Grant Proposal Public Hearing

In a Called Meeting Monday Eastland County Commissioners held their second and final hearing on a Grant Application for assistance in repairing an earthen dam and spillway on Eastland Lake. This Grant Application is a joint one between the City of Eastland and the County.

County Judge Scott Bailey called the meeting to order, and Cindy Helton, Coordinator for the City, detailed the Proposal. She said the Grant Request was for $360,000, with $115,000 more expected to be spent by the City. The repair would include raising the dam 5.2 ft. and widening the spillway up to 400 ft.

Helton said the State of Texas Department of Commerce will consider this Grant Proposal sometime in October. The meeting will be held in Abilene.

The Commissioners designated Eastland City Manager Paul Catoe as a representative. Richard Robinson, Comm. of Pct. 1, was designated as a representative of the County during the previ-

About 13 inches of revenue were reviewed and rain fell in one night on the watershed of the Lake. On other matters, Judge Bailey said that the Commissioners Court would continue to meet in Room B-10 of the basement until the new elevator is installed. It may be six weeks until all the work is finished on this, he said.

The Commissioners took time to compare rain totals and rejoice over the cooler weather. Billy Bacon of Pct. 4 said he caught .80 in his rain gauge last Thursday, and 1.25 more since yesterday. (Sunday) Lesser amounts were reported from the south and east side of the County.

They had some tough competition among the 32 teams, from cities such as Galveston, Texas City, Wichita Falls, Port Arthur, El Paso and Corsicana, entered in the 14 year old and under division of the tournament.

The Rising Star team was the youngest team attending, having only one girl 14 years of age. This in no way slowed down their drive and desire and they repeatedly answered the challenges they were confronted with.

Academy Award nominee Julia Roberts stars as streetwise Vivian Ward and Richard Gere as corporate mogul Edward Lewis in the new eomantic comedy 'Pretty Woman.' This picture will begin at the Majestic Theatre in Eastland July 20.

The romantic comedy 'Pretty Woman' will show at the Majestic Theatre Friday through Monday, July 20-23. Show time will be 7:30 each evening. Tickets will be $3 at the box office, with the picture rated R. 'Pretty Woman' stars Julia Roberts and Richard Gere, and co-stars Ralph Bellamy and Laura San Giacomo. Produced by Touchstone Pictures, the setting is Hollywood 1990.

The story tells of corporate mogul Edward Lewis, (Richard Gere), better known as 'The Wolf of Wall Street.' He may know his way around a boardroom, but when it comes to love he's totally lost.

When a chance encounter bringshim Vivian Ward (Julia Roberts) Edward impulsively offers to give streetwise Vivian a first-hand look at how he other half lives. His friendly takeover of her life introduces the willing young woman to a fantasy world of power and privilege.

Thanks to Edwards' extravagance, Vivian's hard experiences and low self esteem fall away to reveal a natural charm.

Shooting of the film took place at a variety of scamy and chic locations throughout Hollywood and Los Angeles. The production company moved from several weeks of night shooting on infamous Hollywood Boulevard to the enticing material world of Rodeo Drive in Beverly Hills.

There are other total contrasts - poverty and a penthouse --- clubs and an opera. Award-winning Gary Marshall is the Director of this Touchstone picture, and says the story 'definitely has a Cinderella feeling.'

Vandivere-Steubing Exchange Vows

Mrs. Clay Steubing

DeLana Mechele Vandivere and Walter Clay Steubing were united in marriage Saturday, July 7, at 7 p.m. in First Baptist Church of Rising Star. The Rev. R.D. Williams of Brownwood and Dr. Dan Murray of Stephenville officiated the double ring ceremony.

baby's breath, mauve camellias, daisies, pink lilies, baby's breath and burgundy satin bows. Votive candles with glass lanterns set in grapevine wreaths were on window ledges, sprinkled with potpourri. At the entrance of the sanctuary was a brass arch entwined with English ivy, rangements of mauve roses and burgundy baby's breath, and accented with burgundy satin bows. On each side of the arch were brass columns that held large baskets of Boston fern, accented with burgundy roses. Guests were greeted in the foyer by Glenda Lane of Stephenville who presided at the bride's registry and the bride's cousin, Ryan Burns of Bangs, who presented programs and ribbons. The registry table was covered in burgundy satin with a white lace overlay and accented with a crystal vase of pink, mauve and burgundy roses. Two large standing wicker baskets of burgundy and pink roses, pink baby's breath and English ivy decorated the foyer.

