

Judge Orders Harry Bridges Off To Jail

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 5. (AP)—A federal judge ordered Harry Bridges to jail today as "dangerous to the security of this country."

The judge, George B. Harris, then denied motions of Bridges' attorneys for a stay, to permit him his freedom over the week end.

A U. S. Marshal's deputy took the president of the big CIO Longshore union to jail.

Judge Harris revoked the $25,000 bond under which Bridges has been free since last April when he was sentenced to five years in prison for perjury. A federal jury decided he swore falsely in his 1945 citizenship hearing by denying he was a Communist.

Since then an order has been signed stripping the Australian-born Bridges of U. S. citizenship. "It was not unexpected," the dock union boss said after Judge Harris had ruled, and as the deputy marshal was waiting to take him to the county jail. "I believe right now anyone who speaks his personal opinion on this subject (Korea) is in danger."

He had opposed intervention by the United States and United Nations in the Korean war.

Bridges' wife, Nancy, and their two small daughters were with him until he was led off to jail.

Bridges told her, "No tears, now." She didn't weep.

At the jail, Bridges was given the customary booking federal prisoners receive. He was listed as a U. S. citizen, although his citizenship has been revoked by Judge Harris.

He was taken to the processing room, where he was given a shower and exchanged his navy grey suit for a green prison outfit. The government charged his activities since the Korean war broke out have been "inimical to the security of the United States."

Bridges' attorneys asked Federal Judge George B. Harris that the longshoreman chief be permitted to spend this week end with his wife and family and then go into the U. S. Circuit Court of Appeals Monday.

Judge Harris said "No" and spoke about wives and children of various soldiers fighting in Korea. Judge Harris declared: "I'm satisfied to a moral certainty that Harry Bridges was and is a member of the Communist Party."

The jury in the principal case (the perjury trial) came to that inevitable conclusion after months of evidence and argument. "I'm also led to believe he is probably one of the most cogent figures in the Communist Party in America today."

"As such, his allegiance cannot be to the United States of America. His conduct since the beginning of the Korean crisis, and his remarks at this proceeding, are of such a nature as to justify this court concluding that his loyalty and allegiance are and must be with the Communists."

Bridges is under sentence to five years in federal prison. He was convicted of swearing falsely that he wasn't a Communist. The oath was taken in the 1945 citizenship hearing for the Australian-born labor leader.

Defense Plan Changes Up To North Koreans

New Red Gains May Force Faster Mobilization Move

WASHINGTON, Aug. 5. (AP)—New successes by the Korean Red army may compel a revision in American mobilization plans to bring more combat-ready troops into action faster.

The need now is for more new units of ground forces, for individual replacements and for more men in the general program for expansion of the Army.

But is now must decide how much can be committed to the Korean war, how much must be kept in reserve at home. It must weigh the urgent needs for Korea against the danger that forces may be needed in a hurry to deal with an outbreak somewhere else.

Left in this country are four Army divisions, a Marine division, some smaller units and the National Guard. Of the Guard, four of 27 divisions now are under orders for federalization.

High military planners have been talking recently of the probability that it would be late fall or early winter before additional National Guard divisions could be brought into federal service under the present mobilization plan. They explained that facilities of the regular army are limited and that men must be trained to bring up to wartime strength the four guard divisions already selected.

But that was before it began to appear the last water barrier on the perimeter of the South Korean defense line might not be held.

At the Pentagon today, spokesmen still maintained, emphatically, that the South Korean beachhead would be held until the time when a build-up of strength would allow a break-out and the beginning of a counter offensive.

But they did not insist that the Naktong River line was the final position.

Estimates of the time it will take to get the four National Guard divisions filled out to full manpower strength and ready for duty in the Far East range up to several months. But in the meantime, the requirements for defense of the Korean beachhead are mounting.

Wipe Out Red Battalion In Try To Cross River

Active Patrolling Marks War Front

TOKYO, Sunday, Aug. 6. (AP)—Small North Korean patrols knifed across the Naktong river today along a 40-mile front after a battalion attempting a crossing in strength was wiped out yesterday on the north.

Aside from the aggressive patrolling on both sides of the nervous, 140-mile front, there was no activity. The Reds were believed to be feeling out Allied positions for a big blow, expected hourly.

Byrd Predicts US Spending To Hit $70 Billion

WASHINGTON, Aug. 5. (AP)—Senator Byrd (D-Va.) predicted today that military needs will boost federal spending to the $60-to-$70 billion bracket yearly, with taxes falling to $10 billion or more short of that mark.

Before the Korean outbreak, federal costs were at a rate of roughly $40 billion a year.

Byrd, the Senate's chief economy advocate, told a reporter he figures the Senate cut President Truman's budget for this fiscal year ending in mid-1951 about $2 billion. This was done in approving the $34,237,000,000 one package appropriations bill yesterday. The measure covers the bulk of government costs. The balance consists principally of fixed charges, such as debt interest.

The House, which hasn't passed on the foreign aid section of the measure, is expected to send the one-package appropriation to a Senate-House conference committee next week.

Byrd pointed out that cuts made by the Senate in non-defense and non-foreign aid spending have been far out-weighted by military fund increases asked by President Truman to fight the Korean war and to discourage Communist aggression elsewhere.

Thus far, Mr. Truman has asked Congress for about $16,500,000,000 in military funds including $4,000,000,000 in foreign military aid. This is over and above the $14,500,000,000 in cash and contract authority approved for the armed services in the one-package bill.

WHERE REDS HIT AT KOREAN DEFENSES—The dark arrows on the map show North Korean thrusts against U. S. and South Korean defenders (open arrows) in southeast Korea. Reds in Chinju area (A) are believed ready to start a drive (broken arrow) for Pusan. North Koreans are reported massing in the Kochang-Kumchon sector (B) for an attack on Taegu. Communist forces crossed the Naktong River east and southeast of Sanju (C). 8th army headquarters reported. At Incheon (D), a 10,000 to Red ship was sunk. Sparkman Urges Price Ceilings On Meat, Lumber

Asks HST Clamp Down When Solons Give Him Power

WASHINGTON, Aug. 5. (AP)—Sen. Sparkman (D-Ala.) today urged President Truman to clamp price ceilings speedily on such items as meat and lumber if Congress grants the discretionary authority.

Both commodities, Sparkman said, are outstanding examples of a need for controls quickly in advance of any general price curb program.

Sparkman talked to reporters as Congress got set for a new effort next week to end confusion and send a home front mobilization bill to the White House.

House members were attempting over the week end to work out a compromise which would add wage-price rationing authority to the partial controls program sought by Mr. Truman.

The President has said he will accept the broader powers if they come to him without restrictive strings.

Tuesday the House plans to start voting again on the matter. It got almost nowhere in four days work on the Truman bill this week.

The Senate Banking Committee will meet Monday to consider a proposed final draft of a bill which would give Mr. Truman full discretion to invoke wage-price controls and rationing. In tentative form, the bill appears to be pretty much along the line the President specified if Congress insists on the more drastic control powers.

The Senate group turned to that plan after rejecting a formula which Mr. Truman had denounced. It called for putting wage-price-rationing controls into effect automatically if the government's cost of living index climbed six per cent above the level of last June 12.

SOVIET VETO

Could Not Stop UN Korea Effort

By The Associated Press LAKE SUCCESS, Aug. 5. (AP)—Delegates in the United Nations say a Soviet veto cannot stop the UN war effort against invading North Korean Reds now, but could frustrate the security council if the Communists start trouble anywhere else.

If a new Communist outbreak occurs and the Russians block the council by a veto, the west will go promptly to the general assembly for action.

UN diplomats have waited vainly this week for Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister Jakob A. Malik to show why he returned to the security council last Tuesday after a half-year boycott. He introduced Friday a peace program for Korea, but the view of some diplomats is that he came back really to isolate the United States from its allies in the UN.

Ambassador John M. Chang, of the republic of Korea, in a statement called the Communist group in North Korea a "Russian inspired, Russian-financed, Russian-armed and Russian-directed effort to overthrow the republic of Korea and thus extinguish the last vestige of democracy and free government in Northeast Asia."

He said there is no need to ask anyone from these Communists to be present at the council "if the puppeteer already is in attendance at the council."

An American spokesman gave this sizeup today: "This country will continue to oppose Malik's attempt to invite the North Koreans to the council table. Most members say that inviting the North Koreans here to talk about a peaceful settlement would be like asking to tea a man who had burned down your front porch. The issue is the refusal of the North Koreans to obey the cease-fire and withdrawal order laid down by the security council June 25, the day the war started."

Malik's peace plan called for the council to invite the Red Chinese and North Koreans to the table, for cessation of hostilities and for withdrawal of foreign troops from Korea.

Dallas War Plants Call For Workers

DALLAS, Aug. 5. (AP)—Seven Dallas firms, producing planes, apparel and armament for fighting forces, issued a call for 500 workers today.

It is the largest number sought for defense work in recent weeks, and for the first time there are job openings for semi-skilled workers. M. R. Kelly, Dallas district director of Texas Employment Commission, said:

Hiring is not yet on a mass basis, Kelly said, and all job openings call for previous experience. The TEC announced a new peacetime July record by placing 5,929 persons on jobs in Dallas County.

G-Men Deny Fugitives Have Been Arrested

DALLAS, Aug. 5. (AP)—The FBI tonight denied a report that Fred and Madge Whiteaker, listed as the most wanted fugitives by the Dallas FBI, had been arrested in Louisiana.

The FBI said it had been reported to them that a couple arrested in a stolen car in Jennings, La., were the Whiteakers.

However, a check showed it was just a false report, the FBI said.

Demo Chief May Be Candidate For Mayor

HOUSTON, Aug. 5. (AP)—County Democratic Chairman Bob Tucker said today he may be a candidate for mayor of Houston in the Oct. 14 city primary.

Tucker was re-elected county chairman in the July Democratic primary over two opponents.

LUBBOCK VOTES TO STAY DRY

LUBBOCK, Aug. 5. (AP)—Lubbock County voters turned out in heavy numbers today to defeat a proposal for the sale of alcoholic beverages by a count of 9,755 to 5,480.

With all 33 boxes in the county complete tonight, only four had voted wet with a fifth deadlocked.

Andrews County, approximately 80 miles southwest of Lubbock, also voted to remain dry today on the sale of beer and wine.

17TH ANNUAL SHOW CLOSES

Bill Barton Of Clyde Named All-Around Cowboy At Rodeo

Bill Barton of Clyde, who is well known around rodeo arenas throughout the United States, was named champion all-around cowboy in the 17th annual Big Spring Rodeo as the show closed out Saturday night.

At the same time two Big Spring contestants paced the calf roping, taking both first and second places for the entire show.

Sonny Edwards, who tackled up a new Big Spring record of 10.8 seconds Thursday night gained top laurels in the roping department with a total of 22.3 seconds on two calves, while Toots Mansfield was second with a total of 25.4 on two calves.

Paul Laning, another record smasher from Killeen, was the Big Spring 1950 champion steer wrestler. He established a Big Spring record of 34 seconds on Thursday night. His total on two animals was 9.1 seconds.

Rex Beck of Valera, with a total of 25.7, was third in calf roping, while Troy Fort of Lovington, N. M., was fourth with 26.3.

Russ Mathers of San Angelo was second in steer wrestling with 12.1 for two twist-downs, while Bill Barton, the champion all-around cowboy, was third, and Whit Keehey of Stephenville was fourth.

riding championship was Sonny Lavender of Holliday. Barton placed second in that event, with Weeks third and Watson fourth.

Rosemary Rice of Big Spring won the Saturday night girls barrel race with a time of 20.3. In second place was Billy McBride of San Angelo with 20.5, while Patsy Davis of Sterling City was third with 22.5 and Charlene Wilson of Big Spring was fourth with 23.1.

Spectators at the Friday night performance witnessed some speedy time events, but for the first time since the 1950 show opened, no records were broken.

James Leonard of Del Rio posted a 14.2 for the best time in calf roping during the regular show, but he was ousted by after-show ropers. After the formal show was over, Lanham Riley of Fort Worth made a tie in 12.4 seconds, while Earl Teague of Camp Hood was second with 13.3, and Jim Espy from Fort Davis was third with 13.9.

Paul Laning of Killeen kept the torrid competition going in the steer wrestling event with a time of 9.7 seconds. L. G. Gibbs, also of Killeen, was second with 9.8.

Whit Keehey of Stephenville was third with 6.7 and Dub Phillips of San Angelo was fourth with 7.2.

Lee Tugman of Abilene took the lead in the wild cow milking contest with a time of 29 seconds. Johnny Fitzgerald of Fort Davis was second among the Friday night performers with 32.7, and Jess Slaughter Jr. of Big Spring was third with 34.1.

ARE YOU WORRIED?

Selective Service Policy Explained

WASHINGTON, Aug. 5. (AP)—Worried whether the draft might yank the boy out of school? Or whether you yourself can get a deferment? Nobody can tell you for sure what will happen. But Selective Service officials say this is the policy, laid down partly in laws and partly in regulations.

Only persons in the 19 through 25 age group can be drafted now, although 18-year-olds must register.

If you are in the right age bracket and have a job, it's up to your local draft board to decide whether your type of work is of the kind and importance to warrant a deferment. The board is supposed to defer anyone whose employment or occupation "is found to be necessary to the maintenance of national health, safety, or interests."

Nobody is giving the board yet a definite list of jobs the government considers vital, so the board has pretty wide discretion.

The Commerce and Labor Department have given the Armed Services lists of critical occupations to use as a guide in calling up members of the reserves and National Guard. But Selective Service shows little interest in such lists. After all, its job isn't to see that business has enough manpower, but that the Armed Services do.

Suppose your boy is going to school and is eligible for the draft. He can stay in high school until he graduates, reaches his 20th birthday or fails to do satisfactory work. If the draft board thinks he is trying to flunk so he can stay in school longer, it can draft him.

A lad who gets a draft call while in college can finish out the academic year.

Of if he is taking senior ROTC in his last two years, he can stay in school if he agrees to take a commission when he is through and remain on active duty at least two years.

Or the draft board can defer him if it decides it would serve the national health, safety or interest for him to complete his course. Medical or scientific students, for instance, might get deferments.

What if the Army gets the boy before he is through college? Is the government going to finance his schooling after he gets out of service?

It did for World War II veterans. And bills are pending in Congress to extend education and other bene-

Boy Missing While Fishing Is Found—Still Fishing

PORT ARANSAS, Aug. 5. (AP)—A 19-year-old Tulsa, Okla., youth missing since he was last reported fishing here July 22, had police in six states searching for him. But he was found here this afternoon still fishing.

Kenneth W. Bloomberg, son of the house of his aunt Mrs. C. W. Johnson of Corpus Christi, July 22 to fish on Mustang Island.

He was not heard from since by Mrs. Johnson or by his parents.

The Bloombergs contacted Tulsa police and peace officers in five states were sent into the search.

The elder Bloomberg, himself on a fishing vacation trip to Colorado, and rushed to Port Aransas to join the search.

However, the youth turned up this afternoon on Mustang Island, still fishing.

Young Bloomberg reported to his father he left the Johnson residence and fished at Port Aransas for a few days but was not having much luck.

The youth, a pre-medical student at the University of Texas, said he wrote his father by airmail letter that he was going to Tampico, Mexico to try his luck there.

His parents did not receive the letter.

Bloomberg fished at Tampico for several days and then returned to Port Aransas. His fishing luck was better this time so he stayed on until he was found.

Bloomberg and his son left here together today, presumably for more fishing.

BRAKEMAN ERRS

50 Injured In Train Collision

HUNTINGTON, N. Y., Aug. 5 (AP)—A young brakeman opened a main line switch in front of a Long Island passenger train today and sent it crashing into a freight train parked on a siding.

Nearly 50 persons were reported injured, but there were no deaths. Police headquarters estimated the injured at between 45 and 50, but said only three of them needed hospital treatment.

The brakeman was identified by police as Robert Colgan, 22, who had swung down from the freight after it parked, to adjust the switches connecting the siding with the main line.

He sobbed at police headquarters as he signed a statement saying that he had taken the conductor's wave as a signal to reverse the switch.

The six-car passenger train collided with a three-car freight at the entrance to a siding, the railroad said, and the engine of the passenger train left the track and overturned.

The railroad said two passenger cars were derailed but remained upright.

The Huntington hospital reported it was caring for 40 persons, whose injuries varied from "serious" for the engineer and fireman, to first aid dressings.

Thousands of persons swarmed the area for a view of the accident, reminiscent of the train wreck at Rockville Centre last February when 31 persons were killed.

The railroad said the westbound freight train was standing on the siding, waiting for the passenger train to pass before entering the main track.

The passenger train entered the siding and collided with the first car of the freight train, the railroad said.

Californians Hurt In Plane Crash

MEXICO CITY, Aug. 5 (AP)—Four Californians were injured today when their small private plane was forced down near here.

William Richard Blaisdell, 39, of San Diego, and George Matthews, 38, of San Francisco, were in a hospital with head injuries.

The other two, Robert E. Hale, 35, of San Diego, and William John Grogan, 30, of National City, were not seriously hurt.

AFTER MARSHALL PLAN?

Administration Set To Recast Future Economic Aid Plans

WASHINGTON, Aug. 5 (AP)—The Truman administration is beginning to recast its plans for future foreign economic aid as a result of the Korean crisis.

Top officials are already largely convinced that the need to expand and speed up western European defense programs will compel this country to continue large scale assistance to western Europe after the Marshall Plan ends.

What success these officials would have in getting such a program through Congress remains to be seen, however. Already there is much sentiment in Capitol Hill to cut the Marshall Plan in view of increased military spending. This week Marshall Plan funds escaped reduction by narrow margins in the Senate, and another effort is to be made to cut them in the House.

Officials who feel that economic

Guardsmen Join Navy Because Tanks Are Too Hot, They Say

GAINESVILLE, Aug. 5 (AP)—The Texas adjutant general says that the nine Gainesville National Guardmen who want to join the Navy can do so.

The nine men, members of the 49th Armored Division, were to take physical examinations for the Navy in Dallas today.

Asked if they joined the Navy because they were tired of waiting for action, one of the youths replied, "Hell no, it gets too hot in those tanks."

"We have no right to stand in the way of men who want to go on active duty," Texas Adjutant General K. L. Berry said.

aid probably will be necessary after the Marshall Plan ends base their belief partly on this.

The atmosphere of uncertainty in the world as to the prospects for war or peace appear to have reduced drastically the chances for private investments in the so-called underdeveloped areas. The government has been counting on such investments to take up much of the slack in American spending abroad after the Marshall Plan.

The problem of what sort of aid should be given to prop up Europe's war-strained economies—aside from purely military assistance—is primarily the concern of Gordon Gray, special assistant to President Truman. Gray had to write his initial report after the Korean outbreak but expects to give Mr. Truman a comprehensive study of the whole foreign aid question late next month.

In addition, W. Averell Harriman, the President's top foreign affairs co-ordinator, has devoted considerable attention to this question and so have ranking officials of the State Department and Economic Co-operation Administration.

France Said To Double Defense Expenditures

PARIS, Aug. 5 (AP)—The French cabinet approved tonight a note to the United States which authoritative sources said commits France to possibly double her defense spending next year. The 1950 military budget totals 420 billion francs (about $1,260 million).

