UN Steering Group Snubs Russian Bid To Seat Reds

By FRANCES W. CARPENTER PARIS, Nov. 10. (U-A) A 14-nation steering committee today snubbed Russia's renewed bid to seat Red China in the United Nations. Over seated Russian objections, the committee approved an American-backed plan to bar debate on the subject in the current General Assembly.

It was the first time the steering committee had approved a gag on a major issue. Many delegates felt it useless to discuss the seating of Red China further while Communist Chinese troops are shooting U. N. soldiers in Korea and stalling in truce talks.

Delegates of eleven nations — the United States, Britain, France, Nationalist China, Norway, Thailand, Chile, Mexico, Dominican Republic, Iraq and Canada — voted for the ban. The Soviet Union and Poland voted against it. Yugoslavia, the 14th member, abstained.

The decision will go next week to the 60-nation General Assembly, where it is expected to be ratified after another blast from the Russians.

The committee also recommended: 1. Assembly consideration for Yugoslavia's complaint of "hostile acts" by Russia against Premier Marshal Tito's government. The vote was 12 to 2 (Russia and Poland). It came after a furious assault by the Soviet Bloc delegates on the "Tito clique."

2. A full airing of the Western

Big Three proposal for arms limitation and reduction, which formed a key part of President Truman's peace plan broadcast last Wednesday night. There was no debate.

Also a full debate on the Soviet peace package calling for a world-wide disarmament conference, for a cease-fire in Korea now and withdrawal of all foreign troops in three months, and for a Big Five peace pact.

The Soviet item was passed on to the assembly without a vote after U. S. Delegate Warren R. Austin demanded the right to reply in the political committee to what he said were mistakes in Vishinsky's speech on the U. N. plan for atomic energy control.

Paris, Nov. 10. (U-A) The Western Big Three and Turkey laid down the blueprint for a Middle East defense command today and told the countries of that area they will have to join to get help in defending themselves against an aggressor.

So far, Egypt and most of the other nations have, for various reasons, turned up their noses at the whole scheme to insulate that strategic region of 70 million persons and more than a million square miles against the threat of Communist aggression.

Another Damage Suit Results From Bus-Truck Crash

Another damage suit has developed from a bus-truck crash which occurred last July 16 about seven miles east of Coahoma.

The plaintiff is Frank J. Kilzer Jr., who is seeking damages totaling over $80,000. In his petition, Kilzer, of Chicago, Ill., said that he was a passenger on the bus and suffered a leg injury which required an amputation.

The bus company, owners of two trucks involved, as well as drivers of the three vehicles, are included in the action, which is styled Frank J. Kilzer Jr., vs. Southwestern Greyhound Lines, Inc., et al. Representing Kilzer are the law firms of Thomas and Thomas of Big Spring, and Hall, Catlin and Molloy of Tucson, Ariz.

Vishinsky said the Americans do not want to prohibit atomic bombs. Austin said the Americans favor the U. N. plan and it specifically calls for prohibition of the bombs after controls are set up.

The committee is made up of the assembly president, the seven vice presidents, including all the so-called big five powers, and the chairmen of the six big committees. It can only recommend action to the full assembly. However, its decisions are seldom overturned.

The assembly did not meet today. It will convene again Monday to hear British Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden and other chief delegates in the continuing general debate.

The statement said the MEC's "continuing objective" would be to improve the defenses so the Middle East nations themselves could take over more and more of the "peace-time role" of defending themselves.

The command will be set up to "assist and support" only those states willing to join in. The same condition was placed on the shipment of arms and equipment to "states in the area willing to join in its defense."

A special meeting of members of the Arab league in Paris tonight to try to work out a common policy toward the new Middle East Command was called off without explanation.

It was learned that Iraq's elder statesman and premier, Nuri al Said Fasha, was attempting to persuade his colleagues to join the command.

Considerable sentiment already prevails among some Arab leaders to go along with the command system.

But the Syrian cabinet of Premier Hassan el Hakeem resigned Friday because an internal dispute over the defense pact.

El Hakeem later announced he felt Syria would benefit by joining. Huge crowds of Syrians, however, demonstrated against the pact in Damascus.

The area involved in the Middle East Command stretches from the headwaters of the Nile to the Bosphorus, and from the tip of the Arabian peninsula to the fertile crescent of Biblical renown in the upper reaches of the Tigris and Euphrates rivers.

The countries involved are Turkey, Lebanon, Syria, Iran, Jordan, Israel, the Island of Cyprus, Saudi Arabia, Yemen and Egypt and Sudan.

RAYBURN TO SPEAK

"Party Loyalty" Is Set For Governors

By DON WHITEHEAD HOT SPRINGS, Ark., Nov. 10. (U-A) Arkansas' young Democratic Governor Sid McMath tossed the issue of "party loyalty" into the Southern Governors Conference today with a move putting Dixie's anti-Truman leaders on an embarrassing spot.

This political maneuver was engineered by the 38-year-old governor who, is one of the few outspoken Truman supporters among the Southern governors opening their annual meeting here Sunday.

The conference has been billed as a meeting in which the President's Southern political foes, including Gov. James Byrnes of South Carolina, may seek to line up opposition against Mr. Truman if he runs for the Presidency again next year.

But McMath has arranged for the main conference address Monday night to be delivered by a staunch party-line Democrat — House Speaker Sam Rayburn of Texas.

Rayburn is reported to be preparing an address which will call for the South's leaders to fall in behind the party's Presidential nominee—whether he is President Truman or someone else.

Persons close to McMath say Rayburn will lay the loyalty issue on the line as one of a series of anti-Truman moves to block any anti-Truman revolt which would split the South as it was three years ago.

The conference chairman is Governor Fielding Wright of Mississippi who ran in 1948 as a vice presidential candidate on the States' Rights (Dixiecrat) ticket. Wright is among the Southern group bitterly opposed to Mr. Truman's re-nomination.

But McMath was able to bring the loyalty issue before the conference because he is host to the visiting governors — and thus in a position to select the principal speaker.

The governors will assemble Sunday for an informal reception and buffet supper and then get down to business Monday with a discussion of regional educational problems.

The conference will close Tuesday after a round table discussion on the operation of state institutions. Politics and the South's stand in next year's presidential election are expected to be the main topics around whom the anti-Truman of conversation between business Southerners have been rallying in meetings. Particular interest is their talk of a revolt against a centered on Governor Byrnes, Truman nomination.

Big Three, Turkey Offer Mid East Defense Plan

Rites Set For Man Found Dead

Last rites probably will be conducted Monday for a man found dead in a freight car last Monday morning.

The man is believed to be Walter Laskey (or Lasecki) of Detroit, Mich., and Tempe, Ariz.

Repeated attempts to locate relatives of the man met with no success, according to Justice of the Peace W. O. Leonard. A man named Dan Wisner of Tempe, who said Laskey had worked for him at one time, notified local authorities that he knew of no relatives.

Investigating officers here theorized that the man probably had come originally from Detroit. Papers found on his person indicated that he had been in Tempe for the past eight years, and that he had recently been to Detroit searching for relatives. The name Walter J. Laskey was on the papers.

However, FBI files showed that his fingerprints were identical to those of a Joseph Walter Lasecki, who was born in Detroit. The FBI listing stemmed from a routine fingerprinting at Tempe, Ariz., following conviction on a misdemeanor in 1942.

Permits Required In Food Handling

Permits are required for food handling businesses as well as for individual food handlers.

Dr. F. E. Sadler, director of the Midland-Ector-Howard health unit, issued this reminder Saturday. He noted that several food handling businesses had opened here recently without the formality of having secured a permit from the Health Department.

The law requires that the permit must be issued first, he reminded. Dr. Sadler urged that those who plan on opening such businesses apply to Lige Fox, sanitarian for the Big Spring-Howard county division of the unit, for the permits.

Don. W. Seale Ex-Resident, Is Dead In Kansas

Don W. Seale, for several years a resident of Big Spring, died Friday of a heart attack in a hotel in Topeka, Kansas. He was 42.

Seale had recently been named a field representative of the Chicago regional office of Rent Stabilization, and went to Topeka Wednesday to assist in setting up a rent control office. He complained of feeling ill Thursday night, worse Friday morning, a physician was called. Seale succumbed while the doctor was with him.

The Seales for the past two years had lived in Denver, and he had just recently been given a promotion from the Rent office there to the Chicago office. Mrs. Seale and their two sons, Raymond and Charles, had not yet moved from Denver, and friends here were advised of Mr. Seale's passing by messages from her.

Mr. Seale came here in the mid 30's, and was employed for several years in the state comptroller's tax office here. He entered the Naval service from Big Spring, and after his discharge was in charge of the rent control office here. When it closed, he went briefly to Springfield, Mo., and then to Denver.

Mrs. Seale advised friends here that services will be held probably Tuesday, from the Capitol Mortuary in Denver, and burial will be in that city.

Besides the wife and sons, 10 and 7, Seale is survived by his mother, a resident of Giddings, Texas, and two brothers, both residing in Colorado. Mrs. Seale's mother and sister reside also in Denver.

HEARING CONCLUDED

KTXC Matter Will Go To Washington

Next phase of the radio station KTXC license matter will be determined in Washington.

Paul A. Walker, vice chairman of the Federal Communications Commission, concluded a hearing here Friday afternoon and instructed attorneys to present briefs for the commission in Washington January 15.

Presumably, a full commission order will be entered after that time, upon the examiner's recommendation.

At issue is the renewal of the KTXC license, held up by the FCC pending an investigation into allegations of irregularities in ownership reports. Also at issue is a construction permit for station KFST, Fort Stockton, which once had such a permit and then had it revoked because of affiliation with the Big Spring matter.

KTXC is owned and operated by Big State Broadcasting Company, which also proposes to run the Fort Stockton station. Stockholders are V. T. Anderson, Clyde E. Thomas and George T. Thomas, Big Spring, and E. W. Anderson, Dallas.

What the FCC delved into, basically, was that KTXC originally was licensed to Leonard R. Lyon, now of Chickasha, Okla., and that Lyon subsequently entered into a partnership agreement with the Andersons which was not properly reported to the commission. An outgrowth of the partnership was the formation, later, of the corporation.

Testimony during a three and a half day hearing here brought the following major evidence: Lyon filed for a station permit in his own name, in October, 1948. He came back to Big Spring in the spring of 1949, dickered with various people as to financing the station, and on April 22 of that year entered into a partnership arrangement with the Andersons. They advanced the money to get KTXC built, after a construction permit was issued May 6, to Lyon.

In the summer of 1949, the partnership agreement was replaced with the incorporation of Big State, and the Thomas purchased some of the stock. KTXC went on the air September 12, 1949, an application was filed in November of that year to transfer the license from Lyon to the corporation.

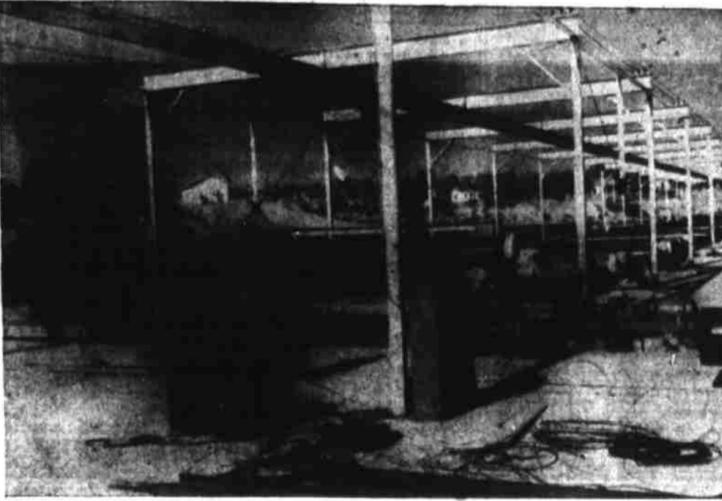

Meanwhile, a partnership composed of the five men applied in January, 1950, for the Fort Stockton license, and a construction permit was granted the following April. This subsequently was changed to a 4-way partnership, eliminating Lyon.

In October, 1950, Lyon resigned from the setup, including his official post as secretary-treasurer of the corporation, and his job as KTXC manager. Subsequently the Andersons filed suit against him for collection of a $2,840 debt, and acquired his stock in the corporation by garnishment to satisfy the judgment. Shortly afterward, the previous transactions were unburdened to the FCC in a letter from Lyon.

The commission ordered an investigation, which was postponed several times, and revoked the construction permit at Fort Stockton, where work was well under way.

Commission attorneys handling the investigation here contended that the April, 1949, partnership agreement should have been reported and application of transfer of license filed, and that the failure to do so represented violation of FCC regulations on proper statement of ownership. Attorneys for the Andersons and Big State contended, on the other hand, that the Andersons merely had loaned Lyon the money to run the station, that he was supposed to repay this and furnish some money, which he did not do; and that operation of the station, formulation of its policies and responsibility for its FCC reports belonged to Lyon, up until the time the corporation formally became owner-operator of the station.

Witnesses before Commissioner Walker admitted reports to the commission should have been made. Some testimony cited unfamiliarity with FCC rules; some pointed out that the principals were anxious to get the station on the air and felt that new applications would represent a delay; some acknowledged that the Andersons wanted to protect an investment of some $16,000 that had gone into the deal.

Pipe Factory In Production

The United Concrete Pipe Company's factory here is now in production. Last week the first finished pipe came off the line and is now in the process of curing. In another week first deliveries may be made. Above, 30-foot section of 27-inch pipe, having been tested and lined with concrete, are put on the prestress machine. It winds heavy wire around the steel tube before it goes to the shot coater for final exterior concrete application.

Within another week, the material will be ready for movement to Odessa where it will become the first unit of the 90-mile pipeline from that city to the Colorado lake in Southwestern Scurry county.

TEXAS BRANDS

MILKIN

By JOHN M. HENDRIX

Probably the prize big brand of the entire collection was that given by F. R. Milliken, who gave his post office as Weatherford, Texas, and his ranch on the Brazos River in Parker County, when he burned a synopsis of his entire name, MILKIN, on his cattle.

Even at this late date there is no doubt that Mr. Milliken readily recognized his cattle as did others who saw them. We are of the opinion, however, that Mr. Milliken must have dealt with big steers for the calves of that day or this either could hardly accommodate his brand of such proportion.

Already, right-of-way on the initial six miles of the west end of the line is being cleared. In about 10 days, heavy equipment may be moved in to begin the actual ditching and laying operations.

By that time, the factory here will be averaging 1,000 feet of steel and concrete pipe per day. The steel fabricating units of the factory have stockpiled more than 400 "cans," the term used for the 30-foot lengths of welded steel tube with bell and spigot ends.

Kinks are being eased out of production elsewhere. Crews are press re-testing the "cans," spinning a concrete lining for the pipe interior, then re-enforcing the exterior with heavy steel wire. From this point, the pipe goes to the shot coat machine for final application of concrete on the exterior.

Initial pipe was produced on Wednesday. Prior to that some had been put through the line, but it was experimental to test the processes. One of the problems has

SENATORS CHARGE

Egg Problem Cause Of Wasted Men

By JOE HALL

WASHINGTON, Nov. 10. (AP)—The Senate Preparedness Subcommittee said today there has been a "serious waste of manpower and money" because of "an entire lack of cooperation between the Departments of Agriculture and the Army."

This lack has been shown most pointedly, the Subcommittee said, in the Army's procurement of dried eggs and in duplicate inspection of poultry.

The group, a subcommittee of the Senate Armed Services Committee, urged the departments to get together at once on their specifications so that the armed services can try to make use of government-owned surplus stocks.

It also told the Agriculture and Army Departments to submit within 30 days a plan for elimination of duplicate inspection and grading.

The Subcommittee, with seven members headed by Senator Lyndon Johnson (D-Tex.), was set up shortly after the Korean War broke out to keep a watchful eye on the mobilization program.

The group said the dried egg problem burst into the open early this year with charges that the armed forces were buying the eggs in the open market at a higher price than the Agriculture Department was asking.

However, the Senators also found that the Agriculture Department's specifications for the eggs were lower than those of the Army.

In view of this, the subcommittee agreed that the Army should not have used the government-owned ed eggs. It also agreed that it was impracticable to reprocess the CCC's eggs to meet Army standards because of cost and other factors. The CCC still has about 15 million pounds of them.

"We do not believe that we can recommend that the Army use Agriculture's eggs as is," the report said.

"This does not excuse the failure to prescribe similar specifications so that government stocks of dried eggs would be suitable for military use."

