Probably no one in the Rising Star area has lived upon one place so long and continuously as R. O. Jackson, whose farm and home are five miles north of Rising Star and a half mile west of the old Branton Gin community. Mr. Jackson came in Tuesday morning to renew his subscription to the Rising Star Record, a paper which he has been taking ever since it—or its predecessor papers—was first published.

He has lived on the farm which he now owns ever since he came to the Rising Star area with his parents in February 1891 from Coryell County. He was then eight years of age.

Mrs. Jackson is the former Miss Annie Richardson whose family lived in the same area. They have one living child, Mrs. D. E. Stewart. Mr. and Mrs. Stewart farm a portion of the Jackson farm.

The Rising Star Record is grateful to "Nick" Nichols for cleaning up our back yard. We are not ashamed now to bring visitors in the rear door. It's really neat. It just shows what a man can do when he doesn't sleep late of a morning.

Thanks to Tom Lewis for a gift of onions, beets, etc. Tom produced some of the sweetest flavored Bermudas I have ever eaten and we can highly recommend them to anyone who likes onions stewed with butter, etc., or just likes to eat a raw onion, like an apple, with a hunk of cornbread. I don't. But Ern. Ford might add the idea to his list of southern pea-patch recipes. They say an onion a day keeps the nerves away, makes you sleep good and adds to a tolerant disposition. All of which is certainly needed as an antidote for many of these television shows that afflict the American culture scene.

A United States quarter, bearing the date 1854, was recently plowed up by W. W. Hill at the site of an old cabin on the farm north of Rising Star where Mr. Hill now lives and where he was born May 26, 1883. His father purchased the farm three quarters of a century ago and the Hill family has owned it ever since. However, R. O. Jackson's claim to having lived longer continuously at one place cannot be challenged by Mr. Hill because he has lived away from his place at times.

Mr. Hill, who at 74 years of age looks 20 years younger, found the old coin about a week ago. On one side it bears 13 stars and a figure of Liberty seated and on the other the U. S. Eagle with the United States shield in its breast. There is a possibility that it had lain at the spot for as long or longer than the old cabin has been torn down, which was several years before Mr. Hill's birth. Very frequently, he said, old crockery or the remains of other household effects are plowed up at the site.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Richter have announced the recent purchase of the Oscar Maddux farm north of Rising Star. Mr. Richter is the son of Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Richter of the Nimrod community and Mrs. Richter is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. McKinnerney of Rising Star.

Dixon Boggs and daughter, La Veda, went to Snyder Sunday to attend a reunion of the Boggs family. Mrs. Boggs remained at home to be with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Don Parrish, and the Parrish's infant son, Donnie. Mr. Parrish returned to the Parrish home at Corpus Christi Sunday afternoon leaving his wife and son for a longer visit with Mr. and Mrs. Boggs.

Mr. and Mrs. Clark Crownover drove to Abilene Sunday and returned with their small granddaughter, Karen Siekman, who will visit with them for a week.

New Pastor

ED JACKSON

New Pastor Likes To Be Close to People He Serves

Ed Jackson, the new pastor of the First Baptist Church in Rising Star, doesn't like the title "Rev." prefixed to his name. He prefers plain "Ed" because he feels that it lets him get closer to his people, who are, after all, the real reason he is a minister of the gospel.

The new pastor, a friendly, earnest man, has been pastor of the church since May 1, but for the first few weeks of his ministry he commuted between Fort Worth and Rising Star while he and his wife, Doris, were attending Southwestern Theological Seminary. With the end of the term they moved with their son, Dick, to Rising Star and the new pastor immediately began to make his interest and his presence felt in community activities to which the work of the church is related or in which it has an indirect interest.

Ed will continue his studies at Southwestern Seminary until the course is completed, but he will be on a part-time basis.

The new pastor is a native of Calion, Ark., and a graduate of Quinn High School in Arkansas. He has a notable high school record as a football, basketball and baseball player. He served in the United States armed forces in the European for two and a half years during the war and before the ministry was employed in the electronics engineering field at the University of Texas in Austin. He and Mrs. Jackson were married in 1942.

