John, Rev. Goodman will preach at 11 a. m. on "For Who Hath Despised the Day of Small Things." The evening topic will be "The Trail of the Serpent." The evangelist also will speak at the Conhoms tabernacle at 3 p. m. on "The Second Coming of Christ."

Independent Church Is Organized Here

With 21 charter members an independent church was organized here Thursday evening at a service in the West Third street tabernacle, with Rev. Horace Goodman as leader.

The service was climaxed by a sermon from Rev. Goodman on "A New Testament Church." The group proclaimed a covenant had voted to postpone action on a "declaration of faith and church covenant" until Sunday night.

The new church will continue to worship in the tabernacle on West Third until a more suitable location can be selected for a permanent tabernacle, it was announced.

The revival meeting being conducted by Rev. Goodman will continue through another week. Bible school will be held at 10 o'clock this morning, with Mrs. H. C. Goodman leading a study of the first chapter of the gospel according to

Crawford To Give Spanish Dinner-Dance

Management of the Crawford Hotel coffee shop Saturday announced an informal opening of "A Night in Spain"—described as "a never to be forgotten night of dining and dancing" to be held Friday evening.

A floor show to include a wide variety of high-class professional talent will feature the dinner hour 8:30 to 9:30 p. m. and the dance 9:30 to midnight with Gerald Liberty and his orchestra furnishing the music.

The dinner dance tickets are on sale at the Crawford Lobby. Stags will be received after 9:30 p. m. Reservations for parties will be given special attention. Spanish dishes will be served.

GLEE CLUB MEETING

A regular meeting of the Big Spring Glee club will be held in room 1, mezzanine floor, of the Settles at 7:30 o'clock Tuesday evening.

Vaudeville Set For Ritz Tuesday

The Ritz theater will present a special program of vaudeville by local artists Tuesday evening, Manager Fred Polacek announces.

Brooks Haven and his accordion, with accompaniments by Margaret Curles, will open the program.

LaFerne Dillinger and Mildred Darwin will appear in a tap dance "Sidewalks of New York."

Jack and Jean Humphries, brilliant juvenile dancers, will present an Apache number. Jean Porter and Alina Killingsworth will offer a Spanish military tap.

Dorothy Frost and George Oscar Parker will appear in a dance novelty number that has been enthusiastically received in other theaters. "Walk My Baby Back Home" is the title.

The final number will be "Clock Rhythm," featuring a company of children 2 to 5 years of age in a tap number. The dancers will be Gary Bivings, Bobby Brockman, Bobby Boykin, Cotton Curles, Dean Curles, Jean Johnson, Bettie Bob Ditta, Bitsy Payne, Sweetie Hair and Rose Mary O'Neill.

HOME TOWN TALK—

a dramatic rise, receded slightly at the week-end on profit-taking, but closed the week considerably above the previous week's level. Cotton prices improved but the advance was cautious.

It would appear that the housewife, arming herself with a market basket, can go into the average grocery store nowadays and buy food for the family for less money than she could before business lagged throughout the country, and that the downward trend of food prices continues.

And those three Big Spring fellows, Tinsley, Anderson and Barcus forgot that even Al Capone didn't get by with carrying a gat in Pennsylvania. We'd like to have one of 'em write their impressions of the Quaker City if they get back home. Maybe they thought they wouldn't get back until deer season opened and were figuring on taking a shot at a few bucks up around there.

The Tiny Tot Beauty Revue last night was our idea of a right nice little affair. It wasn't so little at that, except in the size of the entrants. The winners will treasure their prizes when they're grown-up ladies. A lot more genuinely enjoyable than some these highly-ballyhooed dry land bathing revues. Many a fine little gal has been left stranded in Hollywood after using a free ticket she won in a "Revue."

Prevailing conditions are such that every man should take a good DAILY newspaper this year. What will be done about the cotton acreage limit and what will be the price of cotton? What is going to happen to the oil situation?

1932 is election year. What will happen? Of course you will want to keep up with all of it. Everybody from president to precinct officers must be voted on. And what about the prohibition question again? You want to keep up with that, too. The Herald will tell you all about it quickly.

You want to know all that happens in the Chinese and Japanese trouble. How will it affect you and your people before it is all over? Keep up with it all by reading daily.

And now, things no other daily paper can give you, and they are the things that mean the most to you. What about the things you have to buy? Groceries, dry goods, notions, hardware, drugs, paints, seed, furniture, houses to buy, sell, or rent, and everything else you need will be advertised in The Herald all through the year. This means savings in actual cash to you that will pay for your paper many, many times over.

Everything about your own town or community, where the people go, what they do, and why, will be told in the Big Spring Daily Herald EACH DAY, not after it is a week old. There will be fires, accidents, murders, plots, sports, public issues of all kinds, tax questions, and everything to keep up with. The young folks like to keep up with sports, parties, etc., while the ladies want the news of parties, church affairs, school doings, cooking recipes, etc. The Daily Herald will tell all about these and many more things that will interest you each day while it is real NEWS.

Quizzed Dreiser

After Herndon Evans (above), editor of Pineville, Ky., was questioned by Theodore Dreiser during the author's study of labor conditions in Eastern Kentucky coal fields, he in turn quizzed Dreiser and disagreed with the latter's ideas on "equity."
