Senior Citizens Have Blood Pressure Clinic

Thursday, July 17 was a gratifying day at the club. Forty people were present and most of them ate pot luck lunch and had their blood pressure taken by Mrs. John A. Lee and helpers, Ruby Murdoch and Artie Jagers. We thank these ladies very much. We appreciate Mrs. Lee's plain English, talk on blood pressure.

It turned out to be a family day--the Howard White's daughter and husband, Joe and Pat Nixon of Angleton, Texas, were guests for the day. They also took part in band practice. We like getting to know each others children. Also from out of town were Dowell, Alice and David West of Abilene. David, the young grandson did some entertaining magic acts for us. You will remember Alice as one of the Elliott girls. Incidentally, five of the sisters were there. The others all make their homes here now. Kurt Brown of Ft. Worth, and grandson of Marion and Marjorie West, Dollie Harrellson, a sister of Luella McKinnerney and my daughter, Rowena Chambers were also guests.

We were glad to have every one back who had been absent, some visiting, and some canning and especially those who have been sick.

Sixteen "Starbrites" and two boosters attended the Curtis Reunion at the Cisco Country Club. We enjoyed a delicious supper with them. They were over complimentary of our music and songs. We met people from California, Georgia, New Mexico, San Antonio, Texas and other local people. We played to an attentive audience of two hundred people. Our program for July 31st has been changed. Gerald Green will be coming at a later date in August. The Starbrites have been asked to entertain at the Grand Opening of the new Throckmorton Texas

Open Letter To The Tax Payers Of The RSISD

Open Letter to the Taxpayers of the RSISD

In September of 1979, the Texas Legislature passed a bill stating that all properties on the tax rolls must be assessed at 100 percent value. Over the past years, the ratio of assessment has been 50 percent with a tax rate of $2.00 per 100.00 of value. The School Board took action July 14, 1980 and set an estimated rate of $1.00 per $100.00 of value, and deleted the 50 percent ratio. Beginning in October to comply with SB 621 when you receive your tax statement you will note this change. THE TAX DOLLAR AMOUNT WILL BE THE SAME AS IT WAS FOR THE TAX YEAR 1979.

EXAMPLE:

1979 Value-$5000.00
Ratio of Assessment--50 percent
Rate-$2.00
Tax Amount-$50.00

1980 Value-$5000.00
Ratio of Assessment--100 percent
Rate-$1.00
Tax Amount $50.00

If you have any questions in reference to this, please feel free to call me or come by the Tax Office and I will explain it further to you.
Sincerely, Nan Owen,
643-7131

School District In State Gear For 1980-1981 Budget

School districts throughout the state are now gearing up to think about 1980-81 budgets.

Last year, statewide budgets totaled $5.66 billion—up 13 per cent. School property tax levies were increased 7.6 per cent, but two out of five districts in the state reduced levies.

For next year, state aid to local schools will increase by $211 million to fund a 5.1 per cent increase in minimum salaries and an $11 per student increase in operating allowances. The local share of the Foundation Program will change from the lesser of $0.15 or $0.17½ applied to different values to $0.16 per $100 of productivity value of open-space land plus full market value of other taxable property.

Despite rapid population growth in Texas, no increase in the number of students in public schools is anticipated—and in fact, the larger districts are expected to see declines.

In 1978-1979 there was an average of one classroom teacher for each 16.7 students. Outlook for 1980-1981 Budget Current economic conditions with double-digit inflation will force school officials to make some hard choices in preparing 1980-1981 budgets.

The Legislature provided additional funds for the second year of the State's biennium, and current estimates anticipate $210.7 million additional State Aid for 1980-1981. The base salary in the Foundation Program was increased by 5.1% plus experience increments of 4-5% a year.

An additional experience step of 2% has been added for teachers at the maximum. The operating allowance was increased by $11 per student. The impact will vary among individual districts as the local share of the Foundation Program will change.

Last year the Local Fund Assignment was determined by the lesser of $0.15 per $100 of market value or $0.17½ of index value.

In 1980-1981 the L.F.A. will be calculated at $0.16 per $100 of index value consisting of the 1977 estimates of productivity value of open-space land plus market value of other types of taxable property. The L.F.A. of a district, however, cannot increase more than 20%.

