THE PIANO CONTEST

As far as known now, there are about five young ladies working in the piano contest, and as there are seven prizes besides the special prizes offered, every one of them will be sure of a prize. It is not too late to enter yet; it is work that will count, not priority of entry, any hustling girl can enter now with just as good chance of winning any of the prizes, as the first one who entered the contest. Come to the Record office and let us enter you in the race.

The box will be opened April 7th, at 4 p. m. and the votes counted, and the contestant who is found to be ahead, will be given $10 in gold.

There are some who are holding their vote back, in order not to show their strength in the first count. Better put them in now; you might get both prizes—the $10 now and the piano later on.

The girls are working hard; every day new names are coming in, the list having been already increased by more than 100 subscribers, all for one year each.

In our next issue, (April 3rd) the names of the judges who will conduct the count of the vote on April 7th, will be published.

Those who enter the contest at the beginning of the second or third month, have an equal chance with all others, in winning the special prizes, which are given for the largest gain in one month.

So get into the game; there is ample time and opportunity to win the capital prize, and the more, the merrier. But keep in mind the 7th.

MAKE IT YOURSELF.

There is so much rheumatism here in our neighborhood now that the following advice by an eminent authority who writes for readers of a large eastern daily paper, will be highly appreciated by those who suffer.

Get from any good pharmacy one-half ounce fluid extract of Dandelion, one ounce Compound Kargon, three ounces Compound Syrup of Sarsaparilla. Shake these well in a bottle and take in teaspoonful doses after each meal and at bedtime; also drink plenty of good water.

It is claimed that there are few victims of this dread and torturous disease who will fail to find ready relief in this simple home-made mixture, and in most cases a permanent cure is the result.

This simple recipe is said to strengthen and cleanse the eliminative tissues of the kidneys so they can filter and strain from the blood and system the poisons acids, and waste matter which cause not only Rheumatism but numerous other diseases. Every man or woman here who feels that their kidney are not healthy and active or who suffers from any urinary trouble whatever, should not hesitate to make up this mixture, as it is certain to do much good, and may save you from much misery and suffering after while.

Our home druggists say they will either supply the ingredients or mix the prescription ready to take if our readers ask them.

LISTEN

and remember the next time you suffer from pain—caused by damp weather—when your head nearly bursts with neuralgia—try Ballard's Snow Liniment. It will cure you. A prominent business man of Hempstead, Texas, writes: "I have used your liniment. Previous to using it I was a great sufferer from Rheumatism and Neuralgia. I am pleased to say that now I am free from these complaints. I am sure that I owe this to your liniment. Sold by W. L. Doss."

BUFORD BREVITIES

Spring is doing her best to rule the weather here of late, but grim old winter attacks her ruthlessly every few days. As a result of the dry and variable weather, there are still a number of cases of pneumonia and grip. Grandma Rogers is again able to be up a part of the time, after a severe attack of pneumonia. Mrs. W. T. Rogers has been very low with pneumonia, but her condition is somewhat improved. Elmer Rogers, son of J. F. Rogers, is quite sick with pneumonia. Mrs. J. I. A number of young folks went to Seven Wells Friday and a nice time is reported. The party consisted of Misses Neal, Jenkins, Owens, Josephine and Pearl Smith and Beulah Hagler, and Messrs. Hutchinson, Smith, Witten, Calloway and John and Frank Redmon.

JUDGE CROCKETT'S POSITION

EDITOR RECORD,

Dear Sir: Replying to your request as to my position on that part of the anti-pass law which prevents newspapers from contracting with railroads for transportation in exchange for advertisements, I submit, I can see no valid reason for thus attempting to prevent these contracts, and if elected to the legislature, I would not be opposed to a change in the law so as to allow these contracts to be entered into.

Yours truly,
W. B. CROCKETT.

SINGING CONVENTION

Profs. Usery and Rollins have organized a singing school at Loraine and will be here at the singing convention on the first Sunday in April and sing for us. Prof. Free of Abilene, a singer of repute, will attend the convention also.

Remember, our Colorado people must be prepared to take care of the visitors to this convention. Bring a big basket of things good to eat, as there will be an all-day singing and dinner on the ground. Between 75 and 100 visitors are expected here on that day, and we ought to do all we can to give them a pleasant day. Don't forget the time nor place—First Sunday in April, at the public school auditorium.

