Senior Citizens

Busy Week

May 25, fourteen Band members went to Baird to play for the Nursing Home's Birthday party.

A beautiful birthday cake and punch were served to the residence and the band members.

Thursday 25 club members were present. The pastor of the Methodist Church and his wife and two children were our visitors. We enjoyed them very much and hope they come again soon.

Hazel McCollum and Artie Jagers checked blood pressures. We thank you both very much. We appreciate you.

There were not as many tables of dominoes as usual. Some players were out due to vacations and illness.

After lunch the band went to the Gorman Nursing Home to play for their Birthday party. The residence were all seated and ready when we arrived to play for them. They clapped their hands and patted their foot along with us. We are always glad to try our best to make their day a little brighter.

June 13th, the band will play at the Romney Homecoming. We have a busy schedule set up for June.

John had been convicted of murder and sentenced to death. The last day of his life had come. The warden awakened him and said, "Since this is your last day, John, you can have anything you want to eat." "I'd like some watermelons," he said. "But," protested the warden, "they won't be ripe for six months." "That's all right," said the prisoner. "I can wait." But do not wait to turn to the Lord. You can count on fire to burn and ice to chill. You can count on fish to swim in the sea and birds to fly in the air. You can count on the sun to shine by day and the stars to shine by night. But you can not count on tomorrow. Read the Bible from Genesis through Revelation. Nowhere, in no chapter and in no verse, can we find where the Lord suggested for a person to believe tomorrow or next week. Nowhere can we read in the Bible where the Lord tells a person to prepare for death at some future time. He never invites men and women to come to Him some other time. He insists, "Now is the accepted time." You will come now; won't you?

Veterans Commemorated

A country without heroes is poor but a country that has heroes and does not honor them is poverty stricken" stated Judge Scott Bailey as he spoke during an impressive Memorial Day ceremony Sunday.

The VFW Post 4136, American Legion Post 553, and the Auxillaries of both organizations, commemorated the memory of the veterans of Eastland County at the Eastland Cemetery on Memorial Day.

The Master of Ceremonies was Emory Walton and the program was carried by Radio Station KERC. The Opening Prayer was given by Pastor Larry Smith of the Church of God at Camp Inspiration in Eastland.

Eastland Mayor Charles Marshall extended greetings to all present and listening and expressed thanks to the persons, organizations and businesses who contributed time, effort and money in the obtaining and erecting of the new flag pole in the Eastland Cemetery.

Mayor Marshall, then substituting for Mr. H.V. O'Brien, Editor of the Eastland Telegram and owner of Eastland Newspapers, Inc., dedicated the new flag pole. In doing so, he reminded the audience that the principles of our great of Memorial Day from its beginning in a small town in Mississippi shortly after the Civil War.

In referring to the flag flying at half mast, Judge Bailey said that as long as Old Glory waves we should ever be reminded that this is truly the land of the free and the home of the brave where our flag stands for the many freedoms which we enjoy. He ended by leading those present with the Pledge of Allegiance.

The Dedication of Memorial Services was conducted by Bill Kerr (Army Retired) of Ranger and of VFW Post 4136. He dedicated the "Roll of Honor" containing the names of 546 veterans known to be buried in Eastland County. While he read the names of the 43 cemeteries in Eastland County where such veterans are buried, Sig High, Commander of VFW Post 4136, and Mrs. Ruth Kerr, of that VFW Post's Auxillary, draped the "Roll of Honor" in black. Wreaths were placed at the base of the new flag pole by District Attorney Emory Walton, Judge Scott Bailey and Mayor Charles Marshall.

Under the direction of Staff Sgt. Alfonso Gaeta, the symbolic 21 gun salute was given by members of the veterans' organizations and of "B" Btry.,

Country worth fighting and dying for are the living to remember.

Jim Pelham of American Legion Post 553 presented the inspiring General Order of The Republic, dated May 5, 1868, by which Memorial Day was first officially recognized.

Father Jim Miller of St. Rita's Catholic Church of Ranger delivered a Prayer For Peace.

The Gold Star Mothers living in Eastland County were recognized by Master of Ceremonies Emory Walton. These are the Mothers who have lost sons during time of war. One such Mother, Mrs. J.D. Parsons, was present for the ceremony. Walton read the names of the living World War I veterans from Eastland County, two of whom were present. They were Carl Timmons and Hugh Mehafey.

