Earl Conner Asks Re-Election In May 2 Primary

To the citizens of Eastland County, Texas.

I am deeply grateful to you for the confidence placed in me in the past. It has always been my aim to carry out the dictates imposed upon the office of County-District Attorney by the laws and constitution of the State of Texas. These specifically provide that no person shall be harassed by being tried unless the evidence tends to show his guilt beyond a reasonable doubt. There have been some difficult cases during the past two years, the prosecution of which has caused those prosecuted to become very revengeful in their opposition to me. Statistics show that if convictions are obtained in fifty per cent of all cases filed, that is a good record. As your County and District Attorney, convictions have been obtained in sixty per cent of all cases filed in County and District Courts. Of these cases tried, before the Courts and juries, convictions have been obtained in ninety per cent of the cases submitted.

Of the cases remaining on the dockets (with the exceptions of approximately 18 cases filed recently and slated for trial this summer) they are subject to dismissal for lack of sufficient evidence upon which to obtain a conviction.

Last year, the Grand Jury, at my request, made an investigation of the court dockets and, regarding the same, made the following report:

"March 28, 1963
To the Honorable T. M. Colie, Judge of the 91st District Court of Eastland County, Texas.

We, the Grand Jurors for the February Term, A. D. 1963, desire to submit our final report and upon acceptance of the (Continued on Page Four)

Aged Man Dead Of Gunshot

Corbett A. Scott, 70, retired Santa Fe railroad employee, died of a gunshot wound about 3:30 p.m. Wednesday at his home in southwest Rising Star.

His wife and M. A. Arwin, a neighbor who was visiting, the home. Mrs. Scott said she was present when the shooting occurred in the kitchen of the home. Mrs. Scott said she witnessed the shooting.

She told officers that her husband had been preparing for a bath when Mr. Arwin came by. She said he had been ill and she usually helped him with his paths. He had removed his shoes and after a while he left the living room and went into the kitchen and took a shotgun from the closet.

She asked him where he was going and he said "to kill a rabbit," she told officers. Suddenly she said, he placed the muzzle of the gun at his throat and it discharged.

Mr. Arwin said he summoned J. W. Smith, another neighbor, who helped him remove the gun which had fallen between Mr. Scott's legs.

Justice of the Peace B. A. Butler had not returned an inquest verdict Wednesday afternoon.

The Scotts have lived in Rising Star for about 12 years. He retired from Santa Fe service about five years ago. Each has a number of children by a previous marriage.

The body was at Higginbotham Funeral Home.

R. L. Carter Asks Support for Pre. 3 Commissioner

R. L. Carter this week made the following statement in respect to his candidacy for commissioner of Precinct 3, Eastland County subject to the action of the democratic primary next Saturday:

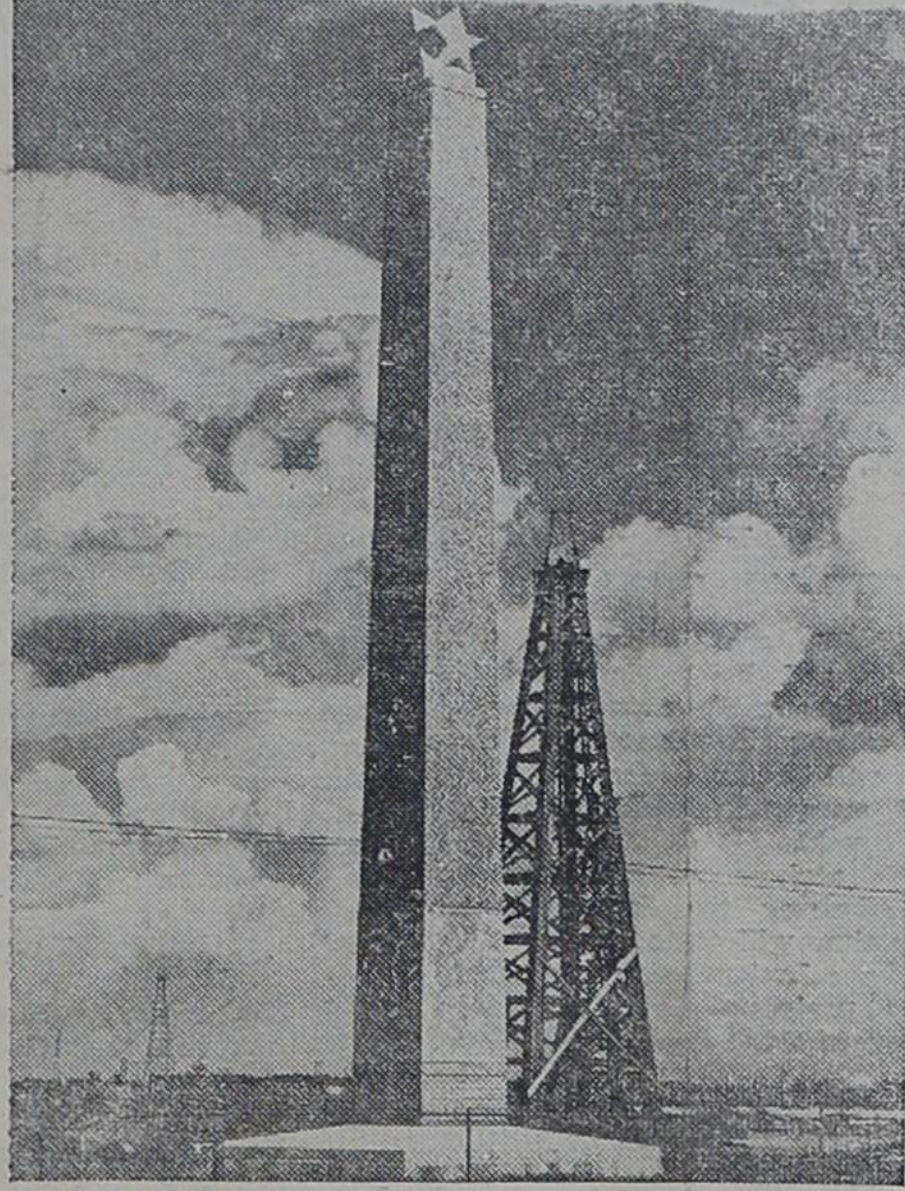

"After living 40 years in this community, during four years of which I built and maintained roads in this precinct, and helping to handle the finances of the county, I feel that I am qualified, and understand the needs of the precinct and county. I know that I cannot go beyond my budget and get in debt too much and have any money left to operate the way that the precinct's business should be operated.

"I know that I can keep my spending within my budget as the budget is set up by the auditor each year. You cannot go beyond that budget without getting in debt.

"I will greatly appreciate your vote and influence at the polls Saturday, and if I am elected, I promise you an economical, impartial and honest administration of the responsibilities of the office.

"Sincerely,

"Hamp" Kornegay Asks Support In Constable Race

W. H. (Hamp) Kornegay, candidate for constable of Precinct 7, subject to the action of the voters in the Democratic primary May 2, this week issued the following statement in connection with his candidacy:

"To the Voters of Precinct 7:

"As I announced earlier, I am a candidate for constable of your precinct. "During the past weeks I have endeavored to see each of you and personally solicit your vote and support, but it has been impossible to contact all of you. I hope those of you whom I have not seen will take this message as a personal solicitation of your vote for me next Saturday. I will appreciate it very much.

This is the first time that I have ever asked for public office. But I have had experience in law enforcement work and I feel that I am well qualified to give you the kind of service that you are entitled to. If elected I will endeavor to make you the best constable that you have ever had.

I have lived in this precinct for 32 years and am well acquainted with the people and the conditions in the community affecting the enforcement of law.

"During our residence, my family and I have been active in church work and other community affairs. My wife and I have two sons and a daughter all of them married and with families.

"I will certainly appreciate your support of my candidacy next Saturday.

Sincerely,
"W. H. (Hamp) Kornegay."

Election Campaign, Locally Quiet, Ending First Round

A political campaign distinguished for the most part by restraint and lack of fireworks will conclude its first phase with the first Democratic primary voting here next Saturday.

In only one local race—that for Sheriff—is there any prospect of a run-off vote. Five candidates are seeking that nomination.

In contrast with primary voting the past, Saturday's election will have two ballots—one for local and State candidates and another for Federal candidates to be used by voter who did not pay poll taxes and are ineligible for State voting. The Poll Tax is still a requirement for voting in State elections, unless the voter is over 60 years of age, but it has been abolished as a requirement in voting for Federal officers.

All who have paid their poll taxes or who are exempt from such payment by reason of age or otherwise, are eligible to vote in both elections, but those who are not exempt and who have not paid their poll tax cannot legally vote in the State and local races. Even so, they must have registered properly in order to vote in the contests for congressmen and United States Senator.