The report also asserted there was unnecessary duplication in inspections and grading of poultry and other meats both by inspectors of the Agriculture Department and members of the Army Veterinary Corps.

The Army advised the Senators that its grading standards were usually higher than the commercial standards applied by the Agriculture Department.

However, the Subcommittee commented that there was no reason why the two departments could not get together on standards.

"It seems, frankly, silly to have two government employees looking at the same chicken or the same piece of meat for practically the same purpose."

Another Fireball Streaks In Sky

ALBUQUERQUE, Nov. 10. (U)—The eighth fireball in 13 days streaked across Southwestern Skies early Saturday, bringing another expert forward with a puzzled "most unusual."

Saturday's fireball was witnessed over Tucumcari, N. M., by city policemen and an airline pilot. Policeman Stanley Flint said the object appeared to him about two-thirds the size of a full moon, viewed from a considerable distance.

At Las Cruces, the astronomer who discovered the planet Pluto in 1930, said the fall was "far from common."

"If it were a meteor shower, such as has occurred in the past, I would not think it so rare," commented Astronomer Clyde Tombaugh.

Tombaugh, engaged in scientific work at White Sands proving ground where most of this nation's experimental rockets are launched, was an astronomer at Lowell Observatory near Flagstaff, Ariz., when he discovered the planet.

The fireballs have been showing themselves during the past two weeks at a rate about 50 times the normal one every three or four months.

Dr. Lincoln La Paz of the University of New Mexico, "I would suspect that the phenomenon is not natural."

La Paz describes the series of tute of Meteoritics, said an incomplete check would indicate the object fell in Southwestern Colorado near Durango. Flint and two other policemen said it had a long, flaming train of red and appeared to drop reddish fragments like a similar fireball he saw Nov. 7, dropped in the Oklahoma City area.

Ector Escapee Is Recaptured

HOUSTON, Nov. 10. (U)—A 22-year-old San Angelo man wanted on charges of car theft and robbing an Ector County deputy returning him for trial, was captured in Pasadena today.

Harris County deputies W. L. Ladish and A. J. Randio arrested Hilton Ward Walters, after several days of watching the Pasadena home where he was believed hiding.

Walters was being returned to Odessa from Coleman on a car theft charge the night of Sept. 25, when he overpowered Ector County Deputy George Bosley.

Officers said the 22-year-old Walters robbed Bosley of his caliber pistol, left the deputy at the side of a road about five miles south of Odessa, and escaped in the e-fleer's car. Robbery by assault charges were then filed against Walters.

Walters is in county jail here awaiting Ector County deputies who are to take him to Odessa to face trial.

day. A duel with "East Dallas specials" ushered Frank Ward, Negro, from this world Saturday night.

A pair of significant markers was passed last week. One was the $3 million level on new construction, which wasn't a record by any means.

Another new industry got into production during the week. United Concrete Pipe company turned out its first finished pipe for the Colorado River Municipal Water District lines.

Dow Chemical company announced that it will test salt water in an abandoned Borden county oil wildcat for magnesium content.

Livestock sales at the Big Spring Livestock Commission company weekly offerings continue to have good volume.

Joseph Edwards, who organized the first pipe in Howard county and was in on the first refinery, has moved to Henrietta.

A dozen members of the Auxiliary conducted the sale, moving their center of solicitation to various points during the day.

State Defends Blast Against Its Security

WASHINGTON, Nov. 10. (U)—The State Department said today that it has ousted 15 Iron Curtain diplomats from the United States in the past three years and has been "vigilant to prevent improper activities" on the part of such diplomats in this country.

This declaration was made in a statement replying to criticism by the Senate's Internal Security Subcommittee in the case of a Czechoslovak military and air attaché here.

The subcommittee said the officer, Col. Oto Biheler, had gathered military information in the United States for more than two years and had made frequent trips in and out of the country even though American intelligence agents had warned of his activities.

The committee said the colonel was recalled to Czechoslovakia last February but that a visa he held would still permit him to return to this country until next February.

On this point, the State Department declared "the last visa issued to him (as military and air attaché here) is no longer valid and he no longer holds the position stated in the visa."

The department denied it ever received any substantiated information that Biheler was spying inside the United States, but indicated it had received reports of questionable activities on his part outside this country.

The statement was issued in a result of which plans he had for trips to Canada and Mexico about a year ago were "frustrated."

No Changes In Operation Are Planned By TSN

FORT WORTH, Nov. 10.—No changes in the operating policy or personnel of Texas State Network are planned as a result of the change in ownership approved Nov. 8 by the Federal Communications Commission in Washington.

Sid Richardson, Fort Worth oilman, became majority stockholder in the Texas State Network, which owns outright four stations in Texas and operates a 19-station chain blanketing all of Texas and parts of New Mexico and Oklahoma.

Richardson, who has owned about one-fifth of TSN stock since the network's organization in 1938, now holds slightly less than 63 per cent as a result of the network's purchase of $877,000 worth of stock held by others.

Cagle, who has been president since 1944, now owns approximately 34 per cent of the stock and the O. R. Dillard family of Wichita Falls, owns about 3 per cent.

The transaction involved redemption and cancellation of a portion of the capital stock of the chain with headquarters here. Conting was purchased from Mrs. Ruth G. Eldson and children of Fort Worth and the estate of the late Charles F. Roesser of Fort Worth.

Poppy Sale Nets $575

Show of poppies Saturday netted approximately $575 for veteran rehabilitation and welfare purposes.

American Legion Auxiliary members, working under Mrs. C. W. Nevens and Mrs. L. H. Steward, conducted the poppy sale in the downtown area.

The count was not final, said Mrs. Steward. Last reports will be in Monday.

"We want to express our appreciation to the people for their splendid cooperation and response," she declared. "This generous support makes possible our work with dependent children of needy veterans and with veterans in hospitals."

A dozen members of the Auxiliary conducted the sale, moving their center of solicitation to various points during the day.

Pilot Burned

Joseph Cannon, 32, (above) test pilot for the Bell Aircraft Corporation, was burned critically when an X-1 experimental rocket plane exploded in the bomb bay of a B-50 Superfortress. Cannon was in the cockpit of the tiny ship, and the B-50 was on the ground. Both airplanes were blown up, but other crew members in the bomber were not injured. The X-1 is the same kind of plane that broke the supersonic barrier. It usually carries liquid oxygen and hydrogen for fuel. (AP Wirephoto).

Man Is Drowned In Lake Colorado City

COLORADO CITY, Nov. 10. (Sp)—Mervin E. Burrow, 28, electrical superintendent for Fischback and Moore Construction Co. was drowned in Lake Colorado City Saturday morning.

Burrow was trying out a new motor on his boat and made a sharp turn, with the boat entering a spin and throwing him into the water.

The boat spun crazily in mid-lake for more than two hours until its fuel ran out.

The accident occurred near Cooper's Cove opposite Charles Wyatt's cottage shortly after 11 a.m.

Wyatt and others put out from shore in an attempt to rescue Burrow. The Colorado City Fire Department was also called to the scene and the body was recovered at noon by Graydon Howell of Colorado City and two unidentified men.

Artificial respiration was applied but to no avail.

Fischback and Moore had been doing construction work at TESCO power plant at the lake.

Burrow was the third fatality this season in the new lake.

Funeral services will be held at First Methodist Church at Hawley with time tentatively set for Monday afternoon.

The Rev. Clifford Trotter, pastor, will officiate. The body will be taken to Hawley early Sunday, and will lie in state at the home of his parents until time for the service.

Burial will be in Hawley cemetery, under direction of Kiker and Son of Colorado City.

Survivors include his widow; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Berlin Burrow of Hawley; his grandmother, Mrs. Roas Burrow of Midland; a brother, Charles Henry Burrow, Centralia, Ill.; four sisters Priscel Marie Buow of Hawley Mrs. L. A. Bryant Jr. Mrs. Ralph Lewis and Mrs. Lowell Cochran all of Abilene.

prolong the armistice negotiations without cost to himself.

This, he said, the Communists will not get, as "we must retain the flexibility of military action without which any immediate solution to other agenda items is problematical."

To do otherwise, he stated, would be to "endanger the security of the Chinese and Korean Reds."

The statement was issued shortly before a new meeting at the Panmunjon conference tent between two-man subcommittees of the United Nations command and the Chinese and Korean Reds.

These subcommittees, after prolonged dispute, had appeared to favor almost the same thing in the way of a buffer zone but remained separated by a chasm of mutual distrust.

Proposals advanced by the Allies and Communist delegates Saturday appeared almost identical. In fact, the Red recommendation looked surprisingly like that made by the United Nations command only five days ago, and rejected at that time by the Reds.

Both proposals provided for: 1—Acceptance of the principle that the present battleline would be the basis for a cease-fire line; 2—A four kilometer (two and one-half miles) wide demilitarized buffer zone across Korea;

Truman's Popularity Dips A Bit In Latest Poll Of Voters

By GEORGE GALLUP Director, American Institute of Public Opinion

PRINCETON, N. J., Nov. 9.—Harry S. Truman's popularity as President has dropped slightly during the past month. Fewer than one-third of voters questioned by the Institute say they like the way he is handling his job as Chief Executive.

The latest figures are: "Do you approve or disapprove of the way Truman is handling his job as President?" Approve . . . . . 29 Pct. Disapprove . . . . . 55 Undecided . . . . . 16

100 Pct. A month ago his popularity in fact stood at 32 per cent, a year ago at 36 per cent, and at the start of his present term of office it was 69 per cent. Institute surveys have recorded his popularity at approximately monthly intervals—when it was high and when it was low.

Voters who disapprove of him in the latest survey give four principal reasons for their opinion: "He's not a big enough man for the job."

"He allows too much graft and corruption in Washington."

"The cost of living and taxes are too high."

"The Korean situation is a mess."

In interpreting today's poll figures readers should bear in mind the following two points: First, the figures are a measure of the President's personal standing with the country and do not reflect the basic strength of the Democratic party.

Second, the President has repeatedly demonstrated his ability to stage political "comebacks."

In his six years in office, Institute surveys have three times shown him successfully pulling out of popularity slumps to win renewed popular esteem.

These occurred in 1947 shortly after the Congressional election of the previous year which proved so disastrous to the Democrats; in 1948 at the time of the presidential election, and again to a lesser extent in 1950.

Mr. Truman's popular appeal to the working man is one of his strongest political assets.

In today's survey voters who had favorable opinions expressed their views in such phrases as: "He really has kept the working man's interest above all else."

"He stands up and fights for the laboring class."

"He's for the poor and against the rich."

Other Truman supporters declared that he is being unfairly and unjustifiably handicapped by Congress:

"He's the victim of circumstances—if Congress gave him a little more co-operation things would be all right."

Other typical laudatory opinions: "He makes mistakes but I don't know anybody around who could do a better job."

"Someday this country will wake up and see that he's one of the greatest Presidents we ever had."

Mr. Truman's popularity with the working man is not as high as it once was, but the following table indicates that the manual worker class is still his main source of strength:

Table with 4 columns: Group, Approve, Disapprove, No opinion. Rows include Bus. & Prof., White-Collar, Farmers, Manual, Workers.

His general popularity slump has come about mainly because only half the rank and file of Democratic voters say they approve of him today, and among persons who regard themselves as independent voters, twice as many disapprove of him as approve his actions.

Among Democrats, 49 per cent today say they like the way he is handling his job. This compares with 53 per cent in a similar Institute survey in September.

Among Independents his support has dropped from 29 per cent in September to 26 per cent in today's survey.

As might be expected, Republicans vote overwhelmingly against him—9-to-1.

The six-year record of Institute surveys on Mr. Truman's popularity shows the following swings in the vote:

Table with 4 columns: Date, Approve, Disapprove, No opinion. Rows include July 1945, Oct. 1946, Mar. 1947, Apr. 1948, Jan. 1949, Jan. 1950, July, Feb. 1951, June, Sept., Today.

Disarmament Plan Lashed By Soviets

MOSCOW, Nov. 10. (U)—The West's disarmament proposal to the United Nations was described in the Soviet press today as a "smoke-screen," and the way it was presented was called a "threat comedy."

It was the first press reaction to the joint American-British-French proposal for a census of the world's arms — including atomic weapons — made two days ago in Paris before the U. N. General Assembly.

"Monitors" in London, however, said Radio Moscow Friday used up 14 1/2 hours of its broadcasting time transmitting repeatedly Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Vishinsky's rejection of the plan.

Said Moscow's Literary Gazette: "Every time the Western diplomats try to lull the vigilance of the peoples they resort to a smoke-screen of peace proposals. This is what happened as the sixth of the General Assembly of the U. N. got underway."

committee men, 37 committeemen, 41 state chairmen and the 25 Republican governors.

Taft's lead over Eisenhower was established firmly among national committee members and state chairmen. Eisenhower was the top heavy choice among governors willing to express an opinion.

Committee members gave Taft 28 votes, state chairmen 12 and two governors came out for him.

Eisenhower got the votes of 10 committee members, six state chairmen and nine governors.

The general's strength with the governors was the same as that registered in a poll of the September conference of the state executives, but Taft appeared to have just some standing with them for he got only two votes instead of the four registered in the earlier canvass.

Taft was a 12 to favorite over Eisenhower among GOP state chairmen willing to express their preference.

Forty-three national committeemen and committeewomen didn't want to take any stand at this time on a presidential candidate. Twenty-three state chairmen also were undecided as were 14 governors.

Taft's votes came from 27 states, nine in the South, eight in the Midwest, four in New England, two in the Far West and four in the East.

Eisenhower got votes from 17 states, including three in the South, five in the Midwest, one in the Far West, six in the East, and two in New England. The general and the Ohio senator shared strength in eight states.

Although Senator Duff (R-Pa) is publicly confident Eisenhower will win, Pennsylvania's national committeeman, G. Mason Orvick, is not so sure.

"I could not tell from General Eisenhower's statements whether or not he is available for the Republican nomination," Orvick said. He added that as of now he isn't "for or against anyone."

In Texas, where Duff just concluded a round of campaigning for Eisenhower, State Chairman O'Quille Bullington said: "I think the general means exactly what he says — he isn't available now. But that won't keep him from being available later on and if he wants the nomination, he'll get it."

Henry Zweifel, national committeeman criticized by Duff during the latter's visit to the state, said he doesn't think Eisenhower will be available. Mrs. Carl G. Stearns, national committeewoman, found it "too early in the game to comment."

Bryan T. James, Louisiana state chairman who favors Taft, said he doesn't think Eisenhower is available.

Valle Vinson, Oklahoma national committeeman, said he believes "even Eisenhower doesn't know for sure if he will be available" but Mrs. Pearl Sayre, committeewoman, and State Chairman Floyd Carrier both thought the general would be running.

Air Travel By Solons Causes Plane Shortage

WASHINGTON, Nov. 10. (U)—So many congressmen are going abroad that the Military Air Transport Service is said to be hard pressed to provide them suitable planes.

In addition, the State Department is reported running short of escort officers.

Approximately 90 House members and 19 Senators now are overseas or are planning official excursions during the current adjournment of Congress. Others completed tours earlier in the year.

Although a few groups chose to travel by ship, most of the lawmakers preferred to go by air, covering a greater amount of territory. Several of the journeys extend around the world.

The Defense Department is finding it a headache to rustle up enough planes of the type usually assigned to CIPS — very important persons — officials say. Practically all insist upon plush, four-engine ships. An exception is one small group planning to leave soon for South America, where many airfields will accommodate only the smaller two-engine jobs.

Warn Drivers Using Synthetic Rubber

CHICAGO, Nov. 10. (U)—The National Safety Council today warned winter drivers to exercise extra care in driving on tires made of warborn cold synthetic rubber.

The Council said winter driving tests with synthetic tires showed they have less effective stop-and-go traction ability on snow and ice and skidding is greater.

Churchill Requests U. S. Financial Aid

LONDON, Nov. 10. (AP)—Prime Minister Winston Churchill broadly suggested Friday night that the United States give the "fullest consideration" to Britain's need for financial help for her rearmament program and her sagging economy.

Lions Close Pact For Production Of Its Minstrel Show

In a return to the pattern which resulted in popularity for the first two shows, the Lions club has closed a contract with Rex Vann for production of its annual minstrel.

Vann, one of the pioneers of the Black Crow routine, directed the first show sponsored by the Lions here four years ago. He returned to repeat a successful production the following year.

