) and assemblies: Sunday at 10:30 a.m. and 6 p.m.
Most of our sick show some improvement. Vonda White is now home, after an extensive stay in the hospital. Dec Wilson underwent surgery in Eastland last week. The following have contributed funds for memorial additions to our church library, honoring Murray Bibb: the Rising Star Church of Christ, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Agnew, and Mr. and Mrs. Hampton Herbert.
We had a wonderful Vacation Bible School this year, with record attendance. Despite the storm and blackout Friday night, the closing program was enjoyed (in candlelight!) by a large number of parents and friends.

BE PREPARED!!

When I was a young boy I was impressed by a neighbor in our community who painted this portion of Amos 4:12 on the roof of his barn: "Prepare to meet thy God". Each time I passed by his barn I was reminded that one day I would stand before the Judgment Bar of God. As I grew older I realized that I was preparing for that day, by the way I was living each day of my life. Do you make preparation for each day of your life, or do you just live? The preparation we make for whatever we do is important.

We should be prepared when we attend church. Do you make any preparation before you come to church? If every person who comes to church would, before coming, or even on the way there, think of God for just a moment or two, and say a prayer for himself and for the preacher and the people who he will meet in worship, it would make a world of difference.

When we come to church, we should be prepared to seek. We should never attend church simply as a matter of habit, or as a burden of duty, or as an act of respectability, or to satisfy convention. Worship should be a deliberate attempt to come out of the world and to find fellowship with God and our fellow men. One of the great secrets of success in any of the business of life is to know what we want, when we are doing a thing, and when we come to church we should want God.

We should come to church prepared to give all of ourselves. He who comes to church only to get, will in the end, get nothing. We should come determined to give our interest, our prayers, our devotion, and our sympathy. The success of any gathering, the happiness of any party, is always dependent on the people who are prepared to give themselves to the fellowship of the occasion.

So it is with the church. Sometimes people can be heard saying "I've stopped going to church, because I don't get anything out of the services." We might well ask them, what have you tried to give to the services in loving devotion and in humble fellowship with your neighbors?

If we bring not only our physical bodies, but also our hearts, our love, our devotion, our prayers to the service of the church, we shall certainly go out again in the company of him who is "the Light of the World".

Prepare now to meet God and your neighbors in church this Sunday, for it could well be your last Sunday on this earth, for God hath appointed unto all men a time to die, and then the Judgment.

We wish to thank everyone who contributed towards the ice cream party for the youth last Sunday evening. Your interest and help was greatly appreciated and went towards a fruitful endeavor.
There will be a fellowship for youth this Sunday evening following evening services. If you didn't get to be with us last Sunday, please come this Sunday and bring someone with you.

Let us continue to remember Jimmy Newbury and Geneva Bobeen in our prayers. Their presence from our community is truly missed and let us be ever mindful of them in our prayers.

THINK IT OVER

"He shall bring forth Thy righteousness as the light, and Thy judgement as the noonday." Ps. 37:6.

THE CRUCIAL TEST

"The Lord permits trials in order that we may be cleansed from earthliness, from selfishness, from harsh, un-Christlike traits of character. He suffers the deep waters of affliction to go over our souls, in order that we may know Him, and Jesus Christ whom He has sent; in order that we may have deep heart longings to be cleansed from defilement, and may come forth from the trial purer, holier, happier. Often we enter the furnace of trial with our souls darkened with selfishness; but if patient under the crucial test, we shall come forth reflecting the divine character." Christ's Object Lessons, p. 178

COURTESY OF YOUR LOCAL Seventh-day Adventist Church

CHURCH OF ALL RACES

God's universal church as it stands redeemed on the Sea of Glass will be made up of all nations, races, languages and peoples. God is no respecter of persons, and it makes no difference to Him about the color of the skin, the features of the face or the size of the body. The thing God looks at is the character. Is he loyal to Me? Is he humble and submissive? And most of all, has he accepted My Son, Jesus Christ as his personal Savior?
This thing of racial and sectional prejudice is one of the saddest and sorriest things to be found in the Christian Church. It is not a new thing by any means. It was present when Jesus was upon earth. The Pharisees thought themselves superior, better than the Publicans and other people.

