

Negro Rights Plunged Into New Labor Bill

Unions May Be Required To Treat Equal
WASHINGTON, Feb. 24. (AP)—The question of rights for Negroes was thrust today into the steaming Senate battle over a new labor bill.

Senators of both parties were giving serious consideration to a suggestion that any new labor law enacted by Congress should require unions to treat white and Negro workers alike.

The issue cropped up unexpectedly late yesterday as the Senate Labor Committee finally ended three and a half weeks of hearings marked by hot tempers, howls of laughter, and torrential speeches.

The proposal to ban racial discrimination by unions brought this reaction: "I'm for it," Sen. Humphrey (D-Minn.) told reporters. "I hope it goes in."

"I think," said Sen. Taft (R-Ohio), "that we'd have to do something about that if we should abandon the Taft-Hartley prohibition on the closed shop. I want to study the matter."

Sen. Morse (R-Ore.), who stands somewhere between Taft and Humphrey on labor legislation, said: "I will give the proposal very careful consideration."

Adjournment of the hearings ended the first big skirmish in the congressional battle over what to do about the Taft-Hartley Act.

President Truman and his supporters in Congress are backing a bill to repeal it and substitute the original Wagner Act with some additions.

Yesterday William Leiserson, widely known as a labor-management arbitrator and former member of the National Labor Relations Board, threw his weight behind that bill.

Pearson, Peron Put On Nobel Prize List

WASHINGTON, Feb. 24. (AP)—President Truman said today the reaction to his use of the term "S.O.B." in lambasting critics was very satisfactory to him.

The President laughed when reporters during questioning about the salty language he used in a speech Tuesday night at a dinner honoring Major General Harry H. Vaughan, his military aide.

Mr. Truman said then he wasn't going to let any "s.o.b." tell him what government officials he should fire or hire. He spoke in defense of Vaughan, who had been criticized by Radio Commentator Drew Pearson for accepting a decoration from the Argentine government.

A reporter wanted to know today what reaction he had received to the talk. Without amplifying, Mr. Truman replied the reaction was very satisfactory to him.

At one point during the news conference, Mr. Truman suggested that maybe President Peron of Argentina and Pearson may have nominated themselves for the 1949 Nobel Peace prize.

This came about when one newsman asked if either Peron or Pearson had been nominated for the prize by the government.

Mr. Truman said flatly they were not. Then he added, probably they were nominated by themselves.

Peron and Pearson are among 23 individuals and institutions proposed for the award in a list announced by the Nobel committee of the Norwegian parliament at Oslo.

Before the conference, a reporter handed the President a copy of page one of today's Washington Daily News devoted to a cartoon showing a man biting a dog. The caption in big type was "news!"

Mr. Truman commented that it was a good strong bite.

BRICKER SPARKS FIGHT
WASHINGTON, Feb. 24. (AP)—A multi-billion dollar long range federal housing bill today was placed before the Senate Banking Committee where it may become involved in a new battle over civil rights.

A proposed amendment by Sen. Bricker (R-Ohio) to the public housing section of the measure would spark the fight. The amendment would require that there be no racial discrimination or segregation in public housing projects.

Chairman Sparkman (D-Ala.) of the banking subcommittee which yesterday approved the new housing measure has said that adoption whole bill.

Demos Split Over Morrow

AUSTIN, Feb. 24. (AP)—Democratic leadership in Texas is still split wide open by the issue of who should be national Democratic committeeman.

The split appeared almost even yesterday with the liberals holding a slight edge on the basis of a 30-to-25 vote by which the State Democratic Executive Committee voted to express its "adverse feeling toward Wright Morrow."

Morrow, a Houston attorney and oilman, is the present national committeeman recognized by the National Democratic Committee.

Following the mandate of the state Democratic convention held at Fort Worth last fall, the state executive committee seeks to replace Morrow with Byron Skelton of Temple. Skelton was floor-leader of the pro-Truman forces at the state convention.

The committee authorized Chairman John C. Calhoun of Corsicana to name a three-man body to take any action necessary to gain recognition of Skelton by the national committee as the Texas representative.

Charges of party disloyalty were renewed against Morrow. Gilbert Adams of Beaumont accused Morrow of refusing to take the pledge at a Houston precinct meeting last summer to support the national nominees of the Democratic Party.

He said Morrow plotted with the Dixiecrats to gain control of the Fort Worth state convention, and that Morrow was affiliated with the Texas regulars in 1944.

Backers of Morrow urged that the intra-party strife cease in order to assure united action in the 1950 and 1952 elections.

Rain Drenches Part Of County

The eastern portion of Howard county was drenched by a rain Tuesday evening, according to reports which reached The Herald this morning.

Areas south of Coahoma received up to half an inch of moisture while the fall was much heavier north of that town. C. H. Devaney reported his land caught about one inch. The Thad Hale place was visited by a downpour estimated at 1.6 inches. W. H. Little's farm caught what the owner thought to be 1.25 inches.

There were showers reported in the Vealmoor and Luther areas and Vincent reportedly got from one-half to an inch. Frank Lovelace said he got something like 1.5 inches of rain.

The rain trailed off west of Coahoma and had stopped almost completely by the time it got to Cosden refinery. Midway school had about a quarter inch shower.

Bulgaria Says Vatican Trying To Foment War

COUNTRY SEEKING TO MAKE ONLY ONE CHURCH
SOFIA, Feb. 24. (AP)—Foreign Minister Vassil Kolarov told the Bulgarian parliament last night that the Vatican is linked with "dark forces" attempting to stir up a new world war.

He made his charges as the Communist controlled legislative body considered new restrictions on religion.

The proposed new religion law came up as the hour of trial approached for 15 Protestant clergymen accused of criminal activities against the state.

The 15 include the heads of the Methodist, Baptist, Congregational and Pentecost churches in Bulgaria. They go into court tomorrow, charged with treason, spying for the United States and Great Britain and illegal money dealings.

The Kolarov-sponsored religion bill would make the Greek Orthodox Church the "only people's church" in the country. It would give the foreign ministry tight control over connections between church groups in the country and groups outside Bulgaria.

Kolarov asserted that the Vatican "does not conceal its aims. It is the unreconcilable enemy of the Soviet Union people's democracies and Communism. It is altogether in the service of dark forces which today are attempting to fan up a new world war."

Kolarov indicated the Vatican's apostolic delegation in Bulgaria had been ordered out of the country. He said it is superfluous, since the new constitution guarantees freedom to all religions.

The apostolic mission, he said, can be considered "completely through." This ends, he added, a "humiliating episode" for Bulgaria.

Kolarov told parliament that churchmen in Bulgaria must be ruled by the nation's laws and the existing social order.

(Pope Pius XII told an extraordinary consistory in Rome Feb. 14 that Roman Catholic clergy and members of the faith are bound by conscience to resist "unjust laws" when such laws contradict divine and human rights.)

Kolarov declared that Catholic bishops now are required to report to the Vatican regularly on economic and political information in their areas. He said his proposed law would prevent Catholic clergy in Bulgaria from being "turned into agents" and relaying "state secrets" to a "foreign political headquarters."

Man Is Arrested On Theft Charge

Claude Birnbaum, 36, was lodged in the county jail this morning on a charge of burglary. He was picked up earlier in the week by city police.

A suitcase full of goods, allegedly taken by the transient from the home of J. A. Horton, was recovered. Included in the loot were a string of pearls, a coat, key, overalls, radio, suitcase, pants, shoes, tie, woollen cap and two shirts.

Birnbaum was rounded up while under a local viaduct.

Sally Tells Of Love For Nazi Propaganda

WASHINGTON, Feb. 24. (AP)—"Axis Sally" tearfully told in her treason trial today of her love for a Nazi propagandist.

Mildred E. Gillars, 48, who broadcast the "Axis Sally" programs for the Nazis during the war, described Max Otto Kolschitz as "my destiny." He, it developed, was a one-time teacher in Hunter College, New York, who was in charge of the American phase of Nazi radio propaganda.

Government prosecutors objected to what they called "the story of Professor Kolschitz's life" but Judge Edward M. Curran allowed her to go on.

James J. Laughlin, attorney for Miss Gillars, argued that she should be allowed to tell in detail about the professor. Laughlin told he had told the jury in his opening statement that Kolschitz.

Jewish State Gets Most Of Negev Desert

Hail Armistice As Signal For Long Peace
RHODES, Feb. 24. (AP)—Egypt signed a general armistice with Israel today and the other Arab states line up to do likewise.

By agreeing to the armistice, Egypt took the lead among the states of the Arab league in accepting the dynamic Jewish state in their midst, which they vowed to destroy last May. The pre-arranged specifically declares the agreement is a step to permanent peace in Palestine.

Pending a permanent settlement, board demilitarized zones are created by which Egypt surrenders all Palestine except Gaza and a narrow coastal strip of about five miles width. She even withdraws to a defensive line 17 to 30 miles inside her own frontier.

Israel is left in possession of nearly all the Negev, including disputed Beersheba for the time being. She has ambitious colonization schemes in the desert area.

Still to be settled are the fate of the southern tip of the Negev desert from Beersheba southward to the Red Sea, the central area of Palestine held by the Arab legion and Iraqis and the old part of Jerusalem.

These territorial questions will be determined largely by armistice negotiations with Trans-Jordan beginning here Monday.

The Egyptian agreement specifically states that territorial questions are subject to the final peace settlement.

Significantly, Egypt concedes that insistence upon the Jews returning to their Oct. 14 lines would not serve the "basic purposes and spirit" of the armistice. These were the lines which Israel launched her two offensives in October and December and won the Negev. She never returned to the old lines, even though the U. N. Security council twice ordered her to do so.

The formal signing was at 10:30 a.m. in the yellow room of the Hotel Des Rhodes where Dr. Ralph Bunche, acting U. N. mediator, made his headquarters during 48 days of difficult negotiations.

The ceremony was the first open meeting since negotiations began here Jan. 13 to end the nine-month intermittent war.

Photographers were allowed to take pictures during the signing and reporters were admitted to the proceedings.

Col. Mohamed Ibrahim Seif Ed-din and Col. Rahmani signed for Egypt. For Israel the signers were Dr. Walter Eytan and Elias Sassoon of the foreign office and Col. Yigal Yadin, chief of staff.

While cameras whirled the delegates signed their names 24 times on five imitation leather bound copies of the agreement. There was a throng of witnesses in the gaudy saloon decorated by a huge mural depicting Eve tempting Adam.

Seated at the head of a square table was Bunche who presided and opened the ceremonies by thanking the delegates for their tireless efforts.

DEATHLESS DAYS 441 In Big Spring Traffic

Construction would be at the rate of 135,000 units annually, but the President could either increase the annual rate to 250,000, or decrease it to 50,000.

The $10,000 maximum is a compromise between the 1,050,000 unit seven year program originally sought by Sparkman, and the 600,000 unit six-year program sponsored by a Republican bloc including Sen. Taft (Ohio).

Federal contributions during the first five years would be progressively increased to a maximum amount of $308 million. It would remain at that figure for the succeeding 35 years.

Texans Advocating Two Cotton Prices

WASHINGTON, Feb. 24. (AP) — A group of Texans are in Washington advocating a two-price system for cotton.

A leading advocate of the plan was J. E. McDonald, Texas agriculture commissioner. Under the plan American cotton growers would be guaranteed a fixed price for the part of their crop sold at home. That sold abroad would be sold on the world market. The government would set up domestic growth allotments. Farmers would be allowed to grow as much as they desired for the world market.

Truman Will Address Two Groups Today

WASHINGTON, Feb. 24. (AP) — President Truman tonight is scheduled to address two Jefferson-Jackson day victory dinners. He is expected to get in a plug for his domestic program.

The President last night addressed another dinner, launching the new $1,040,000,000 savings bond drive set for May 15-June 30. He told campaign workers that as long as their kind exists "we are good for 1,000 years."

Tonight he will dine at the Mayflower Hotel and make a brief informal talk at a dinner presided over by Rep. McCormack of Massachusetts, House floor leader. The talk will be televised and broadcast.

Later the President will go to the Statler Hotel for a formal address at 9:30 o'clock. Sen. Lucas of Illinois, Senate floor leader, will be toastmaster there.

The dinners are held primarily to celebrate the Democratic November election victory. Secretary of the Treasury Snyder announced the bond quota, the first to be set for a postwar bond campaign, at last night's dinner attended by approximately 150 leaders in the fields of finance, industry, agriculture, labor, education and newspaper publishing. Snyder said the seven-week drive will be the "most all-embracing enterprise of its kind ever attempted in this country during peace-time."