The guest speaker for the occasion was Eastland County Judge Scott Bailey of Cisco. He reviewed the internal and foreign conflicts and wars in which this great Country has been involved. Judge Bailey called attention to the fact that there are veterans from the Texas Revolution to the latest war in Viet Nam buried in the Eastland Cemetery. He reminded those present and listening of the history 2nd Bn., 131 Field Atry., of the Texas National Guard at Breckenridge after which Bill Ford of Ranger played TAPS.

The Master of Ceremonies expressed thanks to all who were responsible for not only the work in preparing for the Memorial Day Services but also to the interested persons and businesses who sponsored the newspaper advertising of the event and for the expenses of having the program carried over KERC. He also commented about the public service activities of the VFW, American Legion and their Auxillaries. He cited as examples of their community involvement the donation by the VFW Auxillary of equipment to the girls softball program when it first started and the recent donation of cash and clothing to the people of Paris, Texas, after the tornado there.

The services were closed with a prayer by Rev. Jasper Massegee, 2nd Baptist Church of Ranger. The flag was then lowered and given to Judge Bailey who announced that it will be presented at the Eastland County Court House on Flag Day.

Following the Memorial Day Services, a barbeque was held for the members and guests of the VFW, American Legion and the Auxillaries of both veterans' organizations.

WORD of GOD

Psalm 23
A Psalm of David.

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

Congressman Kent Hance honored

Texas Congressman Kent Hance will be awarded the Texas Independent Producers and Royalty Owners (TIPRO) Hats Off Award at the Association's 36th Annual Meeting to be held at the Shamrock Hilton in Houston June 6-8.

According to TIPRO officials, Hance will be cited for his outstanding performance as a Congressman and member of the Ways and Means Committee, where he fought for equitable taxation of the independent producer and royalty owner. Hance will respond to the award, and inform an expected 1,000 TIPRO leaders on energy issues from the Administration's point of view.

Natural gas deregulation is one of the subjects which some of Texas' best known independent operators and royalty owners will discuss in open business sessions. Some of the experts who will address the group include C.M. Butler, Chairman of the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, and Charles J. Dibona, President of the American Petroleum Institute.

TIPRO members will be informed of issues facing the Texas Legislature by State Representative Gib Lewis of Ft. Worth. Lewis presently serves as Chairman of the House Committee on Intergovernmental Affairs, and is a candidate for Speaker of the Texas House of Representatives. An economic report of the oil and gas industry will also be presented by Llewellyn King, publisher of Energy Daily.

The meeting will include sessions in which TIPRO's 1982-83 course will be charted for action to improve the political and economic climate for Texas Oil and Gas producers.

TIPRO welcomes the attendance of interested persons at these meetings. Some of the decisions formulated at this Convention are certain to have a bearing on the future dealings of independent producers and royalty owners with Legislators.

See M.H. Perry for GROUP INSURANCE 629-1566 or 629-1095 104 N. Lamar-Eastland.

The well will produce from two sets of perforations in the Big Saline Formation, 3880 to 3,890 and 3,928 and 3,934 feet into the hole. The drillsite was in a 160-acre unit, Andrew Klenke Survey, about 470 feet west of the Brazos River channel.

Total drilling depth was 4,450 feet.

Snow Oil Company of Fort Worth has filed for permit to drill the No. 1 Barrett, a 1,350-ft. wildcat 1.5 miles northwest of Romney. Location is in a 5-acre lease in Eastland County's H&TCRR Survey.

A Dallas-based operator has staked location for the No. 2 J.B. Boggs, a wildcat to be located one mile north of Cisco. With projected total depth of 4,100 feet, the well is in a 202-acre lease in Eastland County's H&TCRR Survey. The operator is Hanvey Production.

3-B Oil Company of Lovington, N. Mex. has revealed plans to drill a 2,000-ft. developmental well in the Hawkeye Field. The operator has 80 acres leased, with drillsite in Eastland County's H&TCRR Survey and has designated the venture as the No. 3 Tarver. Drillsite is one mile west of Romney.

Buck Wheat Resources of Eastland has filed first production figures on a new oil well in the Hawkeye Field. The No. 3 Cox showed potential to make 50 barrels of oil per day.

The operator has 134-acres leased, with drillsite in Eastland County's H&TCRR Survey, ten miles south of Cisco.