The French memorandum answers a request by the United States to its North Atlantic Pact allies for information on what steps they can take to bolster western defenses against Communist aggression. It is believed to carry a request for dollar aid to foot most of the bill.

Britain announced Friday that she is ready to boost her defense spending to a total of $9,520 million over the next three years, provided she is given substantial assistance by the United States.

Britain and France are the most powerful European members of the 12-nation alliance. One of the smaller members, Denmark, announced today that she proposes to spend 400 million kroner (about $57,100,000) on rearmament and civil defense in the next two years.

Pontiff Opposes Excesses Of State Control

CASTEL GANDOLFO, Italy, Aug. 5 (AP)—Pope Pius XII spoke out today against excesses of state control, declaring "neither the individual nor the family should be absorbed by the state."

He addressed in French 200 delegates from 10 nations who had attended the Eighth International Congress of Administrative Sciences in Florence.

He declared that the true notion of the state "is that of a moral organism based on the moral order of the world. It is not an omnipotent oppression of all legitimate autonomy."

The pontiff said there were certain rights of individuals and families the state must always protect and cannot "violate or sacrifice to a pretended common good."

WINGS OVER BIG SPRING

Reece-Based Planes Fly Over Local Area

Air Force B-25s from Reece field, Lubbock, were in the air over Big Spring most of last week. Student pilots at the Lubbock field have been using Municipal airport as an auxiliary base, practicing night and daylight landings and takeoffs practically every day. They are also taking advantage of equipment here to train in making instrument approaches and let-downs.

Big Spring Airman Ben Funk is now installing the latest in omnireceiver radio equipment in his Cessna 140, local CAA contract ship. He has just returned from a two-weeks vacation at St. Louis. Funk flew the local pipeline patrol plane to the Missouri metropolis and return.

J. D. Church, district CAA airport engineer, has purchased a new Cessna 140 which is now based at Mummy field. Church sold his Cessna Airmaster last week.

Farm Air Service planes remained in the air almost constantly during daylight hours last week dusting Howard county crops which are heavily infested with insects. Bill Edwards, FAS manager, has been converting a Piper Cub into an additional "duster" and expects to have the craft ready to go Monday. Dusting operations will probably continue for several days.

Barney Edens is currently renovating an old airport building for his Big Spring Catering Service, which provides food for serving on airline planes stopping here. The new building is being readied near the Municipal Airport terminal.

Lee Christian has completed solo work in preparation for his pilot's license. He logged several hours last week in solo flight, shooting landings and practicing takeoffs.

Jack Cook, Mummy airport manager and chairman for district No. 3 of the Texas chapter of the American Association of Airport Executives, will fly to the statewide meeting of the chapter at Temple Sept. 2.

Cook's district comprises the Spring and intermediate points. He will be accompanied to the meeting by Dennis Humphrey, San Angelo airport manager, and Clyde Sharrer, Midland field manager.

Robeson Asking Why His Passport Was Cancelled

NEW YORK, Aug. 5 (AP)—Paul Robeson wants to talk to Secretary of State Acheson to find out why his passport has been cancelled.

The left-wing Negro singer says he needs to travel abroad to earn a living—and that he can't do that without a passport.

His attorney, Nathan Witt, sent a request to Acheson, asking for a conference to explain the cancellation.

Witt said the appeal was made directly to Acheson because a previous letter to the State Department on the matter was unanswered.

In disclosing the cancellation, a State Department spokesman said the department felt Robeson's actions were not always in the interests of the United States.

MOSCOW, Aug. 5 (AP)—Moscow's two leading newspapers, Pravda and Izvestia, today called cancellation of American Negro singer Paul Robeson's passport by the U. S. State Department "persecution."

U. S. Students Sing And Dance In Yugoslavia

PITTSBURGH, Aug. 5 (AP)—A score of Duquesne University collegians have been singing and dancing their way through Yugoslavia this summer.

The University's Tamburitzans embarked in late June to show the people there that Yugoslav culture is part of the American way of life.

The folk song and dance ensemble also got a chance to check up on the authenticity of their offerings—on the home grounds of their Slavic peasant folk songs and dances.

The U. S. Department of State thought the group tour of the Communist-dominated country was a good idea.

Donald B. Cook, chief of the voluntary programs branch, wrote Tamburitzan director Matt L. Gouze that the State Department is "interested in furthering privately sponsored projects in the field of cultural and educational exchange."

Cook said the American Embassy in Belgrade had been asked to help the Tamburitzans wherever possible. The Pittsburgh collegians are the first American cultural group to enter Yugoslavia since the end of World War II.

Americans of Yugoslav descent also like the idea of the tour. The artistic and cultural societies of Yugoslavia, a United States organization, is sharing a part of the tour expenses.

The U. S. Army invited the group to present programs before American military forces in Germany, Italy and Austria. The army will fly the college boys and girls back to the states Aug. 18 in time to start the new school year.

The Tamburitzans get their name from the tamburitza—the household musical instrument of the Croats. It is the forerunner of the mandolin, guitar and balalaika.

The touring American student group includes students of Yugoslav descent, as well as Serbian, Slovenian, Ukrainian, Hungarian, Bulgarian and other eastern European nationalities.

FOR NEXT FISCAL YEAR

HCJC Trustees Will Present Budget Totalling $150,800

Howard County Junior college trustees will present a proposed budget calling for expenditures totalling $150,800 for the next fiscal year at their regular meeting Thursday night.

The hearing is set for 8 p.m. in the college library.

The proposed operating budget represents a decrease from that of 1949, which proposed expenditures totalling $155,320.

Interest and sinking fund requirements for the coming year, however, will amount to $30,510, which includes $13,000 for bonds to be retired and $17,510 for coupons.

The over-all budget calls for a tax levy of 25-cents per $100 valuation, the same as last year, with 22 1/2-cents earmarked for the general fund and 12 1/2-cents for the interest and sinking fund.

Anticipated revenue for the interest and sinking fund includes $28,033 from taxes and a transfer of $1,500 from the general fund. The interest and sinking fund has a balance of $975 at present, which will complete the requirements for the year.

Interest on bonds will require about $4,500 during the coming year, but the figure will be reduced subsequently, since the first year's interest payments actually will cover a period of 18 months. The bonds were sold about six months before the start of the next fiscal year.

Principal sources of income for the general fund include an estimated $65,700 from county taxes, $60,000 from tuition payments and fees, $23,000 from the state and $13,000 from the bookstore. Smaller amounts will come from miscellaneous sources such as laboratory deposits, library deposits, athletics, the cafeteria, etc.

In all, estimated receipts total $183,705.

Largest item among proposed expenditures is $82,000 for administration and instruction, an increase of $4,500 over the past

Taylor Elective Officers To Get Salary Raises

ABELINE, Aug. 5 (P)—Elective county officers including the four county commissioners will receive 25 per cent raises in their salaries. The commissioners adopted a motion to this effect in Friday's session.

Action was taken under provisions of an enabling act passed during the special legislative session last year, allowing commissioner to raise salaries of elective county officials. The act set a maximum of 25 per cent on the salary raises.

County superintendent is not affected by the motion as his wage is set by the county school board. Any protests on the resolution may be laid before the court here Aug. 28 which is the final date for action.

Raises of 25 per cent in all county salaries were set up in budget proposals for 1950, but these were not voted by the court.

Job Placements Top Work Applications At TEC This Week

Job placements outnumbered new work applications at the Texas Employment Commission office here last week, Leon M. Kinney, manager, reported Saturday.

There were a total of 56 placements made, including 20 on agricultural jobs. New applications for work totalled 40.

There were 526 visits to the local TEC office. Fifty-two referrals were made and 18 persons filed claims.

Spellman Calls For More Chaplains In U.S. Armed Forces

NEW YORK, Aug. 5 (P)—Francis Cardinal Spellman has urged more Catholic priests to become chaplains in our armed forces.

The New York archbishop, who heads the church's military ordination in this country, called the attention of all U.S. bishops to the need for "additional appointments to the chaplains corps from their respective dioceses."

The chancery office said the cardinal was confident that American priests would volunteer "as in World War II, when there were 3,137 full-time Catholic chaplains and 1,631 auxiliary Catholic chaplains."

While no estimate was made of the number now needed, the cardinal called for volunteers from among the priests of the New York archdiocese—especially those ordained between 1940 and 1947.

First of the Fine Cars in Value

YOU can see this man has made his mark in life, and while his heart's still young.

You can tell he likes action for his money—that he knows a fine car needn't be the most expensive to give the greatest value.

Yes, such are the things you know of any man, when you note that his car is a ROADMASTER.

Follow him on his spirited way as he pilots this lively motorcar through traffic. Even the lightweights are no match for this road-steady husky—not with the 152-horsepower straight-eight Fireball engine that purrs beneath its bonnet.

Maneuver beside him at the next stop light. Then just try to get away as smoothly, swiftly and silently as Dynaflo Drive gets his ROADMASTER going—and keeps it rolling without shifting, even automatically.

But don't waste time merely envying

the man in this great car! Why not emulate him?

With all its outside room, interior luxury and exterior grace—with all its front-rank prestige, rare performance and matchless ride—a ROADMASTER can be yours for less than some smaller cars cost.

In fact, even if you had a fortune to spend, you couldn't make a more fortunate buy in the fine-car field.

So we suggest you try a few minutes behind the wheel. We're confident they will convince you that ROADMASTER has everything you could ever ask for in any motorcar—although your Buick dealer asks a good bit less for ROADMASTER than you might pay for other top-line cars.

MAGAZINE REPORTS

War Scare Boosts July Construction

AUSTIN, Aug. 5. — The war scare apparently promoted a building boom in Texas in July as people hurried to avoid possible government controls, Texas Contractor Magazine said today.

"The President's order tightening up on home loans has had no apparent effect on home building during July as there have been increases almost universally throughout the state in building permit values," the trade journal commented.

Construction contracts for July totaled $99,951,091 for all kinds of work, setting a record for this particular month.

Non-residential work accounted for more than one-half the total at $51,799,845. Residential added $32,761,610, and engineering, $15,390,135.

Home-building in July exceeded the June level by nearly $8 million, according to Contractor Magazine.

Largest contract of the month, $5 million, went to Thomas L. Byrne of Fort Worth for a 15-story office building in that city. Byrne also was awarded a $2 million Fort Worth airport job.

School building contracts at $14,006,010 were double the amount for that category in July of last year. Awards for this week amounted to $19,242,577. Residential jobs totaled $7,232,600; non-residential, $6,848,001; and engineering, $5,161,976.

Lettings on 814 homes accounted for $6,836,300; apartments providing 56 one-family units, $213,500; 16 duplexes, $182,800.

CONVICTED — John Henry Grant, 32-year-old aviator engineer, sits impassively in a Santa Monica, Calif., court after he was convicted by a jury of attempting to kill his wife and two children who were among passengers on an airliner. Betty Hutton, Hubby Back Together Again

HOLLYWOOD, Aug. 5 (AP)—Betty Hutton and husband Ted Brikin are home together again.

The radio and movie comedienne and the Chicago camera manufacturer flew here Friday from the windy city after another reconciliation.

Betty had been awarded an interlocutory divorce decree but as after previous quarrels and separations they have reconsidered. Their two children, Lindsay, 4, and Candice, two, were at the airport when the couple arrived.

"We've reached a new understanding," Brikin said, "and we're sure we're going to be happy."

Rainbow Vets Of World War I Meet Here Today

World War I veterans who served with Co. D, 117th Supply Train of the Rainbow Division will assemble here today, for their annual reunion.

The Co. D veterans and their families are due to begin their celebration at 10 a. m. at the Big Spring American Legion hut, and they will remain there for a barbecue luncheon and a continued visit into the afternoon.

A good attendance is expected at the 1950 event, according to advance notices received by the arrangements committee. Twenty-one members of the company who now live out of town had informed the committee that they would attend. Notices had been received from several points extending from Dallas to Arizona.

The permanent committee on arrangements is composed of R. L. 'Panche' Nall, Dr. C. W. Deats and Buck Hull.

Actual anniversary of the company is Aug. 5, and the reunion is held each year on the Sunday following the anniversary date. Co. D, was originally composed of Big Spring men exclusively, but others from Colorado City, Snyder, Sweetwater and Midland were added when the unit went into Federal service to bring it up to wartime strength.

The reunions have been held here annually since 1919.

Teachers To Attend Meeting At Houston

GARDEN CITY, Aug. 5—Doris Morehead, homemaking teacher at the Garden City High school has gone to Houston where she will attend the annual state conference for homemaking teachers.

The conference opens Monday and continues through Saturday at the Rice hotel. A planning committee comprised of representative teachers over the state planned the program. Special emphasis will be given to contributions of homemaking education to the "life adjustment program."

Dictator Air Prevails As Bogota Inauguration Nears

BOGOTA, Colombia, Aug. 5 (AP)—Dr. Laureano Gomez Castro, who was once an anti-dictator revolutionary, is to become president of Colombia Monday in an atmosphere of government restriction.

The 61-year-old, strong-willed Conservative is to be sworn in before the Supreme Court of Justice, succeeding President Mariano Ospina Perez, also a Conservative.

Normally the ceremony would be held before Congress. But Congress has been suspended since Ospina Perez decreed a state of siege (a modified form of martial law) last November. This was ordered during an acrid election campaign waged by the volatile, unopposed Gomez. President Ospina Perez explained the state of siege was necessary to halt sanguinary political clashes.

The Liberal Party, which had a majority in Congress, boycotted the election because it was held under a state of siege. Continuing this opposition the party's national committee has forbidden members to participate in the administration. The Liberals contend Gomez victory was obtained through fraud and violence.

Soon after he was graduated as a civil engineer in 1913, Gomez became associated with a group of young zealots who overthrew the dictatorship of Gen. Rafael Reyes. For 20 years he has been the strong man of the Conservative Party—tenacious, implacable.

Liberals accuse the president-elect of sympathizing with anti-Democratic governments. Most liberal newspapers are planning not to publish Monday, in protest against the current regime's censorship.

A statement from a meeting of managing editors asserted that censorship has prevented editorial criticism of the government. It accused the government of banning the publication of news of "incidents of violence which continued to be registered throughout the country." It added that censorship had prevented publication even of the UN declaration on human rights.

In the current world tension Gomez has expressed his approval of a message of solidarity and support sent by President Ospina Perez to President Truman. Referring to Korea the president-elect said "there is no doubt that the government and the people of Colombia are closely on the side of the President and people of the United States in order to obtain full obedience to the Security Council resolutions."

Center Man Dies As Things Look Up

HOUSTON, Aug. 5 (AP)—Things had been looking up for L. B. Bradshaw, 30.

Bradshaw moved here two weeks ago from Center. He was out of a job. His wife was expecting a baby. Bradshaw got the job, and planned to send for his wife next week. His motorcycle skidded on a soft road spot last night. He died today of a fractured skull—an hour after his widow, Mrs. Sybil Bradshaw, got to his bedside.

Mexico Receives Formal Request For Ochoa Extradition

MEXICO CITY, Aug. 5. (AP)—The Mexican government now has in black and white the Texas claim that George W. Ochoa is a U. S. citizen and should be sent back to Texas to face murder charges. The formal request for Ochoa's extradition was received by the Federal Justice Department. Accompanying the documents was a copy of a birth certificate which says Ochoa was born July 3, 1913, in Laredo, Texas. Ochoa, accused of two Laredo hotel room slayings, claims he was born in Mexico. Mexico is reluctant to grant extradition of her own nationals. Next step is for the papers to be sent to the federal judge in Tijuana, head of the district which includes Mexico. Where Ochoa was arrested. His decision will be only advisory as President Miguel Aleman personally will decide on extradition.

RUN-OFF VOTE AUG. 26

Candidates For Lt.-Governor Get Prominent Endorsements

By The Associated Press
Both candidates for lieutenant governor in the Aug. 26 run-off primary drew endorsements Saturday from prominent Texans. Durwood Manford, speaker of the Texas House of Representatives, announced support of Ben Ramsey of San Augustine. Lt. Gen. Jonathan M. Wainwright, hero of Bataan, endorsed Pierce Brooks of Dallas. The two candidates for lieutenant governor will head the run-off balloting, which will mark two weeks from next Saturday. Both began touring the state last week and were to continue their broad and rapid campaign swings this week. Manford said Ramsey "is the only candidate for lieutenant governor who has had any training for the job." Wainwright said Brooks is a "businessman of wide experience and in these perilous times though which our country is going at present I feel businessmen of great experience are a material asset, not only to the nation but to their states as well." Manford said he had not made an endorsement in the race during last month's first primary because he had several friends with legislative experience seeking the post. Brooks and Ramsey moved into the run-off by leading a field of 12 candidates in the July primary. Manford, who did not seek reelection this year, was a member of the House of Representatives while Ramsey was a state senator. "I am happy to endorse the candidacy of Ben Ramsey," Manford said Saturday. "I know he is the only man in the race who has had any legislative experience and I know from personal experience he will be able to work with both houses of the legislature in the trying days ahead." Wainwright said Brooks would be an "able supporting partner" to Gov. Allan Shivers. "Mr. Brooks, with his mature business experience, is highly qualified for the important office of lieutenant governor," the retired general said. Wainwright now is a San Antonio businessman. "As president of an insurance company, I am proud and happy to support the candidacy of another insurance man, a much more noted insurance man than I," Wainwright said. Meanwhile, Brooks issued a statement criticizing Ramsey for "seeking refuge in the words 'mud-slinging' when the light of truth is thrown on his record." He challenged his opponent to announce names of individuals and corporations supporting his campaign financially. "The people have a right to know to whom a candidate for high public office is indebted," Brooks said. "I have nothing to hide and as lieutenant governor I shall be indebted only to the people of Texas." Ramsey made no reply, but Manford's endorsement statement said, "I can go along with Ramsey in his policy on economy. I know Ben is sincere in his desire to save money."

Royal Couple Find Second Baby Cheaper

By The Associated Press
LONDON, Aug. 5.—Princess Elizabeth and Prince Philip are finding that a second royal baby comes a little cheaper. They are waiting for the arrival about next week end of a sister—or brother—to 20-month-old Prince Charles. The new Prince or Princess will succeed to young Prince Charles' hand-me-downs—his outgrown baby clothes and discarded toys. Like many another young married couple, Philip and Elizabeth have saved them all. The best unofficial guesses put the arrival of the new baby—third in line behind Princess Elizabeth and Prince Charles for the British throne—between next Thursday and the following Tuesday. Court circles are picking the middle dates, say next Saturday or Sunday. While Charles was born in Buckingham Palace, London home of King George VI and Queen Elizabeth, the Princess expects to have the new baby at 18th Century Clarence House. A few minutes walk from Buckingham Palace, Clarence House has been modernized as the home of Princess Elizabeth and Prince Philip. Prince Philip returned home from Malta about 10 days ago. He is on a month's leave from the British Navy. His arrival home coincided with his promotion from lieutenant to lieutenant commander. By use of the electron microscope, tiny objects can be enlarged as many as 100,000 times and easily photographed.

