Fortresses Pound Nazi Airdromes In France

Enemy Says Italy Based Bombers Strike At Munich

By GLADWIN HILL
LONDON, June 13 (AP) Flying Fortresses, several hundred strong, again pounded German airdromes behind the battle lines in France today as Marauders and Havocs struck at targets from the beachhead to far inland.

The German radio indicated Allied daylight raiders were striking into the Reich from bases in Britain and Italy following a night attack by more than 1,000 RAF bombers against German transport facilities and the synthetic oil manufacturing center of Gelsenkirchen in the Ruhr.

Escorted by Mustangs, Thunderbolts and lightnings, the Fortresses rained explosives on airdromes at Evreux-Fauville and Dreux-Illieres-L'Eveque. Clear weather made possible visual bombing. The Fortresses followed up yesterday's attack by up to 1,400 American heavy bombers against 16 airfields.

Berlin said Italy-based bombers struck at Munich.

The Marauders and Havocs attacked railroads, fuel dumps and other targets in close-up support of the beachhead forces.

The Berlin radio told of heavy air battles raging over the whole invasion area and said that Allied planes surging over the Alps had penetrated to Bavaria and Franconia. Other daylight raiders were reported in small numbers over western and northern Germany.

Following up yesterday's record assault by 1,400 American heavy bombers, the RAF included in its overnight targets bridges near Caen, center of some of the heaviest fighting in the Allied invasion drive, and Cologne in western Germany.

The campaign against German transport, which reached a new crescendo yesterday, went on through the night virtually unabated at the hands of heavies, mediums, Mosquitos, and expanded eastward into the lowlands.

The RAF lost 23 heavy bombers in overnight attacks on railroad centers in France and 17 more at Gelsenkirchen and Cologne and in mine-laying.

Four of the medium bombers and fighter-bombers participating in the assaults on the German communication lines were shot down, while Allied night-fighters killed ten Germans. One of the German raiders over Britain was downed.

Reconnaissance pictures showed that yesterday's record assault by American planes against 16 German air bases in France severely damaged seven bases and caused considerable damage to the rest. Berlin radio asserted that 78 British-American aircraft were brought down over western Europe in the past 24 hours.

Court Approves County Report

Total cash balance of $127,313.50 on hand June 1 was shown in Howard county's monthly financial statement approved by the commissioners' court Monday.

Total the previous month was $110,565.58. Assets were listed as $48,600 and bonded indebtedness, $102,000.

The total balance included the following in various funds: Jury, $2,084.80; road and bridge, $69,635.38; general, $30,427.32; road refunding bonds, $2,522.11; special road bond, $2,804.64; permanent improvements, $866.12; court house and jail, $1,189.06; Howard county viaduct warrant, $790.42; salary, $11,207.22; road and bridge special, $2,935.77.

Only other business besides approving the monthly report was payment of bills.

Ceiling Price Lists Are Now Obtainable

Housewives may have convenient sized copies of community price ceilings by calling for them at the Howard County Ration board office.

These lists, printed in reduced size so that they may be readily used by the housewife, are placed in a table in front of the counter at the board office where persons may call and take them at will.

Attorneys Given Until Wednesday To File Protests

AUSTIN, June 13 (AP)—Attorneys today were given until 10 a. m. tomorrow to file protests to a motion by pro-Roosevelt forces for supreme court permission to make application for mandamus to compel listing of pro-Roosevelt electors on the July 22 primary ballot.

C. C. Renfro of Dallas and Clint C. Small of Austin were granted permission to file protests to the motion.

Three justices of the court have had the motion under consideration since yesterday and probably will not dispose of it until tomorrow afternoon since Wednesday is the regular submission day for the high court and several cases have been docketed for tomorrow morning.

Immediately before the justices in the election litigation was the question whether they will take jurisdiction in the case.

Renfro and Small were active in the regularly constituted democratic state convention here May 23 which left its presidential electors unpledged unless the national party convention meets certain demands of the state convention. The pro-Roosevelt forces bolted the convention, set up their own meet and named electors pledged to support the party's nominee. They now insist that the electors be listed on the primary ballot.

Coal Mines Returned To Private Operators

WASHINGTON, June 13 (AP)—Interior Secretary Harold L. Ickes today returned to private operators all coal mines in Montana, Wyoming, Idaho, Arkansas and eastern Oklahoma.

Still in government possession are the anthracite mines of Pennsylvania, most of the bituminous mines in Kentucky, Tennessee, Virginia and West Virginia and all of the soft coal mines in Iowa, Colorado and New Mexico.

Clark's Men Smash 71 Miles N'west Of Rome

South African Forces Moving Toward Orvieto In Difficult Battle

ROME, June 13 (AP)—The Germans north of Rome fought bitterly today along a new line of defenses from Lake Bolsena to the sea but Fifth army troops smashed through and occupied nearly all the western shore of the lake and all but wiped out a strong point east of Orbetello, 71 miles northwest of Rome.

Moving up both sides of Lake Bolsena, Allied forces on the western shore captured Valentano, junction of three highways some 55 miles north of Rome and pushed on, nearing Latera, four miles farther north.

Northwest of the lake, South African forces moving toward Orvieto ran into a stiff battle in Bagno Regio.

On the Tyrrhenian coast American Doughboys encountered a new series of dug-in defenses east of Orbetello and attacked through high ground directly toward Lateral Highway 74, which is about 90 road miles from Rome at that point. In a sharp and bloody engagement they captured 142 prisoners from the German 162nd Turcoman Division and killed 100 more of the enemy.

The advance was considerably more rapid on the Adriatic sector, where Eighth Army troops crossed the Saline River, some five miles north of captured Pescara, at several places.

The Allied forces took Popoli, on the Rome-Pescara road 10 miles north of Sulmona, where the advance had halted only long enough to take 20 prisoners. The Eighth Army forces in the Tiber Valley advanced to the southwest of Caroli, reaching high ground across Highway No. 5 and taking a number of villages.

It was announced by the Allied Naval command that a port party was established at Civitavecchia June 9 to begin restoring the facilities which had been heavily battered by Allied bombing and enemy demolitions.

Veteran Stanton Doctor Succumbs

Funeral for Dr. Prentice Marshall Bristow, 66, who gave more than 40 years of his life to the practice of medicine, will be held in Stanton at 6 p. m. Wednesday. Dr. Bristow, one of the vanishing tribe of family physicians and who loved to tell his colleagues he was a "one gallus country doctor," succumbed at a local hospital Monday afternoon following a prolonged illness.

Born in Wayne county, Kentucky on Nov. 4, 1877, he received his medical degree from the University of Tennessee. In 1909 he moved his family to Texas, settling at Paducah. Subsequently he practiced in Grayson and Collin counties and briefly in New Mexico before settling in Stanton in October of 1932. He had served Martin county and surrounding area continuously since.

His professional connections included membership in the Six County Medical Society and several terms as Martin county health officer. He had been an Odd Fellow and held Masonic membership for 35 years, being twice a past master of the Blue Lodge, a 32nd KCCM Mason, a Shrine and a member of the Midland commandery and Dallas consistory. He was a lifelong member of the Baptist church and was trustee of the Stanton church.

Surviving are his widow, Mrs. Ida Mae Bristow; two daughters, Mrs. George B. Long, Lubbock, and Mrs. Paul A. Bix, Odessa; one son, Prentice M. Bristow, Jr., M.D., serving in the Southwest Pacific; and four grandchildren, Georgia Long, Carol and Connie Rox, and Marsha Jean Bristow.

Burial will be in the Evergreen cemetery.

McCabe Nichols Dies

Red Army Mobile Units Move Steadily Forward

MOSCOW, June 13 (AP)—Backed by terrific gun fire provided by Col. Gen. Leonid A. Govorov, an artillery specialist, Red Army mobile units moved steadily over roads and forest defiles deeper into the Karelian Isthmus today, reaching points beyond captured Raivola, about 36 miles from Viipuri.

