

House Shelves Jobless Bills

WASHINGTON, Sept. 25 (AP)—With members voicing alarm at idleness in spreading strikes, the house ways and means committee today shelved all legislation proposing liberalization of unemployment benefits.

Full Employment Sure Of Passing

WASHINGTON, Sept. 25 (AP)—The so-called "full employment bill," called historic by its backers and meaningless by its critics, came before the senate today — sure of passage.

All hands agreed few votes would be cast against it. As one senator said privately, "to vote against employment would be like voting against faith, hope and the American home."

The argument is over wording of the bill. What it shall promise or state as a matter of government policy on assuring jobs for all.

Briefly, the measure as approved 13 to 7 by the banking committee, calls for a yearly national budget on production and jobs. When it appeared there would not be enough jobs, the federal government would come up with job-creating activities (such as public works) to fill the gap.

Chairman Wagner (D-NY) of the banking committee headed the list of speakers as debate opened. It was his job to explain the bill provision by provision.

As it stands, the bill says that "all Americans able to work and desiring to work are entitled to an opportunity for useful, remunerative, regular and full-time employment."

It has been endorsed by President Truman as a "must" item.

Organized labor, too, is behind the bill.

Dr. Miller Has Staff Additions

Addition of two members to the professional staff of the Big Spring State hospital was announced Tuesday by Dr. G. Miller, superintendent.

They are Dr. James I. Peters and Dr. W. C. Curtis.

Dr. Miller, who has been named superintendent of the hospital by the state board of control, has just returned from Austin where he attended a meeting of the superintendents of eleemosynary institutions.

At this meeting he made recommendations for additional buildings for patients, night employees, etc., and for additional specialized staff for the hospital.

Dr. Miller, who had been serving as assistant superintendent, at one time had the entire professional responsibility of the hospital on his hands when Dr. Glenn Weaver, acting superintendent, succumbed. Appointment of Drs. Peters and Curtis considerably relieves the situation.

Currently the hospital is still carrying a heavy overload of patients in comparison with its rated capacity.

C. L. Patterson Dies Of Attack

Claude Lively Patterson, 71, passed away at ten o'clock this morning following an attack.

Patterson had been an employee of Cusden Petroleum Corp. for more than 16 years, joining the concern March 24, 1929. He served many years as a boiler foreman and since March 1, 1944, he had been water tender.

He sustained an attack as he went to his garage Tuesday morning to drive to work. At a local hospital, to which he was rushed, he died a short time later of coronary occlusion.

Born in Illinois Feb. 11, 1874, Patterson is survived by his wife, Mrs. Frances Patterson; two daughters, Mrs. W. K. Mills at home and Mrs. F. T. Crews of Amarillo; one son, C. L. Patterson, Jr. of Big Spring; two sisters, Mrs. Viola Maberry of Athensville, Ill., and Mrs. Noel King of Peoria, Ill., and seven grandchildren.

Funeral services are pending and will be announced later by the Eberley-Curry Funeral Home, in charge of arrangements.

Bible Fund Grows

The high school Bible fund was increased by $10 Tuesday by a donation in that amount by G. R. Sewell. Slightly more than $1,400 has been raised to date and the minimum goal is $2,000. Checks or cash may be left with Joe Pickle, treasurer.

Navy Man With Three Children To Be Released

WASHINGTON, Sept. 25 (AP)—The navy announced today that any enlisted man with three or more children under 18 years of age will be released at his own request.

The move, effective immediately, marked a liberalization of policy governing so-called "ha. ship" cases which are handled outside the point discharge system. Under such conditions, an enlisted man would be considered a "prima facie hardship case," the navy explained.

The change will not affect the point system, which gives a flat 10 point credit for dependency regardless of number of dependents.

The navy estimated at the time the point system went into effect that there were about 97,000 enlisted men in the navy with three or more children. A "sizeable percentage" of that number already have been released under the point system, however.

The new rule does not apply for officers. "Hardship" cases involving officers will continue to be considered individually.

Previously there were no specific conditions to determine hardship cases. Each case was reviewed on its own merits.

The navy said that to date about 93,000 servicemen have been released under the point system. The daily rate has steadily increased, reaching 5,800 last Friday.

During the first 21 days of September, voluntary enlistments totaled about 12,500, including 9,000 in the regular navy and 3,500 in the reserve. Regular enlistments are for four-year terms and reserve enlistments for the duration of the emergency.

Patton Ordered To Clarify Statement

U. S. THIRD ARMY HEADQUARTERS, Bad Toelz, Germany, Sept. 25 (AP)—Gen. George S. Patton, Jr., commanding the eastern military district in Bavaria, has been told by his superiors to "clarify" his remarks of Saturday about denazification of the Bavarian administration, which caused repercussions in the United States.

For that purpose, Patton called a formal news conference of all correspondents in this area for this afternoon.

A request to Patton for comment on the American reaction to his remarks, which included editorial protests in several newspapers, brought this statement from an aide:

"The general is working on that right now. We've heard from above and we're planning to call in everybody for a clarifying statement."

Hirohito Disclaims Sneak Attack

NEW YORK, Sept. 25 (AP)—The New York Times in a special dispatch from Tokyo, today quoted Emperor Hirohito as saying in an interview that he had no intention of having his war rescript employed as former Premier Hideki Tojo used it when Japan launched her sneak attack on Pearl Harbor.

Hirohito told the Times' Tokyo correspondent, Frank L. Kluckhohn, that he had expected Tojo to declare war against the United States in the usual, formal manner, if necessary.

The emperor stated, Kluckhohn reported, that he was opposed to war as an instrument of policy and pledged that any social changes in Japan would be made by constitutional means. He said he would favor a constitutional monarchy like that of the British. Hirohito, the correspondent wrote:

Government Acts To Untangle Labor Snarl

By The Associated Press
The government moved today to unsnarl the increasingly heavy traffic of strikes and work stoppages along the nation's labor front.