Hand Bookbinder Says Trade Is Almost Thing Of The Past

NEW YORK, Feb. 24. (AP) — Bookbinder Gaston Pilon believes the age-old art of handbound, gilded bookbinding is dying.

In fact, Pilon, a 71-year-old, Paris-born artisan, says he knows of none other than himself, in the United States or Europe, who still binds fine books by hand. He does it by special order.

Books hand bound by Pilon are in the libraries of King George of England, Albert, King of the Belgians, the late President Franklin D. Roosevelt, President Harry S. Truman, Winston Churchill and Marshal Sir Bernard L. Montgomery, several distinguished writers and other important people. The works include manuscripts and fine and rare books.

Among Pilon's own prized possessions is a letter Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower sent him after he had had hand bound 35 special, goatskin leather-covered volumes of "Crusade in Europe."

Pilon still has a broad French accent. He works with more than 4,000 engraver tools, makes most of his own designs. The craftsman shows his regret that apparently no American wants to carry on his intricate skill. He conducted a school in gold-tooling and binding. Only the rich attended this school—as a hobby they later dropped, though Pilon's rates were nominal. Seven times he tried to train apprentices. "They queue too," he said. There was not enough money in the art.

Mexico Studies Using Railways To Carry Ships

By The Associated Press
The Mexican government has conducted extensive studies of a proposal to build a ten-track railroad to carry ships across the Isthmus of Tehuantepec.

Modesto C. Rolland, director of free ports of Mexico, recently described the project to American maritime and engineering experts in a talk at the Commerce Department in Washington.

The Mexican government has not yet authorized construction. But Rolland says it is being seriously considered. Foreign capital, he said, would be needed.

Mexican engineers have estimated the cost at several hundred million dollars. If a canal were dug in the same area, the narrowest part of Mexico, at the southern extremity of the country, it would cost several billions.

Ships up to 35,000 tons would be floated from a lock into a rectangular basin on wheels. This basin would proceed across the isthmus under its own power. It would be jointed—built in sections connected with flexible material—so that it could move on slightly curved tracks.

The apparatus has been dubbed a "becavia," meaning "ten-track". United States engineers have made cursory studies of such a project for this government. They rejected it before going into the matter exhaustively because they considered it impracticable. The enormous weights, pressures and tensions involved would be unprecedented, they said, concluding that the success of such a project was inconceivable.

Fire Prevention Has Paid Off Here

ELLSWORTH, Mich. Feb. 24. (AP) — Because old Peter Wieland believes in getting in the first punch, the village of Ellsworth hasn't had a fire in nearly three years.

Wieland, the 74-year-old fire chief of this tiny northwestern Michigan community, explains it this way: "Fighting fires is like boxing—the fellow that gets in the first hard punch usually wins. A small fire is easier to put out than a big one, and preventing one is easiest of all. That's what we've been trying to do in Ellsworth—prevent fires."

Although Chief Wieland's aim is by no means unique, people of the village of Ellsworth proudly think his record is.

The last time this community of 550 population had a fire was May 9, 1946. That was 33 months ago. The village credits Wieland's hard work, caution, and planning.

The fire department carefully burns grass in all vacant lots each spring to prevent damaging grass fires. To eliminate possible fire sources in homes or office buildings, the whole town enthusiastically pitches in with fire inspections; and then, if hazards are found, Wieland sees that the owners do something about them. As a guard against the day when their record inevitably ends, Wieland and his crew keep their fire-fighting equipment in top shape.

Hungary Indicts More Clerics

BUDEPEST, Hungary, Feb. 24 (AP)—Fourteen alleged accomplices of Josef Cardinal Mindszenty charged with speculation in foreign currency will go on trial before a "workers court" Monday.

The Hungarian government yesterday indicted three priests, 10 bankers and brokers and Dr. Gabor Horvath, secretary of Duke Paul Esterhazy, convicted at the same time as the Catholic prelate.

The indictment, released today, charged the cardinal's treasurer, Monsignor Imre Boka, "speculated illegally" and "smuggled out without the permission of Hungary's national bank" various amounts of dollars.

The indictment also alleged a "secret system between different convents, including the American and Hungarian 'Sacred Heart' helped in the black market currency dealings.

The government charged that "these crimes are in organic connection with the significant political conspiracy, the defendants of which were sentenced recently by the people's court."

It said further that "according to investigation, it is true that high ranking clerical persons of Hungary ignored the regulations of this country."

The workers court of justice, which will hear the case of the 14 defendants, is a postwar judicial institution. It handles cases of illegal foreign currency dealings and transactions alleged to constitute usury. The president is a judge, the members are four manual workers appointed by the minister of justice.

Home Service Key Function In Red Cross Work

(Editors note—This is the second of a series of articles explaining the purpose, policies and opportunities of Red Cross.)

Much stress is placed by the American Red Cross, and of consequence by the Howard-Glasscock chapter, on home service.

As was explained in a previous article, national policy ranks aid to veterans and dependents at the top of the list in chapter activity. Certain minimums are laid down and chapters are encouraged to go as far beyond as financial resources will permit.

A man enters service. His wife and children are left without means of support until their initial allotment check is received. Red Cross steps in. Perhaps a veteran files a claim for pension, disability pay, medical attention, survivor funds, insurance, etc. If he is without means, he is encouraged to apply to Red Cross for aid pending adjudication of his application by the Veterans Administration.

Some of these accounts are serviced as loans for very obvious reasons. The government and chapter officials alike, recognizing responsibility to those who give to Red Cross, have found that it is logical to put interim aid on a loan basis except in hardship cases. Otherwise the privilege might invite abuse. Meantime, loan, repayment is left largely up to the recipient. Practically, bulk of loans are in reality grants.

For servicemen, another Red Cross responsibility is to investigate and file requests for emergency furloughs or leave; and to make funds available to the serviceman in such instances as they are needed.

Death claims, and interim aid, are handled also. One case on file required 19 months. The applicant did not require aid, but had she, it would have been the chapter's responsibility.

Files are riddled with cases where Red Cross works with families in seeking to get AWOL subjects to report to duty before severe penalties have to be imposed. The military also constantly calls on the chapter to investigate appeals for discharges and special consideration for hardship cases; to check backgrounds, case histories, etc.

In some instances, former servicemen fail to appreciate that in their civilian status their appeals for aid, when not connected with service problems, must be evaluated on a civilian basis. Some applicants do not always understand that the policy of basic maintenance is to safeguard the health and well-being of applicants and cannot well go beyond that for lack of funds.

Since the end of the war, hasn't the man in service disappeared as a Red Cross major situation? Hardly. In the peak of the war, 2,900 men in the county were in service. During the past three years 1,500 have been recruited here. These, plus re-enlistments become the responsibility of the Howard-Glasscock chapter.

Today's Russian Is New Type Man

MOSCOW—Feb. 24 (AP)—The traditionally sad, tea-drinking, Russian—of Dostoevsky, Chekov and others—has disappeared from Soviet writing and drama.

Today's typical Russian is an entirely different fellow. He is optimistic, cheerful, hard-working and confident about his future.

He drinks his tea, but he doesn't dream over it. He's never a mystic, but a realist. And he doesn't wear a beard.

The Soviet woman of 1949 has a somewhat longer dress than she did at this time last year, but her skirts are certainly nothing like the models of Paris and Fifth Avenue. On cold, windy days many Moscow women still prefer a shawl around the head to a hat, but hats are more in evidence than ever before.

One of the greatest departures from the Russian of earlier years is the swing away from mysticism, melancholia and thinking, thinking, thinking—and talking, talking, talking.

Today's Soviet people—on the stage and off—don't spend much time with Gypsy songs and moaning about "Dark Eyes", "Two Guitars" and "Farewell Dinners". Today's youth sing about the better life, the work in the factory and in the field, their clubs, the five year plan, the industrious village, the homeland.

Male heroes in the movies and on the stage and in books are often engineers, doctors, scientists, factory workers, directors of plants, soldiers and officers and young Communists. The same thing applies to the heroines, with a sprinkling of mothers, trade unionists, office workers and up and coming girls on collective farms.

Guards Watch British Foods

LIVERPOOL, England—Feb. 24 (AP)—The line of trucks rumbled along the five miles from dock to storehouse.

Trailing each was a sedan with two men inside watching, alert, part of a squad sent to the dock-side.

They didn't let the truck out of their sight. Detectives guarding a load of gold?

No, just ministry of food officials watching 100,000 cases of Russian tinned salmon, just off a ship, to see that black-market hijackers didn't get them.

British Building Due For Prosperity

LONDON, Feb. 24 (AP)—Britain's building industry will have work to do for 50 years to come.

R. Furneaux Jordan, principal of the school of architecture of the architectural association, says at least 95 percent of the nation's hospitals, theaters, hotels and railway stations will need rebuilding when housing and factories no longer can claim priority.

"The actual building program of the next half century must be enormous, comparable to that of the 19th Century," he says.

India Trading Tea, Jute For Wheat

NEW DELHI—Feb. 24 (AP)—India is trading tea and jute for badly needed wheat.

A food ministry spokesman says India is negotiating with Russia for 100,000 tons of wheat, for which it would give 10,000 tons of tea. Last year India and Russia agreed to exchange 50,000 tons of wheat for 5,000 tons of tea.

India hopes to get 700,000 tons of wheat from Australia in exchange for jute and cash.

Newest Water Development No Cause For Changing Tactics

News that the Midland city council has gone on record as "not favoring" the Colorado River Municipal Water association proposal to impound a lake on the upper Colorado river to serve Big Spring, Midland and Odessa with water has stirred much speculation over the status of the project.

Midland's situation is simply this: Development of additional well supplies last summer has increased the present outlook to the point where that municipality does not foresee any immediate water problem. Although the water is considerably harder than would be the case with surface supplies, it is in such proximity that Midland is able to produce and distribute it at a rate substantially below the average for this area of West Texas. To participate actively, the councilmen felt, would be to acquiesce in higher rates and at the same time assume additional financial responsibilities. Whether this is a wise long-range decision rests with Midland, and criticism of that city's council would be ill-advised.

The action most certainly calls for a re-evaluation of the program, a matter which should be made secondary to the prosecution of legislation to create the Colorado River Municipal Water district. This is imperative, regardless of subsequent developments. Should Big Spring and Odessa, or even Big Spring, choose to attack the problem alone, the effort might be rendered impotent in the absence of valid legal framework.

The most prudent course at the moment appears to be in the direction of legalizing a district. When that is done, cities still interested can put their best minds together as often and as long as it takes to reach a decision. If the outlook seems feasible then, the people can have their say.

Proposal Shapes Way To Dull Club In Hand Of Crusaders

The legislative panel of the state democratic executive committee has urged repeal of the poll tax as a voting requirement in Texas.

There are some ins-and-outs to be threshed out, among them a proposal that the issue be submitted to the people.

Should the poll tax be abolished, measures to replace it with registration laws would be proposed.

For quite a long time we have felt that ultimately Texas should take this step. Some revenue will be lost in the process, but in the aggregate, it will be infinitesimal. The poll tax was never a heavy revenue bearer. Voters need not be denied, for registration will, in all probability, require payment of some fee. That is the history in most states. As a practical matter, it has been a long, long time since the poll tax constituted an obstacle to vote qualification in Texas. The $1.75 was so nominal that, except in the rarest cases, even the humblest citizen could somehow scrape up that much.

But the name of poll tax has become anathema to many of ivory-tower do-gooders far removed from the target for their crusadings. The poll tax has been a favorite battle flag, although it was practically meaningless except for catch-phrases and slogans.

There are but few states which still employ the poll tax, and what they do with it properly is their business. In Texas, the difference between poll tax and registration is so negligible that it may be a tactical maneuver to accept the latter and remove a demagogic club from the hands of those who use it.

Norway's Decision On Pact Carries Great Moral Lesson

An AP Newfeature.

NORWAY'S DECISION TO PIN HER security to the projected North Atlantic Alliance carries a great moral.

The moral is the old adage that in unity lies strength, and that for lack of unity our "united" nations would now be providing global security.

Because of the tragic circumstance that humanity is sharply divided into bitterly hostile ideologies, the world seeks security in the formation of powerful alliances. These alliances depend on their military strength to keep the other fellow quiet. Vast standing power is the order of the day.

