Baruch Blames Courage Lack For Troubles

STAFFORD, Conn., Nov. 15. — "Incompetence, procrastination and the lack of courage on the part of our present government is the cause of our troubled conditions today," said Bernard M. Baruch.

The statement came in response to a question during a park bench chat with ex-servicemen and their wives here Wednesday night.

Throughout more than an hour of questioning, the elder statesman stressed what he termed the lack of courage and competence of the present administration to solve the many problems placed before it.

"Do you have a specific cure for this?" Baruch was asked.

"Remember on election day," he answered.

Asked his opinion about the use of an atomic weapon which can now be used, Baruch said:

"I believe they have perfected an atomic weapon which can now wipe out armies rather than destroy cities. I say that the longer we delay action of a definite and decisive nature, the worse off we are going to be."

Taft Book Foresees Added U.S. Troops For W. Europe

By JACK BELL
WASHINGTON, Nov. 15. — Senator Taft (R-Ohio) foresees a likelihood that the United States may be asked to commit "far more than six divisions" to the defense of Western Europe.

The senator said in a new book, "A Foreign Policy for Americans," that the past history of the Truman administration's handling of foreign policies makes it likely that "in another year we will be asked for more divisions" to supplement the North Atlantic Treaty Organization (NATO) forces headed by Gen. Eisenhower.

As a candidate for the Republican presidential nomination, Taft wrote down a heritage of criticism against President Truman, Secretary of State Acheson, Gen. George C. Marshall and other administrative figures.

Taft said most Presidents "have been imbued with a real determination to keep the country at peace." He went on in a direct attack on Mr. Truman and President Franklin D. Roosevelt.

"I feel that the last two Presidents have put all kinds of political and policy considerations ahead of their interest in liberty and peace," Senator McMahon (D-Conn.), a supporter of the administration's foreign policy, promptly described Taft's book as "amazing for its blindness to the nature of the problems we face today."

Taft wrote that he doesn't go

No Late Change In Vote; Four Amendments Lose

By The Associated Press
Late returns from Tuesday's state constitution amendments election showed no change today from earlier trends.

Defeated were proposals allowing establishment of a pension plan for county officials, the University of Texas more freedom in investing its permanent funds, an increase in the welfare ceiling and taxes for rural fire fighting.

The only proposal to win was one boosting by $75 million the amount of bonds which could be issued to help veterans finance farm and ranch purchases.

LATEST TABULATION
The latest vote recorded by the Texas Election Bureau:
County pensions, 64,938 for, 120,670 against.
University fund, 85,878 for, 97,626 against.
Rural fire prevention, 66,786 for, 117,002 against.
Welfare boost, 84,136 for, 108,289 against.
Veterans' land fund, 99,807 for, 86,898 against.

The bureau said it possibly would issue another tabulation during the day, depending on whether significant votes were reported.

Land Commissioner Bascom Giles urged veterans to "proceed carefully and sensibly with plans to buy land under the expanded program."

"Take a good look at it. Remember you will have to pay every dollar of it."

He said the state eventually would realize a profit in dollars and cents as well as offering an opportunity to 30,000 veterans.

Giles estimated the new money will be enough to care for land purchases for four years. The state will make loans repayable in 40 years at 3 per cent interest.

The $25 million in bonds authorized by the original veterans' land program has been used. More than 4,000 veterans received loans. About 4,000 applications are on the waiting list.

In the legislative races, eight candidates appeared assured of election with four district contests still in doubt.

The undecided races by district:

Authority Granted For New Pipeline

WASHINGTON, Nov. 15. — Authorization to build 38 miles of new natural gas pipeline in Potter and Randall Counties has been asked by West Texas Gas Co. of Lubbock.

31 (San Augustine and Sabine Counties): Theo Boyett, San Augustine, 136 vote; Mrs. Tommie Lott, San Augustine, 178; Fitzhugh L. Beguchamp, 12; and G. V. Gooch, Sabine County, 47, to succeed Paul Wilson of Geneva.

61 (Limestone), Mrs. Lizzie Mae Freeman, Mexia, 697; W. H. Gantt, Groesbeck, 721, and Frank Risen, Thornton, 517, to succeed Jimmy Adams of Mexia.

84-F (Williamson and Burnet Counties): Henry P. Fox of Circleville, 1,132, and Ray Cain of Georgetown, 1,203, to succeed Bill Stump of Georgetown.

Tabulations in districts where the races appeared decided:

87 (McLennan): Tom Joseph, 2,044 E. D. Priddy, 122; John Dolins, 945; W. S. Foster, 527; David Goodwin, (Republican) 210, to succeed Hiram Stator. All are of Waco.

42-F (Hunt and Rhine) Edgar Hutchins Jr., farmer, 1,080 to 773 for E. P. Mangum, accountant, succeeding William A. Swindell of Commerce.

29 (Walker and San Jacinto): Dr. B. C. Sternberg, Huntsville dentist, with 542 votes to 98 for Malvin Stewart, timber dealer, to succeed M. B. Etheredge Jr., of Huntsville.

46 (Cooke): Richard S. Stark, Baylor law student, with 1,399 to 443 for Cliff C. Gardner, oil operator, to succeed Austin E. Westbrook of Gainesville.

86 (Bandera, Crockett, Edwards, Kerr, Kimble, Mason, Menard, Real, Schlielcher and Sutton): Joe W. Burkett, Jr., Kerrville attorney, with 1,824, considered a safe lead over John P. Hill, Ingram, with 1,205 and Herbert J. Antoine with 1,034 to succeed Callan Graham, now of San Antonio.

Deer And Turkey Hunters Ask For Colder Weather

By The Associated Press
Texas farmers and deer hunters are ready to ring down the curtains on the balmy and clear weather that has prevailed more than a week.

Deer and turkey hunters want a cold snap for the opening of their season Friday morning. So do the dove hunters who began season in South Texas at noon today. Cold weather keeps the bucks and the birds on the move and makes it easier to get meat home in good condition.

Farmers and ranchers want rain and lots of it. While rains received earlier in the month took the edge off the drought by providing surface moisture, subsoil moisture is deficient.

A mild cold front that moved into the Panhandle this morning will make no major change in temperatures, the Weather Bureau said.

Cloudy conditions prevailed in East Texas early today. There will probably be widely scattered showers but no heavy or widespread rains. No rain was reported Wednesday.

Maximum temperatures Wednesday ranged five degrees lower than those of Tuesday. Laredo and Alice with 90 were the warmest spots in the nation. The low maximum was a 63 at Dalhart, Amarillo and Childress.

The lowest temperature was a 33 at Dalhart.

Lions Hear Girls Chorus At Luncheon

Lions heard the 80-voice high school girls chorus Wednesday noon, and judging from applause, they were well pleased with what they heard.

Under the direction of Harry Lee Plumbley, the girls sang one religious number, then a pair of popular selections. In the finale, with Bobbie Adams appearing as the soloist, the chorus brought the house down with "Blue Tail Fly." The first number was A Cappella, and Peggy King served as accompanist for the others.

The young women appeared in their black and gold choir robes. In another program highlight, Gil Jones, Lionmaster, inducted half a dozen new members into the club. They were Dr. Arch Carson, Fred Coleman, Joe Bruce Cunningham, Art Franklin, John Kelley, and M. R. Turner.

Harold Steck, general minstrel chairman, announced that rehearsal for the annual Lions minstrel, with Rex Vann directing, would begin on Jan. 21, 1952.

Patched-Up Friendship Breaks Anew In "Battle Of Pelicans"

GALVESTON, Nov. 15. (AP)—Some ugly old birds nearly no one cared about have broken up a patched-up friendship along the Gulf.

At each other's throats again today are the fish and game agencies of Louisiana and Texas. It's over pelicans. Last time it was shrimp.

St. James Park, beside England's Buckingham Palace, has had pelicans for longer than anyone can remember. They all died except Peter and finally he passed on.

It suddenly turned out that England, at least, cared about its pelicans.

Only one was available. The London zoo would loan it to the park but would not surrender title.

Howard Dodgen, head of the Texas Fish and Game Commission, offered four to the park. Then big-hearted Texas made it five.

Mel Washburn of Louisiana's Department of Wildlife and Fisheries cried "foul," Wednesday.

"The idea originated with us in Louisiana. I'm getting in touch with the British embassy in Washington to stop those Texans from horn-bing in," he cried.

The pelican is Louisiana's state bird.

James T. Carter, news editor of the Galveston News, started the trip to England early today with five Texas pelicans.

Gov. Shivers officially named

Carter Texas' ambassador in charge of pelican affairs. Shivers wrote that Carter was to convey the pelicans, "choice Texas variety, the world's finest," to Britain's prime minister.

The crate which held the pelicans was inscribed:

"May these Texas pelicans, best in the world, of course, serve England well."

It has never been particularly peaceful for long in the Gulf off Louisiana and Texas.

Texas slapped a steep license fee on out-of-state shrimp boats operating off Texas shores. The idea was to save Texas shrimp for Texas shrimpers. It was aimed at Louisiana fishermen.

The U. S. Supreme Court finally had to pull the antagonists apart. The fee now is $6 a year for any shrimp boat.

If you ever come face-to-face with a pelican and want to catch the silly looking bird, here's how: Take a rod and reel, tie a fish on the line dangle the fish in front of the pelican. He'll bite. Just reel him in.

Charters Presented Two Scout Groups

Charters from headquarters of Boy Scouts of America were presented Troop 15 and Explorer Post 15, both sponsored by Fraternal Order of Eagles Aerie 2537, at the troop's first annual banquet at the Eagles Lodge, 705 West 3rd, last night.

The presentation was made by Jimmy Hale, Scout executive, and the charters were accepted upon behalf of the FOE by William N. Cochran, institutional representative.

Following the presentation and preceding the dinner a memorial service honoring the memory of Raymond H. Townsend Jr., a former scout who lost his life in World War II was conducted by Mayor G. W. Dabney. During this service the mayor presented the soldier's father, R. H. Townsend, with a memorial from the troop.

The guest speaker was Henry Norris, formerly of Big Spring and now Scout field executive at Sweetwater, who pointed out to the parents their responsibility for cooperation with the sponsoring organization's committee. This group is composed of Cochran, with L. L. Miller, who served as master of ceremonies, chairman; Lonnie Earl Lisenbee; Earl H. Ellett; Ray Townsend; G. P. Morrison and Raymond Bennett.

There are 45 members of the troop of which James C. Ferguson is Scout master. He is assisted by Gordon Gross and Cecil Nabors. The troop was organized about three months ago.

The invocation was given by Chaplain Clark O. Hitt of the Veterans hospital; Hale led group singing, and the benediction was pronounced by Cecil Nabors.

Entertainers were a group of girls from the physical education class at the Big Spring High School who presented two dance numbers, a military tap and the chicken reel. This group, sponsored by Arsh Phillips and Anna Smith, was composed of Kay Bonfield, Beverly Vaughn, Claudette Harper, Mary Ellen Hayes, Kenda McGibbon, Peggy Hogan, Kay Richbourg and Jo Ann Miller.

Miss Miller also presented two vocal numbers.

Used Car Ceiling Prices Rolled Back

By WILLIAM O. VARN
WASHINGTON, Nov. 15. (AP)—The government rolled back ceiling prices on used automobiles today six per cent below levels of January.

The Office of Price Stabilization (OPS) said its new dollars-and-cents ceilings set prices at about current market levels. An exception will be 1951 models which may be sold at the going market price.