IS IT RIGHT BECAUSE "EVERYONE DOES IT"?

In our societies today there is a strong emphasis on imitations; people tend to do as others are doing because of the pressure that is placed on them by those with whom they associate daily.

Teenagers are especially easy to fall prey to this rule of copying others. The teenage years are the years of doubt and confusion; therefore, young people can easily be influenced by others. One teenager may try to involve others in something he is doing for the purpose of having others to share the blame. Often a person may be referred as "chicken" or "yellow"; but the ability it takes to say "no" when everyone else is saying "yes" takes much more courage.

Individualism creates strong competition to create powerful minds; an individualist has his own ideas and convictions and strives to develop them and carry them out. If every person does only what others are doing, no advancements will be made. Every person is obligated to contribute himself, his community, and his country to that which he is best qualified to do—not what others around him are doing.

The American spirit of individualism has always been a great asset to our democracy. We are guaranteed a freedom of developing into an individual by the principles of our government. We are allowed to form and to express our opinions, to criticize our government, to evaluate our American way of life whenever we wish, and to select the leaders of our great country. If every person patterns his life around the theory that something is right because "everybody does it", one of the great causes of our democracy would be gone.

People are constantly competing against people. Competition that stimulates one to do better is good; but when it continues to the point that it causes friction, strife, and jealousy, it is harmful to the individual. It is important that everyone learn to be himself at all times and develop his talents as best he can.

A person who is strong enough to uphold his convictions is a valuable contribution to any community he can be depended upon to do what he believes is right and cannot be easily swayed by the opinions of others. Any person's ideas are as important as another's ideas if he will learn to stand for what he believes. Often there is no right or wrong side to an issue; the personal opinion of each person is right.

When one is asked to participate in something of which he does not approve, he is obligated to refuse. Something that is legally and morally right may not be in accordance with his personal standards; he should take his stand against it from the beginning. One should not be ashamed of his action or make any excuses for his behavior; no explanation is required if he wishes not to explain.

When a person has done what he believes is right, his personal satisfaction is greater. If he is constantly doing things which he senses is wrong, he is placed under great emotional and mental strain. A great conflict takes place between him and his inner self. The results may be tragic. It does not matter what a person does; if he believes it to be the right thing, he has shown maturity in his ability to execute his thoughts.

The lack of maturity is one thing that causes people to copy the actions of others. A mature person will learn to evaluate the conditions and choose the right side of the issue. Hasty decisions are a trademark of immaturity; a person all factors involved in an issue before giving his final decision.

Rationalizing, giving a good excuse rather than the real reason, is common in our society today. People refuse to admit the true reason for committing some act and supply a good excuse for their behavior. A person who has done wrong should be big enough to admit it and take his punishment. Putting the blame on other people is another way of escaping the evidence—but not of escaping one's self.

It is the responsibility of every person to establish his own set of high standards and to uphold these standards at all times no matter what "everybody else does."

"KNOWLEDGE COMES BUT WISDOM LINGERS"

Believe it or not we made it through last week's catastrophes and are back to say that they were a big success; the banquet Tuesday night was one of the best!

The cheerleaders for '64-'65 were announced at the Junior-Senior banquet and the results are very rewarding.

The track boys went to Stephenville last Saturday and did a fine job at the regional meet. We are very proud of our tracksters this year and hope they will be even better next year.

As you probably know by now the rings are here! Everyone seems to be very proud and likes the style at the greatest! There are a few who are wearing blue but the majority have gold on their fingers, right girls.

It is nearly time to close for this week, but there is a line or two of gossip on the agenda—

V. C.—Do you like nice peaceful drives on Sunday afternoons?

S. J.—Who is your new flame?

Bruce — Congratulations to you and Peggy.

Frazier—You surely are mixed up about girls, right?

Bye, bye, for this week.
Linda Burkhauler

"LIVE AND LEARN"

Hi! We are ticking off the weeks and before long school will be out. Everyone remember to pay class dues—the class trip will be here before too long and everyone should have his dues paid.

We sophomores are enviously admiring the Junior rings. Our time will come.

The Junior-Senior banquet was postponed, and now we know who the new cheerleaders are.

This week we are working fast to finish our books by the end of the year. In World History we have taken a test on Chapter 21. In English we are working with noun and adjective clauses. In Home Ec. we are receiving lectures from a book on family relations. The Ag. boys are still working in shop. The Algebra students are probing into the mysteries of the world of mathematics.