wore a tea-length gown of burgundy satin, graced with a sweetheart neckline, short puffed sleeves and a full skirt which gathered to a fitted bodice, shaped at the waistline. Bridesmaids were Tami Vandivere of Rising star, sister of the bride; Lezlea Hull of Stephenville, cousin of the pink baby's breath and mauve bride; Mary Ann Stuart of grapevine hearts with ar- Cisco; Alecia Spencer of Weatherford; and Teresa Copeland of Stephenville. Their dresses were identical the the maid of honor. The attendants carried lace fans with arrangements of burgundy rosebuds, light pink and mauve roses, miniature mauve and burgundy rosebuds, stephanotis, Englishivy and mauve forget-me-nots. The flower girls, Sara Tankersly of Corpus Christi and Rachel Williams of Miles, cousins of the bride, wore pink satin dresses identical to the maid of honor. Their headpieces were haloes of miniature pink and white rosebuds and baby's breath. They carried white lace parasols and white wicker baskets, adorned with flowers, lace and ribbons and filled with a mixture of potpourri and dried petals that had come from flowers previously given to the bride by the groom. The candlelighters were Kialynn Burns of Bangs, cousin of the bride, and Jenny Steubing of Stephenville, sister of the groom. They wore mauve satin dresses that matched those of the brides-

Thursday, July 19, 1990 gundy rosebud and baby's breath.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Vandivere wore a mauve tea-length dress. Her corsage was of mauve roses and burgundy rosebuds, accented with mauve and burgundy baby's breath.

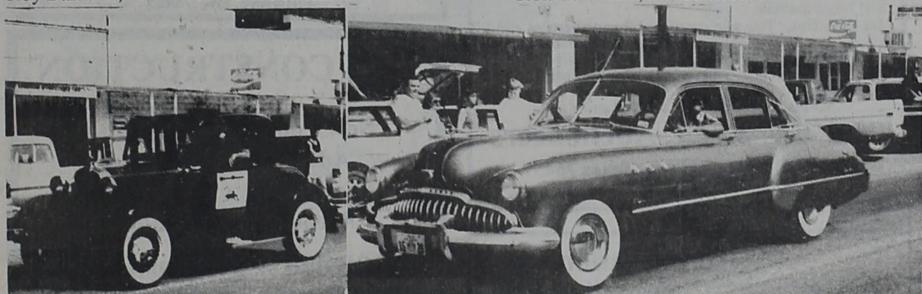

The groom's mother wore a pink two-piece tea-length dress and a corsage of mauve roses and burgundy rosebuds, accented with mauve and burgundy baby's breath.

Traditional wedding music was performed by Jo Joiner of Stephenville. Karen Fanning of Murchison sang "A Parents' Prayer" and Gere and Jo Joiner sang "The Commitment Song."

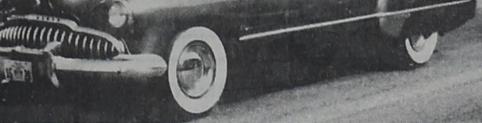

After the ceremony guests were invited to the reception in the fellowship hall of the church. The bride's table was covered in white satin with a white lace skirt and was accented with mauve rosebuds and mauve and burgundy bows. The centerpiece was a crystal basket filed with burgundy roses, baby's breath, pink camellias, dark mauve diamond roses, baby's breath and tiny mauve rosebuds, flanked with white candles in crystal candlesticks with a minute arrangement of rosebuds, burgundy and mauve baby's breath and pink bows. The three-tiered white wedding cake held a staircase that came to rest on additional layers on each side of the cake. The cascading staircase held six bridesmaids and groomsmen. The cake was decorated with burgundy satin ribbon and bows, burgundy and mauve rosebuds. Punch, mints and nuts were served from crystal appointments. Serving at the bride's table were Leslie Boyd of Anson, Becky Tankersly of Corpus Christi, cousin of the bride, and Christina Columbus of Weatherford. The groom's table was covered in a burgundy cloth. The centerpiece was a small crystal basket with an arrangement matching the one on the bride's table. The table held a German chocolate cake and chicken salad sandwiches and coffee was served from a silver coffee service. Serving at the groom's table were Kathy Williams of Miles, cousin of the bride, and Linda Burns of Bangs, the bride's aunt. A snack table covered with a white cloth with a lace overlay and accented with burgundy bows held a grapevine wreath with a votive candle and lantern. The table held vegetables, fruits, dips, chocolate covered Ritz crackers, white chocolate pretzels and cheese fingers. Kialynn Burns, cousin of the bride, presented the guests with birdseed bags of burgundy, pink and mauve tulle and tied with burgundy, pink and mauve ribbon. The birdseed basket was white with flowers, ribbon and bows. The couple was married on the birthday of the bride's grandfather, Robert Burns. As a surprise for him, they had a special table, covered in brown burlap with an ecru lace overlay. It held chocolate cake, strawberries and glaze, a bouquet of birthday balloons and a money tree. Serving at the table was Cheryl Bernard of Rising Star. For going away, the bride chose a mauve dress with matching accessories. Following their honeymoon in Birmingham and Vandiver, Ala., Vicksburg and Jackson, Miss. and Shreveport, La., the couple will reside in Abilene. The bride is employed by Dillard's in Abilene and the groom is employed by Safety Kleen of Abilene. The rehearsal dinner was catered by Cook's and hosted by the groom's parents in the activity building of the First Baptist Church in Rising Star. A miscellaneous shower was given in the fellowship hall of the First Baptist Church on May 26. A bridesmaids' dinner and birdseed bag party was given on the evening of May 26.