He is a graduate of Howard Payne College where he received many honors, including designation as Campus Personality of the Week at one time, president of the Circle K, and secretary to the Ministerial Alliance. During his student work at Howard Payne he was pastor of the Cross Cut Baptist Church. In addition to his student and pastoral activities he held a position with the Southwestern States Telephone Company at Brownwood.

Five May Students Make CJC Honor Roll

Five students from May, Tex., made the honor roll at Cisco Junior College for the semester ending May 23, 1957 according to E. W. Mince, Dean-Registrar. Wanda West made the High Honor list with Martha Ezra, Mrs. Edna Campbell, Mrs. Norma Crawford, and Danny Chambers making the Honor List.

Miss West was also a member of this year's graduating class and was named as the highest honor student in the class. She has a 3.0 grade point average for the two years work in Cisco Junior College. This means that she did not make a grade lower than "A" in any course.

SON IS BORN

Mr. and Mrs. Malon Sheffield of Beaugency, France, announce the arrival of a son, Mark Wade, born June 2, 1957. The baby weighed 7 pounds, 3 ounces. His wife is the former Margery Weathers. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Weathers of Rising Star and Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Sheffield, Okla. Malon will complete his tour of military duty soon. They will arrive in Beaugency, France, in August.

Competition Keen In Rodeo Events Here

The second performance of the 1957 series of rodeos sponsored by the Rising Star Roping Club should set some sort of a record. Not only were there more of the fastest times in the roping events, but there were a number of ties at almost sensational times. A roper who couldn't start from scratch, rope and tie his calf or goat in 13 or 14 seconds, had just as well head for Pendleton, Ore., or Fort Worth to find competition in his own class.

In the calf roping event Burl Hittson of Breckenridge and Bobby Rabbon of Coleman tied for first money by tying calves in the remarkable time of 14 seconds. Close behind them was Sonny Phillips of Abilene and Connie Gibbs of Tuscola who also tied with times of 14.2 seconds each.

In the regular goat roping event Shorty Harmes of Coleman took first money with a time of 13.3 seconds.

The jack pot roping contest after the regular performance, produced even more sensational times and ties, when Horace Gibbs of Tuscola and Bobby Rabbon tied for first and second money with times of 12.4 seconds and Tommy Bacon and Sonny Phillips tied for third with 13 seconds flat.

Cecil Richardson of Abilene took first in bareback bronc riding and A. C. (Hoss) Boyd, was second. In the bull riding contest Bobby Rabbon was the only contestant to stay aboard and collected first and second money for a rough evening. Barbara Terrell of Ranger won the girls barrel race in a time of 20.2 seconds, closely pressed by Linda Edgar of Blanket with 20.3 seconds.

Mack Harris of Rising Star took the boys barrel race with 20 seconds flat and Jeff Harlow was second in 23 seconds.

Despite the competition of the Breckenridge rodeo and preoccupation of farmers with late crop planting and grain cutting after the rains, there was a good crowd for the second performance.

The next rodeo will take place Friday evening of this week, beginning at 8 o'clock.

Funeral Services Held Wednesday For Grady Adams

Funeral services for Grady Eugene Adams, 67-year-old former merchant, who died at his home here at 4:20 p.m. Tuesday, June 11, after a long illness, were held at the First Methodist Church in Rising Star at 2:30 p.m. Wednesday, June 12. The Rev. R. A. Brooks, Jr., pastor of the church, assisted by the Rev. R. D. Smoot of Comanche, officiated. Burial was in Oakwood cemetery at Comanche, with Higginbotham Funeral Home of Rising Star directing.

Mr. Adams had been in ill health for a long while and for the past three weeks had been confined to his home.

He was a native of Comanche County where he was born on November 28, 1889. He had lived in Rising Star for the past ten years.

Survivors are his wife, Dixie Adams, Rising Star; three daughters, Mrs. Lois Tucker of Ruidoso, N. M., Mrs. Mary Claborn, teacher of English in the Rising Star High School, and Mrs. Gene Brewer of Clovis, N. M.; one brother, R. V. Adams of Lubbock; one sister, Mrs. John Sawyer of Waxahachie; three grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

He was a member of the First Methodist Church of Rising Star and of the Masonic Lodge.