Gossip:
Ginger is giving all but one of her dimes away.

Brenda's favorite pastime is writing letters to a certain boy stationed in Louisiana.

Until next week,
Marcia

"BUILDERS OF TOMORROW"

The Algebra I class is working fractional equations although, I would not say they are exactly hard; only four out of thirteen pupils passed a pop test on these problems. The General Science students are studying ways of communication and learning how the different instruments operate. In English we are getting more practice on punctuation; lately, we have been using the dictionary to find certain information. We have begun the study of family relations, and we are now studying ways to improve our habits and personality and prepare for the future.

The sixth period girls are playing basketball now and will begin spring practice as soon as volleyball is over.

Gossip:
P. M. Has a new piece of jewelry; I wonder where she got it?

Have you noticed any beetles in our class?

"TOWARD NEW HORIZONS"

Right now we are in Austin and having a wonderful time. We are learning many new things to bring back to the chapter.

The freshman and sophomores are studying personality and family living. Both groups are acquiring a greater understanding of themselves.

The juniors are studying a unit on baby care. They also plan to start making baby clothes this week.

Until next week,
Becky

"ONWARD FARMERS"

For the last three weeks the Ag. boys have been working in the shop. Most of the boys are making different projects that can be used at home.

A good while ago the chapter drew up some rules for different awards, which the boys in the chapter may try to win. The boy in the chapter who has achieved the most in the award he is trying for is awarded a medal. These awards are not only given in the chapter but also in the local district. The district award program is coming up this week, and the boys who are interested in trying for any award should send in his reports.

The land judging team will go to the state contest on Friday. If they place in the top five, they will go to the national contest held in Oklahoma City. We all wish them the best of luck.

"UPWARD AND ONWARD"

Our class says "thank-you" to the juniors for a marvelous banquet. They spent a lot of time and work on it, but it was well worthwhile because it was such a success.

Congratulations also to the new cheerleaders—you'll love it and I hope you live every moment to the fullest extent.

The senior averages have been completed; Sharon Donham is valedictorian; Harriett Schmitt salutatorian; while Cherry Maples is third honor girl.

Tomorrow is ranch day at Cisco Jr. College and we seniors have been invited. We are looking forward to that.

Our class will sponsor another Southern Assembly program on Tuesday, March 5th at 10:30. These are interesting so I urge students as well as adults to attend; this will feature a comedy program.

This week we have Loretta Pittman and Jimmy Rutledge in "This Is Your Life"—be sure to read all about them.

Gossip:
Roger—I'll buy some razors if you will only shave!

Donna—The time is drawing near—good luck!!!

Larry—Were you really looking up words for your English assignment?

Until next week,
Harriet

P. S. "Oh to be in England now that April's there!" Or is it Gary?

"THIS IS YOUR LIFE"

James Dale Rutledge was born July 2, 1946, in Gorman, Texas, to Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Rutledge; Jimmy has two younger brothers.

All 12 years of school have been attended here at Rising Star. In high school Jimmy has participated in football three years and has lettered each of those years. This year he was chosen captain of the squad. F. F. A. is another interest of Jimmy's; he has been in it three years and has gone to state in land judging once and in poultry twice. He served on the Student Council one year and has been a class officer four years; he has also been in both class plays. This year he was chosen "Most Popular."

Anything that is digestible is Jimmy's favorite food. "Hud" is his favorite movie, and Marlon Brando and Sandra Dee are his favorite movie stars. "Born to Lose" by Ray Charles is his favorite pastime—so is Loretta. What a coincidence? Jimmy's pet peeve is a little brother, who drives his car and gives him trouble.

As to the future, Jimmy's not so sure, but it will probably be college and eventually marriage. Jimmy, we seniors hope your life is happy with great success. Good luck, always.

"THIS IS YOUR LIFE"

Loretta Jean Pittman was born March 9, 1946, in Gorman, Texas, to Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Pittman; Loretta has two brothers—Kenneth and Franz.

Loretta has gone to R. S. H. S. all twelve years. She has been very active in all school activities. She has played basketball and volleyball two years. Loretta has been a Future Home-maker 3 years and has held an office each year. She has also served as class officer 3 years; She has served as librarian for one year and on the annual staff this senior year. As a junior and senior, she served as cheerleader. The football team elected her sweetheart two years; this year she was elected most popular.

