Jailed Negro Claims Was Ordered To Beat Brother

BEAUMONT, Nov. 13. (AP)—Leroy Dorsey testified in Federal Court that he was ordered to beat his brother after the two Negroes were arrested on a burglary charge and placed in the Orange jail.

Dorsey began testimony Monday as the chief prosecution witness in the trial of four Orange police on charges of violating the constitutional rights of Levi Dorsey, 27.

Levi Dorsey was held in jail several days last February during the investigation of a burglary. He died a few days after being released from the Orange jail.

Leroy testified that on several occasions he had seen his brother at the jail after both were arrested on the same burglary charge. He said Levi's face and body were swollen and his eyes closed and puffy.

Leroy said he did not know the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People had offered a reward for evidence leading to conviction of the four policemen.

The defendants are Police Chief Alvin Keon; his assistant, Henry Stanfield; and Officers O. A. Folsom and George Powell.

The indictment charges that while Levi Dorsey was under arrest the officers, "while holding him in custody wilfully and without legal cause or authority, with pistol, fists, clubs, leather straps, rubber hose and other weapons did strike, beat, bruise, assault and abuse" him. The indictment also charged that Dorsey was exposed to severely cold weather and was not given proper medical care.

The Orange County grand jury dropped the case when the federal government stepped in. The FBI spent months investigating.

All four men denied mistreating or threatening to mistreat the prisoner.

"within a few weeks now." He gave no hint as to what it might do. The panel has the options of returning indictments, declining to indict, or filing a progress report for further investigation.

The panel was convened March 12 after a Senate Banking Subcommittee headed by Senator Fulbright (D-Ark) reported the RFC in some cases had yielded improperly to an "influence ring" with contacts in the White House.

President Truman described the subcommittee's report as asinine. Later he recommended a reorganization, narrowly approved by Congress, which abolished the old RFC board of five directors and placed the agency under a single administrator, W. Stuart Symington.

The Fulbright subcommittee touched off the inquiry by sending the Justice Department copies of testimony.

The subcommittee named E. Merl Young, husband of a White House stenographer and a former RFC employe; Donald S. Dawson, an aide to President Truman; Joseph H. Rosenbaum, Washington lawyer; and Rex Jacobs, Detroit industrialist, as persons of unusual influence in RFC affairs.

Truman Works On January Messages

By ERNEST B. VACCARO KEY WEST, Nov. 13. (AP)—President Truman's press secretary said today he has already started preliminary work on three major messages for Congress in January.

Joseph Short said Mr. Truman has gone over with his staff the broad outlines of the "State of the Union" message and that work is under way on the budget and economic messages which will follow it.

Sharing importance with the messages will be the President's meeting sometime in January with British Prime Minister Churchill in Washington. Financial aid for Britain will have a major part in the talks.

There is no disposition on the part of the administration to overlook the importance of an economically strong Great Britain to this country's defense program.

W. Averell Harriman, the mutual security administrator, will be able to give the President an advance briefing on the English situation.

The President may be expected to renew to Congress his demands for enactment of the "fair deal" program in its entirety, including his civil rights proposals.

While these measures have been given a cool reception, close associates say he is convinced their popularity with the people generally was demonstrated by his 1948 election victory.

Mossadegh Holding Final Conferences

By JOHN SCALI WASHINGTON, Nov. 13. (AP)—Iran's Premier Mohammed Mossadegh, heartened by promise of an international loan, arranged a final day of conferences today with American mediators trying to solve his country's oil dispute with Britain.

A breakdown of current talks by nightfall appeared possible unless Iran or Britain backed down.

The 50-nation International Monetary Fund was reported willing to step into the picture by granting the near bankrupt Iranian government an emergency credit of $5.7 million.

The loan by the American-dominated agency would strengthen Mossadegh's hand. The prospect of it failed to arouse any hopes among gloomy Iranian negotiators that it would soften Britain's bitter opposition to nationalization of the Anglo-Iranian Oil Company.

The ailing Iranian leader was reported drafting a hotly worded speech denouncing Britain's attitude.

He plans to leave Thursday for Iran to face emboldened opposition and financial woes at home.

State Department mediators clung to fading hope today that they can persuade the British and Iranians to resume direct talks. Optimism vanished in the wake of British Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden's unwillingness to listen to Secretary Acheson's confidential plea in Paris for a change in Britain's attitude.

Acheson is reported gravely worried that a breakdown may plunge Iran into financial chaos and political revolt, possibly led by Communists.

BCD Proposal Being Studied

COLORADO CITY, Nov. 13.—Proposal for an amendment to the city charter to provide a board of city development was advanced to the city council here Monday evening.

L. A. Chapman, chamber manager, told the council that the charter currently operates on a budget of $10,000. Councilman A. L. Geer said that the additional tax, as proposed, would raise about $14,200. He asked Chapman if that would be in excess of the board's needs.

"About $14 or $15,000 is about right for a town the size of Colorado City," replied Chapman. Chapman pointed out that the tax, which would increase present taxes by one-eighth, would bring increased benefits to the town.

Mayor New appointed a committee to work with the city attorney, John Worrell, to draw an amendment to present to the voters.

Egypt Marchers Are Silenced

CAIRO, Nov. 13. (AP)—The nervous Egyptian government relaxed its "no demonstration" ban to permit expected thousands to parade against the British today and Wednesday, but officials decreed the marchers must be silent — no shouting.

Police were put on emergency alert as Egypt marked her "national struggle" day — anniversary of full independence from Britain, and scheduled a ghastly mourning observance Wednesday for Egyptians killed in the last month of conflict with the British in the Suez Canal zone.

Thursday marks Egypt's cancellation a month ago of treaties permitting the British garrisons. The British have refused to recognize the action and have clamped a tight military control on the canal zone.

Question Jurors For M'Gee Trial

EL PASO, Nov. 13. (AP)—Attorneys continued questioning prospective jurors today for the sanity hearing of Richard W. McGee, 27, convicted slayer sentenced to the electric chair.

Twelve of a 32-man panel were qualified Monday. Judge Roy D. Jackson said 23 jurors would be qualified by the regular methods used in criminal cases, then each side would be allowed to scratch 10 each.

McGee smiled occasionally and joked with Deputy Sheriff Mike Sullivan, his guard.