AT THE SCHOOL AUDITORIUM

The last number of the public school Lyceum course will be given at the auditorium Monday March 30th. Miss Merissa Thompson, monologist, who is a first-class artist, and will give a first class entertainment. She has been enthusiastically received at other points. Among the plays that will be produced by the Whyte Dramatic Company at the opera house next week will be the Russian Spy, a story of the late Russo-Japanese war. It is a new play to this part of the country. While the story of the play is sensational and thrilling in the extreme, there is a beautiful love story running through it from beginning to end. Modern, advanced vaudeville will be introduced between acts of every play throughout the week, making the performances continuous.

BASE BALL

On Saturday last the Snyder school team came down to play the Colorado boys and they played two games; one in the morning and one in the afternoon.

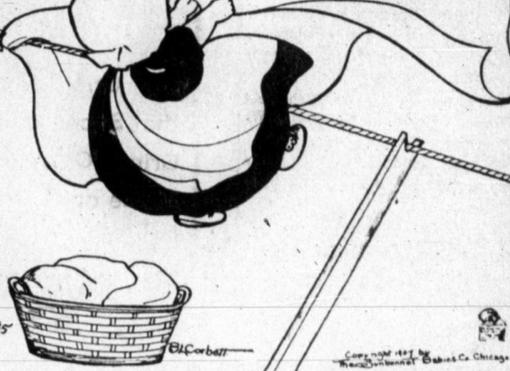

The morning game was quite interesting and resulted in a victory for the Colorado boys by a score of 3 to 0.

The second game was a hotly contested one and resulted in a score of 8 to 3 in favor of Snyder. The deciding game will be played sometime in the near future here or at Snyder.

THE BRYAN CLUB

The Mitchell County Bryan Club met at the court house last Saturday at 2 o'clock p. m. Hon. J. T. Harness was elected president, A. B. Robertson, vice-president; W. B. Crockett, secretary.

A committee on resolutions to report at the next meeting was appointed, consisting of W. K. Homan, L. C. Dupree and A. B. Robertson. There is to date an enrollment of 94, and an earnest appeal is made to every voter in Mitchell county who advocates good government on democratic principles, to join the Club.

Particularly ought the young men join—those who will soon become voters and have to assume the responsibilities of government. There are few men in the rank and file of the democratic party who if called on to do so, could give a reason for the faith that is in them, or explain the differences between the platforms of the various parties. To do this educational work is one object of the Club. Give your name to Capt. Harness or Judge Crockett, and help in the work.

Dr. and Mrs. Beck entertained Rev. Medaris and Rev. Price at luncheon Thursday.

The pupils of the high school have a very interesting and instructive literary society and take much interest in preparing and studying the biographies of our loved American authors.

A letter to Tim Garland, from his brother at Lamesa, states that Albert Williams, a stage driver between Big Springs and Lamesa, committed suicide by shooting himself Tuesday night, March 17. He had been passing as a single man, but has a wife and two children in Fannin county.

Dr. Beck celebrated his birthday Sunday, March 22nd, by having a number of his friends dine with him at his pretty home on Gunn Heights. We won't say how young he is—just 'cause—but are sure that each guest wishes for him many more such occasions, for all seemed to enjoy the day very much. The doctor received several handsome presents. The guests were, Messrs. Daniel Gunn and wife, W. B. Wimberly and wife, Jake Gregg and wife, Gaines and wife, Donehue and wife, Dr. Copeland, and Miss Ethel Boyd Beck.

FRIDAY, MARCH 27, 1908.

The truth never lies wholly on one side of any question.

This new-fangled way of abbreviating California with Calif., looks a little far-fetched.

The Bailey primary has been called for May 2nd, and the Record believes Bailey will be an easy winner.

If the Bailey question splits the democratic party of Texas into smithereens, whose will be the blame?

Admiral Evans will retire from active service when the fleet arrives at San Francisco, on account of ill health.

The democratic state executive committee has ordered a general primary on May 2nd to elect delegates-at-large to the national convention at Denver.

People who go away or send off to purchase goods that could be bought at home, are about the first to kick about the lack of enterprise in the home town.

It is estimated that 150,000,000 tons of coal are used annually by the railroads of the United States, out of which but 7,500,000 are used in drawing the trains, while 142,500,000 tons go up the smokestacks as waste.

There are "growing up" in Colorado several small specimens of the genus bobo, who, unless they are "raised" out of present conditions by the strong arm of parental authority, are going to leave a trail of disaster in their wake until they are checked by the courts.

