Ranger Bulldogs Wallop Lowly Cats 47 to 0 Last Friday

In spite of a certain preacher ringing his golden bells and an enthusiastic lady fan yelling "open a hole and let him thru" the Rising Star Wildcats were really helpless before the onslaught of the Ranger Bulldogs last Friday night. A large crowd saw the one-sided fracas. At the beginning of the game the Cats received a kick off and made a first down—but from there on it was Ranger all the way.

Coach "Stubby" Warden used his second string a good portion of the time and they showed up well.

The lone tally Rising Star made shows the improvement made by the Cats and gives local fans hope that maybe we can win a game before the last whistle blows at the end of the season.

The Ranger Bulldog's fleet-footed parson, Right Halfback Charles Massagee, scored three touchdowns and passed for a fourth to pace his team to a 47-0 district 7-A victory over Rising Star Friday night.

Massagee scored first from three yards out in the first quarter following by Billy Browning's conversion. Bulldog Fullback Jim Littlefield added six more points on a three yard scamper after which Browning also converted.

Massagee added another marker on a 15 yard scamper in the second. Browning's kick was no good. Massagee repeated from the 18 a few minutes later and Browning converted. One Bulldog touchdown was called back on account of a rule infraction. In the third, Quarterback Scott Forney passed to Right End Chico Mendoza to score from the 15. Browning's kick was true. Second string Ranger halfback Benny Robinson climaxed the Bulldog point-making with a 10-yard run. Browning's kick missed.

Rising Star made its lone tally against Ranger's second stringers in the fourth. Halfback Malon Sheffield toted the pigskin over from the 15 and End Vernon Walker converted. The win Friday night gave the Bulldogs a four-won, none-lost record in District 7-A while Rising Star has dropped all four of its district games.

Half Time Activities.

Both bands paraded and played snappy tunes much to the delight of the fans. Miss Marjorie Weathers was crowned football sweetheart during appropriate ceremonies. Her escorts were John McDonald and Malon Sheffield. Woody Chambers drove the car that carried the sweetheart to her place in the band formation.

Quarter Back Club In Interesting Meet Last Monday at 7:30

With such talk as getting the football team some girls' panties to wear in the hope they may wake up and be able to win at least one ball game before the season is over, a group of interested members of the recently organized quarterback club met at the legion hall last Monday night and discussed the ball team and some things that are connected with the coming basketball and track season. One man said that a team in East Texas had been clothed with girls' panties because of their inability to win a game—the boys saw what had happened—they were considered sissies—they went to work and from then on according to the man they never lost a game. It might be worth a try said another member. Prices on panties may be a premium as the club would probably want the old fashioned kind with lace and all that.

The following members will assist the boys home each afternoon after practice:

Week of October 26:
North—Geo. Steel.
West—T. T. Terry.
East—Cecil Joyce.

Week of Nov. 2:
North—Chas. Rutherford.
West—C. B. Nichols.

There will be a regular meeting of the club on November 2 at the Legion hall. President McDonald has been absent for the past two weeks in a meeting at Midland. Cards will be mailed for this meeting as some very important business will come before the body.

The group is still backing the boys 100 per cent and are hoping the boys will come through with a win this Friday night when they go to Wylie.

At the close of the meeting Mr. Hugh Millington set the group up to a pass at the Star Theatre.

"Five years ago there were 7,000 turkeys grown in Eastland County and in 1953 the turkey population has grown to 80,000 birds," Dr. Ben Bradley of Rising Star, president of the Central Texas Turkey Growers Association, told Rotarians at their meeting Thursday at the Hotel Victor in Cisco.

He said that the importance of turkey growing as an industry for the county was growing rapidly and attributed the increase to the climate and the terrain.

He told of the economics of the industry and said that it required approximately $6,000 in buildings and equipment to begin with 3,000 birds. He said that normally a turkey would require $4 from the time he was hatched until he reached market size. Using that figure he said that the 80,000 turkeys in the county represented an investment of $320,000, excluding equipment.

He said that from October 4 to October 10, $116,000 worth of turkeys were shipped from Rising Star alone. He compared it with a new industry that had a payroll of over $100,000 per year.

Dr. Bradley said that there were 250,000 turkeys in the nine county central Texas area and that the area could easily increase its number to half a million.

He said that turkey growing was a science and named four principal factors in the operation. They were breeding, feeding, sanitation and management.

Following the talk, Rotarian B. A. Butler showed a group of color slides made at various turkey ranches in the area, showing the turkeys and the equipment needed in the industry.

Three Quarter Million Pounds Peanuts Weighed at Bucy Scales Week August 12

Peanuts and more peanuts can be seen in Rising Star—it is a sight to behold. With a two year drouth in the background our people are rejoicing over the splendid crop this year.

Jim Bucy is a busy man—but he takes time out to furnish the public with the total amount weighed. The total is for the week beginning October 12 and goes through October 17. It does not include any peanuts weighed for this week.

According to Art Fisher, who checked the weights on the adding machine the total is 717,870 lacking just a little of being three quarter million pounds.

Bucy also reports the grades are better than last week and the coming week should reach the million mark.

Watch for the grand total in next week's Record.

Joe's Cafe Robbed Of Merchandise at Value Around $12

Officers report another felony committed by teenagers in Rising Star—several boys of prominent families were in jail all day Monday explaining to officers and their parents why it was necessary to commit a felony—just plain robbery, when they had money in their pockets. Of course the answer was hard to understand. This was their first offense and according to Mayor Walter Smith the youths were turned over to their parents with the understanding that should they be guilty of another such offense this present charge will be brought against them.

One of the finest pieces of news that came out of the mess was that several were taken behind the wood shed and tended to. Lord what a blessing to a boy that his dad thinks enough of him to spoil the rod rather than take up some of the new-fangled ideas of letting the kids do as they please. It is certainly hoped that parents will watch the comings and goings of their kids and maybe a few of them can be saved from such things as has been going on around this section lately.

The boys ranged in years from 16 to 18 according to the mayor. So far as is known, no money was taken said Mrs. Thadja Jo Awalt, proprietor of the cafe. The boys had money in their pockets and paid back what was stolen.

Mr. and Mrs. Phill Reese and mother, Mrs. Jake Reese of Phillips, visited Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Milner and Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Milner over week end.