McGee is sentenced to die for the 1948 slaying of R. L. Alston, Lubbock grocery executive. Witnesses testified the two argued over the attention McGee paid Alston's daughter.

The case was transferred from Midland after the illness of a juror stopped a sanity hearing there.

Tories Survive First Challenge

LONDON, Nov. 13. (AP)—The House of Commons gave Winston Churchill's new Conservative regime its first vote of confidence Monday night, beating down by a 39-vote margin a Labor attempt to halt repeal of steel nationalization.

The House, voting 320-281, rejected an opposition amendment regretting that the king's speech opening Parliament had promised an end to government ownership of the steel industry, which the previous Labor-controlled House had voted.

Return of steel to private enterprise was a major pledge of the Conservatives in the Oct. 25 general election.

The Tory regime plans to introduce by Feb. 1 a bill denationalizing steel.

Pelicans Snared For Flight To England

GALVESTON, Nov. 13. (AP)—The Air Force stood by today while two Texas game wardens chased pelicans.

When the curious-looking birds are captured they will be flown to St. James Park, outside Buckingham Palace, in London.

James Carter, news editor of the Galveston News, was commissioned formally by the Game and Fish Commission Monday to deliver four birds to London. The British need replacements for a flock that once stalked about St. James Park.

Two game wardens at Galveston were ordered to capture the birds, but the last word was "no pelicans."

Howard Dodgen, executive secretary of the Game and Fish Commission, cabled Texas' official offer of the pelicans after the British Ministry of Labor said he had received only one offer of a pelican. That offer was for the loan from the London zoo.

"The park never has had to rely on borrowed pelicans from the London zoo," a ministry spokesman said.

Earlier, it was reported the British might be considering Louisiana pelicans. Dodgen quickly let the British know that Texas pelicans are tougher, plumper and prettier—even if they are hard to catch.

Members of their Commissioners Courts will be presented certificates signifying that surveys by the WTCC of financial condition for 1950 of their county governments earned them highest possible rating.

Seattle Grocer First Nominee

SEATTLE, Nov. 13. (AP)—A Seattle neighborhood grocer is the nation's first nominee for the 1952 presidential race.

But, he says modestly from behind his campaign counter, he doesn't really expect to win.

The Greenback Party announced in Indianapolis Monday the nomination of Fred C. Proehl of Seattle for the White House.

The party platform, in brief, is: "Let's have more of the green stuff."

It advocates issuance of greenbacks by the government "directly to the people for services and supplies."

Proehl said he was "mildly surprised." His wife started right off joking him about what she would wear "when we get to the White House."

"But we're not fooling ourselves," said Proehl. "We won't make much of a scratch, but we're going to keep on trying to expand. Maybe some day it will be a different story."

The neighborhood grocery will be the presidential campaign headquarters.

Four Millions Not Attending School

WASHINGTON, Nov. 13. (AP)—The National Education Association says some 3,997,000 children between 5 and 17 are not enrolled in any school.

About 400,000 pupils, the group said in its annual school survey Monday night, can't go to public elementary or secondary schools full time because of shortages of teachers and classroom space.

Frank W. Hubbard, research director for the teachers' and school officials' organization, said "Teachers have been slipping down the economic scale."

The report put the average teacher salary for this year at $3,167.

Grabbers Are Warned That They Run Risk In Tideland Schemes

In its original California tideland decision years ago the U. S. Supreme Court specifically recognized the authority of Congress to say whether the tidelands belong to the states or to the federal government. Congress exercised this authority by passing a bill upholding the states in their peaceful possession of the oil-rich lands. President Truman vetoed the bill. This year the House again passed a bill upholding state claims, but it got bogged down in a Senate committee. The only thing standing in the way of the states to peaceful possession of their tidelands then is a veto by the President. Lately state authorities have been greatly perturbed by rumors that a clique in the Interior Department is concocting a scheme to seize and operate the tidelands under the guise of the need for petroleum in defense, using part of the National Production Act as a smokescreen. Visiting in Marlin, U. S. Senator Tom Connally Thursday wired Interior Secretary Oscar Chapman, warning him that the tideland issue should be settled by Congress and "not by some bureau or executive agency." Senator Connally asserted that impeachment proceedings might be taken against any federal official who tries to grab the property by indirectness. Such action as reported under consideration, he warned, "would constitute confiscation of the oil properties without due process of law. It would be a bare-faced attempt to defy Congress and to defy the American people." He reminded Chapman that Congress would again be in session in January, and can take necessary action. "I urge you," he advised Chapman, "to discontinue anything looking to this violation of the law and this defiance of the Congress." If the grabbers proceed with their scheme, they proceed at their own risk. Perhaps they will have to answer for it.

The Apparent Is Being Revealed As The Truth On Cotton Shortage

The U. S. Department of Agriculture started off the cotton season by guessing production of 19 million bales. Later it reduced the estimate to 17 million-plus, and last Thursday it caught the trade flat-footed by estimating 15,771,000 bales. Traders thought this was "shockingly low," since it was a million bales below the lowest private bureau estimates. Producers here have been saying all along that estimates would be scaled steadily, but not all at once. The USDA hinted at possible further reductions, by announcing that its December estimate would take the early freeze into account. John White, Texas commissioner of agriculture, thinks the latest government estimate is still too high for Texas, which was guessed at 4,300,000 bales, a reduction of half a million from the previous estimate. He says cotton should go right up to the 45-cent ceiling "which is its real value." The cotton season opened with the price about 33 cents, and this had steadily advanced and crossed the 40-cent mark. The difference amounts to about $50 per bale, but this means nothing to deep South Texas farmers who sold their holdings early in the season. We are assured most West Texas farmers are holding their cotton, and though the crop is extremely short, this has proved to be a break of no mean proportions for the lucky ones who held on. It will mean a great deal to the economy of many a town and community throughout West Texas. So instead of a bumper crop of cotton in the U. S. this year we have what amounts to a short crop, measured against original expectations. This shortage is worldwide, and it is apparent the U. S. won't be able to export much of the staple and still leave enough for domestic requirements. The USDA's optimism about a big crop was never shared by very many knowledgeable Texans. It was apparent from the start that the crop in West Texas in particular was going to be pretty skimpy.

