

Soldiers Join In A-Blasts; No Casualties

Las Vegas Is Rocked By Explosion; Windows Break

LAS VEGAS, Nev. Nov. 1. (AP) — U. S. Army troops were exposed today to an atomic blast for the first time, and came off without casualties and with knowledge which may prove "greater than anticipated."

Official confirmation of the troops' participation in today's blast, which was so strong it cracked store windows in this city more than 75 miles away, came from Maj. Gen. William B. Kean, commanding the Army's Third Corps.

Another Army spokesman said, "this is the one test in which troops will be involved."

The blast went off at 9:30 a.m. (CST) and sent a giant white cloud mushrooming over the Yucca Flat test center in the desert northwest of here.

Seven minutes later Las Vegas was rocked by the concussion.

Windows were broken in at least three stores. The AEC quickly posted notices saying resident suffering from a gas could file claims.

Kean's announcement of the Army phase of the experiments said:

"Army combat troops and service troops, together with a large number of military observers representing the Army, Navy and Marine Corps, participated today in a nuclear detonation.

"This participation involved observation of the detonation, observation of the effects on test items and equipment, and observation of psychological and physiological reaction.

"There were no casualties and no injuries to any of the personnel involved as a result of the detonation.

"This first step toward military tactical employment of the atomic bomb was a test of the effect of its use on the personnel involved.

"The results, when analyzed and tabulated, should have considerable effect upon Army doctrine, training and military education."

It was the first time in the current series of tests that the concussion has been felt in Las Vegas, although blows of window-breaking force reached here from two blasts in a series of five last winter.

A picked group of soldiers was in the field to test the force of the explosion from a few miles away.

The explosion was visible here as the now-familiar flash in the sky to the northwest.

To observers here, and to high military and congressional sources, it meant that operation Desert Rock had gotten under way. That, it is believed, was the primary object of the current series of tests.

Today's was the fourth explosion in the current group. Five went off at the range here last winter.

Seven minutes after the explosion, a distinct concussion rattled buildings here. It was the first time in this series that the sound waves have been noted in Las Vegas.

The rattling was accompanied by a long swishing sound audible to rooftop observers.

The jarring was not nearly so severe as in last winter's blasts, however.

A white cloud soared more than a mile within a few minutes. Its stem disintegrated quickly. The cloud was touched with pink. But from here, at least, the brilliant flashes of color seen in Tuesday's blasts were missing.

The soldiers' 2x2 1/2 inch graph 50. The police switchboard was swamped with calls from anxious Las Vegasans. Many said they felt the sound waves have been noted in Las Vegas.

Police already were alerted to put out patrols quickly in the event of damage to business houses.

During the night, the AEC banned air traffic at two levels between here and Albuquerque to clear the path for the plane of planes coming in for the bomb drop.

From the size of the cloud, it appeared to have been the largest in the present series of blasts.

The soldiers had added confidence after hearing unofficially that Tuesday's big bomb blast, third in the AEC's current test series, was dropped from 31,000 feet and would have landed within

LAY WREATH AT TOMB

Royalty Honors Geo. Washington

By ED CREAUGH

WASHINGTON, Nov. 1. (AP)—Princess Elizabeth and the Duke of Edinburgh motored under leaden skies to Mt. Vernon today and put a wreath on the tomb of George Washington, liberator of the American Colonies from British rule.

Britain's "fair princess," as President Truman called her, and her handsome husband, Philip, were accompanied by Miss Margaret Truman.

It was a gloomy day. It had been raining and overcast clouds held the threat of still more rain. A chill wind blew.

A slushy crowd was waiting on the sidewalk when the royal couple left the presidential residence.

The princess and Miss Truman wore heavy coats. The duke wore a naval uniform.

There was polite handclapping and "so's and ah's" — the latter mostly from bobby-soxers and admirers in admiration of the appearance of Miss Truman.

It was a simple ceremony at Mt. Vernon. Elizabeth and Philip took the wreath and walked alone with it into the tomb. They placed it against the back wall.

When they came out, Philip turned, faced the tomb, and saluted.

Like any other visiting tourists, the couple then inspected Mount Vernon.

Another wreath-laying was scheduled at the tomb of the Unknown Soldier in Arlington National Cemetery, followed by a diplomatic reception in the Canadian embassy.

The day's big event, with 3,000 on the invitation list and thousands more on the disappointed list, was a reception (2:30 p.m. CST) in the big British embassy. Champagne and French pastries were to be served in a circus tent on the lawn. Among those invited: 50 members of Congress.

Back at the Canadian embassy, Elizabeth and Philip will give a formal dinner for President and Mrs. Truman to "pay back" the dinner the Trumans gave Wednesday night at Blair House.

It was evident from the first that the blond duke, though he kept carefully in the background, was the crowd-pleaser of the pair — among the women who lined the curbs and applauded, at any rate.

Byrd Lashes Out At Administration

By REX THOMAS

SELMA, Ala., Nov. 1. (AP)—Sen. Byrd (D-Va.) in a bitter attack on the Truman administration, said today only "an immediate uprising of political virility in the South" will save the Democratic party.

"I am calling on you to save the Democratic party from elements now in control who have debauched its principles and made it a party of political expediency, one of its chief articles of trade being the peddling of political influence," Byrd said.

Urging that the anti-Truman forces in the Southern States "keep themselves free to take whatever effective action may be necessary" to assure President Truman's defeat if he seeks reelection, the Senator added:

"It is my firm belief that the Democrats of the South will not permit the Trumanites to press down upon the brow of America the un-Democratic crown of waste, of socialism, and of detraction from Washington."

Byrd spoke to the Dallas County Farm Bureau. The barbecue gathering had been billed as in part a caucus of anti-Truman Southern Democrats, but Byrd was the only nationally prominent figure on hand.

Saying only the Southern wing of the party can prevent "the downfall of the Democracy and all of the freedoms we hold dear," Byrd said it must ask at next year's party convention for:

Restoration of a rule abolished in 1935, which required a two-thirds vote for the removal of the Senator added:

"It is my firm belief that the Democrats of the South will not permit the Trumanites to press down upon the brow of America the un-Democratic crown of waste, of socialism, and of detraction from Washington."

LATE BULLETINS

WASHINGTON, Nov. 1. (AP)—Gen. Eisenhower is flying home this week and for conferences with President Truman and other top ranking officials.

The White House in announcing this today, said the general is returning for talks Monday and Tuesday to cover matters affecting his Supreme Allied Command and the North Atlantic defense setup.

He will leave Paris at 10 p.m. (Paris time) Friday and spend the week end at Fort Knox, Ky., with his son, Capt. John Eisenhower. He will confer with the President and other administration leaders Monday and Tuesday, holding some of the conferences at the White House.

Presidential Secretary Joseph Short said Eisenhower is coming to Washington at the President's suggestion but said no emergency was involved.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 1. (AP)—The White House announced today President Truman will recommend to Congress that collectors of Internal Revenue be brought under Civil Service.

The announcement was made after Frank E. McKinney, Indianapolis banker and the new Democratic National Chairman recommended such a step to the President.

McKinney in a letter said earlier the President had asked him to help see that the federal service be maintained at the highest standards of integrity and ability and with spotless honor.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 1. (AP)—The government said today that federally-inspected slaughtermen will be ordered next month to set aside part of their beef for the armed services.

Price Director Michael Disalle said this is necessary because the armed services face a severe meat shortage.

Byrd Dissents With Truman's View On 1952

President Thinks Dems Can Triumph On "Real Issues"

By JACK BELL

WASHINGTON, Nov. 1. (AP) — President Truman's assertion the Democrats can win in 1952 on the "real issues" despite a "Republican smear campaign" brought dissent today from Senator Byrd (D-Va.).

Mr. Truman called for an all-out effort to counteract what he labeled as the "big lie" technique in congratulating Frank E. McKinney, Indianapolis banker, on his election as the new Democratic National Chairman.

McKinney succeeds William M. Boyle Jr., who resigned under fire of charges he attempted to influence the making of government loans. Boyle denied the charges and said he quit for health reasons.

The President said in a letter to McKinney Wednesday night — following the latter's approval by the Democratic National Committee on a unanimous voice vote for the position for which the President had chosen him — that the Republicans are directing all of their energies toward "a campaign of slander and vilification."

Without direct reference to anything the Republicans might do, Byrd said he intends to tear into the Truman administration and its domestic policies in a speech at Selma, Ala. today.

Byrd said he had prepared sharp criticism of what he called the "predatory" aims of the Truman administration. His primary objective obviously is to turn Mr. Truman out of office.

Sen. Taft of Ohio, an announced GOP presidential candidate, indicated in a speech at Providence, R. I., Wednesday night the Republicans will battle the Democrats on foreign policy as well as on what the Ohioan called "honesty in the government at Washington."

Taft characterized the Truman foreign policy as "disastrous" and called Byrd an "eminent government spokesman, high caliber and what he said are 'socialists' aims of the administration."

Mr. Truman and McKinney ignored the potential Dixie revolt in a Halloween broom sweeping of the Democratic party's official personnel and policies.

The President counseled McKinney to direct the party organization toward informing the people of what the Democrats have done in the last 20 years, as well as their program "for meeting the problems that still confront our country."

"The truth is the best weapon the Democratic party has," the President asserted. "If we can get the real issues before the people we will win, because on the issues we are right."

With obvious reference to Republican assertions that some Democratic officials have been corrupt and to charges by Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis.) that the government is infested with Communists, Mr. Truman said the GOP was using "a loathsome political technique."

Coldest Spell Of Season Hits Big Spring Area

The coldest spell of the season gripped Big Spring and vicinity today and there was no indication the elements would relent before Friday afternoon.

Though the weather will moderate somewhat by then, fans going to the football game in Lamesa tomorrow night are advised by the weatherman to carry their blankets with them.

A low of 30 is forecast for tonight and a high of 43 for Friday. Slipping temperatures tonight, which may be accompanied by drizzles, may get rid of the insects and chase the ants to cover but can also nip the flowers, unless measures are taken to protect them.

By The Associated Press

Snow and freezing rain fell in the Panhandle today as the season's first real winter weather extended its grip over most of Texas.

Amarillo, Dalhart and Childress all reported snow falling this morning. Lubbock was receiving a freezing drizzle. At Dalhart the thermometer still stood at 25, coldest reported in the state.