Again the State will partially reimburse school districts for tax losses from state-mandated homestead exemptions and productivity valuation of land.

H.B. 621 enacted by the last Legislature eliminated the use of an assessment ratio beginning with the January 1, 1981, tax roll. While 100% assessment is not required for the 1980-1981 school year, some districts may change a year early. Increasing the ratio of assessment requires a commensurate reduction in the tax rate or "truth in taxation" notices and hearings to increase taxes.

The tax assessor must calculate a tax rate that if applied to the 1980 tax roll would provide the same revenue that was levied the previous year. If the board of trustees anticipates adopting a rate that is more than 3% greater than the rate calculated by the assessor, a record vote must be taken and published in a ¼-page notice in a newspaper calling for a public hearing on the subject of a tax increase. A second record vote must be taken at the hearing which again just be published with notice of a meeting to set the tax rate.

If the tax rate is to be increased by more than 3%, a decision must be made by the first of August to allow enough time to follow this procedure and to adopt a budget before the 1980-1981 fiscal year begins.

GORDON SPOT

by DeMarquis Gordon

Spider mites, or red spiders, are probably the most difficult pests to control in vegetable gardens. With hot dry weather gardeners should be on the lookout for this pest by checking the underside of plant leaves if your vegetables are still surviving the heat.

Although spider mites will attack almost any plant, among their preferred hosts are beans, tomatoes, peas, eggplants and corn.

Actually, spider mites are not insects but are eight-legged relatives of ticks and spiders. Their small size, about 1/60 of an inch, makes them difficult to see without a magnifying lens. They range in color from red, green and yellow to white and brown. Spider mites deposit their eggs on the underside of leaves. These hatch in about five days. There may be 10-15 or more generations per year.

Mites can cause considerable plant damage by sticking their needle-like mouthparts into leaf tissue and sucking out the juice while injecting a toxic substance into the leaf. Heavy infestations will cause leaves to appear blotched or spotted, turn pale or yellowish in color, curl up, turn brown and eventually drop off. A thin webbing may cover leaves and stems.

Begin a control program as soon as spider mites are detected and before plant damage is obvious. A light infestation of spider mites can be reduced and kept at low levels by spraying plants with a strong stream of cool water every few days.

If chemicals must be used, select from such effective materials as Kelthane and diazinon. Two to four applications may be needed at five-day intervals. Always follow on the pesticide label.

May or June beetles are emerging from the soil and starting to swarm late in the evening. Females are laying eggs and white grub worms that hatch will soon be feeding on roots of bermuda grass and St. Augustine grass in home lawns. Once grubs begin feeding control measures should be taken.

Treatment time varies with the particular area of the state and ranges from early July in South Texas to mid-August in the Panhandle. Homeowners in Eastland County will need to treat between mid-July and early August. Timing of application is critical for adequate control.

White grubs in excessive numbers can heavily damage lawns. Check for white grubs by cutting a square foot section of sod with a shovel and examining the roots and soil to a depth of four inches.

Diazinon provides adequate control and should be used at recommended rates given on the chemical container label. The granular form is easier to apply and to wash into the soil than liquid or spray formulations. After using granules, drag the grass with a tow sack or water hose to knock them down to the soil. Then apply enough water to soak the granules into the soil.

Apply diazinon sprays at the rate of 25 gallons of water, including the insecticide, per 1,000 square feet to wash the insecticide into the soil. Wetting the lawn before spraying also helps. Always keep children and pets off the treated lawn until the grass is dry.

The key to white grub control in home lawns is proper timing of chemical applications and getting the insecticide through the grass to the root zone where grubs are feeding.

Further information is provided in the publication, "White Grubs in Texas Turfgrass," available at the county Extension office.

Drought Relief To Be Made Available To Texans

Economic relief--ranging from portable fans to emergency feed programs--is available to drought and heat-stricken areas of Texas, according to Congressman Charles W. Stenholm.

"Several types of federal programs that will help individuals and businesses, as well as farmers and ranchers in their efforts to deal with the effects of the extreme heat and drought conditions are available," Stenholm stated. "These include existing programs designed to deal with disasters and a new $6.7 million-dollar program announced this week by President Carter to deal with the unusual heat wave."

Some $2.5 million of the special fund is earmarked for Texas, Stenholm explained, to be used to assist low income individuals especially who are facing life threatening situations.

