

Conference Is Called By FDR

WASHINGTON, May 26 (AP)—President Roosevelt today called an international monetary conference to meet in this country beginning July 1 to discuss postwar financial problems.

Invitations were issued to 42 countries and the French Committee of National Liberation at 10:00 o'clock (CWT) this morning.

The conference will be held at Bretton Woods, N. H., and the American delegation will be headed by Treasury Secretary Morgenthau. The official name of the meeting will be the "United Nations Monetary and Financial Conference."

The text of the White House announcement: "President Roosevelt has called an international conference for the purpose of discussing proposals to meet post-war international monetary problems."

"Invitations have been extended to all the United Nations and the nations associated with them in the war, requesting them to send official representatives to the United States for the conference which will begin on July 1.

"The delegates representing the United States will be headed by Secretary Morgenthau of the treasury.

"The conference is expected to last several weeks.

"All agreements worked out by the conference subsequently will be submitted to the respective governments for approval.

List of governments and authorities invited to participate in the conference follows:

Australia, Belgium, Brazil, Canada, Chile, China, Colombia, Costa Rica, Cuba, Czechoslovakia, Dominican Republic, Ecuador, Egypt, El Salvador, Ethiopia, French Committee of National Liberation, Greece, Guatemala, Haiti, Honduras, Iceland, India, Iran, Iraq, Liberia, Luxembourg, Mexico, Netherlands, New Zealand, Nicaragua, Norway, Panama, Paraguay, Peru, Philippine Commonwealth, Poland, Union of South Africa, Union of Soviet Socialist Republics, United Kingdom, Uruguay, Venezuela, Yugoslavia.

Presidential Secretary Stephen Early said other American delegates besides Morgenthau have not yet been designated.

Today's announcement followed a series of conferences which Mr. Roosevelt has held with John G. Winant, ambassador to Great Britain, Harry D. White, monetary expert of the treasury, and other specialists in international finance.

Last month Morgenthau presented to congress for informal study broad principles of a proposed $8,000,000,000 gold-based stabilization fund which would be used to restore international finance and promote world trade.

That outline was agreed to by treasury technicians of 34 nations.

Under the United States would put up around $2,500,000,000. Great Britain about $1,250,000,000 and Russia about $1,000,000,000. The balance would come from other participating nations.

Today's announcement said any international money agreements reached at the conference would be subject to approval by individual governments.

While the White House announcement did not say so specifically, it was learned on high authority the conference also would consider proposals for a $10,000,000,000 world bank for reconstruction and development.

At the time he presented the stabilization outline to congress Morgenthau said that any international agreements entered into would be subject to congressional approval or disapproval.

Quest For Bases In Philippines Moves West

Troops Reach Edge Of Maffin's Bay After Overpowering Japs

By J. B. KRUEGER

Gen. Douglas MacArthur's quest for airbases even nearer the Philippines moved westward today on New Guinea's coast and there were signs he was about ready for a 200-mile invasion leap into the serially-strategic Schouten islands.

Allied troops reached the edge of Maffin Bay's airdrome after overpowering Japanese defenders at Tirofom river. Its capture seemed imminent on the basis of a MacArthur communique today.

Maffin Bay is opposite captured Wakde Island off the New Guinea coast 110 miles west of Hollandia and 200 miles east of the Schoutens.

Blak, larger of the two Schoutens, suffered another of the air raids which since May 1 have undertaken to soften it up, presumably for invasion. Heavy bombers struck in a night raid at supply and camp areas. In addition, Noemfoor island, 60 miles west of Blak, was attacked and 19 parked planes were destroyed there.

On two other Pacific war ground fronts the Japanese claimed capture of Loyang in north China and doggedly clung to Myitkyina in Burma in the face of overwhelming odds. The first Chinese admission Loyang probably was lost came from an army spokesman who said contact with the key rail center had been broken.

AP War Correspondent Thoburn Wiant said that in the fight for Myitkyina Brig. Gen. Frank Merrill's marauders were on the city's outskirts, battering at Japanese holes up in the major enemy base. Attempts to reinforce the besieged Japanese garrison were beaten back.

Chinese pushing a two-prong drive from Yunnan province to support Stilwell were near the Burma border but still had nearly 100 miles to go.

British forces continued to block Japanese forces apparently unwilling to concede the Indian invasion was a failure.

The Asiatic fighting received support from Maj. Gen. Claire L. Chennault's airmen, who struck in widespread attacks at Hainan Island, Thailand, Indo-China and along the Yangtze and Yellow rivers in China.

Officer Convicted Of Murder Charges

CAMP ANZA, Calif., May 26 (AP)—An army court martial convicted Lt. Beaufort G. Swancutt today on a charge of murdering four persons in a shooting affray here last March 5, and recommended that he be hanged.

The 31-year-old La Crosse, Wis., officer, testifying for two hours and 20 minutes yesterday at his court martial, offered no denial of the shootings but insisted that he had no motive or intent to kill anyone, or any memory of such an occurrence.

Previously declared sane by the court, Swancutt contended he suffered a mental blackout after the shooting of March 5, from which he did not recover for several days.

Inquest Held In Shooting

ABLENE, May 26 (AP)—First Lt. Donald K. Bush, 25, shot his wife to death and then killed himself at the home of his wife's parents here yesterday, Justice of the Peace W. J. Cunningham found after conducting an inquiry into the deaths of the couple.

His finding, Cunningham said, was based upon sworn testimony of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Brooks, who said at the hearing yesterday that their son-in-law had not been "natural" since his return from Guadalcanal, where he spent 15 months.

Cunningham said this story grew out of the testimony: "Mrs. Brooks testified she saw Bush shoot her daughter and that she (Mrs. Brooks) ran with the Bush baby to a neighbor's. When Brooks arrived, the peace justice said, he found Mrs. Bush lying at the front door, her pulse beating faintly, and found Bush dead, with a pistol at his side.

Cunningham said the act occurred while the officer was under severe nervous strain.

P. D. Bush said last night at Independence, Mo., that he would leave by plane early today for Abilene, Tex., to attend funeral services Saturday for his daughter-in-law Mrs. Mary Katherine Bush and to make arrangements to have the body of his son, Lt. Donald K. Bush, returned here for burial.

Tremendous Shift Due In Army Plans

WASHINGTON, May 26 (AP)—A tremendous shift in Army supply plans to heavy artillery and big gun ammunition was viewed in production quarters Thursday as evidence that the army may be laying plans for possibly long and costly inland fighting after invasion beachheads are secured.

Official sources disclosed that new plant construction has been approved to meet the army's towering pre-invasion call for the big guns due to thunder over Europe.

The new ammunition program—up an average 400 to 500 per cent over current schedules and representing a dollar increase of about $750,000,000 for the next 18 months—calls for reopening some of the production facilities that have been closed or placed on a standby basis.