Loretta's favorite pastime is talking on the telephone with a certain senior boy. She likes broiled steak to eat. "My Guy" is her favorite song; while "Move Over Darling" is her favorite movie. Kirk Douglas and Sandra Dee are her favorite movie stars. Her pet peeve is a little brother and his undying desire to turn on unwanted porch lights.

After graduation Loretta plans to enter business college in Abilene. After that she plans to marry and be a good wife. Good luck, Loretta, we seniors hope your life is always filled with happiness.

"SPORTS NEWS"

The volleyball girls went to regional where they did very well. The track boys also went to the regional meet, which was held at Stephenville. We want to compliment both teams on a successful season; we are all very proud.

The cheerleaders for next year were elected Tuesday. Congratulations are given to these girls and we want to hear a lot of yelling from them next year.

With only three weeks of school, the P. E. girls will once again be going to the football field. There they will be taking tests for their grades.

That is all for this time. Join us again next week for more.

"BACK FROM NAVY"

Larry Harding has returned to his home after completing two years duty with the United States Navy. Larry will work with his father on the Harding farm this summer and plans to attend college this fall.

It's the Law in Texas

DEMONSTRATIVE EVIDENCE

It is not unusual for lawyers to enter courtroom carrying with them such things as moving-picture apparatus, toy automobiles, dolls, chalk and black boards, and a miscellany of other assorted devices to be used in the course of a trial.

In recent years courts and attorneys have come to realize the great importance of the fact that a jury is apt to better understand what it sees rather than what it may hear. Exhibits often speak louder than words.

Of course, any exhibits introduced must be properly identified by testimony as to the time and place taken, and are admissible only if proved to be relevant to the issues involved.

There are many varieties of visual evidence. Of common use and very important are the exhibits used in cases involving questionable documents such as wills, deeds and important papers that are claimed to be forged, or the authenticity of which is in issue.

Specimens of handwriting or of typewritten individual letter-characters are enlarged many times and shown on graphs and in picture form to prove characteristics, similarities, or differences. Many irregularities not visible to the eye are apparent when the word or particular letter is enlarged and shown graphically. Not many people know that typewritten letters and figures are just as individualistic as if written by hand, and may often be readily identified or distinguished by an expert.

Articles of clothing are frequently introduced in evidence, and, of course, injuries to the body are displayed to the jury to show the extent and nature of the damages sustained. Attorneys may also demonstrate actual facts and circumstances which might otherwise be difficult to understand.

The use of visual or demonstrative evidence is particularly important when combined with medical testimony. X-ray exhibits are a practical necessity in proof of certain types of injuries.

The basic premise of law is that if the exhibit will assist the jury in understanding the testimony of the witness and is not calculated to unfairly influence the jury, the court may permit the use of the exhibit.

(This newsfeature, prepared by the State Bar of Texas, is written to inform — not to advise. No person should ever apply or interpret any law without the aid of an attorney who is fully advised concerning the facts involved, because a slight variance in facts may change the application of the law.)

Bill Lee President Of May FFA Chapter

Bill Lee was chosen president of the May FFA Chapter at a recent election.

The May Rodeo Association, sponsors of the May FFA Rodeo, met April 21 in the school lunchroom to plan this year's event. Twenty two bulls have been donated.

Dates for the rodeo were fixed as May 7, 8, and 9 at the rodeo arena east of town. The FFA will serve refreshments.

same we respectfully request that we be discharged from this term.

When this Grand Jury was convened in early February, we had reason to feel concerned by reason of an article which appeared in the local newspapers on January 17, 1963. We have had occasion to investigate this matter and find that the newspaper article did not give a true picture of the situation, and we feel that the people of this county are entitled to a fair representation of the facts. Not having been advised of the number of cases filed, but only as to those remaining on the docket, we have checked into the matter very thoroughly and beg to report that from January 1, 1958 until today, the following is the record of the docket referred to in said article:

During the period of time from January 1, 1958 until March 28, 1963, 362 cases were placed upon the County Court Docket, and they were disposed of as follows: 224 convictions; 57 cases transferred to District Court; 8 dismissals; 11 cases adopted by the Grand Jury, and 2 cases docketed in error, leaving 70 cases pending. In reviewing the cases still undisposed of in our opinion, a very few of those cases would result in a conviction, if tried. There are a number of reasons why the great majority of the cases remaining on docket cannot be tried. Many involve invalid complaints, some of which are not even signed; many of the cases involve family fights, which were settled between the parties; many involve searches and seizures without a search warrant; in many of the cases no arrests have ever been made for the reason that the defendants have not been located, and many of the cases cannot be tried because of insufficient evidence.

