

Half of Peanut Crop Estimated Marketed

Rain which preceded a weak cold front Tuesday night measured 1.4 inches at the city hall Wednesday morning. It was followed by clear skies.

ket men said was the biggest rush of peanut market experienced here in years as growers sought to get their crops into warehouses before wet weather caused further delay and damage.

It was estimated that about half the crop had been marketed when the damp cloudy weather, with scattered drizzle, swept over the section last weekend. Graders, truckers and buyers were working night and day to handle the heavy flow and the scarcity of trucks to haul the peanuts from the fields was further aggravated by the fatigue experienced by handlers.

Upwards of 1700 tons of the crop had passed through the local station. Buyers were of the opinion that the current damp spell would cause very little damage, serving only to delay the marketing process.

Scout Finance Campaign Gets Record Amount

The Rising Star Boy Scout finance campaign for 1959 set a new record for this community when Auditor Art Fisher reported a total of $419.80 accounted for up to Tuesday of this week. This figure tops the previous high of $412 for 1953. It was expected to be even greater when several other contributions yet unreported are received.

The campaign was carried out swiftly and efficiently from a breakfast at the Elite cafe Tuesday morning of last week when some 30 workers took prospect cards and completed most of the canvassing by late afternoon.

The campaign was headed by Alton Roan as drive chairman. Wm. E. (Bill) Tyler, was finance committeeman.

Be Sure Your Driver's License Is Up to Date

Do you have a VALID Drivers License? One that has expired is NOT VALID and proves quite embarrassing and sometimes expensive if you are driving a motor vehicle, according to Major Wilson E. Speir of the Texas Department of Public Safety. Major Speir reminds us that approximately one out of twenty-five drivers are found to be operating without a valid license. Many of these actually thought their license was still valid—that is, until a Patrolman checked the date of expiration.

The Department of Public Safety realized several years ago that a sizeable number of drivers overlooked the expiration date, so they instituted a system of mailing a courtesy reminder to each licensed driver in Texas shortly before it was to expire. This courtesy notice is put in the mail about a month before the license is to expire and it has instructions on how to renew by mail, or by presenting it at any Drivers License Office. However, this is only a courtesy notice and you should not rely on receiving it in every instance. For various and sundry reasons some license holders fail to receive this notice, according to word from Captain J. B. Hart of the Midland Region Drivers License Office. He states that you may renew your license without the notice by presenting your old license at one of the Drivers License Offices where Drivers License personnel will gladly assist you.

Do you hold a VALID LICENSE? If not, the officers had much rather you would make that discovery NOW than for them to be forced to remind you. Please check your license and see if it is VALID. We want you to be able to smile when a Patrolman checks your license, and tell him you are one of the twenty-four instead of that twenty-fifth one whose license has expired.

Big Spring Bank Cites Rising Star Man for Outstanding Coaching Record

Bobby Zellars, son-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. A. A. White and a graduate of Rising Star High School where he was a star athlete for four years, is the subject of a congratulatory advertisement by the First National Bank of Big Spring in a recent issue of the Big Spring Daily Herald.

Robby's record as coach of the Eighth Grade teams of Runnels Junior High in Big Spring, where he has been for the past four seasons, is praised by the bank in its advertisement, which also carries a picture of him.

The ad, entitled "A Pat on the Back", says:

"Bobby Zellars, a native of California who migrated to Texas, has never had a losing season since he started coaching in junior high school here four seasons ago.

"He is now the first coach at Runnels Junior High to have a winning record in his first season."

Conservation Rancher of Month

J. W. Phillips of Byrd's Store

Brown-Mills SCD Designates Byrd's Store Man Rancher of the Month

J. W. Phillips has been designated as Conservation Rancher of the Month by the Brown-Mills Soil Conservation District Supervisors. Mr. Phillips, who owns and operates his 1240 acre ranch near Byrds Store says: "Growing grass and selling it through my livestock is my business."

The desirable grasses such as little bluestem and sideoats grama, which suffered severely during the recent drought, are being brought back into high production through proper range use and deferred grazing. Extensive bare areas, which were created on the rangeland during the prolonged drought, are no longer visible. Good range cover is again protecting the land and making profitable use of rainfall. Weaning calves sold this year averaged 550 pounds.

Phillips became interested in the Soil Conservation District and its program in 1943 when he became a district cooperator. His conservation program has consisted of Deferred Grazing, Proper Range Use, Brush Control, Terracing, Contouring, Diversion Terrace construction and livestock water development in all pastures. An additional cross fence is being considered to further improve his range conservation program. Conservation practices installed during 1959 by Phillips were 67 acres rotation hay and pasture consisting of 58 acres of Perennial Sudan and 9 acres of Johnson grass. He also sodded 6 acres of overflow land to coastal bermuda grass and constructed a livestock pond. Phillips believes that where good soil depth is available, a farm pond should be deep to insure an adequate water supply. The pond he has just finished is over 23 feet deep.

Kittens Drop Final Games to Cross Plains 11's

The Rising Star Junior High Kittens Thursday of last week dropped their homecoming football game to Cross Plains Junior High 32 to 0. This was the last game of their season. The "B" team also lost to the Cross Plains "B", the score being 22 to 0.

