Infantry Takes Ardena; German Attacks Fail

Shells Falling On Nazi Positions 15 Miles Of Rome

By DANIEL DE LUCE WITH THE FIFTH ARMY SOUTH OF ROME, May 27 (10:30 P. M.) (AP)—Allied artillery shells were falling on German positions 15 air line miles from Rome late tonight.

Small scale enemy counter-attacks have been beaten back around Velletri. One group of Allied troops reported a company of 200 Germans were broken up and two of six armored vehicles set afire.

The infantry again became queen of the battle today. After four days in which U. S. tank forces tore gaps as deep as 12 miles through the German line, doughboys stormed from house to house in Ardena and had captured a score of prisoners by 4 p. m.

Ardena lies on a hill dominating the rugged valley where highway six is under heavy fire from American field artillery.

The Germans had attempted a counter-attack on the secondary highway between Velletri and Ardena but that American artillery was covering the Via Cassina and shells were falling on German positions 15 miles from Rome.

The Allied armies advanced steadily along the entire 80-mile active front today. American Fifth army forces forging a ring around the Pontine marshes stormed through the mountain town of Sezze, the largest town yet taken in the Allied offensive. Developing a second threat to the main German force, capture of Sezze brought the Americans squarely up against a new defense line which two German divisions have tried to establish in the Lepini hills northeast of the marshes to protect the flank of the German troops in the Liri valley; and their principal route of retreat along the Via Cassina toward Rome.

The main bodies of the two Fifth army forces, whose patrols joined earlier in the week, now were less than ten miles apart. The Germans, apparently growing desperate about the plight of their forces at the center of the front near the junction of the American Fifth and British Eighth army sectors, began withdrawing them as best they could.

The cutting of the Via Cassina—highway six—would seriously impair the German efforts to make an orderly withdrawal of the large forces still fighting in the Liri valley.

Of the 17 enemy divisions reinforced with regiments or smaller units from other divisions which the Germans have committed to action south of Rome, eight are in the line where their escape would be complicated by the cutting of the Via Cassina.

Reviewing The Big Spring —Week—

Joe Pickle

Were it not for such sensational developments in the war situation, a few small showings easily would have been the big news of the week here. While they had not contributed material relief to our water problem up to Saturday night, the light outpourings had eased the pressure on farmers and ranchers by giving planting moisture and freshening grass. And now that this essential development is out of the way, we are ready for that trash-mover, cob-floater and lake-filler.

While loss of a plane may be regretted, Big Spring rejoices in the success of four men parachuting to safety from their trainer near Tahoka last week. The city has grown to have almost as much pride in the men and their phenomenal safety record as post personnel. In a year and a half of continuous training operations, there have been but three fatalities.

However, the big news Saturday was the landing on Biak Island, shown at top of map, only 900 bombing miles from the Philippines. (AP Wirephoto).

Bombings Felt Across Channel

LONDON, Sunday, May 28 (AP)—The great Allied pre-invasion aerial offensive, which sent nearly 6,000 bombers and fighters thundering yesterday over axis Europe continued until midnight with alerts sounding in Berlin and the English shores shaking from violent explosions along the French coast.

The Folkestone area, across the narrow Strait of Dover from France, got one of its greatest joltings of the war—houses shaking, furniture bouncing and doors banging again and again from the vibrations of the cross-channel explosions. Flares and bomb explosion flashes lit the channel sky.

The attack yesterday was one of the greatest coordinated blows ever struck from bases in England and Italy as waves after waves of bombers and fighters roared over the European continent.

At least 15 important railroad junctions, five airfields, two aircraft repair factories and several railroad bridges were among the targets blasted by well over 6,000 tons of exploding steel.

Some of the attackers encountered fighter opposition while others made their raids unmolested, the U.S. Eighth Air Force said in announcing that 24 bombers and seven fighters were missing. In addition 11 U.S. medium bombers were lost in other phases of the widespread assault.

At least 40 Nazi planes were shot down in the main attacks by the fleet flying from Britain, bomber gunners claiming 13 and escorting fighters getting 36.

A possibility that the Mediterranean air force was striking into the Balkans at night also was indicated as the Budapest radio left the air before midnight.

From Britain a force of approximately 2,000 American heavy bombers and fighters struck deep into France and Germany in a six-pronged attack on Rhineland rail hubs and French aircraft factories and airfields.

At the same time fighter-escorted American "heavies" based in Italy thundered into southeastern France for the third straight day, lashing at rail installations, in heavy blows at Nîmes, Avignon and Marseille.

Between 750 and 1,000 Liberator and Fortress from Britain pounded German rail centers at Mannheim, Ludwigshafen, Saarbrücken and Karlsruhe, the Rhineland industrial city 150 miles north of Munich.

They dumped some 2,500 tons of explosives on the Ludwigshafen rail yards, at yards in southwest Germany and on aircraft engine repair plants in the French cities of Metz and Strasbourg.

The Italy-based bombers, with Lightning escort, smashed two rail yards at Marseille, enemy airbases at Salon, and Montpellier-Frejorgues, where JU-88s are based; the Nîmes rail yards in the Rhone valley; and the Avignon yards. A few enemy interceptors were met, near Nîmes, but the other bombers were bothered only by moderate flak.

Maj. Goodson Equals Record Of Gentile
LONDON, May 27 (AP)—Maj. James A. Goodson, commander of a P-51 Mustang squadron, has destroyed 15 planes in the air and 15 on the ground—equalling the mark of 30 for this theater set by Capt. Don Gentile of Piqua, Ohio.

Goodson's record was disclosed today when he was among five American airmen decorated by Lt. Gen. Carl A. Spaatz, commander of U. S. strategic air forces, at air force headquarters.

Japanese Start New Chinese Power Drive

Sino Counterattack Faring Well; Burma Push Progressing

By LEONARD MILLIMAN Associated Press War Editor Japanese war lords have launched a new offensive in central China.

The new series of attacks was reported yesterday (Saturday) by Chungking. Fighting broke out in three sectors of southern Hupeh province between Tsungyang, lying between two railroads extending south from Hamew. Both are coveted by the Japanese as interior supply lines to relieve their dwindling cargo fleets.

It's possible this is the beginning of a major offensive to sweep down the rail lines to the Japanese-held port of Canton. Chinese have predicted such a campaign would be the sequel to the recent Nipponese conquest of the trackless railways north of Hankow in Honan province. Chinese troops have recaptured part of the northern line.

Chungking reported its counter-offensive was again gaining ground, particularly in western Honan where the Nipponese have made their deepest penetration.

Over the icy mountain passes of southern China and the steaming jungles of northern Burma Allied troops cut a few more miles off the Japanese-held area flanking the Burma road.

Chinese forces pushed through a sleet storm in pursuit of enemy units that escaped their trap at the Tatungtu mountain outpost. Twelve miles to the south they beat back counterattacking Japanese reinforcements.

The American-trained Chinese 88th division captured Waring in north Burma's Magauing valley from the Nipponese conquerors of Singapore. A supply dump was seized and heavy casualties inflicted on the Japanese. Other American-led troops advanced a mile and a half up the Irrawaddy. These Allied forces are converging from the west and south on encircled Myitkina, key Japanese base already partly in American hands.

Trapped between monsoon weather and Allied forces, the crack Japanese 33rd division was reported virtually annihilated in the mud and dripping jungles of eastern India. A series of small Allied gains and defeated enemy counterattacks were reported throughout the Imphal-Kohima area.

Tools Mansfield In Lead At San Angelo

SAN ANGELO, May 27 (AP)—Troy Fort, Lovington, N. M., held a wide lead over the field in the calf-roping event at the close of the first two rodeo performances here yesterday.

Fort got his first calf in 13.8 seconds; his second, in 14.9 seconds.

Royce Sewall, Friddy, Tex., meeting Toots Mansfield, Big Spring, in matched roping, took the lead on the first two calves yesterday afternoon, but lost out last night. The two are roping two calves at each of five performances.

Reds Hammer At German Shipping

LONDON, May 28 (AP)—Preliminary to a strategically timed offensive from the far north to the Black Sea, the Russians continue to hammer at German shipping in upper waters, tonight's Soviet communiqué announcing the sinking of four more enemy transports in the Gulf of Riga and Finland.

Both the Russians and the Germans reported quiet along the long eastern front.

Moscow, in its communiqué, reported an attempted raid by 70 German planes on an objective in the Gulf of Finland had been beaten off. Intercepting Russian planes shot down 11 Nazi bombers and nine fighters in the ensuing air battle, Moscow reported, and the Germans dropped their bombs into the sea. Two Red planes failed to return.

A total of 30 German planes were claimed by the Russians during Saturday's operations.

DNB's commentator, Col. Ernst von Hammer, said "there are indications of the imminence of a big Russian offensive in the south."

A supplement to the communiqué told of local "feeler" skirmishes on various sectors of the front, notably south of Tirapol and southeast of Vitebsk.

Four Years After Dunkerque, It Is Nazis Who Prepare For Worst

LONDON, May 27 (AP)—In these last days before the June full moon Field Marshal Karl von Rundstedt's army of the west has taken up its final defensive position—from which the nazis admit they dare not budge even to avert disaster in Italy—to meet the shock of an approaching invasion in which the Germans are saying the whole course of the war will be decided this summer.