Pallbearers for the services were George Steel, Charles Rutherford, Ira Edwards, J. C. Claborn, C. C. House and Tommy Lewis.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Clay and sons of Fort Worth were week end guests of Mrs. Clay's mother, Mrs. Florence Graves.

Two Rising Star Women Injured in Brownwood Crash

Two Rising Star women, Mrs. Mollie Smith Landreth and Miss Mina Robinson, were injured in a three-vehicle accident at Brownwood, Thursday, June 6, at the intersection of North Main and North Fisk streets.

Mrs. Smith, who was driving a 1949 Chevrolet in which Miss Robinson was a passenger, suffered a fractured pelvis, lacerations to the left hand and bruises, and Miss Robinson had several fractured ribs, bruises and a fracture of the pelvis.

They were taken to Medical Arts Hospital in Brownwood where they were being treated. The Landreth car was in collision with a 1956 Chevrolet dump truck driven by Olen Edward Kelley of Rt. 4, Brownwood. Brownwood police said the truck was going north on Mair and the car was travelling south from the traffic circle onto Fisk. A parked 1955 Ford was hit by the sliding vehicles. Damage to the Landreth car was estimated at $500.

Reports from Brownwood this week said that both women were doing satisfactorily.

Bill Button will go to the camp Thursday to relieve Rev. Mr. Brooks for the remainder of the week.

Wheat Allotments May Be Asked For

Producers who do not have a 1958 wheat allotment may make application for a 1958 allotment before July 1, it was announced by Emmett Powell, county office manager for the ASC office at Eastland. If wheat has been grown on the farm in 1955, 1956 or 1957 the farm would be entitled to a regular allotment, he said. If interested, a producer may make application at the County ASC office in the courthouse.

Germany Is Fascinating Country, Writes Barbara Womack to Rising Star Friends

"I could never tell you how beautiful this country is. Everything is so green and the mountains are lovely. I wish everyone at home could see the fields over here. They are so clean it's unbelievable. No grass or weeds; they are almost spotless. I still can't believe this is happening to me. It's just too good to be true."

So writes Mrs. Barbara Womack, the former Miss Barbara Smith, daughter of Mayor and Mrs. Walter Smith, in an interesting letter to Mr. and Mrs. M. G. Joyce from Germany where she joined her husband, Dean Womack, in the U. S. armed forces in April. Dean had been transferred to the German post from California in February.

"Something else that is really fascinating to me are the old castles on the sides of the mountains. They are centuries and centuries old and are still standing. Dean and I toured one last Saturday and took a lot of movie pictures, so maybe when we come home you can see them."

The trip over was very enjoyable, "I was only seasick one time," she wrote. "I left Dallas April 14 and flew to New York (I love to fly). I stayed at Fort Hamilton, in Brooklyn, until Tuesday, processing out. Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock we boarded ship, 'The Darby.' She was a huge grey ship which carried over 450 dependents and over 200 troops. Everyone was feeling fine and very happy that our trip was about to really begin and then the band on the dock started playing, 'So Long, It's Been Good to Know You.' This seemed like the end of the world to us; sure makes a person homesick, and I'm sure the Statue of Liberty when we see her the next time will look different than she did when we sailed past her on the 16th of April."

There was plenty of entertainment and constant activity aboard the ship, and the passengers had little time to get lonely, Mrs. Womack wrote. The ship was at sea Easter Sunday and special Easter services were held on shipboard, with a choir made up of many fine voices. "I wish you could have heard some of those beautiful bass and tenor voices; it would certainly have given you a thrill."

"You can never imagine the feelings you have being out there on the ocean at Easter time. * * * You would never forget how you felt, either."

"We docked at Bremerhaven, Germany, at 4 p.m., April 24. We had to process off the ship just as we processed on. Then every one was put on separate trains, each to wherever their sponsors were. Our husbands were not allowed to meet us at port because they say it always caused too much confusion. I arrived at Heidelberg at 11:30 the next morning. You can believe me when I say that Dean was certainly a good sight to see at the train station."

Mr. and Mrs. Womack have an apartment with a German couple who are quite wealthy and have a large home. The apartment has five rooms. They will be moving into U. S.-provided quarters on the military reservation in August, however.