OPS said 1951 cars, along with all others, will be subject to a two per cent deduction for depreciation Jan. 1. Every three months thereafter, another two per cent must be cut from the price of all the named 35 makes of cars manufactured between 1940 and 1951.

The ceiling price of pre-1940 cars will be that of the oldest model listed for the same make.

The new dollars and cents order replaces previous orders setting ceilings on the basis of prices in several used car guide books. Provisions are effective Nov. 20. The dollars and cents prices do not go into effect until Dec. 20.

The order divides the country into three areas for pricing.

The areas generally reflect differences in shipping costs.

OPS gave this example of how the two per cent depreciation will apply:

A 1950 Chevrolet Skyline Special 4-door sedan in Region A is listed at $1,555. On Jan. 1, the ceiling price will be two per cent less than that price, or $1,523.90. On April 1, 1951 the ceiling price will be two per cent less than $1,523.90, or $1,493.42, and so on for each calendar quarter.

The ceiling prices include all standard equipment, as well as radio, heater and other items on the car at the time the seller bought the car. Automatic transmissions or drives, or air-conditioning units are extra and prices also are listed which may be added to the car ceiling.

The ceilings for such extra equipment must be depreciated at the same rate as that of the car itself.

Allowances for a used car being traded in on another new or used automobile may exceed the ceiling price. The allowance must not exceed the ceiling for the car on which it is being traded.

OPS specified that used cars on dealers' lots must bear tags stating the make, model, line or series and the ceiling price, including extra, special or optional equipment.

Claim McGee Had "Worst Type Of Sanity" At 14

EL PASO, Nov. 15. (AP)—A witness in the Richard W. McGee insanity hearing told the court Wednesday that the convicted slayer was a victim of the "worst sort of insanity" when he was 14.

Dr. M. M. Stephens of Borger, said that as a boy, McGee was "erratic" and often would stray from home. He would stare at the floor 24 hours a time, the doctor said.

McGee has been convicted of the shooting of R. L. Allison in July, 1948. The sanity trial is his fifth attempt to escape the chair.

In earlier trials, witnesses said Allison was slain when he objected to McGee's attentions to Allison's daughter.

Cattle Sale Average Is Set At $3,164

SAN ANTONIO, Nov. 15. (AP)—Fifty head of Aberdeen-Angus cattle sold for an average of $3,164 a head Wednesday in the Essar Ranch first master production sale.

British Prefer Public Radio Monopoly To Set-Up In U.S.

By RONNIE DUGGER

OXFORD, Nov. 15. — For all we may have heard in Texas, Britons prefer their public radio monopoly to the American commercial system.

The British Broadcasting System has had solid control of the radio waves in Britain since radio history began 30 years ago, and now it controls television, as well. Every seven years a group of private citizens examines the BBC's records and decides whether Britain should give private broadcasting, a la American style, a try. Through Tory and Socialist governments alike, the decision has been to retain the BBC monopoly.

The first thing that strikes a Texan about the BBC is that there are no commercials, singing or otherwise. When you have never heard anything else, it is difficult to imagine radio without honey-voiced announcers coaxing you to buy Slip's Super Soap before the supply is exhausted. You believe it only after your first two hours of uninterrupted programs.

The BBC is supported by a fee of a little less than $3 a year from everyone who owns a radio. Payment is based on an honor system.

Programs are pitched on three levels: the light, home, and third wave lengths. These amount to what the snobs call "lowbrow," "middle-brow," and "highbrow" programs, respectively. The listener can get what he wants, and the theory is that every citizen thereby can expand culturally as his facilities permit.

Christopher Holme, the "third Programme" chief assistant, explains the BBC this way:

"Inseparable from public monopoly is the idea of public service. The duty of a broadcast monopoly is to a whole culture. In Britain it is not only light entertainment and music while you work, the news of the day, the daily exchange of politics, but also the works of Homer, Plato, Vergil, Chaucer, Dante, the whole plays of Shakespeare, Ibsen, Shaw, and the Greek dramatists, the music of Bach, Handel, Mozart, Beethoven, Chopin, Wagner, Debussy; all the science, philosophy, scholarship and artistic effort which for better or worse have made its culture and are now forming the culture of tomorrow; all the facts — political, social, and economic — on which its future depends."

Before me the radio schedule for this week. It gives concrete examples of what Holme means. There is a heavy schedule of music, ranging from popular tunes and jazz on the light programs to opera and symphonic music on the third. Five full plays will be broadcast, including Shakespeare's "The Tempest," in addition to the normal run of radio mystery and intrigue.

Special talks will be given on the United Nations Assembly, the general election backwash, economic problems in Britain, the mind of Bernard Shaw, and the week in Parliament (by a Member of Parliament). Julian Huxley, the world-famous scientist, is winding up his series on evolution on the Third Program.

But for all this, the BBC works under some handicaps. Its revenue is not equal to that of American networks, and it cannot spend as much tracking down news and putting on expensive shows with expensive talent. Too often one finds it repeating a program from earlier in the week.

And there is always the problem of censorship and impartiality: the power of monopoly.

It counts against the BBC that its code of radio ethics can have no competitor. An example made headlines recently. Tommy Trinder, a British comedian, objected because the BBC barred some of his jokes from the air. The censored jokes seemed mild enough, but that is beside the point: if the BBC says nix, that's that. There is no other radio station to which Trinder can take his talents.

A radio monopoly has another, more serious danger: that it may become a propaganda machine, a grinder of axes, or a tool of an all-powerful state. Of course, as long as Britain is democratic, the state won't be all-powerful. And to all appearances the BBC does its best to be impartial.

During the election campaign, for example, equal time was allotted to the Tory and Labor candidates, slightly less time to the Liberals, and no time to any party with less than 50 candidates in the race (which ruled the Communists off the air). For a good while before the election, other tal s of a partisan flavor were barred, even to the extent of the cancellation of a lecture on baby care on grounds that it might have a political bearing on Britan's social services. News programs are so objective they tend to be dull.

The BBC tries to present all sides of an issue, either in Brain Trusts (like our round tables) or separate talks.

The danger of propaganda is ever-present, but so long as the people keep a watch and examine the record every seven years, it seems doubtful that many abuses will occur.

Nov. 22 Stated As Thanksgiving By Gov. Shivers

AUSTIN, Nov. 15. (AP) — Gov. Shivers has made it official. Nov. 22 is Thanksgiving in Texas. Next year, under a new law, Thanksgiving will be the last Thursday in November. Shivers said last summer he would proclaim Nov. 22 as the official day this year.

His proclamation said: "Whereas, Thanksgiving is one of the most revered of our national and state holidays, and its appropriate observance is a custom deeply ingrained in the heritage of America and Texas; and

"Whereas, almost since the inception of this great nation the people of practically all states have each year set aside one day for giving thanks for the many benefits of life we enjoy in this great land; and

"Whereas, for almost a century Thanksgiving has been a national holiday observed throughout our nation; and

"Whereas, all the people of Texas and of these United States have many things for which to give thanks in this year of 1951, including our many freedoms which we cherish so dearly and

"Whereas, the fourth Thursday (22nd) has been proclaimed as the national holiday and generally will be observed instead of the fifth Thursday (26th) throughout the nation;

"Now, therefore, I, Allan Shivers, as governor of the State of Texas, do hereby proclaim Thursday, November 22, 1951, as Thanksgiving Day in and for the State of Texas."

Hereford Grooming Will Be Shown As Part Of Field Day

The proper methods of washing, brushing and otherwise grooming a Hereford for a show or sale will be demonstrated as a part of the field program to be held at the Charlie Creighton ranch, two miles west of Big Spring on Highway 80 at 1 o'clock Saturday afternoon.

This Hereford field day, which the public is cordially invited to attend, is being sponsored by the Howard County-South Plains Hereford Association and several head of the finest cattle from over the area will be exhibited during the afternoon's short course. Association members said they hoped to have Charlie Hunt, fieldman for the American Hereford Association, present on this occasion.

The program will also include a judging contest in which all those attending will have an opportunity to participate. The cattle will be judged for individuality and flesh and the contestant whose placing score nearest approaches that of the official judge will be awarded a prize.

Hot Plate Mats

Crocheted in bright red, golden yellow edges with vivid green, the individual rings are 3-inch circles which are crocheted over old canning-jar rubber rings! At last there is a profitable use for these old rings! Makes a solid, handsome plate mat which protects table surfaces, washes easily and lasts for years. Mat in lower illustration measures 8 3/4 inches. Make a "long" mat as in upper illustration by adding one "circle" more at either end. A grand and unusual gift!

TFWC Backs Civil Defense Program

DENTON, Nov. 15. (Sp) — Mrs. R. Max Brooks of Austin, urged the Texas Federation of Womens Clubs Wednesday night to promote public acceptance of women in uniform.

William L. McGill said every block and every neighborhood must have a defense organization in case of attack, and "at least 50 per cent of these (block workers) must be women." He is Texas' Civil Defense director.

He asked the club women to enroll one out of every seven members in a Red Cross first aid course and provide instruction in home nursing.

The convention adopted a resolution asking the governor to appoint a woman as full time assistant director of the State Civil Defense program.

(Recipe for Starred Dish Follows)
COTTAGE CHEESE AND VEGETABLE SALAD

Ingredients: 1 envelope unflavored gelatin, 1/4 cup cold water, 3/4 cup boiling water, 1 tablespoon lemon juice, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1 cup apple juice, 8 ounces cottage cheese, 1 cup diced mixed fresh vegetables.

Method: Soften gelatin in cold water, add boiling water and stir until gelatin is dissolved. Stir in lemon juice, salt, and apple juice; cool until lukewarm. Add gelatin mixture gradually to cottage cheese, beating with rotary egg beater after each addition; pour into a ring mold and chill until firm. Unmold and fill center with diced fresh vegetables. Makes 6 to 8 servings.

To make quick dessert waffles mix a beaten egg with two-thirds cup of buttermilk; add to a cup of gingerbread or ginger cake mix gradually, stirring until smooth each time. Bake on hot greased waffle iron until done. Serve immediately with butterscotch sauce and whipped cream.

BSP Sorority Plans Dance For Holidays

Two transfers from other chapters were welcomed into the group when the Beta Omicron chapter of Beta Sigma Phi met at the Girl Scout Little House Tuesday night.

They were Rosanne Albritton, formerly of Bryan, and Elizabeth Cope, recently of Plainview.

During the business session, Mary Read's letter of resignation was read. Betty McGinnis announced tentative plans for a Christmas tree, banquet and dance Dec. 10. The chapter agreed to sell coffee to members at the close of each meeting and Mary Alice Merrick was appointed arrangements chairman.

Anita Squifes was elected corresponding secretary to succeed Mareta McFarlin, on leave of absence. Lazelle Thomas was appointed flower and gift chairman.

Mary Alice Merrick won the door prize. There were 19 members present.

Bridal Shower Compliments Mrs. Curry

Mrs. Kenneth Curry, a recent bride, was complimented at a shower given in the home of Mrs. L. S. Patterson, 1410 Benton. Hostesses were Mrs. J. W. Arnett, Mrs. H. W. Bartlett and Mrs. George O'Brien.

Mrs. O'Brien greeted guests and in the receiving line were Mrs. Patterson, the honoree and the bridegroom's mother, Mrs. Brandon Curry, Mrs. Arnett and Mrs. Bartlett alternated at the refreshment table.