The number of men and women off their jobs by strikes and forced shutdowns across the country touched around the 350,000 mark, the highest in months. Some 100,000 workers joined the army of idle over labor disputes within the last 24 hours as strife among labor-management gained headway.

Increased wages were the principal demands in the majority of the disputes.

As the government stepped in to attempt to effect a settlement of a spreading oil strike which already has idled 30,000 workers, there was no immediate indication other front-ranking stoppages would be called off.

Headlining the troubled labor front was New York City's strike of 15,000 AFL building service employees. Business in the metropolis was partially paralyzed after the workers left their jobs yesterday.

Detroit's turbulent labor situation continued to share in the spotlight. Gov. Harry F. Kelly of Michigan ordered an investigation of the month-old strike of 4,500 workers at the Kelsey-Hayes Wheel company which precipitated lay-off of 50,000 Ford Motor company automobile employees. Some 90,000 were idle in the nation's automotive capital over labor disputes.

One of the country's biggest single walkouts occurred yesterday as 60,000 AFL lumber and sawmill workers left their jobs in Oregon, Washington, Idaho and Montana in a dispute over wages.

Three other strikes yesterday added 22,000 to the mounting list of idle. They included 15,000 CIO workers of the New York Shipbuilding corporation in the Philadelphia-Camden, N. J., area. The huge yard where eight navy ships are under construction, closed, as the workers went on a sitdown, their second within a week.

Other stoppages in the last 24 hours idled 5,000 at the Western Cartridge company plant in East Alton, Ill., and 2,000 workers at the Simmons Company in Kenosha, Wis.

Schwollenbach told Justice Knous that through him "I wish to express to the representatives of industry and labor that your meeting must not be permitted to fall."

"Out of it must come some agreement through which the workers return to work immediately. The oil and gasoline reserves in this country will be depleted in a very few days. Further tieup of the refineries threatens to break down both the military and civilian transportation systems."

"Such a breakdown would strike at the reconversion program and would prevent the bringing home and discharge of the men in the armed services."

"It is not my purpose to tell either industry or labor what agreement should be reached. I do urge on both of them, however, that they realize the importance of this conference and that the time is short and that an agreement be reached quickly."

COOPER ANNOUNCED THAT LOCAL UNIONS IN THE PERMIAN BASIN WERE HOLDING MEETINGS THIS WEEK SETTING UP POLICY COMMITTEES.

"As soon as all local unions have turned in their lists of policy to committees a call will go out for a general policy committee meeting tentatively set for Oct 3 at a central point in the Permian Basin," Cooper's statement said.

"Out of this meeting will come a plan of entering the wage fight which has already involved thousands of oil workers throughout the nation."

Cooper did not announce the place the central meeting would be held.

Take No Chances On Ammunition Shortage

PROVO, UTAH, Sept. 25 (AP)—The members of the central Utah peace officer's association are taking no chances on ammunition shortage.

Added to the usual pistol and rifle target shooting matches, to be held October 7, will be a bow and arrow match.

Not So Tight Window Sad For Tavernkeeper

CHICAGO, Sept. 25 (AP)—For years Steve Dudas hadn't been able to open a rear window in his tavern. It was stuck tight. But burglars succeeded in getting it open, he told Marquette police.

They got into his establishment through the window but made their exit through a side door, taking with them a juke box, a radio, five cases of whisky and $75.

Local Dog Catcher Busy Man This Week

The dog catcher is going after the dogs since a crack down was made on stray animals running loose last week. The end of a day usually finds an additional 15 to 20 dogs in the pound.

About 14 dogs were turned loose over the week-end when several children, overzealous in looking for their dog, accidentally let them out of the pound, city officials said.

Two Latin-American youths are assisting the dog catcher in his work.

Big Three May Iron Out Peace

Hard Peace Ok'd By Endorsement

By JACK BELL
WASHINGTON, Sept. 25 (AP)—A hard peace for Japan had official, if indirect, okay today from both the White House and the senate.

The senate's 69 to 1 approval of Dean G. Acheson as undersecretary of state was interpreted widely on Capitol Hill as a roundabout endorsement of the tough-on-Japan policy Acheson has championed.

Similarly, President Truman's clarification of Gen. Douglas MacArthur's authority was looked upon as notice to the Japanese that they will have to obey American orders without question.

Acheson's confirmation came yesterday after a short-lived fight by Senator Wherry of Nebraska, the republican whip.

Wherry contended Acheson had rebuked MacArthur for estimating that he could get along with 200,000 troops to police Japan six months from now.

In the sometimes bitter debate that followed, however, the Nebraskan said his chief objection to Acheson was that the latter seemed to be fostering a policy for a social and economic revolution in Japan. That, Wherry said, "may take hundreds of thousands of lives before it is put down."

Chairman Connally (D-Tex) of the foreign relations committee jumped into the debate with the assertion that he, for one is "willing to go in there and teach the Japanese that the will to war will not pay them dividends."

Connally and Democratic Leader Barkley (Ky) said they couldn't find anything in Acheson's remarks disparaging to MacArthur.

Senator Chandler (D-Ky), who joined Wherry last week in contending that MacArthur had been "insulted," arose to say there had been a misunderstanding all around.

President Truman's new directive to MacArthur made it clear the general is the top authority in Japan. It notified the Japanese that the Potsdam declaration is a statement of policy, not something for them to argue about.

Armed with a presidential directive making it clear that he is the highest authority in Japan, MacArthur meanwhile clamped other controls ever more tightly on Japan's political and economic life.

Latest decrees forbade making arms, ammunition and aircraft; promised priorities necessary for production of food; clothing and houses; required careful reporting of virtually every large-scale financial transaction; unshackled the Japanese press; and spurred democratic education.