The well will produce from an interval 1,138 to 1,140 feet into the wellbore. Total drilling depth was 1,162 feet.

Texas gas production down 4.52%

Exports of Texas-produced gas in February totaled 196,879,171 Mcf, and reflected a 6.31 percent increase from the year-earlier month.

Texas gas production in February came from 223,379 oil and gas wells.

In January 1982, Texas wells produced 554,272,209 Mcf of gas. Marketed gas production in January totaled 472,026,121 Mcf. January exports of Texas-produced gas totaled 216,047,170 Mcf.

Le Brun's Self Portrait A Favorite Painting At Fort Worth's Kimbell Art Museum

Visitors to the Kimbell Art Museum - located on Will Rogers Rd. off Lancaster Blvd. in Ft. Worth are often drawn to the Le Brun "Self Portrait". The painting has a strange, luminescent quality. The eyes seem alive, the hair shines softly, the earrings glow.

This painting was a favorite of the late Mr. and Mrs. Kay Kimbell, who left their fortune for the establishment of a place where fine art would be available to the public.

Now people of this area will have a rare opportunity to view 56 works of this French artist Elizabeth Louise Vigee Le Brun (1755-1842) in a major exhibition at the Museum. It will last from June 5 through Aug. 8, and the hours will be Tuesday-Saturday 10 a.m.-5 p.m., Sunday 1 p.m.-5 p.m., closed Monday. Admission will be free.

There will be public lectures dealing with the painter and the era in which she lived, as well as films about the French Revolution. The films will be presented on Saturdays and Sundays at 1:30 p.m. from June 12 through July 3. All of these events are free, and seating will be on a first-come basis.

Vigee Le Brun, best known for her portraits of Queen Antoinette and the aristocratic society of that time, is considered one of the most successful women artists of any age.

The exhibition will include works lent from major museum and private collections in the United States and Europe, and they range in date from the early 1770's to 1819. Paintings done in Paris during the 1770's and the 1780's as well as portraits painted later in Italy, Austria and Russia after the French Revolution will be on view.

Some of the most important sitters represented will be Duchesse d'Orleans, Lady Hamilton, King Stanislas II of Poland, the painter Joseph Vernet, and Queen Marie Antoinette. Also featured in the show will be portraits of the artist's family, and her early history painting "Peace Bring Back Abundance". This was recently conserved by the Louvre for inclusion in this exhibition.

Major lenders, besides the Louvre, include: The Palace of Versailles, National Gallery of Art, Washington, the Metropolitan Museum of Art, and Museum of Fine Arts, Boston.

This is the first time such a Le Brun exhibition has ever been assembled, and will be shown exclusively in Ft. Worth. It was undertaken at the suggestion of David Robb, Jr., Chief Curator, as part of the Museum's 10th Anniversary celebration of its 1972 opening.

OBITUARY

Those Dirty Stains and Spots

A memorial service for Jack Gibson, 63, a petroleum landman, was held April 14 at First United Methodist Church with burial at Rose Hill.

Gibson, of Ft. Worth, died April 11.

Born in Sweetwater, he grew up in Rising Star, received a bachelor of arts degree from McMurray College at Abilene and did graduated work at the University of Texas.

Gibson was a World War II veteran, including three years overseas with the 15th Air Force, 5th Bomb Wing. He was executive officer of the 97th Bomb Group in Foggia, Italy, and maintained retired reserve status as an Air Force lieutenant colonel.

Gibson worked for Standard Oil Co. of Texas for five years, for Rowan Oil Co. six years and had been with Perry R. Bass Inc. for 18 years. The last nine years, he worked for the Bass Enterprises Production Co. Inc. in Fort Worth.

He was a charter member of the Fort Worth Association of Petroleum Landmen. He was also a member of the Fort Worth Petroleum Club, Woodhaven Country Club and the Air Force Association, Chapter 272.

Survivors include his wife, Barbara; a son, Malcolm D. Gibson of Houston; a daughter, Jacqueline Polasky of Alexandria, Va.; a sister, Charlotte G. Gillespie of Corpus Christi; and three grandchildren.

Spots and stains—they're all too common on household furnishings and carpets, says Bonnie Piernot, a family resource management specialist.

Piernot is on the money economics staff of the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System.

How do you remove these hindrances from household items successfully?