A front dispatch to Ivestia reported the surrendering of many Finns who appeared dazed by the offensive. Raivola, like Terijoki, was not burned. The Finns did not have time to apply the torch.

So rapid was the advance that Raivola fell in 40 minutes. But the Finns were reported hurrying many reserves to the Isthmus and hard fighting appeared in store for Soviet units.

(Reports from Stockholm and even from Berlin say the Finns admit they stand little chance against the Red Army offensive, launched two months after the Helsinki government rejected Moscow's armistice terms and predicted end of Finnish resistance within a month.)

A Finnish communique broadcast by Berlin said that 63 Soviet tanks were destroyed in three days.

The Russians were blasting their way through deep lines of fortifications, one of the most striking of which was a series of German self-propelled "Ferdinand" guns dug into the earth.

Long, white nights have descended on the Finnish front. There are hardly any dark hours. But the fighting is incessant in the deep, black woods.

GI Bill Of Rights OKed By Congress

WASHINGTON, June 13 (AP)—Overwhelming house passage sent to the White House today the compromise to adjust differences bill of rights, a general veterans' benefits measure.

The senate passed the bill yesterday, accepting a conference compromise to adjust differences between the senate and house.

As finally approved, the bill contains these major provisions: Unemployment compensation: $20 weekly for a maximum of 52 weeks for veterans out of jobs in the first two years after their discharge, with creation of a job placement bureau within the United States Employment Service.

Education: One year of government-financed education in regularly established schools, including vocational training institutions, with the government paying a maximum of $500, for tuition and other fees and subsistence allowances of $50 monthly for a veteran with no dependents and $75 for those with dependents. In the case of a veteran who entered the service before he was 25, a complete four-year college education would be available provided the veteran qualified and made proper progress.

Financial assistance: Guarantee by the government of 50 percent of private loans up to $4,000 to help veterans establish themselves in business or purchase homes or farms. Interest would not exceed 4 per cent.

Any cash benefits received by the veteran under provisions of the legislation would be deducted from any bonus that might be voted later. The cost of the legislation has been estimated from $3,000,000,000 to $6,500,000,000.

considerably boost the bond quota for the first week of the Fifth War Loan Drive.

Men of the Rotary, Lions, Kiwanis, and ABC clubs will meet at 9 a. m. Wednesday at bond headquarters and fan out from there over the downtown area on their mission "to sell bonds." That their mission will be "completed and successful" there was no doubt.

Each club has pledged to send not less than 10 men to cover the downtown area.

Other plans for Wednesday include standing of retreat to be held at 8 p. m. at the courthouse lawn with officers and men of the field in charge.

Commanding officer of the American Legion, C. L. Rowe; acting commander of the Defense Guard, Dale Thompson; commander of Veterans of Foreign Wars, Jesse L. Thurman will stand with Col. J. P. Kenney, Big Spring Bombardier School commander, as the color guard lowers the flag.

Official retreat as stood in every army camp and as viewed each evening by every soldier, is a ceremony which few civilians see. The impressive lowering of the colors will be accompanied by all speeches or talks. The army band from the AAFBS will play just before retreat begins in a short concert, and a company of WAC will stand with other soldiers from the post.

Also scheduled during the drive will be the premier showing of Bing Crosby's picture, "Going My Way," to be shown at the Ritz on June 22nd.

Admittance will be by bond purchase and tickets for the show will be given with the purchase of bonds starting Wednesday when (See BOND, Pg. 8, Col. 3)

Two Columns Slash Halfway Across Top Of The Peninsula

SUPREME HEADQUARTERS, Allied Expeditionary Force, June 13 (AP)—The U.S. Fourth Infantry division cracked the German defenses guarding Cherbourg today, capturing Montebourg, and two other American forces plunged halfway across the top of Cherbourg peninsula in deepening threats to lop off the great port.

British troops in a deep-biting powerdrive outflanked Caen, eastern bastion of the 80-mile battlefield, seizing Troarn, nine miles east of Caen.

Along the center of the flaming front, U.S. troops captured Balleroy, the Allied forces plunged south of Bayeux in a "big advance" flanking Caen from the west.

Two other American columns slashed halfway across the top of Cherbourg peninsula in deepening threats to lop off the port.

One of these driving inland 11 miles near Ste. Mere Eglise captured Port L'abe, only five miles from the west coast railway still in German hands, and 14 miles from the western shore. The other fought beyond Carentan and was roughly halfway across the peninsula at its narrowest, 20-mile neck.

Other Americans captured Le Ham, three miles southwest of Montebourg.

Supreme headquarters described the day's sweeping advances as "very, very satisfactory."

Fall of Troarn in a seven-mile advance by the British was the first big gain registered in this desperately-defended area since a British airborne division landed there on D-Day a week ago.

The British in another 3 1/2 miles advance won a village on the outskirts of Caen itself.

New airborne troops were dropped in France. The Germans reported airborne landings on the west coast of the Cherbourg peninsula, presumably as part of a pincer to snip off the cape.

The crumbling of Nazi defenses on more than an 80-mile front coincided with unconfirmed reports that Field Marshal Erwin Rommel, the "desert fox," had been removed from his command.

Five landing strips have been constructed and are in use in France, the air forces announced. Six U. S. divisions now have been identified as fighting with the powerful invasion armies—with perhaps 600,000 men engaged on both sides—and supreme headquarters reported progress all along the battlefield now lengthened to 80 miles.

Another American force driving across the peninsula between Montebourg and Carentan captured Ponte Abbe, 3 1/2 miles west of the railroad running near Ste. Mere Eglise. Allied forces were driving on the central Normandy road hub of St. Lo, and placed Americans within seven miles of the town.

Berlin declares Allied forces were driving on the central Normandy road hub of St. Lo, and placed Americans within seven miles of the town.

A front dispatch said the U. S. Second division has struck past Cerisy Forest to the northeast of St. Lo, making the deepest inland penetration of 18 miles.

The Fourth division was spearheading the attack below Cherbourg in the area previously entered by the 82nd and 101st American airborne.

The American First and 29th divisions also are fighting in France.

Gen. De Gaulle Wins Czech Recognition

LONDON, June 13 (AP)—Gen. Charles De Gaulle today won official recognition from Czechoslovakia, Belgium and Luxembourg for his committee of national liberation as the provisional government of the French Republic.

He is seeking general United Nations acknowledgment of the group as sole authority for the country during the period of liberation. Poland is also preparing to take similar steps, it was learned. Letters of recognition have been signed by Foreign Ministers Hubert Ripka for Czechoslovakia, P. H. Spaak for Belgium, and Joseph Beck of Luxembourg.

De Gaulle was expected to pay an early visit to France, where the Allied invasion has spurred resistance of the underground forces, in the hope of winning public support for his committee and to strengthen his hand before leaving for Washington to seek recognition by the United States.

Deep Sea Diver Will Search For Bodies

AUSTIN, June 13 (AP)—A deep sea diver will attempt to locate bodies of three persons who drowned in the deep waters of Lake Travis, northwest of here, a week ago.

Planes have been used unsuccessfully in an attempt to find the bodies of L. O. Brooks of Abilene, his son, Curtis, and Billie Standmann of Austin. They drowned in a boat accident June 4.

Prime Minister Visits Battle Area In France

SUPREME HEADQUARTERS, Allied Expeditionary Force, June 13 (AP)—Prime Minister Churchill has seen for himself how the battle for Normandy is going and Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower, supreme invasion commander, has toured American-held sectors of the battlefield with the top commanders of the United States armed forces.