White chrysanthemums and greenery centered the table and were used throughout the receiving rooms.

The honoree wore a black velvet dress with a corsage of white carnations. Approximately 35 guests called.

Big Spring

Center For

AGRICULTURE

Basic economy for much of the area served by Big Spring remains that of agriculture, and income running into many millions of dollars comes from the area's farms. The farm income of Howard County alone was placed at $15,000,000 for 1950. There were 741 farms last year in the county, with approximately 200,000 acres in cultivation. Cotton ginnings in the county in 1950 ran to 50,000 bales, and the figure has hit higher than that in good-moisture years. Wheat yield has run as high as 43,000 bushels in a year, and also of great value is the grain sorghum crop. In addition there are forage crops, plus some yield in fruits and vegetables. Multiply all of this by counties surrounding Howard, and it is easily seen that a wealth of agriculture richness centers on Big Spring. Soil conservation is being practiced vigorously in the area, with terrace building, grass planting and various other phases carried out on a widespread scale. The agricultural income has long been, and still is, one of the major factors to make this West Texas center a BETTER town.

A Bible Thought For Today—

We need all three every day. We must never take hope from humanity, and certainly we must not lose faith in eternal goodness, and we need charity for others as well as hope for ourselves. "Now abideth faith, hope and charity, these three."—Cor. 13:13.

Frozen Action, Prisoner Return Proper Conditions Of Cease-Fire

An AP correspondent in Tokyo, Nate Polowetzky, did a great deal in a dispatch yesterday to clear up some of the latest developments in the Korean truce talks. At times it looked as though the U.N. team was just being stubborn, and in fact it had reversed its former position in this way: The U.N. originally demanded the cease-fire line be drawn immediately along the existing battlefield, but now it insists that this line be drawn ONLY after other points leading to the signing of a complete armistice can be settled.

The reason for this U.N. reversal is this, to quote Polowetzky: "The U.N. feels that the Reds would take advantage of a cease-fire line drawn now to get out of any further fighting and to dally over the questions still to be considered—vital questions such as the return of U.N. soldiers they now hold as prisoners of war. The U.N. wants to keep the pressure of war on the Reds, to keep them discussing steps leading to the signing of an armistice."

Polowetzky clears up another point that has mystified a good many people—the difference between a cease-fire and an armistice. A cease-fire is temporary, agreed to for a specific purpose, such as the beginning of peace talks. An armistice is a full-blown agreement stabilizing the cease-fire and making it permanent until one side or the other breaks it, or a peace treaty is signed.

A cease-fire on their own terms might permit the Reds to stall indefinitely. The U.N. is correct in standing for definite agreement on exchange of prisoners of war as a condition and for assurances that activity will be frozen during an armistice. Beyond that, we can afford to be flexible in our negotiations.

In Old Fashioned Thanksgiving, Mama Cooked To See Food Eaten

Thanksgiving Day is a week from tomorrow, in case you're planning on a full-course dinner in observance of the occasion, and want to lay in your supplies well ahead of time. We hear rumors that the centerpiece of any well-adorned Thanksgiving table, his Honor the Turkey, is going to be pretty expensive this time, but then what isn't expensive these days? In the old days the average family bought a turkey on foot, fed it a few days or weeks, and butchered and dressed it themselves—"themselves" in this case usually meaning Mama. Cake-baking and pie-making got under way several days ahead of the big event, and since store-bought bread wasn't often available in those days, the business of baking what was called "light bread" was a major item. All of this, of course, over a hot stove, hour by hour, maybe for two or three days hand-runnng. But Mama and the rest of the family, as well as the guests and visiting kin-folks, seemed to think it was all worthwhile, and it probably was.

In these days of fruits and vegetables in season at all times, thanks to quick-freezing, with a turkey of any size desired available—even a half-turkey, sometimes—and every variety of food and combination of foods imaginable, the younger generation must wonder what the old folks ate, back in the good old days.

Well, don't waste any time or energy bemoaning their undernourished condition. You wouldn't believe the richness and variety of the fare our old folks pulk-ed their chairs to. Two or three kinds of meat besides turkey, a rich meat-and-vegetable soup, heaping dishes of baked yams, spuds fixed up in four or five different ways, pickles, garden sass, pies, cakes and tiddits, all topped off with home-made ice cream, more than likely. All this meant a lot of hustling, of course, and Mama did most of the kitchen work involved. But Mama was a curious sort of person: she seemed to derive an immense satisfaction in seeing other people eat her cooking, and she felt somehow let down if anybody shovled back before he'd sampled everything on the table.

Freedom-Loving Cubans Plan To Observe Thanksgiving Day

WASHINGTON, Nov. 15. (AP)—"WILL HE-WON'T HE?" EISENHOWER — Governor Dewey did not meet secretly with Eisenhower at the Waldorf as reported last week. A Broadway columnist got that one mixed with a Waldorf meeting which did take place between Dewey, Senator Duff of Pennsylvania, Herbert Brownell, the Dewey GOP mentor, and Gen. Lucius Clay, Georgia-born Clay, a lifelong Democrat, is now in the Eisenhower camp. The meeting discussed ways and means of rounding up delegates despite the fact that Ike cannot declare until next spring... There's not the slightest question but that Ike started life as a Democrat. His first speech at the age of 18 at Abilene, Kansas, was at a Jackson Day dinner. Taftites are suspected of putting a neat one over on Arthur Hays Sulzberger, who reported that Ike would come over to the Taft side if the senator would desert the isolationists... It now seems certain that Ike will face President Truman in the Oregon primary—whether he likes it or not. He will also face Taft in the Republican side of that primary. Ike's name has been entered on both the GOP and Demo tickets, which makes Oregon the most significant test of political strength in the country—namely, Eisenhower vs. Taft and Eisenhower vs. Truman.

INSIDE WASHINGTON—Dictator Franco may be scratching the barrel back in Spain, but he seems to have plenty of dough to spend on lobbying in Washington. Chief Franco Lobbyist Charles Patrick Clark sometimes passes out $20 tips to Mayflower hotel waiters when ordering sandwiches and coffee... Down in Texas, they are not feeling so lush. The City of Houston has been struggling for some months to raise $8,510.35 to pay its entertainment bill for Douglas MacArthur, Glenn McCarthy, the Houston hotel owner, is even putting the bite on San Antonio, Ft. Worth and Austin to help out, while in Athens, Texas, (noted for peaches, peas, potatoes, peanuts, pigs, pottery, petroleum and phiddling) the folks auctioned off one can or black-eyed peas to help Glenn McCarthy. The can sold for $1.93... Chief expense of the MacArthur trip was a special airplane rented from Eastern Airlines... Taft forces don't seem one bit impoverished. They have retained Julius Klein, who finessed the rank of brigadier general in the Army and the presidency of the Jewish War Veterans, into a lucrative public relations business. Klein, also retained by Pan American Airways, has been headline-hunting for Taft.

CUBAN THANKSGIVING — Four days before our Thanksgiving, the people of Cuba, for the first time in their history, will celebrate their own Thanksgiving Day on November 18... While Cuba does not have over three thousand years of tradition behind their celebration as do we, the basic idea of Thanksgiving Day should not be limited to any one country. For the Pilgrim fathers established Thanksgiving Day to thank God for helping them survive a difficult year in a free world... The Cuban people share our Democratic birthday, and it is an important step toward the universality of Thanksgiving that they should wish to count their blessings of free thought and free speech on a day set aside for this specific purpose... So this year they start a tradition which should live forever with the freedom-loving people of the Republic of Cuba.

LOUIS B. MAYER'S TAXES — Every so often an amendment sneaks into a tax bill aimed at benefiting or hitting one individual American. One was the "Marshall Field Amendment," tucked into the tax bill during the war to prevent Marshall Field from taking tax losses on the Chicago Sun. Reactionary congressmen didn't like Field's liberal newspaper, hit back with a tax amendment banning deductible losses of more than $50,000 for five straight years... First man to get hit by this was not Field, a Democrat, but the former Republican National committeeman from California, movie mogul Louis B. Mayer. His racing stable was in the red by more than $50,000 and he got hit with a big tax bill... Now it looks as if Louis B. Mayer has staged a comeback with a tax amendment all his own. Latest tax bill permits a capital gains tax for income when a former employee sells his rights to future profits to his former employer. This fits Mayer, now retiring from MGM, right down to the button. The tax bill even provides that the retiring employee must have worked for his company twenty years, with profit rights for 12 years, and be entitled to profit rights for five years after retirement. Few people outside of Louis B. Mayer, fit this picture... (Mayer's tax lawyer in the past has been astute Elsworth Alford, close friend of Senator George of Georgia, who largely writes the tax bill.)

KANSAS-MISSOURI FLOODS — The Trumanites have thrown up their hands more regarding Missouri Valley Authority flood control integrated with public power... Instead, Democratic leaders will endeavor to get a compromise through the next session of Congress, calling for a limited system of flood control dams and some power development in the Kansas River Basin. This is a piecemeal plan recommended by Army engineers who want to get the money out of Congress in dribs and drabs. The tragic losses caused by the Missouri-Kansas floods last summer could have been avoided to pass an overall flood control-power plan for the Missouri Valley, but Secretary of the Interior Oscar Chapman didn't have the courage to get out and lead.

MONTY AND IKE — Field Marshal Montgomery of Great Britain has sent a message to General Eisenhower urging him to continue as supreme Allied commander. Montgomery said he had heard Ike planned to quit in February, return to the United States and run for President. Warning that Western defense would fall apart when Eisenhower left, Monty urged that he reconsider... Eisenhower hasn't answered the message yet but I predict he will say no man is indispensable... Interesting thing about Montgomery's message is that he was partly sidetracked by Eisenhower when the British army failed to keep up with General Bradley after the Normandy invasion. Later Eisenhower gave Monty two of Bradley's armies during the Battle of the Bulge—A move bitterly resented by Bradley. (Perhaps Monty fears Bradley might replace Ike in Paris.)

Local Commie Units Could Nullify Any Results Of World Disarmament

WASHINGTON, Nov. 15. (AP)—Suppose the U. S., Russia and the rest of the world agree on a peace plan, agree to stop arming, and cut down their armaments so much they'll no longer be a military menace to one another.

That would pretty much seem to eliminate the danger of war. It would still be an illusion, so far as the safety of the non-Communist countries is concerned.

They could still be taken into the Russian camp without a shot fired across their frontier, for so long as a local Communist party exists inside each of them, each is in danger of being trapped.

Those local Communist parties inside the non-Communist countries wouldn't cut their ties with Russia. Wherever and whenever she could, Russia would direct them and support them under cover as she did in the past.

In a climate of peace the local Communists might be treated with far more tolerance than now by the non-Communist countries. This would be a natural reaction.

With Russia no longer a military menace, it would be easy for the non-Communist world to look upon its local Communists as helpless and ineffective.

But so long as those local Communist parties existed, even though they had no planes or guns, they'd remain subsidized shock troops for Russia, trained to strike from within when they could.

They'd run for office, where that was permitted them, to get into and control key positions of government, useful positions to have if the time came to strike.

True, they might lack any popular support for a while, at least while peace seemed secure, times were good, and the future looked untroubled.

But no one is bold enough to predict there won't be another world depression. And as soon as it began, if it began, with misery and hunger spreading, the Communists would get new strength and supporters.