The club changed producers the third year out and this year handed it by itself. Club officials secured an open date from Vann between engagements at Harlingen and Amarillo and signed him up.

He is to be here Jan. 21 to start work on the show, which will be booked for Feb. 21-22-23. In addition to costumes which the club has, Vann will bring a wide assortment of his own.

General chairman for the show will be Harold P. Steck, who served as interlocutor for the first three years. Gil Jones, the interlocutor for last year, will repeat in that role. Steck said that the fifth annual show would be in the traditional minstrel cast.

"I feel sure this will not be denied us," Churchill said, speaking at the annual dinner given by the Lord Mayor of London.

As the 76-year-old wartime leader's suggestions were being made, a British treasury official said his government will ask for the first time in 11 months — for fresh dollar aid. One informant estimated Britain would ask for $300 million.

Churchill based his belief that Britain would get American consideration on the fact that his country has provided the principal forward U. S. atomic base.

"It must not be forgotten," he said, "that under the late (Labor) government we took peculiar risks in providing the principal atomic base for the United States in East Anglia (Eastern England), and that in consequence we placed ourselves in the very forefront of Soviet antagonism."

"We have, therefore, every need and every right to seek and receive the fullest consideration from Americans for our point of view, and I feel sure this will not be denied us."

Churchill's reference to Britain as the principal U. S. atomic base pertained to the more than 20,000 American men at air bases spread all over the country. But no British or American official would say whether any atom bombs actually are stored in England.

The Treasury official said the British request for aid would be made to the Financial and Economic Board (FEB) of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization, which is based in Paris. The plea will be for money rather than military goods and equipment, and the official said Britain also expected to share fully in the new $4.8 billion military aid program authorized for Europe by Congress.

The request will be a reversal of the former Labor government's policy, which, after suspending Marshall aid last January, also decided to try to carry out its $13 billion arms drive without American help.

Since then Britain's economy has reached a critical low.

Lofty Spire Into The Sky

A lofty spire into the sky is one thing for the stately First Methodist sanctuary under construction here. Getting it into place was quite another. Local hoisting equipment, with all its extensions, was inadequate. So J. D. Jones, contractor, secured a crane from a Waco fabricating concern. By adding an extension, it was ample to lift the heavy steel frame to its peak height of 105 feet. Hundreds of people stopped to watch what was to them a structural oddity. Meanwhile progress on the church and its educational wing is steady. Most of the masonry work is in and practically all of the steel and concrete frame is complete.

Flu Leads List Of Diseases In The Past Week

Influenza forged to the front among leading causes of communicable diseases here last week.

Reports by physicians to the Big Spring-Howard county health unit office showed 45 cases of flu. This was a big jump from 18 a week ago, which in turn was a substantial increase. Another respiratory infection, pneumonia, accounted for four additional cases.

Although forced into second place, intestinal disorders still were extremely high. There were 41 cases of diarrhea and gastroenteritis, a slight drop from the 50 for the preceding week.

Other reports included one case of polio. The attending physician said that Mrs. R. E. Hagler had suffered partial paralysis of the back but that she had improved to the point that this had been reduced to some muscular weakness. There appeared to be no serious involvement.

There were six cases of tonsillitis, four each of gonorrhea and chicken pox, two measles, one scarlet fever.

Another Fight Looms Over Gathering Tax

AUSTIN, Nov. 10. (AP)—Another round in the fight over who shall pay the state gas gathering tax is expected at an executive committee meeting of the Texas Independent Producers and Royalty Owners Association in San Angelo Tuesday.

Association President R. L. Force of Dallas said the time has come for TIPRO to map a campaign to "help assure legislation which will place the gas tax where it is intended — on the interstate pipe-

SET NOV. 20TH Fourteen Entries For Yule Parade

Fourteen entries for Big Spring's "Storybook" Christmas parade have been received by Cecil Thixton, general parade chairman.

The event is set for Nov. 20. With Santa Claus as an honored guest, the parade will highlight the chamber of commerce sponsored Christmas program which annually opens the Christmas shopping season in the city.

In addition to the parade which will begin at 5 p. m., the program also includes "presentation of Santa," a program of Christmas carols by the High School chorus, and the annual store window treasure hunt.

The traditional courthouse lawn Christmas tree lights will be switched on, as well as the new metallic street decorations. Santa Claus will be presented to the crowd at the Christmas tree following the parade.

At 6 p. m. the store window treasure hunt will begin with hundreds of gifts displayed in business houses throughout the downtown area and various community shopping areas of the city.

The program is sponsored each year by the Retail Merchants Committee of the Big Spring chamber of commerce. Mr. C. Grigsby is chairman of the group. Other committee heads are Mrs. H. H. Rutherford, parade theme; C. M. Deal, sponsor; and Gilbert Gibbs and R. W. Bates, finance.

Nine of the parade entries received to date are from Big Spring schools, with others coming from neighboring communities.

The entries include: North Ward school, Mother Goose; Central Ward, Three Pigs; South Ward, Three Bears; East Ward, Alice in

Wonderland; College Heights, Robin Hood; West Ward, Hansel and Gretel; Kate Morrison, Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs; Lakeview, Uncle Remus; Airport, Treasure Island; Gay Hill, Little Red Riding

Hood; Coahoma, Old Woman in a Shoe; Ackerly, Cinderella; Midway, Peter Pumpkin Eater.

Cauble school also has announced an entry but has no subject assignment.

Prizes totalling $165 will be awarded four place winners. Entries are limited to school and club groups.

Treasure Hunt tickets will be distributed through Big Spring stores beginning Nov. 15, when merchants will display their gifts.

Wheat Crop For Next Year Is Off To A Good Start In Most Sections Of The U. S.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 10. (AP)—Next year's vital wheat crop — for which the government has set a goal of about 1.15 billion bushels — is getting off to a favorable start in most sections of the country.

This outlook was reported by the Agriculture Department in a crop survey Friday which said aggregate crop production this year will be the third largest of record despite declines in some crops during October.

Only in 1948 and 1949 was production larger.

The Department said that by the end of October, winter wheat seeding was nearly completed in most areas, although wet weather in eastern parts of Washington and Oregon and in Minnesota, and dry weather in parts of the Atlantic States, the South and Southwest had retarded operations.

Early sown fields of winter wheat and rye were said to show good stands.

This year's corn crop is now estimated at 3.08 billion bushels about 17 million less than a month earlier. It compares with 3.13 billion bushels produced last year and 2.9 billion for the 10-year average.

Production estimates compared to a month ago are down slightly on buckwheat, rice, potatoes, dry beans, peanuts, broomcorn, apples and pears. Estimates are higher for soy beans, tobacco, sorghum grain, sugar beets, sweet potatoes and pecans.

New Mexico Test Looms As Strong Wolfcamp Strike

The Wilshire Oil Company, Inc. appears to be assured of a flowing Wolfcamp discovery in its No. 1 Townsend, central eastern Lea county, New Mexico wildcat located 6 1/2 miles west of Loving. A drillstem was taken from 10-125-480 with the tool open four hours and 35 minutes. Gas surfaced in five minutes, mud in 40, oil in 44. Oil flowed the remainder of the test at the estimated rate of 30-40 barrels per hour. There was no formation water, and gravity was 38.5. Operator used a 5-8 bottomhole and one-inch top choke. Open flowing pressure was 50-225 at surface, initial bottomhole pressure at 1,000 and maximum bottomhole pressure 1,450. Final flowing pressure was 1,275 and the 30 minute shut-in pressure 3,500. Final recovery, when reversed, was 1,410 feet of free 36.8 gravity oil. Total depth of 10,480 is still in the pay, which is 100 per cent lime and showing 40 per cent flour-escence. Operator will deepen. Previous production possibilities were shown in the top of the Wolfcamp a week ago when a seven-hour drillstem test was taken from 10-185-211. Gas surfaced in 19 minutes and oil sprayed in 30 and continued to spray for remainder of the test. Recovery was 990 feet of 36.1 gravity oil, 355 feet of oil and gas-cut mud. Location is 660 from the south and east lines of section 4-165-35E, and 17 miles southwest of the multipay Denton field.

Caverns, Abandoned Mine Seen As Oil Cache Sites

WASHINGTON, Nov. 10. (AP)—Oil experts have assured the government that it's entirely possible—and may be wise—to store large quantities of petroleum products, including liquefied petroleum gases, in giant underground caverns.

Such storage, the National Petroleum Council says in a report prepared for the department of interior, would protect petroleum supplies from possible enemy attack, and afford considerable savings in manpower and steel normally used in preparing tanks above ground.

Both manpower and steel are of vital concern to defense planners in the present emergency.

The interior department had asked the Petroleum Council to make a study of the possibility of development of 100 million barrels of underground storage capacity in or near large market areas.

The council, in its newly-completed report, said that salt formations offer the greatest possibilities for use because artificial caverns can be made in such formations by pumping in fresh water and drawing off the resulting brine.

The report contained maps showing vast underground salt beds in Northwestern Texas, Eastern New Mexico, Oklahoma, Kansas, Michigan, North Carolina, Northern West Virginia, Western Pennsylvania and Southwestern New York, and Salt Domes in Texas, Louisiana, Mississippi and Alabama.

"These formations are reasonably close to areas of large (oil) consumption," the council said. It added that "an incomplete survey of salt mining companies indicates that a considerable amount of storage might be made available by merely rehabilitating existing chambers."

The council said it would make further studies of other types of storage, such as natural caverns.

It is half a mile south of Sand Springs.

HAS SPRABERRY Phillips Office Is In Busiest Sector

Phillips Petroleum company's new district production office has been a busy spot since it opened here in September. With a nest egg of more than 100 producers to look after when the Big Spring district was carved out, C. M. Boles, district superintendent, and his aides had plenty to do. But the territory embraces development in the fabulous Spraberry trend, a fact that has made activities especially lively.

September saw 12 completions in the district, most of them in the Spraberry area of Midland county. Another seven were added in October, and the district staff had the responsibility of watching three others which turned out dry.

Although there are a score of counties in the district, one of four maintained in the Permian Basin area by Phillips, most of the production is in Scurry, Borden, Midland and Glasscock counties. The company has some wells in the Howard-Glasscock area which have been producing for almost a quarter of a century.

Currently, there are 12 to 14 royalties drilling out Phillips leases, virtually all of them under contract. Then there are seven completion rigs which are moved about the area. This activity is compounded by the imponderables about the Spraberry.

New Area In Gaines Yields Clear Fork Pay

Carl J. Westlund, Trustee, et al. No. 1 Ellis Flannagan, central south Gaines exploration 10 miles south of Seminole, has shown for commercial production. It is in an undeveloped area between the Harris and Flannagan pools.

A drillstem test was taken in the upper Clear Fork from 6,350-94 with the tool open 1 1/2 hours. Recovery was 45 feet of oil cut mud, 675 feet of clean oil. Gas surfaced in 40 minutes and gas was blowing strongly at the end of the test. There were no signs of formation water.

Open flowing pressure was 255-1,500 and the shut-in pressure after 15 minutes was 2,425. Operator will deepen and go on to test the lower Clear Fork. Currently it is at 6,422 in lime. The wildcat has shown as a possible discovery in the Giorietta Permian formation between 5,900-6,000. Location is 660 from the south and 1,860 from the west lines of section 10-A-23, PSL.

Borden Test Returns Gas

Standard of Texas No. 1-T. L. Griffin, Hobo field venture in southeast Borden, took a drillstem test from 7,100-23 with the tool open two hours. Recovery was 15 feet of slightly gas cut mud and a trace of oil. Operator deepened past 7,132 and was still in Pennsylvanian lime. Location is C SE SE 47-25, H&TC.

Stanolind No. 1-A Dennis, C NE NE 30-30, T&P, was shut down for repairs at 5,561 in Spraberry sand. When the repairs are made, operator will attempt to complete as the second Spraberry well five miles northeast of Gaff. Alexander No. 1 Garner, C SE SW SE 80-20, LaVaca, bidding as the second producer in the Garner Clear Fork pool, was also halted for rig repairs at 4,830 feet.

Completions Still Leading Last Year

AUSTIN, Nov. 10. (AP)—Completion of 180 oil wells, 15 gas wells and 115 dry holes during the week was reported by the Texas Railroad Commission today. The year's oil well completion total of 9,408 compared with 9,204 a year ago.

Wildcat operators brought in 13 oil wells, no gasers, and 81 a year ago. Plugged wells included 113 dry, 8 gas, and 34 oil wells.

The total average calendar day crude oil allowable as of today was 2,997,437 barrels, up 20,000 from a week ago.

Funeral services were conducted Friday afternoon in Stamford for Chris O. Jones, brother of J. D. Jones of Big Spring. Mr. Jones, 46, had lived in Stamford all of his life, and was a building contractor. He had been in ill health for some time and his condition had been considered serious for about six weeks.

Deep Test Staked In South Mitchell

Mitchell county gained another wildcat in location of the Sun No. 1-A Ellis Beatrice Anderson in the southern edge of the county. It will be 1,980 from the south and 660 from the west lines of section 230-1A, H&TC. Projected depth is 6,900, which should take it to the Pennsylvanian. This venture is 16 1/2 miles northwest of Robert Lee and is a few miles above the north side of the Jameson pool in north Coke.

No Shows In Dawson Test, Is Deepening

Tide Water No. 1 Stokes, C SE NE 3-C-30, PSL, northwest Dawson exploration, took a drillstem test from 12,215-250. The tool was open 45 minutes and there was a weak blow of air throughout the test. Recovery was 270 feet of mud with no shows of oil, gas or water. Operator now is drilling below 12,243 in lime and chert. The formation is not identified.

VFW Officials Set Meeting In Dallas

DALLAS, Nov. 10. (AP)—An estimated 250 veterans of foreign wars officials from five states are expected here for a one-day regional membership meeting Sunday.

SUNFLOWER PAY ADDS PRODUCER

The "celebrated" Sunflower sand in western Colorado City has another producer. Ulysses S. Thompson No. 1 U. S. Thompson, 39 feet from south and 75 from east lines lease lots 42, 43 and 44 in block 1, West Colorado City survey, pumped 24 hours and tested into oil drums. It pumped four drums to rate four barrels of 52-gravity oil per day. Top of pay is 41 feet and total depth 42. There was no gas-oil ratio and no oil string.

Chapin Is First On Cosden Retirement

Louie C. Chapin has punched his last time card for Cosden Petroleum and has become the first employee to retire under the company's new pension plan. The veteran employee took his retirement effective Nov. 1. In his last year of work for the company as a watchman, ill health had dogged Mr. Chapin. Ultimately, he decided he was unable to continue working.

His association with Cosden dated back to 1928 when he came here to help with construction of the first Jenkins still at the refinery. Through the years he held various positions with Cosden. A native of Marietta, Ohio, Mr. Chapin attended schools there and then was in Marietta college for two years. He served in the Spanish-American war and was sergeant with the Toledo Cadets, 121st Infantry. From Toledo, he went to Texas and settled in Beaumont to get on the hectic Spindletop play. Mr. Chapin had the unique experience of working on the first oil well in Texas which was completed as a pumpjack.

Following service in World War I, he worked in Texas and Oklahoma fields and was associated with the oil (Joah S.). Cosden company in wild catting in the Sooner state. His World War I service was at first with the Canadian and then the British forces, with which he served in the Ausseago front in Italy to the end of the conflict. He was married to Bertha Elizabeth Meeks in 1927, and they have their home near the refinery. Under the joint option of the pension plan, which Chapin elected to take, Mrs. Chapin would share in benefits during her lifetime. Cosden stockholders approved an employee pension plan in July 1950, and last year the company set aside its initial contribution of $153,000 in trust with a Dallas bank. Under terms of the plan, employees can retire at one-third of the average earnings of the last five years.

WEEK'S REVIEW

Reagan And Upton Catch Dose Of Spraberry Fever

SAN ANGELO, Nov. 10.—The continuing spread of Spraberry production, with completion of a discovery each in Upton, Reagan and Martin counties, highlighted West Texas oil developments this week. J. H. Williams and others of Midland No. 1 J. D. Merchant estate, Spraberry strike in northern Reagan county, C SE SE 19-ALASV, pumped 80.36 barrels of oil in 24 hours for completion. It had been hydraulically fractured through casing perforations at 6,327 to 6,400 feet. Western Reagan county wildcat, White Eagle No. 2 Ringo, 660 feet out of the southeast corner of section 9-D-1&SV, balled oil from Spraberry sand at 6,470-97 feet, drilled to 6,500 and was erecting storage before hydraulic fracturing.

