CONTESTS

Let's Go to the Picnic!

PRIZES

A FESTIVE JULY 4 is planned for Rising Star with a parade, BBQ picnic lunch, desserts, music, softball games, ice cream contest, arts and crafts booths, T-shirts for sale, bake sale, snow cones, dunking board, watermelon slices, soft drinks, lemonade, games, announcement of the winner of the Junior Class hog giveaway and more!

AN ALL-STAR girls fast pitch softball tournament will begin at 8 a.m. at the baseball field in the park. Teams of girls 16 to 19 years old from Brownwood, Abilene and Clyde will play here before moving on to state championship competition to be held later this month.

THE PARADE will begin at Rising Star High School and continue south on Main Street before turning off the highway to include Rising Star Nursing Center on the route. Parade entrants are requested to be at the school at 9:15 a.m. to line up so and a list can be made for the announcer. Parade chairman is Phil Donaldson. The parade is scheduled to begin at 10 a.m. Trophies will be awarded. Bands, organizations, horseback riders, floats and others are invited to take part in the parade.

AREA MUSICIANS will begin to tune up immediately after the parade. A platform will be erected near the site for the lunch, at the hospital grounds.

ICE CREAM JUDGING will begin at 11 a.m. at the park. Freezers of homemade ice cream entered in the contest will be sold to the public at 50 cents a cup after the judging. Proceeds are to help pay the expenses of Rising Star's ambulances, manned by volunteers of Rising Star Emergency Medical Service. The top five winners will receive gift certificates of $50, $40, $30, $20 and $10 to be used at businesses that are members of the Rising Star Chamber of Commerce & Agriculture.

Rising Star is proud of raising the funds to purchase a new ambulance last year. The new ambulance will be the first entry in the parade and the old ambulance will be the last entry.

A BARBECUE LUNCH will be served beginning at 11:30 a.m. at the hospital grounds (Rising Star Clinic). The plate lunch will sell for $3.50 each. The price of the 50-cent drinks is included in the meal. Desserts may be bought separately. Tarps will be erected to help provide shade.

ARTS AND CRAFTS booths will be set up on the park grounds.

DRINKS, GAMES, and more will also be set up on the park grounds. The Rising Star cheerleaders will sell soft drinks and lemonade, Senior Class members will sell snow cones and have a dunking board, Juniors will sell watermelon slices, Sophomores will set up games, the Parent Teacher Organization will sell T-shirts and Senior Citizens Center members will have a bake sale.

DRAWING for the winner of the Junior Class hog giveaway will be held.

Chamber of Commerce president Frank Agnew is sure that it will not rain on OUR parade and picnic, so come on out and join the fun!

Library Gets $1000 Grant

Dorothy Shook, left, accepted a check for $1,000 from C.L. Parker, center, as Mrs. Parker looks on. The grant from Exxon Corp. U.S.A. was granted to the City Library for expansion from the company's Involvement Fund. Parker is an Exxon retiree. Mrs. Shook is chairman of the Library Committee for the Saturday Club, which operates the library.

C.L. Parker has been notified by the Exxon Corporation that the Rising Star Public Library has been named a recipient of an involvement grant of $1,000 to help with the completion of an addition to the present library structure. This grant was made by Exxon Corp. U.S.A. to encourage the involvement of its annuitants and employees in civic betterment and civic affairs. Exxon has set aside a large sum of money for these projects.

Mr. Parker, who retired from Exxon Corp. in 1975, has been involved with maintenance of the Rising Star Library, and is a member of the library board. This grant was made in recognition of Mr. Parker's efforts on behalf of the library.

The citizens of Rising Star are fortunate to have the library available for their use. It houses 6,000 volumes and is operated by members of the Saturday Club as a community service.

Local Man Burned

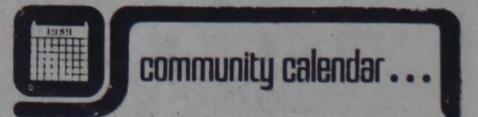

Darin Leonard, 21, of Rising Star suffered first and second degree burns June 22 when he was using gasoline to set fire to brush along a fence line. The gasoline fumes exploded in Darin's face and caught his shirt on fire. His face, arms and hands were burned and it is expected that his hands and a place on his neck will be permanently scarred.

Darin was taken to Hendrick Medical center in Abilene where he has been undergoing treatment and was expected to be released by midweek. Once released from the hospital, he will return to Abilene for treatment every other day.

The son of Nancy and Pankin Leonard of Rising Star, Darin does not have insurance to cover his medical bills and convalescent period. A fund to help Darin has set up at First State Bank of Rising Star. The first deposits to the fund were made by his sister, of Virginia and members of the church she attends there.

