

European Crisis Feared If Hitler Moves On Danzig

British Foreign Secretary Delivers A Sharp Warning, But There's No Evidence Nazis Will Listen

LONDON, June 30 (AP)—Britons in fighting temper asked themselves today whether Adolf Hitler would listen to and heed Foreign Secretary Lord Halifax's sharp admonition any "further aggression" in Europe would run up against "the whole of our strength in fulfillment of our pledges."

Duce Keeping Close Touch With Hitler

ROME, June 30 (AP)—Premier Mussolini was reported today to be in very close touch with his axis partner Chancellor Hitler by telephone and to be watching carefully the tense European situation.

Il Duce was at his villa at Riccione on the Adriatic Sea. He preserved a strict silence regarding international developments while an increased uneasiness was apparent among Italians.

There were reports he had conferred secretly with Hitler at some frontier point but these were authoritatively denied as "absurd."

In many quarters the belief was expressed a new European crisis was coming. Some looked toward Danzig and others toward the Balkans as a possible danger point.

The controlled press threw no new light on the Italian attitude but continued vigorous attacks on what it called British and French attempts to "encircle" the Rome-Berlin axis and on what newspapers alleged to be mistreatment of Italians in France and Tunisia.

NO TROOPS FREE CITY OF DANZIG, June 30 (AP)—The Nazi-controlled government of Danzig—eyes apprehensively in much of Europe as a danger spot to peace—went ahead today with strengthening of the free city's police force. Officials said this was necessary as a precautionary measure because of "the hysteria prevailing in Poland."

It was denied any German troops had entered Danzig and there was no sign of military activity in the city or the adjoining countryside.

Spence Talks With City Councilmen At Fort Worth

In their quest for a new city manager to replace Dudley L. Lewis, dismissed earlier in the week, councilmen of the city of Fort Worth Thursday interviewed E. V. Spence, Big Spring's municipal manager.

Spence returned Friday only with the comment that he had conferred with the councilmen.

Press dispatches from Fort Worth said that the councilmen also interviewed Bryan Miller of Wichita Falls. He and Spence, together with Sam Bothwell of Sweetwater, had been mentioned as those likely to be offered the Fort Worth post. It was said in Fort Worth Friday, however, that other city managers will be interviewed.

IN NO DANGER NEW YORK, June 30 (AP)—Inmates of Jack Dempsey said today the former heavyweight champion was in "no danger and no sicker than any person is after an appendectomy."

WPA Chief Is Summoned In LSU Probe

Questions Being Asked About Lapse In Arrest Of Dr. Smith

NEW ORLEANS, June 30 (AP)—Paul Hansen, WPA division chief of investigation for Louisiana and four other southern states, was the first witness called before a federal grand jury here this morning as the inquiry into charges of misuse of WPA materials and labor at Louisiana State University shifted from Baton Rouge to New Orleans.

A rule of rigid secrecy was laid down by Judge Wayne G. Borah, who presided, as the long-awaited inquiry got under way.

Judge Borah and United States Attorney Rene A. Viosca, who will examine witnesses, ordered that no photographs of any witnesses be taken.

Ten witnesses were summoned for today's opening hearings, and all appeared shortly before the jury.

BATON ROUGE, La., June 30 (AP)—Assistant State Police Superintendent Murphy J. Roden left the Baton Rouge airport at 1:30 p. m. today by airplane in investigating what informed sources said was a reliable report that the missing Dr. James Monroe Smith had been seen crossing the Mexican border.

met at 10 a. m. However, it was made clear to reporters that only names of public officials, such as Hansen, could be used, in order to give the witnesses "fullest protection."

Previously it was understood the jury would hear testimony from a group of persons who early in July signed affidavits leveling charges of improper work carried out by WPA groups at Louisiana State University.

Meanwhile, an assertion by former governor Richard W. Laine that "irregularities" were suspected at Louisiana State University several months ago focused attention on statements by officials involved in an order to arrest Dr. James Monroe Smith two hours after he reported to the WPA chief, Pg. 7, Cl. 4

HELL-RAISER JAILED The charge finally boiled down to disturbances of the peace, but police complained about several things when they incarcerated a man Thursday night.

Arrest docket recorded "two calls," then recited that the defendant "fought an officer, cursed his wife and raised hell in general." City Judge Tracy Smith imposed a fine of $50.

'Heat' Applied For A Special Session Legislators Want Something Done About Finances

AUSTIN, June 30 (AP)—Demand of Senator Joe Hill of Henderson that Governor W. Lee O'Daniel call a special session of the legislature carried a number of implications capital observers believe.

In the first place, they suggest, it was a fair indication of the bombardment to which the governor will be subjected in efforts to straighten out state finances and relieve a situation about which many members of the legislature are worried.

In the second place, it indicated legislators who opposed the O'Daniel program for a constitutional amendment levying sales and other taxes to defray costs of social security still were a militant fringe of mind and bid fair to continue that way.

Finally, some think the statement, made yesterday in Dallas, contains evidence there is basis to reports Hill may run for governor next year.

When the legislature adjourned See SESSION, Pg. 7, Cl. 5

COUNTY TRUSTEES TO CONVENE MONDAY County board of trustees will convene in regular session at 1:30 p. m. Monday, Mrs. Helen Acuff, assistant county superintendent, announced Friday.

In their last meeting, trustees agreed to meet on the first Monday of each month.

Mrs. Acuff said that Anne Martin, county superintendent, who is attending a state meeting for county superintendents, was due to return over the weekend and would be here for the meeting.

Undistributed Profits Tax Erased As FDR Signs Bill

Loss Carryover Permitted Under New Measure

WASHINGTON, June 30 (AP)—President Roosevelt has signed the business tax revision bill which does away with the undistributed profits levy.

The measure became law at 10 o'clock last night. It re-enacts excise taxes expiring June 30 and also revamping the corporate tax setup in response to a widespread demand for government to ease up on business.

For the graduated undistributed profits tax, the legislation substitutes a flat 18 per cent levy on the income of corporations making more than $25,000.

It leaves the taxes on small corporations just as they are—from 12 1/2 to 18 per cent—but gives all corporations, partnerships and individuals the right to carry over their business losses for two years. Present law permits no carryover.

A new formula is provided for figuring the tax on capital gains, permitting corporations to deduct in full from their taxable income capital losses on assets held more than 18 months. The deduction must be taken during the year in which the loss occurred.

Losses on assets held less than 18 months can be used to offset similar short term capital gains during the same year. An excess of losses over gains may be carried over for one year.

The new capital gains provision replaces a flat $2,000 limit on such deductions.

Another intended aid for business permits corporations to place a higher valuation on their stocks on June 30, 1939, and June 30, 1940, for purposes of capital stock and excess profit taxation.