APO 42, C-o Postmaster,

1 October, 1953

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. T. Hardy
Rt. 1, Rising Star, Eastland, Tex.
Dear Mr. and Mrs. Hardy:

I desire to express my deepest sympathy to you in the sudden passing of your son, Private Andrew C. Hardy, who was an honored member of our Battalion. His sudden passing in the tragic accident came as a great shock to all of us, and we feel his loss very keenly. Andrew had not been in the unit for long, but long enough to have gained the utmost respect and admiration of the officers and enlisted men of his unit. Those who knew him best spoke of his great devotion to duty, and their united testimony was that his conduct was above reproach. It was quite evident that he was living a clean and wholesome life in keeping with his Christian training, and for this he had gained the greatest respect of all who knew him.

Yesterday we had a Memorial Service in our Chapel in his honor, and the Chapel was filled for the service, indicating the high esteem in which your son was held. I am enclosing two copies of the Order of Service. The solo used in the service was entitled, "Beyond the Sunset," which is a gospel song that has a real message of comfort and blessing in the midst of sorrow.

With regard to your other son, Pfc. Richard Hardy, who was injured in the same accident, I can assure you that he is being given the very best of medical care and attention at the 20th Station Hospital in Bad Kreuznach. I will continue to visit him regularly there, and our prayer is that he may be restored to health again if that be the Lord's will.

I trust that the Lord will graciously comfort you in these days of sorrow and bereavement, and you may be assured of our continued prayer in your behalf. With deep sympathy, I remain,
Sincerely in Christ,

Presidents of Two Nations Shake Hands And Dedicate Falcon Dam as Guns Boom; Eisenhower and Cortinez Agree

FALCON DAM, Oct. 19.—Spl. Three thousand U. S. and Mexican citizens faced the broiling border sun and cheered Monday as their presidents dedicated a great dam to their peace and wealth.

Artillery pieces bellowed a 21-gun salute as the chiefs of state returned to their own nations at 4 p. m. (Fort Worth time).

Immediately after the dedication, President Eisenhower said citizens of both the United States and Mexico should try and build a better good neighbor policy in a three-minute, informal speech to several thousand persons at the Texas terminus of the dam. He then went by automobile to Laredo and left by plane for Washington.

Speaks to Spanish.
President Ruiz Cortines, speaking first, said in Spanish the dam is above all "a source of prosperity for a vast group of human beings—men, women and children—without distinction of nationality, race, language or religion.

THIS SHOWS CURRENT BUSINESS COMPARED WITH THE SAME TIME FOR THE PREVIOUS THIRTEEN YEARS

BUSINESS ACTIVITY

By ROGER W. BABSON

The volume of business, as measured by my Composite Business Chart, is 15% above normal. It has fluctuated only 5 points during all the year—ranging from 15% above normal to 20% above. Business activity so far this year has been at the highest average of any comparable period on record. Although considerable resistance to decline has been shown by most industries, no new stimulus can be seen on the horizon. Mounting stocks of automobiles in dealers' hands and increased buyer resistance imply a lower rate of output during the rest of the year.

Slower bookings by the steel producers for the fourth quarter reflect easing demand, not merely from the automobile industry, but also from other major outlets. Some reductions in steel operations have already been seen. With the outlook for a further drop in building and continued low farm-equipment demand, an end of the year operating rate of less than 80% steel capacity would not be surprising. Inventories have gone up $5 billion during the past 12 months and are more vulnerable now than at any time since 1948. Ultimately, sales must expand to absorb the excess output, or production will be curtailed.

At current retail prices we can foresee no important sales increases. This means that production may not continue to hold at recent peak levels. When the decline comes, the businessman who is currently following conservative financial and inventory policies will best be able to ride out the storm. A few lost sales now will be much easier to stand than will severe inventory losses later. Even so, with personal income and savings statistics showing record amounts, it may be possible for sales to increase enough to support recent output. Constructive advertising and salesmanship are the need of the hour. The same energy devoted to sales promotion that is given to production methods would go far to meet the present situation.

Washington

"As It Looks From Here"

OMAR BURLISON
Congressman
17th District

During the few days since my return to Washington, I am able to gather a few impressions which might indicate future courses of action on the part of the Administration.

On the domestic side, the farm program and what to do with farm surpluses is undoubtedly the biggest problem to be faced. Some of the good intentions voiced earlier by Mr. Benson, Secretary of Agriculture, have now gone out the window. The impression is that they are now facing realities, instead of theories.

On the national and international scene, the number one question is how to gear our defenses and military power to the act that Russia has the hydrogen bomb. President Eisenhower has made some pretty strong statements to wake us up to the possible danger. It seems to me he is going to have to do some very plain talking in order that the entire nation may know something of the awfulness of such a possible bomb attack.

There is current newspaper talk about an agreement with Russia to disarm, or at least to control the output of atomic and hydrogen bombs. It should first be understood that Russia has offered to discuss such an agreement, but as usual with the Russians, there is a catch to it. They would probably agree to most anything, but they have balked at any arrangement for inspection to see that the agreement is carried out.

Other things shaping up for the coming Session of the Congress are: the matter of taxes; balancing the budget; revisions in the Social Security laws; recommendations for changes in the Taft-Hartley Law; and numerous items of unfinished business carried over from the last Congress.

The next Session of the Congress promises to be busier than the last. The new Administration put off a great many things until it was more experienced on which action will need to be taken.

During my visit back home, I greatly enjoyed talking to people and getting their views. It is hoped that everyone will continue to give me the benefit of their thinking and suggestions on the issues vitally affecting all of us. Never before in history has the public been so well-informed on so many subjects as our people are today. It is true that there is also a goodly amount of misinformation, too, but usually we are able to sift the grain from the trash and come up with a pretty clear attitude on what is happening. It is often confusing enough without such distractions, but it seems most people feel they must take a greater interest in public affairs. In my opinion, those who feel that way are correct. In these days our very survival may depend on it.

The Department of Agriculture has announced a hay program for the drought areas similar to the emergency livestock feed. The difference in their thinking is that the hay program should be worked through local feed dealers. Ten million dollars is earmarked for the purpose, most of which will go for cost of transportation. Shipping charges from the North and Midwest where hay is available amount to about the purchase price at the source of supply.

OUR DEMOCRACY—by Mat

The Basic Freedom

AMERICA'S EARLIEST COLONISTS INCLUDED SEVERAL GROUPS WHO CAME TO THE NEW WORLD SEEKING FREEDOM TO WORSHIP AS THEY PLEASED. BUT AMONG THESE GROUPS THE SPIRIT OF TOLERANCE, WHICH LATER FOUND EXPRESSION IN THE CONSTITUTIONAL GUARANTEE OF THAT FREEDOM TO ALL PEOPLE, WAS NOT EASILY ACHIEVED.