Gasoline fumes are highly flammable and lessons learned in the use of gasoline are often very harsh. No one can be too cautious around gasoline.

Cheerleaders Attend Camp

The Rising Star High School Cheerleaders were among approximately 300 participants in the 1987 Big Country Cheerleader Camp, held on the campus of Hardin Simmons University in Abilene, June 22-26.

The five-day camp was conducted by Southwest camps of Cisco, with Mr. Eris Ritchie as camp director. Instructional staff and program were supplied by the National Cheerleaders Association.

The cheerleaders were taught new cheers, stunts, chants and spirit ideas from a nine member staff headed by Davonne Fricks, a professional cheerleading instructor.

Girls attending were: Jennifer Linney, Becky Walker, Meredith Hamblen, Juanita Ramirez, Renee O'Connor and Maxine Perales.

Recipe

Submitted by Sandra Crockett
SUNSHINE PICKLES
Combine 10 cups water and 2 cups of canning salt. Summer over low heat until salt dissolves. Remove from heat and let cool. Measure cooled salt water and add to it the same amount of white vinegar. Sterilize jars and lids. Put the following into jars: (into each jar)
2 buttons (cloves) garlic
1 heaping tsp dill seed (or fresh dill)
2 grape leaves (clean)

2 or 3 dried hot peppers
Add cucumbers. Pour vinegar and water mixture into jars and seal.
Put jars in sun - not touching - for 10 days. Don't bring them in at night. Try to put them in an area with no shade at all. If it rains on them leave them out a day or so extra.
After they are brought in - wait a week or so before opening. They are very good chilled.
Larry Crockett says they like the midget sized cucumbers best.

Amendment Proposed For Balanced Budget

WASHINGTON, D.C. - Supporters of a federal balanced budget joined Congressman Charles W. Stenholm in impressive numbers to introduce a proposed amendment to the U.S. Constitution requiring a balanced budget.

The proposal, which could become the 27th Amendment to the Constitution, was introduced with more than 230 original co-sponsors in the House, the most support ever in the history of this legislation. Congressman Stenholm is the chief sponsor in the House along with Senator Dennis Deoncini (D-Arizona). Promoting the Stenholm-Deoncini bill are four other chief sponsors, Congressman Larry Craig (R-Idaho), Congressman Bob Smith (R-Oregon) and Congressman Tom Carper (D-Delaware) in the House and Senator Orrin Hatch (R-Utah) in the Senate.

As proposed in the amendment, Congress and the president would have to agree on annual revenue estimates, and government spending could not exceed the revenue. Raising the national debt, which currently is at a record $2.3 trillion, would be increased only if approved by three-fifths of the Congress.

Upon Congressional approval, the measure would then be presented to the states for ratification. In order to amend the Constitution, 38 states would have to approve the proposal before it became law.

"Our failure to respond to the debt crisis weighs heavily on my mind," said Stenholm, dean of the West Texas delegation. "I continue to worry about the unfortunate, fiscal legacy we are leaving our future generations. The way we deal with, or fail to deal with, our deficit is one of the most frustrating feelings I've encountered during my time in Congress," Stenholm said.

"Right now all we see is the president blaming the problem on Congress, the Congress blaming it on the president, the House blaming it on the Senate, and nothing gets done. We must do something to force ourselves to resolve this issue. We must pass this legislation," he said.

The area's congressman called on House leaders to bring the measure to the floor by Sept. 17, 1987, the 200th anniversary of the U.S. Constitution. "I think it would be most appropriate to have action on this during the anniversary of the framework for responsible, democratic government. May it remind and encourage the Members of this body of the jobs that we were elected to do," he said.

The proposal is similar to the Balanced Budget/Tax Limitation amendment presented in the last Congress. At least two dozen national organizations, such as the National Tax Limitation Committee, National Taxpayers Union, and the U.S. Chamber of Commerce, have indicated support for the resolution.

Safety Belt Paid Off For Dallas Survivor

When Dallas attorney Christopher Turner heads out for his Fourth of July picnic, you can bet he'll be wearing his safety belt.

If he had failed to buckle up one morning last February, he probably wouldn't have been around for Valentine's Day.

"I'm sure I would have had a severe spinal injury, and probably would've been killed," said Turner, looking back on the Feb. 10 accident that demolished his car and sent him to a hospital emergency room. "The seat belt saved me. There's no question about it."

The 43-year-old attorney, an official member of the Texas Safety Belt Survivors' Club, was on his way to the office when a speeding car struck the left side of his Mazda GLC as he crossed a street. "I had stopped at the stop sign," recalled Turner. He looked both ways, then started through the intersection, watching his right side. He had no warning of the crash until, "out of the corner of my eye, I saw the car coming in my front door," he said.