Oil Industry Concerned Over Storage Space

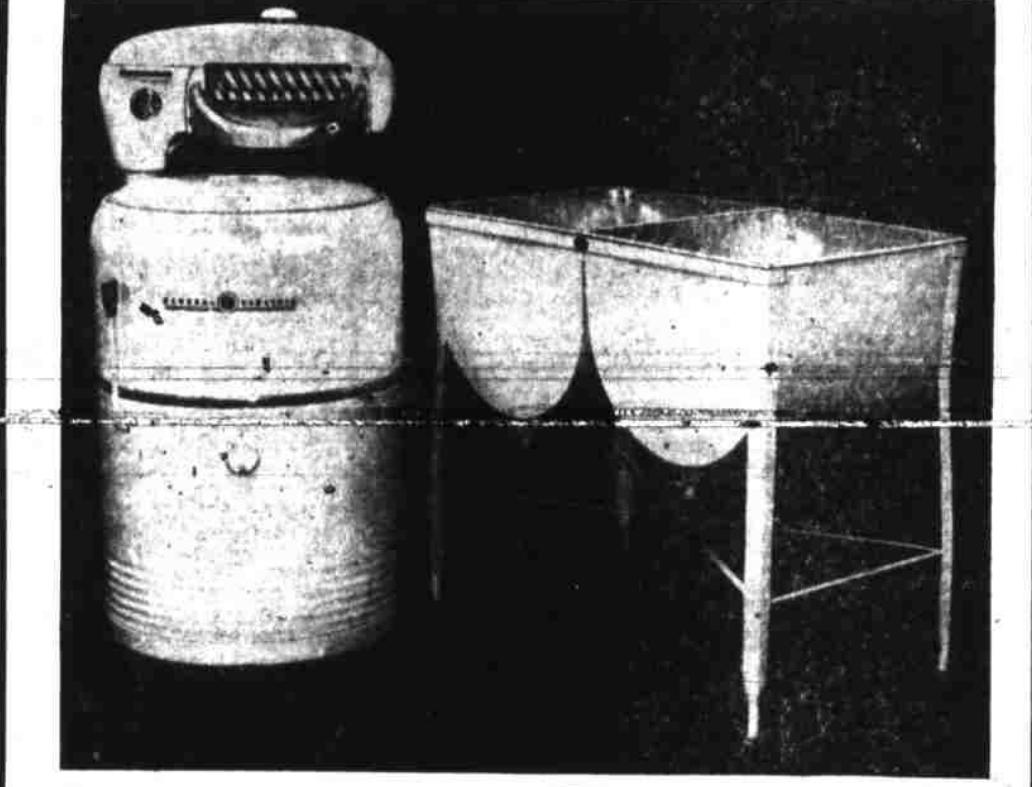

By CHARLES HASLET
WASHINGTON, Aug. 5. (AP)—The oil industry, preparing to meet increasing demands for its products, is concerned with storage facilities as well as steel supplies. An industry spokesman, who declined use of his name, said here this week that "one of the greatest needs of the industry" is a resurvey of the oil storage situation. He said the last report on available facilities was made in 1948. It showed total tankage at storage terminals was 416,727,000 barrels. "The question," he said, "is what has happened since that report. Some of that tankage may have been moved or abandoned and some new tankage has been provided. The defense establishment is vitally interested in storage." Two committees are at work to determine the industry's steel needs in preparation for possible government controls and allocation of steel. One of the committees was named by the National Petroleum Council, an industry group set up by the Independent Petroleum Association of America. Most of the oil legislation now pending in Congress probably is dead for this session, according to industry representatives here. This legislation includes bills to curb oil imports, to direct the Federal Trade Commission to investigate production, refining and distribution, and to prohibit producers, refiners and marketers from operating tankers and barges. There is a possibility, they say, that action may be taken on a bill by Senator Myers (D-Pa.) for a fuels policy study. The Senate Interior committee approved the bill after cutting expense funds from $100,000 to $20,000. The measure now is in the rules committee. Chairman O'Mahoney (D-Wyo.) of the Interior committee is trying for early action on his bill to give the Secretary of the Interior interim jurisdiction over submerged oil and off the coasts. This jurisdiction would hold until the courts or Congress decide the controversy between the states and the federal government over the so-called tidelands. Committee clerks said O'Mahoney is awaiting views of the Justice and Interior departments before setting date for a hearing on the bill.

Locations Staked In Howard, Borden

New locations in both the Reliance and Vealmoor fields and two wildcats in northeast Howard county were announced Saturday.

A wildcat venture is the J. H. Wood, Jr. No. 1 Clyde E. Thomas, Drillete is to be two and one-half miles west of Shell Oil Company No. 1 O'Daniel, which is attempting to make a producer from a Canyon lime section at 7,955-8,005 feet.

The proposed No. 1 Thomas will be in the east-central section of section 66, block 28, H&TC survey. Slotted depth is 8,100 feet.

It is 1 1/2 miles northeast of Big Spring. Operations are slated to begin by October 1.

Rutherford and Heep have staked their No. 3-A T. L. Griffin, located 973 feet from the east and 457 feet from the south lines of Sec. 59-25, H&TC survey.

An outpost to production in the Reliance field, it will drill to 7,000 feet.

Spartan Drilling Co. and Big West Drilling Co., both of Dallas, have located their No. 1 Heddett 330 feet from the south and 560 feet from the east lines of the northeast quarter of Sec. 29-32-3n-T&P.

It will drill at least to 8,000 feet to test Pennsylvanian lime, and operations are to start immediately.

The Burdell No. 1 J. H. Inett will be a wildcat venture about two miles northwest of Vincent. Location is 660 feet from the north and east lines of Sec. 31-25, H&TC. It will be a rotary operation, to 8,000 feet.

Midland County Gets Locations

Magnolia Petroleum Company has staked an Ellenburger wildcat in East-Central Midland County five miles southwest of the city of Midland.

The proposed venture is Magnolia No. 1 J. E. Hill, located 660 feet from north and 1,980 feet from east lines of section 30, block 39, T-2-S, T&P survey.

Projected depth is 13,500 feet. Operations are to begin by August 9.

The No. 1 Hill is 5 1/2 miles northwest of the same company's No. 2 Roy Parks, which was recently completed as an Ellenburger discovery.

General American Oil Company of Texas has staked its No. 1-P-B Peck as a south outpost to the Sweetie Peck field in Southwest Midland County.

Drillite is 30 miles southwest of Midland and about five-eighths of a mile south and a little east of the same company's No. 1-E Peck, discovery well of the field.

Operations are to begin immediately 440 feet from north and 880 feet from east lines of the southwest quarter of section 21, block 41, T&P survey.

No More Second Cut Cottonseed Linters Will Be Offered

DALLAS, Aug. 5 (AP) — No further sales of government-owned second cut cottonseed linters will be offered, the Agriculture Department announced.

Lathan White, Dallas, area commodity director of the Production and Marketing Administration, said the order is effective immediately.

First cut and mill run linters will be offered for sale as announced July 28, White said.

northeast Howard county was still swabbing Saturday. No gauge had been made since Friday. After a 10-hour swabbing it had flowed 108 barrels of oil in three hours, but the flow stopped after that period.

Livmore and Texas and Pacific No. 1 W. B. Currie was drilled below 6,557 in lime and shale.

Ellenburger Wildcats Staked in Coke County

Two Ellenburger wildcats have been staked in Coke County. Humble Oil & Refining Company has scheduled a deep test, and Lion Oil Company is to begin operations by November 17 on a wildcat in Northeast part of the county.

Humble's project is to be the No. 1 E. H. Schuch, located 13 1/2 miles south of Robert Lee, and 1,980 feet from north and east lines of section 8, Tom Dieterich survey.

It is projected to 7,100 feet. Operations are to begin immediately. Previously, Humble had taken a "shooting" option on 16,657 acres, lying in both Coke and Tom Green Counties, from G. W. Strake of Houston.

Under an agreement, Humble could acquire undivided half interest in either the north half or the south half of the 16,657 acres. Humble took the north half and assumed the obligation to drill the Ellenburger wildcat.

Well under way before the fighting started in Korea.

Crude Production Far Above '41 Rate

HOUSTON, Aug. 5 (AP) — Domestic crude oil production now is 44 per cent above 1941 when oil-consuming World War II struck the United States.

This places oilmen in excellent position to answer with a minimum of delay any government order for oil industry war mobilization. The government already has asked the industry to develop plans for possible mobilization.

Possible steel shortages appear to be the primary threats to the industry's plans. Some operators already are reporting having difficulty obtaining essential supplies.

Steel shortages particularly could hinder continued expansion of refinery facilities and drilling. New wells will be needed to maintain the now steady increase in domestic production and to replace depleted and abandoned wells.

Increased demand for aviation gasoline already has seen some oil companies announce refinery expansion plans.

Gulf Oil Corporation this week awarded construction contracts for an $8 million fluid catalytic cracking unit at its 230,000 barrels per day refinery at Port Arthur, Tex.

Late next year the unit is to start turning out ingredients for aviation gasoline, materials for synthetic rubber, high quality automotive gasolines and fuel oils.

Washington officials last week said military demand for aviation fuel the remainder of the year will exceed July 1 contract totals by 2,600,000 barrels.

There also was an estimate that military demand for regular gasoline and fuels for trucks, tanks and other vehicles will be 25 per cent higher.

Domestic crude oil production in 1941 averaged 3,841,700 barrels daily, compared to last week's daily average of 5,521,550 this is an increase of 1,679,850 barrels daily. Nearly 1,000,000 barrels daily were added to United States production during the 1942-45 war years. The 1942 daily average was 42,700 barrels below 1941 but 1943 output climbed to 4,125,000.

Another 459,000 barrels daily were added in 1944. The following year saw the end of the war and a daily average output of 4,694,900.

The steady climb continued for three years after the war—4,750,500 in 1946, 5,087,600 in 1947, and an all-time high daily average of 5,519,600 in 1948.

A sharp slump in demand dropped 1949 output to 5,041,900 barrels daily, but only after the December 1948 average reached a record 5,772,100.

The upward climb from last year's crude production slump was

Wildcat Is Staked In Dickens County

Tide Water Associated Oil Company and Seaboard Oil Company of Delaware have staked a 7,900-foot wildcat in extreme Central Northeast-Dickens County, approximately 15 miles east of the town of Dickens.

The proposed venture will be the No. 1 Pritchfork Land & Cattle Company, located 1,980 feet from north and east lines of section 18, block 1, Sam Lazarus survey.

Originally Chester Imes of Abilene, in February 1949, obtained a 12-month geophysical option on the 112,000-acre Pritchfork Ranch, which lies in both Dickens and King Counties. He later turned the deal to Tide Water, which in turn was joined by Seaboard as partner.

An undetermined number of 5,000-acre drilling blocks were to have been taken under terms of the "shooting" option.

Two Discovery Completions In Runnels County

SAN ANGELO, Tex., Aug. 5 (AP) — Oil-hot Runnels county came through last week with two discovery completions, one from the Gardner Sand and the other from the Cisco sand.

G. B. Cree, No. 1 O. C. Sykes, the Gardner sand discovery 10 miles due east of Winters in Runnels county, completed for a daily natural flow of 330 barrels of 42 gravity oil from open hole between 3,874-94 feet. Location is 330 feet out of the southwest corner of section 6, H. Lewis survey.

Saxco Exploration Co. of Abilene staked two offsets to the discovery, both projected to 4,500 feet. No. 1 O. C. Sykes will be an east offset, and a diagonal southeast offset will be No. 1 Sam Mathis.

The Cisco sand strike in northeastern Runnels near the Taylor county line, J. D. Andrews and others No. 1 Ray V. Willis, completed on pump for a daily flow of 131 barrels of 40.5 gravity oil. Production was from open hole between 2,670-90 feet. Location is 660 feet from north and east lines of section 437, G. Hancock survey, 1 1/4 miles southwest of C. H. Murphy No. 1 Patterson, a Taylor county producer.

A Nolan wildcat, Clarence L. Norworth, Jr., of Dallas No. 1 Mrs. Nita Mae Brooks, was drilling ahead to the Ellenburger after recovering in the upper water with oil at a second drillstem test of the Strawn from 6,192-236 feet. Recovery on an earlier two-hour test of the same section recovered 270 feet of free oil and 480 feet of oil-cut mud with no water. The Strawn was topped at 3,609 feet. Location is in the C NW NW 71-T&P, six miles northeast of Maryneal.

Unofficial sources reported Fred M. Manning Inc. of Fort Worth No. 1 D. Huddle, Dawson county wildcat 1 1/2 miles southwest of Lamme, would drill on to the Pennsylvania to try to find the reef line. If it fails here, it will probably set pipe and try to make a well from the Spraberry sand section which developed about 1,800 feet of free oil on a test from 7,960-71 feet. Location is 1,980 feet out of the northwest corner of section 11-36-5n-T&P.

Superior No. 8-94 H. B. Wood, southwestern Kent county wildcat, having shown oil in Pennsylvania lime in drilling to 6,465 feet, is scheduled to make production tests. A one-hour drillstem test from 6,455-65 feet recovered 270 feet of heavily oil-cut mud with no water. It also had some oil on a test at 6,439 feet. Top of the reef line, presumably Canyon, has been called at 6,400 feet. It is in the C SE SW 194-G-W&NW.

Warren Oil Corp. will start a wildcat in north central Kent county to explore the Ellenburger to 7,500 feet. It will be around the common corner of sections 46, 47, 48 and 49 in block 1, H&TC Ry. Co. survey, about six miles north and slightly east of Clairmont. It is understood the drillite will be either No. 1 Chium, 660 feet out of the northwest corner of section 46 or No. 1 Overton, 660 feet out of the southwest corner of section 47. Warren has a block of about 2,500 acres in the area.

Compact Gives Full Support To Government

FRENCH LICK, Ind., Aug. 5 (AP) — The Interstate Oil Compact Commission today pledged full support to the government in any emergency but cited its need for materials and manpower.

A resolution adopted at the final session of the commission's three-day session here said an accelerated program of drilling operations will be required to increase the present oil reserve capacity.

The resolution then cited to federal and military authorities "the imperative need for adequate supplies, particularly steel products and necessary manpower to conduct these essential operations."

A compilation of production figures supplied by state conservation departments showed that the present daily output of 5,440,000 barrels can be increased to 6,579,487 barrels without harm to wells.

Nine states reported oil production increases were possible. They are Texas, Louisiana, Oklahoma, Kansas, New Mexico, Colorado, Mississippi and Alabama.

Twelve other states indicated that with present facilities they are producing to capacity. These states are Arkansas, Florida, Indiana, Illinois, Kentucky, Michigan, Montana, New York, Ohio, Tennessee, West Virginia and Georgia.

250 Oil Wells In Texas Completed During Past Week

NEW YORK, Aug. 5 (AP) — Texas Gulf Producing Co. reported earnings today of $1,442,810, equal to $1.33 a share, for the six months ended June 30.

This compared with $1,642,627, or $1.52 a share, during the same period last year.

September Reserve Call To Get 3,330 In 4th Army Area

SAN ANTONIO, Aug. 5 (AP) — Fourth Army Headquarters has announced that 3,330 of the 6,230-man area quota for Army enlisted reserves set by Washington will be called in September.

The remainder will be called in October.

The Fourth Army Area covers Texas, Louisiana, Arkansas, Oklahoma, and New Mexico.

Northwest Andrews Wildcat Is Staked

The Texas Company and others are to begin operations in the immediate future on a 7,500-foot wildcat in Northwest Andrews County three miles northwest of the Fulerton field.

Texaco's No. 1 J. D. Biles is to be 1,980 feet from south and west lines of section 15, block A-31, psal survey. Drillite is approximately 20 miles northwest of the town of Andrews.

Intention of the operators is to test through most of the Permian section in that area.

Magnolia Plans Kelly-Snyder Field Projects

Magnolia Petroleum Company has scheduled four projects for the Kelly-Snyder field of Central Scurry County and W. P. Luse has scheduled one.

Magnolia's No. 2-B and No. 3-B McDonnell estate will be drilled on the west side of the field. No. 2-B McDonnell will be 660 feet from north and east lines of the southeast quarter of section 297, block 97, H&TC survey.

No. 3-B McDonnell will be 660 feet from south and east lines of the same section, block and survey. Both are projected to 6,950 feet five miles northwest of Snyder.

The same company's No. 1 - F McDonnell estate will be drilled 660 feet from south and east lines of the northwest quarter of section 341, block 97, H&TC survey, Kelly-Snyder field, six miles northwest of Snyder.

Magnolia's No. 6-R A. Smith is scheduled for the west side of the field, 1,220 feet from east and 1,470 feet from south lines of section 292, block 97, H&TC survey, four miles northwest of Snyder.

W. P. Luse's project is the No. 1 M. Maulle to be drilled 1,837 feet from south and 467 feet from east lines of section 451, block 97, H&TC survey, at the northwest edge of the field.

It is projected to 7,000 feet.

Magnolia Slates Offset In Terry

Magnolia Petroleum Company has staked a one-quarter mile west offset to Anderson Pritchard Oil Corporation's recently completed reef line discovery in Central-South Terry County.

The slated project is Magnolia's No. 1 Harmon Scales, located 660 feet from north and west lines of section 12, block C-36, psal survey, and 10 miles southwest of Brownfield.

Projected depth is 9,850 feet, which is calculated to tap the pay of the Anderson Pritchard No. 1 Beverly, which was recently completed for 2,280 barrels of 42.5 gravity oil daily from 9,712 to 9,805 feet.

Independents Challenging Larger Operators In Cairo

Big Concessions, Royalties Paid By Smaller Firms —

CAIRO, Aug. 5 (AP) — Independent American oil operators are challenging big U. S. and British producers for the first time in Arabia's fabulous oil fields.

First drilling results have yielded only two dry holes but the independents are still confident of gaining a foothold along the Persian Gulf.

Drillers from California, Oklahoma and Texas are working around the clock trying to bring in a new field despite desert heat and frequent sand storms.

Arab chiefs and big oil companies alike are watching the venture closely because the independents launched their invasion by paying the highest concessions and royalty fees in Middle East history.

The joint enterprise was started last fall by the Pacific Western Oil Corporation, headed by J. Paul Getty of Santa Monica, Calif., and the American Independent Oil Company, whose president is Ralph K. Davies of San Francisco.

Getty paid Saudi Arabia's King Ibn Saud $10 million for a 40-year lease plus a minimum guarantee of $2 million a year in royalties. Pacific Western officials explain the steep price by saying they want to insure future good relations by dealing with the Arabs on a partnership basis.

Veteran oilmen in the area, however, complain privately that the independents' high terms have upset prevailing royalty standards and are bringing demands from Arab chieftains for higher fees.

They contend Pacific Western's contract for 55 cents a barrel royalty fees plus the concession payment make it doubtful that any oil discovered can be shipped and sold profitably at the present market prices.

Sixty drillers hired by the Kerr-McGee-Brown Drilling Company of Oklahoma City, Okla., are working their rigs in the so-called "neutral zone" ruled jointly by Saudi Arabia and the Sheikdom of Kuwait.

The 2,250 square miles of desert sand lies between two of the world's biggest oil fields—the Kuwait Oil Company's holdings at Burgan and the Aramco (Arabian-American Company) development in Saudi Arabia.

The independents are still proceeding with gravity and seismicograph surveys but started drilling "exploratory" holes last December in the hope of striking oil before the terrain studies were completed.

Western's Middle East manager and son of the company's president, called the neutral zone a "very good looking area" despite the first two dry holes. Work is now proceeding on a third bore 30 miles inland from the coast.

Getty, whose home is in Pasadena, Calif., explained in an interview that drilling operations were started before completion of surveys in the hope of recouping on the $1 million annual royalty guarantee which must be paid whether oil is discovered or not.