NORWEGIAN FOREIGN MINISTER Lange, in announcing his government's decision (still to be ratified by parliament), made an interesting disclosure. He said he presented to Washington the Swedish idea of a Scandinavian Defense Union (Sweden, Norway, and Denmark), based on neutrality and backed mainly by Sweden's arms.

Lange says he got turned down for two reasons. First, the defensive strength of such a union wouldn't be great enough to prevent aggression. Second, supplies of arms and other materiel are so short that the best possible use must be made of them. Washington felt that the proposed Scandinavian union was too small and isolated.

The foreign minister reports that these answers made Norway realize she couldn't isolate herself. Thus we find her preparing to join in a pact which would bring together at least America, Canada, Britain, France, Belgium, Holland, and Luxembourg, and perhaps other countries.

THE BASIC IDEA OF SUCH AN ALLIANCE is to create enough strength so that no aggressive-minded nation or group of nations would dare attack. In other words the hope is that the alliance never will be compelled to use its strength to defend itself.

In that sense the North Atlantic agreement would be serving the purpose for which the United Nations—and before that the League of Nations—was established.

It's a poor substitute for an all-right United Nations—but half a UN is better than none. For the present we shall have to follow the advice of President Theodore Roosevelt:

"Speak softly and carry a big stick."

German 'Whispered Jokes' Attack Occupation Powers

BERLIN—More than one hundred miles behind the iron curtain, but protected by western occupying powers, survives a lively anti-Communist press which enjoys printing political jokes about the Russians and their satellites.

They call them "fluesterwitz" (whispered jokes)—whispered because of police state fears.

These newspapers also make jokes about the western powers but nobody seems to mind them. In fact, frequently Americans here go around repeating witty cracks made about them by German cafe entertainers.

The weekly "Berliner Post" recently printed a collection of "fluesterwitz". Some samples:

From Yugoslavia: Marshal Tito and his right hand man, Kardelj, were on an inspection flight. As their plane soared over Belgrade Tito looked out and remarked: "Wish I had a box of candies now. I'd toss them out and would certainly spread joy among those playing children." Kardelj's glance rested upon a group of young ladies down below. He yearned: "Wish I had a box of nylon stockings. If I tossed those down I'd certainly make the girls happy." But the pilot muttered to himself: "Jove, if I could just throw these two fellows out I'd make the entire Yugoslav people happy."

From Romania: Communist Foreign Minister Anna Pauker went out strolling on Bucharest's streets on a beautiful, sunny Sunday. To the amazement of passers-by she opened a rain umbrella. One dared to ask her why. "Party-line," Anna replied. "It's raining in Moscow."

One tale purports to relate an incident which occurred during a meeting of the big four foreign ministers in Moscow.

Britain's Ernest Bevin pulled out a cigarette case and offered smokes to America's George C. Marshall and Russia's V. M. Molotov. It was a beautiful case bearing an inscription identifying it as a gift to Bevin from Britain's Prime Minister Clement Attlee.

A little later Marshall produced a case which bore the inscription: "To my dear Secretary of State Marshall, in recognition of valuable service. Truman." It also was a beautiful and valuable case.

Some time later Molotov pulled out his cigarette case and passed out smokes. This case glistened with inset diamonds and other jewels. His colleagues read the inscription: "To my dear Prince Schwarzenberg, Emperor Franz Josef."

Another story says the Germans in the Russian zone like to ask each other how the occupying powers are supplying their occupation territories. The answer is: "The American and British western zones are supplied by sea, Berlin is supplied by the airlift and the eastern (Russian) zone by peddle (propaganda).

Irish Minister Mincees No Words Why Ireland Won't Join Atlantic Pact

By DREW PEARSON

WASHINGTON—All the diplomats in Dublin can't persuade pugnacious, little Ireland to join the North Atlantic Pact—if it means signing up as an ally of Great Britain.

This has been made clear in simple, blistering Irish.

Writing to members of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, Irish Minister Sean Nuan explained bluntly that his government couldn't enter "any military alliance involving joint military action with the state which was responsible for the partition of Ireland (and) which continues to occupy a portion of the country with its armed force."

In red-pepper language, Nuan continued: "No Irish government could possibly expect to find the necessary support for a policy involving military alliance with a power that continues to lend sanction tacit or active, to evils of the very kind which it is the objective of the proposed North Atlantic Pact to oppose and prevent."

CAPITAL NEWS CAPSULES

Division in Moscow—Uncensored dispatches now report at least two distinct cleavages inside the Soviet politburo. The 14 Soviet leaders are split over "war or peace." A number of the younger men around Stalin and Molotov think war will come this summer because the United States is headed for a depression. But another faction is eager for U. S. appeasement because American public opinion has become so strongly anti-Russian.

Soviet nosiness—The Russian news agency, Tass, has been asking frequent questions around the Army and Navy departments. The late-so-called news story, which Tass has been snooping after, is the Air Force's specifications for high octane gasoline. Believe it or not, but Uncle Sam's big-heart-poly is to give the Russians whatever information they want—as long as it isn't officially classified as secret.

Poor Trigue Lie—The State Department is considering asking for the recall of Trigue Lie as secretary-general of the United Nations—because Lie criticized the North Atlantic Pact as undermining the United Nations. The State Department claims the pact will strengthen, not hurt the United Nations, and it's sore as blazes at Trigue Lie, whose criticism, it claims follows Moscow's propaganda line.

Michiganander helps Michiganander—Sen. Vandenberg has taken a sudden interest in the Senate's investigation of the alleged Michigan vote frauds which put his junior colleague, Sen. Ferguson, back into office. Vandenberg has written three letters, one to Rules Chairman Carl Hayden of Arizona and two to elections Chairman Francis Meyer of Pennsylvania, asking that the impounded Michigan ballot boxes be released so as to be used in local primary elections held earlier this week. It turned out, however, that only 15 counties were holding elections so Senate investigators speeded up their examination of ballots in those counties. Vandenberg also wrote another letter, requesting a complete report of the elections subcommittee's findings on Ferguson.

Bolstering China—The inside reason why ex-Mayor Roger Lapham of San Francisco suddenly rushed to Washington from China is that Lapham, now Marshall Plan administrator for China, believes he can make the Nationalist government hold out. Lapham wants to set up the Chinese Nationalists on Formosa, which the Communists could not invade and which would be supplied with Marshall Plan aid. Formosa might later become a permanent American base. Gen. MacArthur is 100 per cent for Lapham's plan.

In a secret huddle with Secy. of State Acheson the Senate Foreign Relations Committee the other day explored every comma and semicolon in the North Atlantic Pact. This is the important alliance that could plunge the United States into war if one of the European democracies should be attacked by Russia.

Although the senators were pledged to strict secrecy, here are the highlights of that important meeting: Acheson promised to write into the pact a clear and expressed provision that this country cannot go to war without following the constitutional processes.

This means it will still be up to Congress to declare war. However, the State Department will assure the world that a solemn treaty, ratified by Congress, can be taken as a strong warning that Congress will act. Although the exact wording hasn't been decided, the pact will state essentially that aggression against any of the signatory nations will be considered as aggression against them all.

Some senators, led by Massachusetts' Henry Cabot Lodge, wanted the pact even more iron-clad. On the other hand the question was raised whether a statement by the President wouldn't do just as well, warning that aggression against the western democracies would be considered an unfriendly act toward this country. The idea would be to lay down a Monroe Doctrine for Europe.

Arkansas' Sen. William Fulbright asked whether civil war, incited by the Communists, would be considered as aggression since our own country was born by revolution.

Florida's Sen. Claude Pepper, on the other hand, expressed worry over setting a precedent of regional alliances. He wanted to know whether other alliances in the Far East and Mediterranean might follow and tear the heart out of the United Nations.

QUIBBLES WASTE TIME

These and other questions were left partly in the air. So much of the time was exhausted over technical points, such as whether the word "any" should be considered singular or plural, that Sen. Fulbright finally pleaded that they get on to the main issue.

There was only one mild flare-up when Sen. Brien McMahon of Connecticut warned that the issue would be raised again on the Senate floor that this country cannot pledge to fight, since it is up to Congress to declare war. This has already been brought up by Senators Tom Connally and Arthur Vandenberg.

Too much reiteration, warned McMahon, might create distrust in Europe.

"What reiteration?" snapped Vandenberg, roughly. "Oh," shrugged McMahon. "I mean what the President has been saying."

Alan Ladd Will Stick To Action In Career

HOLLYWOOD—Alan Ladd, back at work after a European jaunt and an illness, will stick to action in his movie career.

Looking fit after his convalescence, Alan has a role similar to his first big break in "This Gun For Hire." The film is "After Midnight" and is full of action. That's okay with him.

"I talked to theater men in England and France when I was over there," he says. "And they said they preferred to show action pictures. Anyone can understand a fight even if he doesn't know the language."

Ladd also keeps busy with his transcription firm, which produces four air shows, one with him. The company is keeping an eye on television, he adds.

Groucho Marx is going to be a grandfather for the second time. His son and daughter-in-law are expecting another child. Grandpa Marx also has a daughter two and a half years old and is planning to take her to the zoo this week. "It will be the first animals she's seen, outside of my relatives," he said.

Groucho tells me he's slowing down this year. In 1948 he wrote and rewrote a play, took it to New York, did two pictures, his air show and eight guest shots. "That's too much for a grandfather," says he.

George Washington Was Only Real All-American Of Nation

The passing of George Washington's birthday this week brings to mind the fact that of all the supreme characters whose service have exalted the republic, he was just about the only one who did not serve his country through the medium of a political party.

So Washington is remembered as a great American leader and not primarily as a party leader. To our observation he is nearly the only Titan in our annals who appeals directly to all parties and creeds and races and sections. In a way he is our only All-American.

In the matter of commemorative public services Jefferson and Lincoln have been honored far more frequently and extensively than Washington, but almost invariably they have been honored as partisans.

When we read of an approaching Jackson Day banquet we may be sure that it is going to be a Democratic festival and not an American festival. And by the same token when we read of a Lincoln Day banquet we may be almost certain that it is going to be a Republican celebration. While Americans are proud to honor Jefferson, Lincoln and Jackson, it just happens that they usually honor them as partisans primarily and as Americans only incidentally.

Washington's lack of identification with any political party has deprived him of many honors he would have otherwise received. He is the recipient of no ardent eulogies every eighth of January or twelfth of February or thirteenth of April.

In fact it is the rarest thing in the world to hear a eulogy of Washington anytime. No doubt there are millions and even tens of millions who have never heard a speech eulogizing Washington. For no party has ever seen fit to promote him and exploit his name.

But this very lack of party identification has safeguarded the sturdy Americanism of Washington's name and fame. No party has dared exploit his name because the American people would refuse to stand for it. They would laugh to scorn any effort to make Washington appear as an outstanding Democrat or as a loyal Republican. They recognize him first and last as an American and they refuse to permit any party label to be attached to his name.

No other man in our annals was ever less of a self-seeker than Washington. Every position of honor ever conferred upon him came unsolicited. He never asked anything for himself from his countrymen. But at the same time he never withheld any service that his countrymen demanded. He was ready at all times to respond to the public call and he never failed to serve to the limit of his capacity.

It is unfortunate that Washington's recorded words of wisdom are now so little known. The words of advice he spoke long ago are still wise words. The words of warning he addressed to the people in his final message still have a force and a pertinency after all these years. It is to their own discredit that the American people neglect the counsel of their only All-American—GEORGE S. FLY

Mouse With Hypnotic Eye Puts Whammy On Anything

MIAMI, FLA.—ONCE UPON A time there was a mouse with hypnotic eyes. He could put the whammy on anything.

This mouse lived in the mattress of a fancy hotel room on Miami Beach. He shared the room with a bookie—but the bookie didn't know it.

One day the mouse, looking for food, crawled up on the top of a bureau desk. He pushed over two bottles, and out rolled some thyroid capsules and benzdrine pills.

Hungry, the little fellow gulped down one of each. Immediately he began jumping up and down like pogo stick. His eyes bulged out like two billiard balls.

IN CAME THE BOOKIE. THE MOUSE turned on the full power of his glimmers—and the bookie was in his power.

"Look, Dreamhead," he told the bookie. "I want you to take me to the head of the national gambling syndicate. I know he's in town. And I got big ideas for him."

The dazed bookie took him over to see the big boss, who was flanked by two gunmen. The mouse stuck his head out of the bookie's vest pocket. With one sweep of his powerful eyeballs he hypnotized both rodents.