Gallup Poll

GOP County Chairmen Give Nod To Senator Taft By Big Margin

The following report of a special poll among county chairmen of the Republican party is one of a series of reports by the Gallup Poll on the 1952 presidential election race. By GEORGE GALLUP, Director, American Institute of Public Opinion. PRINCETON, N. J., Nov. 13. —Within the ranks of the Republican party organization, there is today little question about who is the number one choice for President. It is Sen. Robert A. Taft of Ohio. Among the Republican party county chairmen of the nation, Senator Taft gets three times as many votes as General Eisenhower as first choice for the G. O. P. presidential nomination. In a special survey, the Institute sounded the views of the Republican county chairmen by means of a secret mail ballot. The ballots were sent to a list of 2,774 G. O. P. county leaders furnished by the National Republican Senatorial Committee. Up to the present time replies have come from 1,777 or nearly two thirds of the county chairmen, an exceptionally high rate of return. Each county leader was asked to name his choice from a list of ten Republicans who have been prominently mentioned as possible presidential candidates. The question read: "Which one of these men do you personally prefer as Republican candidate for President in 1952?" Space also was provided on the ballot for a "write in" vote in case any of the county chairmen preferred someone not on the list. Here is the vote: Taft ... 1,027 Eisenhower ... 375 Stassen ... 94 MacArthur ... 83 Warren ... 64 Dewey ... 22 Lodge ... 14 Hoffman ... 10 Martin ... 3 Driscoll ... 2

Britain Will Have To Turn To US Again To Solve Financial Trouble

By JAMES MARLOW. WASHINGTON, Nov. 13. —The chilling wind which blew across the Atlantic last week was the news the British are in a financial jam again and expect to ask us for more help. Shattered by the war, they were in bad shape when the shooting stopped. The U. S. gave them a loan of $3.7 billion in 1946. And, starting in 1948, the U. S. added about $3 billion in help through the Marshall Plan. With this help the British began to get on their feet. By 1951 they were in the black and so confident of clear sailing that they said they didn't need any more Marshall Plan aid. But by the fall of 1951 they were in trouble again. In this country those who disliked the British Socialist government probably blamed it for the downturn in Britain's fortunes, thinking that if only Winston Churchill were running the show he would by some special magic lift his country into prosperity again. Churchill is in power now and almost his first act was to tell the British, who have been on rationing since the war, that living would have to become even more austere. His government announced a cut in imports which will mean less food and other things for his people. The reason: To cut down on spending. More than 60 per cent of Britain's food has to be imported. And it will be Churchill, or some of his men, who'll have to ask this country for help once more, probably when he comes to this country in January with his staff to visit President Truman. But it was neither the Socialists nor Churchill who put Britain into the red again. It was events, starting with the Korean war in mid-1950 when Britain was just regaining its feet. With the start of the Korean war this country and its allies, including Britain, began to re-arm. Britain plans to spend $13 billion on her rearmament program in three years. This dislocated the British economy. It put the British in the position of spending more than they earn. They are living beyond their means now.

This Day In Texas

By CURTIS BISHOP. Born in Austin on this day in 1861 was Duval West, a lawyer and soldier whose life formed a long and colorful record of public service. Educated at Texas Military Institute in San Antonio, West as a young man managed a ranch near Cotulla. In these earlier years he established quite a reputation as a hand and hunter and also managed to handle successfully the ever-present Indian menace in his part of the country. At the age of 29 West began practicing law. He later became a deputy United States marshal and assistant U. S. attorney. One of his cases was of lasting effect upon the Texas story, for it fell his duty to prosecute a young Austin bank clerk for alleged misuse of funds. The conviction of William Sydney Porter hunched the career of O. Henry, America's greatest short story writer. In 1915 President Woodrow Wilson sent West to Mexico as his personal emissary. On at least one occasion during his stay in the republic below the Rio Grande, the envoy interviewed Pancho Villa. The following year West was appointed to the federal judgeship of the western district of Texas, a position which he held until his retirement in 1932. West died in San Antonio in 1949, at the age of 87.

Dolores New Member Of Barrymore Acting Clan

By BOB THOMAS. HOLLYWOOD, Nov. 13. —The Barrymore clan is adding another member to its acting dynasty — beautiful, brunette Dolores, who is willing to work her way up from the raps. Dolores is the daughter of Dolores Costello and John Barrymore, the niece of Ethel and Lionel, the sister of John Jr., and the half-sister of Diana. She is the wife of Thomas Fairbanks, student and part-time aircraft worker, and the mother of Hilary, aged one. Until recently, her sole occupation was being a housewife at her modest Hollywood apartment. The Barrymore blood began to prevail. "I had never thought about being an actress," said Dolores, 21. "I have never acted in my life, although I took drama in school. But my brother John has been after me for two years to give it a try, and I decided it might be worth the chance." Dolores said her family was delighted with her decision, especially her mother, "who always wanted me to be an actress." She also received the approval of her Aunt Ethel, who acts as coach and guide to younger members of the family. The budding actress has hired herself an agent and has had several promising interviews at studios. She even tried to acquire a new name for her billing. She wanted to call herself Blythe Barrymore. Her agent vetoed that and she'll be known as Dolores Barrymore. She has been called Dede all her life. Dolores, a vivacious girl three years older than John Jr., remembers little of her father. She has seen him only once on the screen and then in a cheap comedy made "in the days when he wasn't himself."

HOUSTON, Nov. 13. —A $25,000 scholarship fund was presented to Prairie View A&M College Monday to help students taking nurses' training. The gift came from Houston Endowment Inc., a philanthropic trust fund endowed by Mr. and Mrs. Jesse H. Jones of Houston. The gift will be used at the rate of $2,500 annually over ten years. Red Headquarters Is Threatened. NEW YORK, Nov. 13. —The Communist party's national headquarters was the scene of the city's latest bomb threat — but like most of the other warnings, it was only a scare. Some 25 policemen searched the party's offices in Harlem Monday and found no bomb. Police have investigated recent bomb scares at railroad stations, theaters, churches and other buildings.