Jesus didn't see it that way at all. He gave the parable of the "Good Samaritan" to show who is truly another man's neighbor. Jesus ate with Publicans and sinners, much to the disgust of the Pharisees. Too, He chose His disciples from the common men of the nation-fisherman, farmers, taxgatherers and men of that sort.

This may come as a surprise to you. There is no church, no denomination no class of people on earth who can say, "We are the chosen people we will all be saved to the last man." God chooses people, yes; but He chooses them who wholeheartedly choose Him. Wholeheartedly choose Him. He will not take denominations to heaven, but individuals who leave the service of the world and the Devil for God's service and who are faithful.

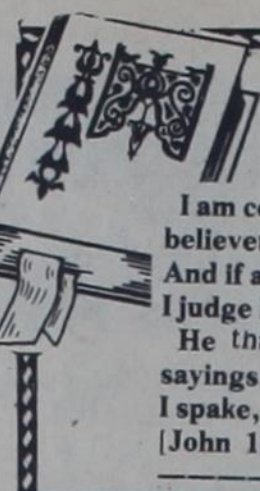

The Faultless Church, the 144,000, have their Father's name written in their foreheads. How and why is this? The reason is that the 144,000 are God-like. They are without spiritual blemish. They are faultless. They are perfect. Therefore, God owns them. He puts His name on their foreheads. They are His.

Calvary Full Gospel Assembly

We read much in Gods Word about Christian Joy! We hear much about Christian Joy, but as we look about us today, sad to say, we don't see much Christian Joy. The churches suffer today from a saddening lack of old-fashioned simple hearted, over-flowing Christian Joy. There is plenty of knowledge (head knowledge), plenty of enthusiasm and denominational zeal, but Christian and Churches that are started out in Revival Fires are living now in the "Smoke" of where the Fire use to be. The "Amens" and "Hallelujahs" have gone from most assemblies of the Saints. If one is heard to say Amen or Hallelujah now in most places they just might be escorted from the building and branded as a Fanatic. When one recalls that we are to "Rejoice in the Lord Always" and then look in on our average Sunday Congregation, one be made to wonder what has happened to the church since the Early day Christians went about setting up churches and rejoicing thru their persecutions. Now we meet on the Lords Day more as though we had assembled to mourn a defeat than to celebrate a victory.

Although the new Testament centers in a Cross and is bathed in the blood of Martyrs and blackened by the fires of persecution, its note form beginning to end is one of triumphant Joy. It begins with and Angel Chorus and ends with rejoicing around the throne of God. The Gospel means "Good news." Our Lord's characteristic greeting was "Be of Good cheer." He gave us three cheers: The cheer of Forgiveness. "Be of good cheer, thy Sins be forgiven thee" (Matthew 9:2); The Cheer of Companionship. "Be of good cheer; it is I; be not afraid." (Mark 6:50); The cheer of victory. "Be of good cheer; I have overcome the world John 16:33. He invited us to a feast, not to a funeral. He said, "I, I know these things, happy are ye if ye do them" and He intended that His Joy should remain in us and that our Joy should be full.

