

WON'T JOIN BOLT, BUT-

Texas Demos Give Truman Brush-Off

BROWNSWOOD, May 26. (AP) — Tough-talking Texas Democrats have given President Truman's leadership the cold shoulder, but they refused to join the Southern anti-civil rights rebellion.

At the Philadelphia convention the Texas delegation will be free to decide on the spot whose nomination it favors. It will vote as a unit. The Texans followed an independent course mapped by their leader, Gov. Beauford H. Jester, in state convention yesterday. It calls for a fight against Truman's civil rights proposals and his nomination, but not for a bolt if he becomes the party nominee.

After a day long struggle between pro-Truman and anti-Truman factions, the Texas convention took these significant steps:

1. Pledged itself in a body, its delegates and 23 presidential electors to support all party nominees without any ifs.

2. Voted to send its delegation of 50 to the national convention instructed to fight the civil rights proposals, especially the FEPC.

3. Gave its delegation no instructions as to presidential and vice-presidential candidates. This left it free to fight Truman's nomination. It instructed the delegates to battle for restoration of the two-thirds rule.

4. Buried in committee a proposal for a state referendum July 24 or for against binding electors to nominees who oppose Truman's civil rights program. A group favoring the Southern revolt backed it.

5. Elected Wright Morrow of Houston, unfriendly to Truman, as national committeeman to replace Myron Bialock of Marshall, who will retire because of illness.

6. In so doing, rejected Mayor Tom Miller of Austin for the post. He was backed by the Truman faction in general and the Travis County delegation in particular.

The tough talk came in an overwhelmingly adopted resolution which recorded "unalterable opposition" to the federal civil rights plan.

"The duty and loyalty of citizens to their country and its constitution are higher than and superior to any duty and loyalty to any political party," this resolution declared.

The four propositions comprising what is known as the Truman civil rights program are contrary to the provisions of the constitution."

It said further they contradicted the principles of the party.

SURPRISED

Berry Chosen Philadelphia Meet Delegate

W. D. Berry, chosen as one of the delegates-at-large from Texas to the national democratic convention, expressed surprise Wednesday at his selection.

As county democratic chairman, he had headed up a county unit pledged to pro-administration support. The delegation, bound under the unit system, had consistently cast its ballots along that line, although opposing forces were in the convention saddle.

However, Lubbock delegation members threw their support to the selection of Berry as one of two men from the 19th congressional district. Berry said he gathered the impression also, from conservatives with representatives from the executive committee, that the committee was anxious to have a delegate representing labor.

He said Wednesday that he planned to attend the national convention.

Delegates from here were Felix Jarratt, Mr. and Mrs. Lon Griffith, Mrs. O. T. Arnold, and Berry. George Mims and J. B. Pickle, other delegates, were unable to attend the state party in Brownwood.

Texas GOP To Back Taft

CORPUS CHRISTI, May 26. (AP) — In the words of the man who led the way, Texas Republicans have given Sen. Robert Taft of Ohio a "marvelous victory."

R. B. Creager, the shrewd, veteran Republican national committeeman from Brownsville, yesterday saw his smooth functioning Taft organization dominate the party's state convention here and carry off 30 of the 33 delegates to next month's national convention at Philadelphia.

This left only two delegates for Gov. Thomas E. Dewey of New York and one for former Gov. Harold E. Stassen of Minnesota.

The Taft forces also defeated convention floor proposals to send an instructed delegation to Philadelphia and have the delegates bound under a unit rule.

One of the Dewey delegates resulted from a compromise which Creager engineered to avoid a threatened rump convention by Bexar County Dewey supporters, who fought a determined but fruitless battle to gain seats at the state convention.

Warren Takes Lead In Governor's Race

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., May 26. (UPI) — Unofficial returns from almost all of Florida's 1,330 precincts named 43-year-old Fuller Warren the apparent winner in yesterday's Democratic runoff primary for governor.

Warren, a Jacksonville attorney, sprung from behind to overcome an early lead established by Dan McCarty, 36-year-old citrus grower of Fort Pierce.

On the basis of reports from 1,421 precincts, Warren had 269,645 votes against 260,680 for McCarty.

Rodeo Boosters Are Due For Visit

A group of Midland citizens are due to move into the city Thursday to advertise the annual Midland Rodeo, scheduled for June 3-4-5-6.

J. H. Greene, Big Spring chamber of commerce manager, said he had been advised that the Midland delegation would arrive here from the east at about 5 p.m.

CLOUDS HEAVY

Howard Area Has More Soaking Rain

Howard county soil was soaking up more moisture today at a slow and somewhat erratic rate as heavy clouds hovered over the area with periodic persistence.

Although measurements up to noon were relatively insignificant, the ideal conditions under which the intermittent drizzle came down stimulated the hopes of farmers and ranchers. The Big Spring Weather Station at the Municipal airport measured .15 of an inch up to noon, most of which was absorbed by the earth.

At Coahoma, rain started falling at about 10 a.m. and was continuous at noon at a slow, steady rate. Forsan had received no appreciable amount of moisture up to noon, although it sprinkled there several times during the morning and prospects appeared bright for more during the afternoon.

The low, thick clouds apparently were general over a wide area.

By The Associated Press

More rain fell in scattered sections of Texas today. It was cloudy over the whole of the state.

Early morning showers were reported at Brownsville, Laredo, Galveston, Wichita Falls, Abilene, Mineral Wells and Midland.