The Cross Plains team scored a touchdown in each of the first and second quarters, and two touchdowns in the third. There was no scoring in the fourth.

Loretta Pittman was crowned Junior High football sweetheart during half-time. Football captains Terry Geyer and Rodney Goodwin were her escorts.

Coach of the Rising Star team is Lloyd Gonzales.

Texas Farmers Net Billion on 1958 Operations

COLLEGE STATION.—Texas farmers realized a net income of $1,001.5 million from farming in 1958, $474.6 million more than in 1957. Estimates prepared by the Agricultural Marketing Service show that Texas ranks first among the states in realized net farm income.

Realized net is the income farm operators have to spend after paying their production expenses.

Average realized net income per farm in Texas amounted to $3,430 in 1958, compared with $1,774 in the preceding year. The Texas farm operators ranked 17th among the states in realized net income per farm.

Farm operators in Texas built up inventories of crops and livestock in 1958 by $46.4 million. When realized net income is adjusted to allow for the change in inventories, the total net farm income of Texas operators was $1,047.9 million. It was $719.1 million in 1957.

Cash receipts from sales of farm commodities yielded Texas farmers $2,372.6 million in 1958 compared with $1,702 million in 1957. Government payments to farmers totaled $122.2 million, $9.5 million more than in the preceding year. The gross farm income of Texas farmers amounted to $2,684.3 million in 1958, a loss of $697.7 million from 1957. Gross income includes cash receipts and govt. payments for the value of food and erment payments plus allowance produced and consumed on the farm and the rental value of the farm dwelling.

Production expenses of Texas farm operators were $1,682.8 million in 1958, a decrease of $147.3 million from 1957.

Wildcats Close Grid Season Against Gorman Friday Night

The Rising Star Wildcats close their 1959 football season here Friday night when they meet the Gorman Panthers, highly rated in district play, at Wildcat field at 7:30 o'clock. The young Wildcats are the underdogs in the game, but on the basis of their rejuvenated play against strong Jim Ned team at Jim Ned last Friday night they are expected to give the Gorman team a busy night of it.

The Wildcats, with several new faces filling in the lineup at Jim Ned, lost to the Taylor County team 22 to 6, but the game was much closer than the score indicated. Coy Edmiston, junior back who was not even counted upon for ball carrying duties early in the season, was the star of the game. But for the fact that he was injured in the opening minutes of the first quarter and held out of the contest until the second half, the score would have been much different, judging from the effect his presence seemed to have on the team while he was in.

He was injured as the Wildcats, taking the kickoff, drove to the Jim Ned 15-yard line in a series of three first downs. The drive bogged with a loss of two yards and during the remainder of the half the Wildcats seemed to have lost spark. Jim Ned scored 16 points in that period.

With his return to the field at the start of the second half the Rising Star eleven took new spirit and forced the Jim Ned team back with strong play, climaxed when Pat Agnew, star Wildcat left end, blocked a punt that set up the Wildcat touchdown.

A second Rising Star drive was blunted with a 15-yard penalty and the Wildcat passing game backfired with an interception that gave Jim Ned its opportunity for a third score

Rising Star Named Attack Haven for Arlington School

In the event a real atomic attack on the Fort Worth and Dallas metropolitan area should require an evacuation of that area, Rising Star would be the destination of the 1,050 students of the Berry Elementary School at Arlington, according to a recent newspaper article.

The story described a "dry run" evacuation of the school in "grim practice of Civil Defense evacuation". Problems encountered in leaving the school rooms, loading into cars and movement of the caravan of students and teachers from the evacuated area to safety were discovered and solved in the mock-evacuation, the article said. The practice route was through designated streets of the city and back to the school.

"If the attack were real," said the article, "the cars would travel to Rising Star, Texas, where emergency Civil Defense headquarters would be established."

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Dennard of the Palace Drug Store received a clipping of the article from Mrs. Dennard's parents in Arlington who scribbled on the margin, "Here we come! Pop said save us room."

"Dock" Davidson Dies at Hamlin

Funeral services for "Dock" Davidson, 58, were held in the Methodist church at Hamlin on Wednesday, Oct. 28, and burial was in Morahans on Thursday, Oct. 29. He has a number of friends who knew him here.

He is survived by his mother and by two sisters, Mrs. "Cotton" Jenkins and Mrs. Emerson Bucy. Attending the funeral from Rising Star were Mrs. Laura Davidson, Mrs. C. L. Smith and Mrs. John Nunnally.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Boyd of Andrews are visiting in Rising Star. They are visiting Mrs. Boyd's sister, Mrs. Perry Valiant, who is recovering from a recent operation.

Favorable Prospect for Motel Here Is Reported to CofC Luncheon Tuesday

Secretary A. D. Jenkins reported to the Rising Star Chamber of Commerce at its noon luncheon Tuesday in the Star Cafe that he had contacted a number of prospective investors relative to the construction of a motel at Rising Star and that a least one of them had indicated definite interest in building a 20-unit motel. Contact is being maintained with the prospect he said and there were good indications that the units would be built, provided other property owned by the prospect could be disposed of in which the Taylor County crew capitalized on.