The Germans, with a nervous eye on the French channel coast and contending with the spectre of a heavy assault by Soviet Russia from the east, also have haunting fears that the Allies intend to break into Fortress Europe through Scandinavia. This is reflected in the worst wave of Nazi terror yet experienced in Norway and Denmark, according to reports from Stockholm.

The Allies today warned Europe's underground to keep off the roads when the invasion armies fight their way into the continent from the west, to take cover from bombardment, to maintain discipline and to follow the orders of their leaders implicitly.

This weekend marked the fourth anniversary of the start of that grimly heroic withdrawal of the tattered British expeditionary

Bids Submitted By Five Firms

Five contractors over the state have sent in bids to the City of Big Spring on the project for development of eight water wells which will be let Monday when the city commission convenes at the city hall at 8 p. m.

Bidders include T. E. Thompson, Big Spring; Lane-Tex Company of Houston and Dallas; People's Company of Plainview; McDonald Contractors of Amarillo, and Dean Bell of San Angelo.

The project for drilling and development of the eight wells which are to be located in section 27-28, block 30 in Glasscock county, marks the first step which is being taken by city officials for the development of a supplemental water supply.

Another contract will be let on June 7th for pumping and installation of the eight wells. Approximate cost of the project is estimated at $44,000 and work is due to begin June 5th.

At a total cost of approximately $760,000, the project for drilling and development is one of seven to be started by the city.

While the general picture in the water situation was considerably brightened by showers Thursday night, B. J. McDaniel, city manager, stated Saturday that congestion is still climbing and that people in general are using too much water. He reminded that only two feet of water was caught in Moss creek with eight inches in the Powell lake.

Fourth Term Gets More Demo Votes

By The Associated Press Connecticut and Utah democrats joined the parade by fourth term supporters yesterday (Saturday) to elevate President Roosevelt's convention delegate strength to a record-breaking total of 906 as North Carolina party members chose nominees for senator, governor and other officials.

The Connecticut democratic convention closed with the adoption of resolutions favoring a fourth term and with instructions to the state's delegation to cast its 18 votes for the president's renomination.

In Utah, the democrats heard Senator Elbert D. Thomas, who is seeking renomination, call for the president's reelection to provide an experienced American at the peace table. Thomas predicted that Gov. Thomas E. Dewey of New York would be the republican nominee.

Party leaders said there was no doubt that Utah's 19 votes would be cast for the president's renomination.

By MURLIN SPENCER ADVANCED HEADQUARTERS, New Guinea, Sunday, May 28 (AP)—Veteran American infantrymen forced a landing at Biak Island in the Schoutens yesterday against strong Japanese resistance and battled their way toward airfields that will base Allied planes for assaults on the Philippines.

Gen. Douglas MacArthur, announcing the invasion today, said the hardened Yanks stormed the southeastern beaches of the island after dawn and by nightfall had established a strong beachhead a mile east and a mile west of Bosnik.

The jungle-green-clad veterans of other New Guinea amphibious rushes on the beaches less than 900 miles from the southern Philippines after an intensive bombardment by American and Australian cruisers.

The landing itself was one of the most heavily opposed of any made by MacArthur's forces in the Southwest Pacific theater.

The Japanese, lodged in strong positions overlooking the beaches, opened up with heavy mortar and automatic weapons fire. MacArthur's communique said, however, that American losses in the operation were light.

Simultaneously with the landing enemy shore batteries carried on a long-range duel with the American and Australian cruisers and other naval craft. A headquarters spokesman said minor damage and casualties were suffered by the naval force.

Good Relations May Depend On DeGaulle Visit

LONDON, May 27 (AP)—Hopes for good relations after the war between France on the one hand and the United States and Britain on the other appeared today to hinge upon the forthcoming visit of Gen. Charles De Gaulle to London.

The present situation has convinced many in London that it is vital to reach an accord soon with the French Committee of National Liberation, not only for getting along with the French people after Germany's capitulation, but for getting their full cooperation in the march of liberation.

Delicate diplomatic relations between the French on the one hand and the British and Americans on the other, in contrast with military coordination, were not improved by Prime Minister Churchill's reference to the French committee in his foreign policy speech in common.

There has been no inclination on the part of either British or American officials to minimize the dangers of unperfected arrangements for administration of civil affairs behind the lines, and they have emphasized repeatedly the necessity to avoid the blunders of the Allied military government in Sicily and Italy.

That is the reason De Gaulle has been invited to London. It has been known for some time that the British have been willing to go farther than the Americans in extending recognition to the French committee. That is why Churchill told commonsense significantly that the invitation had been extended with the approval of President Roosevelt.

The landing at Biak places MacArthur virtually as near to the Philippines as to his main New Guinea base at Finschhafen. The Biak invasion was preceded by one of the heaviest aerial softening ever handed a Japanese New Guinea base. More than 700 tons were dropped by American Liberator bombers in incessant raids for 22 consecutive days this month.

The Biak landing marked another step in the lightning advance toward the Philippines to which MacArthur long has vowed to return.

It is a little more than a month, his forces have used a hop-skip-and-jump procedure to advance more than 800 miles up the New Guinea coast.

The April 23 invasion at Hollandia and the accompanying operation at Aitape put the Allies in one stroke some 500 miles ahead of their slow-moving ground forces below Madang, British New Guinea.

MacArthur added another 110 miles May 17-18 with the invasion of the Toem area of the Dutch New Guinea mainland and the Wakde Islands nearby.

His ground forces pushed on from Toem along the Maffin Bay shoreline toward the partially-completed Maffin airfield which they reached Wednesday. There the American advance was held up by tough Japanese resistance. The Biak invasion was carried out while the Maffin situation remained unperfected.

Blak is the larger of two islands in the Schouten group. Its three airfields will put MacArthur's fliers within 900 miles of Davao in the southern Philippines, 600 miles of the Japanese naval and air base of Palau, westernmost of the Carolines on the eastern approaches to the Philippines and 600 miles of Hainanahai, key Japanese base between New Guinea and the Philippines.

"Cover Girl" At The Ritz Co-stars Hayworth, Kelly

In writing a review of "Cover Girl," the Columbia Technicolor musical which is currently co-starring Rita Hayworth and Gene Kelly at the Ritz theatre, there seems to be just one sensible thing to do. That is to start singing, "Praise the Lord and pass the typewriting ammunition" and then add, "let the superlatives fall where they may." For "Cover Girl" is full of superlatives.

To get down to details and start at the beginning, the celluloid itself, Technicolor, has done some mighty fine things in the past but never has it been more beautiful. It is a perfect glorification for the lush diversity of sets and costumes which have been dreamed up for the sensational background of story, cast, dance and melody.

Deft Screen Play

The story, with screenplay credited to Virginia Van Upp, is all about the life and loves of a cover girl (Rita Hayworth). It is tailored to fit its stars like the proverbial glove. Rita has never been lovelier or had more sparkle and verve in her acting, more excitement in her dancing. Kelly is right there aiding and abetting her at every turn of clever plot, amusing situation and dance step. "Cover Girl" definitely establishes him as tops.

But the stars don't have it all their own way. Each member of their supporting cast fits into the proceedings with expert precision and emotion.

Lee Bowman plays a Broadway theatrical producer with all the finesse and crudity expected from one of that gentry. Phil Silvers, as the comedian in Danny Maguire's (Gene Kelly) small night club where Rusty (Rita Hayworth) is a chorine, gives both a comical and human performance. Jimmy Falkenburg, as Jimmy, the girl who has been photographed probably more than any girl in America, is her lovely and natural self. Then there is blonde and glamorous Leslie Brooks who does a no mean job as Maurine, a nasty little meanie in the chorus line with Rusty. Otto Kruger, as Coudair, the publisher of Vanity Magazine, which selects Rusty as its cover girl, and Eve Arden, as his editor, likewise are standouts. And those 15 lovelies, the Cover Girls, selected by the editors of national magazines to represent them in the picture—including Anita Colby, the most famous cover girl of them all—add more than a luscious lustre to the proceedings.

Outstanding Score

Any mention of Jerome Kern's music has been left to the last with design. He and Ira Gershwin, who is teamed with this master of melody as lyricist, most of all, perhaps, rate the superlatives which by this time are running thin off the typewriter. So just let it go with the fact that unless the ears of the audience at "Cover Girl's" first showing deceived them, this is the most outstanding score that either or both have ever had a hand in.

Always remove any unwashable buttons, buckies and shoulder pads from woolen sweaters before laundering them.

'Cowboy Canteen' Brings Corralful Of Western Joy

A western musical extravaganza reported to be a jamboree of joy is coming to the Lyric theatre Sunday and Monday. It is Columbia's "Cowboy Canteen," starring Charles Starrett, Jane Frazee, Vera Vogue, Tex Ritter and Guinn "Big Boy" Williams. Featured along with these well known players are such popular entertainers as the Mills Brothers, Jimmy Wakely and his Saddle Pals, Buck, Chickie and Buck, Roy Acuff and his Smoky Mountain Boys and Girls and the Tailor Maida. Sounds like there's going to be a million dollars worth of fun for us in this great gang of fun and music-makers.