Eisenhower's companions on his historic visit of inspection yesterday were Gen. George C. Marshall, U. S. chief of staff; Admiral Ernest King, commander-in-chief of the U. S. fleet; Gen. Henry H. Arnold, chief of American army air forces; Lt. Gen. Omar N. Bradley, commander of American ground forces in France and Rear Admirals Alan G. Kirk and John Leslie Hall, commanders of American naval task forces for the invasion.

Churchill steamed to France in the destroyer H.M.S. Kelvin, which used its guns en route to bombard a German position ashore.

During his visit ashore Churchill had a chance to see that this, too, is "a very dangerous war," as he once said about the last one. He watched a dog fight in the air and saw a German plane shot down.

The prime minister was ashore three hours. He lunched with Gen. Sir Bernard L. Montgomery. Eisenhower's party first inspected the eastern parts of the American sector, then sped in motor torpedo boats across a part of the bay of the Seine to visit American positions near the base of the Cherbourg peninsula.

Hatch Aims Demo Stand On Policy

WASHINGTON, June 13 (AP)—Senator Hatch (D-NM) told the senate during a bitter political debate today that while President Roosevelt might be willing to retire if he could get unanimous agreement on postwar peace aims the democratic party would not permit him to "make that sacrifice."

Replying to a demand by Senator Bridges (R-NH) to say "where President Roosevelt stands and where the democratic party stands" on foreign policy, Hatch said he was certain these views were held by the president.

"Franklin D. Roosevelt believes that this world is too small for any nation to isolate itself from the world."

"Franklin D. Roosevelt believes that the same bravery and courage manifested by our sons on the battlefields of this war should be manifested by this nation in time of peace. "Mr. Roosevelt believes in a court of justice—he believes that the issues and disputes that arise between nations ought to be settled in accordance with right and justice and not by power alone. "To achieve these ends and provide for the machinery for peaceful settlement of future international disputes, I believe he is ready to sacrifice, if necessary, his political life."

Special Service Presented At Flag Day Dance

A Flag Day formal dance was given in the USO Monday evening with the post orchestra furnishing music for the entertainment.

During intermission the Flag Day service was given with Boyd McDaniel speaking on the significance of the American flag and Howard Bell, the significance of the USO flag. Roll call of the states was held and 19 states were represented. Texas, Illinois and Minnesota tied for having the largest number of servicemen present. "Star Spangled Banner" was the closing number.

Tuesday junior hostesses were in charge of the dance and the decorations included two large American flags and three small USO flags in the garden. Each girl wore a red, white and blue bow and each soldier wore a miniature American flag. Those on the decoration committee were Virginia Burns, Erma Lee Gideon, Mary Stags, Wynonne Miller, Cozy Walker, Winnie Prescott.

Thirty-seven junior hostesses and 295 servicemen attended the dance.

MRS. D. ARNOLD IS HOSTESS AT MEET

The Woman's Missionary Society of the North Nolan Baptist church met in the home of Mrs. D. Arnold Monday for a social and short business session.

Mrs. G. W. Webb gave the devotional and Mrs. R. A. Humble offered prayer.

Mrs. Arnold was presented with gifts, and after refreshments were served the group visited Mrs. Chester O'Brien.

Those present were Mrs. Thomas Bowden, Mrs. R. A. Humble, Mrs. J. R. Haynes, Mrs. Oscar Jenkins, Mrs. G. W. Webb, Mrs. G. R. Brashears and the hostess.

The next meeting will be held in the home of Mrs. Webb, 309 N. 1st street, for an all-day session. There will be a covered dish luncheon, and a review will be given by Mrs. Humble and Mrs. Webb on Baptist schools and hospitals.

WAITING: Life for Americans taken prisoner at Bataan is bearable only because they hope the home front will provide the weapons to set them free.

By RUSSELL BRINES
AP Features

Several thousand American boys, living under the prolonged agony of Japanese prison camps in Asia, are sustained by only one thought—the certainty of Allied victory.

They are weak, thin, ragged. They work long hours in the hot Philippine sun for little pay and only enough food to keep them alive. They work in the sweltering war plants of Manchuria and Japan, forced to turn out products that in some way bolster the Japanese militarists' war machine.

They labor on the docks of Manila, Kobe and Yokohama, degrading work. The summers are stifling, the winters vicious. They have few clothes.

Japanese sentries are everywhere. Their precautions against communication with the prisoners are thorough. Nevertheless, the news of American successes has slipped through to the prisoners. At night, when the sentries' shuffling feet drift into unpleasant echoes, these fragments of news can be brought out, examined, discussed, like rich jewels they are in a prisoners' life.

Some 6,000 American civilian men, women and children live under similar circumstances, without the work, in a number of other camps. They, too, hear the news, and it makes the black days tolerable.

All of them know how difficult the job ahead is; how long the road; how much the cost yet to be computed. They know the Japanese have made it doubly expensive by their first quick blows which placed geography and dis-ance on the conqueror's side. But the prisoners are convinced that Americans will spend all the money and make all the sacrifices necessary for victory. That is their faith.

You see, the civilians and the soldiers were out in front when the invasion was so disastrous. They tried to fight a well-prepared attacker with ancient or non-existent equipment, because money was being saved before the big blow came.

The prisoners have discussed those things. "We may have made plenty of mistakes before the war," they say, "but Americans don't make the same mistake twice."

Economy was one of the mistakes. Feeling that it will not be repeated, the prisoners are waiting anxiously for Allied forces to drive deeper and deeper into Asia. That is all that keeps them alive; those who are still alive.

DALLAS, June 13 (AP)—President J. Alvin Gardner of the Texas league says his circuit will operate next season. The invasion was all it needed to begin making plans for resumption of operations after laying out two years.

"If the invasion had opened in January, February or March we could have gone," Gardner added. "The second front came too late for us but by next season we will be doing so well baseball can figure on reopening in full blast."

Gardner thinks the league was wise—and philanthropic—in not operating in 1943 and 1944.

"We couldn't have raised the manpower for representative baseball, and we certainly were a help to other leagues. Baseball authorities say the Southern Association could not have operated had we not turned loose our available ball players. We also sent quite a number to the American Association."

Plans have been advanced for a professional football league taking in eastern, midwestern, southwestern and Pacific coast cities. Dallas is looked upon as a likely spot to place a team.

All this is to come after the war—if it comes at all.

Your correspondent could give such a project little encouragement. In the first place the cities are too widely separated. Only plane travel could carry out the schedule. That's costly. In the second place the southwest isn't ready for pro

Today On The Home Front— Committee Rash Breaks Out All Over The Place

By JAMES MARLOW and GEORGE ZIELKE
WASHINGTON, June 13 (AP)

That's not a rash. It's the CIO political action committee. It seems to have broken out all over the place.

It's one of the phenomena of this election year. A few months ago in Washington discussion of PAC was a little on the dull side. Not now.

But it was there all the time, working. It started out last July. CIO unions gave it $700,000 to do its work.

PAC endorses a fourth term for President Roosevelt. It aims to change what it calls the "present anti-labor congress into a pro-labor win-the-war congress."

It has gone down into the precincts where politicians always have gone for votes. It has set up 14 regional offices. It has worked to get workers registered so they will be bale to vote.

It has sent out booklets, explaining what PAC considers the issues in 1944. It has been, and will be, active in local as well as congressional elections.

PAC has urged that political activities be carried from the factories to the home communities. It has told workers to talk to their friends and neighbors, to call meetings and to form neighborhood organizations.

Some congressmen watched PAC. Rep. Smith (D-Va) in January asked Attorney General Biddle to investigate the committee.

PAC got a going-over by the house un-American activities committee, headed by Rep. Dies (D-Texas).

Suddenly things began to happen as the congressional primaries got under way.

Two members of Dies' committee, Reps. Starnes (D-Ala) and Costello (D-Cal), were defeated. So was Rep. Newsome (D-Ala). So was Senator Holman (R-Ore). And Dies himself declined to run. He said he had a throat ailment.