Planting And Grain Harvest Push Farmers

A new cold front, moving into the Rising Star area early Wednesday morning, dumped one and a half inches of rain upon this section, halting the grain harvest and forcing another delay in peanut planting.

Delayed by rains which extended well into the peanut planting season, farmers of the Rising Star area were making the dust fly this week, working against time to get a grain crop out of the fields and peanut seed in the soil before the July deadline.

One of the biggest plantings of grain was turning out a below-grade yield due to the rains which came late and lasted well into the harvest season. Fields were just getting dry enough at the first of the week for combines to be moved into them to cut and thresh the crop and the bulk of the harvest was just beginning to come in at mid-week.

The delayed harvesting season was putting peanut growers at a disadvantage in that they had, in many cases, to get the grain cut and the land prepared for planting within a very short time. It was estimated that it might be at least four weeks, given favorable weather, before the peanut planting could be finished.

Oats Low in Quality
Oats, the principal grain crop in the area, were turning out poorly on the whole. Both the yield and the quality were down. After the first series of rains there were prospects that one of the biggest and best oat crops in the history of the section would be cut, but the continued heavy precipitation cut that prospect materially. Growers in some sections estimated that the yield would average about 35 bushels per acre as compared to the anticipated 50 or 60. Weight is down from three to five pounds below the standard 32 pounds per bushel. An exception was a crop cut from the E. E. Hardin farm which tested 33 pounds per bushel. The market was slow.

Wheat, rye and barley crops were much better, growers said. Wheat did not fall as did oats due to the heavy rains. There will also be quite a yield of vetch seed, dealers reported.

There was no shortage of peanut seed, dealers said. Despite the bad effects on the oat yield, however, the farm and ranch picture was the brightest in many years with the outlook excellent for a bumper crop.

R. A. Brooks, Jr. Returned to First Methodist Church

The Rev. R. A. Brooks, Jr., was returned for a third year of pastorate of the First Methodist Church as the annual meeting of the Central Texas Conference concluded its sessions at Waco Friday afternoon with the announcement of appointment.

The Rev. Allen A. Peacock was re-assigned to the Cisco district, in which Rising Star is located, as district superintendent. He is now in his second year in that post.

The Methodist Church at May is yet to be supplied. May is in the Brownwood district. The shortage of ministers was making itself felt severely with the transfer of a large number of preachers to assignments out of the conference, an unusual number of retirements and few new members.

The Cross Plains church received a new pastor in Gordon Dennis and so did the Putnam-Scranton circuit to which J. Tomlinson was assigned. J. Ellis replaced R. H. Boyer, Ranger who was assigned to Cleburne church, and John Wiley was made pastor of the Cisco Circuit. Brooks returned to the First Methodist Church at May. Miller to the Cisco and the Church.

Don't Forget the Baby

The parents of a two-year-old Florida girl recently told a newspaper: "We intended to have our Jody vaccinated against polio from the time she was one. But whenever we made plans to see the doctor, Jody had a cold or something happened to postpone the visit. Last summer she contracted polio. Now she is a Texas mother made this statement: "I saw two of my three tots lamed by polio after I had put off having them vaccinated. My advice to other parents is: Don't make the same mistake I did."

Two out of every five cases of paralytic polio recorded by the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis are children under age five. And nothing is more pitiful than a child disabled at the very beginning of life.

How soon should an infant get his vaccination? The man who knows best is Dr. Jonas Salk, who developed the polio vaccine. His answer is: "Give the first injection at three months. The second should follow two to six weeks later. Two shots are good, but for maximum effectiveness a third is needed seven months after the second."

So when you are vaccinating the family, don't forget the baby. needs a crutch and a brace on one leg."

Amity News

Mrs. O. J. Reynolds

Rev. Shannon filled his regular appointment here Sunday and he and his family were dinner guests in the Reynolds home.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Smith went to Brownwood Sunday to visit his sister, Mrs. Mollie Landreth of Rising Star, who was seriously injured in a car wreck in Brownwood last week and is in Medical Arts Hospital there.

Mrs. Virgil Bramlet is visiting her mother, who is seriously ill in a Dallas hospital.

Mrs. Lee Burnett, Loy and Butch of Austin are visiting her parents, Mrs. and Mrs. John Alford and other relatives here.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis Bond of Abilene spent the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Cutler.