RELIGIOUS FREEDOM SUPPORTS AND COMPLEMENTS ALL THE OTHER FREEDOMS WE ENJOY. IT NOURISHES THE SPIRITUAL AND MORAL VALUES UPON WHICH THE SOUND DEVELOPMENT OF FAMILY, COMMUNITY AND NATIONAL LIFE DEPENDS. THE INCREASING PARTICIPATION BY THE AMERICAN PEOPLE IN RELIGIOUS OBSERVANCES IS A HOPEFUL AUGURY FOR THE FUTURE OF OUR DEMOCRACY.

MAY TIGERS DEFEAT EARLY LONGHORNS 28-0

By JAMES LOWRANCE

The May High School Tigers opened their District 14-B schedule by romping to a 28-0 victory over the Early Longhorns.

A vicious May line pounded Early's offensive forward wall to shreds holding the Longhorns to a single first down and only a net gain of 14 yards the first half of the game.

Dean Key and Bo Allen took pitchouts and handoffs from up-back Buddy Nieman and went around end off-tackle and up the middle of the Early line which seemed to be completely controlled by May's forward wall.

A fine defense thrown up by the Tigers kept Early from making a single threat during the entire contest.

The Tigers struck early in the first period when Jackie Brown jarred David Walls loose from the ball and Charles Mullis recovered. Taking over on the Early 26, the Tigers picked up two first downs to the 3. Key added two and Nieman rammed over from the one on a quarter-back sneak. Nieman booted the extra point, the first of four successful conversions by Nieman.

In the second quarter, the Tigers brought a Longhorn punt back to the Early 24. The Tigers punched their way to the two. A five-yard penalty set them back to the seven, from which point Key rammed over for a TD. Nieman's kick made the score, 14-0, with the Tigers holding that margin at half time.

Midway in the third period, Travis Bailey, Tiger guard, intercepted a jump pass by Walls on the 50-yard line and scampered 50 yards to pay dirt. Nieman's kick gave the Tigers a 21 point lead. Late in the same period Brook Ribble hauled down another Wall's pass on the 37 and took the ball to the 14 before being downed. Ribble was injured on the play and taken to Memorial hospital but was released Saturday morning. The Tigers banged down to the one as the quarter ended.

After moving to the opposite of the field, the Tigers drew a five yard penalty for off sides. On the next play Allen packed the pigskin around left end for the score. Nieman's kick set the final score at 28-0. Later Wayne Pittman carried the ball over from the 23 on a nice run but a penalty nullified the play.

A stout line led by Jackie Brown, Harms, Snodgrass, Beck and many other Tigers showed great ability in their hard blocking and tackling. May and Blanket meet at May Friday 23.

"Bigger pies, not smaller slices"

We ran across a new word the other day... "Demographer." That's a research man who studies statistics on births, deaths, populations.

Well, it seems the United States will have 20 million more people aboard by 1960, or thereabouts. Logical enough. We gained 20 million people in the forties.

Bigger pies are the order of the day. In the electrical industry, for instance, men with sharp pencils have figured that demand for electric power will have doubled during the decade ending in 1960. More power equipment is therefore needed. More electrical machinery for industry.

And better pies. Americans insist on better products, year by year. Somebody has to pioneer things. Looking ahead for five, ten, fifteen years—creating new and better products and improving old ones—that is the business of General Electric. For seventy-five years progress has been our most important product.

The babies who come into the world today won't want smaller slices of the world's goods and opportunities. Or even the same slice. They'll want more. Wait and see. Nothing less is worth planning for by the people who must organize for the future. It's no job for pessimists.

Vitamin B-13 New Discovery to Aid In Chicken Growth

AUSTIN, Oct. 20.—A report on newly-discovered vitamin B-13, thought to be a factor which may increase chick growth, will be a feature of a national conference on B-vitamins December 3-5 at the University of Texas. Sixteen addresses on technical aspects of B-vitamins now are scheduled for presentation during the conference.

Hot and Cold Spots To Be Eliminated

AUSTIN, Oct. 20.—Basic rules for eliminating hot and cold spots from air-conditioned auditoriums and similar structures are being sought in a new University of Texas research project. In many instances, a large area has been air-conditioned mainly on the basis of how often its air is changed completely, failing to take into account the fact that design and construction may "bottle up" air and prevent even ventilation, Dr. Walter L. Moore, project director explains. The engineers will attempt to determine design and construction rules which will assure adequate ventilation in any large area, whether it be coliseum, church, gymnasium or similar structure.

The SNAPSHOT GUILD

A high camera angle made it possible to show all the dogs clearly in this snapshot.

Don't Be Afraid of New Angles

NEW shooting angles can add the kind of variety that is spice to your snapshot album. If we take all of our pictures from a straight ahead, eye level position, it doesn't mean we won't have good pictures. But it is a sure sign that they'll be characterized with a sameness. The eye level snapshotting idea is a good one, highly dependable, and should be used most of the time. But from time to time try a high angle, or a low angle, depending on the situation. Check your angles before you shoot to find the best one. Take a few seconds' extra time to study your subject in the viewfinder from a number of different positions. This can be especially effective in your outdoor picture taking this summer. You have so much room to maneuver. Seeking a new angle is often the solution to the problem of a background you don't like. If there is something immovable directly behind your subject, experiment with looking down on the subject from a high angle to see if the grassy lawn isn't a better background. Or, if the situation permits, look up at the subject to make the sky the background. Either of these are pleasant, neutral backgrounds that won't detract from your subject. And they have the advantage of being completely natural in an outdoor picture. The picture illustrating today's column is a good example of looking down on your subject. In this case it is far more effective than getting down low with the camera and shooting at eye level. In such a picture you would have not been able to have shown all of the hungry pups at chow so effectively. Sometimes you may have to stand on a chair to get the best angle. Other situations may find you on the floor or ground looking up at the subject. Whether you shoot high or low, it's worth while to try new angles once in awhile. —John Van Guilder