Except for the Brownsville area, all of the state had low clouds and a sharp, cold north wind. Early today the temperature at Brownsville was 74 but it was due to plummet when the cold wave reaches the

Local Service Clubs Honor T&P Officials

Texas & Pacific Railway company officials, here for the dedication of the modernized passenger station Thursday, were honored at a joint service club luncheon at the Staties today.

W. G. Vollmer, president of the T&P, looked on the passenger station "being officially opened and dedicated today, as a typical example of our free enterprise system at work. The taxpayers of Big Spring were not asked to provide a single dollar of the cost of modernizing the station. The T&P and not the taxpayers supplied the money. That is the way we want it; that is the way it should be for all enterprise, engaged in business for a profit."

He expressed the hope that the new station facility would be a means of service and enjoyment for the people of Big Spring and area for many years.

Mr. Vollmer headed a list of high officials, including L. C. Porter, vice-president, operations; J. E. Shores, director of employment relations; J. J. Finegan, assistant to the president, from the Dallas office.

The railroad officials were honored guests at the joint meeting at which Kiwanians served as hosts. Lions, American Business Club and Jaycees met with them, as well as some visitors from other clubs. Bernice Freeman, president of the Kiwanis club was in charge of the program.

Doug Orms, Couden president in charge of traffic and who has had some 30 years association in traffic with T&P, gave a brief tribute to the carrier and its officials and personnel. Joe Pickle introduced

Lloyd Robinson State Winner In 4-H Meat Animal Program

Lloyd Robinson, 19-year old Howard County 4-H club boy, is state winner in the 1951 4-H meat animal program. Lloyd Lynch, state 4-H leader, has announced.

Robinson will receive a 17-jewel watch, and his record will be entered in sectional competition for a trip to the National 4-H club congress. The program is sponsored by Thomas E. Wilson of Chicago.

Lloyd is the son of Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Robinson of Knott. He is a member of the Big Spring Central 4-H club and is a 1948 graduate of the Knott High school.

During eight years of 4-H club work, Lloyd's demonstrations have included swine, cotton, grain sorghum, a dairy heifer and beef cattle. He started his beef cattle demonstration in 1944 with one steer. He now owns 12 cows, one bull and three steers.

With beef animals Lloyd has won numerous ribbons and many cash prizes at livestock shows. He has shown 22 steers at local and county shows, seven at district shows, and seven at state shows and 10 in national shows.

He showed the grand champion steer at the State Fair in 1950, and his 1,000-pound steer, Big Spring Special, was judged grand champion at the 1950 International Livestock Exposition in Chicago.

Lloyd encourages other members of his local 4-H club to beef cattle demonstrations. He says, "I have tried to interest other boys, both club members and non-members, to raise more and better meat animals. Our club also tries to interest the public in better methods of raising meat animals."

This 4-H club boy is also active in other phases of 4-H work such as leadership and recreation. He attended the Texas 4-H Junior Leadership Laboratory at Bastrop in 1950 and 1951.

D. W. Lawler, Howard county agricultural agent, who supervises the boy's 4-H demonstrations, says, "Lloyd has advanced in leadership as much as any club member I have had the opportunity to supervise. He is also a polished livestock feeder."

War May Continue Despite Final OK

MUNSAN, Korea, Nov. 1. (AP) — A United Nations officer said tonight the Allies and Reds are in "general agreement" on the eastern half of a neutral zone for a Korean armistice.

The western half of the line is in dispute. The key issue is who will get Red-held Kaesong, where truce talks started July 10.

Negotiators are "nearer to agreement on a buffer zone than ever before," said Lt. Col. L. G. Hill, the briefing officer. He emphasized agreement on the zone would not end the shooting. Hill said:

"There is a possibility the war will go on for a long time afterward."

The buffer zone is only the first point of a proposed armistice. If the battle line changes substantially after an agreement is reached on a buffer zone, Hill said, it probably would have to be negotiated all over again.

Red China's Peiping Radio said the Reds' new proposal contains "the greatest possible concession" the Communists can make on a buffer zone.

Hill said that at the close of three hours of talks today, U.N. and Red subcommittees were in "general agreement" on where a demilitarized zone should run from Kumhwa to the East Coast.

Kumhwa is the right anchor of the old Red Iron Triangle. It is 55 air miles from the East Coast to the approximate center of the peninsula.

Red troops are on the outskirts of Kaesong and about three miles south of Kumhwa.

Hill said the subcommittees differed over where the line should run from Kumhwa to the Kaesong sector and added:

"The United Nations command fought hard battles to get this area. I don't think it would be willing to give up much of it."

Peiping said the western half of the proposed Red line runs from the Kumhwa sector to 6.2 miles northwest of Chorwon, western anchor of the old Iron Triangle; 7.4 miles northwest of Chokpong. It drops southwest passing a mile west of Panmunjom, present truce site. It would end at the mouth of the Imjin River 22.1 miles southwest of Kaesong.

Hill implied the Red negotiators had no choice but to give to the U.N. delegation on many military points.

Communists reporters outside the negotiating tent said, "We are not going to compromise on Kaesong."

The U.N. command wants the former truce site to protect the gateway to Seoul.

The Allied proposal runs between the present position of opposing armies except in the West. In the extreme East, in the West, the U.N.'s dividing line bulges out to incorporate Kaesong in Allied territory.

Sen. Duff Due To Visit Area For Ike Boom

Senator James Duff, Republican from Pennsylvania and a key man in the mushrooming General Eisenhower presidential boom, will make a visit to Texas next week, and will make a stop at Midland. Duff will be in Midland November 9, for a speech in the Midland high school auditorium at 8 p.m. Prior to the talk, a dinner meeting of West Texas Republicans will be held at the Scharbauer hotel, and during the day the Pennsylvanian will hold conferences in the hotel with various delegations interested in the Eisenhower campaign. On the Texas tour, Duff also is to visit in San Antonio, Fredericksburg and McAllen. Jack Porter, Houston businessman and member of the Republican state executive committee, said a statewide check indicated Senator Duff will find overwhelming support for Ike during the 4-day swing across Texas planned for November 7-10. Porter, who is handling General Eisenhower's Texas campaign, arranged Senator Duff's visit to Texas and will accompany him on the flying trip. Porter is contending with Mike Nolte of San Antonio, member of the state executive committee, and Henry Zweifel of Fort Worth, national committeeman, both supporters of Senator Taft, for the Texas delegation. Porter favors the right of each district to vote for the presidential nominee of its own choice but believes that Texas Republicans are overwhelmingly for General Eisenhower. "It is my belief that General Eisenhower will carry Texas if he gets the nomination for President," said Porter, who himself polled more than 400,000 votes as a Republican candidate for the U. S. Senate in 1948.

East Coast Dock Strike In 18th Day

NEW YORK, Nov. 1. (AP)—Marathon negotiations between warring factions of AFL longshoremen ended in deadlock early today, sending the crippling East Coast dock strike into its 18th day. After sounding optimism during the 11-hour session, Merlyn S. Pitzels, chairman of the New York State Mediation Board, announced that the meeting had broken up. "Extraordinary measures must be considered" to end the dispute, he said. The strike, by dissident members of the AFL International Longshoremen's Association, has paralyzed the vast port of New York and the Boston waterfront. Only military and naval cargoes have moved with any regularity. The strikers, who claim to represent 30,000 of the 65,000 dockers from Maine to Virginia, demand the scrapping of a recently negotiated I.L.A. agreement with Atlantic Coast shippers. Local Legionnaires will complete arrangements for a Big Spring delegation to attend the state American Legion convention when the post holds its regular meeting this evening. Delegates to represent the Howard county post will probably be named at the meeting tonight. The session is to start at 8 p.m. in the East Third clubhouse. The state Legion convention will be held in Brownfield, Nov. 10-11.

BIG SPRING AIRMAN One Year, 50 Missions Later, Lt. Arcand Is Home From War

This is an important anniversary in the Andre A. Arcand home at 300 Park street. It was a year ago—on Nov. 1, 1950—that Lt. Arcand was recalled to active duty with the Air Force. Today, 50 Korean missions later, he is back home with his wife, Pat, and two youngsters, Tommy, 6, and Cecelia, 2. Lt. Arcand spent seven of the last 12 months in Korea performing night reconnaissance work as a radar bombardier. His 50 missions, which qualified him for re-tour to the States under the rotation plan, carried the Big Spring airman over practically every square mile of North Korea. The combat veteran spent approximately 250 hours in the air over enemy territory. His tactical reconnaissance unit was concerned primarily with locating, and dis-

K-F Club Speaker Has Knowledge Of Balkan Conditions

A man who has an intimate knowledge of conditions in the Balkans will bring his message to the Knife and Fork club here next Tuesday evening. The club's monthly dinner affair will be at the Settles hotel, beginning at 7:30, and reservations are now being accepted by Club Secretary Tom Rossen. The speaker will be Imre Kovacs, writer, lecturer, and one of the outstanding personal-appearance speakers on the Knife and Fork circuit. Kovacs was educated in Hungary, that part of it which is now under Kremlin control. He later attended Yale and the Juilliard School of Music. He is an American citizen and speaks perfect English. He has made a life-long study of European problems, with special attention to those of the Balkans, and what he has to say touches upon the issues of today. Kovacs is described as a man sincerely and intelligently devoted to the American way of life, and sees the need for it to be made applicable to the European areas.

Arcand, a native of New Britain, Conn., who has lived in Big Spring since the close of World War II, was recalled to active duty from the 9610th VAR squadron of Big Spring, he went to Brooks field, near San Antonio, for processing. From Brooks he was sent to Langley field, at Hampton, Va., for combat crew training. This was done in a light bomber (B-26), the same ship he flew in overseas operations. The flyer arrived in Korea in early April and remained there until Oct. 15 when he completed his 50-mission tour. Arcand received a taste of the Korean winter since it was still "plenty cold" when he landed last April. Hazardous weather, from the flight standpoint, existed throughout the seven months Arcand spent in Korea. Winter was on the way back when he left there two weeks ago, the bombardier said. Lt. Arcand is more concerned about the outlook for South Korean

Animals Take Over Newsworthy Deeds

By The Associated Press Just like people, animals sometimes do the strangest things. And Wednesday, they outdid themselves in a burst of headline happenings. Almost everywhere you looked, animals were in the news. An Arkansas posse tramped through the rugged Ouachita National forest after a leopard, two black bears, a polar bear and six rhesus monkeys — escapes from a circus. Two bull moose, locked in horn-to-horn combat, started a big air-rescue operation with elements up in Alaska. The audience included a batch of wolves and ravens, with food in mind. Ten elevated-subway trains in Philadelphia ran behind schedule because a cocker spaniel took a walk for 20 blocks on the train tracks. A little old fox turned up the other day in the Massachusetts State House, of all places. They caught him Wednesday after he was weakened by ammonia fumes. Near Dedham, Me., a 300-pound bear and a truck collided. One of the vehicle's passengers, Amos Wilson, grabbed an ax, chased the bear 500 feet and killed it. A dog named Skippy surprised the Roger Fossen household in Morris, Minn. Eight months ago the Fossens moved to Morris from Seattle and gave Skippy to a neighbor boy. Sunday there was a scratching at the front door of the Fossen home. It was Skippy — 1,800 miles from Seattle. Twelve more dogs made the news in Louisville. A grocer had the prized bulldogs seized to cover Mrs. Margaret Hoagland's $239 grocery bill. But Mrs. Hoagland will keep the dogs for a while, anyway. The sheriff appointed her as a special bailiff to care for them at her home.