Although the excise tax re-enactment takes effect at midnight when the new fiscal year begins most of the corporate tax revisions will not affect corporation tax payers until they pay their 1940 taxes in 1941.

In the absence of any reported pest damage to crops over the county, Howard county Friday had released its supply of poisoned mash for fighting grasshopper invasions.

A year ago the county was caught in the grip of one of its most serious infestations of worms and grasshoppers. Fortunately, heavy rains produced an infection that destroyed grasshoppers just as they were beginning to constitute a grave menace to crops in the northeastern part of the county. Hence, a small portion of the supply of poison was not needed.

Mr. Weaver, adjustment assistant for the AAA, said that to date no reports of insect damage had been reported to his office.

Farmers, however, were to watch cotton closely to see if there will be a recurrence of the unprecedented damage produced by weevils last year.

ROOSEVELT SIGNS HOT OIL EXTENSION

WASHINGTON, June 30 (AP)—President Roosevelt has signed legislation extending the Connally hot oil law for three years from its expiration date tonight.

The legislation prohibits interstate shipments of crude oil and its products produced in excess of state allowances. The senate voted to make the law permanent but finally agreed to house demands for only a three-year extension.

FD PLANNING TRIP AFTER SOLONS QUIT

WASHINGTON, June 30 (AP)—President Roosevelt said today he probably would start a trip to the west coast four days after congress adjourns.

The date of the trip has been a frequent press conference topic.

The trip, to the San Francisco World's Fair and Alaska, has been deferred several times because of conditions in congress.

HOSPITAL INSPECTED BY DR. CASTNER

Dr. Charles W. Castner, Austin, medical director of the state eleemosynary institutions, was here Thursday to make one of his periodical and routine inspections of the Big Spring State Hospital for mentally ill.

While here he conferred with Dr. George T. McMahon, superintendent of the state's newest institution which now has a patient load of little more than 150.

While it was out of his department, Dr. Castner noted construction of a laundry building and a water tower and excavations for a mattress factory.

Arms Embargo More Work On Issue Debated Hwy. 9 Route

WASHINGTON, June 30 (AP)—Surprised by a tentative house decision to continue an arms embargo against warring nations, administration leaders strove today to assign the action and pass their original neutrality bill.

The embargo provision, called "a compromise" by its supporters, was put into the measure last night near the end of a 13-hour session by the slim margin of 159 to 157.

The bill's managers protested it would tie the president's hands in event of a foreign war and asked that the present embargo be repealed in accordance with President Roosevelt's expressed wish. Another vote on the issue—center of the whole neutrality battle—will be taken just before the final roll call on the bill itself.

There was no roll call on last night's vote.

Democratic Leader Rayburn, saying he was "deeply aggrieved and utterly amazed" at the vote, predicted the embargo would be subjected later to a roll call.

Rep. Vorys (R-Ohio), a member of the foreign affairs committee, was the author of the embargo provision, he said it was much the same as present law's ban on shipping "arms, ammunition and implements of war" to belligerents whenever the neutrality law is invoked.

Outside the corporate limits of Big Spring, only two tracts of land remained to be acquired, agreements having been reached on others, said County Judge Charles Sullivan.

Of these, only one was causing concern since the other belongs to the Texas and Pacific Railway Co. and it was felt that an agreement could be reached quickly with the railroad. The other piece of property belonged to C. E. Alderman, a former resident who now lives in Ohio, and no word has been received from him.

J. M. E. Brown, whose place at the end of South Gregg street will be hit by the new highway, was reported to have agreed to accept $3,000 offered by an appraisal committee.

Inside the corporate limits, city officials had reduced the number of property owners not yet giving a narrow strip of roadway to around four or five. Hope was expressed that these would be lined up within the next few days.

Judge Sullivan said that the right-of-way problem should be ironed out three weeks within advance of the highway commission meeting on July 31.

At the capital simultaneously, Senator Taft (R-Ohio) told reporters: "We are going to encourage everyone to talk who wants to talk. I don't see any reason that the bill shouldn't be discussed just because the time is short before midnight."

Taft said if the compromised legislation came to a vote there was a good chance the senate would stand by its amendments to end the president's devaluation power, stop foreign silver buying and fix the price for domestic silver at 77.57 cents an ounce. The compromise would fix the price at 70 cents.

At his press conference, Mr. Roosevelt confirmed reports he would hold himself in readiness to go to the capitol tonight if it See MONETARY BILL, Pg. 7, Cl. 3

SILVER PRICE IS KEPT AT 38 CENTS

WASHINGTON, June 30 (AP)—The foreign silver price of the treasury stayed at 38 cents per ounce today.

This was attributed to the effect on world silver prices of the fact that the compromise monetary bill reported last night to the house and senate provides for continuation of the treasury's foreign silver buying.

The London silver market, to which the treasury has geared its daily foreign silver price since the senate voted Monday to end foreign silver buying, gained one-sixth of a cent to 57.92 cents per ounce at the conference committee report.

Harrington Due To Stay At Post Of Directing WPA Operations

WASHINGTON, June 30 (AP)—John M. Carmody, head of the vast federal works agency which comes into being at midnight under President Roosevelt's government reorganization plan, disclosed today he wanted Col. F. C. Harrington, army engineer, to continue at the WPA helm.

Carmody made this known in his first public statement after being confirmed by the senate to administer the combined activities of more than half a dozen existing government units. The WPA appointment would give Harrington—an army officer with a reputation for slashing red tape and getting things done quickly—direct supervision over the spending of about $1,500,000,000 in the next 12 months.

Uncertainties over the relief organization caused him to announce a shut down of all WPA projects from July 1 to July 4. The 2,500,000 workers affected will be permitted to make up the time later in July.

Carmody is leaving the Rural Electrification administration for his new $12,000-a-year job. Among the half dozen units he is taking over is the Public Works administration, to whose 2,561 employees Secretary Ickes, the present FWA chief, said goodbye yesterday.

At the same time that government works agencies come under Carmody's supervision, many federal lending agencies will become subject to the direction of Jesse H. Jones, Texas banker, close friend of Vice President Garner and now chairman of the Reconstruction Finance corporation.

Jones told reporters the major units being brought within his jurisdiction—the Federal Housing administration, the Home Owners' Loan corporation and the Federal Home Loan Bank Board—were seasoned organizations and well run as far as he knew.

He said Stewart McDonald, the housing administrator, John H. Fahey, head of the Home Loan corporation and board, and Fahey's director understood what they were doing.

Senate GOP Foes Promise Full Debate

Power To Devalue The Dollar Hangs In The Balance

WASHINGTON, June 30 (AP)—The senate republican leadership announced today the administration's compromise monetary bill would be talked to death.