When we enter the life of the early church, we find them eating their meet with gladness and singleness of heart, praising God. We follow Paul from prison to prison, but his shout is, "Rejoice in the Lord always; and his shout is "Rejoice in the Lord always; and again I say, Rejoice." Evidently emotion had not been outlawed among the Saints in those days. Today the same church member who yells like a Comanche Indian at a Football game sits like a wooden Indian in the house of God on Sunday. We hear today "Let all things be done decently and in order." True-but when did it become indecent or in order to "Rejoice" and Praise God? We are told to "Praise God from whom all Blessings

Philippians: 2-3-4-5-6

Grace be unto you, and peace, from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ. I thank my God upon every remembrance of you. 4 Always in every prayer of mine for you all making request with joy. For your fellowship in the gospel from the first day until now: Being confident of this very thing, that he which hath begun a good work in you will perform it until the day of Jesus Christ. Comm. If we really want to serve Christ, we will not fail. We must first determine in our will to serve God. When we do, he gives us of His unending grace and power, with Jesus Christ as our helper we can't go under for going over. The question is, "Do we really want to serve God?" In the land of Palestine, Christ applied the torch of His own personality and conquering Spirit to the lives of His disciples. Soon these 12 became 120. Before long the 120 torches became 3,000. The 3,000 became 5,000, and the multiplication kept on until His enemies exclaimed, "All Jerusalem is set aflame with this doctrine!" Christ said "ye are the light of the world," and that flame must never go out until he comes.

CONSERVATION COMMENTS

By Charles Adams
SCS Office

The purpose of conservation planning is to evaluate the capabilities of our land resources and then use these capabilities in making wise land use decisions. Conservation planning is not productive until decisions have been made. Any land management practices that are implemented into a farm or ranch plan should always be the result of an evaluation of soil capabilities.

Its a simple fact that all soils have certain limitations as to how they can best be managed from a long-term conservation standpoint and should be managed accordingly. Some soils are suitable for cropland or improved pastureland uses. Others, because of their severe limitations, are best managed as native rangeland.

Wind and water erosion susceptibility due to soil texture and slope of the land along with environmental factors such as rainfall determine land use suitability of our soils. Deep sandy soils, severe spring windstorms, and inadequate rainfall are limiting factors for many cultivation practices in this area.

During the planning stage, the land user should become acquainted with potential opportunities for alternative treatments to his land resources. Once the possible treatments are established they can be evaluated to determine which best meets the needs and objective of the individual operator. Cost and return evaluations are an important aid in selection treatments that will not jeopardize the future uses and productivity of the land.

Conservation planning for any farm or ranch is actually a continuous process. It begins with the first interest of the land user in his resources. It continues while a land resource inventory is prepared, treatment alternatives are evaluated, and the conservation plan is written and implemented. Conservation planning is also a part of the Farm Bureau Opposes Amending NLRA.

WASHINGTON, D.C., - Farm Bureau today strongly opposed President Jimmy Carter's proposals - which have the blessings of organized labor - to amend the National Labor Relations Act (NLRA). In a statement to the House Subcommittee on Labor-Management Relations considering amendments to the NLRA, American Farm Bureau Federation (AFBF) said provisions of H.R. 8410 "tilt the Act too far in the direction of labor."

The AFBF statement said that the balance of power between management and labor has tipped too far on the side of labor, citing as an example that it is illegal for a group of corporations to get together and close down an entire industry. Yet, it is perfectly legal for a labor union to close down that same industry.

Farm Bureau opposes expanding the Board that administers the NLRA from five to seven members as proposed by organized labor. The statement said that Farm Bureau does not believe the size of the Board has anything to do with delays in decision making. If more staff is needed to speed up the work, the AFBF statement said in essence: Hire more help. We can support that.

"The growing economic and political power of labor unions has been experienced directly by farmers through the embargo of grain exports at port facilities, interruption of vital transportation services and strikes at food processing plants that have resulted in needless losses to growers," The AFBF statement continued.

The statement added that Farm Bureau fully supports the right of workers to organize into nonproft unions to act collectively to improve their economic welfare, and also favors amendments to the NLRA to require secret ballot elections on representation, calling, maintaining or resuming a strike.

"In the long run," the statement concludes, "a labor movement based upon the free choice of individual workers, rather than on coercion, will be a stronger labor movement, since it will benefit from the support of members who believe in it and want to see it succeed in their own interest and in the best interests of the public as a whole."

folowthrough stage when the plan is revised or adjusted to reflect changes in land use.