And just as suddenly PAC, which had been a kind of dull topic before, now became a hot one. Almost, as if an atonement for past neglect, PAC's influence was rated high in all those elections.

Probably much of this was exaggerated. There were other issues, of course, and very little has been said of the defeats PAC must have suffered in other elections.

The republican national committee has gone to Attorney General Biddle for a little information on all this. Committee's Chairman Harrison E. Spangler, because Biddle said PAC wasn't violating the law, has asked for an opinion as to groups "who wish to become active x x x against the re-election of Mr. Roosevelt for a fourth term."

Congressmen have been yelling steadily now for an investigation of PAC. Hillman said he'd go today before the senate campaign expenditures committee to make a statement. The committee said it would hear him before attempting an investigation of PAC.

Colorado Youth Is Missing In Action

COLORADO CITY, June 13 —

Sergeant Roy V. Allen, 20, outstanding Colorado City high school football player in 1940 and 1941, is missing in action somewhere over Austria, the war department has informed his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Allen of the China Grove community near here.

Starring under John Dibraill, who at that time coached the Colorado City Wolves, Allen was one of the flashiest running backs who ever performed on the local gridiron.

He was graduated from high school in 1941 and had been in military service for two years at the time the air action from which he has failed to return, took place in Europe. He received his serial gunners wings and his sergeant's rating late in 1943 at Wendover, Utah, and was seeing action as an aerial engineer and lower-turret gunner on a B-24 based in Italy.

He had been overseas several months and his last letter to his parents was dated May 19. The message from the war department stated that he has been missing since May 24.

Under lend-lease, the United States has sent the Soviet Union more than 7,800 planes to date.

Until 1937, Burma was a province of India; it now is a unit of the British empire.

Yankees Nosedive Into Sixth Place

By TED MEIER
AP Sports Writer

The world champion New York Yankees got duffed on the nose again last night and nosedived into sixth place in the American league, the first time in years the Yanks have been in the second division this late in the season.

When Jake Powell pitched in the 11th inning to give Washington a 4 to 3 victory it marked the Yankees' sixth straight defeat and their 12th setback in their last 14 games.

The regulation game had ended in a 1-1 deadlock and it appeared that the Yanks were in when they scored twice in the tenth. But the Senators tied it up again in their half and proceeded to tag Alcy Donald for the winning run in the 11th. Donald had relieved starter Joe Page who pitched the first nine innings. Johnny Niggeling went the distance for the Senators.

In another American league night game Cleveland nipped Detroit, 6 to 5, mainly on the strength of a five-run uprising in the fourth. Mickey Rocco and Oris Hockett drove in four of the five tallies in this frame, each delivering a two-run single.

The New York Giants spotted Brooklyn four runs in the first inning then came from behind to rally the Dodgers, 15 to 9, in the only National league game scheduled. Manager Mel Ott and first baseman Phil Weintraub each socked two homers for the winners. Altogether Weintraub drove in five runs, his best day since his 11 RBI the day the Giants took Brooklyn, 26-8, a month ago.

The Chicago White Sox and the St. Louis Browns were tied, 1-1, after 2 1-2 innings when rain forced a postponement. The other clubs in both circuits had an open date.

Chicago Fans Greet A Favorite Player

CHICAGO, June 13 (AP)—Chicago baseball fans greeted one of their favorite players today, Stanley Hack, the Chicago Cubs' veteran third baseman.

The 34-year-old Hack came from his Oregon ranch and will make his first 1944 appearance with the Cubs when they return to Wrigley Field from a road trip.

Hack, who has played with the Cubs for 12 years, earlier had announced he would be unable to play this year because of duties on his ranch.

Ambassador Schnake will leave here by plane for his new post the end of July.

Smiling Dick To Join Red Sox

NEW ORLEANS, June 13 (AP)—Richard "Smiling Dick" Callahan, double no-hit pitcher of the Holy Cross college prep school baseball team here, changed his mind about a college education yesterday and put his signature on a Boston Red Sox contract.

He will report to the Louisville Colonels of the American association next Monday.

George Toporcher, head of the Boston farm system, who completed the deal with Callahan, refused to announce the amount of cash involved, but said that it was "the biggest bonus ever paid to a high school player for his contract." Callahan's "buddies" said the bonus was $12,500.

Callahan pitched the Holy Cross team to three state championships before his graduation two weeks ago. He hurled a pair of no-hit games within a week and pitched 26 successive hitless innings. He won his last seven games in a row as a prep schooler.

Callahan, 19, has a medical discharge from the Navy.

Cottonseed Report Is Given By Census Bureau

WASHINGTON, June 13 (AP)—The census bureau reported today that cottonseed crushed in the ten-month period, Aug. 1 to May 31, totaled 3,815,188 tons, compared with 4,344,561 tons in the corresponding period a year ago.

Cottonseed on hand at mills May 31 was reported as totaling 178,749 tons, compared with 175,925 tons a year ago.

Big John Bats .667 In Invasion League

MISSION, June 13 (AP)—Big John Tripson, former professional football player from Mission, is batting .667 in the invasion league.

Tripson's first excitement in his chosen league took place during the Allied landings in North Africa. He was in charge of one of the assault boats. He and his men became lost and spent three days with an army outfit after going ashore before rejoining their naval comrades.

He came back to the U.S. and was commissioned an ensign. His outfit missed out on the invasion of Italy, but when the French operation took place June 6 he was right in there, this time as a naval lieutenant commanding a landing boat which rescued several survivors from another Allied craft.

A correspondent said Tripson reached down and scooped up one of the survivors with one hand.

Tripson has been doing colorful things ever since he starred in high school football here. From Mission he went to Mississippi State, where he was an all-conference tackle selected to play in his senior year in the Orange Bowl at Miami. He helped score the winning touchdown for his team. From the Orange Bowl he graduated to the Detroit Lions, with whom he played until he enlisted in the navy.

List Intact For Tennis Matches

DETROIT, June 13 (AP)—The seeded list was intact in the National clay court championships today except for one player who didn't show up for a first round match at the Detroit Tennis club, and everything pointed to the pairings in Sunday's finals of Pauline Betz of Los Angeles against Doris Hart of Miami, Fla., and Francisco Segura, of Coral Gables, Fla., against Billy Talbert of Indianapolis.

Miss Betz, holder of two National lawn titles in addition to the clay crown she won here last year, gets into action against Ruth Miho of Los Angeles today. Miss Betz was idle yesterday as Miss Hart smashed out a 6-1, 6-3 triumph over blond Joanne Dunn of Des Moines, Ia.

Segura, opening a tournament campaign that he hopes will lead to the National lawn title at Forest Hills, meets Mack Taylor of Detroit today after a first round bye. Talbert, runnerup in 1943 for the clay title, posted a 6-0, 6-0 decision over Edward Donovan of Detroit.

The only seeded player to bow out was Richard Warner of Salt Lake City No. 7, who defaulted.

THE CLUBHOUSE

By CHARLES CHAMBERLAIN
AP Features

CHICAGO—Golf's best available pros and amateurs will draw a bead on the Chicago victory national championship June 28-30 and begin pumping their shots into the simple Edgewater course in what may become the greatest mass murder of par in the history of major tournaments in this country.

Such gents as Craig Wood, Sam Byrd, Byron Nelson, Jug McSpaden, Henry Picard, Johnny Revolta, Harry Cooper and amateur Wilford Wehrle, Dale Morey and Bob Cochran are among some 50 hand-picked swingers invited to compete in the 72-hole medal frolic.

Indication is that the 35-35-70 par for the flat, compact Edgewater layout will be blown apart as the select field makes a mad dash to beat the U. S. 72-hole record of 264 set in 1940 by Wood at Bloomfield, N. J., to win the metropolitan open.