Six miles north and slightly west, in northeastern Upton county, Goldston Oil Corp. No. 1 B. Sherrod, Spraberry discovery, was finished on the pump for 120 barrels of oil in 24 hours from open hole at 6,829 and 7,132 feet, which had been hydraulically fractured. The well is 660 feet out of the northwest corner of section 19-C-1&SV.

Marking a two-mile east extension to the Driver Spraberry field in Glasscock county, Sinclair No. 1 Joe B. Calverley, C SW SE 31-36-4&T&P, was completed with a daily flowing potential of 247 barrels of oil. Open hole between 6,823 and 6,910 feet had been treated with 4,000 gallons of acid.

Production in the Driver Spraberry was moved 1 1/4 miles southwest by Sharples No. 1-E TXL, C NW NW 43-37-4&T&P, flowing oil at the rate of 551.34 barrels daily from 7,122 and 7,375 feet in open hole.

Asland No. 1 Tant Lindsey, Spraberry discovery in Martin county, in the southwest corner of section 17-B-1&T&P, pumped 11.65 barrels of oil plus 50 per cent water in 24 hours for completion from 7,640 to 8,590 feet in open hole. The section had been hydraulically fractured and acidized.

Wichita-Albany production was developed by a second test in the Nolley (Wolfcamp) field in northeastern Andrews county. Magnolia No. 1 Bertha Nolley flowed 39 1/2 barrels of oil in two hours on a drillstem test from 8,120-60 feet. Porosity was topped 43 feet higher than in Magnolia No. 1 Tom Peay, location northeast, which flowed oil from the Wichita-Albany but was completed in the Wolfcamp No. 1 Nolley in league 7, league 314, Gaines county school land survey.

Discovery from the Grayburg sand of the upper Permian in Crockett county, Otto Eagle and others No. 1 Henry Hall pumped 33.12 barrels of oil in 24 hours for completion. It had been shot with nitroglycerin from 4,689 to 1,781 feet. Location is 330 feet out of the southeast corner of section 52-1-I&GN.

NW Glasscock Explorer Takes Drillstem Test

Phillips No.1 Berry, northwest Glasscock wildcat, took a drillstem test in the top of the Strawn with very slight gas show.

The interval of test was 10,172-190 with the tool open two hours. A 2,000-foot water blanket was used and recovery was 2,000 feet of muddy water blanket slightly gas cut. On top of the Strawn at 10,171 (datum minus 7,527) the prospector is 95 feet high to the Cumberland and Welner No.1-4 Powell, and Ellenburger wildcat across the line in northeastern Midland county. This venture had some slight shows in the Ellenburger which were not produced. The test has been shut in for several months. Phillips No.1 Berry is C NE NW 35-36-2n, T&P.

Magnolia No.1 Bryans, C SE NW 26-35-4n, T&P, took a drillstem test in the Spraberry from 6,330-6,381. The tool was open for an hour and a half and recovery was 30 feet of black mud with no shows. Operator will core.

Mendota Daniels, C SW SW 10-35-5n, T&P, 12 miles southwest of Garden City was at 6,420 cleaning out. It is bottomed at 6,544 in Spraberry.

Phillips No.1-A Cox will be 660 from south and east lines of section 4-36-5n, T&P as a Driver Spraberry location. It will go to 7,000.

In the same area, Sinclair No.1 J.B. Calverley, 660 from south and 1,980 from east lines of lease section 31-36-5n, T&P, flowed 24 hours through two-inch open choke, naturally, to make 247.9 barrels of 36.2 gravity oil. Tubing pressure was 50, gas-oil ratio 658-1; top pay 6,767, total depth 6,910; and 5 1/2-in. at 6,822.

Two Martin Ventures Are Drilling Ahead

Two Martin county ventures were drilling ahead Saturday. Pan-American No. 2 Breedlove, C NE SE 258 Briscoe CSL, 13 miles northwest of Lenora, was below 10,497.

Lea County, N. M., was still in second place with an increase of 10 from 90 to 100 units in action at the latest count, followed by Midland County with 76.

One year ago, as of November 31, there were only 563 rigs in operation in the territory covered by the survey.

The area covered includes all counties south of Amarillo, west of Sweetwater, north of the Rio Grande and east of the west line of Chaves County, N. M.

Other counties included in the Reed survey, with October 15 figures listed first and November 1 figures listed second, were: Andrews, 32-32; Borden, 14-13; Crane, 7-1 8; Ector, 50-48; Gaines, 23-20; Glasscock, 48-47; Howard, 16-15; Kent, 10-10; Martin, 3-3; Pecos, 15-17; Reagan, 27-28; Scurry, 33-30; and Terry, 14-16.

Magnesium Search Revived In Borden

Borden county back in the "magnesium play."

When Dow Chemical company announced Thursday that it was going to test salt brine in an abandoned wildcat test in southern Borden county to ascertain magnesium possibilities, it was not the first time that this possibility had come under study.

It is, however, perhaps the most serious exploration into this field to date. Since the '20s the presence of some unusual quality in salt waters of southern Borden county has been known. A wildcat oil well then developed salt water, some said of artesian force. It was abandoned, but natives noted that the water had an aperient quality. Some swore by its therapeutic quality and later an Oklahoman, who had sent for a few jugs, swore it cured him of his aches and pains.

It was suspected that "ammonium" was present. However, analysis put the finger on magnesium. Because it was reported that some analysis showed up to three per cent of the light metallic substance was in some samples, speculation arose about possibility of recovering it from the brine. In 1943 a Monahan mining concern sunk test wells. There was talk of a plant here, requiring some three million feet of gas per day to operate, to turn out the feathery metal for war purposes. The idea faded away.

Magnesium is produced principally from sea water which ranges around 14 of one per cent of the substance. Dow produces it at its Freeport plant on the Texas Gulf coast. Dow will drill out the abandoned wildcat, Texas No.1 J.L. Higginbotham in the southeast quarter of section 5-31-3n, T&P, five miles northeast of the Vealmoor pool. Operator will drill out to 1,530 feet and then test by percolation and evaporation to ascertain the magnesium chloride content.

The salt zone to be tested is in the Yates. Most of the Permian Basin is underlain by a thick salt zone. There are a few plants which are producing hydrochloric acid and caustic soda and some other chemicals. There is, however, no production of magnesium. If the tests in Borden county show magnesium in commercial quantities, a plant will be built in the territory in the near future, it was indicated. Process of recovery is to pump water into the salt zone. The resulting brine, brought to the surface, will be evaporated and tested.

Building Bounces Back Over State

AUSTIN, Nov. 10. (AP)—Texas building bounced back this week. From a low of $5,639,711 last week, it shot up to $25,685,016, the Texas Contractor, construction trade journal, reported today.

Rotary Operations Ease Off Slightly In October

Drilling activity in the areas covered by the Reed Roller Bit Company's semi-monthly survey of November 1 was off slightly from the record 708 operations reported October 15.

November 1 there were 705 rotaries turning and Upton County was still leading all others with 125 projects, one less than its record of 126 rigs 15 days earlier.

Lea County, N. M., was still in second place with an increase of 10 from 90 to 100 units in action at the latest count, followed by Midland County with 76.

One year ago, as of November 31, there were only 563 rigs in operation in the territory covered by the survey.

TOTEM POLE MAKER

Alaskan Indians Have Competition

The Alaskan Indians have a new competitor and they had better look to their totem pole laurels. Postmaster Nat Shick is in the business now and is scheduled to make his first delivery Monday. Although Shick has carved out two other notable totem poles in the past score years as a hobby, this is the first that he has turned these leisure time activity into cash. Monday he plans to deliver a 15-foot beautifully carved and gaily colored pole to Ocie Hunt, Sweetwater insurance and auto loan operator. It cost Hunt $30 a foot for carving, but he considered it a bargain. Shick will help set the pole in the Hunt backyard to show it to best advantage.

How this $450 venture came about is a story within itself. Hunt had been dickered with Alaskan Indians for a long time for a totem pole. Everytime he seemed near a deal, some activity or custom would intervene. Just when it seemed a trade had been made, they sent a communication that the pole would have to wait indefinitely. They were off salmon fishing.

Disappointed, Hunt mentioned it to friends. Someone spoke up and asked: "Why don't you get Nat Shick over at Big Spring to carve you one?" Hunt was on the telephone promptly.

"I don't have any totem poles to sell," Shick told him. The one in his back yard was one of his personal treasures and the one in

MAN HAD BETTER EXCHANGE NAME

SAVANNAH, Ga., Nov. 10. (AP) — John R. Wellbeloved doesn't think he is.

He said his wife, Mrs. Margaret M. Wellbeloved, "fussed, nagged and argued continually," which made life pretty miserable.

It came out in a divorce petition he filed in Superior Court.

Shick started his carving hobby in 1931. He turned out several oddities for his backyard and in 1934 produced his first totem pole. He got hold of a big pole that was removed from the downtown section and in 1939 gave this 30-foot specimen to the city in honor of the Scouts. It is 18-inches at the base and at going prices would be valued at $1,800.

There's no need to bother Shick about more totem poles at the moment. He's been slaving on Hunt's specimen in order to get through in time to work on his Christmas decorations. Thus, this hobby business will have to wait.

Same Old Story As Not Enough Rain Falls Here

As if you didn't know, there wasn't enough rainfall here in October.

The U. S. Department of Commerce Weather Bureau has issued its monthly meteorological summary, and it shows that October was the 13th straight month of below normal precipitation. The .77 inch recorded for the month was .38 inch above that measured for the same month last year, but it still was 1.22 inches below the normal rainfall for the month. That brought the moisture deficiency for the ten months of this year to 6.6 inches.

The normal for the January-October period is 16.37, and actual precipitation has been 9.77.

The past month also was 2.9 degrees above normal, in mean mean temperature was 67.7 degrees with temperatures ranging from a high of 98 to a low of 40, temperature, although the month's norm was 2 degrees cooler than October, 1950. Average monthly the highest happened to have been on the first day of the month, the lowest on the last day.

The Bureau recorded 16 clear days, eight partly cloudy, seven cloudy, and eight days with some precipitation.

National YMCA Week Set; Urge Folks View Activities

With an appeal to people to visit and see activities for themselves, the YMCA is joining this week in the observance of National YMCA Week.

Nationally, the occasion commemorates the 100th anniversary of the founding of the Young Men's Christian Association movement.

Just as the movement has come a long way in a century's time, so has the Big Spring association in its five years of operation. From a humble beginning in rented quarters, it has grown, through generosity of Big Spring and Howard county people, to include a building for YMCA purposes that attracts 2,800 young people monthly.

Mayor George W. Dabney proclaimed Nov. 11-18 as YMCA Week, noting that the "aims and purposes of this noble institution are the stuff in which lies the hope of this nation. If there was ever a time when this country needed Christian citizenship, it is now. If there was ever a time when we ought to be concerned about the mould from which we turn out young people to face the problems of this sometimes baffling and frustrating world, it is now.

"I hope earnestly that our good people will not only take occasion to visit the YMCA here this week, but also to volunteer their services to invest it in helping young people in the Y activities," he said.

One of the newest things to be witnessed this week will be badminton. The Y is to give prizes to those who join in this play during the week. First team organized is composed of Festus McElreath, Marilyn Carpenter, Paul Sheedy, Thelbert Camp.

Other activities include: Tri-Hi-Y, "an organization to promote Christian character in girls of high school age, which has Mrs. Bert Brewer and Jean Hyde as sponsors; the Hi-Y, for boys, with Larry McCullough and Wayne Bonner as sponsors. These meet on Monday evening. Bill Dawes is sponsor of a junior Hi-Y group meeting on Friday evening.

At 5:30 p.m. Monday, Wednesday and Friday, the Businessmen's gym class, led by L. D. Crane, meets. Volley ball is the principal diversion. The girls volleyball class, under Marilyn Carpenter, meets on Thursday evening. The same evening, Harold Broughton meets with a model airplane club. Movies Friday afternoon and Saturday morning are projected by Kim Milling.

The Youth in Government movement in which Hollis Harper, Jeff Hanna, Jim Conley, Robert Merworth, Sandra Swartz, Ann Gray, Libby Jones and Narrell Dean Choate have been sworn in as members of the "Texas State Congress," is working toward the state meeting in Austin on Dec. 14-16. Gil Jones is meeting with the senator, Jeff Hanna, and the representatives to help shape bills for introduction at Austin. District Attorney Erton Gilliland swore the "legislators" in for their practical governmental experience.

Social activities dominate the week ends. Various groups make use of the gym on Friday nights, and on Saturday evenings the High School organization, the Hi-Landers, is responsible for the program under leadership of Joe Bruce Cunningham. Many board members and parents are assisting in supervision of these activities. The Bingham tap dancing classes have nearly two score of youngsters enrolled.

This week the board of directors will hold its meeting at 8:30 p.m. at the Wagon Wheel. Arnold Marshall, president, said. He was anxious for good attendance. Grever Good, executive secretary of the Y, happy ever progress of the program, said that the problem now was to find enough space and hours to accommodate the activities.

The armed forces need for personnel is continuing, it was noted, and the greatest potential source is millions of young women between the ages of 18 and 34.

Weather Makes For Wretched Duck Hunting

By The Associated Press Texas hunters could do with a change from fishing weather to duck hunting weather.

That was the word Saturday as reports of spotty hunting conditions came after Friday's season opener.

Thousands of sportsmen who went after birds in the Corpus Christi area might have had better luck fishing in the warm Gulf.

Corpus Christi reported small bags both days with five-duck or five-geese limits the exception.

At Anahuac, a widely-known haven for the migrating fowl, Guide Sam Hargrove said that out of his party of 40 only three got the limit the first day. He was unable to explain the scarcity.

It was different in Harris county, Brazosport and Galveston, according to a report from Houston. Mallards, Sprigs and Red Heads were reported plentiful.

In Northwest Texas, the balmy weather was on the side of the ducks.

Wichita Falls reported lakes are harboring more ducks than usual, but hunters aren't finding limit kills easy.

The ducks simply are gathering in huge rafts far from the shores of larger lakes.

Hunters fortunate enough to have access to ranch tanks were scoring as seldom before on the season's first week-end, however.

Marshall reported all hunters on Caddo Lake got their limits the first day, but bags were smaller Saturday. Mostly small varieties were killed. No geese were reported shot.

Around San Angelo, no limit kills were reported. The chief reason given was the dearth of water in drought-stricken West Texas.

But hundreds of birds floated, safe from hunters, in water at the San Angelo fish hatcheries.

Geese are fairly plentiful around Wichita Falls. Hunters said there that wheat fields are sufficiently along, despite scarcity of moisture, to assure the geese sticking around awhile.

Oscar Bates, long-time keeper at Lake Kemp, said the lake has the largest concentration of sandhill cranes he has ever seen there.

They are considered a table delicacy but are protected completely by federal law.

Rice Outlasts Arkansas Hogs By 6-0 Count

By WILBUR MARTIN HOUSTON, Nov. 10. (AP)—Rice snatched a 6-0 victory from Arkansas' burly Razorbacks tonight and Billy Burkhalter's goal line plunge made up for nearly 50 minutes of fumbling frustration for the Owls.

Six times the Owls had been in scoring position, but each time fumbles or a granite Arkansas defense had chilled their hopes. And until it looked like their hope to take over second place in the Southwest Conference was going in the same deep freeze.

But in that final two minutes Rice traveled 23 yards and Burkhalter made the last one pay off for the score that puts Rice right behind Texas Christian in the championship chase.

Cal Bears Gain 37-28 Victory

BERKELEY, Calif., Nov. 10. (AP)—California's Bears, coming from behind, scored a 37-28 victory over the Washington Huskies today on a muddy field.

California's All-America guard, Les Richter, kicked a 22-yard field goal in the fourth quarter to put the Bears ahead 30-28. In the last two minutes, Sub Right Half Don Harris raced 20 yards for a Bear touchdown.

Tommy Bolt Still Pinehurst Leader

PINEHURST, N. C., Nov. 10. (AP)—A five-stroke blanket covered the top 12 men as the North and South Open Golf Tournament field took time out today to avoid contention with college football before heading into Sunday's 1 hole windup of the $7,500 event.

Tommy Bolt, the Durham, N. C. professional who took over the lead by one shot with his one under par 71 Friday for a 54-hole total of 214, had Cary Middlecott, Memphis, Tenn., dentist, right at his heels with a 215.

