FROM THE EDITOR

Greetings! As new editor of the Wildcat Tales, I'd like to say that I'm excited about this year, I have a good staff, and I hope I can make this page something you'll look forward to each week.

The first week of school was a madhouse as always, and through all the confusion, a few of our reporters will not make their debut until next week.

This year we're going to try to have as many pictures of school activities and honorees as we can. We will have feature articles from time to time and some poetry mixed in occasionally. This will bring out the talents of some of the R.S.H.S. students who are regular reporters. Our sponsor this year is Mrs. Pulattie, the high school English teacher and I'm really

THE FIRST WEEK OF SCHOOL

Summer is over and it's time to crack those books again. It's time for everyone to get to work and make good grades.

As the halls fill up once again, all you see is people racing to the class they have next, and at lunch-if you don't want to be run over, wait and be the last one out. When the last bell rings at 3:00 to go home--WATCH OUT!!

There are many new faces at R.S.H.S. this year. We have six new teachers teaching in High School , and we have a lot of new students. The first week of school was very hectic. We were getting used to what classes we belonged in, having our books all covered. when our break is, and when school is out.

almost Now, everyone has their schedule worked out and we're ready to get to work!

Dena Willett

BIG BLUE BAND

We have a new band director. His name is Mr. Taylor and he has been working very hard with us for three weeks. He shows lots of enthuasium in helping us.

We have elected new officers. They are: President-Marilyn Wilson: Vice-President-Regina White. Other officers are: Taby Chambers, this week at Eden at Lesa Thornton, Kathy Woody, Karla Bowers, Jonni Hubbard and JoAnne Carpenter.

The first football game is Friday, September 7, at Eden. The Band will be performing. See you there,

Amy

After eleven years of waiting and worrying about whether you would ever make it our senior year, we finally made it! Well, we're full-fledged Seniors and now we've got a year of more working and waiting before us until we graduate. It's so close and yet so far! There's English IV with Mrs. Pulattie, who, if the first week of school is any indication, likes to give a lot writing assignments. Another class required to graduate is Government taught by Mr. Fancher. So far he has been kept busy being principal and waking up all those that "enjoyed" his class lectures so much they fell asleep in class. cher There are other new teachers around High School. They are Mr. and Mrs. Teal and Mrs. Fleming. The Teals are working in the Athlethic Dept. and Mrs. Fleming in the Math Dept.

Seven of the Senior girls are taking Band as an elective, under the direction of Mr. Taylor. If you look around at the right moment you might see one of them running franticly to change from their marching clothes into school clothes before they are late for class.

The Seniors elected officers for the 1979-80 school year. They are: President-Marilyn Wilson; Vice-President-Jerry Lunceford; Secretary-Taby Chambers: and Treasurer-Shelly Gray. The student council representatives for the Senior Class are Kathy Woody and Neal Scott.

The Senior Class of 1980 has started the beginning of the end. The end of what? you ask, High School, of course, and during this time we're going to show everyone what a Senior Class really can do by being the best class to ever come out of R.S.H.S.!

Words on the Wildcats Last Friday night, the Wildcats journeyed over to Ranger to the scrimmage Bulldogs. It was a real great scrimmage; each team scoring two touchdowns. It was a real good practice for the wildcats. It turned out to be a defensive stand off against these two teams. This scrimmage got the Wildcats on their feet, and ready to face Eden, this coming Friday night, Sept. 7 at 8:00 p.m. in Eden's Bulldog Stadium. Watch next week's paper for the stats and follow up of that game. Gwynn Tharp