The funds will be made available through the Community Service Administration's network of Community Action Agencies. Eligible activities include: Transportation to local and state operated heat relief centers, purchase or rental of low-cost appliances such as fans or window air conditioners, payment of utility bills, as well as provisions of other supportive services which will reduce the potential hazards to the health of low income persons.

To receive assistance with the funds, households must demonstrate total income at or below 125 percent of federal poverty guidelines ($9,300 for a non-farm family of four and approximately $7,900 for a farm family of four), Stenholm said.

The Farmers Home Administration (FmHa) will be able to provide financial assistance only after the county is designated a disaster area by the State FmHa Director, he pointed out. Farmers must have suffered at least 20 percent loss and be unable to obtain credit elsewhere. After becoming eligible, they are eligible for up to $500,000 at 5 percent interest. FmHA handles the majority of disaster cases, although the Small Business Administration has provisions for special cases.

The Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service (ASCS) has an emergency feed program that can assist a producer who has suffered a 40 percent feed production loss. The County ASCS committee may initiate the program with the State ASCS Committee. The producer must not have enough supplies to feed his cattle and, in most cases, can expect to receive help to tide him over for a three to six month period.

This is a cost-share program of 2 cents a pound of 50 percent of the cost. A survey of the farmer's reserves must be made and an estimate made of what his needs will be for the coming months. He is then eligible for federal assistance on the difference of these two figures.

Further information can be obtained from county agency offices.

Homemaking Tips

By Janet Thomas

The most common topic of conversation these days is the weather. And, it has certainly been very hot this past month. There are some precautions people should take to avoid hot weather problems.

If you become overexposed to the sun or overexert during extreme heat and humidity this summer, you may get heat cramps, heat exhaustion, or possibly even the rare but serious heatstroke.

Avoiding these hot-weather complications is more than simply a matter of staying in cool or air-conditioned areas and walking on the shade side of the street - as important as those precautions are. You'll also need to pay attention to medically sound preventative steps.

1. Wear loose-fitting, light colored clothing that reflects the sun's rays and allows for better sweat evaporation, and wear a wide-brimmed hat for added protection.
2. Avoid sudden changes of temperature, such as dashing from an air conditioned building to a hot sidewalk or car. Before getting into a car that's been parked in the sun, open it up for a few minutes.

3. Stick to cool drinks and food, and salt your food liberally. Salt tablets are seldom necessary if you have a well-balanced diet. If you feel the need for salt tablets, check first with your doctor.
4. Don't overeat. Don't overindulge in alcoholic drinks. Your body system needs extra water in hot weather, whether or not your thirst sensation increases. Drink water often, even when you don't feel the urge.

5. Acclimate yourself by limiting exposure to the sun or strenuous outdoor activities to just 15 minutes on the first hot day, adding 15-30 minutes each day over a week or ten days.
6. Avoid outdoor physical activity between 10 a.m. and 2 p.m. whenever possible.
7. When you exercise in the heat, take a 5-10 minute break every half-hour. Don't exercise just before or after meals.

8. Drink plenty of water or salted lemonade when you're exercising. You may have heard that drinking water when you're hot and active will bring on stomach cramps, but it is not true; you need to keep up your water intake to replace what you're losing in sweat - so drink when you're thirsty.
9. Also take extra precautions when-ever the humidity is high during a heat wave. When the relative gets above 60%, the air won't absorb as much sweat as your body needs to get rid of, and by 75% relative humidity, it won't absorb any. This, coupled with high temperatures, is particularly dangerous.

10. If the weather is hot and dry, you may not feel sweaty, but in high temperatures you indeed are sweating; the dry air is evaporating the sweat so effectively that you don't get damp skin or soaked clothes. Drink plenty of water; don't be lulled by the false idea that you're not losing any.
11. Take extra care when the official temperature is higher than 85 degree F. If the official temperature is, say, 95 degree F, it may be well over 105 degree F on a tennis court or in your backyard garden, even in the shade. Official readings are often taken from towers or high buildings.

12. If you are on a low-salt or salt-free diet, or if you have a chronic disease, heart disease, hypertension, diabetes, or lung disease, for example - high heat and humidity will put an especially heavy burden on you. Consult your doctor before engaging in any unusual activity or changing your salt intake.
13. If you do feel the effects of the heat and humidity - unexplained stomach or arm and leg cramps, extreme fatigue, nausea, headache, or dizziness - get medical attention as soon as possible.