Mac Doesn't Care For Prohibition Ticket

INDIANAPOLIS, Nov. 13. —Gen. MacArthur says he does not care to run for President on the prohibition ticket. In a letter to Gerald Overholt of Houston, national chairman of the Prohibition Party, MacArthur said: "I am not a candidate for the office of President and have no political ambitions of any sort. While I do not associate myself with some of the principles enunciated by your party, I have always understood and respected the high moral and spiritual tone of its activities." Overholt predicted a "wide open" race for the prohibition nomination.

Pipemakers Aren't The Criminal, It Says Here

By HAL BOYLE. NEW YORK, Nov. 13. —Among the tubs of pipe there is an old theory that pipe smokers rarely are criminals. This applies, naturally, to those who put tobacco in their pipes — not opium. A case in point England, where 60 per cent of the men smoke pipes, has an extremely low crime rate. The pipe industry is comfortable heartened by the growth of television, feeling it will reverse the downward trend of pipe sales in recent years. Another cheering bit of news for pipe smokers: Congress recently cut the tax on smoking tobacco from 18 cents a pound down to ten cents. Pipes can be made from many substances — clay, pipestone, corn-cobs, hickory, cherry wood, or just plain lumber, briar and meerschaum. The popularity of briar stems from about 1840. Legend says a Frenchman, visiting a shrine to Napoleon on Corsica, saw some natives carving one of the hard-grained burls. He had them fashion him a pipe — and that started a new pipe industry. Meerschaum is a coral-like substance made from the hard-packed shells of prehistoric shell animals embedded in the red clay of Asia Minor. The fragile pipes are high prized by connoisseurs. They come high. A meerschaum with your profile carved on the bowl is priced today at $100.

You'll Miss Quite Often, But When You Hit, It'll Be Death

They always did say that a miss was as good as a mile. This is true, of course, especially in athletic events. When the batter misses a home run by inches, that pitcher is hardly ruffled, for despite the prodigious blow, it's a miss no matter how close. Sometimes, however, the batter doesn't miss and he lashes out that home run. You, the driving public, are just like that batter. You'll miss quite frequently, but sometimes soon you'll connect. And when you do, you'll not only forfeit your own life, but may take the lives of others with you. The driving record of Big Spring, Howard County and the entire state of Texas in the past year has been, to put it bluntly, horrible. Texas had led the nation far too often in traffic fatalities for holiday periods and just plain wrecks. The record toll now being hacked by motorists is ready to soar to a monumental peak. We are now awaiting a day in December when the nation will observe "M-Day." That's going to be an occasion, but hardly a happy one for some family. It's going to be the registration of traffic fatalities No. One Million. A drive around the city of Big Spring will give you a pretty good idea why we're hitting such a toll on the roads and highways of Texas, not to mention within the confines of Howard County. People ignore stop signs all too frequently. Many jump the gun on light changes, thinking that if the yellow caution lights goes on for the fellow coming the other way, that fellow will stop. But, that fellow usually doesn't stop when the caution light goes on; he speeds it up to beat the red light. In other cases, drivers think it a waste of time to slow down before taking a left or right turn, roaring around the corner too wide and often scarce, if not hit, the driver approaching that corner. Hand signals too often are neglected. And, in so many cases, a right hand signal usually means a left turn. Only trouble is, the driver behind doesn't know it. Because of the angle-type parking set-up, which is a good one in more cases than one, it's often hard to see cars that may approach an intersection you yourself are nearing. But so many drivers fail to slow down and so do you, resulting in collision. This applies not only to areas where stop signs are placed, but to obviously dangerous corners without stop signs. Pulling out of parking places without regard to approaching cars is also a danger-laden affair. This driver of a moving car has priority and those pulling out should beware, but often don't. By and large, however, speeding is the prime source of trouble. This combined with concentration on things other than driving lead to so many accidents. Senseless passing of other cars often finds you in trouble—especially if you fail to admit cars can, and do, come in the opposite direction. It is the job of each and every car on the road to adhere closely to the rules of the road and enforcement agencies should have your help in lowering the toll. Police ought to watch the roads closely, but they can't be everywhere. That's why you, the driver, must be your own guardian, as well as the guardian of your fellow citizens. As the traffic problem increases, this is more than necessary. It's your life, we admit, but when you hit others, then it becomes the problem of all citizens. Watch it closely, won't you? We Should Try To Sell Europeans On Declaration Of Independence

WASHINGTON. — Three figures in three different parts of the world last week pointed up the story of the world's hopes, its pains, its fears. FIGURE NO. 1 was a young girl whose courage and graciousness won great sympathy, but who in a way seemed a little sad—because she represents a once-great empire which has seen its best days and now has to lean heavily on wealthy cousins and its dominion children. FIGURE NO. 2 was an aged, valiant, prime minister, returned to office at the age of 76 to guide the limping destinies of a country whose stock market skidded to alarming lows in a virtual vote of no confidence in even his ability to cope with his nation's crisis. FIGURE NO. 3 was an American soldier who flew home from Europe to report on his difficult, discouraging task of building up an army to defend countries so war weary they would almost prefer to be conquered than to fight. Of the three, Winston Churchill represented a brave attempt to revive private enterprise in an area slowly being engulfed in red tape and regulation; Princess Elizabeth represented the brave attempt of the next generation to cope with problems which their elders have so miserably failed to solve; and General Eisenhower represented the thesis that from armed might is derived peace. All three, however, were symbols of hope—discouraged, lagging hope, it is true, but nevertheless hope. That hope in each case, however, was based on virtually the same foundation—money from the U. S. Eisenhower has to have more American money if he is to succeed in rearming Europe. Churchill will desperately need two billions if British finances are not to reach the vanishing point. And it was part of the Princess' job to help create the goodwill so necessary for American-British economic cooperation. However, money is not inexhaustible. Furthermore, it is only a temporary palliative. And while more money will be necessary to bolster British finances and European armament, it is time we worked out long-range plans that will give our European friends permanent hope—not cash-and-carry hope. As a result of my two visits to Europe this year I would like to urge two deep-rooted and permanent changes for Europe. Both are purely American. They are two of the great principles that have made us great, and without them I do not think Europe can long survive. One is a United States of Europe. Two is applying the Declaration of Independence to Europe. Proposing that these be applied to Europe may sound like pious preaching, but when you don't have equality and unity, you cannot build a firm foundation of peace and free government. Unfortunately, equality, the basic guarantee of the Declaration of Independence, simply does not exist in Europe. It exists politically in France and some other countries, but it does not exist economically. A man is born to a certain economic level, and in most countries there he usually stays. If your mother was a servant in England, the chances are you will be a servant, too. If your father worked at a certain trade in Italy, the chances are you would not be able to rise above his status—unless you migrated to the United States. Thus the great mass of the people, stuck in one groove, with little chance of improving themselves, abandon hope. That is why Communism, full of wonderful though empty promises of a bright, new horizon, brings hope—plus European converts by the thousands. Meanwhile we have sat on our hands and failed to sell the greatest creed we have—the Declaration of Independence. We have passed out billions in dollars and material things, but hardly two cents worth of spiritual, cultural or philosophical gifts. We have rebuilt factories, helped big business, but have failed completely to attach any of the basic principles of the Declaration of Independence regarding lush profits or workmen's opportunities.