Next month some of the closed TNT lines will be back in production to meet the new demand, and by midsummer powder, bag-loading and shell-loading plants also will be reopened.

The guns on which new emphasis is being placed as a result of battle experience, particularly in Italy, include the 155 millimeter Howitzer, the 8-inch gun, the 240 mm weapon, and the 153 gun, or "Long Tom."

Poppy Day To Be Observed

AUSTIN, May 26 (AP)—Gov. Coke R. Stevenson has proclaimed Saturday, May 27 as Buddy Poppy Day for the customary sale of poppies by the Veterans of Foreign Wars.

Proceeds this year, the proclamation said, "will help meet the needs of the new generation of soldiers, sailors, and marines who are defending the cause of freedom under the American flag."

Twenty-five hundred poppies have been received in Big Spring to be placed on sale Saturday by members of the auxiliary to the Veterans of Foreign Wars.

The poppies were made by disabled service men, and the proceeds will be used for the upkeep of disabled veterans and orphans in the FVW homes.

Mrs. Dorothy Hill has been appointed chairman in charge of the sales, and the entire auxiliary will participate in the campaign.

Tales About Quints Not Being Bright Is Debunked By Writer

By A. E. FULFORD

Canadian Press Staff Writer

CALLANDER, Ont., May 26 (AP)—The Dionne quintuplets will be ten years old May 28, and it's time to debunk some stories about them that have sprung up during the decade.

One of these widely believed untruths is that the quintts are not bright—or that one of them, Marie, is backward.

This Canadian Press correspondent, who first knew them when they were three months old, visited them with their father and their teachers. He learned that while they are not prodigies, they are as intelligent as normal children of their age and perhaps a little more so.

None is brighter in everything than the others. Yvonne may be a wizard at arithmetic one month, but Cecile or Emilie will beat her later. Marie may be tops in social studies in one test, but Annette will overhaul her the next time.

Another story is that the quintts can't speak English and are forbidden to learn. On the contrary, they have daily English lessons—although most of their school work is done in their native French—and they speak English very well for little French-Canadian girls.

It has been reported that the quintts' earning power has diminished, but the little girls are still doing nicely. They have contracts that bring them $25,000 to $30,000 a year plus a million dollar reserve that won't be touched until they are grown.

For the first time since the quintts' birth in a four-room farmhouse across the road from their present $50,000, twenty-room home, Mr. and Mrs. Olivia Dionne fully approve of the arrangements under which the children are brought up.

The quintts no longer are wards of the state, except in the handling of their finances.

All the Dionnes are together in a house that is the largest and most tastefully furnished in northern Ontario.

The children, not too eager, not too shy, they are beautifully behaved and lack self-consciousness except when they are the center of attention.

Cecile seems to be the chief mischief maker. Emilie the most carefree. Marie is the "baby," Yvonne and Annette are the leaders and seem more mature. Blond sister Pauline, just a year older, is a thoroughly integrated part of their group.

Father Dionne, in his almost accentless English, said there was nothing to the stories that he and Mrs. Dionne would "give" the quintts to the church.

"People don't 'give' their children to the church or to any other profession these days," he said. "Children decide for themselves."

An honorary diploma was awarded to Gene Smith, who was killed accidentally Nov. 11. It was received by Barkley Wood, who succeeded him as president of the student council. The diploma will be presented to the boy's parents.

Lumber Tieup Heads Lists Of Walk-Outs

By The Associated Press

A general lumber tieup in the northwest, with War Production Board officials estimating a daily production loss of 9,500,000 board feet, today headed a list of at least eight walkouts throughout the nation.

Estimates of the total number of idle varied from 20,000 to as many as 51,000, due to widely different opinions on the number idle in the Pacific northwest. Most walkouts were due to wage demands.

Detroit was virtually without bread or bakery goods in a drivers' tie-up, one of four Michigan walkouts which kept about 7,000 idle. A walkout in East St. Louis, Ill., and St. Louis, Mo., oil refineries of the Soco-Vacuum Oil Company left 600 men idle. With the company producing 100 octane aviation gasoline, W. F. Burt, company manufacturing director, telegraphed President Roosevelt for help, terming the walkout "unthinkable on the eve of our invasion of Europe."

In other phases of the labor picture, the warehouse division of the CIO International Longshoremen's and Warehousemen's Union at San Francisco pledged abandonment of the strike as an economic weapon for the duration of the war and "indefinitely thereafter."

Hundreds of loggers joined mill and boom workers in the Pacific northwest lumber tie-up, protesting National WLB denial of wage increases. Estimates of the number idle, quoting lumbermen and labor officials, varied from 8,500 to 40,000. Spokane, Wash., pine lumber manufacturers invited the government to take over production in 12 idle plants in a telegram to President Roosevelt. The council of the CIO International Woodworkers of America planned to meet tomorrow.

In Detroit the strike of 1,900 employees at two plants of Parke Davis & Co. went into its fourth day.

About 2,500 workers were idle in a dispute over smoking regulations in three General Motors' Chevrolet transmission division plants at Saginaw, Mich., and 1,300 remained idle in a foundry plant at Muskegon.

Other walkouts include: South Bend, Ind., 3,000 employees of strut and turret divisions and a carburetor division of the Bendix Products plant; and 385 members of CIO United Auto Workers in the General Aviation Equipment Co. plant, Ashley, Pa.

Troops Take Cisterna In Heavy Battle

By EDWARD KENNEDY

ALLIED HEADQUARTERS, Naples, May 26 (AP) Allied forces rolled back the Germans today in swift new advances toward Rome at both ends of the Italian battle line.

Fanning out swiftly from the former Anzio beachhead area, now linked to the main front, Fifth army troops captured Cisterna in heavy fighting and plunged forward more than three miles, cutting two important roads leading northward and north-eastward.

captured Aquino and Piedmonte, the last remaining strongpoints of the enemy's once-vaunted Titler line, and Canadian troops won a bridgehead across the Melfa river, in the Liri valley 13 miles west of Cassino.

Cisterna, which had constituted one of the Kingpins of the enemy's line around the Anzio beachhead, fell yesterday after a savage four-hour battle in which heavy casualties were inflicted on the defenders. American infantry and armor had been battering the town for three days.

Southeast of Cisterna, the Fifth army occupied Littoria, Mussolini's model town in the ancient Pontine marshes, without opposition.

As the Germans pulled back toward their new defenses in the Alban Hills, Allied Air Forces continued to smash their fleeing vehicles. A headquarters announcement said more than 1,750 enemy vehicles had been damaged in the past 4 hours.

The total of Germans captured since the offensive began two weeks ago rose to more than 12,000 and the columns continued to file to the rear as the Allied forces mopped up captured areas.

In its four-day offensive, the beachhead section of the Fifth army captured 2,600 prisoners up to noon yesterday. Among the prisoners were the commander of the 954th German infantry regiment and his staff.