Evelyn Donham-County Journalist

by Viola Payne

Evelyn Donham is one of the young Eastland County journalists who uses her talent in a very practical way-the writing and production of an area newspaper. As Editor of the historic, 90 yr. old "The Rising Star", she is responsible for a lot of the work involved with each issue.

Rising Star, like other towns of Eastland County, has its own special flavor, and the paper reflects the interests of its readers. With its location near Brown and Callahan Counties, the paper reaches into communities across the County lines.

The 1980 Census lists Rising Star as having a population of 1180 persons, but there are quite a few people living on small acreages near the City Limits. In spite of the oil development pressing upon it, the town has managed to keep the serene look of a rural trade center. Interesting older buildings flank a long main street, and tree-shaded homes cluster nearby. A number of Rising Star residents are Senior Citizens, but another segment of the population is very young. It is the restless young adults who leave Rising Star, and then wish they could go home.

"People tell me I am always happy," Mrs. Donham smiles. "I enjoy all aspects of the newspaper, especially the day-to-day contact with people. You never know what will happen next in this business! In a small town, you don't have major spectacular news events, but nevertheless the news contained in the paper is the way most people keep abreast of what is happening in their town and community. Many people don't want to bother with attending the City Council and School Board meetings, but are concerned-and keep up with issues through the newspaper.

The newspaper is also important to out-of-town subscribers, to folks who have lived in or around Rising Star at one time and enjoy keeping up with friends and relatives. I think we have an advantage over most big, metropolitan newspapers in that we are able to focus more on our local people. Something that might be overlooked in Dallas might be headlines here. And we really try to highlight our fine young people, especially in school related activities.

"Another aspect of the newspaper I personally enjoy is writing feature articles. There are so many talented, interesting people living here that I never run out of interesting stories. Everyone has a story to tell if I will just take the time to sit down and listen.

"The actual paste-down of the newspaper is always a challenge. Sometimes it's like a big jig-saw puzzle. When I begin, it looks like it will never all fit into place. But as I work, the pieces somehow fit together."

Oddly enough, Mrs. Donham's early life and training was not involved with journalism. She was born to Mr. and Mrs. Henry Kipp in Feb., 1952, at Brenham, Texas. She attended public school at Giddings, which is located between Houston and Austin. Following her graduation she attended Sam Houston State University in Huntsville. While there she met and married Mike Donham, whose home town was Rising Star. Before long the young couple moved to College Station, where they both attended Texas A. and M. University.

In 1972 they moved to Rising Star, and Evelyn took some courses at Cisco Junior College. "One thing kind of unusual about my education," Evelyn says, "is that I never once took a Journalism course. My major was Medical Technology. Somewhere along the line I must have gotten sidetracked, for I became Editor of 'The Rising Star' in December 1976."

Evelyn's life seems to consist of the best of several worlds, including rural life. She and her husband, Mike, live on a farm three miles south of Rising Star, where Mike raises peanuts and Charlois cattle. They have an eight year old son, who will be a third grader this year.

Evelyn not only contacts a lot of people in the newspaper business-she volunteers for a number of projects around town. Right now she is coaching a Little League girl's baseball team. She is active in the Rising Star Chamber of Commerce, and works with the May PTO organization. She even manages enough time to play on a women's softball and volleyball team.

Her latest honor-for her work and diversified activities was her naming as one of the Outstanding Young Women of America for 1979.

Mrs. Donham's interests blend with the newspaper, which reflects the kaleidoscope of life in Rising Star. Through it the reader has a glimpse of the Senior Citizen's group and the lively StarBrites, the Nursing Home, family reunions, Bryant Houston and his magic violin, peanut harvests and Oil Companies, 4-H work and Pecan Queens, the 4th of July celebration with Charles Stenholm as speaker, Church news, the High School graduates, and all the work it took to acquire an ambulance for the town. And permeating everything is the change of the seasons-the burst of flowers in spring, the lush greenery of summer, the bright leaves of fall blowing in the wind. And always the sad obituaries in the paper-other old-timers gone. But new faces, too, for life renews itself. Nostalgia in Rising Star-and a promise of tomorrow.