A Communist world is the Russian goal. If blocked from military conquest, by a fully-armed non-Communist world, the Russians can afford to wait if they can win from the inside by the work of the local Communists, working for Moscow.

Government Today Is Not Understood By The Voters

NEW YORK, Nov. 15. (AP)—Some people complain they don't know what the government is up to.

Governments themselves — local, state and national — don't know what they actually are doing.

If they do know, they have lost the art of letting the people know what they are doing.

Enzo Gaspari believes the latter is the case. He is a young and energetic New York state senator who has embarked on perhaps the most hopeless quest of our day.

His goal: To discover a way to make governmental acts and proposals intelligible to the voters.

Gaspari has been searching for a common language that people in government and those who are governed can understand. He figures the best bet is plain English.

But the trouble with that is that only the voters remember it any more.

The 36-year-old official, who spent nine years working himself through law school at night, has about given up his campaign to have legislative acts written in English understandable to the average college graduate.

"When I got ready to introduce my first bill, I wrote it out and submitted it to the legislative bill drafting committee," he recalled. "I got the redrafted version back the next day. It took me two days to figure out what it said — and I'm a lawyer."

Gaspari pointed out that most amendment proposals submitted to voters are now re-phrased into English by the newspapers. He praised the press for this.

"But the people responsible for drafting bills should preface each of them with a short, simple statement of what the bill is about," he said.

There is another possible solution, but it is too idealistic to be practical. All government officials should be periodically forced to take civil service examinations in writing the common man's language—simple English.

The trouble with that is too many politicians might find it depressing to be understood by the ordinary voter.

October City Tax Collection Up By $5,738 Over 1950

City tax collections for October were up $5,738 over the same month a year ago.

Statements presented to city commissioners showed collections of $1,560,032 on the current roll as compared with $1,554,294 last October. Delinquent collections amounted to $894 as against $489. Occupation taxes were down from $533 to $102.

For the fiscal year (which begins April 1), collections from all tax sources have aggregated $165,614. Delinquent taxes amounted to $5,474 as against $3,203 for the comparable period last year, and interest and penalty amounted to $1,263 against $907. Occupation taxes were off sharply from $3,780 to $252. Net gain in tax revenue for the first seven months of the fiscal year was $2,772.

Thixtons Leave For Meeting Of Dealers

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Thixton have left for Milwaukee, Wis., where they will attend the annual meeting of Harley Davidson dealers.

Critics Marvel At Jane Wyman's Two Hit Movies

HOLLYWOOD, Nov. 15. (AP)—Film critics have been marveling at the fact that Jane Wyman is starring in two hit movies—one a farce comedy and the other a weeping drama. The girl is further showing her versatility by becoming a singing star on records.

Jane has been called back for a repeat picture with Bing Crosby. Their comedy gals Der Bingle is a much-needed hypo for his career.

"Could it be that long apprenticeship you served at Warner's?" she was asked.

"What else?" she replied. "That sort of thing pays off, you know. Why, do you realize that since Bet-te Davis left the lot, I am the oldest gal left there? And only Errol Flynn among the actors has been there longer. I started in 1933 and he preceded me only by a year."

In those days Jane did everything, from musicals to westerns. "Those pictures were made in eight, 10 or 12 days," she recalled. "Compare that to the 17 weeks, including tests and actual shooting. I worked on 'Blue Veil.'"

Despite the excitement of movie making in those days, Jane said she wouldn't care to return to them. "I couldn't make a picture that fast any more," she said. "It's too much work."

We Clean Up The House, It Is Now Nice—Then Comes The Dust

Dust sifts silently in and quietly adds itself to the layer already on the furniture. Curly-cues of lint suddenly come to light. Cobwebs present themselves in the most obvious places.

Yep, there is just no getting around it, housecleaning time, that daily, bi-weekly or weekly chore of all housewives, has descended upon me.

With firm admissions to the bread winner not to bother me and to get out of the way, I gather all cleaning paraphernalia and descend upon the house. Furtively pulling furniture out of its proper place and working savagely to rid the house of the dust, I soon work myself into the proverbial lather. But who cares—the house is clean I revel in the finished product—marveling that everything could look so spotless.

ACT II
The sky darkens. Rain in West Texas? Don't be naive, the natives tell me, that's impossible here! Still the sky becomes darker and darker, the wind howls and shakes the whole house. But it isn't a rain storm. No, that stuff is sand. S-A-N-D. And so the sand drifts silently in, setting on sparkling furniture. If there were lint and cobwebs they couldn't be seen.

CURTAIN

Coupon Saves Raleigh In Fight For Place In Cigarette Market

By J. A. LIVINGSTON
LOUISVILLE, Nov. 15. — Harrison M. Robertson, general counsel for Brown & Williamson Tobacco Corp., was talking: "You don't buy cigarettes because of what comes through to your taste buds. You buy them because of what comes through to your head."

He was explaining why his company put a coupon in each package of Raleighs. "People buy the cigarettes for the coupon." Not often do you meet a corporation executive so forthright.

He went on: "Our cigarettes are just about the same as any other cigarettes—Camels, Chesterfields, Lucky Strikes. We try to buy the best tobacco. We blend the way the others do. We make the cigarettes the same. But it's hard to break through the Big 3 advertising wall.

"For years, people have become accustomed to the Camel, Chesterfield, and Lucky Strike advertising. They meet it everywhere. We can't spend the money to compete that way, so we compete another way. The coupon gives us a share of the market."

"What happens when you don't have the coupon?" I asked. Robertson quickly showed me the figures. Brown & Williamson sold about 500,000 packs of Raleigh cigarettes per month in 1952. Then the company introduced the coupon. Buy Raleighs and get a bridge table.

At first, the coupon had no noticeable effect. That was during the depression. Then people were interested more in saving money than coupons. The tawny cigarettes, including Brown & Williamson's Wings, were having a temporary boom.

Gradually the coupon caught on. By 1954, the company was selling a billion Raleigh cigarettes per month, or 50,000,000 packs. But that was wartime. Cigarettes were scarce. People were apt to purchase any brand. What's more, the company couldn't buy toasters, electric irons, and other premiums coupon-savers wanted. So, in 1953, B. & W. discontinued the coupon. Sales went up anyway.

In 1954 and '45, Raleighs were selling at the rate of 64,000,000 packs per month. Then, cigarette production caught up with demand. Users of Camels, Luckies, and Chesterfields could get their customary brands. Raleigh sales faded to 15,000,000 packs per month, a drop of 77 per cent. In February 1948, the company re-introduced the coupon. Almost immediately, sales rose to 30,000,000 packs per month. Today, Raleighs are selling at the rate of 40,000,000 packs per month, and, according to Robertson, still climbing.

The B. & W. theory is that smokers can't distinguish one cigarette from another in a blindfold test. People buy advertising or coupons. Hence, Raleighs appeal to the coupon addict. According to company statistics, about one person in six in the United States saves coupons. The premium is just that little bit extra for the hard-pinched household. Usually the woman starts saving the coupons. Then she works on the rest of the family to help.

In 1940, Brown & Williamson shipped 178,249 pieces of silverware as premiums, 60,366 card tables, 49,234 toasters, 236,874 pairs of Gotham Gold Stripe hosiery, 70,676 bathroom scales, 57,693 coffee brewers, 31,977 pieces of fishing tackle, 23,633 Westinghouse irons, and 137,151 sets of glassware.

Originally, B. & W. used coupons to sell Kools too. But now, Kools sell without benefit of coupons. The menthol flavor seems to be a sufficient premium to keep the Louisville factory busy.

Whether or not Raleigh sales regain their 1944-45 wartime status will be a test of the coupon. It takes about five years for the average family to accumulate enough coupons to get a premium. Yet, apparently, most purchasers of Raleighs have the patience and persistence.

The company figures more than 90 per cent of all coupons issued are redeemed. In a tax case, the Collector of Internal Revenue agreed to 80 per cent. Which suggests that four out of five Raleigh users are coupon collectors. That, so far as Raleighs are concerned, supports Robertson's argument that the choice of a cigarette at the retail counter is a triumph of mind over taste buds.

Shirt Pick-Up

BUFFALO, N.Y. (AP)—The prisoner had a fancy for plaid shirts. He was wearing three of them when he was brought before City Judge Charles T. Yeager on a charge of stealing one of them.

After losing his shirts, he told the court he came from New Orleans to pick up potatoes on a farm near here. "It's OK to pick up potatoes, but quit picking up shirts," the judge commented. He suspended a 30-day sentence and told the man to get out of town.

No Great Handicap

POCATELLO, Idaho (AP)—LaVerl Johnson bagged his deer on his first shot this year.

Spotting a deer, he dismounted from his horse, sighted with one hand and dropped the deer with a shot through the head. The animal was a running target, 75 yards away.

This isn't too unusual—except that Johnson is a triple amputee and gets around mostly by wheel chair.

UNCLE RAY'S CORNER

picked herring seem to be the top fish for phosphorus, but cheese has twice as much to the ounce as any of them. An ounce of lean meat has more phosphorus, on the average, than an ounce of fish.

Not only does phosphorus help the cells of the human body; it also goes into building sound teeth and sound bones. When people drink milk which has been "fortified" with Vitamin D, they supply their bones and teeth with three important things—calcium, phosphorus and Vitamin D.

Some persons may need more phosphorus than they get from their food. In that case, the advice of a good doctor should be valuable.

South-Central Borden Venture Shows In Pennsylvania Top

Oil and gas cut mud was returned from the top of the Pennsylvania on a drillem test of a south-central Borden county wildcat today. The explorer, Brinkerhoff No. 1-A Clayton & Johnson, drilled another eight feet and is testing again as a possible discovery.

The Hobo field in southeast Borden, one of the newer areas, had a completion, a location and a failure.

An eastern Dawson exploration, Seaboard No. 1 R. O. Goff, east of the Spraberry area, recovered some free oil on a test in the San Andres and drilled to 4,340.

Borden

Brinkerhoff Drilling Co. No. 1-A Clayton & Johnson, C SE SW 37-32-4n, T&P, five miles east of production in the Good pool and a mile and a half northeast of a reef failure, Seaboard No. 1 Clayton, topped the Pennsylvania at 8,044 on a datum minus of 5,801. It drilled to 8,065 and took a drillem test from 8,040-45 with the tool open two hours and 45 minutes. Gas surfaced in 45 minutes and recovery was 270 feet of heavily oil and gas-cut mud estimated 50 to 75 per cent oil. There was no water. Open flowing bottomhole pressure was 125 pounds, the 30 minute shut-in pressure 3,800. Operator drilled eight feet to 8,073 and was taking electric log and another drillem test from 8,043-73. On top of the lime at 8,044, the venturi is 14 feet high to Seaboard No. 1 Clayton, which failed at 8,210 but which had oil and salt water in the reef lime. This venturi is about eight miles southwest of Gall.

Amean No. 1-C T. L. Griffin, 330 from the south and west lines of the northwest quarter of section 46-25, H&TC, became the first Hobo field failure in southeast Borden when it failed to get shows of production at 7,245. It is plugging and abandoning.

Amean Staked Location for its No. 1-B T. L. Griffin, 1,007.2 from the south and 2,381 from the east lines of section 46-25, H&TC, in the Hobo field. It will go to 7,500.

favorable freight rates can be obtained.

Water supplies are not a determining factor in location of many industries that might be attracted to West Texas.