"The roof folded like an accordion...the driver's side was crunched into the passenger's side," Turner said. It was close quarters for a man who stands 6'3". The ceiling collided with his head, causing a concussion, but he credits the safety belt for keeping his spine in one piece. "I and the belt and the seat all moved together...it kept the top half of me from being torn away the other half," he said.

"Stories like this one are worth thinking about, especially with a three-day Fourth of July weekend coming up," said George R. Gustafson, president of Texas Safety Association and a spokesperson for the Texas Coalition for Safety Belts. "Chris Turner's accident—his first, in 28 years of driving—shows that belts can make the difference between life and death, even for the best of drivers.

"Many Texans, and many out-of-state visitors, will be on the roads in the next few days. With speed limits up to 65 miles per hour on some rural interstates, the risks will be even greater," said Gustafson. "If people don't fasten their belts and take the extra moments needed to properly restrain their young children, this holiday could end in tragedy for many families."

For information on other Safety Belt Survivors, contact the Texas Department of Health's Safe Riders program, 1-800-252-8255.

I've Been Wrong Before

By Gordon S. Clark

Years ago I received an invitation to join the Club of Rome. Shucks, I had no idea what that outfit was all about and was too busy at that moment to check it out. I certainly liked those high priced Italian stamps and steamed them off.

Had I any idea that that "club" was much more than a glorified pizza parlor I would have kept that invitation handy. It was a long time before I learned what they were all about, which in itself proves that I wasn't near the sharp cookie they had taken me to be.

Furthermore, it took me too long after I accidentally learned of their activities to figure who even one of those who recommended me for membership was. I'm slow.

Over the years I have been mailed a lot of stuff but I prefer knowing who sends things. Like most people, I am flattered that anyone might think I could be useful but I would resent anyone thinking I could be "used". There is a fine line to be avoided there.

Anyhow, that Club of Rome is a bunch of internationalists elitists and an internationalist I never was. To illustrate that point and another of those times I was wrong I recall an English prof at A&M who thought the U.N. would be the salvation of mankind. Unfortunately, I was already of the contrary opinion.

I was stupid enough to express in a talk we were required to deliver that "the UN was no better than a diplomats picknick with the US footing the bill. "Though I presented ample evidence and the class gave me a big hand of applause, I realized how wrong one can be to rely on the constitutional right of free speech as soon as I saw my grade posted.

Worse yet he posted a C on the bulletin board but turned a D in to the office and I didn't learn of that cute truck until two semesters later and too late to have it corrected. Still, I got by and was only the more certain that I should never trust an internationalist. I only saw that man once after leaving his class and that in a public place. He would have been better off to have ignored me as I clearly tried to avoid him. Instead he wanted to "glad hand" me and asked if I was still in school. He was surprised when I told him I would graduate in another month. "But didn't I have you in Sophomore English three semesters ago?"

"Yes but I went summer sessions."

"Well, you were a pretty good English student. What did I give you in my course?"

Oh WHY did he have to ask that?! I saw red. I almost choked with rage. Before I finished telling him, I had embarrassed both of us.

It takes me a long time to forgive an insult but what I percieve to be a dirty trick? They should live so long.

My older brother often quoted what he credited to Confucius (whose real Chinese name was Kang Fu Tsu) something like this, "If man fool you once, shame on him. If he fool you twice, shame on YOU." Not a Christian statement to be sure but you didn't expect a Christian statement from THE Confucian Chinaman did you?

Another belief of old Kang

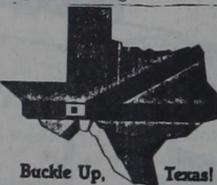

Fu Tsu (and this one is authentic) was that when any government became oppressive it was not only the right but the DUTY of men to overthrow it. Most revolutionaries quote that one until they gain control. Afterwards they would like to delect it entirely.

Resistance is possible and even revolution in most places but if the internationalists have their way and national sovereignty is eliminated then how could any people anywhere stand against an oppressive group of rulers?

The so called "Genocide Treaty, the UN and many less publicised international activities are designed with the aim of chipping away at national sovereignty until there is none left. I resent and would support any efforts to root out of text books the slightest hint that would try to persuade our children that they are "citizens of the World". Any teacher who passes such stuff on to our children are either knowing traitors or so dedicated to pay day that they should be honest and pledge their allegiance to their belly.

Now if that doesn't insult anybody then I've been wrong again.

I know it isn't in the Constitution but I even believe that we have a right to be wrong. But one has to be ready to take the consequences that go with it.