French and American troops, exerting steady pressure in the mountains north of Terracina in a move that was rapidly straightening the battle line out along an east-west axis, captured Monte Vairia, northeast of Pico, Monte Civitella, west of Vallecorsa, and other important points in that region. The enemy hit back with several local counterattacks.

In their flight from Littoria and elsewhere along the Pontine plain the Germans left behind much equipment. At the southern end of the plain the towns of Sabaudia and Pontina were swift unoccupied.

In their advance toward the Alban hills, some 15 miles southeast of Rome where the Germans apparently hoped to make their final stand for the Eternal City, the Americans encountered deep mine fields but enemy artillery fire was lighter than had been expected.

British and Polish troops of the Eighth army, following up the retreating First German parachute division, descended on the hills toward Castrocielo and Roccaseca on the north side of the Liri valley, but the Germans still clung to Monte Cairo, due east of those towns and the highest peak in the Cassino vicinity.

The enemy still was offering stiff resistance on the flanks of the Canadians who crossed the Melfa river.

Aircraft of the first tactical air force knocked off a large proportion of the two-day toll of enemy vehicles in attacks yesterday on two large German motor convoys withdrawing from the Cisterna area. In these and other forays, the Allied battle planes destroyed at least 519 vehicles and damaged 561 more.

Twenty German planes were destroyed, of more than 80 encountered, as the Mediterranean air forces flew 3,000 sorties yesterday, including heavy bomber attacks on German rail lines in France, in the Lyon and Grenoble areas, and against various targets in northern Italy. Twelve Allied planes were lost, six of them heavy bombers.

Good Rain In County Brings Cotton Hopes

Clouds over Howard county had a silver lining today, as rain which apparently was general in the county brought hope for the year's cotton crop.

"It's the finest weather I ever saw," said O. P. Griffin, county agent, happy over planting prospects which have appeared gloomy as the deadline for successful planting of cotton neared.

The United States weather station near the city recorded .43 inch Thursday night and up to 2 p. m. Friday. Forecast reported one-half inch. Coahoma reported about one-inch precipitation Thursday morning and about one-half inch during the night. Stanton reported approximately one-half inch of "steady good rain" with most of the downfall occurring between 10 and 12 o'clock Thursday night. Garden City in Glouceck county reported .61 inch, with rain falling generally throughout the county. Heaviest downfall came between midnight and 4 a. m. Northward to Knott and Ackerly, reports on amount of precipitation were lacking because telephone lines were down due to the rain. Skies remained overcast at 2 p. m. Friday.

Although additional rain will be needed to materially help the city water supply, Moss lake received two feet and Powell lake, eight inches, more than in any recent rain.

Griffin predicted cotton planting would be general over the county next week. He estimated approximately 10 per cent of the cotton crop has been planted, with a few farms receiving good stands.

Although a hard rain could have damaged newly planted cotton crops sufficiently to cause re-planting, the rain was not believed hard enough except perhaps in scattered spots to have damaged cotton just planted. One report was received from north of the city that rain washed out terraces.

Rainfall was believed sufficient for planting seasoning over the county. However, Griffin emphasized, more rain will be needed in June for growth of cotton.

Prior to Thursday night's and Friday's rainfall, the year's precipitation as recorded at the weather station here was 3.39.

Dr. James Gordon Addresses Seniors

Speaking on "Our Heritage" as Texans and as Americans, Dr. James M. Gordon of Texas Technological college discussed the challenge which that heritage presents in his commencement address before Big Spring High School graduation students Thursday night in the municipal auditorium.

Dean Gordon began with the Battle of San Jacinto and the heritage which early-day Texans left for those of today.

He expressed need for refinement of home, school and church and said, "Our challenge is to bring those into better understanding for the post-war era."

W. C. Blankenship, superintendent, presided for the service.

and Ira L. Thurman, secretary of the board of trustees, presented diplomas.

Highest ranking students were announced by J. A. Coffey, principal. Louise Ann Bennett, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. M. H. Bennett, was announced as highest ranking student and Kenneth Partridge, son of Lt. Col. Alan Partridge, was the highest ranking boy.

The honors were based on scholarship, leadership, service and character. Students were nominated to a faculty committee by fellow students and teachers, after which the committee rated the group on basis of the four attributes. Faculty rating counted 25 per cent; student rating, 13 per cent, and scholarship, the remainder. Miss Bennett is eligible for entrance fees at state colleges and the highest ranking boy is eligible for fees at most denominational schools.

Barkley Wood, son of Mrs. Ellen Wood, was announced as winner of the Bausch and Lomb science award, a medal given to the graduating student rated by science teachers as highest in progress, scientific work and thought during three years' science work.

Fifteen students were announced as members of the National Honor society. They represented students ranking highest in the ratings in which the highest student and highest boy were determined. They are Eugene Anderson, Louise Ann Bennett, Alyene Brownrigg, Betty Sue Burleson, Barney Carr, Jeanne Dickerson, Harry Hort, Jr., Kenneth Partridge, Charlene Pinkston, Charles Prather, Joanne Rice, Robert Sisson, Burke Summers, Jr., Bill Underhill, and Barkley Wood.

Subcommittee Says President Had No Authority In Case

WASHINGTON, May 26 (AP)—A senate judiciary subcommittee headed by Senator McCarran (D-Nev) declared today President Roosevelt had "no constitutional or statutory authority" to issue the executive order under which Montgomery Ward and Company's Chicago mail order house was seized by armed troops last month.

The sharply-worded report criticized Attorney General Biddle, who assured the president he had authority to issue the order; Secretary of Commerce Jones, who called for soldiers to take over the plant and eject Sewell Avery, Ward board chairman; the conciliation services of the department of labor; the War Labor Board and the National Labor Relations Board.

Senator Revercomb (R-WVa.) joined McCarran in the report, but the third member of the subcommittee, Senator McFarland (D-Ariz) declined to sign it.

A special house committee which undertook a separate investigation of the Ward seizure recessed yesterday until June 6 after hearing Biddle and Wayne Chatfield Taylor, undersecretary of commerce. Avery is scheduled as the next witness.

Montgomery Ward had declined to abide by a WLB order to keep a CIO union contract in force until an election could be held to determine the union's status. The union subsequently proved in an election that it represented the majority of employees.

Mrs. Metzger, suddenly frightened, observed that Metzger's eyes were closed. She applied the brakes, pushed into the driver's seat, and drove to a Camden hospital.

There Metzger was pronounced dead.

Colorado Family Notified Second Son Is Missing

COLORADO CITY, May 26 — The second "Missing in Action" message has reached the same family in Colorado City with formal notification from the war department that Sergeant Jack Wyatt is missing in air action over Rumania.

Older brother of Wilson Wyatt, USN sailor first Mitchell county man to be listed as missing, Sgt. Wyatt began training in the CPT shortly after word of his brother's loss in the South Pacific came.