"We are not at all discouraged," he said. "It will take 18 months for a complete seismicographic survey and in the meantime we have a very good chance of locating a pool before the surveys are finished."

He scoffed at speculation circulating in some oil circles that the heavy royalties and concession payment threaten to make the operation unprofitable.

Pacific Western and American Independent are working jointly although Pacific Western's contract is with Saudi Arabia and the American Independent agreement is with the sheik of Kuwait.

To escape the desert heat—the temperature soars as high as 127 degrees Fahrenheit—the drillers eat and sleep on an LST converted from its wartime task of landing tanks and troops in amphibious operations. Air conditioned cabins have been built on the after deck of the LST, which is anchored a mile and a half from shore.

DRILLERS $1,000 MONTH Working in three eight-hour shifts, the men travel to and from shore in native boats and drive 30 miles into the desert where drilling operations are in progress. Loaded with equipment, the LST left Orange, Tex., last October and the drilling crews were flown over in December.

Getty said drillers earn as high as $1,000 monthly with overtime and have no expenses since quarters and food on the LST are provided by the company.

Planes bring in movies twice a week and occasionally drillers can take brief vacations by flying to Beirut, Lebanon, or Damascus, Syria. About 60 workmen were hired from Saudi Arabia and Kuwait to assist in the operation.

Nolan Prospector Begins Swabbing

Swabbing operations have begun on a prospective Ellenburger discovery in Central-South Nolan County, Su Oil Company No. 1 J. P. Maddox.

This prospective discovery is bottomed at 7,132 feet, with five and one-half inch oil string set at 7,116 feet.

On the first 12 hours swabbing, operators recovered 2,800 gallons of water, with a show of gas. Fluid level was reported standing at 2,800 feet from surface.

On a drillstem test in the Ellenburger before casing was run, operators recovered 250 feet of clean oil, 200 feet of oil and gas cut drilling mud, which was 50 per cent oil, and 50 feet of heavily oil cut drilling mud.

Top of the Ellenburger was picked at 7,114 feet, on an elevation of 2,522 feet.

The No. 1 Maddox is 660 feet from south and west lines of section 43, block 1-A, H&TC survey, and seven and one-half miles south and slightly west of Maryneal.

The prospect is being drilled by the Kerr-McGee-Brown Drilling Company of Oklahoma City, Okla., are working their rigs in the so-called "neutral zone" ruled jointly by Saudi Arabia and the Sheikdom of Kuwait.

Aquaqueen To Be Named In Y Carnival On Monday

Presentation of the Aquaqueen, who is being selected by members of the YMCA swimming club...

Candidates for the position are Joan Smith, Beverly Stulting, Sandra Swartz, Susan Houder, Ann Crocker, Kitty Roberts, Jane Cook, Marilyn Miller and Nancy Clark.

The girls have been serving as instructors in the YMCA swim programs staged throughout the summer under the direction of Bobo Hardy.

The carnival will consist of 16 events. Competition will be held in junior backstroke, senior backstroke, girls' backstroke, junior breaststroke, senior breaststroke, girls' freestyle, a walking race for non-swimmers, junior diving and senior diving.

In addition, a water ballet and a specialty act will be included on the program. The award of trophies will conclude the show.

Master of ceremonies for the Aquacarnival will be Carlos Cotton, Clover of Odessa, a former resident of Big Spring.

The contestants in the swimming and diving events will shoot for the following records (All senior boys' swimming events are for 60 yards):

Junior backstroke—Gerald Scott, 35 seconds, set in 1949.

Senior backstroke—Neal Cotton, 44.3 s., 1949.

Girls' backstroke—Nancy Clark, 33 s., 1949.

Junior breaststroke—Johnnie Coffee, 38 s., 1949.

Senior breaststroke—Amos Jones, 1949, and B. B. Lees, 1948, tied at 47 fl.

Junior freestyle—Gerald Scott, 28 s., 1949.

Senior freestyle—Kitty Roberts, 30 s., 1949.

Senior diving—Paul Shaffer, 94.2 points, 1949.

Junior diving—George McGann, 29.9 points, 1949.

Senior trophy—B. B. Lees, 11 points, 1949.

Junior trophy—Gerald Scott, 17 points, 1949.

Girls' trophy—Kitty Roberts and Nancy Clark tied with 8 points each, 1949.

AAU scoring will be used in all events, according to Hardy, who is promoting the program for the third straight year.

IN BAT RACE

Prince Assumes 23 Point Lead

Jim Prince, giant first baseman for the Midland Indians, continued his hitting ways the past week to up his season's average to .405 and easily led the Longhorn league batsmen as the season approached the three-quarter mark.

The averages, compiled by League Statistician Buck Francis, include games of Tuesday, Aug. 1.

Prince belted out 14 hits in 22 trips the past week, a 632 clip, to add 12 points to his previous week's average.

Roswell's Tom Jordan, who has been in a slump the past two weeks fell to .282 but still held onto the runnerup spot.

There were no changes from the previous week of the leaders in individual departments. Jordan still leads in home runs with 30, hits with 160, total bases with 297 and runs batted in with 130.

Prince leads in doubles with 44. Leo Eastham of Odessa is ahead in runs scored with 127 and bases on balls with 117.

Cotton Russell of Vernon has chalked up the most wins on the mound with 18 while Dick Tross, also of Vernon has the best average, .818 with a record of nine wins and two losses.

PENNANT FUND TOTAL $146.33

Floyd Kimzey, director of the Bronco Boosters pennant fund drive, said Saturday a total of $146.33 is on deposit in the fund's name.

Kimzey said not all the pledges are keeping up to date on their commitments but that is understandable. He anticipated no trouble with collections.

Following is a rundown on the plays earning revenue for the fund, both for the week and that part of the season since the drive began:

Sacrifice hits, 6 and 16; two base hits, 6 and 36; three base hits, 0 and 9; home runs, 1 and 10; total hits, 52 and 250; pitching strikeouts, 27 and 171; stolen bases, 4 and 18; squeeze plays, 0 and 0; double plays, 5 and 24; runs, 28 and 135; games won, 3 and 15; shutouts, 1 and 4; sensational catches, 1 and 9.

The East Ward Cats became eligible to represent Big Spring in the Kids' baseball league tournament at Wichita Falls Aug. 14-15 by defeating the Junior Broncs, 9-8, in the third game of a series here Friday afternoon.

The Cats capped the first game of the set, 19-13, while the Broncs won the second, 6-4.

The East Ward team, which is managed by Dickie Cooper, had earlier won first round honors by defeating the Cubs, 4-3, and the Mustangs, 11-8, in a special play-off after the three teams had tied for first place.

Members of the team are Bobby Phillips, Dean Holland, Thomas Lynn, Don Glasser, Jimmy Damron, Jerry Grades, Carlisle Robinson, Glenn Jenkins, James Slate, Doyle Hooper, Larry Hodnett, Darrell Gossett, Howard Sheets, Ralph Wilkinson, Bobby Blum and Cooper.

Six-Man Clinic Opens Aug. 10 In San Marcos

Virgil Bennett of Forsan will play for the West Basketball team in the all-star tilt scheduled with the Texas Six-Man Coaches Association Coaching School held at Southwest Texas State Teachers College, Aug. 10-12.

The all-star basketball game will be held at the College Gym Aug. 11, at 8:30 p. m.

Lawrence Brotherton of Gruver will coach the West all-star charges who were unanimously selected by the coaches and chairman of their region. This is one of the top tributes paid to small high school athletes.

The three day school will feature J. H. England of College Springs, Iowa, as the guest six-man expert. England is noted throughout the middle-west for his success with the six-man teams and working with that type of coaching school.

Other instruction during the school will be given by Southwest Texas State Coaches, O. W. Strahan, track; Milton Jowers, basketball; and George Vest, football fundamentals. Eddie Wojcicki of Rice Institute will lecture on training and conditioning, and Bill Lee, sports editor of the Austin American will speak on public relations for the small high school.

Besides the regular class sessions, several informal get-togethers have been planned plus the all-star basketball and football games on Aug. 11 and 12.

Anyone interested in attending the school is urged to contact J. B. Owens, program chairman, in San Marcos.

NEW YORK, Aug. 5.—Leadoff Batter Bob Dillinger's first inning single was the only hit allowed by Jim Hearn today as he pitched the New York Giants to a 5-0 triumph over Pittsburgh. Hearn fanned six and walked five in turning in his third victory and second shutout since his purchase from the St. Louis Cardinals.

TICKETS AVAILABLE

Record Turnout May Attend Aug. 21 Baseball Game Here

Indications were Saturday that the biggest crowd in the history of Steer park would be on hand when Big Spring hosts Ballinger the night of Aug. 21 in a Longhorn league baseball game.

It will be Merchants Night at the stadium and local business men are going all-out to co-operate with Club President Al Aton to make the event a success.

Around 5,700 tickets have already been distributed to the merchants and professional men.

The fans can pick them up free of charge from the merchants and need only to play the tax (15 cents) at the entrance to gain admittance to the park.

The following merchants and business men have purchased the tickets in blocks of 100 each and are prepared to pass them on to the public:

Zack's of Margo's, Western Auto Associate store, Woolworth's, Zale's Jewelry, Big Spring Hardware, Higginbotham - Bartlett Lumber company, Main Street Cafe, Stanley's Hardware, Joe Jacobs' Barber shop, Anderson Music store, Roger's Food stores, Ideal Laundry, Dr. Lee O. Rogers, Sherwin-William Paint store; Luke Blew, Wilson Generator and Heater's Supply.

Also Talley Electric, Ted Phillips Tire company, Fisherman's Record Shop, Ritz Drug, Nathan's Jewelry, W & K Cleaners, Gregg Street Cleaners, First National Bank, Wooten Produce, Big Spring Wholesale Meat company, South Ward Grocery, Eaker & Neal Motor company, Truman Jones Motor company, Ollie McDaniel Shell Service station, Club Cafe, Marvin Wood Motor company, Pancho's News stand, Big Spring Paint and Paper company, Westerman Drug, Empire Southern Gas company, Neil Hillard's, Elrod's Furniture store.

Also Jones Motor company, Dr. Pepper Bottling company, S. M. Smith Butane, Clark Boot shop, Walker's Drug, King's Grocery, Acee and Hensen Grocery, Dave's Laundry, Mead's Auto Supply, Dr. W. B. Hardy, Harold Hoffman's Service station, Coca-Cola Bottling company, Elite Cafe, Petty Brothers Service station, Driver Implement company and Swartz's Ladies Ready-To-Wear.

Aton said he would probably distribute tickets in Coahoma and Forsan next week.

Montgomery Defeated By Broyles In Semi-Finals Of Odessa Meet

ODESSA, Aug. 5.—Jake Broyles, the finals here Saturday, 6-2, 6-1.

Broyles, who is ranked seventh in singles in the state, had his hardest match in the semi-finals Friday, at which time he defeated Bill Montgomery of Big Spring, 9-7, 6-4.

Montgomery had Broyles all even in the 14th game of the first set and was serving with a 45-15 advantage but Broyles rallied to go out in front.

Broyles also teamed with Emil Beck of Lamesa to win doubles honors.

Broyles and Beck teamed to eliminate Montgomery and Fred Shannon, 6-0, 6-1, in first round singles semi-finals, 6-2, 6-1.

Montgomery turned back Shannon, 6-0, 6-1, in first round singles play Friday.

Ducat Deadline Nearing Here

It's still possible for persons who held season tickets to Big Spring high school home football games last year to have the same seats set aside for them but time is running out.

The ducats which have not been picked up will shortly be placed on sale, along with other choice seats, by the American Business club.

Any individual, regardless of whether he held a season ticket last year, can make reservations for one or more by calling the local school tax office, telephone number 3520.

The ducats, good for six games here, sell for $7.00. Quanah, Victoria, Bowie of El Paso, San Angelo, Lubbock and Lamesa will make appearances here.

Guerra, classy righthander, down from Sherman-Denison, will remain with Big Spring for the remainder of the season.

Guerra had won seven games, lost four through Friday night. His ERA is a respectable 2.82.

Aton also said two left-handed pitchers are to be sent here from Cuba. Both are rookies.

The Broncs have been without a left-handed tosser all season. If they arrive within the next few days, they will be eligible for the playoffs.

Doby, Indians Nudge Yanks By 4-2 Count

CLEVELAND, Aug. 5.—Larry Doby blasted two home runs today to give Cleveland a 4-2 victory over the New York Yankees. The victory pulled the Indians into second place ahead of the Yanks.

Doby's second homer in the eighth, his 16th of the season, snapped a 2-2 tie. Al Rosen had singled with two-out off Relfer Allie Reynolds to set the stage.

Early Wynn, veteran righthander, and yielded only four hits in the first run with a ground out. Phil Rizzuto flied out to drive in the second run.

Price Limits Broncs To 4 Hits As San Angelo Triumphs, 3 To 0

Smith, Kowalik Hit Home Runs

SAN ANGELO, Aug. 5.—Gil Guerra threw two gopher balls and lost a ball game as San Angelo's Colts blanked Big Spring, 3-0, here Saturday night.

Jack Smith slugged a two-run home run with Bob Cruces on base to give Lefty Jimmy Price all the working margin he needed. Ken Kowalik added to the total with a round tripper in the seventh.

Price, in registering his eighth win against two losses, set the Steeds down with four hits. Two of the Big Spring blows were by Manny Junco.

Big Spring got only one man out in the third base. That occurred in the third when Felix Gomez tripled with one man away.

The Bronc center fielder perished there when Ray Vasquez and Danny Conception rolled out in succession.

Cruces doubled to set the stage for Smith's sixth inning blow, his second in two games against Big Spring.

The win moved the Colts within 4 1/2 games of Big Spring in the battle for fourth place.

The two clubs play here again this afternoon, after which the Steeds move on to Roswell for a pair of contests.

BALL GAME TODAY

By Rouson

Shelton Tames Texon, 2 To 1

Lefty Shelton pitched the Forsan Oilers to an impressive 2-1 Concho Basin baseball league victory in Steer park here Saturday night.

The Forsan gang came from behind to score both their runs in the fifth frame. Winny Cunningham led off with a triple. Dee Anderson brought him for with a three-baser. Then Bill Brown singled home Anderson.

Texon counted in the first frame when C. Gufston dented the dish on a hit by Clint Barber.

Shelton set the visitors down with six hits and struck out 16 batters. The only walk he gave up was intentional. Davenport, Texon hurler, gave up seven blows, fanned ten and did not walk a man.

LOOKING 'EM OVER

A passed ball by Elpidio Hernandez was all that kept the Big Spring Broncs from winning four straight shutout decisions from the league leading Odessa Oilers. Hernandez let one of Gil Guerra's high, hard ones get by him in the third inning of Tuesday night's first part of a twin bill, enabling Ray Knoblauch to drift from first to second base. Knoblauch was sacrificed from second to third by Eloy Barrera and came home on a long fly by Les Palmer. When Manny Junco scooted home in the first round of that second game, grasping his chance on Manny Escobedo's bad throw to Knoblauch on the hill, it seemed to unnerve Knoblauch, the league's leading flinger, more than any other development of the night. In his three shutout performances against Odessa over a period of less than a month, Potato Pascual gave up only seven hits, with a bit of luck, received credit for a no-hitter. Emil Ogden's third-inning, two-out single just eluded Third Sacker Bert Baez. In the fourth, Spud threw a change-up to Leo Eastham and found Leo waiting for it. Alex Monchak, the Odessa skipper, says Wayne Batson definitely will not play for the Oilers again this season because of the ankle injury he suffered. Incidentally, rumors are running rampant that Monchak may not be back as Odessa skipper in 1951, that Al and Owner Shadow Ensey don't see eye to eye on many points.

Our Loop, To Harry, WT-NM Satellite

When Ray (Cookie) Vasquez reported here for duty, he weighed 157 pounds, which is about 17 more than he carried last season. Gil Guerra, the Bronc tosser, makes no secret of the fact that he never wants to be associated on the same club with Homer Peel again. He says Homer made it a point never to work a game until it came time to warm up. Look who's been named WT-NM 'Player of the Week'. None other than Ozzie Santa Cruz, who couldn't fit in here. Harry Gilstrap, the Amarillo writer, says the WT-NM league can expect Abilene to withdraw from that circuit and ask admittance into the Longhorn wheel before the 1951 season. Harry adds that Carlisbad, Artesia, and Hobbs, all in New Mexico, are considered good prospects to get into organized ball and the Longhorn league is considering their applications. Then he adds, "but it seems probable any of the three would welcome an opportunity to join the WT-NM instead." Probable to Gilstrap, perhaps, who regards the Longhorn loop as a WT-NM satellite. Leland Crissman, a pitcher who was supposed to join the Lamesa Lobos but balked at the proposal, is hurrying for the Chickasha club in Oklahoma. Orlando Moreno, the ex-Bronc, is hitting .310 for the Laredo Rio Grande Valley league club. The Ackery's of the Tri-County league were finally eliminated in that semi-tournament at Sinton by Cotulla, 10-1. Don Ezell, the one-time Wink grid standout who took leave of his coaching job at Childress high school to go on active duty with the Marines, will don the bars of a first lieutenant.

South Trounces North, 6 To 0

PAMPA, Aug. 5.—The South defeated the North, 6-0, in the annual WT-NM league all-star game played here Friday night before a crowd estimated at 5,000.

The winning hurler was Chris Hawkins, who was on the hill when the Southerners opened up with a four run rally in the fourth frame. Roy Parker started on the hill for the South and worked three innings, making pitches for Lubbock, Parker for Pampa.

The South's four-run fourth inning came at the expense of Ray Faust of Amarillo. Pedro Santiago of Lamesa highlighted the game as he rounded with a two-run single.

The South got its other two runs off Albuquerque's Don Cantrell in the eighth. Leonard Berger of Lubbock, Roy Parker of Pampa, Howard Amos of Amarillo, and Roy Parker of Pampa, were the South's four-run fourth inning came at the expense of Ray Faust of Amarillo. Pedro Santiago of Lamesa highlighted the game as he rounded with a two-run single.

Swatters' Mace Mark Should Stand

The Midland Indians have nominated Mike Bellone as their leading candidate for Rookie Of The Year honors in the Longhorn league. Al Sokolowski of Odessa is still the favorite to cop the laurel. Though Roswell has the reputation for being the hardest hitting club in the history of the Longhorn league, the Rockets probably will not approach Swatters' team average of .329, set back in 1947. Another circuit mark that appears way out of reach is Les Palmer's .21 triples, established last season. Ed Robertson, the former Coahoma high school mentor who took a coaching job at O'Donnell recently, will probably be one of the best paid coaches in B circles in the state.

When Emil Ogden hit that home run against Big Spring last Wednesday night in Odessa, grateful fans gave him $115 in cash. A short time before they had looked in $16 when Leo Eastham bashed a triple that enabled the Oilers to tie the score. Radio reports had 4,000 people out to see the Oiler-Bronc Wednesday night contest. The paid attendance amounted to 1,555.

Jayhawks And Coahoma Vie In Playoff Battle

Howard County Junior college's high-flying Jayhawks and the Coahoma Bulldogs clash this afternoon in Coahoma in a 'sudden death' Tri-County playoff game that will send the winner against the Knapp Lions next week. Starting time is 3 o'clock.

Knapp drew a first round bye in the meet when third-place Welch withdrew.