It was decided by the executive committee of the anti-Bailey campaign organization which was set a-foot at Fort Worth last week, to compel all the Texas congressmen to declare whether or not they approved of a senator or congressman accepting service from corporations while representing the people. This means, of course, whether they are for Bailey or against him.

And for the inflammation of certain stormy petrels of the ecclesiastical sea, who disport themselves in noisy shallows, the Record cites them to the columns of the Advance, a prohibition paper published by Dr. J. B. Cranfill, about 20 years ago. In his controversies with Bartow he first identified the slogan, "On with the battle" with the prohibition movement. There was a little history connected with affairs in Texas perhaps, before the advent of Thersites, "thank the Lord."

POSTED

I have my pasture posted and I mean to have protection. I will take down the names of all persons found trespassing and report same to next grand jury. So you had better keep out. (4-3p) U. D. WULFJEN.

"Is the Record for Bailey?" is a question that has been repeatedly asked us the past few weeks, and believing the public, and particularly the clientele of a newspaper has the right to know how it stands on all questions at issue before the people, we do not hesitate to admit that it is. But it is not a Bailey organ to the extent of approving his partisan policies or supporting his intricate warfare; nor to the length of condoning his sins or excusing his defiance of the people who placed him where he is. Bailey made mistakes; success made him so impatient of criticism that he hardly believed his own state could strip his toga and shear off his laurels—he erred grievously, and refused to take his people into his councils. But as we see it, Mr. Bailey is still endorsed by his party, his standing with the organization remains unimpaired officially, and until he is repudiated by the people of Texas, we can see no inconsistency in still supporting him. We can not see that he has forfeited the confidence of the people as their representative, and so long as he is acting in that capacity, the Record, feels bound to support him.

The bitterest enemy and severest critic in any cause or in any principle, is the most recent proselyte therefrom. The adherents to a cause may be mild in their criticism of their opponents; but not so with the proselyte. He would excommunicate his former brethren in any cause; in any party. Whenever you find a man bitterly arraigning a sect or faction of men, you may know in nine cases out of ten, that he until recently believed with the very men he criticises. This is noticeably true in the issue which the opponents of Senator Bailey have determined to force upon the people. They would compel all candidates, even those for local offices, to declare where they stand, thereby forcing the candidate to depend upon the popular feeling for or against Senator Bailey rather than his own merits for election. But a short while ago many of those who are now in the fore-front of the fight against Bailey were hand-in-glove with him, and when such men as Shaw, Crawford, O'Keefe, Pendleton et al. march under the banner of opposition to Bailey on the ground that he betrayed the people of Texas, one recalls the regularity with which they have been on the wrong side of questions politic.

The bitter fight against Bailey can be a just fight only when pitched on a high plane. It is a question of personal rectitude in public servants, or it is nothing. The idea that the fight is based on public or private morals, is as misleading as it is amusing; personal grievances lie near the root of the whole matter.

IT'S GEOGRAPHY MIXED

If our town ever was in need of assistance of her progressive people, that time is right now. To retrograde now means that we had as well throw up our hands and let her go to the demerition bow-wows.—Colorado Citizen.

Let no new, live, progressive and promising west Texas town, such as Colorado, take a single back step. One push backward is sometimes enough to start the whole thing to the bottom of the hill. There are those in every village and city ready to give the push. Do not allow them to lay hands on Colorado.—Dallas News.

"Sometimes too, great Homer nods." That State Press, of that great torchlight of liberty, that palladium of people's rights, the Dallas News, should be so badly mixed in his geography, is surprising. The Citizen is published at Columbus, Colorado county, in southern Texas, while Colorado City is the metropolis of the county of Mitchell, and has too much of the spirit of the pushing, progressive west to make a retrograde move. Her feet are now firmly planted upon successful agriculture, and every added year will give greater evidence of its being the best all-purpose farming section of the state of Texas.

AS TO CONE JOHNSON

Cone Johnson, as member of legislature in 1887 supported Terrell for United States Senator when his district was overwhelmingly for John H. Reagan.

Cone Johnson as state senator in 1892 gave comfort to Roger Q. Mills for United States senator when Horace Chilton from his own county, and overwhelmingly the choice of that senatorial district, was a candidate.

Cone Johnson in 1892 wanted L. S. Ross to run for governor against Hogg for a second term at a time when Hogg was practically the unanimous choice of Johnson's section. After the nomination Johnson affiliated with the Clark forces.