The report was given Wednesday by Fred Spuhards, executive vice president and head of the industrial committee. The committee studied the question more than a year.

The committee report also stressed the advantage of clean towns, climate, Texas' labor laws, favorable taxes, natural gas supplies and a rich market.

As the season opened today, 650 delegates from 120 West Texas counties were expected.

depth, to test the Siluro-Devonian. Gulf No. 1 Reeves, C SW SE 8-1-5n, T&P, progressed to 3,660 in lime.

Gulf No. 1 Vestal, C NE NW 11-34-7n, T&P, was below 5,302 in lime.

Standard of Texas No. 2 Smith, C NW NW 26-C-1, PSL, four miles southwest of O'Donnell, drilled past 5,410 in sand and shale.

Texas Crude No. 1-75 Knight, C SW SW 75-M, EL&ER, took a drillem test from 6,890-7,083 in lime stringers of the Permian. Tool was open 35 minutes and there was a weak blow for eight minutes before it died. Operator was not coming out of the hole with the tool and there were no reports on recovery. It will deepen.

Glasscock

Argo No. 1 Cook, C NW SW 17-34-4n, T&P, took a drillem test in the Wolfcamp from 7,775-7,938 with the tool open for three hours. There was a fair blow through about 120 feet of very slightly oil and gas-cut mud. The venturi then was deepened to 8,010 in Wolfcamp with no increase in shows in samples. Operator is preparing to plug back to 7,480 in the Wichita-Albany and run 5 1/2-in. casing to 7,340. On a test from 7,418-94, the wildcat showed gas in 13 minutes and returned 840 feet of clean 35-gravity oil and 155 feet of heavily oil and gas-cut mud.

El Capitan Oil No. 4 W. G. Whitehouse will be a Driver Spraberry location 1,980 from south and east lines section 47-37-4n, T&P; rotary 7,300.

Sohio No. 3-A J. C. Bryans, 2-083.7 from south and 600 from west lines of lease, section 1-37-5n, T&P, was a Driver Spraberry completion. It flowed 12 hours through 13-64th choke after 1,500 gallons hydrate. It made no water; 519-90 barrels of 37.3 gravity oil; tubing pressure was 200, gas-oil ratio 668-1; top pay 6,876, total depth 6,950; 5 1/2-in. string 6,855.

Sohio No. 4-A J. C. Bryans, 719 from south and 1,972.8 from east lines of lease, section 1-37-5n, T&P, flowed 12 hours through 23-64 choke after 1,500 gallons hydrate. It made no water and 272.4 barrels of 37.4 gravity oil. Tubing pressure was 200, gas-oil ratio 512-1; top pay 6,274, total depth 6,340; the 5 1/2-in. at 6,350.

Sohio No. 13-B R. S. Davenport, 688 from south and 600 from west lines lease section 3-37-5n, T&P, flowed 12 hours through 23-64 choke after 1,500 gallons hydrate. It made no water and 272.4 barrels of 37.4 gravity oil. Tubing pressure was 75, gas-oil ratio 576-1; top pay 4,939 total depth 7,003; the 5 1/2-in. string at 6,914.

Sohio No. 14-C R. S. Davenport, 1,984.5 from north and 600 from west lines lease section 11-38-5n, T&P, flowed 12 hours through 23-64 choke after 1,500 gallons hydrate. It made no water and 420.6 barrels of 37.3, tubing pressure was 75, gas-oil ratio 800-1; top pay 4,821, total depth 6,965; 7-in. at 4,878.

Magnolia No. 1 Bryans, C SE NW 26-35-4n, T&P, eight miles southwest of Garden City, was at 5,506 in lime and shale. It corrd from 6,480-4,502 with recovery of 39 feet of lime and shale with no shows.

Murphy & Ashland No. 1 Cooney, C SW SW 15-36-5n, T&P, was completed with a 25 foot core from total depth at 11,023. Results were expected to be checked this afternoon.

Phillips No. 1 Berry, C NW NW 35-36-2n, T&P, 12 miles northwest of Garden City, drilled to 10,614 in lime and shale.

Phillips No. 2 McDowell, C NE NE 31-34-2n, T&P, was rigging up work over unit.

Burdell No. 1 Hodnett, C NE NE 31-25, H&TC, northeastern Howard abandonment which is to be deepened, was rigged and preparing to resume operations. It is to be carried from 7,555, present total depth, to 8,000.

Pealer Bros. No. 1 Bogie, C SW SW 68-20, LaVaca, was at 7,201 in shale and lime.

Kerr-McGee No. 1 Binnie White, C NE NE 24-28, H&TC, drilled below 7,359 in lime and shale.

Stanolind No. 1-A Barber, C NE SE 45-37-1n, T&P, was below 4,811 in shale.

Fleming Oil Co. and Fleming & Kimbell No. 3-D L. C. Denman, 330 from north and east lines southeast quarter of northeast quarter of section 16-36-1n, T&P, will go to 5,386. This apparently is the same location previously filed for No. 7 which was later drilled 330 from the west line of the lease.

Also in the Itan-East Howard field, Fleming Oil Co. and Fleming & Kimbell No. 2 Dodge Estate, 1,630 from north and 330 from west lines section 15-36-1n, T&P, will go to 3,300. This apparently same location filed for No. 15, which was later drilled 330 from east line of section.

Cities Service Oil Co. No. 1 Gregory, section 12-C-41, PSL, Southwestern Lynn wildcat, unloaded clean oil on a drillem test in the Mississippian on Wednesday. The test was open 2 1/2 hours. There was a good blow of air throughout the test. Recovery was 2,900 feet of water blanket, 1,260 feet of free oil, most of which was unloaded through-drillpipe while tester was being broken down. Flowing pressure was from 955-1,275 and 15-minute shut-in pressure was 3,000. Top of the Mississippian was at 11,138, datum minus 8,017. Deepening was underway below 11,220. Contract depth is 12,500 to the Ellenburger. Location is 12 miles northeast of O'Donnell and six miles northeast of the Corrigan Fossilman pool in southeastern Terry county.

Argo No. 1 Brown, C NW NW 15-36-2n, T&P, north of Lenorah in central Martin, drilled to 10,06 in lower Strawn. It was taking electric log preparatory to plugging and abandoning.

Gulf No. 3-B Glass, C SE SW 10-38-1n, T&P, continued testing above plugged back depth of 8,686, swabbing 22 barrels of oil and five barrels of basic sediment and water in 24 hours.

Texas No. 1 McClain, C NW SW 38-3-2n, T&P, a mile and a quarter southeast of Lenorah, drilled to 8,485 in sand and shale.

Gen. George L. Olmsted, director of military assistance, spoke out Wednesday after recent developments, including:

1. Dispatches from Paris saying the French are concerned over slow delivery of arms aid.

2. The recent visit of Gen. Eisenhower, supreme commander of Western European Forces, to discuss increased tempo in equipping his forces.

3. A Paris meeting of Secretary of State Acheson, Secretary of Defense Lovett and W. Averell Harriman, director of the Mutual Security Agency, to discuss the arms aid problem.

Olmsted used France as an example of how the United States is keeping generally abreast of its arms aid commitments. He said that:

The allocation of tanks for France was 7,739 and that deliveries date total 2,148. Out of an allocation of 947 .105-millimeter guns, 658 have been delivered. Plans deliveries were slower.

Olmsted said that equipment originally allocated to equip an undisclosed number of Western European divisions would be delivered by next spring, several months ahead of the planning date first set.

Eisenhower did not say he believed there was an actual lag in arms deliveries to Europe. Those familiar with conferences he held in the Tex Harvey pool Forest Oil, Agent No. 3-E TXL, will be 655.4 from the north and 1,980 from the east lines section 37-37-3n, T&P; No. 4-E TXL, will be 1,995.6 from north and 1,980 from east lines same section; both rotary to 8,000.

Tex Harvey Oil No. 1-24 Floyd Estate, 696.4 from south and 2,026.5 from west lines section 24-37-3n, T&P, will be a rotary test to 7,500.

Magnolia No. 13 E. T. O'Daniel and others, 1,980 from the north and 600 from the east lines of section 3-37-Susannah Wright Grantee, flowed 24 hours through 24-64 choke following 10,500 gallons hydrate. It made no water and 260.2 barrels of oil. Tubing pressure was 130, gas-oil ratio 435-1; top pay 7,854, total depth 7,299; 5 1/2-in. liner 7,018.

Greenbrier No. 1 O. H. McAllister, 690 from north and east lines section 40-37-1n, T&P, has been amended to 12,500. It already penetrated to the Devonian where slight shows were registered as well as in the Pennsylvania. It is two miles southeast of Germanita.

Rep. Rankin Hits Truman, Rayburn For South 'Mess'

TUPELO, Miss., Nov. 15. (AP)—Rep. Rankin (D-Miss.) says Speaker Sam Rayburn (D-Tex.) and President Truman are responsible for "the mess" the South is in today.

Scoring a speech before the Southern Governors Conference in which Rayburn advocated loyalty to the Democratic party, Rankin said Wednesday that Rayburn "has already done the South more harm than any man since the dark days of Reconstruction."

He referred to Mr. Truman's proposals for a fair employment practices commission as "part of a Communist drive to force an anti-segregation program on the people of the South. The drive would never have got underway if those two men had had the guts to stand up and oppose such vicious policies."

Rankin predicted the South can elect a President next year.

Wrong-Doers Must Face The Consequences

KEY WEST, Nov. 15. (AP)—President Truman defended the honesty today of more than 95 per cent of government employees, but said any found wrong-doing will have to take the consequences.

The President told a news conference he had asked Chairman King (D-Calif.) of a committee investigating tax collections to send a memorandum, but said he had not promised King what action he will take on King's request to open Justice Department files on "tax fraud prosecution to the committee. He said he is awaiting that memorandum before acting.

He said he wanted to do everything to see that justice is done and that everybody at fault in that case will have to take the consequences.

He said he had not promised King anything.

Investigations which have been made have disclosed some malfeasance by government employees and action has been taken promptly, he declared. He asserted the guilty have been dismissed and grand juries have received cases of others from the Justice Department.

REFUTES TALK

Pentagon Insists Arms Not Lagging

By ELTON C. FAY WASHINGTON, Nov. 15. (AP)—The Pentagon, annoyed by talk that arms aid to the Western European nations is lagging, gave out some item-by-item figures to show what has been done.

Gen. George L. Olmsted, director of military assistance, spoke out Wednesday after recent developments, including:

1. Dispatches from Paris saying the French are concerned over slow delivery of arms aid.

2. The recent visit of Gen. Eisenhower, supreme commander of Western European Forces, to discuss increased tempo in equipping his forces.

Rep. Rankin Hits Truman, Rayburn For South 'Mess'

TUPELO, Miss., Nov. 15. (AP)—Rep. Rankin (D-Miss.) says Speaker Sam Rayburn (D-Tex.) and President Truman are responsible for "the mess" the South is in today.

NEGOTIATORS HAVE FUN

PANMUNJOM, Korea, Nov. 15. (AP)—United Nations and Communist negotiators can have fun at Korean cease-fire talks.

Maj. Gen. Hsieh Fang, Moscow trained delegate, referred Wednesday to the senior U.N. delegate "whose name I forget." He meant Vice Adm. C. Turner Joy.

Maj. Gen. Henry I. Hodess, chief U.N. subcommittee member, referred to "your senior delegate, whose name I trust you are able to recall."