Leopard, Bear Objects Of A Strange Hunt

MT. IDA, Ark., Nov. 1. (AP)—A rare chance to hunt a couple of strange animals for this section of the Southland — a spotted cat and a white bear — brought hunters running to this Western Arkansas area today. The animals are dangerous. The leader of the hunt, Sheriff Wilbur Tidwell, was optimistic over the chances of bringing back the four-footed fugitives — dead or alive. Two leopards, a polar bear, two black bears and several rhesus monkeys escaped when a circus van overturned and freed the beasts in the rugged, sparsely settled Ouachita National Forest, 15 miles northwest of here Wednesday morning. The black bears are tame. Several hours later, one of the leopards was shot and killed on a highway not far from the scene. Although several persons fired, Tidwell credited Arkansas Patrolman Clarence Montgomery with the kill and he was allowed to keep the pelt. The leopard weighed 128 pounds. Montgomery shot with a sub-machine gun. The escaped animals belonged to Campa Bros. Circus, a truck show with a large menagerie. On Tuesday night, while showing in Mena, Ark., a young lion clawed to death the nine-year-old granddaughter of a woman animal trainer.

Tax Increase Comes In Next Pay Check

By JOE HALL
WASHINGTON, Nov. 1. (U)—You start contributing your share of the new $5.7 billion in annual revenue to Uncle Sam today. That averages $38 for each person.

You'll notice the tax increase in your next salary check and probably in a lot of things you buy — cigarettes, an automobile, a tankful of gasoline, a bottle of liquor, a roll of film, or a fountain pen, for instance.

You may even feel it when you put down two bucks on a nag running at Pimlico. Your favorite bookie — if he still is doing business — is taxed that much.

Not quite all the tax-law changes are on the sour side, though. The 21-3 per cent excise comes off your electricity bills. You now can buy baby lotion, a house trailer, a heating pad and a ticket to a high school football game or a symphony concert — all without paying any federal tax. Prices on those tickets may not come down, though — the high schools and orchestras may keep the difference.

All of these changes were in the big bill passed Oct. 19 by Congress to provide more money for the nation's huge mobilization effort. President Truman signed the measure, although he had asked for new revenue of almost twice as much — $10 billion.

Today is the effective date for the new law with the exception of corporation tax increases, retroactive to last April 1.

Most persons are going to be rapped for an income tax boost of about 1 1/4 per cent over what they have been paying. Those in the very high brackets got somewhat lighter treatment; they must pay an increase amounting to nine per cent of their taxable income, left after paying the old tax.

This section of the bill will add about $2.3 billion a year to the nation's tax bill — the biggest single new slice of revenue.

The withholding rate on salaries increases from 18 to 20 per cent. This is applied to income after deduction of exemptions — dependents.

A few examples which show what the income tax boost means: a single man with $3,000 net income will pay $42.00 annual tax; it used to be $38.

A married man with $5,000 net income and no children will pay $63.60 annual tax; formerly it was $76.

A married man with $100,000 net income and two children will pay

$56,052 annual tax; under the old law it was $51,912.

The next biggest revenue producer will be the increase in corporation and excess profits taxes. These will raise an estimated $2.2 billion of extra money annually.

The basic rate on corporations earning more than $25,000 a year is hiked to 52 per cent from 47.

One of the excises — a tax on all bets taken by professional gamblers — plows new ground. It has aroused interest all over the country, among the bookies and numbers operators and those who like to put a bet down now and then.

Lebanon Asks More Voice In Oil Lands

BEIRUT, Nov. 1. (U)—Lebanon has joined Middle East nations demanding a stronger role in running American and British-owned oil facilities in their lands.

The Chamber of Deputies — accusing the American-owned Trans-Arabian Pipeline Company (Tapline) of smuggling oil to Israel and refusing to hire a promised quota of Lebanese — demanded Wednesday that the government push negotiations with all oil companies for revising their agreements with Lebanon.

Tapline operates the world's largest pipeline, spanning Saudi Arabia, Jordan, Syria and Lebanon. A subsidiary of the Arabian-American Oil Company (Aramco), it is owned by the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey, Standard California, Socony-Vacuum and the Texas Company.

Also involved is the Iraq Petroleum Company (IPC) which operates a 560-mile pipeline from Iraq to Tripoli on the Lebanese coast.

Tapline carries 300,000 barrels of oil a day, compared to 110,000 barrels for IPC, but the latter plans to double its capacity early next year.

Tapline has an agreement with Lebanon providing for annual payment of $110,000 for a right of way and $70,000 to cover Lebanon's expenses in guarding the line.

Barbara Payton Talks To Jury About Killings

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 1. (U)—Barbara Payton told a federal grand jury Wednesday what, if anything, she knows about a gangland killing — but she wouldn't tell anyone else.

Miss Payton was accompanied by her husband, Francho Tene. He is at liberty under $500 bond pending trial on a battery charge preferred by columnist Florabel Muir. She says he spit in her face and kicked her shins in an argument at a night club Thursday.

The actress had provided an alibi for a man questioned about the 1959 slaying in Fresno of Abe Davidson, informer in a probe of a narcotics ring. She corroborated Stanley Adams' story that he spent part of the fatal day in Barbara's apartment. Adams later was convicted of perjury.

Policy Board Of Protestants Blasts Truman

NEW YORK, Nov. 1. (U)—The policy-making board of America's largest Protestant group says President Truman has done "a grave disservice to our country" in nominating an ambassador to the Vatican.

The General Board of the National Council of the Churches of Christ in the U.S.A. said in a statement Wednesday.

"Only a prompt withdrawal or rejection of the President's proposal can save this country from a most unfortunate and unnecessary controversy with reactions that will be cumulative as the issue becomes more widely recognized."

The board's request that Mr. Truman withdraw or the Senate reject the nomination was made at an emergency session.

The statement, disclaiming any religious prejudice, protested what it termed "an alarming threat to basic American principles."

It called the nomination "wrong in principle, useless in practice, and... disastrous to the national unity of the American people."

The board's statement did not mention Gen. Mark W. Clark, whose nomination as ambassador to the Vatican was sent to the Senate by President Truman Oct. 20. Congress adjourned without action.

CIO Has Plan For Its Own Disputes

By HAROLD W. WARD
NEW YORK, Nov. 1. (U)—The CIO has devised a plan for settling its own inter-union disputes before they explode into crippling jurisdictional walkouts.

The executive board, representing 41 unions affiliated with the CIO, has unanimously approved an elaborate plan for settling differences as they arise between members' unions over "organizing new groups of workers."

CIO President Philip Murray said Wednesday that the program, which ends with arbitration by a permanent peacemaker, would not "unscramble any omelets" now in existence.

Present jurisdictions would be respected. But new controversies would be put through the machinery, starting with local mediation efforts, then intervention by Allan S. Haywood, director of organization, and — as a last resort — the arbitrator whose rulings would be final.

Proposed for that job is Dr. Frank P. Graham, former U. S. Senator and now head of the Defense Manpower Administration in the Labor Department.

The CIO's convention, beginning Monday, will hear about the action but will have no vote on it.

Secretary-Treasurer James E. Carey said the CIO has more than five million members and $1,750,000 in cash and bonds.

Gib Dawson Forgives His Five Assailants

AUSTIN, Nov. 1. (U)—Gib Dawson, star University of Texas footballer, walked into the police station today and forgave five boys he said beat him up Tuesday night.

His assailants, arrested by detectives late Wednesday night, were amazed at Dawson's gesture.

They shook the halfback's hand and offered to pay for the windshield they broke on his car.

Dawson's example surprised even police, who had expected him to file charges of assault and destruction of property against the five, who he claimed split his lip and worked him over after he chased them in the hot-tap.

The 170-pound fleet runner, scoring leader of the Southwest Conference, his lower lip swollen from the blow where four stitches were taken, looked over the 17- and 18-year-old lads and said "It's o.k. fellows. Let's forget it, I wouldn't want you to have a police record."

None of the five were high school students, but police said they were working Austin boys.

Police said they admitted throwing an orange, which shattered Dawson's windshield and also admitted beating Dawson when he pursued and stopped them.

They said the boys had no previous record of arrest.

John White Wins Court Suit On Debt

WICHITA FALLS, Nov. 1. (U)—John White was the winner today in a court suit involving expenses incurred during the race which made him State Commissioner of Agriculture.

A jury required only 48 minutes Wednesday to decide White did not owe Mrs. H. W. Weir $2,561.22.

"I'm very happy about the verdict," he said.

"I have never defaulted or a debt either before or after the campaign (for commissioner) last summer. I am pleased that the jury made it obvious to the people of Texas."

Mrs. Weir claimed she had loaned White $2,561.22 for personal expenses during his campaign. White denied she had given him any personal money.

Mrs. Weir is a former member of the State Democratic Executive Committee. She was the campaign manager for the youthful faculty member of Midwestern University,

Good Thing Fat Men Enjoy Life; They May Not Be Around Too Long

Everyone is familiar with the theory that overweight is a handicap to longevity, but it remained for U.S. News & World Report this week to round up and print some interesting medical facts on just how dangerous overweight can be.

The magazine interviewed Dr. James M. Hundley, chief of the Laboratory of Biochemistry and Nutrition, National Institutes of Health. First off, Dr. Hundley, when asked if excess fat is really dangerous, answered there's no question about that, it really is. Asked if fat people were happier, he replied:

Slot Machines, Not Inflation, Is Reason For Small Coin Shortages

Every day U. S. mints grind out eight million pennies—the total since C. J. war in Korea started 1,857 million—and still the demand is so great that many federal agencies and private corporations have made appeal after appeal to the public to disgorge their hoards and help relieve the shortage.