"All right, Small Fry," he told the boss. "You're taking orders from me from now on. Right?"

"Right!" said the startled bigtime gambler.

So they took the mouse into their mob and nicknamed him "muscle eyes." He fixed five sporting events the first month, and the gang made a million dollars. The next month "Muscle Eyes" put the whammy on 10 times. The mob cleaned up $4 million.

"LET'S TAKE IT EASY FOR A while," said the Big Boss, "and then come back for the big killing."

The grateful mob bought "Muscle Eyes" a polo coat and some dark glasses. They fixed him up with a real mouse doll, Madeline, the cutest thing on four paws in all Miami. But the soft life was too much for "Muscle Eyes." He turned mean. He took to liquor, began beating Madeline, and running around with lady mice who weren't really ladies.

And Madeline didn't like that at all. "I want you to give up this kind of life," she said, wearing a delicate paw around at their $100-a-day suite. "It is ruining you. Can't we go away somewhere and build a nest of our own and wait for the patter of little feet?"

"MUSCLE EYES" LOWERED HIS tumbler of whisky—a thimble—and dashed it into his moll's face.

"Turning soft, eh?" he said angrily. "Well, I'm in this to stay. The big killing is coming up, kid, and after that I'm be on easy street forever."

(Editors Note: What happens to "Muscle Eyes" read all about it tomorrow in the final installment of this absorbing story of the strangest criminal in history.)

For Income Less Than $5000 Use Government Form 1040 A

WASHINGTON—THIS TELLS YOU who can use Form 1040A, and how, in filing your 1948 income tax return.

Your income was $5,000 or more? You can't use it. You must use the 1040 long form.

Only those with under-$5,000 income can use Form 1040A. And not all of them can. Those who can't, can use the 1040 short-form.

Form 1040A is meant mostly for workers who had full tax withheld from them during 1948.

The 1040 short-form is meant mostly for other under-$5,000 income people like landlords and so on.

Say your income was under $5,000. You can use form 1040A if—

1. That income was entirely from wages or salary from which full tax was withheld, or—
2. Any other income—provided it was no more than $100—came from wages, dividends, or interest.

EXAMPLE: YOUR INCOME WAS $4,000. almost all of it in wages from which tax was withheld. But a little of it came from rent. You couldn't use Form 1040A. You'd use the 1948 short-form.

The 1040A is easiest to use. No figuring. Answer questions—Send it to the internal revenue collector. He'll figure your tax for you.

You're due a refund? He'll send you a check. You still owe tax? He'll tell you. You have 30 days to pay after he notifies you.

If you use Form 1040A, attach ALL the Form W-2 withholding statements given you in 1948 by your boss or bosses.

From W-2 is the small, check-size receipt given a worker by an employer for taxes withheld from his pay during the year.

Last year Form W-2, itself, was used as an income tax return. Not this year. Form 1040A takes its place.

CONGRESS MADE OTHER CHANGES in the law to cut taxes, particularly for married couples. How?

Now for the first time everywhere, by filing joint returns, they can split their income, and figure the tax on that basis.

In most cases this gives them a lower tax. Married couples who can do so won't lose money by filing jointly on Form 1040A. Why?

The collector, in deciding their tax, will figure which would give them a lower tax: A separate or joint return.

Then he'll give them the benefit of whichever way is cheaper for them. But—

Not every couple can use Form 1040A. It depends on their income. They can use it as a joint return if their combined income was under $5,000 and if they came within the rules of No. 1 and No. 2 outlined above.

Suppose, individually, their income was under $5,000 but, combined, was over $5,000. Example: Jones had $4,000, his wife had $4,000.

They can't file jointly on Form 1040A. They can file separately on it as long as they come under rules No. 1 and No. 2, or—

THEY CAN FILE JOINTLY ON THE 1040 long-form, where they must figure their own tax but can split their income to get a lower tax.

(In community property states, if husband and wife wish to file separate returns, they can't use Form 1040A at all. They must use Form 1040.)

(Community property states: Arizona, California, Idaho, Louisiana, Nebraska, Nevada, New Mexico, Oklahoma, Oregon, Texas, Washington.)

Remember: In using Form 1040 you automatically get, without asking or itemizing, a deduction of about 10 per cent for expenses like hospital bills or charity. Most people's deductions don't amount to 10 per cent.

If yours are more, you'll lose money filing on Form 1040A. Use the 1040 long-form. There you'll have to itemize your deductions but claim the full amount.

If husband or wife wants to itemize deductions, neither can use Form 1040A. Both must then use Form 1040. And both must itemize.

Convention dates are April 16-17. Mrs. J. Gordon Bristow presided over the business session.

to a bucket of water which has been taken to the garden, she continued, adding that the flowers should be left in the water for several hours before the arrangement is made. Concluding the discussion, Mrs. Benson warned her listeners not to put the arrangements in a draft or near a radiator and told them that sweetened water will help to preserve lilacs.

Mrs. J. E. Hogan took as her subject, "Day Lilies." She stated that there are at least 100 varieties of this plant and that they grow all the way from Maine to California. She stated that they will grow in any kind of soil in any kind of weather and need very little watering. She added that insects do not bother the plants. In conclusion, Mrs. Hogan stated that

Box Supper Set Friday

The Young People's Service League is due to benefit from a box supper and party scheduled for 6:45 p. m. Friday at the Parish House of St. Mary's Episcopal church.

In addition to young people affiliated with the league, all parishioners, and especially parents of league members, are urged to attend, said D. M. McKinney, sponsor of the league.

Games and square dancing will be arranged both for young people and for adults.

The league recently started what it hopes will become a permanent project in the city to assist all youth organizations in improving their respective services, McKinney said. He referred to a round-table discussion at the last regular meeting in which two dozen members of the league participated.

They were asked to discuss what type of services the young people desire in the various organizations.

Lea Milling, YMCA secretary, and H. D. Norris, Boy Scout executive, were present to participate in the discussion.

Result was a recommendation that parents be urged to take more interest in the various young people's organizations, and that members themselves assume more responsibility in developing activities for their respective agencies.

McKinney said it is hoped that representatives from all young people's organizations in the city may ultimately form a sort of council for regular discussions of their problems.

GARDEN GUIDES

Nothing Adds Spice To Yard Plans As Flowers

Nothing adds spice to your yard plans like flowers. It's all right to dream and experiment with all the beautiful varieties you see in the seed catalogue, but you should know that certain kinds of flowers have a habit of doing better in this area. It's too late to do much about daffodils, tulips and stock for this season, but bear them in mind for next autumn. Time is ripe for getting your sweet peas set into the ground, and that goes for pansy plants. Few flowers put their heart and soul into such a versatile performance as the pansy. Larkspurs should be planted at once for any hope of best results. Soon, the time will be at hand for putting down your gladioli bulbs for this tremendously beautiful flower has shown excellent results here. Much the same may be said for the limitless types of dahlias.

Later, when danger of frost is past, you may want to attempt verbenas, zinnas, chrysanthemum, marigold, lantana, caryopsis (somewhat like marigold but larger), pentunia, phlox. One of the most lovely plants—and one which does well—is the deep purple perennial phlox. There are many others which can be grown with success, and you may find a lot of pleasure in experimenting.

Texas Lcses Hope Of Taking Part In NCAA Eliminations

Oklags Avenue Sooner Loss

NEW YORK, Feb. 24. — Texas, one of the brightest prospects back in December, is out of the running for the coming NCAA basketball eliminations.

The Longhorns, ranked 20th in the most recent Associated Press basketball poll, were dumped last night by Rice, 65-49. This eliminated Texas from the Southwest Conference race and automatically from NCAA consideration. The District Six NCAA bid usually goes to the conference champion.

Meantime, three of the nation's top ten teams, strengthened their bids for the post-season tournaments.

The Oklahoma Aggies, ranked No. 3, smacked Oklahoma, 46-36, to avenge a 54-41 beating by the Sooners several weeks ago. If the Aggies can again whip St. Louis, ranked No. 2, on Saturday they appear certain to appear in either the NCAA or National Invitation Tournament at Madison Square Garden.

San Francisco, ranked eighth, defeated St. Mary's of California, 38-34, to wind up its regular season with a 21-5 record. San Francisco may be invited to the N.I.T. Since the District Eight NCAA usually goes to the winner of the Pacific Coast Conference.

Bowling Green of Ohio, ranked 9th, also furthered its N.I.T. hopes with a 65-60 victory over Toledo.

Butler, No. 11, was upset by Cincinnati, 49-44, in a Mid-America Conference tilt. The other teams ranked in the top 20 didn't play. Pennsylvania went overtime to down Navy, 67-52; Virginia upset William & Mary, 58-44; Wake Forest humbled Furman, 67-55; Georgia Tech licked Auburn, 66-57; Tennessee trimmed the Citadel, 64-42; and George Washington dunked its Washington city rival, Georgetown, 52-47.

Villanova Star Pushes Lavelli

NEW YORK, Feb. 24. — Paul Arizin, a lanky Philadelphia, was threatening today to oust Tony Lavelli of Yale from the nation's basketball scoring leadership.

Arizin, a junior at Villanova, has averaged 21.6 points per game for 20 games. Lavelli's average for 22 games is 21.8.

Other leaders included: Tom Rice, 16.9 and Martin, Texas, 15.

McMurry Triumphs

SHERMAN, Feb. 23. — McMurry College of Abilene edged Austin College 87 to 54 last night and sewed up third place in the Texas Conference basketball race.

Looking 'Em Over

by Tommy Hart

Fence at Steer baseball park down to the left field barrier is being moved back to the steel upright erected around the State street football field.
Pat Stasey and Al Aton are planning to have several more yards of dirt moved into the far corner of the field and eliminate most of the drop that has existed there since the ball orchard was built.
It's hard to say at the present time how much of the grass Stasey planted last fall is going to grow but some of the roots are already showing through the soil. The whole field may be green inside two or three weeks, if the weather continues good. More grass has also been planted in right field and all of the park is being watered regularly.

One of the regulars on Conn Isaacs' high school baseball team this spring may be Maurice Arcand, a tall youngster who transferred here not so long ago from Connecticut. Maurice may hold down an infield spot. He boasts quite a bit of experience, according to information handed Coach Isaacs.
Arcand hasn't been here a year but will be eligible to play, since eligibility rules in football and basketball do not apply in track and baseball, luckily.

Our Town's Peppy Blount may yet get into a game with the University of Texas basketball team. He reported late for practice but has made the traveling squad.

JESSE OWENS KNOWS HOW TO COIN MONEY
Jesse Owens, who rated the title of "world's fastest human" at one time is now traveling with the Harlem Globetrotters, the great Negro basketball team. Owens is one fellow who made the publicity he received as a track star pay off.

Local church basketball teams (are there any?) have been invited to compete in the State-Wide Church Basketball tournament, which takes place in Dallas March 11 and 12. Entry fee is $2 per team. Entries should be sent to Grover Keeton, 403 City Hall building, Dallas.

OKLAHOMA VOTES TO RETAIN FOOTBALL PLAYOFFS
The Oklahoma High School Athletic association has voted down a proposal to eliminate the state football championship playoffs.

Too, the schools are now qualified to open the 1949 grid season as early as the second week in September. Heretofore, they have not been allowed to plunge into competition before the third week.

Plans for a 5,000 seat coliseum and sports center are being made in Corpus Christi. The sports palace would include bowling alleys plus space for all types of sporting events. As many as 18 alleys would be installed in the building.

ROY BAIRD NOW TRAINING BOXERS IN HOUSTON
It should interest his friends to know that Roy Baird, who fought out of here not so many years ago, is serving as a trainer for an 8 our fighters in the Olympiad boxing gymnasium in Houston.
Baird fought as a professional middleweight here approximately 15 years ago. He's got somewhere around 125 boys under his wing at the present time. Roy was one of those instrumental in the training of Lew Jenkins, later the Lightweight champion of the world.

Houser Retains Place On Fish Starting Team

COLLEGE STATION, Feb. 24. —Eddie Houser of Big Spring is among the scoring leaders on Texas A&M's freshman basketball team.

Although 17 different boys have broken into the scoring column for the young Aggies, Eddie has retained a place on the starting team while roping 18 field goals and 11 free throws for 47 points.

Honus Wagner Is 75 Today

CARNEGIE, Pa., Feb. 24. — Baseball's "Mr. Shorstop" celebrated 75 years of living today.

Bandy-legged, barrel-chested Honus Wagner said he's "stay in baseball as long as it will have me."

