Cosden Puts Crude Prices Back To Pre-Cut Level

20-Cent Increase Announced, Would Be Effective When Wells Opened

Cosden Petroleum Corporation, one of the largest purchasers in local fields, Thursday had become the third independent refining company to restore oil prices to their levels prior to Aug. 12 when the company followed Humble's lead in a 20-cent per barrel reduction on the day before.

Although Cosden's new price is effective at once, the new schedule would not become operative until the state's shutdown is lifted. That would be next Tuesday night, unless there is an extension.

The new schedule would go into effect simultaneously with the lifting of the state's 15-day shutdown order imposed on August 15.

Restoration of the price to its former basis will have the effect of boosting the average price of local crude in the neighborhood of 75 cents per barrel instead of the 55 cents prevailing before the shutdown.

Producers in the Howard-Glasscock, Iatan-East Howard, and Snyder pools, who have been running oil to the Cosden refinery here, were notified by the corporation offices in Fort Worth Thursday that the price would be raised 20 cents a barrel on crude. This also covered purchases in Young and Ector counties.

Citing the reason for following the Humble cut, Cosden officials advised producers that it "was beyond our control to maintain the operation of our refineries and pay for your oil at the prevailing posted prices."

"We purchase practically all of the oil processed in our refineries and a substantial portion of our refinery products are marketed at a price based upon the field price, as posted by the Humble Oil and Refining company and other major purchasers who cut their prices effective Aug. 11, 1939. Furthermore, the remainder of our refinery production is sold to other refiners."

Thompson last night sent telegrams to oil conservation officials in the shutdown states and also in California, Colorado, Illinois and Michigan, inviting them on behalf of the Texas Railroad commission, to attend as observers a statewide prorator hearing here Monday.

He pointed out executives of the major oil companies were expected to testify and said "I am recommending to the members of the Interstate Oil Compact commission that we have a called meeting here at that time."

He said the oil company officials would be asked to testify under oath on the position of their gasoline and crude stocks.

Will Consider Extension Of Shutdowns

AUSTIN, Aug. 24 (AP)—Declaring "there's no use doing this thing halfway," Chairman Ernest O. Thompson proposes a meeting of the Interstate Oil Compact commission here Monday to consider whether the six state shutdown of oil production should be extended.

The closings were ordered in an effort to restore oil prices at least to their level before August 9, when price cutting began. The shutdown in Texas, first state to close its fields, will end next Tuesday night.

Flow of oil has been stopped completely or partially in Louisiana, Arkansas, Oklahoma, Kansas and New Mexico.

Thompson last night sent telegrams to oil conservation officials in the shutdown states and also in California, Colorado, Illinois and Michigan, inviting them on behalf of the Texas Railroad commission, to attend as observers a statewide prorator hearing here Monday.

REACTOR Sign-ups Are Growing

Workers in 13 communities of Howard and Martin counties, seeking memberships for a Rural Electrification Authority project, Thursday reported encouraging response of potential patrons.

Biggs Shepherd, superintendent of the Courtney (Martin county) schools and secretary and co-ordinator of the project, reported that an estimated 200 rural residents of a required 500 along the proposed 305-mile line, had signed and posted $5 for their meter deposit and membership fee in the cooperative.

In every community tentatively down for service from the REA line, workers continued to contact prospective patrons for the service, Howard-Martin REA officials reported.

The line extends from a point near the Mitchell county line in Howard county westward through Martin county to near the Midland county line. Requirements are a $5 deposit for a meter. The individual must have his own house wired and minimum rate is $2.45 per month for 25 kilowatt hours with approved REA rates on additional current.

Among communities due to be affected by the projected set-up are R-Bar, Center Point, Luther, Fairview, Highway, Moore and Knott in Howard county and Brown, Valley View, Lenorah, Tarzan, Courtney and Stanton in Martin county.

FD Directs A Peace Plea To Italy's King

Promises 'Sympathy' Of U. S. In Effort Against War

WASHINGTON, Aug. 24 (AP)—President Roosevelt renewed today his efforts to avert a European war, by appealing to King Victor Emanuele of Italy "to formulate proposals for a pacific solution to the present crisis."

The president sent word to the king that if the Italian government "restored the status quo ante bellum, the United States would be glad to do so."

WASHINGTON, Aug. 24 (AP)—President Roosevelt arrived here at 1:30 p. m. today for conferences with state department officials on the European situation.

The president said he was assured of the warmest sympathy of the United States.

Ambassador William Phillips, on arrangements made by Mussolini and Foreign Minister Count Ciano, had an audience with King Victor Emanuele and presented the president's message orally.

The text of the communication then was made public here by Secretary Hull as the president himself hurried back to Washington for conferences with his advisers on foreign affairs.

"It is my belief and that of the American people that your majesty and your majesty's government can greatly influence the averting of an outbreak of war."

"Any general war would cause to suffer all nations whether belligerent or neutral, whether victor or vanquished."

Second Bale Of The Season Is Ginned

Ben E. Miller, R-Bar, who last year brought in the first cotton of the season, had the second bale of the season ginned here Thursday morning.

He brought in 1,490 pounds of seed cotton which turned out a 527-pound bale. Farmers Gin Co., which ginned the cotton, paid 10 cents a pound. Miller caught his seed so there was no bid on them.

First bale of the season was turned out Friday for P. A. Futch, R-Bar, weighed 471 pounds and brought 10 cents a pound from Planters Gin Co., the ginner.

Miller had first cotton of the season last year when he brought a short bale, topping the beam at 382 pounds, on Sept. 2.

TREASURY CHIEF SAYS NATION READY TO MEET EMERGENCIES

WASHINGTON, Aug. 24 (AP)—John W. Hanes, acting secretary of the treasury, said today "the machinery is well oiled and ready to be put into operation" to meet economic and other emergencies that might arise in this country in the event of a European war.

Hanes said that meetings of an inter-departmental group of federal officials would be continued and a great many sessions would be held throughout the period of crisis. The group has been conferring ever since the European situation became grave.

A European war, Hanes said, "would throw a tremendous responsibility upon this country in remaining neutral," but he indicated that machinery first set up at the time of the Munich crisis last spring was ready to function at an instant's notice.

"We are as ready now," he said, "as we were then."

Hanes declined to discuss specific topics that have been the subject of the inter-departmental conferences. It was learned, however, that representatives of the governmental departments have been examining codes and statutes that would apply in the event of a European war with relation to such matters as customs, communications and security matters.

Nazi Demands Reported By Chamberlain

Says Britain's Obligations To Poland 'Unaffected'

LONDON, Aug. 24 (AP)—Prime Minister Chamberlain declared in the house of commons today that Adolf Hitler had demanded a free hand for Germany in eastern Europe and had told Britain that any country which interfered was to blame for an ensuing war.

Asks Emergency Powers "God knows I have done all that is possible in efforts for peace," said the prime minister after he had declared Britain's obligations to Poland "remain unaffected" by what he called an imminent peril of war.

Speaking against the background of a rapidly arming Europe, the prime minister asked parliament to enact an emergency powers bill, giving the government virtually dictatorial authority to deal with any emergency.

The cheers that rose from all sides of the house at the close of his 33-minute speech indicated quick acceptance of his demand.

"As we think, so shall we act unilaterally," Chamberlain said solemnly and the house rose and cheered.

The prime minister said Hitler's claim to a free hand in eastern Europe without interference came as a reply to a message delivered to the German chancellor yesterday through the British ambassador in Berlin, Sir Neville Henderson.

This message, chamberlain said, restated Britain's own position.

"The German chancellor's reply includes what amounts to a restatement of the German thesis that eastern Europe is a sphere in which Germany ought to have a free hand," said the prime minister.

He went on to say that "we still hope reason and sanity will find a way out." But he said "the issue of peace or war does not rest with us."

"If all efforts to find a peaceful solution—and god knows I have done my best—fail and we find ourselves forced to embark upon a struggle bound to be fraught with suffering and misery for all mankind and the end of which no man can foresee, we shall not be fighting for the political future of a faraway state in a foreign land."

"We shall be fighting for the preservation of those principles, the destruction of which would involve the destruction of all possibility of peace and security for the peoples of the world. I trust those with whom the responsibility lies will remember the millions."