Illini Defeat Iowa, 40-13

CHAMPAIGN, Ill., Nov. 10. (AP)—Sophomore Quarterback Tommy O'Connell whizzed three first-half scoring passes to end Joe Vernasco as unbeaten Illinois, the nation's number two team, chopped Iowa, 40 to 13, to strengthen its Big Ten title and Rose Bowl chances today.

The seventh straight Illini victory — and their fourth conference win — also included two short touchdowns dashes by Halfback Johnny Karras, who now has 12 six-pointers, one under the Illinois record shared by Red Grange and Buddy Young.

The second half, following Karras' second score for a 33 to 0 Illinois lead, was turned over to Illinois reserves. Iowa came to life in the final quarter with touchdowns on a 24-yard pass from Burt Britzmann to George Rice and a 10-yard scamper by Don Comack.

Illinois was ranked second only to Tennessee in the Associated Press national poll.

Loyola Is Victim Of Kansas, 34-26

LAWRENCE, Kan., Nov. 10. (AP)—Kansas did it the hard way today, coming from behind to cop a 34-26 football decision over stubborn Loyola University of Los Angeles.

The Jayhawks couldn't get moving until the second quarter. After the intermission the Kansas team took command.

YEARLINGS WIN OVER LAMESA

The Big Spring Junior high school Yearlings ran into surprisingly tough resistance but finally overcame the Lamesa Breezes, 19-6, here Saturday night.

Big Spring scored first when Ronnie Wooten roared 53 yards down the middle to a touchdown.

Lamesa fought back with a TD early in the second when Conrad Alexander broke loose on a 40-yard sprint into the end zones.

It appeared the two teams would leave the field at half time all tied but a pass from Nugent Reid to Tommy Taylor which covered 39 yards gave the Yearlings another score.

Taylor made a fine, twisting catch of the ball and then outraced the Lamesa secondary to the end zones. Reid then carried it over for the extra point on a fake kick.

In the third, Taylor sprinted 17

NOW LOOK BOYS!
Use Your Heads For Something More Than A Hat Rack
Save yourselves some money. And we're just the ones that can tell you how to do it. Don't chump off on just any old used car you see. Check every lot in town. See if they sell clean cars, cars that are ready to go out and do the job, and cars that are guaranteed. If you find that all of these qualifications are met, then price the automobile, or better still, price the difference you will have to give between your old car and the one of your choice.
It makes no difference how a car is priced. The difference in the cars is what actually counts. If a dealer adds to the top he can very easily take off of the bottom. After you check all of the lots in town; then come into Mc-Ewen's modern lot of fine used cars and you will know what we meant when we said you could save yourselves some money. The same thing is true of our new Buick automobiles. Each car is priced legitimately. We try to give a fair trade-in allowance on every used car. Another way to save money is to purchase your new car NOW.
The stock we have on hand now is for sale minus the 3% tax increase. Our next shipment will come equipped with same said 3% increase. Think it over. Come in today and Save Yourself Some Money.

State Welfare Amendment's Critics Hit By Rep. Willis

By MAC ROY RASOR
 AUSTIN, Nov. 10. (AP)—Critics of the disputed amendment to raise the state's welfare ceiling were targets for a heated blast today from Rep. Doyle Willis of Fort Worth, author of the proposal.

A spokesman for the critics, Princeton Banker Jim Cantrell, parried Willis' strong words by offering to support an amendment that would keep the citizens requirement in the Constitution.

The citizenship requirement has been the storm center of argument in the proposed amendment to be voted on next Tuesday along with four other proposed amendments. Twelve races for seats in the Texas House of Representatives will also be decided then.

Willis charged that Cantrell and "the Committee to Keep Texas Pension Funds for Texas Citizens" had spent "thousands of dollars" to defeat the welfare amendment by flooding Texas with a pamphlet filled with "distorted, deceptive and untruthful information intended to confuse the voters."

Mr. Cantrell's statements that the amendment proposed to add $7 million to the State's tax burden x x show me that he and the committee are really against any more taxes, of any nature, for any purpose — especially the old folks, blind and dependent children who need more money to buy food and shelter are so high," Willis said.

He branded as "untrue" pamphlet statements over Cantrell's signature saying that the amendment would mean reduction of pension payments because it abolishes all residential requirements and entitles Mexicans and displaced persons coming here from Europe to immediate pensions.

Cantrell said his and the committee's position is that the citizenship requirement is nevertheless being removed from the Constitution.

"You can look at the proposed amendment and see that it isn't there anymore," he said.

The amendment would raise the State's annual welfare program ceiling from its present $25 million to $42 million. Gov. Allan Shivers has said he will call a special session of the legislature to provide the extra money if the amendment is adopted.

Others with interests in other amendments were still plugging for support as election time drew near.

University of Texas chancellor James P. Hart urged the University Dad's Association to support the proposed amendment to permit investment of permanent university funds in corporate bonds and stocks.

The American Legion's state commander, Charlie Gibson, argued again for the proposed amendment to increase the State veterans' land program bonds from $25 million to $100 million.

The amendment permits the state to issue more bonds to buy farms and ranches for resale to veterans of World War II and the Korean War on long-time, low-interest terms.

Two other proposed amendments appear on the Tuesday ballot. One would permit pensions for county appointive officers and employees. The other would authorize a maximum tax of 50 cents on each $100 valuation of property in rural fire prevention districts to provide equipment and personnel for fire fighting.

The National Geographic Society says many of the Portuguese who settled in New England fishing cities came from the Azores.

Visits Here

Pfc. William T. Irwin, son of Mr. and Mrs. John C. Irwin, 111 E. 17th, has been visiting his parents here following completion of finance technical school at Lowry AFB, Colo. His assignment will be at the Great Falls Air Force Base at Great Falls, Mont. where he will be disbursed service six months ago.

Fuel Tank Explosion Makes A Human Torch Out Of Man

SAN ANTONIO, Nov. 10. (AP)—A blazing fuel tank exploded and spewed flaming kerosene on a refinery worker Friday night, turning him into a human torch.

The fire spread to five other gasoline and fuel oil storage tanks at the Phoenix Refinery. The blaze raged an hour and a half before it was controlled.

W. G. Hale, a pumper at the refinery suffered first degree burns over all his body except his face and hands. Hospital attendants said Hale's skin was charred.

Raymond Russell, owner of the refinery, set damages at about $7,000.

F. B. Dietz, assistant plant superintendent, and Jodie Tupin, a still operator, said the fire started while they were making a distillation check in a shack near a kerosene tank.

Dietz said, "Suddenly there was a tremendous explosion. We looked outside and Hale was running toward the office. His whole body was a mass of flames."

Two firemen were overcome while battling the blaze. They were treated for smoke asphyxiation.

Candidate Visits Here Two Days

W. A. (Bill) Stroman, San Angelo, was here Friday and Saturday asking for support of his candidacy as representative of this, the 91st legislative district.

He is one of three asking for the post vacated by R. E. (Peppy) Blount, who resigned six weeks ago. The special election is on Tuesday.

Stroman said that his retired status would permit him to devote his full time to the post if elected.

"Several years ago I put away my law books and my abstract business and settled down to the business of living," he said. "I have no ties to restrict me in the performance of legislative duties. I would not commit myself on any issue until it came up and I had an opportunity to decide what was best for this district."

Boland Thanks All Thoughtful Friends

Charley Boland was back at his job at the Postoffice news stand this week—and his heart was full of gratefulness to the great outpouring of kindness for him when he lost his wife, Mrs. Helen Boland died in Dallas last Sunday, victim of bulbar polio. She had been Charley's "eyes."

Boland asked that a public statement be made recognizing the many expressions of kindness shown him.

"Your words of encouragement and sympathy, your financial contributions, messages and flowers were a great comfort to me and our relatives," he said. "It will be impossible for me to write or contact each of you personally, so please accept this as your personal note. Thanks to everybody and God bless you for your graciousness."

Boland said he plans to continue operation of his concession stand.

WROTE OPERETTAS

Sigmund Romberg, Composer, Dies

NEW YORK, Nov. 10. (U.P.)—Composer Sigmund Romberg, 64, whose operettas and songs are loved by millions, died Friday night of a cerebral hemorrhage at his (Ritz Tower) hotel suite here.

Romberg wrote such "all-time" musical play favorites as "The Student Prince," "Desert Song," "Maytime," "Blossomtime" and "New Moon." During the past 40 years he turned out 78 operettas and more than 2,000 songs.

Apparently in good health, Romberg arrived in New York Nov. 3 from his home in Beverly Hills, Calif. He usually spent his winters in the East before embarking on concert tours in the spring.

His body was found on the bathroom floor by his wife, Lillian Harris Romberg, whom he married in 1925. Before he collapsed, she said, her husband had not complained of feeling well.

Romberg always called his music "Middle brow — music too low-brow for a symphony conductor and too highbrow for a jazz conductor."

His music has a mass appeal, being replete with melodic love songs and romantic themes.

Other of his famous operettas are "Sinbad," "Her Soldier Boy" and "The Blue Paradise," the latter containing the waltz, "Auf Wiedersehen." He collaborated with George Gershwin on "Rosalee" for Florenz Ziegfeld.

Born in Hungary, Romberg came to the U. S. in 1909. Two years later he published his first song, "Memories."

A musical prodigy, Romberg studied violin at the age of 7, the piano at 8. In a few years he had mastered almost every orchestral instrument.

He was the son of a chemical manufacturer who also was an amateur pianist. His mother was a novelist who used the pen name of Clara Berg.

M-K-T Seeks To Discontinue North-South Oklahoma Trains

OKLAHOMA CITY, Nov. 10. (U.P.)—A plea by the Missouri-Kansas-Texas railroad to discontinue to north-south trains across the state daily has been taken under advisement by the State Corporation Commission.

Katy officials asked permission to abandon passenger service from Woodward Okla., to Wichita Falls, Tex., a 125-mile run. Officials testified that the passenger trains were not profitable and asked that they be discontinued as an economy measure.

Many residents in the 24 cities the line serves protested. They contend it would slow down express now handled on the passenger trains, and would leave some of the towns without public transportation.

The railroad then proposed it provide part-time passenger service by adding a passenger car every other day to freight trains.

C. W. Campbell of Wichita Falls, general manager of the railroad's Northwest Division, presented testimony for the line.

Rancher Found Shot, Dead Near Tank

BALLINGER, Nov. 10. (U.P.)—Chris A. Dooze, Jr., 42, West Texas rancher, was found fatally shot near a water tank on his Runnels County ranch Friday.

A verdict of accidental death was returned by Justice of the Peace B. G. Sharpe. Dooze was killed by a .32 calibre pistol.

Funeral services will be held here Sunday. Survivors include a son, Chris A. Dooze III, of San Angelo, and a sister, Miss Marguerite Dooze of San Antonio.

Pork, Some Beef Prices Due Drop

WASHINGTON, Nov. 10. (U.P.)—The American Meat Institute says the price of pork and some cuts of beef may dip soon as the result of increased marketings of hogs and beef cattle.

The institute is a private organization, representing meat interests.

Collision Is Fatal

WICHITA FALLS, Nov. 10. (U.P.)—Frances Wilson Woodward, 47, Wichita Falls jeweler, was killed Friday night in an auto collision near here.

He and six fellow members of San Diego-based Attack Squadron 115 made the training jump from an altitude of 3,000 feet. Previously they have undergone a number of courses on survival, including one trip on foot in the mountains of Sequoia National Park.

Lt. Morgan is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James T. Morgan of 1101 East 13th St., Big Spring. He entered flight training at Pensacola May 4, 1949. He is a graduate of Big Spring High School and later attended Hardin-Simmons university.

Charnel L. Holden, USN, son of Bert C. Holden of Big Spring, was recently advanced to the rate of aviation electronics technician, third class, while serving with Air Transport Squadron Two at Alameda, Calif.

The squadron has operated the famous Martin "Mars" since 1946 without injury to passengers or crewmen. The "Mars" which is the largest operational seaplane in the world, holds many world records, including the passenger lift record of 308 men.

OVER BILLION MARK

New City Mark Is Set In Water Use

By the time you read this, Big Spring probably will have passed, for the first time within a single year the billion gallon mark in water consumption.

Saturday morning the year's draw had been 997,978,000 gallons. That left only 2,224,000 gallons to go in reaching the billion gallon level. Friday had produced a demand for almost three million—2,942,000 gallons to be exact. Thus Saturday was almost a cinch to throw total computations into 10 digits.

Previous record consumption occurred in 1948 when the total was 981 million. The following year consumption sagged to 930 million and then came back last year to 981. Another 75 million may be added to this year's final record before it is closed. Consumption has been bobbling around 2 1/2 million per day during November.

The billion gallons is as much water as was consumed by Big Spring in all the years of 1940, 1941, and 1942, or as much as both of 1942 and 1943, or twice the 1944 draw.

How much is a billion gallons of water? City Manager H. W. Whitney did some figuring on the point. There are 328,000 gallons of water in an acre foot (one acre one foot deep). Counting streets, a city block approximates three acres— or three acre foot of water. This would mean the block one foot deep contains around one million gallons.

Thus, the billion gallons would mean the equivalent of 1,000 blocks, or most of the city area, one foot deep.

Pulling it down to a more readily understood area, the billion gallons would be equal to 10 feet of water covering the area from Bell to Benton and from first to Eleventh to a depth of 10 feet.

Or, concentrating still further, it would lap at the top of the new first Methodist spire, the Crawford hotel and go far up on the Settles if it were impounded in an area from Gregg to Runnels and from Second to Fifth. The water would be little better than 100 feet deep in that nine block area.

That's a lot of water—but it takes a lot of water to run a modern city even the size of Big Spring.

Convocation Is Set At HCJC Monday

An all-college convocation for Howard County Junior College is set for 8 p.m. Monday.

This marks the first time that an effort has been made to bring all the students together at one time and place, E. C. Dodd, president, noted.

"We are anxious to have the entire college family together at one time," he said. "To do this, we are asking that the day students arrange to join with the evening students Monday for a brief program in the college auditorium."

There will be brief entertainment featuring the 44-voice college choir under direction of Elizabeth Cope. Greetings will be extended briefly by Horace Garrett, vice president of the board of trustees; E. C. Dodd, HCJC president; and Bill Thompson, president of the student body.

1918--Armistice Day--1951

SOUVENIRS—Out of the trunks and down from the attic occasionally come the souvenirs such as these two helmets and old gas mask being examined by, left to right above, Mrs. Allen (Buck) Hull, Mrs. Herbert A. Hayes and Mrs. Tom Cantrell, all wives of former members of the company.

DIVISION HISTORY — Terry Jo, 17-month-old granddaughter of the J. Y. Robbs, (below) isn't reading yet about the feats of her grandfather's division but listens while her mother, Mrs. George O'Brien, Jr., does. They live at 1809 Main. Robb was a sergeant in the World War I company.

FATHER WAS A SOLDIER—Mrs. R. L. (Pancho) Nall, 1305 Scurry, shows daughter, Lou Ann, in the photo below, how Pancho looked in his uniform when he went away with the Yanks in 1917. Nall was another of the 55 Big Springers in Company D, 117th Supply Train.

WANTS IN THREE WARS — Mrs. John Miller, (above) whose husband fought in the first World War, lost a son and had another who served in World War II, shows her grandson, Tip Miller, 3, the picture of a third son, D. A., in Korea for the past six months with the Fifth Cavalry.

Two wars and 33 years later, Armistice Day still brings nostalgic memories and fond recollections to a handful of Big Spring men.

They were the doughboys of the city's own National Guard unit, Company D of the 117th Supply Train of the 42nd Division, which left here Aug. 16, 1917, with 54 enlisted men and a first lieutenant on a mission they were never to forget.

They have lived to see the peace they fought for explode in cannon fire and erupt into mushroom atomic clouds. One of them has lost a son in another war and has still another fighting now in Korea.

The popularity of "Over There" and "It's A Long, Long Way To Tipperary" long ago gave way to the fight songs of other generations, but the men of Company D keep their memories alive by meeting every year in August for a reunion.

They remember their training on Long Island and the Halloween night in 1917 they sailed from Hoboken, N. J., with the famed Rainbow Division, so named because its 23,000 men came from 25 states and the District of Columbia.

Unlike the present Army division set-up, where the men of that division perform only one duty and others, such as supply and medical, are handled by separate units, the old Rainbow was an army in itself.

They remember arriving in Brest Harbor Nov. 12 and of unloading there four days later. They remember the year and a half they spent in France and Germany and the 28,000 casualties—killed and wounded—they suffered.