The Wildcats drew praise from scouts and other observers for their hustle. Jerry Alexander, a 6-foot newcomer who became eligible for play only last week, took over the right end duties with credit to himself, and Clarence Chambers, Butch Butler, Tom Hardin and Bob Morrow, were cited as especially outstanding. Charles Carroll, who shared starting tackle duties with Morrow, turned in a fine game, as did the members of the backfield—Johnny Jones at quarter, Jodie Edmiston, Rodney Smith and Paul Freeman.

All of the players who take the field for the Wildcats Friday night with the exception of Pat Agnew, Bob Morrow, and Paul Freeman, will be back on the squad next year.

Meanwhile, in another district game, the May Tigers, showing their real potential for perhaps the first time this year, stomped the powerful Baird Bears 18 to 0 in a game at May Saturday night. It was no "fluke."

The Tigers manhandled the hapless Bears in convincing fashion—a fact all the more puzzling since Rising Star tied the Tigers in an earlier game and took an overwhelming wallop from the Bears a week later. May has lost one conference game to Gorman and tied with Rising Star. Gorman is currently tied with Jim Ned for league leadership, having tied the Taylor County crew 26 to 26 in an earlier game. Jim Ned is yet to meet May and Baird while Gorman, which always plays a good game against the Bears, will face the Baird crew after their game with the Wildcats here.

Construction of May Phone Plant Is Under Way

The work of rebuilding the May telephone plant of the Kizer Telephone Co. is under way together with construction of new lines in various parts of the Rising Star and Cross Plains areas of the system.

The construction is being done by the Mid-States Construction Company of Dallas, Texas. Included in the construction program at May is a tile exchange building.

As soon as the May plant is completed it will be tied into the Rising Star system.

The program will add 200 more telephones to the Kizer system.

ABOUT YOUR HEALTH

One thing about the "good old days" of yesteryear—people probably didn't have to put up with as much of the pang of indigestion as we modernists do.

There is evidence that the stresses and strains of modern life, the lack of exercise and improper diets, cause the stomach to over-secrete and bring on the aggravating gas and burning sensation of many types of indigestion.

One of the most common forms of stomach upset, physicians say, is caused by nervous excitement. You probably can recall days when an important business deal, an unexpected event, an accident or pressure of work set your stomach churning. The stomach is, of course, largely controlled by the involuntary nervous system.

Hasty eating, improper chewing of food is another common cause. Foods having an irritating effect on stomach lining are important sources of trouble. Among them are those which are highly seasoned with salt and pepper and spices.

Things were different in the old days. Life was calmer, less hurried and less harried. And though with less indigestion.

Modern use of condiments and strongly flavored foods cause the stomach to over-secrete hydrochloric acid. In normal people the stomach tends to neutralize what it over-secretes, but people with ulcers suffer painful "indigestion."

Greasy foods are particularly troublesome for people with malfunctioning gall bladders or liver disease. Fats stimulate gall bladder action, thus creating an outpouring of bile. Extra exertion of the defective gall bladder is felt as a painful cramp.

The degree of ripeness of a fruit or vegetable might be responsible for fermentation in the stomach, causing an unpleasant belching or more severe stomach upset.

Tannic acid is contained in three of America's most commonly used hot drinks. Nicotine, a product of tobacco smoke, is known to be a powerful stomach irritant.

So called persistent indigestion should always be checked by a physician, since it can be caused by a stomach disorder, a diseased gall bladder, liver or pancreas possible heart disease or many other conditions that only an alert medical practitioner can detect. (A weekly feature of the Health Education Division, State Department of Health.)

It's The Law In Texas

LAW AND BELIEF

Our laws have their roots deep within our beliefs.

And the laws shift as our beliefs change. Thus working backwards, you can find a people's deepest beliefs by discovering their notions of justice—about adults, children, nature animals and other things.

Until this century, the laws held children fully responsible for crimes. Like adults, they faced trial and punishment—often prison or death. Today we seek mainly to reform child offenders, rather than to punish them.

Some primitive people hold inanimate things like stones and rivers guilty of offenses.

For centuries the laws held animals morally responsible for their acts, and therefore tryable in courts.

"And if an ox gore a man or woman to death," Exodus XXI says, "the ox shall be surely stoned."

Says Plato in The Laws: "If a beast of burden or any other animal shall kill anyone, except while the animal is competing in the public games, the deceased's kinfolks shall prosecute it for murder."

Courts in the Middle Ages duly summoned animals to appear. As late as 1750, a French court tried a she donkey and condemned her to death, but it later pardoned her because of "good character."

The philosophers Descartes and LaMettrie taught that animals were automatons, highly complex machines without feelings.

As a result the laws came for a time to allow much cruelty to animals.

But in recent years, the laws have changed back again to protect animals from abuse. We have evidently changed our minds about the nature of animals.

Our beliefs about crime—what causes it, and who's to blame, and how to control it—find expression each year in our legislation, in our court decisions, and jury verdicts.

