Patrolman Has Badly Broken Leg

J. W. Bishop, Rising Star night patrolman, was in Mims Hospital at Comanche where he underwent surgery Tuesday for a broken left leg suffered in an accident in the business district early Sunday morning. Mr. Bishop suffered a bad, crushing break just above the left knee when a stalled car he was trying to help start and which unknowingly was in gear, suddenly jumped forward, pinning his leg between the vehicle and his own car. The out-of-town car, occupied by Negroes, had been stopped for a traffic misdemeanor. Mr. Bishop was reported in satisfactory condition.

Deposits At Record High Here

Reflecting the influx of money from the peanut crop now being harvested, the First State Bank this week reported the highest deposits in its history in response to the call of the State Banking Commission for a statement of condition as of October 30. Deposits were reported as $4,128,325.19, nearly $400,000.00 above the figure reported for June 21, last, the date for the previous call. The figure was even higher on Tuesday this week, Cashier Lane Wells said. Deposits at that time had climbed approximately $170,000.00 above the call date figure, he said.

Write-In Voting Campaigns Enliven Election Scene Here

Rising Star precinct voters, 440 votes for Humphrey, 180 for Nixon and 99 for George Wallace. A total of 722 persons cast ballots in the election which was held at the City Hall and was presided over by G. A. Dunn as election judge and Fred Price as his assistant. In all other races, likewise, the local voters gave democratic nominees heavy majorities. Three write-in efforts added interest to the election routine. In one of the three, Assistant County Emory Walton sought election to an office now held by Perry T. Brown and for which there was no candidate named on the ballot. His effort gained him 127 votes in the local box. He received a substantial vote elsewhere in the county. No definite figures were available but he received a sufficient write-in for election, it was said at Eastland. Truman Kirk, Cisco attorney who made a vigorous write-in appeal in opposition to Earl Conner for judge of the 91st district court fell short of his goal on the basis of returns from all of the county boxes with the exception of Ranger. He received about 1,000 votes to 3,000 for Conner in returns reported Wednesday morning. Kirk received 105 of his total in the Rising Star box. In another contest, confined to Precinct 3, Charles (Chuck) Thomas, former Rising Star police officer challenged W. H. (Hamp) Kornegay, democratic nominee for constable, with a write-in campaign and drew 119 votes to 497 for Kornegay. In county-wide returns, exclusive of the Ranger box, Hubert Humphrey received 2366 votes, Nixon 2109 and Wallace 853. Results of state and local races in the Rising Star voting were:

Rising Star Youth Has Arm Cut in Accident

Carter Hounsel, Rising Star High School youth and son of Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Hounsel, was in Medical Arts Hospital at Brownwood this week, under treatment for a badly lacerated left arm suffered when he became pinned under a truck at the family home north of Rising Star Tuesday afternoon. Carter, a regular back on the high school football team, was removing a load of feed from the truck when the power lift failed to operate. He crawled under the truck to check the cause and some part of the equipment fell, pinning him to the ground. His mother, hearing groans, called her husband from a short distance away and they located the trapped boy. With the help of H. L. Geye, high school agriculture teacher, who was at the Hounsel home, they were able to free the boy by starting the truck engine and raising the power lift. At the hospital it was found that he had suffered no broken bones, but that the arm muscle and ligaments were badly cut.

Nov. 11 Recalls Memories Of War Fifty Years Ago

The United States has fought in one major war and one "minor" war and is now involved in a third, since the young men of this nation went forth to "make the world safe for democracy" 51 years ago. The anniversary of the ending of that conflict, which was supposed to have established a world of brotherhood and peace in self-government, will arrive next Monday. Characteristic of the soldiers of this nation who fought in that war is the accompanying photo of John Nunnally, of Rising Star, long time commander of the Rising Star American Legion Post and leader in veterans affairs in this county.

John Nunnally as World War I soldier.

POST OFFICE AND BANK CLOSE NOV. 11

While Veterans Day - which falls this year on Monday, Nov. 11 - is not one of the five holidays chosen for general observance by Rising Star business houses in a referendum some years ago, the day will be so observed by the Post Office, the First State Bank and some of the other local business institutions.

It will not be a school holiday; classes will be carried on as usual.

At the post office there will be no window service; no rural deliveries will be made, but mail will be distributed to the boxes.