The Flying Dutchman retired from the playings ranks in 1917 after a 21-year major league career. He held more records than a juke box. Most of the marks still stand—tribute to the hulking shortstop, the late John McGraw called the "greatest player in baseball history."

Honus went back to baseball in 1932 as a scout and coach for his beloved Pittsburgh Pirates. An attack of flu laid him low for a time this winter. As a result, he'll bypass the Pirates' spring training trip to California. But he expects to be on the job as usual when the umpire shouts "play ball" at Forbes Field.

Hundreds of birthday messages and telegrams poured into the Wagner home in this little community, five miles from Pittsburgh. "It still is great to be alive," Wagner declared. "I feel the same but the years seem to go by more quickly. It seems like I just had a birthday."

Snead And Stranahan Only Links Stars To Miss Harlingen Open

HARLINGEN, Feb. 24. — Sure-shots of golf whammed merrily away today over wind-swept Harlingen Municipal Course in the first round of the second annual $10,000 Rio Grande Valley Open.

All the big names of the winter tour except Slammin' Sammy Snead of White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., and Amateur Frank Stranahan of Toledo, O., are due to be in the field of 135 that blisters away at par 35-36-71.

Snead and four other top American pros are being flown from Mexico City where they participated in the Mexican National Open that ended yesterday. Snead has announced he will not play here but his companions, Jimmie Demaret of Ojai, Calif., Lew Worsham of Oakmont, Pa., Lloyd Mangrum of Niles, Ill., and George Fazio of Conshohocken, Pa., will. The plane is scheduled to arrive only a few hours before they tee off. Each has an afternoon starting time.
The quintet will land at Brownsville, 27 miles from Harlingen, then come here by automobile.

Stranahan is passing up the Rio Grande Valley Open to play in an invitation tournament at Houston.

Mangrum and Demaret tied for first place here last year, each shooting a 289 for the 72 holes and Mangrum winning the play-off. To Butler, the Harlingen Municipal Course pro, predicted that it would take a 17-under-par 267 to win the tournament this year.

The 6,096-yard course is greatly improved over 1948, Butler pointed out.

Johnny Palmer of Badin, N. C., winner of the $10,000 Houston Open last week-end and favorite for first money here, had a late morning start.

Mangrum, the year's leading money-winner, is not in danger of being replaced by Demaret, who is in second place, might lose out to Palmer, the third-place man. Mangrum has won $6,170, Demaret $5,882.50 and Palmer $3,915.33.

Tune-up rounds over the course the past two days have produced scores ranging as low as a 64 registered by Jim Turnesa of Elmford,

Owls Must Win Over Porkers To Clinch Tie

By The Associated Press
Rice and Arkansas play a crucial Southwest Conference game in Houston Saturday night.

This game very well may determine the Southwest Conference championship. If Rice defeats the Arkansas Razorbacks the race probably will be tied three ways.

Saturday night Baylor plays Texas A&M in Waco. A Baylor victory over the sixth place Aggies is almost a certainty.

If Baylor and Rice win the league scramble will be deadlocked between Rice, Baylor and Arkansas, each with eight wins and three losses.

But if Arkansas wins Saturday night the Razorbacks will have practically captured the crown. After Rice Arkansas' only remaining game is next Monday against A&M at College Station.

Two Southwest Conference basketball games Wednesday night had the net effect of keeping Rice and Baylor in the running and eliminating the University of Texas.

Rice dumped Texas 65 to 49 in Houston and at Dallas Baylor outshot Southern Methodist University 47 to 38.

In the other Saturday game Texas Christian University in Austin, Southern Methodist University is idle Saturday.

The conference standings: Arkansas, Baylor and Rice tied for second, Texas, SMU, A&M and TCU.

Adams Defeated In Gloves Bout

CHICAGO, Feb. 24. — Two Texas Golden Glove punches will fight in the semi-finals of the Tournament of Champions here.

They moved into the semi-finals by quarter-final victories last night. Texas fighters include Tony Mairana, 118-pounds, San Antonio, and Valentino Luna, 126-pounder from Austin.

Mairana knocked out Fred Hall of Nashville, Tenn., in 18 seconds of the first round.

Luna's victory was just as decisive. His victim was Sonny Lewis from Evansville, Ind.

Tom Adams, lightweight from Hardin-Simmons University lost his quarter-final bout by decision to Wesbury Bascome, St. Louis Negro.

Fred Morales, flyweight from Temple, lost an unpopular decision to Ken Wright of Gary, Ind.

Hull Decisions McDonald Club

Marvin Hull Motor company rallied to salvage the final of a three-game series from McDonald Motor after the two teams had broken even in the first two outings in an Automotive Bowling league match here Tuesday night.

Hull's advantage in the final bout was 19 points. They were gifted with a 27-pin handicap.

Hawks, Henderson Paired In State JC Tournament

Howard County Junior college's Jayhawks start their quest for the State Junior college basketball tournament title in a game with Henderson JC of Athens at 10:30 a. m. next Tuesday in College Station.

If the Jays cop that one, they meet the winner of the Wharton-Lamar contest at 9 p. m. Wednesday. If they lose, they meet the loser of that battle in consolation play at 1 p. m. Wednesday.

Tyler has been seeded No. one and Amarillo No. two in the meet. Tyler's first round opponent will be Frank Phillips of Borger while Amarillo will oppose Schreiner Institute of Kerrville.

A huge trophy will go to the champions. In addition, members of the team will get miniature gold basketballs, that is, the first dozen players. The runners up get a smaller trophy and silver balls.

The third place club and the consolation winner will get cups, too. There'll be an award of some kind for the coach and probably to members of the all-tournament team.

The HCJC team will go down early, moving into College Station sometime Monday afternoon. Play will start at 10:30 a. m. Monday and Coach Harold Davis will be guests at the Arkansas-Texas A & M basketball game that night.

Immediately following the game, the coaches of all the teams will gather with Marty Karow, tournament director, to discuss plans for the tournament.

Complete first round pairings and starting times are (listed according to draw):

TUESDAY
Tyler vs Frank Phillips, 9 p. m.; Clifton vs Paris, 1 p. m.; Lon Morris vs Laredo, 9 a. m.; Blinn vs San Angelo, 6 p. m.; Amarillo vs Schreiner, 4 p. m.; John Tarleton vs Allen Academy, 7:30 p. m.; Henderson vs HCJC, 10:30 a. m.; Wharton vs Lamar, 2:30 p. m.

WEDNESDAY
Quarterfinal games in championship bracket at 2:30 p. m.; 6 p. m.; 7:30 p. m.; and 9 p. m. First round games in consolation at 9 a. m.; 10:30 a. m.; 1 p. m.; and 4 p. m.

Albrecht and Wilkins will serve as officials in the game pitting HCJC against Henderson.

The Jayhawks resumed practice again Wednesday after a three-day layoff and will work out through Sunday.

Second Round AA Play Underway

By The Associated Press
Second rounds of Bi-district basketball championships begin in Class AA Thursday night.

Highland Park, Dallas, meets Bonham at Bonham and Port Arthur plays Nacogdoches at Nacogdoches. Port Arthur and Highland Park each hold a first round decision and can win a place in the state tournament by wins again.

Friday night three other games are scheduled.

Lubbock, which holds one win, meets Childress again at Childress. Austin with a win over Laredo entertains Laredo and Texarkana with a victory over Waco goes to Waco, and Bowie (El Paso) plays at Lamesa.

In Class A, region 3, Nocona entertains Birdville Friday night.

LOU BOUDREAU (above, left) and BILLY SOUTHWORTH (above, right), pilots of the Cleveland Indians and Boston Braves, respectively, are favored to guide their teams to league pennants again. Due to offer the most competition are the Boston Red Sox, managed by Joe McCarthy (lower left), in the American league, and the Pittsburgh Pirates in the National league, skippered by Bill Meyer (lower, right).

MEETS FUNK Gray Changes Mind; Plans To Return

He vowed he wouldn't after the rhubarb he caused during last Monday's wrestling show but Karl Gray is returning to the Big Spring Athletic club next week.

Gray will be pitted against Dory Funk of Hammond, Ind., the bruiser who helped quiet him after the ex-soldier went on a rampage in his match with Billy Hickson.

For an opener, Promoter Pat O'Dowdy is pitting Billy Goetz of Chicago against Baik Estes, the Oklahoma smoothie.

London Zoo Animals Valued Cheaper

A year ago it put them at sixpence. The shrinkage was disclosed in a report on the zoo's year-end stocktaking.

WAR HYSTERIA

Anna Strong Home Denies Spy Charge

New York, Feb. 24 (AP)—Anna Louise Strong, deported from Russia on espionage charges, arrived here by plane early today and promptly was subpoenaed to appear before a federal grand jury probing Communism.

Two FBI agents met her at La Guardia Field, and handed her the federal subpoena. No date for her appearance was specified.

The Nebraska-born journalist, whose writings have been described as pro-Soviet, told newsmen she was not guilty of Russia's charges. She said the charges were the result of "war hysteria" which she blamed mostly on the American press.

She was examined 45 minutes by immigration authorities, 30 minutes by the FBI agents and another half hour by customs inspectors.

Then, protesting against "being forced" by pressure of newsmen to do so, the 54-year-old, travel-weary raptist turned a haggard face toward a battery of cameras, lights and microphones and said: "I have not done anything

Utilities Cause Headaches In Rome

ROME—Feb. 24—If Signor Giuseppe Rossie and his lady are grumpy and short-tempered these days the state of their city's utilities may be partly to blame. There is not enough electric power to go around, and gas is low.

The result, in terms of the effects upon Mr. and Mrs. Average Roman:

Signor Rossi finds his place of work dark from 7 A. M. to 6 P. M. two days each week. If he works in one of Rome's countless electric-powered shops, his machines are idle during those periods. Even on the days he has power, the current is so low and variable that much apparatus refuses to function. He dare not ride elevators: all too often, they get stuck. The electrically-propelled omnibuses and streetcars on which he rides to work are fewer these days; those left are over-crowded. His favorite cafe may have no coffee if it has no power to heat its pots.

Signora Rossi, if she cooks with electricity also has the two powerless days to worry about. If she cooks with gas, she finds pressure often too low to boil water. If gas heats the hot water for her bathroom, as it does in many Rome houses, she and her family must bathe in cold, most days.

Stores are required to close early to save current. Their radio is so faint, often that it is imperceptible; their phonograph turns out noises like "braaaaaaaw". Theaters are reduced to 60 per cent of their average consumption — which means one or more shows fewer each day.

Signora Rossi is now ordered to read her own power meters, and

DUTCH GIRL ARTIST OFFERS TO SELL EAR FOR $24,000

SANTA MONICA, Calif., Feb. 24 (AP)—Miss Cock Van Gent, 24-year-old Dutch artist, has offered her left ear for sale at $24,000—so she can paint and eat too.

In this country on a visitor's permit, Miss Van Gent is determined to stay and pursue her art, but she's handicapped by a lack of cash. So she advertised her ear for sale in a newspaper.

"I won't compromise," says she. "I refuse to earn my living as a commercial artist or paint pretty portraits on commission. If I can't go on with my painting as I wish, I would rather not live at all."

She's obtained a room by caring for a local home, lives simply, and rolls cigarettes to cut expenses. So far she's had no bids for her ear.

Miss Van Gent hitchhiked over the U. S. making sketches, oils and watercolors of her impressions. She says she has had one man show

Valise For Cardinal Sets Bomb Scare

NEW YORK, Feb. 24 (AP)—A black metal valise delivered to Francis Cardinal Spellman last night caused a temporary bomb scare, but the contents of the valise proved to be harmless.

After several hours of cautious examination, a police bomb squad found the valise contained only religious tracts and other articles, including:

Two tin cake plates; a jar filled with tinfoil; two clay models of gravestones inscribed with the Lord's Prayer.

The valise, brought to the home of the Catholic archbishop of New York by an express company employee, bore the name of Edward Herbert, of Detroit, as the sender.

In Detroit, Herbert, a 45-year-old house painter, was being held under observation at a receiving hospital.

The Detroit Free Press quoted Herbert as saying:

"I can't understand what the confusion is all about. Any further information will have to come from Cardinal Spellman. My business was with him and I have nothing more to say. I have harmed no one."

Bill Seeks Acreage For Big Bend Park

WASHINGTON, Feb. 24 (AP)—A bill which would add about 2,500 acres to the Big Bend National Park in Texas was approved yesterday by the House Public Lands Committee. Rep. Regan (D-Tex.) said the Brewster County land is needed for highway purposes. Congress had appropriated $30,000 to purchase the land.

