SOME BAD ADVERTISING

Two business men of San Saba refinement. And this is the thought them in.

Pitiful, suffering humanity! This is alright for these gentlemen to view this matter in this light, but it is certainly a poor advertisement for the reason that we had the interests of riage. San Saba at heart we declined to take because we cannot hope to establish an accomplished lady. a reputation for high-class printing, unless we give service. We want the business and strive to merit it, but do not solicit the "dont care" kind.

IT RAINED SOME

A hard shower fell in San Saba Thursday afternoon, the cloud coming up from the west. For a few minutes it looked like we would have a chunk mover, but the ground being so dry and the rain falling so hard it only served to cool the atmosphere for a few minutes from the intense heat.

RACE HORSES ARRIVING

Several strings of race horses, both | W. F. Johnson. harness and running, have arrived in San Saba in the past few days and July 31 to Aug. 3, inclusive.

Heilo, Central!

Billy, two and a half, had a fear of doctors. He had a cold and the family physician was called. After the medical man had gone his parents asked Billy if he still feared the doctor. "No," said the tot, "he just telephoned to my 'tummick.' " He referred to the stethoscope.

An Eye to Business.

William's mother told him he might bring home a playmate after school and that she would have two apples on the table for them to eat, whereupon William replied: "I suppose it will be all the same, mother, if I don't bring anyone home; I can eat them both."

Got First Choice.

Helen went to the hospital to see her new baby brother. There were nine other babies in the ward. After looking them all over carefully, she said: "Mamma, you got the best one of the ten. Did they let you have first pick?"

An Oversight.

"My home for cats is not a success. I have provided good food, nice sleeping quarters, and yet the cats are not happy." "You are shy on amusement features, old man. You haven't provided any back fence."

Pleasure of Giving Pleasure.

A very few experiments will soon convince us that there are few pleasures in the world so reasonable and so cheap as the pleasure of giving pleasure.-Arthur C. Benson.

A Mean Trick.

Everyone says mean things about people he does not wish them to hear, and so it is a very mean trick to tell a man what people say about him .-Atchison Globe.