THE CONDITIONS FOR RESTORATION AND BLESSINGS:

That He may establish thee today for a people unto Himself, and that He may be unto thee a God, as He hath said unto thee, and as he hath sworn unto thy fathers, to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob. (Deut. 29:13). Neither with you only do I make this covenant and this oath; But with him that standeth here with us this day before the Lord our God, and also with him that is not here with us this day: (Verses 14,15), and Acts 2:39, For the promise is unto you, and to your children, and to all that are afar off, even as many as the Lord our God shall call. (Joel 2:28-Acts 11:15,18-Eph.2:13-17). (Deut. 29:29). The secret things belong unto the Lord our God: but those things which are revealed belong unto us and to our children forever, that we may do all the words of this law. (Deut. 30:10-16). If thou shalt hearken unto the voice of the Lord thy God, to keep His commandments and His statutes which are written in this Book of the law, and if thou turn unto the Lord thy God with all thine heart, and with all thy soul. For this commandment which I command thee this day, it is not hidden from thee, neither is it far off. It is not in heaven, that thou shouldst say, who shall go up for us to heaven, and bring it unto us, that we may hear it and do it. Neither is it beyond the sea, that is to say, Who shall go over the sea for us, and bring it to us, that we may hear it and do it. But the WORD is very nigh unto thee, in thy mouth, and in thy heart, that thou mayest do it. See I have set before thee this day life and good, and death and evil; In that I command thee this day to love the Lord thy God, to walk in His ways, and to keep His commandments and His statutes (laws) and His judgements, that thou may live and multiply: and the Lord thy God shall bless thee in the land whither thou goest to possess it (Deut. 6:5,6,7) and thou shall love the Lord thy God with all thine heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy might. And these words which I command thee this day, shall be in thine heart: And thou shall teach them diligently unto thy children, and talk of them when thou sittest in thine house, and when thou walkest by the way, and when thou liest down, and when thou riseth up.

WHAT SAITH THE SCRIPTURES

Jon N. Bailey

QUESTION: Why is preaching important? ANSWER: Preaching is important, for God has made it a part of his plan for saving man. Many people in the world consider preaching to be outdated and irrelevant. This is not a new attitude toward preaching. Even in the days of Jesus and the apostles, preaching was considered foolishness by many. Yet, "it was God's good pleasure through the foolishness of preaching to save them that believe" (1 Cor. 1:21).

When God the Father sent his Son to this world, he came preaching. Jesus came, "preaching the gospel of God" (Mk. 1:14), announcing the coming of the kingdom. On one occasion, the people of a city where he had been, begged him to stay with them. Jesus answered them, "I must preach the gospel of the kingdom of God to the other cities also: for therefore was I sent" (Lk. 4:43).

After Jesus was crucified, buried and raised from the dead, he appeared unto his disciples and commanded them to preach to the world. There with his apostles, he taught them "that repentance and remission of sins should be preached in his name unto all the nations" (Lk. 24:47). Just before ascending to heaven, Jesus commanded, "Go ye into all the world, and preach the gospel to the whole creation. He that believeth and is baptized shall be saved, but he that disbelieveth shall be condemned" (Mk. 16:15-16). Our Lord, therefore, put great emphasis on preaching.

Preaching was very important in the early church. "Every day, in the temple and at home, they ceased not to teach and to preach Jesus as the Christ" (Acts 5:42). The fantastic growth of the early church was a direct result of the continual, widespread preaching of God's word (Acts 6:7; 12:24; 13:49; 19:20). Many faithful men such as the apostle Paul "went about preaching the kingdom" (Acts 20:25). Strong churches today must be built by the preaching of God's word.

To the evangelist Timothy, Paul wrote, "preach the word; be urgent in season, out of season, reprove, rebuke, exhort, with all longsuffering and doctrine. For the time will come when they will not endure sound doctrine; but, having itching ears, will heap to themselves teachers after their own lusts; and will turn away their ears from the truth, and turn aside unto fables" (2 Tim. 4:2-4). Evangelists today must also "preach the word" in this same way. People refuse to hear and obey the truth, yet the word of God must be preached.

Preaching is an important part of God's plan for man. The church of Christ in Rising Star will host a special "Gospel Meeting", August 3-8. Oran Rhodes, an evangelist from San Marcos, Texas will be preaching in this series of services. We hope you will visit with us and hear the gospel preached.