Involved in the dispute spreads to the Permian Basin will be oil field workers such as drillers, pipe line employees, employes at storage facilities, and rig builders.

One estimate at Odessa placed the number at more than 5,000. Figures from the Odessa chamber of commerce show 14,000 producing wells in the Permian Basin.

Cooper announced that local unions in the Permian Basin were holding meetings this week setting up policy committees.

"As soon as all local unions have turned in their lists of policy to committees a call will go out for a general policy committee meeting tentatively set for Oct 3 at a central point in the Permian Basin," Cooper's statement said.

"Out of this meeting will come a plan of entering the wage fight which has already involved thousands of oil workers throughout the nation."

Cooper did not announce the place the central meeting would be held.

Odessa Oil Workers May Join In Strike

An Odessa union official said today CIO oil field union workers in the vast Permian Basin of Texas were setting up machinery for a plan for "entering the wage fight which has already involved thousands of oil workers throughout the nation."

Committee To Visit Pearl Harbor Itself

WASHINGTON, Sept. 25 (AP)—A senate-house committee decided today to visit Pearl Harbor in its investigation of the sneak Japanese attack which plunged the United States into war.

Chairman Barkley (D-Ky) said the group would go to Hawaii as soon as it has made a preliminary study of evidence already obtained by various inquiry boards.

He said hearings probably will be held there. Testimony likely would be taken from witnesses who would have difficulty in coming to Washington for hearings here, he added.

The primary objective of the trip, Barkley said, will be to familiarize committee members with the physical layout of Pearl Harbor in relation to preparations made to meet such an attack as the Japanese staged.

LEAVE FOR WASHINGTON

CANBERRA, Sept. 25 (AP)—W. E. Dunk, Secretary of the Department of External Affairs, and Edwin Mc Carthy, Assistant Secretary of the Department of Commerce, will leave for Washington immediately to strengthen Australia's representation in a conference on the termination of lend lease. Prime Minister Joseph B. Chieffey announced today.

Jap So Sorry, No Hose, Lady

TOKYO, Sept. 25 (AP)—So sorry, ladies. Japan is worrying more about food just now than about supplying silk hosiery and lingerie.

The Japanese ministry of agriculture announced today plans for further conversion of mulberry (silkworm-food) acreage into human production. Between 1940 and 1945 nearly 800,000 acres of mulberry land went into food production, and plans announced today call for conversion of another 350,000 acres.

That doesn't leave much food for silkworms.

Ministers Group Ready To Close After Failure

By FLORA LEWIS
LONDON, Sept. 25 (AP)—Belief that another meeting of President Truman, Premier Stalin and Prime Minister Attlee may be necessary to iron out Europe's major peace problems was voiced in some quarters today as the foreign ministers' council prepared to close its two weeks session with the record of important agreements precisely at zero.

Some delegates still spoke hopefully of a second session of the Big Five foreign ministers in December, but this could be arranged only if the deputies were able to work out solutions to the many problems tossed their way by the foreign ministers.

The French were expected to try to force consideration of plans for western Germany before the council adjourns today, but there seems little likelihood of success in that direction.

Final conference talks were expected to be concentrated on European inland waterways and the Soviet demand for acceleration in the repatriation of Russian nationals. The present snag in the latter problem is on the formula for deciding just who is Russian, in view of frontier changes.

Among the many other questions which the ministers failed to settle and which they turned over to the deputies is the problem of Chinese claims on Italy, which were disclosed today. One official source said this was China's only proposal during the meeting. Details were unavailable, but apparently the demands were modest, since little argument reportedly was raised.

But the Chinese claims were important with regard to whether France and China should be permitted to help write peace treaties in the cases of countries with which they did not sign armistices.

Molotov, Bevin Clashing About Their Nobility

LONDON, Sept. 25 (AP)—Bitter personal clashes were reported today between British Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin and Russian Foreign Commissar V. M. Molotov.

An informant who attended the secret sessions of the foreign ministers of the United States, Russia, Great Britain, France and China gave this as an example of the friction between Molotov and Bevin:

Molotov, objecting to the British attitude against Balkan governments sponsored by Russia, declared that Bevin was supporting an anti-democratic regime in Greece.

Angered, Bevin retorted that he refused to permit that he be spoken to in such a tone. "Besides," Bevin is reported to have said, "I am tired of always being the butt of accusations. It is as though I am always being hit in the prisoners' dock. Is it because I used to be a doctor?"

"Well," Molotov was said to have replied, "I don't know but there is one thing you and I have in common anyway. Our nobility is not very old."

Regarding the repatriation issue, the Russians were declared wanting assurance that Poles and residents of the Russian-occupied Baltic states be returned. The American-British attitude was that Moscow cannot claim these peoples unless they wish to return.

An authority who attended the meetings said Molotov had refused any plan which would give the western powers the right to take an active hand in Balkan affairs.

The Tale That Comes From Every Rummage

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Sept. 25 (AP)—Mrs. Albert Wike arrived a little late at the rummage sale sponsored by the Luther Memorial church, tossed off her coat and pitched in to help the women.

After the last garment was sold, Mrs. Wike couldn't find her coat but one of the sales clerks remembered selling one Mrs. Wike described as hers for $2.50.

Mrs. Wike is looking for the purchaser. Her garment, she said, was comparatively new.

Final Days Of Play May Leave Leaders In A Tie

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer

Presidents Will Harridge of the American league and Ford Frick of the National league might well devote some time today to the possibility of a pennant tie as the top contenders enter the final nerve-grinding six days of the regular season.

It's never happened before and probably won't this time but if Detroit loses three of its last four and the St. Louis Cardinals sweep two more from Chicago there will be confusion plenty.

Best chance for a deadlock is in the American where Washington has finished its schedule and has nothing more to do than wait and pray for the Tigers to get knocked over by Cleveland and St. Louis.