Knapp meets the winner of today's contest in the best two-of-three games for the championship.

HCJC, full season leader and defending champion of the league, will enter the contest short-handed. Floyd Martin will be missing from action and Coach Harold Davis had been counting on him for mound duty. Howard Jones has developed a sore arm and may see only limited service as a hurler.

A. J. Cain is due to see the slab for the Hawks while Jim Ward will probably hurl for the Coahomans.

The Hawks will boast the better attack in today's outing but the underdog Coahoma outfit has been pulling surprises all season and could hand HCJC a package today.

The Hawks may also be without the services of Roy Baird, star backstop, who has been attending the coaching school in Austin all week.

HCJC was beaten only twice in league play, once by Welch and once by Knapp.

Sutter Gives Up In Channel Try

DOVER, Eng., Aug. 5.—Roy Sutter, first swimmer to attempt the English Channel this summer, gave up this morning after an hour and a half in the water.

Sutter, a Texan, developed a cramp in his leg, was picked up by his escorting boat and brought into Dover.

Pace Is Star As North Wins

AUSTIN, Aug. 5.—The welcome mat was out in every Austin home today for Roy Pace, the thunderous Temple backfielder who personally slashed the North to ribbons in leading the South to a 25-0 victory in the sixteenth annual Texas Coaching School All-Star football game.

When the mighty 174-pound all-star chose the University of Texas as his higher education there was satisfaction in this city.

Friday night Pace ripped and tore a good North line for 149 yards in 17 carries and caught two passes for 49 yards. He looked like the answer to prayers for a breakaway runner of the likes of the fabulous Jack Crain of 1941.

Roy didn't do it all. S. M. Meeks of Thomas Jefferson (San Antonio), another future Texas U. player, gained 70 yards. And so make things more joyous for Texas adherents Tommie Ward, the full back from Galveston, rapped out 68 yards in scoring three of the four South touchdowns. Ward also is headed for the land of the Longhorns.

The South's victory was the most decisive of any in the history of the gridiron series. The Rebels not only beat the North by a touch more than any team ever has won in this game but rolled up 20 first downs, 412 yards running with the ball and 49 passing. The North got five first downs, 61 yards rushing and 19 passing.

The result of the game, which drew 11,000 people, gave the South six decisions against eight for the North since the All-Star classic was inaugurated in 1935. There have been two ties.

Don Goss, giant tackle from Sunset (Dallas), was picked as the outstanding lineman.

NEW YORK — Mrs. Jake LaMotta, wife of the middleweight champion, is out to bring another title home. She is competing for the Mrs. America crown, and already has won an elimination trial. On Sept. 5, Vickie will appear at Palisades Amusement Park to compete for the Mrs. New York City title. Should she win, she will represent the nation's largest city in the final contest at Asbury Park, N. J., Sept. 9-10.

Bright, Fortin Pacing Hitters

Harry Bright of Clovis continues to lead WT-NM league hitters with a .432 average through games of Monday, July 31, but the real pace setter is Joe Fortin of Pampa, who boasts a mark of .410. Bright has appeared in 57 games, Fortin in 99.

In individual departments, Fortin has the most hits with 166, Mike Dooley of Lubbock the most runs with 121, Fortin and Crawford Howard of Amarillo the most total bases with 267 each, Jodie Beiler of Lamesa the most doubles with 41, George of Clovis the most triples with 11, Ricketson of Pampa the most home runs with 29 and Fortin the most runs batted in with 131.

Burger leads in team batting with a .329 mark while Lubbock is ahead in fielding with .959.

Roy Parker of Pampa is the pitching leader with 21 wins compared to eight losses. He has also walked the most men, 140, and struck out 199 to lead in that department.

STARTS AUG. 8

DALLAS, Aug. 5.—Thirty entries will battle for seven qualifying places Aug. 8 at the United qualifying meet at Brook Hollow States Golf Association sectional Country Club.

AT 40 1/2 INNINGS

Spud's String Ended But He Wins, 8 To 7

SAN ANGELO, Aug. 5.—Carlos (Potato) Pascual's record breaking mound feat of shutout pitching came to an end here Friday night when Jack Smith found him for a home run but it didn't keep the Big Spring Broncs from winning an 8-7 decision over San Angelo. The win built the Broncs' lead over the Colts back to 5 1/2 games.

Pascual hurled the last four innings of the struggle and gained credit for his seventh win of the campaign when the Steeds rallied for three runs in the ninth. Pascual ran his string of scoreless consecutive innings to 40 1/2 rounds before Smith hit his second homer of the year with Bob Cruces on base.

Pascual then fanned Steve Follett to end the struggle and make victory certain for the Steeds.

Dutch Funderburk sent the Bronc starter, Jesus Uley, to cover with a two-run homer in the sixth that tied the score.

Big Spring came from behind to take the lead with a four run outburst in the fifth frame.

Pascual helped his own cause along with three singles, driving in two of the Big Spring runs. Elpidio Hernandez also had three safeties for the Broncs.

Papa Joe Cambria, Washington scout, was a spectator at the game.

LUBBOCK, Aug. 5.—Bobby Wright, Big Spring was ousted in first round play of the Lubbock Invitational golf tournament here Friday by the heavily favored Dick Martin of Dallas, 2 and 1.

Clarence Schaeffer, Big Spring, lost a first flight first round match to Jack Garrett, Plainview, 2 and 1.

Eldon Rawlings, Lubbock, won by default over Bobby Maxwell, Big Spring, in third flight play. Weldon Bryant, Big Spring, defeated Herbert Stubbs, Lubbock, 4 and 2, in eighth flight activity. James Underwood, Big Spring, was stopped by Lee Jackson, Lubbock, in 13th flight play, 4 and 3.

'Bama Solons Set For 5th Special Meet

MONTGOMERY, Ala., Aug. 5 (AP)—Alabama legislators will return to the state capital Wednesday for their fifth special session in seven weeks, and with the prospect of additional calls beyond that.

Gov. James E. Folsom, insisting they act on his pet reapportionment project, followed up adjournment of the fourth special session Friday with the new summons.

The grimly determined executive warned the divided solons he would call them again and again each time they go home without taking action.

A sizable bloc in both the House and Senate are vigorously opposed to reapportionment of representation in the legislature, although the Constitution requires it every 10 years.

In spite of the statute, there hasn't been a readjustment since the Constitution was adopted 49 years ago. Some counties with less than 30,000 population now have larger delegations than others with 90,000.

NEW CARS

Price Not Up, But It Costs You More

By WILLIAM C. BARNARD Associated Press Staff

Call almost any Texas automobile dealer and he'll tell you the prices of his new cars have not gone up.

"Our list price remains the same," he'll say. "We haven't gone up a penny."

He's telling the truth. But if you buy a new car today you'll probably pay from $150 to $300 more for it. Perhaps much more.

An automobile executive, a friend of ours, explained why you'll pay more now for a new car than you would have 30 days ago.

"In the first place," said he, "the so-called dealer discount has been discontinued by a majority of new car dealers. Factory prices allow a retail dealer a certain margin of gross profit on a new car. Let's say it's $400. In the past, many dealers, because of competition, would split this profit with the customer. In other words, the dealer would knock $200 off the price of the car and would give the customer a $200 discount. This was known as a 'dealer discount.' Today you would be very, very lucky to get any such discount anywhere."

"Instead, you'll probably pay the full list price."

"Another thing you'll lose on is your trade-in. Let's say that 30 days ago you would have gotten $700 for your old car. Today your old car is actually worth much more than it was 30 days ago, because of the international situation. But a dealer taking it in, would probably allow you only about $255. But he'll turn around and sell it later for $900 or $1,000."

"Still another thing. Just like during the last war, some dealers are loading new cars with accessories, boosting the price still more. Go in to buy a car and you'll find it diked out with radio, heater, bumper guards and all the other frills.

"Supply and demand regular prices," the auto executive went on. "The demand for new cars is now exceeding the supply. So prices are going up. It's as simple as that."

"It is a bad thing, I think for the automobile industry. The things that went on in the last war in the auto business angered the public. I think the automobile-buying public will be more bitter than ever by the time the present situation is over."

The Wall Street Journal said spot checks across the county indicate the Korean fighting has "Added tremendously to the increasing demand for new and used automobiles," according to a survey made by the National Automobile Dealers Assn.

The Association told its members: "Every dealer is entitled to his fair, full margin of profit, but we hope neither the manufacturers nor dealers will load unwanted accessories on any new cars."

Go in to buy a car and you'll find it diked out with radio, heater, bumper guards and all the other frills.

IT ISN'T EASY

Some People Try To Hoard Autos

By DAVID J. WILKIE
AP Automotive Editor
DETROIT, Aug. 5. (AP) — It isn't easy to hoard automobiles, but a lot of persons are trying to do it. That's what many highly placed automotive industry analysts say about the present situation in the car market. The rush for new automobiles covers virtually every make and model now in production. Even some of the slower moving models cannot be had within a month. With many dealers refusing new orders, some of the more popular makes just aren't available at all.

The industry heads make no secret of the fact they don't like the present situation. But they expect the ballooning demand to continue through the remainder of the year. Home office checks with the dealer organization disclose that many of the new orders given retailers since the Korean outbreak have come from persons owning cars less than a year old. Such orders, the car makers say, do not reflect a sound market. They reflect a hoarding impulse. Price controls, of course, would automatically halt the possibility of profit for the individual seeking new cars solely for re-sale.

The industry has little doubt many thousands of the new car orders placed in the last five weeks have come from persons planning to resell the new cars as soon as delivery was obtained. Many such instances were uncovered in the early post-war days, thousands of vehicles being driven directly from the new car salesrooms to nearby used car lots.

But the industry heads are fairly well agreed that the closer the threat of controls comes the greater will be the eagerness to get new car deliveries. There probably isn't very much the manufacturers can do about it, excepting to make as many vehicles as they can with the materials available and not needed for defense armament.

County Farmers Face Shortage Of Insecticide

Howard county farmers, up against the worst insect infestation in the county's history, Saturday seemed faced with a critical shortage of insecticides.

Most dealers here had sold out of dusting and spraying materials and were doubtful of receiving additional poisons in the next few days. One firm had hopes of receiving some 40,000 pounds of the 3-5-40 dust—enough for 4,000 acres—and about 20,000 pounds of 2-10-40, County Agent Durward Lewter reported.

Deadline for application of the insecticide is at hand as far as bollworms are concerned, the county agent warned. For best results cotton should be dusted by Monday night at the latest, he said.

"Farmers who do a good job of poisoning this week will make a big saving," Lewter predicted, adding that the bollworm menace should be definitely past by Aug. 20.

Tips for recognizing the presence of bollworms were also passed on by the county agent. Dark, eaten spots on the buds are a sure sign of the insect. A close inspection will reveal the small worms around the forms lower down on the stalk, he said.

Introduction of a new insecticide, not believed to be as effective as the 3-5-40 or 2-10-40, may ease the shortage of the more popular poisons, Lewter stated. Aldrin, recently introduced, has been approved by the Agricultural Extension Service. It may be applied either as a spray or dust and should be put on at five-day intervals at the rate of 1-3 of a pound per acre, mixed with five or 10 per cent DDT. It is also said to be effective in the control of small leafworms, but will not kill large worms.

Leafworms are also expected to hit Howard county crops heavily between Aug. 10 and 20. Inspections already have revealed a few leafworm eggs, Lewter said.

Air Carrier Home After Record Run Across Pacific

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 5. (AP) — The Carrier Boxer is home from a record speed run ferrying fighter planes across the Pacific.

The speedy, 27,000-ton seagoing airbase surged into Tokyo Bay eight days and seven hours out of San Francisco with a full load of planes, including 150 Air Force F-51 Mustang fighters.

Leaving every flyable plane in Japan, the Boxer sped home in seven days, 18 hours, 36 minutes, an average of about 23 knots for the more than 5,000 nautical mile voyage.

The Boxer came home Friday and immediately began taking supplies for new duty, with a speed which indicated she may not be long in these parts.

Tire Price Goes Up Five Per Cent

AKRON, O., Aug. 5. (AP) — Retail prices on Goodyear passenger car and farm tires are five per cent higher today.

Following the lead of General Tire & Rubber Co., Goodyear also has hiked the price on truck tires seven and a half per cent.

Inner tubes made of natural rubber are up from 10 per cent to 20 per cent, depending on their sizes. Neither firm hiked the price on tires made of synthetic rubber.

Albania Red Accuses Tito Seeks To Take Over His Country

PRAGUE, Czechoslovakia, Aug. 5. (AP) — An Albanian Communist leader accused Yugoslav Premier Mafshaj, Tito today of sending spies, saboteurs, and assassins into Albania in an effort to take over the country.

Mehmet Shehu, secretary of the central committee of the Albanian Party of Labour (Communist) made the charges in the Communist weekly, published in Bucharest Friday and distributed here today.

Tito's armed and trained spies and saboteurs have been responsible for "large-scale sabotage on the railways" and the assassination of at least three local party or government officials, Shehu said.

Following The Broncs --

With the Longhorn baseball league chase going into the final stretch, followers of the Big Spring Broncs are getting interested these days in whether the locals will make the playoffs. Win, lose or draw, the Broncs have their faithful followers, many of whom are snapped here by the photographer at a recent home game. A variety of expressions, ranging from elation to grim intensity, expectation and downright disgust may be captured, owing to the nature of a particular play, and how the game is faring. Suffice it to say that the great American pastime is holding the summer interests of men, women and children.

Womack-Carter Vows Are Read On Friday

Marriage vows were read Friday evening at 8 o'clock for Jean Womack and Billy Ray Carter in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gene Ray, 1216 E. 15th.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Womack of Lameta and Carter is the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Carter of Big Spring.

Minister Allen Bryan read the candlelight ceremony before an improvised altar of greenery flanked by lighted white tapers in floor candelabra. For her wedding, the bride wore a white suit with a light blue blouse and accessories of navy blue. She wore a corsage of white gladioli tied with blue ribbon. Mrs. Gene Ray was the bride's only attendant and she was attired in a rose beige suit and wore a corsage of white carnations. Gene Ray served as best man. The bride is a graduate of Ackery high school and has been employed in the business office of Bell Telephone Co. for the past five years. Carter is employed by Texas Electric Service Co. Following a wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Carter will make their home at 2211 1/2 Runnels.

Women Drivers Are Given The "Go" Sign By Big Spring Traffic Cops

Statistics and opinion can be made to prove anything—even that women aren't bad drivers. And next to the "which first, chicken or egg" question, this seems to have been the most discussed question since the days of the chariot races.

But certain statistics and certain opinions say that women aren't the leading traffic violators, at least in Big Spring. And the Big Spring cops will put in a good, unprejudiced word for the reputation of the women behind the wheel.

The violation enjoying the most popularity with the women is overparking at the meters apportioned according to Police Chief Pete Green. A nicker will get you a dollar, reasons the City when women use the parking meters. Afternoon shoppers as well as women on a dash-in-for-a-minute errand lean too heavily on the grace of the time limit and come back to find a red violation flag over the face of the clock and a ticket on the windshield.

Other traffic misdemeanors of women include jaywalking, double parking in the business district, and tauntly parallel parking. They are also guilty of giving the wrong signal in the wrong lane, then turn the wrong way. And this seems to be the most justifiable of the men's accusations. The cops regard it as almost uncanny that so many women so persistently give the signal for a right-hand turn, then take off in the opposite direction. They are also pretty bad about driving without their licenses. It's always at home or in another purse," say the policemen.

There is definitely a low percentage of "fender-bungers" among the women. Estimate is that ninety per cent of the fender-bungers are men. "But of course," adds Chief Green, "when the family goes somewhere, in ninety per cent of the cases, the men do the driving."

But it's not the offense, it's the disposition that's important, for after the traffic ticket comes the paying up. And women are by far more agreeable than the men.

"It was my first one," laughed Mable Dunagan, Route 2, who came in to pay her parking meter fine last week. "I knew it was red when I got out, but I had a million things on my mind. I remembered when I got to the bank, and flew back over. But it was too late." But she didn't mind.

"That's the way most of the women are," said the receipt-giver. A good many of the men are awfully unhappy when they come in to pay though.

So, if the Police Department doesn't mind, the men shouldn't. Statistically, they have no legal right to say in disgust, when something goes wrong, "It's bound to be a woman driver."

FRESH PINEAPPLE AND CANTALOUPE

Ingredients: 1 medium-sized pineapple, 1 medium-sized cantaloupe, 4 to 6 tablespoons syrup from preserved ginger, 1 tablespoon finely diced ginger preserved in syrup. Method: Without removing green leaves, cut pineapple in half lengthwise right through plume. With small sharp knife cut around inside of each pineapple half, close to rind, as deep as possible without cutting through shell; cut out core in long strip. Now cut out rest of pineapple meat, dice, and put in bowl; scrape out remainder of pineapple with spoon and add it and any juice to the bowl. Cut cantaloupe in half, remove seeds, and using a potato ball scoop or a half-teaspoon size measuring spoon, scoop out balls. Put cantaloupe balls aside in separate bowl. Cut remaining cantaloupe meat away, dice, and add to pineapple. Mix in ginger syrup and ginger; pile back into pineapple shells and top with cantaloupe balls, nestling them close together over cut fruit. Makes 4 servings.

Note: To make extra ginger syrup, if necessary, prepare a simple syrup by dissolving ½ cup sugar in ½ cup water over low heat, bring to a boil and simmer for 5 minutes; pour over preserved ginger and allow to stand in refrigerator overnight.

Ash-O'Donald Vows Are Read Saturday

Take Off Ugly Fat With This Home Recipe

Here is an inexpensive home recipe for taking off unightly weight and helping to bring back slurring curves and graceful slenderness. Just get from your drugstore, four ounces of liquid Sucrostatin. Add enough grapefruit juice to make a pint. Then just take two tablespoonsful twice a day. Wonderful results may be obtained quickly. Now you may slim down your figure and lose pounds of ugly fat without back-breaking exercise or starvation diet. It's easy to make and easy to take. Contains nothing harmful. If the very first bottle doesn't show you the simple, easy way to lose bulky weight and help regain slender, more graceful curves, return the money bottle and get your money back.

How To Drive-In For A Big Family Affair

To most people, summertime is a time family affairs such as back-lawn picnics, watermelon on the lawn or time to head for the swimming hole. Another family affair that has been added to the list within the last decade, is going to the neighborhood drive-in theater. Viewing the feature from the family car has its advantages, too, because it's not a dress-up affair. All the preliminary helter-skelter of dressing to go somewhere is eliminated because drive-ins are a 'come-as-you-are' place.

If the feature happens to be a heavy drama type that junior terms as "mush," he can go to the playground maintained at most of the drive-ins and play on the slides, swings and merry-go-round.

Teen-agers place the drive-in high on their list for an evening of fun. A favorite bill for the evening is to go for a swim, keep the bathing suit on for coolness sake and munch on hot dogs while watching a Clark Gable scene. Seems as if drive-ins were especially made for those 'what's-going-to-happen-next' people because they can tell their companions in the privacy of the car and disturb the minimum of persons. Yes, drive-ins were made for eaters, drinkers and chain smokers.

There have been a lot of news stories released about 'would-be-kidnappers' that were only stashing the kids in the trunk of the car for an evening at the drive-in. After, all the price of a few half fares could be saved.