UNCLE RAY'S CORNER

Milk Is Best Calcium Source

We are likely to think of a mineral as something which exists in the ground. That is only part of the truth. Minerals are found above the ground as well. We even have them inside our own bodies! Sulphur (also spelled "sulfur") is a mineral, and humans beings carry some of it about—without using paper bags. People need certain minerals for life and health. It would be hard to choose the most important of them, but none ranks above calcium. We must have calcium for the sake of our teeth and bones. This mineral also helps the soft tissues of the body and gives "tone" to the nerves and muscles. Without enough of it our teeth are more quick to decay, and muscles and nerves tend to set too slowly. Where can we obtain a good supply of calcium? In certain foods. Milk is an excellent source, and when the milk contains Vitamin D, there is a gain in the amount of calcium which the body takes to itself. Other good foods for calcium include buttermilk, cream, cheese and eggs. In the vegetable world, we can obtain a fairly good supply of calcium from beet greens, turnip greens, broccoli, kale, cauliflower, turnips and beans. Other vegetables have some of it, and we get bits from fruits, including oranges and grapes. Molasses may supply some of the calcium we need, and we also find calcium in maple syrup. I have named various foods which supply calcium, but the best of all is milk. Many experts in the field of food believe that an adult should have two glasses of milk a day, and that a child should have four glasses. Some adults leave milk out of their diet because they want to keep their weight down. In such a case, they can do much to meet their need for calcium by drinking skimmed milk or buttermilk. Oh, you'll find the OUTSIDE of the wall about fifty yards to the left!

Rankin And Union Tangle At 8 P.M. On Saturday

Forsan will be the scene of the bi-district six-man football clash between Rankin and Union.

The two teams clash Saturday night, starting at 8 o'clock. Admission fees will be $1 adult and 50 cents for student.

Rankin is the champion of District Eight, the defending regional king and unbeaten in 13 consecutive starts. The Red Devils, coached by Joe Scrivner, marched through District Eight without a close call.

Union compiled a similar record in District Seven. The Bobcats averaged better than 43 points a game. Union is coached by Carl Dunaway.

The Union standout is Eddie Morris, lone senior on the team. He scored five touchdowns against Knott as the Bobcats raced to a 20-12 triumph last week.

Calvin Lowe, Max Beckham and Kay Dunbar are the other Bobcat standouts.

Rankin rates as slight favorite in the contest. Ackerly, only common opponent of the teams, lost to Rankin 40-6, and to Union, 12-0.

The Red Devils have also defeated Marathon, 59-14; Christoval 52-15; Garden City, 38-8; Mertzon 49-12; Forsan 46-0; Water Valley, 53-19; and Sterling City 42-6.

Gridiron Rodeo

Bartosh, Fowler Ready At TCU

TCU, which groaned over a long injury list early this season, is one of the healthiest teams in the Southwest conference today.

At one time TCU supporters found their team minus two veteran tailbacks and only an unknown sophomore left to fill the gap. Sophomore Ray McKown came through and Regulars Gilbert Bartosh and Malvin Fowler are ready.

It is the first time since the season was three weeks old that TCU has its three tailbacks ready to go.

The only doubtful starter for the Frogs Saturday against Texas is Herbert Zimmerman, who suffered a leg injury.

The Texas Longhorns, who committed several disastrous fumbles against Baylor last week, went through a brief workout Monday. Most of it was ball handling.

Texas A&M heard scouting reports and looked at a film of the Aggie-SMU game. Linebacker Jim Fowler, out since the Arkansas game with a shoulder injury, was back in uniform. Bill Ballard, defensive right half, probably will be out the rest of the season with a kidney injury.

Moore of the Rice team had a light workout. Reserves worked on blocking in a long scrimmage. Back Teddy Riggs missed the workout because of a pulled muscle. Ed Samy Ward will miss the Aggie game because of a pulled muscle.

The SMU Mustangs looked at films and heard reports on Arkansas. Back Dale Moore suffered a hand injury in the Aggie game but was expected to be ready.

Otis Douglas promised his Arkansas Razorbacks plenty of hard, rough work before the SMU game. Tackle Tom Stringer is counted out because of a torn leg muscle.

Midland Seeks Title Clincher

Midland can sew up the District 24-1 football crown this week by beating the Sweetwater Mustangs in a game at Midland.

The Bulldogs could still be tied by Lamesa but precedent would dictate the Midland represent the league in bi-district play, since the Bulldogs have already clinched the chops of the Tornados.

In other games this weekend, Big Spring plays host to the Vernon Lions while Plainview invades Lamesa, still seeking its first victory of the district campaign.

The Midland team crushed Big Spring, 46-0, last week. The Bulldogs have now scored 63 points in district competition and 175 in overall play.

In other games, Lamesa upset Plainview, 27-13, while Plainview and Vernon fought to a 6-6 deadlock.

Midland	2-1 175 67
Vernon	2-1 90 50

Steers Book Set With Bronchos

The Big Spring High School basketball team has booked a home and home series with Odessa, first of which will be played in Odessa Dec. 11.

The Bronchos invade Big Spring Jan. 18. Big Spring will also take part in the Odessa tournament Jan. 24-4.

Odessa is coached by John Malone, former Big Spring mentor.

LOOKING 'EM OVER

With Tommy Hart

Dick Prahm's great effort against Midland last week, when he huffed and puffed his way to 100 yards net gain in 17 tries, boomed him into the lead among Big Spring high school ball carriers.