Steve O'Neill has a chance to be sure of at least a tie by beating Cleveland today in the opener of two-game set and he has nominated Al Benton, the ex-sailor, to do the job. If the big fellow wins, it will be Hal Newhouser tomorrow to apply for the clincher.

However, there is a chance the Tribe could top one or both games and make it necessary for the Bengals to sweep their final two in St. Louis, Saturday and Sunday, to nose past the idle Senators.

At least the Tigers probably won't see any more of Bobby Feller who faced them three times since he came out of the navy. Rapid Robert worked against Chicago Sunday and won't be ready for the two with Hank Greenberg and Co.

The Cub-Cardinal two-day series opening at Wrigley Field today is loaded with possibilities. Beaten 15 times in 20 starts by Billy Southworth's gang, the Cubs now are only a game and a half ahead of St. Louis. Inability of the Brums to stop the onrushing Cardinals have cost them much prestige as well as several precious lengths in the won and lost columns.

Charley Grimm's Cubs are faced with the necessity of winning at least one of the two games or dropping out of the lead for the first time since July 8.

After St. Louis, Chicago still faces a doubleheader in Cincinnati Thursday, another twin bill in Pittsburgh Saturday and a single finale with the Pirates Sunday. Saturday's games, taking the place of an original open date, resulted from yesterday's postponement of the only scheduled big league action.

The Cards journey to Pittsburgh for a single night game Thursday, a playoff of a Sept. 4 tie, and then close in Cincinnati with two Saturday and one Sunday.

Hank Borowy, the ex-Yankee, who twice in the last month defeated St. Louis in 10 innings, each time by a 4-1 score, will pitch for the Cubs today. He will be opposed by Harry Brecheen, who has won his last six straight, including three over the Cubs, two by shutouts.

Local Palominos Place In Abilene

If local Palomino breeders require larger hats, the change is entirely pardonable.

Out of all horses entered in the Palomino show at Abilene Sunday by local breeders, every one placed.

Chief winner was Roy Davis, veteran Palomino breeder and widely known West Texas horseman. Davis showed the champion yearling colt in the saddle-bred class with his Sangre de Oro. The colt won Davis a trophy as well as ribbons for championship in class and first place in class. Sangre del Lungru was the sire and Betty Topaz the dam.

His Hijo del Sur, sired by Lemon del Sur and with Donna Silver Queen as dam, took first place in the parade class for two-year olds. Second place in the two-year old stallion stock horse class went to Ala Baba, sired by Golden Toy and out of Donna Shore. Davis won third place in the mare stock horse division with Delores del Sur, also sired by Lemon del Sur and out of Ethel Tramin. A brace of fourth places went to Conchita, sired by Oro de los Conchos, in the mare parade class, and to Arab del Sur, sired by Lemon del Sur and out of Gold Rose, in the yearling parade class.

Average Allowable At Fall 1941 Level

AUSTIN, Sept. 25 (AP)—The average allowable of Texas oil wells beginning Oct. 1 will be 1,785,089 barrels daily, placing most of them at or near the Oct. 1, 1941, level.

The October schedule, announced yesterday by the railroad commission, was reduced to 207,152 barrels below the average daily allowable reported Sept. 15.

The October reduction is the second major postwar allowable cut. The commission reduced September allowable 16.7 per cent below August and October was cut 10.4 per cent under the September schedule.

Commission Chairman Olin Culbertson said the October allowable was designed to give all operators a share of market demand which has decreased steadily since the war with Japan ended. It permits 20 general producing days. There are 21 general producing days this month. The Panhandle field remains exempt from shut-in days in October and the big East Texas field, continues on 20 producing days.

AUSTIN, Sept. 25 (AP)—Before Gov. Coke R. Stevenson today was a suggestion from Lt. Gov. John Lee Smith for a special session of the legislature to preserve the open shop and to guarantee servicemen a preference in public and private jobs.

In a letter to the governor Smith said:

"I believe the present oil workers strike by the Congress of Industrial Organizations involving as it does both issues above presented is adequate reason to warrant the calling of such a session."

He further expressed the opinion there are times when the government must act to preserve the common welfare "against the selfishness of a minority."

"I believe this to be such a time," he added.

Twenty Cases Not Too Much For Whole City

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 25 (AP)—Twenty cases of whisky didn't seem like too much to druggist Thomas Levin. Especially when the customer told him the whole town was invited for the affair.

However, Judge George H. Moore threw the romantic angle out the court room window and ruled that there is a limit on the amount of whisky to be sold in one retail lot. The ruling was made after finding Levin guilty of selling whisky wholesale without a license.

His sentence was 30 days in jail and a $200 fine.

Steers Face Tough Assignment Friday

Smarter under a 12-0 upset beating absorbed at the hands of the Cisco Lobos, the Big Spring Steers have an uphill battle to make a game of it Friday at Lubbock against the Westerners.

Although Lubbock took a wallop from Odessa two weeks ago, they bounced back Friday at San Angelo to come out with a 13-13 tie with the strong Bobcats and statistically were much stronger than a draw.

Moreover, when the Steers buck the Westerners, they will be giving away about 25 pounds per man and letting themselves in for a battering from a backfield which has 178 pounds for the lightest man.

As if this were not enough, the Steers may have some of their regulars still out of the battle due to illness. Latest typhus victims include Marvin Wright, end, and Gerald Harris, first line tackle. Donald Webb, sub half, is ailing, and although George Worrell, back, has returned from his sick bed as has Bob Hardy, half, they are not in top condition and may see little service Friday.

Missing from practice Monday was Bobby Hollis, the young bulldozer who came from the bench last Friday to prove one of the few bright spots of the Steers' play. Time and time again it was Hollis who went crashing through to tackle Lobo backs for losses and to make tackles even on the other side of the line. He had a football heart that night and a lot of ability.