38 From Rising Star Attending Cisco JC

Cisco Junior College's record fall enrollment of 975 students includes 39 from Rising Star, according to figures released by the Registrar's office of the college. Abilene, with 155 CJC students, has the most of any city, followed by Cisco with 135. Third is Breckenridge with 66, and Eastland is fourth with 58. Cisco Junior College is one of the fastest-growing colleges in the state, having doubled in enrollment during the past three years. The college is housed in thirteen modern facilities, many of which are now air-conditioned, and two more new buildings are in final planning stages. About half of CJC's students are dormitory residents on the campus, which makes the Cisco college probably the largest residence junior college in the state. Students from Rising Star are: Marquerite Alford, Brenda Bailey, Jackie Bibby, Curtis Bishop, Donna Brown, Ollie Burns, Peggy Burns, John Cameron, Dwight Carter, Gladys Carter, Christy Chesshir, Ben Chick, Lolene Cla-born, Norman Cla-born, Alton Clark Carl Clark, Irma Clark, Franklin Cox, Charles Dudley, James Gernhardt, Bret Griffin, Sara Howard, Belinda Hutchinson, Rita Jones, Sandra Linney, Herschel McDonald, Margaret McDonald, Floy McKinnerney, Laquetta Rankin, Sharon Red-dick, Karen Rhodes, Weldon Stark, Freddy Stover, Mike Strobel, Jenny Tarver, Billy Turner, Danny White, Robert Wilson, and James Wolf.

land. We realized just how near we came to being dumped into the ocean and maybe we would have all been drowned. Soldiers are dying like flies with influenza. And many are being treated in the company hospitals.

His letter for which the Rising Star is indebted to Mrs. Marsh, reads:

July 22, 1918. Dear sister: We landed at Camp Travis, June 23. We stayed there three weeks, then were sent to Ft. Sill, Okla. We spent a few weeks there and were sent to New York, Sept. 13th. It took us five days to make the trip. Landed in New York on September 18th. We stayed at Camp Upton for ten days, then sailed on the Kashmen on Sept. 28th. I took us fourteen days to make the trip. Everybody was sea sick. You can't imagine how sick that is until you actually experience it. The weather was bad and we had lots of rough

LVN'S TO MEET

Cats Suffer First Conference Loss; Meet Evant Next

The Rising Star Wildcats, plagued by their own mistakes as much as by the determined play of a Blanket team, suffered their first loss in district play this season when they were defeated 14-8 by the Blanket Tigers at Blanket Friday night of last week. The loss puts the Wildcats at 3 victories and one defeat. The Tigers scored their first touchdown in the second period when Larry Damron went three yards around left end after a long drive upfield. The try for extra point was no good and the score remained at 6-0 until the fourth quarter when Damron passed 13 yards to David Godfrey for the second Tiger touchdown and then ran over for two extra points.

Rising Star got on the scoreboard in the fourth with a pass from Dick Clarke to Ronnie Green for the touchdown and repeated the maneuver for two additional points. Rising Star lost the ball five times on fumbles and drew eight penalties for 58 yards. Three of the fumble losses occurred in the first period. The Cats made 11 first downs to seven for Blanket; gained 103 yards rushing to 84 for Blanket and completed five of 16 pass attempts for 74 yards. Blanket completed two of 8 passes for 19 yards.

The Wildcats come home Friday night of this week to meet the Evant team in a conference game at Wildcat field. Kick-off time is set for 8 o'clock.

Mrs. D. C. Rachel of Robstown is visiting her mother, Mrs. Mary Pilant, this week.

We took the train in Glassgow, traveled across Scotland, then through England and landed at Winchester, Eng. Stayed there four days, then to South Hampton. We boarded a boat there and sailed across the English Channel and landed at La Harve, France. We were there eight days, then we were packed into box cars and shipped across France to La Mare. The trip lasted three days. We spent ten days there.

Our next move was a hike, full packed to this American camp, 28 miles away. We are twelve miles from Bordeaux. We have been here for fifteen days. We are all having a big time. The only firing we have done so far is in practice on the range.

Prospects are fine now. It is rumored that we may sail for home in a few days. Will write more later.

Nov. 22nd., 1918. Camp De Souge, France. Everybody is full of life today as we leave tomorrow for Bordeaux and then we will sail Sunday for the States. That will be the great day. Love until I see you. Jim

Peanut Harvest May Set All Time Record

Blessed with ideal weather - - and just enough rain last Saturday to make digging easier - - the 1968 peanut crop yield in the Rising Star area was nearing record levels for quantity, quality and income with the harvest about three-fourths completed, according to reliable estimates.