During the period of time covered by our investigation, there has been turned in to the County Treasurer by the District Attorney's Department as fees of office the sum of $105,845.70, and his report for March, 1963, will bring the total to $106,937.20. We deem this a very fine record, and commend the District Attorney for his efforts.

The above report has been unanimously adopted by the Grand Jurors of the February Term of the 91st District Court of Eastland County, Texas. Having completed our deliberations, we respectfully request that we be discharged.

Arthur Deffebach, Foreman
E. F. Harrison, Secretary

Naturally I am grateful for the vote of confidence given my office by such substantial citizens of Eastland County.

If re-elected as County and District Attorney, I promise you a continued fair and impartial enforcement of the law, with the thought in mind that no person is above the law and no person is below the law, and I shall ask permission of no one to enforce it.

I will appreciate your vote on May 2nd.

Sincerely yours,
Earl Conner, Jr.

Continued Vigilance In Screwworm Control Urged By County Chairman

Although the basic objectives of the screwworm campaign in eliminating the worms from over-wintering areas has been achieved, the eradication program is not over, County Chairman Oscar Schaefer pointed out this week.

Mr. Schaefer made public a letter from Marvin J. Bridges, executive director of the Southwest Animal Health Foundation at Mission, Texas, in which Mr. Bridges urged continued scrutiny of all livestock and collection of specimens from wounds for submission to the laboratory for identification.

Following is the letter: It has indeed been a pleasure for me to have worked with you in a most worthwhile undertaking—screwworm eradication—for more than two years. Without your interest and hard work, we would not have been able to accomplish so much in such a short time.

As you already know, early in March the Southwest Animal Health Research Foundation, U. S. Department of Agriculture and Texas Animal Health Commission issued a joint statement that the basic objectives of this program—eliminating screwworms from the overwintering areas and proving the feasibility of the barrier—have been achieved. Since these goals have been accomplished, I am going back to fishing and raising hogs at Buffalo.

I would like to emphasize that while we have achieved our basic objectives, the eradication program is not over. I trust you will continue to ask livestock producers to treat all wounds and collect and submit specimens to the laboratory for identification. These practices remain of primary importance if we hope to get rid of the screwworm fly for all time.

I want you to know how deeply I appreciate everything you have done to make the last two years a pleasant experience. If I can be of assistance to you at any time, please do not hesitate to call on me.

With best personal regards,
Very truly yours,
Marvin J. Bridges
Executive Director

VOLEY

The Rising Star High School Volley Ball team, winner of the district title, was defeated by Rochester in the second round of the regional meet last week at Stephenville. Rochester won the title.

W. W. Ezzell Honored At Abilene Party

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Mitchell, 534 Portland, Abilene, was the scene of a birthday party for a brother of Mrs. Mitchell, W. W. Ezzell of Rising Star, and for two of her sisters, Mrs. F. E. Baker of Abilene and Mrs. B. C. Christman of Baird, all of whose birthdays occur in April.

Following dinner, a few hours were spent recalling happy memories of the past, when they attended school in the Sabanno community of Eastland County and Atwell of Callahan.

Their parents were Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Ezzell, who were married at Comanche, Tex., in 1879. Following their marriage, they settled in the Sabanno community, where they lived for a number of years before moving to Atwell in 1903.

Other sisters and a brother not present were Elbert A. Ezzell and Mrs. T. E. Owens of Cisco, and Mrs. J. T. Maddux of Fort Worth.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Doyle returned on Monday from Goldthwaite and from Lampasas where they went for a check-up. They returned by bus.

Mrs. Weldon Hill and Mrs. Eddie Joe Henry made a trip to Abilene Friday. Mrs. Lee Clark kept the Henry boys while their mother was away.

J. W. Kornegay Accepts Call To Bryan Church

J. W. Kornegay, the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Kornegay of Rising Star, has accepted a call to be minister of education of the First Baptist Church of Bryan, Texas, and he and his family are now established in their new post.

Mr. Kornegay, a graduate of Rising Star High School with degrees from Hardin-Simmons University at Abilene and from Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary, Fort Worth, went to Bryan from Brookside Baptist Church at Tulsa, Okla., where he served as minister of education for six years.