Heaviest fall during the past 24 hours centered in the Dallas-Fort Worth areas. Downpours late yesterday raised the total at Dallas to 2.58 inches and at Fort Worth to 1.84.

A heavy electrical and thunderstorm at Laredo today dumped 1.01 inches in the downtown section within an hour. The fall was general in that area, definitely breaking a severe drought. It extended well into Mexico.

Additional rain at Midland brought the total there to 1.28 inches for the 24-hour period. It was heavier to the south and southwest. Ranges were greatly benefited. Planting will start as soon as the weather clears.

Jimmy, 29 months of age, was found gagging and choking in the backyard of his home yesterday. He was whisked to Georgia Street Receiving Hospital where a fluoroscopic examination failed to reveal anything in his throat.

The sirens screamed again as he was taken to the Children's Hospital. Doctors mended the stomach pump found coal-oil, source unknown.

Flood Feared On Rio Grande

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M., May 26. (UPI) — A round-the-clock watch was posted early today along levees of the Rio Grande, swollen from its normally placid state by rains and spring run-off.

Rainfall in northern New Mexico and Colorado was credited with raising the river's level higher than expected. It stood just short of four feet here and was expected to reach half a foot higher tomorrow or next day.

The Middle Rio Grande Conservancy District ordered out 50 men to combat efforts of the shifting current to cut into the levees 35 to 40 miles north and south of here.

Flood-conscious Albuquerque business center lies four to six feet lower than a bend in the river bed just above the city—was reassured, however, that it faced no direct threat.

Hubert Ball, chief engineer for the conservancy district, said the situation could become dangerous if the peak flow continued too long.

Episcopal Bishop Due Here Today

WASHINGTON, May 26. (UPI) — Dr. James H. Jensen of North Carolina State College today was named chief of the Atomic Energy Commission's biology division.

Services have been set for 10 a.m. Thursday at the Nalley chapel with Herbert Newman, minister of the Church of Christ, of which Mr. Worley was a member, officiating. Burial will be in the city cemetery.

Survivors include his wife, Mrs. C. H. Worley; one daughter, Ruth Worley, Kansas City, Mo.; one son, Homer Worley, Riverside, Calif.; a step-son, Jack Compton, Big Spring; four brothers, Winn Worley, McAllen, W. S. Worley, Kirby, Montana, Kay Worley, Crane, and Finis Worley, El Paso; one sister, Mrs. Louise Pilcher, Saint Jo, Texas; nine grandchildren.

Pallbearers will be J. B. Collins, Joe Elrod, H. C. McNabb, Jack Daughtry, Earl Brownrigg, J. W. Elrod, and D. W. Lewter.

City Commissioners Accept

Three More Paving Projects

City commission acceptance of three more projects Tuesday increased completed paving construction for 1948 to 83 blocks.

Projects accepted as completed at the Tuesday session included new construction work on Virginia, West 17th and South Nolan streets, which terminated current work here for the contractor. Equipment is to be returned here in approximately four months, however, to begin work on another contract extension. Although definite plans for the new extension are incomplete, a fall project of more than blocks is in prospect.

Paving construction completed since the first of the year includes 71 blocks by formal contract, nine blocks which were signed last summer under the volunteer payment plan, and three additional blocks serviced by the contractor after property owners made cash payments in advance.

A brief discussion developed concerning procedure for property owners to follow in paying installments to the contractor. Representatives of the contractor said payments would reach proper authority if mailed to Brown and

Little Chance Seen For Rail Nationalization

Proposal Is Made By Group Of 20 Unions

WASHINGTON, May 26. (AP) — A union demand that the government "begin preparations" to buy the railroads seemed to have little prospect today of being taken seriously in official Washington.

The tough talk came in an overwhelmingly adopted resolution which recorded "unalterable opposition" to the federal civil rights plan.

"The duty and loyalty of citizens to their country and its constitution are higher than and superior to any duty and loyalty to any political party," this resolution declared.

It said further they contradicted the principles of the party.

CHRYSLER STRIKE

Negotiators Study Wage Hike By G-M

DETROIT, May 26. (UPI) — Terms of General Motors Corporation's history-making wage agreement with its CIO Auto Workers were studied today by negotiators seeking today to end the 15-day Chrysler strike.

Representatives of Chrysler Corp. and the United Auto Workers return to the bargaining table this afternoon for the first time since 75,000 production workers walked out May 12.

Michigan's Gov. Kim Sigler asked the resumption of wage talks and arranged the session, but he sent no representative.

The UAW's Chrysler negotiating team—officially demanding a 30-cent hourly wage boost—has given no indication whether it would accept an 11-cent increase geared to the cost of living such as the one that ended a strike threat at General Motors.

Nor has the corporation commented on possibilities of raising its best previous offer of six cents an hour to a figure matching the General Motors commitment in a two-year contract approved yesterday.

But throughout the auto industry it was believed the GM-UAW settlement would provide a pattern for future wage negotiations.

It was expected to bring the Chrysler strike to a quick conclusion and have a definite effect on coming wage talks between the union and the Ford Motor Co., which has suggested a pay cut.

Average hourly wages in the industry's big three—General Motors, Chrysler and Ford—are about $1.50. The GM boost raises the figure in its plants to $1.61 per hour, at least until September. Then wages will be reviewed and possibly revised with reference to the cost of living, the new contract provides.

"We chopped off one head after another with our big broadswords," Ma said. "We finished the others off with hand grenades."

The prisoners were part of 1,500 taken at Ninghsien where they fled after national troops routed them near Sian.