Enough spectators are anticipated for the tournament to contribute $50,000 for the benefit of hospitalized servicemen of World War II. They will find it one of the easiest meets to watch. Many of the fairways run parallel. All the fans will have to do is to pick a nice spot and stay put. By merely turning their heads they can watch the big shots shuttle back and forth.

The plot of golfing ground is set in the center of a residential section with street cars almost running up to the clubhouse door. That's one of the reasons Edgewater was chosen by the alert Chicago District Golf association, which is sponsoring its third wartime major tournament.

Apartment houses flank one side of the course and are so close to a couple of holes that observers can look down from their second story windows and stare at the players' domes.

Edgewater is well manicured for the meet, and there are plenty of trees and traps. But they are conveniently well-spaced. The only trouble may be encountered on the well-kept greens which have tricky rolls. But many of the entrants in the tournament will be well acquainted with Edgewater, for they warmed up there considerably last summer before going out to compete in the Tam O'Shanter circus 10 miles away.

The course record is 64, held jointly by Chick Evans, the original boy wonder of golf who is a charter member of the club, and the home pro, Jerry Cooke. The sedate members look upon this figure with awe—but just wait until the big boys take out their weapons at tournament time!

The members of fashionable Ridgemoor country club hosted their eyebrows during the Hale America meet two years ago when bantam Ben Hogan posted a 10-under par 62 on his second round leaping to the front and eventually winning the title with a total of 271-17 strokes under the regulation.

Last year in the inaugural Victory National, Byrd authored a 277-seven under par—on the heavily wooded Beverly Hills course for the winning tally.

Of course, we may be wrong about the easiness of Edgewater. But we bagged a 91 in the wind and that's good for a left-hander who hadn't played in two years and seldom breaks 100.

SPORTS ROUNDUP

By HUGH FULLETON, Jr.

NEW YORK, June 13 (AP)—After a quick canvass, Dan Ferris had to split his vote between the sprints and the 400 meters when called upon to name the best event in the National A. A. U. track meet next weekend. The spring field includes Charley Parker, the Texas kid who is so good that one local sprinter who has seen him doesn't think he can be beaten; Illinois' Claude Keystone Buddy Young, Ed Conwell, Barney Ewell and Herb Thompson. . . . The 400 will have defending champion Cliff Bourland; Elmore Harris of Morgan State, a sensation in the N. C. A. A. meet, Johnny Fulton, Bernie McKenley and John Yeager, the Louisiana State boy who his coach, Bernie Moore, says is capable of a 47-second quarter. . . . Best bet, in our opinion, is that Ross and Bob Hume won't run their tenth consecutive dead heat in the 1500 meters.

Up and Adam— It seems that Adam Walsh, the old Notre Dame "mule" who coaches the Bowdoin football team and fights fires in his spare time, was battling flames on the roof of a Brunswick, Me., hotel not long ago when some one holered: "Phone call for you, Adam." Walsh climbed down the ladder to receive a call from Notre Dame's president, asking him to return as assistant coach. . . . Adam, who coincidentally had received similar bids from Columbia, Dartmouth, Colgate and Bates that same day, accepted with thanks and went back to his fire fighting.

One minute sports page— The Dodgers' Dixie Walker has been voted the "sports father of the year" by the National Father's Day committee. Still the people's choice. . . . Pat Harder's father says the ex-Wisconsin fullback will return to school for a degree before he signs a contract with the Chicago Cardinals, who drew him in the "draft." . . . US Should Back Our Speed Cars

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF
AP Features

DALLAS—Lt. Rex Mays, who before the war was a knight of the roaring road and expects to resume when it's over, says in order for America to end the domination of foreigners in the automobile and aircraft engine field, the manufacturers and Uncle Sam will have to back auto racing.

Mays, a former top performer at the famed Indianapolis Speedway and now a pilot at the Love Field base of the Fifth Ferrying Group here, says:

"European racing car designers, subsidized by their governments, were years ahead of the United States designers when the war started."

For instance, Lt. Rex Mays Mays added, Mercedes-Benz, backed by the German government, spent $500,000 on one team of five or six cars before the war and helped give the Messerschmitt fighter plane a head start on engine performance in World War II.

"And were those Germans careful with their auto race car secrets?" laughs Mays. "Bill White (one of Mays' backers) offered them $25,000 for one of their Auto Union cars. They just laughed at him, said it would cost that much for a mere look under the hood."

Tazio Nuvolari of Italy won the first Roosevelt Speedway road race with an Italian car in 1936 while Berndt Rosemeyer won in 1937 with an Auto Union car, Mays recalls.

"The best I could do against those foreigners at Roosevelt Speedway was third in 1937," says Mays ruefully, "and I had to drive an Italian car to do that."

Willing Help From Post

We think that a word of appreciation to the Spring Bombardier School is entirely proper if it is not too late.

Participation in Monday's bond drive opening was a fine case in point. Not only were units of the post and the post band detailed to lead the parade, but Col. J. P. Kenny, commanding officer, took time out of a very busy schedule to ride with Thurman, county bond chairman, as an evidence of the army's support in drive.

The cooperation of the post in many community endeavors has been so frequent and whole-hearted all along that it has almost been taken for granted. From the commanding officer to the newest recruit private, men and women at the field have not only given their moral but their financial support to bond drives. The same is true of Red Cross, etc. beyond this, army trucks have gone out in some instances to bring in the scrap. Through the USO and through special services considerable entertainment has been made possible. Although overworked, these soldiers and WACs always seem happy to oblige.

Maybe other posts do just as well—but it seems to us that ours has always gone just a little further. If officers and men have sometimes gone unrecruited with thanks for their efforts, it may be forgiven on the grounds that we here in Big Spring long since have considered them home folks.

Enlightening Experience

It might be an enlightening—if somewhat jolting—experience to sit down and make a rough guess at what your income tax will figure under the new simplified law.

The average taxpayer will be forcibly impressed with the fact that while all this talk of simplifying the law has been going on, a little straightforward raising of the tax in a large number of instances also was going on. Where the rate was undisturbed, Uncle Sam pulled a neat end run by reducing deductions. Where deductions were not greatly disturbed, he worked a power drive with substantially larger base per centage.

Yes, all in all, the little mathematical exercise will be very helpful to you not only in aiding you to perhaps revise some preparations for tax obligations but in reminding you that there is indeed a war going on and that it takes a pretty penny to buy old man Mars' fiddler.

Capital Comment—Invasion Press Conference Is Good One

The War Today

by Dewitt Mackenzie
Associated Press War Analyst

The burst of sunshine over Hitler's Atlantic wall and the English Channel during the past 24 hours has given a fine lift to the Allied invasion, which came so close to disaster in its inception and had been terribly handicapped ever since, because of the vagaries of a dyspeptic weatherman.

The great Allied beachhead on the Cherbourg peninsula is so well established that even yesterday Allied headquarters was able to say the general situation was "better than satisfactory." We now have an eighty mile front with a maximum depth of some eighteen miles.

That strip of coast is of course still more shallow than we like. However, it's deep enough so that Allied troops are increasingly able to take the initiative, despite the great advantage the Hitlerites held at the outset in their powerful defenses. In short, we are getting ahead with the job, and if the weatherman will favor us, our Normandy victory garden will flourish.

One of the most important developments produced by the appearance of the sun was the really terrific bombing which the Allied air forces have been giving western Europe. Yesterday some 10,000 sorties were flown by American and British warplanes. They blasted bridges, communications, troop movements and what not. It was a field day.

The significance of this is that they were blocking the movement of German reinforcements and supplies to the Cherbourg peninsula. They also were disrupting the lines of approach to the potential invasion points at which the Allies may strike at any time. The German air force showed up in greater strength than at any time since the invasion—but it was a display.

The first comedy was performed in Athens about 550 B.C. on a movable scaffold.

Odds against four perfect hands being dealt at a bridge table are 158,000,000 to one.