Cone Johnson in 1896 refused to vote for W. J. Bryan.

Cone Johnson in 1891 testified in the I. & G. N. receivership investigation that he endeavored to practice influence with the district judge to obtain for a bank part of the receivership deposits for 3 per cent on the daily balances.

And Cone Johnson is the man the anti-Bailey people want to send as a delegate-at-large to the national convention, where Mr. Bryan is almost sure to be nominated.

DR. CRANFILL A POSSIBLE PRESIDENTIAL CANDIDATE

It is yet quite uncertain who will be nominated for president by the national Prohibitionists, but of those prominently mentioned are the following: Fred F. Wheeler, a California real estate man; Daniel Sheen of Illinois, a prominent member of the legislature; A. L. Manierre, an attorney of New York City; Felix T. McWhirter, a banker of Indianapolis, Indiana; George R. Sturat of Tennessee, the Methodist evangelist, and Dr. J. B. Cranfill of Dallas, whose Texas friends are putting his name forward.—Dallas News.

ELLWOOD FENCE

This is a picture of Ellwood hog fence. More of this style is used than of all other makes combined. In connection with several strands of plain barbed wire, it puts up a fence that is absolutely pig-tight and will also turn large stock.

I have this fence from eighteen to fifty-eight inches high :o: :o:

The Best Fence on Earth.

ELLWOOD POULTRY AND RABBIT FENCE

THIS IS A FENCE—NOT A NETTING.

A strong and all-important distinction. Is especially designed as a poultry and rabbit fencing, it is sufficiently strong to stop all larger animals. Costs practically the same as the lighter nettings, while in the matter of service and durability it is worth ten times as much.

THE SOCIETY REALM

Mrs. J. G. Merritt, Editor

Master Brooks Bell, Jr., was four years old Thursday, and his mama invited a number of his little friends in to play with him. Forty-four little youngsters, and a lot of their mothers were on hand, and a perfectly lovely time was had by all present. Games were played by the children. After a time the dining room doors were thrown open and the children, with their young host leading the way, marched in and around the beautiful table, which was festooned in red and white ribbons, brought from the ceiling and fastened at intervals to the snowy cloth with big bows. Between the ribbons were china rabbits, mama rabbits and little baby rabbits. In the center of the table was the birthday cake, surrounded by violets and decorated with a cluster of violets and four glowing candles. The children were then marched into the parlor and seated on the floor just as tightly as they could be packed, and they looked like a huge flower-bed in full bloom. Mrs. Oderbolz passed paper napkins, while Mesdames Robert Terrell and Fred Whipkey helped each one to a piece of cake. Then Mrs. Bell served cream with cherries on it. Now for a few minutes all was quiet, but the chattering broke out afresh when Mrs. Bell presented each little guest with a gaily decorated whistle and a little folding flag book. All went home happy, proudly bearing their birthday favors with them, while the young host has toys and picture books enough to keep him busy for some time.

The Hesperian Club met Friday with Mrs. John T. Johnson. After the day's program had been given, the time was delightfully spent on a contest arranged by the hostess. Each tried to see how many words could be made out of "violets." Mrs. Carter won with forty-four words to her credit. Miss Dry was second with forty, while Mrs. Bromley was third in the contest. The meeting this week is with Mrs. Radford, at the home of Mrs. G. W. Smith, with the following program:

Edgar Allen Poe.
Roll call, lines from Poe.
The mental, the moral and the physical Poe, Mrs. Greenwood.
The vicissitudes in Poe's life, Miss Jo Dry.

Reading Annabel Lee, Mrs. Majors.
Reading The Raven, symbolism, the glimpse into the lesson taught, Mrs. Merritt.
Question box—Original comments.

Thursday was Mrs. M. Carter's birthday and in the evening a few of her neighbors and friends surprised her by going in at 8 o'clock, each with a little gift. The good time one always has at Mrs. Carter's was not lacking on this occasion. Cake was served by the hostess. It would be hard to tell which enjoyed the surprise party most, Mrs. Carter or her friends.