"Legitimate Debate" The announcement came from Senator Austin (R-Vt) shortly after President Roosevelt had told his press conference the country would not be sympathetic to a filibuster.

"Of course he would call it a filibuster," Austin said. "Anyone in his position would."

"But it will be legitimate debate. You will be able to tell that from the character of the debate."

Mr. Roosevelt had remarked that the people would not be more favorably inclined toward the filibusters if one developed.

His remark that the people of the country would readily understand any filibuster situation evidently was designed to focus attention on any effort to delay congressional action so that his emergency monetary powers would expire at midnight tonight.

He added he considered his filibuster remark a rather mild comment.

Asked next whether he had any reports on what had happened on the monetary legislation, he replied he had been informed senate republicans were holding a caucus to determine whether to filibuster a compromise measure which would extend his power to devalue the dollar and continue the stabilization fund and the administration's foreign and domestic silver-buying policies.

At the capital simultaneously, Senator Taft (R-Ohio) told reporters: "We are going to encourage everyone to talk who wants to talk. I don't see any reason that the bill shouldn't be discussed just because the time is short before midnight."

Taft said if the compromised legislation came to a vote there was a good chance the senate would stand by its amendments to end the president's devaluation power, stop foreign silver buying and fix the price for domestic silver at 77.57 cents an ounce. The compromise would fix the price at 70 cents.

CABINET RESIGNS

AMSTERDAM, June 30 (AP)—The Netherlands cabinet of Dr. Hendrikus Colijn resigned today as a result of a controversy with Catholic ministers over the question of borrowing funds to finance defense and unemployment projects.

Colijn, veteran political leader who passed his 70th birthday June 22, was asked by Queen Wilhelmina immediately to try to form another cabinet. He withheld a decision temporarily.

Colijn, head of the comparatively new Calvinist party who has steered the country through previous financial crises, has steadfastly refused to resort to borrowing and has insisted on keeping a balanced budget.

Heart Attack Proves Fatal

Suffering a heart attack as he worked, Robert Virgil Redwine, sand and gravel contractor of Big Spring, died unexpectedly at 3:30 Thursday afternoon. Mr. Redwine, 52, was stricken as he worked at his truck, at the Dr. Otto Wolfe place, 170 West Fourth. He was dead by the time a physician could reach him.

Mr. Redwine had been living in Big Spring for 15 years, and for the past several years made his home with Mr. and Mrs. Joe Davis 1800 State street. Only surviving relative is a halfbrother, Oscar Redwine of Big Spring. Mr. Redwine's parents are interred in a local cemetery, and he was to be buried beside their graves following funeral rites at the Elberly chapel at 4 p. m. Friday. Rev. Homer Sheets was to conduct the service.

Named as pallbearers were Bessie Wilkinson, T. J. A. Robinson, John Smith, Blackie White, John W. Pruitt, Louis Mann, V. A. Merrick and E. W. Boyd.

WORKING WOMAN BAN TERMED INVALID

BOSTON, June 30 (AP)—In an advisory opinion to the state legislature, the Massachusetts supreme court held today as unconstitutional the prohibition of restriction of employment of married women in public service.

The ruling gave foes of working wives a major setback in a controversy which has raged throughout the state for the past two years. Opponents of working wives already have indicated that they would seek a constitutional amendment in the event of an adverse ruling.

The court's majority opinion held that "married women are not, by reason either of being women or of being married, excluded from citizenship, though being comparatively recent constitutional changes women did not know the positive right of voting and of holding public office."

GOVERNMENT'S FISCAL YEAR IS ENDING WITH A DEFICIT OF OVER THREE AND A HALF BILLIONS

WASHINGTON, June 30 (AP)—The fiscal year which ends at midnight amid a flurry of overtime work by treasury bookkeepers has produced federal expenditures of approximately $9,250,000,000 or $2,550,000,000 more than the government's income.

The deficit, however, is nearly a half billion dollars less than expected, because of small expenditures and higher receipts than estimated six months ago. The national debt has just exceeded the $20,000,000,000 mark.

Although the expenditures were the highest since the World War days, the deficit figure, which was the ninth consecutive annual shortage, was only the third highest. Exact figures for the year will not be available for a few days, but today's approximations were made by officials familiar with year-end items after study of figures through June 27.

Tomorrow is the new year's day of another fiscal year in which both the spending and deficit figures are scheduled to go high. Irrespective of congressional action on the $3,850,000,000 lending program proposed by the President. The latter would be excluded from budget figures.

Biggest items in the expenditures list were WPA, $1,250,000,000; national defense $1,070,000,000; interest on the public debt, $600,000,000; administrative expenses of regular departments $500,000,000; A.A.A. program, $190,000,000; veterans' benefits, $200,000,000; social security administrative costs and grants to states, $240,000,000.

Friendships Have To 'Take' A Lot

By MARY WHALEY The word friendship has such a warm sound but yet how lightly it is treated. Friends, who should receive the best, usually get the worst.

If you are tired you yawn contentedly in your friend's face and never wonder what he will think. Yet if it were just a casual acquaintance you probably would talk and try to be entertaining.

Friends must listen to stories of your achievements, successes, and failures recited in detail as if to another self. If the person were just an acquaintance, you wouldn't think of boring him so.

Then when someone else arrives with a glitter that attracts, the friend is temporarily forgotten. When the shine is gone and you discover what you thought real is make believe, you turn again to your friend and find he waits patiently and understands.

Nothing else could be treated as lightly and survive. Your friend will see through your faults, smallness, and peculiarities and find somewhere in all your pretense the thing that makes you, you and different from anyone else.

Nothing will keep the fires of friendship burning through neglect, abuse, and doubt. Friendship can be neither bought nor sought but when it happens it is as easy and natural as breathing. There will be but a few in a lifetime you can call friend. Lucky you, if you have found one.

'The Bear Went Over the Mountain'. You remember why, don't you? Certainly. It was "to see what he could see." And it's for just this same beautifully simple reason that thousands of knowing people run through the advertisements in their daily newspapers. For, it seems, civilized men and women are seldom satisfied with their lot. In this ever-producing age they have an insatiable appetite for something new which may make life brighter. That something may be an electric razor, or new summer clothes . . . a good book, or a ride in a streamlined train. So they turn the newspaper pages to see what they can see. There they're able to find what it is, why it is, where it is, and how much it is. And the advertisements say, "Come and get it!"

JODIE MAREK BESTS LEFTY LUCAS IN 11 INNING MOUND DUEL

The Sports Parade

By HANK HART

We are pleased to report that Tony Rego, the amicable Baron skipper, is sold on the possibilities of Johnny Soden, the Yakima magician who set the league afire last year but who has had plenty of trouble in gaining a toe hold in family affairs this semester.