The big senior has now picked up a total of 267 yards in 61 carries in eight games, an average of 4.7 paces.

Speck Franklin, who missed last week's game due to illness, has gained 272 yards in 58 attempts. Bobby Hayworth, also out last week, has rambled for 134 yards net in 62 rushes. Hayworth's aggregate has been hurt because he's been spilled several times behind the line of scrimmage, while trying to pass.

STEERS TAKE BAD BEATING IN STATISTICS

The overall statistics show well why Big Spring has been able to win no more than two decisions in eight starts this year.

The Big Springers actually have accumulated more first downs than the foe—69 to 65—but take a look at the net gains rushing and passing: 1107 against 2093 and 549 against 618.

Vernon, which comes to town this week to play the Steers, almost pulled the Plainview game out of the fire last week.

The Lions were on the Bulldogs' six-yard stripe, first down and goal to go, when the final gun sounded. Plainview got off with a 6-6 tie.

RANKIN MAY MOVE TO 11-MAN RANKS

Rankin, a power in six-man football circles the past two seasons, probably will switch to the 11-man game in 1952.

The Red Devils have 25 players on their squad this year. Some of the 11-man schools don't have the wealth of material the Devils have.

Corpus Christi's Ray High School must be rated the dark horse entry in the 4-A football race.

The Texans have been cleaning up on everything in South Texas.

The fact that he doesn't kick points after touchdowns is going to rob Texas Ollie Watson of the chance to break Bobby Reynolds' intercollegiate scoring record.

Ollie, who plays for the University of San Francisco, has scored 17 touchdowns, no less, up until last Sunday.

Reynolds, the Nebraska phenom, counted 22 TD's, plus 25 extra points last year for 157 points.

The Rose Bowl football game hasn't featured two unbeaten-untied football teams since 1938, when California met Alabama. It might this year, what with Stanford and Illinois still boasting unsullied marks.

Michigan State Advances To Top In Associated Press Grid Poll

By RALPH RODEN

NEW YORK, Nov. 13. (U. S. News & World Report)—Michigan State, back on top in The Associated Press' football poll, may be hard to dislodge from its position as the No. 1 team in the nation.

The spectacular Spartans take on Indiana Saturday and close out their season the following week against Colorado. Both games should prove easy.

Tennessee, which dropped to second after a three-week reign, has three toughies barring its way to a perfect season. The Vols take on Mississippi, Kentucky and Vanderbilt.

Michigan State, leader the first two weeks, vaulted from fifth place this week after drawing 55 of 158 first-place votes from sports writers.

Tennessee gained 42 first and 1,565 points to nose out Illinois for second. The Illini, Big Ten leaders, finished third with 29 firsts and 1,145 points. Baylor was tenth, Texas 15th.

The Spartans charged to the top with their amazing 75-0 victory over Notre Dame. Tennessee and Illinois scored easy 60-4 and 48-13 victories over Washington and Lee and Iowa. Illinois has two tough conference games remaining against Ohio State and Northwestern.

Three other unbeaten and untied teams followed the top three. Stanford, with eight victories, came in fourth with 651 points. Maryland, boasting seven victories, placed fifth with 527 points and Princeton, also unbeaten in seven outings, was sixth with 793 points. Rounding out the top ten are Georgia Tech, Wisconsin, Kentucky and Baylor.

Stanford gained fourth on the strength of its 27-20 victory over Southern California. Maryland and Princeton staggered Harvard, 24-12.

- The Garden City high school football team, which has experienced a successful season under Coach Targe Lindsay, will have its annual banquet at the Settles hotel here at 8 p.m. Saturday night.
- Lettermen for the 1951 season will be announced during the program.
- The Bearkats wind up their season Friday night in a game at Sterling City.

Mike Lastra Hit 15 Times In '51

Mike Lastra, Big Spring's second baseman, was hit by pitches more times than any other player in the Longhorn league last season—15 times.

The record is held by Mack Dunlap of Sweetwater, struck no less than 25 times back in 1948.

Volts Rated 2nd To Spartan 11, Stanford 3rd

By PAUL B. WILLIAMSON

The Williamson System's rugged individualism was almost alone in spotting Michigan State last week as the nation's grid best. It looks like it paid off. This week the Spartans are No. 1 with a rating of 99.3. Michigan State 35, Notre Dame 0.

Whew!

Runner-up is Tennessee with a rating of 99.1 Tennessee 60, Washington and Lee 14. Again Whew! No mess stunt.

At No. 3 is Stanford for a story-book finish in a thrilling conquest of Southern California by 27-20.

Fourth place goes to Illinois for swamping Iowa by 49-13.

Spot No. 5 was gained by Maryland for bidge-washing Navy by 40-21.

The next five of the nation's ten best this week are Georgia Tech, Southern California, Princeton, Baylor, and Wisconsin.

There were only nine upsets of the Williamson figures last weekend in "name" circles. But some of the reverses in lesser circles were almost inexplicable.

On 336 scores reported over last week including 61 games from previous weeks the System's predicting record was 82.4 per cent correct, an improvement over the "stormy" percentage of the week before.

Among last week's "curious" upsets were Denver 35, Colgate of the Pacific 33; Auburn 17, Ole Miss 39; Louisville 35, Houston 28; Adelphi 29, Ursinus 19; Brandeis 12, Rider 7; American International 4, Connecticut 0; Kings Point 13, New Haven 6; Ohio Wesleyan 69, Muskingum 6 (especially the disparaging score difference); Western Reserve 27, Western Michigan 26 (but close); Norwich 26, Worcester 20; and Bethany (W.Va.) 14, Geneva 0.

Tulsa May Kayo Raider Defense

LUBROCK, Nov. 13. (U. S. News & World Report)—Just when it looks like Texas Tech is building a defense against rushing, Tulsa University looms up all set to spoil the Raiders' record.

In their past five games, the Raiders have permitted an average of only 127 yards along the ground. The Golden Hurricane, second in the nation with an average of 337 rushing, is likely to alter things Saturday at Tulsa.

The Raiders can't count on the Hurricane merely running. Tulsa can loosen up the Tech defenses with a passing attack averaging better than 120 yards per contest. In fact, Buddy Brothers' eleven is second in total offense with an average of 449 yards a game.