The general, deputy chief of staff of the national 82nd Division, said an uprising among the prisoners caused the massacre.

"While we were sorting out Communists regulars from conscripted peasants," he said, "the Communists started an uprising. They shouted 'Mao Tse-Tung' (Chinese Communist leader's name) and 'up with communism.' They became uncontrollable. We were forced to kill them."

HEARINGS CONTINUE

Lawmakers Anxious To Protest Draft

WASHINGTON, May 26. (UPI) — Some 60 House members want to speak out against a peacetime draft even before the bill is cleared for House debate.

But Rules Committee Chairman Leo E. Allen (R-Ill.), who reported this today, said his group will call only about 10 to testify against the measure sponsored by Rep. Andrews (R-N.Y.). He said hearings probably will continue through this week.

The Rules Committee determines whether or not any legislation is cleared for action by the House.

Allen has said the draft measure will not reach the floor before June 1.

Draft opponents opened their arguments before the committee yesterday. The first two were Reps.

Folger (D-N.C.) and Barden (D-N.C.).

Folger said sentiment for a peacetime draft is being fostered

"by an excess of hysteria in this country."

He declared the armed forces

"have made no real, concentrated effort to get their men by recruiting."</p

READING CAN BE SO CRUEL

CHICAGO, May 26. (UPI)—Marjorie Johnson, 20, a stenographer, likes to read the classics and wanted her husband to read them, too, she told Superior Judge Edwin A. Robson. But, she testified yesterday in her suit for divorce, he persisted in reading only the comics. They quarreled over their reading preferences, she said, and her husband, Raymond L., a stock clerk, struck her.

Mrs. Johnson was granted a divorce on grounds of cruelty.

NEW LABOR LAW TEST?

Maritime Strike Threat May Force Emergency Move

WASHINGTON, May 26. (UPI)—The government may invoke the Taft-Hartley act's national emergency provisions to head off a threatened all-coast maritime strike on June 15.

Top officials said today the action is under study because a shipping troupe would block any shipments to Europe and the Far East.

One leading administration labor adviser said the plan being considered is for President Truman to name a seven-man board to make a factual study of all issues involved in disputes raging on the Atlantic, Pacific and Gulf Coasts. Six unions, five of them CIO and one independent, have contracts expiring June 15. All want wage boosts, the amounts so far unspecified.

But a major issue, and one hampering negotiations being guided by the Federal Mediation Service, is the union hiring hall traditional on all coasts.

Through the hiring halls the unions for years have supplied employers with union members as seamen and longshoremen. The trouble now is that employers are balking at continuing the system for fear it is a form of closed shop, banned by the Taft-Hartley act.

The unions are insisting that the hiring halls be continued.

The Labor Department may put the question squarely up to Attorney General Clark for an opinion.

One way or another, an official ruling on the legality of the hiring hall would clarify the situation on a principal stumbling block in the negotiations. But there are literally dozens of other issues to be ironed out, including wages.

The Mediation Service is known to feel that yesterday's 11-cent hourly pay boost settlement between General Motors Corp. and the CIO Auto Workers Union is likely to set a pattern for wage settlements in maritime, coal, electrical equipment manufacturing and other current industry wage negotiations.

SELF-APPOINTED ALARM CLOCK

Whether it appreciates it or not, the court house colony now has an alarm clock.

A big red rooster descended upon the grounds Monday and apparently found the place to his liking. He immediately began to crow. He is still there Tuesday morning, and in voice.

Four Divorces Granted Here

Four divorces have been granted by Judge Cecil C. Collings in recent days in 70th district court.

Mary V. Moore won her marital freedom from A. B. Moore and the custody of two minor children. The defendant also agreed to pay $30 monthly for support of the children.

The marriage of Frances Hickman Collins and Ewell B. Collins, Jr., was terminated by official decree and the maiden name of Hickman was restored to the woman, plaintiff in the case.

G. C. Knox was granted a divorce from Esther Knox. The former name of Cummings was returned to the defendant.

Sybille Ham won a divorce from Freddie Ham and the right to use her maiden name of McCrary.

Two Thefts Are Reported Here

Burglars made off with $42.50 in cash at two local business establishments Monday night, city police reported yesterday morning.

About $20 in coins of small denominations was reported missing at the Holman's Grocery on North Gregg street where someone broke a window at the rear of the building to gain entry.

The Quick Lunch cafe on Main street was entered through a roof window. Loss there totaled $22.50, officers said.

Henry I of England aided Flemish wool weavers by offering them religious sanctuary in Worsted—from which the industry borrowed its name.

Showers Give Us A Chance

Smiles are broader and tempers are better today than at anytime in weeks, and it's all because of the showers.

The downpour of Tuesday night had two wholesome aspects, although it may not be properly called a "drought breaker." One was that it was general in scope although its intensity was erratic. The other was both psychological and real in raising hopes for a 1948 crop.

At the risk of being pessimistic, we think it will be easy—on its present basis—to overrate the long-range value of the showers. This is true because of the sad state of sub-soil reserves. A few spots in south and west of Big Spring may have received enough to make the moisture meet effectively, but most places got only enough to penetrate a few inches. An unfavored few may not have received enough to penetrate more than three or four inches.

Thus, it becomes first of all a gamble on getting crops up out of the ground, and here the odds are generally good to excellent.

Secondly, it becomes a gamble on keeping them alive once they are up and off to a good start. Only the Lord knows what the future holds. But the important and wonderful thing is that we now have a sporting chance—and West Texans are used to making the most of that.