Debra Robinson Becomes CJC Counselor

This spring Debra Robinson resigned as Counselor for the Eastland School District, and has accepted the position of Counselor at Cisco Junior College.

At the College Mrs. Robinson will be in charge of Freshman Orientation, and advise all students on careers and vocations. She will be assisted in her work by advisors from the CJC Departments.

Debra's husband, Robby Robinson, is an Instructor in the Science Department at the College. The Robinsons have a two-year-old daughter, Jordan.

Being a former student helps give Debra Robinson a special interest in Cisco Junior College.

Debra Robinson

"CJC was very good to me," she says. "I had some great teachers, who encouraged me in my own career choice. I hope I can give back some of this help especially on decisions concerning a college major.

Good choices in this factor increase the chance of a student staying in College."

Debra, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Newton (now of Baird), was born in Anchorage, Alaska. Her father was in the Air Force, and she grew up in such places as the Philippines, Okinawa, and Hawaii. She says that these varied experiences "affected me and the way I deal with people", and caused her to appreciate the United States more and what it has to offer.

Back in the states she awarded in Dec., 1982.

Debra Robinson describes her years with the Eastland School System as "Very rewarding. I met a lot of wonderful people, and learned a lot from them."

She lists some of the highlights of her five years as Counselor as Career Day, the Orientation Program for Parents, Career Units for different classrooms, and Motivational Training for Grade School students. In 1983 she was involved in the engrossing work of fitting the Cambodian refugees into the school system, and dealing with their special needs and talents.

Mrs. Robinson was always available for personal counseling with students. She worked with a number of young people over the years, and changing jobs will not cause her to forget them. She is glad that about 75 percent of the EHS students are continuing their education in Colleges and trade schools.

"I'll always be interested in these students and their development," she says.

Work at the College level will be challenging, however. "Cisco Junior College not only has the traditional teen-ager, but different age groups as well," she says. "I will probably be counseling such varied people as High School graduates, maybe some of the High School students who want to pick up extra credits before they graduate, war veterans, parents and grandparents."

"I really get excited when older people decide to go back and get more education," she says. "It's never too late to go back to school."

A Community College like

CJC fills a special place in education for students or any age, she says. And it is easy to see that Debra Robinson is very enthusiastic about becoming a part of it.

BAIRD

Grumpe's Specialties of Baird, owned by Cliff and Glenda Stringfellow, have begun construction on their new candy factory. This project has been in the making for months, and has been made possible by a joint effort of the state, city, Grumpe's, and the First National Bank of Baird. Jack Gilreath, Management consultant, credited Mayor Frank Payne with a lot of hard work and determination to get this project off the ground. He explained that the loan to Grumpe's from the City of Baird, as it is paid back, will create a revolving loan fund. This money will enable the city to make more loans for future growth. There are two contractors for the factory, R.C. Vickers Construction Co. of Cisco, and John Sartor Plumbing of Baird. The facility is expected to be completed around Sept. 1.

Art Gaddy of Baird is helping the Saragosa citizens to rebuild. He is erecting a community building there for the people whose town was destroyed by a tornado several weeks ago. The building is to be a 30x60 ft. metal structure with four bathrooms, a laundry room, kitchen, and a large meeting room to be used for people to eat their meals. Mr. Gaddy is very grateful for all the donations of money, time and materials which he has received. Further donations can be made either to Mr. and Mrs. Gaddy or to the First National Bank of Baird.

CISCO

This year's Little Miss Cisco contest will be the best one ever, according to Shirley Hargrave, Chamber of Commerce Director, who is in charge of the Pageant. The contest will be held July 4 at 7 p.m. at the City Park. The winners in each of the three Divisions will receive a trophy, and all contestants will receive a ribbon. This event is only part of the day-long fun, food and games available at City Park for the July 4th celebration. The Park is now being made ready for the festivities, and the public is urged to attend.

The Rev. Ken Deihm, pastor of the First United Methodist Church, is presenting a series of sermons on the beautiful stained glass windows in the Church, and their significance. At least three of the ornate windows were donated by families still known to the Church - the Rommingsers of Breckenridge, the Turners of the Metroplex and the Triplets of Abilene. Diehm reports that when the sermons deal with these three windows the families will be invited as special guests. Other families will be invited if any present member can be located. The Church was built in 1919, and a drive was held then to obtain stained glass windows for the structure.

Dr. Kenneth E. Breeze, pastor of First Christian Church, reports that between 400 and 500 area people have benefitted from the new food bank program at Gaslight Apartments from 8 to 10 a.m. Monday and Friday. They have distributed 10 tons of food - surplus items purchased from the government. They're in short supply of money to buy more food items for the program.