Gene Pierson is at home from El Paso where he attended college last term.

Mrs. Walter Henderson, with her brother, Henry Morgan of Abilene, is visiting a sister, Mrs. Mattie Hanniford in Miss. They went home with their brother Jess and wife after they visited here and attended the Homecoming at Amity. The other Morgan boys, Manley of Raton, New Mexico, and Ira of Dallas, were also here.

I guess a lot of the readers are wondering why there wasn't a write-up in the paper about the homecoming. Well, it rained and the Reynolds family couldn't get there. Someone passed a paper and got the names of visitors and I guess it will get printed some time soon. Reports were that there were quite a few visitors. More, I think, than home folks. There was lots of dinner, some good singing and everyone enjoyed the day. The roads in our community have been impassable in places and are barely passable now. A report last week indicates that there won't be any work done on them.

Rush Creek Now In Position for Final Approval

By C. E. Williams Jr., Chairman

In 1953 an informal organization was established known as the "Rush-Creek Watershed Association". A preliminary survey was made by SCS technicians in 1955 which showed a need for the small dams. The survey also showed that the development of the watershed would repay the cost to the community, county, state and federal government. There will be about 35 dams covering from 10 to 25 acres each at a total cost of two and one-half million dollars. The land owners part of the cost will be in connection with easements, rights of way and the completing of his SCS plan by using each acre within its capabilities and treating each acre according to its needs.

The following is quoted from a letter written by Mr. H. N. Smith, State conservationist of Texas and tells where we now are.

"We feel that your agreement with the County Commissioners Court to assume financial and other responsibilities set forth in our letter of February 1, 1957 is a satisfactory proposal. Your watershed project will now be considered among those having the necessary legal backing of a subdivision of State Government with the resources to insure participation in those costs which you are expected to assume. There will not be a planning party available for planning prior to January 1, 1958. The State Soil Conservation Board will recommend selection of projects for planning prior to this date and the fact that you have taken this step will place you in position to be considered in establishing priorities for approval for planning."

We as members of the association can help by planning and completing our SCS plans. It seems one would have his SCS plans completed when the water that runs from his farm or ranch is clear water. To the numerous organizations and individuals who have helped us along this far we are grateful. We now request your further aid and counsel in helping develop this project which we believe will be of great benefit to all of the people.

loaded with seed now. This past week was observed as Soil Stewardship Week throughout the nation. Churches in the Brown-Mills Soil Conservation District participated in the observation of Soil Stewardship Sunday. Request by churches for Soil Stewardship material indicate that 40 churches participated and over 4,000 people heard sermons on Soil Stewardship.

Five Rising Star Students Register For Band School

ABILENE, (Spl)—Five Rising Star young people have registered for McMurry College's ninth annual summer band and twirling school, to be held here on the McMurry campus July 14-27.

They are Charles and Karen Steel, whose parents are Mr. and Mrs. George Steel; Mary Lois White, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar White, Rt. 2; Sandra Erwin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Erwin of Rt. 1; and La Veda Boggs, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Boggs.

Raymond T. Bynum, professor of music and band director at McMurry, is general director of the two-week band and twirling clinic.

Bynum said that 261 boys and girls from 32 Texas towns and cities had registered for the school through June 7. He expects final registration to top last year's record enrollment of 404 students.

Participants will be housed in McMurry dormitories and will take their meals in the college dining hall. They will receive instruction in solo, ensemble and concert band, music theory, chorus, twirling, drum majoring and other specialties.

A student may take twirling, instrumental music, or both. Twelve Texas public school band directors are included on Bynum's staff of about 30 band and twirling teachers. The twirling staff will again be directed by Bill Adkins, of Haskell and Mrs. LaGaytha Gothard of El Paso, McMurry graduates who are now public school teachers.

Further information on registration, tuition or other aspects of the band and twirling school may be obtained by contacting Prof. Bynum at the McMurry College Band Hall, Abilene, Texas.