At the dispersal of the CPT pilots he transferred to training as a glider pilot for the army. Later he was reclassified as an aerial gunner and was graduated and given his sergeant's rating at Laredo.

As nearly as his family here can tell he had been overseas only three weeks when he failed to return from the mission on which he was flying as turret gunner. Only one letter had been received from him after he reached England.

Sgt. Wyatt is married to the former Miss Anne Kerr of Los Angeles.

The unique Victory center at Abilene, home of the daily radio program "Let Us Forget" heard in Big Spring, will observe its first anniversary-Sunday by opening a week's Bible conference with Dr. William L. Pettigill of Wilmington, Delaware as speaker.

The program is broadcast at 8:15 o'clock each morning over KRBC, KBST and KGKL. It is directed by Joe Temple, and is presented from soundproof studios in the Victory center.

The center, which has 3,200 square feet of floor space, contains beside the studios a lounge, chapel, rest rooms containing saving and bathing facilities, guest quarters for Bible conference speakers and living quarters for the director and family.

It has a four-mold ministry including a home of Christian fellowship for servicemen, Bible conferences, radio ministry and Bible book store.

Quarters are provided for both physical and spiritual welfare of men in service. More than 3,000 men called at the center during the last year.

Bible conferences attracted an aggregate of more than 9,000 persons.

Radio programs, made possible by free will contributions, have resulted in 1,500 letters to the center.

The Bible book store has distributed nearly 4,000 pieces of literature with evangelical message.

The center is operated by the Abilene Bible Conference association, a non-profit corporation of business men.

Yesterday and Today

School is out! Vacation time is here! From now until September there will be many idle hours which should be filled in the most helpful way for growing children. Next week the children in our homes will be restless with the routine of a heavy school year lifted from their shoulders. No more home work, no more hurrying off in the morning to six hours of recitation and study. The hustle and bustle of athletic, social and other extra school activities incident to life in a normal public school, suddenly ceases. Many a child will wonder what to do with himself and these many vacant hours which he finds on his hands. Many a mother will wonder what to do with the problems imposed upon her by this restless energy in her offspring thus released from the routine of public school activities which for nine months has been absorbed by study and discipline.

The Big Spring Pastor's Association believes we have the best answer to the question both for the mother and the child. It is the Church Vacation School. It fills these idle hours with the most profitable and interesting activities. In its Bible teaching, character stories, patriotic lessons, music, handwork and play it offers an absorbingly interesting answer to the mother's problem. And since there is no home-work, no tests or examinations, much play and endless variety, it gives the perfect solution to the child's problem. Sessions are held only in the mornings and five days each week. All children from the Primary through the Intermediate age are provided for.

Some of the schools will begin next Monday, May 29, others will follow in other churches. Watch this paper and your church bulletins for announcements.

Buy A "Poppy" Tomorrow

The bright red of the poppy has long marked the last resting place of many an American boy who died in combat. That's why it is the symbol by which the Veterans of Foreign Wars observe Memorial Day. In government hospitals, veterans make the scarlet flowers you buy — to help incapacitated heroes of past wars; servicemen and their families of the present war; and the widows and orphans of all wars in which American men have laid down their lives. It's so little for you to do...

Flashes From The Front—
IT WAS DAMRON'S 5TH MISSION
WHEN HIS FORTRESS CRASHED

Lt. Frank Damron of Paducah, Tex., was on his fifth mission out of Port Moresby, New Guinea, last June 14th when his B-17
crashed a mile from the takeoff strip and killed all members of the crew. Damron's Purple Heart was forwarded to his mother.
Lt. Lester Darst of Everett, O., is now attending the instructor's school at Midland. But Darst saw plenty of action with the 8th air force before he wound up at Midland. He recently returned to the U. S. after 25 missions over
"some very rough spots" in Germany, and brought back a Distinguished Flying Cross and the Air
Medal with three clusters.
Another 8th air force boy, Lt.
Paul Davis of East Northfield, Mass., had the air medal with two clusters when he took off to blast Germany on March 3rd last. He has not been heard from since.
After leaving Big Spring, Lt.
Hugh Davis of Millstone, N. J., studied navigation at Honda and left for England in July of '43.
He's been a navigator on a B-17 with the 8th air force ever since.
Lt. Robert DeFels of Thorn-wood, N. Y., has just returned to the States after having completed 25 missions over Germany.
Bringing back the Distinguished Flying Cross and the air medal with three clusters, DeFels writes us that everywhere he went in England he'd run into Big Spring graduates. "They're all over the place," writes DeFels, "and they're making a great name for themselves and Big Spring."
All we know about Lt. Walter
Deputat of North Chelmsford,
Mass., is that he's putting in a 24-hour, 7-day week in Italy.
Lt. Vincent Dilly of Norcross, Minn., already decorated with the air medal and three clusters, is lead bombardier with his squadron in the 8th air force in England. That's all the info we have on him.
Twice wounded over Italy, once in August and another time last October, Lt. L. E. Dixon of St.
Louis, Mo., is now back in the U. S. taking a rest cure. Writes that he's feeling fine and expects to get back in action soon.
Lt. Louie Dobbs of Katemcy, Tex., was on his 20th mission deep in Germany on February 22nd of this year. The air was filled with flak and swarming with enemy fighters, and Dobbs' Fortress was in the thick of everything that day. It was last seen blazing away at three Messerschmitts.
It has not been seen or heard from since. During his tour of operations with the 8th air force Dobbs had collected a Distinguished Flying Cross and the air
medal with three clusters.
In England with the 8th air force since November of last year, Lt. Ralph Dougherty of Stonham, Mass., has been on several missions over Germany.
His greatest thrill thus far, writes Dougherty, "was when I ran into my brother in London. Vincent is a captain in the Merchant Marine and I hadn't seen him for four years. Then one day on a crowded street, I just ran plumb into him. We only had 24 hours together, but we packed four years of living into it."
One of Chennault's closemouthed boys with the 14th air force in China, Lt. D. B. Duffy of St. Petersburg, Fla., just hinted that he was slightly wounded last July 29th when he and the boys had to bail out of a flaming plane.
That's all we could get out of him.
Lt. Paul Brown of Laramie, Wyo., writes us that he has been knocking chips off Nips' shoulders all through New Guinea, New Britain and the Marshalls. "For diversion," he adds, "I run over to Australia about every three or four months and indulge in a "minor escapade" just to keep in practice."
Lt. Robert Dunn of Los Angeles,
Calif., blasted the axis from Africa,
Italy and England until last October 1st when he was killed in action while operating on Hitler's huge aircraft plant at Wiener Austad in Austria. Dunn's Purple Heart was given to his sister.