Australian Brides Awed By U.S.

By DOROTHEA LYLE

DALLAS, June 12 (AP) — The United States, as seen by an Australian bride just arrived in Texas, is a country where the girls are friendly and forward "in a nice sort of way," where grocery stores are lined with an abundance of food, and where the noise and traffic is sometimes awesome.

But Mrs. Nathan E. Jacob, who was Mavis Heikes back in Perth before she married Warrant Officer Nathan E. Jacob of the United States Navy last Dec. 23, likes the United States and particularly Texas.

She and her husband arrived in Houston harbor late in May with the fifth group of Australian war brides to reach this country.

About forty wives and a dozen babies were in the group making the trip, Mrs. Jacob said. "Five of the babies were in my cabin. Their ages ranged from seven weeks to 18 months."

The Navy officer and his bride are visiting his parents and sister, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Jacob, and Mrs. E. T. Crowder in Dallas.

"Nearly every girl I know in Perth has an American boy friend," the young bride said. "The girls like their nice manners and their consideration of women. They think of so many ways to entertain you and always have lots of money to spend." She said Australian boys often are jealous of the Americans.

Mrs. Jacob said she thought the custom of sending flowers was an example of the American boys' consideration.

"The first flowers I ever received were from my husband. I thought it was a beautiful idea."

Hollywood—

Others Beside Actors Know The Scripts

By STEPHEN DUNN

(The winner of the academy award for "best sound recording" in "This Land Is Mine," writes today for Robbin Coons. This is the last in a series by award winners.)

HOLLYWOOD — Any time an actor should have trouble memorizing his lines (oh, yes, it's happened!) I'd suggest that he go to work in a studio sound department for a while. Because there's no better training in how to memorize scripts; there's not a single boom man (they're the lads who guide the mike around the stage to pick up sounds) who doesn't know every line of script better than any member of the cast.

This has to be so. Modern microphones are aimed to pick up sound from one direction, that in which they are facing, in contrast to the old type, which collected sound from all directions. The new microphones are extremely sensitive; if they picked up from all angles, tiny incidental noises like the grinding of cameras or the creak of the sound boom itself would register on the sound track.

Because of this "directional pickup," it is necessary for the boom man to keep swinging the face of his mike from one actor to another, so that all dialogue is recorded with equal clarity. Naturally, the boom man must know the script perfectly, to remember when each actor's speech ends and who gives the next one.

June 6 was set in advance as the day on which Amon G. Carter, Fort Worth publisher, was to call at the White House to present President Roosevelt the deed for the Big Bend park. This turned out to be invasion day. But the big chief in the White House did not call off the ceremony for an event like that.

Sen. Tom Connally, Speaker Sam Rayburn, Rep. Ewing Thomson, of El Paso and Amon Carter called at the White House and went through the ceremony as scheduled. That's how calm Washington was on D-Day.

Washington—

Californians Always Hated Japanese

By JACK STINNETT

SAN FRANCISCO—Californians have known the Japanese intimately longer than any other persons on this continent and have hated them heartily. Twenty-odd years ago, when I was a student at the University of California in Berkeley, the "yellow peril" was already history, but still something very real.

Much of this was an antipathy toward a people whose economic and social standards played havoc with the American way of life. But much of it, too, was a realistic conception of the Japanese character. That's why I feel that the following little verbal cartoon is one of the best analyses of Japanese personality I have seen. It appeared in the San Francisco Chronicle.

It has to do with Japanese "strategy" in India. Here it is: "Very sorry, Japanese cannot trust Hindu. Japanese commander carefully select 12 of Indians taken prisoners in Malaya. Treat very polite. Slap face, make them understand Japanese very superior people. Tell them Englishman no good. Americans much worse. Cannibals. Eat Hindus if they catch 'em. Japanese promise Hindus happy life. Slap faces again so they believe. Teach them all very nice Japanese sabotage, also best kind of propaganda make trouble in India. Hindus say this very kind of Japanese. Glad to oblige. Get faces slapped again so they remember.

"Japanese give Hindus money. Also some diamonds if they need more expensive money. Put Hindus ashore in India by Japanese submarine. Hindus right away hunt up British constable, tell all about Japanese arrangements. Very bad Hindus. Japanese officer get court martial, maybe. Neglect of duty. Not slap Hindu faces enough so they appreciate co-prosperity with superior kind of people."

In spite of the fact that Hollywood is up to its gorgeous ears in politics, California doesn't pay much attention ordinarily. The exception to the rule this year is Helen Gahagan, attractive wife of Actor Melvyn Douglas (now on active duty overseas with the Army).

If elected (she already has the Democratic nomination from California's 14th district) Helen Gahagan will be the first woman to represent California in Congress. Moreover, she will be the first person ever elected in California who lived outside the district she represented. This is permissible under California law, but it never has happened yet.

Helen Gahagan has been a national Democratic committeewoman since 1940; is an intimate at the White House; has a reputation for being somewhat left-of-center politically; has scored in a big way with white collar and war workers with her advocacy for social reform.

Texas Today State Gaining Leading Spot As Medical Research Center

By BRACK CURRY

Associated Press Staff
Imminent construction of a $6,000,000 Navy general hospital at Houston emphasizes the development of Texas as a leading state in medical research, treatment and education.

In the Texas Medical Center at Houston the state will have another great medical and research institution.
One of the largest naval hospitals in the nation, the 1,000-bed Navy general hospital will be built on 130 acres adjacent to the proposed medical center near Rice Institute. Construction will begin in July.

MISSISSIPPI LEADS
JACKSON, Miss., June 12 (AP)—State oil and gas director H. M. Morse said yesterday a survey by oil and gas heads of the six southeastern states showed Mississippi far in the lead in the drilling of "wildcat" oil wells.

Mississippi had 16 drilling projects underway on April 1, compared with a combined total of 19 for the states of Alabama, Florida, Georgia, South Carolina and North Carolina, Morse said.

The Navy project will require 450 medical corps personnel and several hundred civilian employees for maintenance and operational work. Half of the construction will be permanent with 500 additional beds in temporary quarters.

After the war the hospital may be utilized by the Veterans Administration to complement the medical center, which will embrace Baylor University's medical college, the M. D. Anderson hospital for cancer research, the Houston-Harris county anti-tuberculosis hospital and the University of Texas' school of dentistry.

With the lifting of wartime construction restrictions, millions of dollars already pledged will be spent in building and developing the mammoth medical center.

Backing the center is the M. D. Anderson Foundation, created in 1926 by the late M. D. Anderson, a founder of the great cotton firm of Anderson, Clayton and Company. The foundation has an estimated value of about $20,000,000.

To house the Baylor medical college, a $1,000,000 structure will be built by the foundation.

In addition the college will receive from the foundation $100,000 annually for 10 years. The Houston chamber of commerce is undertaking to raise $50,000 each year for 10 years, making a total of $2,500,000 in gifts.

Texas' first statewide hospital devoted to the cause, prevention and cure of cancer, the M. D. Anderson hospital for cancer research is operating in temporary quarters. A staff of technicians from all parts of the nation are directing a statewide campaign designed to reduce the 4,000 cancer deaths in Texas each year.

The $1,000,000 institution was made possible by a legislative grant of $500,000 plus a $500,000 gift to the University of Texas, which operates the hospital, by the Anderson foundation.

Land has been designated at the center for the erection of new

Bishop Broomfield Conference Speaker

TULSA, Okla., June 13 (AP) — One of the most serious problems confronting the Methodist church today is the unprecedented migration to industrial centers of more than 23,000,000 of the nation's population, Bishop John Calvin Broomfield of St. Louis, told the south central jurisdiction conference of the church in session here.

Addressing the 1942 delegates to the eight state convocation last night, Bishop Broomfield warned that the church's geographical setup must undergo drastic revisions to meet needs of the population shift.