El Paso Inmate Is Champion of Rodeo at Prison

HUNTSVILLE — Champion inmate rider of the 28th Annual Texas Prison Rodeo is Vernon Abbott, serving 10 years from El Paso, who came through four performances of the event with a total of $296.75 in prize money. The announcement was made by Albert Moore, veteran director of the rodeo which is held each Sunday during October.

Abbott unseated the 1958 champion, O'Neal Browning, a lifer from Houston, whose earnings came to $247.75. Browning won the second place spot—a spot he has virtually had to himself for eight of the past nine rodeos.

Cruz Davila, serving 99 years from Cotulla, did so well during the performance that he was able to pull his record from the bottom of the list to third place with $140 to his credit.

Two other veteran inmate riders shared in the top money. They include E. A. "Cotton" Morris, a lifer from Victoria, and Johnny McDonald, serving 12 years from Sherman. Morris earned $137, while McDonald chalked up $110.75.

With the rodeo now history, prison officials praised Texas newspapers for giving liberal space in their publications which they said helped to make the 1959 series a financial success for the benefit of about 11,000 inmates of the Texas Department of Corrections.

Said H. H. Coffield, Rockdale business man and Chairman of the Texas Board of Corrections:

"Texas newspapers, both large and small, joined in an all-out effort to help publicize the rodeo. It was the type of cooperation that warms the cockles of one's heart."