MONTGOMERY, Ala., Aug. 24 (AP)—William E. Bankhead (D-Ala.), speaker of the National House of Representatives, last night announced willingness to accept the 1940 democratic presidential nomination.

Bankhead said he would like the state's 22 delegates to the democratic national convention pledged to him only "if a majority of the voters in the primary sincerely favor my nomination."

Power to choose and instruct or order state-wide balloting on convention delegates rests with the Alabama democratic executive committee, which meets in January.

Informed workers had started clearing timber on the Oklahoma side of the damsite, he declared "that doesn't make any difference."

Preparations For Immediate Action Seen

Hitler Back In Berlin; Nazi Leader In Charge At Danzig

BERLIN, Aug. 24 (AP)—Adolf Hitler suddenly returned to his Berlin chancellery today as events in central Europe appeared to be heading rapidly toward a climax.

Foreign Minister Joachim von Ribbentrop a few minutes later landed in Berlin from his flying visit to Moscow, bringing in his pocket a non-aggression treaty with Soviet Russia.

Action Thought Near The fuhrer returned to Berlin unexpectedly from his summer chancellery at Berchtesgaden in a Junkers plane.

Meanwhile, the Free City of Danzig elevated its fiery Nazi Leader Albert Forster to the position of head of state.

The step was interpreted as preparation for decisive action which observers were expecting within a few hours, or certainly a few days.

The American embassy officially advised Americans to leave Germany.

Prime Minister Chamberlain's address to parliament contributed to the growing tension in Berlin.

His firm attitude, it was feared in many quarters, caused hope to fade that eastern European problems could be solved without bloodshed.

Troops stood in formidable numbers on both sides the German-Polish border.

In Danzig it was admitted German troops were in positions from which they could move in on a moment's notice.

This zero hour was expected tonight after Foreign Minister Joachim von Ribbentrop, following the swift conclusion of the Russian-German non-aggression pact, returned from Moscow and made his report.

There was a feeling the best guess was there would be a limited ultimatum to Poland of only a few hours.

Poland's only hope to avoid war then would be to send her foreign minister to Berlin to capitulate.

"Don't think for one moment that Hitler wants war," one spokesman said.

"Nobody would be happier than our fuhrer if the Poles accept our conditions without bloodshed."

At the same time, in the wake of the signing of the Russian-German pact, there were indications a clear understanding already existed between Berlin and Moscow as to what to do about Poland in the event of war.

Along with the orders to British consuls for a general evacuation of British nationals, the staffs of the British and French embassies—with the exception of the ambassadors and a few secretaries—were preparing to leave.

French Ambassador Robert Coulondre last night presented what was believed to have been a reaffirmation of the French government's intention to stand by Poland.

The envoy called at the foreign office with his government's message following a similar demarche to Adolf Hitler yesterday by British Ambassador Sir Neville Henderson.

Movements of troops and guns became more apparent in the heart of Berlin.

Pope Renews Peace Appeal

CASTEL GANDOLFO, Aug. 24 (AP)—Pope Pius XII tonight broadcast a new appeal for peace, reminding governments and peoples it was not too late for negotiations to avert war.

"Let men return to mutual understanding, let them begin their negotiations anew," the Pope implored.

He declared "empires which are not built on justice are not blessed by God."

"Today when the outbreak of the scourge of war seems more imminent," the Pope said, "we direct a new and more heartfelt appeal to men of power and their peoples to avert the catastrophe."

He urged the "voice of reason" be heeded rather than the "voice of passion."

"Nothing is lost through peace," he said. "All is lost through war." Translations in English, French, German and Polish were broadcast by the Vatican radio station immediately after the Pope had finished speaking.

More Pay For WPA Workers

SAN ANTONIO, Aug. 24 (AP)—National wage scale adjustments will add $612,000 to the combined pay checks of the 65,960 workers on Texas WPA payrolls in September. It was announced here today by State Administrator H. P. Drought.

The wage adjustment is being made in compliance with the 1939 relief appropriation act provision which requires that monthly earnings for workers on the same type may not be varied in different sections of the country more than is justified by differences in the cost of living. Drought explained, WPA wage scales which will be in effect in Texas after Sept. 1 were listed as follows:

In counties in which the 1930 population of the largest municipality was 100,000 and over class "B" unskilled workers will receive $46.80 per month; class "A" unskilled workers will receive $50.70; intermediate workers will receive $61.10; skilled workers will receive $79.30; professional and technical workers will receive $81.90.

In counties where the largest municipality was 25,000 to 100,000 the rates are respectively: $42.90; $48.10; $57.20; $71.10, and $75.40.

In counties in which the largest municipality was from 5,000 to 25,000: $36.40; $40.30; $48.10; $62.40, and $65.

In counties in which largest municipality was lower than 45,000: $31.20; $35.10; $42.90; $54.60, and $55.90.

Clearing Timber On Oklahoma Side For Denison Dam

DURANT, Okla., Aug. 24 (AP)—Workmen began clearing timber on the Oklahoma side of the Denison damsite today despite an assertion by Governor Phillips that he would take steps to prevent it.

C. L. Schutt, contractor, said a crew had been put to work with saws, axes and other small equipment. Heavy machinery will be moved up tomorrow, he added.

Phillips, a bitter foe of the $50,000,000 Red river project, declared Tuesday "If they start working on the Oklahoma side, we'll file an application to the supreme court."

"They don't even need to cut timber on our good land," he said. "Let them work on the Texas side if they want to."

The governor said the bill authorizing the dam needed amendments to cut Oklahoma in for a share of the revenue from sale of power.

INVESTIGATIONS OF PENSION CASES CONTINUING

In the face of ominous warnings from the state welfare board that it appeared either the number or amount of pensions would have to be cut after Sept. 1 unless new methods of financing appeared miraculously, the district staff of the Texas Old Age Assistance commission is steadily investigating the long list of new registrants for applications.

George G. White, district supervisor, commented that the investigation of the more than 300 registering in the 21-county district was proceeding at a slower pace than would be possible were it not for the necessity of reinvestigating cases on the rolls.

This, he said, was due to a requirement of the federal social security board calling for an annual validation of all cases on the assistance commission rolls.

SEEK ARSONIST IN THE NORTHWEST

PORTLAND, Ore., Aug. 24 (AP)—An hourly air patrol of the waterfront and industrial districts was organized today in an attempt to apprehend an arsonist blamed for nearly $5,000,000 in fire losses throughout the Pacific Northwest.

Fire Chief Edward Boatright, claiming "convincing evidence" of attempted incendiaries here, said he expected to have 25 amateur and commercial fliers "practicing night flying over dangerous sectors."

The incendiarist, striking invariably at industrial plants, has caused havoc in Vancouver, Centralia, Kent, Seattle, Tacoma and Wenatchee, Wash.; Boise, Idaho, and Hood River, Ore. Boatright believes Portland is his next goal because of peculiar methods used in attempted waterfront fires here.

Jap Soldiers Land In Shanghai Area

SHANGHAI, Aug. 24 (AP)—Six thousand Japanese soldiers were reported today to have been landed in the Shanghai area in preparation for "some action" against the international settlement, garrisoned by nearly 5,000 American, British, French and Italian soldiers.

The sources of this report, the most reliable foreign quarters, said the landing took place yesterday and the Japanese had been planning for some time to occupy the settlement, whose extra-territoriality dates back to 1945.

These quarters said the Japanese previously had postponed action because of Soviet Russian-German negotiation of a non-aggression treaty which left them uncertain of Japan's position in the world line-up.

The original Japanese plan was said to have called for cutting off all rice supplies for the settlement's population of 1,120,800 Chinese. The foreign population of the settlement, including Japanese, is 25,583.

This move, it was supposed, would intensify rice riots which have been sporadic in the past few days. When the situation was deemed by the Japanese to be out of hand they intended to march into the settlement, it was said, on the grounds police were unable to maintain order.

1940 Buicks Coming Off The Line

FLINT, Mich., Aug. 24—Preparation for production of 1940 models has been completed at the Buick plants at Flint and this division of General Motors started its assembly lines with the first shift Monday morning. Volume will be celebrated steadily during the next few weeks until capacity output is reached.