On Saturday and Sunday, July 11-12, there will be a decorated vegetable contest in the upstairs lobby of the Hilton Community Center. There will be three divisions, one by children under age 12, entry by a person within 12-99 years, and entry by a child and grandparent. The vegetables should serve as the foundation of the figure created. The entries will be judged by the viewing public on Saturday afternoon, and left on display for the enjoyment of visitors on Sunday. Digital clocks will be awarded as prizes.

The second Summer Semester at Cisco Junior College will begin July 14 at all locations. Students may register from 9 a.m. until 4 p.m. and 6 p.m. to 8 p.m. on the following dates and locations: Cisco Campus, Monday, July 13 in the Director of Admissions office, Clyde Campus, Monday, July 13, and Abilene Campus, Thursday, July 9. The Cisco and Clyde Campuses offer both day and night classes. The Abilene Campus will offer night classes only.

The annual Eastland Jaycees 4th of July Festival will be offering the public an array of food, fun and fireworks at the day-long event at City Park. Activities will begin at 10 a.m. with a flag-raising ceremony. At 11 a.m. the city pool will open for free swimming for all ages. At noon the Jaycees will serve up hot, home-cooked barbecue brisket plates, sandwiches, sausage plates, complete with all the trimmings. Booths, games and musical entertainment will live the day. Late in the day supper will be served, followed by a gigantic fireworks display.

Roy Gevara of Eastland was recently selected as the Kiwanis Division 35 Layman of the Year. Division 35 includes Abilene and the surrounding counties. Gevara's name will now be submitted to the Committee for the Texas-Oklahoma District. Roy Gevara is active in the Kiwanis, the American Cancer Society, and many Club and civic projects. He is a certified lab technician and local businessman, and active in Spanish missions in the county. He and his family attend the Calvary Baptist Church in Cisco.

Emmett Lasater reports that Eastland High School exes have responded beautifully to requests for Majestic renovation funds. So far, exes have contributed $8,222, with donations still arriving. Some of the exes addresses are still unknown, so if readers are aware of an ex who hasn't received a letter, please contact Lasater at 629-2651. Every dime given goes directly to the renovation and operation of this community civic center, which should eventually support itself.

In July Eastland Memorial Hospital will once again conduct an Expectant Parent's Class at no cost. The classes will be held on Monday night at 7 p.m. on July 6, 13, 20 and 27. All classes will be presented in the hospital in the Education classroom. If you wish to attend the classes please contact either Glenda Agnew, R.N. or Lesa Oswalt at the hospital, 629-2601.

RANGER

Volunteers are needed in Ranger to help with a survey that must be taken and finalized by July 31. This must be done in order to apply for Federal grants in the future. The last survey shows only one section of Ranger eligible for Federal Grant assistance. Mayor Rogers explains that another survey must be taken to see if all four quadrants (sections) qualify for grant money to be used for sewer and sewer line repairs. The Sewer Treatment Plant is also in need of repairs, and would need to be included in the grant application if Ranger proves eligibility.

The Ranger Volunteer Fire Department and Ladies Auxiliary will hold a barbecue and dance on July 4 at their new Fire Station in Memorial Park. The barbecue will start at 6 p.m. and the dance will start at 8:30 p.m. An Open House will also be held at this time for the public to view their new facilities. Tickets for the barbecue will be available at the door, with prices as follows: $5 for adults, $3 for children under 12.

The 25th annual Jaycee Rodeo will be held July 9, 10 and 11. The Rodeo will begin each night at 8:30 p.m., with Runt Sloan Rodeo Co. furnishing stock. To start the festivities, a Parade will be held Thursday, July 9 at 5 p.m. in downtown Ranger. The Jaycees will also sponsor a dance at the Rodeo Barn each night following the Rodeo action. Music will be "Shot In the Dark", featuring Ronna Reeves.

Silver Lining Starting to Show in Texas' Economic Cloud

By Governor William P. Clements, Jr.

One day not too long ago, a West Texas cattleman, hard hit by a prolonged drought, noticed a neighboring rancher driving up the road, kicking up dust all the way.

"I've got some good news and some bad news," the neighbor reported. "Someone just cut a hole in your fence and stole 100 head of your cattle. That's the bad news."

"The good news is that he left one bull and one cow behind."

The rancher, although hard hit, had the necessary ingredients for recovery. That's sort of the way things are with the Texas economy right now. Things are bad. You don't have to look much further than the front page of this or any other newspaper in Texas to be reminded of that.