It is paying 0.50 for $100 worth of pennies. The Federal Reserve System is unable to meet the heavy demand for pennies, and the Treasury Department has issued appeals to the public to un"lock its hoards and put the small coins back into circulation. Almost every household has a lot of pennies stuffed away somewhere.

UNCLE RAY'S CORNER

Copy Readers Have A Task

Yesterday, I spoke about some of the work which goes on in newspaper offices. News comes in a steady stream, and there is heavy pressure to meet "deadlines" for different editions.

prepare headlines. This may seem like a simple thing to do, but it is hardly simple. A newspaper has its own special kinds of headlines, and there are rules about "letter counts." Only a certain number of letters can be allowed for a line.

In these days, newspapers were without some of the things they have today. Take, for example, the wirephoto machine. This machine sends photographs from distant places to newspaper offices. Its "scanning eye" turns lights and shadows into electric impulses, and these may travel thousands of miles before they reach the newspaper office. Thanks to the wirephoto machine, readers may see pictures on the paper within a few hours after photographs are made in foreign lands.

All leaders are urged to attend. Those desiring conferences with Miss Burgess are asked to contact Mrs. M. A. Cook for appointments.

Avoid Monotony In Room With Furniture Variety

By ELIZABETH HILLIER
Furniture in so many rooms is all the same height. These rooms cut in two from the floor to the ceiling. The lower area crowds in everything of importance in the room, and the upper area is empty. Pictures on the wall and window treatments topped off with cornices help to make the upper reaches of the room more interesting, but a tall piece of furniture does much more. Here, in the small sketch, is a dining room that keeps furniture on the level. And in the larger sketch, the same room becomes twice as handsome because the monotony of chair, table and sideboard heights is broken with a tall and beautiful glass-topped su-

Fred Benners Ready To Go Against Texas Saturday

Purple All Fit For Big Test

By The Associated Press
Bad news for the Texas Longhorns came from the SMU camp today — Fred Benners will be rarin' to go Saturday.

The passer was badly shaken up early in the Rice game two weeks ago and did not appear to have his usual deadly marksmanship for the rest of the game. Late in the fourth period Benners was bounced against a sideline drainage pipe and left the game for good.

Two weeks of rest have made Benners as good as new. Texas Coach Ed Price sent the Longhorn defensive team into a long scrimmage aimed at working out a defense against Benners.

The Mustangs were limited to 40 minutes of outdoor work because of rain.

TCU hobbled all season by outbreaks of injuries at crucial times, was pronounced all fit for the Baylor contest at Waco.

This game could decide the championship. TCU is the leader with two victories and no defeats. Baylor still has a good grip on the ladder in spite of a tie with Texas A&M.

Baylor concentrated on passing and defense. George Sauer had Larry Isbell, Jimmy Davenport and Francis Davidson tossing the pigskin.

Arkansas supporters got hope when Johnny Cole was removed from the cripple list. As safety man, he leads the conference in punt returns.

Rain kept the Razorbacks indoors yesterday. They looked at news pictures of last year's game with A&M, the team the Forkers meet Saturday.

The Aggies took it easy because of a number of injuries. The only non-conference game Saturday pits Rice against Pittsburgh at Houston.

Dan Drake probably will see only limited action because of a bruised hip suffered against SMU two weeks ago.

Goode No. One Rusher In SW

ABILENE, Nov. 1.—Frank (Dumpy) Goode, 165 lb. speedster for the Hardin-Simmons University Cowboys is still the number one rusher in Southwest. He ranks third nationally, trailing only San Francisco's Mattson, who has 1051 yards, and Drake's Johnny Bright, who has 821 yards.

Goode, in six contests, has a total of 800 yards in 152 tries. He has scored eleven times.

Bright set Drake's contest out with Iowa State last Saturday because of a broken leg.

Should the diminutive halfback take over the national rushing honors, it would be the fourth time that head foreman Warren Woodson has furnished the hand with his best rusher since he came to HSU.

It would also be the sixth time that the leading ground gainer has been furnished by the dashing Border Conference and most of the schools, including HSU, did not field teams during the World War II seasons.

Goode, who was nominated for Associated Press All-American honors for his performance against Houston, continued gathering in yards last Saturday with a net of 158 yards in 40 tries against West Texas State. He scored on one against the Buffs for his eleventh touchdown of the season.

Twins Recall Al Costa From Here

Al Costa, star shortstop of the 1951 Big Spring Bronco baseball team, has been recalled by the Sherman-Denison Twins of the Class B Big State league.

The Twins have also recalled Tony Traspuesto, one-time Bronco catcher who spent last season with Havana, and Manny Escobedo, ex-Odessa backstop, who was with Chickasha of the Class D Sooner State league last season.

Lamesa Game Ducats Are On Sale Here

Reserve seat tickets for the Big Spring-Lamesa football game, to be played in Lamesa Friday night, are on sale at two places here.

The ducats, priced at $1.20 each, are available at the school tax office and John Dibrell's Sporting Goods store, and will be until about 3 p.m. Friday.

Big Spring was assigned 212 choice seats—between the 40-yard line on the east side of the stadium.

Broncs Shut Out Twice In 1951

Odessa was shut out only one time in Longhorn baseball league play last season.

TCU's greatest of Big Spring was the lone moundman to hand the Odessa a row of zeros, blanking them with a four-hitter on July 20.

Roswell and Big Spring were each whitewashed twice. Sweetwater and Midland were each blanked seven times. Artesia eight times and San Angelo and Vernon on ten occasions each.

LOOKING 'EM OVER

With Tommy Hart

The other day, I saw things happen on a football field which made me shudder.

Play was waxing warm between a local team and a visiting delegation and tempers were on edge. Officials were doing their best to curb the rough stuff and were marching off penalties whenever they spotted infractions.

It so happened that the opposition (not a varsity team, let it be said) was getting hurt by the penalties. It was very obvious why they were getting hurt. The guests were the rougher and committing too many obvious fouls.

The regrettable part of it all was that a party in the visiting delegation, who must have been one of the coaches, was raging up and down the sidelines, hurling threats at the officials and urging his boys on to more mayhem.

Football is rough enough without grown men prompting their charges to use questionable tactics. It's a sport, remember, and a football field is not a battle pit where men are commissioned to kill one another. The gridiron is a place where sportsmanship should be taught. If winning is the only objective, then let's quit it for a more gentle pursuit.

Braven Dyer, sports editor of the Los Angeles Times, gave Blair Cherry a going-over recently for the magazine article Blair authored condemning sports writers and alumni for influencing his retirement from the coaching game.

Wrote Dyer: "Blair Cherry of Texas had himself a good cry in a national magazine the other day while pasting the daylight out of a sport which brought him a good living and national recognition which it might have been difficult to attain in another profession."

"Cherry was the football coach at the University of Texas. He quit at the close of the 1950 season because, by his own admission, he couldn't take it. Phone calls and letters from irate fans and unsympathetic articles by sports writers led to his departure."

"I am surprised that Blair should be so thin-skinned. He should read my mail if he is really interested in pursuing some really blistering communications."

"It is refreshing the other coaches in the great State of Texas have enough red corpuscles to withstand the rigors of teaching young boys how to run and block and tackle."

"It is easy to knock football, as Blair Cherry did, and for a fat check, too. But it takes a real man to stay in there—pitching, win or lose, when the popular trend is to belittle and besmirch the game."

Supporters of Mr. Cherry will take note. Those are Dyer's remarks, not mine.

Writers may differ widely in their selections of All-America football teams this fall. One thing is for sure, though. Dick Kazmier of Princeton should be a near-unanimous choice.

Wrote Dyer: "Blair Cherry of Texas had himself a good cry in a national magazine the other day while pasting the daylight out of a sport which brought him a good living and national recognition which it might have been difficult to attain in another profession."

READY

J. T. (Brick) Johnson, star back, expects to return to action Saturday when the Big Spring Junior high school Yearlings take on Crockett Junior high in Odessa Saturday afternoon. Brick missed last week's game with San Angelo Edison due to an injury.

TCU hobbled all season by outbreaks of injuries at crucial times, was pronounced all fit for the Baylor contest at Waco.

This game could decide the championship. TCU is the leader with two victories and no defeats. Baylor still has a good grip on the ladder in spite of a tie with Texas A&M.

Baylor concentrated on passing and defense. George Sauer had Larry Isbell, Jimmy Davenport and Francis Davidson tossing the pigskin.

Arkansas supporters got hope when Johnny Cole was removed from the cripple list. As safety man, he leads the conference in punt returns.

Rain kept the Razorbacks indoors yesterday. They looked at news pictures of last year's game with A&M, the team the Forkers meet Saturday.

The Aggies took it easy because of a number of injuries. The only non-conference game Saturday pits Rice against Pittsburgh at Houston.

Dan Drake probably will see only limited action because of a bruised hip suffered against SMU two weeks ago.

Goode, in six contests, has a total of 800 yards in 152 tries. He has scored eleven times.

Bright set Drake's contest out with Iowa State last Saturday because of a broken leg.

Should the diminutive halfback take over the national rushing honors, it would be the fourth time that head foreman Warren Woodson has furnished the hand with his best rusher since he came to HSU.

It would also be the sixth time that the leading ground gainer has been furnished by the dashing Border Conference and most of the schools, including HSU, did not field teams during the World War II seasons.

Goode, who was nominated for Associated Press All-American honors for his performance against Houston, continued gathering in yards last Saturday with a net of 158 yards in 40 tries against West Texas State. He scored on one against the Buffs for his eleventh touchdown of the season.

Twins Recall Al Costa From Here

Al Costa, star shortstop of the 1951 Big Spring Bronco baseball team, has been recalled by the Sherman-Denison Twins of the Class B Big State league.

The Twins have also recalled Tony Traspuesto, one-time Bronco catcher who spent last season with Havana, and Manny Escobedo, ex-Odessa backstop, who was with Chickasha of the Class D Sooner State league last season.

Lamesa Game Ducats Are On Sale Here

Reserve seat tickets for the Big Spring-Lamesa football game, to be played in Lamesa Friday night, are on sale at two places here.

The ducats, priced at $1.20 each, are available at the school tax office and John Dibrell's Sporting Goods store, and will be until about 3 p.m. Friday.

Big Spring was assigned 212 choice seats—between the 40-yard line on the east side of the stadium.

Broncs Shut Out Twice In 1951

Odessa was shut out only one time in Longhorn baseball league play last season.