Individual car speakers make it possible for the user to regulate the volume of the sound system as you would the car radio, but the time always comes when the speaker is forgotten in the rush to beat the next car out of the theater. What a tangle!

Anyway you take it, drive-ins are fun. If what you like is eating, drinking, the playgrounds or even seeing a show, then head for the drive-in and the whole family will be happy.

The bride wore a brown crepe wool dressmaker suit with brown shoes and a corsage of white gladiolus. She was attended by Mrs. Carrol Choate. Mrs. Choate wore a navy blue street-length dress with white accessories and a white carnation corsage.

The groom was attended by Carrol Choate. The couple will be at home in Deer Lodge, Montana. The bride graduated this spring from Big Spring High School.

The bride was honored with a shower in the home of Mrs. I. L. Reddell Friday. Hostesses were Joanna Hickson, Monoha Holley, Joan McKinney, Carole Harrington, and Mrs. Truett Thompson.

The house was decorated with garden flowers and the serving table covered with a linen and lace cloth. Monoha Holley served punch to the 35 guests who called during the evening.

The bride wore brown and white with a corsage of yellow baby mums and brown accessories.

Schoolside Park Could Grow In Conjunction With Campus

Around-town parks or recreational areas have been one of Big Spring's needs for a long time. That means areas of some beauty and utility which can be used as playgrounds for the youngsters and leisure ground for the grownups. City revenues have not permitted the development of such places, and attempts by civic groups in the main have not been entirely successful, although what has been done by such groups has been eminently worthwhile. There will be available, it appears from present planning, in another year or so, an ideal area which, with possibly the minimum of money and effort, could be developed into a keystone among city playgrounds. This would be that acreage sweeping around the grounds of the new high school, and lying largely to the north of the building itself. Construction of the school plant on that tract north of 11th Place and between Gollard and state certainly improves this whole layout. Now, what is left to the north has the natural topog-

Editors' Roundtable

Increasing Number Now Favor Immediate Economic Controls

Following Bernard Baruch's call for all-out mobilization, the number of editors favoring an immediate program of full economic controls has increased to the point of a rather large minority. But majority opinion continues to be that present and now foreseeable needs can best be met by limited controls. Editors in this majority group, however, do not oppose a stand-by program of full controls, and many of them expressly favor such legislation. The small minority considering the limited controls requested by President Truman excessive has decreased somewhat.

MEMPHIS (TENN.) COMMERCIAL APPEAL (Ind.): "Baruch was this country's economic adviser during both World Wars, and each time steps he advised taking in toto were taken piecemeal eventually. Lives, money and time could have been saved had his advice been followed at the time it was given. It is his theory, and one shared in by a great many other astute students of world affairs, that total mobilization now will prevent World War III. He was never more right than now."

CHICAGO SUN-TIMES (Ind.): "Mr. Truman is going just as far as events, as he sees them, warrant at this time. He is showing the world this country has no aggressive attitude such as might be indicated by all-out mobilization. He does not demand total INDUSTRIAL mobilization because he hopes it will not be necessary to ask for total MILITARY mobilization. The Nation must support him in his decision to go as far as he now proposes and to see what Russia does next before making a major decision to put the country on a complete war footing."

COLUMBIA (SC) RECORD (Ind-Dem): "Mr. Truman hopes for the best; he has been hoping for the best ever since the end of World War II. Baruch is prepared to prepare for the worst in the hope that by preparing we can escape it. Priorities over production requested by President Truman must be accompanied by control of prices and other costs, Baruch said. Without price control any limited measure is an invitation to inflation. And so he suggested the freezing of all wages, prices, and rents. The nation, he warned, can wring itself through wasted defense efforts, profiteering and inflation."

NEW YORK TIMES (Ind-Dem): "In World War II we were forced to enlarge raphy in the way of sloping ground and draws to lend itself to fine park development. This is not necessarily a school job, and not entirely a municipal development. The Herald believes both agencies would do well to merge resources on the development, however, and to initiate the planning. With that done, civic groups could join in for one all-out park unit development. With various sources of contribution of money, time, labor and materials, and with everybody having a part, it is not too big a job. The handsome high-school-to-be deserves as handsome a setting as can be given it, the youngsters of the city deserve some attractive grounds; and the city itself needs a beauty spot thus centrally located. With the school ground itself occupying a part of the acreage, the remainder ought to be dovetailed right into it for use as a public park. Schoolside Park, it could be, and it would be an asset to Big Spring.

our military strength until it absorbed almost one-half the output of the economy. No such pressure is placed upon the economy by a defense effort involving, say, from $25,000,000,000 to $30,000,000,000. While we agree with the necessity of a comprehensive stand-by program such as Mr. Baruch urges, we believe that it would be a mistake to impose wartime controls until and unless it has first been demonstrated that the types of 'management' with which the public has become familiar in peace are not capable of doing the job."

ST. LOUIS (Mo.) POST-DISPATCH (Ind-Dem): "The alternative to controls is to permit a mounting inflation that would make the defense effort cost incalculably more. It would work unnecessary hardship on countless people. It would spur on, if not necessitate, wage demands and attendant labor troubles at a time when production should go ahead uninterrupted. Without controls, there will be more scarce buying, more hoarding, more unnecessary scarcities and more unjustified price increases. The way to stop this is to stop it. Voluntary controls are no good. Neither are piecemeal efforts."

WASHINGTON (DC) POST (Ind-F): "Many observers of the economic scene believe that excessive price rises can be held in check by taxation, consumer credit control, and continued production of a plentiful supply of civilian goods insofar as that is possible. With these more basic restraints upon inflation, it may not be necessary to clamp obnoxious ceilings upon all wages, prices, rents, and so forth. The chance of escaping wage and price controls will be nil if the international situation should continue to worsen, but a democratic country must necessarily deal with these problems step by step."

ATLANTA (Ga.) CONSTITUTION (Dem.): "The people, we firmly believe, are fully ready to accept Mr. Baruch's program. That would mean regimentation, but there are few among us who would say that regimentation, of limited duration, would not be preferable to defeat at the hands of the Communists. That Stalin has not called off the war in Korea means the masters of the Russia people have not changed their avowed determination to dominate the world. It will require the concerted energy of the nation to rebuild our defenses to the point of safety."

Spotlighting A Week Of News

United Nations "Battle" Takes Over Headlines; US Clashes With Soviet

Since its inception well over a month ago, the Korean war has had very little competition for banner headlines—until this week, that is, when the United Nations Security Council opened its doors and "welcomed" back the Soviet Union after a seven months boycott by the Kremlin representatives. Jakob Malik, USSR delegate, took over the chair as president of the council for the month of August. (A rotation system alternates the chairmanship on a monthly basis.) Malik immediately called a meeting for last Tuesday, and no sooner did the session open

United States and all other foreign troops from Korean soil, asking the Security Council to hear both the North and South Koreans, threatening to exercise the veto power unless the Council hears the North Koreans. As a further hitch, Malik wanted to invite representatives of Red China to take part in the UN peace negotiations.

And so the struggle raged on between the East and the West. Most experts were of the opinion that the West would emerge triumphant—with or without Malik sitting in the UN. There seemed to be no way Russia could get U.S. troops from Korea, at least not without a retreat to the 38th parallel by North Koreans. Britain backed the American demands and the other western powers appeared likely to follow close behind.

Whether World War III would result from American insistence on our terms remains to be seen. So far it has been Malik who has given up and not the U.S. The question of another walk-out by the Soviet delegation appears probable, but most people felt it would not come until Malik gives up his Council presidency at the end of the month.

On the Korean battlefield itself, Communist North Korean troops felt American and South Korean forces stiffening and actually counterattacking.

Strategic withdrawals by defending soldiers brought the line closer to the vital port of Pusan, but the front was consolidated and shortened in an effort to use more effectively the number of troops now on hand.

And while the lines are being held, more Yank reinforcements poured into Korea, spearheaded by the First Marine division and the Second Infantry division. They were also joined by a regimental combat team.

A sharp American counter-blow in the southwest corner revealed the uneasiness North Koreans were feeling the effects of stern allied resistance and punishing air blows. The Reds, with some 10 divisions already at the front, were reported to be rushing two more fresh units forward.

While Americans and South Korean forces are not quite ready to launch an offensive, front-line reports are optimistic. The move forward is not far off.

Right off the bat, a heated argument between Warren Austin, American delegate, and Malik set the Council chamber into a scene of non-diplomatic action. Then bitter words were exchanged between Malik and the China Nationalist delegate, T. F. Tsiang.

Finally, after a knock-down, drag-out debate, the Council blew dust on Malik's first attempt tooust the Nationalists. Eight—the U. S., Britain, France, Ecuador, Egypt, Norway, Cuba and Nationalist China. Stiding with the Kremlin were India and Yugoslavia.

Malik wasn't through, however. He called for another meeting Wednesday, but to no avail as the solid opposition of seven nations doomed his attempt to seat Red China as a part of a peace deal for Korea. The seven votes against Russia insisted that the Council discuss the Korean question before considering admission of Red China. Austin again led the fight, declaring the two questions be treated separately.

And once again on Thursday, the democratic nations beat down a third Soviet attempt to sidetrack the Korean issue voting 8-1 to take up as part of Friday's initial business a resolution condemning North Korean defiance of the United Nations and asking all countries to help localize the conflict.

Finally, on Friday, Russia apparently gave in somewhat on her demand to seat Red China and proffered a two-point "peace" proposal. She demanded the immediate withdrawal of correspondents say, and ever-increasing shipments of heavy weapons, men and General Pershing tanks will soon be sufficient for a forward plunge. On the home front, the Army announced that 62,000 reservists will be called up during September and October "with or without their consent." The men will be required to serve at least 21 months. President Truman held his weekly press conference and said, among other things, that he will keep Secretary of State Acheson and Secretary of Defense Johnson in the cabinet indefinitely. His backing of the two officials, who have been under constant fire by the GOP, provoked new blasts from the Republicans. The President also demanded the Senate reconsider a 65 to 15 vote directing a $100 million loan to Spain. He was later rebuffed by an identical vote reaffirming the decision. Mr. Truman also thought the Alaska and Hawaii statehood bills could be acted upon at this session. The battle in Congress over what sort of controls to give the President is still raging. The House, after a plea from the President, withdrew its mandatory wage and price curb bill and started writing a new one. This action left before the House a controls bill providing only stand-by allocation and priorities power, authority to requisition war-needed materials and to grant production loans and curb credits. Among the inclusions in the bill is an amendment by Rep. Rogers (D-Fla.) to make hoarders subject to a year in prison and a $10,000 fine. Senator Brian McMahon (D-Conn.) confirmed a report that the DuPont company of Wilmington, Del., is to get a contract for work on the hydrogen bomb. McMahon is chairman of the joint Senate-House Atomic Energy committee.

In primary races this week, Truman-backed Emory Allison took little chance of securing the Democratic senatorial nomination from Thomas C. Jennings, Jr. There still was a slight chance of Allison's winning, if he can secure enough absentee ballot votes. Kansas Republicans named Gov. Frank Carlson as their Senate nominee and thus defeated former presidential candidate Alf Landon's bid to return to power in state politics. In Tennessee, former GOP national chairman Carroll Reece appeared to be winning in his try at regaining his old Congress seat in Tennessee's First District.

Discussion Of The Dog Days; Or, Just Try To Beat The Heat

Comes now a discussion of dog days. They are not as doggy as they have been in other years, thanks to showers. But they are doggy enough to justify some attention from a column as alert as this one, which keeps track of such events as Christmas, birthdays (my own) and the Fourth of July.

The encyclopedia says that "dog days" are the period of extremely hot weather, occurring when Sirius, the "dog star," rises. Well, we have a look at another volume of the encyclopedia under "Sirius," and what do we find but about two columns of the darndest astronomical discussion ever encountered—all about gravitational potential and that sort of thing which automatically means that it's far too hot to worry about such things. So, we forget the dog star and get back to dog days. Dog days are not so bad if you can keep cool. The next thing to fathom is how to keep cool.

There are various ways to do this. If you are an extremist, you can go down to a freezer plant, strip off all your clothes, jump into the vault and stay. Sustenance will have to be passed into you from time to time, and there will be inconveniences, so this may not be the best solution.

If you are a Milquetoast about it, you can be content to sip fruit juices, take it easy, and try to keep your blood pressure down and your feet up.

If you are an ordinary guy, you can use the keep-cool argument to stay away from the lawnmower and the hedge shears, and in front of the air conditioner. You can conjure up stories that the physician has recommended a nap every day after lunch, thereby getting under a fan instead of trudging back to the office. You can even suggest that the feminine touch is a necessity for the freezing of ice cream, and that the lady of the house ought to do it.

You can shuck off the tie for a sport shirt, as most men have come around to doing, and you can even get out of the undershirt, if that's any help to you. Some smart feller wrote a piece for a magazine a few weeks back, a learned article about body temperatures and how they vary; comfort, and what it involves, and the dehumidification of the epidermis in general. This took several pages, and the ultimate conclusion was that the best way to keep cool was to get rid of as much clothing as is in keeping with your own sense of modesty, lie down in the shade of a tree, where a little breeze can blow on you, get a tall cool drink in your hand, and don't move any more than is absolutely necessary.

Now, it looks like to me he could have established such a finding without getting all sweated up over a typewriter, so why did he have to write the article during the dog days? Come to think of it, why do I have to write this one, when you know—as well as I do that everybody wants to keep cool and nobody ever quite does? See you in the ice-house.

Congress Is Thinking About Restoring Service Allowances

WASHINGTON, (U)—THE GOVERNMENT, during World War II, gave allowances to the members of the armed forces below the rank of commissioned officers. For example: If a private, drafted into the service, had a wife and set aside $22 of his pay each month, the government added $28 to it, giving the wife a total of $50 a month. And if he had children, he didn't have to put up any money for them. The government gave the first child $30 a month, and all other children $20 each.

Congress abolished these family allowances in October, 1949, when, at the same time, it raised servicemen's pay. But now, with the country re-arming, Congress is thinking of renewing these allowances and even increasing them.

A BILL TO DO THAT IS BEING CONSIDERED by the House Armed Services Committee. This is just a starting point. So this bill has a long way to go before it can become law.

The bill as it stands—it may be changed—would work this way: A serviceman has a wife. If he set aside $30 of his monthly pay for her, the government would add $45, giving the wife a total of $75. And the government would give each child $25.

Under the old law dependent parents and brothers and sisters of a serviceman got money from the government. Under the bill being considered parents would get money, but not brothers or sisters.

Take the Army for an example of non-commissioned men and commissioned officers. The non-commissioned men start as recruits and go up to sergeant. The commissioned officers start with the rank of second lieutenant and go up to general. The officers, of course, are better paid than the noncommissioned serviceman. Under the old law they got no family allowances. Nor would they get any under the bill in the House.

BUT OFFICERS DID, AND DO, GET allowances from the government for food and lodging for themselves and their families.

Why didn't Congress provide allowances for the men being drafted now? For one good reason: Under the present draft law only men between 19 and 26 can be drafted and none with dependents can be drafted. Having a dependent is reason for deferment.

This seemed all right because until the Korean crisis the draft itself had been unnecessary. The armed forces were getting all the men they needed by voluntary enlistments. And they weren't taking any recruits with dependents.

But now 100,000 draftees will be taken in the next couple of months, and the number may go higher. And—the armed services are calling to active duty National Guard units and members of the reserves. Some of these guardsmen and reservists will certainly have families which will suffer when the breadwinner is called to active service—unless they get a family allowance.

There are probably several reasons why fewer women than men would like to reach advanced old age. One undoubtedly is the fear of fading beauty, another the fear of having no means of support without a man around.

Those of both sexes who say they definitely would not want to live to be 100 are mostly afraid of being in ill-health and becoming a burden. "Just sitting around and becoming useless would be no fun," is the way one puts it.

Others say: "If you're going to do any good in life, you should be able to do it before you get to be 100." "I might be sick and helpless—just a burden on someone." "Nobody loves you when you're old and gray."

But the one who would relish living to be 100 doesn't think about the dark side. They say such things as: "I enjoy living—I want to see what the atomic age is like. Life is a wonderful show and I couldn't stand missing any of the acts."

"I know I like this world, and I don't know anything about the other world!"

Many famous people have achieved brilliant accomplishments very late in life. Goethe finished the second part of his masterpiece, "Faust," at 82. Stradivarius continued making his violins until he died at 93. Titian finished his famous painting, "Christ Crowned with Thorns," when he was 95 and Corot painted one of his masterpiece pictures on his eightieth birthday. The German artist Waldeck exhibited new works when he was a mere 101 and lived to be 109.

Serenity On A Ship Is A Far Cry From Bloody Command Post

(For Hal Boyle) BY DON WHITEHEAD WITH U. S. TROOPS IN KOREA, (U)—A tall American Navy commander said, "Sure, I'll get you to the front." "A few minutes later we were clambering aboard a cargo ship. The vessel was one leased by the South Korean government from the United States. And now the U. S. was leasing it from the South Koreans to carry supplies along the southern shore of Korea to a point near the front.

The skipper was Capt. Seol Don Gau, a pleasant little brown-skinned man who has been plying these waters since boyhood. THE SHIP EASED OUT OF THE PIER and headed for the open sea. We didn't know it then, but five hours later we would be at a U. S. command post where pools of blood spread over the floor and soldiers counted enemy dead killed in a surprise attack. Aboard ship, the air was fresh and clean. The water looked cool and there was none of the filth of the land with its flies and mosquitoes and fleas. From the sea, the land looked beautiful. The mountains rose abruptly from the water and climbed steeply into the skies. It looked calm and peaceful indeed and not like a land where a war was raging only a few miles inland.

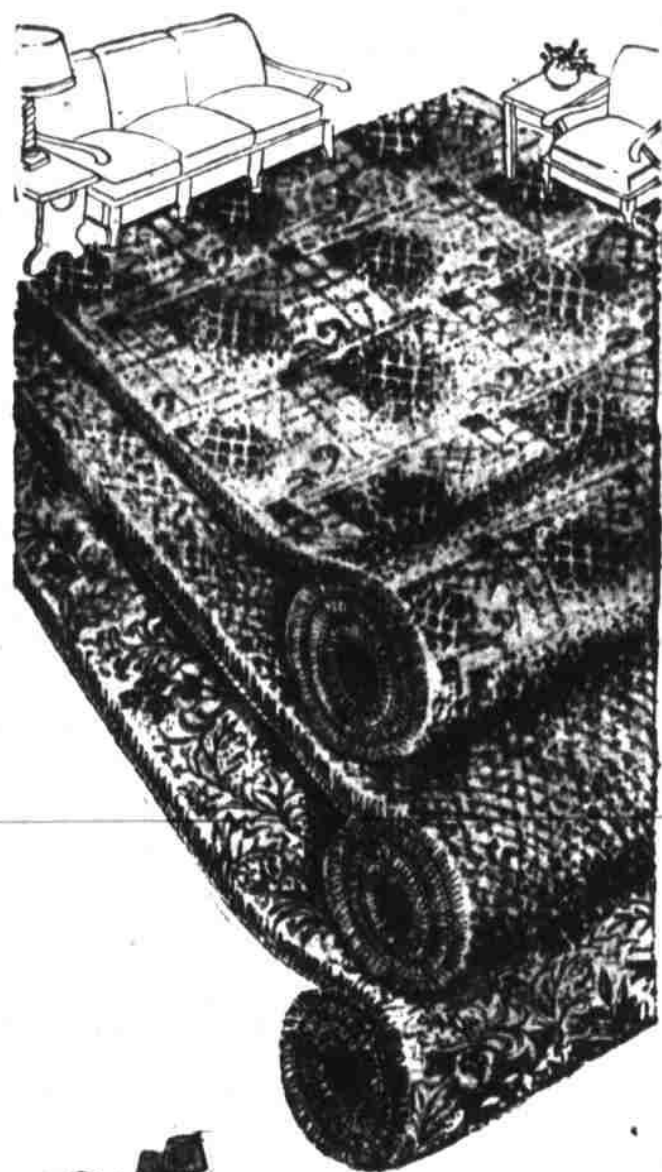

In a short time—all too short—the ship tied up at a pier, and then we were in a jeep headed for the front. The coolness of the sea was gone. The land was hot and dusty. THE JEEP CLIMBED THROUGH A mountain pass and wound down a narrow road into a broad green valley. Refugees were plodding along. The jeep climbed up the road through another pass but there were no refugees here. The road was deserted and in the valley a village burned—fired by shells and mortar fire. At the command post, the men sat in huddles talking about the enemy attack that had swept into them after dawn.