There is some good news, though. We have the necessary ingredients for recovery, and there are signs that it may be under way. We can look at some economic indicators in Texas to see that our economy may have bottomed out and is headed in the right direction at long last.

I'm going to deluge you with facts, but I want you to see that our efforts to improve the business climate in Texas—and lessen our dependence on oil and gas—is paying some dividends. We need to be reminded occasionally that our hold-the-line-on-spending attitude is bad news for the bureaucrats who maintain bloated budgets, but good news for those who want to operate a business in Texas.

Many of you will remember that our low-tax and pro-business philosophy in Texas earned us high marks in Inc. Magazine's 1986 "Annual Report on the States." In fact, Texas ranked third among the 50 states in terms of "best business climate in the nation."

Thursday,
July 2, 1987

The U.S. Bureau of Labor Statistics reported in April that the number of employed individuals in Texas increased by 58,000 in a one-month period, and by 152,000 during the preceding 12 months.

The number of jobless Texans decreased by 90,200 between February and March of this year, down to 668,400—its lowest point since April 1986.

The percentage of unemployed in Texas dropped substantially between February and May—from 9.2 percent to 8.6 percent.

Manufacturing continued a slow but steady upturn between February and March by gaining 1,300 jobs.

The number of new business corporations established in Texas between January and April of this year totaled 12,481.

All that, of course, is good news. There are signs that better news is on the horizon. For example, it has been predicted that:

U.S.—Mexico trade will top $33 billion in 1987, up 20 percent from 1986 when Texas sent Mexico $13 billion in goods and Mexico sent Texas $15 billion in goods.

The maquiladora—or twin-plant—program will experience significant growth. By 1995 there will be an estimated 1,500 twin plants employing about 1 million workers. That compares with 789 plants and 217 workers in 1985.

Bank deposits in Texas will increase to $259.4 billion in 1987, a 10.3 percent increase over 1986.

Although personal income experienced only a slight increase in 1986, it is projected to increase by 3.3 percent in 1987, from $216 billion to $223.2 billion.

All that is good news. I'm confident more is on the way.

Senior Center News

Thursday's was a birthday luncheon for those having birthdays in June: mine, Betty Raybon, Curtis Hill and Vera Westerman. Thanks, Edith Bostick for the pretty cake.

All the citizens are buying guns and we mean to use them. It is a shame we can't feel safe in our homes and we mean to do something about it.

Marion and Marjorie West attended the Steel Reunion at Kirkland Lodge at Brownwood last weekend. Lucille and Weldon Stillwell from Fort Worth spent Thursday night with the Wests and attended the reunion.

Curtis and Stella had as their visitors last weekend their son, Marty, from Irving, and sister of Curtis Hill, Georgia and P.A. and daughter, Lori Lynn from Anson.

Alvy and Dell Bible went to Abilene Monday for Alvy's checkup. His report was pretty good. She talked to her sister in Weatherford, Tena Hassell, last week and they are doing fairly well and said to tell everyone hello here.

Margie Earp's son and wife from Colorado spent a week with her doing chores and visiting. He and a friend had been up in the mountains and killed a bear. The friend skinned it but it smelled so bad, he stated, he would never kill another bear.

Those visiting Edith Bostick last weekend were Beverly Moore, Linda, Shawnda, and Kendall, James Bostick of Abilene, Sandie Bostick Paula Cardwell and Justin of San Marcos, Kay Hammond of Snyder, Kenneth and Mary Bostick of Eastland, Johnny Bostick, Donna and Karl of Cisco, Don Bostick of Virginia Beach, Va., R.O. and Edna Gregg of Borger and Era and Simmie Alexander of Cisco.

We had as guests Thursday, Bea Morton of Coleman, Annie Edith and niece, sister of Sula Harris.

Netha Carouth and children of Cross Plains had supper Friday night with her mother-in-law, Martha, bringing her a birthday gift.

Martha and Betty Raybon had supper in Brownwood Saturday night, also visited Martha's sister and visited the Senior Center for Martha's birthday. While there she saw an aunt, Lottie Porter of Blanket, whom she hadn't seen in a long time.

Kitty Mulke of May visited her Aunt Martha Tuesday; they had moved there from Basngs.