There needs be no deception about the effects of rains on the ranges. Ranchers and veteran observers of the scene won't be fooled by the fringe of green which will show in a few days. No, it's going to take a lot more moisture yet for grass.

Screening Out The Undeserving

Dallas organizations have set up a screening committee, whose duty it is to examine all campaigns for public solicitation of funds.

Now the appeal is being voiced for the full support of all the citizens of Dallas in an effort to protect the people from campaigns that do not contribute to the general welfare and which may conflict with or overlap the functions of already established welfare agencies.

A further appeal is being made to individuals to ascertain first if the screening committee has approved the campaign before volunteering services or accepting an invitation to participate in a fund raising effort.

Under this plan there is an exception to denominational and fraternal organizations and service clubs where solicitation is confined to membership. All others are accepted to scrutiny.

Such a process invites close inspection in Big Spring where life seemingly is one campaign right after another. Many of these are worthy and would pass anybody's screening committee; others are blessed with good intent but weak on potentialities; some few are borderline affairs or out-and-out gyps.

The chamber of commerce, community chest or some other agency might well take the lead in undertaking such a committee here. It likely would find ready support by recognized organizations and by the individuals who are so frequently asked to make appeals for money.

Tarts, Darts And Dashes

You're likely to get shocked when you step on anybody who is a live wire.

One of the easiest things in the world to meet in expenses. You run into them every place you go.

It's an ill wind that blows skirts high and dust in a man's eye.

Success doesn't depend so much on lying awake nights, as it does staying awake days.

Today's Birthday

QUEEN MARY, born May 26, 1867, is a granddaughter of King George III. Her parents were not rich. She was engaged to Prince Edward who died of influenza before marriage. Later she married Prince George who became king. That marriage lasted 42 years until the death of the king. Two of her sons, Edward and George, became kings of England.

Washington Merry-Go-Round

White House Has Secret Callers

By DREW PEARSON

WASHINGTON.—The President has resorted to new strategy in handling White House callers.

For some time, Washington observers were amazed at the number of visitors President Truman saw daily. But now the calling list has tapered off. The official list released every morning shows only a handful of visitors.

What most people don't know, however, is that there are five separate entrances to the White House, and in recent weeks Truman has been fooling the press. While regular White House correspondents wait in the lobby of the executive offices watching for presidential visitors, various private callers slip in other doors. Sometimes as many as 25 will flow into Truman's office unnoticed. They come in through various side doors, sometimes even the distant East Wing, and are then spirited around the back through the rose garden and in to the President.

In recent days, Truman has held numerous significant confabs, none listed. He has seen Joe Keenan, head of the A. F. of L. Political Action Committee, British Ambassador Lord Inverchapel, French Ambassador Henri Bonnet, and various Zionist leaders including Chaim Weizmann, new president of Israel.

Some old senatorial friends also drop around to see Truman at breakfast. Others come in after breakfast, but before the press arrives. Ed Flynn has been in twice lately, unnoticed. Former Judge Sam Rosenman is again a White House regular using the east gate, as is George Allen, the old court jester.

NOTE—Another new favorite Truman rendezvous is the presidential yacht, the Williamsburg, where he holds stag parties with old buddies, sometimes sleeping on board and walking back to the White House early in the morning before most people go to work.

OLD-AGE PENSIONS

At a secret pow-wow with congressional Democratic leaders last week, President Truman was told there was little chance of Congress approving any of his proposals to increase old-age pensions. However, the leaders advised that the people were entitled to a frank report on how old-age insurance benefits—which millions of Americans depend for retirement security—have lagged behind higher wages and living costs. That was why Truman decided to send his message to Congress anyway.

Michigan's aggressive representative, John Dingell, an original champion of the social security law, summed it up bluntly: "Unless pensions are increased in ratio to higher wages, higher taxes, and higher living costs, counties that have sold their poorhouses for the aged will have to re-establish them."

How to punish him? The old Anglo-Saxons tied gossips to ducking stools and immersed them a few times to cool off their hot rumors. The Puritans locked them in the stocks and ridiculed them.

Quimbaya Indians of Colombia had a golden gag for gossips. It was a nose ring to which was attached a large golden flange, hung with tiny bells that dangled below the chin. Every time the gossip even whispered, the bells jangled in warning.

But if these gags ever came in to use again women might flaunt them as a new style feature. And we gaged every beauty parlor gossip with gold. Fort Knox soon would be emptied. Science will have to develop that anti-gossip truth serum.

Finds Ancestor

nusance to employers, difficult to administer, and such casual employees frequently build up less credits for contributory pensions than they could get in an old-age assistance dole."

ARMY-SENATE POLITICS

Private Leo Christensen was convicted by a U. S. military court in Japan last year of raping a Japanese woman in front of her son, deliberately running down a Japanese boy with his motorcycle, and beating up a Japanese man. He was given the death sentence for rape, murder, and assault.

Then his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lars Delay Christensen of Iona, Idaho, appealed to Senator Henry Dworshak, Idaho Republican and a staunch isolationist. Dworshak succeeded in reducing the death sentence to three years hard labor and a dishonorable discharge.

Later, Dworshak went to bat again, got a parole for Christensen. He is now a free man. However, the man who raped a woman, killed a boy, and beat up a civilian isn't satisfied. He now wants an honorable discharge, and Senator Dworshak has been asked to get it for him.

FORGED EXPORT PERMITS

The Senate Small Business Committee is ready to blow the lid off a fantastic racket in forged export licenses that has flourished under the nose of the Commerce Department.