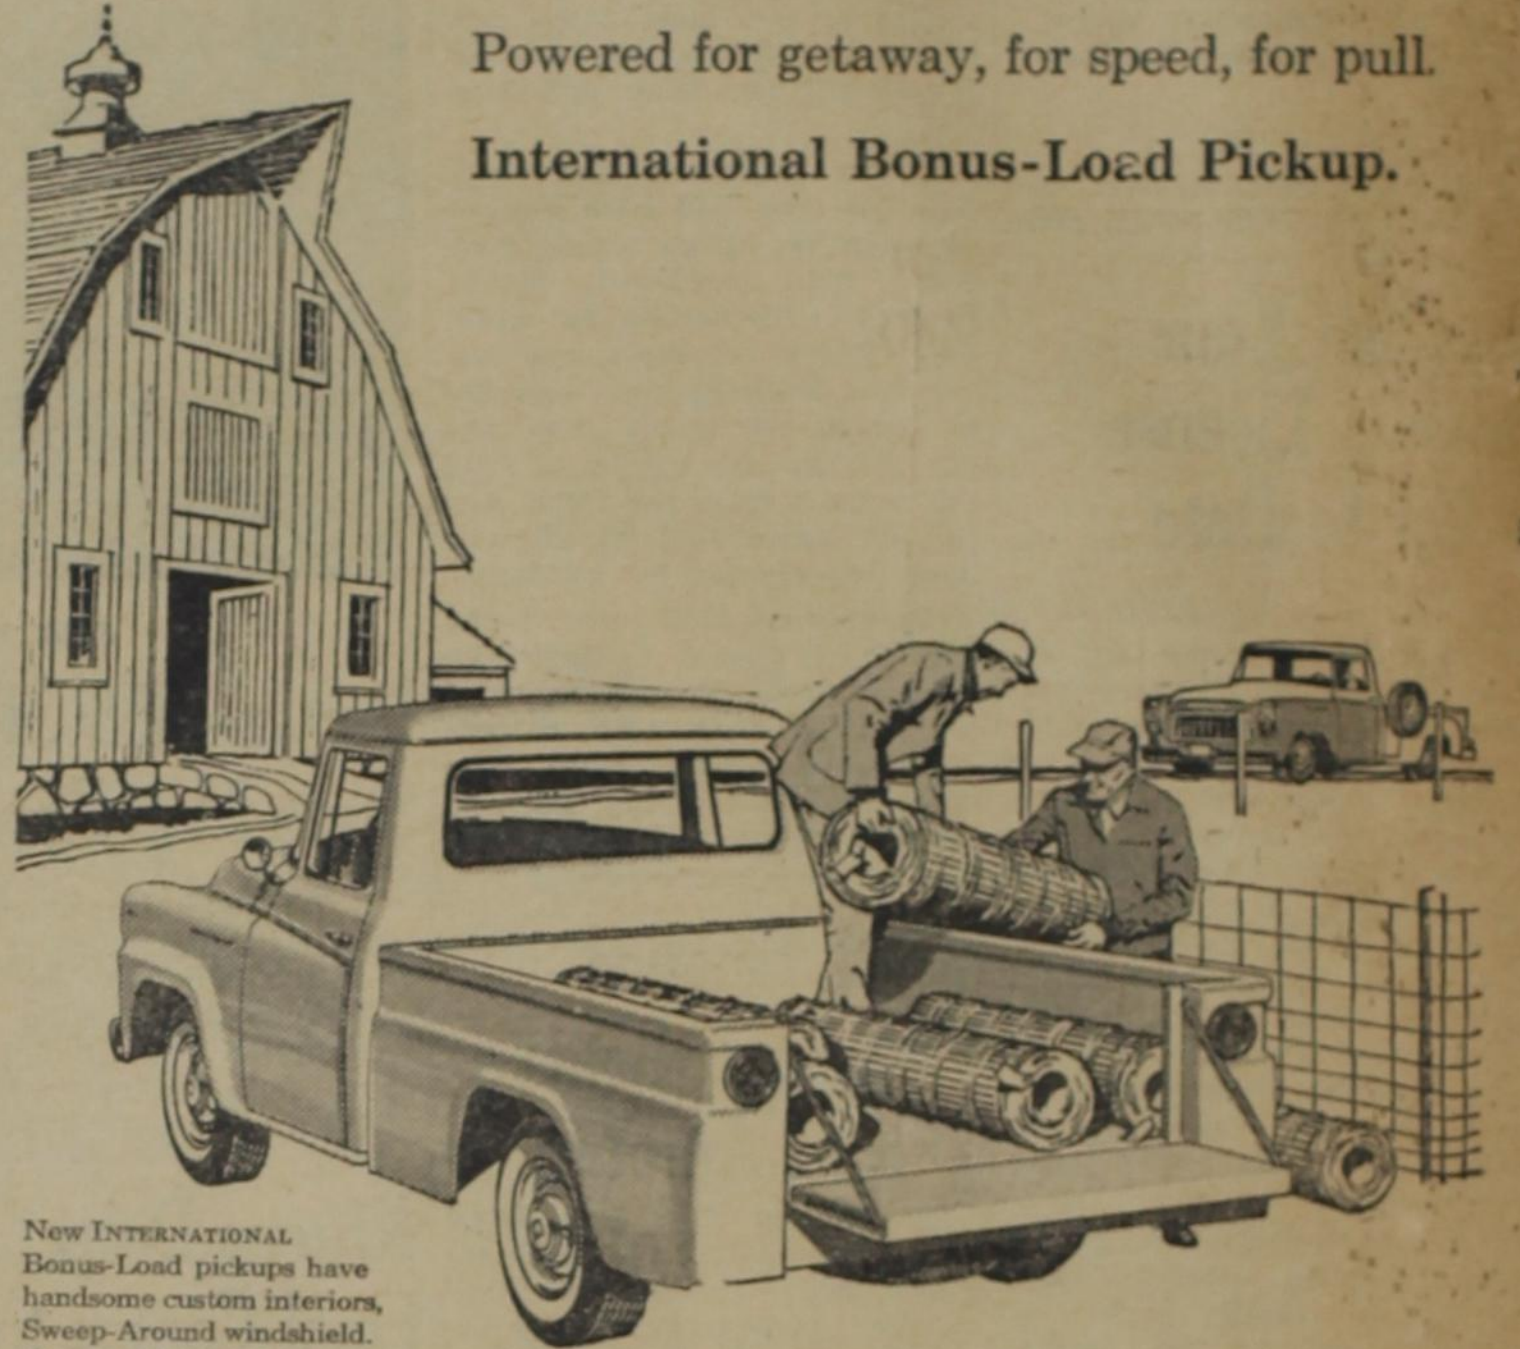

O. B. Ellis, Director of the Texas Department of Corrections, added his praise by saying: "All of us, including the inmate population, are indeed grateful to the press of Texas for their most unusual co-operation which helped to make the 28th Annual Texas Prison Rodeo a grand success."

REA Observes Anniversary Of Rural Telephone Loan Program

Excerpts from remarks of Under Sec'y of Agriculture True D. Morse at opening of REA Telephone Loan Program's Tenth Anniversary Celebration at Washington, D. C., Oct. 26, 1959:

"It is a great pleasure for me to join in observing the TENTH ANNIVERSARY OF THE TELEPHONE LOAN PROGRAM of the Rural Electrification Administration.

"It is no exaggeration to say that a new era of rural communication began on that day. * * *

"Ten years ago, most farm telephones were of the old-fashioned magneto or common battery variety. * * *

"Today, REA telephone borrowers serve more than 900,000 rural subscribers, and 85 per cent of these have dial telephones.

"Ten years ago only 38 per cent of all U. S. farms had telephones. * * *

"Thus far, REA has approved loans totalling more than $610 million to 679 borrowers. When all this money has been translated into telephones, lines and other facilities, it will have meant new or improved service to more than 1.2 million rural subscribers over 328,000 miles of lines. * * *

"It is not the Federal government alone which is doing this job. REA IS NOT IN THE TELEPHONE BUSINESS. REA neither owns nor operates any telephone facilities. REA is the lender. Its borrowers are privately-owned local systems—a part of our free enterprise. * * *

"The real credit for the progress achieved during the past decade, therefore, goes to the 469 commercial companies and 210 telephone cooperatives who have availed themselves of REA financing. Several thousand rural people connected with these organizations have contributed a great deal of time and effort to help themselves and their neighbors obtain up-to-date telephone service.