The story is such as to create fine opportunities for these entertainers to display their talents. Charles Starrett is Steve Bradley, ranch owner. Called to the service of his country, he reluctantly leaves his place in the care of Connie Gray (Jane Frazee) and her vaudeville troupe of girls. The girls had come out to spend their vacations on the ranch, and Steve does not think much of these female dudes.

He is forced to eat his words when he comes home on leave and finds that Connie, in addition to being lovely and talented, is also a capable housekeeper and ranch hand. The plot is said to reach a high point of pistol-packed excitement when the place is turned into a canteen and the aforementioned group of star performers gather together to give the boys in nearby camps—and the picture audience also—a triple-barreled show.

Child Dies Of Polio; Two Under Treatment

McAlLEN, May 26 (AP)—One child has died in Hidalgo County in the last two weeks from infantile paralysis and two other children are being treated for that ailment, the county health officer said Friday.

Dr. Chester Brown, county health officer, posted a warning to parents to keep their children away from public gatherings for the time being.

Let's Face It" At State Is Swell Laugh Movie

The film version of the Cole Porter musical, "Let's Face It," that wowed Broadway, is now at the State theatre. The Paramount picture co-stars Bob Hope and Betty Hutton, the happiest comedy combination seen in a long time.

The two stars caper and cavort in this saga of a soldier-boy's off-duty dilemmas in a way to make you forget everything but the good time you are having. There's music in the right places—some of the Cole Porter stage show tunes and one original, written by Sammy Cahn and Julie Styne, called "Who Did I Did! Yes, I Did!" The Hope gags are there aplenty; in addition some high-kicking Hutton contributions, plus the comedy talents of Dona Drake, Cully Richards, Eve Arden, ZaSu Pitts, Marjorie Weaver and Raymond Walburn.

The supporting cast is an excellent one and special mention must be made of the comedy talents of Eve Arden, ZaSu Pitts and Phyllis Povah who are very funny as romance-hungry wives. Miss Arden played the same part in the stage version.

"Let's Face It" is funny stuff from the moment you see Bob drive up to the back door of a reducing farm, his Army jeep loaded with sweetmeats for sale to the waiting hungry Hannahs, Betty Hutton, his fiancée, runs the farm, with a lot less trouble than she has running Hope.

At the farm Bob meets three middle-aged, discontented wives who want to make their husbands jealous. They offer him three hundred dollars if he and two of his friends will cooperate with time toward that end. Bob can't say "no" to three hundred dollars, worse luck for him!

What follows as a result is tops in riotous entertainment. There's something happening every minute and all of it is hilarious. So let's face it, folks—"Let's Face It" is well worth seeing!

Let's Face It—Betty Hutton, Bob Hope and ZaSu Pitts team for a laugh-fest in "Let's Face It," comedy on Army life now playing at the State.

Stockmen Would Give "Kingdom For A Man"

Right now they would give their "kingdom" for a man—any sort of a pair of broad shoulders.

Shearing season is overwhelming sheepmen with no available help. School has been in the throes of closing and students couldn't take off to help parents. Neighbors helped when they weren't absolutely swamped at home. Oilfield workers, many of whom have been putting in overtime, assisted in rounding up sheep and shearing around pens.

Despite the slowness of the job, Mexican shearers seem to be doing a better job this year—maybe due to the 20 cents per head for ewes and 60 cents for bucks. This is a far cry from the old days when the fee was 10 cents a head and shearers were fighting at the pens to get another animal to get enough to pile up a seasonal nest egg. In pre-war years the average crew handled from 1,000 to 1,200 head a day and this year the rate is about 300.

One crew captain said in his 20 years experience he has never had such trouble getting help. He is down to three shearers and has to work himself along side of his 14-year old son. His 15-year old daughter ties wool and a nine-year-old son picks it up. All the while, his wife (for the first time) has had to cook for the crew.

Slowness of the work is working some difficulties, particularly for large operators because if all ewes in a given pasture are not sheared the same day, lambs are due to dogie. As hard pressed for time as operators are, they would love to be interrupted by a good rain.

To mend rips and tears in woolen clothing sew with ravelings pulled from the seams or at the hems.

OWI Says Enemy, Realizing War Lost, Prepares For Another Try

By JAMES MARLOW and GEORGE ZIELKE
WASHINGTON, May 26 (AP)—The Office of War Information reports that the Germans and Japanese, realizing this war is lost, are "trying to spoil our victory x x x and prepare for another try at total war against us." The agency particularly emphasizes Nazi propaganda efforts in Turkey. Prime Minister Churchill said Wednesday the United Nations have lost hope of winning Turkey as an ally after pouring arms worth 80 million dollars into that country. Whether axis activities are diabolically long-range, as OWI thinks, or are merely intended to keep Europe's neutrals out of this war while Germany tries to split the Allies, this much is true: No European neutral has entered the war on the side of the United Nations.

The Germans are using tactics that paid off before this war. "Tourists" who swarmed into Danzig, the Sudetenland and the Polish border regions in the 1930's are now reappearing in one form or another in Scandinavia, Spain, Portugal and Turkey. The earlier "tourists" were to pave the way for "victorious German arms" but the present crop is ordered to "poison the minds of neutrals against us so that Germany may prepare a springboard for another try."

Nazi propaganda floods the neutral countries of Europe with radio broadcasts, pamphlets, leaflets, news-service material, newspaper subsidies and so on. This is in addition to Nazi efforts to keep its satellites in line.

In the Far East the Japanese duplicate the German efforts in the west, trying to turn the Chinese and the peoples of India against America and the United Nations.

OWI, of course, doesn't go into detail on its own activities to counteract axis propaganda.

Dr. Roy Ewing Vale Named Moderator

CHICAGO, May 27 (AP)—The Rev. Dr. Roy Ewing Vale, 59 year old Indianapolis minister, is the new moderator of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian church in the United States of America.

Dr. Vale's election came yesterday at the opening of the 156th Annual General Assembly.

The new moderator, a member of the church's permanent judicial commission, declined to comment on the proposed merger of the Presbyterian and Protestant Episcopal churches. Dr. Vale said he favored the unity of all the nation's Presbyterian churches, including the Southern Presbyterians (The Presbyterian Church in the United States), the United Presbyterians and some 10 other divisions.

Church spokesmen said no decisive action was expected on the proposed merger at the general assembly.

Band Leader's Agreement Will Be Reconsidered

LOS ANGELES, May 27 (AP)—A re-consideration of Harry James' agreement to pay his divorced wife $6,000 a year support has been asked in a suit filed by the band leader, now wed to actress Betty Grable.

James petitioned for a declaration of his rights in connection with his present financial status. He and Mrs. Louise James were divorced two years ago.

Condition Of Quads Still Causes Anxiety

LONDON, May 27 (AP)—The condition of Daisy and William, two of the three surviving quadruplets born to Mrs. Daisy Moxham on May 22, still was causing anxiety today. George, smallest of the quads, died Thursday night.

The condition of Brian, who topped all the quads with a birth weight of 3 pounds 10 1-2 ounces, and his mother, wife of an RAF flying officer, was satisfactory.

After you have all the use out of fats and drippings, save them for Uncle Sam. He can use them. Select a large can, place a piece of cheese-cloth or thin muslin over the top. Hold it in place with rubber band or white cord. Heat the fat and pour through the cloth to clarify. Store the fat in refrigerator, when the can is filled take it to your food dealer and he will pay you a little for the fat and then send it off for war work (making into explosives.)

Poultrymen Charged With Black Market LITTLE ROCK, Ark., May 27 (AP)—The Office of Price Administration (OPA) announced here Friday that criminal warrants had been issued in federal court at Fort Smith against 87 defendants charged with participating in "black market" poultry operations. Issuance of the warrants was announced by John Lofton, Jr., attorney for the OPA enforcement division, who said that the complaints alleged overcharges of nearly $1,000,000 to consumers. Lofton said the filing of charges climaxed weeks of investigation of the northwest Arkansas poultry industry, principally at Fayetteville, Bentonville, Rogers, Springdale, Siloam Springs, Gentry and Gavette. Names of the defendants were withheld pending serving of the warrants. Lofton said many of those charged were Arkansas producers and dealers and that others included buyers and truck operators from St. Louis, New Orleans, Cincinnati, Oklahoma City, Dallas, Fort Worth, Kansas City and Tulsa.

WORLD'S DEEPEST EXPLORATION REPORTED TAKING OIL TEST

By JOHN B. BREWER
SAN ANGELO, May 27—Attention in West Texas oil development at the week's close was directed largely to the world's deepest test, Phillips Petroleum Co.'s No. 1 Ada C. Price, Pecos county "tight" wildcat, reported testing through tubing with total depth 15,279 feet, and two wildcats in Andrews county scheduled to test deep zones.

a new world's depth record is passing 15,004 feet.
Humble No. 1 O. W. Williams, Pecos' latest strike, recovered 620 feet, or approximately 4 1-2 barrels, of 35.4 gravity oil on a 62-minute drillstem test of the Yates sand from 2,531-84 feet, and was estimated unofficially to be good, naturally, for 150 barrels daily.