GLORIOUS APPEARING

When the soul of man shall come in his glory, and all the holy angels with him, then shall he sit upon the throne of his glory. Matt. 25:31.

The voice of God is heard from heaven, declaring the day and hour of Jesus' coming, and delivering the everlasting covenant to His people. Like peals of loudest thunder His words roll through the earth. The Israel of God stand listening, with their eyes fixed upward. Their countenances are lighted up with His glory....

Soon there appears in the east a small black cloud, about half the size of a man's hand....The people of God know this to be the sign of the Son of man. In solemn silence they gaze upon it as it draws nearer the earth, becoming lighter and more glorious, until it is a great white cloud, its base a glory like consuming fire, and above it the rainbow of the covenant. Jesus rides forth as a mighty conqueror....With anthems of celestial melody of the holy angels, a vast, unnumbered throng, attend Him on His way. The firmament seems filled with radiant forms—"ten thousand times ten thousand, and thousands of thousands" (Rev. 5:11). No human pen can portray the scene; no mortal mind is adequate to conceive its splendor....

The righteous cry with trembling: "Who shall be able to stand?" (Rev. 6:17). The angels' song is hushed, and there is a period of awful silence. Then the voice of Jesus is heard, saying: "My grace is sufficient for you" (2 Cor. 12:9). The faces of the righteous are lighted up, and joy fills every heart. And the angels strike a note higher and sing again....

The King of kings descends upon the cloud, wrapped in flaming fire. The heavens are rolled together as a scroll, the earth trembles before Him, and every mountain and island is moved out of its place....The wicked pray to be buried beneath the rocks of the mountains rather than meet the face of Him whom they have despised and rejected....Those who would have destroyed Christ and His faithful people now witness the glory which rests upon them. In the midst of their terror they hear the voices of the saints in joyful strains exclaiming: "Lo, this is our God; we have waited for him, and he will save us." (Isa. 25:9).

Compulsive Overeating: A Disease Of The Mind

"A disease of the mind," that's a frightening statement, isn't it? "Disease implies 'a sickness' and no one wants to think about, much less admit he or she could have a sickness of the mind! However, there is an age old disease ram-aging this country today. It is infecting literally thousands yearly. This disease has been around since the Romans with their grandiose feasts and their beautiful marble "vomitoriums".

A great deal of the male society believes this disease is limited to bored housewives. Sorry, fellows, there are just as many men with this horrible disease as there are women. This disease isn't selective at all. It infects men, women, teenagers, and children; every race, creed, color, age, sex, religious preference, political affiliation, and occupation has victims. No person is immune to it. There are no vaccines against it.

Society views compulsive overeating as a disease of the obese, this just isn't true. A compulsive overeater can be one-pound overweight or ten pounds underweight. The illness has nothing to do with weight, except overweight is "sometimes" a physical symptom, that is why it is absurd for a compulsive overeater to go on diets and weigh oneself constantly.

The problem is a lack of "food control" just as the alcoholic can't control their alcohol intake, as the drug addict can't control their dependency on drugs, neither can the compulsive overeater control their behavior of overeating. They need a "control support system"; in their lives. Overeaters Anonymous is one of the most effective "control support systems" available.

"The people in the medical profession," according to Dr. William Radar M.D., a psychiatrist engaged in the clinical study of alcoholism, drug addiction and compulsive overeating, "have the erroneous belief that compulsive overeating is a result of psychiatrically or physically with medicine or structures in their lives, and it doesn't work! The reason it fails is because we are doing it in reverse." Dr. Radar says "What has to be dealt with is the compulsive overeating. When that is taken care of the physiologic, psychiatric, and environmental problems seem to take care of themselves.

In most cases the individual develops the compulsive overeating mechanism for dealing with life at an early age and then starts to push problems down with food. Once people become compulsive overeaters every aspect of their lives is affected. Then they get into psychological, physical, and environmental problems. They start changing their lives, their friends, and their social structures. All these changes are directly caused by the disease, compulsive overeating.

If compulsive overeating is your problem, or that a loved one, a friend, OVEREATERS ANONYMOUS is here to help you and them.

OVEREATERS ANONYMOUS is a fellowship of men, women, and young people who share their experience, strength and hope with each other, that they may solve their common problem and help others to recover from compulsive overeating.