Legislator Bounced From Rod, Reel Club

He was charged at a meeting last night of having allegedly supported legislation counter to the club's position.

Texas Sheep, Goat Raisers Urge Support Prices

WASHINGTON, Feb. 24 (AP)—Texas sheep and goat raisers are urging a price support program for mohair.

Spokesmen for the Texas Sheep and Goat Raisers Assn. were joined by Rep. Fisher (D-Tex.) yesterday in urging the program to Agriculture Secretary Brannan.

Sayers Farmer, Junction, president of the association, led the group. Others included Fred Earwood, Sonora; J. T. Davis, Sterling City; and Ernest Williams, San Angelo.

The group urged a base average price of 50 cents a pound for grown hair and 80 cents for kid hair.

The association men said the number of Angora Goats in the U. S. has declined from 4,544,000 in 1941 to 2,700,000 on Jan. 1, 1949.

Hospital Facilities Cut At Navy Stations

WASHINGTON, Feb. 24 (AP)—The naval air station at Corpus Christi and the naval air station at Dallas are two of 38 station-type hospitals in the United States which will be reduced to Army type dispensaries.

make sure she uses less electricity than she did last fall. This means she must take her bills for September and October, add the totals, divide by nine to get the weekly average, and figure out how much current she may use to stay 15 per cent below last fall's average consumption for lights and 35 per cent below that for other purposes. She must, too, post the figures beside her meters, and submit to weekly spot checks.

If she fails to do all that, woe unto her. She may have her power cut off. Or she may be fined.

Army Recruiting Not Shut Down

"We are still in the recruiting business," Lt. Fred N. Massey, commanding officer of the local U. S. Army and Air Force recruiting station, said today, thereby putting the lie to rumors that these branches of the service had stopped accepting personnel.

"Although a limited number of applicants can be accepted each week, we are still taking qualified young men and women for the Army and Air Force," Lt. Massey said.

Applicants now accepted at present will be put on a waiting list for future call.

tween the general standard of living after the war of the Norwegian working population and the average Russian. It came to the conclusion that, if the Norwegian standard of living is put at 100, the Russian cannot be put higher than about 60.

"It is another matter that there are some groups who have an opportunity of earning high wages, and are able to establish quite a solid standard of living. This applies to Stakhanov workers, efficient and energetic foremen and technicians, certain groups within the administration and scientists who receive premiums for important work, authors and artists. But it does not apply to the great mass of the population."

"It is clear that the general average wage is only sufficient for purchasing the absolute necessities for the maintenance of life. In addition to this, a part of the consumers' goods are not available in sufficient quantities. The shortage of housing is frightful, and therefore the majority of the population can draw no advantage from low rents. In the towns queues are often seen."

"The ordinary family can hardly live on the wage earnings of the husband alone, and women are driven into occupational life to an extent that is entirely foreign to us. They can be seen in large groups engaged in street and construction work, as dock-hands, and in the building sites."

"The supply of foodstuffs is now so big that the majority of the population no doubt receive the necessary food in such simple forms as bread, potatoes and vegetables. But the prices of meat and meat products, butter, cheese, fish, canned goods, etc., are so high compared to the wages that only the very few can indulge in such luxuries as meat and footwear, and such goods are particularly expensive."

"Much of the information which is generally asked for in other countries as indications of the standard of living, such as wage statistics and price indices or statistical tables in other fields—for example, the supply of dwellings, clothes and footwear—is non-existent or unavailable in the Soviet Union."

"The Russian trade-union organization cannot engage in wage disputes, since the entire wage basis is prepared by the economic planning of the government."

"There is hardly any country where the government so consciously keeps the standard of living down in order to insure a speedy reconstruction as in the Soviet Union."

"Connections with foreigners are regarded by the government with great suspicion. In the beginning of 1948 a law was passed forbidding Russians to receive foreigners in their homes or to visit the homes of foreigners."

"Practically all of the Russians with whom we came in touch are simple and sympathetic people who greatly contributed to strengthen the belief that unless something unforeseen should happen, the Soviet Union will gradually pass into a happier stage of development than where it is now."

Although economic information was difficult to get, the delegation said it was told that in some Russian iron factories the average wage per month was 800 to 850 rubles, while in a food factory it was 600 rubles.

Officially, the rubles is equivalent to one Norwegian crown (20 U. S. cents). But the delegation estimated the ruble's purchasing power at 10 per cent of a crown for most consumers' goods, and perhaps 16 or 17 per cent for certain basic foods.

The delegation noted there is no rationing of ordinary Russian consumers' goods, in contrast to Norway's strict rationing system.

City officials were encouraged this morning by reports that some paving difficulties on South Owens street were being removed and that chances for developing that unit were improved.

City Manager H. W. Whitney said that property owners in the 1100 block of Owens had arranged a joint financing plan to avoid skips there. That eliminates one of the major problems, the city manager said, and the unit probably will be improved on schedule.

The unit involved includes South Owens street from 11th Place to East 18th. City commissioners that unit, since other projects in were particularly concerned over the contract were designed to connect with the Owens street paving.

Paving Plans Win Approval

All testimony favored paving Tuesday night at a public hearing on 13 units proposed as substitutions in the city's current contract with Brown and Root Construction Co.

Although the city court room was filled to capacity with owners of property abutting on the proposed units, not a single voice was raised in protest.

City Attorney Charles N. Sullivan conducted the hearing. He opened proceedings by questioning three local realtors, Robert Stripling, Worth Peeler and R. L. Cook, on probable enhancement of property values that would result from paving. Property owners then were asked to express their respective opinions, and representatives from all units commented favorably on the program. Largest delegation of property owners came from Marsha street.

Units designated as substitutions are located on the following streets: Wood, Marsha, two on East 17th, East 13th, West 17th, East 16th, East 18th, Lexington Ave., Mt. Vernon, South Owens, MacFahren, Rosemont and Hillside Drive.

Peron Gives Fight Speech On Opposition

BUENOS AIRES, Argentina, Feb. 24. (AP)— President Juan D. Peron has blasted an alleged whispering campaign against him and threatens to call his working class "warriors" out to battle his opponents.

In a fighting speech to the railway workers union, Peron recalled past mass demonstrations of workers in support of his government and implied he might have to call them out again "within a few days."

The speech was delivered Tuesday night but was not made available for publication until yesterday.

Peron said his foes were resorting to an "irregular warfare" of rumors like a bunch of gossiping old maids because they were afraid to oppose his regime openly.

He said he would fight every "calumnious rumor and lie" spread by his enemies with the truth, "which is like showing the cross to the devil."

He warned that although his followers were not seeking to provoke a fight "our opponents ought to be aware we are warriors and will battle to the last breath if attacked."

Peron did not mention rumors that the army had turned against him. He denied them in a previous speech.

DETROIT LOOKS TO ITS DIGNITY

DETROIT, Feb. 24. (AP)—The municipal street car and bus system looked to its dignity today.

To avoid public "suspicion," Railway Commissioner Fred P. Sisson said that stops would be limited to specified gasoline stations, cafes and other places.

House Approves Paying Spies

WASHINGTON, Feb. 24. (AP)—American spies and their "contacts" abroad furnish about 20 per cent of this nation's intelligence about military and political affairs in other countries.

One of the purposes of a mysterious bill approved by the House Armed Services Committee, with recommendation for quick action by the House, is to encourage and compensate foreign citizens for their help to United States agents.

The American espionage system has been operating on a shoestring, with few funds and no precise law providing for spy work or payment to informers. The house bill, among other things, would cloak the Central Intelligence Agency with definite authority for such operations.

To provide foreign "contacts" with assurance of refuge, it would allow the agency to bring into the United States each year up to 100 persons who had provided useful information.

American intelligence men long have complained that they were unable to match the operations of other powers, such as Britain, the former system of Germany and Japan, and now Russia.

They contended they lacked the means to buy information and could never be sure whether their negotiations were entirely within the laws and policies of their own government.

During the war, the United States co-operated closely with the excellent intelligence net of the British. Now, with the formal alliances of wartime ended, the United States must build up its own system.

It has been pointed out that the need for political and military intelligence—information on the intentions of a foreign power—is becoming increasingly critical as the cold war with Russia drags on.

Officials charged with setting up a radar aircraft warning system have explained that, at least, this "picket fence" can be only partial protection against air attack; the first warning must come from intelligence.

Spies and their contacts abroad are needed not only to develop their own information but often to check and amplify on information received through such normal, non-secret sources as military and naval attaches in foreign capitals, diplomatic and consular staffs and similar organizations.

Only a fraction of the vast amount of information that comes flowing into the Central Intelligence Agency daily can be traced to the activities of true "cloak-and-dagger" spies—although this fraction may be of vital importance.

Action Aplenty At Mardi Gras

NEW ORLEANS, Feb. 24. (AP)— Death, fire and a brief strike marred the pre-Mardi Gras parade of the Knights of Babylon.

Just as the parade was about to move off last night, Negro flambeaux bearers demanded an increase in pay. A brief conference produced a 50 cent increase to $4.

Meanwhile, gasoline from one flambeaux had leaked into a gutter. A lighted cigarette set it flaming. Flambeaux bearers in near panic threw down their gasoline filled torches and flames lapped as high as telephone wires.

Firemen put out the blaze but not before a parked automobile was destroyed.

Show Winners Are Rewarded

Perry Walker and Wayne White, 4-H club members who won grand and reserve championships, respectively, at the 12th annual Howard County Fat Stock Show, were liberally rewarded by local business firms.

Both of the top animals were retained for future shows, but special prizes were arranged to compensate for what the two young feeders missed by passing up the auction sale Tuesday night.

Wakler received a prize of $550 from Cosden Petroleum Corp., while several merchants and business men contributed to a special premium of $400 for White. Cosden originally had planned to purchase the grand champion steer at the auction.

Business firms that contributed to the reserve champion prize were Truman Jones Motor Co., Big Spring Motor Co., George O'Brien Grocery, Johnny Walker Implement Co., Shirley Walker Farm Equipment, Jimmie Walker Auto Parts, McEwen Motor Co., Sherwin-Williams, L&L Housing and Burton-Lingo Lumber Co., Lumber Co.

NEW FRONT END STYLING FOR DODGE—The attractive front-end styling of the new Dodge Coronet features a new grille with larger rectangular opening and a single heavy horizontal bar across the center. The grille, of stainless steel, is finished in chrome. Improved sealed-beam headlights are higher and more widely spaced. The new Dodges go on display here Friday at the Jones Motor Company, 101 Gregg.

New Dodge Goes On Display Here Friday

New exterior styling, greater interior roomness and a higher 7 to 1 compression engine feature the new Dodge cars, which go on display in dealer showrooms across the country Friday.

New models are to be presented here by the Jones Motor company, 101 Gregg, and the agency is extending an invitation for the public to view them.

Dodge models are being manufactured on two wheelbases. The new Coronet and Meadowbrook models on a 123 1/2 inch wheelbase, a 4 inch increase, replace the former custom and de luxe cars. A wholly new addition to the Dodge line is the lower-priced Wayfarer on a wheelbase of 115 inches.

"The new Dodge has been designed from the inside out to provide more head room, leg room and elbow room," a descriptive announcement said. At the same time, that exterior dimensions have been decreased. The new models are lower in height, shorter in overall length and narrower in overall width in comparison with previous models—welcome parking and garaging news.

In the Coronet and Meadowbrook models, front seats are six inches wider and rear seats nearly eight inches wider. Dodge "knee-level" seats have been retained and head room is now the same for both front and rear seat passengers. In relation to the rear axle, seats have been moved forward to further improve Dodge's "cradled ride." The new stationary footrest for rear seat passengers is scientifically placed for proper support and rear seat leg room is unaffected by the five inch travel adjustment of front seat.

Important factors in effecting additional spaciousness in the front seat area are movement of the instrument panel a full four inches further forward and location of bulky parts of the new Dodge fresh air heating and ventilating system under the engine hood.

Dodge's functional design has resulted in an attractive exterior style with graceful body and fender lines and a new low silhouette. Massive sheet metal fender sections have been avoided. Fender units are bolted on and, if necessary, can be quickly and easily replaced at minimum inconvenience and at least cost.

Front and rear doors swing wider, opening almost a full 90 degrees, to make it easy to enter or leave the new Dodge. Rear doors of sedan models are hinged on the center post further contributing to ease of entry as well as providing an important safety factor. Forward motion of the car tends to swing the rear door closed if it is accidentally left open.