The Baptist Messenger devoted almost a page of one of its March issues to the work of Mr. Kornegay and his wife at Tulsa, his accomplishments there in helping to revive and build the church and the regret with which the membership gave him up.

The Bryan church welcomed him with enthusiasm in its publication of April 2.

Mr. Kornegay served in the Korean conflict. His wife, Mary Anne, whom he married after his release from the army, also attended Hardin-Simmons. She is primarily interested in Beginners Sunday School work. They have two sons, Gene and Dean, ages 11 and 8.

Mr. Kornegay served as minister of education at Eastland Street and Richland Hills Baptist churches in Fort Worth before going to Tulsa. While in Oklahoma, he served the Tulsa Baptist Association as Training Union director for two years; Sunday School superintendent for three years, and president of the Baptist Religious Association for two consecutive years.

ROGER Q. EVANS EXPRESSES APPRECIATION

To the Voters in EASTLAND COUNTY

I regret I was unable to meet face to face all voters in the district but the 5-county area population made this impossible.

Prior to your vote, Saturday, May 2, I wish to express my sincere appreciation to you for your consideration for me as one of your candidates for State Representative.

In this campaign, in which I felt you should know my views on many basic subjects dealing with the problems of human beings. I have tried to be frank in expressing my views.

I well know our views may differ on issues but you had a right as a voter to know mine. You at the same time had a just right to to have known my opponent, Mr. Gibbens' views. So far, I have not seen a single Legislative statement he has made on any phase of Legislation. This leaves him a clear cut mandate to do as he pleases on all legislative issues if electd. I do not believe in giving a blank check to any body.

As the peoples' candidate, I WILL give you, the people of the district, (I pledge) my full time to the job, and will be in your area monthly to learn more about your problems.

I urge you, from this county, to give me your vote on May 2, and I shall through hard work prove to you my appreciation for your consideration.

Yours for a big majority of votes . . .

ROGER Q. EVANS
BAIRD, TEXAS

TO OUR FRIENDS AND NEIGHBORS In The 63rd District House Of Representatives:

Wayne Gibbens

We Appreciate . . .

... the fine support and help you, our neighbors, have given WAYNE GIBBENS in electing him to the House of Representatives, District 63.

We also appreciate WAYNE GIBBENS. He has represented our district honorably and well. He has earned the respect of all who have worked with him. He has worked with and for the people of Callahan, Eastland, Palo Pinto, Shackelford and Stephens Counties. His dedication to purpose and principal is well-recognized by the people of this district.

We Need . . .

... only for you, the voters of District 63, to look carefully at the records and backgrounds of the candidates for this office. You will find that WAYNE GIBBENS has conducted this campaign on the same high plane that marks his conduct as a man and legislator. You will find that he stands head and shoulders above his opposition.

We realize, as you do, that no legislator can please everyone with every vote. An opponent can always find something to criticize. But Wayne's opponent has been hard put to find a valid issue, because it simply is not there. We like the independent and constructive manner in which WAYNE GIBBENS has voted his convictions.

We Recommend . . .

... and urge you to vote for WAYNE GIBBENS in the Democratic Primary Saturday. You will always be proud that you did.

We say this with confidence because we know WAYNE GIBBENS — know him as a conscientious legislator, a sound thinker, a man with great capacity for friendship and loyalty, and a real Christian gentleman.

We know he will continue to serve you effectively and honestly. He is indeed A YOUNG MAN WITH A FUTURE — and we of District 63 are fortunate to have a part in that future.

Special Feature Due Countians In Entertainment

Eastland Countians are due a good "product" this summer in the way of entertainment, and are probably due an exhibit of a special presentation called "From Footlights to Film".
That's the word announced at the three-day convention of Interstate - Texas Consolidated Theaters in Dallas this weekend.

To the theaterman a good "product" means good motion pictures. According to those announced for showing at the Majestic Theater this summer, the "goodies" include new Walt Disney epics as well as high scorers in the academy awards sweepstakes, although big winner "Tom Jones" likely won't make it to this county.

The special exhibit is a series of ten 4x6-foot panels of pictures on the general theme "From Vaudeville to Film". These are on display during the convention when the assembled amusements editors and writers from Texas cities served by Interstate-Texas Consolidated were saluted by the theater men.

The pictures in the exhibit are from the Hoblitzelle Theater Arts Library at the University of Texas and trace the development of entertainment from the earliest days of vaudeville through the silent film era and the talkies to the present day spectaculars presented in wide screen from 70mm negatives.