TCU's greatest of Big Spring was the lone moundman to hand the Odessa a row of zeros, blanking them with a four-hitter on July 20.

Roswell and Big Spring were each whitewashed twice. Sweetwater and Midland were each blanked seven times. Artesia eight times and San Angelo and Vernon on ten occasions each.

Claassen Picks Illini, Texas To Score Wins

By HAROLD CLAASSEN
NEW YORK, Nov. 1.—A party born and a football are the same thing — just a bag of wind.

Here are winners of the coming weekend's football games.

Illinois over Michigan Both are undefeated in the Big Ten and neither apparently is as strong as its record indicates. Karras of Illinois will get enough points to beat Michigan.

Tennessee over North Carolina Even with its flock of injuries, Tennessee is favored.

Princeton over Brown The nation's longest current winning streak goes to 19.

Baylor over TCU Larry Isbell, the Baylor star, is just as good as he needs to be.

Notre Dame over Navy The Irish may be predominately freshmen and sophomores but they know their way around.

Alabama over Georgia Two of the season's biggest disappointments try to salvage something.

Wisconsin over Indiana Wisconsin boasts the strongest defense in the nation.

Texas over SMU. This should be every bit as good as last year's 23-0 thriller, won by Texas.

Georgia Tech over Duke That defensive platoon of the Georgians is a beauty.

Maryland over Missouri Maryland seems headed for the Sugar Bowl.

California over UCLA California is a two-touchdown favorite but it could be much closer.

Southern California over Army It could become a young masher.

Skippping over the others in a hurry: Friday: Boston College over Richmond, North Carolina State over Louisville.

Saturday: East Boston over NYU Cornell over Columbia, Holy Cross over Colgate, Penn State over William & Mary, Yale over Dartmouth.

Midwest: Colorado over Iowa State, Houston over Wichita, Iowa over Minnesota, Kansas over Nebraska, Ohio State over Northwestern, Oklahoma over Kansas.

Taylor A Hard Man To Stop

LAMESA, Nov. 1.—Ray Taylor, star end of the Lamesa football team that faces Big Spring in a District 1-AAA game Friday night, has scored at least once in every game this season.

Taylor has counted 54 points, or nine touchdowns, this year. He ranks second in the district to Ralph Brooks of Midland, who has 60 points.

Brooks, Taylor Are Still 1-2

Ray Taylor, Lamesa end, has made no progress toward overtaking Ralph Brooks of Midland in the District 1-AAA scoring race.

After last week's games, Brooks has 60 points, Taylor 54.

Far back in a tie for third place are James Butler of Sweetwater and Tom Caskey of Plainview, each with 36 points.

The Steer primary averages out to 182 points per man—ever more.

When huge Jimmy Ellaso gets into action—compared to a rather modest 160 pounds for the Tornado forward.

In the backfield, the Lamesans have the edge, 155 to 142. That handicap is lessened somewhat, however, when the 190-pound Richard Prahm wheels into action for Big Spring, and Prahm was an important factor in last week's victory over Plainview.

The Tornados will carry the better record into play. The rugged Tornados have beaten Prahm of Fort Worth, Thomas Jefferson of El Paso and Mineral Wells while losing to Brownwood, Arlington Heights of Fort Worth and Midland.

Midland did a better job of stopping Jerry Millsaps' passing than any other club this year but the slippery 180-pound quarterback still completed one touchdown toss.

He's going to be the biggest headache with which the Steers have to contend, since he can run as well as throw.

In Ray Taylor and Marshall Crawford, the Tornados have two other fine ends in the Lamesa primary is Alvin Smith, a 170-pound tackle who rated all-district honors last season.

PLAY ENDS SATURDAY

Central, West II's Are Still Contenders For WS Title

The Ward school football race draws to a close Saturday, with the title still to be decided.

Central Ward and West Ward are tied for the lead—Central has won a game this season but East is ahead in the standing by virtue of having tied Central some time back.

Central plays a rugged College Heights outfit, defending champion, at 11 a.m. immediately following a contest between North Ward and West Ward.

North is no pushover for any team, in fact, the North Ward team held the lead until a week ago until it was upset by Kate Morrison.

The other contest Saturday, down for 9 a.m., pits Airport against East Ward. Neither team has won a game this season but East is ahead in the standing by virtue of having tied Central some time back.

A league playoff will take place Saturday, Nov. 10.

Two-Weeks Fight Of Bull Moose Finally Ends

FAIRBANKS, Alaska, Nov. 1. (AP)—The vanquished and the victor in Alaska's dramatic battle of the bull moose have been separated—the winner to seek his prize, the loser left on food of the ravens. The U. S. Fish and Wildlife Service did what the two huge gladiators could not—pulled their tangled horns apart after cutting the wire which had enmeshed them. Wildlife Agents Ray Woolford and Frank Glaser concluded the titanic struggle Wednesday after being flown to the remote battleground 20 miles south of here beside the Tanana River. They found one moose dead, its neck broken during the battle that lasted at least two weeks. The other proud and angry animal was bound to its victim by wire, Woolford said, had once tamed a U. S. Air Force target. "The live bull was so mad we could see his red eyes blazing 50 feet away," Glaser reported. "He made repeated attempts to get us while we cut the wire and pulled the broken horns apart." The moose was tied to a tree during the operation. Afterward, the rescuers untied the big animal and he made several angry passes at them. Then, as though lured by the original prize in the battle—a herd of cows (moose)—he stomped away into the woods, his broken horns a silent testimony to his victory.

Confusing Weather Zoning Is No More

DALLAS, Nov. 1. (AP)—Beginning today, Texas is divided into four regions for weather forecasting. It was confusing under the old system when a blizzard was predicted for West Texas, for instance, the thermometer might sag near zero in Dalhart while in Del Rio, 450 miles south, citizens twisted their air conditioner dials upward a notch. Both were in the same forecasting region. Fort Worth in particular had found the Weather Bureau's division embarrassing. It calls itself the city "where the West begins." If formerly was 160 miles east of West Texas by the 81-year-old Weather Bureau's reckoning. Fort Worth now has shaken the East Texas label. It hasn't reached West Texas. It's 100 miles east of the West Texas line—in a new region called North Central Texas. In effect, East and West Texas forecasts most of the time were in general terms. Forecasters in each city predicted their local conditions. That left towns and cities without weather station with no specific estimates of temperatures and probable rainfall. The 100th meridian formerly was the division line. Now West Texas comprises most of the state west of the 99th meridian. East Texas is the area east of the 96th meridian. In between are North Central and South Central regions—new designations. The division line here is the 111st parallel. This still leaves a mass Texas in the West Texas zone, but if necessary because of weather conditions, the bureau will divide this region into seven sub-regions. West Texas often is subject to conflicting movements of major air masses—from the north and from the west. A. M. Hamrick, chief of the Dallas bureau, said thousands of letters protesting the old East-West division had been received. "Cowboys in West Texas don't like to see Abilene, Junction and Kerrville classified in East Texas," he said. East Texas, he added, were none too happy about the bureau arbitrarily placing Abilene and Longview together as if both were in the Piney woods, hallowed ground to deep East Texas.

Iran Planning To Reopen Big Abadan Plant

TEHRAN, Nov. 1. (AP)—Iranian Deputy Premier Hossein Maki said the world's largest refinery, at Abadan—shut down for weeks because of Iran's quarrel with Britain over its ownership—will reopen Sunday. The Anglo-Iranian Oil Company, which owned the refinery, closed it because its storage tanks were filled an Iranian restriction on tanker loadings prevented movement of refined products. The shutdown followed passage of an Iranian law to take over the Anglo-Iranian Company's installations. Prime Minister Mohammed Mosaddegh and his chief of expert, Kazim Hassibi, are in Washington. Hints at renewed negotiations to settle the oil dispute come from there. Hassibi said Iran now could produce 30 per cent of the refinery's normal output of 31 million tons annually without the help of outside technicians. Iranian police said they seized Communist orders showing Russia planned a lightning attack on Northern Iran if Britain had sent troops to hold the refinery. A high authority said Russia planned to occupy Northern Iran, in which Russia has long sought oil concessions, but there were no indications the Soviets had planned to risk a clash with Britain by moving southward to the Persian Gulf.

PAL Plane Lands Normally After Circling WT-NM Area

MIDLAND, Nov. 1. (AP)—A Pioneer Airlines plane which flew over vast reaches of Texas' South Plains and parts of New Mexico, seeking a landing, touched ground normally here early today. The pilot had indicated he intended to make a blind landing at Lubbock because his wings were icing over. Ambulances, fire trucks and other emergency equipment were called out at Lubbock. The pilot then radioed that the plane was losing its ice and he planned to land at Midland. The landing here at 12:34 a.m. was normal, O. H. Morgan, Pioneer station manager, said. The plane left Dallas at 6 p.m. en route to Albuquerque with stops scheduled at Abilene and Lubbock. At Lubbock, visibility was near zero and the plane went on to Tucumcari, an alternate landing field.

One Of Top Men On FBI List Captured

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 1. (AP)—Morley Vernon King, 50, one of the FBI's 10 most wanted men and accused of strangling his wife four years ago in California, will have a hearing today before U. S. commissioner Henry P. Carr. The charge is unlawful flight to avoid prosecution. King, alias William G. Wilson, surrendered to six agents Wednesday night at a Philadelphia restaurant where he was working as second chef. His arrest ended a four-year hunt. King is wanted on a charge of killing his wife, Helen.

Man Is Electrocuted

JASPER, Nov. 1. (AP)—Thomas W. Broom, 47, was electrocuted Wednesday night while repairing a power line damaged by lightning.

Freezing Drizzle Hits Panhandle

By The Associated Press
A freezing drizzle spread across the Panhandle and the Upper South Plains early today but prospects were that the freezing rain would stop around Wichita Falls. The Weather Bureau reported the drizzle was general over the Panhandle at 3 a.m. today. The bureau said the drizzle would continue most of today. Snow fell at many Oklahoma points including Hobart and Guyton, near the Texas line.

THANKFUL, BUT DOESN'T SAY IT
BURBANK, Calif., Nov. 1. (AP)—The Burbank City Council presented Ray Elsenpeter with a plaque and its thanks for his services and settled back to hear his warm response. But Elsenpeter, a former planning commission member, didn't react as expected Wednesday. He said he was surprised to get the award "under the circumstances," and deplored the way "you men see fit to conduct yourselves in public office." He had disagreed with council action on a zone variance request, he explained later.