TAX-MAN SAM SEZ:

You may not know it but in Texas the value of your property changes for income tax purposes if either the husband or wife dies. This is best brought out by this example: John and Mary Doe bought the old homestead for $1,000 in 1920. Before John's death they had a tax base for $500 for John and $500 cost for Mary. If either John or Mary had sold their half of the community property homestead they would have had to pay capital gains taxes or any amount above the $500 cost. Suppose the old homestead was worth $200,000 on the date of John's death, the children who inherit John's half of the old homestead have a tax base of $100,000 instead of the $500 that John had paid for the property. A lot of people find it hard to believe (but it is true) that Mary's half of the old homestead also increases, for income tax paying purposes, from $500 to $100,000 of whatever the fair market value of the property is on the date of John's death. This law pertaining to estates applies whether any Federal estate tax is due and paid or not. This law is worth many tax dollars to Texas widows because of the tremendous increase in property values in the past few years.

It Wasn't Your Fault—
... that the party with whom you are dealing to buy real estate did not get an abstract but it will be your fault if you trade with him without an abstract. What about the title? One authority on titles puts it this way: "Titles were good yesterday, only fair today, but worse tomorrow". Better get an abstract when you buy real estate of any kind. IT'S THE LAW in Texas

A public service feature of the State Bar of Texas

WATCH YOUR HAT, COAT

The sign over the coat rack read: "Not responsible for lost or stolen articles." John glanced at it as he hung up his coat and hat and then turned to assist his wife, Jean, in taking off her fur coat. He put it on a hanger beside his own.

The two of them drifted casually down the corridor into the dining salon and were assigned to a table by the hostess. The lunch was exceptionally good and both were hungry. The minutes flew by. John glanced at his watch, "Golly, it's almost one o'clock. Better get going."

But when they got back to the coat rack, Jean's fur coat was gone.

"I'm sorry, sir," said the manager, "we are not responsible for lost articles. We put up the coat rack, Jean's fur coat was our patrons, but that sign you see makes you responsible for your own hat and coat. I'm awfully sorry, but we can't watch everybody's possessions."

Sign Not Factor

The fact is that in the case of Jean's fur coat the restaurant wouldn't have been responsible for its loss even if there were no sign. One who takes off a garment and places it on a coat rack, as one would do in a restaurant, retains the power of surveillance and control over it himself.

Ordinarily, under such circumstances, the operators of the restaurant have no responsibility toward the customer's belongings because they have not knowingly received the exclusive possession and dominion over them.

The case would be different, however, where the coat had been delivered to an employee in a checkroom. In such event, the management probably would be responsible. So, also, in the cases where a customer checks valuables with a bathing house proprietor, or with a hotel desk clerk, or leaves his automobile with the parking lot attendant to be parked and stored for him, those receiving possession of the customer's property have the duty to use proper care to see that the customer's property is returned.

June 30 Deadline For Permanent Disability Benefits

AUSTIN.—Totally and permanently disabled workers, regardless of age, were warned today by the Texas AFL-CIO organization that they must meet a June 30 Social Security deadline or run the risk of losing all or part of their social security benefits.

Jerry Holleman and Fred Schmidt, executive secretaries respectively of the Texas State Federation of Labor and Texas State CIO Council, announced the launching of a public service campaign by AFL-CIO unions in Texas to locate all disabled workers who might be subject to the deadline.

Social security benefit payments begin July 1 for totally and permanently disabled workers 50 years or older if they qualify under the provisions of the new social security law.

The danger of loss of part or all benefits to which the disabled worker is entitled stems from a provision in the law requiring the "freezing" of an individual's social security records by June 30, the labor officials explained. They emphasized that this applies both to disabled workers who already are 50 years of age, and thus eligible for benefits starting July 1, and workers who are not yet 50 years of age but have been totally and permanently disabled.

"Failure to 'freeze' his benefits by June 30 may well mean that a disabled worker will be deprived entirely of future benefits under the disability provisions of the law," Holleman and Schmidt explained.

AFL-CIO unions throughout the state are being asked by the state organizations to undertake intensive campaigns to acquaint all possible beneficiaries under the law with the importance of registering their claims with their local social security offices. The unions, in cooperation with social security officials, are calling on newspapers, radio stations and television stations to assist in the campaign. Union members will canvass their neighborhoods to locate possible beneficiaries and put them in touch with social security offices.