The library was established in 1954 by the Hoblitzelle Foundation, of which Karl Hoblitzelle is president as well as chief executive of Interstate-Texas Consolidated. Included are American and English theatrical memorabilia rich in photographs, books, music, manuscripts, letters, design drawings, models and the like dating back as far as 1750.
Majestic Theater Manager Dick Dixon and Editor H. V. O'Brien, Jr., of the Eastland Telegram represented Eastland County at the meet, and had occasion to visit with former resident managers Bill Samuels, now of Denison, and Aubrey Van Hoy, now of Corsicana.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Doyle, accompanied by Mrs. Doss Alexander, attended funeral services for a great-granddaughter of the Doyles at Goldthwaite Friday.

Seven District Newspapers Give Gibbens Support

State representative Wayne Gibbens of Breckenridge, who is seeking re-election to the Texas House from District 63 has received the editorial endorsement of seven district newspapers. Boosting Gibbens' re-election bid are the Breckenridge American, Eastland Telegram, Mineral Wells Index, Cisco Press Palo Pinto Star, Ranger Times and the Rising Star Record.

"A young man going places," is the term used by the Eastland paper to describe Gibbens. They also cite that he has twice been selected to represent the state at national conferences.

The Cisco Press quoted Governor John Connally's statement that "Wayne Gibbens is an outstanding young man and an intelligent, efficient legislator. The people of his district are indeed fortunate to have his capable representation."

"One of the real leaders in Texas House of Representatives," says the Mineral Wells Index.

"The vigor and energy of a young man with the mature judgement gained through legislative experience," is a qualification cited by several of the endorsing newspapers.

Rising Star quotes two neighboring representatives, "Wayne is an industrious, progressive, and capable member . . . one of the most valuable members of the house. He is a young man dedicated to the principle of responsible government and completely devoted to his duties as a representative."

The Ranger Times states, Gibbens has served on revenue and taxation, oil and gas, agriculture, and contingent expense. In addition, he is a member of three other study groups, including a legislative internship program that has won recognition sufficient to be financed by the Ford Foundation.

Speaker of the House Byron Tunnell says, "Wayne's dedication to purpose and principle very definitely mark him as a young man with a promising future in the service of his state."

Gibbens serves as chairman of two legislative committees and is a member of five other which include the critically important Congressional Redistricting Committee.

Gibbens is seeking his second term from District 63 which is composed of Callahan, Eastland, Palo Pinto, Shackelford and Stephens Counties.

When buying fresh mushrooms at the market, choose those that are clean and white to creamy white in color.

The caps of the mushrooms should be closed or partially opened, not fully opened. The gills (the fluted formation between the cap and stem) should be light in color, not brown or black.

One pound of fresh mushrooms, cooked and drained, is equivalent to three 4ounce cans of drained mushrooms.

When buying flower seeds, look for new varieties listed as F1 hybrids. These are among your best buys. Seeds from these hybrids cost more than seed of the usual open-pollinated varieties. For superior hybrids the money is well spent. F1 hybrids are produced by crossing selected inbred parents. Plants of F1 varieties are usually more uniform in size and more vigorous than the plants they come from. Good hybrids also produce more or better flowers, sometimes both.

You can't, however, save seeds from an F1 hybrid. The second generation reverts to various combinations of characteristics possessed by the original parents.

MEMO

To Our Friends and Neighbors

FROM:

Tarrant County Friends of Jim Langdon

We are working to keep Jim C. Langdon as Railroad Commissioner, for several reasons. These reasons include:

1. Jim Langdon has the ability, training and integrity necessary in this unusually important office. He is a distinguished lawyer who was serving as Chief Justice of the El Paso Court of Civil Appeals when Governor Connally appointed him as Railroad Commissioner.
2. Jim Langdon, in a year's time, has proved himself to be a really outstanding member of the state agency that regulates oil and gas production, truck and railroad rates, and other vital industries.
3. Jim Langdon is well known to us, either personally or as the brother of Jack Langdon of Fort Worth, Associate Justice of the Second Court of Civil Appeals which serves Cooke, Denton, Montague, Clay, Parker, Tarrant, Wichita, Wise, Archer, Jack, Young and Hood Counties. Jim himself was born in Erath County and has lived in Somervell and Johnson Counties.

We urge you to join us in supporting Jim Langdon and voting for him in the Democratic Primary, May 2.