He meant North Korean Lt. Gen. Nam Il.

December Oil Allowable Cut

AUSTIN, Nov. 15. (AP)—The Railroad Commission cut Texas crude oil production for December today by 72,519 barrels daily.

Permissible production of crude oil will be 2,924,918 barrels a day. It was the second successive cut in the allowable.

The commission ordered 23 producing days on a statewide basis.

at the White House and Pentagon said the point emphasized was that there must be a speedup beyond the present schedule—that instead of a slower program to outfit more divisions a drive should be made to make battle-ready and fully equipped up to 30 divisions by next summer.

Other problems cropped up in another quarter. The U. S. and Yugoslavia signed an agreement providing terms upon which American military aid will go to the Balkan nation which broke from Russia's family of satellites.

Some small arms, artillery and vehicles already have been delivered to Yugoslavia as the result of negotiations which started last June. But now, because Yugoslavia becomes fully eligible to a share of the $7.3 billion foreign aid program, the problem becomes more complex.

Some of Yugoslavia's critical needs are in the very items where American supply sources are hard pressed.

Cox Sentenced For Oil Fraud

S. E. J. Cox, whose fabulous promotion with the General Oil company in 1919-20, lifted Big Spring out of the throes of its worst drought and a post-war depression, has been convicted once more of fraudulent oil stock sales.

Now 67, and in broken health, Cox was sentenced to five years in prison and fined $1,000 by Federal Judge Royce H. Savage. Requests for a new trial and appeal bond were denied and Cox was remanded to jail.

It was the fifth conviction in fraud cases for Cox, who was arrested several months ago at the El Paso offices of his Penner Oil and Gas Company, which was headquartered in Nowata, Okla. Omar Penner, Oologah, Okla., president of the company, was acquitted of the same charges.

Cox drew five years each on two counts alleging violation of SEC regulations, the terms to run concurrently. The fine was on the first two counts. Sentences of five years each were assessed on the remaining 12 counts, all to run concurrently.

The man, who once parlayed minor holdings into a multi-million dollar oil empire and promoted a fairy-tale boom here which resulted in finding a small amount of oil in one test and drilling of holes on the edges of areas which later proved productive, received the verdict with arms folded. Before when he had run afoul the law, he went to Mexico, later returned and served time in the federal penitentiary.

In 1949 he returned here, contending that latter developments had proved that he wasn't extravagant in his claims. He wanted to get back in the business here, he said.

Two Top American Atomic Scientists Due Nobel Prizes

STOCKHOLM, Nov. 15. (AP)—Two of America's leading atomic scientists, Dr. Glenn T. Seaborg and Dr. Edwin M. McMillan, both of the University of California, are expected to be named tonight as winners of the 1951 Nobel Prize in chemistry.

The Royal Swedish Academy of Science meets later today to vote the awards, but all indications here pointed to the naming of the California pair.

They would divide $32,357 from a trust fund established by the inventor of dynamite, Alfred Nobel.

Seaborg discovered five new elements of matter, including plutonium, the substance which made the atomic bomb cheaper. McMillan, through the earlier discovery of the element neptunium, paved the way for Seaborg's finding of plutonium.

PMA-SCS To Hear Member Of AEC

A member of the Atomic Energy Commission, Dr. Bob Montgomery, a professor at the University of Texas, is the scheduled speaker before a joint meeting of the Soil Conservation Service and Production and Marketing Administration workers of two districts at the Set-the Hotel this afternoon.

Dr. Montgomery was expected to arrive early in the afternoon by plane to address the 150 workers from 45 counties who are attending the two-day conference which opened yesterday for the

Judgment Upheld By Supreme Court

Judgment for B. G. Shepard against Lynch Oil company has been upheld.

The Texas Supreme Court Wednesday refused an application for writ of error on an appeal from the 11th District Court of Civil Appeals at Eastland. Shepard was awarded damages of $2,750 in District Court here. Lynch Oil appealed to the Eastland Court and then to the Supreme Court.

POWs

estimated 3,000 Americans early in the war.

This belief was led by the Chinese Red strategy of releasing American and British prisoners in small groups last winter and spring when the fighting was at its highest peak.

Stars and Stripes ran the account of atrocity slayings as its lead story. The newspaper goes to troops in Korea.

An Allied spokesman said the incomplete tally of atrocities shows "a record of killings and barbarism unique even in the Communist world."

The report underscored Secretary of State Acheson's charge before the United Nations in Paris that Red China's conduct was "so low that it would take considerable improvement to raise it to the general level of barbarism."

In Washington, Rep. Cole (R-NY) said if the report of atrocities is true, the Communists should be punished with atomic bombs.

"They should be used, however, only against military concentrations," Cole said.

He called for a United Nations investigation. He said if the Reds refuse to permit an inquiry that should be considered a confession of guilt.

HOW TO TORTURE YOUR WIFE

THIS IS THE DRESS SHOP. TELL MRS. SMERK WE HAVE THREE FROCKS THAT SHE WILL LIKE. ONE OF THEM IS IN SHEER CRISP SILK. CRÉPE WITH A BOUCE THAT--

NO, MRS. SMERK ISN'T HOME.

THE NEXT ONE IS IN BLACK SILK CRÉPE. TELL HER THERE ARE ROWS OF BUTTONS AND DEEP FOLDED PLEATS. THE NECKLINE HAS A SOFTLY ROLLING COLLAR.

THE OTHER ONE IS A SHEER PRINT WITH LOVELY FLOATING PANELS. THE NECKLINE IS LOW AND THE BOUCE GATHERED DELICATELY BELOW. YOU'LL BE SURE TO TELL HER WON'T YOU? PROMISED TO LET HER KNOW.

ANY MESSAGES, ROY?

YEAH, SOME WOMAN PHONED AND SAID SOMETHING ABOUT COATS--OR MAYBE IT WAS HATS. I CAN'T REMEMBER JUST WHAT SHE SAID AND I DIDN'T CATCH HER NAME.

GRIN AND BEAR IT

"Charges of graft are undermining respect for government, Flyge... more taxpayers are being arrogant right back at us..."

TEXAS BRANDS

HER HIM 2E

By JOHN M. HENDRIX

The town of Palo Pinto, county of Palo Pinto County, bears almost as unique distinction in the development of West Texas and its cattle industry as does Victoria in South Texas. For one hundred years it has been cow country and was the jumping off place for some of the major cattlemen of West Texas as they pushed their holdings and herds further into the state to make these too, cattle country.

It was from Palo Pinto County that C. L. Carter, who held the office of first president of the Texas and Southwestern Cattle Raisers' Association, came. These early citizens had not only the business of developing cattle at hand, but had to defend themselves against hostile Indians while doing so. There are many records of its scattered citizenship "forting up" for defense against Indians in the earlier days in Palo Pinto town. It was from Palo Pinto County that veterans like the Slaughters, Cowdens, Jewells, Atkinsons, Bill Curtis, and many other names and herds were to become famous throughout West Texas and the United States had their origin.

There has been registered in the county since its organization a total of 5,290 brands. Unfortunately, there is no record of the first and second brands to be recorded in the county, but the first brand of record was the 2E registered by M. E. Harris on July 4, 1857.

HIM was recorded by E. A. Hum May 11, 1877, and HER was the next brand recorded by James Cunningham in June, 1877.

Down through the years the years the brands indicate, as was the case that cattle were being turned loose on the ranges and

Record Volume, Earnings Shown By Southwestern

The volume of business handled and the net earnings for the fiscal year ended August 31, 1951, were the greatest in the history of the company, according to report to stockholders from R. Earl O'Keefe, president and general manager of Southwestern Investment Company.

Business handled for the year amounted to $58,976,978 as compared to $44,177,085 for the previous year, an increase of 33.62 per cent. Loans and discounts outstanding at the year end totaled $22,505,888, an increase of 33.36 per cent over the total of $16,973,389 a year ago. Total net income of the company and subsidiaries was $634,571 compared to $223,389 for the previous year, an increase of 21.27 per cent, amounting to $4.33 per share on the common stock against $4.20 for last year. Dividends of $1.50 per share were paid on the common stock. Common stock dividends during the previous year were $1.35 per share.

Ruby F. Bryant Is New Head Of Army Nurses

By JANE EADS

WASHINGTON, Nov. 15. (AP)—As a girl Ruby F. Bryant was torn between the teaching and nursing professions. She has satisfied both desires. She started out as a country school marm. Now she has reached the top in the nursing profession.

She's Col. Bryant now, new chief of the Army Nurse Corps (ANC) of 5,400 nurses.

Col. Bryant who hails from near Emmerton, Va., was graduated from the Fredericksburg (Va.) State Teachers College and taught in Richmond County, Virginia, schools four years before the urge to become a nurse won out. It's been a long but steady climb to become the ANC's sole colonel—three years at the Army Nursing School, four years at Walter Reed Hospital here, then a three-year tour of duty in the Philippines, where her principal job was setting up and equipping the now-famous Malinta tunnel hospital on tiny Corregidor Island.

She left Corregidor before the tunnel hospital housed Gen. MacArthur and American troops during World War II. During the war she was in charge of nursing services in the 4th Service Command Headquarters at Atlanta, Ga.

"I always seemed to be somewhere else when the shooting started, but I've enjoyed every tour I've had," Colonel Bryant told me. Her most recent assignment was as chief nurse with the 6th Army area headquarters in San Francisco. In 1948 she was stationed in Tokyo.

"Washington is practically home to me, but I'm going to be on the go from now on. I will have to visit practically every Army area where nurses are stationed."

The nurse shortage is Col. Bryant's greatest concern. The need for nurses, she says, is not merely because of Korea, as popularly supposed, but because many new Army posts and camps are opening throughout the country for the training of soldiers.

BIG TRAVEL FOR MESA VERDE

CORTEZ, Colo., Nov. 15. (AP)—This was the biggest travel season in history for Mesa Verde National Park, home of cliff dwellings abandoned by primitive peoples nearly seven centuries ago.

The count of visitors to the monument in Southwestern Colorado climbed to 100,247 from the previous high of 88,518 set last year.

NEVER BEEN TO WAR, EITHER

Old Pete's An Old Mule, But Hasn't Seen Very Much Work

ROTAN, Nov. 15. (AP)—Lot of folk wonder about old Pete.

He stands on a hill by the side of the road and watches the cars go by.

Day after day—that's all he does. Won't move ten feet, one way or the other.

Just stands there, head down, looking and thinking. Swishing that thin tail, twitching his big ears.

About 200 yards west of the Coulter Senn's new farm home. Up in the pasture with the cows. Children ask if he can talk.

No, he can't. And he's never been to war. Although he's lived through two, and into a third.

Pete's pretty old for a mule. He was born in 1918, just in time to get in on the last of World War I. He's coming 34, and if he was a man instead of a mule, he'd be a Civil War veteran. The way a mule's age is gauged, in relation to a man's age.

But don't misjudge him. "He's still mean as thunder, and wild as a March hare," Coulter says.

Old Pete hasn't felt a collar in two years—has been in harness but few times in the past ten years. He was put on pension in 1946, and hasn't hit a lick of work since.

He's been in the Senn family since he was a coming two-year-old. Was born in the pasture just across the road. Belonged to Elvis Howell.

Elvis sold him to Alvin Senn, bachelor brother of Coulter and Claude Senn of Rotan, in 1920. Alvin died in 1946. Old Pete was part of the Senn estate to be settled.