Ike Robb, top of the guard candidates, should be in better condition, although he shared with Hollis in defensive honors against Cisco. Ike's stocky form knifed through time and again to smear Lobo thrusts. His running mate, Billy Casey, who also got out of a sick bed last week to play, should be back with more stamina this week.

Coaches John Dibrell and Conn

Isaacs dished out as brisk a workout Monday as their squad, hit at one time last week with as high as one of three out with illness, could stand. Today's menu included more rough work. In addition to scrimmages, the Steers face some gruelling routines on tackling and blocking.

Last week several of Cisco's gains were registered because initial tackles failed to stick. Lobo backs slid past tackles and guards backs times. The ends will get plenty of work, for on several occasions they looked like ten-pins after a strike when interference swooped down on them.

If Horace Rankin is back in shape, the Steer passing game should improve. This will free Jackie Barron and Hugh Cochran to devote more of their time to running and blocking. Robert Miller, although boogered a trifle by Cisco, is in pretty good shape and should Hardy be ready, the backfield situation will be improved.

Punting is still a cause for concern for Dibrell and Isaacs. Cochran did well enough getting his punts off (having only one partially blocked), but his distance was short. Wright, when he returns, will be given plenty of shoeing practice along with Cochran.

Jittery Tigers Look To Benton For Game

DETROIT, Sept. 25 (AP)—The jittery Detroit Tigers today called on former sailor Al Benton to assure them of at least a tie for the American league pennant by beating the Cleveland Indians in the opener of an all-important two game series here this afternoon.

The navy veteran, hard luck man of the Tiger pitching staff, has not finished in his last 11 starts, but Manager Steve O'Neill of the Detroiters gave him the choice assignment, commenting, "I know he can win."

Boys Will Be Boys And Sometimes A Problem

DAILY STORY FROM THE BEST-SELLING BOOK By BENNETT CERF

IN 1918 Blasco Ibanez's The Four Horsemen of the Apocalypse made publishing history in America in more ways than one. Its chances in this country were rated so unlikely that an agent sold the American rights outright for $500.

Years later, after the book had sold hundreds of thousands of copies and the picture version had created a new idol in the person of Rudolph Valentino, Blasco Ibanez visited the United States, and was presented with a check for $10,000 by the fortunate publisher.

The Nation Today— Auto Workers Not Asking For 30 Per Cent Raise In Individual Check

By JAMES MARLOW WASHINGTON, Sept. 25 (AP)—The CIO's United Auto Workers (UAW) are not asking for a straight 30 per cent increase in wages. True, they want a 30 per cent increase in the payroll of the entire auto industry, all makers included. But that 30 per cent doesn't mean each worker at week's end would go home with 30 per cent more pay in his pocket. It would mean this: 1. Each worker would get most of that 30 per cent—about 23 per cent—in pay. 2. The remainder—about 7 per cent—would go into wage increases for some workers and social benefits for all. It would work like this: 1. Three per cent would be used to equalize the pay of auto workers throughout the country, or nearly equalize it. For example: An auto worker in Atlanta, Ga., may be getting $1.00 an hour for exactly the same kind of work being done by an auto worker in Detroit. But the Detroit worker, because he's in Detroit and not Atlanta, gets $1.25. So the UAW would use that 3 per cent increase in the total payroll to bring the Atlanta worker's pay up to—or close to—the pay given the Detroit worker. 2. Another 3 per cent of the total 30 per cent increase would go into a program for the benefit of UAW workers everywhere. This would include life insurance, hospital care, surgery. UAW workers don't have those benefits now. 3. About 1 per cent of the 30 per cent increase would be used to correct inequities within an individual plant. For instance: Here are Jones and Smith. They work side by side. Each does a slightly different job from the other. But both need the same amount of intelligence and muscle for their work. Jones gets $1.00 an hour but Smith gets $1.25. That 1 per cent would be used to bring Jones closer up to Smith. 4. Now we come to the 23 per cent which is left after deducting the 7 per cent outlined above. UAW people say it would be used this way: That 23 per cent increase in the industry payroll would be divided by the number of workers to find a flat sum in cents which each worker could be given. And all UAW workers would get the same amount of increase in cents. Grains, principally wheat, and potatoes are Canada's chief farm crops.

TODAY... The gasoline you've been waiting for!

These are the gasolines you've been waiting for, the gasolines Humble promised you during the War years. Today, the new, high-octane Humble Motor Fuel joins new, high-octane Esso Extra at Humble stations. The superb manufacturing facilities built by Humble for wartime needs have been converted to your service, so that already—today—you can fill up with better than pre-war Esso Extra or high-octane Humble Motor Fuel and get the quality performance you missed throughout the War years. Esso Extra has always been first among premium gasolines. It still is, a gasoline of unprecedented quality, with a new, higher than pre-war octane rating which makes it second only to the gasoline used by war planes in combat. Humble Motor Fuel, at regular price, marches just behind Esso Extra. It, too, has a new, high-octane rating to give you smooth, easy starting, quick pick-up performance in your car. And both of these fine gasolines contain a patented solvent oil which minimizes the formation of harmful substances in the engine of your car. Don't wait longer for the performance you missed during the War years. Stop—today—at the nearest Humble sign for better than pre-war Esso Extra, first of the premium gasolines—or for high-octane Humble Motor Fuel, second to none at regular price.

Have your motor tuned to take advantage of these fine gasolines You'll notice—instantly—the high-octane performance of Humble's BETTER THAN PRE-WAR quality of Esso Extra. Nevertheless, it will pay you to have your motor tuned to take full advantage of the quality of Esso Extra and Humble Motor Fuel. Some cars will require only a simple mechanical adjustment with a screwdriver; others may need the attention of a good mechanic. But you know what your car needs. After you fill up with better than pre-war Esso Extra, or the new, high-octane Humble Motor Fuel, have your motor tuned for the performance you missed during the War years.