This was announced by Harlow H. Curtice, president and general manager, who said that Buick is launched upon one of the largest manufacturing programs in the experience of the company backed by new lines of cars expected greatly to increase its market for the coming season.

"We are scheduling the production of more cars during the remaining months of this year than we have ever built in any comparable period and I expect our plants to be operating at peak capacity throughout the fourth quarter," he said. "Assembly operations will be boosted steadily as production gets under way and it is anticipated that the peak will be reached by the middle of September and maintained through the last quarter."

"Our program calls for a substantial increase over the 1939 model season, in which we produced in excess of 206,000 cars, and production is so scheduled as to maintain high operating levels throughout the year. Meanwhile, it is planned to have substantial stocks in the hands of dealers within the next 45 days to insure prompt retail deliveries in the face of an expected heavily increased demand."

The executive said that resumption of final assembly effects the immediate return to work of more than 5,000 employees and reemployment by mid-September of Buick's full factory force of approximately 11,000. Re-employment will go forward at the rate of 2,000 men a week until an assembly rate of 1,200 cars a day is reached, he said.

Midlanders Boost Rodeo

Advertising the fifth annual Midland rodeo to be held at Midland on September 2-3-4, a delegation of 30 or more Midland business men on a two-day good will tour over West Texas stopped here for a brief visit Wednesday afternoon, members of the party distributing literature and contacting local firms and individuals in the interest of their annual celebration which they termed "the outstanding rodeo of the Southwest." The trip was sponsored by the Midland junior chamber of commerce. Members of the party, attired in loud shirts, boots, big hats and other cowboy regalia, made a most colorful appearance as they left their bus and scattered over the city. Loud speaking equipment called attention to the rodeo after music had attracted local citizens to the bus.

On their visit to the newspaper office, members of the group extended a most cordial invitation to all citizens of Big Spring to attend the Midland celebration on September 2-3-4, day and night performances to be held each day. Regular western events, cowboy relay races, cowgirl sponsors contest, free-for-all horse races, a horse show and junior cowboys calf roping will feature the big show, they said. The delegation was headed by Bill Holmes, president of the Midland junior chamber of commerce, Carl Ulffers, vice-president, and Jack Wilkinson, chairman of the organization's rodeo committee.

Aerial darts is a very popular game on the various city playgrounds. The game is played according to volley ball rules. Each player has a ply-wood paddle, and a rubber ball with a cloth attached is used instead of the more expensive shuttle-cock.

FORMER PRESIDENT OF BOLIVIA WOULD RETURN TO POWER

SANTIAGO, Chile, Aug. 24 (AP)—Col. David Toro, exiled former president of Bolivia, declared today he would return to La Paz if he were summoned to help form a government to succeed the dictatorship of Col. German Busch, dead of a gunshot wound.

The death of 35-year-old President Busch at his residence yesterday in the Bolivian capital was said by Bolivian Propaganda Minister Mario Flores to have been suicide.

Toro was overthrown by Busch in 1937 and attempted a counter-revolution in March, 1938.

The Bolivian propaganda minister, according to dispatches from La Paz, said Busch had been "mentally depressed" because of "intense work during the past days."

Trench warfare is thought by some to have originated in a battle at Corinth, Miss., during the Civil war.

HELP KIDNEYS PASS 3 LBS. A DAY

Doctors say your kidneys contain 15 miles of tiny tubes or filters which help to purify the blood and keep you healthy. Most people pass about 3 pints a day or about 3 pounds of waste. Frequent or scanty passages with smarting and burning above, there may be something wrong with your kidneys or bladder. An excess of acids or poisons in your blood, when due to functional kidney disorders, may be the cause of nagging backache, rheumatism, indigestion, leg pains, loss of sleep and energy, grating up stairs, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headache and dizziness. Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Don's Pills, used successfully by millions for over 40 years. They give happy relief and will help the 15 miles of filters in your kidneys pass waste from your blood. Get Don's Pills.

Good Horses To Be Seen At Rodeo

MIDLAND, Aug. 24—Visitors to the Midland rodeo, Sept. 2-3-4, in addition to witnessing a big time rodeo participated in by the nation's outstanding stars and cowboys from ranches in the Midland area, will have the opportunity of seeing some of the best horseflesh in the Southwest.

Appearing in the mile long parade which officially opens the rodeo each year will be the celebrated dun remudas of the Scharbauer Land and Cattle company, the Mabey-Pyle ranch, the C. ranch and W. W. Brunson. Top horses from the remudas of Roy Parks, Leonard and Foy Proctor, Donald Hutt, Cowden ranches, George W. Glass, O. B. Holt, the Scharbauer and Eldon ranch, Livingston, N. M., and Tom Curry of Sterling City will also carry cowboys from their respective ranches. Polo ponies from the J. Floyd ranch and the thoroughbreds from the Tom Mabey and Audrey Francis and John Dublin thoroughbred strings will carry riders in the parade. Judges, pick-up men and mounted arena help recruited from West Texas ranches will be mounted on their top cowhorses. Twenty-five girl sponsors from as many cattle "countries" of West Texas and New Mexico mounted on carefully selected paint, duns and palomina horses will provide additional color.

An event this year calculated to appeal to southwestern horse lovers will be the two and one-fourth mile relay race each day for ranch horses only. In this event each rider uses three horses each completing a three-fourths mile lap. Re-saddling and change of mounts will be directly in front of the grandstand. Both speed of horses and rider's ability to unsaddle, remount and mount quickly are factors in the event. Entries have been received

Dealer Views New Hudsons

In describing the new Hudsons, Hutt said: "Sweeping improvements occur throughout the entire 1940 line. Particular emphasis is placed on a new entry in the lowest price field, the new Hudson Six, in which new features, new fabrics and a new style of upholstery are offered in addition to engineering advances in performance, front-end spring suspension, riding comfort

Says Construction Must Be Speeded On River Projects

WASHINGTON, Aug. 24 (AP)—Col. E. W. Clark, Public Works Administration commissioner, telegraphed the Lower Colorado River Authority at Austin, Tex., today that construction on its $22,350,000 power, water and flood control program "must be substantially accelerated to comply with the June 29, 1940, completion date."

He asked to be advised by August 31 what future steps the authority planned.

This brought to 97 the number of projects which John M. Carmody, federal works administrator, said must be speeded up or be endangered of cancellation.

Col. Clark said the Austin dam and Marshall Ford power house, near Austin, were farther behind construction schedule than any other unit of the project. The entire development, he said, was approximately 66 per cent completed, that 73 per cent of the time agreed upon for construction had elapsed. The projects involve a $1,500,000 PWA loan and a $7,350,000 grant. The authority contracted to provide the additional $13,500,000 construction cost.

Famed Playwright, Sidney Howard, Is Killed In Mishap

NEW YORK, Aug. 24 (AP)—The theatre world mourned today the death of Sidney Howard, one of the nation's foremost playwrights and film scenarioists, who was crushed to death by a tractor on his summer estate near Tyringham, Mass., yesterday.

The writer had worked several hours in the morning on his dramatization of Carl Van Doren's Pulitzer prize biography of Benjamin Franklin.

He decided, for relaxation, to take out the tractor and harrow a 28-acre tract. The machine had been left in gear. When Howard spun the crank, the tractor leaped forward and struck him.

Howard, son-in-law of Walter Damrosch, noted musical conductor, won the Pulitzer prize in 1925 for his play, "They Knew What They Wanted." One of his most recent successes was "The Ghost of Yankee Doodle," which he wrote for Ethel Barrymore.

Federal Requirements May Force Revision Of Texas Pension Laws

AUSTIN, Aug. 24—Amendment of the federal social security act by the recent congress may force revision of the liberalized Texas old-age assistance law if this state is to continue receiving full benefits from Uncle Sam.

The dreaded "kinfolks" clause which Texas legislators eliminated from the state pension law may rise again to haunt them in their political dreams as a result of changes in the federal act.

Under the old Texas law a person over 65 did not receive a pension if he had relatives financially able to care for him. Criticism of "snooping investigators" prying into family affairs brought repeal of the kinfolks clause at the recent session of the legislature.

Now under the new Texas law it is possible for a person over 65 to obtain a pension even though he has a millionaire relative. If the relative doesn't want to care for him, he is entitled to a pension.