"The administrators and employees of REA also have made an important contribution. They have set consistently high standards for rural telephone construction and management, and they have never lost sight of the objective of the act—to help rural people get good telephone service. * * *

You not only feel at home in this attractive and refined Beauty Parlor, but the work done here is so satisfactory that once you visit this establishment, your return is assured. You become a regular patron of the Broadway Beauty Salon. The owner of this fine shop has made a close study of type and hair. She is well able to advise in these matters; realizing that every individual type must be met in the dressing or styling of hair, and waves your hair as best suits the contour of your face, your type, and personality, or gives you the style of hair-dress you prefer. Nowhere will you find service better qualified to apply all those touches of feminine attractiveness than at the Broadway Beauty Salon in Cisco.

Ferguson's

Ferguson's, located at 707 Ave. D in Cisco carries complete assortments of apparel and shoes for women. This shop understands the clothing needs of women and therefore makes it a special point to buy stock from manufacturers who are leaders in the clothing field. Another important thing is that they do not hold garments from year to year that are sold at regular prices. At the end of the seasons and often times in-between seasons when new shipments are arriving, they have sales and put all their older garments out at greatly reduced prices. This enables them to keep stocked with clothing that is new and different.

After you visit this shop once and see their clothing and reasonable prices you will want to become a regular customer. It means a great of satisfaction to a woman to know she can depend on a shop to have clothing that will suit her taste.

The Spot Cafe

Here is the popular meeting place for folks in this section. Stop here for a meal the next time you are shopping in Cisco. They are located at 600 East 8th. Something about the Spot Cafe in Cisco sets it apart from other eating establishments and makes it highly satisfactory. The extreme care and thought that goes into everything; the cooking service and arrangement creates a dining atmosphere that should be visited regularly.

The food is good! It is temptingly delicious, prepared in the most careful manner in a spotless, sanitary kitchen. You'll find a tempting meal here of a variety of fresh vegetables and your favorite meats, prepared to retain their natural flavor. Always stop and eat the Spot Cafe whenever you are in Cisco. They have just recently renovated and are completely remodeled. They have also added a new dining room for your convenience.

COMMUNITY SINGING

The Record has been asked to announce that the regular community singing will be held at the American Legion Hall in Rising Star Sunday, November 5 at 8 o'clock.

HOW TO GET ALONG WITH OTHERS

To be happy, all people must get along with others and have friends. All of us need the companionship of others. In view of this fact, I would say your ability to get along with others has a great bearing on your success in your work, your home life, social activities, and yourself a good citizen. All of us have the ability to get along with others, but it is up to the individual to develop his personality. People just don't happen to have good personalities; they grow with us and develop through the years.

Of course, a good personality helps one get along with others better. There are several ways in which we can better our personalities. When you are wrong, admit it. One should always be friendly and kind. It helps a lot to make people feel worthwhile and not try to belittle them.

You shouldn't always be bragging about yourself or your family. One should always have an open mind on all matters no matter what your viewpoint it. Be able to take as well as give. No one likes a "know it all." In general, I think everybody would be able to get along better with others if he followed the Golden Rule — "Do unto others as you would have them do unto you."

JUNIORS IN DRAMA

Get it? Got it! It sends me way out, Daddy-O. Real cool, man. No! That's not drama. That's J. M. and Elaine, the "cool cats" of this "jiving", "thriving" Junior class, talking about term themes. If you don't "read" them, see them in a week or so and maybe they, along with the other Juniors, will have recovered and begin making some sense to us "squares". (But I doubt it!)

WANTED: ACTOR AND ACTRESS. REPORT TO ENGLISH ROOM, SECOND PERIOD. I guess you are wondering what in tarntion that is? Well, the Juniors are studying plays of comedy, everyday life, and drama. Some of us have decided it will be a four-day tie between Billy, Doug, Charles and Beryl for the Oscar award for best actor of the year. Clark Gables—they are! Oh-h-h brother! If it doesn't "send you" (out of the room more than likely), then you're just not "clicking" Daddy-O. Come on CATS. Beat Gorman! If you feel misrepresented or mistreated in any way, shape, or form, see Gary.

SOPH HIGHLIGHTS

As we all know by now, the Sophs have been selling their nuts to just about everybody. If you haven't been contacted yet and would like to buy a can, get in touch with Miss Childress or any of the Sophs. We plan to reorganize around Christmas time and we hope you will buy some more from us to use during the holidays. In Homemaking II the girls are well under way with their sewing, and I guess the Ag boys are with their rat poison project.

The speech class as I told you some time ago is planning a play to be given in November. Now instead of one play we're going to give two. So now you all just have to come. The name of the second play is "Breaking of Bread" starring Wickey Walker and Johnny Jones. The plays are supposed to be given November 13; however, the date might change so watch for it.

A little old bird told me: Carol H. doesn't know the difference between a wasp and a yellow jacket.

Butch B. "Yes, we're selling nuts."

Rose W. "Got a secret admirer?" Linda H. "Hexagon and octagon, they're different."

are all looking forward to the game with Gorman. The boys have been improving in their practice and think they have a good chance of playing Gorman a good game.

This is the last game of the season, we would like to see everyone out for the game. Why don't we all back the Wildcats and push the team forward to a victory? Next week starts the regular basketball season, and as yet we don't know how many boys will be out, but we have some very good prospects.

BACKING THE WILDCATS!