They saw the old Alabama's 167th Infantry regiment and the old New York 165th Infantry, which fought each other in the Civil War, fight side by side in France.

They remember landing at Newport News, Va., on their homecoming around the first of May in 1919. These, and many other things, they remember when they get together.

Twelve of them still live in Big Spring. They are Allen Hull, Dr. C. W. Deats, J. Y. Robb, Roy Carter, Pancho Nall, Jack Wilcox, John Miller, Cecil Wasson, Dee Foster, Tom Helton, Tom Cantrell and Herbert Hayes.

The widow of another, Mrs. James T. Brooks, whose husband was their captain, also resides here. Pictured on this page, as another Armistice Day anniversary rolls around are, wives, daughters and grandchildren of some of the Rainbow men.

ONLY GRANDCHILD — Mrs. C. W. Deats, 400 Virginia, (left) holds the apple of her eye, John Wesley Deats, 5 months, her only grandchild, and son of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Deats Jr., 309 Lincoln.

Billie Jean Walker Wins State Contest

COLLEGE STATION, November 10.—(Spl)—Billie Jean Walker, 16-year-old Howard County 4-H club girl, is state winner in the 1951 4-H Citizenship Program, announced Floyd Lynch, state 4-H leader.

Miss Walker's record will be entered in national competition. The citizenship program is sponsored in honor of Mrs. Thomas E. Wilson of Chicago, Ill.

Billie Jean is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Walker of Route 1, Big Spring. She is a member of the Clover Leaf 4-H Club and a 1951 graduate of Coahoma High School.

In seven years of 4-H work, her demonstrations included gardening, clothing, bedroom improvement, beef calves, lambs, dairy foods, canning, achievement, leadership and citizenship. She has completed 35 demonstrations.

As a delegate to the 1951 4-H Club Camp in Washington, D. C., Billie Jean had an excellent opportunity to study government and citizenship along with approximately 200 other 4-H club members and boys and girls from foreign countries.

"Our 4-H work emphasizes the importance of community activities in the development of sound citizenship," says Billie Jean. "Through the 4-H program we learn to plan and work together and are aware of our duties as members of a community, which is the foundation of good citizenship."

Billie Jean has won many honors through her 4-H work, including a trip to the 1950 4-H Congress at Chicago. She received a State Fair Honor Award in 1948. She was a delegate to the state 4-H junior leadership laboratory at Bas-

New District Federation President First From Big Spring In 42 Years

A gray-headed grandmother, with the charm of a southern belle and the patience of Job, will take over, formally, the reins of District 8 of the Texas Federation of Women's Clubs when that organization holds its convention in Denton next week.

The new president is Mrs. Harwood Keith. Almost 42 years have passed since Big Spring has had a district president to represent the city in the Federation. The last president from Big Spring was Mrs. J. I. McDowell, a charter member of the 1905 Hyperion Club who was president when Big Spring clubs were in District 6.

Mrs. Keith is a graduate of Southwest Texas State College, San Marcos. Her husband, to whom she has been married for 30 years, is in business here. Her daughter, Elizabeth Keith Sullivan, widow of William A. Sullivan Jr., former air minister to Bolivia, recently received her Master's degree in Library Science from the University of Chicago. Lewis Keith, a son, is a senior in the University of Texas Law School. The Keiths have two grandchildren.

Construction Due To Start Soon On Stanton Housing

STANTON, Nov. 10.—Construction is due to start here within the next 60 days in 36 additional new houses in the Carl Clardy Addition in northwest Stanton.

Officials of the Martin County Construction Company, developers of the tract, said plans for the homes have been submitted to the FHA and the Veterans Administration.

The first 24 units in the development have been sold, and these should be ready for occupancy in about two weeks.

MRS. HARWOOD KEITH

dren, Billy, 9 and C. H. Sullivan, 6. They have been living, until recently, with their grandparents here.

Mrs. Keith began clubwork in Bryan some 25 years ago, when she worked voluntarily as a replacement for the local librarian. Through her work in the library she soon became acquainted with the clubwomen of the town, who soon asked her to join their ranks.

Prior to moving to Big Spring, she was active in the 7th district of the Federation. While in Borger, within that district, she was secretary of the 20th Century Club and president of the P-TA in 1940, when that group was the largest unit in Texas.

Expounding a little on her ideas of clubwork, Mrs. Keith explained that clubwomen could accomplish more working together than they could individually. It is true, she also believes, that clubwomen help set the culture of the town by their combined efforts.

Mrs. Keith is a woman who can inspire them.

AUSTIN COLLEGE A CAPPELLA CHOIR

Austin College A Cappella Choir To Give Concerts Here Thursday

The Austin College A Cappella Choir of forty-eight mixed voices will appear in concert at the First Presbyterian Church Thursday, Nov. 15, at 7:30 p. m., it was announced today by Dr. R. Gage Lloyd, pastor of the church.

The program will be free of charge and the public is invited. Austin College, 102-year-old Presbyterian senior college at Sherman, has long been noted for its music department, and in the last five years its A Cappella Choir tours have delighted thousands of music lovers in more than two hundred concert appearances in Texas and Oklahoma.

The compositions on the concert programs are taken from the liturgical music of the past and present and are richly varied in an attempt to present something for everyone. The compositions range from the great works of Palestrina to arrangements of Negro spirituals set in the modern idiom. In arranging the concert program, the director has tried to achieve a variety of moods and rhythms throughout each group.

The type of program presented lends itself admirably to either the church or the concert hall, and should give the audience a real spiritual as well as cultural experience, from the robust and lively strains of "Praise to the Lord" through to the more quiet and impressive melody of the Lutkin Benediction, which closes the program.

Members of the choir come from all ranks in the student body and are selected after auditions and competitive tryouts. The choir goes through a rigorous training throughout the early fall, and again at the beginning of the second semester, sometime working in as many as three rehearsals a week.

You Must Have System

Yes, Life Can Be Beautiful --- Even With Dishes --- If You Use System

Dishwashing is a job that has to be done.

A simple enough statement with itself. But the thought that it conjures in the little woman's mind is enough to throw her into a fit of "screaming meemies."

If a bride on her wedding day could visualize the number of dishes that she would wash, day in and day out, throughout her married life, she would probably balk at the altar. Fortunately, not one woman in a hundred realizes the mound of dirty plates, silver, pots and pans that will surround her.

But there is an answer to the housewife's dilemma. There is a system to dishwashing, just as there is a system to everything else. And it is designed to help Mrs. Doe make her most menial task more pleasant and much easier.

When buying, select dishes and other equipment easy to wash. Watch for poor seams, square corners and rough surfaces. Then when serving food, save dishwashing by putting more than one thing on a platter, cooking and serving food in the same ovenware baking dishes and using measuring utensils for dry ingredients first, then liquid.

Dishwashing and health protection are closely related. Plenty of hot, sudsy water and boiling hot rinse water will leave dishes cleaner than using a towel.

The replacement of worn-out, dirt-catching counter surfaces with a waterproof material will provide a sanitary working surface and one that can be cleaned in a jiffy.

When washing dishes follow this procedure: Rinse or soak dishes and mixing equipment to loosen sticky foods. Scrape and arrange dishes in order in which they are to be washed. Stacking similar dishes together speeds washing.

Wash glasses, silver, cups, saucers, and sauce dishes, vegetable platters, then mixing equipment. Lastly, wash cooking utensils.

Rinse dishes in scalding water long enough for dishes to become heated. Place dishes in drainer on clay tile counter so water runs into sink. Dry silver and glassware. By then the rest of the things will be dry.

There you are—simple, isn't it. Spoons you to go right into that mound that covers the sink right now, doesn't it?

What, you're leaving? Oh—out to buy a dishwasher!

Biggest strawberry you ever saw! A veritable "giant" of a crocheted red strawberry seeded with green and sprouting nice big green leaves. A green "stem" is used to hang this 8-inch, well-padded strawberry on a hook beside your stove. The little white strawberry blossoms are also crocheted and are then sewn to the holder. Crocheted in two pieces and then put together this potholder makes one of the gayest, brightest Christmas gifts you've ever crocheted. DESIGNING WOMAN

New Dining Sets Sturdy Yet Retain Attractiveness

By ELIZABETH HILLIER There used to be no question about which tables and chairs went in the kitchen and which in the dining room. But that was before kitchens became living, kitchen and dining rooms became dining alcoves or parts of living-dining rooms. Because we live so differently today, furniture in kitchens is no longer typically kitchen furniture and dining furniture in any other room loses its lordly elegance and size to smaller, lighter design. These changes bring a need for a new kind of dinette set which looks well with the silver and china at dinner but is as sturdy and as easy to care for as chrome. The good answer sketched in an upholstered wood set which makes the fullest and best looking use of plastic. The plastic that covers the upholstery has the style of a fabric but wipes off with a damp cloth. The top of the table, which is extendable, is multi-layer plastic in a wood grain like the rest of the table. Its ruggedness for many family uses was recently demonstrated when a damp cloth restored it perfectly after a nursery schooler marked it with crayons, the man of the house spilled lemon juice and alcohol on it and a teen-ager doing homework, tipped over a bottle of ink. Eager Beavers Meet Make Dinner Plans Mrs. W. L. Clayton, 700 Douglas, was hostess when the Eager Beaver Sewing Club met Friday afternoon. Mrs. H. D. Bruton, presided at the business meeting, when it was decided to change the Thanksgiving dinner originally planned for Nov. 21 to Nov. 20. Eleven members and two visitors, Mrs. Clarence Proctor and Mrs. J. G. Mitchell and David were present. The next meeting will be held Friday at the home of Mrs. R. L. Findley Route 2.

HELENS HINTS Where to shop for what

A WORD TO THE WISE IS SUFFICIENT ... they say, so I want to say just a word or two about the wonderful bargains you'll be finding around town this week. With the holiday season approaching a galaxy of giftables and wearables are appearing to make spirits bright and awaken the shopper's sense of values to a fine point. I found some mighty fine buys on my shopping tour this week, that I felt sure you'd want to know about, and once you've seen them for yourself, I think you'll agree with me, that you can't go wrong when you add the following things to your shopping list.

FLIRTATIOUS AS A WINK ... Shenanigan's iridescent taffeta dresses from ZACK'S Of Margo's. Everyone loves the flare, the swish, the swirl of taffeta as you walk or dance, and you'll go twirling and whirling into gay holidays in this sensational little silhouette. Designed with a wondrous full skirt, strapless bodice with stitched design, and short jacket studded with tiny, glistening rhinestone buttons. It's a party-dress for the gaiety and glamor of the cocktail hour; shed the jacket and it takes you dancing to the most festive holiday ball. This shimmering iridescent creation comes in royal blue, pearl gray and green to keep you looking your glamorous best.

SPARKLING WITH PERSONALITY ... that's the costume jewelry you'll find at the COLONIAL BEAUTY SHOP. You'll find all types of jewelry with plenty of glamor and dash ... jewelry that has an amazing flair for the subtle today and tomorrow of fashion. There are chokers and beads to highlight the neckline, bracelets to flatter your wrists, earrings designed for daytime emphasis or as graceful accents for evening wear. The lovely lustre of pearls, the elegant glitter of rhinestones, the gleam of gold or silver ... whatever your choice, you'll be thrilled with the beauty, color and patterns of this unusual selection. Jewelry is always appropriate, always welcome, always the caviar of your costume.

HANG UP THE MISTLETOE ... and hear those carols ring ... bells on the bobtail making spirits bright with the singing of Christmas carols by such outstanding artists as Bing Crosby, Mario Lanza, Dick Haymes and the Mitchell Boychoir. This is just a peek at what's in store for you in the glorious selection of that THE RECORD SHOP and stories are all recorded for your listening pleasure on standard, 45 RPM and LP records. No music is so well loved as the traditional Christmas melodies, and no home is complete without their heart-warming influence throughout the Yuletide season.

TWEED IS IN THE AIR ... What is it that's both a fabric and a fragrance? What is it that goes so well with the new textured look of fall? What is it that smells so fresh and costs so little? Why, it's Lenthic's Tweed, of course, and it's definitely in the air this fall as the freshest of all possible fragrances. It is now on display at the CUNNINGHAM & PHILIPS DRUG and the PETROLEUM DRUG, and you'll always score high if you remember to make Tweed a part of your daily beauty routine. The new Tweed Toilet Essence is just what you've been looking for. It hits the happy medium between cologne and perfume. This new idea in fragrance is longer lasting than toilet water, but less costly than perfume ... the most refreshing find of the season.

KEYED TO SOLID COMFORT in his Arrow Gabanero, America's most popular sports shirt. You'll find this rich twill weave rayon gabardine shirt at ELMO WASSON'S, to give that man yours the rugged wearing, easy living comfort he's been looking for. It's designed with the exclusive Arafold collar ... a sensational new idea in collar tailoring. With or without a necktie, it sets a new standard for neater appearance and more comfortable fit. It is made in grey, beige, and gold, and is sized from 14 1/2-32, 16 1/2-35. It's a shirt that will be the "better half" of his wardrobe to keep him elegantly at ease at all times.

A HONEY OF A HONEYBUG has arrived at MARGO'S right off the "mule train" of fashion. Mule, cuff, slipper or whatever you choose to call it, you'll find it's a satiny beauty to keep your feet looking lovely in true glamor-gal fashion. Styled in black satin with cord trim, it fits high on the instep with a saucy scalloped edge, and the medium wedge heel keeps it smart as well as practical. Lined in bright red taffeta, it's a gay, giddy slipper to keep your feet warm and your spirits high. So easy to slip into—pack ... such delightful comfort, and they're priced delightfully sweet and low ... $2.99.

SILVERICE ... the latest thing on the market for chilling beverages and foods without diluting. They're colorful glass balls filled with water, to freeze in your your ice tray and use as you would ice cubes. You'll find them at HESTER'S attractively packaged in boxes of six ... in jewel tones or golf ball style. They'll be a bright spot for the holiday parties you'll be planning, and since they chill without diluting, a delay in serving does no harm. These vivid colored balls bobbing merrily in beverage float and tinkle like ice ... the modern manner of chilling your drinks.

LIGHT THE WAY TO A HAPPY HOME with a lamp from the fine selection at the GREGG STREET FURNITURE. They're not just lamps ... but BEAUTIFUL lamps! It's one piece of furniture that plays a dual role, giving light as well as added beauty and charm. Why not illuminate with artistry? Go in soon for the lamps you'll love to light.

YOU CAN HAVE YOUR CAKE AND EAT IT, TOO, when it's served from the beautiful "Crest-O-Gold" cake set from the BIG SPRING HARDWARE. So refreshingly different, it will be the table talk of the town. This smart service is designed from fine china with 22k gold trim and pictures colorful colonial figures. The set consists of the large cake plate, the server, and six individual serving plates to match. The eye-catching design is for keeps, and you'll find that it will add immeasurable charm to family and company gatherings. The holiday season is drawing nigh, and you'll want to show off your baking to its best advantage, so see this charming set soon ... the price is as tempting as the design ... $6.50.

EASY TO PARK ... The Pax "Stayon" self-snuffing ash tray. Found at HARD-ESTY DRUG, the cushiony bag bottom base is fitted with gun shot so it won't skid off the arm of a chair, your knee, or where ever you choose to place it. Non-slip, non-tilt, non-slide, it holds fast to any surface and prevents accidental spilling and saves furniture, clothing and floors. It's designed with a gleaming brass tray, and the bottom is covered with red, green or brown suede cloth. They make bright touches of color for the home, a collage dorm room, or a country cabin. Once you've seen them you'll find it's love at first sight, and best of all they're priced to make your budget purr ... $1.00 each.

FREEDOM'S FIGHT IS NEVER ENDED ... and on this Armistice Day, November 11, 1951, FAYE'S FLOWERS pauses with the rest of the nation to honor the dead of World War I—a war that failed to end all wars. We have since faced other threats to our freedom, and fought still another war. Today, we are again faced with a critical threat to World Peace. The liberty we possess has been most dearly paid for, and we hope that someday soon a new armistice will herald the beginning of a permanent one. Today, we are more determined than ever, to hold on to our liberty and gain everlasting peace.

Blood Donor Program Ought To Be Brought Closer To Home

There is much publicity material going out, on a national basis, in behalf of the Armed Forces blood donor program. This is a great effort on the part of the Department of Defense, in cooperation with the Red Cross and independent blood banks, to persuade the civilian population to contribute more blood to the Armed Forces.