Cary Grant In New Suspense Drama

"Crisis," a new drama of romance, adventure and excitement, packed suspense, stars Cary Grant and Jose Ferrer, with the lovely new M-G-M "find," Paula Raymond, in the leading feminine role. Featured today and Monday at the Ritz theatre.

In the supporting cast are Signe Hasso, Ramon Novarro, Gilbert Roland and Leon Ames.

As a courageous American surgeon, Cary Grant plays his first dramatic characterization in some time, his role in "Crisis" coming on top of his comedy parts in such pictures as "Every Girl Should Be Married," "I Was an American Business Representative," "The Bachelor Party," "The Bachelor and the Bobby Soxer" and "The Bachelor Party."

Jose Ferrer, playing a man crazed by his power, scored one of the screen's biggest hits as the Dauphin in "Joan of Arc," and now returns to films after a series of front-ranking performances on the New York stage.

Paula Raymond, who made her debut opposite Robert Taylor in the not-yet-released "Devil's Doorway" and followed with the part of the husband-hunting secretary in "Duchess of Idaho," enacts Grant's young wife in the new offering. Signe Hasso is seen as Ferrer's wife, Novarro plays a villainous Army colonel, Gilbert Roland a revolutionary leader and Antonin Moreno, third member of a "trio" who were world-famed screen heroes, enacts a physician.

Ames completes the cast of featured players in the role of an American business representative.

Richard Brooks, former newspaperman and novelist, directed "Crisis" from his own screen play, based on a story by George Tabori. The producer is Arthur Freed, whose most recent picture was the triumphant "Annie Get Your Gun."

WHAT GOES ON?—Percy Kilbride has a look at Joan Fontaine and James Stewart in this scene from "You Gotta Stay Happy." The Ritz theatre today and Monday.

NEW ROMANTIC PAIR—Cary Grant has a new leading lady, Paula Raymond, in the adventure story, "Crisis," which is at the Ritz theatre today and Monday. Jose Ferrer also is in the cast of this dramatization of political intrigue.

James Stewart, Joan Fontaine In Comedy

"You Gotta Stay Happy," romantic comedy co-starring Joan Fontaine and James Stewart, is the top attraction at the Lyric theatre today and Monday.

Eddie Albert heads the supporting cast and other popular players in the film include Roland Young, Willard Parker and Percy Kilbride. The Rampart Production is presented by Universal-International.

The story, announced as one of the most ingenious and breeziest among this season's offerings, was taken from Robert Carson's Saturday Evening Post serial. It deals with the exciting and often side-splitting adventures of a wealthy but wacky rich girl who decides she wants to marry a reluctant bachelor aviator. Some of the key actor takes place aboard a transcontinental cargo plane.

H. C. Potter directed and the picture was written for the screen and produced by Karl Tunberg.

Big Spring (Texas) Herald, Sun., Aug. 6, 1950

SPEEDY STUFF—Mickey Rooney, Allen Jenkins and Thomas Mitchell discuss strategy in this scene from "The Big Wheel." A drama of the race track, the picture is the Tuesday-Wednesday feature at the Ritz theatre.

Randolph Scott Rugged Hero Of 'The Nevadan'

Randolph Scott, the great action star, scores again as the rugged westerner in "The Nevadan," offered as the Sunday-Monday feature at the Terrace Drive-In theatre.

Filmed in color, "The Nevadan" abounds in action, background scenery and adventure characteristic of the large-scale western.

The story is set in the lawless Nevada Territory, an area which seethed with the human backwash of the California gold rush. Scott, as a U. S. Marshal is on a desperate mission to apprehend if he can, Forrest Tucker, an escaped outlaw who has cashed some $200,000 in gold in an unknown hideaway. The dangerous game becomes more hazardous when George Macready, a powerful rancher counts himself in on the scramble for the gold. Tucker and Scott link up to counter Macready and his evil henchmen before continuing their own private feud. The violence of the story explodes in a large-scale gun duel between the opposing forces and then Scott and Tucker have it out in the goriest brawl ever filmed.

Atom Bomb Shelters Asked For New York

NEW YORK, Aug. 5 (AP)—Planning Commission Chairman Jerry Finkelstein says it's time for New York City to build some atom bomb shelters.

He suggested that the shelters be constructed under the city's parks, playgrounds and buildings. When not needed for protection against bombs, he said, the shelters could be used for much needed parking garage space.

La Guardia's Estate Totals $162,440

NEW YORK, Aug. 5 (AP)—The late Mayor Fiorello La Guardia left assets of $162,440 when he died in 1947, an estate tax appraisal revealed.

Mrs. Marie M. La Guardia, his widow, is sole legatee under his will. Jean and Eric, their two children, receive benefits from funds accruing to La Guardia under the city's retirement system.

DWI Charge Lodged After Sideswiping On Highway

COLORADO CITY, Aug. 5 (Sp)—The driver of a 1939 Ford tudor, who side-swiped one car and drove another from Highway 101 north of Colorado City has been charged with driving while intoxicated, according to Sheriff Nick Narrell.

The series of accidents began about 10 o'clock Friday night as F. C. Fox, route 1, Colorado City, pulled off to the shoulder of the highway to make way for an approaching car. Fox said the oncoming vehicle was so far to his own side of the road it appeared it was going to cross the highway.

As the approaching car straightened its course, Fox drove back on the paving and his machine, in which his wife and three children were riding with him, was sideswiped. Both cars halted, and after a brief conversation, the driver of the Ford proceeded while Fox turned back to report the accident.

About 200 yards down the highway, Sherman Armstrong, Jr., employed by the B&K Grocery here, saw a car coming directly toward him. Armstrong pulled into the borrow ditch, and after swerving from side to side, the approaching Ford overturned.

According to eyewitnesses, the driver leaped from the car, clambered over a fence at the side of the highway and disappeared in the darkness.

Sheriff Narrell searched the vicinity and located the driver lying in an adjoining field, between 11:30 and 12. He was taken to a hospital for examination, and then was removed to the county jail this morning. He gave his name as F. W. Nannie of Kermit. He has been employed in the Scurry county oil field.

Sgt. Cook Awarded First Aid Certificate

—ESSLINGEN, Germany—American Red Cross European Headquarters reports that Sergeant Chilton A. Cook of 1001 N. Gregg St., Big Spring, has been awarded the Standard First Aid Certificate upon completion of an Army-sponsored course in accident prevention and first aid.

Sgt. Cook, who is with the Co. A. 7824 Station Complement Unit at Stuttgart, Germany, was chosen for the safety school by his Commanding Officer. He was given instruction in both the prevention of accidents and the proper first aid care of accident victims.

LI'L ABNER

BY AL CAPP

NO MORE THAN 20 TRILLION LIGHT-MILES FROM EARTH IS THE PLANET PINKUS NUMBER TWO.

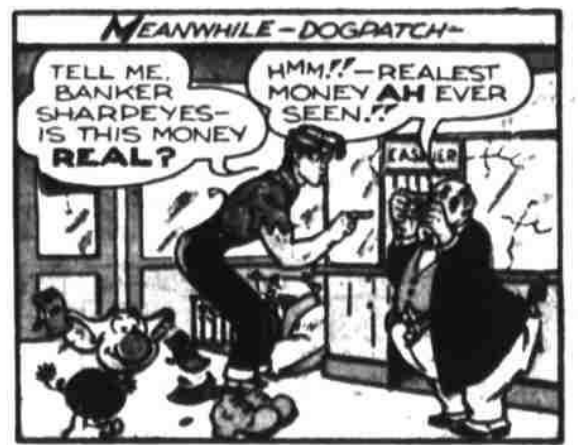

THE KIDS ARE CRYING FOR THEIR LITTLE PET, THE 'MONEY-HA-HA.' NOT BEING MORE THAN A FEW THOUSAND YEARS OLD, THEY DON'T KNOW WHAT A DANGER IT IS!!

ALTHOUGH FROM THE MONEY-HA-HA'S EARS COMES MONEY--WE LEARNED LONG AGO THAT MONEY IS THE ROOT OF ALL EVIL!!

EVER SINCE WE DECLARED THAT STUFF ILLEGAL, WE'VE BEEN AS HAPPY AS TROGDYLS.

HAPPIER!!-- I HOPE THEY'RE AS SMART ON THE PLANET EARTH AS WE ARE-- AND SHUN THAT MONEY-GIVING, TROUBLE-MAKING MONEY-HA-HA!!

MEANWHILE-- DOGPATCH--

TELL ME, BANKER SHARPEYES-- IS THIS MONEY REAL?

HMM!!-- REALEST MONEY AH EVER SEEN!!

AH IS RICH!!-- TH' WORLD IS MAH PO'K CHOP!!-- THAT IS-- AS LONG AS YO' IS FRIENDLY WIF ME, LI'L MONEY-HA-HA!!

EV'RYONE WILL LOVE ME MORE, NOW THET AH GOT LOTS O' MONEY!!-- THAR'S MAH BOOZUM PALS!! AH'LL GIVE 'EM TEN DOLLARS APIECE!!

OH, THANK YO' LI'L ABNER-- BUT, IS YO SHORE YO KIN AFFORD T' GIVE US ALL THIS?

EASY AS PIE!!-- FUM MAH LI'L MONEY-HA-HA COMES NOTHIN' BUT MONEY!! AH KIN GIT AS MUCH O' THET STUFF AS AH WANTS!!

??-- AN' SO-- ALL YO' GIVES US IS A MEASLY TEN DOLLARS APIECE??-- YO' CHEAP RAT!!

AH ALLUS KNEW YO' WAS A MISER!!

YO'RE HEART IS MADE OF STONE!!

WE HATES YO, YO' CHEAP SKATE!!

GULP!!-- THET DIDN'T TURN OUT TH' WAY AH EXPECTED!!-- ??-- MAMMY IS GIVIN' A TEA T' RAISE MONEY FO' TH' PORE STARVIN' M'POORNIKS!!

THIS IS FO' THEM DEAR UNFORTCHNUT M'POORNIKS!!

LADIES!!-- YO' DON'T HAFTA CORTRIBUTE T' TH' M'POORNIKS NO MORE!! AH'LL HAVE MAH LI'L MONEY-HA-HA SCAMPER THROU THAR HOUSE, HE'LL DRAP ENUFF MONEY THAR T'MAKE 'EM TH' RICHEST FAMBLY IN DOGPATCH!!

OH, THEM O'??-- M'POORNIKS!!-- WE HAS T' SLAVE FO' GUR MONEY, WHILE ALL THEY HAS T'DO IS PICK IT UP!!-- AH HATES 'EM!!

Vic Flint

I walked into my office for the first time in two months and got smacked down with a pistol butt.

GET UP, FLINT, I PULLED MY PUNCH SO YOU WOULDN'T GET HURT TOO BAD BY THE FREE SAMPLE.

I DON'T GET IT, WHAT ARE YOU AFTER? WHO ARE YOU?

DON'T GET NOSY OR I MIGHT HAFTA SLAP YOU AGAIN-- HARDER.

JUST TELL ME THIS-- HAVE YOU SEEN A MAN WITH A LIMP?

NO, WHAT'S THIS ALL ABOUT?

I'M THE ONE WHO'S ASKING THE QUESTIONS!

HERE'S HALF OF A $500 BILL. NOW AS SOON AS THIS FELLOW LIMPS INTO YOUR OFFICE, YOU CALL THIS NUMBER...

OH, SO IF I PLAY FOOTIE-FOOTIE WITH YOU I GET THE OTHER HALF, EH?

I'M NOT PLAYING.

THUD!

Meanwhile, another little drama was building up in the street below.

THAT LIMP OF HIS MADE HIM EASY TO PICK UP AND EASIER TO FOLLOW.

JUST AS I THOUGHT! THIS IS FLINT'S BUILDING.

HA! THINKS HE WON'T BE SEEN IF HE CLIMBS THE STAIRS. I'LL MEET HIM AT THE TOP.

HAVE A NICE CLIMB, LIMPY?

HITHER! NO!

TEX, I FIND IT VERY DIFFICULT TO BELIEVE MY NEPHEW, ALLERDYCE, WOULD BE GUILTY OF GIVING POISONOUS FOOD TO A HORSE!

OKAY, BOSS... I CAN'T PROVE IT... BUT, SURE AS SHOOTIN', SOMEBODY IS AFTER BIG BLAZE!

IF BLAZE HAD BEEN IN HIS OWN STALL, HE'D VE GOT THAT DOSE INSTEAD OF HILLBILLY... IT'S ONLY A WEEK 'TIL THE SELBY CUP... COULDN'T WE TAKE BLAZE TO THE TRACK NOW?

HM-M. I'LL SPEAK TO COL. ADAMS, THE OWNER OF CEDAR POINT TRACK.

THAT'S PLUMB GOOD SENSE, BOSS... I'LL GO ALONG... AND, BY JINGOES, I'LL SLEEP IN HIS STALL IF NEED BE!

EXCUSE ME, COLONEL... MAY I HAVE A WORD WITH YOU? IT'S ABOUT MY SELBY CUP ENTRY.

OF COURSE, QUENTIN.

HM-M-M / THIS I GOTTA HEAR.

I WONDER IF YOU COULD LET ME HAVE QUARTERS FOR BLAZE AT THE TRACK A LITTLE AHEAD OF TIME... I'D LIKE TO SEND HIM OVER TOMORROW MORNING.

CERTAINLY! YOU MAY HAVE NO. 4 'N' ROW 'B'.

RUSTY THE BOSS WANTS YOU TO CLEAN UP AND COME TO THE HOUSE... HE WANTS YOU TO HELP WITH THE WRAPS AN' THINGS AT THE DINNER PARTY.

SURE, TEB, SOON AS I PUT THESE DOGS IN THE RUN.

I GUESS ALL THE PEOPLE ARE HERE NOW... I THINK I'LL JUST CURL UP IN THIS BIG CHAIR 'TIL IT'S TIME FOR 'EM TO LEAVE.

I'VE BEEN TRYING TO GET A PRIVATE WORD WITH YOU ALL EVENING!

WELL?

WHAT'S ON YOUR MIND, GOLDFY? HURRY UP... UNCLE QUENTIN MAY GET SUSPICIOUS IF WE STAY AWAY TOO LONG!

IT'S SOMETHING I OVERHEARD THIS AFTERNOON... THEY'RE TAKING BIG BLAZE TO CEDAR POINT TRACK TOMORROW MORNING.

THE BIG HORSE VAN IS OUT BY THE BARN NOW... READY TO GO.

GOOD NIGHT! THAT SETTLES IT! I'LL HAVE TO FINISH HIM OFF TONIGHT... SOMEBOW.

I'M GLAD WE FOUND THIS NICE, SWEET SWELLIN' HAYSTACK - AN' WE'RE AWFUL LUCKY IT AIN'T RAININ'.

HAYSTACKS IS TERRIBLE NICE BEES - 'SPECIALLY IF YOU FEEL SLEEPY AN' AWFUL TIRED FROM WALKIN' ALL DAY.

WHAT DO YOU THINK THIS IS, A FREE HOTEL FOR GYPSIES AND LOAFERS? GIT UP!!

I'LL HAVE THE LAW ON YOU - IT AIN'T FITTEN FOR LITTLE BEGGARS LIKE YOU TO BE RUNNIN' AROUND STEALIN' AN' BEGGIN'.

JUST ANOTHER UNINVITED GUEST WHO DOESN'T LIKE TO SEE A LITTLE LADY BEING INSULTED - WHO BE YOU?!

I'LL SHOW YOU WHO'S BOSS AROUND HERE!

LOOK OUT! HELL HURT YOU!

THAT'S WHAT HE THINKS!

MY GOODNESS GRACIOUS!

PARDON ME - I THOUGHT I WAS PLAYING BASKETBALL - I'M LEAVING TWO BUCKS TO PAY OUR HOTEL BILL. IF I EVER SEE YOU AGAIN, I'LL PRETEND I'M A PRIZE FIGHTER - GOOD-BYE NOW.

OH MY GOODNESSFUL... I THO'T HE LOOKED STRANGELY... THE ROOR OLE GENTLEMAN... OH DEAR OH DEAR OH DEAR

OH DEAR, I'D BETTER TELL OFFICER AUBONIFF THE P'LICEMAN

WHAT IS IT, MAX?

WE'D BETTER GET AN AMBULANCE. H-NO... I FEEL BETTER NOW. I'D JUST LIKE TO REST A BIT.

LITTLE MAX WANTS YOU TO REST IN HIS HOUSE. IT'S RIGHT HERE, IF YOU NEED ANY ASSISTANCE LATER, MAX CAN COME FOR ME.

THANK YOU.

HMM. THIS IS A VERY WELL KEPT HOME. MAY I REST A LITTLE WHILE, I'M A BIT DIZZY.

WHERE ARE YOUR FATHER AND MOTHER, LITTLE FELLOW? YOU DON'T LIVE HERE ALONE, DO YOU?

HE LOOKS 'SOLD AN' TIRE. I WILL ENDEAVOR TO MAKE HIM RILL COMPTABIL.

HA HA... I'VE NEVER SEEN ANYTHING SO CUTS. WONDER WHAT HE'S GOING TO DO NOW.

MHM YOU'RE WONDERFUL, LITTLE MAN. I BELIEVE I'M ACTUALLY REBAINING AN' APPETITE.

SUCH LUXURY, DINING IN BED, AND SUCH FOOD? DO YOU KNOW THIS IS BETTER THAN EATING AT... AHEM... I MEAN... A FAMOUS RESTAURANT.

HE IS SO PLATTERABIL. IT INBARRISSIS ME... I HEAR SUCH COMPLIMENTS ABOUT MY SIMPLE 'SOFLAY OF SWIRLAGG TIPS AN' WHIPPED EGGS'.

LATER

I MUST GO TO BIZNESS NOW. PLEASE STAY COMFORTABIL. I WILL BE BACK EARLY. YOU ARE A WELCOM GESS.

BLESS HIS HEART. I MUST HAVE FALLEN ASLEEP. HE'S UNBELIEVABLE. SO COMPLETELY UNLIKE MY GRANDCHILDREN.

AH... DO YOU THINK WE SHOULD NOTIFY THE POLICE THAT GRANDFATHAN IS GONE. HE AH... COULD CATCH PNEUMONIA... WANDERING IN THIS WEATHAH.