SOIL CONSERVATION

Cotton After Clover Seems To Aid Land

Cotton following clover and summer fallow on the Willis Winters farm at Vincent will make three times as much as on land where cotton followed cotton, said Winters, who is a cooperator with the Martin-Howard Soil Conservation District.

He planted 75 acres of cotton land to Hubam clover in February 1950 and summer fallowed the land that year. The organic matter apparently improved the soil structure and helped it to conserve more moisture for the crop this summer, as well as adding nitrogen for better plant growth. Winters also observed that cotton following feed on the rest of his land is yielding more than cotton following cotton.

Edgar Phillips harvested about 700 pounds of blue panic grass seed from his farm near Knott in October. His grass made excellent growth this year in spite of the drought, and has stopped washing in some small gullies on the field. L. D. Hopper, of the R-Bar community and a cooperator of the district, stated his cotton was twice as good on land where cotton followed rye with vetch, compared with cotton following cotton. His cotton also produced more where cotton followed peas and where cotton followed feed. The soil improving crops, he said, added organic matter and nitrogen to the soil which helped the land take up more moisture, thus increasing cotton growth.

Hopper's cotton also showed more growth above his terraces, where the water was conserved. Cecil Alfred, who farms north of Knott, had cotton following feed on land that had been deep broken. He had part of his cotton land deep broken last year, planted it to feed and left a stubble mulch. Alfred stated that he made twice as much cotton on the land that was deep broken and stubble mulched as he did on the land that had cotton following cotton. The increased yield was due to the added organic matter and the breaking of the plow sole which allowed the land to absorb and hold more moisture for crop production. Alfred said that his cotton was much better immediately behind the terraces, showing moisture conservation. R. C. Reed, who cooperates with the district on his place five miles southwest of Elbow, has 40 acres of blue panic grass he will combine for seed after the first killing frost. His blue panic produced a good growth and seed and is still green despite the drought. Reed used 18 acres of this grass as a green manure crop and stated it was easy to kill out, for the planting of another crop, by plowing just below the crown of the plant to cut the crown from the root system. The blue panic grass produced a thick, good soil holding and water absorbing stubble mulch, which will give good result on his crop planted next spring. Twelve acres of abuzzi rye were also planted on his farm to protect his sandy land from blowing.

Emmett Grantham has 100 acres of summer peas on his farm located three miles west and one mile south of Knott for a soil improving crop and for seed harvest. Grantham inoculated the seed to insure maximum production and for the improvement of the soil through nitrogen and organic matter.

MAN TAKES HIS WORK SERIOUSLY

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 1.—Edmund H. Stoll, 65, is a man who takes his work seriously. His job Tuesday was to warn motorists away from a Lockheed Aircraft Corp. truck carrying a jet airplane. Stoll, following in his car and flagging vehicles approaching from the rear to slow down, didn't see the truck stop. He was treated for head lacerations.

Just Like Italy

SPRINGHILL, N. S., Nov. 1.—John Bombard thinks anything can be grown in Nova Scotia that can be grown in his native sunny Italy. He grows tobacco, peanuts, ground peaches, almonds, grapes, watermelon, lettuce, broccoli, egg plants and snake cucumbers. He also has a spattering of castor oil plants.

The lumbering town of Cleveland, Nova Scotia, was named in honor of American President Grover Cleveland in 1891.

MOTORISTS GET WORSE

DENVER, Nov. 1.—A man who has driven a million miles on Colorado highways in 25 years says roads and automobiles are improving, but motorists are getting worse.

George C. Walker retired this year as chauffeur for Colorado's highway engineer. "Drivers have got faster cars and they get impatient," he said. "They always want to get ahead of somebody. It's no wonder they have accidents."

Balloon Blast Injures 13

An American soldier (left) runs from exploded marker balloon at Panmunjom peace talk site in Korea. A second soldier falls at the right. A third man is on the ground behind the first soldier (arrow). Thirteen U. S. soldiers were injured by the hydrogen blast which occurred on Oct. 28 while one of four balloons was being refilled. (U. S. Army Photo via radio and AP Wirephoto).

THEY CALL IT ENGLISH

Double-Talk Easier Than Place Names

NEW YORK, Nov. 1 (U. S. P.)—Would you like to go to Haags? Or Bedlam, or Bloody Bay? Perhaps you'd rather visit Come-To-Good, or Christmas-Pie, or even Heaven's Gate.

Paradise is another attractive destination. Naturally, Adam and Eve are nearby. All of these are in Great Britain, and so are Ham Sandwich, Butter Tubs and Beer. If you doubt it, just ask the British Travel Association, which has just announced here a survey of curious place names in Mother England.

You can send postcards home from Twice Brewed, Isle Brewers and Ale Water. Another choice pair are Nobottle and Drinker's End. The Wallops are in Berkshire, so intriguing a name it's used for three towns—Over, Middle and Nether Wallops. Gloucester has Upper and Lower Swell, and Cornwall contributes Indian Queens, Box Shop and Hard-To-Come-By. Great Smoring and Little Smoring are towns in Suffolk. Both are nearly as quiet as Land of Nod in Yorkshire, a town whose people boast of having no trains, buses, shops or telephones.

Llanfairpwllgwyngyllgogerychwyrdrwanidylliwuoroch is famous as the longest name in the Welsh language (or any other) and if you can pronounce it, you have a clean passport for Ysippy Yst with.

Bond Street is famous for fashion, but it should be fun to shop in Wardrobe, Pant, Smallshoes, Stocking Green and Undy. If a man sends something home for a special girl, what better postmark than Heart's Delight or Cupid's Green? Bachelor's Bump might give him pause, though.

The American traveler, baffled by left-side driving, may take some reorientation to realize that signs reading Bend, Turn, Sway and Holdfast are towns, not traffic instructions.

For animal lovers there are the towns of Dogpole, To-o'-th'-Cow, Cats Common, Catsfield, Catsby, Catford and Catsbrains.

The homestead tourist is cheered by signs in Lincolnshire pointing to Boston, to Philadelphia in County Durham, and Hollywood near Birmingham. But Broadway—a quiet village in the Cotswold country—won't look much like home.

Shades of the United Nations, there's Moscow on the banks of the Volga in Scotland; and in Suffolk, New Zealand and Gibraltar. Britain is conveniently small for international geography; in Oxford you can walk from Mesopotamia to Jericho.

Whimsy alone hasn't dictated Britain's odd and wonderful place names. Its lore, history of invasions and migrations left a record on the map. Most of the names derive from Germanic, Scandinavian or French sources; Pity-Me is a corruption of Petit Mer. Many names are Welsh in origin, left when the Celts moved westward before the Saxons. The name Wales itself means "foreign."

Britain's place names, traced to their original sources, clearly describe it as a land of woods and

Aussie To Modify Carriers To Jets

SYDNEY, Australia, Nov. 1 (U. S. P.)—Australia plans to modify her two aircraft carriers so that jet planes and new anti-submarine planes can operate from them.

Plans were disclosed at a news conference by Rear-Adm. J. W. M. Eaton, new flag officer commanding the Australian Fleet.

Rear-Adm. Eaton said the flat-tops would be modified to follow the modern trend of naval warfare—to make the carrier the hard core of the fleet.

GRAVEYARD, AGE 5,000 IS FOUND

ROME, Nov. 1 (U. S. P.)—The 5,000 year-old graveyard of a whole village of pint-sized, pin-headed cavemen has been found near Verona in the foothills of the Italian Alps.

Prof. Francesco Zorzi of the Natural History Museum of Verona says these neolithic men must have lived in an age when elephants roamed Europe at least 3,000 years before Christ. The burial ground was found in a clay deposit within a few miles of Verona, in fields where for several years farmers have been digging up bits of archaic stone-work and fragments of elephant bones.

With or without the story of their derivation, Britain's place names make fascinating discoveries for the traveler. Where else in the world can you face a signpost that directs "Make-Em-Rick?" Or one that points to Upper Whiskers? Or Woeful Dane Bottom?

In Cambridge you can read: "No Hurry, five miles from Anywhere."

The National Geographic Society says the Australian dingo is the most dog-like of wild canines.

Doughnuts 'n Coffee Are Popular Treat

In our busy American way of life, the term "doughnuts and coffee" has become almost synonymous with a quick mid-morning or lunch-time snack. But home-made doughnuts are a welcome treat anytime of the year.

The delicious bits of dough dropped in grease at just the right moment, take on added flavor in the fall when served with tangerine or fresh, hot coffee. Made at home, they are as good as any that can be bought.

Orange puff is the ideal dessert, nourishing and a favorite with the children. If it's for a party, orange puff may be served with frosted doughnuts and cider.

Orange Puff Custard
4 marshmallows
1/2 cup dates
2 cups milk
1 package orange dessert powder
Cut marshmallows and dates in small pieces. Combine and divide among 4 or 5 custard cups or paper cups. Warm milk slowly lukewarm, stirring constantly. Test a drop on inside of wrist frequently. When it feels comfortably warm (110 degrees F.), remove at once from heat. Stir in entire contents of package at one time. Mix until powder is dissolved. Pour while still liquid over marshmallows and dates in individual dishes. Do not disturb for about 10 minutes, while the milk sets. Then chill in refrigerator until serving time.

Doughnuts and coffee are a satisfying, energizing combination that wins everyone's approval, whether for breakfast, a mid-morning snack, a quick luncheon or a midnight refresher. The same doughnuts combine with peaches, whipped cream and maraschino cherries to delight the family. Back home they were fried cakes, but these days most people call them doughnuts. Whatever the title, no doughnut is complete without a dash of applesauce. Here's a new-fangled recipe that used waffle mix in a taste-teasing combination.

Applesauce Doughnuts
2 packages waffle mix
1/2 cup sugar
1/2 teaspoon cinnamon
1/4 teaspoon nutmeg
1 1/2 cups applesauce

Combine waffle mix, sugar and spices. Stir in applesauce, to make a soft dough. Roll out 1/4 inch thick on lightly floured board; cut with doughnut cutter. Fry in deep fat heated to 375 degrees F. turning once. Drain on absorbent paper. Makes about three dozen doughnuts, plus the "holes."

Yeast-leavened doughnut puffs offer some pleasant fall "extras" in the way of sweetbreads. When fried nut-brown, the puffs are rolled in granulated sugar.