Bearkats Plan For Banquet

The Garden City high school football team, which has experienced a successful season under Coach Targe Lindsay, will have its annual banquet at the Settles hotel here at 8 p.m. Saturday night.

Lettermen for the 1951 season will be announced during the program.

The Bearkats wind up their season Friday night in a game at Sterling City.

Bulldogs Oppose Ira Friday Nite

COAHOMA, Nov. 13. (U. S. News & World Report)—The Coahoma Bulldogs play their final football game of the season here Friday night, when they host the Ira eleven.

Ira is still without a victory in District 5-B play and will be the decided underdog in its contest with Coahoma.

The game will serve as the farewell appearance for Coach Tom Proctor, who is leaving to assume a job in New Mexico.

Other 5-B games will send Trent to Hernimigh, Robert Lee to Bronco and Loraine to Hobbs.

Stanton Faces Ponies Friday In 4-A Finale

Stanton's Buffaloes are assigned the unenviable job of facing the powerful Denver City Mustangs in District 4-A football play this week.

The Ponies are still unchecked in conference play. They battered Whiteface, 47-0, last week for their fourth straight win. In their four games, they've managed to score 167 points to 12 for the opposition.

At the same time, Stanton was dropping an 18-6 decision to a good Sundown team in Stanton.

The Buffaloes did manage to score their third touchdown of the season when Scooter Polk romped eight yards across the double stripe.

The Stanton-Denver City contest will take place in Denver City.

The other conference game will pit Seagraves against Sundown in Sundown. O'Donnell will host Tahoka and Whiteface goes to Springlake for a non-conference jouster.

In other games, Lamesa upset Plainview, 27-13, while Plainview and Vernon fought to a 6-6 deadlock.

Bearkats Plan For Banquet

The Garden City high school football team, which has experienced a successful season under Coach Targe Lindsay, will have its annual banquet at the Settles hotel here at 8 p.m. Saturday night.

Lettermen for the 1951 season will be announced during the program.

The Bearkats wind up their season Friday night in a game at Sterling City.

Bulldogs Oppose Ira Friday Nite

COAHOMA, Nov. 13. (U. S. News & World Report)—The Coahoma Bulldogs play their final football game of the season here Friday night, when they host the Ira eleven.

Ira is still without a victory in District 5-B play and will be the decided underdog in its contest with Coahoma.

The game will serve as the farewell appearance for Coach Tom Proctor, who is leaving to assume a job in New Mexico.

Other 5-B games will send Trent to Hernimigh, Robert Lee to Bronco and Loraine to Hobbs.

Midland Seeks Title Clincher

Midland can sew up the District 24-1 football crown this week by beating the Sweetwater Mustangs in a game at Midland.

The Bulldogs could still be tied by Lamesa but precedent would dictate the Midland represent the league in bi-district play, since the Bulldogs have already clinched the chops of the Tornados.

In other games this weekend, Big Spring plays host to the Vernon Lions while Plainview invades Lamesa, still seeking its first victory of the district campaign.

The Midland team crushed Big Spring, 46-0, last week. The Bulldogs have now scored 63 points in district competition and 175 in overall play.

In other games, Lamesa upset Plainview, 27-13, while Plainview and Vernon fought to a 6-6 deadlock.

Is Texas Brand Of Ball Better, Scribe Wonders

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF

DALLAS, Nov. 13. (U. S. News & World Report)—If you want to get into an argument in a hurry just intimate that Southwest Conference football might be better than the Midwest variety.

A fan wrote in last week for a comparison of the two in ten years. The records showed that the Southwest had won six games and lost three in the interconference rivalry of the decade.

That didn't satisfy one transplanted Mid-Westerner. "C. B." writes from Amarillo:

"After reading your article on Southwest Conference supremacy over Midwest teams I can easily see that we're bit of prejudice that I might have for Midwestern football. But as long as you're going to give the Texas sport fan the low-down on just how your brand of football has progressed in these ten years why not give all of the facts?"

"For instance: Why not tell the fans just where Purdue and Indiana finished in the Big Ten that particular year that a Southwest conference team defeated the same?"

I've been down here three months now and I'll tell you just how much Lubbock has a fine high school football team but there are some better ones in Michigan."

The Southwest played representative teams of the Midwest, Ohio State and Notre Dame certainly are to be considered as top teams of the Midwest. Indiana and Purdue perhaps haven't been strong in the immediate past years but after all, TCU, which beat Indiana twice, hasn't been a Southwest leader either.

We are sure the Southwestern teams would be glad to play Michigan or Illinois but never in history have been able to schedule those colleges.

In the all-time history of Southwestern football, only 22 games have been played with Midwest teams. The Midwest leads 12-10 in the record. But the Midwest's record was made back before Southwest football started to move out and become a national power.

We're not sure how high school football got into the discussion but it's totally irrelevant anyway. Texas high schools won't be playing Michigan high schools so there's no way of knowing how schoolboy football in the two states compares. In Texas, boys can't play high school football when they are over 18. In Michigan they probably are older, which would make a difference.

Tulsa May Kayo Raider Defense

LUBROCK, Nov. 13. (U. S. News & World Report)—Just when it looks like Texas Tech is building a defense against rushing, Tulsa University looms up all set to spoil the Raiders' record.

In their past five games, the Raiders have permitted an average of only 127 yards along the ground. The Golden Hurricane, second in the nation with an average of 337 rushing, is likely to alter things Saturday at Tulsa.

The Raiders can't count on the Hurricane merely running. Tulsa can loosen up the Tech defenses with a passing attack averaging better than 120 yards per contest. In fact, Buddy Brothers' eleven is second in total offense with an average of 449 yards a game.

Retired Capt. Tries To Get 'Viewpoint' Before Truman

GLENWOOD SPRINGS, Colo., Nov. 12. (U)—Retired Army Captain Eugene B. Guild said today he has devoted "more than $1,000 of my son's death benefits" in a constant effort to present to President Truman the viewpoint of one parent of a boy who died in the Korean fighting.

"This viewpoint," he said, "I think is shared by a great many of the parents of the other some 20,000 who have died in Korea and the parents of those who are still dying and will continue to die."