Anthony worked the young curve ball artist against Pampa the other evening and Soden was shelled for 14 hits and beaten badly but he remained the distance.

Rego reasoned that John's control was a shade off balance but looked for quick improvement. After all, any performer who has been out of action for a month cannot be expected to get into the groove immediately. What the lad was doing against the Oiler hitters was working himself into a hole on most of the batters, then having to put that cripple over to save the surrender of a pass. But he was in possession of his stuff, including a reliable No. two pitch.

Rego intends to send him to the mound tonight, expects him to be in full stride by the time the second half begins.

If Art Gigli comes through, Rego expects to get the best pitching in the circuit. The recent performances of Edson Bahr, Jodie Marek and Louis Janicek leaves nothing to be desired. Clarence Trantam, of course, steadies the youngsters and can be counted upon for his share of the work.

It took just one game for local fans to climb on the band wagon of Don Wolin, the new short stop who debuted in the Baron lineup in Pampa.

Don looks to be the best infielder the league has ever produced. He takes ground balls the other short stops wouldn't think of going after. And his aim is something to rave over.

He's a better fielder right now than Lubbock's Salty Parker and that's saying a mouth full. He gives a pitcher and his co-workers plenty of confidence.

Don as a performer for Compton Junior college in California made but one error all last season, hit an amazing 387. Of course, his bat work isn't expected to approach that figure in pro ball, but he will hit.

The Barons' other new swinger, Rudy Debus, who captured Van Marshall in the lineup, is going to

Berndt Scores Only Run On Lobo Error

Ex-Grizzer Chalks Up Twelfth Win; Barons Move To Third

By HANK HART

Jodie Marek and Lefty Lucas hooked up in a glittering mound duel here Thursday evening that went eleven innings before Al Berndt could score the run that gave the Big Spring Barons a 1-0 victory over Lamesa.

The brilliant Lucas, always a jinx to the local crew, was never better. He could be reached but for three base blows and had the Baron power hitters eating out of his hand but the indomitable Marek was even better. In chalking up his 12th pitching triumph of the year the Temple product probably threw the grandest game of his career. He, too, surrendered but three base hits and was in "hot water" in but one chapter. He permitted only one runner as far as third base all evening. Eleven batters he cut down on strikes. Eighteen men in a row he choked before Happy Spangler finally gained a life in the seventh frame on Bobby Decker's boot at second base.

Good Starts Both flingers went through six innings of play without giving a semblance of a base blow. Rudy Behan broke the ice for the Barons in the waning minutes of the seventh frame when, with two out, he singled into short center field.

Bill Thornton poked one of Marek's offerings into short left for Lamesa's first blow in the eighth. After Don Wolin's single in the eighth inning Lucas appeared to be gaining strength. He struck out Curdele Loyd, Tex Walton and Pat Stacey in a row in the ninth frame, then waded through the tenth in brilliant fashion but Berndt finally placed his inner cordon's defense as the leadoff man in the eleventh when, working from a "three-two" count, he singled between Happy Spangler and Sammy Malvica into left field. That was the beginning of the end. Marek did his part by sacrificing the little catcher to the keystone and his journey was continued to the far corner sack when Bobby Decker rolled out to Herby Morey at second. Loyd appeared to dispatch a bouncing ball to Morey who slapped at it but failed to negotiate the catch and Berndt went home.

The Lobos' great seventh inning game came after Spangler, upon gaining the initial sack, was moved into threatening position by Earl Reeves' sacrifice and Malvica's ground ball to Decker but Marek coolly struck out Emmett Fullenwider, Lobo cleanup hitter, on three pitched balls to abolish the rebellion. Stiffes Rally

A brilliant eighth inning double play started by Loyd stifled a Lamesa uprising in that round. After Thornton had contributed his single to the keystone with a bunt but Loyd, sensing trouble, moved in close to catch the popping sacrifice and whirled to execute a perfect throw to Decker, covering the initial bag, in time to nip Thornton.

The two teams move back into action tonight with second place in WT-NM league standings at stake. The Big Springers' victory enabled them to move past Pampa, which lost to Clovis, into third place, left them but a game from Lamesa.

Johnny Soden was slated to toe the slab for the Regemen while Red Hay or Lefty Millapeugh was to go to the hill for the invaders.

Bufs Regain Texas League First Ranking

By the Associated Press

The Houston Bufs today occupied the top rung of the Texas league standing—a precarious perch made all the more precarious by frequent changes. It wasn't the first time the Bufs had been there, but their resurgence was spiced with a 10-inning victory last night which climaxed a three-game sweep from the erstwhile-leading San Antonio Missions.

The battle was tough but pint-sized Eddie Lake ended it with an extra-frame single that brought Johnny Wyrostek home with the 4 to 3 win.

Two runs in the second put the Padres out front but the Bufs rallied in their half when Epps homered and brought Cullip in ahead. Shreveport's fourth-place Sports steam-rolled the Beaumont Exporters, 18 to 6, by putting together 24 safeties, eight walks, two errors and a wild pitch, setting a season's record for high score and total hits.

A homer by Meyer in the ninth, four triples and three doubles were included in the Sports wallop. Stan Corbett pitched the Fort Worth Cats to a 7 to 2 win over the Oklahoma City Indians, allowing only five hits. The Dallas at Tulsa game was postponed because of wet grounds.

While Corbett fooled the Indians, his teammates blasted 11 hits off Jack Brillhart and relief hurler Ash Hillin. Catcher Kearse of the Cats homered in the eighth with the bases empty.

Race Ace Dies In Crackup

The 31-year-old Chicago was killed almost a month to the day from the date of one of his greatest races—second place in the 500-mile classic at Indianapolis last Decoration Day.

Snyder lost control of his small car as he roared into a turn in the early stages of the 40-lap feature race. The car hit an outer guard rail and rolled back into the track where it was broadsided by another little racer driven by Paul Armbruster, St. Louis. Armbruster suffered severe burns.

The accident occurred in full view of 4,000 spectators.

Jimmy's qualifying run—130.138 miles per hour—for the last Indianapolis derby was the fastest in history. Snyder also shattered the Indianapolis speedway lap record this year with a speed of 130.767 miles an hour.

Frisco Netter Advances In Denver Meet

DENVER, June 30 (AP)—It was a 3 to 1 bet today the Colorado open tennis championship will go back to Los Angeles this year for the third time in a row.

The only non-Los Angeles campaigner left in the semi-finals of the men's singles division was slim Edwin Amark, fifth-seeded entrant from San Francisco.

Gene Mako, chief favorite for the title, will meet Jack Kramer, young fellow townsman, who was seeded 8-6 victory.