"This isn't a problem of just finding union members who must meet the June 30 deadline," the

Texas Goat Future Looks Good With Improved Mohair

COLLEGE STATION.—The future looks pretty good for Texas goat producers. Many farmers and ranchers are now combining sheep, cattle and goats on the same range and getting better weight gains with higher monetary returns.

Selection of heavier-fleeced bucks for breeding herds has increased the average mohair clip three-fourths of a pound in 12 years, says Agricultural Economist John McNeely. Value of 1955 mohair, estimated at 13.6 million dollars, compared very well with the 19.9 million dollars for Texas wool.

Texas' goat supply is seasonal and most producers market culls and undesirables regardless of price at the time. There seems to be no short term production or marketing response to high or low prices. Farmers buy or sell goats because of range conditions and mohair price. Packers vary purchases with the spread between goat prices and canner and cutter cows.

About 47 percent of Texas producers sell some goats to neighbors or individual buyers, but over half the total annual volume passes through stockyards and auctions. About 27 percent market goats through livestock auctions and approximately 20 percent use the Union Stockyards San Antonio. Marketing season starts in March and April and is relatively steady through July, but a larger volume is marketed in August, September and October.

Spanish goats are produced for meat, brush control or slaughter and stocker sales. Angora goats are raised primarily for the production and sale of mohair, but are also useful for brush control and eventually are sold for slaughter.

Details of the Texas goat situation, compiled largely from a labor officials declared. "The unions could do that with relative ease. The problem is to locate eligible workers who don't realize the danger to their benefits or who may not know anything at all about the new social security payments for disabled workers."

Health Dinner at Ranger June 4th Countywide Mental

By Mrs. J. B. Caudle

The first meeting in June of the Amity H. D. club is always reserved for a program by the 4-H girls. We were fortunate to have two 4-H girls from May, Brown County and two from Rising Star, Eastland County.

In the absence of the president, Mrs. Wayne Teague, vice president, presided over the meeting. The opening song was "The Lily of the Valley", with Mrs. Grace Glenn at the piano. The pledge and prayer were given by the 4-H girls.

There was a piano solo by Sandra Teague and a trio by the Rising Star girls.

Glynda Burnett and Sue Glenn represented the May 4-H club. These girls having won first place in the district will go to A&M June 10 to compete for state honors. They gave a demonstration on preparing, processing and packaging carrots for freezing, using charts to explain methods. It was very capably done.

The Rising Star girls, Sandra Teague, Wanda Walker and Sherry Aaron, gave a demonstration on "tossed" or calico salad, using cabbage, carrots and sweet peppers. The salad was served later with refreshments and was delicious. It was very well explained by the first year girls.

It is always interesting and inspirational to have the 4-H girls give the program and we were happy to have them. We wish the roads hadn't been so bad and more members could have been present.

Mrs. E. R. West was hostess and served cheese sandwiches and the salad prepared by the girls, cookies and punch.

Wanda Walker drew the club gift.

Visitors were Mrs. Melvin Teague and Mrs. Grace Glenn. The next meeting will be June 18th with Mrs. Cora White hostess.

Visitors in the home of Mrs. B. G. Elliott this week were Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Elliott of Skelly Town, Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Hill from Hawley and Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Elliott.

Roberts-Chadwick Wedding Vows Are Repeated in Double Ring Ceremony

Verilla Dean Roberts and Daryl Gene Chadwick were united in matrimony in First Baptist Church here, on Saturday evening, June 8th. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Roberts and parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Chadwick of Altus, Oklahoma. Rev. Ed M. Jackson, pastor of the church, performed the ceremony before an altar of palms and a three-tiered arch, bearing lighted candles. On either side of the arches were three candelabra, each with seven candles. These were entwined with ferns and trimmed with white carnations. Pews were marked with white satin bows, and wedding bells hung above the altar. Jim Woodie of Brownwood was organist and he accompanied Charles Steel who sang "Because" and the "Lord's Prayer." Mrs. Gussie Dowell of De Leon was violinist who played, "O Promise Me", and "Sweet Mystery of Life".

The bride was given in marriage by her father, E. M. Roberts, who wore a black suit with white boutonniere. The bridegrooms best man and other attendants wore white coats with black trousers. The organist played, "Faithful and True," for the processional and a medley of wedding tunes, for the recessional.