Lubbock Woman Is Killed In Wreck

COALGATE, Okla., May 26 (AP)—Mrs. Estelle B. Tuttle, 20-year-old bride of a fighter pilot from the South Pacific front, died at 6:30 a. m. today in a hospital at Holdenville of injuries suffered in a car crash north of here at 2 a. m. in which her husband, Capt. Ralph F. Tuttle, was injured, the highway patrol reported.

Mrs. Tuttle, who was from Lubbock, Tex., apparently dozed off at the wheel, said trooper Leonard Kelson, because there were tire marks for 125 feet on the left side of the road before the car struck a bridge. She suffered a skull fracture and other injuries. Tuttle, 23 of Coffeyville, Kas., was napping in the front seat on the drive toward Strother Field, Kas., from Galveston, Texas, where he had been stationed, said Kelson. He suffered a severe scalp cut, a nose fracture and a sprained right ankle, the patrol reported, and will recover.

Migratory Workers To Leave This Country

MEXICO CITY, May 26 (AP)—No less than 30,000 Mexican migratory workers will leave this country for the United States during the next three weeks, said high officials of the labor ministry yesterday. They will complete the quota of 75,000 destined to work on North American farms in international agreement as part of Mexico's contribution to the war effort.

These laborers are being contracted not only in the federal district but also in the states of Jalisco, Sacatecas, Guanajuato and Michoacan. Before being signed up they must pass a strict physical examination, and their contract covers only a period of six months since the U. S. desires that they be constantly rotated.

Planting Rush Follows After General Shower

Almost every farmer in Howard county will plant this week, as a result of rains Thursday night and Friday which covered most of the county, said O. P. Griffin, county agent.

The only portion of the county from which report had been received of insufficient rain for planting was a strip including about nine or 10 sections and beginning approximately five miles west of Fairview, said Griffin. About a dozen farms are included in the area.

Otherwise, rain appeared general throughout the county with precipitation ranging from fractions less than half an inch to one and one-half inches. That moisture, added to rainfall received last weekend, was sufficient for seasoning for cotton planting.

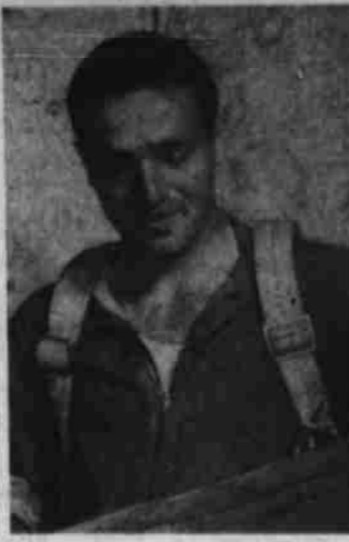

Rain ceased in most of the county early Friday afternoon. Only .02 inch additional precipitation was recorded at the weather station near Big Spring, increasing the total for Thursday night and Friday to .45 inch. Vincent in the northeast part of the county reported a "good rain" Friday night.

Most of the farmers will plant cotton, rushing to get seed in the ground because of lateness of the season. A few, already have planted cotton and may plant feed crops. Grain sorghums may be planted successfully several weeks later, however.

A labor problem is expected, but boys now free from school for summer vacations will help, said Griffin. Twenty-five additional tractor men will meet the demand for planting and cultivation, he estimated.

Livestock

FORT WORTH, May 27 (AP)—Cattle 200; calves 75; steady; quality mostly medium and low grades; no mature steers; few medium and low grade yearlings 7-12.50; butcher cows 8.25 - 10; a few fat calves 8.50 - 12.75; stocker and feeders negligible, all held over for Monday's market. Hogs 350; mostly steady on all weights with top 13.55 for good to choice 180-270 pound averages. Good 175 light weights 12.00; sows 9.75 - 10. Sheep 3,000; good shorn ewes with No. 1 pelts 6.00, or 25 cents lower; bids unevenly lower on medium grade shorn lambs. Large percent of receipts consisted of common and medium stocker lambs and were unsold.

Returns: R. H. Weaver, an in the air corps, has returned to his base at Garden City, Kas., after spending a leave with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. Weaver. Lt. Weaver received his commission March 12 at Alee field at Victoria and now is an instructor in basic training. He is a 1941 graduate of Big Spring High school.

Stock Market Records Gains

NEW YORK, May 27 (AP)—The stock market ended another recovery week with merchandising and specialty issues bid up to 1 to 3 or more points while many leaders either did nothing or slipped into the minus column.

Throughout the six sessions there was a revival of investment demand based mainly on earnings dividends, cheering war news and the belief invasion selling is out of the way.

The list, on balance, suffered a slight dip Monday, first since May 12. It was the only stumble of the week and, with pivots out in front, bidding was urgent enough Wednesday to bring the first million-share aggregate since April 18.

The Associated Press 60-stock average was up .1 of a point Saturday and on the week held a net gain of .6 at 52.9, which equalled the peak of last March 22. Stale out-of-town orders put turnover at 415,300 shares, largest for a Saturday since March 25. It compared with 261,570 a week ago. Many local customers were away for a lengthy holiday as principal exchanges will recess Tuesday for Memorial Day.

Bonds were uneven. In the curb Standard Cap & Seal issues tilted forward along with Derby Oil and Cuban Atlantic Sugar.

R. Cauble Heads Howard County Breeders Ass'n

Rexie Cauble was named president of the Howard County Breeders association at a meeting of registered Hereford breeders at the chamber of commerce office Saturday afternoon.

Other officers for the organization include E. W. Lomax, vice president, and Leland Wallace, secretary and treasurer.

A committee which was named to meet with J. H. Greene for the purpose of writing a constitution and by-laws, included C. A. Walker, chairman; Tom Roden, Morgan Coates, Edward Simpson, Chester Jones.

Albert S. Darby called the meeting to order and Akin Simpson offered the use of the county barn for exhibit purposes.

June 12th, the group will be guests of chamber of commerce directors at their monthly luncheon, and will convene in the afternoon for reports from the constitution committee.

Plans are to have a meeting on June 24th of all organizers of the association with any others in the county who are interested in membership. Steps were taken to get Jack Frost, president of the Texas Breeders association, as guest speaker for the meeting.

Hereford breeders attending the initial meeting were E. W. Lomax, Leland Wallace, Sam Buchanan, Morgan Coates, C. A. Walker, Ed-

Mystery Is Solved

PHILADELPHIA, May 26 (AP)—The baffling mystery murder of a 73-year-old man who apparently had not an enemy in the world appeared solved Friday after police announced that a 20-year-old youth admitted the fatal stabbing.

Detective William Engle of the homicide squad said last night inat Alfred Miller, a former close friend of the victim, confessed driving a small-bladed penknife thirty times into the body of William Harten, retired gas works employee, found slain in his hotel room May 6.

Engel said the motive for the attack — "one of the most vicious murders" in local history — was a quarrel over personal relations between the six-foot, 300-pound victim and Miller, who was formerly an elevator operator in the hotel in which Harten lived. Miller was booked on a charge of homicide.

Twilight Tear, Best Of Fillies, Belmont Winner

NEW YORK, May 27 (AP)—It was the same old story at Belmont Park today as Twilight Tear, her string of victories to seven straight and once again proved that she is the queen of the three-year-old fillies.

Favorite at the prohibitive odds of 1-10, the bay daughter of Bull Lea from Warren Wright's Calumet Farm soundly whipped five other fillies of her age in the mile and three-eighths of the American Coaching Club Oaks before a crowd of 34,475 that produced several unusual angles in the wagering.

The total bet on the race was $466,547, unusual in view of the fact that one horse was such a stand-out. The show pool of $186,774, of which $189,283 was wagered on the Calumet filly, was larger than the win pool of $170,857 and cost the management $14,971.95 since the law requires that 10 cents be returned on each $1 invested.

Twilight's support in the win bet totaled $126,442.

As the result of her backing the winner paid $2.30 for 2 to win and $2.30 to place while giving the show players the minimum of $2.10.

The race itself was Twilight Tear from the start to the finish. Conn McCreary broke the bay filly smartly and she was on the front end all the way, pulling away in the stretch to win by five lengths. Dare Me from Mrs. Dodge Sloane's Brookmeade stable was second, four lengths in advance of Plucky Maud from the Lazy F ranch.

Her time of 2:21 was not sensational in comparison with Man O'War's track record of 2:14 1-5 but she won under wraps.

Indians Win In 12

CLEVELAND, May 27 (AP)—Outfielder Jeff Heath, batting as a pinch-hitter, connected for a single in the 12th inning today to score Roy Cullenbine and give the Cleveland Indians a 5 to 4 victory over the Washington Senators. It was the Tribe's lone win in the four-game series.

Browns Grab Series

ST. LOUIS, May 27 (AP)—The St. Louis Browns captured the final game of a four-game series from the Boston Red Sox today 4 to 2. The Browns beat Boston three of the four games to win their first series since the first week in May. Jack Jakucki, St. Louis rookie, limited the Red Sox to four hits.

Uninstructed Unit Leaders Think Rift Can't Be Bridged

PI UNINSTRUCTED . . . 14 . . .
DALLAS, May 27 (AP)—Uninstructed delegation leaders E. R. Germany and Mrs. P. R. Carlton declared today that the breach between the regular democratic convention and the rump convention is too wide to be bridged.