Goods cannot be shipped abroad today without a license from the Commerce Department. Yet counterfeit licenses for shipping flour, lard, and other foodstuffs to Latin America have been sold to businessmen at black-market rates. Two alleged forgers—Tom Quinn and his nephew, Jack Quinn—already have been arraigned in New York.

Yet even after Jack Quinn's arraignment, he was able to obtain licenses from the Commerce Department for shipping $1,000,000 worth of goods, mostly to Cuba. This amazing deal was approved, even though the Commerce Department had been notified of Quinn's arraignment and of the Senate Small Business Committee's investigation.

The full scope of the forgery scandal was brought out last week in secret hearings. One secret witness, Harry Levey of New York, vice president of Haro Products Co., testified that he had paid $28,000 for 14 licenses that turned out to be forged. It also developed that customs declarations had been exported far beyond existing quotas. Investigators learned. Forgeries also have been uncovered in the shipment of streptomycin to the Philippines.

The forgeries were stumbled upon accidentally several weeks ago when Homer Zopf, a committee investigator, brought in figures showing flour shipments to Brazil in 1947 had been three to four times greater than the export quota.

Chief investigator Burt Wimer promptly checked the Commerce Department records against those of the Port of New York customs collector, and found, for example, that a license authorizing shipment of a 1941 automobile to Venezuela had been changed to allow 10,000 bags of flour to Brazil. A forgery expert testified that scores of these licenses had been forged.

In Hollywood—

Bette Dislikes Circling Censorship In Movies

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—The movies should stop trying to get around censorship, declares Bette Davis.

Bette is speaking on artistic, not moral grounds. She personally does not give a hoot for the Johnston office. But she thinks many movies have been ruined by trying to sneak past that August body.

"Hollywood's mistake," she expounded on the "June Bride" set, "is in paying fancy prices for books and plays that can't possibly be treated in the same manner on the screen because of censorship.

She gave "Forever Amber" as an example.

The actress cited other film plots which have been fouled up by the restraining hand of the production code. She even mentioned her latest drama, "Winter Meeting." The original novel was beautiful and logical, she said, because the long speeches of conflict came after the unmarried couple had an affair.

"But when the picture places those speeches in a drawing room, the result is stupid," she added. "Why should Garbo come back to the screen?" she continued. "The kind of woman she was so great at portraying wouldn't be permitted by today's censorship."

Movie customers are fed up with the over-cautious scene snippers, Bette opined. "The public is screaming for something censorable. Sex doesn't have to be dirty."

"But I suppose we have to have some kind of censorship," she admitted. "Because some people take advantage if we don't."

"The Big Spring" (MGM) is the story of a minister (Robert Preston), Rabbi (Danny Thomas) and Catholic cop (George Murphy) who adopt a foundling (Margaret O'Brien). The thing is highly contrived and dripping with sentiment. The able performers, especially Betty Garrett, offset some of the obviousness of the story.

Reds Seek

Storm Lull

By DEWITT MACKENZIE

It's an old trick of the fanatic for a fighter to create overconfidence in his opponent by simulating carelessness or weakness and then try to administer the knockout.

We are witnessing a variation of this ruse, I believe, in Moscow's "peace" offensive against Washington. This is a thinly disguised effort to create the impression that (1) a benevolent Russia wants peace and that (2) a warmongering America rejects the overture.

The latest phase of this "peace" drive was the week end blast from Moscow, blaming the U.S.A. for the present state of relations between the two countries.

Perhaps these maneuvers are tricking some folk, but informed observers recognize the developments as part of the world revolution for the spread of communism. If you check closely the current events in Europe and Asia you will see that the Red mill keeps right on grinding out the grisly grit for Bolshevikism.

What, then, has Russia hoped to achieve by its "peace" gesture?

One undoubtedly is to try to confuse public thinking in the United States, and lessen resistance to communism.

By the same token, the "peace" offensive and the warmongering charges against America constitute a red herring which the Soviet is drawing across the trail of the Marshall Plan and other democratic efforts.

Naturally the hardening of the stand of the Western European countries against communism has much to do with Moscow's "peace" diversion. The Marshall Plan is getting under way. Alliances are being formed to fight Red aggression.

Texas Today

Brownwood Has Bedlam

By WILLIAM C. BARNARD
BROWNWOOD (UPI)—This is Bedlam, not Brownwood.

Sure it used to be Brownwood, a reasonably peaceful city of 23,000 locked in the rolling hills and woods of Central West Texas. A good place to bring up all your children.

The name was changed to Bedlam early yesterday by a few thousand rampaging Democrats who refused to go to sleep and give the town a rest.

They swarmed in the streets and yelled through the corridors of Hotel Brownwood—Hotel Bedlam, that is. There was a meeting (Democrats refer to them as caucuses) to every 10 persons.

"Let's caucus," was the battle-cry of the night. Those who suggested retiring were shouted down with hoots of "Let's caucus."

Sitting on a table and swinging his legs like pendulums was Uncle Ed Williams of Waco. Uncle Ed hasn't missed a Democratic convention since 1895, the year James Stephen Hogg was elected governor of Texas.

"Politics gets in your blood. Like religion," Uncle Ed signed. His fine white mustache tried to drap around the cigar he was smoking—his blue eyes squinted against the smoke.

"I'm a delegate again," said he. "Here I am 80 years old and still sticking with the Democrats—too old to change. I've always voted the ticket straight—even stomach Al Smith and he was a hard pill to swallow."

What does he think of the convention today?

