Last year, 314 and a total of 773 children were served, according to Sherry ssistance and referral director for the nonprofit agency, and I children likely will be added to the list in the days leading holiday.

prior to the distribution. "The moms won't have to decide between a book and a toy this year."

This year's toy distribution took place on Saturday. Parents were invited to drop by and select "two or three main gifts," Hamm said, as well as stocking stuffers, books and clothes. Gift cards also were available to the parents of teens.

"It's hard to buy for teenagers," she said, "so it's really nice that we have gift cards for them."

Parents were given dark plastic bags to bundle up the items distributed. That way, the items could be taken home and hidden from curious youngsters until time for the family to open gifts.

Planning for this year's distribution began in September. Families began registering for the program in November, and work to organize Saturday's distribution began early on Dec. 18.

"We're just so thankful to the community for the food, toys and donations to the thrift store," Hamm said, "and for all the volunteers, too."

Volunteers from schools, home schooled youth, businesses and churches helped sort toys as part of the distribution's set-up.

The toy distribution is just one of the many facets of Helping Hands, which has operated in Rockwall County for more than 30 years. The agency's components include an emergency assistance program; a food pantry; a life skills educational program; a thrift store; a community clinic; a shoe bank; and information and referral services.

Students from the Sharon Shannon Elementary School Girls 4 God bible study group helped sort toys for the annual Helping Hands of Rockwall toy drive and distribution. Sorting through the stacks of toy-filled boxes were (left to right) Anastasia Dawson, Cassidy Roth and Abby Davis. This is the second year the Girls 4 God group, under the leadership of Shannon Elementary math specialist Lisa Timmermann, has volunteered for the toy drive.

They were advanced in years, and Elisabeth had never conceived a child. The records show that they were blessed greatly because Elisabeth was no longer considered barren in the eyes of all the people. During those years, according to tradition, a woman was considered to be in a state of low degree if she never conceived children by her husband. We can only imagine how abundantly blessed Elisabeth was upon the arrival of her cousin Mary.

Luke 1:39-56 gives the record of Mary's visit with Elisabeth." And Mary arose in those days, and went into the hill country with haste into a city of Juda; And entered into the house of Zacharias, and saluted Elisabeth. And it came to pass, that when Elisabeth heard the salutation of Mary, the babe leaped in her womb; and Elisabeth was filled with the Holy Ghost."

Earlier in verse 35 we see that Gabriel told Mary about her cousin Elisabeth. Soon after her conception, she left in haste to see Elisabeth. Upon her salutation, Elisabeth's baby leaped in her womb, and she was filled with holy spirit. This fulfilled god's word relayed to Zacharias in verse 15, "...and he shall be filled with the Holy Ghost, even from his mother's womb."

John was filled with holy spirit when his mother was filled with holy spirit. Moreover, according to verse 80, he came out of his mother's womb with holy spirit still in him. After filled with holy spirit, Elisabeth opened her mouth and began to prophesy in a loud voice. It should be noted that prophesying is always directly related to being filled with holy spirit. It is impossible to do so without holy spirit. Verses 42-55 include the record of her dy-

In the KJV Companion Bible, E.W. Bullinger provided the following note for verse 46 where Mary began to prophesy, "From a common practice of transcribers in replacing a pronoun by the corresponding proper noun, or name, some have thought that this hymn is a continuation of Elisabeth's words. And the structure favours this idea. But there is no that Elizabeth began to prophecy with edification and exhortation toward Mary. The language strongly suggests that Elisabeth could have then continued to prophecy by glorifying God because He "regarded the low estate of His handmaiden" (verse 48). Remember, Elisabeth was greatly blessed because she was

"And Mary abode with her about three months, and returned to her own house." No doubt Mary returned to her house built up and prepared to raise up God's child to serve Him meekly.

Little Town O'Bethlehem In the little town of Bethlehem

Is where our story of faith began;
From a star in the East that pointed the way,
To the holy Birth we recall on this day;
So please join us in thanks to the good Lord above,
For the gift of His son, the gift of His love. With best wishes for a Merry Christmas to all.