Yeast-leavened Doughnuts
1/2 cup heavy cream, whipped
1 tablespoon sugar
1/4 teaspoon vanilla extract
1/2 dozen doughnuts
6 canned peach halves.
Blend sugar and vanilla extract into whipped cream. Spread sweetened whipped cream over the top of each doughnut. Place peach half, cavity up, on the whipped cream. Place a fresh strawberry or cherry and a sprig of mint in each peach. The recipe is for six cups.

Drop doughnuts are fun to make, and twice as much fun to eat. These have a new twist in flavor.

combining coffee and walnuts, that make them a particularly happy choice for any fall get-together.

Coffee Walnut Doughnuts
1 cup sugar
3 cups sifted flour
3 teaspoons baking powder
1/2 teaspoon baking soda
1/4 teaspoon salt
3 eggs, well beaten
1 tablespoon melted shortening
1 cup coffee
1-3 cup finely chopped walnut meats.

Mix and sift sugar, flour, baking powder, baking soda and salt. Combine eggs, melted shortening and coffee; add to dry ingredients. Stir in walnut meats. Drop by tablespoons into deep fat heated to 365 degrees F. Fry until golden brown on both sides, turning once. Drain on absorbent paper. The yield is 30 doughnuts.

Doughnut Puffs
2 packages yeast, compressed or dry granular
1-4 cup lukewarm water
1 cup milk
1/2 cup sugar
2 teaspoons salt
2 eggs, beaten
1 teaspoon grated lemon rind
1/4 cup sifted shortening
5 cups sifted flour
1/4 teaspoon nutmeg

Fat for frying
Soften yeast in lukewarm water. Scald milk. Add sugar and salt. Cool to lukewarm. Add 2 cups flour and nutmeg. Mix well. Add enough more flour to make a soft dough. Turn out on lightly floured board and knead until satiny. Place in greased bowl, cover and let rise until doubled. Punch down. Let rest 10 minutes. Roll out 1/4-inch thick and cut with floured biscuit cutter. Let rise on board until doubled and fry in deep fat (375 degrees F.) 2 minutes on each side. When cool, roll in granulated sugar to which a dash of cinnamon has been added. If preferred, frost with powdered sugar icing. The yield is approximately 3 dozen 2-inch puffs.

When refreshments need to be quick and easy as well as filling, cheese and doughnuts with the cheese served sandwich style between doughnut halves are hearty "sandwiches" that may be eaten comfortably on the porch or around the television set.

Cheese on Doughnuts
6 doughnuts
3 slices brick cheese
Slice doughnuts in half across. Separate the cheese slices. Cut each slice in half diagonally. Place the triangles on half of the doughnut, slice and cover with the top half of the doughnut. Serve as a quick snack.

An appealing and luscious dessert can be made by serving doughnuts with pineapple, whipped cream and hot buttered pineapple sauce, the recipe for which is given below.

Chicken-Tongue Dish Makes Hearty Fare

By CECILY BROWNSTONE
Associated Press Food Editor

Here's a casserole that's he-man's fare. It's a hearty combination of chicken and tongue with a sauce made zestful with instant chicken bouillon cubes. These cubes are convenient to use when you need a chicken stock to enhance a main dish, a soup, or a sauce for vegetables. Just serve a tongue casserole, and a fruit dessert, and you'll have an easy-do supper. Nice, too, because you can prepare this casserole ahead of time and then pop it into the oven at the last moment.

CHICKEN AND TONGUE CASSEROLE

Ingredients: 1-3 cup butter or margarine, 1-3 cup flour, 1/4 teaspoon pepper, 5 instant chicken bouillon cubes, 2 cups water, 1 cup light cream, 2 cups diced cooked or canned chicken, 2 cups diced celery, 1 can sliced beef tongue, 3 cups hot mashed potatoes, melted butter or margarine.

Method: Melt butter or margarine in top of double boiler; blend in flour and pepper. Add chicken bouillon cubes; crush; blend in. Add water and light cream; stir over low heat until smooth and thickened. Add chicken and celery. Cover; cook over hot water 10 minutes. In a casserole arrange sliced tongue and chicken mixture in alternate layers, beginning and ending with tongue. Top with circles of mashed potatoes. Brush potatoes with melted butter or margarine. Bake in moderate (375F.) oven 15 minutes or until potatoes are browned. Makes 6 servings.

Another way to use chicken bouillon cubes is in a vegetable soup for a lunch. It's delicious served with a platter of cold meat and some crisp greens. Let dessert be a berry cobbler and you're all set for "just the family" or for company.

VEGETABLE ASPIC SALAD

Ingredients: 1 envelope unflavored gelatin, 1/4 cup cold water, 2 instant chicken bouillon cubes, 1 cup boiling water, 3 tablespoons sugar, 1/4 cup lemon juice, 1 tablespoon grated onion, 1 package quick-frozen mixed vegetables

STEAMING CHICKEN AND TONGUE CASSEROLE ... A hearty combination that can be prepared in advance

(cooked and chilled), watercress, juice; chill until consistency of un-beaten egg white. Fold in onion and cooked mixed vegetables. Method: Sprinkle gelatin on cold water. Dissolve chicken bouillon cubes in boiling water; add to gelatin with sugar; stir until gelatin and sugar dissolve. Add lemon

That something that will be ready to eat in 30 minutes is Chili De Luxe. Prepare this casserole before the game and refrigerate, then when you get home, pop it in a moderate oven.

In the meantime, you may set out a big bowl of potato chips and a dish of assorted relishes. Perhaps you'll want to heat buttered French bread to serve with the casserole. For dessert, serve big wedges of apple pie with cheese.

Recipe Winner Likes Antiques, Animals

"You can live with antiques and enjoy them and they won't talk back to you," says Mrs. David Waldo Jones, 1703 E. 17th, this week's recipe winner.

"But when the wind and the sand blow I feel like an antique myself," she hastily adds.

Lady Frances Stevenson was married to David Waldo Jones in 1926. Both were residents of Oakland, Calif., at the time. They moved here in 1927. He is a brakeman for T&P. The Jones have one child, Lady Frances, a ninth grade student.

Besides collecting antiques, Mrs. Jones enjoys working with her guinea, ducks, rabbits, birds, cats, goats and a dog.

Her prize winning recipe is an old favorite with the family, having been handed down from her grandmother.

Recipe Of The Week

Be careful when cooking cheese dishes, the protein of cheese is toughened by high temperatures and over-cooking.

Almost any degree of sharpness and gradation of flavor can be found in cheeses of the cheddar type. The mildest are the Wisconsin and Loughboron cheeses while the New York is sharper.

Milder varieties are good in sandwiches and sharper cheeses are most desirable for cooked dishes.

UN HAS A PROBLEM

How Do You File A Machine Gun?

By ADELAIDE KERR
UNITED NATIONS, Nov. 1. (UP)—The United Nations has a new kind of problem as puzzling as any political snarl it ever faced. How should it archive file a machine gun or a bottle of wine? Such things foreign to filing systems have been sifting into the archives for years, sent by well-wishers and friends. Now the pile is big enough to pose a real problem.

The U.N. archives, directed by Robert Claus, are equipped to store tons of paper—speeches, resolutions, correspondence, bills and such. Already nearly 13 million papers and 30,000 speech recordings are filed in 12,500 cubic feet of records, in neat blue boxes on metal racks.

But how to file a Samoan kava bowl or a four-foot model of an outrigger canoe—or a hundred other oddments U.N. has acquired—is another thing.

There are the machine guns and uniforms used by Greek guerrilla soldiers in the civil strife after World War II. The Greek government sent them to the U.N. to support its contention some of the Greek guerrilla supplies had been made in Soviet Russia.

There are the big Samoan canoe models, carved of wood in the shape of a fish, which the Samoan people presented to a visiting U.N. mission. They came with colorful woven baskets, handbags covered with shimmering shells, woven grass drapes trimmed with tufts of red feathers and wooden bowls for lava, the native drink.

From West Africa came woven straw hats, a leather quiver and beautiful carved ivory vases and dishes.

A New York rabbit sent candle-abra, candles, cups and two bottles of wine—ritual accoutrements for conducting a seder service (part of the Passover ceremonies). The rabbi's idea was that if Americans, Russians and U.N. officials conducted a seder service together, they might be inspired to find the way to peace.

An expensive wrist watch, a bill painting and scrolls have come from well-wishers.

U.N. has some interesting records and memorabilia, too. There are the records of the defunct United Nations Relief and Rehabilitation Administration, which workers checked to collect more than a million dollars in shipping overcharges. Stored nearby are the first U.N. flag flown in Korea and the first draft of the Declaration of Human Rights.

One of the most cherished documents is not official. It is a small note, painstakingly written in ink, dated March 22, 1946, found in the new ballot box of the security council, when it convened for the first time at Hunter College in the Bronx. Take it out of its plain manila envelope marked "First Security Council Ballot" and you read: "May I, who have had the privilege of fabricating this ballot box, cast the first vote? May God be with every member of the United Nations Organization and through our noble efforts bring lasting peace to us all—over the world." (Signed) Paul Antonio, mechanic.

Right now U.N. houses its curios in locked safes, iron-bound boxes and files in a special locked room. What the future filing solution for it is, no one knows. But there is a plan afoot for a little U.N. museum where such things could be on view and a committee is working on that now.

FOR THE FUTURE

Jap Leader Says Nation Has Hope

By THOMAS A. BOYNTON
NEW YORK, Nov. 1. (UP)—A Japanese leader in world trade says his countrymen "are filled with hope for tomorrow."

Tetsuzo Maeda, managing director of Daiichi Bussan Kaisha, Ltd., one of Tokyo's biggest import-export houses, outlined here a broad plan for Japan's possible future position in the society of nations.

Among other things, he said, Japan wants to sell whale oil to Germany, seafood and wire to Hong Kong, textiles and canned fish to the United States, metal products to Britain and all sorts of manufactured goods to the world.

To do it, Japan has an abundance of manpower waiting to work, Maeda said in an interview. But she needs four things first—open, two-way commerce, capital investments, raw materials and technical training.

Given those four, Japan has one more big objective, Maeda said. That is to teach technicians in other heavily populated Far Eastern countries the lessons she learns herself. Then new industries of the East could help supply the West.

A goal would be to have Japan become part of a team of Asiatic nations making things other democratic countries want to buy, Maeda said. Also on that team would be the Philippines, Indonesia, India, China, Burma, Malaysia, Pakistan and "maybe, later, China."

Maeda said his firm—largely staffed by former officers of the once-great Mutual Combine—is making a big contribution toward the speeding of Japanese recovery. Daiichi is making ready to move now, he said.