"I'd say it looks active but not rough—you know in the old days we used to knock 'em down and drag 'em out. We didn't go by rules then—we just got up and spoke our piece, and if we were wrong we had to run for it."

"Most of the convention old-timers are gone—these are just young sprouts, 40 to 50, but they're the ones that'll run the country some day."

"I plan on plenty more conventions—I feel good, ain't seen a doctor in 20 years and have five teeth left, all lowers. I'm a religious man, baptized in the Brazos, never took a thimble of whiskey, go to bed at night, always on the go."

We went to a caucus—the seventh district from East Texas was getting registered and electing its committees. When we got there, Joe Bailey Humphreys of Crockett, Texas, was having one devil of a time. He was the unlucky chairman and three men, two of them fresh from a bottle, were attempting to make speeches, all at the same time.

Humphreys was pounding a table with his fist, 20 other people in the room were frowning and scowling, and a lady in the corner was yelling "I move that this man cease talking."

In another four minutes, quiet was restored to the caucus when two of the speakers were led to the rear of the room. The other one glared balefully while nominations for a nominating committee were made. Then the voting started and this third speaker stepped to the front of the room and shouted:

"My county objects to this I call for a caucus."

He won, too. A caucus within a caucus was too much to take and we left.

Gift Shower And Tea In Cain Home Compliments Clara Belle Wright.

A gift shower and informal tea Monday evening in the home of Mrs. Velma Cain complimented Clara Bell Wright, who is the bride-elect of Walter Schatell.

Entertaining were Willie Jo Nations, Nell Thornton, Jean Harris, Mary Jo Morrison, Marie Horton and Mrs. Hazel Lamarr.

Miss Wright, attired in a brown and white two-piece ensemble and wearing a corsage of yellow gladioli, received guests with her mother, Mrs. Claude Wright, Mrs. Lamarr and Miss Nations.

Nell Thornton was at the register. Miss Morrison presided at the gift display.

A shattered bouquet of multi-colored snapdragons and daisies was placed on the refreshment table, where Miss Harris and Mrs. Cain were at the crystal punch service. Napkins and delicacies carried out a pink and green color scheme.

WHAT GIVES 'ROUND TOWN

By Leatrice Ross

What do I know about the activities of the town this Wednesday? Well—I can tell you the difference between communism and socialism, I can list rapidly the leading English poets and quote numerous passages from some, and I know how many constitutions Texas has had since it joined the union. At least it's all news to some of us; we just learned it this week... So what if school has been going on nine whole months?

Final exams are over at the junior college Thursday. Baccalaureate sermon is Sunday evening at the First Baptist church and commencement is Monday, same place. Caps and gowns arrived Tuesday for the approximately 30 candidates for graduation.

In making plans for next year, the school has chosen Louis Maneely for student body prexy, succeeding Zack Gray. Other names suggested for the office were Bud Purser, T. D. Weaver and Leroy Cristoffer. Bud and T. D. declined nomination. Election is under way now for editor of the 1949 Jayhawker. HCJC yearbook. Candidates are Evelyn Huddleston and Jenny Miller. Jenny is co-editor this year.

Cuin Grigsby will head next fall's Big Spring High school student body, taking over from B. B. Lees. . . . Other new officials include yell leaders: Punky Jones, Katie Lou Jones, Wanda Petty, Peggy Lamb, and Luan Creighton. Peggy and Katie Lou will be serving their second term as cheer heads.

Nannie Adkins, noble grand, presided. Jewel Rayburn of the John A. Kee Rebekah Lodge 153 was present.

Others attending were Rosalie Gilliland, A. F. Gilliland, Frances Shanks, Sonora Murphy, Gertrude Cline, Ruth Wilson, Lona Crocker, Beulah James, Lorene Bluhm, Jim Crenshaw, Everly Rogers, Billie Parker, Tessie Harper, Bessie Cummings.

HCJC PLAYS WESTERNERS

T-C League Clubs Gunning For Upsets This Weekend

Anything can happen in the Tri-County baseball league race from here on down to the termination of first half play, which arrives June 13.

The Howard County Junior college Jayhawks were sailing along serenely until they ran into the aroused Colorado City Wolves last Sunday. They hardly knew what hit them then. The Mitchell County gang took full advantage of a dozen misplays on the part of the Big Springers to register a 9-5 upset.

That entirely unexpected reversal left the Hawks, unbeaten until that game, tied with Coahoma's Bulldogs for first place and kept third place Forsans in the running, if only for a little while.

The Forsans, who had a hard time with the Big Spring Westerners last Sunday, are still two games off the pace with only three to play.

The first half title will probably be decided a week from Sunday when Coahoma tangles with HCJC on the Bulldog field.

This weekend, the lower division teams will try to spring a few upsets. HCJC will try to get back on the victory track in an outing with the Westerners on the Bombardier school diamond. Knott goes to Forsan in an effort to knock the Oilers completely out of the running while Coahoma takes on the improved Colorado City club in Coahoma.

Gus Fierro Is Top Stickman

Gus Fierro, shortstop, is leading the Big Spring Latin - American baseball Tigers in hitting through last Sunday's game with a mark of .329.

Gus had garnered 15 hits in 34 times at bat. He also leads in runs scored with 17 to his credit.

Nine of the players are clouting better than .300. The Bengals have played seven games and won them all.

LOOKING 'EM OVER

With TOMMY HART

LLOYD 'RABBIT' RIGBY, the Vernon skipper who used to play a heap of infield in the Texas league, says Midland, Big Spring, Odessa and his own club look like the class of the Longhorn league, though not necessarily in that order.