Gay Garden Party
AT AN ADVANCED SOUTH
PACIFIC AIRBASE—A Corsair fighter pilot found his Bougain-ville strafing target closed in by weather, so he attacked a Japanese vegetable garden. His official report:

"Two radishes seen to explode,
two direct hits and one near miss on a carrot. There was no ack ack but a single Jap disguised as a sprinkling can attempted to hit the plane with a beet. Set one fire. Smoke rose six inches and was visible for seven and eight-tenths feet."

Nova Can Have His Manager As Referee For Fight In Florida

OKLAHOMA CITY, May 26 (AP)—Lou Nova, California heavyweight who is lumbering along the comeback trail, can have his own manager as referee for his fight with Buddy Scott, Tampa, Fla., here June 2.

That's what Scott's manager, Eddie Sears, Chicago, said today, and he wasn't kidding.

Nova's manager, Frank Paccassi, told Fight Promoter G. M. Beyerley he wouldn't have anyone else in the ring for the bout except Alex Fidler of Cedar Rapids, Iowa.

However, Sears didn't argue but immediately suggested that Paccassi be put in the ring as third man.

Sears wasn't kidding about Paccassi.

"It isn't going to make any difference who referees," he said, "because Buddy is going to knock Nova silly."

"But if Mr. Paccassi is going to be so fussy about a referee, let's let him referee the match. Beyerley, who has been caught in the middle of the squabble was very quiet today. He said he has tried to get in touch with Fidler to learn whether he is available but hasn't heard from him. When he does, he said he'd take the fuss to the Oklahoma athletic commission, with whom the appointment will rest. Scott arrived here from Florida to start working out today. Nova fights at Galveston, Texas, Tuesday, before coming here.

Penick Announces Tourney Deadline

AUSTIN, May 26 (AP)—Dr. D. A. Penick reminded today that June 24 is the deadline for entries in the annual Texas sectional tennis tournament slated for the University of Texas courts here June 26 to July 1.

Fourteen events are scheduled and no player may enter more than five including singles, doubles and mixed doubles because the schedule must be maintained scrupulously, said Dr. Penick. Drawings are slated for 8:30 a. m., June 26.

Summer School To Begin Here Monday

The summer session at the local high school will open at 9 a. m. on Monday, June 5. Letha Amerson, Mrs. Lynette McElhannon, Reba Debenport and Mrs. N. W. Paulsen have been named as instructors.

SPORTS ROUNDUP

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR.

NEW YORK, May 26 (AP)—Brooklyn fans' startled reaction to the discovery that you don't have to be a bum to be a Dodger merely emphasizes the fact that Eddie Basinski is just one of a long line of college ball players who have made good in the big leagues. . . . Eddie is the bespectacled youngster who came from Buffalo U. to soothe that second base sore spot in the Dodger infield. . . . For the benefit of those who are surprised to find a mere collegian playing good baseball, here's a lineup of major league stars who had the benefits of at least some higher education:

Two Deep
On second thought, make it two teams: First base, Lou Gehrig, Columbia, or Jake Stahl, Illinois; second, Eddie Collins, Columbia, or Frank Frisch, Fordham; third, Jimmy Collins, Canisius, or Joe Dugan, Holy Cross; short, Joe Sewell, Alabama, or Jack Collins, Holy Cross; outfield, George Sisler, Michigan; Harry Hooper, St. Mary's; Earle Combs, Kentucky State Teachers; Birdie Cree, Penn State; Riggs Stephenson, Alabama; Louis Sockalexis, Holy Cross and Notre Dame; catcher, Mickey Cochrane, Boston U., or Bill Carrigan, Holy Cross; pitchers, Christy Mathewson, Bucknell; Jack Coombs, Colby; Ed Reulbach, Notre Dame and Vermont; Ted Lyons, Baylor; Chief Bender, Carlisle; Eddie Plank, Gettysburg; Addie Joss, Wisconsin, and Orrie Overall, California.

Cecil label was all set to return to the Green Bay Packers next fall when he was offered the head coaching job at Purdue. And chances are that Don (I Won't Play) Hutson still is boiling at the Boilermakers. . . . If the Dodgers can hold out long enough, they'll have a good shortstop in Lloyd Waner, Jr., who is playing that position in a Cub Scouts tournament at Oklahoma City. His mother coaches the team. . . . Dale Stafford reports a feminine rancor fan at the Detroit fair grounds recently couldn't understand why she didn't receive $1,500 for a $2 win ticket when the program stated the purse was for that amount.

A Rookie A Day
Eddie Sauer, Cubs' outfielder; Kid brother of Hank, who played quite some baseball for the Reds. . . . Eddie went from Elon College (top pro ball in 1940) and hit three homers for Akron in an exhibition against the Yankees. . . . Hit .368 for Nashville last season to lead Southern Association in batting, runs scored, total bases, doubles and steals. . . . Hits a hard ball to left field but isn't too good defensively, which explains why Ival Goodman has been getting the call lately. . . . Too bad a sweet hitter has to be a sauer fielder.

Pennsylvania, Duke To Meet This Fall

PHILADELPHIA, May 25 (AP)—The University of Pennsylvania and Duke University will meet on the gridiron for the first time next fall when Duke replaces Princeton as Penn's first opponent of the season. The game is scheduled for Sept. 30 at Franklin Field. Princeton recently announced its withdrawal from inter-collegiate football.

IKE WILLIAMS NOT FOR SALE

PHILADELPHIA, May 26 (AP)—Hard punching Ike Williams is definitely not for sale. Manager Con McCarthy, reporting that Comedians Olson and Johnson had offered $25,000 for the negro lightweight, said yesterday "I'm not buying Ike x x x I consider him the greatest lightweight since Benny Leonard."

GRIN AND BEAR IT

By Lichty
The climate is very wet and heavy moisture prevails everywhere all the time. The "rainy season" starts in November and continues until March. It is supposed to be the "dry" season now, but has poured down every day and mud is always ankle deep. "Natives are interesting and resemble our negro people except that they have long bushy hair and are somewhat small and stocky. They are constantly smoking and chewing American tobacco and will give almost anything for a pipe. Often they go through camps here trying to barter for a pipe and tobacco. Their clothing consists largely of what the quartermaster salvage depot cast off. The natives are under a three-year contract to Australia to work around army camps filling up stagnant pools and spraying oil on water to keep down malaria. They go barefooted and their feet are tougher than a GI shoe. Extent of their English is somewhat "piggy" such as "me no savvy" or "me work for Americans."

Tampico Loses To Monterrey Team

TAMPICO, Tamaulipas, Mexico, May 26 (AP)—In a monotonous game of baseball Tampico lost to Monterrey yesterday, 4-1. Daniel Rioz struck out one Tampico opponent, yielded 4 bases on balls and 5 hits. Cochihua Valenzuela struck out 5 Monterrey batsmen, gave 2 bases on balls and 6 hits. Tampico made 3 errors and Monterrey 2.