When properly implemented, conservation plans benefit not only the individual operator, but the community he lives in as well. And, when examined on a larger scale, conservation planning is a valuable asset to the entire nation. In making wise use of our land resources, conservation planning helps insure economic stability to the agricultural industry.

Anyone interested in preparing a conservation plan on their farm or ranch is encouraged to contact me at the Soil Conservation Service office here in Eastland. We will be happy to assist you in evaluating your land resource capabilities, developing suitable land treatment alternatives, and planning sound management practices.

OMAR BURLESON

Congressman
17th District

Washington, D.C.-Pinball machine addicts are much more interesting to watch than the machine itself. The gyrations some players exhibit show more movement than Elvis Presley or an accomplished ballerina.

Some players of the pinball machine reach the point of not only shaking it but finally, in anger, kick or turn it over. That feeling must enter the minds of slot machine players who fail to get up three plums or even two cherries.

Now, however, as reported in the American Bar Journal, a recent ruling by the National Labor Relations Board has established a new legal test for the abust of vending machines. The ruling grants union members the same privilege as non-union members to swear at, punch, kick or malfunction a vending machine.

The legal case did place some limits. The board found that, in the particular case, swearing at, banging and kicking have some limits. It seems it grants two kicks resulting in a dent between two and ten inches. The particular case grew out of the fact that a company fired an employee for assaulting a machine. The Board re-instated him with back pay. The Board said that to do violence to a soda machine in the way this employee did was "common-place."

Noting that several other employees testified that they had kicked and jostled the machine or had seen others do so, caused the Board to say that in the particular plant as elsewhere, it is commonplace for human beings to bang or kick a machine which does not deliver promised goods. While finding two kicks and a dent justifiable outrage against the money-eating machine, the Board was silent on whether three kicks, or even going as far as pulling the plug, would be abnormal or excessive. It is assumed that the "reasonable" person will have to decide that.

Note 1-Due to the Fact the Congress will not be in Session after August 6, this release will be suspended until the second week in September.

Note 2-At 10:00 O'Clock Tuesday Morning, August 9, Congressman Omar Burleson will hold a press conference at the Windsor Hotel in Abilene, at which time he will announce his future plans. The public is invited.

TEXACO Have A Nice Day

Early Admissions Set At HPU

Howard Payne University will continue its early admissions program for high school juniors and seniors this fall, according to Dr. Roger L. Brooks, president.
"Many students have demonstrated an ability and a desire to perform at the college level before high school graduation," he said. "In recognition of these students, Howard Payne offers two 'early admissions' programs whereby these students may begin their college program before graduation."
High school seniors lacking fewer than four credits for graduation may register for two academic courses or seven hours at the university after they complete the necessary forms and provide a high school transcript. Each student must be recommended by his high school principal.

A transcript of college work will not be established until high school graduation is verified by transcript and all admission requirements met. The student may then continue his college work at HPU or have a record of his work transferred to another college.
A high school junior will be accepted in the summer prior to his senior year in high school after completing the necessary forms. He must submit a verification that he has completed his junior year successfully and will be a senior when the regular term begins. Juniors must also be recommended by their high school principal.

A transcript of college work will be established after high school graduation.
Under the early admissions program, students may take many of the introductory freshman level courses offered at the university. Introductory courses being offered in the evening this fall include beginning and intermediate typing, introduction to business, beginning keypunch and data entry introduction to computers, Old and New Testament, introduction to ministry, effective study and listening in education, a variety of physical education classes, foundations of recreation, contemporary health problems, phonetics, drawings, ceramics, painting, metal crafts, watercolor, crafts, art in the elementary grades, voice and piano, fundamentals of music, music appreciation, acoustical physics, drama, introduction to theatre, fundamentals of interpersonal communications, basic English, introduction to college English, fiction, introduction to mass communication, basic conversational French, German and Spanish, animal science, botany, zoology, introductory chemistry, general chemistry, physical geology, calculator programming, introduction to math, probability and statistics, college algebra, homology, world civilization, U.S. history to 1865, U.S. history from 1865, introduction to psychology, introduction to sociology, social problems, anthropology.