Truman Looked Unhappy During Eisenhower's Capital Meeting

WASHINGTON.—When the secretaries of Army, Navy, Air and Defense gathered at the White House with all the Pentagon brass hats for a full-dress discussion with General Eisenhower and the President, the paramount question in everyone's mind was whether Ike and Harry had discussed politics at their lunch.

Neither of them dropped so much as a hint of what they discussed at their private, face-to-face meeting. However, the President frequently gives himself away by his moods. When he is pleased by the shaping of events, he is jovial, relaxed, informal. When he is displeased, Truman is somber, quiet, down-to-business.

At this conference, Truman was definitely down-to-business. Since the European picture is actually looking brighter, it probably wasn't the cause of his somber mood. Instead, Truman gave the impression that he was disturbed over something that had passed between him and Eisenhower. Several of those present couldn't help but wonder whether Ike had disclosed he planned to run on the GOP ticket.

Nations Arm, But Talk Peace As We Observe Armistice Day Once Again

"That they shall not have died in vain..." On this Armistice Day, how many of us can recall the fervent hopes of yore that we fought a war to end all wars?

armed forces as powerful as theirs. Soviet attack in the immediate future would seem unlikely. Russia cannot afford to ignite such a war for she realizes that her people can only rise in support of Kremlin leaders if they believe Western forces are already ruthlessly invading Russian territory, killing and torturing non-combatants.

The latest maneuver toward attaining a settlement with Soviet Russia apparently is doomed to failure. The plan, announced simultaneously in London, Paris and Washington, calls for disarmament of all nations, but is predicated on a system of inspection and disclosure of all weapons of war and the personnel equipped for such war.

Women and children are a vital consideration in any war. The women control the emotions and actions of men and by their own feelings, can influence what men do. If the women feel the horrors of atomic bombs, knowing perhaps that Russia itself started the war, they and their men could easily rise up and assure defeat of the Kremlin.

In the United Nations General Assembly, now meeting in Paris, America joined its other friendly Allies in still another attempt at securing Soviet acquiescence in a suitable plan for disarmament.

Russians fought well in the last war ONLY after they saw their own land ravaged and that Hitler was no better, but worse, than Stalin. Recall, is your will, the sweeping advance of Hitler's hordes after the Germans tore up families, homes and land the Russians stood firm—with or without arms—and defended their homeland, particularly at Stalingrad.

At home, rising taxes, a $60 billion budget for defense and virtual freezing of the tooling industry to make machines solely for defense production belittle the sincerity of our pledge to maintain peace.

No, Joe Stalin can't afford to fight now. He respects force too much and knows that as we grow stronger he grows weaker. His only hope is to starve out the West through economic pressure via our defense build-up and through waging the ever-present battle for the minds of men.

Last, but hardly least, is the atomic bomb. The week's news reached a climax with the explosion of the largest of five test blasts in Nevada. After years of experimentation, we now have a choice of sizes to use, either against men or cities.

Ike Eisenhower most likely was glad to leave this country. But he sure left political pundits in a state of confusion. He has no ambitions, he said, but he won't say that he won't run under any circumstances. To put it simply, Ike "is and ain't" a candidate.

Wonder what our honored dead would say today? And I wonder, too, how much thought Americans the world over will afford these honored dead before the sun goes down today?

Plenty of words can be written to show either side of the situation, but it suffices to say he may yet be a candidate, but definitely has not indicated for which party. All of which gives both the Republicans and Democrats some hope.

Chances are that the heroic dead will not be entirely happy with our past conduct in the prevention of warfare; but there seems little doubt that they will hold us entirely at fault. They couldn't, not with what we have done in our efforts to gain the cooperation of Soviet Russia.

Though the GOP is more ambitious in its quest for Eisenhower, an extremely reliable correspondent for the N.Y. Times, Arthur Krock, claims Ike will be inclined toward the Democratic side of the ledger and already has the support of that party.

Above all, however, these men would cry out in unison for Americans to rally around and stand firm, meeting the Soviets with

Who knows? The latest series of atomic explosions can perhaps be best summarized as such: "Awe-hul."

So long as we remain strong, a

It now appears that you can pay your money and take your choice of a variety of sizes, small, medium, or large.

The atomic era of warfare at last seems here. Nothing definite, of course has come from the Atomic Energy Commission, but the apparently successful use of troops in conducting an A-bomb test precludes the bomb's use on a battlefield. Accordingly, this can revolutionize modern warfare to the extent that infantrymen may be necessary only as a mopping up force. Atomic power is too destructive to allow mass concentrations of troops. Considerably less artillery may be used, since atomic shells will cover far more ground than the conventional high explosive variety.

Korean truce talks continue to hit snags. Negotiators appear to be taking turns at rejecting one another's buffer zone and other plans. Tempers are beginning to wear mighty thin and the new Red counter-blasts are making many a UN soldier's trigger finger itchy. Might even spread to the top echelons.

Tuesday Is The Day To Decide On Constitutional Amendments

This seems to be the last opportunity for this column to remind you that on Tuesday we all are supposed to go to the polls and vote on five proposed amendments to the constitution. It is worthwhile to review these propositions again.

Veterans Land Fund for the purchase of lands in Texas to be sold to Texas veterans of World War II and servicemen of subsequent service. This Veterans Land Fund was approved in 1946 by the voters to the tune of $25 million, and it would now be increased to $100 million. The original program to help ex-service men buy land apparently has gone well. If the system can continue to be self-supporting, the state is doing a good thing for the veterans; if it cannot, some money may have to be pulled out of the treasury. As best as I can find out, many people believe this land program ought to be continued. If it is, the new bond issues must be approved.

HJR 22 would authorize a statewide system for retirement and disability for county officials and employees. This would be a statewide system, although participation by each county would have to be authorized by voters of that county. As the state law stands now, each county has the authority to set up a retirement, disability and death compensation fund of its own. Furthermore, counties can place their officers and employees under the federal Social Security system. This seems to be enough. And under the Tuesday proposal, there is no prohibition against appropriations of state funds to pay administrative expenses, and no prohibition against a state loan to the fund. An amendment practically identical to this was defeated in 1949. Seems to me it ought to be defeated again.

HJR 6 is the proposal to change the system of old age assistance, aid to the blind and aid to dependent children. It's the one that has been getting all the attention, and the one which seems to be the most universally opposed. The people who have studied this amendment say that it will result in actually a smaller pension check to the old folks, since it opens the way for thousands more to come on to the pension rolls. The big danger cited is that the requirement of Texas citizenship would not have to remain in effect. This would bring so many more pension applicants that the overall fund would have to be sliced more ways. It still makes no provision for paying pensions on the basis of need, which should be the real requirement.

HJR 37 provides for investment of the permanent University Fund in securities additional to bonds of governmental agencies which are permitted now. In other words, the Board of Regents of the University could purchase certain common stocks and securities, within certain limitations. The object is to permit the University Fund to make more interest return than it is now doing on governmental issues. It puts a great deal of power in the hands of the regents. The university people are campaigning strong for this one, although some of the more conservative business people don't quite see it.

If the amendment were to pass, the Legislature would have to take steps to provide $7 million a year more to go into the fund. This undoubtedly would mean a session just to find more taxes. There are other questionable issues in the amendment which make it very doubtful that it would be of any real assistance to those now on the pension rolls, or that it would help any aged, blind or dependent children in real need. There seems to be abundant argument for a vote against this amendment.

HJR 8 would permit an ad valorem tax of up to 50 cents for the establishment of rural fire prevention districts. The tax could not be levied except by a vote of the people residing in a fire district that might be created, although the legislature has the full right to decide how the districts would be administered. In 1949 a 3-cent levy for such fire districts was approved in a constitutional amendment, and the deal now is to raise this to a maximum of 50 cents. There are some questionable features in this proposal, and the safest thing to do here is to vote against it.

The responsibility belongs to all of us, on all these issues Tuesday. I personally think there is some merit to the University Fund amendment and the Veterans Land proposal. The others are objectionable, as I see them. But you make up your own mind—and then vote.

HJR 2 would provide for increasing the

Atlanta's Choked Peachtree St. Epitomizes South's Resurgence

ATLANTA, Nov. 10.—All of the South's postwar growing pains can be visualized here. Atlanta is bursting its britches. Peachtree Street cannot handle the traffic. At rush hours, cars crawl. Motorists yearn for the completion of the north-south express road now under construction.

No longer is this the land of cotton, cultivated by the share-cropper with his hand plow and overworked mule. Southern farming is diversified and has taken on the aspect of a business, like farming in the Midwest. The tractor and the mechanical cotton picker are not rarities. Livestock supplements cotton and tobacco as a source of cash income.

Around the city, new plants, warehouses, and shopping centers have sprung up. System! And those orders are on top of tivity. Mills B. Lane, Jr., president of the Citizens & Southern National Bank, showed me airplane photos of these postwar establishments. Just to run through the collection hurriedly took half an hour. All this has wider application, since Atlantans are fond of saying, "As the South goes, so goes Atlanta."

Moreover, northern and midwestern corporations, seeking to be near an expanding market, have looked with increasing favor on cities like Atlanta, Mobile, Nashville, Memphis, New Orleans, etc., as sites for factories and warehouses. This industrialization emancipates the South from its pre-Roosevelt, marionette-like economic behavior when income was tied intractably to the ups and downs of cotton, tobacco, weather, and the boll weevil.

The Southern Bell Telephone & Telegraph Co. puts what has happened in focus. The company is trying hard to expand its facilities fast enough to meet demand. It serves 17 per cent of the nation's population, yet has on order 30 per cent of all telephones for the entire Bell System. And those orders are on top of an increase of nearly 100 per cent in telephones since the war as compared with a national increase of 65 per cent.

Industrialization has brought population shifts. In 1920, there were 62 white persons to every 38 Negroes. Today, according to a study by Joseph K. Heyman, vice president in charge of economic research of the Trust Company of Georgia, there are 70 white persons to every 30 Negroes.

The shift is the result of two forces: Immigration of white families from the North and East, as industries moved here. Out-migration of Negroes, seeking wider economic opportunity in such northern industrial cities as Detroit, Chicago, New York, Philadelphia, etc. The overall effect has been to leave in the South a greater proportion of persons within reach of higher incomes, since the Negro is confined by social strictures to lower-income jobs.

The telephone symbolizes the economic resurgence of the South. Demand for a telephone rises with income. It is not a poor man's convenience. And as incomes of more and more southerners rise above subsistence levels, Southern Bell gets business. It's as simple as that.

NANCY PAMELA MANN

SUCCESS STORY

Baby Defies Odds, Now Normal Child

Nancy Pamela Mann doesn't look like a little girl who entered the world with the cards stacked against her. Four months after she was born to Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Mann, Vincent, she is a healthy, robust and normal child. Three days after her birth on July 2, the odds were discovered to be all against her. The esophagus was completely in twain and the lower end had a fistula opening to the trachea. The next day, the parents bundled their baby and turned her over to Mrs. R. L. Beale, the special nurse, to fly her to Dallas. It was like saying goodbye for keeps, for not many youngsters had overcome such conditions. The baby was so tiny that she had to be fed glucose in the flesh rather than in the veins because the vessels were too tiny to pick up. Specialists operated promptly, making an opening under a shoulder blade and collapsing one lung. They joined ends of the esophagus and closed the fistula. For about 10 days Nancy Pamela got her nourishment through a gastro-tube. After that she was fed by mouth. In the next six weeks she bounced back and was beginning to gain weight and strength. Then another blow fell. Scar tissue closed the esophagus at the point of the surgery and the fistula opened. Back to Dallas she went for another operation. That was on Aug. 28. This time the baby was fed through a tube until Sept. 28, but when she resumed normal feeding, it apparently was for keeps. Today it would be impossible to tell that Nancy was ever other than a bouncing baby girl.

Former Resident Wins Medal In Korean Action

Major Fred N. Massey, Infantry, former Big Spring man and husband of the former Katie Gilmore of Big Spring, has received the Silver Star for gallantry in action in Korea. Major Massey, a member of the United States Military Advisory Group to the Republic of Korea, distinguished himself in action against the enemy in the vicinity of Songjogok on Aug. 22 of this year. On that date, the 26th Infantry Regiment of the Capitol Division, Republic of Korea Army, was ordered to attack a well-entrenched and fanatically determined enemy force on Hill 1010. Major Massey, an advisor with company the unit in the assault because of its almost complete lack of leaders, Massey distinguished himself in the assault by leading his men through a series of assault waves and Major Massey led the third wave. As the first two assault waves were hurled back with heavy losses, Massey disregarding his personal safety, placed himself at the head of the third wave and, displaying outstanding courage, charged up the slope into a devastating volume of small-arms and automatic-weapons fire. His men then moved out aggressively and began their assault. Half way up the hill, Massey was wounded but he spurned medical attention and continued in the attack. His group succeeded in breaching the enemy lines, enabling the following wave to secure the objective. Massey went to Korea last Jan. 28. After leaving here, he served as athletic officer at Fort Sill, Okla., for several months.

REV. MARVIN CLARK

Accepts Call To Be Pastor In Grand Falls

The Rev. Marvin H. Clark, who has accepted a call to be pastor of the First Baptist church in Grand Falls, will be delivering his last sermons today as pastor of the Trinity Baptist church. His resignation as pastor of the Trinity church at Eleventh Place and Young will be submitted today. The Rev. Clark is to assume his duties on the new field this week. He came here four years ago from Pecos and was, at 21, the youngest pastor ever to serve the Trinity Baptist church. Under his ministry, the church erected a new plant and moved from Fourth and Benton to its new site. In the interim, active membership approximately doubled. The church assumed the responsibility of maintaining two missionaries, having been sustaining them with regular salaries for three and a half years now. Another accomplishment was the institution of a regular full hour radio program on Sunday evenings over KTXC, a program that has been going two years now. Thursday night in the high school gymnasium there was a party given by the VIC Club, Master of ceremonies, Al Dillon introduced the program. Mona Lee Walker and Bobbie Adams gave a song. Also there were songs by Jack Sparks and J. C. Claxton sang a duet and Richard Hughes gave a solo. Arah Phillips then introduced a Girls Physical Education rap routine. Following the

HI-TALK

By Jannie Collins

Big Spring High School had the pleasure of hearing George Mahon, Congressman from the 19th District, in an assembly Thursday morning. Mahon said he had previously opposed Universal Military Training, but due to the present world conditions he would favor it for the safety of young men who might have to go to war. He stated that personally he was not dismayed, that he had faith in the American people. Mahon is a graduate of Loraine High School, Hardin Simmons and Minnesota Universities. He entered politics after being a lawyer for several years. This past week has been the National Week for the Future Home-makers of America. One of the projects the FHA girls have completed this week is decorating windows of three of the stores downtown, Penney's, Margo's and Pitman's. In Pitman's they have demonstrated correct table setting; in Penney's the World Christmas Festival and in Margo's they put up the emblem of the club and the purpose of the club. Tri-Hi-Y met Monday night at 7 p.m. at the YMCA. Business was discussed. At 7:30 Tri-Hi-Y and Hi-Y held a joint meeting at which eight members were sworn in by Elton Gilliland as delegates for a Youth in Government trip to Austin. Those eight were: Robert Merworth, Hollis Harper, Jimmy Couley, Libby Jones, Narrel Choate, Sandy Swartz, Ann Mary Gray, and Jeff Hanna. A report on the trip to the Lubbock meeting was given by Robert Merworth. Coach Larry McCollough gave a talk on Government and then Peggy King gave a talk on the purposes and ideals of the Tri-Hi-Y and Hi-Y. The sponsors, Miss Hyde and Mr. Good, were there. Thursday night in the high school gymnasium there was a party given by the VIC Club, Master of ceremonies, Al Dillon introduced the program. Mona Lee Walker and Bobbie Adams gave a song. Also there were songs by Jack Sparks and J. C. Claxton sang a duet and Richard Hughes gave a solo. Arah Phillips then introduced a Girls Physical Education rap routine. Following the program refreshments were served to the group. Table decorations of fall flowers were arranged by Mark Howell, Jim Sunday and Jimmy Cole.

A dance sponsored by the Student Council for all high school and college students will be given when school closes for Christmas holidays. It will be formal and there will be an orchestra from Lubbock. Start planning to come and have a lot of fun.

Fern Crabtree was elected D. E. Sweetheart in a business meeting held in the home of Grace Arnett last Monday night. Fern's picture will be sent in to the state to compete for State Sweetheart.