Stay With Fundamentals

What Walter Lippmann had to say in Monday's Herald about the proper source of policy in international dealings is not to be taken lightly.

With The News

By Dewitt Mackenzie AP Foreign News Analyst

Emperor Hirohito's hold on his 2,600-year old throne is mighty tenuous, and while he is doing all he can to maintain his position, it won't be surprising to see him abdicate in due course, either of his own volition or because of pressure.

The report from usually well informed Japanese sources in Tokyo that the Mikado is preparing to present himself at the American embassy for an audience with Supreme Commander MacArthur is as significant as it is sensational.

We know that MacArthur is ruling Nippon through the imperial figure-head, but it's doubtful whether many of his humble and worshipful subjects realize it. So if and when this historic meeting takes place it's likely to produce a shocking disillusionment among his people.

There are, of course, a considerable number of Japanese anti-monarchists who have been waiting and praying for an opportunity to execute a revolutionary coup and oust the emperor.

Whether the Mikado elects to present himself before MacArthur, the fact remains that there has been considerable talk of his possible abdication.

Meanwhile MacArthur has ordered a complete report on the emperor's huge fortune, which heretofore has been one of the best kept state secrets.

We do not argue the right or wrong of his policies. A capable, good man might administer as just as an even more just policy than one established by the government.

Back of it all, it seems to us, we should not lose sight of the fundamental that ours is a civilian government. As badly as we sometimes mess our governmental affairs at times, the people have recourse at the ballot box in a democratic civilian type of government.

To drift into military administrations, however innocently or well-intentioned, would be setting out on a divergent path. For this reason, it is also well to examine closely all proposals for concentration of all fighting forces into one department, under a military man.

Whether the Mikado elects to present himself before MacArthur, the fact remains that there has been considerable talk of his possible abdication.

Meanwhile MacArthur has ordered a complete report on the emperor's huge fortune, which heretofore has been one of the best kept state secrets.

Not Solving Unemployment

(This is the first of six articles in which leading economists give their ideas on the problem of keeping the United States prosperous. The articles were condensed by their authors for the Associated Press from a forthcoming book, "Financing American Prosperity.")

In 1921, 4,754,000 workers unemployed, or 11.2 per cent. But the federal government, old-fashioned, did nothing about it.

The labor market absorbed all these more in the years 1921 to 1923. Unemployment dropped steadily from 11.2 per cent in 1921 to 1.7 per cent in 1923.

Governmental economic planning in a democracy is foredoomed. Our congress works through specialized committees that study only segments of our economic problems.

Governmental economic planning in the United States must be preceded by the subordination of legislature and judiciary to the executive and by the disappearance of the independent states, and of private rights protected by the courts.

We began our governmental economic planning designed to create full employment in 1924 under Calvin Coolidge, when the federal reserve system flooded the money markets with cheap money, starting a wild upward movement in the stock market.

Hoover's farm board manipulated commodity prices. Following the stock market crash, President Hoover called the leaders of business, public utilities, and railroads together to urge upon them the policy of not cutting prices, not cutting wages, and increasing capital outlay.

The democratic new deal intensified all these things manifold. And it went in heavily for government deficit financing to make prosperity. In contrast with the figures given above for unemployment when the government did nothing about it, the figures from 1930 to 1939 are appalling. From 1930 to 1939 we averaged 9,402,000 unemployed or 18 per cent.

The road back to full employment is to be found in reducing and modifying the restrictions which the government has placed upon free markets since 1921.

Further federal government deficits to make prosperity, piled on top of our gigantic war debt, simply must not be undertaken. We should thereby wreck the credit of the government and go into wild currency disorders.

We must leave the people to work it out.

Mahon Impressed On Tour By GI's Desire To Get Along Home

WASHINGTON, Sept. 25 (AP)—Rep. Mahon (D-Tex.), said the thing that impressed him the most on a recent world tour, was the fervent desire of the G.I.'s to get home.

Mahon was one of six members of the house war department appropriations committee who arrived back at the capitol yesterday after a five-week tour of American military bases around the globe.

Mahon said "the delay of G.I.'s getting home has aroused in some of them a resentment that has approached the point of bitterness."

The return of soldiers is complicated by the fact there are "acres and acres" of American equipment around the world which can't be abandoned, Mahon stated.

Other congressmen making the trip were Reps. Snyder (D-Pa), Norrell (D-Ark), Case (R-S.D.), Engel (R-Mich) and Tibbott (R-Pa).

The question of marriage arose when Bill said he was looking for a house to buy.

"Oh, settling down, eh?" "No," he said, "I'm buying a house for one reason only. In about three years I'll leave Hollywood and just bum around. I can live on the money I'll get from renting the house."

But Bill really intends to settle down some day.

"Like anybody else, I'd like to have my own home and raise a family. The only trouble is finding the right girl. One thing is certain — she won't be an actress. There isn't room enough in one family for two egocentrics."

"You mean that your ego flares up on occasion?" He thought that one over for a minute. "Not too violently," he said. "But some nights I would come home from the studio all keyed up about some difficulty, and I would need a wife who could absorb my feelings."

Bill is not the worrying kind.

The Timid Soul

THE SOUVENIR HUNTER WITH THE ARMY OF OCCUPATION

With The AEF: Hong Kong — All You Thought China Would Ever Be

By HAL BOYLE HONG KONG (AP)—The war has finished and now Britain is polishing up this crown jewel of the Orient, tarnished by the conflict.

Hong Kong itself will soon be in working condition but it will be years before this gem colony regains its pre-war luster.

The Chinese settlement seems to have suffered much less than the areas in which the "foreign" colony lived.

Eviction bombing by the Allies led to most aerial damage to Japanese shipping and repair structures along the waterfront.

Hong Kong's three largest hotels, the Gloucester, Hong Kong and Peninsula, are open and crowded with former refugees and military personnel.