But the amendments to the federal social security act which congress recently passed bid well to undo the work of the Texas lawmakers. In order to secure matching funds from Uncle Sam, this state may find itself forced to consider kinfolks' financial ability in qualifying pensioners.

A study of the federal amendments shows that security benefits are to be based, not wholly on individual needs as heretofore, but also on family resources. The theory behind this change is that the family, not the individual, is the unit on which the social order rests.

Therefore, administrators of Texas old-age pensions may soon receive word from federal officials that unless financial ability of kinfolks is considered in qualifying applicants, Uncle Sam will withhold funds to match state grants.

It will be remembered that federal officials several years ago forced "deliberalization" of the Texas pension law. History may soon be repeating itself.

LION BREAKS LOOSE FROM SHIP CAGE

NEW YORK, Aug. 24 (AP)—The U.S. Amazon, off Cape May, N. J., wireless today a lion had broken loose from a cargo of wild animals bound for Venezuela and the ship had no guns on board.

The coast guard station at Cape May quickly messaged the ship it would send a boat with two lion tamers from Clyde Beatty's animal circus, playing at Atlantic City, N. J., and meet the Amazon at a point below Cape May.

The New York coast guard station first got in touch with Frank ("Bring 'Em Back Alive") Buck, who said:

"They'll have to shoot him. Can't catch a lion loose on a ship."

In the meantime two of Beatty's lion tamers volunteered to attempt to catch the lion alive.

As a precaution, the coast guard also planned to bring guns.

Cotton Losing Its Grip

The cotton export business hit a new 60-year low for the cotton year ending July 31. The department of commerce announced this week that exports for the 12 months totaled only 3,327,000 bales.

Chief cause of the drop, which was 2,271,000 bales under that of the preceding year, was a decline of 1,151,000 bales to the United Kingdom. Britain took only 401,900 bales of American cotton last year.

What the decline means in dollars and cents: Last year exports were valued at $170,682,000; the year before, at $306,585,000.

These figures don't imply that the world is using less cotton. They merely prove that American growers have lost their dominant position in cotton production, and that the world market is now steadily being taken over by new producing areas outside the United States.

The outlook for improvement is very bad. The carryover is around 13,000,000 bales, with another crop of 12,000,000 bales or so coming up. If the United States consumes 5,000,000 bales this year, a generous estimate, and this year's exports total last year's, the carryover at the end of the current year will be around 17,000,000 bales.

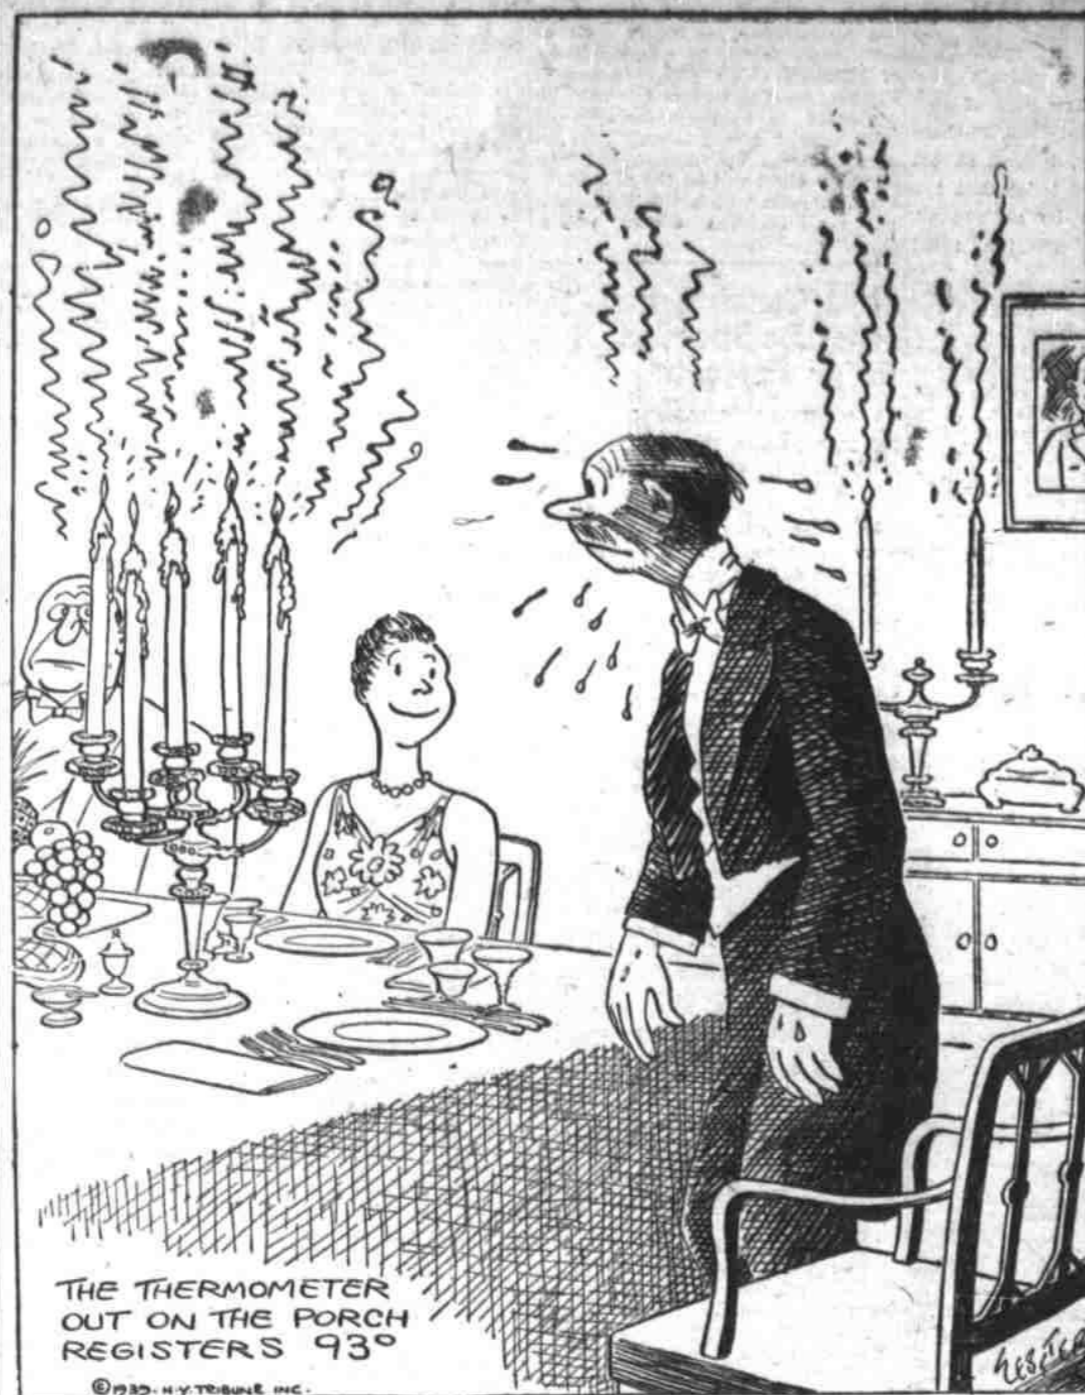

It is idle now to ponder the causes of this disastrous situation, except as it may contribute to avoidance of repetition in future. The thing is done. The problem now is to map out a long-range program designed to restore the American cotton grower to his former proud place as master of the world's markets.

How To Torture Your Husband

Meet Mr. Lochinvar

By Marie Blizard

Chapter 30 TELEPHONE CALL "You can't be in love with him," said Laura, "or you would not be so ready to be suspicious of him."

"But, Laura, he was in Vickers' port last night. We both saw him. And never have I seen him looking the way he did. He came back yesterday. Tony saw him getting off the bus. And he hasn't been in all day! I haven't left this shop since nine this morning."

"Affairs! Filling berry buckets, dangling a fishpole over the side of a dock, whittling a piece of wood! Affairs!"

"Well, Cecily, make up your mind. You like him and accept him for what he is, or you forget him."