The captain, who wrote the President Nov. 1 asking whether Mr. Truman's failure to award the Medal of Honor to his son was due to his criticism of tactics in Korea, said he was "greatly troubled and disappointed by my failure to reach the ear of the President over the last 11 months."

He added, that "I am relieved more and more by the statements from Key West and Washington" concerning the award of the Medal of Honor to Marine Lt. Henry Alfred Commiskey and the award of a Navy Cross to the captain's son, Marine Lt. John Guild, 25, killed while fighting at Commiskey's side.

"It indicates that the affair is at least being handled and also that the President is now receiving information which he never got before," Guild said.

Secretary of the Navy Dan Kimball asserted there was "no basis in fact" for Capt. Guild's suggestion that his criticism of the Truman administration figured in the medal award.

Votes From Hospital

Eva Peron, wife of Argentine President Juan D. Peron, votes Nov. 11 from hospital bed in Buenos Aires hospital where she is confined for an operation. Although not a candidate, Eva always was linked with Peron's campaign speeches and she usually was called "the standard bearer of Peronism." Holding the election box is election official Angelica Bertone. Peron took an early lead over his opponents in his bid for re-election. (AP Wirephoto via radio from Buenos Aires).

Hulme Is New Chief Of Police At C-City

COLORADO CITY, Nov. 12.—Sam Hulme, 48-year-old police sergeant who has been acting chief of police in Colorado City since March 12, received a promotion to chief at Monday night's council meeting.

Hulme replaces H. S. (Dick) Hickman who was discharged on March 12. Hulme is the senior member of the police force, having been employed by the police department for almost four years. He is married and has one son, an employee of the City National bank.

The vote was unanimous. Hulme told councilmen at the meeting's close that he appreciated their confidence and "will make every effort to justify it."

Also appearing before the council were Southwestern Bell Telephone officials, including: E. J. Ernst, division manager, Fort Worth; R. M. Porter, division traffic superintendent, Fort Worth; Marshall Kemp, district manager, Sweetwater; Duncan Davidson, district traffic superintendent, Abilene; Nollie Herrington, chief operator; and Mrs. A. C. Easter, both of Colorado City.

Kemp and Ernst presented the case of the Bell Company in their desire for a rate increase in Colorado City.

"There are three reasons why we're faced with the necessity of raising rates in Colorado City," explained Ernst. "We are faced with a three way squeeze, first, we've had a terrific expansion problem in Colorado City, and everything costs more to buy; second, our daily operating expenses had to go up, once a top operator drew $18.00 a week, she now gets $46.00. Third, a big part of this growth has been in residential phones which pay a cheaper rate than do business phones."

Ernst was questioned by councilmen as to when Colorado City might expect installation of a dial system. Ernst claimed that such an installation might be four years or more away.

Councilmen then displayed a petition signed by more than a hundred citizens requesting council to refuse the raise until the company provided better service.

"Actually," Councilman Walter Grubbs told officials, "the people here don't mind the money so much as they do the poor service."

Mayor J. M. New told officials to make an effort to improve the service and to appear before the council in 30 or 60 days for further discussion.

In other council business, Sheriff R. E. Gregory asked the city to convert present police radio to a type that could be heard in other towns. It would cost $750, he said. Councilmen signed an option to purchase 300 acres of land north of Colorado City for airport purposes.

Man Is Arrested Following Shooting

DALLAS, Nov. 12. (U)—Officers arrested a 41-year-old man late Monday night in the fatal shooting of Billy Knox, about 30, at Allen Crossroads, seven miles south to McKinney.

A witness said the shooting followed an argument about Hitler. The man was returned to McKinney after being held briefly in Dallas.

Petroleum Writers Name President

DALLAS, Nov. 12. (U)—The new president of the Association of Petroleum Writers is Jay Hall, oil editor of the Dallas News.

Named directors were Nancy Heard, Corpus Christi Caller-Times; Leroy Manning, Fort Worth Star-Telegram and Warren Baker, World Oil, Houston. Tom Smith, Odessa American, was re-elected a director.

Waco Man To Head Used Car Dealers

FORT WORTH, Nov. 12. (U)—Dick Smith of Waco was named president of the Texas Used Car Dealers Association.

Other officers named Monday included Tom Hundell of Dallas, vice president, and Bill Freeman Jr., of Amarillo, secretary-treasurer. Directors include Ches McGlothlin of Abilene.

Turkey Gives Fair Warning On Defenses

ANKARA, Turkey, Nov. 12. (U)—Turkey has told Russia frankly and in strong terms that she is making strenuous military preparations to aid Western defense.

A note delivered to Russia Monday night indicated, moreover, that this country intends to continue building its defenses against possible Soviet threats to Turkish sovereignty.

The Turkish note rejected Russian charges in a protest note of Nov. 4 that Turkey's adherence to the Western defense community is hostile and aggressive.

The Turkish reply was considered considerably stronger than the Russian complaint.

Admitting she is building up her defenses, Turkey said: "These preparations have not been made because of erroneous and baseless suspicions. The Soviet Union would concede that there exist very serious reasons for Turkey's preparations if the Soviet government would make a sincere 'examen de conscience' (examination of conscience)."

Obviously referring to previous Russian demands for Eastern Turkish provinces bordering on the Soviet Union and for joint Soviet-Turkish control of the strategic Dardanelles, the Turkish note said: "One should not forget that claims and demands threatening Turkey's sovereignty and territorial integrity have been advanced."

Annual Tells Of Red Submarines

LONDON, Nov. 12. (U)—Brassey's annual, an unofficial British review of the world's armed forces, says Russia has a formidable submarine force which is causing apprehension among other naval powers.

The review said Russia is believed to have 380 submarines in service and 120 more building.

It said Russia has 2.2 million men under arms and could mobilize 300 divisions—half of Russia's World War II peak—within two months of war.

Soviet military organizations, the review continued, are ruled by "an iron discipline enjoined by Stalin piety reorganized under chiefs of proven ability. It added, but the officer corps is weak in its reluctance to accept responsibility.

The Russian Air Force has "very large numbers" of high quality jet fighters, notably the MIG-15 seen in Korea, the review said, but a copy of the U. S. B-29 Superfortress is still its only heavy bomber in service.