Without saying so in many words, Rigby seems to think well of his own chances to be up in the money when the September playoffs roll around. Judging from the show his boys put on here, his optimism is more than justified.

He's taken a team which ran dead last in the six-club circuit last year and made it into an aggressive, alert and poised outfit. He's made a better catcher out of Bob Huntley who, incidentally, owns the club. He's landed one of the prizes of the year in Cotton McCaskey, who hits from either side of the dish. He's made a better infielder out of Orville Bosch, who currently is playing third base for the North Texans. He's plugged an important spot himself in the short field, a position which gave the Vernon club trouble all last season.

Most important of all, he's built himself a pitching staff that appears second to none in the league. The hurlers have loads of stuff, endurance and control. Most of all, they have confidence in themselves. Eddie Jacome, who beat the Big Springers Monday night, could well lead the entire circuit in wins.

HUNTLEY CONTENT TO FILL IN SIMPLY AS PLAYER

MARIO HERNADEZ, the Latin-American millionaire who owns and plays regularly with the Mexicali club of the Class C Sunset league, has nothing on this Huntley, incidentally, other than the fact that he may have a few more shekels.

The Vernon club belongs to Bob but he lets Rigby mastermind the outfit and seems content to fill in just as a player. He fills a very important spot in the Vernon lineup and has been hitting extremely well in the early games.

DEL TORO EARNING KEEP IN EVANGELINE LEAGUE

GASPAR DEL TORO, the shortstop on the 1947 Big Spring team, is currently leading the Evangeline league in hitting. Gaspar could always figure a curve ball and the pitchers in that circuit specialize in that pitch. He's with Abbeville.

HOW TO WIN GAME WITHOUT SCORING A RUN

DOWN SOUTH, they tell the story of two rival Arkansas hill teams which were deadlocked 0-0, going into the ninth.

With two away, the visitors' leading slugger, a sort of Paul Bunyan, strode to the dish and slammed one a country mile.

Unfortunately, the hitter had one defect; he was cross-eyed. When he started running, he tore for third base instead of first, circled the bases and came dashing home from first just in time to beat the relay.

The umpire proceeded to give the decision to the home team, explaining it this way:

"If he'd a went the right way and kept a 'goin' he'd give you (the visitors') a run, but when he goes backwards thataway, I gotta take a run away from you. The home team wins, nuthin' to one in the hole."

MCALLUM MAY BE THROUGH AS ODESSA REGULAR

BUDDY McCALLUM, who opened the season at second base with the Odessa Oilers, has probably played his last game with that club. He's gone on the disabled list because of a leg injury and his spot in the lineup has been filled by Phil Wells, a recruit from the Austin Big Spring team.

LOCAL LEGION TEAM HAS CHANCE TO GO PLACES

THE AMERICAN LEGION baseball program, which is just getting underway here, has much to recommend it. Fashioned for the youth of our land, those 17 years of age and younger, it keeps the lads off the streets, helps develop their bodies and instills them with a love for the national pastime.

For those with talent, sandlot baseball is the cradle of little baseball, the doorway to a respectable and oftentimes lucrative station in life. As a matter of fact, some 270 of the major league players active today got their start in Legion ball. More than 3,000 minor leaguers once wore Legion spangles.

Dr. Ken Swain is planning a busy summer for his Legion team here. The local boys will compete in the district tournament. If successful there, the boys will take part in the state meet. The state winners go to Regional, the Regional champs bid for the National title.

Hogan Wallops Mike Turnesa In PGA Finals

ST. LOUIS, May 26. (UPI) — Stone-faced Ben Hogan, the great little pressure player from Hershey, Pa., can thank a fine iron game for his second Professional Golfers Association championship and a $3,500 boost to the family bankroll.

Hogan beat veteran Mike Turnesa, of White Plains, N. Y., 7 and 6, yesterday in the finals of the 30th PGA tournament, mainly because he was complete master of his wedge and eight iron.

The prize money vaulted Hogan's tournament earnings for this year to $13,897.50 for 49 rounds of play, second only in dollars and cents to Lloyd Mangrum of Chicago, who has picked up $14,764.99

Turnesa, one of three brothers who have lost in the finals of PGA tournaments, simply didn't have the strokes to match the sub-par shooting of the Texas-born Hogan.

With conceded putts, Ben traveled the seven days of golfing over the short and hilly 6,467-yard Norwood Hills Country Club course in 35 under par for the 213 holes. That included two rounds of qualifying play.

Turnesa often outdrove Hogan but performed feebly on many of the greens, although he is regarded as one of the better putters of the game. Three-putt jobs on two greens had a crippling effect on the popular New Yorker.

Always on the inside with his brilliant approaches, Hogan trailed only once during the day—the second hole Turnesa sneaked a 20-footer into the cup. Ben evened the match at the fourth, went ahead on the fifth and from that point never looked back. He was 1-up at the turn of the nine, 4-up from eighteen, and 4-up after the twenty-seventh.

Hogan was nine strokes under par yesterday when the match ended. He completed the morning round in 32-33-65, six strokes under regulation figures. Hogan went out in 34 in the afternoon, one under, and closed the match with birdies on the 29th and 30th holes.

Turnesa went the distance in 33-37-70 in the morning and was out in 34 after lunch.

Rodriquez Wins No. Five As Hosses Clip Dusters

Pitching with his head rather than his arm, Gerry Rodriguez gained credit for his fifth pitching victory of the year here Tuesday night as the Big Spring baseball Broncs thrashed the Vernon Dusters, 17-7, in the rubber game of a three-game set.