They issued a statement in which they declared they could not agree that the differences "can be reconciled."

Myron Black, Marshall, national committeeman from Texas, in a press conference at Austin, Thursday said he had not "repudiated" either faction and that he was doing all he could to bring them together.

Germany is a former chairman of the Texas democratic executive committee and Mrs. Carlton is a member of that committee.

NEW YORK, May 27 (AP)—The Cincinnati Reds today sent veteran pitcher Ray Starr to the Pittsburgh Pirates on waivers.

Starr has seen little activity because of a sore arm.

Waco Youth Drowns In Abilene Pool

ABILENE, May 27 (AP)—Grady Fulbright Jr., 23-year-old resident of Waco, died in the American Legion swimming pool here today.

Fulbright fell from the diving board and was under water about a minute before he was resuscitated. Artificial respiration failed to revive him and a physician said it was not determined whether he was drowned or death was from injury received in the fall.

Fulbright is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Grady Fulbright of Waco.

Egg Price Support Pegged At 27 Cents

CHICAGO, May 27 (AP)—Restating the government's egg support program, H. O. Pollock, mid-west regional director of food distribution for the War Food Administration, today announced farm producers will receive 27 cents a dozen for eggs destined for sale to the government. The new price is a one cent increase over March and April.

Ninth Air Force Sets New Record

LONDON, May 27 (AP)—During the week of steady hammering against Hitler's Europe the U.S. Ninth Air Force bombers flew 1,950 sorties and fighters made 4,800, it was announced tonight.

The figure for fighters not only is a record for the Ninth Air Force, but probably stands as the greatest number of fighters any air force ever has thrown against an enemy in a similar period.

Marauders and Havocs of the Ninth Air Force also made this week their biggest by making two attacks today—their 12th and 13th operations in nine days. Their targets were railway bridges and yards in France.

Spec Goldman and Todd To Tangle

DALLAS, May 27 (AP)—David (Spec) Goldman and lanky Harry Todd, both Dallas golfers, will match shots over the Glen Lakes Country club tomorrow in the 36-hole championship match of the first annual Glen Lakes-Dallas Athletic Club amateur invitation golf tournament.

Todd advanced to the finals today at the expense of Spec's younger brother, Jimmy, by a 5 and 3 count. In the morning round match he put out E. J. Cannon III, 5 and 4. Goldman reached the finals with sub-par golf over a muddy course, eliminating Jack Timan, navy golfer from Galveston, 6 and 5.

Northern Ordnance Locates Second Borden Deep Wildcat

Northern Ordnance, Inc. prepared Saturday to move rotary rig from its No. 1 Clayton & Johnson deep wildcat in south central Borden county to the location for the No. 1-A. A. M. Clayton, a proposed 9,600-foot wildcat.

The second test is two miles northwest of the first venture, which was shutdown temporarily after logging shows at broken intervals over the last 300 feet, in drilling to 6,000 feet, nine feet below contract depth. The second test is 330 feet from the south and 2,330 feet from the east line of section 15-32-4n, T&P.

In western Howard county attention was focussed on the John B. Hawley, Jr., No. 1 Gular estate, section 2, B&C, which cleaned out after a second shot with 790 quarts from 3,150 to 3,225 feet. It previously had been shot with 480 quarts from the same depths. The No. 2 Gular estate, two miles to the north and 2,388 feet from the west and 1,663 feet from the north lines of section 5, B&C, was drilling at 2,835 feet in anhydrite.

John B. Hawley, Jr., No. 1 Bruce Fraser, 1,650 feet from the north and 2,310 feet from the east line of section 7-33-1s, T&P, went on pump Saturday after an initial jar with 470 quarts from 3,138-3,214 and a second shot with 810 from 3,135 to 3,216 feet.

A mile to the north, the John B. Hawley, Jr., No. 1 Allison, section 6-33-1s, T&P, was cleaning out at 3,115 after a 480 quart shot. Cosden and Guierie No. 1 Pauline Allen, discovery well in the Vincent area, was cleaning out at 4,016 feet after a 220-quart shot from 4,050 to 4,125 feet, plugged back depth. It is due to go on test this week.

Location is 330 feet out of the southwest corner of section 17-9 2s, L&Vaca.

In the extreme eastern part of Howard county Ray Oil Co. No. 3-B Read, in the northeastern quarter of section 48-30-1s, T&P, set five-inch string at 2,600 feet after topping pay at 2,768 feet and bottoming at 2,835 in lime. In the southeastern quarter of the same section Cosden No. 3-B Read set seven-inch string at 2,625 feet.

Cards Decision Giants, 6-4

NEW YORK, May 27 (AP)—In a game enlivened by four home runs, the St. Louis Cardinals defeated the New York Giants in the opening contest of a four-game series, 6-4, before 8,582 paying customers, today.

The Giants out-hit the Red Birds, 12-9, but two homers by Kurovski and another by Martin was too much for the New Yorkers. Ott slammed out a home run for the Giants and Jurgens connected for a triple. The game produced five double plays, four of them by the Cards.

BOSTON, May 27 (AP)—Bill Schuster's double which scuzzed Don Johnson from second in the ninth inning enabled the Chicago Cubs to defeat the Boston Braves 3 to 2 today for their seventh straight victory.

BROOKLYN, May 27 (AP)—Red Heuser limited Brooklyn to six hits as Cincinnati blanked the Dodgers 2-0 today. The Reds scored in the eighth and ninth innings.

Bid Is Declined For Discrimination Probe

MEXICO CITY, May 27 (AP)—Senator Ramiro Tames said today William Prescott Allen, publisher of the Laredo, Tex., Times, had telephoned him an invitation to come to Laredo to investigate reported cases of discrimination against Mexicans. However, the senator said, he had to refuse the invitation.

He said Allen offered to pay all his expenses and give him every facility to investigate because he said this would prove to Senator Tames that no discrimination exists.

Curry Named State Funeral Director

L. Wiley Curry of Eberley-Curry Funeral home of Big Spring was elected a member of the Texas State Board of Funeral Directors at the annual convention of Texas Funeral Directors Tuesday and Wednesday in San Antonio.

Curry, one of three West Texans on the board, has lived in Big Spring since Aug. 1, 1943, when he purchased an interest in Eberley Funeral home. Before moving here, he had been associated with Fulton Funeral home at Kansas City and for the last five years had owned and operated Curry Funeral home at Crosbyton.

He was elected to a two-year term on the state board.

Pete Elliott of Abilene is president of the board and Clyde Brannon of Lamesa is a member of the board of embalming.

Track Tourney Is Called Off

DALLAS, May 27 (AP)—A water-soaked field forced cancellation of the Southwestern AAU track and field meet here today but there was a possibility it would be reset for next week end.

The event had been scheduled for last night; then was rescheduled for 3 p. m. today as rains continued. Then Director P. C. Cobb said at noon that efforts to pump water off the Dal-Hill stadium field to ready it for the meet had been unavailing.

Graham Pierce, Southwestern AAU president, said there was a possibility that the meet would be held next week end if a sufficient number of entries could return, but that no definite announcement would be made before Monday about the resetting.

Hard Luck Thwarts Chance of Equalling Jesse Owens' Mark

CHAMPAIGNE, Ill., May 27 (AP)—Claude "Buddy" Young of Illinois, trying for his fourth victory of the day—a feat which would have equaled Jesse Owens' Western conference sweep in 1935—tripped over the last barrier in the 220-yard low hurdles race today and fell on a water-flooded track to miss his goal in the meet.

In a heavy downpour which transformed the cinder lane into a river, Illinois' stubby, 15-year-old freshman stumbled and plowed on his stomach through the water after leading Michigan's Jack Martin, the eventual winner, by about 30 feet.

Michigan's well-balanced team, led by the Hume twins, Bob and Ross, won its seventh Western conference outdoor championship in the last decade, compiling 70 points to Illinois 58 1-10. Purdue was third with 31.

Body May Be That Of Missing Woman

DURHAM, N. C., May 27 (AP)—The nude and deteriorated body of an elderly woman was dragged from the bottom of Eastwood lake this afternoon and Police Chief H. E. King of Durham said he believed it to be that of Mrs. Edward M. Jewett, rich Beaverville, Mo., woman who has been mysteriously missing since May 10.

Positive identification, King said, may be difficult because of the condition of the body, which had 12 to 14 stab wounds in the back. Deputy Sheriff E. J. Belvin of Durham county estimated the body had been in the water at least a week.

The discovery was made by a professional diver, E. H. Butler of Newport News, Va., after a three-day search and came exactly a week after Mrs. Jewett's 74-year-old grandson, Edward Jewett Martin, was arrested on an open charge.

The body, tied by wire and rope fastened to the ankles, wrists and waist, was weighted down by heavy cinder blocks.

Last Thursday the Durham county grand jury indicted the young Charlotte chemist on a charge of murder after a deposit box rented in Martin's name was found to contain three diamond rings and a diamond studded brooch.

Romans 16:19, 20 is the Golden Text, Deut. 18:9, 10 the Bible citation, and page 73 the citation from Mary Baker Eddy's text.

All Quiet On The Grid Rule Front

NEW YORK, May 27 (AP)—There was so little football talk in the lobby of the hotel where the National Gridiron Coach's association starts its first war-time study of the rules tomorrow that a quarterback rehearsing signals would have been mistaken for a tax expert.