All My Family Is Fat Is No Excuse for Heavy Weight Now Says Nutrition Expert

COLLEGE STATION, October 14.—Why excess weight? You may have certain excuses, but most of them like, "All my family is fat" are probably untrue. You can blame your skeleton on your ancestors but not your excess weight. Jimmie Nell Harris, foods and nutrition specialist for the Texas Extension Service says overweight is invariably caused by eating more calories in food than you use as energy. According to the Federal Security Agency, the vitamin deficiency diseases obesity has probably replaced as the number one nutrition problem in the United States. The first step in weight reduction, Miss Harris says, is to decide that you will reduce. Then, check with your doctor and have a thorough physical checkup, get his approval of your plan and continue to check with him as you lose weight. Find out how much you need to lose for a normal weight, plan your diet and stick to it. Be sure your reducing diet is a sound one; beware of fad diets, reducing pills, and losing too fast. There are no tricks to reducing, and a good reducing diet is not freakish. Check your diet by these standards: is it safe calorically — low enough to reduce weight and high enough not to reduce vitality and feeling of well being? It is best not to lose more than one or two pounds a week. Is your reducing diet adequate nutritionally and does it include popular every day foods? A reducing diet should be low in calories only. It should still provide all the other nutrients necessary for a good diet. And this isn't hard to do if you use the Texas Food Standard as a guide in planning. First of all, start off with a good breakfast. This is one of the most important meals of the day and continues to be true in a reducing diet. You'll be less apt to get hungry and it will be easier to follow the diet. Select a diet pattern that supplies about 1400 calories a day to enable the average woman to lose one or two pounds a week. Very active persons and men probably need to increase this number. In no instance should your diet supply less than 1,000 to 1,200 calories unless you have special and constant contact with your doctor. Miss Harris suggests this diet pattern to supply about 1,400 calories a day: Breakfast. Citrus fruit or 1/2 cup of juice, 2 eggs, 1 thin slice bread, medium pat of butter, milk. Lunch. Meat, 4 ounces; green vegetable or fruit; 2/3 cup milk. Dinner. Meat, 4 ounces; potato, small, butter; fruit or vegetable; milk. Use salt sparingly, the specialist advises. If you prefer, you can drink skim milk and add the extra calories in some other food. Once you gain your new figure you will want to keep it. Increase your food gradually so that you maintain a constant weight and remember to keep your diet adequate. Remember, the specialist says, the first step is to decide you want to do something about overweight, see your physician and get his approval, and then make a plan you can follow.

Peach Growing to Get Thorough Treatment at College Station Meet

COLLEGE STATION, October 14.—The problems of growing peaches in Texas will get a thorough going over when top fruit specialists from over the nation convene with Texas' peach growers at College Station October 13 and 14. An appearance by Dr. John H. Weinberger, senior horticulturist, USDA, Fort Valley, Ga., who developed and introduced new peach varieties suitable to Texas conditions will highlight the two-day session. Peach growers as well as cot-suited to eat would require about one acre of water — this will be good news to fishermen.

Rising Star Women To Serve on Draft Board as Registrars

AUSTIN, Oct. 19.—Mrs. Clara Cain and Mrs. Agnes White of Rising Star have been appointed registrars for the Eastland-Stephens county draft board in the Rising Star area. Boys who reach the age of 18 can register in Rising Star by calling on Mrs. Cain or Mrs. White at the City Hall in Rising Star. Registrars are maintained in the area so that men will not have to travel to the draft board office at Eastland. A local board is maintained for the two-county area because one board can take care of the work. The state director of Selective Service says that "a board in each county in many areas would prove to be a waste of government money." Brig. Gen. Paul L. Wakefield, state director of the draft system, expressed public appreciation of the services of Mrs. Cain and Mrs. White. "People of the Rising Star area should appreciate the services they render to them," General Wakefield said, "as they are doing this work without pay as a public service to their country. All males are required to register under the draft law on their 18th birthday or within five days thereafter. Maximum penalties that can be applied for failure to register are $10,000 fine, or five years in prison, or both. Charlie Tune of Big Spring visited his brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Tune. Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Tune returned to Big Spring with them for a short visit. Mrs. Tommie Holden and Mrs. Beyrl Heath spent the week end in De Leon visiting relatives and attended the Homecoming at the Methodist Church Sunday.

PROGRESS CONTEST CLUB REPORT

The recent coffee can supper and shower for Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Hicks was a great success, in every respect. It is gratifying to club members to have Mr. and Mrs. Martin Joyce and other visitors compliment our efforts so highly and we always welcome visitors any time.

The first meeting of this month was Oct. 10th in a program on "Safety" given by a group of young people and adults, in the form of a "safety council." Each gave a fire hazard which could be prevented by caution and inspecting our homes and premises often. Miss Elizabeth Robertson stated there is a great loss over the nation by fires every day.

Several lively songs were sung by the group and Mary and Martha Haynes, Doris, Janet and Vera Beth Watkins sang several specials.

Our enthusiastic leader, A. D. Jenkins made announcements about our community work and thanked all for cooperation in carrying on the work assigned.

Mr. Wayne Frey was present for the purpose of giving an explanatory and preparatory talk on "Wild Life Preserve" and forming an association for the protection of wild life and game on farms. Twenty-six "Game Preserve" signs were consigned to Mr. Frey and all men present bought one at $1.00 each.

Next meeting will be social night, Oct. 24th in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Nugent Haynes, with a comanche stew, supper and coffee, cocoa and cookies for dessert. The club will also honor Mr. and Mrs. Tomm of Fort Worth with a wedding shower. Mrs. Tomm is the daughter of Mrs. Dora Pierson of Amity.

Hope we have a large crowd to enjoy the hospitality of this good family and with all who are present.

MR. AND MRS. S. J. WHITE CELEBRATE 60TH WEDDING ANNIVERSARY OCT. 15TH

Mr. and Mrs. S. J. White celebrated their 60th wedding anniversary, Thursday, Oct. 15th at their home on N. Main.

They were married near Owens in 1893 and moved to their present location in August 1, 1902. Their present town home was then a three-room house on a farm. Now it is almost in the business part of the city.

They had six children present for the wonderful dinner with one son, Melvin G., who lives in California absent.

The dinner was fashioned around a huge 3-tiered wedding cake topped by a miniature bride and groom.

Many beautiful gifts and lovely cards were on display showing the love and affection this pioneer couple is held in.

The following children were present: Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Roberts, Brady; Mrs. G. S. Hill and Donna Kay, Abilene; Mr. and Mrs. Bill White, El Paso; Mr. and Mrs. A. A. White, City; Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Zellars and David, Cisco; Mr. and Mrs. E. W. White, Roswell, N. M.

George Washington is buried at Mount Vernon.

MRS. H. R. HOUSE OF OKRA CELEBRATES 85th BIRTHDAY

Mrs. House writes the Record as follows:

I was very happy to have my children home to celebrate my 85th birthday, Oct. 7th. It was also my grandson, Larry's birthday, the 9th. The children who were here were Mr. and Mrs. Houser, San Antonio; Mrs. Dixie O. M. Claborn, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Jones, Clayton, N. M., Mrs. Lois Jones and David of Lubbock; Mr. and Mrs. Hayman Lawson, Rising Star.