The only way to "settle" old Pete was to sell him.

"I told them my part of old Pete was not for sale," Claude said.

He was already in the pasture of Coulter's present farm, west of Rotan. There he has remained.

When he dies, he'll be buried in

AFR Processes 500 Officers Each Week

By WILLIAM HARWOOD

CAMP KILMER, N. J., Nov. 15. (AP)—More than 500 flying officers in the Air Force Reserve are being processed here for each week as part of the Air Force's preparation for expansion to 100 or more groups.

The bombardiers, navigators, radar operators and flight engineers are being ordered to active duty to determine whether they still are physically able to man the big bombers that carried death to this country's enemies in World War II.

All but about 20 per cent are making the grade.

When the processing is completed, usually in five days or less, the reservist is returned home to await orders that one more will require him to trade his civvies for a uniform.

His name may appear on orders in a month, two months or a year. He has to sweat that out. All reservists are instructed not to make any preparations to close out their civilian affairs. But all become keenly aware before leaving here that their civilian days are numbered—if they pass the physical.

The 2225th Personnel Processing Group, an installation of the First Air Force, is doing the processing.

Reservists who come here are from the 15-state First Air Force area which embraces the six New England States, New York, New Jersey, Delaware, Pennsylvania, Maryland, Virginia, West Virginia and Ohio.

Another unit, at Camp Stoneman, Calif., was set up to process reservists living in the Middle and Far West.

Reservists who no longer qualify physically for flying duty but are fit enough for ground jobs are reclassified. They are not subject to recall at this time.

Most of those being called back are lieutenants. All are slated for combat crew training—not in the Air Force's new jet bombers—but in the conventional propeller-driven planes, the B-26s and B-29s that are carrying the payloads to Red Korea.

A sprinkling of higher ranking officers, some captains and majors, also are being processed. Most are recalled for specific jobs.

The recall makes no exception of reservists who saw overseas duty, those who have been inactive in the reserve or those married and having children although a man with four dependents, not including himself, can return home for good.

Some few others in highly critical civilian occupations also are exempted.

Enlisted reservists—the airmen—are not included. As processing officers put it, "the Air Force has scraped the barrel clean" most airmen already have been recalled.

Pilgrims' Feast Found Some 90 Uninvited Guests Present

By The Associated Press

While you are wondering whether that big Thanksgiving turkey will go in the oven and whether there will be enough to feed the guests you have invited you might give a thought to the Pilgrims at the first Thanksgiving dinner.

Just to start with, they had 90 unexpected guests. They had planned a small feast to celebrate their first harvest and to give thanks that their little community had survived hard times. Months of privation had taken their toll. There had been many deaths, but now they saw hope ahead. Full of good will they asked Massasoit, a friendly Indian and his family to attend the feast.

Massasoit showed up with 90 braves. There were twice as many Indians as Pilgrims. But the Indians had brought along five deer, which were a big help.

It took them a week to get ready and when they started, they feasted for three days. There were only five mature women and a few girls to do the cooking. The men went hunting. Gov. William Bradford and four men killed as many wild turkeys as possible. Two fishermen came in with eels, clams and oysters. The youngsters picked wild cranberries, cherries and grapes.

Most of the cooking was done in the open. The birds were roasted on spits, the sea food on coals. The first Thanksgiving pie was made when the women cooked some of their dried fruits in dough cases.

They had wine which they had made from wild grapes, and beer. A shortage of beer had been an important reason for their settling in what is now Massachusetts instead of Virginia where they had intended to go. One Pilgrim journal explains — "for we could not now take time for further search or consideration, our victuals being much spent, especially our beer."

One feature of the celebration was a big hit with the children.

That was the popcorn the Indians brought along. They popped it in a big pan and then poured maple syrup over it. It was messy, but good and the children chewed on it for three days.

In those days the children did not have so many table manners to watch. They had no napkins, forks or even plates. They did have some knives to cut the meat and some wooden spoons.

The Indians joined them in races and jumping contests. And the redmen had archery contests in which they showed off their skill. The white men banged away with their guns and played tunes on bugles to the amazement of their red friends. Miles Standish got an ovation when he marched his little group of soldiers up and down the clearing.

Cowboy Innkeeper Back On Broadway

By MARK BARRON

NEW YORK, Nov. 15 (AP)—Beldon Katieman, that extraordinary cowboy innkeeper from Nevada, is on Broadway again. This time he is here to audition show girls for his lush Las Vegas hotels and for his El Rancho Vegas and The Last Frontier.

All the girls he has been casting in the Broadway show shops are top-flight cover models, or graduate of musical shows and the night clubs. Katieman flies them to his desert resorts in his private plane, and he says the trips mean really no more than if they were going to Philadelphia to tryout a musical, a chore to which they are accustomed.

"The Broadway models," Katieman explained, "add a nautical note to my swimming pools that no amount of landscaping has been able to achieve."

The 38-year-old Katieman parleyed a string of parking lots into a ranch, and from the cattle business he matriculated into hotel ownership.

"Owning cattle taught me to be an unafraid spender," he said. "I spend $24,000 weekly for talent at my two Las Vegas establishments. On my present trip to Broadway, I signed $150,000 worth of contracts with stars in one afternoon, contracts with Joe E. Lewis, Hildegarde, Sophie Tucker, Harry Richmond, Rudy Vallee, Carmen Miranda and others. Operating those clubs in Nevada I do big money business, but I have to come to Broadway to get the talent I need to bring in that big money."

Katieman has a good understanding of show business. When he booked Hildegarde, he realized he had a top name. So overnight he had an extra crew of carpenters and decorators come in and double the size of his El Rancho Room. With those decoration costs and Hildegarde's salary, he could see that he had slim chance of making a profit. But he felt he would reap returns after Hildegarde had returned to Broadway and, again, when she returned to Las Vegas.

When Joe E. Lewis, who is now starring at New York's Copacabana Club, was playing at El Rancho, Katieman had a slot machine mounted on a float so the comedian could gamble even while swimming. And, as is well known, Lewis is a gambling man. I suspect that Katieman's floating slot machine is probably the only gambling device on which Lewis ever came out winner — or, at least, even.

OTTAWA, Nov. 15 (AP)—Louis Stephen St. Laurent, rounding out his third year as prime minister of Canada, has all the appearances of a man willing to stay on the job for some time to come.

He has given no public hint he intends to leave political life, despite recent unofficial reports he may announce his retirement next spring on his 70th birthday.

Vigorous and hale, the agile, ruddy-cheeked prime minister shows every evidence he likes his job more as the months go by.

St. Laurent, who succeeded the late William Lyon Mackenzie King as leader of the Liberal Party and prime minister in 1948, entered public life just a decade ago as a reluctant political unknown.

Groomed by King as his successor, St. Laurent was elected Liberal leader by a national liberal convention in August, 1948, easily defeating two other leadership candidates.

Since Canada follows the British parliamentary tradition that the prime ministership goes to the leader of the party with the most seats in the Commons, St. Laurent automatically succeeded the ailing King in that office when the latter retired in November, 1948.

Sure Fire Hit

... A hit with healthy and sick alike is the baked custard Mrs. Mayme Reid takes from her refrigerator.

Recipe Winner Makes And Dresses Dolls

Dolls and aprons surrounded Mrs. Mayme Reid, 74 Runnels, this week's Recipe of the Week winner, as she sat talking of her children and her work. Her four children, one daughter and three sons, are scattered throughout the country. Her only grandchild is in Germany with her soldier husband. Dolls and aprons cover the tiny apartment that is Mrs. Reid's home and workshop. Stuffed dolls of every description sit side by side awaiting dresses that, too, are made by Mrs. Reid. Aprons cover every available spot and in the corner are stacks of pot holders. For this is Mrs. Reid's work. She has been making these articles for some 16 years. Staying busy is of primary importance to this week's winner, and she has been a practical nurse for 35 years and is still active in that work. At night, when many persons who live alone are apt to be lonely, Mrs. Reid keeps children. She has had many requests for

Almonds Make Festive Thanksgiving Treats

By CECILY BROWNSTONE
Associated Press Food Editor
Many holiday recipes call for delicious blanched almonds. Almonds in or out of the shell are available in see-through bags; shelled almonds are also on the market in handy six-ounce cans. To blanch the almonds at home just cover them with cold water and bring to a boil over moderate heat; drain at once, press off the skins with thumb and forefinger, and place the nuts on an absorbent towel to dry thoroughly. If you want to halve the almonds, split them with a small sharp knife as soon as you've pressed off their skins and while the nut meats are still warm.

When a recipe calls for "roasted" blanched almonds, put the prepared nut meats in a shallow pan and toss them with a little melted butter or margarine (1 teaspoon to 1 cup of the nuts) and roast in a slow (300 F.) oven, stirring occasionally, for 20 to 25 minutes.

CRISP ALMOND TREATS
Ingredients: 1/4 cup butter or margarine, 1 cup confectioners' sugar, 1 egg yolk, 1/4 teaspoon almond extract, 1 1/4 cups sifted all-purpose flour, whole or split blanched almonds, honey, other cookie decorations (if desired).
Method: Cream butter or margarine and sugar; beat in egg yolk thoroughly. Mix in almond extract and flour. Press through cookie press. Lightly spread an almond (whole or split, depending on size of cookies) with honey and place in the center of each cookie or decorate as desired with almonds, colored candy shot, and candied cherries. Bake on ungreased cookie sheet in hot (400 F.) oven 8 to 10 minutes.

ALMOND COFFEE WREATH
Ingredients: 1 cup milk, 1 cake compressed yeast, 1-3 cup sugar, 1 1/2 teaspoons salt, 1-3 cup melted butter or margarine, 1 egg, 1 teaspoon almond extract, 3/4 cups sifted all-purpose flour, 1-3 cup chopped roasted blanched almonds, 1/4 cup chopped candied fruits, confectioners' sugar frosting.
Method: Scald milk and cool to lukewarm. Stir crumbled yeast, sugar, and salt into milk. Blend in butter or margarine, beaten egg, and almond extract. Stir in half the flour and beat until smooth. Mix in almonds and candied fruits. Stir in remaining flour. Knead lightly on floured board. Place in bowl, cover closely and allow to rise in warm place until doubled in bulk. Punch dough down. Divide into halves. Divide each into three pieces, and shape into long thin rolls. Braid three strands together. Join ends to form ring and place on greased baking sheet. Allow to rise until doubled in bulk.

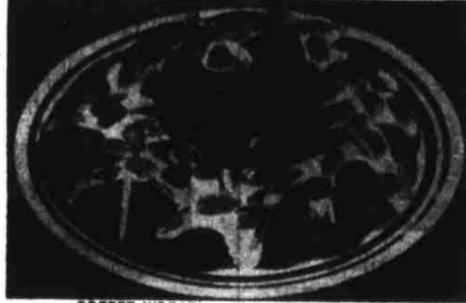

Bake in moderately hot (375 F.) oven 35 to 45 minutes. While warm drizzle a little confectioners' sugar frosting over ring and decorate as desired with extra almonds and pieces of candied fruit.

outside edge and center comes out clean. Remove immediately from hot water and sprinkle custard with nutmeg. Do not cut the baked custard while it is hot or it will separate. If it is cut or spooned do so just before serving. Serve plain or with your favorite sauce or fruit. Serves 6.