Colorado Soldier Killed In Action

The formal notification from the war department reached Mrs. Hart, the former Ruth M. Bell and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Bell, Tuesday. Sgt. Collegians, Schoolboys, Soldiers To Participate In Dallas Meet

DALLAS, May 26 (AP)—Service men, collegians and schoolboys who led the way in track and field this season will be thrown together here tonight in the Southwestern A.A.U., an event expected to become an annual feature in Dallas.

Director P. C. Cobb forecast the largest crowd ever to see a track meet in Texas if the weather is favorable. Should there be prospects of continued rain the meet will be postponed until tomorrow.

Heading the all-star cast of 47 athletes who will compete for the right to go to the National A.A.U. in New York next month will be flyin' Charley Parker of Thomas Jefferson (San Antonio), for three years undefeated in the 100 and 220-yard dashes in schoolboy ranks, and giant Pete Watkins of Fort Sam Houston, who as a representative of Texas A. and M. last year won the high jump at the national meet.

Savagely And Effectively—ENGLISH WOMEN BACK MEN

By HAL BOYLE
LONDON, May 26 (AP)—One of the noticeable contrasts between life in Britain and in America is the markedly greater role women of this embattled isle are playing in the war effort.

home and cook the evening meal and clean house because, as one girl laughingly put it— "even a war can't make an English husband help out with the household duties."

It is difficult to leave the United States with the feeling that its feminine population is making the contribution toward winning the war of which it is capable. This is evidenced by the difficulty of getting desired enlistments in the WAC and other service groups. In the hesitancy with which many women take over industrial jobs, and in their general lack of enthusiasm or interest in the war.

Other British girls man the anti-aircraft guns which defend this heart of empire. Some have died at those guns. Many British girls do look dowdy. They wear old clothes because they can't get new ones. Their hands are red, rough and calloused. When you look at their hands you think of pale, soft lovely hands of any number of women in Manhattan, Miami and Hollywood. You don't get calloused hands sitting at a cocktail bar.

Even a casual tour of the United States shows that in all sections there is a good percentage of women, both married and single, taking little or no part in the greatest military effort ever made by their nation.

The average human brain is three times the size of an average gorilla's. The change from ape to man is infinitesimal compared with that from a reptile to a mammal.

There is no such waste of feminine heart and muscle in Britain. Women here are backing their menfolk in the fight against the Nazis savagely and effectively—in roles high and humble. All able-bodied women of Britain, from 18 to 50, except those with children under 14, are registered for war labor at any task the ministry of labor and national service may decree. They are subject also to transfer to any town or plant where needed.

The most recent figures compiled by the government show that even as long ago as the middle of 1943, more than half of Britain's womanpower was directly employed in the war effort. Of 17,200,000 women between 14 and 64, some 7,000,000 were in full-time paid service or employment with the armed forces, civil defense or industry; another 750,000 were in part-time paid employment, and a million more were serving voluntarily without pay. Ninety per cent of the single women between 18 and 40 and more than 80 per cent of the married women and widows in that age bracket without children were in uniform or working at war jobs.

Everywhere in England you see women holding down jobs formerly filled by men. They work eight hours in the Sheffield steel mills and then come

Starve Gas Bootleggers

What would you think of the fellow who stole from himself and his family?

Keep this in mind while we review a few facts pertaining to the prosecution of the war, among them the well established ratio of a million and a quarter gallons of gasoline for every 1,000 bombers which make the trip over Berlin to drop deadly bombs. This has to be a high octane gasoline capable of delivering that extra ounce of power which may be the margin between life and death for our boys.

Bear in mind that 90 per cent of the motive power of our armed forces today is coming from petroleum products—mostly gasoline. It makes no difference if it is in a jeep, a tractor, motorcycle, plane, tank, or battleship, some sort of petroleum product is needed to maintain the power of that unit.

All this adds up to one thing . . . priority on all petroleum products for the military. It is self evident that as the tempo of the war increases, so does the drain on our petroleum supplies and our processing facilities.

Here's how you come into the picture. Try to accept your gasoline ration like a good American. If you can get by on your basic allotment (and it was cut primarily because of military needs), do so. In applying for supplemental gasoline, ask for as little as you can get by on and not try to see how much you can get by with.

Then, turn your attention to the smashing of the gasoline black market—the unpatriotic citizen who is nothing less than a gasoline bootlegger. Sign your coupons as you are asked to do. Don't patronize the gasoline black marketeer in any way whatsoever and encourage your friends to starve him to death.

To our shame, the gasoline black market has been expanding. Every gallon which might have gone to you, or perhaps to some tank or truck on the battle line. So if the opportunity to deal in black market gasoline presents itself, just remember what you think of the fellow who would steal gasoline from some member of his family who is fighting for him.

What Fun If Neither FD Or Dewey Runs!

By GEORGE STIMPSON

WASHINGTON—Waco's Cong. Bob Poage said a mouthful when he rose in support of an amendment to the GI Bill-of-Rights bill: "It is always surprising to me to see how members of this House can be so intelligent as individuals and yet act as a mass with such utter disregard of the facts of ordinary human relationships."

What Bob says of congressmen is pretty much true of all persons acting as a group. Judge Hatton Sumners, of Dallas, complimented the committee for the way it handled the educational features of the GI bill. Very wisely, he said, they are "putting the major responsibility and the major power of selection in the state and indicating confidence in the first instance in the wisdom of the state in selecting those who would have to do with public education." He also favored providing against the possibility of "the fly-by-night institutions springing up to get money out of the treasury without having done the services required."

Says Cong. Sam Russell, of Stephenville: "I know of no organization that has done more to advance the cause of Americanism than the American Legion. For many years their sole aim has been one of service to our country."

Sam approved a resolution adopted by the Legion Post at Albany recommending that markers furnished by the government to deceased veterans have the emblem of the American Legion placed on them whenever requested by the relatives of the deceased. FDR's fourth-term plans are a secret and Gov. Tom Dewey says he's not a candidate. If both of them decline to accept the nomination won't the two grand old parties be in a heck of a fix? California's 78-year-old Hiram Johnson couldn't be present when the Senate voted on cloture to stifle debate on the so-called anti-poll tax bill, so he sent the following telegram from Florida to Michigan's Arthur Vandenberg:

Michigan's Arthur Vandenberg:

"Because of the circumstances, though generally opposed to cloture, I shall vote for it. Will you please obtain pair for me? If unable to obtain pair, announce my stand."

Sen. Tom Connally observed: "If a telegram could authorize a vote to be put in the record, it would be a little different from our custom here."

Vandenberg said he was sure that there would be no objection to having the able and distinguished senior senator from California indicate his position upon the pending legislation.

"It was in answer to a very urgent wire from the senator from Michigan, was it not," queried the Texan.