COMMENTARY

Myrtle Owen

Wars in our world—and no way out! Sign #1—and there shall be signs, upon the earth distress of nations, with perplexity. (Luke 21:25). In man's history, there have always been wars. Wars in themselves are not a sign of the Endtimes. But, in our generation, the nature of war has changed. It started with World War II. Never before in the history of war were so many major nations of the world locked together in violent conflict. Japan, the United States, Germany, England, Russia, and many others, spent billions of dollars and lost hundreds of thousands of men, each to advance their own cause and interest. Yet forty years later, there still is not a clear resolution to this historic and tragic conflict! To this day, the east-west Berlin wall silently stands as an ugly monument and a stark reminder of the unsettled issues from that war. Nuclear bombs stopped the fighting in World War II, but the conflict continues! World War II was the first war to fulfill the unique prophecy of Luke 21:25. In the forty years since the official end of that war, a "distress of nations, with perplexity" still exists. Despite the best attempts by our world leaders to find a satisfactory solution...They have no way out. There will never be a permanent, peaceful solution to all of the issues disputed during World War II.

Student Attends Governors School

MATT CHAMBERS

This summer, Matt Chambers, 16-year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Danny Chambers of Carrollton and the grandson of Mrs. J.W. Chambers and Mrs. Lee Roy Ford, both of May, is participating in an exciting program sponsored by the State Board of Education. The project, the Texas Governor's

School, is a tuition-free, four-week residential program, designed to meet the educational needs of gifted high school students. It involves students from throughout Texas and is meeting at the University of Texas at Austin Campus from June 21 to July 18, 1987.

Applications for the school were mailed to school districts in January. To apply, students had to be completing their tenth grade year and participating in a state-approved honors or gifted program. Over 1,100 students from across Texas applied by the February 16th deadline and Matt was one of the 150 students who were admitted to the school.

While at the school Matt is studying International Economics in the morning and Advanced Computers every afternoon. Speakers and field trips complement the course work offered, and evening assemblies based on current issues are a regular part of the program.

Although the program is only in its second year, last year's pilot was extremely successful.

Matt is excited about the opportunity of attending the Texas Governor's School.

Mamography Gives Best Chance

Since one in ten American women will get breast cancer, it is important that they take advantage of mammography, an x-ray technique that can detect the cancer earlier than other methods and can greatly increase the chances of being cured.

Unfortunately, only perhaps 5 to 15% of women are getting these exams.

Some may be afraid of the modest radiation exposure, may have heard the procedure can hurt, or may skip it because their insurance may not pay for it.

They should reconsider: Breast cancer is the leading cause of cancer deaths in American women. About 40,000 of them die from breast cancer every year, with about 5,000 of these cases in women under 50. The American Cancer Society has estimated that there will be 130,000 new cases diagnosed this year.

Mammography is the best method currently available for detecting tumors in the breast early—before they can be felt and before the cancer has spread. One study estimates that for women 50 and older, a regular physical exam can reduce breast cancer mortality by only 18%, but when mammography is added, such deaths can be reduced by 56%.

As a result, most private health organizations concerned with breast cancer recommend a base-line mammogram (to which later mammograms can be compared) at 35 to 40, and additional mammograms from 40 on, either annually or every two years, and annually from 50 on. The National Cancer Institute's recommendations are slightly different: Annual mammograms for women 50 and older, with earlier screening tests for any woman whose mother or sister has had breast cancer.

The U.S. Food and Drug Administration says the life-saving benefits far outweigh any risks from the radiation involved.

FDA says women should realize that the breast must be compressed to provide the clearest overall picture that can be readily interpreted. Adequate compression can mean the difference between detecting and missing a cancer.

Women can avoid some discomfort by scheduling their exams to avoid that part of the menstrual cycle when the breasts are more tender and sensitive to this compression.

FDA has collected x-ray data that indicate that some facilities get better images than others. Good images are most likely to be provided at facilities where they use equipment specifically designed for mammography that has been inspected and calibrated at least annually—and is used by technologists trained and experienced in mammography.

Peggy Goodman Activity Director

Residents - The Fourth of July weekend is fast approaching. In honor of the holiday we will serve homemade ice cream on Friday afternoon, July 3, at 2:30 p.m. If the weather cooperates, we will be serving on the patio. That's Friday afternoon at 2:30.

Our thanks to Rev. and Nancy Jackson and the First Baptist Church W.M.U. for the picnic lunch they served last Monday. They served sandwiches, drinks and dessert to their "special friends" here at the nursing center. There was a good turn out and we really appreciate their time and friendship.

Our June Birthday Party was held last Tuesday afternoon. A big thank you to our nursing home staff who pitched in and made it extra special and to the birthday committee for their delicious homemade cakes.

It's unusual to have a staff and volunteer group who are so supportive and we thank each and every one of you.

Residents (and staff) thoroughly enjoyed devotional on Wednesday afternoon with E.B. Elswick from the Methodist Church. Thanks to Elza Witt and Terry Horton for their help in leading the music.

Thanks to Buster Rixford and Rita Wilson for setting up and assisting with Bingo on Monday afternoon. Residents who participated were: Pauline Hill, Snova Walker, Robbie Henderson, Mary Crisp, Martha Irby, Joe Fox, Annie Selman, Buster Rixford, and Mary Shields.