Processors and buyers at Rising Star, May and Pioneer, were running at capacity and ware houses were rapidly filling to capacity with a crop which is now said to be equal to or better than the record yield of 1966.

"Tremendous crop of very good quality," was the general verdict of drying plants and buying stations. The Pioneer co-op plant reported that it had handled about 1,500 tons by the first of the week, while the Winfrey Feed and Peanut Company at Rising Star and the Nelson plant at May were similarly overwhelmed with the influx of the harvest.

Grades were running in the high 70's, a remarkable condition reflecting ideal growing and harvesting conditions, while the yield was running in the neighborhood of a 40-bushel per acre average - - maybe better - - on dry land and from 100 to 150 bushels on irrigated land.

During the early stages of the harvest, there were some poor grades, but these vanished as the main part of the crop began to come in.

There was some trashiness in peanuts dug from tight soil due to the dryness, but a rain of one-half inch to an inch or more last Saturday softened the soil and made the digging easier and the peanuts cleaner.

The income to the area from the crop - - at a base price of $240.00 per ton - - is certain to run well above the million and one-half dollar mark, observers said. The actual amount was too difficult to estimate at this stage.

But it will be great, and coming after two previous years of extremely good crops, it should put the farmers - - and the area generally - - in a sound and prosperous financial condition.

It Has Been

By Vada Arnold

"Horse Editor," Albert Tyson, in the Rising Star X-Ray in the year 1903 portrays Mr. Tyson as a fearless editor, bold in his opinions and brave enough to express them.

Shortly after Theodore Roosevelt made his acceptance speech after being nominated for President of the United States, Mr. Tyson had this to say:

"Why in the name of honesty, justice and truth didn't Mr. Teddy Roosevelt in his acceptance speech refer, casually at least, to the woe-begone wage earners in this country instead of ranting and slobbering about the 'Prosperity' which his administration has brought about. — is in his head; all of which is a LIE and more too.

"How can we expect to continue as a great nation of free people when people lie to evade jury service and pay taxes, stay away from the polls or vote for corrupt politicians or parties because they are in the majority and allow the lawless, criminal element, because they are clothed in broadcloth, to rule our nation? One of the greatest needs of our time is an awakening of our citizens to a realization of true citizenship."

Mr. Tyson went on to say "Thinking has gone out of fashion. The main use of the cranial appendage (with lots of people) now is of a social function, in that heads serve as an up-to-date hat rack and a convenient place to wear the facial appendage (the nose) which in turn serve as display rack for the latest brand of gold rimmed spectacles. "We've all got to die; it is only a simple matter of a short time."

A riddle for the readers came out in one issue of the X-Ray by Mr. Tyson. It read: "Standing upright and lying on its face." The answer, "A Tombstone."

His comment was, "Yes, it is very often the case," Rising Star had a local band of 22 members in April 1932. O. A. Lively was engaged by the business men of the town, who were interested in providing a City Band.

The band used a room in the E. F. Bury building as a band hall and fitted it with lights, seats and other needed conveniences for the band men. After training for a few weeks the band gave street concerts each week in the evenings during the summer months. They played for special affairs and gave concerts frequently.

A few of the band members were Jack Lawrence Agnew, Woodrow Harris, Edward Watkins, Jack Smith, Charles Barnes, L. R. Smith, Clark Roberds, Paul Jacobs, Benny G. Busbee and H. O. Bostain.

City Water Supt. J. Walter Smith announced that the city water minimum had been raised from 2,000 gallons to 3,000 gallons in the early spring of 1953. The minimum charge of $1.50 remained the same. Mr. Smith said: "The raise has been effected on account of the approaching garden and lawn season and the city wants to encourage the use of water in gardening and city beautification and sell water as cheaply as possible."

"TO MAKE THE BEST BETTER"

Well, gang, here I am again to tell you what has been going on here at the high school.

The basketball girls have begun the basketball season just wonderfully. They have played Blanket, Sidney and Eula, and have really played games that the Wildcats can be proud of.

The seniors had a light bulb sale last Saturday; so Rising Star is probably well lighted now. Anyway, we had a lot of fun trying to sell all of them.

The football boys are doing just great this year in the football games. The mighty Cats will conquer all. That was a good game last Friday, boys; you really gave them all a hart time.

A lunch-time pastime for M. C., B. H., and P. S. - along with a few others - is stomping ants on the front sidewalk. The one that squashes the most becomes champion ant stomper. Right now M. C. is out in front, but I can not really tell; it may be B. H. that is stomping the hardest. Kind of a corny thing to do, is it not? Bye for now.

