FERGUSON DEFENDS WILSON AGAINST COLQUITT'S ATTACK

(Houston Chronicle, March 12, 1916)

The first annual gridiron dinner at the Rice Hotel Saturday night, given by the Buffalo Club of Houston, was brought to an unlooked for climax in a heated controversy between Jas. E. Ferguson, governor of the state, and his predecessor, O. B. Colquitt.

Ex-Governor Colquitt vigorously criticized President Wilson for "tardy" action in Mexico, upon which Governor Ferguson, in a scathing reply, rebuked the former governor for his "unpatriotic and undemocratic utterances."

The guests, 250 in number, including Congressman Victor Murdock of Kansas, were aghast with astonishment at the former governor's attack.

Mr. Colquitt lost no time in preliminaries, but immediately launched out on a sweeping criticism of the administration's policy, speaking at length on the president's so-called failure to send troops earlier into Mexico. He said loudly that while he was governor he demanded that troops be sent across the border, and added that the president's action is just three years too late.

It was a straight out-and-out political speech on the part of the former governor, who is a candidate for the United States senate, and for the most part was received with astonished silence.

OUR GREATEST PRESIDENT

Mr. Ferguson said he would not be doing his duty as a citizen of the United States, and as a true democrat if he did not defend the greatest president the nation has ever had. He lauded President Wilson in strong terms and upbraided Mr. Colquitt for what he termed the ex-governor's "uncalled for and undemocratic and unpatriotic" attack on the president.

He said that President Wilson had held back until American soil had actually been invaded, and a murderous assault made upon her people; that he had acted promptly and in a manner that merited the approval of every red-blooded citizen; that he had ordered American troops to pursue and capture the bandit Villa; that to criticize Wilson in the manner that Colquitt had was unjust and uncalled for; that he, as a member of the democratic party, and as a citizen of the United States, would not stand quietly by and see our great president so traduced.

—Pledge the President—
—W. S. S.—

A GLOWING DEFENSE

Mr. Ferguson paid a glowing tribute to President Wilson and said he was with him and for him and would stand by him, and would always resent any aspersion on his or his motives.

He declared that Wilson was a man who wanted to keep this country from bloodshed, and was keeping it therefrom; that he had acted expeditiously when action was necessary, and that the man who so grossly and unnecessarily reflected upon him deserves to be rebuked.

Mr. Ferguson closed with a dignified gesture of reproach and quietly took his seat. Notwithstanding it was a non-partisan dinner, with politics taboo, a whirlwind of applause swept up and shouts of "Hurrah for Jim!" and "Hurrah for Wilson" rang out. The governor was quickly surrounded by his admirers, who were eager to grasp his hand.

An admittedly strained situation was added when Toastmaster Andrews announced the first Gridiron dinner closed. The governor walked out with his friends, holding levees enroute.

—Pledge the President—
—W. S. S.—

The former governor made no effort to reply to the rebuke.

HOBBY KNEW OF THIS INCIDENT—(He was there)—

yet he supported Colquitt a few months afterward for United States Senator. Now he says Ferguson did not uphold the hands of Wilson.

SAN SABA GIRLS AT THE FRONT

While San Saba County has furnished between 425 and 500 soldier boys to fight for our country; the percent of Women who have volunteered is exceedingly small, up to the present Miss Jewel Mathews, who is a niece of Mrs. I. J. Hendricks of this city, is the only San Saba countygirl, who to our knowledge has volunteered. Miss Jewel Mathews is a graduate of the Kings Daughters hospital of Temple. She has received orders to go to France and will start August 1st. Our boys are in France, why not our girls? There is an urgent call for 25,000 nurses. The writer is County Chairman for the Nursing Division and we intend to wage an active campaign for young women between the ages of 19 and 35 to enlist. Reah article in another column.

—Pledge the President—

JOINT DEBATE

Ed House and Tom Beasley opposing candidates for the legislature will have a joint debate on the issues between them in the District Court room in this place to-morrow (Friday) afternoon. All voters are requested to be present and hear them.

—W. S. S.—

Miss Nell Hubbert of Bend, we understand has secured a $1,100 per annum position under the civil service and will be located in Washington D. C.