"It was not in answer to any wire at all. It was voluntary," replied Vandenberg. "Very well," shrugged Connally. After cloture was defeated overwhelmingly, thanks chiefly to Connally's efforts, Sen. Bennett Clark of Missouri moved to take up a veterans' bill providing for the regulation of the furnishing of artificial limbs or other appliances to retired officers and enlisted men of the armed forces.

Adoption of the motion would displace the poll tax bill; to reject it would embarrass the anti-poll-taxers. Senator Connally shot his

The continued Allied success in Italy is like a torch beside the highly inflammable Balkans which Hitler dared use as a buttress for the southeastern flank of his European fortress.

Bulgaria, master arch of this always doubtful structure, is on the point of flames. From neighboring Turkey comes the report that the Fuehrer has rushed five divisions into Bulgaria from Serbia in an effort to prevent conflagration which would endanger his whole position in eastern Europe. Meanwhile mighty Russia, whose victorious armies stand on the alert at the northern gateway to the Balkans, is pressing Bulgaria to desert Hitler. Indeed, last midnight reportedly was the deadline on an ultimatum from Moscow to quit. The alternative was said to be severance of relations.

Thus far there has been no official indication of whether there was actually an ultimatum, or whether the ghost rattled his chains at midnight. The Bulgarian people are seething with rebellion against the government. Indeed travelers arriving in Turkey from Bulgaria say there has been a revolt among Bulgarian troops. However, the government can't bear the thought of giving up the thousands of square miles of Yugoslav and Greek territory which Bulgaria grabbed after Hitler overran those countries in 1941. The Bulgars didn't even participate in the fighting.

The reluctance of Turkey, although friendly to the Allies, to join them in the war, undoubtedly has encouraged Bulgaria's adherence to Hitler. Capitol Hails Forrestal Promotion

WASHINGTON—President Roosevelt hasn't made an appointment that has met with such unanimous approval on Capitol Hill as that of James Vincent Forrestal to Secretary of the Navy.

There are two very good reasons for it. First, even the President's bitterest enemies couldn't accuse him of making a political appointment in this instance. Second, few men in the government who come in close contact with the House and Senate have so favorably impressed the members as the new secretary.

Forrestal is a democrat but he has never worked at it. Friends here say that he never even wet his finger in the political puddle. He first attracted the attention of presidential advisers when the New Deal was pumping for regulation of Wall Street. Forrestal was then the comparatively youthful president of Dillon, Read & Co., one of the oldest firms on the Street. Like several other "young bloods," he adopted a policy of cooperation rather than antagonism and in hearings on the H.R., tried to give helpful advice rather than hindrance in the snaping legislation.

It was reportedly Harry Hopkins who suggested bringing Forrestal to Washington and urged his appointment as Under Secretary of the Navy. But the foes of Hopkins have never made any complaint about Forrestal.

In his years as Under Secretary, he has appeared before various committees of Congress scores of times and it was there he earned the respect of the members.

Brief and brilliant, he never groped for an answer and questions that would have antagonized some government officials always got a straightforward answer.

In one hearing recently, when the Navy was seeking one and a half billion dollars solely for new and improved bases, one House member said: "It seems to some of us Mr. Forrestal, that the public has some reason for feeling the Navy is trying to take advantage of the emergency and get while the getting is good, to establish itself for post-war during the war." Forrestal was then asked if that could be the Navy's policy.

He replied: "Well I think that is a very sensible question, human nature being what it is." And he went on to reveal what precautions he and the late Sec. Knox had taken to safeguard the taxpayers against this very thing.

Answers like that have made Forrestal popular with republicans and democrats alike. A few days before, and admiral before the committee had become indignant and frozen up at virtually the same question.

In a city where so many new persons seek the spotlight, the press secretary's honest petition for anonymity has endeared him to many. A man doesn't make enemies in Washington by letting others have the center of the stage.

He has been described and very accurately as "5-foot-9" of reticence." Asked once what his hobby was, he answered without hesitating, "Obscurity." He must have meant it, too, for of all the big guns in Washington, he has talked less for publication and made fewer "personal appearances" than any other.

CED Preparing For Post-War

By BRACK CURRY
Associated Press Staff

In 23 Texas cities Committees for Economic Development are working with business and industrial leaders to promote the highest levels of employment and production in the state's history for the post-war years.

By early summer CED committees will have completed surveys showing the number of jobs that can be provided by private industry in Texas and the Southwest, announced John R. Suman, chairman of the regional CED committee.

Texas postwar employment adjustment problem will revolve around the handling of about 700,000 people, says Suman, who is vice president of the Humble Oil and Refining company.

"The size of the postwar adjustment problem in Texas is enough to challenge every thinking businessman in all communities to come to grips with the problem without waiting until the war is over," asserts Suman.

"A few facts will illustrate the size of the postwar adjustment problem in Texas. In 1940 there were 2,140,000 persons employed in Texas. Texas has sent about 550,000 persons to the armed forces and industrial employment has increased about 150,000.

"This means that the postwar employment adjustment program will revolve around the handling of approximately 700,000 people."

The Committee for Economic Development is an independent businessman's group organized nation-wide to help commerce and industry plan for high levels of profitable production and employment in the postwar period.

Suman directs CED activities in Texas, northern Louisiana and southern New Mexico.

Dunn Mounts Success Ladder Again

By ROBBIN COONS

HOLLYWOOD—It was a long time ago, back in 1931, and there was a movie scene in which a young expectant father, broke and strapped by the depression, had a talk with his wife's doctor. He started off calmly enough and then, all of a sudden, he was crying. He was one scared boy, so much in love he was ready to sign away his own life if only the doc could make things right.

It was one of those rare movie scenes that "get" you. In its setting, a movie called "Bad Girl," it "got" millions—and made a star of James Dunn. His likeable Irish map thereafter shone in a number of vehicles, usually with his "Bad Girl" partner Sally Eilers, and for three years Jimmy Dunn rode high.

His is an old story. Youth, success, money—and a great big challenging bottle that dared you to drink it dry. Somehow, the word got around that Jimmy was a playboy. Somehow, his calls to work in pictures became fewer, less important. It looked like curtains.

But the old story had a different, happy ending for Dunn. He took hold of himself, decided the bottle couldn't be licked the way he was fighting it. He grabbed off a good role in Broadway's "Panama Hattie," which ran for 87 weeks, and demonstrated that he could plug along with the best of the Sunday School gang.

After the show closed Jimmy came back to Hollywood, landed a couple of parts in minor pictures which the right producers didn't see. Then he did some radio programs, which the right producers didn't hear. His intentions were of the best, but luck apparently wasn't with this Irish.

So Jimmy had nothing to do with the fact that "A Tree Grows in Brooklyn," that book, was on 20th Century-Fox's schedule. The studio had looked all around for a Johnny Nolan—the lead—and hadn't found one. Johnny Nolan had to have a certain quality which, as someone finally remembered, Jimmy Dunn had. "But how does he sound now?" someone else asked. And someone else remembered having heard Dunn on the radio recently.