This is the last game! The bonfire Thursday night and pinning the ribbons on the boys at the pep rally are two big events in preparing for it. Everyone is invited to the bonfire; the band will be there in the best of spirits and the biggest thrill of all—we burn the dummy!

The pep rally will be Friday at 10:30 and we want to see you there. The Sophs have won the contest between the classes nearly every week. How about that, you Juniors and Seniors—gonna let them beat us every time? Let's show them who can yell the loudest!

Let's really get behind the Wildcats and SKIN THOSE PANTHERS!

LIBRARY REPORT

On Friday, the 16th, Mrs. Claborn called a meeting of the librarians. At this time we made and discussed plans for a future meeting and dinner. The time decided on was Monday night, the 26th of October. We met at the Homemaking cottage at 6:00; each girl contributed to the meal by bringing a dish of food. Our menu was baked beans, potato salad, meat spaghetti, bread, cherry and pineapple pie and iced tea. The meal was delicious and enjoyed by everyone. We had one guest which we felt very honored and pleased to have, Mr. C. A. Claborn.

During the meal we discussed the problems and the general work in the library. Then on Wednesday we got even more thorough information about the library; Mrs. Steel, our head librarian, talked to each of us individually, telling us everything about the files and different books. I was surprised to learn how much time is required in keeping a library in order.

The past few weeks the reference books on English and American literature have certainly had more use than usual. The reason for this being we have been working on term themes. But now that they are finished, the books can rest in peace on the shelves until further needed.

This is about the round-up of the news so—So long and keep reading those books. Reporter

A SENIOR'S A SENIOR FOR A THAT

La Veda, what did you find in your car seat Sunday afternoon? And what happened to it? Mary Lois; They say I'm robbing the cradle, little Sophomore! Poor Emmy Lu, she has to put up with all that and more.

Danny, we all are curious to find out about Dallas and why it has made you the object of so much jesting.

Gerald, we enjoy surprises in English, don't we?

I decided to begin my news with gossip this time. Maybe you've noticed that my column seldom contains gossip, well, it is mainly because it makes one unpopular—fast!

We seniors in Biology are ready for more dissecting, aren't we, Katie? You know, I think the seniors as a whole are more interested in our classes—except a few, mentioning no names.

We hope you all saw the basketball game between the Cats and Cisco; and do attend the Star-Gorman football game. Back those Cats at their last game!

Freshmen are going to sell Christmas cards. We think it's a good bargain—21 for $1.25 or 21 for $1.00. Why not buy your cards from the Freshmen?

We're proud of our Freshmen girls. Two of them, Joy and Mary M., are on the A team in basketball, while three, Donnie, Vendell, and Mary A. are on the B team.

The Rising Star A and B teams played Baird last Tuesday for the first game of their season. The B team lost by three points, while the A team won 37-29. Jettie Duggan was high point for the girls.

The Wildcats went to Jim Ned last Friday night for their last out-of-town game. They play Gorman here Friday night for the last game of the season. We have a couple of speed demons in our room, but for very different reasons.

J. M. What was your hurry the other night? Rat poison pajamas? It doesn't make sense!

D. C. Just hit a bump in the road, huh? Well, you can say that since no one else was along; although, there surely wasn't a bump in the hall. What is your hurry; it will last!

C. W. Harris—eh? Bye for now, Katy

HERE FOR FUNERAL

Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Milner were here from Stephenville Monday to attend funeral services for Mrs. Sarah Clark. They are former residents of Rising Star where Mr. Milner was with the Higginbotham Motor Co., before it sold to Gregory Truck and Tractor Co. He is now with the Higginbotham International Harvester store in Stephenville. Mrs. Milner is recovering from serious back injuries suffered last spring when the car in which she and several other women were riding was struck by another. She spent 17 days in a Stephenville hospital.

Mrs. H. S. Switzer returned on Wednesday from Georgetown where she visited her son and family, Rev. and Mrs. David Switzer.

Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Holly of Frederick, Okla., spent the week end here with Mr. and Mrs. Roy Holly and children.

Union Center Club Has Community Party October 27

The Union Center Hobby Club met October 27. Ten members and Mrs. Ham quilted two quilts.

An order of colored aluminum was received by the club. Birthday gifts were presented to Mrs. Martin, and Mrs. Maples, the outgoing president, presented the members with beautiful coin purses in appreciation for the shower given her. Mrs. Reed passed out quilt blocks for a friendship quilt she is making.

Those present were Mrs. Roy Allen, Henry Scott, W. J. Martin, Jack Knox, G. G. Crowell, A. W. Wright, Henry Reed, Aaron Gage, Walter Hill, and Miss Vera McBeth. Visitors were Mrs. Ham and Miss Joanna Allen. The next meeting will be Nov. 10th.

The community party was held on the evening of Oct. 27. Forty-two, dominoes and canasta were played by the group attending. Mrs. Crowell and Mrs. Howard served refreshments.—By Mrs. Crowell.

Church of Christ Ladies Class Meets

The Ladies Bible Class of the Rising Star Church of Christ met on October 28th at 9:30 a.m. at the church in a continuing study of Paul's letter to the Church at Ephesus. Minister Luther Dabney opened the meeting with prayer.