We had as our dinner guest, Mrs. Lela Bell and Madge, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Brazzill. Afternoon callers were Mrs. Shan Medford, Mrs. Jim Watkins; Mr. and Mrs. Grat Adams, Mr. and Mr. Perry Burns.

We had a very fine dinner. I appreciated very much a beautifully decorated birthday cake sent by Mrs. Joe Talabas from San Antonio. I also appreciated the beautiful white mums sent by the Church of Christ at Rising Star. I received many nice gifts.

The Lord has been good to me and I am blessed with good children and friends.

Mrs. H. R. House, Okra. Mrs. House is a real Eastland County pioneer. She and her late husband started and named the post office at Okra in 1898. She has lived in the same neighborhood, moving only once, in all these years.

A birthday dinner with a huge white birthday cake with yellow icing and many other items of good food was served at noon.

Many friends called during the afternoon and added gifts to the wonderful display that had been sent and brought in earlier. All these and the gifts of flowers attested the esteem Mr. House is held not only in her family but by a host of friends.

The Record editors add their congratulations to those of her family and friends.

HAPPY HITCH-HIKERS ALSO LUCKY

Mrs. Julia Snyder of Downey, Calif. has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. Lester Thompson here for some time. Mrs. Snyder also had a guest, Mrs. Ethel Wheeler of Whittier, Calif.

Both of these ladies are young elderly women full of life and fun. They wanted to come to Rising Star to the Thompson home, ten miles out. They had no way, so they hitch hiked.

They caught a ride with Don E. Rogers of Gorman who has a gadget that never fails to locate oil wells. But more exciting was his personal card with a picture that reflected on the wall or in a big way on the sky after anyone looked at it for 30 seconds. These ladies were really enjoying Texas.

RUSSELL DILLS HAVE SUNDAY GUESTS

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Dill had as their guests for Sunday, her aunt, Mrs. Mary Bolden, who was accompanied by her daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Hadley Foster and daughter of Caddo; her sister, Mrs. Forests Frown of Fort Worth and another sister, Mrs. Hallie Rhone McDonald of Houston. Mrs. McDonald will remain several days and look after Mrs. Dill, who is convalescing nicely from major surgery.

Miss Bill Shults accompanied her nephew, Dr. Billy Conkling to Wharton, Texas Sept. 15 While there she visited with Mrs. Conkling, Kathleen and Susan in the home of Dr. Bolton Outlar and Mrs. L. B. Outlar.

C. B. NICHOLS PASSING THE CIGARS — REASON BABY DAUGHTER BORN

C. B. Nichols, who spent last Sunday in Fort Worth and came home to report that he is "grand pappy" now — states that Carl B. "Nick" Nichols, known to so many, and his wife, the former Carleene Irby, are the proud parents of a fine baby girl, Linda Carroll, weighing 7½ pounds, born at the Harris Hospital Saturday. C. B. was accompanied by Mrs. Nichols and Mr. and Mrs. Irby, who are as much interested in the baby as Nick. C. B. Jr. is employed at the Consolidated Engineering Department in Grand Prairie.

It was reported that 22 babies were born at the hospital on Saturday night and only two of them were boys — looks like we are not going to have war said Nick. This the first girl born in the Nichols family.

Justice William O. Douglas to Address Students at U. T.

AUSTIN, Oct. 20.—Supreme Court Justice William O. Douglas will speak at the University of Texas October 28, at the invitation of the students' "Great Issues" committee.

His address on "Communism in Asia" will be the third in a series on "The Red Menace." Methodist Bishop G. Bromley Oxnam will speak November 23 on "Communism in the U. S."

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Joyce were happy to have all their children present last week end. They are Mr. and Mrs. Don Joyce and son, Doug, Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Joyce and son, Cailen, of Fort Worth and Kenneth Joyce, from Kelly Air Force Base. Doug will remain a few days while his apts are away on a vacation.

TRAVELING TEXAS: Since Congress adjourned and I came back to Texas, I have done a lot of traveling. I have visited in literally hundreds of towns and have talked with thousands of Texans.

I really enjoy this part of my job. It is a great pleasure to travel over our wonderful state. It is a genuine privilege to get to talk with so many of my fellow Texans.

Before the next session of Congress begins in January, I hope to have spent some time in every congressional district.

SOUND SENSE: I find that Texans generally have their traditionally sensible attitude toward the problems facing our nation.

They want no backing down from the Communists.

They uphold a strong national defense program.

They want United States aid to foreign nations sharply curtailed.

They favor a non-partisan approach to our international and domestic problems.

They oppose weakening the Taft-Hartley Act.

These are among the subjects on which most Texans have very definite opinions. It helps me greatly, during this between-sessions period, to get their views.

FARM PROBLEM: My travels have taken me through many important agricultural areas of Texas. In all of them, I have found a deep uneasiness on the part of the people about the future of agriculture.

Drought and falling prices have put the farmer and rancher between a rock and a hard place. They need help.

The future agricultural program is one of the most important matters that will come before the session of Congress beginning next January. Between now and then, I would like to hear from as many of you as care to write me about the kind of program you think will best meet the situation.

COST OF LIVING: Unfortunately, the fall in farm prices has been of little or no help to the consumer.

An official Government says living costs are now at an all-time high. The food price index is up. One factor behind the increase is said to be higher prices for beef and veal.

The farmer gets less. The cattleman gets less. But the consumer pays more.

SALES TAX: It looks as if the Administration is backing away fast from the idea of trying to get a sales tax through the next session of Congress. The President has said he opposes a sale tax. He left the way open, however, for possible support of a "manufacturer's excise tax."

I personally think we must make further cuts in government spending. Economy is not easy for a government or for an individual. But sometimes it is necessary. This is such a time.