The Chicago White Sox and St. Louis Browns divided a bargain bill with the cellar dwelling Browns (taking the opener, 9-3, on the sixth pitching of Bob Harris, and the Sox coming back in the nightcap to win, 7-5.

Rain kept Cleveland and Detroit idle in the American league as well as Brooklyn and Philadelphia in the National. The night game of the latter pair was reset for tonight. The Cincinnati Reds and Pittsburgh Pirates had an open date.

The New York Giants were beaten, 8-2, by the Boston Bees, who unleashed a 16-hit attack concentrated into six runs in the second inning when Debs Gerns and Buddy Hassett homered. However, the St. Louis Cardinals were again edged out by the Chicago Cubs, 7-4.

Emil (Dutch) Leonard, veteran knuckler, held the champions to seven hits in the dozen innings he worked yesterday.

The Senators treated Red Puffingbarger and Yankers as with no diplomacy. They scored on him in the first with a triple and a single and won the game ultimately on two singles sandwiched around a sacrifice.

Donald Right The second game was abbreviated by darkness but the Yankees had settled it to everybody's satisfaction anyway, with rookie Alley Donald checking the Senators on three hits for his ninth straight triumph.

The second place Boston Red Sox slipped further back as the Philadelphia Athletics buckled on their 17 hits in the proper places for an

SENS MANAGE TO KEEP AHEAD OF YANKS; CHICUBS MOVE UP

By JUDSON BAILEY
Associated Press Sports Writer

In these perilous times people often misunderstand what those Senators are trying to do down in Washington.

Their good-intentioned blundering has caused many a lifted eyebrow and no little disdain, but the fact remains they are the only club in the American league which has won more games from the world champion New York Yankees than they have lost.

They kept in front of the bombers by winning the first game of a doubleheader yesterday, 2-1 in 12 innings, before losing the nightcap, 7-0, in six innings. This left the Nationals with four victories in seven games.

Emil (Dutch) Leonard, veteran knuckler, held the champions to seven hits in the dozen innings he worked yesterday.

The Senators treated Red Puffingbarger and Yankers as with no diplomacy. They scored on him in the first with a triple and a single and won the game ultimately on two singles sandwiched around a sacrifice.

WIMBLEDON, Eng. June 30 (AP)—Gene Smith, Berkeley, Calif., school teacher, led the American team into the quarter finals of the all-England tennis championship today with a 6-0, 6-4, 6-3 victory over Emil Gabory of Hungary.

Smith entered the fourth round yesterday by knocking off Franz Cejnar, stolid Bohemian, to become the darling of the galleries, and with Bobby Riggs and Elwood Cooke, one of the United States hopes.

The fact he is a dyed-in-the-wool amateur helps, too. By now everyone here knows he graduated from California, lives in Berkeley, teaches in Piedmont, has his master's degree, and is over here to see the sights, study a little and play some tennis.

No one knows how his studying and sightseeing are progressing but he certainly is playing "some" tennis. He reminds veteran followers of Big Bill Tilden with his best kneed swaying swing on service.

Cooke meets Bunny Austin Saturday and he's liable to beat Bunny. Riggs had his perpetual smile and his patent-leather hair on curl No. 1 yesterday against Camille Malroy of New Zealand and that's about all. He made careless errors that would disgrace a schoolboy and played with the inspiration and spirit of a two-day-old dish of pudding.

AT THE CHURCHES

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE SERVICE

Room 1, Settles Hotel. "God" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon which will be read in 11 Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, July 2.

The Golden Text is: "Unto the King eternal, immortal, invisible, the only wise God, be honour and glory for ever and ever" (1 Timothy 1:17).

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "And they shall teach no more every man his neighbour, and every man his brother, saying, Know the Lord: for they shall all know me, from the least of them unto the greatest of them, saith the Lord." (Jeremiah 31:34).

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "As the mythology of pagan Rome has yielded to a more spiritual idea of Deity, so will our material theories yield to spiritual ideas, until the finite gives place to the infinite, sickness to health, sin to holiness, and God's kingdom comes 'in earth, as it is in heaven'" (page 338).

ST. PAUL'S LUTHERAN 561 N. Gregg. T. H. Grunbaum, Pastor. 9:45-Sunday school and Bible class.

10:30-Morning service. The topic of the sermon will be "The Difference Between Mere Human Faith and the True Christian Faith."

On Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 p. m. the Ladies Aid will meet for their business meeting at the home of Mrs. B. Rueckart.

MAIN ST. CHURCH OF GOD Corner 10th and Main Street. Robert E. Bowden, Minister.

All services at the usual hour Sunday, Sunday school 10 o'clock; morning worship 11 o'clock, sermon subject, "The Spirit Filled Church."

This message will be of special interest to all Christians. Those desiring soul food, and realizing a need of a closer walk with their Lord will enjoy this message. The young people's hour at 7:15; the evening sermon will be evangelistic.

A goodly number attended the mid-week prayer service Wednesday evening, and enjoyed the discussion of outstanding events in the lives of Bible characters. Think this over, "Jesus said, Blessed are they that hunger and thirst after righteousness." Friend, do you profess to hunger, thirst, and desire children, and do not hunger and thirst after His righteousness? When these physical bodies lose their appetite we become alarmed and do something about it. Your soul is more valuable, better to do something about it without further delay.

God's church is at your service, and you are always welcome.

ST. MARY'S EPISCOPAL 561 Runnels Street. Oliver C. Cox, Rector. Sunday school at 9:45 a. m.

Morning prayer and sermon, 11 o'clock. The rector will speak on the text, "Be ye subject one to the other." This will be a Fourth of July sermon dealing with relations of our great country with God. The public is cordially invited to attend.

OPEN AIR REVIVAL Corner West Fourth and Bell. Hear Hersehl Barnett, widely known pastor-evangelist and radio speaker, who begins revival campaign for the Assembly of God church July 2nd. Everyone invited to attend.

Homer Sheats. FIRST PRESBYTERIAN D. F. McConnell, D.D., Pastor. Sunday School, 9:45 a. m. Morning worship, 11 a. m. Subject, "Communion Meditation."

Evening worship, 8 p. m. Subject, "Relationships." Young People's Vespers, 7 p. m. Leader, Janice Carmack. All members especially urged to attend mid-summer communion.

"Come and worship with us." EAST FOURTH ST. BAPTIST W. S. Garnett, Pastor. Sunday school, 9:45 a. m. Preaching service, 11 o'clock. The pastor will speak on "A Sermon For The Clock." (Christian Living). B.T.U. meeting at 7:30 p. m.

CRISIS (Continued from Page 1) on. (The reports of troop movements into Danzig were denied in Germany).