The lesson Wednesday was on "The bringing of the Gentiles into the church through their faith and not by the words of the law."

The question and answer method is being used followed by a round table discussion, which is proving very effective and interesting.

Twenty-seven members attended the meeting.

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Reed during the week end were Mr. and Mrs. Ed Williams and three children from Arlington. They were accompanied to their home by the mother, Mrs. Shaw.

Two Out of Three Farm Families Make Under $2,000

COLLEGE STATION. — Are you having trouble making ends meet with your present farming operation? A recent survey by the Agricultural Research Service (ARS) and Texas Agricultural Experiment Station in 24 North East Texas counties indicates that two out of three full-time farmers do have such difficulty.

These families are averaging a little less than $2,000 net income per year, according to John Southern of the ARS and Frank Sheppard of the extension service. Families living in the country and working in town have higher incomes. Since 1950 about 20,000 farm families have either moved to the city or become part-time farmers in the 24 counties. Why?

"Full-time Farming in East Texas—Land and Capital Needs", a new extension leaflet offers an explanation. Also discussed are some of the enterprises which seem to hold potential for these farmers. Tom E. Prater, extension farm management specialist, has a chart in the leaflet which will give an idea of how much money needs to be invested in a specific enterprise to yield a farmer a labor and management income of $2,500 per year.

Farming and living costs continue to rise, the authors explain. Machinery, fertilizer and chemicals are needed to produce a quality product. These items cost money. Cash costs for family living are increasing all the time. Does this mean that there is no future for commercial farming in East Texas?

"There is a great future for full-time farming in this area for those who can secure enough land, equipment, and working capital," emphasizes Prater. A dollar invested in farming in East Texas will yield just as high, if not higher, returns there as in other parts of the state, provided the total investment is enough, he adds.

This leaflet discusses what needs to be done to carry on a successful farming operation in this area.

Attend Baptist Convention at Corpus Christi Monday-Thursday

Rev. and Mrs. Ed Jackson, pastor of the Rising Star First Baptist Church and Bill Dennard are among the 6,000 persons from virtually every town and city in the state attending the 74th annual Baptist General Convention of Texas in Corpus Christi's municipal auditorium this week. The convention opened Monday and will close Thursday (today).

Rev. and Mrs. Jackson and Mr. Dennard are messengers from the local congregation.

Official messengers to the convention, representing more than 1½ million Texas Baptists, were to take action on what some

Baptist leaders term "the most significant proposals in the history of Baptist work in Texas."

Top item on the agenda was the consideration of recommendations by the 191-member BGCTV executive board. Meeting in Dallas Oct. 2, the board voted to recommend that the convention completely revamp the state administrative organization, establishing two new commissions, the State Mission Commission and Human Welfare Commission, and reorganizing an existing commission, the Christian Education Commission.

The messengers were to vote on the board's recommendations to lease Wadley Hospital in Texarkana, rather than accept the hospital as a gift from the institution's board of trustees. The hospital, built with the aid of $1½ million federal Hill-Burton funds, was offered with no strings attached to the denomination, but some critics argued that accepting the gift might violate the Baptist stand on separation of church and state. Other Baptist leaders say that since the government money was accepted by the hospital's board long before the gift was offered to the denomination, there would be no violation of the principle involved in the transaction.

In other action, the denomination was to vote on a record $12,880,000 Cooperative Program budget for world missions and will elect more than 230 pastors and laymen as trustees or members of boards of directors to Texas Baptist institutions and organization. Convention officers were to be elected.

North Star Club Plans Achievement Day for Nov. 6

Plans for Achievement Day November 6, were made by the North Star Home Demonstration Club at a meeting Tuesday.

At a meeting on October 20, the club made a summary of the year's work done by the club to be sent to the county home demonstration agent, Sandra Shelton, at Eastland. Mrs. Carl Irby presided at the meeting.

The Halloween motif was carried out at the October meeting, with refreshments of open-face sandwiches and dark cake with orange frosting. Hostesses were Mrs. Rufus Pierce and Doris Putnam.

Present were Mesdames, Ada Williams, Dora Eborhart, Ella Wells, Alex Conner, Eliza Harris, Nora Harris, Dennis Clark, Beryl Heath, Will Ware, Carl Irby, Susie Coursey and T. Hardin besides the hostesses.

Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Lee visited their daughter, Nelda, a student in Texas Women's University, Denton, last week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Amis of Abilene were here Saturday and Sunday for a visit of Mrs. Mollie Hill and her daughter, Miss Hallie.

BE SURE FIRE INSURANCE IS REALLY UP-TO-DATE

Rising property values mean higher replacement costs in case of fire. It pays to check your insurance to make sure you're adequately covered. Come in any time and talk it over.

The Little Things We Notice —
... in preparing your abstracts often grow into big things later on. For example, if a deed is drawn by a careless person it is sure to be full of errors and these errors will show up in your abstract as originally written. The moral is, have your title instruments prepared only by qualified conveyancers and from a legal standpoint the lawyer is the only person who can do this work for you.