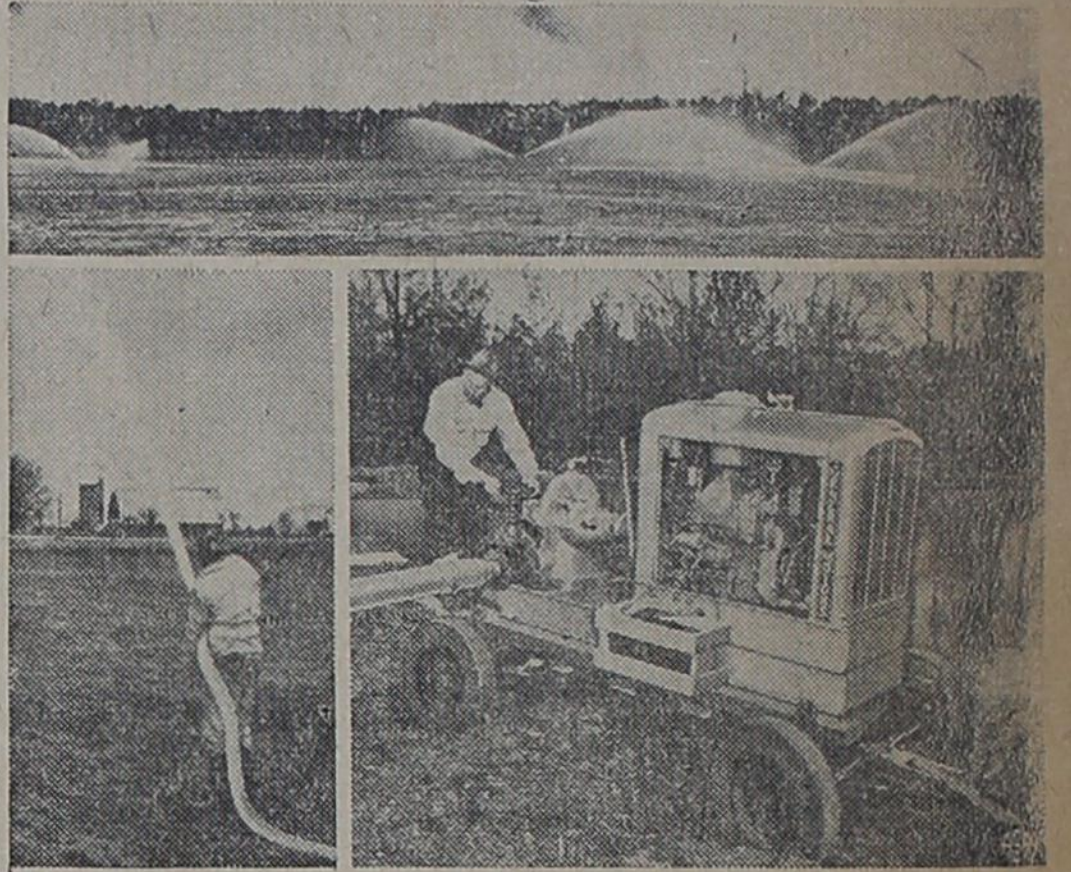

THRIFTY MEAT MEALS: The Department of Agriculture has published a booklet containing over 100 recipes and suggestions for the selection, preparation, and serving of the cheaper grades and cuts of beef, pork, veal, and lamb. Name of the booklet is "Meat for Thrifty Meals." If you would like to have a copy, write my Washington office and say so. It will be sent promptly.

BE SEEING YOU: I hope to see many of you in person within the next few weeks. It's great to be home. And rubbing up against so much good Texas thinking is going to be very helpful to me when Congress meets again.

The University of Texas may air-condition its existing buildings. The county commissioners court may contract with a city within the county to operate fire-fighting equipment owned by the county. This equipment may be used to protect rural areas in the county. The city may use such equipment within the city limits to an extent equal to the services rendered the rural areas.

State legislative restrictions on travel expense do not apply to officers and employees of the Texas Employment Commission, if they travel under regulations approved by the proper federal agency. The Commission may also authorize reimbursement for laundry, cleaning and pressing and tips by issuing appropriate regulations.

Irrigation Pump Can Fight Fires

Irrigation has proven a profitable practice for many farmers. It has an added advantage when irrigating equipment is arranged so that it can also be used for fire protection.

Emmet Cabaniss of Maxey, Georgia, has his equipment set up so that if a fire breaks out, he can be pumping 1200 gallons of water per minute within ten minutes. His 300-acre farm has five man-made lakes, one near his buildings. He uses 1600 feet of six-inch pipe line. His pump and power unit are mounted on a trailer for quick transportation.

The equipment not only protects him against fire, but also against drought. He improved the system last fall by repowering the pump with a 4-cylinder General Motors Diesel engine. Extra power of the Diesel permitted him to switch from an 800-foot line to the 1600-foot line. Although the new engine pumps 50% more water than the gasoline engine he used previously—it costs no more to run.

Mr. Cabaniss now has 200 acres that can be irrigated by overhead sprinklers. He can put an inch of water over three acres every hour. He figures his irrigation system is rapidly paying for itself by preventing crop loss and increasing milk production of his 70 dairy cows.

Lyonnais potatoes are potatoes fried with onions. Vermicelli is a very fine spaghetti.

Attorney General Makes Decisions

AUSTIN, Oct. 2. (Sp.)—Attorney General John Ben Shepperd has released a list of all opinions of his office during the month of September. The office received 196 requests for advice or opinions and closed 194 opinion files during the month.

The office has won 97 per cent of all cases tried or appealed since the first of the year. A total of 959 cases have been won out of 988 tried. During the month of September 41 cases were tried, none of which were lost.

Opinions of general interest included the following:

A veteran is not entitled to register in Texas schools as a "resident" simply because he was stationed in Texas for one year. However, if he moved his family to Texas or bought a home in this state, the school receiving his application for enrollment should consider these facts in deciding whether or not he is a resident of Texas and therefore entitled to use the smaller registration fee.

The county service officer, county librarian, county health officer, county health nurse, deputy county clerks, deputy sheriffs and deputy county tax collectors are county employees and are covered by the County Workmen's Compensation Act.

The county agricultural agent and the county home demonstration agent are state employees and are not included by the County Workmen's Compensation Act. However, they are covered by the Federal Workmen's Compensation Act.

The county welfare case worker employed by the commissioners' court to help determine which persons should receive county support as paupers, idiots or lunatics, is a county employee and as such is covered by the County Workmen's Compensation Act.

Tank trucks used by farmers to haul water over public highways are entitled to the 50 per cent reduction in registration fees as farm trucks. Their drivers must have driver's licenses, and if their gross weight exceeds 6,000 pounds, the drivers are required to have commercial operator's licenses.

The SNAPSHOT GUILD

The presence of clouds in this picture add greatly to the impact of an otherwise typical snapshot of famed Mt. Rushmore.

Put Clouds in Your Picture

CLOUDS in the sky don't always mean gray days. Often they are fleecy white and billowy, adding beauty to a clear blue sky.

They may play a big part in making us decide to picture a certain scene—and it is disappointing to find that the finished picture is completely cloudless. To avoid such disappointment, you use a simple filter. It's known as a sky filter and will go a long way toward giving your scenic snapshots a professional touch. You can use one on practically any camera.