NAZIS INDIFFERENT BERLIN, June 30 (AP)—British Foreign Secretary Lord Halifax warned Great Britain would fight in case of "further aggression" and the repeated expression of fears in London and Paris a Nazi coup was being prepared in Germany.

"We are conscious of our strength and supremely calm, in contrast to the nervousness prevailing in London and Paris," an official said. Berlin newspapers paid scant attention to the speech.

Answering foreign reports that an unusual number of reservists had been summoned to military duty, officials said that "no abnormal number of reservists has been called up; each summer, under the 'stagger' system, reservists do six weeks of brushing-up service, and these are the men who are now participating in maneuvers."

A reporter inquired whether the monetary powers could be continued if the house and senate finally accepted a compromise proposal after midnight. Mr. Roosevelt asserted parliamentary on Capitol Hill had told him the bill was drawn to extend existing law. If the law was off the statute books because it had expired, he said, it could not be extended and new legislation would be needed.

He indicated some time ago he would seek new legislation if necessary.

When a reporter asked what the treasury's policy of domestic silver purchases would be if the monetary bill were not enacted by midnight, Mr. Roosevelt replied the matter was being studied but he could give no off-hand answer.

To a question about how closely the foreign silver purchase program was associated with his good neighbor policy, the chief executive responded it was only one phase.

Payroll Padding In Kas. City Probed KANSAS CITY, June 30 (AP)—A Jackson county grand jury turned to reports of municipal payroll padding today after indicting former City Manager H. F. McKelroy, key man in "Boss" Tom Pendergast's toppled democratic machine, on charges of embezzlement and obtaining money under false pretenses.

McKelroy, J. J. Pryor, a contractor and political associate of Pendergast, and John J. Rathford, president of an engineering company which looked for water leaks at the rate of $5,000 monthly, were indicted following investigation by the jury of the payments to the concern.

McKelroy was charged specifically with embezzlement of $56,500 in the fiscal year ending April 30, 1939. Pryor and Rathford were charged with receiving embezzled funds. All three were charged with obtaining money under false pretenses.

McKelroy, 73 years old and white-haired, resigned as city manager last April 13, six days after Pendergast and R. E. O'Malley, head of the city water department and former state insurance superintendent, had been indicted for income tax evasion. Both Pendergast and O'Malley are serving terms at Leavenworth prison.

Leche described the university auditing system as "antiquated and full of holes" and declared "anybody could pocket money that wanted to."

At his Covington home where he retired after leaving office last Monday night—24 hours after Smith gave him his resignation—Leche told the Associated Press the bald educator was not stricken at the time he quit because "there was not evidence for such drastic action at that time" and "we couldn't hold the man unless we were positive we had something."

Over the story of Leche's statement the New Orleans Times-Picayune this morning repeated a headline which it has carried for several days: "A Still Ferment Question. Could Zealous Law Enforcement Have Prevented the Disappearance of Dr. James Monroe Smith?"

Leche said Attorney General David M. Ellison, State Collector of Revenue W. A. Cooper and Supreme Court Justice John Fournet were "visiting" him when Smith walked in and resigned about 6:30 or 7 p. m., and then left State Superintendent of Police Louis F. Guerre said he, too, had arrived at the governor's mansion about 6:30 p. m.

Guerre said Ellison at 8:30 ordered him to arrest Smith. When Guerre went to Smith's home, he said, he found the newly retired president had disappeared with Mrs. Smith.

Asked what evidence was gathered between 6:30 and 8:30 o'clock warrant the arrest of Smith, Leche said "Ellison and Cooper can answer that. They were handling the investigation."

Ellison, asked why there was a lapse of two hours between the time of Smith's resignation and the order for his arrest, told a reporter "you will have to check with General Guerre. He can tell you all about the matter."

Many Flock To See Body Of Killer

HAYWARD, Wis., June 30 (AP)—Hundreds of persons flocked to the body of Ray Olson as it lay on a slab in a Hayward mortuary last night, coming even from out of the state to view the shrewd woodsman who killed two deputy sheriffs and in turn was shot down by a posse's rifles yesterday.

The town, relaxed in a holiday mood, the grim tension of the two-week manhunt over. Wives clung to the arms of husbands for whose safety they had feared as bullets rained through the north woods.

The tavern of the late Carl (Cully) Johnson was jammed. Johnson and Fred Scott, also a Hayward tavernkeeper, were slain by Olson June 17 as they and other deputy sheriffs went to arrest the former convict on a charge of possessing stolen property.

The body of the 30-year-old Olson, also known as August Buelo, was brought to Hayward from Washburn, where a perfunctory inquest was held late yesterday.

Mrs. Olson, held as a material witness, learned yesterday for the first time that her husband had been hunted for murder and not also that her husband had been killed, and she wept.

"It was always good to me except when he was drinking," she sobbed.

Disposition of the $1,000 reward the Sawyer county board offered for Olson, dead or alive, remained up in the air. There was talk of splitting it among the 15 men who were in at Olson's finish yesterday beside Lake Namakagon.

Also figuring in the disposition was the family of Wheatly Anderson, farmer near Cable, Bayfield county, who discovered Olson's presence through cigar smoke, and summoned deputies.

The Andersons returned to their home after a fishing trip late Wednesday and became suspicious when they smelled tobacco smoke in their house. They called authorities and deputies surrounded the place. Olson was found hiding in an outhouse. When he made a dash into the open possemen shot and killed him.

Ruth's Kisses For Heart Balm Trial LOS ANGELES, June 30 (AP)—Kisses which Ruth Etting bestowed on Myrl Alderman as he recovered on a frog farm from a bullet wound inflicted by her former husband were described today as trial of Alma Alderman's $150,000 love theft suit against the blond torch singer reached the rebuttal stage.

Appearing as one of the last witnesses in Miss Etting's defense to charges that she stole her companion's affections, Martin Seliger, music arranger, told scenes on a Riverside ranch last fall. It was a month before Alderman and the singer were wed and shortly after Alderman had been shot by Martin (The Gimp) Boyder, Miss Etting's first mate, who faces 20 years in prison as a result.

Seliger said Miss Etting seemed to be treating Alderman.

"What do you mean by treating him?" asked R. S. Hahn, Alma Alderman's counsel, on cross-examination. "Did she kiss him?"

"Yes, she kissed him."

"How many times?"

"Oh, a few times that I saw. I couldn't be around all the time. Miss Etting has not appeared during the trial.

Starting rebuttal testimony, Mrs. Alderman took the stand to deny statements of certain defense witnesses. Referring to testimony of Edward Stockbridge, a musician, that she had invited him to come to her apartment in Myrl's absence, she remarked, caustically: "I wouldn't have Ed Stockbridge as a gift."