Using a good spot removal guide that is easily accessible and taking a few precautions before attempting to remove stains favors best results, the specialist notes.

Act fast! The faster you treat the stain, the milder the remedy needed.

Blot dry or remove surface deposits. For grease stains, sprinkle thickly with an absorbent powder; fruit juice and wine spills should be covered with salt, and most other stains can be rinsed with cold water.

If using a stain remover, follow manufacturer's instructions.

Use a stain removal guide for relevant information on specific stain and removal procedures.

Once a stain is treated, dry fabric or carpet as quickly and evenly as possible.

Always be cautious about stains you can't identify. If in doubt, consult professionals.

I want to start by thanking everyone that has helped during the month of May. The First Baptist Church for the first Sunday Service and each Wednesday's devotional. The First Methodist Church for the second Sunday Service. On the third Sunday we were honored to have May's Calvary Baptist Church to fill in for Bro. Fourth Sunday Church service was in charge of Church of Christ. The fifth Sunday was in charge of Bible Baptist Church.

Thank you each one. Thanks goes to Olive Odem and her group from First Baptist Church of May for the Bible Study each Friday. To the Star Brite Band for coming twice this month. The Birthday volunteers are always a blessing, too.

A big Thank You goes to W.C. and Elza Witt for the aquarium and fish. We all enjoy them.

Commentary

by Myrtle Owen

HEB. 10: 23-24, Let us hold fast the profession of our faith without wavering; (for he is faithful that promised;) And let us consider one another to provoke unto love and to good words; When you pray, look at the answer, not at the need or the problem, keep your mind upon God. Say, "God, I have prayed and I believe You will answer me." Then hold on. Refuse to give up. When I pray, I bring my faith to a climax and release it. Once released, I never recall it. I have had prayers on deposit for certain things for months. Some of these things have come to pass; others have not.

But I do not call back the prayers I have prayed. I believe that if I hold on faithfully, God will eventually answer those prayers. Once you have prayed and released your faith, the prayer is in the hands of God...and God never fails).

Not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together, as the manner of some is; but exhorting one another: and so much the more, as ye see the day approaching. For Jesus himself set the example for us to follow. It was His habit to go to church. (Luke 4:16) I have found that the person who is content to worship just anytime and anywhere, without having a definite time and place, is a person who rarely worships at all. God has placed faith in each of us. But it must be brought forth. It is much like drilling for oil. Oil is in the ground, but men have to drill into the ground until they strike the oil. Then it comes gushing upward. The minister is the driller, and the Word of God is the tool by which he drills into the human heart to bring forth faith. Just as a driller crew takes a rig, drives through the earth and finds the oil so that it comes forth, so God's anointed minister preaches the Word of God, which is quick and powerful. It pierces the heart and lays bare the secrets of the soul. It drills into the innermost part of our emotions and there it discovers our faith.

The Word enables our faith to rise, to take wings and fly from our spirit. Suddenly we are possessed with a magnificent fighting force that God calls our faith. This is one of the reasons that God says, "Forsake not the assembling of yourselves together." It is absolutely essential that men and women and their families go to church. For there is more faith in the house of God than there is in any other place in the world. All week we wrestle with the problems and battles of life. And we sometimes grow discouraged and become beaten down. But when the preacher is anointed, he seems to say just the right thing to help us believe and release our faith. When we leave God's house we carry a new strength, an inner light, a deeper knowledge, a stronger determination and a greater faith. This is one reason why the Lord exhorts us not to forsake "the assembling of ourselves together" for worship.

Farm Bureau

Ernest Reich of Cisco, president of the Eastland County Farm Bureau, says that Farm Bureau is conducting an all-out campaign to improve farm income.

He attended a Farm Bureau district meeting May 27, in Abilene, Tex., where the organization's "Action Plan for a Profitable Agriculture" was discussed by leaders throughout this area. Similar meetings are held in all 13 Farm Bureau districts in Texas.

Campaigning

To Improve Farm Income

The county farm leader said that Farm Bureau is taking this action because farmers and ranchers are facing their worse crisis since the Great Depression of the 1930s.

Mr. Reich added that the problem is over-production, coupled with the high cost of production.

In explaining the need for completion of the Economic Recovery Program Mr. Reich pointed out that a healthy economy is essential to agriculture and can be best achieved through a balanced budget.