Bishop Broomfield reported that the church's foreign missionary service is being maintained and that despite the handicaps of war three-fourths of all Methodist fields still are in active operation.

He said the church gives its unqualified indorsement to the "pattern of peace" set forth by the interfaith group of Catholics, Jews and Protestants.

The conference will begin balloting tomorrow to elect two new bishops—one to succeed Bishop Broomfield who will retire shortly and the second to fill a vacancy caused by the death of Bishop Charles L. Mead of the Kansas City area.

Lt. Cecil F. White of Big Spring is now stationed with the 4501st AAF Base Unit at Lakeland Army Air Field. It was announced today by Lt. Col. W. H. Worley, group commander. Lt. White is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Emmett M. White of Big Spring.

Hero To Be Honored

SAN ANTONIO, June 13 (AP) — Next Saturday was decreed "Bordelon Memorial Day" in a proclamation issued today by Mayor Gus B. Mauerman in honor of Staff Sgt. William J. Bordelon, U. S. Marine Corps, who lost his life in the battle of Tarawa. The Congressional Medal of Honor will be presented to the hero's mother at a formal sunset review at Alamo Stadium on that day.

All flags in the city are to be flown at half mast Saturday, the proclamation said.

Ordnance Bewilders Wildcats In Game At The Bombardier School

In what perhaps was the wildest inning in history of enlisted men's softball at the Big Spring Bombardier School, the Ordnance staged an impossible last-minute comeback and beat out the bewildered Wildcats, 17-14.

The Wildcats, with a record of five consecutive innings of heavy scoring, faced the Ordnance in the last half inning of the game with a 10-run lead. Then something happened—Ordnance started getting some of the few hits they got during the game and Wildcat fielding went completely berserk. When it was over with, Ordnance not only had pulled abreast but had chased in 13 runs to win.

In the other game, the Bombers, contending for the league lead, turned back the Medics, who had grabbed an early lead. Score was 7-4. Chapman homered for the Bombers and Melcher had two strikeouts for the Medics.

Score by innings:

Wildcats	003	441	2-14 19 6
Ordnance	012	100	13-17 7 4
Spinos and Bristow; Halder and Taylor.
Bombers	301	002	1-7 11 0
Medics	400	000	0-4 2 2

Nazis With American Bazooka Gun Take Yanks By Surprise

By HAL BOYLE

21ST ARMY GROUP HEADQUARTERS, June 9 (Delayed)—"It was early morning the day after invasion when four indistinct figures came out of the French woods 200 yards away," related Sgt. Frederick Dix, 142 Maxwell avenue, Syracuse, N. Y., who was in a ditch with three other Rangers. "We thought they were from one of our companies because they were carrying an American bazooka gun.

"We didn't challenge them because it would have given away our spot, which wasn't much protection. It was. There was a new kid I'd never seen before who was helping me on the machine-gun, and there also were Sgt. William Petty, Cohutta, Ga., and Carl Winsech, Philadelphia."

Just as the men got to the edge of the ditch a few yards away, Dix looked up again.

"All of us suddenly realized they were Germans," Dix said. "I was sure of it by the shape of the helmet. They were as startled as I was and jumped into the ditch.

"I jumped back and pulled the trigger of my machine-gun, which was one we had captured. It jammed. It always jammed after a few rounds and I had to open the cover and jerk out the cartridge.

"I jumped back again just as one of our sergeants farther up the hill saw the situation and cut loose with a .45. His bullet hit me square on the back of my helmet. It dazed me and knocked me flat, but didn't penetrate."

"Sergeant Petty hollered, 'Keep your head down.' Then he cut loose with his automatic rifle, dead center, down the middle of the ditch, right into the place where the four Germans were standing. That ended them. There was no answering fire and all I got out of it was a bump on the head."

Sgt. Dix also told about a captured German medic.

"All of our medics were hurt themselves by sniper fire at the base of a cliff, or stayed on the beach to take care of our wounded there," Dix said. "But this German medic we picked up did a good job. He wasn't worried at all about gunfire around him. After patching up all the wounded around him he would crawl out and help other men who were hurt."

"He seemed perfectly happy passing out bandages and pills and when our own doctors later examined the men he had treated they said he had done a swell job. He sure wasn't much like the rest of the Germans we ran into."

service men canvas the business areas.

All issuing agencies will be given show tickets to give to bond buyers at the time of the bond purchase. Choice seats will be given with the higher purchases as the theater has been sectioned as during the last bond drive show at the Ritz.

Four more firms with out-of-town head offices have reported to bond headquarters their intention to purchase bonds in quantity here during the Fifth War Loan Drive.

Word has been received that Banner Creamery will purchase $5,000 in bonds; Woolworth's will purchase $1,000; C. R. Anthony has pledged $10,000; and Southwestern Life Insurance Company has pledged $3,000.

Ed Lipscomb Speaks At Ginners Meeting

ATLANTA, June 13 (AP)—Unless the south has the support of other sections of the country in regaining its cotton export markets after the war, it will cut cotton acreage and become a heavy competitor in wheat, cattle and other markets, a cotton expert asserted here today.

In an address prepared for the Georgia Cotton Ginners association meeting here today, Ed Lipscomb, director of sales promotion for the National Cotton Council, said that normally half of the south's cotton went for export but that foreign competition and low prices would kill this market after the war unless U. S. growers had government support.

The south already is showing competition in wheat, dairying and cattle raising with other sections of the country which have long specialized in these markets, Lipscomb said. Milk production has jumped 130 per cent while cotton production has decreased, he added.

The council, he said, was telling this story to more than 700 congressmen and key officials in the nation, along with some 8,000 members of legislatures in the 48 states, with the view of getting them to support a cotton export subsidy.

Dairymen's School Gaining Impetus

The milk producers school gained more impetus Tuesday as dairymen cleared out usual Monday accumulations and reported for the special lessons given daily through Thursday under joint sponsorship of the Chamber of Commerce, the City-County Health Unit and the local creameries.

Monday Prof. K. M. Renner of Texas Tech spoke on control of bacteria, stressed the importance of it and told why it was necessary. He was to speak together with Prof. Harmon Tuesday afternoon on a program of milk. Thursday Prof. Strickland, who like Renner and Harmon, works with the Texas Tech dairy in Lubbock, will talk on healthy cows. Thursday A. E. Prather of the State Health Department will be here. Sessions are held daily at the Settles hotel.

Hereford Breeders Have 19 Charter Members

Organization of the Howard County Breeders Association was completed Monday afternoon with the approval of 19 charter members and the blessings of Jack Frost, Blackwell, president of the Texas Hereford Breeders Association.

After hearing talks by Frost, who came here to assist in formation of the organization and to address a joint meeting of the breeders and the Chamber of Commerce directors Monday noon, and by L. B. Cauble, pioneer Howard county Hereford breeder, by-laws were adopted and the nineteen breeders represented in the meeting subscribed their $10 annual dues.

Both Frost and Cauble impressed upon members of the fledgling organization the importance of good breeding stock in the production of better meat. Frost urged use of the association as a means of exchanging information which would lead to constant improvement of herds. Cauble declared that the cattle industry of America today owed most of its progress to perseverance of Hereford breeders.

Head of the organization is Rexie Cauble, who operates Cauble Farms with his father, L. B. Cauble. Vice-president is E. W. Loumax, and Leland Wallace is secretary-treasurer.

Charter members include O. D. O'Daniel, Chester Jones, Morgan Coates & Sons, G. T. Hall, E. W. Loumax, Sam Buchanan & Sons, Charlie Lawrence & Son, W. W. Lay, I. B. Cauble, Rexie Cauble, C. A. Walker, Alex Walker, Edward Simpson & Son, Charlie Wolf, W. W. Coates, Leland Wallace, W. L. Mead, Mrs. Pearl Cauble.