Of course, the filter doesn't put clouds in your picture by magic. The principle on which it works is simple and straightforward. The filter lets all the light through to the lens of the camera, with the exception of some of the blue light from the sky, which it absorbs. By cutting out some of the blue light, the sky is darkened and thus the clouds become more outstanding.

While we're on the subject of accessory items—there are others which can also be used most effectively even in the most casual snapshotting. In common with the sky filter, they have the advantage of being easy to use and inexpensive. One of the most important of these, as I've pointed out in previous columns, is the close-up attachment. Another is the auto release, which allows everyone to be in the picture. You place the camera on a tripod or other solid support, find your picture in the viewfinder, set the auto release, and you have 10 seconds in which to take your place in the picture. At that point the auto release snaps the picture for you.

These little gadgets are fun to use, and well worth the small cost. Next time you're going to your photo dealer's, take your camera along and talk to him about the various accessories you can use with it.

is a simple matter. A letter or postcard to the Department of Public Safety, Driver's License Division, Austin, Texas, will bring an official publication, the "Texas Driving Handbook", to anyone who requests it.

Aside from considerations of personal safety, proper driving habits and observance of traffic laws will help prevent financial loss. This is true in spite of the fact that most people now carry liability insurance as a protection under the Texas "Drivers Responsibility Act." Jury verdicts in personal injury cases tend to go higher and higher, and the likelihood of suffering an adverse judgment for an amount in excess in the limits of your liability policy is ever present.

Fault, or liability, is determined by applying the law to the particular facts of an accident. In Texas the law is in several forms — the statutes as enacted by the Legislature, the ordinances of each city and town, and the court decisions in cases similar to the one to be decided.

A negligent or intentional act is necessary in order to impose legal liability for damages. Where both parties to an accident are negligent, the court will very likely say that both are at fault, and that each must pay for his own damages.

Two of the most important legal rules pertaining to accidents are those having to do with "proper look-out" and "proper control". Driving in a lawful manner and complying with all ordinary traffic rules is not always sufficient. In addition, the driver is expected by law to be alert to all that is happening around him.

If an accident should occur and the driver has not been alert — has failed to keep a proper look-out — he may be charged with "improper look-out" as a traffic violation and also held liable in damages to the other driver. The courts call a "proper look-out" such a look-out as a reasonably prudent driver would have kept under the same circumstances.

Of equal importance is the rule of "proper control". This rule means pretty much what those words imply — that the driver should have his car under such degree of control as to be ready for any emergencies as might arise. It may be breached even though no violation of ordinary traffic laws is involved.

For instance, a driver may be complying with the legal speed limit but still be driving at a rate of speed which is unsafe under the existing circumstances. Even though legal speed limits

OBEY TRAFFIC LAWS FOR SAFETY

With the Labor Day weekend gone the usual series of football weekends just around the corner, the thoughts of many Texans are turning toward traffic safety. There can be no doubt but that a better acquaintance among drivers with the "rules of the road" and other traffic safety regulations could greatly reduce the death toll of our highways.

Weekly Sunday School Lesson

FOR OCTOBER 25, 1953

By D. R. PHILLEY, Pastor
First Baptist Church, Rising Star

"THE WAR AGAINST BEVERAGE ALCOHOL"

Read Prov. 23:29-35; 31:4-5; Is. 5:11-14; Matt. 18:6; Rom. 13:11-14; James 4:17.

The Heart of the Lesson.

Strong drink is a great evil, but it is not the only evil there is in this world. Drunkenness is a great sin, but not the only sin. It is possible for a man to live without ever touching a drop of intoxicating liquor, and yet be eternally lost in the end. There is a social ministry in helping to keep men and women from becoming drunkards; but it is a greater ministry to win those men and women for Christ. However, there is no harm in having our attention called from time to time to the evils of drunkenness. The passages chosen for this Temperance Lesson do not belong together, but we find a connecting element in the warning against all the works of the flesh and the encouragement to the doing of good works.

1. WOE (Is. 5:11-14). There are six "WOES" pronounced upon Israel in this chapter of Isaiah on account of various sins. This, the second one, is especially directed toward the drunkard. He may think he has "a good time," but from the Divine standpoint a woe rests upon him. It is sad to note that this evil had made such inroads in Israel that there were some who did nothing else but indulge their appetite for wine. It is even more sad to note that this evil is holding our country in its grip far worse than it ever did before the prohibition era. Men and women in what is considered polite society cannot have a social gathering, or even entertain company for dinner, without serving intoxicants. Then when the liquor habit has gained control of them they are said to be suffering from the disease of alcoholism, and are to be pitied more than blamed! The thought of its sinfulness is dismissed entirely.

Intoxication weakens all inhibitions and when coupled with the sensual appeal of the modern "music" it throws the individual open to every kind of evil, even to the deepest moral degradation.

Such indulgence cannot escape its sad but natural consequences. Israel's sin brought her captivity, her spiritual ignorance and degradation, and created a thirst which nothing could satisfy. What happened to Israel is bound to happen to every nation that follows in the same way. We fear for the consequences which our beloved country will one day suffer for this sin.

However, the physical sufferings of the drunkard and the downfall of a nation are not yet the end. There are the consequences to be reaped beyond this world, for "hell hath enlarged herself, and opened her mouth without measure. . . . and their pomp, and he that rejoiceth, shall descend into it." "Drunkards . . . shall (not) inherit the Kingdom of God" (1 Cor. 6:10).

2. WARNING (Matt. 18:6; Rom. 13:11-14). The first warning in these verses is addressed, not to the drunkard, but to the one who provided the temptation; for this is the meaning of the words of Jesus concerning him who causes "little ones" to stumble. Specifically the Lord seems to have had in mind those who misled little children and started them on a downward career, but that does not exhaust the meaning. It applies to anyone who deliberately causes one who is weak to fall into sin, be it drunkenness or any other evil. All unbelievers shall be punished, but a greater punishment awaits those who influenced others to sin. This is a very solemn warning.

Then there is a warning to Christians. Paul has been urging the Roman Christians to yield themselves wholly to the Lord as a reasonable expression of their appreciation for the "mercies of God" (Rom. 12:1-2). He has told them how this should find expression in their relation to other Christians, to those who are still unbelievers, to their enemies, to their government, and also to their neighbors. He has shown that the Christians will walk within the requirements of the Law if he walks in love. Now he points out the urgency of all this.

We are to be aware of what time it is on God's clock. All men know of the rapidity of time's passing, but very few realize how much of it has passed. The present age is the night of sin and men enjoy darkness for they seem to think that God cannot see them in the dark. But the night is almost gone and the light of the coming day will reveal all the sin and the shame of the human race.