Commercial life is slowly reviving. The British fleet has brought in hundreds of tons of rice, and is putting as many coolies to work as possible.

Oh, For A Bowling Ball And Chain

By BOB THOMAS HOLLYWOOD—Mind you, girls, no frivolous woman is going to snag William Eytch.

Bill has the dubious distinction of being one of the most eligible bachelors in Hollywood. And he indicated that he won't be relinquishing the title in the near future.

"I haven't met a girl out here yet that I would want to marry," he declared. "They're all too artificial. All they ever want to do is go to the night clubs."

"Do you know that as long as I have been in Hollywood I haven't been able to find a girl who would go bowling with me? They're always afraid they would muss their hair or lose their glamor. When I lived in the (Greenwich) Village, we could have lots of fun bowling or tossing a small party. But in Hollywood—no."

The question of marriage arose when Bill said he was looking for a house to buy.

"Oh, settling down, eh?" "No," he said, "I'm buying a house for one reason only. In about three years I'll leave Hollywood and just bum around. I can live on the money I'll get from renting the house."

But Bill really intends to settle down some day.

"Like anybody else, I'd like to have my own home and raise a family. The only trouble is finding the right girl. One thing is certain — she won't be an actress. There isn't room enough in one family for two egocentrics."

"You mean that your ego flares up on occasion?" He thought that one over for a minute. "Not too violently," he said. "But some nights I would come home from the studio all keyed up about some difficulty, and I would need a wife who could absorb my feelings."

Washington Merry-Go-Round—

"Time" Hurts Eisenhower's Policy

By DREW PEARSON WASHINGTON—Gen. Dwight Eisenhower, a real diplomat, has been making progress toward friendship with the Russians, but got a setback the other day.

U. S. officials entering Eisenhower's office found him despondent. He was holding a copy of "Time" magazine.

Eisenhower pointed to a picture of a female entertainer in a Berlin night club standing on her head, legs apart, holding a picture of Stalin between them. "Time" had reproduced the picture.

"And just as I was making some progress with Marshal Zhukov," Eisenhower mourned. "First he would scarcely see me. But recently we have become pretty good friends. When I go into his office he says, 'Here's to Ike.'"

Eisenhower went on to tell how Zhukov was blazng mad over the "Time" magazine picture. He had just come from seeing the Russian commander who had demanded:

"What are you going to do about this?" "Nothing," replied Eisenhower. "What! You let the American press make mockery of the marshal?" exclaimed Zhukov.

"That's what we fought the war for—the right to criticize, the right for people to say what they please," said Eisenhower.

Eisenhower went on to explain to the Russian that because one newspaper or magazine published a picture of Stalin, it did not reflect the sentiment of either the American government or the American people, and that the American government scrupulously refrained from censoring the press on matters of this kind.

However, the Russians continue to be sensitive. It is hard for them to understand the difference between a regulated press as in the Soviet and a free press as in the U. S. A.

New Supreme Court Justice President Truman really let his hair down with Senator Burton when he called him in last week to tell him he was being nominated to the supreme court.

Catching Burton just before the Ohio state was about to leave for Cincinnati, Truman told him that he had actually promised the supreme court job to another man, Robert Patterson, now secretary of war, but changed his mind.

"Harold," said Truman at the start of the interview, "I've made up my mind to appoint you to the supreme court."

"You were always my first choice," Truman continued, "but I had some vacillations. I considered appointing Phillips of Denver, Parker of North Carolina and Patterson."

"Finally I decided to appoint Patterson and told him I was going to appoint him."

Truman then explained that it was better to leave Patterson in the war department to replace Stimson as secretary of war.

"One of the things that disturbed your appointment," Truman continued, "was the probable claim that I might be playing politics in order to get a democratic senator from Ohio. (Truman had in mind the fact that Governor Lausche of Ohio, a democrat, now can appoint a democratic senator to replace Burton, a republican.)"

"So I talked it over with Alben"

1. From New York, the group was sent to Camp Kilmer, N. J. 2. Fifteen hours after arriving in New Jersey, they backtracked north again to Fort Devens, Mass. There they were taken off the train, given physical examinations and other red tape until 5 a. m. At 7 a. m. the job was supposed to be completed. But after loafing around for three hours, waiting for the last papers, they were ordered home on 30-day furloughs.

3. After the 30-day furloughs, they were ordered to report to Greensboro, N. C. There they were told they were not essential and would be released. Greensboro is a separation center, but they were not released there.

4. Instead, the group was ordered all the way north to Devens, Mass., again. Before this happened, however, they loafed around Greensboro for three weeks.

Many of the boys want to go back to school or college. Schools are already opened, and they are losing valuable time. But the army doesn't seem interested. It has just informed these men that Devens is so busy they can't be discharged until Oct. 9. Yet they arrived in the U.S.A. in July, scheduled for discharge immediately.

(Copyright, 1945, by the Bell Syndicate, Inc.)

Patterson Side-Tracked The rest of the story regarding Senator Burton's appointment is that as of Sept. 4, Truman had definitely decided to appoint Bob Patterson to the supreme court and told him so. However, this fact leaked out. Public reaction was not good, especially on Capitol Hill.

So after a cabinet meeting on Sept. 7, Attorney General Tom Clark had a conference with Truman and it was decided to put the matter frankly up to Patterson himself. Clark then called him on the phone in New York and diplomatically indicated that although he could have either job, Truman probably would prefer to have Patterson stay as Secretary Stimson's successor.

Patterson, who had always wanted to be secretary of war, was glad to take the hint.

GOP Joy Most republican leaders were delighted at the Burton supreme court appointment for several reasons. In the first place, Senator Burton didn't always vote the straight GOP line, was too independent for party hack senators. Secondly, his senatorial exit now paves the way for ex-Governor John Bricker.