The front end of the new Dodge is highlighted by the massive chrome finished grille of simplified design which is easy to keep clean. Headlights are spaced 5 1/4 inches further apart and are 3 1/4 inches higher than previous models. This, together with improved sealed beam headlight units, assures better road illumination for safer night driving.

In keeping with the Dodge tradition of powering its cars with a dependable and economical engine to meet modern driving needs, the Dodge "Get-Away" engine lists a number of improvements. Much faster acceleration and better idling and low-speed performance are obtained by a higher 7.0 to 1 compression ratio and a new carburetor, intake manifold, camshaft, fuel pump and generator. Other engine improvements include better sealing of crankcase against dirt and more dependable wet weather starting.

Seeks Man In Shotgun Death Of Soldier

SAN ANTONIO Feb. 24 (AP)—Officers here were seeking a man alleged to have threatened the life of Pfc. Paul Lester Smith, who was found dead last Saturday night.

His body, torn by shotgun blasts, was found in a ravine 18 miles west of here.

The soldier's wife, 16, submitted to a lie detector test yesterday.

Police said the test indicated she knew nothing of the slaying other than what she told them previously.

University Has Problem Child

NEWARK, Del. Feb. 24 (AP)—The University of Delaware has a "problem child."

However, Charles P. Griffin, IV, is not a problem in the usual sense of the word. No indeed. He's practical.

Charles, a blue-eyed, one-year-old blond, is the son of Neil H. Griffin, assistant professor of home management at the University of Delaware.

Thus the girl students in the course have shared with Mrs. Griffin in the daily care of Charles.

Says Mrs. Griffin: "My son has made a great deal of progress and very definitely is not experimented on despite that he is Delaware's first home management baby."

The students take charge of Charles for a week at a time in rotation. Their first week at the Home Management House is spent helping Mrs. Griffin care for the child. It's really a week of allowing Charles to familiarize himself with the new students.

The girls living in the house do the buying (on a strict budget) cooking, serving, housekeeping—plus the care of the baby.

The girls plan their hours so that one always is with the baby while the others attend classes.

Mrs. Griffin says her students dress the baby, buy his clothes and put him to bed. Some of them—on their own initiative—make some of the child's smaller things like argyle socks and mittens.

"I'll bet Charles is one of the few babies around who owns a pair of argyle socks at the age of one year," says Mrs. Griffin.

The professor points out with pride that all her students so far have received the top grade in baby care.

"The girls are very serious about their work with Charles and I don't believe I could have done a better job myself."

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

How's Your Listening Time?

Buck Howell and I were in Baltimore last week. Dropped in at Bob's diner where some friends were sitting around talking about whether to sell hogs now or wait.

Buck plunges right into the discussion. He's lecturing away when suddenly they all stand up and start stomping their feet like it was an Indian war dance.

I'm flabbergasted. But Buck only looked sheepish and explains, "Guess I was talking again, when I should've been listening. When a person's talking time gets out of line with his listening time around here, the gang reminds him by standing up and stomping."

From where I sit, that's a good system. Everyone has a right to his opinions—but others have a right to theirs, too—whether it's deciding between to sell or not to sell, apple pie or cherry pie, or a glass of mellow beer or cider. Life's more interesting that way, and hang it if you don't sometimes learn something!

Mission Board Flays Churchmen's Arrest

BOSTON, Feb. 24. (AP)—The arrest of 15 Protestant church leaders in Bulgaria was described today by an American mission board as part of a policy of "ruthless suppression of religious groups . . . not wholly subservient to the state."

The American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions—which fathered protestantism in Bulgaria—said in a statement: "The Bulgarian government seems to be carrying out a policy of denying freedom of religious worship."

The board said that although individual leaders "conceivably may have overstepped some present

Bulgarian law, the basic reason for the persecution of these Protestant pastors is that they strove to place loyalty to God above earthly demands."

The Congregational-Christian Organization charged that the Bulgarian government "is considering a law outlawing all mission work in Bulgaria . . . and providing for confiscation of mission property."

The statement followed an American State Department officer's observations in Washington yesterday that the Bulgarian peace treaty states that human rights of all people under its jurisdiction, including freedom of religion, shall be respected.

Dr. Fred Field Goodsell, executive vice president of the Mission board, declared that the treaty "isn't worth the paper it's written on."

SHOVEL and HOE

A Garden Column by Virginia Scott. Presented by the Big Spring Garden Club.

By VIRGINIA SCOTT

If you are an experienced hand at growing plants from small seeds sown first indoors, or, if you are an ambitious beginner who likes to take a chance, it might be well worth your while to try some of the double Petunias, especially Colossal Shades of Rose.

The seeds are more expensive than those of the regular Petunias, and require closer attention. Directions on the package should be followed closely, so don't blame us if you fail to bring the seedlings into the world! Should be started indoors about eight weeks before planting time outside, which is, generally speaking, after danger from frost.

These Petunias measure from three to five inches across, some have fringed petals, all are fully double. They grow about twenty inches tall and spread up to three feet across. Sound like a lot of Petunia at a penny per seed.

Personally, we prefer to buy the plants. But our gardening runs more to the outdoors. For one who doesn't have too much outside gardening, such an experiment should prove very interesting.

Other varieties of this Petunia are Burpee Orchid, Mrs. Dwight D. Eisenhower, Rose Marie, and America. Colossal Shades of Rose is supposed to be the largest of all. Colors vary from salmon-ink to deep rose-pink.

Garden of Cutting Flowers

Most of us dislike to take flowers from our borders until they begin to fade, as this disrupts the color scheme and make the planting look bare in spots. The best way to avoid such a condition is to have a place off to itself, usually in the vegetable garden, where we can grow flowers for indoor decoration and can cut all we want any time we need them.

Such a garden can be made in the form of beds or more simply laid out in rows. Leave room to walk about freely, if possible. There are so many lovely flowers for cutting which do not always fit into the permanent borders.

Sweet Peas hardly ever do well in the garden except when grown on a fence. They also have to be cut to bloom, so are better in the cutting garden. Then, you can mix your colors here regardless of how they try to fight each other. Dahlias, Chrysanthemums, Zinnias, Marigolds, Salvia farinacea, Salpiglossis, Nasturtiums, Snapdragons, and the large flowered garden Carnations all thrive in the cutting garden.

How Could This Be?

Most people are familiar with the red bleeding heart, but there is a white one, now, called "Sweetheart". How can they label a white heart "bleeding"? Could it be that it lacks red corpuscles? Or, perhaps it bled away to white. Sounds more logical to go all out botanical and call it "Dioentra".

Concealed License Plate Drive On In Alabama

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Feb. 24. (AP)—All law enforcement officers in Alabama have been directed to arrest persons driving automobiles with concealed license plates, such as have been reported in recent parades staged by the Ku Klux Klan.

"Mobs, hooded or unhooded, are not going to rule Alabama," said Gov. James E. Folsom in issuing the directive.

Robed and masked bands have been reported active in Alabama in recent months. In Talladega County three crosses were burned Saturday night.

Folsom said at a news conference yesterday that he didn't think he would seek to revoke the Klan's charter in Alabama, but added, "We are going to stop these gangs."

Prize Winner Keep Well-Stocked Pantry

Texas has no official champion among the women who can and preserve foods at home, but Mrs. O. C. Goodwin of Corsicana can lay claim to the title with no opposition. At the last State Fair of Texas in Dallas, her home canned foods took thirty prizes, twenty-three of them first awards.

As further proof of her home-canning ability, none of her entries were especially prepared for the culinary contest, which was sponsored jointly by the Imperial Sugar Company and the State Fair of Texas. All of Mrs. Goodwin's entries were taken from her amply stocked pantry.

Although Mrs. Goodwin was surprised at taking such a large number of ribbons in the contest, her friends were not. She has been filling her pantry shelves with a variety of first-class jams, jellies, preserves, canned fruits and vegetables for more than thirty years. Her products had taken awards several times before.

Tiny, gray-haired Mrs. Goodwin every meal contains some of my home canning, and I'm always prepared for company."

Since the last canning season, Mrs. Goodwin has gotten a frozen food locker, and she said, "I won't be putting up quite so many fruits and vegetables from now on, but I'll always want to do some canning. There's nothing that will ever replace the old-fashioned jellies and preserves."

For the housewife who plans to try canning for the first time, Mrs. Goodwin suggests the purchase of a good canning book. "And don't try too much the first time," she advises.

Her prize-winning recipes are no secret, as Mrs. Goodwin believes in sharing a good thing. Her recipes are simple enough for anyone to follow, she claims. Here are a few of her recipes which took awards at the last State Fair of Texas.

BLACKBERRY JELLY
Crush two quarts blackberries and place in boiler. Bring to boil very slowly. Cook 15 minutes strain and measure. Bring to boil again. To each cup of juice, stir in one cup of sugar. Boil until it makes a good test (slides off the side of a spoon or falls from the center of the spoon in one place). Pour in glass jars and cover with paraffin.

CANNED GUMBO
Ingredients: One quart cooked rice, 1 pint cooked onions, 1 quart cooked tomatoes, 1 quart cooked chicken or beef, diced.
Method: Place ingredients alternately in jars in layers. Put one teaspoon salt on top of ingredients and seal. Process in pressure canner at 10 pounds for 30 minutes. Cool and store.

PLUM CONSERVE
Slice and remove stones from one quart of plums. Place in boiler and pour over them one quart of water. Boil one minute. Mix one cup raisins and two cups sugar and add to plums, boiling 20 minutes. Pour in one cup of nuts and boil one minute. Pour in jars and seal with paraffin.

MINT JELLY
Boil a handful of fresh mint leaves in one cup water for five minutes. Strain, bring to boil and stir in one teaspoon pectin. Boil two minutes. Pour in one cup sugar and boil until it makes good test. (See above).

APPLE JELLY
Pare one quart apples and slice thin. Boil with three cups water for fifteen minutes. Strain and measure. Bring to boil again and add ¾ cup sugar to each cup juice, testing every few minutes. When mixture slides off spoon, pour into glass jars and cool.

BLACKBERRY JAMS
One quart blackberries, crushed. Add 3 cups sugar, and boil slowly until thick or fruit slides from spoon. Pour in jars and seal.

PINEAPPLE MARMELADE
Peel one small pineapple and scoop out all the eyes. Chop fruit. Cook 20 minutes in 2 cups water. Stir in 3 cups sugar and cook slowly until transparent. Pour in jars and seal.

CANNED GRAPES
Wash, stem grapes and pack cold in jars. Pour over them a boiling hot thin syrup made of 2 parts water and one part sugar. Seal and process 5 minutes in boiling water.

CHERRY PRESERVES
Wash, stem one quart firm cherries. Make thin syrup of 2 cups water and 2 cups sugar. Bring to boiling point and drop in cherries. Let boil 5 minutes. Add one cup sugar and cook slowly until transparent. Remove from fire, cover until almost cool, pour in jars and seal with paraffin.

CANTALOUPE CONSERVE
Pare one-half medium-sized cantaloupe and chop. Place in boiler and pour 2 cups sugar over melon. Bring slowly to boiling point. Add 1 cup raisins, 1 lemon rind, grated; juice of lemon, and boil until thick. Add ¼ cup nut meats, boil

1 minute and pour in jars. Seal with paraffin.

APPLE PRESERVES
Pare 8 medium-sized tart apples, cut in quarters. Place in boiler and cover with water. As soon as boiling begins, stir slowly, adding 4 cups sugar. Let boil until transparent or a pretty pink color. Remove from fire, let stand overnight. Next morning slowly warm to almost boiling point. Place in jars, adding syrup with each piece of fruit until jar is filled. Seal with paraffin and place lids on jars.

Electric Eels May Travel By Radar

NEW YORK, Feb. 24.—Electric eels seem to have some strange electrical "radar" to find their way despite poor eyesight.

C. W. Coates, curator and aquarist of the New York Aquarium, New York Zoological Society, told about it in displaying some electric eels to the American Institute of Electrical Engineers.

The electric eels come from tropical South America. They grow four to seven feet long and can develop a wallop of 600 volts. Sometimes they kill horses or cattle.

But they all have poor eyesight. It may be due to damage from its own shocks, or those of its fellows, Coates said. The eel lives in murky swamp water, but can find living things quickly and easily. It can locate a well placed in the water, or an electrical discharge.