To cook fresh tongue cover it with cold water; add one and a half teaspoons salt to each quart of water. Bring to a boil and simmer until tender - it will take from one to one and a half hours. Be sure to allow the tongue to remain in the liquid until it is cool enough to handle; then remove the outer skin.

You Can't Feature Thanksgiving Without Traditional Pumpkin Pie

By CECILY BROWNSTONE
Associated Press Food Editor

Thanksgiving Pumpkin Pie will be as nutritious as can be, and have a rich brown color, if you use nonfat dry milk in it. If the youngsters in your family are too young for a rich pastry under-crust make this special Pumpkin Custard for them. It's a fine dessert, too, for family meals the whole winter long.

SPECIAL PUMPKIN PIE... For Thanksgiving

SPECIAL PUMPKIN PIE
Ingredients: One 9-ounce package pie crust mix or 1 standard pastry recipe, 1/2 cup sugar, 1/4 cup molasses, 1 1/2 cups canned pumpkin, 1/4 teaspoon cinnamon, 1/4 teaspoon nutmeg, 1/4 teaspoon ginger, 1/4 cup nonfat dry milk, 2 tablespoons flour, 1 1/4 cup water, 2 eggs.

Method: Prepare pastry; divide in half. Roll out half on a lightly floured board; line 9-inch pie pan and flute edges. Roll out other half to 1/4-inch thickness; cut out six 2-inch turkeys with cookie cutter or cut around cardboard pattern. Place on ungreased cookie sheet and bake in a hot (425 F.) oven until puffy and golden brown, about 8 minutes. Meanwhile mix sugar, molasses and pumpkin. Mix cinnamon, nutmeg, ginger, nonfat dry milk, and flour together; sprinkle over water and beat with rotary beater until just blended. Beat in eggs lightly. Add to pumpkin mixture; blend well. Pour into un-baked pie shell. Bake in a hot (425 F.) oven 15 minutes. Reduce heat to moderate (350 F.) and bake until crust is lightly browned and a sharp-pointed knife inserted near the center comes out clean, about 35 minutes. Cool. Garnish with baked pastry turkeys.

SPECIAL PUMPKIN CUSTARD
Ingredients: 1/4 cup sugar, 2 tablespoons molasses, 1 cup canned pumpkin, 1/4 cup water, 1/4 cup nonfat dry milk, 1 tablespoon flour, 1/4 teaspoon cinnamon,

1/4 teaspoon cloves, 1/4 teaspoon nutmeg, 1/4 teaspoon ginger, 1 egg, 4 tablespoons chopped nut meats (if desired).

Method: Mix together sugar, molasses, and pumpkin. Pour water into small bowl. Sprinkle nonfat dry milk, flour, and spices over surface of water; beat with rotary beater until well blended; stir into pumpkin mixture. Beat egg slightly, add and blend well. Pour into lightly buttered custard cups. Place cups in baking pan about 2 or 2 1/2 inches deep. Put in oven preheated to 325 F. and pour hot water around cups to depth of 1 inch. Bake until a sharp-pointed knife inserted into center comes out clean, about 40 minutes. As soon as custard is baked, remove from water bath. Serve cold; garnish with nut meats if desired. Makes 4 servings.

Cranberry Relishes Add To Meal Variety

Fresh cranberry sauce with turkey—that's a combination hard to beat. But if you've never tried cranberry relishes with your turkey dinner—there's a treat in store for you. Here are three quick and easy relish recipes—they require no cooking—just chop, mix, chill and eat—to your heart's content. And there's no need to wait until holiday time, either, because fresh cranberries are on the market as early as September.

Cranberry Orange Marmalade Relish
(Makes about 1 pint)
2 cups fresh cranberries
1 lemon, quartered and seeded
1 carrot, scraped
1/4 cup orange marmalade
Put cranberries, lemon and carrot through food chopper using coarse blade. Stir in marmalade. Allow mixture to blend, in refrigerator, for 2 hours before serving.

Cranberry Horseradish Relish
(Makes about 1 1/2 cups)
2 cups fresh cranberries
1 large apple, pared
1/4 teaspoon salt
2 1/2 tablespoons prepared horseradish
Coarsely chop cranberries and apple. Sprinkle with salt. Add 2 1/2 tablespoons horseradish, depending on taste. Chill several hours before serving.

Super Cranberry Relish
(Makes about 4 cups)
2 cups chopped fresh cranberries
1-1 1/2 cups well-drained pineapple tidbits
1/4 cup sugar
1 cup moist shredded coconut
1 cup shredded toasted almonds
Place ingredients in a bowl. Mix lightly with a fork. Chill thoroughly. Serve with poultry.

Old Way Still Best For Roasting Turkey

During the Thanksgiving and Christmas season last year there seemed to be some confusion as to the proper method of roasting turkey.

A series of experiments conducted were by meat packing companies to test the different methods from the standpoint of greater acceptability of the finished product and greater ease for the homemaker.

Since none of the special roasting techniques seemed to give consistently better eating qualities, the merits of any roasting technique should be judged on the ease of roasting and handling. Roasting breast side down seemed to add a factor of handling which could prove difficult to the woman in the home. Roasting birds wrapped in aluminum foil did eliminate all need for basting. However, additional work was necessary in wrapping and removal of the foil and a less desirable gravy was obtained from this method.

From this standpoint we can see no reason for modification of the standard procedure for roasting turkeys, which is as follows:

Thaw frozen bird. Wash, stuff, and truss the bird. Insert a roast meat thermometer between the thigh and the body to test for doneness. (This area requires the longest time to cook.) Place the turkey breast side up on a rack in an open pan. Do not cover. Do not add water. Dip a piece of cheesecloth or thin, coarse muslin in melted shortening and place over the turkey. This prevents too rapid and uneven browning. Roast in a slow oven (325 degrees F.) for the smaller birds (8 to 17 pounds) and a very slow oven (300 degrees F.) for the larger birds (18 to 25 pounds). If the cloth dries during the roasting, spoon pan drippings over the cloth to moisten. Roast to an internal temperature of 190 degrees F. At this stage, the drumstick can be moved up and down easily. Moreover, the meat should feel very soft when the thickest part of the drumstick is pressed between two fingers (protected with cloth or paper).

Indications are that it is necessary to conduct tests to answer questions as to how early turkey may be stuffed before roasting. It is known that stuffings made of bread or other starch food may become a medium for the growth of harmful organisms if the stuffing remains for some time in the incubation zone of 50 degrees to 120 degrees F., or if the stuffing is not heated to a high enough degree to destroy organisms.

Preliminary tests indicate the following precautions in preparing a fresh or frozen turkey:

Keep the cleaned bird and the stuffing refrigerated until time for roasting; then stuff and roast.

After serving, remove the stuffing from the cavities and refrigerate both bird and stuffing.

Reheat only that portion of stuffing that is to be used.

Use the stuffing within four days.

It may prove more satisfactory to roast the unstuffed bird and bake the stuffing in a separate pan.

Following are precautions for preparing turkeys for holding in a home freezer:

Do not stuff the bird before freezing. Salt in the cavity of the bird and in the stuffing increases the development of rancidity in the turkey. Stuffing inside the cavity of the bird considerably increases the bulk and hence is frozen or thawed last. During both the freezing and thawing periods the stuffing is held for a considerable period at temperatures ideal for the incubation of bacteria. If you wish to make the stuffing in advance, freeze it separately.

IN MEXICAN VILLAGE

UN Experiment Is Training Teachers

PLATECUARO, Mexico, Nov. 15. —The first United Nations experiment to train teachers to help primitive peoples find a better way of life is underway in this village. Teachers from nine Western Hemisphere countries are learning by doing. Their experience comes, not from textbooks, but by actually working with villagers in the solution of community problems in this impoverished section of Mexico. When they complete their training in two years, they will return to their own Latin-American countries to set up similar programs and train others for the work. The natives, poor and mostly uneducated, have to be shown. The idea is to show them the way to improve their lot and then let them go ahead on their own. This workshop in improvement of community living, sponsored by UNESCO, embraces 19 villages within a six-mile radius of Platecuaro. The 13,000 villagers in the area include island inhabitants, lakeside dwellers and some that live back in the hills. The teachers, divided in teams of five, spend the first three days of each week in the villages; the next three are spent in seminars and lectures on teaching methods. To help gain the confidence of the villagers the team leader is a Mexican. Other team members are specialists in social work, recreation, social education and farming. They work with the housewife, the children, the local teacher and the farmer. Gaining confidence is the first and sometimes the toughest assignment. The village of San Gregorio is a good example. It was only after the local herb doctor failed to cure those who came down with a fever that the people turned to the "foreigner" for aid. A Peruvian doctor brought the fever under control by having the villagers boil their drinking water. There followed such innovations in the village as a nursery for vegetables to get an earlier crop, experimentation with new types of wheat seeds, paving of the main street and forming a women's group to exchange household ideas. At first the leaders of the regional center for fundamental education in Latin America, official name of the teacher-training program, sent books to the villagers. The only trouble was nobody read them.

Consumer Education Done By Post-Card

By JANE EADS
WASHINGTON, Nov. 15. (AP)—Mrs. Gilbert Loeb, energetic young Waterville, Me., housewife and clubwoman, is conducting a one-woman nationwide postcard consumer education campaign. It's part of a plan she devised as chairman of the General Federation of Women's Clubs' (GFWC) Consumer Division. However, she is willing to send her postcard tips to anyone interested, clubwoman or not. "The consumer's problems are much the same at any time, but because we are in a defense economy they are aggravated, and we are trying to help slow up inflation," Mrs. Loeb said on a visit to Washington. Wife of the physical education and athletic director of Colby College, Waterville, and mother of a son, Stephen 12, she began sending out postcards to state GFWC presidents and consumer chairmen last September. She says she strives for an "impartial viewpoint," glean information from administration releases and pamphlets, reads all magazine articles touching on consumer interests and talks to people everywhere. She has access to other sources of information since she is her state's milk commissioner and president of the Maine Women's Legislative Council. She is also a member of the National Consumer's Advisory Board and the National Consumer and Retailer Council. She hopes to mail out the postcards every six weeks. On her cards she discusses the Department of Agriculture's list of best buys, advises consumer on time management in their homes, tries to interest them in understanding legislation applicable to consumer problems and stresses the importance of grades and labels as shopping guides. She tells women that if they will need items of clothing within the next few months now is the time to buy. "Large inventories have forced prices down on clothing for a short time," she writes. "Buy only what is necessary, shun hoarding, reduce credit buying. By doing this together, we can lick the enemy." Mrs. Loeb says she got 300 requests for her last postcard but this number is increasing rapidly.

Old-Time Collegian Reads More Books

CINCINNATI, Nov. 15. (AP)—Rutherford B. Hayes, 19th U. S. President, had it all over the modern college boy when it came to reading books, according to Wyman W. Parker, University of Cincinnati librarian. Today, Joe College reads 5.8 books a year outside of his classroom assignments. Hayes read 36 books a year during his 1838-42 undergraduate days at Kenyon College, Gambier, O. Of course today's collegian has more distractions like radio, television, automobiles and coeds. Hayes qualified as a campus bookworm even for those days. According to the record of his library withdrawals, Hayes liked history, biography, fiction, poetry and drama. His later work as chairman of the Joint Library Committee of Congress helped make the Library of Congress the world's largest library. The Flamingo, a $50,000 added mile and an eighth feature for 3-year-olds will be held at Hialeah next March 1.