There are no dues, fees, or weigh-ins. O.A. is not allied with any sect, denomination, politics, organizations, or institutes. It does not wish to engage in any controversy, neither endorse nor oppose any cause.

O.A.'s primary purpose is to abstain from compulsive overeating and to help others achieve the same goal.

OVEREATERS ANONYMOUS meets Tuesdays at the Cross Plains Multi-purpose Center at 7 p.m. on East 8th St. For more information call: 725-6403 or 643-3058.

Local 4-H'ERS Win In Recordbook Contest

Stephanie Long, nine year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tony Long, won first place in the county gardening recordbook competition. Her entry has been forwarded to the district level. She has been a member for less than year.

Pre-4-H'er (Under nine years), Toby Long has been almost as active as his sister. He, too, entered a gardening recordbook. (not all counties have a pre-4-H program and these early starters cannot advance beyond county events.) He received a white ribbon.

Jami Long's recordbook was entered in the sheep division and earned a white ribbon. Her parents are Mr. and Mrs. Rex Long.

Jerry Long, like his sister, has a sheep project. His entry nudged by her for a red ribbon. Sam Scott's beef recordbook will represent Eastland County in the district competition. This first place winner is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Payton Scott.

Travis Parson's blue ribbon recordbook has been sent on to the district eliminations in public speaking. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Homer Don Parsons.

Warren Parson, another pre-4-H'er in his first year, entered a public speaking recordbook like his older brother and received a white ribbon.

Jami Hutton, son of Mr. and Mrs. J.D. Hutton, is in his first year of pre-4-H and received a white ribbon in the safety category.

Tabitha Hutton, age nine, competed against a large field of clothing recordbooks by 9-13 year old entrants. Like all those named above she will receive a medal at the County Awards Banquet this fall.

All these youngsters are above average, for not all 4-H'ers are willing to put forth the effort necessary to assemble the detailed records. The records kept at an early age can be just the extra boost needed to send them to National or State 4-H Congress or even win scholarships as senior 4-H'ers. This is a first step toward a good future beyond 4-H years.

Second Annual Kornegay Reunion Held

On Saturday and Sunday July 19th and 20th, 1980, fifty three descendants and friends of the late Jesse and Elizabeth Kornegay reunited at the home of Dorothy Turner in Rising Star, Texas for the second annual family reunion.

The oldest was Jay Kornegay, eighty-one years and the youngest was Shauna Turner, five months. The longest distance traveled was by Joyce Smith, 350 miles. There were four sets of four generations in attendance. At the reunion, we ate too much, had a business meeting, pitched horseshoes, held babies, played volleyball, made more home movies, took pictures, played dominoes, slept very little, played spoons and planned next years reunion for Saturday and Sunday, July 18th and 19th, 1981.

Following the order of the family tree, those in attendance were:

LIMOUSIN HEIFER SHOW

DENVER-Neil Scott, 18, and his sister, Theresa, 19, went north to Jackson, Minn. with the idea in mind to take home their share of the prizes from the National Junior Limousin Heifer Show, held 19-21. And they went home satisfied as the two Junior Limousin breeders took top honors in a variety of areas.

Neil capped a successful three days as he went up against five of the best showmen in the business-and won. Competing in the senior showmanship contest, Scott first had to qualify for the finals. He and four other senior showmen, including I.G. Janca III of Elgin, Texas, survived the semi-final competition, made of 15 top showmen. In the finals, the five were required to fit a wet heifer. Judged by Val Eberspacher of Beaver Crossing, Neb., Wyman Poe of Konawa, Okla. and Rick Williams of Ocala, Fla., Scott emerged as victor after 30 minutes of intense fitting.

The national junior Limousin heifer show included, for the first time, a state team fitting contest. Texas as well represented as Neil, Theresa and I.G. Janca III combined their talents to take the first runner up spot. Seven state junior Limousin associations fielded teams of three members each for the 45-minute contest.

The entire Texas delegation pooled their efforts and resources during the three-day heifer show and came away winning the herdsmanship award. The Texas junior Limousin association received $100 for its treasury as a result of the neatness and cleanliness of the Texas stall area. In addition, Theresa won the individual herdsman award.

Theresa and Neil's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Payton Scott of Rising Star, Texas.