She likewise denied she had lived with Alderman before they were married and said witnesses had exaggerated the amount of her drinking.

'International Financiers' Are Promoting War Scares, Ford Says

DETROIT, June 30 (AP)—Henry Ford, who holds "international financiers" responsible for most of the world's ills, said in an interview today such interests are promoting "war scares" at present because "they know no other way of making money."

"These interests alone," he said, "profit from war, and if they cannot bring about war they promote war threats to make money out of heavy investments in munitions production."

The automobile manufacturer made the statement as he surveyed a back-to-the-land project of his own in a boys camp he has established near Ypsilanti, Mich. Here about three score youths, from city and farm, are cultivating some 400 acres of land under a profit sharing arrangement with the motor magnate.

"There is a job for the international financiers," Ford said, "if they really want to help relieve unemployment. They can enable the country banker to finance the farmer and a real step toward the restoration of prosperity will have been taken."

Ford reiterated his conviction there will not be another major war, "because," he said, "the people of the world know that war is not only futile but unnecessary. Moreover, none of the heads of the governments of the world want war."

The automobile manufacturer will be 76 years old a month hence. Apparently in excellent physical condition, he said he had not followed any prescribed diet. "I just don't eat too much," he said.

Faces Sentence For Grand Larceny NEW YORK, June 30 (AP)—Convicted by a jury of 12 men who scorned her story that the money she took from Martin Beck, theatrical producer and her uncle-by-marriage, were gifts because she was his mistress, Mrs. Lillian Schrein today faced a possible 30-year-term in prison.

For three hours and 40 minutes the jury debated her reiterated tale of trysts with Beck—then convicted her on two counts of forgery and one count of grand larceny.

The comely, 28-year-old former secretary and treasurer of the Beck interests heard the verdict with little emotion. Her husband, Bertram, patted her consolingly on the shoulder.

Involved in the counts on which she was convicted was a total of $60,000.

Freed on $5,000 bail, Mrs. Schrein will be sentenced July 7. Assistant District Attorney Herman McCarthy asserted during the trial that she obtained about $370,000 of Beck's money.

Mrs. Schrein had claimed that two years after her marriage in 1928 she became Beck's mistress, and that he told her she could take anything she wanted of his funds. She told of numerous trips with Beck and of intimacies with him—all of which he denied.

AFTER SEVEN YEARS LOST RING FOUND AUSTIN, June 30 (AP)—A $2,000 diamond ring, missing for seven years, will be restored at once to its owner, a Beaumont woman, state police said today.

Officers explained they located it through information furnished by Sheriff Lee O. Allen of Travis county. Mrs. Beawilford Keith of Beaumont, the owner, took the ring off to wash her hands while on a hunting party near Round Rock. She was unable to find it after wards.

Police added the ring was recovered at Round Rock from a person who said it was obtained from a man who died two years ago. An investigation has been launched.

Local "Hot Check" Experts Ponder New Law Enacted By Legislature

The new "hot check" law enacted by the legislature was the subject of much pondering by County Attorney Joe Faucett and Carl Marcor, constable, through whose hands course the large number of checking complaints.

One of the most noteworthy portions of the new law deals with dismissal of checking complaints. Under terms of the statute, any person who files a complaint on a check and then comes to authorities with a request to dismiss same is subject to a fine of $100 to $500.

Presumably this portion of the law strikes at the practice of some persons to use legal machinery strictly as a collecting agency. Authorities have been faced with the problem of prosecuting checking offenses when the complaining witness has been satisfied.

The giving of a bogus check is presumed to prima facie evidence of intent to swindle, under the new law. Thus, burden of proof is placed upon the defendant instead of the state. Also, out-of-county witnesses may now be subpoenaed in misdemeanor check cases, in accordance to provisions of the act.

Stringent penalties are prescribed for cumulative offenses. Whereas, the penalty on a check of more than $5 and less than $20 (above which is a felony) is punishable by a jail sentence up to two years and a fine of up to $500, the second offense prescribes from 30 days to two years in jail along with fines; and the third or subsequent offense becomes a felony regardless of amount.

First offense hot checks under $5 are liable to jail sentence up to two years and fine up to $200, so reads the law.

Bogus checks in payment of goods, services, etc., with intent to defraud are included in the penalty provisions of the law. Thus, hot checks for car payments (presumed to be defrauding in that the check is given to hold possession of the car) could be filed for action. Similarly, passing of checks to hotels to gain release of luggage and belongings would be liable. Worthless checks on labor bills are punishable, too. However, status of spurious checks on old accounts probably is not changed by the new law since the recipient has not legally been defrauded of anything by the check.

SCRIBE CALLS HEAVY CHAMP BEST OFFENSIVE FIGHTER

By GAYLE TALBOT

NEW YORK, June 30 (AP)—Now that the pants have been sung for gallant Tony Galento and he has been substantially rewarded by Promoter Mike Jacobs with a check for $20,000.63 and the promise of a fight with Lou Nova in September, there must be room left for a few words about Joe Louis.

After all, Joe did win that fight by a knockout. Again he came out of the ring with honors, the same quiet, courteous young negro.

What this fight proved, if anything, I think, is that Joe Louis is about the greatest offensive fighter who ever drew on a glove. Probably not the greatest fighter, for he does not take a punch well. He is easily dazed, and the old-timers will not admit a pugilist is great unless he can "take it."

All right, Louis doesn't have a granite jaw. When he is hit solidly by one of the whippers either with a right or a left (as Schmeling and Ben Galento demonstrated), he seems to go to pieces for a few seconds. His feet do funny things and his face takes on the pained expression of a kid that has just been spanked, hard.

But doesn't that very fact make the record of destruction the more remarkable? Despite this obvious handicap the bronze boy fought his way to the championship and since has defeated seven challengers, six of them by knockouts. He has been knocked down but has come back to blast his men down. He deserves credit.

After seeing the champion knocked down by Galento, the managers of other heavyweight contenders are falling all over themselves in the rush to get at Louis. Even Ray

MUTINY ON THE BOUNTY

SPORTS ROUNDUP

By EDDIE BRIEZE

NEW YORK, June 30 (AP)—Clark Griffith may try to introduce wholesale night ball into the American league. They say he has a plan calling for each club to play under the lights five times weekly between June 15 and September 15—an average of 65 games per club. Col. D. Walker Wear, N. Y. boxing commissioner and member of the National Foundation of Infantile Paralysis, suggests organized ball give its share of the Lou Gehrig day gate to that fund.

If Wisconsin comes up with Howard Barrow, All-American fullback from Calumet High, Fred Crisler and Co. will have plenty of mail to answer. Fred Apostoli starts training August 15 at the Nevele Country club, Ellenville, N. Y., for his September go with Ceferino Garcia.