"Millions of dollars in new investments may result from a study now being made by Bache," he said. Bache & Company, a New York financial concern, owns one-fourth interest in Daiichi. The interests of Daiichi cover manufacturing, investment and shipping as well as world trade, Maeda said.

Keeps Busy
NORWICH, Ont., Oct. 22. (UP)—Mrs. Melissa Cowan, believed the oldest resident of Oxford County, has just celebrated her 101st birthday. Living with a daughter-in-law, she said she had no recipe for longevity because during her first 100 years she was too busy to think about it.

The National Geographic Society says the Chinese drilled wells 1,000 years ago with bamboo pipe.

7 Major Department Stores Due in State

HOUSTON, Nov. 1. (UP)—Federated Department Stores, Inc., which owns two major Texas establishments, plans to establish seven more.

Stores will be built in Amarillo and Wichita Falls, Fred Lazarus, Jr., president, said Tuesday. He declined to name the other sites, but said they would be in medium and small cities.

The firm operates Foley's here and recently purchased Sanger Bros. in Dallas.

Outlay for the seven stores will be more than $20 million, Lazarus said.

TO W-T FARMERS

Crop Production Funds Available

An additional source of funds for crop production purposes is available to farmers in a 21-county area in West Texas where an extended drought has caused a virtual crop failure, William P. Sauer, County Supervisor of the Farmers Home Administration has announced.

His agency is to provide funds to farmers in counties who have suffered production losses on crops and livestock, for seed, fertilizer and materials for insect control, where needed, gas and oil for tractors, essential farm and home operating expenses, and repairs to machinery and other incident to production of a crop.

Counties included in the area are Donley, Hall, Collingsworth, Childers, Dickens, Kent, Lynn, Garza, Dawson, Borden, Scurry, Fisher, Martin, Howard, Glascock, Mitchell, Nolan, Taylor, Callahan, Eastland and Edwards.

Before a loan may be made, the applicant must have suffered damage as a result of the prolonged dry weather and he cannot obtain the credit applied for from banks or other responsible local sources. Disaster loans will not be made for the purpose of refinancing existing debts, either secured or unsecured, or for the payment of cash rent.

Following a survey of the affected counties, L. J. Cappleman, State Director of the Farmers Home Administration, issued a statement in Dallas concerning the purpose of the loan program. Federal credit of this type will be available to family-type farmers who have sustained losses and who cannot obtain from local sources the funds required to carry on their farming operations and put in a crop in 1952.

Designation of the area followed recommendations submitted by local credit agencies through Cappleman's office. Designation is made by the U.S. Secretary of Agriculture, when justified.

Improved farming practices that are emphasized in the F. H. A. Home program are discussed and agreed upon between the County Supervisor and the applicant at the time loan application is prepared. Funds necessary to finance a crop program are available now, the Supervisor stated. His office is located in Room 25, Basement of the Big Spring Post Office.

Crop Prospects in State Are Better

AUSTIN, Nov. 1. (UP)—Texas crop prospects everywhere but in the West have been improved by recent light to heavy soaking rains.

The U. S. Department of Agriculture's survey of crop and range conditions through noon Tuesday added that more rain is needed. Wheat, oats, winter-legumes and vegetables were aided but need more moisture.

Moisture is now adequate in the Northwest to germinate wheat seeded in the dust. Crops already up responded to the rainfall. In the eastern half, farmers planned to start seeding oats, clover and cover crops when the soil dries out.

In those areas, some were waiting for disappearance of the army worm menace before planting.

The sorghum harvest made good progress in the Northwest but was slowed in the Southern High Plains and Low Rolling Plains because cotton was taking most of the labor. Sweet potato and peanut harvests were rolling everywhere.

Coastal Bend and Lower Valley planting of vegetables stood still because of wet fields. Some beets, cabbage, onions and spinach were up to a good stand.

Western Plateau and Trans-Pecos counties continued dry and cured range feed was short. Movement of sheep and goats out of these regions was heavy, and marketing of cattle and calves was active.

LAD IS HIS OWN CASUALTY
HAMILTON, O., Nov. 1. (UP)—"A man is shooting up Market Street."

Hamilton police rushed to the scene. The "man" was Tonnle Jones, 4.

Left alone in an automobile, he'd found a gun in the glove compartment and pulled the trigger.

The only casualty was Ronle. He shot off part of a finger.

THE PAS, Man. Nov. 1. (UP)—Vera Ann Spencer must have one of the best attendance records of any Sunday school member in Canada. Now 18, she started going to Sunday school at the age of two. Since she was 5, she hasn't missed a week.

Mama Did Like Lawton, She Reveals

CLEMENS, Mich., Nov. 1. (AP) — Lawton Smith, Jr., 20, was courting pretty Betty Altermatt, 17. But somehow, he felt, Betty's mother, Mrs. Joseph Altermatt, wasn't sympathetic to his suit. Just little things, nothing he could put his fingers on.

Maybe, Lawton thought, matters would improve if he would win Mrs. Altermatt's sympathy. But how to do that? At last, he had an idea. He persuaded a friend, Robert Nicholson, 21, to drive him out into the country. There he shot himself twice in the right leg, and had Nicholson drive away with his car, his gun and his billfold.

When he was discovered by passersby, he told a tale of a brutal young hitchhiker who shot him to prevent him from reporting the robbery. That was June 4.

Betty visited him while he was in the hospital, and sure enough, Mrs. Altermatt seemed lots friendlier. After he got out of the hospital, Betty and he were married.

State Police Detective Jack Pietzke continued checking the report. This week, he talked to Smith again. Smith finally admitted the hoax, and told the reason.

He was taken into Municipal Court Tuesday, charged with making a false report to police. He pleaded guilty and was released under $500 bond to await trial.

Then, ironies of ironies, Mrs. Altermatt said: "We never had anything against Lawton and wouldn't have tried to prevent his marrying Betty."

Excise, As Well As Your Income Tax, Go Up Today

By JOE HALL
WASHINGTON, Nov. 1. (AP) — Individual income taxes go up today. So do the excise, or sales taxes on gasoline, cigarettes, liquor and a long list of luxuries, semi-luxuries and necessities.

The rises are part of a $5.7 billion tax bill passed by Congress earlier this month. President Truman had asked rises of nearly twice that much because of higher spending for the mobilization program.

The personal income tax boost — amounting to about 1 1/2 per cent for the average taxpayer — will raise the most new money $2.28 billion a year.

Every salary and wage earner will feel it in his first pay check in November. There will be a bigger amount withheld for Uncle Sam.

Corporations contribute the second largest slice of new revenue, $2.2 billion a year. Most will not actually pay this until next year when they send in their 1951 tax returns. The increase was made retroactive to last April 1.

It is the excise tax increase which most consumers will meet up with first. This takes effect Thursday.

Many retailers were doing a boom business today as buyers of liquor and other products rushed to beat the higher taxes.

The main excise tax increases and changes:

Liquor — From $9 to $10.50 a gallon. This boost figures out to about 26 cents a fifth.

Beer — From $8 to $9 a barrel. This amounts to about one-third of a cent a bottle.

Wine — Increases ranging from 14 to 24 per cent.

Cigarettes — From seven to eight cents a pack.

Gasoline — From one and one-half to two cents a gallon.

Automobiles and motorcycles — From seven to 10 per cent.

Trucks, buses and trailers — From five to eight per cent.

Automotive parts and accessories — From 5 to 8 per cent.

Electric, gas and oil appliances — Not now taxed, they become subject to a 10 per cent tax.

Sporting goods — Removes from tax many items largely used for school sports, and by children such as baseball equipment, basketballs, boxing gloves, football equipment, skates, sleds, soft ball equipment, and most track and field equipment. Increases the tax from 10 to 15 per cent on all other sporting goods except fishing equipment where the rate is left at 10.

Photographic equipment — 25 per cent tax on cameras and other photographic apparatus is reduced to 20 per cent; a per cent tax on film is raised to 20 per cent.

Fountain pens — Taxed at 15 per cent.

Cigarette, cigar and pipe lighters — Taxed at 15 per cent.

Gambling — A 10 per cent tax. The new law cuts some taxes and eliminates a few.

These include:

A cut from 18 to 10 cents a pound on chewing and pipe smoking tobacco.

Elimination of the seven per cent tax on house trailers.

Elimination of the five cents a pound tax on tires used in toys.

Exemption from the 10 per cent excise of all electric heating pads.

Removal of the 3-1-3 per cent tax on electricity.

Elimination of the 20 per cent retail tax on baby oils, powders and lotions.

Reduction from 25 per cent to 15 per cent in the tax on domestic telegraph, cable and radio messages.

Elimination of the 15 per cent tax on fishing boat trips.

Elimination of the 20 per cent admissions tax on high school athletic events, symphony concerts, operatic performances and most benefit performances given for churches, educational organizations and charitable organizations.

One State Takes Off Price Controls

SYDNEY, Oct. 30. (AP) — The New South Wales State Government has removed the price freeze order on thousands of goods and services it made July 24. The order had pegged the price or virtually everything at July 18 levels. It had been made to cushion the effect of the August basic wage rise of $1.44 a week. Prices that were controlled before July 18 — such as for bread, butter, eggs, rent — remain under control.

Parcel Post Rates Going Up To The UK

KUALA LUMPUR, Malay, Nov. 1. (AP) — Parcel post rates to the United Kingdom are going up. The charges, effective Oct. 1, will be $3.55, $4.90, $1.25 and $2.00 for parcels not exceeding 3 pounds, 7 pounds, 11 pounds and 22 pounds, respectively.

The postmaster-general of Malaya said the increases are entirely due to higher handling and delivery charges to be paid in Great Britain.

Singapore Folks Have No Taxes For Year 1952

SINGAPORE, Nov. 1. (AP) — The people of this rich and flourishing port city won't have to worry about new taxes for 1952.

The Singapore government's budget omits any mention of any tax rises. Collection of income taxes this year was said to have greatly exceeded original estimates.

Bite Is Unusual

MONTREAL, Nov. 1. (AP) — Mrs. Ernest Hebert was treated for an unusual bite on the farm. The provincial laboratory identified the attacker as a non-venomous scorpion commonly found in Central America, probably reaching Mrs. Hebert's home in a bag of imported fruits or vegetables.

Thief Has No Idea About Choice Meat

SYDNEY, Australia, Nov. 1. (AP) — Someone stole a wagon containing 5,000 pounds of meat in Sydney the other day. The thief carved himself a Sunday roast, then abandoned the truck.

Police said the man cut himself "about the worst roast in the wagon."