A Conservative Estimate

In a statement issued by Gov. Ferguson concerning his campaign he makes the following figures:

"In my campaign with Mr. Ball there were something over 400,000 of men votes. The registration of women now shows that there will not be over 200,000 women who will vote in the primaries, and assuming that 400,000 men again vote in this primary, there will be a total vote of 600,000. While I do not concede that Hobby will get anything like that many votes, he can be given

4-5 of 100,000 city women	80,000
1-5 of 100,000 country women	20,000
1-2 of 100,000 city men	50,000
1-3 of 100,000 country men	100,000

Which will make Mr. Hobby's total vote only 250,000

"Take this from the total of 600,000 and it leaves my vote at 50,000, or a clear majority of 100,000.

"It will be seen that for the purpose of this tabulation I have allowed him four women votes out of five in the cities, and that I have allowed him one-half the city men, when it is a known fact that I will carry three of the big cities by large majorities, while he can only hope to carry the cities of Dallas and Austin, the home of the University. I have also allowed him one-third of the country men or farmers of the state. No informed man believes that he will get even a fourth of the farmers of the state.

—W. S. S.—

Mr. and Mrs. Hill DeWolf, passed through the city last Sunday on their return from San Angelo and other western points. They report Ferguson strong in gaining in that section. While in the city Mr. and Mrs. DeWolfe were guests of editor's family.

The Precinct Convention at each voting box meets at 2 o'clock sharp. It is better to be on hand a few minutes before than one minute after that hour.

—Pledge the President—

Don't forget your Precinct Convention next Saturday, the 27th, in which delegates will be selected to the County Convention, which meets in San Saba August the 3rd.

—Pledge the President—

A local minister in his last Sunday morning's devotional services, very piously exhorted his hearers to prayerfully consider all this week how they should vote in the Democratic primary next Saturday and then go to the polls and vote as their consciences dictated. This is as it should be and the admonition was timely. If his congregation will pray with fervency and zeal and with the proper understanding, Jim Ferguson will goose-egg Hobby in the Primary next Saturday.

—Pledge the President—

We are informed that Hon. Thomas L. Blanton told the people in a speech at Richland Springs that a vote for him was a vote for Woodrow Wilson and that all loyal citizens were going to vote for him. There is where Thomas slipped a cog. We are all back of President Wilson and there are no politics in it either. The trouble with some people they are weak politically and have to ring in patriotism to bolster up their side of the question. Blanton never has satisfactorily explained his not voting for the prohibition amendment that came up in the last session of Congress. He and Congressman Wilson of the Fort Worth district had knocked-down and drag-out fight about it, but the people of this district want a statesman in congress and not a pugilist.

SAM SPARKS SPOKE SOME SPEAK.

Sam Sparks of Austin, one of the chiefs of the Austin cabal, president of a bank and trust company, former state treasurer and present ex-officio state treasurer (for financial purposes only) spoke to a small crowd here in the district court room last Saturday evening.

The speaking hour was advertised at 2:30 o'clock, but was delayed 30 minutes or more trying to get a crowd in range of his gentle soprano voice. After calling out the speaking from the windows, beating the tom-toms and making other frantic efforts, the following assemblage was corralled:

Men down stairs.....117
Women down stairs.....52
Men in the gallery.....29

Making a grand total of 198. Several Ferguson supporters being present to swell the "vast and enthusiastic crowd." When it is considered the speaking was on Saturday evening with the town full of people it is evident Sam's coming did not give anybody the palpitation of the heart nor a desire to run over one another to get to hear him. There was no one crippled for life in the rush and Sam's effort was a frost.

Mrs. Genie Griffin DeWolf spoke here for Ferguson the week before at 11 o'clock in the morning and had more than twice as many people to hear her, which is a good indication of the public sentiment here.

The Star will treat Mr. Sparks perfectly fair and deny that he said in his speech that "no decent woman would live with a Ferguson man." He told a story that was supposed to have been told by a man in Cameron which bordered onto that construction of the matter. He did not say that "no decent woman would live with a Ferguson man" for if he had made the broad assertion, there were enough red-blooded Texans in the audience who would have perforated his hide with automatics and then pitched his carcass out of a window.

Sam is a great cheer leader when he is doing the wind-jamming. All through his speech he would frequently say: IF YOU BELIEVE THAT, YOU OUGHT TO APPLAUD IT!

He evidently had a hot-box (most antis do have an awful thirst when making a pro speech) for he drank as much water as an ox on a hot day. As a fine drinking (water) man John Lee Brooks has him skinned, for in the four hour speeches John Lee has been making in this section he has been known to imbibe freely of water seventeen times in one gabfest. If Sam could talk as long as John Lee it may be that he could chamber as much water as his co-jitator.