Patty

P. S. - J. C., what are you putting in that tea? Are you really hooked on it? L. H., that sure is a big ring on your finger. Are you sure it is not too heavy?

"LEADERS OF TOMORROW"

Our Halloween Carnival was a big success. We made lots of money and many ghosts and goblins visited us. Where are the scissors, B. M.?

The yellow jackets have invaded us. They are everywhere - window seals, ceilings, and yes, even in some peoples' clothing. D. B. seems to enjoy fighting them in typing, while a certain senior uses the spray on J. O. (One lit on his back.)

In English, R. D. stomps the jackets into the floor. L. G. counted twenty of them while the twenty-first crawled on his pants leg. Where are the scissors, M. S.?

Can someone please tell us what JNELL means? Does it have something to do with J. N. C.?

Seventh period P. E. class proves more interesting every day. Run! Run! Run!

Term themes are due tomorrow; so everyone speed up and finish them!

Where are the scissors, J. L.?

Janet Ezzell

P. S. - We finally found the scissors! !

"THERE IS ROOM AT THE TOP"

Election day has finally passed, and we are very glad at R. S. H. S. Heated arguments were frequent and hot between students with different political views.

Charles Darwin is making the scene in biology. Some of us disagree with his ideas, but we are learning something anyway.

We are getting our "x's," "n's," "y's," "p's," and "G's" mixed up in algebra I. Sometimes we do not even know when to add an "x" to both sides or subtract an "A" from both sides. We are learning something different every day, and this confused us even more.

We sophomores are studying about our debt to the Romans in world history. We almost gave up all hope about getting our test booklets, but they finally arrived. J. B., did you ever get those letters and numbers straightened out on that test? ?

The band is coming along very nicely. What is this I heard about the typing students keeping time with the music as they type?

The first period biology class is studying what the third period biology class was studying a week ago. Either we are going too fast or you all are going too slow!

We have finished "Julius Caesar," but it will live on in our memories as one of the most wonderful pieces of work we have ever read. Caesar, Brutus, Casca, Cassius - all of you guys - we are going to miss you! S. M., thank your lucky stars that your booklet was not torn to shreds!

In health, burning up the football field is on the weekly schedule. T. B. and S. J. - caution; throwing boxes of trash over the fence may be hazardous to your health.

Boy! Was Halloween night a whopper! More on that happening next week.

Moving right along now. Secret brothers, write your secret sisters; and, secret sisters, write your secret brothers.

Last week the good old spirit jug was ours again. Go, Wildcats! C. S.

WILLING TO LEARN

The Freshmen are finally sold out. We are sold out of everything - magazines, candles, candy, and Tupperware. We are really in the money. We are not rich, but you can not say we are broke.

All of our classes are going much better. Our science class is doing all right. We have been smelling up the school lately with our experiments, but the odor usually goes away.

The math class is getting a little rough for some, but it is not too hard.

English I is just a neat class, and we have one swell teacher. How about Mrs. C.?

In P. E. class, we are really getting in shape.

There was once a saying that a lot of people used to go by: "Do unto others as you would have them do unto you." Well, the freshmen do not think that way about the seniors. Our saying goes: "Do unto others before they do unto you." Then to top it all off, the seniors' saying is "Do unto others because they can not do unto you." You know why they have this saying? They have it because we are just not so big as some of them.

Till next time,

Cynthia Hounsel

favor of the Wildcats. Next week the Wildcats play Eula here. Come cheer the Cats on to another victory and an undefeated season.

Debbie White

BOYS' SPORTS

The Wildcats will play the Evant Elks at home Friday night. The district race is really getting tight; so each game grows in importance. Evant was not rated too high at the start of the season; but they have upset some good teams, and we are not taking this game lightly.

The Wildcats have only three opponents remaining in the 1968 season. They are Evant, Hico, and Lometa, and they are three of the most powerful teams in the district. We can not afford any defeats if we are going to stay in the running for a district championship; so they should all be good games.

Till next week,

Danny

LIBRARY NEWS

Hello, all you bookworms! Here is your jolly reporter bringing you news from behind the bookshelves, under the bookshelves, and around the library desk.

New books are coming in all the time! Wow! Books like "William Shakespeare, A Reader's Guide" (for those seniors), or "Green Hills of Africa" by Ernest Hemingway, or even "Henry Reed Inc." There have been around 100 books added to our library this past week. Think of all those books to read! Yummy! Let us get down to some hard reading, but remember - only two books out of the library at a time.