The wedding party included Frank Knoll of Midland, best man; Alice Fay Roberts, sister of the bride, maid of honor; Wanda Coffman of Midland, and Merelyn Darville of Odessa, bridesmaids; Marcelene Roberts, sister of the bride, was flower girl, Johnny Frank Staton of Hollis, Oklahoma, cousin of the

The bride's floor-length gown, featured a bodice of chantilly lace, with a scooped neckline, accented with a row of white embroidered flowers with seed pearl centers. The seven-tiered skirt was of nylon net over satin which draped in the back to form a small chapel train. The bride's jewelry included a single strand of pearls with pearl ear screws to match. She wore her maternal grandmother's wedding band for "something old". The pearls were "borrowed." For "something blue", she wore a blue garter, and her dress served as "something new." She also had a penny in her shoe, which was given by her niece, Molly Roberts. Her head-dress was made of nylon embroidered flowers, with nylon tulle edging and a finger-tip veil of illusion. She carried red rose-buds on a white Bible.

The maid of honor wore a waltz-length dress of pastel blue organdy over dark blue taffeta. A large, dark, blue taffeta bow with skirt-length streamers, styled the back of the dress. Her head-dress was two clusters of blue rose-buds, decorated with fern. She wore pearl ear-screws, a gift from the bride. She wore elbow-length, white gloves and carried blue and white carnations. The bridesmaids wore similar pastel pink organdy dresses over rose taffeta, with rose taffeta bows and streamers. They wore pink clusters of rose-buds for headpieces. Their gifts from the bride were pearl earscrews. They also wore white elbow-length gloves and carried blue and white carnations. The ring bearer wore a navy suit with white boutonniere and carried the rings on a white satin pillow. The flower girl wore pastel blue organdy, which was styled similar to the bridesmaids dresses. She wore a pastel blue hat trimmed with white flowers. She carried a white basket trimmed with blue taffeta, and filled with pink and yellow rose petals. The bride's mother wore a pastel pink dress made on princess lines, with white accessories and her corsage was white carnations. The bride-groom's mother wore a navy sheer dress, with white accessories and a corsage of white carnations.

The reception was held in the fellowship hall, immediately following the ceremony.

She wore a white picture hat, trimmed with rhinestones, also white gloves and red roses. The couple will make their home in Midland, where they are both employed by oil companies.

Womans Work in Church Studied

The Thursday afternoon class of the Church of Christ is continuing the study of Woman's Work in the Church. Since the salvation of individuals and of society depends upon the teaching of Christianity, it behooves woman to prepare herself for effective teaching. With this in mind, Brother Harry Tansil directed attention to the methods of Jesus' teaching. He recently made special assignments to the following class members:

- The book of Matthew, Mrs. Wilburn Scott;
- The book of Mark, Mrs. W. M. Looney;

floor there was mushroomed up as if a pocket of gas had accumulated under it and become ignited. Heavy, rainy weather was believed to have contributed to the accumulation. What set off the blast had not been determined.

Plans Under Way For Rising Star Free Fall Fair

Plans for the 1957 Rising Star Free Fall Fair were getting under way this week with a meeting scheduled for Saturday between an amusements man and fair officials to arrange for rides and concessions for the three-day event next September. J. D. (Skeet) Clark, fair superintendent said.

"We expect to secure the best rides and the best concessions that are available for the fair," he said.

Pressure of the grain harvest and other farm and ranch work after the protracted rains was giving little time for fair planning, but it is necessary to contract early with concession men if good rides are obtained, Mr. Clark said.

With good crop prospects over the area, Chamber of Commerce and fair officials were predicting one of the biggest and best fairs in the history of an event which has become over the years a distinguishing feature of Rising Star community affairs. Already various clubs and organizations in the territory were putting plans in motion to put outstanding exhibits in the big market building where the main portion of the fair is centered.

Prospects for an outstanding livestock show were encouraged by the fact that cattle and other livestock will be in a much better condition this fall than last. Plans to expand the show are being made.

Mr. Clark had not yet completed his organization but he said details of this would be announced soon. Dates for the fair have tentatively been set for the last week-end in September.