Sam had a bale of dope which he said were "facts," but which he did not go into. In speaking of the elymossinary institutions, he referred to the lunatic asylum as "your asylum" which we considered a reflection on his audience, for none of them had ever been adjudged insane.

One of the most telling points in Sam's song was when he appealed to "you farmers" and the vast assemblage of horny-handed sons of toil he was appealing to were: Knight Rector, Sr., B. T. Rich, T. B. Hart, Jim Baker, W. H. Kimbrough, Squire Coughlin and Bill Coff, as they were all sitting right under the drippings of the sanctuary. and they applauded him to the echo, and that too, without the solicitation of the speaker.

Sam is not an orator, he's a financier, as his and Joe Edwards' record of borrowing about $35,000 from an Austin bank and paying TEN DOLLARS pr year interest on same will testify. He has no element of the orator about him but his poise is easy and at times graceful when discussing everything except—Jim Ferguson then he goes up in the air and begin to spin in a maze. Here is where Sam's spark-plug begins to miss fire and conscience gets into action and he can't down it. Jim Ferguson was a life-long friend of his and assisted him in every way one friend could another, and when Sam's conscience reverts to those days, he has a "puncture and blow-out," and can't go any further. The name JIM FERGUSON has the same effect on Sam that water does on a mad-dog.

While Sam was telling about the different state institutions he forgot to tell that he was Chairman of the board of the Canyon City Normal School during its construction and while the state was on a deficiency he discounted several warrants of contractors, all of which was a violation of the law.

Sam also forgot to tell a real romantic piece of political history that transpired during his first race for State Treasurer. He had for an opponent one Sterling P. Strong of Dallas. Sam discovered during the campaign that $600.00 would put Strong out of the race, as he had been noticed backing around over the state with his hands behind him. Sam did not have the $600.00 bucks as a persuader for Sterling, so he confided in his personal friend, private citizen Jim Ferguson, and Jim let him have the "prize rod" to jar Sterling P. loose.

—W. S. S.—

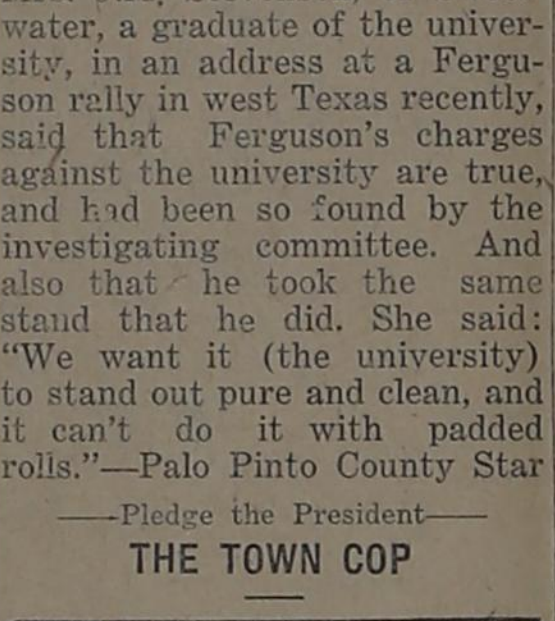

The forked tongued orators always wind up with the remark "He cant take his seat if elected." If so, why have they three or four hundred shouters on the stump against him? Why all this fuss? Why all this abuse and misrepresentation? Somebody is like the "nigger's coon"—they are scared, and know full well if Ferguson is elected he will be seated.—Palo Pinto County Star.

—Pledge the President—

Mrs. J.M. Stevenson, of Sweetwater, a graduate of the university, in an address at a Ferguson rally in west Texas recently, said that Ferguson's charges against the university are true, and had been so found by the investigating committee. And also that he took the same stand that he did. She said: "We want it (the university) to stand out pure and clean, and it can't do it with padded rolls."—Palo Pinto County Star

 Mr. Scott received a letter from his son, Tom, who is fighting at the front in France, stating that he was recovering, and at that time, able to sit up in bed. We are also glad that Charlie Phillips, who is from this place also, and who was reported dead, is now recovering in a hospital in France.

ready to accept assignment to whatever hospital the Government directs them, although they may state what training school they prefer to be sent to. Those who register in the PREFERRED class will be assigned first, and all possible consideration will be given to their preference as stated. The DEFERRED class is composed of those who limit their pledge of service—that is, who will not engage to go except to certain hospitals. This class is intended largely for those who, for family reasons, can not accept training at a distance from their homes. Those who register in the DEFERRED class will be assigned only after the PREFERRED class is exhausted.