Be kind to your librarians this week, folks.

Signing off,
 Barbara R.

"LEARNING TO DO"

Hello again. The Farmers are working on different projects this week. The first period class is working on parliamentary procedure to go to the district contest on November 22. The second period class will start working (Continued from Page Three) in the shop. The shop work will consist of welding exercises, some woodwork, and the use of cutting torches.

"The 1968 Lilliston 1500 Combine is the best peanut combine I've ever used."

That's exactly the way Fagan Bays, Route 1, Stephenville, Texas, feels about his new Lilliston. Son Sam agrees. Here's what Mr. Bays says about the performance he's now getting:

"We're picking the cleanest peanuts we've ever picked. And they're really grading high. A good example of what the new Lilliston 1500 will do is the 850 bags of peanuts I thrashed in just six hours the other day."

"We do a lot of custom work, too, and must have peanut harvesting equipment we can depend on. That's why we use Lillistons."

"Another good thing about the Lilliston Combine is that I think it has the highest resale value on the market. I found that out when I traded my old Lilliston for the great 1968 model."

Note: Sam Bays received the coveted AMERICAN FARMER AWARD—the highest honor that can be bestowed upon a member of the Future Farmers of America. Only one FFA member in 1,000 receives this honor.

"If there's one God, why are there so many religions?"

That's a question that has plagued thoughtful people for centuries. Religions often have seemed to divide men rather than join them—which could hardly be God's will. In our time, so full of wonders, we're witnessing what may be the greatest wonder of all; the growing force of inter-faith understanding. It seems to promise a fuller flowering of God's hopes for man. You and me. Great new things are happening in churches and synagogues these days. But find out for yourself. This week. Then take your strengthened faith out into the world—and put it to work.

BAND NEWS

Last Friday the band went to Blanket to back the Wildcats, and this week we hope to help them win over the Evant Elks. The band went to Abilene on November 5 to hear the United States Marine Band. It was great! We have a new band member, Wesley Kanady, a sixth grader. Welcome, Wesley.

"TOWARD NEW HORIZONS"
Good afternoon, folks! This is your sweet little ole reporter reporting for station F. H. A., and now for the latest news. The cookbooks that Mrs. Diddle ordered have now come in, and we have begun selling them. These recipes have been obtained from all over the world; so folks, help the F. H. A.'ers out.

Okay? What I mean is buy one, two, three, or maybe all four? M. C., do not believe a word. C. O. did it again. Do you folks remember that M. J. C. could not find her thread bobbin? Well, I told her to look on the machine, and guess what - she found it! Right, M. C.?
On October 23, the Home Ec I girls tried out the new Artex paint. Talk about grrreat; it is! Some of the Home Ec I girls are working on a Junior Degree. It is a little scary, but we will survive.

Have you all seen the Home Ec II and III girls' dresses and suits? They are pretty! I am proud to announce that Area IV is publishing a newspaper this year called "New Horizons," and as public relations officer I am responsible for collecting news articles and pictures for our chapter to be published.

November 5 the F. H. A.'ers had an Trtex party, at the home-making cottage. Cookies and punch made by the Home Ec I girls' was served, and everyone was fascinated by the beautiful designs displayed. Until next week,

Sheila

Hear Missionary Kin Speak at Abilene

Mr. and Mrs. James W. Armstrong and son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Roy G. Armstrong and children, were in Abilene Thursday, October 17, to hear the Rev. W. L. Armstrong speak in the First United Methodist Church there.

Rev. and Mrs. Armstrong returned to the United States last July from Indonesia where they are serving as missionaries from the United Methodist Church. With their three children, they will return to their field of duty in Indonesia in July, 1969. They are making their home in Abilene at the present.

Thirty-two members of the Armstrong family attended the lecture. A family reunion was held at the Jamacia Inn following the church service. During the afternoon the families gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Armstrong in Abilene for visiting and were entertained with pipe organ music by Mr. and Mrs. Armstrong. J. F. is the son of the late Rev. Arthur B. and Mrs. Armstrong, Mrs. Armstrong, the former Miss "Lollie" Livingston of Rising Star, makes her home in Abilene.