Oh, Oh!

Jimmy Johnston talked a bit too fast yesterday. He said: "Louis is just a fair fighter among a bunch of bums." Including, we assume, his Bob Pastor.

What they said of the big fight: Jack Milley, Post: "I am not going to kid Tony about being fat anymore... That extra weight is his heart."

Jimmy Powers, News: "It was the best battle of punches since Dempsey-Firpo... And make no mistake about this—Galento has a better punch than Louis."

James P. Dawson, Times: "Galento missed the title only because in his heavy, awkward-footed way, he could not muster the accuracy to unhook another left hook to the jaw such as the blow that floored Louis."

Joe Williams, World-Telegram: "Galento was the story... He made the fight... He did the unexpected makeup... He showed to our mind, 'makeup'... He showed, to our mind, that Louis is not monumentally a great fighter."

Today's Guest Star

Bill Boni, Associated Press: "Galento was the first beer barrel ever to tap a man."

CHAMPIONS RETURNING TO STAMFORD ROUNDUP

Several of the winners of major prizes in last year's Reunion will be back in Stamford for the Texas Cowboy Reunion July 3, 4 and 5. Among these is Miss Elizabeth Miller, upper left, of Miller Brothers Ranch, Fluvanna, who won the saddle as first prize in the sponsors' contest. Upper right is Philip Williams, Jr., of Tokio, winner of the wild-cow milking contest. A. C. Wilke, lower left, San Angelo, is shown in the saddle which he won as champion bronc-riding.

HE TRACKS DOWN THE NAZI SPIES

Regarded as one of the most sensational of current film offerings, because it drops the cloak of masquerade in its dealings with nations and their espionage systems, is "Confessions of a Nazi Spy," timely story which comes to the Ritz Friday and Saturday. Edward G. Robinson is seen as the G-man who breaks the German spy ring operating in this country. Developments in the film are based on the recent spy trials in this country, and mimic no words or scenes in telling where the enemies of the United States are to be found.

FARMER CHARGED IN MAN'S DEATH

WICHITA FALLS, June 30 (AP)—Frank J. Horky, Archer county farmer, was charged early today with murder after the fatal shooting of Arthur King, 35, Wichita Falls WPA worker, at a tank on Horky's farm seven miles south of here last night.

King was shot through the heart with a .22 caliber rifle as he put out fishing lines on the tank.

The complaint was filed in the justice court at Archer City after Horky, arrested at his home by Sheriff Pat Allen of Wichita county, had been questioned by District Attorney Z. D. Allen and Clyde C. Fillmore, one of his assistants.

King had gone to the tank with friend, T. E. McLendon, both of his 25-year-old son, Fred, and a Wichita Falls, and was apparently struck by the bullet while standing on top of the tank dam. His body rolled down the slope.

288-MILE SWIM

BILLINGS, Mont., June 30 (AP)—Clarence Giles, 45-year-old livestock auctioneer who was swimming in the Yellowstone river before the ice was out this spring, was to enter the river here at 1 p. m. (CST) today to start a 288-mile swim downstream to Glendive, Mont.

The 230-pound six-footer is seeking the world's fresh water distance swimming title. He said he understood Pedro A. Candiotti set the present record by swimming 281 miles down the Parana river in Argentina in three days, 12 hours.

Aided by the Yellowstone's fast current, Giles expected to reach Glendive, his home, in less than 100 hours.

Planning not to leave the water until he reaches his goal or is exhausted, Giles arranged to be fed from a motor boat that will precede him and guide him with a searchlight at night.

Ford Exhibits New Tractor

DETROIT, June 30 (AP)—The mechanized farming unit which Henry Ford asserts will "revolutionize agriculture" and "make the horse and other draft animals economically obsolete" was brought out for its first public demonstration today.

It was shown in the process of construction on an assembly line set up at Ford's River Rouge factory, where submarine chasers were built during the World war, and in action on the acres adjoining the Ford home in suburban Dearborn.

The motor manufacturer described the new tractor and its related implements, the invention of Harry G. Ferguson, an Irish engineer, as an economical, foot-proof and practically automatic unit of mechanized farm equipment that "will displace the horse on the farm just as the automobile displaced him on the road."

It will, Ford reiterated, shorten the work day of the average farmer, make farm work more attractive and thus bring about a "much needed return to the land."

A new age of mechanized farming, Ford said, "could have a most important economic effect, if adopted on a world-wide scale, by relieving the pressure of 'land hunger' nations for greater shares of the earth's surface."

The new tractor, a four-wheeled vehicle, has many revolutionary features, including an hydraulic mechanism that keeps the implement automatically at any desired depth regardless of the irregularities of the land surface, and a principle of automatic weight shifting that makes it impossible to up-end the tractor should the plow point become wedged under the roots, rocks or other obstructions.

Jeffers Denies Accusations

LOS ANGELES, June 30 (AP)—Evangelist Joseph Jeffers continued to say "no" to prosecution questions accusing him of morals violations.

The minister, who yesterday agreed with his pretty wife, Zella, that they were under the influence of some white powder placed in whisky which they drank, testified he had only hazy recollections of his actions before a raid on their apartment by district attorney's investigators.

Jeffers said the powder was placed in drinks by Vincent Higgins, detective posing at the time as Vincent Casey, a screen writer; and a woman named Margaret Morgan, who was present.

Jeffers also denied four bottles of champagne and three cans of beer, which investigators charged were found in the apartment, belonged to him. He insisted he never kept or used liquor, or used it except on the occasion of Higgins' visit.

He also denied certain obscene conversations which Deputy District Attorney S. Ernest Roll said were heard over a device installed in an adjoining room by officers. Roll said phonograph records of the conversations would be brought to court so jurors could hear the actual voices.

The evangelist at one point asserted he promised to plead guilty to immoral conduct charges to save his wife from prosecution.

He said District Attorney Byron Fitts, "said he would bring a charge against my wife accusing her of attempting to kill one of his men. To save my wife, I said I would plead guilty."

Highway Extension Gets Approval

WASHINGTON, June 30 (AP)—Extension of U. S. Highway 287 from Denver, Colo., to Fort Arthur, Tex., has been approved by the American Association of State Highway Officials, Senator Johnson (D-Colo.) announced yesterday.

The highway now runs between Denver and Yellowstone Park.

W. C. Markham, head of the association, said it could be extended through the federalization of highways through Limon, Hugo, Kit Carson, Lamar and Springfield, Colo.; Boise City, Okla.; and Amarillo and Fort Worth, Tex., to Fort Arthur.

In at least two places it would travel over present U. S. highways east of Denver, where it would coincide for some distance with U. S. 40 and between Fort Worth and Amarillo, where it would absorb U. S. 370.