It apparently does it by an apparatus that works on the principle of radar, Coates said. Radar sends out high-frequency radio pulses, and records the echoes bouncing back from a target.

When the electric eel tries to locate something, one of its three "batteries" or electrical organs starts discharging, sending out electrical pulses. The rate increases as it gets more excited. And the fish seems to have some kind of receptor organs, other than its eyes or ears or nose, to find its "target", Coates added. These seem to be located in enlarged pores around the eel's head.

"We have been unable to find anything of particular interest beneath these pores, so far. But if they are removed or insulated, the fish does not seem able to find its way about. It would almost seem as if these are the receiving end of an electric finding apparatus."

The electric eel is not an eel at all, but is shaped like one, and hence its name. Its electricity is chemically produced. It is one of half a dozen kinds of electrical fish now living.

Nineteen hundred years ago, one physician made patients with gout stand on an electric fish "until the foot and leg up to the knee had become numb."

Today, study of how the eel creates and transmits its electricity promises to help in understanding the chemical-electric action of nerve impulses in humans.

Bridegroom Gets More Than Bargain In Fireman's Girl

MINNEAPOLIS, Feb. 24. (AP)—Fire engine red will mingle with traditional bridal white when Patricia Frayne weds Saturday.

Miss Frayne, 22, has for a press agent her dad, John J. Frayne, a member of the St. Bernard, Ohio fire department for 27 years.

When she came here to wed Frank Bottenhorn, 27-year-old former University of Cincinnati basketball player, Father Frayne went into action.

He wrote a letter to George Lockhart, chief of the Minneapolis fire department. And he said, inasmuch as he and Mrs. Frayne couldn't attend the ceremony for their daughter, would some of his Minneapolis compatriots help out?

Lockhart responded by asking that all Minneapolis firemen not on duty Saturday morning attend the wedding, to be performed at St. Stephen's Catholic Church. The firemen, in turn, promised to provide the rice, a wedding breakfast and presents.

Miss Frayne will ride to and from her wedding in the Minneapolis chief's official limousine—with an engine company as escort.

"But, gee, I hope they don't ring the bells or blow the sirens," the bridegroom-to-be said today. "We just wanted a quiet wedding."

WATER TANK BUT JUST NO WATER

DENVER, Feb. 24. (AP)—Denver firemen were called out on an unusual assignment yesterday: A water tank caught fire. The tank was victim of a welder's torch. Interior insulation material was set ablaze.

Wingate Man Burned

ABILENE, Feb. 24. (AP)—Billy Dunn, of Wingate, was hospitalized with critical burns following explosion of a butane truck eight miles southwest of View in Taylor County.

HIGH PRICES?
We hate them too!

For a very selfish reason we are just as interested as you are in bringing prices down. When you can't buy, we can't sell. So your problem with the high cost of living is our problem too. May we point out some of the ways we can help?

By cutting out expensive "frills" we make many savings. These savings allow us to price everything low, every day.

But that's not all. Our advertising can help you too. It tells about the foods which are in season—those which are the best buys right now.

On meats too. You get more value in every pound when you buy our trimmed-before-weighing kind. Because we price fruits and vegetables by the pound, you can buy exactly the amounts you need. You eat waste and save again. A money-back guarantee on everything we sell protects you against loss on any purchase.

We believe shopping regularly at Safeway will help reduce your cost of eating. Will you try it?

MORTON'S SALT

WHEN IT RAINS IT POURS

NEW TYPE FARM

Chinchilla Ranch In Own Basement

SALT LAKE CITY, Feb. 24 (AP)—Would you like a hobby that's a lot of fun, requires a moderate investment, little upkeep cost and is nearly self-perpetuating?

Then start a chinchilla "ranch" in your basement, garage or tool shed, says M. J. O'Donnell, who practices what he preaches.

For $1,000, the cost of one pair of the little South American rodents, you can be in business. For another $5 a year for upkeep you can stay there, O'Donnell says.

He ought to know. He has about 100 of the gold-plated little fur-bearers housed in vooop-like sheds of simple construction at his "luxury fur farm" on the outskirts of Salt Lake City.

"They cost no more to raise than ordinary rabbits," O'Donnell says.

"You don't need a ranch. A small pen in the basement will do. Add a few carrots, some hay and a pan of water and you are in business."

He says the animals are exceptionally clean, require little space, no extra heat and each pair can be counted on to replace itself at least once a year. Sometimes as many as three litters a year are produced.

R. F. Gorman, secretary-manager of the National Chinchilla Breeders Association, which has headquarters here for its 2,000 members, confirms O'Donnell's report on ease of raising the little animals.

He adds a note of caution, however.

"In comparison with rabbits, foxes, mink or even cattle or sheep, chinchillas are a heck of a lot easier to keep. The casualty rate is less than many other animals, and they need no special protection or pampering," Gorman says.

"The rate of return on your original investment is greater than in many other businesses, too."

"But raising chinchillas still isn't a get-rich-quick business. The fact that they are easy to raise doesn't mean that there isn't any work."

"Just like any other animals, chinchillas do require food and water and clean pens. You have to stay home and feed and water your chinchillas every day of the year. Just like you would with any other livestock."

Gorman says there now are between 55,000 and 60,000 chinchillas in this country. But there still are only a few fur coats made in any year of chinchilla fur.

He explains the industry is just now getting its breeding stock base established. In another three years Gorman believes there may be four times as many of the silky little animals and by that time regular marketing of pelts can begin.

Right now a full length chinchilla coat of 140 skins costs at retail somewhere between $20,000 and $25,000. Ranchers now mainly sell their animals for breeding stock.

An industry-wide code of ethics is being prepared in an attempt to keep "sharp-shooters" out of the business, Gorman says.

What makes chinchilla fur so valuable? One thing, of course, has been its scarcity. But the cobweb-soft hairs in each fur are so fine as to leave almost no sensation when the fur is touched.

Seventy to 80 hairs grow from one hair follicle, O'Donnell says. This tufting is what makes the fur so soft. Each of the tiny hairs is finer than a spider web.

The fun of raising the animals comes from watching them. Children are fascinated by their antics and barring certain individual animals, the creatures love to play and be petted.

WHAT A BITE—Dasha Jitkoff, 12 months old, of Houston, Texas, displays eight of her sixteen teeth. Doctors expressed the belief that she has the greatest number of teeth for a child of her age which has been reported in the nation. (AP Wirephoto).

And Nothing Can Be Done About It

WELL, HURR, IT'S NICE TO SEE YOU IN A GOOD HUMOR FOR A CHANGE -- IS BUSINESS PICKING UP OR SOMETHING?

HEH-HEH! I HEARD A GOOD SCOTCH STORY ON THE WAY HOME -- IT SEEMS SANDY HAD BEEN PHOTOGRAPHED.

WHILE HE WAS LOOKING AT HIS PICTURE, MACPHERSON CAME ALONG -- WHAT'S THAT YE NEV THERE? HE ASKED.

MY PHOTOGRAPH SAID SANDY HAD DIED -- SANDY MACPHERSON SAID HE WAS JUST LIKE YE -- THE AN' WHAT MIGHT YE LIKE TO COST?

"I OONNA KEN," SAID SANDY, "MINNA SAID YET." WOH, SAID MACPHERSON, MORE FIRMLY THAN EVER, "IT'S AWFUL LIKE YE."

WOULD YOU MIND TELLING THAT OVER AGAIN? I'M AFRAID I MISSED THE POINT OF IT.

Five People Perish In Oil Explosion

ATLANTA, Feb. 24 (AP)—Four young children and their mother died last night when flames from an oil stove explosion engulfed a frame two-family dwelling in suburban Riverside.

The 32-year-old mother, Mrs. Harvey R. Wallace, gave her life in a futile attempt to save her children who were asleep when the stove exploded. Fulton County Police identified the other dead as Wallace children, Vera 10, Shirley 8, Leon 5 and Patsy 3.

Experiment Canning Milk To Retain Original Taste

VALPARAISO, Ind., Feb. 24 (AP)—Experiments designed to can fresh milk and retain its original taste are being made at an Indiana dairy farm—but the product is not ready for the market.

The new process, if perfected, could result in radical changes in milk distribution methods, probably eliminating the need for daily home deliveries.

Jack Stambaugh, on whose 1,200-acre dairy farm the experiments are being conducted, described the process. He said cans of fresh milk have been sent by parcel post between Chicago and Valparaiso for only three cents a quart. This compares to the five cents a quart extra the Chicago housewife pays to have milk delivered.

Dr. Roy Graves, former U. S. Department of Agriculture scientist, is conducting the experiments in co-operation with the Continental Can Co. Stambaugh said he was "a partner in the enterprise." In cautioning that the product is not ready for the market, Stambaugh said: "Six months or maybe a year of exhaustive research will be necessary before we're sure."

He also said perfection of the process would mean the housewife could buy canned fresh milk at the grocery store, the same as she now buys canned vegetables. He added, however, he could not even estimate how soon fresh milk on grocers' shelves could become a reality.

A Chicago Tribune reporter who visited the farm and sampled milk that had been canned five weeks said it "tasted no different than that in a fresh bottle from the dairy."

Margaret O'Brien Tearful During Mother's Wedding

PALM BEACH, Fla., Feb. 24 (AP)—Child Movie Star Margaret O'Brien returns to the theater world of make believe today after figuring in a real life drama in which her mother was married to Orchestra Leader Don Sylvio.

Less than 15 hours before a commercial airliner was scheduled to take her to Boston to fill a stage engagement, the tiny screen heroine had stood with tears streaming down her cheeks as her widowed mother, Mrs. Gladys O'Brien, exchanged wedding vows with Sylvio in a brief civil ceremony here.

After the ceremony, Margaret refused to kiss her new step-father for photographers.

When the wedding party entered the suite in a Palm Beach (Colony) Hotel Margaret took refuge behind her mother as tears welled in her eyes.

"Oh, Mother," she was heard to sob during the five-minute ceremony.

Asked by a reporter whether her tears were for happiness or sadness, she replied: "I don't know... I don't know."

ON CIVIL RIGHTS

Dixie Senators May Join Republicans

WASHINGTON, Feb. 24 (AP)—A southern senator said today some of his Dixie colleagues might back a Republican effort to keep a civil rights debate going—and thus block a long string of top-priority administration bills.

The issue is due to come up Monday, when the Senate considers a rule change to cut off filibusters. Southerners, who traditionally try to talk civil rights measures to death when they run out of other weapons, say they will filibuster against the rules change.

Senate Democratic leaders plan to set aside that debate whenever any important legislation is ready for action. But the Dixie lawmaker, who asked to remain anonymous, said that might not be so easy.

He pointed out that with only seven southern votes, added to the 42 they have in their own party, Republicans could keep the civil rights debate on the floor, while such important administration measures as these piled up behind it.

Reciprocal Trade; European aid; housing; repeal of the Taft-Hartley labor act; and aid to education.

Two of those measures showed signs of becoming involved in the civil rights battle from an entirely different quarter.

Sen. Bricker (R-Ohio) proposed amending the housing bill to ban racial discrimination or segregation in public housing projects.

Russia Pushing Prepared Food

MOSCOW, Feb. 24 (AP)—Canned soups are being turned out in large quantities in Moscow.

An announcement said the Mikoyan Food Factory is producing some 70 different varieties from formulas of famous Russian chefs.

Breakfast foods, it was pointed out, are also becoming extremely popular.

"Cornflakes, by the way," said the announcement, "is winning more and more popular approval."

Prepared baby foods are reaching the market, too.

"All the mothers will have to do," it was said, "is to put the stuff in boiling milk and the babies will get their complete dietetic formula, with all the necessary vitamins and under conditions of super-sterility."

BACKACHE, LEG PAINS MAY BE DANGER SIGN Of Tired Kidneys

When disorder of kidney function permits poisonous matter to remain in your blood, it may cause nagging backache, rheumatic pains, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, resting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness. Frequent or scanty passages with smarting and burning sometimes shows there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder.

Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, a stimulant diuretic, used successfully by millions for over 60 years. Doan's give heavy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from your blood. Get Doan's Pills.

SALT LAKE CITY, Feb. 24 (AP)—A dog's bark, not the dog, frightens mountain lions.

That's the belief of Owen W. Morris, predator control agent for the U. S. fish and wildlife service. He says:

"Deep snow forced many hungry deer into Salt Lake City and its suburbs this winter. Later, cougars followed the deer, says Morris, and made kills near houses. Morris reassures householders by saying "cougars won't attack humans."