The two-day session gets under way tomorrow with a report on football in various sectors. Most of the fireworks, however, is reserved for Monday when the mappers survey the playing code.

Although the National Collegiate association rules group, has decreed there will be no changes for the duration of the war, there has been agitation for revisions.

"Generally speaking," said Lou Little of Columbia today, "there are five items the coaches would like to have the rules committee to consider.

"First, is the out of bounds kickoff, then the forward pass behind the line of scrimmage, permission to run a fumbled ball, a less severe penalty of a forward-lateral pass if the lateral is also tossed forward and elimination of the clock-stopping by substitutions."

Big Ten coaches met at Chicago last Thursday and reached a gentlemen's agreement to do away with the out-of-bounds kickoffs but even that wasn't being discussed by early arrivals. Reports were that the coaches, meeting here at the call of their president, Lt. Comdr. Matty Bell of the Georgia Pre-Flight School, might do likewise.

The coaches have no power to change the code, being only able to suggest changes to the NCAA rules committee. The latter organization, however, lists four coaches among its members and three of them—Fritz Crisler of Michigan, Bill Alexander of Michigan Tech and Dana Bible of Texas—are expected here.

Witness Says Slain Doctor Packed Pistol

WASHINGTON, May 27 (AP)—Testimony that Dr. John E. Lind had been seen with a gun in a large envelope on three occasions in 1939 was introduced today by counsel-for Robert I. Miller, accused of murdering the doctor. Shortly before the defense rested its case, Archie K. Shipe, an attorney and surprise witness, testified that in professional contacts with Dr. Lind five years ago he had seen the doctor with a gun which resembled one found in an envelope in Lind's car Feb. 21 when he was shot and killed on a downtown street. Dr. Watson W. Eldridge, chief of the medical and surgical service at St. Elizabeth's Hospital, testified as a rebuttal witness for the prosecution that he had had three conversations with Miller, the defendant's wife and third figure in the love triangle slaying.

Money Bill Is Used As Slap At Nest-Featherers

WASHINGTON, May 27 (AP)—The third major money bill reported in less than a week—a $1,104,972,814 supply measure for independent offices—was used by the house appropriations committee today as the medium for a verbal slap at federal employees who "propagandize" congress for money. Directing its criticism at the children's bureau and the office of education, the committee referred to a "considerable amount of correspondence" in connection with the children's bureau and to the "particularly aggressive" attitude of the office of education with respect to funds. "The times of government employees should not be utilized in propagandizing the congress in behalf of appropriations from which they might expect to benefit," the committee said. Consideration of the bill will start Monday in the house, which this week disposed quickly of appropriation measures for the District of Columbia government and 17 miscellaneous home-front war agencies. More than half the money in the bill was allotted to the federal security agency, which receives $629,224,185, a reduction of $58,621,115 from budget estimates. For the labor department the bill carried $67,950,350, a $2,184,850 cut from the budget; for the employees compensation commission, $15,410,000, the amount requested; for the National Labor Relations Board, $2,523,450, a cut of $625,550; for the National Mediation Board, $607,000, a $46,500 reduction, for the railroad retirement board, the $311,216,000 requested in the budget, and for the War Manpower Commission, $6,941,823, a cut of $8,006,371.

Allied Leaders Plan To Meet

WASHINGTON, May 27 (AP)—President Roosevelt's expressed desire to get a closer look at the war, coupled with a possibility that United Nations leaders might start joint conversations soon on a postwar security organization, was believed tonight to underlie his casual remark that he expects to see Prime Minister Churchill soon.
There are several factors that might impel the president to make a trip abroad in the not too distant future. Many informed persons familiar with the president's deep preoccupation with military affairs believe he would like to get nearer to the scene of action.
Another factor, although one that is viewed here as of secondary consideration, is the forthcoming visit to London of Gen. Charles De Gaulle, the French leader, for conferences with Churchill.
Beyond these is another consideration which diplomats regard as of growing importance. That is the possibility of starting work jointly among the leading United Nations on creation of a postwar setup.
Mr. Roosevelt told reporters yesterday that a first rough draft already has been drawn up, based on American ideas and on the interchange of opinions with British, Chinese and Russian officials in the Allied conferences at Casablanca, Cairo and Teheran. This draft, however, is a purely American affair.

Highway association meeting. Big Spring will be well represented as will many other Texas towns, indicating a proper interest in promoting this north-south route. Promotion of travel over it and our other transcontinental highway can mean considerable to this community.
George Perry's "Texas, a World Within Itself," might be rewritten to cover Texas democrats with a title something like this: "Texas democrats, a brand within himself." No one doubts it after the state convention last week.
City officials and chamber of commerce directors acted with foresight last week in deciding to submit briefs in Washington pre-hearing June 7 when federal and local airline applications (half a dozen propose to touch here) will be held. One never can tell what will turn up, and it pays to stay awake.

Allied Airmen Would Be Left To Mercy Of Nazi Civilians

STOCKHOLM, May 27 (AP)—German Propaganda Minister Paul Joseph Goebbels, writing in the Nazi newspaper Volkischer Beobachter, declared today that Allied airmen bailing out over Germany no longer would have Nazi police and military protection against German civilians.
Aftenbladet's Berlin correspondent wrote that Goebbels' article could be interpreted as meaning that "American airmen who save themselves by parachute can consider themselves at the mercy of the people who find them, under the old rule, 'eyes for eyes and teeth for teeth'."
"It doesn't seem possible for us any more to interpose German police and the military against the German people when they are treating child killers as they deserve," Goebbels' article said.
The Goebbels article referred to recent widespread fighter sweeps deep in Germany which, he asserted, were not aimed at military objectives but rather at civilians working in fields and women and children riding on trains.

MERCHANT SKIPPER KILLED IN SHOT EXCHANGE WITH GUNNERS

WASHINGTON, May 27 (AP)—The Navy reported today that Karl J. Larsen, captain of the S.S. Thomas J. Walsh was shot to death April 19 in an exchange of shots with members of the naval gun crew aboard his merchant vessel.
The shooting occurred in a South Pacific port under naval jurisdiction where the Navy said it had become necessary to confine Larsen to his quarters aboard ship. Larsen was from New York City.
The Navy said that the merchant vessel has returned to a west coast port and that a thorough investigation of the shooting is being made.
The Navy reported the death of Larsen in this statement: "Testimony of naval and merchant marine personnel aboard the ship indicates that, while the S.S. Thomas J. Walsh was anchored in a South Pacific port, it became necessary to confine Capt. Larsen to his quarters aboard ship, with four armed guard crew members stationed outside. At about 2 o'clock on the morning of the 19th, according to this testimony, Capt. Larsen emerged from his quarters and opened fire with a revolver on the armed guard crew men, wounding one of them. The crew men returned the fire and Capt. Larsen was fatally wounded."

Hurry! Hurry!

Pay Paving Accounts Promptly and Save

TUESDAY EVENING IS DEADLINE

Several years ago, with the aid of the Works Progress Administration, the city financed an extensive paving program. Although many of these accounts have not been reduced or paid in full, the city has been most lenient. It is making one last generous offer which surely none involved can afford to let pass.

Pay Now! Save Interest

All such paving accounts paid not late than Tuesday (May 31) will be accepted interest free! That means all interest—even if for several years. WARNING! AFTER TUESDAY, ALL ACCUMULATED INTEREST COSTS WILL BE ATTACHED TO THE ACCOUNT. THERE CAN BE NO EXTENSION OF TIME. (Mail your check before midnight Tuesday if you can't pay in person).

We Still Must Conserve

Decisions are important things, but not infrequently the interim between the decision and its results can be quite as important.

This seems to be the case with our water problem. Not long ago the people of Big Spring were confronted with a decision for providing more water. They did this at a ratio of about 20 to one, showing a comparative unanimity of purpose.

Since that time commendable progress has been made toward this project, but it must be remembered that the entire job cannot be completed before Sept. 1, according to most optimistic estimates.

In the meantime, nothing has happened to improve our critical water situation. It is possible that hard showers might come any day now to replenish the lake supply, but at this writing this condition has not been fulfilled. Our wells, still being forced to bear the entire load, are being punished.

It all adds up to this: We must conserve water in every way possible until the new project is completed or until the city announces that we have been successful in catching a surface supply. We hope the latter possibility prevails for it is our only hope of quick relief.

It's Over—But Ahead

The city's clean-up campaign may be officially over, but the real need of it is just ahead. This is not to say that much good has already been done, but rather to say that the growing season is still ahead.

By keeping these cleared constantly away, by attending to other matters around the place, it will not only add to our community appearance but cut down on flies and mosquitoes. This would be a big contribution to our public health.

Regardless of how small some jazz orchestras are they sound like tin plates.

Politicians who go from side to side don't make much speed forward.

Knowing the German and Jap diplomats, if Ireland continues to let them stick around, our heart goes pitty-pat!

Black market prices are high up because some people are low down.

People do a poor job of growing old unless they take their time at it.

When the liquor price goes up more people will go around with a rye face—or will they?

The largest single opium haul in the city's history was made in Washington. But the most important wartime dope still will come from the capital.