- Mrs. A.C. Halsell

BY MRS. A.C. HALSELL
The weather is and has been so hot, I have curtailed many of my activities, but news writing, with me, is one thing I discipline myself to start about this time each week. When my telephone rings on Sunday afternoon or Monday morning, I think I am being alerted to take a news item. Not so this afternoon. A dear lady in Cross Plains, called and said, "Mrs. Halsell I have just returned from a weeks visit in Paris, Texas. While I was there I met the Grandparents-in-law of your grandson, Mark Rodenberger. I want you to know what they said about him. They said, "WE think Mark is the greatest." I just want to pass this on to you and Mr. Halsell. "Being human as well as a proud grandparent, this gave me a good sent Off on my quest for news to fill this column. "The re is no friendship, no love, like that of the parent for the child." said Henry Ward Beecher. This may equally be said about the grand child and the great grandchild.

So many people in the community are lucky to have their children living close enough to visit them often. So it is with Mr. and Mrs. J.T. Beggs. Mr. and Mrs. Rusty Beggs and daughters of Caldwell, Texas and Mr. and Mrs. Rex Beggs of Abilene visited their parents this weekend. Other visitors were Mike George and Mar. k Taff of Pioneer on Sunday night.

I talked with Gladys Sessums. So glad to get a good report about her arm. She and Mr. Sessums went to Ft. Worth to see her doctor. He dismissed Mrs. Sessums with various instructions for taking care of her arm.

Their visitors this week were Mr. and Mrs. D.I. Sessums of Ft. Worth on Sunday.

Visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Joe Fleming were Mr. and Mrs. Howard Stevens of Seymour on the weekend; Mr. and Mrs. Speck Carter and Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Roady of Pioneer.

Mrs. Lois Brown and Mrs. Velma Brown accompanied Mrs. Ethel Brown to Brownwood last Monday where Mrs. Ethel Brown had a check-up with her Doctor. Visitors during the week with Mrs. Ethel Brown were Mr. and Mrs. Everett Harris and Mrs. Opal Dean of Ri sing Star also Mrs. Halsell, of Pioneer.

Visitors iwth Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Roady were Mrs. Sue Burnett of Stockton, Cal. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Cooper of Breckenridge, and Mr. and Mrs. Bob Roady of Cross Plains.

Mrs. and Mrs. Cecil Barton and family of Bellville visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C.T. Barton during the weekend. Lee Ann, their daughter, will be entering Texas Tech, this fall.

thday, hosted by his mother, Wennetta, in the Nelson Park, Abilene. They saw a Walt Disney Movie, attended the Zoo where they had lunch and refreshments. Among the guests were Mrs. Danny Hutton and Robbie, Mrs. J.D. Hutton, James and Tabitha and Warren Parsons.

Wennetta is still looking for demonstrators for parties for The House of Lords, Gift organization. She emphasizes that it is a very profitable way for Clubs or individuals to raise money. She also emphasizes that it is not for selling toys, only but there are equally as many gifts available for adults. For the first week in August there is a 20 percent profit on all sales for clubs. Contact Wennetta Parsons for more information.

David Carl Taylor was returned to his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. A.C. Halsell by his sister Mrs. Louann Bates of San Angelo, where he has been spending a week.

This correspondent wishes to state that the thermometer has dropped thirty degrees since she started this news column Sunday afternoon. There was so much appreciation of th rain that she gathered tomatoes in the rain while she let the telephone rest. SO THANKFUL FOR THE RAIN.

Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Parsons of Bovina, Texas spent the week visiting the Truitt Parsons and other relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Cowan Hutton had Sunday lunch with Mr. and Mrs. Helms of Burkett.