The entertainment by the senior class of the high school, assisted by Misses Reaville, Higginbotham, Mrs. Somers, and the junior class, Friday night at the auditorium, was a success in every particular. The house was filled and over $50 was cleared for the piano fund. Great credit is due Miss Reaville, who worked faithfully in training, not only her pupils but those in the play. The first part of the program was musical, being opened by Rosa Hatch and Lulu Merrell with a piano duet. Then a chorus of eleven girls sang The Frog and the Nightingale. Miss Higginbotham gave a very interesting reading from Kate Douglas Wiggin, Patsy. The Peasant's Wedding March, was beautifully rendered by Misses Reaville, Shuford, Dodson and Mrs. Somers. Miss Higginbotham's reading was fine, as was Miss Rosa Hatch's piano solo. Miss Lulu Merrell's excellent solo completed this part of the program. Then came the play, A Case of Suspension. The scene was the room of one of the young ladies of the seminary, and was interesting and well played all through. Mary E. Roe, as the Irish maid, was a success at once, as was Jonas the man. Miss Shuford and Ed Sullivan are surely destined to be teachers, from the air of wisdom and severity they can already assume. The young ladies of the seminary and college boys had only to be natural to be entertaining. This was certainly a successful evening all the way through, and the young people are to be complimented for the ability shown. The pupils are talking of going to Roscoe with A Case of Suspension.

The Card Club met Tuesday with Miss Martha Earnest and euchre was played. 'Twas a most enjoyable afternoon. Miss Ophelia Arnett did the punching and presented the stars while the hostess played. At the close of the afternoon Mrs. Bell had won the most games, having only lost one, and was awarded a beautiful hand painted pitcher. Mrs. Radford got the lone hand prize, a pretty vase. None of the guests got enough to entitle them to a prize. Mrs. Edwin Fowlkes invited the club to be her guests next week.

The Old Men's Card Club met Thursday with Sam'l Gustine. After the usual good time and the awarding of prizes, Mrs. Gustine surprised the gentlemen most pleasantly with delicious salad, sandwiches, pickles and coffee, which was greatly enjoyed. The club meets this week with John T. Johnson.

The monthly tea of the Baptist Aid Society was given by Mesdames Whipkey and Gross, at the home of Mrs. Whipkey on Wednesday from four to six. Mrs. Simon received at the door, while Mrs. Terrell assisted the ladies in the dining room, where delicious chicken salad on lettuce leaves, olives, peas, wafers, coffee, chocolate and mints, were served. Quite a number of ladies were out and a most pleasant and profitable afternoon was enjoyed by the ladies of the society.

A NEW FIRM

Birdwell bankrupt stock of hardware and groceries was sold to the highest bidder, and McCord Collins Co. being the highest bidder became the owners of the property for about 50 cents on the dollar. The stock invoiced about $3850. It is not yet determined what disposition will be made of the stock by the purchasers.

STUDY CLUB.

That the Kindergarten Study Club is growing is an evident fact by the number who attended the meeting at the hospitable home of the secretary, Mrs. Merritt, last Saturday afternoon. Nearly all on the program were present and brought up such splendid work that each one felt well repaid for braving the elements to get there.

The papers by Mesdames Payne and Merritt were worth hearing. All wanted to have a "Mental House Cleaning" after hearing Mrs. Merritt's paper and discard all but the pure and the beautiful. Mrs. Payne made us live over our childhood days again and feel that "Mother Goose" is indeed a classic. Mrs. Annis gave a reading—a love story—in her usual bright style, which was much appreciated. This finished study and then play began.

The inevitable 42 was played so well that one could hardly tell which was enjoyed the more—work or play. Mrs. Merritt had prepared dainty little prizes, to the delight of all. The first prize was won by Miss Hallie Dupree, an elegant box of stationery. The lone hand by Mrs. A. L. Whipkey, a dainty little bow. Mrs. Annis got the booby. Refreshments were then served ed by the hostess, assisted by Miss Ophelia Arnett and Master McCall Merritt, consisting of salad wafer cheese straws, which were so dainty that more than one lady wanted the recipe, the highest compliment that could be paid Mrs. Merritt and Miss Ophelia's refreshments. The next meeting is to be with Mrs. Bass, conducted by Mrs. Somers.

PRECINCT RESOLUTIONS

Westbrook, Texas, March 24, 1908.—A mass meeting was called March 7th, 1908, at Daniel School House voting precinct No. 6, in Mitchell county, Texas, and went into permanent organization, with F. M. Franklin as the chairman and J. H. Airhart as secretary; whereupon the following committee was appointed to draft resolutions setting forth our views on state prohibition, and management of our county affairs: J. H. Airhart, S. K. Gregory, E. T. Phillips, and A. A. Daniels.