You can be doubly proud of being a red-blooded American if you give some of it to the Red Cross.

It's odd that insomnia never troubles a person when it's time to get up.

Hollywood—Bomb Needed To Jar A loose Winner

By ROBBIN COONS HOLLYWOOD—Would you like to know how to fix a time bomb so that its explosion will reverberate from Studio City to Winger, N. D., and way down deep in the heart of Yarmouth, Ia., and maybe jar loose an Academy Award for you?

Or maybe you'd like to know how to compose a movie song, or perch a cockatoo on a chapeau for Hedy Lamarr, or (gather around close, girls) learn to act like Jennifer Jones?

In this space, starting Monday, I'm going to bring you the Academy Award winners of 1944 to let them tell you how they did it. The only thing they won't tell you is how to get a job in the movies. Unfortunately, they don't give Oscars to casting directors.

Or do casting directors know how to get jobs in the movies? (Must ask one sometime.)

The way the Oscar derby was run this year, no one had a chance to say anything. The winners just gushed and blushed and otherwise acted pleased and forgot the little speeches they had memorized and it's a good thing they did because everyone wanted to listen to Bob Hope anyway.

Supposing Master of Ceremonies Hope had called on, let us say, Michael Curtiz, who got a nod for directing "Casablanca." Could he have told, then, in the well chosen words he has chosen to tell you, how to direct prize-winning moving pictures? No, for two reasons. Everyone in Hollywood knows how to direct such pictures, and there was no

Way To Start Real Reform

By FRANK GRIMES

Traffic conditions before and during the war aren't a patch on what they'll be with the return of peace and the removal of restrictions on gasoline and car manufacture.

Everybody will have two or three years of stored-up travel in his system and one of the things he most wants to do is drive into a filling station, say fill'er up, and then take off to visit the kinfolks five states away.

The boys in uniform, car-hungry like nobody's business, will want the feel of a steering wheel next after a chocolate milkshake.

Jeeps will be as thick as flies, and if the automobile was and is a dangerous instrument, the jeep will be ten times more deadly. They're first cousin to a bronc with a bur under the saddle blanket. The jalopy of sainted memory had one virtue: it wouldn't go very fast. The jeep, a far more tricky and rambunctious mount than any jalopy, will make too many knots for post-war civilian traffic.

Traffic accidents have killed more Americans since Pearl Harbor than our forty-front war, and unless we approach the traffic control problem with more gumption and guts than we have been accustomed to in the past, our annual fatalities will go beyond the pre-war ceiling of 40,000 and soar to 50,000 or even 60,000 within three years after return of peace.

Among the many things our fighting men have a right to look forward to on their return from the wars is a saner, more efficient and more effective traffic control system for the protection of their own lives and limbs as well as those of their loved ones.

We would be at work on this problem now, if we realized its seriousness.

One of the most common traffic hazards could be eliminated quickly and cheaply. We refer to street intersections where shrubs, low-hanging trees, hedges, billboards and other obstructions create blind corners. The use of the parkway for the storage of cars and trucks at busy intersections is inexcusable. Filling stations and car dealer lots are good at this sort of abuse of public safety. Keeping them from doing it is a simple police duty.

A man who was nearly killed at a blind corner some time ago—a hedge growing out to the sidewalk line was the cause of it—all said the other day that if he ever got hurt or got his car wrecked in a similar accident again he was going to sue the property owner for damages.

You could write and talk about conditions of this kind from now until doom's day without getting anywhere; but if our friend's idea is put into execution and a few personal damage suits grow out of traffic accidents caused by plants and shrubs or parked cars obstructing the view of motorists, you'll see an overnight reform.

Somehow, when you touch people's pocket-books you really touch the quick.

press agents don't know their APO numbers. Nevertheless, we have a very impressive array of talent for during the next two weeks. It adds up to a course in how-to-do-it in-the-movies, in everything from the interesting and complicated technical side to the seemingly more exciting art of acting.

And the reason for all this? Well, Coons likes glimmer but once every year he has to get O'Rourke, the year's outstanding original screenplay. They're both in the Army and even their

The Thrill That Comes Once In A Lifetime Today And Tomorrow

You'd Be Surprised—Emerson Started Mousetrap Quotation

By GEORGE STIMPSON It is not uncommon for a person to absorb a quotation so completely that he believes he originated it.

That apparently is what happened to Eibert Hubbard and the mousetrap quotation, which reads: "If a man can write a better book, preach a better sermon, or make a better mousetrap, than his neighbor, though he builds his house in the woods, the world will make a beaten path to his door."

The earliest known use of this quotation appears in a little book entitled "Borrowings," compiled by the Ladies of the First Unitarian Church of Oakland, Calif. This book was first printed in 1889 by C. A. Murdock & Co., of San Francisco, in this work the mousetrap quotation is attributed to Ralph Waldo Emerson.

Mrs. Sarah Yule, who supervised the compilation of "Borrowings," afterwards explained that she copied the quotation in her notebook from a lecture delivered by Emerson.

Later Eibert Hubbard claimed the authorship. This claim was asserted in conversation with S. Wilbur Corman, of N. W. Ayer & Son, of Philadelphia, and in a letter of Dr. Frank Vizetelly, as well as upon other occasions.

James W. Beckman, formerly Hubbard's secretary, says on this subject: "No doubt he (Hubbard) was inspired to write it by the desire to put over the fact that because the Roycrofters were doing some things a little differently and better than they were being done anywhere else, people were making pilgrimages to Roycroft from every part of the world. He felt it wouldn't be quite right for him to say it, so looking over the list of possible sponsors he picked Emerson as the most eligible." In other words, Hubbard is supposed to have written it and attributed it to Emerson.

This would sound logical if it were not for the conclusive evidence of "borrowings," printed four or five years before Hubbard organized the Roycrofters and began his literary career.

The fact is, all the evidence except Hubbard's own statement indicates that Emerson was the author.

In 1855 Emerson wrote the following in his journal: "If a man has good corn, or wood, or boards, or pigs to sell, or can make better chairs or knives, crucibles, or church organs, than anybody else, you will find a broad, hard-beaten road to his house, though it be in the woods." He probably used the same idea, but different words, in the lecture that Mrs. Yule heard.

Washington—TAX ON AFTER DARK FUN BILLS

By JACK STINNETT WASHINGTON — If you are a night-clubber, a sympathetic pal of any one who is, or one who runs one, don't go anticipating any relief from that 30 per cent federal tax on the after-dark fun bills.

Capitol Hill observers are almost unanimous in predicting that the night club tax hasn't a chance of being rescinded, in spite of complaints from some Congressmen representing night club areas that their constituents are being driven out of business.

Just what, in dollars and cents, will accrue to the war kitty from this tax can't be determined yet. It isn't likely it will bear much of the burden. Such special taxes often assume terrific proportions in the walls of the House and Senate, but actually produce little in overall revenue.

The best weapon that the anti-night club taxers have been able to find yet is that it will throw approximately 15,000 entertainers out of work, since after-dark entrepreneurs no longer will be able to maintain elaborate floor shows. Most male entertainers are 4-Fers, or under-age or over-age. No individual who has made even a superficial survey would even entertain the industry to the war effort. There are exceptions — as in the last war — but for the most part the entertainers have come through almost to the point of exhaustion.

They have played the jungles of Guadalcanal and the central Pacific; the sands of north Africa; the frozen tundras of Iceland and the fog-ridden Aleutians.

It's conceded that the night clubs and cabarets are the best sources of supply for the movies, the stage and radio.

But the general attitude on the Hill isn't just too bad, if these more or less non-essential workers have to seek other means of employment.

Rep. Charles E. McKenzie, Louisiana overseas veteran of World War I, pretty much summed it up when he said: "There's no reason for these people to worry about jobs. The farmers in my district can use every one of them; so can the sawmills and the pulp mills — essential industries every one."

Who Should Be On Council?

By WALTER LIPPMANN The central argument of Mr. Summer Welles's address last week is not clear to me, and since it is evidently not clear even to "The New York Times," which sponsored his address, it would be useful if he clarified it. The editor of "The Times" says Mr. Welles "urges the immediate creation of a United Nations council, in which all the nations whose future is now being decided should participate." There are sentences in the address which seem to say just that.

Yet Mr. Welles does not, in fact, believe that all the nations whose future is now being decided should participate immediately. He does not believe that France should participate. He is himself one of the authors of the policy of not recognizing the existence of any government capable now of representing France. He knows that the present Polish government cannot participate, because the Soviet Union does not recognize it. He knows that there is not now a Yugoslav government which can participate, and no Greek government. When he tried to be specific and name the European governments which ought to participate, he could think of only two, the Netherlands and the Norwegian.

It is, therefore, puzzling to find him saying, as he did, that "all of the United Nations" should have been represented in the political decisions about "the cases" of France, Italy and eastern Europe. The fundamental question which had to be decided in all these cases has been what government, if any, was to be recognized. The French "case" has been: shall it be the National Committee? The Italian case has been: shall it be the King and Badoglio? The Polish case has been: shall it be the present government-in-exile, or this government purged and reconstructed? The Yugoslav case has been: shall it be Tito or the King's old government, or some new formation? The Greek case has been: shall it be Tito or the King's old government, or some new formation? The Greek case has been: shall it be the King's old government or a different one?