The studio sent for a record of the broadcast, and shortly thereafter an amended Dunn was tested for the role. It's his. He's doing it at the same studio that made "Bad Girl."

"Look at these knuckles," says Jimmy, still handsome, with only six pounds to lose before he's back to his "Bad Girl" weight. "I got these bruises from knocking wood. In fact, I'm bruised all over, from pinching myself!"

Air Ace's Nerves Waver As He Is Welcomed Home

PIQUA, O., May 26 (AP)—The steel nerves that made Capt. Don S. Gentile America's ace of aces in the European theater wavered momentarily last night as fellow townsmen formally welcomed him home.

Neighbors who grumbled when he performed aerial acrobatics over their rooftops a few years ago, sang his praises as the city celebrated "Gentile Day."

Teachers who once reprimanded him for spending more time with airplanes than his lessons wrung his hand and recalled his youthful escapades with delight.

City officials who once knew him only as the son of industrious Italian immigrants acclaimed Gentile as the town's greatest hero.

Scores clamored for his autograph. Hundreds joined in a parade and thousands roared their acclaim for the flier who destroyed 30 Nazi planes—23 in the air and seven on the ground.

And it all was just too much for the 23-year-old Mustang fighter.

Tears filled his eyes as he watched his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Patsy Gentile, drink in the acclaim accorded their son by speakers at Roosevelt Stadium.

The pilot's voice faltered as he groped for words of thanks, then told a crowd of more than 20,000: "I do not consider this magnificent demonstration a personal honor. Rather it is a tribute to all the boys who are so gallantly fighting this war."

And his hand shook as he reached out to accept a gold wrist watch bearing this inscription: "From the grateful citizens of Piqua."

But Gentile's ready smile quickly returned as he heard overhead a familiar sound—the roar of a Mustang like the plane he will fly again when he returns to England at the end of his 30-day leave.

James W. Brock Succumbs Here

James Wesley Brock, 75, retired rancher and resident of Big Spring for two years, succumbed at 10:05 p. m. Thursday in a local hospital.

Funeral services are to be held at 10 a. m. Saturday in the First Christian church at San Angelo, and the body will be interred in the cemetery at Sherwood. The Rev. Henderson of the First Christian church at Sterling City will conduct the services, assisted by the Rev. W. B. Hester, pastor of the First Presbyterian church at San Angelo.

Mr. Brock is survived by his wife; two sons, Jimmy, of San Antonio, and George B., of San Antonio; three step-daughters, Mrs. A. Cramer, Seagraves, Mrs. C. T. King, Lake Charles, La., and Mrs. J. A. Wells, San Antonio; three step-sons, Cecil Weaver, Dallas, S-Sgt. Ralph L. Weaver, Sheppard Field, and T-Sgt. T. D. Weaver.

Also surviving are four brothers, three sisters, and several nephews and nieces.

The body will lie in state at the Nalley funeral home until tonight, when it will be taken overland to San Angelo.

Rain

while that for the corresponding period last year was 3.87.

Land still is "considerably drier" than last year, however, because greater moisture was in the ground last year because of rainfall the preceding fall.

Howard county has made good cotton crops on as little as 12 to 15 inches rain, the county agent said. For instance, in 1937, one of the big cotton years of the cotton, total rainfall recorded as 14.84. The county suffered drought until May, when frequent rains occurred and continued each month except during September.

The pasture problem is more likely acute than cotton prospects, he predicted. Pasture receives its greatest growth from early rains, benefitting only briefly from summer rains. The pasture problem can be overcome to some extent by planting of sudan grass, a fairly good growth of which could be obtained in six weeks, he said.

Boy Scout Pack 13 Postpones Picnic

Postponement of a picnic for Boy Scout pack 13 because of rain was announced Friday morning by W. D. Wilbanks, cub master.

Boys, their parents and others were to attend the picnic Friday night. The picnic is to be held at 6:30 p. m. next Friday at the park.

Sheep Judging To Open On Tuesday

Sheep judging in the Howard county livestock judging contests for 4-H club boys will open at 9 a. m. Tuesday at the S. L. Lockhart ranch in the northern part of the county, it was announced Friday morning.

The five high school boys from each of the communities in which contests have been conducted are to participate. Judging of other classes of livestock will be held later, possibly later that day. It was necessary to conduct sheep judging soon, because most of the sheep will be sheared within the near future, said O. P. Griffin, county agent.

The smallest known flowering plant in the world is watermeal, measuring about one thirty-second of an inch in diameter.

Here 'n There

Sunday, May 28, the Veterans of Foreign Wars will hold memorial services at the local cemetery at 7:30 p. m., honoring deceased American soldiers. The graves will be cleaned up and decorated, and the public has been cordially invited to attend.

Bob McGill entered a plea of guilty to transporting liquor in a wet area without a permit and was assessed a fine of $100 Thursday in county court.

Mrs. Grace Barnett, Mr. and Mrs. Graves Barnett and babies, and Mrs. Homer Pressall have returned to their homes at Whitt after visiting Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Crenshaw here following a visit in El Paso. Mrs. Grace Barnett and Mrs. Crenshaw are sisters and Graves Barnett is the son of Mrs. Grace Barnett.

City police (who say their new tires give them confidence to chase heavy-footed motorists) have hailed four persons into court this week on charges of speeding. Until now, said police, anybody who drove over 40 could get away from officers, who were creeping along on patched up tires. Now things have changed.

Major Harry W. Wheeler, special services and war bond officer at the Big Spring Bombardier School, was in Dallas Thursday for a one-day meeting of war bond officers of the 8th Service Command in preparation for handling the 5th War Loan drive among military personnel.

Problem Looms For Farmers In County

Another problem loomed for some Howard county farmers as the problem of sufficient moisture for cotton planting appeared re-moved.

The shortage apparently will have a shortage of tractor men. Twelve applications for tractor help have been filed at the county agent's office and no men are available for the jobs.

THE OLD JUDGE SAYS...

"Did you hear that Tom is going to be inducted into the Army next week, Judge?"

"Yes, Frank told me this morning down at the barber shop. Our town's got a lot of men in the service now, Jim. In fact, all towns have. I was just reading in the paper where there are more than 10,000,000 men away from their homes in the armed forces. And, from all reports, they're doing a grand job bringing victory closer every day."

"We folks at home have a mighty big obligation to those 10,000,000 fighting men. We've got to produce the food to keep them well fed. We've got to keep them supplied with the ammunition and equipment they need to finish their job. We've got to help the Government pay for all these supplies our men need by buying more and more War Bonds. We'll have another big chance to do that by helping to put the 5th War Loan drive over the top, Jim."

"And, in addition, we must be sure that, while they're away and can't express their opinions, we don't go voting on and deciding any things that will displease them when they come back."