We believe the manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquors to be against the interest of this state and demoralizing to our state institutions, as well as to thousands of our private homes, therefore be it

Resolved: That we demand of our state executive committee that they submit the matter of constitutional amendment to the voters of the state of Texas, at the primary election in July 1908. And be it further

Resolved: That if said question is not submitted to the people as herein demanded, that we demand of our next legislature that they submit the matter of the constitutional amendment to the voters of the state of Texas at the next meeting of said body.

Resolved (2): That we pledge ourselves to oppose all candidates for state and county offices in the coming primary who do not declare their position on said questions.

Resolved (3): That we demand of our state executive committee to submit the matter of the delegates-at-large to the national convention to a vote of the people in the primary election.

Resolved (4): That we endorse the action of Attorney General R. V. Davidson.

Resolved (5): That we demand all candidates for representative offices to publicly declare their views regarding the finance of this county.

Resolved (6): That we view with alarm the custom of the present administration in issuing scrip to the amount of $115.00 to $130.00 in payment of $100 accounts, which we believe to be unwise, unjust and contrary to the laws; and be it further

Resolved (7): That we endorse the action of the grand jury in so ably discharging their duties, and we especially commend them for their able recommendations in the report to the Court.

Resolved (8) That we ask the voters of each precinct, of Mitchell county, to call meetings and organize to bring about the reforms herein set forth, and that a copy of these resolutions be sent to each and every newspaper published in Mitchell county; also the Dallas News, Fort Worth Record and Houston Post.

F. M. Franklin, Chairman, J. H. Airhart, S. K. Gregory, E. T. Phillips, A. A. Daniels, Committee.

ONESIPHORUS BAND

At an early hour Tuesday night the 24th, sixteen men of our city were assembled in the home of Robt. M. Webb, to do business for the Lord. The reports of work done showed that our labors were not in vain and all were encouraged to do more in the future.

The plans for our new Sunday School room were endorsed and J. E. Hooper, M. C. Ratliff and E. Keathley were appointed to look into the same and present them to our next church conference. Let the good work go on. Yours in the work,
ERNEST KEATHLEY, Rep.

ANOTHER CHURCH ORGANIZED

The fourth Sunday in February, Rev. G. W. White, Deacon H. F. Wheeler of Colorado, and others, organized the Corinth Baptist church at the Shepherd school house on the Colorado and Loraine road. Eight members went into the organization. J. R. Lucas is their clerk, but they have no pastor as yet. Sunday afternoon, March 22, they held a recognition service with Rev. R. W. Thomas as moderator and E. Keathley as clerk. Rev. Holmes Nichols preached, after which Bro. Thomas conducted the examination and the church was found to be regularly organized in line with our work.

Praying God's richest blessings on their efforts, the service closed.
R. W. THOMAS, Moderator.

E. KEATHLEY, Clerk.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is Both Agreeable and Effective.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has no superior for coughs, colds and croup, and the fact that it is pleasant to take and contains nothing in any way injurious has made it a favorite with mothers. Mr. W. S. Polham, a merchant of Kirksville, Iowa, says: "For more than twenty years Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has been my leading remedy for all throat troubles. It is especially successful in cases of croup. Children like it and my customers who have used it will take no other." For sale by W. L. Doss.

ATTENTION WOODMEN

We are still growing some. At our last meeting, E. O. Green, Frank Brown, T. H. Hastings, M. Hastings, A. G. Griffin, and D. F. Griffin were received by cards and T. A. Morris, by initiation. We want to initiate some new members every Thursday night and you are urged to get at least one new one during this year.

The monument of Sov. Ernest Runyon will be unveiled on the third Sunday evening in April, and a full attendance is desired.

We hope to move into our new hall by April 1st, and our team will have room to spread itself, so come out and encourage it.

Fraternally,
E. KEATHLEY, Clerk.

POSTED

Do Not Crowd the Season.
The first warm days of spring bring with them a desire to get out and enjoy the exhilarating air and sunshine. Children that have been housed up all winter are brought out and you wonder where they all came from. The heavy winter clothing is thrown aside and many shed their flannels. Then a cold wave comes and people say that grip is epidemic. Colds at this season are even more dangerous than in mid-winter, as there is much more danger of pneumonia. Take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, however, and you will have nothing to fear. It always cures, and we have never known a cold to result in pneumonia when it was used. It is pleasant and safe to take. Children like it. For sale by W. L. Doss.