The Government relies on the patriotism of those who enroll to fill out PREFERRED cards if they possibly can, thus volunteering to go where they are most needed.

Nobody will be assigned to any schools whose conditions of training are not approved by the State Board of Nurse Examiners.

TERMS OF TRAINING.—The term of training varies from two to three years, according to the requirements of the particular school to which the student nurse may be sent. No course takes less than two years nor more than three.

WHAT THE TRAINING COURSE PREPARES FOR.

At present every woman who completes satisfactorily her training in any accredited school is eligible for service as an army nurse at the front and stands a chance of being assigned to duty abroad. At the same time she will be qualified to earn her living in one of the noblest professions open to women. It should be remembered, furthermore, that her usefulness will begin not when she graduates from the training school but as soon as she enters it. Practical nursing work is a part of the work of every training school, and the student nurse is not only learning to serve but serving her country from the outset.

FINANCES.—The student nurse gets her board, lodging, and tuition free at practically every training school, and in most cases receives a small remuneration to cover the cost of books and uniforms. After graduation she has an earning capacity of from $100 to $300 a month. Private-duty nurses now receive an average of from $100 to $120 a month together with board while on duty; institution nurses from $50 to $150 a month together with board, lodging, and laundry; and public-health nurses from $100 to $250 a month without maintenance. There is no danger of the earning capacity of nurses being lowered after the war ends on account of the great number who will then be qualified for the profession; the country will need all the nurses that can be trained, not only during the war but after it, especially for reconstruction work. Even if the war ends within three years, every student nurse will be able to complete her training and will be needed.

AN HONORABLE SERVICE Ever since the days of Florence Nightingale the nursing profession has been one of special honor. It was never so honorable as it is to-day. The Army needs every nurse it can get to "keep up with the draft." The United States Student Nurse Reserve is the equivalent for women of the great National Army training camps for soldiers. The Government will rely upon the student nurses to fight disease at home, to care for those injured and disabled in our hazardous war industries, and to make themselves ready to serve when the time comes, as fully trained nurses, either abroad or at home.

...Let us show that we know how to answer the Governments call to the women of the country.

Reasons!

Why you should use Cardui, the woman's tonic, for your troubles, have been shown in thousands of letters from actual users of this medicine, who speak from personal experience. If the results obtained by other women for so many years have been so uniformly good, why not give Cardui a trial?

WANTED 25,000 WOMEN TO ENROLL IN THE UNITED STATES STUDENT NURSE RESERVE.

The Government is calling for 25,000 young women to join the United States Student Nurse Reserve and hold themselves in readiness to train for service as nurses.

The war is creating an unprecedented demand for trained nurses. Only those who have taken the full training course are eligible for service with our forces overseas. These nurses are being drawn largely from our hospitals at home. Their places must be filled by student nurses enrolled for the full training course of from two to three years. Every young woman who enrolls in the United States Student Nurse Reserve is releasing a nurse for service at the front and swelling the home army which we must rely on to act as our second line of hospital defense. Upon the health of the American people will depend the spirit of their fighting forces.

AGE.—The call is for women between the ages of nineteen and thirty-five.

QUALIFICATIONS.—Intelligent, responsible women of good education and sound health are wanted—the pick of the country. A college education is a valuable asset, and many hospitals will give credit for it. Credit will also be given for a special scientific equipment or for preliminary training in nursing, such as that given in special courses now being conducted by various colleges and schools. Some schools, on the other hand, do not even require a full high school education.

ENROLLMENT.—Women will be given an opportunity to enroll in the United States Students Nurse Reserve in any of three ways:

(1)As engaging to hold themselves in readiness until April 1, 1919, to accept assignments to nurses' training schools. These women will be sent to the schools as fast as vacancies occur. Those of superior qualifications will be given preference, and it is, of course, possible that not everyone who enrolls will be accepted.

(2)As desiring to become candidates for the Army Nursing School recently established by authority of the War Department, with branch schools in selected military hospitals.

(3)As engaging to hold themselves in readiness until April 1, 1919, to accept assignments to EITHER a civilian training school or the Army Nursing School. Those who so enroll will be called where the first need arises. The Government hopes that a majority of those who enroll will thus put down their names for both.

The Nurses Training Schools. There are 1,579 nurses' training schools in this country. Their need is as great and imperative as that of the Army School of Nursing. Those who enroll for these schools will be assigned as vacancies occur.

The enrollment card will indicate two classes of registrants—PREFERRED and DEFERRED. The PREFERRED class will be those who are