"If I were you, I'd find out. I'm on his side. I like him! I don't know much about men but I do know something about human nature. I agree with you that things look suspicious, his fine clothes and his pretenses, and his air of mystery about himself, but I'll rely on my instincts about him. He's a gentleman and I don't believe he'd do any wrong. Why don't you have it out with him? Why don't you tell him how you feel about his... well, his behavior?"

"Easier said than done, my friend. Do you bid the east wind come when you want it? Can you turn on the moon? Can you wave your hand in the air and make people appear out of a cloud of dust?"

Laura laughed. "Goose! This isn't New York. No one could hide from you here if you wanted to see them."

"There is also the point that I don't want to talk to him. I can't explain it to you, Laura, but things are just that way between us. I simply can't seek him out."

"But I could," Laura said simply. The idea arrested Cecily. "Oh, let's forget it. I guess I'm just tired. You're quite right—I have been making a situation out of something that really isn't important."

"I wish I could ask you back to the cottage with me, Cecily, but I'm having supper at the inn to-night with Miss Dixon."

"I'd better hurry or I won't have a chance to change for dinner," Cecily said.

Cecily hurried through her bath, put pads of cold water-soaked cotton on her swollen eyes and came down to dinner a little later as the others were going into the dining-room.

She took little part in the conversation, feeling herself no part of anything. They were having coffee in the drawing-room when Helene said, "Olivia, apparently the recent unpleasantness at Mrs. Brewster's is not finished business. Your housemaid informed Wilson who told it in turn to Manuel that Mrs. Brewster sent for a detective from a Boston agency. He came yesterday and left today."

Preston Crover Washington Daybook

WASHINGTON—Of 10,000 young men between 18 and 25 who will be tried out by the government this year for possible service as air fighters, probably only 400 to 600 will become worthy combat fliers.

Psychology tests will get some of them. Ground school examinations will take out more. Sickness, change of heart and other causes will eliminate some. From those who survive, the army will choose 600, or perhaps fewer.

Ninety to 95 per cent will have a college background. To prevent discrimination, the others may come up with no book learning at all. They probably won't get very far without at least a high-school education.

All these things and more come out as the army and the Civil Aeronautics Authority get ready to put more fighting men in the air than we ever had before. They expect to take on a crop of 10,000 this year and others, year by year, until they get enough. It will take four years, perhaps longer.

Colleges that take on the ground school as part of their class work will be given $20 a student to provide facilities. The incoming student will have to shell out $40 for laboratory fees. He has to maintain himself. It is no all-expense job.

NO JOB GUARANTEE When his preliminary training is finished the student will not be guaranteed a job. The army or navy may want him to take advanced training. In any event he will be part of the "pool" of trained pilots the government wants for national defense.

It will cost about $10,000 per student to carry them from air-ignorance to the grade of army pilot. About $300 a student is allowed for the first year. This will qualify them as private pilots.

At present there are 26,000 fliers with some sort of license. The government estimates only 5,000 are really first-grade fliers.

Robert H. Hinckley, a member of the Civil Aeronautics Authority, says women may be admitted to the training. Hinckley agreed that a lot of people would consider money spent on women fliers as utterly wasted.

"But a lot of women would give you an argument on that," he said.

NAZI MORTALITY RATE Hinckley thinks even 10,000 is a small crop. "Germany has 65,000 men between 18 and 35 years in training camps and is turning out 25,000 pilots annually. Of course, Germany under this high-pressure system is killing them off at the rate of about a minimum of three every two days, to a maximum figure that I have heard of 3,500 a year."

By use of psychological tests it is hoped to weed out many men before the expensive training begins, but so far nobody knows exactly what makes a good flier, or a poor one. Four psychologists and 22 universities are cooperating under the air school scheme to try to find out.

"The air corps at Randolph field (the army's principal flying school) selects only the perfect physical specimens," says Hinckley. "They have had instances down there where an all-America football player could not learn to fly and a tap dancer did learn. But we do not know whether another tap dancer could or another all-America football player could not."

Robbin Coons Hollywood Sights And Sounds

HOLLYWOOD—While movie actors were talking strike and labor troubles, the hero of the screen's first one-man strike was working on a sound stage for $11 a day.

That's what Maurice Costello, the screen's first big star and matinee idol, was glad to be getting for serving as "dress atmosphere" on "The Roaring Twenties," a film starring James Cagney, who wasn't even born when Costello was already an established stage actor.

Costello, a hearty old fellow with a mop of curly hair and a face oddly reminiscent of his ex-son-in-law, John Barrymore, told about his one-man strike with a chuckle.

"In those early days, the actors were supposed to double as scenery-movers, prop-men, furniture-makers, cooks and odd-job men," he said. "I was making $30 a week as an actor—a star. They asked me to join in the chores, and I put my foot down. Said I'd be glad to carry a tray, or anything they wanted, to earn my pay, but if I was earning it as an actor, why, then I'd act and they could give the other jobs to other men."

His eyes wandered over the set, teeming with a staff of electricians, prop-men, assistants, wardrobe-workers, hair-dressers, and all the other behind-the-camera people so essential to movie-making.

"I like to think," he said, "that I started, in a sense, the jobs of all those people."

But $11 a day, Mr. Costello? "Call me Maurice, he chided. "It keeps me sheltered, clothed, and fed—and I'm learning more about this business, having come in the back door this way, than I ever knew as a star. It gives me something to do, besides. Better than moping my time away alone—I'm meeting new people, and some of the old-timers, too. For a long time I hung back, figured Hollywood had forgotten me, didn't care enough to seek me out. Then I realized that I'd have to do the seeking, and I got myself a Guild card, registered at Central Casting, and waited. My work here may never bring me back what I once had—if it does, I'd like it. If it doesn't—well, I can do without it."

Costello is still estranged from Dolores, his daughter and Barrymore's ex-wife; for Helene, Dolores' sister, now ill in a northern sanitarium, he says he "prays every night." The old man looks a bit startled, however, every time he sees Priscilla Lane, also in the picture. Bystanders note the resemblance Priscilla's "Roaring Twenties" coiffure gives her to—Dolores Costello.

State Departments Are Training Schools For Many Workers Who Step Into Private Employment

(Herald Austin Bureau) AUSTIN, Aug. 24—One seldom-mentioned but very important function of government today is the training of skilled personnel for private business and industry.

Few citizens think of their government as a training school for the leaders of private trades, but a check of state departments reveals that each year dozens of men and women are gobbled up by the various professions and businesses.

For example, the insurance commission is an excellent and outstanding training school for those who want to go into the various insurance companies.

By spending several months or a year or two in the insurance commission, a worker gets a broad comprehensive view of the whole insurance field, its problems, limitations, and possibilities. He learns first-hand what problems of governmental regulation must be met, and he learns something of the inner workings of many different insurance companies.

For years this state department has been turning a steady stream of trained workers into the private insurance field.

All lawyers know that experience as an assistant attorney general is a fine background for a legal career. The assistant attorney general gets to look at legal problems from both the side of private business and the side of the government. More than that, it adds to one's prestige to be known as a former assistant attorney general of Texas.

Work with the oil and gas division of the Texas railroad commission is likewise a fine training for entrance into the private oil business.

Inspectors, petroleum engineers, accountants, supervisors—all of these workers in governmental regulation of the oil business get a broad background which puts them miles ahead of the average person entering the employ of an oil company.

The same is true of the divisions of the railroad commission which regulate gas utilities, railroads and trucks.

The highway department has been a fine training ground for some of the most able engineers and draftsmen in the state today.

Experience with the Texas State Employment Service is excellent training for future work in the private concern.

Personal department of some large insurance companies. In these days when business must pay an unemployment compensation tax, which is a very technical tax, an accountant who has worked with the unemployment compensation commission is an asset to any large corporation.

McGEHEE TEAM TO TAAF MEET

The Sports Parade

By HANK HART

Prominently featured in the Illustrated Football Annual, the college gridders' bible which hit the newsstands Wednesday, in Big Spring's Olie Cordill.

In looking over the situation in the Southwest, Wilton Hazard has this to say of the Rice Star:

"Swinging into Texas, we'll dock in the Houston channel and begin with the Rice Institute Owls, who in '37 had the two most publicized sophomores in college football. Those terrible trouble-twins are still on the rant looking better than ever and fired with the ambition of closing their intercollegiate careers in a blaze of glory.