YOU IDIOT? NOTHING 'OF THE SORT.

REALLY COUSIN... I ALWAYS DOUBTED YOUR SANITY. I WAS RIGHT.

GRIN and BEAR IT

"It was owned by a lad who had his driver's license suspended on 11 different counts... need I say more?"

"Now here's a really good shot of the Grand Canyon, only Agnes got in the way..."

"You eat the food your mother prepared for you!... what do you think we got her for?!"

"Is drinking toast to comrade No. 1... may he have long life!! where else is possible to get such glorious wallpaper for free?"

TARZAN

by EDGAR RICE BURROUGHS

WITH LIGHTNINGLIKE AGILITY, HE LEAPED FROM THE POOL, AND SPED FOR THE TREES BEYOND

ANOTHER SHOT RANG OUT, PUCKING AND POPPING, THE APE-MAN LEAPED HIGH, AND DISAPPEARED INTO THE TREES

AS HE MOVED TO CIRCLE THE AREA WHERE THE SHOTS ORIGINATED, A HEARTY LAUGH RANG OUT. 'TARZAN... TARZAN!' A VOICE CALLED HOVERING LIKE A SHADOW ABOVE THE OWNER OF THE LAUGH, THE JUNGLE LORD SENT A NOOSE OF VINES...

...WHIZZING WITH DEADLY ACCURACY...

...AND THE MAN WENT SAILING THROUGH THE AIR, DANGLING HEAD OVER HEELS!

CASEY RUGGLES

by WARREN TUFES

EN ROUTE TO WASHINGTON TO PLEAD FOR CALIFORNIA STATEHOOD, RUGGLES IS BROUGHT DOWN FROM AMBUSH, BUT AS HE FALLS...

...HIS COLT FLASHES FROM HIS HOLSTER, SPITTING LEAD!...

...AND THE HAPLESS AMBUSHER LOSES HIS RIFLE AND HIS BALANCE!

YE'LL NEVER TAKE ME ALIVE, YE RING-TAILED LOY-EARED POLECAT...

AMBUSH ME, WILL YOU, YOU BUSH-WHACKING, PIANNO-SACK--

KIT! KIT! CARRON!

CASEY RUGGLES!

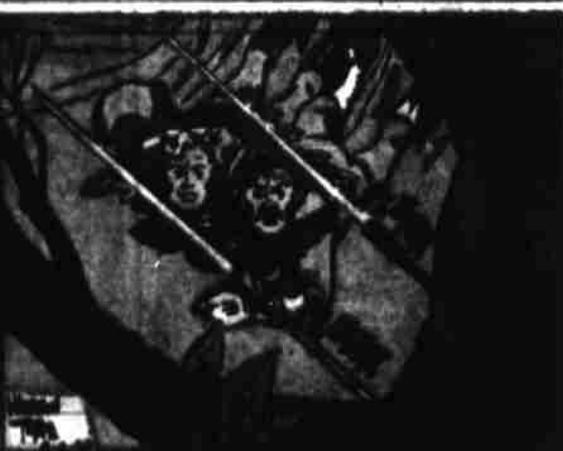

WHAT'S THE IDEA OF FIRING ON ME?! ...NOT THAT YOU COULD'VE HIT ME!

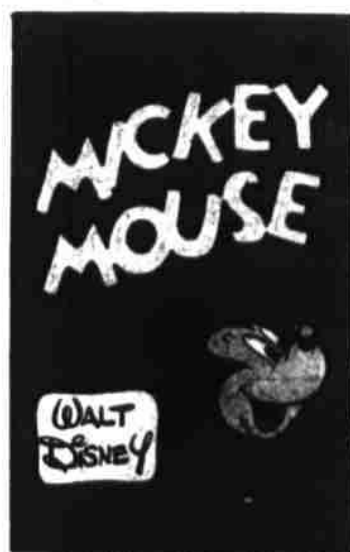

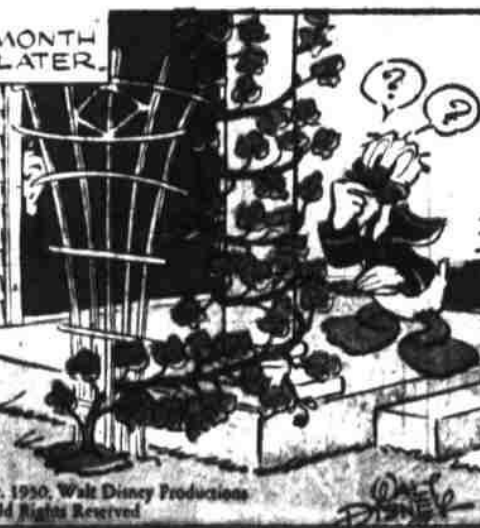

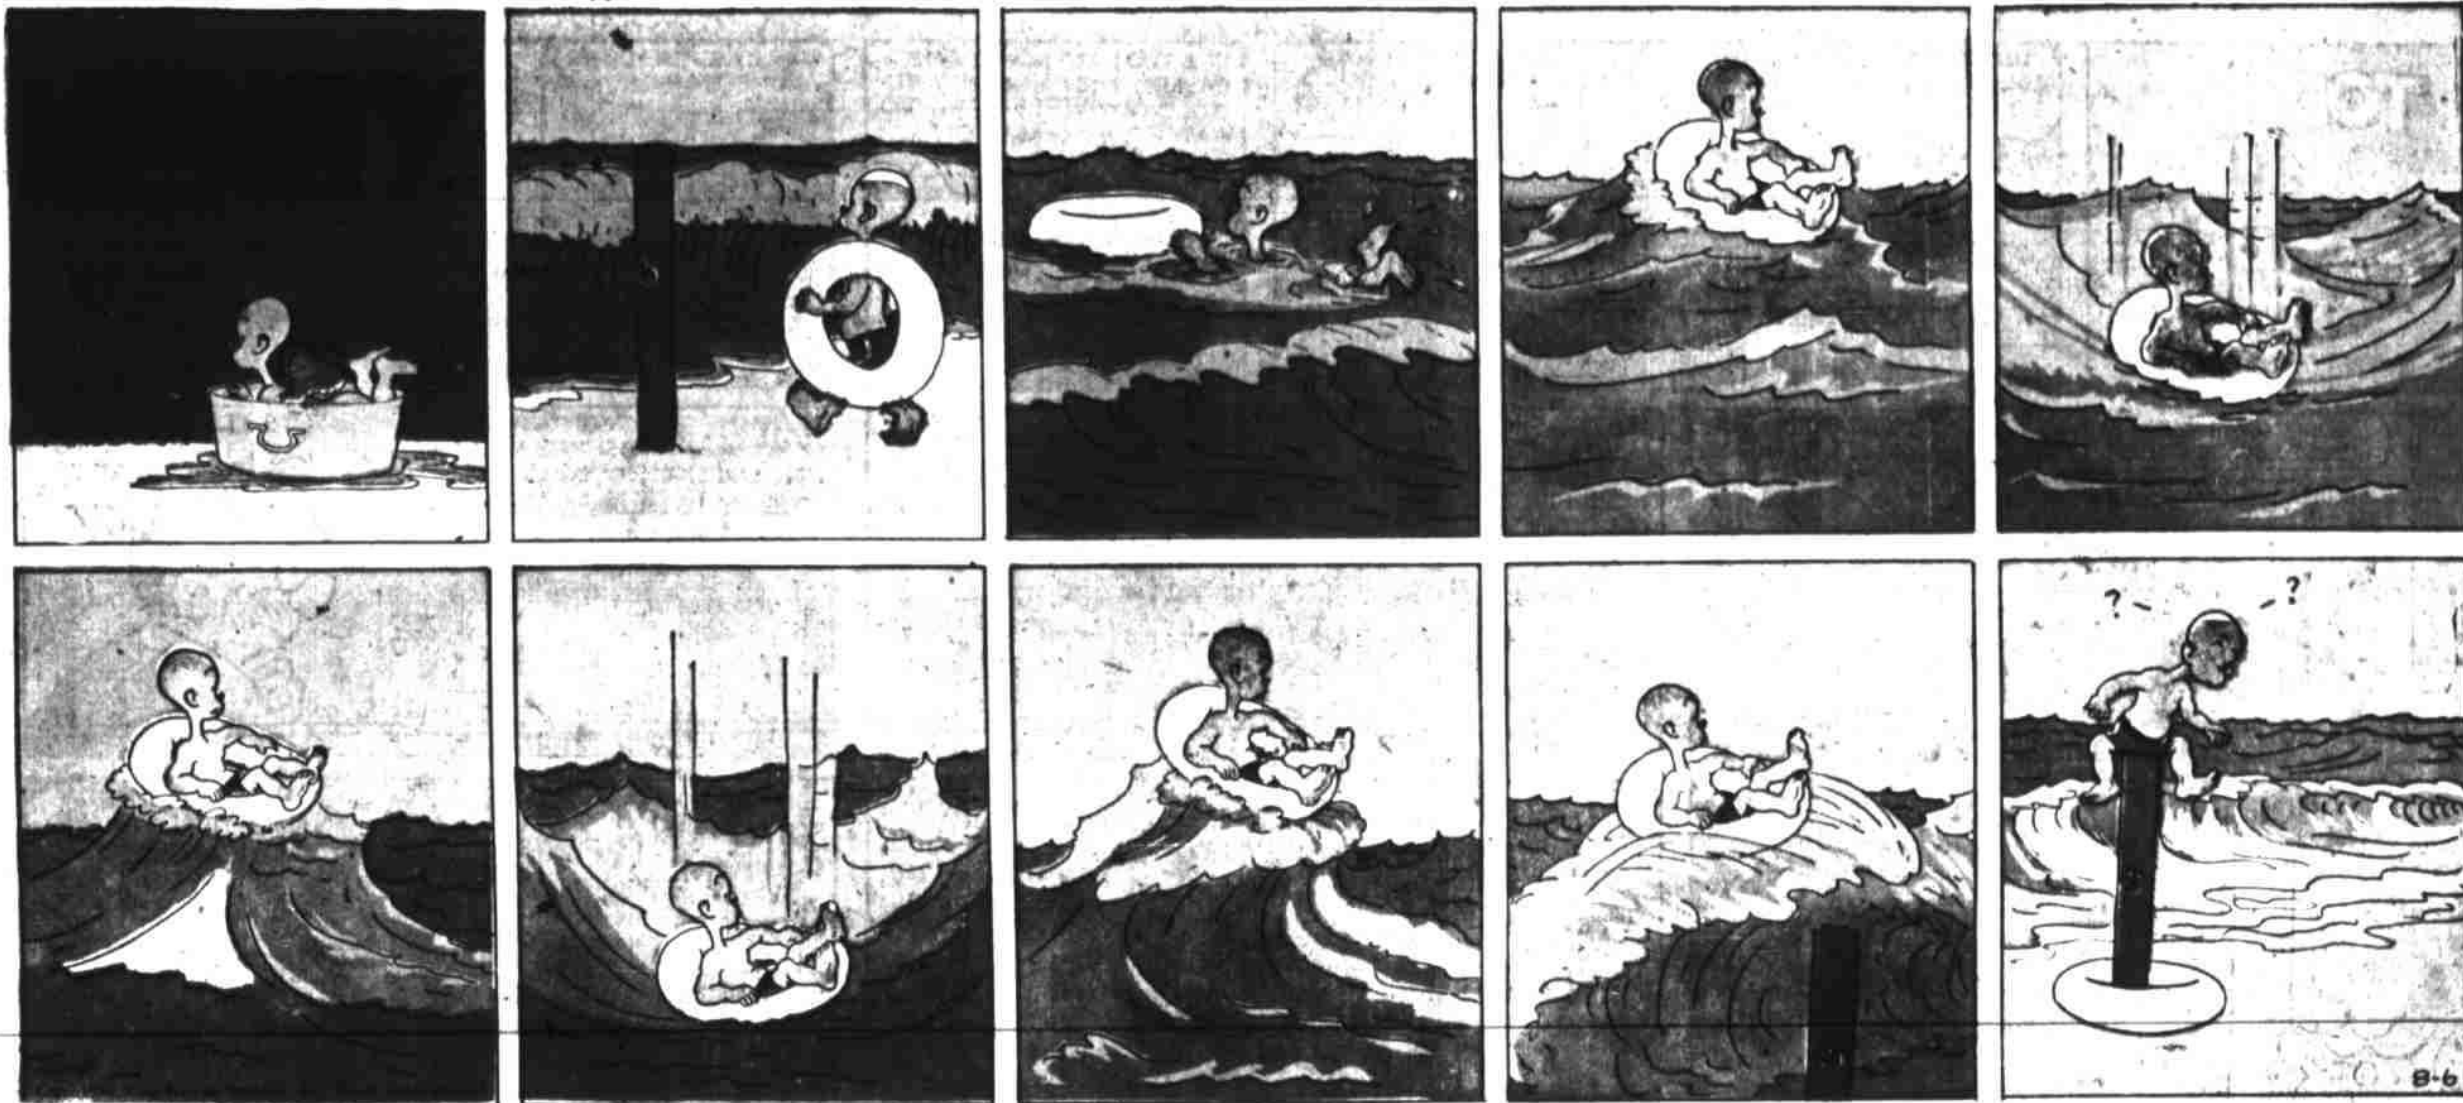

I FIGGERED SOME SHAKE WAS FOLLYIN' ME, AN', BY GUM, I SEE I WAS RIGHT! WHY, YOU YOUNG--

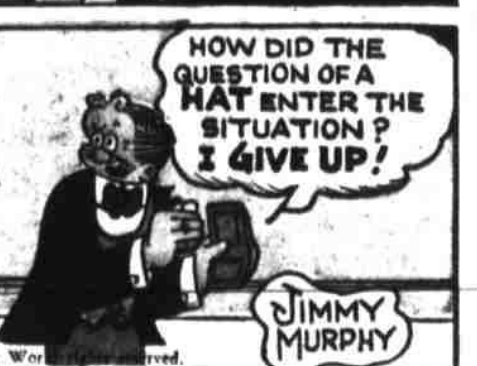

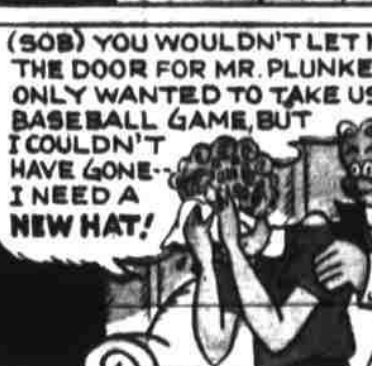

KIT, SINCE I WAS KNEE-HIGH TO A GRASSHOPPER I COULD THROW YOU-- AND I STILL CAN!

RUGGLES, THIS TIME YE'RE GONNA BAT DIRTY AND SAY UNCLE--

IN THE DAYS OF KING ARTHUR

By Harold R. Foster

Synopsis: ALETA LEFT THE PEACE CONFERENCE. ALL SHE WANTED WAS A HEALTHY, HAPPY PLACE IN WHICH TO BRING UP HER BABY AND HER QUIET WORDS WERE LIKE A WHIP LASH THAT STRIPPED AWAY THEIR ARROGANCE.

KING AGUAR CONCEALS A SMILE. HE KNOWS HIS ENEMIES ARE BLUSTERING BECAUSE THEY THINK HIS DEFENSES ARE WEAK. ALETA'S WORDS HAVE SHOWN THEM HOW DESPERATE IS THEIR POSITION.

HAP-ATLA'S WIFE, QUEEN JAN, IS NOW COMPLETELY UNDER ALETA'S SPELL AND READILY AGREES WHEN SHE SAYS: "COME INTO THE CASTLE AND SEE MY NEW GOWNS. WE WILL LEAVE THE CHILDREN HERE. YOU KNOW HOW FUSSY MEN ARE ABOUT THEIR HOSTAGES!"

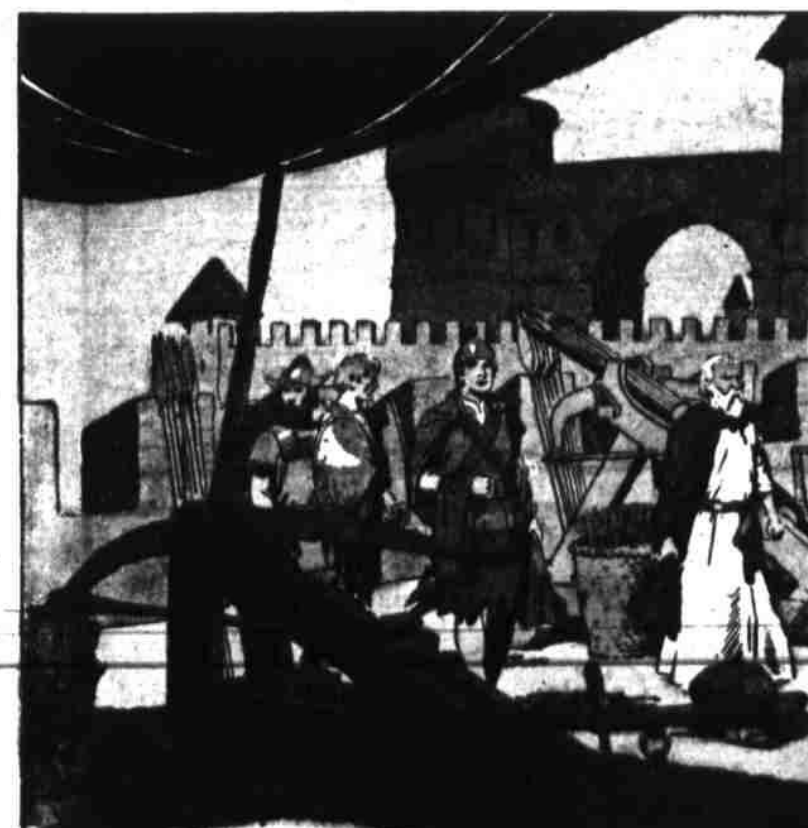

HAP-ATLA LOOKS UP IN TIME TO SEE THEM ENTER. LEAPING TO HIS FEET, HE SHOUTS "TREACHERY! QUEEN JAN HAS BEEN TAKEN PRISONER!"

KING AGUAR CHUCKLES:—"I WILL BE HOSTAGE FOR HER SAFE RETURN. BUT, IF YOU HAVE SUFFICIENT FOOLHARDY COURAGE TO MEDDLE IN WOMEN'S AFFAIRS, YOU MAY TAKE MY SEAL RING AND FOLLOW."

UNDER THE PROTECTION OF THE RING, HAP-ATLA ENTERS THE STRONGHOLD HE COULD NOT INVADE BY FORCE.

ONCE INSIDE, HE HAS A CHANCE TO NOTICE THAT, THOUGH NOT A SOLDIER IS TO BE SEEN, THE WAR-MACHINES ARE WELL-OILED, STACKS OF WEAPONS ABOUND AND THE RUSTLE AND MURMUR OF MANY MEN CAN BE HEARD.

HE IS LED TO THE LADY ALETA'S APARTMENTS INTO WHICH HE BURSTS ANGRILY AND STOPS. THERE IS AN INSTANT OF EMBARRASSED SILENCE. THEREAFTER, HE WISHES HE HAD PAID MORE HEED TO THE KING'S WARNING!

NEXT WEEK—The Cost of Peace.