Methodist Teachers Hallowe'en Hostesses

The teachers of the Children's department of the First United Methodist Church - Mrs. L. G. Crawford, Mrs. James Armstrong, Mrs. J. R. Bucy, and Mrs. Clara Burkhead - were the sponsors of a Halloween party for 13 children - Mark and Mary Jane Kizer, Teresa, Neal and Sam Scott, Jerrylyn and Gwendale Winfrey, Dicky Seider, Nathan Jones, Johnny Hubbard, Shellie Gray, Casey Rutherford, and Mark Griffin. The party was complete with delicious refreshments, a treasure hunt, apple-bobbing, and even a delightful fortune-teller - Miss Mary Jane Kizer. Even though there were a few witches at the party, they were nice witches and everyone had a wonderful time.

Ann Glenn Wed in Lake Jackson, Texas, Ceremony

Recently Miss Ann Glen, granddaughter of Mrs. Grace Glen of May, became the bride of Richard Rimoto in St. Michael's Catholic Church at Lake Jackson, Texas.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wendall H. Glen of Lake Jackson. Her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Rimoto, also of Lake Jackson.

The Rev. Fr. J. Ronald Titus officiated at the ceremony before an altar lighted by white tapers in four candelabra entwined with greenery and white Votive candles.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal gown fashioned in the Empire style. The bodice of imported Chantilly lace had a rounded neckline outlined in pearls, and long tapered sleeves. The skirt of silk organza over peau de soie was enhanced by lace appliques and scalloped lace at the hemline. Her chapel train repeated lace appliques. Her camelot veil of illusion fell to shoulder length. She carried white roses centered with a white orchid.

Brides attendants wore formal princess gowns of burnt orange Alaskine with headdresses of orange and green. They carried bouquets of large bronze mums and Croton leaves.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Glen chose an orange silk A-line dress with lace scarf and matching hat with a veil. She wore bone accessories. The bridegroom's mother wore a pink double knit suit with a white feather hat and matching accessories. Both wore orchid corsages.

A reception was held at the church hall. The bride's table featured a cherub epergne holding green feiji mums, white daisies and carnations and greenery. A green compote with tangerine carnations centered the groom's table.

When the couple left for a wedding trip to New Orleans, the bride was wearing a knit dress of yellow trimmed in brown. She wore black accessories and a white orchid corsage.

The couple are at home in Bryan, where Mr. Rimoto is a senior at Texas A&M University. Mrs. Rimoto is a graduate of Brazos Port High School and attended Southwestern Business School at Houston.

Mrs. Rimoto's father, a native of May, is the son of Mrs. Grace Glen of May.

"It didn't cost THAT much to be sick when I was a little girl."

"Oh, but actually, sickness costs LESS today - and many more children get well!"

BACK WHEN TODAY'S adults were growing up, one out of every ten babies died before its first birthday. Now advances in medical science are saving millions of young lives each year. Yet the cost of the better medical care available today is actually less than the best care you could get when you were a child!

The reason: new treatments and new medicines developed by the medical profession and the pharmaceutical industry.

A dramatic case in point is mastoiditis in children. Surgery was often able to save the child's life but sometimes left him with a deaf ear. Nowadays the doctor is often able to cure him with perhaps $25 worth of potent new medicines, and thus save the expense of an operation and hospital stay.

But most important, these new drugs are saving children's lives - by the millions. Once, the four most deadly child killers were diphtheria, whooping cough, scarlet fever and pneumonia. Nowadays, the number of deaths from all of these causes combined is actually less than the number of children killed by accidents.

And medical progress continues. Today, the dollar you spend for prompt and proper medical care buys more than ever before - and may well represent one of the really extraordinary bargains of your life.

News From Twilite Acres . . .

The staff and residents of Twilite Acre Nursing Home would like to take this opportunity to extend sympathy to Mr. and Mrs. Jack Jackson in the loss of Mr. Jackson's mother, Mrs. Nina Pierce.

Mrs. Addie Culwell was really happy to see her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Lee Culwell return from a visit with relatives.

Mrs. Margie Earp came to the home last week and entertained the residents, as well as the staff, by playing the piano for us. She plays very well and we always enjoy her company.

If there are others in our community who have some spare time, we would be happy to have you visit with us, as the residents love to hear the piano music and sing all the old time hymns.

Rev. Jay Beavers was by visiting with all the folks and we are in the "taling stage" of organizing a plan for volunteer service here at the nursing home. This would also include our young people in Rising Star.

There are so many little things that can be done for our senior citizens to make their days happier and we need the support and assistance of the community.

Sunday afternoon worship service was conducted by the Rev. Don Timberlake of the First Baptist Church.

Birthdays this week include Mrs. Tee Hardin, Nov. 8, and Clyde Johnson on Nov. 11.