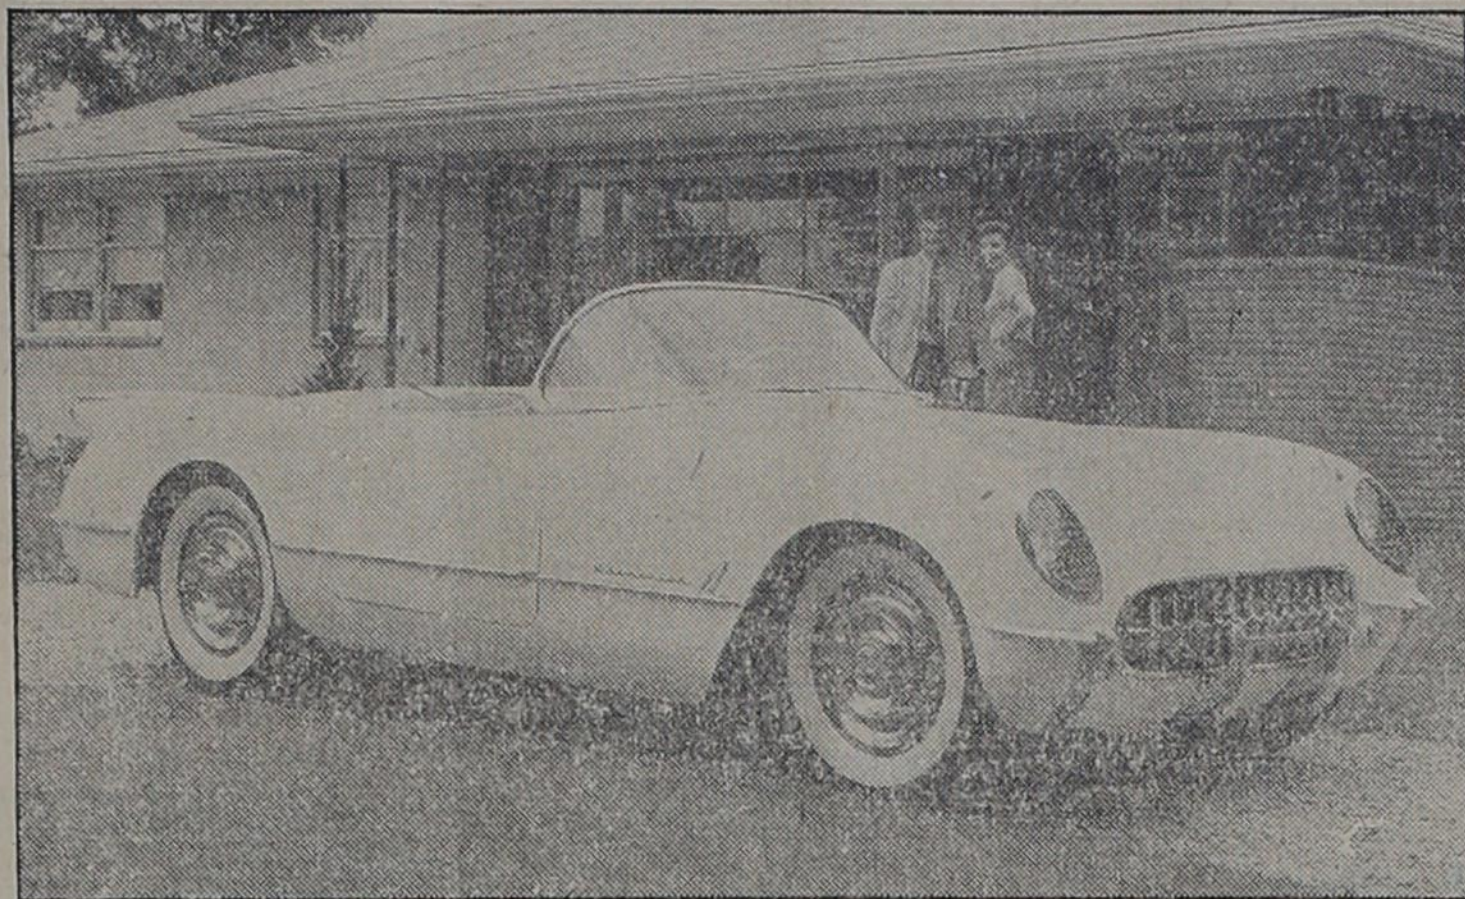

We as Christians are warned to take heed to our conduct. It is still dark in the world around us, but we need not walk in darkness. God has given us an armor to enable us to withstand the evil of the present time, and his armor is equipped with light. We are able to see the shamefulfulness of sin and are induced to turn away from it. And God expects us to remember that our lives are open before Him and that He sees and knows all that we do. That should be a great incentive to a clean and honest walk. If we are clothed with the power of the Lord Jesus Christ it will not be necessary for us to fulfill the lusts of the flesh.

3. WORKING (James 4:17). Although this verse is taken from an entirely different passage of Scripture it is not out of order to append it here. It implies the fact that knowledge is available. He has warned his readers against the lures of the world, the flesh, and the devil. He has cautioned about the brevity of life, and now he urges them to action in view of this knowledge. We today know of the evil physical effects of strong drink, of drugs, and of many other sinful practices. None of us should ever become victims of such evils.

But knowledge alone is not enough. The thousands of people behind prison bars are not there because they did not know. They knew well enough, but they suffered from the delusion that they could commit the sin and still escape its consequences. And yet there are some who still insist that a child will do right if he knows what is right.

Visitors in the Jim Phillips' home Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Jim Phillips of Carbon and O. D. Phillips and family from Eastland. Visitors over the week end were Mr. and Mrs. Thackerson from New London, Texas.

America's First Sports Car Reaches Market

One of the most widely discussed automobiles—the Chevrolet Corvette—has been placed in distribution. A two-passenger open model (with removable top), the car is the American auto industry's first sports car and the first to carry a plastic body built by mass production methods.

The Corvette measures only 33 inches high at the door. Wheelbase is 102 inches. Traditional Chevrolet features include a special 150-horsepower "Blue-Flame" engine and a Powerglide automatic transmission. Production followed special showings of an experimental model in many cities.

We need something stronger than that.

James urges us to do good, not in order to be saved but in order to prove that we are saved. God has given us all the information we need about the evils of sin, and also of His desire for holiness of life on our part; it is now our responsibility to act according to our knowledge. The Lord Jesus Himself is our Armor of Light, and arrayed in Him we can go forth to victory.

For a further study of this lesson, we invite you to attend Sunday School at First Baptist Church, 9:45 A. M.