The triumph enabled the Hosses to move into the lead in the Midland Indians' and a game and a half ahead of the third place Dusters.

Divorcee Protests Jailing Of Her Ex

CHICAGO, May 26. (AP)—Mrs. Therese Harstad, 29, protested in circuit court yesterday when her former husband was sentenced to six months in jail for being $855 in arrears in alimony and support payments.

"I don't want him sent to jail," Mrs. Harstad told Judge Julius H. Miner as her husband, Robert, 31, an interior decorator, was being led away. "I don't believe in Alimony Row. I just want to scare him."

"But the children have to eat," Judge Miner told her in noting her ex-husband had not made the $165 monthly payments for the support of herself and three children.

"I'd rather work than have him sent to jail," Mrs. Harstad replied. Judge Miner modified his order and directed Harstad to show within a month that he has made a start on paying the arrearage.

The couple, divorced last October, left the court hand in hand.

Local Man Sees Newest Methods In Tire Making

Eye-opening impressions of modern scientific and technological advances in tire manufacture were reported by Harry M. Musgraves, store supervisor of the Big Spring unit of White's Auto Stores, upon his return from a tour of inspection through industrial cities of Ohio.

Focal points of the trip, Musgraves said, were the various interrelated plants and laboratories comprising the huge tire manufacturing organization where the new White Super Deluxe tire was developed and is now in production. The world premier of this new premium quality tire was announced through this newspaper only two weeks ago.

Musgraves was particularly impressed by the size and scope of the great research laboratories, where scientific experiments are constantly being carried on in a never-ending quest for new and better types of rubber, rubber compounds, rayon cord, latex, and the various chemicals used in tire and rubber processing.

"Those fellows come up with the answer to some big problem, like producing a rubber that will stand up under all kinds of wear and at the same time give a soft, cushioned ride," he explained. "The testing engineers give it the works and, sure enough, it may prove to be the greatest rubber discovery ever developed. But the scientists don't even get excited about it. They're already back at work on a new series of experiments to produce something better."

All such advancements are incorporated into the manufacture of White Super Deluxe tires as rapidly as they can be proved under actual driving tests. Musgraves pointed out, explaining that each of these premium quality tires represents the highest development of the tire building art at the moment it is sold. He offered this as one of the reasons why White Super Deluxe tires can be unconditionally guaranteed for 25,000 miles against all road hazards, the only such guarantee known in the tire world.

Accompanying Musgraves on his Ohio industrial tour were eleven other managers and store supervisors from White's Auto Stores in other cities throughout the South.

TO PROTECT FREEDOM

Solon Promises Code Law Checkup

WASHINGTON, May 26. (AP)—Senator Ferguson (R-Mich) said today he intends to make certain that a new plan to protect secret military codes does not threaten freedom of the press.

The Senate Armed Services Committee yesterday approved a bill carrying penalties up to 10 years in prison plus a $10,000 fine for "disclosure of information concerning the cryptographic systems and the communications intelligence of the United States."

Under this measure any government agency could put "limited or restricted" labels on information for "national security" reasons.

Both Chairman Gurney (R-SD) and Sen. Baldwin (R-Conn) told a reporter the bill aims only at closing a loophole in national defense and security laws. They say newspapermen and others who distribute information are amply protected.

But Ferguson said he wants to study details of the Senate bill as well as a similar House measure before the full Senate acts.

Two years ago Ferguson bitterly criticized a similar proposal to protect codes and cryptographic systems.

He said it could be used to keep both the press and Congress from obtaining public information about most government agencies if officials said the facts were restricted.

Blames Footprint Of Greer Garson For Her Accident

LOS ANGELES, May 26. (AP)—Mrs. Tillie Siegel claims a footprint of Actress Greer Garson caused her downfall literally.

Mrs. Siegel, 48, says her fall occurred in the court of Grauman's Chinese Theater in Hollywood last Jan. 7. In a suit for $5,000 damages, directed against the theater but not against Miss Garson, Mrs. Siegel alleged yesterday that she stubbed her toe on the imprint in cement of the actress' foot.

The resulting fall, she averred, caused her bruises and a sprained shoulder.

The famous of Hollywood have left many cement imprints in the theater court. Jimmy Durante once had his face pushed in soft concrete to leave an impression of his noted schnozzola.

She received the congratulations of her house staff shortly after breakfast and then proceeded to read hundreds of messages wishing her well.

She plans a balcony appearance at Buckingham Palace late in the day and, although she has made no arrangements for it, no one would be surprised to see her pop into a theater for a show tonight, since there is no more ardent fan in London.

Guns boomed out royal salutes in London, at sea and abroad in her honor. Birthday gifts included a bunch of wildflowers from the school children of Badminton, where the Queen Mother spent the war years.

Those near her described her health as excellent, better than last year. They say her appetite is solid, that she likes her regular glass of sherry and an after-dinner cigarette. Her regal bearing and stately dignity—and her hats—are still trademarks of England.

Stassen insisted his chances are good, despite the prestige and 12 Oregon votes he lost to Dewey last Friday. He contended he has enough first and second choice support for the nomination than either Dewey or Sen. Robert A. Taft.

Needless to say, Taft and Dewey backers dispute that vigorously.

But even in their camps there is private acknowledgement that if someone doesn't give way—and that fairly early in the balloting—a darkhorse, rather than any of the three, is likely to get the nomination.