"Olie Cordill and Ernie Lain. What a double dose of dynamite they give Coach Jimmy Kitts to loose at the enemy!

"As a soph Lain was most of the show. It's Cordill who looms now as potentially the outstanding back in the Southwest. The 190-pounder from Big Spring can sprint with the best. He's one of the longest punters in the conference, a deft passer and how he can scat when he tucks that pig skin under his arm pit! Half the Owls' touchdowns two years ago were made on Lain-to-Cordill passes but last season both boys were out at different times with injuries x k x."

Olie is given a grand chance to rate All-America honors this fall. Kitts takes the Owls to New York City Nov. 4 to play the Fordham Rams. If he shows to advantage before the eastern sports writers, then the local youth will get the necessary backing.

The Owls have one of the toughest schedules in the country to face. They open with Vanderbilt at home in a night game Sept. 30, play Centenary at home Oct. 7, LSU in Baton Rouge Oct. 14 and Sam Houston at home Oct. 21 before opening their conference schedule with Texas at Austin Oct. 28.

After playing Fordham on the 4th, they square off with Arkansas in Houston Nov. 11, meet Texas A&M in Houston Nov. 18, battle Texas Christian in Fort Worth Nov. 25, scrap with Baylor in Houston Dec. 2, then finish the season with Southern Methodist in Dallas Dec. 9.

The annual, incidentally, picks Arkansas as the Southwest's favorite what with Kay Eakin back in shape. Rice is highly regarded but not as much as Southern Methodist, which boasts only too many good backs and Texas Christian, which will be powerful despite the loss of the three All-Americans—Davey O'Brien, Ki Aldrich and I. J. Hale.

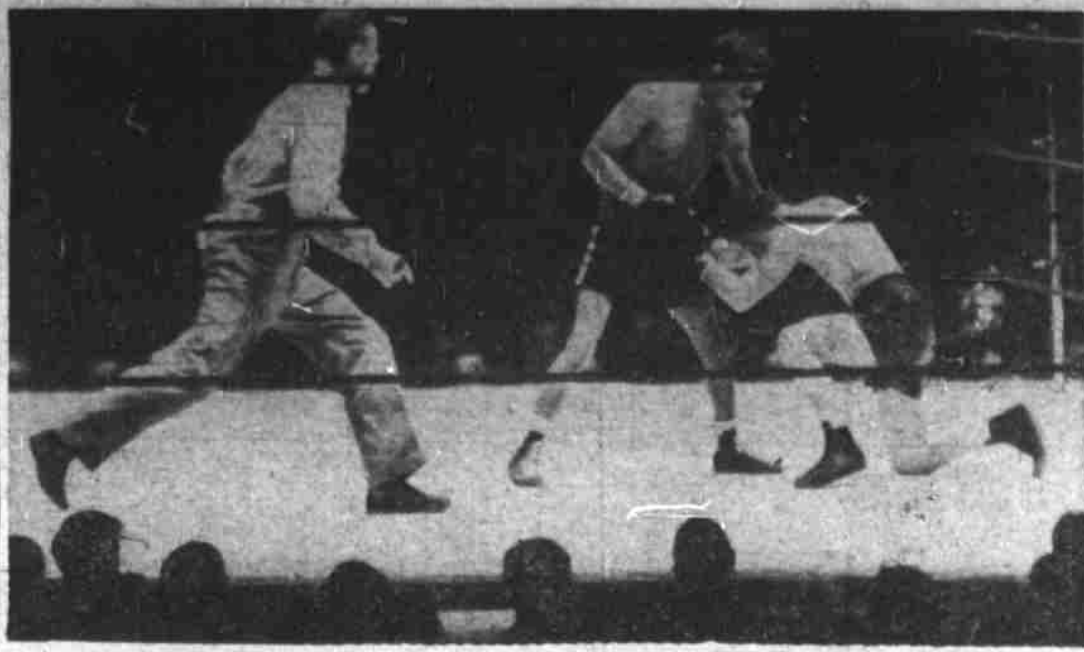

Another Big Spring youth, Weldon Bigony, now attending Baylor university, may put quite a figure in conference football the coming fall.

Blossoming out as a sophomore along with two other highly regarded stars, Jack Wilson and Sam Parks, Bigony helps form a crew that will allow Morley Jennings, Bear mentor, forget about Billy Patterson and Sam Boyd.

A pamphlet of school publicity released from Waco this week related this of Bigony: "Another of the soph backs whom Jennings is counting on to come through and furnish backing power to the starting quartet. Bigony is a six foot boy who can catch passes with the best of them. A fast performer who can really get down the field, Weldon will see much service this fall. x x x"

The "game of the year" for the truis this season will be an instructional clash with Nebraska at Lincoln Oct. 21. The Wacoans also play Southwest, Oklahoma A&M and Centenary in non-conference tilts.

AMBERS DOWN BUT FAR FROM OUT

Cincy Adds To Lead By Stopping Phillies

By SID FEDER

This might be an open letter to Mr. Clark (Old Fox) Griffith, with copies to the other members of the "Mourn the Yankees Cheering and Chawder Society."

But it isn't. It's simply by way of letting the folks know the crumbling Yanks, the club that was ready for the old men's home and didn't know it, are limping along again at a mere 800 clip since they were getting the "waks" ready two weeks ago.

Or, let's put it this way: By taking 12 of their last 15 games, the most recent a doubleheader sweep at 7-2 and 16-4 over the red hot Chicago White Sox yesterday, the Yankees are in a spot now where, by playing .500 ball the rest of the way in the Boston Red Sox could overtake them only by moving at a .730 pace.

In the light of recent developments, it appears the parties of the second part in this fall's world series will be those pot-so-jittery Reds from Cincinnati. They tossed a row of goose-eggs at the Phillies yesterday for a 3-0 decision to climb 5-1-2 games in front of the National League, while the St. Louis Cardinals lost their third straight to Brooklyn, 8-3.

The surge of the Yankees is largely due to Joe DiMaggio, and twirlers Red Huffing and Alley Donald, who turned in yesterday's wins.

The double win boosted the Yanks eight full games in front of the Red Sox, who took their single game in St. Louis, 9-1, as Fritz Ostermueller tossed a four-hitter. Pitching masterpiece of the day was turned in by Sailor Bill Posey of the Boston Bees, which gave the Boston Bees a 1-0 decision over the Pittsburgh Pirates. Only Pep Young's scratch single spoiled the no-hitter. Deacon Danny MacFayden muffed the Buc bats, 3-1, in the nightcap for a sweep of the Bees.

Seven homers were hit in Detroit before the Athletics nipped the Tigers, 7-6 in 11 innings, in the only other American League game. The Chicago Cubs collected a dozen hits and trampled the weary New York Giants, 8-3.

KING WINS IN SHOOT CONTEST

VANDALIA, O., Aug. 24 (AP)—Two of the toughest events on the 4th annual Grand American trapshoot program were up for decision today—the national doubles championship and the preliminary handicap.

The first event calls for two ways to be thrown simultaneously from the traps, with the gunman getting first one and then the other. The preliminary handicap, with the marksmen stationed anywhere from 16 to 25 yards back of the trap, is the dress rehearsal for Friday's Grand American handicap.

Class championships were decided yesterday. R. A. (Fred) King, Wichita Falls, Tex., old man, broke 200 straight for the Class A title. King was elected president of the Amateur Trapshooting association last night.

BETTY JAMESON FACES MILEY
DARIEN, Conn., Aug. 24 (AP)—A couple of female sports columnists representing newspapers on opposite sides of the United States threatened to steal the headlines for themselves today as they met in a quarter-final round match in the National Women's golf championship.

For Maureen Orcutt of Hawthorth, N. J., who writes for the New York Times, advancing to the fourth round in this type of competition is old stuff.

But it's a major thrill for Elizabeth Hicks of Long Beach, Calif., who writes for the Press Telegram there.

11-Round Job Ended With Stasey Run

Pietras And Loyd Collaborate In Late Rally

Meeting successive crises with awesome coolness, stolid Willard Ramsdell pitched his heart out to give the Big Spring Barons a 6-5 victory over the Pampa Oilers in an 11-inning clash here Wednesday evening but it took some neat stick work on the part of his mates to swing the pendulum.