The candlelight setting was created with a brass 18-light double-heart candelabrum entwined with grape ivy. The altar featured two 17-light heart-shaped caldelabra surrounded with grape ivy and burgundy bows. The baptistry was decorated with an arrangement of burgundy, mauve and pink roses. The altar rail was draped with ivy, an arrangement of pink and mauve roses, baby's breath and burgundy rose buds and accented with bows of burgundy satin. Large plants flanked each side of the altar. Above the piano and organ were double hearts of grapevine with an arrangement of burgundy roses, pink baby's breath and doves with gold rings. The piano and organ held matching crystal vases of burgundy roses, pink baby's breath, mauve rose buds and cascades of pearls. Family pew markers were made of burgundy roses, pink

Seating the guests were Jason Steubing, brother of the groom, and James Gray. Attired in silver gray tuxedos, the ushers wore boutonnieres of burgundy rosebuds, white baby's breath and stephanotis.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, chose a wedding gown of crystal organza, reembroidered with Rachelle lace. The Victorian neckline, fitted bodice, basque waistline and large bishop sleeves were all beautifully detailed with Rachelle lace, seed pearls and iridescent sequins. The same detailing was carried to the full skirt, which was fashioned with a large bow at the back of the waistline and flowed into a chapel-length train enhanced with crystal organza wired ruffles. The bride's headpiece was a pearl-embellished Juliette veil of crystal organza with seed pearl motifs fashioned over the veil. The bridal bouquet was a flowing cascade of white roses and rosebuds, lily-ofthe-valley, stephanotis, pearlcentered baby's breath, iridescent forget-me-nots and English ivy, accented with a burgundy rosebud and miniature rosebuds and with cascades of pearls throughout the bouquet. Something old and borrowed were earrings belonging to the bride's maternal grandmother, something blue was the garter belonging to the bride's mother and something new were the bride's satin shoes with a new penny given by the bride's siser.

maids. Ross Williams of Miles, cousin of the bride, was ring bearer. He wore a silver gray tuxedo, white shirt, pink bow tie and cummerbund. His boutonniere was a pink rose with baby's breath. The rings were carried on a white satin pillow, embossed with the bride's and groom's names and the wedding date, and decorated with tiny mauve and burgundy rosebuds and ribbon.

The bridegroom was attired in a formal silver gray full dress tuxedo with a white wingtip shirt and bow tie. His boutonniere was a burgundy rose accented with stephanotis and baby's breath. Attending the bridegroom as best man was Larry Sharrod of Stephenville. Groomsmen were Greg Bruner of Stephenville, Johnny House of San Antonio, David Davis of Stephenville, Truett Horton of Rising Star and Aubrey Steubing, father of the groom. They wore silver gray tuxedos, white shirts, burgundy bow ties and cummerbunds. Their boutonnieres were burgundy rosebuds and baby's

The American Cancer Society recommends that women do monthly breast self-exams and have regular physical breast exams by a doctor. It further recommends mammography on the following schedule:

Q. What foods (besides the obvious ones) contain sugar?

A. Sugar, of course, is a major PA. Sugar, of course, is a major cause of tooth decay. Some foods that contain "hidden" sugar are: ketchup (some brands contain more sugar than ice cream), pickles, pea-nut butter, salad dressings, non-dairy creamer, saltine crackers, mayon-naise, cottage cheese, canned vege-tables, processed cheese, instant breakfasts and frozen entrees. Re-member, removing sugar from the member, removing sugar from the mouth takes away the food that bacteria feed upon. Limiting the expo-sure time of sugar to the teeth to three Dr. Cone C. Rice times a day or less (mealtimes) can keep decay to a minimum.

EASTLAND COUNTY HORSE 4-HERS WIN AT DISTRICT HORSE SHOW

This past week six Eastland County 4-Hers journeyed to Belton to compete at the District 8 Horse Show and returned all winners. The weather was hot and the competition was stiff but Eastland County still withstood the environment to pull out some placings. David Williams started things off with a first place win in the tie-down calf roping, and a fifth place in the break-away roping. Jimmy Williams also got his name and Eastland County in the spot light with a fourth place finish in the calf roping. Holly Greenwood was next up and it was definitely her day for she won a fourth in cutting and then went and won a fourth in the pole bending which qualified her for the State 4-H Horse Show in July at Abilene. Tessie Ingram hit them for a lick in the western riding in winning a sixth place. Other Eastland County 4-H members participating were Tracie Ingram and Rocky Ingram. This was a very good representation of Eastland County and we are proud of each and everyone. We also want to wish lots of luck to the State Bound 4-Hers Holly Greenwood and David Williams.