Also plans were made for a social and business meeting in the San Angelo Jr. College Retail Institute on November 15.

The Big Spring Steers lost their game last Friday night with the Midland Bulldogs 46-0. This makes only 1 out of three conference games the Steers have gained a victory. Against Midland they were with the services of Bobby Hayworth and Speck Franklin and Bill Dorsey.

Gal After A Man

Ava Gardner is the lady in pursuit of Robert Mitchum, in the film, "My Forbidden Past," playing Tuesday and Wednesday at the Ritz. It's all about a belle of New Orleans who has a questionable background, and defies convention to snare the man she wants, although he happens to be married.

The Ladies Fight

Jon Hall watches a fight between Marie Windsor and Karen Randle in this scene from "Hurricane Island." This adventure story, with a lady pirate making trouble for colonizers in early-day Florida, is the featured attraction at the State theatre today and Monday.

Happier Moment

Elizabeth Taylor and Montgomery Clift in one of the happier romantic scenes from "A Place in the Sun," a new film adaptation of Theodore Dreiser's "An American Tragedy." Shelley Winters is also featured in this somber story of young people's desperate search for happiness. The picture is at the Ritz today and Monday.

'PLACE IN THE SUN'

Dreiser Story On The Screen Again

One of the pictures that has rated at the top among recent Hollywood efforts is the arresting story "A Place in the Sun," which is at the Ritz theatre today and Monday.

Starring are Montgomery Clift, Elizabeth Taylor and Shelley Winters, who have won high acclaim for acting in a story of three young people desperately searching for happiness, although at times up the wrong road. The picture is a new adaptation of Theodore Dreiser's famed "An American Tragedy."

Ava Gardner And Robert Mitchum, Romantic Drama

The story of a dynamic southern belle in search of romance is told in "My Forbidden Past," offered at the Ritz Tuesday and Wednesday. The belle is Ava Gardner—or perhaps Mrs. Frank Sinatra to you. Robert Mitchum and Melvyn Douglas are co-starring.

Ava has the role of the beautiful Barbara Beaufort, living with her aristocratic old aunt and her debonair cousin and concealing from New Orleans society that she is the granddaughter of the underworld Carrie Crandall. But when a rich inheritance from the Crandall estate gives her financial freedom, Barbara ruthlessly plans to win the man she has her heart set on, even though he is already married. The unexpected results of her scheming lead to the picture's stirring conclusion, and to her own awakening.

The picture is set in lavish reproductions of old New Orleans. The cast includes Lucille Watson, Janis Carter, Gordon Oliver, Basil Ruysdael and Clarence Muse.

Mail Robbery Yarn Offered At State

A million dollar mail robbery plotted by a previously honest insurance company investigator provides the theme for a suspense drama, "Roadblock." This is the featured attraction at the State theatre Thursday.

Charles McGraw and Joan Dixon head the cast, which also includes Lowell Gilmore, Louis Jean Heydt and Milburn Stone.

A desire to provide luxuries for a girl he loves tempts the investigator to engineer a daring robbery. Not until after he marries her does he discover that she will not favor the plot, and then he discovers it's too late for him to withdraw. Thrills occur as law enforcement officials move into to solve the crime.

Lady Pirate Makes Trouble In Picture, 'Hurricane Island'

The adventures and exciting love affair of a lady pirate and a dashing captain from Spain are developed in "Hurricane Island," a color picture showing at the State today and Monday. Jon Hall and Marie Windsor are the stars. The picture is an adventure story of the Caribbean in the days of the buccaneers. Hall is the captain of a band of Spanish explorers who are pursued by the pirate queen of the outcasts, played by Miss Windsor. She is a ruthless and beautiful looter who is convinced the Spaniards will lead her to a fortune in gold. The girl even joins Hall's colonizing group, formed to settle in recently-discovered Florida.

An ancient map showing the "fountain of youth" becomes a coveted item, and the pirate queen goes after this, having her horse attack the colonists. The conflict involves native Indians, and the climax occurs when an Indian queen summons her god to destroy the intruders. There follows a great hurricane to bring the action to a tempestuous conclusion.

MRS. A. J. ROGERS

At this week's meeting of the East Ward P-TA, Mrs. Charles Herring, Jr., the president, was an attractive picture in a two-piece knitted dress with a purple skirt and sweater top in violet, gray and purple—same shade as the skirt. A tiny cluster of orchid and purple velvet flowers marked the neckline.

Mrs. A. J. Rogers, reporter for the group, was wearing a beige gabardine dress with a brown leather belt. Only trim on the very tailored model was two huge tortoise shell buttons, one on the waist and another on the skirt pocket. Her shoes and bag were brown calf.

Mrs. Bill Gage, blonde fourth grade teacher, was giving her pupils a treat, in a red corduroy jumper suit with which she wore a gray silk crepe blouse and exactly matching gray suede pumps. Designed like a weskit, the jumper top was buttoned down the front and the straps were fastened with silver buckles.

Joy Mladenka, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Lane, 1864 Nolan, conducts a weekly fashion television show for one of Houston's largest department stores called "Fashions In Motion."

Mrs. Lane, who can remember how Joy, as a little girl, foiled every effort to break her of the habit of sticking out her tongue and making a face at any animate or inanimate object which irked her, even if only slightly, has

It came about as the result of an incident reported by Bill Roberts in his "Town Crier" column in the Houston Press. His version: "OOPS - AND - LA - DIVISION: 'Miss Television' for the year, Joy Mladenka, signed off her Tuesday night program sweetly, said 'Good night, I hope to see you again next week.' When the cameras clicked off, Joy stuck out her tongue at the lens. At least, she thought the cameras were off. They weren't, and Houston televiewers got to see one of the cutest lil' tongues in Big Town."

LONG HOURS THEY SPEND WITH KING AGUAR UNTIL AT LAST THEY ARRIVE AT AN AGREEMENT FOR PEACEFUL TRADE BETWEEN THULE AND ORKNEY. PEACE AND PROSPERITY, IT IS HOPED, WILL BRING AN END TO RAIDING AND PIRACY.

FAR OUT AT SEA THE SHIP OF SIEUR DU LUC SAILS THE NEW TRADE ROUTE TO THULE. HIS PRETTY DAUGHTER HAS HER LADY COMPANION READ OVER AND OVER THE LETTERS ARF HAD SENT HER AND AT EACH READING HER HEART BEATS FASTER.

THE SEAFARERS OF THULE PIRATE EACH OTHER WITH THE SAME ENTHUSIASM AS THEY RAID THE COASTS OF THE WORLD. CAN THEIR TURBULENT SPIRIT BE QUELLED BY THE GREATER PROFITS OF TRADE?

THE ANSWER IS SURGING HOMEWARD FROM A PLUNDERING RAID. BOLTAZ, THE SEA KING, LOOKS ACROSS THE FOAM-LACED WAVES AND SEES A VICTIM.....

.... AND THE FIRST VESSEL IN PEACEFUL TRADE FALLS TO THE HARDY NORTHMEN. NEXT WEEK: - Gathering Storm Clouds.

THERE GOES CRUM, BOSS, STRAIGHT FOR THE FERRIS WHEEL... FOLLOW ME... WE CAN GO ROUND BACK OF THE SHOOTING GALLERY AN' HEAR WITHOUT BEING SEEN!

RIGHT, TEX... LEAD THE WAY.

HEY! WHAT'S THE IDEA?... WHO STARTED THIS WHEEL? STOP IT!

OKAY, NICK... SOMEBODY MUST'VE STARTED IT WHILE I WAS HELPING A GUY WITH HIS CAR!

SO, NICK, YOU HAD EVERYTHING FIXED, EH? WELL, FOR YOUR INFORMATION, THAT MILESTONE HORSE WON!

LISTEN, MR. CRUM, I COULDN'T HELP IT... SOME NOSY CHARACTER STARTED THE FERRIS WHEEL... I COULDN'T HIT A BARN DOOR WITH THAT THING SPINNIN'!

THIS IS THE SECOND TIME YOU'VE MUFFED A JOB FOR ME, NICK... I PAID YOU TO FIX CATFOOT KENDALL'S SULKY AND YOU HAD TO MAKE A MISTAKE, CAUSING AN ACCIDENT TO MY OWN DRIVER!

BY GEORGE, TEX, YOU'VE BEEN RIGHT ALL ALONG... WHAT A LOW SCOUNDREL HE IS!

WELL, MR. CRUM, WE FINALLY SEE YOU IN YOUR TRUE COLORS... THE ASSOCIATION HAS NO ROOM FOR CRIMINALS LIKE YOU, AND I'M SURE THEY'LL TAKE CARE OF THAT WHEN I MAKE MY REPORT!

OH, IS ZAT SO? WELL, IT'S YOUR WORD AGAINST MINE... YOU AIN'T GOT NO WITNESSES!

I RECKON THERE WON'T BE NO SPECIAL TROUBLE ABOUT WITNESSES, HONBRE... THERE'S ME... AND, OH, YES... LET ME INTRODUCE MR. LEWIS AND MR. JACKSON, LICENSED PRIVATE INVESTIGATORS!

HUH?... I... I... FR... LISTEN... I'LL MAKE A DEAL!

YOU'RE IN NO POSITION TO MAKE A DEAL... YOU CAN RESIGN FROM THE ASSOCIATION, WRITE A FULL CONFESSION CLEARING CATFOOT KENDALL, AND AGREE TO PAY FOR AN OPERATION ON CORNY BOTTS' BROKEN HIP... OR I'LL TURN THE MATTER OVER TO THE DISTRICT ATTORNEY!

A LITTLE LATER AT THE RACETRACK STABLES

OH, JIMMY CRICKETS, RUSTY, I'M SO HAPPY! SNOWFLAKE WON THE RACE, DIDN'T SHE?

MR. MILES' AND YOUR DADDY ARE WAITING FOR US OUT AT THE NEW FARM... YOU'RE ALL GOING TO LIVE THERE AND YOUR DADDY'S GOING TO BE THE MANAGER!

SHE SURE DID, QUEENIE... BUT YOU HAVEN'T HEARD THE HALF OF IT!

ANNIE ROONEY

MY DEAR WE MUST BE REASONABLE - IN THE EYES OF THE LAW, ANNIE ROONEY IS MERELY ANOTHER ORPHAN --

NO WONDER FOLKS SAY, "JUSTICE IS BLIND". IN MY EYES, ANNIE ROONEY IS A LOVABLE LITTLE HEAVEN-SENT CHILD WHO ENTERED OUR LIVES - BRINGING US HAPPINESS AND HOPE

SHE CHANGED OUR LIVES - SAVED OUR LITTLE GIRL FROM A LIFE OF BLINDNESS --

AND HELPED TO MAKE THE FARM SHOW ITS FIRST REAL PROFIT.

AND TO SHOW OUR GRATITUDE, WE WILL HAVE HER SENT AWAY TO THAT GLOOMY OLD PRISON THE COUNTY CALLS A --

WE MUST OBEY THE LAW, MY DEAR - SEND ANNIE TO THE INSTITUTION - THE JUDGE WILL SIGN THE PAPERS, MAKING EVERYTHING LEGAL - THEN, WE'LL SEE WHAT WE CAN DO

I SEE - AND UNTIL WE CAN GET HER BACK LEGALLY WE WON'T HAVE TO WORRY ABOUT WHAT'S GOING TO HAPPEN TO THE CHILD - WE WON'T TELL ANNIE UNTIL THE SHERIFF COMES TO TAKE HER AWAY -

AND DADDY TOLD MOTHER EVERYTHING WAS ARRANGED - THE SHERIFF WILL COME AND TAKE YOU TO AN INSTITUTION, AND THEN MOTHER WON'T HAVE TO WORRY ABOUT YOU ANY MORE -

THE ROBINSONS AIN'T TO BLAME - I THINK THEY'RE SWELL - BUT THE LAW DOESN'T LIKE HOMELESS ORPHANS AN' IF THEY DON'T SEND ME TO AN INSTITUTION, THE LAW WILL SEND THEM TO JAIL - WE GOTTA BEAT IT BEFORE THE SHERIFF COMES

TARZAN

By Edgar Rice Burroughs

MATO IMPALED ONE ATTACKER WITH HIS SPEAR, THEN WATCHED, AMAZED, THE WHITE MAN SEIZED THE FOREMOST PANTHER MAN BY THE LEG, JERKED HIM INTO THE AIR, AND SLAMMED HIM AGAINST THE OTHERS!

KNIFE DRAWN, "BUSH SPIRIT" POUNCED ON AND FELLED TWO SPRAWLING ENEMIES... BUT THE THIRD ESCAPED!

"LET HIM GO. SEE THE FISHING EQUIPMENT IN THESE POUCHES THEY LIVE BY A RIVER." MATO GRITTED HIS TEETH. "THEN WE MUST ROUSE MY PEOPLE, GO TO THAT RIVER AND WIPE THEM OUT!"

... LATER, IN THE KEMBA'S VILLAGE, "BUSH SPIRIT" STOOD SILENT BEFORE AWED-INSPIRED NATIVES, AS MATO PROUDLY ATTRIBUTED SUPERHUMAN SKILLS TO HIS "NAMESAKE," AND APPOINTED HIM THEIR LEADER AGAINST THE PANTHER MEN.

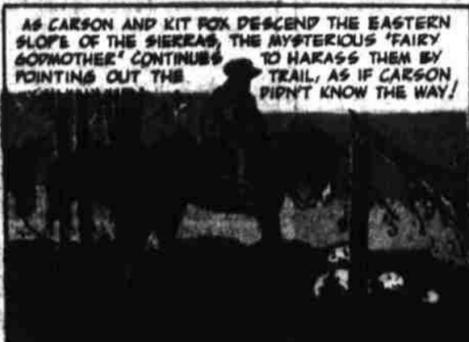

THERE WAS ONE SKEPTIC, HOWEVER. SOBU, THE WITCH DOCTOR, WATCHED HIS RED-RIMMED EYES SMOLDERING WITH JEALOUSY AT THE ATTENTION BESTOWED UPON THIS STRANGER!

Grizzly Tracking

By WARREN TUPES

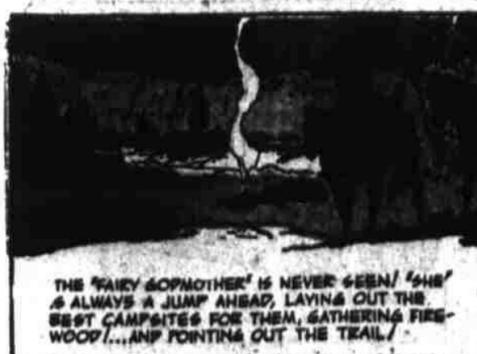

IT CARSON'S PRIDE HAS SUFFERED SOUGHTLY! HE WENT TO GREAT PAINS TO TRACK A PRINCIPAL WAPITI, ONLY TO HAVE IT SHOT FROM UNDER HIS NOSE AND PRESENTED AS A GIFT! NEXT, HE WAS PROWNING BY AN INDIAN BOY TO RESCUE! IN HE LOST HIS FACE!... BUT THESE WERE SAVED BY THE "FAIRY GODMOTHER" WHO SAVED HIM THE WAPITI!!!

AS CARSON AND KIT ROX DESCEND THE EASTERN SLOPE OF THE SIERREAS, THE MYSTERIOUS "FAIRY GODMOTHER" CONTINUES TO HARASS THEM BY POINTING OUT THE TRAIL, AS IF CARSON DIDN'T KNOW THE WAY!

HIS FIBRY TEMPER DOMINATES HIS WHOLE BEING! NONE IS HIS FINE, KEEN-EDGED ALERTNESS! HE FORGETS THE WISE MAN CROSSES APACHE LAND BY NIGHT, WHEN THE TIME IS SACRED....!

THE "FAIRY GODMOTHER" IS NEVER SEEN! SHE'S ALWAYS A JUMP AHEAD, LAYING OUT THE BEST CAMPSITES FOR THEM, GATHERING FIREWOOD!... AND POINTING OUT THE TRAIL!

EACH PASSING BY KIT CARSON BECOMES MORE OUTRAGED... AND MORE CARELESS!

Millions of you women have proved these Tide miracles. You've seen the proof in your husband's cleaner, whiter shirts... in your own bright wash prints.

NEW MILDNESS FOR HANDS! Yes, Tide is kind to your hands-- now milder than ever before. Tough on dirt--but easy on your hands--that's Tide! Get Tide today and hang the cleanest wash in town on your line!