Good Reports Heard At Boy Scout Session

Glowing reports of progress were heard Monday evening at a meeting of the district Boy Scout committee when Dr. W. B. Hardy, chairman, entertained members with a mutton barbecue and the "trimmin's."

One new troop has been organized, two neighborhood patrols developed, three Cub organization courses held, said H. D. Norris, reporting in absence of Nat Shick, chairman of this activity. Rev. F. D. O'Brien said that while formal leadership training courses had not been held, a continuous program of training had been going on. W. C. Blankenship, court of honor chairman, told of an aggregate of 481 badges having been awarded at the last monthly court of honor. Collections are up and the council is in sound financial condition, said Chairman Elmo Wasson. C. W. Blomsheld, camping chairman, had 818 boy days in district or council sponsored camps had been lapped up during March through June. On salvage efforts it was pointed out 35 tons of waste paper had been collected. Scouts too, assisted in distribution of the Red Cross campaign and collected, on behalf of the management, $1,951 for the drive at local theatres.

Brief reports on Philmont camp were given by Cecil Westerman, Dr. Hardy, Elra Phillips and W. S. Berry, and Norris said he anticipated 75 or more scouts would take in this camp starting July 3.

Attending were W. D. Willbanks, George Melear, Basil Apple, Sherman Smith, Hayes Stripling, Pat Kenny, Elma Wasson, H. C. Smith, Joe Pickle, Dick O'Brien, W. D. Berry, Carl Blomsheld, Cy Nabors, Elra Phillips, Jake Morgan, J. B. McKinney, W. C. Blankenship, Arnold Seydler, Claude Johnson, Dr. Hardy and Norris.

Murder Trial Set

The murder trial of Shirley Howard, charged with murder of a former Big Spring resident, has been set for Monday, June 19, in Odessa, where a term of district court opened this week, said Judge Cecil C. Collins. James Little, appointed district attorney for each term of court during absence of District Attorney Martelle McDonald, and Judge Collins went to Odessa for a term's opening. Only one grand jury indictment was returned. The Howard case was transferred from Midland.

Here 'n There

Johnny Ralston, former deputy constable, has been appointed deputy sheriff assigned to the Coahoma area, which previously had no constable or deputy.

Henry Burton, charged with transporting liquor in a wet area without a permit, pleaded guilty and was assessed a $100 fine Monday in county court.

James Sweed, negro, was charged in county court Monday with selling liquor to two boys under 21. He had been arrested but had not appeared before the county judge Tuesday morning.

Wilson in a cross action to a divorce petition filed by Wilson and was awarded custody of two minor children.

Sailors To Send News To Hometown Papers

DALLAS, June 13 (AP)—V-mail letters—direct from naval personnel to their home town newspapers and radio stations—will bring back to home towns news that the individuals took part in the European invasion, the navy said today.

When naval personnel who have participated in operations against continental Europe return to their bases in the European theatre they will be given a V-mail form, which they may fill out.

Spaces are provided for such material as country invaded, previous action, promotions, medals or citations, home address, parents' name and address, wife's name, brothers and sisters in the service, former occupation and last school attended.

Other Areas Receive Abundance Of Rain

Howard county farmers can look to their neighbors to the eastward for consolation.

While Howard county has faced a shortage of rain which delayed planting and now will delay replanting in areas damaged by sand, farms between Colorado City and Abilene received an abundance of rain which has brought "hooray" or "goose" grass.

Ground in that area remains too wet for farmers to have much success in ridding their crop of the grass, O. P. Griffin, Howard county agent, noted in a trip through the area over the weekend.

Both Griffin and M. Weaver, AAA administrative agent, estimated considerable damage to Howard county crops in "blow-sand" areas during Sunday night's and Monday's heavy winds. Both indicated farmers will have to wait for additional rain before replanting.

Grover Blissard Receives DSC At Formal Review

LT. BLISSARD

TEMPLE, June 13 (AP)—Lieut. Grover C. Blissard of Big Spring, who flew to his target in north Italy although one leg was shot away and the other badly cut by shellfire, stood erect on two legs—one good and one artificial—to receive the Distinguished Service Cross here and afterward he was assessed by "was too busy to lose consciousness on the bombing mission."

The Army award was presented him yesterday by Brig. Gen. James A. Bethea, commanding McCloskey General hospital, at a formal review of hospital troops and personnel in his honor.

When an exploding cannon shell shattered his right leg and severely wounded his left, the Texan himself applied a tourniquet and in the face of repeated aerial attacks heroically remained at his post.

With one engine out, it still "looked like an easy mission," Lieut. Blissard recalls. "We had just crossed the Italian coast line when they found us . . . between 100 and 125 Messerschmitt 109s of the famous Hermann Goering unit. We were trapped in a swarm.

"Our ball turret gunner was dead and one of the nose guns quit.

"Then, said Lt. Blissard, "a shell blew through the right side of the compartment. It blew off my right leg at the knee. My right leg was dangling there on the floor, held by a piece of flesh an inch wide. I tore off my shirt and put a tourniquet above my knee.

"We continued toward the target, the fighters came back strong. . . . We got six of them. The flak was terrific. . . . Our bombs were away and hit the target.

When the plane landed on Sardinia, an Italian colonel, commander of the Italian airforce in Sardinia, came up, saluted Blissard on his stretcher, unpinched his own gold wings and pinned them on the Americans torn shirt.

Lieut. Blissard will report to Fort Logan, Colo., air force convalescent center and then to Santa Monica, Calif., redistribution center for the air forces.

His wife, and sister, Mrs. Constance Hull of Big Spring, and Mrs. A. J. Ryan and son, A. J. Jr., of Fort Worth, attended the ceremonies.

Amarello Man Campaigns 18th District On Horse

AMARILLO, June 13 (AP)—Lamar Ballley of Amarillo is campaigning the 18th District on a horse.

Advocating abolition of most federal bureaus, the candidate for Congress declared he would not give these bureaus the satisfaction of granting him extra gasoline on which to campaign.

Ballley is running against the incumbent, Gene Worley and is touring several counties southwest of here on his horse.

A veteran of World War II, he saw service in the Southwest Pacific and received the Purple Heart and the Presidential Citation for Bravery.

AAFBS Tastes Defeat In Game With Altus

Big Spring Bombardier School baseballers tasted defeat again Sunday in an abbreviated contest at Altus, Okla., against the AAF team of that city.

The game was called after the sixth, but not until Altus had puffed up a 9-3 lead. Big Spring had a fat first inning with three runs and then settled down to the steady business of consistently striking out. By the time the game was called nine Big Spring men had gone down swinging. It was the third defeat of the season against one win.

Sailors To Send News To Hometown Papers

DALLAS, June 13 (AP)—V-mail letters—direct from naval personnel to their home town newspapers and radio stations—will bring back to home towns news that the individuals took part in the European invasion, the navy said today.

When naval personnel who have participated in operations against continental Europe return to their bases in the European theatre they will be given a V-mail form, which they may fill out.

Spaces are provided for such material as country invaded, previous action, promotions, medals or citations, home address, parents' name and address, wife's name, brothers and sisters in the service, former occupation and last school attended.

Other Areas Receive Abundance Of Rain

Howard county farmers can look to their neighbors to the eastward for consolation.

While Howard county has faced a shortage of rain which delayed planting and now will delay replanting in areas damaged by sand, farms between Colorado City and Abilene received an abundance of rain which has brought "hooray" or "goose" grass.

Ground in that area remains too wet for farmers to have much success in ridding their crop of the grass, O. P. Griffin, Howard county agent, noted in a trip through the area over the weekend.

Both Griffin and M. Weaver, AAA administrative agent, estimated considerable damage to Howard county crops in "blow-sand" areas during Sunday night's and Monday's heavy winds. Both indicated farmers will have to wait for additional rain before replanting.