Ironically it was a former Oiler, Freddy Pietras, making his first home start for Tony Rego and company, who delivered the blow that embled the Chanute righthander to emerge as the top hand. Pat Stasey represented the winning run on second base as Pietras stopped to the dish to look over the offerings of Milbert Vannoy. Freddy, after taking a swing and a miss, punched out a single to Gordon Neil Stasey, covering ground in a hurry, beat Neil's throw-in by a split second.

It was Curdele Loyd who kept the Big Springers in the ball game. After the invaders had taken a one-run lead in the eighth inning, the Baron first sacker rapped out a single down the first base line to score Ed Ehrer from the second base and deadlock the tally. Then, in the 11th, Curdele walloped a "three-two" pitch off the scoreboard back on the right field barrier to again tie the count after the Pampans had apparently won the game in their part of the round by scoring Neil on Ramsdell's wild toss into second base. Will made the throw attempting to catch Bailey, attempting to steal.

McGEHEE TEAM TO TAAF MEET

Dago Herr and his city softball champions, McGehee's Super Service representatives, strengthened by the addition of infield help, pull stakes for Austin this afternoon where Friday they open their campaign for the state TAAF softball title.

Herr, who elected to pass up the regional AMA meeting in Abilene this week to take his team to Austin, has lined up a strong aggregation to make the trip.

Playing with his regular lineup will be Howard Hart and Leonard Morgan, first sacker and short stop, respectively, of the Lone Star Chevrolet team.

The Stationmen will, as usual, rely on Red Denham for pitching chores. Denham developed this season as the leading pitcher of the local league. During the season he pitched two no-hit, no-run games.

The meeting's finals will be conducted Saturday.

Rebels, Padres Tie For Second

By The Associated Press

The Dallas Rebels gave their battle yell today after jumping from fourth into a tie for second place in the Texas League in one night.

A 14-inning battle with Houston ended last night when George Pucelli's triple brought Les Malton home with the run that gave Dallas a 6-5 victory.

Houston still led, however, by eight games. Second-place San Antonio lost both ends of a double bill to Tulsa 4-1 and 9-1.

Fort Worth, which held only a one-point advantage over Dallas before last night, downed Shreveport 3-2, as Ed Greer gained his 21st win of the season.

Beaumont came from behind drove Jerry Blanchard to cover in the sixth with four runs, and defeated the Oklahoma City Indians 7-5.

Midlothian Meet Begins

CHICAGO, Aug. 24 (AP)—Twenty-five years ago a 22-year-old boy named Walter Hagen came out of Rochester, N. Y., to win the national open golf title.

Today they started tossing a four-day party for that same Hagen at the Midlothian country club, where in 1914, he won his first big championship.

Today he was teamed with another colorful veteran, Gene Sarazen, in a round robin battle against seven other teams of top notch professionals, for $5,400 in prize money.

49-Year-Old Is Pitching Hero

HOUSTON, Aug. 24 (AP)—Forty-nine year old Dummy Collins, a Texas leaguer in 1914, came through with a brilliant mound performance last night as Austin 7-Up upset Conroe, 8-1, in a Houston Post tournament game before 2,000 fans.

Collins allowed but four hits. Score by innings:
Austin 001 501 100-8 15 2
Conroe 000 100 000-2 4

CHICAGO, Aug. 24 (AP)—Anyone still questioning the drawing power of night baseball in the major leagues may have the proof in statistics, to-wit 776,697 paid admissions to 32 games. That's an average of 24,251 fans per game.

Compared with the 24,251 figure for nocturnal contests, the daily average attendance for week-day sunlit games was placed at approximately 5,000.

Don Wollin to cross the dish in the third inning.

The locals trouble twins, Pat Stacey and Billy Capps, found the first pitching to their liking. Each led three base blows.

The two teams tangled in a pair of seven-inning games tonight with the first slated to get underway around 8:30. The aftermath replaces one postponed by rain here three weeks ago.

Louis Janicek will probably toe the slab in the open while Pat Patterson may get his chance in the morning-cap.

Typo Union To Be Neutral In Labor Dispute

FORT WORTH, Aug. 24 (AP)—

Fifty-eight years' affiliation with the American Federation of Labor was due to be terminated by the International Typographical union today, with adoption of a majority report of the resolutions committee calling for "strict neutrality" in the AFL fight with the Congress of Industrial Organization.

The report was sent back to the committee last night for "clarification," ending five hours' debate, which saw the defeat by a scant 12 votes of the progressive-supported minority report, which proposed that ITU delegates fight for their seats at the next AFL convention and attempt to amend the AFL constitution to conform with policies of the ITU.

In debate yesterday, Secretary-Treasurer Woodruff Randolph of Chicago, and First Vice-President Francis C. Barrett of New York City, spoke in favor of the minority report, and President Claude M. Baker of San Francisco led the battle for adoption of the majority report.

Debate on the issue indicated the delegates were divided along strictly party lines, with progressives supporting the minority report and independents favoring the majority proposition.

The effect of the neutrality proposal backed by independents, as interpreted by various speakers, would be that the ITU was walking out of the AFL. The progressive proposal, on the other hand, would leave to the federation the decision regarding suspension of the printers for non-payment of assessments.

The progressive recommendation was voted down, 140 to 128.

LA. CRUDE QUOTAS ARE REDUCED

NEW ORLEANS, Aug. 24 (AP)—Conservation Commissioner Ernest S. Clements set the daily September oil production allowable at 235,475 in the monthly order, or 6,127 barrels less than in August.

The August order had been 22,516 barrels a day less than in July. Thus, in the two months since Clements succeeded William G. Rankin as commissioner the daily allowable had been decreased 25,668 barrels.

Louisiana wells are now closed in cooperation with other states protesting cuts in crude prices.

BABY BORN IN CAR

OKLAHOMA CITY, Aug. 24 (AP)—Scout Car Officers Sidney L. Wade and Frank Carr stopped to investigate when they saw an auto pull out from the curb, wheel back and halt.

"I'm glad to see you," said the woman driver, pointing to the rear seat—"she's having a baby and I can't get to the hospital in time."

The officers took the eight-pound boy and mother to the hospital.

MUSSOLINI HOLDS PARLEY WITH AIDES

ROME, Aug. 24 (AP)—Premier Mussolini discussed military matters today with the chiefs of the Italian army, navy, air force and fascist militia.

The conference at Mussolini's office in the Palazzo Venezia took place as Italians viewed the German-Polish situation with increasing concern, at the same time holding hopes a peaceful settlement might be arranged.

The chiefs with whom Mussolini conferred were General Alberto Pariani, undersecretary of war; Admiral Domenico Cavagnari, undersecretary of navy; General Giuseppe Valle, undersecretary for air, and General Luigi Russo, chief of staff of the militia.

Received at the same time was General Gastone Gambara, new ambassador to Spain, who formerly commanded the Italian troops in the civil war there.

Italian shippers were advised French railroads had refused to accept any further freight shipments from Italy.

Maverick Defends His Decision On Communist Rally

SAN ANTONIO, Aug. 24 (AP)—Defending from a storm of protest his approval of a communist rally in municipal auditorium, Mayor Maury Maverick warns prohibiting one group from talking would lead to similar action on others, "until one group remains, like in Russia and Germany of today."

Some war veterans and citizens have protested issuance of a permit to Emma Tennayuca, local communist leader, for use of a wing of the auditorium Friday night.

In a local radio broadcast last night, Maverick declared "I abhor and despise communism, as I despise fascism and all forms of tyranny."

He said he was only abiding by the constitution.

Says Payments Not Bribes

MONROE, La., Aug. 24 (AP)—Former Gov. James A. Noe said payments cited in indictments returned here yesterday were not "bribes" to conservation department officials but "shakedown" by the officials.

Those indicted were W. D. Dark and L. J. Melton, manager and field agent, respectively, of the Monroe office of the conservation department. They were charged with taking bribes from several gas companies, including one in which Noe was listed as a stockholder, for not reporting certain production order violations.

Noe said the Ouachita parish grand jury, which indicted the men, met at his suggestion and he furnished it with much of the information contained in the indictments.

Dark and Melton issued a statement saying they knew they had "done wrong" but "the persons who have derived the most benefit from these transactions are the prominent oil and gas operators" involved who are "apparently not going to be prosecuted."