Now then could there have been a council which "represented" all the United Nations in regard to Europe when the question was undecided as to who had the right to represent the leading United Nations of Europe? Without France, without Poland, without Belgium, without Yugoslavia and without Greece as members of the council, how could the council be representative? Surely Mr. Welles is begging the very question to which he demands an immediate answer.

Mr. Wendell Willkie was the first prominent American to call for the creation of a council which includes others besides the great powers. But Mr. Willkie stands on firmer ground than Mr. Welles. For he has opposed the French policy which Mr. Welles still upholds, and it is only by altering our French policy, only by recognizing a French provisional government capable of representing France, that the narrow circle of the three great powers, dealing with the world, can be enlarged.

A United Nations council cannot exist without governments which participate in it. It is idle to argue that the Netherlands and Norway, Mexico and Brazil, could, or would presume to, "represent France," or the peoples of eastern Europe and the Balkans. Certainly it would be better, surely it would be safer, as Mr. Welles says, if continental Europe were represented in the decisions which affect the future of Europe. But as long as Mr. Welles excludes France, which is the greatest of the friendly continental nations, he is trying to make bricks without straw.

FIVE YEARS AGO TODAY Mary Nell Edwards and Marvin K. House, Jr., announced as 1939 honor graduates; life saving class made available at local swimming pool.

TEN YEARS AGO TODAY Mrs. Della Agnelli injured in car wreck; 40 scouts meet here for roundtable session.

How then could there have been a council which "represented" all the United Nations in regard to Europe when the question was undecided as to who had the right to represent the leading United Nations of Europe? Without France, without Poland, without Belgium, without Yugoslavia and without Greece as members of the council, how could the council be

Agony, Suspense And Death Abound In The "Big Push"

By KENNETH L. DIXON
ON THE ITALIAN FRONT, May 20 (Delayed) (R) — You read about the big push in the papers. Maybe you understand what it means to the soldier, maybe you don't, being as far from Italy as you are.

Anyhow, here are a few notes which have nothing to do with maps and pins or world strategy but which are part of the big push just the same:

It means starting forward in the night through barbed wire, minefields and booby traps which have been months in preparation . . . Seeing out of the corner of your eye but refusing to look when bursts of exploding flame mark the spot to right or left where someone took his last step . . . Gritting your teeth, sweating, praying, swearing, shaking, swallowing — but still going forward.

In some cases our engineers have stealthily cleared out minefields ahead of the troops in the night, and when the men charged across them they found the Germans had re-sown the mines just as stealthily.

It means when the enemy alerts to the advance the barbed wire . . . They close in on you shaking and wrecking the whole world . . . And then you disperse and take cover. There is no cover so you scratch frantically at the dirt to get just a little protection.

(You used to read about such barbed wire and imagine yourself in the middle of them, but you always thought about the shells bursting around you . . . Now you know that often they don't just fall around you — and you know the next ones probably will burst right on you.)

It means listening to the screams of the wounded and not being able to turn back to help them . . . and you're not sure that maybe it isn't easier to keep going ahead than to face the horror of what happened to those who now remain behind.

(They don't have screams back at the training camp.)

It means hearing the German machine guns and machine pistols firing from well protected nests somewhere ahead . . . and knowing that someone will have to go in and try to get them . . . that it may be you and if it is the odds are that you'll never go home again . . .

It means stepping on bodies at night and over or around them in daylight . . . some are newly slain bodies but not all; some are bloated remains of men who died fighting over these sectors months ago . . . And you notice that in death there isn't a great deal of difference in friendly and enemy bodies . . .

Interpreting The War News — Germans Practically Admit That Early Loss Of Rome Is Probable

By KIRKE L. SIMPSON
Associated Press War Analyst

Two weeks from its onset, the Allied attack in Italy is within sight of one of its goals — driving the enemy from Rome.

Anglo-American spearheads of the Fifth Army are at the ancient capital's thresholds. The beaten and badly mauled German armies defending must retreat or be smashed utterly. There are increasing intimations that, harried by Allied air power completely dominating Italian skies, the Nazi supply lines are breaking down.

Battle riddled enemy divisions are depleted. Their casualties include nearly 15,000 prisoners in Allied hands to add to the toll of dead and wounded. They are running short of artillery and armor by every sign and are in mounting peril of major disaster.

That is the bitter truth seeping back to the bomb-shocked German home front despite adroit Nazi efforts to minimize the reverses in Italy. On the eve of more stupendous Russian and Allied blows from east and west, veteran German armies in Italy, sustained by every advantage of terrain and interior communication, have been out-maneuvered, out-maneuvered and out-fought. That must add to the gloom in a Germany where nerves are already keyed to a breaking strain by cumulative military disasters in Africa, Russia and Italy, by utter failure of the U-boat campaign in the Atlantic, by the prolonged night-and-day Allied bombing campaign and by the maddening business of waiting, waiting for the main attacks to fall.

The German people are now being told from Berlin that reverses in Italy are attributable to the fact that reinforcements cannot be spared from other and more dangerous continental fronts. It is a frank admission that the Nazi high command holds no real hope of preventing early Allied occupation of Rome.

To Speak:
The Rev. Joseph Paul Barak, missionary, who was arrested by the gestapo and was interned for several months, will speak this morning at services at the First Methodist church. Born in Bohemia, he was educated in America and represented the Methodist church in Czechoslovakia from 1921 to 1941. "Through History to God" will be the topic of his morning address and he will speak on "My Experiences Under the Nazis" at the evening meeting.

J. B. White Dies In Plane Crash Parents Learn

FORSAN, May 27—Word has been received here that J. B. White, son of Mr. and Mrs. Rufus White, was killed in a plane crash in Florida this week. White graduated from Forsan high school in 1939. Other details were lacking.

Mrs. Buster Peek and son, Buster, Jr., were joined by Mrs. Dave Williams of Los Angeles, Calif., this week and will visit the bombardier of the crew of which their husbands were members. The bombardier, who is on furlough in Virginia, is the only surviving member, except Williams, who is a German prisoner of war.

Mr. and Mrs. John P. Kubecka and Mrs. W. B. Dunn were visiting in San Angelo this week. Mrs. Dunn also plans to visit in Sonora with her brother who is on furlough from Canada.

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. Mark Nasworthy, Sr., and Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Lett this week include Mr. and Mrs. Claude Gibbs, Mrs. Jack Simmons, Mrs. Theo Montgomery, Mrs. J. E. Hawkins and Mark Nasworthy, III, of San Angelo. Mr. and Mrs. Bill Conger, Jr., and Bill, III, visited in Sterling City recently.

C. L. Aquilla and Harold West were business visitors in San Angelo this week.

Howard Women Order Pineapple

Howard and Mitchell county home demonstration club women will join in purchase of a truck load of approximately 1,200 pineapples. Rhea Meris Boyles, home demonstration agent, said Saturday.

Orders were received recently from Howard county women, who will can much of the pineapple. Mrs. W. A. Jackson of Vealmoor is chairman of the Home Demonstration council marketing committee, which will work with a Mitchell county group in arranging for the truck load.

B'Spring Sending Five Delegates To National Highway Convention

Five delegates from Big Spring, representing the US 87 Highway association, were to leave early today for Denver, Colo., where they will attend a national association meeting Tuesday and Wednesday.

Representatives include J. H. Greene, manager of the chamber of commerce, who was named a Texas director at a state meeting held here May 11th. W. C. Blankenship, Dan Conley, Wylie Curry and Leon Curry.

Approval of the annual activities of the association will be principal business transacted, and the convention proper will get underway with the first general session scheduled at 2 p. m. Tuesday in the Brown Palace hotel.

Ranking as one of the major projects which Texans are looking to in the post war world, the association is striving to make the US 87 (which extends from Great Falls, Mont., to San Antonio), a paved road running from Alaska to the Texas border, joining from the Alaska-Canadian highway at Sweet Grass, Mont., 20 miles from Great Falls.

A name for the association will be chosen at the meeting and main addresses will be given by Col. Jim Mars of San Antonio and a state highway engineer from Colorado.

As far as is known, Big Spring will top the list in representation at the meeting and other delegates from Texas cities along the route through Texas will be included. W. T. Haines, superintendent of schools at Tahoka and Mrs. Haines; Mrs. Mat McCall, secretary of the Lamesa chamber of commerce; A. B. Davis, manager of the Lubbock chamber of commerce; Charlie Bacon, retiring state director from Lubbock; Gordon Kenley, retiring director from San Angelo; M. J. Benefield, manager of the Brady chamber of commerce; Rex Baxter, manager of the chamber of commerce and Wade H. Brymer of Amarillo; Guy Witt, manager of the Plainview chamber of commerce.

Defendant In Divorce Suit Confronted With Charge Of Desertion

A felony charge of wife desertion naming C. B. Webb was filed Saturday in justice court after a preliminary hearing was held in the divorce suit in which Webb is the defendant.

Lula Mae Webb is the plaintiff. The complaint in justice court charged willful neglect and failure to provide support. Bond of $500 was posted by Webb.

In the preliminary hearing on the divorce petition in district court, attorneys agreed upon $60 a month payment for wife support by the defendant, pending trial in the case.