Bricker, Dewey's recent running-mate, had been straining at the leash, trying to make up his mind whether to get into the senate race. He didn't like to oppose Burton, but now he can run with a vengeance. So, although the republicans figure they lose one vote temporarily, they expect to gain it back next election.

Army Run-Around Here is the army run-around again to one group of 182 air force personnel—all with more than 100 points. Unfortunately it is typical of the run-around given to a great many men entitled to immediate discharge. Despite official announcements from the war department, despite the well-meant promises of Chief of Staff Marshall, individual commanders seem either unwilling or unable to coordinate discharges.

This group of 182 airmen arrived in New York harbor last July. But despite their points, most are not out of the army yet. Here is the play-by-play history of what happened.

Local Meat Dealers Disgusted With OPA Market Theory

Latest action of the Office of Price Administration in seeking to coax low grade beef on to the market through suspension of points may be sound theory but short on practice, in the opinion of local meat dealers.

In fact, some predict it will mean the creation of a new sub-market, or another type of black market, if you please.

How? Simply by the expedient of marketing better grades of meat as low grade. There are many ways around it for those who are tempted to circumvent the law, not the least of which would be side trades or selling on one weight but with supplemental cash payments to come up to the correct weight.

Meanwhile, dealers are hoping that the day will not be too long delayed when all restrictions on meat may be removed and the last vestige of black markets removed.

Committee Maps Plans To Raise Victory Chest

Organization plans for raising the Community Victory Chest quota of $29,780 were mapped Tuesday at a breakfast session of the executive committee under direction of R. R. McEwen, chest chairman.

Of the total, $17,780 will be earmarked for the National War Chest (including all of its many allied activities), $6,000 for Boy Scouts, $3,000 for Girl Scouts and $3,000 for the Salvation Army.

The national war chest quota is based upon an 18-months quota in order to finance the agencies until liquidation. This is due to be the final appeal for this portion of the chest as such.

McEwen sounded a keynote for the campaign, appealing for Big Spring and Howard county to meet the quota to demonstrate "the gratitude of a nation, whose homeland has never been harmed by enemy action." He proposed that this "be the spirit of the 1945 Community Victory Chest campaign."

He announced that Marvin Miller was handling the contracts of all out-of-town owners of firms doing business in the county, that G. H. Hayward would head the special gifts committee.

Other committee appointments included: Walker Bailey, rural; Jack Y. Smith, Cosden; McEwen, Big Spring Bombardier School; Joe Pickle and Bill Dawes, publicity.

The special gifts committee is due to go into action on Oct. 1, and the campaign for other support will be carried to the general public approximately a week later. The objective is to give every individual an opportunity to have a part, and the organization will be largely along lines of last year when block chairmen were named. As in the case of last year, the Girl Scout organization is scheduled to maintain downtown booths to facilitate giving.

McEwen emphasized that while the total goal represents a substantial figure, it represents a consolidation of four drives. "If people will keep this four-in-one fact in mind and will have a part representative of their gratitude and of their civic responsibilities, the goal can and will be easily met."

DAILY STORY FROM THE BEST-SELLING BOOK

By BENNETT CERF

JOHN BARRYMORE once confounded an audience with a startling stunt—right in New York, at the height of the run of Redemption.

There was an epidemic of coughing throughout the first act. When it broke out again in the second, Barrymore was all set. He suddenly yanked a five-pound sea-bass from under his coat and flung it over the footlights. "Busy yourselves with this, you damned walruses," he bellowed, "while the rest of us proceed with the libretto!"

June Havoc, musical comedy star, and, incidentally, sister of Gypsy Rose Lee, was taken to a tea at the sedate Columbia Faculty Club by a learned and curious admirer. Miss Havoc took a despairing look at the venerable professors who decorated the premises and sighed, "My, my! I've never been with such a lot of extinguished gentlemen before in all my life."

A maharajah who was entertaining Neysa McMein in India some winters ago queried a servant on the progress she was making in hunting. "The beautiful lady shoots divinely," reported the impeccable Hindu, "but Providence is merciful to the birds!"

All This And Beer Too

OAKLAND, Calif., Sept. 25 (AP)—Two perspiring men walked off the hot streets into a tavern. One of them ordered a beer.

When the bartender, Frank Souza, rang up the 10 cent sale, they pulled guns and robbed the till of $200.

As they turned to leave, the one who ordered the beer stopped to quaff it.

His companion admonished him to get going.

"What's your hurry," he snapped. "I paid for it, didn't I?"

Jury Selected In Colin-Lester Case

Jury was selected Tuesday morning in the case of John B. Colin versus Lois Lester, suit on contract and for damages.

While Colin seeks to recover damages for an alleged breach of lease contract and alleged loss of property, the defense sets up cross action for damages failure to vacate the premises involved.

In the case of Frances Ryder, et al versus R. R. McEwen, suit to recover possession of a diamond ring, a jury said value of the ring was $1,500; that it had been involved in a trade for an automobile, the market value of which was $900; that title of the car had been transferred to the plaintiff.

PIN-WORMS

At Last—A Real Treatment!

Anyone who has ever had Pin-Worms knows how tormenting and embarrassing this infection can be, and how hard it may be to deal with the creatures, once they get a foothold inside the body.

Today, thanks to a special, medically recognized drug (gentian violet), a highly effective treatment has been made possible. This drug is the vital ingredient in P-W, the Pin-Worm tablets developed in the laboratories of Dr. D. Jayne & Son. P-W tablets are small and easy to take, and they act in a special way to remove Pin-Worms.

So watch out for the warning signs that may mean Pin-Worms in your child or yourself—especially the aggravating rectal itch. And don't delay. Ask your druggist for JAYNE'S P-W right away, and follow the directions. Satisfaction guaranteed, or your money back.

It's easy to remember: P-W for Pin-Worms!