Noe, now a state senator and a candidate for governor in the January, 1940, primary, said it was significant "no indictments were returned against any of the persons who have had the fortitude to present the facts upon which the indictments were predicted."

"Neither I, nor anyone with whom I am connected," Noe said, "has ever at any time or in any manner attempted to bribe an official."

Noe, now in Texas, issued his statement through his secretary, Robert Erwin, here.

During the summer Mrs. Rallsback completed requirements for her degree at Texas Tech and will receive it Friday night. Mary Mathis was in school at Texas university, Marie George summered in Hawaii, and Simms visited both world fairs. The Rallsbacks also saw the San Francisco fair.

TEXT OF NAZI-SOVIET PACT

BERLIN, Aug. 24 (AP)—Following is the text of the German-Soviet nonaggression pact:

The German Reich's government and the Union of the Socialist Soviet Republics, moved by a desire to strengthen the state on peace between Germany and the U. S. S. R., and in the spirit of the provisions of the neutrality treaty of April, 1926, between Germany and the U. S. S. R., have decided the following:

I—The two contracting parties obligate themselves to refrain from every act of force, every aggressive action and every attack against one another, including any single action or that taken in conjunction with other powers.

II—In case one of the parties of this treaty should become the object of warlike acts by a third power, the other party will in no way support this third power.

III—The governments of the two contracting parties in the future will constantly remain in consultation with one another in order to inform each other regarding questions of common interest.

IV—Neither of the high contracting parties will associate itself with any other grouping of powers which directly or indirectly is aimed at the other party.

V—In the event of a conflict between the contracting parties concerning any question, the two parties will adjust this difference of conflict exclusively by friendly exchange of opinions or, if necessary by an arbitration commission.

VI—The present treaty will extend for a period of ten years with the condition that if neither of the contracting parties announces its abrogation within one year of expiration of this period, it will continue in force automatically for another period of five years.

VII—The present treaty shall be ratified within the shortest possible time. The exchange of ratification documents shall take place in Berlin. The treaty becomes effective immediately upon signature.

Chamberlain

of mankind whose fate depends on their actions," said Chamberlain.

Chamberlain made his statement as he asked parliament to give the government virtually dictatorial powers to deal with the international situation.

"New and drastic steps are required by the gravity of the situation," the prime minister said.

The prime minister's proposals were embodied in a brief but sweeping "emergency powers bill" which was introduced at the opening of parliament's emergency session.

The measure would give the government power to put into operation immediately any measure considered necessary for the national safety.

These would include such steps as:

1. Taking over railways and other transportation.
2. Control of food supplies.
3. Defense against air attack.

"Germany is now in a condition of complete readiness for war," he asserted.

Poland, he said, has shown "great calm and self-restraint."

"Poland," he continued, "has always been and is ready now to discuss her differences with the German government if they could be sure that these discussions could be carried on without threats of force or violence and with some confidence."

Then, turning to the new German-Russian non-aggression pact, Chamberlain said British-French-Russian military discussions were going well "when this bombshell came."

The announcement of the pact came as an "unpleasant surprise to the British government," he said.

The Russian government, he continued, while carrying on discussions with Britain and France had been secretly negotiating with Germany for purposes "which on the face of it were inconsistent with the objects of their foreign policy as we understood it."

Turning back to Poland, the prime minister said that at the beginning of this week German troops began moving toward the Polish frontier.

Then he said: "The government's first duty is to declare that British obligations to Poland remain unaffected."

He was referring to Britain's pledge to aid Poland if her independence were threatened.

J. J. Holmes of El Paso, accompanied by his daughter, Miss Lela Cates, left Thursday morning after attending the Railroad Brotherhood picnic and visiting his daughter, Mrs. Jack Norris, here. En route home they will stop for a visit in Pecos with R. C. Holmes and family. Mrs. Norris will join them in Pecos Saturday and return to El Paso with them for a visit.

General Mobilization Next Step For France

PARIS, Aug. 24 (AP)—Premier Edouard Daladier late today called Generalissimo Maurice Gustave Gamelin into the war ministry for a conference on state of France's powerful armed forces swollen by hundreds of thousands of mobilized reservists.

They talked amid widespread reports that France's next move in the partial mobilization would be to call up the last three groups, 6, 7, & 8, remaining before the mobilization becomes general.

MARKETS

Wall Street
NEW YORK, Aug. 24 (AP)—Financial markets fell and rebounded with bewildering frequency today as Europe apparently stood at the brink of war.

Stocks tumbled one to more than five points in the first hour, only to put on a quick turn-around before mid-day in which extreme losses were substantially reduced or erased in many cases.

Dealings were orderly on the retreat and, with the pickup, buying was sufficient to cause the tape to drop a minute behind flood traders for a brief interval. There was a subsequent slow-down and final prices were well mixed.

Traders for the five hours approximated 1,300,000 shares, largest turnover in more than a month.

tors or vanquished, and would clearly bring devastation to the peoples and perhaps to the governments of some nations most directly concerned."

This was the second appeal addressed by this government to Italy in four months. The first was made by Secretary Hull, on behalf of the president, to Mussolini April 14, at the same time that the president sent his appeal to Hitler.

Hull said today he did not recall that any reply had ever been received to the message to Mussolini.

Secretary Hull said copies of today's appeal were being sent to the American embassies and legations in nations interested in the European crisis, but no copy was being sent directly to the German government.

In his message to the king, the president declared "again a crisis in world affairs makes clear the responsibility of heads of nations for the fate of their own people and indeed of humanity itself."

"It is because of traditional accord between Italy and the United States and the ties of consanguinity between millions of our citizens," he continued, "that I feel that I can address your majesty in behalf of the maintenance of world peace."

The president said the friends of the Italian people "could only regard with grief the destruction of great achievements which European nations and the Italian nation in particular have attained during the past generation."

"We in America," he added, "having welded a homogeneous nation out of many nationalities, often find it difficult to visualize the armed crises which so often have created enemies as smaller than ours in population and in territory, but we accept the fact that these nations have an absolute right to maintain their national independence if they so desire. If that be sound doctrine then it must apply to the weaker nations as well as to the stronger."

In effect, an official said, the president was asserting the "absolute right" of Poland to maintain its independence if it so desired.

Cotton

NEW ORLEANS, Aug. 24 (AP)—Foreign buying and domestic buying bolstered cotton futures here today but profit taking cut down maximum advances and closing prices were steady at net gains of 4 to 7 points.

CATTLE, WOOL NOT TO BE AFFECTED BY ARGENTINE PACT

WASHINGTON, Aug. 24 (AP)—Washington officials gave assurance today that contemplated negotiation of a reciprocal trade treaty with Argentina would have little or no effect on the market of western cattlemen or wool growers.

Items included in the list of products on which this country would consider granting concessions, government experts said, had a comparatively small place in the economies of the western sheep and cattle country.

One possible exception was beef or veal, prepared or preserved, packed in airtight containers, on which the present rate of duty is 6 cents a pound but not less than 30 per cent of actual value.

Argentina canned corned beef, which started a controversy during the last session of congress, would fall within such a classification.

ucts were selling at prices which precluded profitable operation of our refineries.

"Since the shutdown there has been an advance in the price of gasoline of one-fourth cent per gallon and we now feel that our refineries can again operate profitably and we can pay the posted price which prevailed prior to Aug. 12, 1939."

The Big Spring plant was estimated to be handling in excess of 11,000 barrels daily and the Young county refinery unit about 1,000 barrels.

Announcement of the price increase created favorable reaction among local producers Thursday.

Two other independent refineries previously had restored the cut, Bell Oil and Gas company of Tulsa, and Danciger Oil Refineries, Inc., of Fort Worth.

German Military Moves Up To Belgian Border

BRUSSELS, Aug. 24 (AP)—Long lines of German military trucks were reported today by border observers to be moving within sight of the Belgian town of Eupen, former German territory.

German fortifications facing the Belgian border were reported authoritatively to have been occupied during the night. Numerous artillery pieces were seen being drawn into place.

Official sources expressed disappointment no direct response had been received from any major power to the forceful appeal for peace delivered last night by King Leopold on behalf of seven small nations.