Hord Lake in Coleman was the site for the Folkner's 50th Reunion on June 19, 20, & 21.

The Folkner reunion was started in August 1937 in Brownwood by the 10 living children of David and Mary Folkner who moved to Rising Star from Indiana in the late 1800.

The reunion was held in Brownwood for two years, then met at Cisco Lake for 40 years, and for the last few years at Hord Lake in Coleman. It was held on the second Sunday in August for 48 years, but because of the hot weather was changed to June two years ago.

Two of the children still survive, Mamie Edna (Folkner) Forehand of Rising Star Nursing Center, age 92; and Edith Mary (Folkner) Curry of Cisco Nursing Home, age 85. Neither was able to come to the celebration.

Those present were: Ramona Dudas, Coann Heath, Thousand Oaks, Ca.; James Eastwood, Newbury Park, Ca.; Frank and Lorena Eastwood, Waukeen, Madalaine, Monica, and Cash Eastwood, Beth Jane and Crystal-Bills, all of Corpus Christi; Lewi and Joyce Tharp, Brownwood; Ray and Lois Folkner, Portales, N.M.; Lawton and Mettie Tharp, Cross Plains; Jackie and Kay Braswell, Roscoe; Norma Nelson, Sweetwater; Candice Folkner, Martha Manka, Cyril and Lucille Folkner, San Antonio; Jerry and Louise Walker, Goldthwaite; Velva Folkner, Lamesa; Johnny, Velda, Shane, and Jory Lee, Baird; Milton, Vickie and Brenda Tharp, Odessa; Gary and Vickie Miller, Round Oak; Tahnee Folkner, Ca.; Viola Folkner, Baird; Alba Folkner, Clyde; Dorothy and Wayne Callaway, Bess and Dave Tharp, Arley, Felicia, and Jackie Bibby, all of Rising Star; Rosa, Charles, James Baker, James, Jody, Juli, Jenna Winstead, Chuck, Nancy, Elizabeth and Amanda Baker, Claude and Vera Dean Seabolt, Fay Graham, Corinne Erwin and Jennie Stevens, Bonnie Arnold, Elbert and Elaine Seabolt, Jimmy and Marcus Folkner, Lisa, Rex, Dana and Lewi Priddy, Durwood and Ernestine Lusk, Layton, Layne, Danella, Valerie and Kadi, all of Coleman.

Chambers Graduates

Vicki Suzanne Chambers, 21 year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Danny Chambers of Carrollton and the granddaughter of Mrs. J.W. Chambers and Mrs. Lee Roy Ford both of May, graduated with honors from Baylor University. The commencement took place at the Heart O' Texas Coliseum in Waco on May 15. Suzanne earned a Bachelor of Arts degree in journalism.

Local Students Test Well

The Rising Star Independent School District is proud to release to the public the results of the 1987 California Achievement Test, announced Dr. Donald E. Bryan, Superintendent.

These tests help to measure the achievement of our students from kindergarten through grade twelve. They provide information about related ranking of our students against a norm group of all pupils who take this test throughout the United States. They also provide specific information about the school's instructional needs of the students for the coming school year.

From the table below you will observe that our students are academically competitive against the national norm and are well above their grade equivalent level.

| Grade | Grade Equivalent At Time of Test | Grade Equivalent Score | Years/Months Above National Norm |
|-------|----------------------------------|------------------------|----------------------------------|
| 1 | 1.7 | 2.4 | .7 |
| 2 | 2.7 | 3.6 | .9 |
| 3 | 3.7 | 5.1 | 1.4 |
| 4 | 4.7 | 6.1 | 1.4 |
| 5 | 5.7 | 7.8 | 2.1 |
| 6 | 6.7 | 7.7 | 1.0 |
| 7 | 7.7 | 8.9 | 1.2 |
| 8 | 8.7 | 9.6 | .9 |
| 9 | 9.7 | 10.7 | 1.0 |
| 10 | 10.7 | 12.3 | 1.6 |
| 11 | 11.7 | 12.9 | 1.2 |
| 12 | 12.7 | 12.9 | .2 |

The teachers are to be commended for the job they did in the classroom for the 1986-87 school year.

Our students, as a result of this test, show a serious approach to the academic phase of our school.

The Rising Star I.S.D. would like to express appreciation to the parents of this community for your support during the 1986-87 school year.

We are looking for an even bigger and better accomplishment for the 1987-89 school year.

Should parents or patrons have any questions concerning the school's operation please do not hesitate contacting our offices.
